City-County Mutual Aid Agreements Illegal-Julian

LONGWOOD — The legality of mutual aid fire protection pacts between Seminole County and the county was challenged today by Acting City Atty. Ned Julian Jr. Reaffirming an earlier opinion given city council, Julian said that a proposed mutual aid agreement between Longwood and the county would be an improper expenditure of both city and county tax money and that the same holds true for the current agreements involving various Seminole County cities.

Merchants Differ On Ford Proposal

By DONNA ESTES Herald Staff Writer. Local merchants had mixed reactions today to President Gerald Ford's message to the American people Thursday night that they need not postpone purchases to fight inflation. "People are very much affected by these type comments, especially in times like this when money is hard to come by," Burger said.

Ford Advises Buying Now; Not Save To Fight Inflation

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — President Ford has assured Americans they need not postpone purchases to help fight inflation and that he will not seek wage and price controls or higher gasoline taxes. "People are watching their money and the stores with the best buys are getting the most business," Elsea said. He pointed to the "Farm-City" promotion sponsored by the Greater Sanford Chamber of Commerce for Nov. 26 and 27 where "fantastic bargains" will be available.

Education, Not Punishment-Salfi

By BILL BELLEVILLE Herald Staff Writer. The solution to overcrowded jails in Florida is not to build more jails. Nor is to probe or parole more people, or even to sentence them to shorter terms. The solution is to treat the problems of society by educating children and adults through different "solutions" to the problems of various sources. Salfi was motivated to express his own thoughts and feelings about overcrowding by recent news articles citing how to deal honestly with different "solutions" to the problems of various sources.

Receptionist Gets Ultimatum

TACOMA, Wash. (AP) — An 18-year-old receptionist fired from her city job for being overweight says a proposal that would restore her job also would make her ill.

Tracy Kay Natcher's boss, Melvin Jackson, director of the Human Development Department, says he would give her the job again if she loses 85 pounds by March 14.

"Sixty-five pounds in four months is not a very good diet," Mrs. Natcher said. "I'd just be sick. Under those conditions I'd have to say no."

Mrs. Natcher was fired when the city found her weight exceeded employment standards by 50 pounds.

Hoffa To Seek Post

DETROIT (AP) — Former Teamsters President James R. Hoffa says he will seek the nomination to lead his old Detroit Local 299.

Hoffa, who was barred from engaging in union activity until 1980 under terms of his parole on a jury-tampering conviction, said his nomination for the local presidency would not violate the parole ban.

He said he had overwhelming acceptance from the local membership to run for office unless U.S. Atty. Gen. William B. Saxbe rules otherwise. He added that in the meantime "my decision is I'm going to run."

Ease Pot Laws

WASHINGTON (AP) — A top White House official is about to come out publicly against treating pot smokers as criminals, government officials say. Sources said the official, Dr. Robert L. DuPont is director of the national Institute on Drug Abuse and heads the White House Special Action Office for Drug Abuse Prevention.

Gen. Brown Retained

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Ford says Gen. George S. Brown will remain as chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff despite Brown's "one mistake" in remarks about Jewish influence. But some administration officials say they believe Brown still could be in jeopardy if congressional attacks on the general grow significantly and persist when the House and Senate return next week.

Ford Sticks By Rocky; Dems Fault For Delay

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Ford has taken command of a Republican drive to blame the Democratic Congress for delaying Nelson A. Rockefeller's nomination as vice president.

The President said he ranks his choice of Rockefeller as the foremost achievement of his first 100 days in office. He said he could foresee no circumstances which would cause him to withdraw the nomination.

Ford's call to Congress to vote the nomination up or down by year's end coincided with a painstaking examination by the Senate Rules Committee of the two controversies that have contributed most to delaying confirmation.

The principal figure in one of these, former Supreme Court Justice Arthur J. Goldberg, refused to accept Rockefeller's apology for his long-concealed role in the financing of a critical Goldberg biography during a Rockefeller campaign against Goldberg. The panel today hears nine more witnesses explain their role in the complicated affair.

At a news conference in Phoenix, Ariz., Ford told the Society of Professional Journalists, Sigma Delta Chi, that he will ask Congress to insert deadlines into the 25th Amendment.

Senate Republican leader Hugh Scott of Pennsylvania took more than 15 minutes at one point to read excerpts from the original debate over the presidential succession amendment, which in dozens of congressmen said its chief advantage was the speed with which a cooperative Congress could fill a vacancy in the vice presidency.

Sen. Robert P. Griffin, R-Mich., the GOP whip, repeatedly expressed impatience at the delay which he said would cause Ford to leave the country on a trip to Southeast Asia next week without a vice president. "I've had and in office to mind the store."

"What bothers some members of the Democratic majority is not that Rockefeller is so unqualified that he would be a poor vice president," Griffin said. "They are bothered that he might be too good."

Miller Predicts UMW Okay Contract

WASHINGTON (AP) — United Mine Workers President Arnold Miller is trying to sell his union's 120,000 striking coal miners on the proposed new contract he spent nine weeks hammering out with the coal industry.

Miller began presenting the 175-page document to the UMW's 36-member bargaining council of executive board members and regional officers Thursday night. The council must approve the settlement before it can be presented to the union's rank-and-file, who since Tuesday have struck mines which produce 70 per cent of the nation's coal.

Miller and aides have been explaining the contract line by line to the council.

The UMW president has predicted that the package, which includes sizeable wage and benefit increases, would be ratified by the membership, possibly in time to end the nationwide walkout before Thanksgiving.

But there have been indications from the coal fields that some miners are less than enthusiastic over the package.

In southern West Virginia, where some union members have been traditionally skeptical of union leadership, miners have criticized the absence in the proposed contract of a right to strike over local issues.

They say this right is important to avoid federal court orders that were issued against local walkouts under the old contract. Organizers of a petition drive supporting a right-to-strike clause claim they have more than 3,000 signatures.

"I expect the contract to take effect. It must be ratified by a majority of the UMW membership. It is the first time in at least half a century that miners have had the right to vote on a new contract proposal."

Most criticism of the tentative contract has been directed at so-called noneconomic issues.

WORLD IN BRIEF

UN Power Block Seen

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — In another demonstration of Arab power at the United Nations, the General Assembly has blocked Israeli plans to counterattack the Palestine Liberation Organization with a major speech a day during the Palestine debate.

The assembly voted 75 to 23 with 18 abstentions Thursday to limit each country to one major speech during the Palestine debate, which runs for another week. This does not affect a country's "right of reply" to charges made against it, but this is customarily confined to 10 minutes at the end of the day's session.

It was the third consecutive day that the African, Asian and Communist members united behind the original debate over the presidential succession amendment, which in dozens of congressmen said its chief advantage was the speed with which a cooperative Congress could fill a vacancy in the vice presidency.

Sen. Robert P. Griffin, R-Mich., the GOP whip, repeatedly expressed impatience at the delay which he said would cause Ford to leave the country on a trip to Southeast Asia next week without a vice president. "I've had and in office to mind the store."

"What bothers some members of the Democratic majority is not that Rockefeller is so unqualified that he would be a poor vice president," Griffin said. "They are bothered that he might be too good."

Dollar At Record Low

ZURICH, Switzerland (AP) — The U.S. dollar hit a new low today on Swiss money markets as West Germany's refusal to hold the value of the mark down continued to trigger shock waves.

Shortly before noon, the dollar was bringing only 2.675 Swiss francs, well below the previous record low of 2.70 set July 9, 1973.

Gold, meanwhile, was selling at $189 an ounce on the Zurich bullion market, a dollar above Thursday's closing but two dollars under the record $191 an ounce reached at one point in London on Thursday.

The dollar began dropping on European markets after West German Chancellor Helmut Schmidt said in a statement Wednesday night that he is in favor of letting the value of the mark increase. He said this would help reduce his country's big foreign trade surplus and assist other members of the European Common Market with balance-of-payments problems.

Anti-U.S. Demonstrations

TOKYO (AP) — Elder statesman Eisaku Sato said today it's too late to think of postponing President Ford's visit to Japan. "We can't question whether the timing is good or bad," said the former prime minister and co-winner of the Nobel Peace Prize this year. "Ford's visit is already scheduled." Ford is to stay here Nov. 18-22. Leftist opposition to the visit took a violent form Thursday for the first time with a fire-bomb attack on the American and Soviet embassies, but the anti-American demonstrations have been negligible compared to the violence that forced cancellation of President Eisenhower's visit in 1960.

Shuffle Sign Of Detent

TOKYO (AP) — China promoted Chiao Kuan-hua, a leading internationalist, from deputy to foreign minister today in a move interpreted here as an advance for U.S. detente. The foreign ministry in Peking said the replacement of Chiao Peng-fei in the post was effective immediately and was a routine reorganization. But the change takes place 10 days before Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger's talk in Peking and amid reports that President Gerald Ford may be going to China soon. The switch, diplomats here said, could result from a desire by Premier Chou En-lai to intensify the dialogue with the United States to counter U.S.-Soviet detente.

Suspicion Poisons
Our National Life

We frequently find ourselves wondering if we as a nation fully appreciate the damage done by those events loosely lumped under the heading "Watergate."

The criminal activities of people in positions of public trust were, in themselves, horrifying. But we wonder if we fully comprehend the extent of the damage done our national self-esteem.

We saw some evidence of our crisis of confidence in the recent elections, although the economic picture did tend to cloud the outcome.
Still, it can hardly be a coincidence that not a single member of the House Judiciary Committee identified in the public mind as a defender of former President Nixon was returned to office.

It is entirely possible that factors other than Watergate were involved; perhaps these men, tarred by Watergate only in passing, were considered ineffectual representatives by their constituents. Maybe their campaigns were underfinanced and, possibly, the voters simply decided that they were lesser men than their opponents. And there is always the possibility that these particular races were decided on local issues having absolutely nothing to do with Watergate.

But it is hard to escape the feeling that the voters simply turned on men guilty of nothing worse than defending the honesty and honor of a man in whom they had placed their trust.

So they, too, became victims of this growing feeling that no man is to be trusted, and the higher the office the lower the trust.

This came to mind the other day when Judge John Sirica named a three man panel to fly to California to confirm the medical opinion of a colleague, Dr. John Lungren, the former president's personal physician. Dr. Lungren has been pessimistic from the start about the possibility of former President Nixon testifying at the trial of some of his former aides. There was a time in the not-so-distant-past that the formation of a such a body would have been unthinkable.

Today the unthinkable has become very thinkable, indeed.

This same sense of you-can't-trust-anyone seems to be behind a good deal of the trouble the Congress is having making up its mind on the qualifications of Nelson A. Rockefeller to be vice president.

Mr. Rockefeller's great wealth has become, in effect, and altbass after being his good right arm for so many years. Mr. Rockefeller made a series of loans and gifts to former and present friends who also happened to be public officials and this, somehow, seems ugly given today's political climate.

In another age another climate Mr. Rockefeller's generosity would most certainly be hailed as an object lesson for other men of great wealth. Today he is all but being accused of bribing public officials.

We hold no brief for or against Mr. Rockefeller, but when one considers the manner in which vice presidential candidates are usually selected (in-smoke-filled rooms by power brokers)—and one of them always wins—the Congress may be getting carried away in its search for wars on the man's character. President Ford nominated the man for vice president and is therefore responsible for any "skeletons" that may be rattling around in his background, just as Sen. George McGovern took the rap for his selection of Sen. Thomas Eagleton and the President's wishes should be respected in this matter.

Everything considered — Mr. Rockefeller has been in public life for half-a-century—the thought that debate on his nomination may well carry over into the new year strikes us as unnecessary and unfair.

GAO Finds New Watergate Coverup

WASHINGTON — The Watergate coverup continued in at least one instance after President Nixon left the White House.

President Ford's associate counsel, Dudley Chapman, allegedly tried to conceal the fact that a secret White House fund was used to pay government aides to serve as "advance men" during the 1972 campaign.

Chapman informed government auditors that the fund belonged not to the White House but to the Republican National Committee and the Nixon campaign committee.

This has been disputed by the General Accounting Office, which has just concluded a secret investigation. "Contrary to Mr. Chapman's statement," the GAO found, the fund
"was a White House account."

The failure to disclose the existence of such a political fund in the White House until two years after the campaign period, charged the GAO,
"appears to constitute a violation of the act."

The case has been referred to Attorney General William French Smith for action.

The secret fund, listed on the books as "The White House Subsidiary Account," was opened in October 1970. Since 1971, its treasurer has been Wilbur Jenkins, the chief White House administrative officer, a career employee, who confessed to GAO accountants that he "made bank deposits for the subsidiary account and signed the checks."

But Jenkins apparently was the fall guy for Nixon aides who really controlled the fund. He told the GAO auditors that Bruce Kehrl, then the White House staff secretary and later a minor Watergate figure, "approved and directed all such transactions."

Exactly how the fund was manipulated is still a mystery. It was used to pay the political expenses of Nixon "advance men," including lunches and cocktail parties that they arranged for political purposes.

We have learned that at least $100,000 in cash was slipped into the fund by Nixon campaign treasurer Hugh Sloan, who delivered the money secretly to Kehrl.

But this didn't cover all the political expenditures, so some of the taxpayers' money apparently was spent on the campaign. After the Watergate case broke, a second secret $5,000 was siphoned from campaign coffers into the fund
"reimbursement to White House — Campaign Expenses."

The existence of the White House fund remained a secret until March 1974, when a

DON OAKLEY
Waste Way
Of Life
In U.S.

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — When I was an Army lieutenant, assigned one day to the rifle range, my platoon ended the training exercise with thousands of pounds of leftover ammunition. I ordered it loaded on the trucks to be returned to stock, but my sergeant begged a reconsideration.

"If we take it back," he said, "we'll have to inventory it, that means paper work and that means late hours. Let's just shoot it up." And so we did, several hundred dollars worth, banging, into a soil bank behind the targets.

No telling how many millions or billions of rounds have been similarly wasted by other idiot lieutenants and sergeants, but assuredly the number is large. One of the lessons of service daily is that conservation is a pain in the butt.
Extravagance, on the other hand, is encouraged with rewards by the system.

And so it is also in the society at large. To some measure anyway. The nation has enjoyed prosperity for so long, prosperity meaning the rapid turnover of market goods, that frugality has taken on a comical connotation.

Indeed, so insistent is the social leadership concerning waste, it has developed the mechanics of built-in obsolescence: it is far less expensive in the long run, as auto salesmen find it in explaining, to purchase a car every two years and forego the need to shell out for repairs on "older" models.

Now it's painfully apparent the hens of our immorality have come home to roost. Suddenly, with shortages everywhere, conservancy is the vogue. Gerald Ford reminds us that many nations of the world could go fat off our garbage alone. Yet for all the emergency emphasis, the thousands of prudent suggestions mailed to the White House, the revelation by the lady of household administration that the too is "rubbing, soap bars to teeny-weezy pieces," the effort remains blocked by national habit and policy.

Banks, as example, are forced by U.S. law to deduct the thrifty and pay the wastrels. If a citizen takes out a $1,000 loan, he is allowed to deduct the interest on the debt from his tax return; if he puts $1,000 in savings, however, he must forfeit part of the interest earnings to the IRS. It is not the lesson here clear? You cannot promote prosperity, as Lincoln said, by discouraging thrift.

Other illustrations of such insanity abound.
Power companies promote waste by reducing rates for bulk consumption. The man who insulates his home to conserve fuel is socked with higher taxes on an improved dwelling. The single individual who eats less than the large economy size pays more for smaller quantities.

Letter To The Editor

I should like to commend the operation of the Seminole County Dog Pound under the direction of Mr. Fillinger.

Unwanted, neglected, sick and abandoned animals is one of the saddest conditions in our society and thanks to the Seminole County Dog Pound these poor creatures are not left to starve to death or die violently in traffic.

The facility for keeping the unwanted pets in a large well built kennel with shelter and runs for each animal. The cages are extremely well kept and the dogs well attended to. Mr. Fillinger has instituted humane extermination techniques for those dogs not claimed and is not hasty to put any dog to sleep if there is a chance for an adoption.

I know that there must be many people desiring pets who may not be aware of the great variety that awaits them at the Pound, from Bird dogs, English Sheep dogs to Terriers and day old puppies, nor aware of the fact that there is NO CHARGE for an adoption. A concerned friend

Around
The Clock
By JOHN A. SPOLSKI

Talk about asinine laws, this one gets a capital A.
Look, if you had to drive from Boston to Albany, New York, you wouldn't go through New York City cause it's 190 miles out of the way.
However, that's what the Interstate Commerce Commission makes trucks do. It's a policy called Gateways, areas the ICC says trucks must pass through to deliver their goods.
Because of this rule, which the ICC refuses to change, trucks use twice as much fuel and create twice the pollution.
Scientists have proven that Gateways make trucks waste 490 million gallons of fuel a year.
A petition was presented to the ICC to let the drivers take the direct route between the two cities.
It wasn't a new-fangled environmental idea. The Greek philosopher Euclid thought of it 2,000 years ago. He said, "The shortest distance between two points is a straight line."
Don't you think that if the President was really serious about saving fuel that he and his staff would consider making a change in this policy?

DR. L. E. LAMB Crohn's Disease Hits Intestines

DEAR DR. LAMB — I am very anxious to find out as much as I can about Crohn's disease. My daughter has this and there is very little information about it.

DEAR READER — Fortunately this is a fairly rare disease. It is common enough, though, that President Eisenhower had it for many years before he was operated upon during his Presidency.

The common form is an inflammation of the terminal region of the small intestine where it joins the colon in the lower right part of the abdomen.

It is important to use a substitute for calcium and protein (try one of the nonmilk products used for babies). Don't get over tired.

Franco's 'Instant' Justice Praised

CASE B-495: Dr. Harlan is one of America's most famous surgeons.

"Dr. Harlan," he told me recently, "my wife and I made a trip to Spain during the summer."

"We were accompanied by another couple, who wanted to indulge in a shopping trip one evening."

"Well, about halfway up the hill, I saw a nice new bank building, with a well-dressed official sitting at his desk."

"I begged off from the shopping, and let my wife accompany the other couple."

"Here in Spain," he began, "we were overrun with thieves and robbers, till business was at a standstill."

"Finally, a group of the large landowners and businessmen held a secret meeting to decide what could be done."

"One of the crime wave I read about in America, maybe you better imitate our 'instant justice' method!"

Commissioners Receive Study's Results Today

By BILL BELLEVILLE Herald Staff Writer

Seminole county commissioners are in Atlanta today to hear the results of a management study of the county government conducted by Public Research and Management, Inc.

The Atlanta firm has been in Sanford for the last six weeks talking to department heads and studying county laws in an effort to evaluate the role of the county commission in county government.

The firm chose to make the presentation in Atlanta at its expense, because the full resources of its staff and visual aids are available there.

The commissioners, who left by separate planes this morning to avoid the possibility of a catastrophe that might wipe out the entire board — will return to Sanford this evening.

Thursday night at a special meeting, the board routinely approved a "Public Officials Bond" for newly-elected county commissioner Harry Kwaikowski and re-elected commissioner John Kimbrough.

The bond must be endorsed by the board and sent to the Governor for his approval. The two commissioners will officially begin serving their terms next Tuesday.

Also last night, the board approved a request by Joseph Goodwin of 1907 West Citrus Drive in Altamonte Springs, to vacate and abandon a short strip of utility easement in his back yard.

The now defunct Southern Atlantic Pool company had begun excavating ground in Goodwin's yard for a pool last summer, but construction stopped when it was discovered the firm had no county building permit.

Family Murders Charged To Son

HAUPPAUGE, N.Y. (AP) — The son of an auto service manager was arrested and charged with fatally shooting his father, mother, and four brothers and sisters while they slept in their expensive Long Island home.

Ronald DeFoe Jr., 23, was booked Thursday night at police headquarters here on six counts of second-degree murder.

Suffolk County Deputy Police Commissioner Robert C. Rapp said all six victims were shot from close range as they slept in their bedrooms of the family's $75,000 house in Amityville, N.Y.

The murder weapon was not found. However, police said "certain items of physical evidence" were linked to the defendant and had been recovered.

State Revenue Down; Effects Probed

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) — State fiscal experts on the Revenue Estimating Conference were summoned to a meeting today to examine the effects of decreasing state revenue from normal because of tax collections for the first four months of the fiscal year "are not what we expected."

Revenue Director Ed Straughn said Thursday that October was the first month he could remember in the 25 years of the sales-tax program in which collections were less than the same month a year earlier.

Other tax collections also declined. Gasoline taxes were off 2.3 per cent for the four months at $109.6 million and documentary stamp-tax collections, which show real estate transactions, were off 21.9 per cent to $24.5 million.

When coupled with inflation of more than 10 per cent and the population growth, the figures show a sharp decline in business. Straughn said the significant figure was not the one-month drop but the continued slide of the percentage of increase in sales-tax collections since July 1. They were up 7.2 per cent in July.

State officials blamed most of the decline in earlier months on lower auto sales. Henderson said he expected that was still the case, but such an analysis was the purpose of today's meeting.

The conference will submit a report to Askew. Askew, meanwhile, told Southern leaders at a growth conference in Atlanta Thursday that state governments are facing problems because of a rapidly deteriorating economic situation.

Teacher Groups Battling

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) — Two groups are making further preparations for their battle over who will represent teachers in collective bargaining.

The Florida United Service Association, new state affiliate of the National Education Association, announced that Louise M. Taylor, a teacher who served on the Brevard County School Board, had been named government relations coordinator.

The Florida Education Association, which was booted out of the NEA, said it was renewing attempts at unity with the Florida American Federation of Teachers, cutting down the voting for collective bargaining rights to two instead of three groups.

But Mrs. Taylor denied there was even a battle. "As we show we can produce statewide, and after the results of the next legislature, there will be no question that teachers will affiliate with our organization," she said.

Those who believe in being professional teachers and staying in the classroom already are affiliating, with FUSA, Mrs. Taylor said.

She said 26,000 teachers had joined the new organization, and that none of them are allowed membership in the FEA.

FEA has 30,000 members who can belong to any other organization they want to, said Peter Boespflug, organization spokesman.

Florida has 70,000 teachers. Mrs. Taylor said her main role would be to help local associations develop programs and present them to the legislature.

The programs include teaching conditions, consumer protection, election reform and revision of the collective bargaining law for public employees, effective Jan. 1, she said.

World Food Aid Request Denied

ROME (AP) — The Ford administration has turned down a request by the U.S. delegation to the World Food Conference for an immediate increase in food aid of one million tons, a White House official reported today.

Anne L. Armstrong, counselor to President Ford and third-ranking member of the U.S. delegation to the conference, told a newsmen the decision was relayed to delegation members at its morning briefing.

At the urging of Democratic congressional leaders here for the conference, Agriculture Secretary Earl L. Butz sent the request to Ford asking that U.S. food aid be nearly doubled.

Many participants in the conference were already disappointed because the meeting has done nothing concrete toward countering starvation this year.

But others said it is taking significant steps against hunger in the future.

Mrs. Armstrong said the White House "stands by the original decision which had been gone over and over and over before the conference."

Shootout Suspect Seeks Dismissal Of Charges

A motion has been filed in circuit court at Sanford seeking dismissal of charges against a suspect in the attempted robbery-shootout Nov. 1 at the Altamonte Springs A & P store.

Defense attorney Newman Ereck, representing Mrs. Dean Parrish, 33, Lyons, Ga., also known as Nadene McPier, filed the motion to dismiss charges Thursday contending the Seminole County Grand Jury's Nov. 5 indictment is technically defective because it failed to designate the indictment as "a true bill."

Legal sources said today if the court grants the motion the state could seek re-indictment of Mrs. Parrish.

Mrs. Parrish, Robert Dennis Phillips, 28, Vidalia, Ga., and Dorothy L. Kitteringham, were indicted on charges of murder, attempted murder, attempted robbery, use of a firearm in commission of a felony, shooting upon an occupied building and unauthorized use of a motor vehicle.

Parrish and Phillips are being held without bond in the Seminole and Orange County jails. Circuit Court trials for the pair have been scheduled for the week of Dec. 9.

State Atty. Abbott Herring's office said today that Kitteringham, of south Georgia, has not been located and that the FBI was asked Thursday to enter the search for the fugitive.

Charles Hobbs, of Atlanta, was killed in a brief gunbattle with the police in the food store at SR 436 and 14. Altamonte Springs police Lt. Steve Garver, wounded in the gunbattle, is recuperating at home.

DEAR ABBY Hubby Should Nix Score-Keeping

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I am 44 and Louie (my husband) is 49. I work in a laundry ten hours a day, and when night time comes I need rest. Louie still acts like a teen-ager when it comes to sex. He can't get enough.

On weekends if we go for a drive in the country, Louie starts looking for an abandoned farmhouse or a secluded road. When we go for a walk in the woods, Louie looks for some bushes for us to crawl under. (We were nearly caught several times.)

I got so tired of being humbled for sex, I made Louie ask our family doctor how much sex was normal for people our age. The doc said three times a week was normal, so now Louie keeps a record. If it's less than three times a week, he says I owe him, and he adds it on to the next week.

I am falling behind, and dread the thought of going on a vacation trip with this man. Any suggestions?

TIED

DEAR TIED: The time for sex is when BOTH partners are agreeable. Louie shouldn't feel that he's entitled to a certain number of encounters and you shouldn't be made to feel that you "owe" it to him. Tell him to quit keeping score—you'll tell him when you're ready.

DEAR ABBY: Please tell me what to do with a 10-year-old boy who is such a coward he lets every kid in the neighborhood (some younger and smaller than he is) pick on him and boss him around. He won't stand up for his rights. In fact, he will run away from a fight rather than try to defend himself.

My husband and I have scolded him and even punished him, but it hasn't done any good. How can we get him to change? He's not stupid. He loves sports, except boxing and wrestling. Or are some kids born to run from a fight?

ASHAMED

DEAR ASHAMED: What's so great about exchanging punches? There is a lot to be said for avoiding physical combat, so don't scold or punish your son if he chooses to go the nonviolent route.

DEAR ABBY: This is for "DOOMED," who wanted a big wedding but didn't know if his parents should help her parents foot the bill because of tradition.

I am getting married next month, and when my fiancé and I became engaged, his parents offered to split the bills straight down the middle. They figured that their son is also getting married, and they should help pay for the wedding.

This has helped my parents immensely, now we can have the big wedding we've both always dreamed of.

DEAR HAPPY: I'm happy too. Happy that someone has had the courage to break with tradition in the interest of fairness and common sense. Maybe you'll start a new tradition. I hope so.

Problems? You'll feel better if you get it off your chest. For a personal reply, write to ABBY, Box No. 89700, L.A., Calif. 90069. Enclose stamped, self-addressed envelope, please.

From January to April you might find an opportunity to visit Clearwater's famous Kapok tree while it is in bloom, advised the Central Circle of Sanford Garden Clubs. A mile north of Highway 60 and a few miles east of Clearwater on Slate Road 563, it's easy to find. As many as 3,000 people have visited it in a single day. At blooming time, great salmon-colored flowers spread in a display that can be seen for miles, and carpet the ground with as many as 25 bushes of blooms a day.

The tree is huge—46 feet around the base, 135 feet high, with a limb spread of 150 feet. The story is that seven seeds were brought from Brazil by medical missionaries in 1888. Only two germinated. One was this tree, and the other a Javanese Kapok, with pink blossoms, which produces the Kapok fibre used in pillows, upholstery, and life preservers. Botanists estimate there are 54 different varieties of kapok growing throughout the world, some of them in huge plantations in Indonesia. You can grow vegetables wherever weeds will grow. This means fertile soil that is easily worked, but not too wet ground. Our Florida sand can be made palatable to vegetable crops by the generous addition of organic materials such as humus or compost. It is important to plant things your family will and not more than will eat. If vegetables are planted a few at a time at intervals during the planting season, the harvest comes in successive amounts rather than all at once.

Lady bugs eat aphids so when you are spraying the aphids on tender new growth of annuals and vegetables recently planted watch out for ladybugs and skip them as you take aim at the aphids.

If you can't identify aphids for sure, take a hand magnifying glass and look for fat, pear-shaped creatures crawling about on six legs. They may be black, pink, red or yellow, but our most recent infestation was pale black. A mature ladybug can eat 50 aphids a day, and her eyesight and contact are better than yours.

The Jacaranda Circle of the Garden Club of Sanford has selected the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Ross, 600 28th St., Sanford, as its Garden of the Month. The award is made each month by different Garden Club Circles to outstanding gardens in the Sanford area.

Great Shopping Promised At Garden Club Bazaar

The Garden Club of Sanford presents its annual Table Show and Holiday Bazaar at the garden center on U.S. 17-92 and Fairmont Avenue, Sanford, from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Thursday through Saturday. Sandwiches, desserts, coffee and tea will be available for busy shoppers.

The Table Show exhibits the Garden Club members' artistic flair for festive eating. All visitors are invited to compare their viewpoints with the judges in their selection of the winning table.

"The Elegant Non-conformist" is the title of one table designed for an afternoon tea. "The Slide of the Hand Artist" invokes curiosity to the decor for a refreshment table designed for an impromptu affair after the game. A breakfast table called "Top O' the Morning" is a cheerful way to start the day. The table labeled "Precious Beauty, Unprecious stones" is an unusually artistic table for an imaginative luncheon. "Midnight Gypsies" and "Swing Your Partner" are tables designed for gay buffets.

The small tables for capsule setting are especially provocative. "Potentate Pleasure" is done in Oriental design; "Davies Locker" is for a seafood supper; "Sports Arena" is for a sportsman's lunch; and "Highway to the Stars" and "Day at Disney World" can be used in many different settings. "A Craft-man's Dream" has been designed with all handmade items. The Junior Gardeners have decorated a table with the theme, "Love is Collecting Things." It is designed for a get-together for neighborhood kids to show off their handmade crafts. The Junior Gardeners are children from first through sixth grades. They have also made crafts to sell and the funds from these articles will go into their own club.

Patriots, Lions In Big One; Lyman?

By PETE ROGERS Herald Sports Editor Of the three Seminole County games on tap tonight, each contest has a different meaning as Lyman faces an impossible task against powerful Oak Ridge; Lake Brantley and Oviedo square off with the winner probably emerging as the best team in the county, and Seminole actually being the favorite in a Homecoming and Stadium Dedication game against a weak Daytona Seabreeze team.

LAKE BRANTLEY AT OVIEDO DAYTONA SEABREEZE AT SEMINOLE ALL GAMES 8 P.M.

OVIEDO'S CLIFF RANDO

BRANTLEY'S DAVID ARNETT

Lyman Head Coach Dick Cleland is friends with Paul Adams, who happens to work in a similar capacity at Oak Ridge but unfortunately for the Greyhounds coach, that relationship will be interrupted at kickoff as the mighty Pioneers go about their business in quest of the state-4-A title.

After their narrow escape over Winter Park last week the pioneers may be down against Lyman, who have been struggling with a 3-5 record to date. But don't count on it as a win tonight will clinch the Metro title for Oak Ridge.

Lyman comes off a big win against Seminole last week, in which they scored their first points in three games.

The Greyhounds have the task of facing not only a powerful Oak Ridge tonight, but must face the equally talented Winter Park next week in its season finale.

LAKE BRANTLEY AT OVIEDO No doubt the most interesting and most important game of the night, as the winner emerges with the best record in the county and a possible berth in the first annual Rotary Bowl at the Lyman Field, Dec. 6.

Both teams have compiled 5-3 records to date, with Brantley finishing with Seminole in two weeks while Oviedo travels to New Smyrna Beach for its season finale.

Brantley's rise is in 19th place with 60 points, in the scoring parade. DAYTONA SEABREEZE AT SEMINOLE Seminole would love a victory with Homecoming activities at halftime. TONIGHT GAMES OAK RIDGE AT LYMAN

Iowa Into Lions Den Against Ohio State

NEW YORK (AP) - Woody Hayes, gracious as ever, was the telephone guest at Iowa's weekly Tuesday press luncheon hosted by Coach Bob Comings.

The Ohio State coach was brief ... and to the point. "This is Coach Hayes and I have a statement - we'll be there Saturday."

Click! This, Comings got the message - as if he didn't already know it - that Hayes still was fuming over Saturday's controversial 16-13 loss to Michigan State.

"I wish Michigan State hadn't beaten them," Comings said. "The Buckeyes have to do a job on us this week for their game with Michigan to mean anything. We've got to be prepared to meet a very angry football team."

And a very angry coach. Ohio State ... 42-7.

Last week's score was 47 right - including the Upset Special - Georgia over Florida - 18 wrong and one tie for 723. For the season, the scoreboard reads 581-162-15-721.

Upset Special of the Week ... Indiana 21, Michigan State 20. Spartans have nowhere to go but down after that thriller with Ohio State.

Second Upset Special ... Cincinnati 14, Miami of Ohio 10; Nation's second longest unbeaten streak comes to an end at 21 games.

Oklahoma 34, Kansas 7; Sooners want to hold that No. 1 ranking, but they better not be looking ahead to Nebraska.

Notre Dame 27, Pitt 14; Irish remember how Tony Dorsett ran wild against them last year. Alabama 35, Miami, Fla. 0; Crimson Tide hasn't allowed a touchdown in three games.

Michigan 28, Purdue 7; Bring on Ohio State!

Nebraska 41, Kansas State 6; Bring on Oklahoma! Auburn 17, Georgia 14; Bring on Alabama!

Southern California 42, Washington 14; Trojans pick up where Cal left off. Florida 21, Kentucky 14; If Sonny Collins were available it might have a different ending.

Texas A&M 24, Rice 10; Last week's loss to SMU and last year's loss to Rice were bad Aggie jokes. Maryland 30, Duke 15; Duke finds Maryland a pearl in the Oyster Bowl.

Houston 38, Memphis State 7; Bubba McGallion has solved the Cougars' quarterback woes. Arizona State 31, North Carolina State 31; Defense? What's that!

Oklahoma State 24, Colorado 17; Cowboy fiesta en route to the Fiesta Bowl. California 35, Washington State 21; How about matching Cal and Oklahoma in the Pro-bation Bowl? Baylor 24, Texas Tech 21; Bear fever has got us, too.

Gators Face Cats Without Sonny

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP)—"We're getting ourselves ready, not only the backs, but the whole team," says Bill Bartos, who has been tapped to replace University of Kentucky star running back Sonny Collins in Saturday's game against the University of Florida in Lexington.

Collins was a big one for them, but Kentucky still has some of the best offensive players in the league," the Florida coach notes.

"When you see the rushing average of their backs, you know the offensive line is getting something done," he adds.

Florida has no serious injuries although quarterback Don Gaffney has a leg bruise.

Tavarez runner Darren Shippy, 17, felt ground all evening as Howell's Tony Cacciapiuoti 53, and Donnie Barton 41 stop play. (Herald photos by Carl Geiger)

Blazers Win With Kick

ANAHEIM (AP)—It's been a season of difficulties for the World Football League in its first year. Just ask the Florida Blazers.

Money troubles have afflicted the new league and with one of the conference's most publicized problems, Blazers players are not being paid in 11 weeks.

But with a promise of new owners and new money, the players decided to travel west for the final game of the WFL's regular season, a meeting between the Eastern Division champion Blazers and the Southern California Sun, the winner in the Western Division.

Blazers' only score in the second half was Dave Strock's 25-yard field goal to win the game as the Sun, trailing by 17 points at halftime, came back with 14 points in the final quarter.

Southern California tied the score on a desperation play with a 22-yard field goal in the fourth quarter.

Florida got two touchdowns on passes by Bob Davis to Tom Rubeys and a 26-yard field goal by Dave Strock.

Lake Howell Rocks 73-0

By LEE GEIGER Herald Correspondent

OVIDEO—The final game of Lake Howell High School's football season turned out to be a "laugher" as the Silver Hawks demolished the Tavares Bulldogs junior varsity, Thursday, 73-0.

The rout began shortly after the opening kickoff. The Hawks put the ball in play at their own 48 and it only took four plays to push the ball over the goal line.

The first play from scrimmage was good for 23 yards as Andy Holton blasted through a gaping hole in the Bulldog's defense.

After Holton picked up eight and Don Schrenk got another first down with a carry of five, Don Adriano scamped the remaining 12 yards to put the Hawks ahead for good.

Jim Pritchard's P.A.T. was perfect, then the Bulldogs fumbled the ensuing kickoff and the Hawks went back to work from mid-field.

Seven plays and three minutes later Holton went off tackle for 12 yards and Lake Howell's second T.D.

Families Train To Live In Iran

LOS ANGELES (AP)—What do you do when your landlord sacrifices a lamb in front of your apartment?

Those responses would be fitting enough in the United States. But they weren't appropriate for the newly-arrived American family who had just happened to be in Shiraz, Iran.

It turned out that the landlord had fallen from a secondary balcony the day before and had suffered only a broken nose.

On seven different occasions the scraggy Bulldog made outstanding stops saving the final score from being even worse than it was.

The visitors were unable to move on from Hawk Stadium, forcing the Bulldog Head Coach, Charles Dambrose, to go into some of the strangest formations seen in years on a football field.

The idea was a good one but, unfortunately for South's purposes, East played his jack of hearts and the hand collapsed.

If South let it hold East would be in to cash the rest of the diamonds. If South won the trick, he could establish the hearts but have no way to get back to his hand to score tricks with them.

Incidentally, a five-club contract played by North would have been a good one. It would fail because East was sure of two club tricks but all good contracts don't make.

Miners Are Unhappy; New Contract In Doubt

GOOD THINGS COME IN PAIRS Seminole High School alumni and fans were doubly blessed Friday night. Not only were dual Homecoming Queens crowned at halftime but the home team rallied for two touchdowns and a field goal and their second win of the season. The Queens and escorts, from left, Dede Mendoza and Joe Jenkins, Karena Bracey and Michael Ashford. Details, photos of game action, page 1B.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Regional leaders of the United Mine Workers have balked at a proposed new contract, assuring that the nationwide coal strike will extend into a third week and force additional layoffs.

The union's 38-member bargaining council possibly will seek a reopening of negotiations on the tentative agreement. That agreement took 2½ months to hammer out and raised hopes for ending the strike after two weeks.

However, earlier in the day, Guy Farmer, the chief industry negotiator, said the coal companies "are not open to renegotiating the agreement." He said the proposed contract represents the industry's "final offer."

The union's 38-member bargaining council held a memorial service at UMW headquarters and then adjourned until after the funeral Tuesday for the slain official, Sam Littlefield, 54, of Bessemer, Ala.

A UMW spokesman said the bargaining council would return here Wednesday to decide whether to endorse the tentative agreement with the mine owners or recommend that union officers return to the bargaining table.

Littlefield, UMW district president for Alabama, was shot after walking into a hotel room as two Utah union leaders were being held up. The assailant fled.

The council must approve the tentative contract before it can be submitted to the 120,000 union members for ratification, a process that will take about 10 days.

The steel and railroad industries already have announced about 15,000 layoffs and the government estimates that a four-week coal stoppage could idle 400,000 workers; and an eight-week stoppage, about 1.7 million.

The biggest coal users outside the steel industry are the electric utilities. Most have a two-to-three month supply, but some have less and the Tennessee Valley Authority has already appealed for voluntary reductions in electric use in its seven-state power service area.

A long strike also could prompt a major confrontation between the government and the mine workers. Ford administration officials have indicated that a rejection of the proposed contract would bring governmental intervention, possibly the invoking of the Taft-Hartley Act to order the miners back to work for an 80-day cooling off period.

Hanna Refuses To Sell Cramped Zoo Animals

By SEAN CODE Herald Staff Writer

Central Florida Zoo director Jack Hanna has flatly refused to sell any of the animals in the face of a state report criticizing the zoo conditions as overcrowded and inadequate. The report recommended the zoo "be given 30 days to begin moving some of the animals or else sell some of them in order to relieve overcrowding conditions" at the downtown Sanford location.

Hanna received the Florida Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission report late Friday, which states in spite of the overcrowding and other inadequacies, the animals appear to be clean, healthy and free of injuries.

The "depressing" report is absolutely true, Hanna said. But the recommended improvements of the zoo are "actually impossible." The only solution is to find the funds to finish the Central Florida Zoological Park, west of Sanford, on Highway 17-92, which has run out of construction money.

Hanna explained he is scheduled to address several civic and governmental organizations in the district, seeking financial assistance. He added that the Sanford city government has carried long enough the burden of supporting, in one way or another, the zoo. "It's time to get the Orlando and Daytona Beach people involved because they use the zoo as much if not more than the local residents."

The other option he mentioned is approaching the state government for additional funds to finish the new zoo project. And now it is the state which sent the inspector and claims the zoo has to change or close, or worse, have some of its animals sold to relieve the overcrowding.

The report itself details instances of cages which are not adequate according to state minimal standards. Some are too small, others lack the necessary equipment for the animals. The report recommended upgrading many of the cages, enlarging most, which Hanna explained is not physically possible. There is no place to house the animal while workmen improve its surroundings.

The sewage system is as antiquated as the 50-year-old zoo itself, the buildings are old, the feeding area is open air, Hanna conceded. But there is little, he said, that can be done. The city-owned property is surrounded by other parcels of land, and expansion is out of the question.

As for the 30-day deadline, Hanna said, even if he had the money to finish the zoo construction he could not do it within a month. He said several zoos throughout the country have contacted him and offered to house animals until the new zoo is ready. But he was adamant in his refusal to part with any of the animals permanently.

He explained there was some question why all of this arose so suddenly. The state passed a law, the first in the nation, which detailed complete specifications for the zoos and animal areas.

Hanna said he was first contacted by the Commission inspector, Allen Culpepper, several months ago, who understood the plans for the new zoo, and was willing to delay the inspection. But when construction stopped, Culpepper had to inspect present zoo conditions.

Hanna also said that with a new congress seated in January, passage of a federal zoo inspection law is expected.

The Inflation Fighter Kissinger Optimistic: No War In Mid-East

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger said today, therefore, he has no plans to resume his travels in the region in the immediate future.

The secretary seemed doubtful that the Israelis would abandon their adamant refusal to deal with the Palestinian Liberation Organization on the fate of the West Bank of the Jordan River.

Washington Post reported in today's editions that Israel has called up one-third of her reserve forces.

The Times, attributing its report to informed sources in the State and Defense Departments, said that call-ups have preceded major raids as well as wars.

"There is no evidence the Soviet Union is encouraging war," Kissinger said, although he pointedly referred twice to the need for the same kind of restraint by Moscow as is being exercised by the United States.

Regarding negotiations, the secretary said this is a time "for quiet diplomacy" and, therefore, he has no plans to resume his travels in the region in the immediate future.

Sanford Lady Shows True Grit

"Cancer is a devastating word," but everyone need not be devastated by it.

We've all read or heard about the recent operations of Mrs. Ford and Mrs. Rockefeller and they have indeed awakened new awareness of the need for women to have regular checkups.

But even before the No. 1 and possibly No. 2 ladies of the land discovered they were suffering from cancer a Sanford woman had looked the disease in the eye — and came out smiling.

For a report on a really fascinating, individual see Women's Editor Jean Patterson's story on Page 1C.

EAGER TO GET GOING This group of youngsters were all smiles and eager as they assembled at Chamber of Commerce parking lot Saturday to begin 38-mile Sanford area annual pledge walk for the March of Dimes. William P. Layer, Seminole School Superintendent, center, lead walk with Bob Robare.
