CROWN PRINCE WOULD RETURN TO GERMANY

CONDITIONS IN SAXONY GREATLY IMPROVED

SAXON CONFLICT IN GERMANY SHOWS MARKED IMPROVEMENT PREMIER WAS ELECTED TODAY

DR. FELISCH, PROMINENT SOCIALIST ELECTED BY DIET

BAVARIAN UNREST

Causes Alarm In Government Circles And Trouble Feared

(By The Associated Press) DRESDEN, Oct. 31.—Saxon Diet early today elected Dr. A. Felisch as premier. He is a socialist.

BERLIN, Oct. 31.—The general political situation with respect to the Saxon conflict was viewed last night in official quarters as having showed marked improvement. The United Socialists, who yesterday threatened to secede from Chancellor Stresemann's coalition government, appeared less intransigent today, having deferred a decisive vote on the party's attitude toward the Central government's procedure in Saxony until today.

The attitude of the radicals is explained on the ground that the party, as such, is in neither a strategic nor financial position to offer strong opposition, and also because coalition under the present circumstances would constitute a pronounced concession to the communists in Saxony and elsewhere.

Any censorial measures the socialists may adopt for the purpose of administering a rebuke to the Central government, it is asserted, will be dictated by tactical considerations and solely for the purpose of serving the party's prestige with its followers.

Reports from Dresden indicate that Dr. Heinze, the Reich commissioner in Saxony, is having success in re-establishing a parliamentary regime there to succeed the deposed Zegner ministry and that the Saxon socialists have definitely jettisoned further intentions of allying themselves with the communists. Berlin officials also view the collapse of the general strike as an auspicious omen, and believe that the withdrawal of Dr. Heinze, as promised, and curtailment of the federal military occupancy there, will make it possible for conditions to assume a normal aspect at an early date.

The situation with respect to Bavaria is less clarified as premier Von Knilling has not yet replied officially to Chancellor Stresemann's request that the Federal military authority be restored completely. Political circles cite the refusal of the labor federation to come to the rescue of the ultra-reds in connection with efforts to proclaim a general strike in Saxony and throughout Germany in order to frustrate the Berlin government's attempt to establish a lawful government in Saxony. The fact that the chancellor is making headway with his reform measures has also served as a deterrent to socialist antagonism in the present critical situation, and if the party has far declined to assume a hostile attitude it is due to the moderate leaders who have been persuading their wavering following that the government must be spared parliamentary opposition because of the problems confronting it at home and abroad.

BERLIN, Oct. 31.—With the situation in Saxony gradually becoming stabilized and United Socialists in charge of the new government there political circles in Berlin expressed belief that danger of parliamentary crisis here was imminent.

New Fertilizer Plant Here Now For Mixing Materials

Chase & Co., Building First Unit For Big Plant

The new fertilizer mixing plant being built by Chase & Co., in Sanford is thirty per cent completed. The building which is the first of four units contains 14,000 square feet of floor space. It will have storage for 7,000 tons of fertilizer and will be both a mixing and manufacturing plant. The contractor is J. B. Southard of Orlando, who expects to have it completed within ninety days. The building will be a frame structure with the exception of a concrete floor and retaining walls. It is located on a site adjoining the location of the new work shops of the A. C. L. railroad. This first unit represents an investment of $25,000.

This is Sanford's first fertilizer plant and the local officials of Chase and Company are being congratulated by those who recognize the service such a plant will render to this intensively developed agricultural district.

WOULD SEGREGATE ALL CRIMINALS IN STATE OWNED INSTITUTIONS

CHICAGO, Oct. 31.—One way of curbing crime said to be caused by rapidly increasing mental delinquents is to segregate criminals in state controlled institutions, Judge Henry A. Olson of the municipal court, in an address prepared for the annual birth control congress of the middle western states meeting here Tuesday. "Under such control there is an abrupt end to criminal predations and to reproduction," Judge Olson said. Both great needs of society are met. The individual defective is likewise met for he is given an opportunity to live to the limit of his powers.

PATHOLOGISTS DENY REPORT ABOUT BODIES

Of Men At Mer Rouge Alleged Victims of The Klan

(By The Associated Press) NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 31.—State's officials and pathologists concerned vigorously denied the story published in this morning's Times-Picayune, that the state had withheld from the hearing of the Mer Rouge murders part of the pathologist's report which said the bodies had not been in the water more than 48 hours when taken from the lake after an explosion had caused them to come to the surface. The fact that the pathologists had made this statement published today created a sensation. In the review repeated charges were made by Ku Klux Klan that the bodies had been planted to fasten the blame on that organization. First Assistant Attorney General Guyon declared this feature had been published along with full report of pathologists. It had not been emphasized by the prosecution, he said, because it was unimportant. Pathologists said no part of their report had been deleted.

LLOYD GEORGE PAYS TRIBUTE TO DEMOCRACY

At Phil. Says Britain and U. S. Will Back It Up Whatever May Befall

(By The Associated Press) PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 31.—Belief that the people of America and Great Britain will stand behind democratic institutions whatever may befall in any other land, was expressed in an address here yesterday by Lloyd George. Emphasizing the advantages of a democratic government over an autocracy he "was glad to be here where the greatest democracy on earth made its start."

The address was delivered in the Academy of Music before the Philadelphia Forum. Mr. Lloyd George warned that democracy is imperilled in the face of a reaction in Europe reflected in the establishment of autocratic governments in Russia, Italy, Spain, "and for the moment, in Germany."

"Believe me," the former premier said, "democracy is on trial; may be not here. You will stand by it. But there are other nations that have given it up; there are nations that have attempted to give it up, and unless the nations that have tried and have been brought through many trials stand by it, democracy in the world may disappear."

Reiterating his plea for American help in Europe, Mr. Lloyd George told how he had come from a continent racked with anxiety and torn with ancient feuds, "which a few years ago broke out in a cataclysm which devastated a continent and reached you."

"I am hopeful," he added, "that after a struggle which has created such desolation over vast territories, with your help, the help that you gave us so readily, so unselfishly, and with so much inspiration in 1917 that with that help Europe also will be redeemed and mankind will march steadily, clearly and resolutely along the road that will lead to a higher civilization."

A cordial welcome was given the famous Welshman when he left his private car for a drive through the city. At City Hall he was given the freedom of Philadelphia, by Mayor J. Hampton Moore and at Independence Hall he sat in the chair occupied by John Hancock when the Declaration of Independence was signed and by George Washington in presiding over the Constitution convention. He studied the Liberty Bell intently.

After his Forum address, Mr. Lloyd George was the guest at a public luncheon. Later he left for Scranton, Pa., where he will speak today before going to New York.

Mr. Lloyd George made a stirring appeal at the luncheon for America to help Europe in her troubles. "The Rhine is not a river of water across which armies have marched with murder in their hearts," said the speaker. "It is a river of blood, and I am afraid there is still in that land the smoldering fire. You can help us to stamp it out. Just look across the Rhine. See the little fires, the fires that may blaze up and set the forests of Europe afire."

"Why do I ask this? Because you are men. Because you are stamped in the same image of God as are the men of Europe. In the name of that brotherhood I ask you, 'Don't let Europe burn itself out.' "I know your difficulties. You have here the cross current of racial difficulties. But I do hope that the spirit which moved you in 1917 will speak to you again. It was not the spirit of selfishness, I hope that in time you will hear that call of the heart deep within your breasts and that your heart will reopen in time."

FRIEDRICH WILHELM ASKS PERMISSION FOR HIS RETURN FROM HOLLAND OFFICIALS

Sanford's Population Will Exceed 8,000 By Latest Estimate

Survey Made By J. E. Craig Would Give 8,860

Sanford's population according to an estimate made by the Sanford Chamber of Commerce is 8,860. It is based on the results of a survey made by Joseph E. Craig, consulting engineer for the city. This survey recently completed, showed Sanford to have within the city limits 1,772 buildings. The population is based on government statistics which give five people to a family. The 1920 census showed Sanford to have a population of 5,588. The present estimated population is an increase of fifty-two per cent gained since the last census was taken. In as much as no new territory has been added to the city since that time, this remarkable increase represents many new people who have located here. It is estimated that if the population of the section in close environs to Sanford was taken into the city, Sanford would be a city in excess of 10,000 people.

GOOD MEETING OF KIWANIS AT THE VALDEZ

Will Endeavor To Organize Kiwanis Club At DeLand

After President Sharon called the meeting to order and the blessing was invoked by Kiwanian Scott, the local Kiwanis Club sat down to the really good luncheon prepared for them by Chef Falck at the Valdez today.

Ed Lane told a small part of what he saw on his recent trip to New York City. He refused to go into detail as he said if he told of all he saw he was afraid Forrest Lake and Prof. McKee would leave home! Another reason was that if Mrs. Lane heard of it he would probably have to leave home himself.

The report of the committee appointed to attend the meeting of the Highway Beautification commission at Orlando stated that they attended the session long enough to register and get a bouquet and then beat it for home.

After a talk by President Sharon on the subject a motion by Lake was unanimously carried to attempt the organization of a Kiwanis Club at DeLand and Neel, Lake and Connolly were appointed as the committee in charge.

Thigpen was presented with a handsome silver pencil as winner of the attendance prize, and then Forest Lake told of his recent trip to Tallahassee where he appeared before the State Road Department and asked for everything in the world—and secured a rebate of $10,000 expended by Seminole county on the Osteen bridge and the promise of $50,000 to be spent on the highway from Jacksonville to Sanford.

Bob Deane, who had charge of the entertainment feature, in the absence of George DeCotte, called on petite Schelly Maines to act as teacher in an old-fashioned spelling bee. Lake, at the head of the class, "spelled" "cat" very easily but, with a lot of others, fell down on "halelujah." Finally only Prof. Lawton, Dr. Tolar and

WOMAN CONFESSES TO SLAYING MAN AT MIAMI SUNDAY

MIAMI, Fla., Oct. 31.—May Bell Cassavant, yesterday afternoon told Sheriff Louis A. Allen that she fired the shot that slew Raymond Lee in Hill Crest Inn, a road-house, near here Sunday night. A formal charge of murder was placed against the woman, who is being held in jail.

Officers last night continued to seek Julian Brain, with whom Miss Cassavant came to Miami, and a formal charge of murder has been made against him. Sheriff Allen said he expected to capture the man before morning.

Sheriff Allen said last night he did not believe the woman fired the shot. According to her story, she heard the sounds of the argument proceeding in the floor room of the Inn, and when she entered the room, she saw Julian Brain standing there with the gun held in his hands. It was pointed toward the door, she said, and as she entered a man unknown to her entered from the doorway, and made a move as though he was about to attack Julian Brain.

Miss Cassavant said she dashed forward, and pulled the trigger of the shotgun, which was still held in the hands of Brain. The discharge took effect in Raymond Lee, who died almost instantly.

Deputies yesterday afternoon took Miss Cassavant for an automobile ride about Miami. They spent several hours, moving along the streets throughout the city in the hope that Brain would see her with them, and realize that she had been taken in custody. He had not surrendered at 8:30 o'clock last night, and a large number of deputies were searching the city for him.

ERECTION OF COUNTY LINES ON HIGHWAY

JACKSONVILLE, Oct. 31.—The Jacksonville Motor club has gone on record as favoring the erection of the county line on all main highways leading into the city of signa designating the county boundaries of Duval. The tourist committee of Chamber of Commerce has joined the Motor Club in a request to the county commissioners to have this done.

Grandpa Dumas were on the floor and Dumas stubbed his toe and Prof. Lawton fell down and Dr. Tolar was declared the winner and presented with a pair of sox, which he will soon get in the habit of wearing regularly, instead of Sunday only, as at present.

Dumas and Fort will have charge of the entertainment next week, which means that Fort will have all the work to do, and Dumas will claim all the credit.

THE SILENT HOUSE.

Our house is noiseless today, Strange silences the clean rooms fill; So different from when we used to say, "Will the child never be still."

Our house is kept perfect today, Made bright by the house mother's skill; No children now litter the floor with their play As youngsters oftentimes will.

We can run our house on schedule today, We breakfast at seven and lunch at one, When the child was here there was often delay, So many things had to be done.

Yet I'd give all I have in the world today, To hear the playing feet upon the floor, Of the child whom God has taken away, Who tries our nerves no more.

Our house is too silent today. —By William H. Leach.

LACE IS GROWING IN THE FAVOR OF PARIS DESIGNERS.

At the Paris dressmakers' winter openings lace gowns for evening wear and simple lace frocks for afternoon use were strongly featured, the Dry Goods Economist's Paris office writes. As the setson advances lace is more and more in vogue, and all indications point to its extensive use for spring.

This vogue for lace follows naturally on the pronounced use of flouncings in the present winter fashions. In lace the new note, and that to be particularly emphasized is the large plateau of lace or of embroidered net, and the circular lace flounce in Chantilly design in metal or in silk. The former has been made the vogue by Jean Patou, who showed two of the most successful dresses of his opening made, the one in plateaux of green Chantilly lace, the other of plateaux of brown net embroidered in gold. These plateaux measure four to six feet in diameter and from two to three are employed in making a model.

With regard to types of laces favored, combinations of silk and of metal, or of metal, silk and wool, take precedence. For instance, a lace will be shown with mesh in a silk and metal combination with figure carried out in silk; or again the mesh will be of silk with the decoration in silver, gold tinsel or in metal and wool.

Sheer laces on the order of Chantilly are in the lead although laces in the Spanish and in the heavy Italian styles also are represented.

Jenny stresses heavy Venetian lace. This lace has always been a favorite with this house, and this season, Jenny has taken a more pronounced feature than ever of lace with heavy, filled in patterns in relief in gold, tinsel, or silk.

Several of the model makers have used a very sheer, black Chantilly lace in close, al lover rose design, every alternating rose in the design of the lace being overlaid with a heavy embroidery in bright colored wool yarns.

ENGINEER CRAIG'S REPORT ON PUBLIC UTILITIES WAS WELL RECEIVED

$125,158.00. In explanation of this latter figure it might be stated that the city's balance sheet of December 31st, 1920 showed a surplus of $26,000.00 without a reserve for bonded debt. In December 1921 the requirements of the sinking fund $104,000.00, were upon the books causing a deficit in the surplus account of $46,000.00. The surplus has increased each year and at present stands at $125,158.00, which with the reserve makes a total of $264,894. This looks like a large amount of surplus and its provided for in the new plans. Both East and West sides of the city will be given full protection if Mr. Craig's plans are adopted which is something these sections have never received to date. The mains of the present system have been in service for a number of years and when subjected to high pressure during an emergency have been unable to stand the strain, bursting repeatedly. The proposed system provides for mains, the carrying capacity of which will be six times and one half times greater than those now in use. The additional facilities provided to fight fire will no doubt cause a reduction in insurance rates in Sanford, particularly on the portion of the $1,600,000 worth of property now unprotected and which represents sixty-two per cent of the buildings in Sanford. This saving will be sufficient to pay the interest on the cost of the proposed water-works system. The map which Mr. Craig has prepared brings to light some very in-

Rob's Calomel of Nausea and Danger
Medicinal Virtues Retained and Improved—Dangerous and Sickening Qualities Removed. Perfected Tablet Called "Calotab"

The latest triumph of modern science is a "de-nauseated" calomel tablet known to the drug trade as "Calotab." Calomel, the most generally useful of all medicines, thus enters upon a wider field of popularity—purified and refined from those objectionable qualities which have heretofore limited its use.

In biliousness, constipation, headaches and indigestion, in a great variety of liver, stomach and kidney troubles calomel was the most successful remedy, but its use was often restricted by its sickening qualities. Now it is the easiest and most pleasant of medicines to take. One Calotab at bedtime with a swallow of water—that's all. No taste, no griping, no nausea, no salts. A good night's sleep and the next morning you are feeling fine with a clean liver, a purified system and a big appetite. Eat what you please. No danger.

Calotabs are sold only in original, sealed packages, price thirty-five cents for the large family package; ten cents for the small, trial size. Your druggist is authorized to refund the price as a guarantee that you will be thoroughly delighted with Calotabs. (Adv.) 8-23-wed-(fr)-w-ekly

CELERY SEED
Putnam High will take a little trip down here Saturday to see what they can do to our Celery Growers—in the way of eating them up.

Putnam High has got the material to give our Celery-Feds a good game but not quite enough to eat them up—unless they spring a few surprises.

The Lakeland Dreadnoughts must be getting ready for a real hard game with the Summerlin boys. Coach McQuillan has closed the park to idle spectators during practice hours. In other words the Dreadnoughts are getting ready to sink the Yellow Jackets under a tremendous score.

Coach Barchan if the Gainesville Hurricane spilled quite a surprise a few days ago when he filed a protest against the game that the Hurricane lost to the Summerlin Yellow Jackets. The Gainesville boys have no chance for the state championship this year so what's the use of spoiling Bartow's chances and probably their good name by making a complaint about their players.

Coach Barchan isn't the only one who could file a protest against the Summerlin boys—but the others are willing to fight it out.

According to a Bartow newspaper, Bartow High claims that Sanford High ineligible players in the Bartow-Sanford game here a week ago Saturday. But Bartow also mentioned that they were not going to make and protest.

They ought not to, they won the affair anyway, and we'll bet our last dollar that Summerlin wouldn't win the blue ribbon herself for a perfect eligibility list.

Four big clashes in football are scheduled for Saturday when the University of Florida meets Mercer at Gainesville; Miami and Duval, at Jacksonville; Savannah and Hillsborough at the Clear City and last but not least Palatka at Sanford.

How a Single Industry Spreads Prosperity

A most significant fact about an industry is the large number of people who benefit from it.

Take the cement industry, as an example:

The mills used 9,000,000 tons of coal last year. This meant 9,000 coal miners steadily employed—their families, numbering not less than 25,000, maintained—and along with them tradesmen and other people enough to supply the needs of a town of over 50,000.

That is, of course, saying nothing of the business created for coal operators and transportation lines.

Sacks are not so large an item in the cement industry as coal, yet 50,000,000 new sacks, representing 50,000 bales of cotton, had to be bought last year for replacements alone. Back of this were cotton planters, plantation workers, mill owners, mill operatives and so on—thousands altogether.

And consider these other requirements of the industry last year:

- 3,700,000 barrels of fuel oil
- 3,400,000,000 cubic feet of gas
- 15,000,000 pounds of explosives
- 32,000,000 pounds of greases and oils
- 1,700,000 linear feet of belting
- 4,500,000 firebrick for relining kilns
- 7,000,000 pounds of paper for bags
- 600,000 tons of gypsum

In addition the industry bought quantities of heavy grinding and burning machinery, locomotives, cars, rails, electrical and other necessary equipment.

In this way a single industry spreads prosperity to many others.

Tropical Storm Season Is Past Slight Damage

Weather Men Now Peeling Orbs for Northwestern Blizzards Headed South

With equinoctial disturbances, otherwise known as the tropical storm season, practically past, weather observers are now shifting their binoculars to the northwest, which, from now until spring, will require about all of their attention.

Hardly had Prof. A. J. Mitchell, local prognosticator, finished stating that the storm season had virtually spent itself when he made the blunt announcement that a cold wave that sent thermometers over the plains states tumbling yesterday, was headed this way, and Jacksonville could prepare for much lower temperatures as early as this afternoon, with shivering atmosphere by Thursday.

In the plains states—those north of Texas—freezing weather was reported yesterday and the cold wave is moving southeast at a lively clip. In northern Texas freezing and even zero weather prevailed. But Prof. Mitchell was unable to predict the extent of the drop in Jacksonville because of some unsettled Gulf conditions that might tend to modify the chilly intruder. But under ordinary conditions, he said, the public may expect some pretty cold weather.

Rain was forecast for last night and early today.

Looking back over the hurricane season, Prof. Mitchell declared that Florida had been luckier this year than for many years in escaping damaging storms. In every instance of tropical disturbances the storms were sidetracked and passed either to the east or west of the peninsula.

Two of the most severe storms, one forming in the West Indies about October 22 and one in the Gulf of Mexico about October 14, were of particular significance. Prof. Mitchell explained. At the start of both it was apparent they would strike Florida in their northward course and had they lived up to the reputation of tropical storms they would not have missed. But both, fortunately for the state, moved by without any damage, although the state felt some of their force in passing.

October 31 is regarded as the termination of the tropical storm season, Prof. Mitchell said. It begins in August and there are three months of continual worry for the weather forecasters.

Chief Forecaster E. H. Rowie in Washington, D. C., accounts for the unusual meteorological record thusly:

"West Indian hurricanes originate from causes not clearly defined, but intimately connected with the boundary of the northeast trade winds and the belt of calm along the equator. They occur less frequently when the boundary is near the equator as it seems to be this summer.

"The cause of the extension southward of the area of high pressure over the Atlantic is not known. It may be due to unusual coldness of the air and cold air is heavy air, but this remains to be proved. The fact is not a single tropical hurricane has been reported this year from any part of the North Atlantic, nor have we felt it necessary even to send out warnings to any port of that great area that the formation of a hurricane was indicated. They have been totally absent.

"In contrast to the conditions in the Atlantic the tropical hurricanes of the Pacific ocean, or typhoons as they are called there, have been unusually prevalent this summer, especially along the coasts of China and Japan. Apparently the energy which causes the formation of those storms has been shifted from the Atlantic to the Pacific ocean."—Times-Union.

"Must Abate Evils," Pinchot Tells Mellon

HARRISBURG, Pa., Oct. 31.—Governor Pinchot in a letter to Secretary of the Treasury Mellon characterized as a "defense of things as they are" the secretary's reply to the governor's letter Sunday, criticizing the federal prohibition enforcement system.

What is needed, he said, is not a defense of present evils but the determination to abate them followed by effective action. Mr. Mellon's letter was received by the governor today. "It is matter of sincere regret to me," the governor said, "that your answer to my letter is merely an effort to justify the present federal system of enforcement, which all America knows to be defective, inefficient and a breeder of corruption."

Governor Pinchot's letter tonight followed by only a few hours the receipts of Secretary Mellon's answer to one Mr. Pinchot sent the secretary Sunday night. In his first letter the governor charged what he termed the breakdown of the federal enforcement to the federal permit system and declared the state government was handicapped by failure of the federal government to use all its powers. Mr. Mellon, replying last night, said the governor's statements are "not founded on facts."

Replying to assertions of the governor that permits had been issued to certain breweries after they had been detected in violation of the law, Mr. Mellon cited settlements made and explained permits had been issued only after a year or more had passed. In certain other more recent cases Mr. Mellon said citations had been issued and revocation proceedings are pending.

In his letter tonight the governor asked the secretary to refuse to reissue permits for the operation of plants where the laws had been broken and declared there was no provision of law compelling the treasury department to reissue permits after a year to applicants "who are admittedly law breakers."

"I have no change to make in any statement contained in my previous letter," the governor concluded. "The facts are as I there set them forth. The law abiding citizens of Pennsylvania are profoundly alarmed and anxious for relief. The state administration is doing its level best. If the present situation represents the best the treasury department can do, then my previous suggestion that the enforcement system be placed directly under the president has the greatest force than I suspected when I made it."

Weed Out Bankers Who Are Off Color Says Coolidge

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—President Coolidge told a group of investment bankers today that the country looked to them to "weed out" those engaged in the banking business who do not maintain "a high standard of ability and honesty."

Addressing the bankers, who are here to attend the annual convention of the Investment Bankers' Association of America, from the south portico of the White House, the President said it was "almost impossible to weed out every undesirable element, but the country has come to know that it can rely upon the representations made by its investment bankers."

"More than that," he added, "there is an additional service you can render: The country is coming to realize it must depend upon your assistance, and help to weed out those who are not desirable by reason of not maintaining a high standard of ability and honesty."

Speaking at the first day sessions of the convention declared that business conditions were good, were on a stable basis, and gave every indication of leading to a still better situation. Among them was Secretary Wallace of the agricultural department who outlined the Federal government's program of aiding the states in constructing and maintaining good roads. Commenting briefly on agricultural conditions, he said, that if they continued to improve as they had during the last year, there "absolutely would be no 'agricultural problem.'" Optimistic as to future business conditions in this country, John A. Prescott, of Kansas City, president of the association, declared the United States held the key to settlement of the reparations question. Participation by this country in an inquiry into Germany's capacity to pay, he insisted, should not involve American in European politics.

More than 1,000 bankers are attending the convention.

Uniformity State Public Utilities Laws Asked For

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—Uniformity of state laws regarding public utilities was advocated in a report submitted to the Investment Bankers Association of America today by its committee on public service securities.

The committee's report, which was one of several considered at today's session of the organization's annual convention, also urged that all state commissions be vested with authority over the valuation rates, services, and capitalization of privately owned utility plants, and that they be required to publish full financial reports of their operations.

"When administered with the broadest powers and in a judicial manner," the report said, "statewide regulation of public utilities has been conclusively proved in the opinion of the committee to afford the best guarantees which investors can have in this country for a maintenance of that integrity of investment necessary for a ready flow of money into the business."

Pointing out that investors are disposed to withhold funds from business affected by "purely political" agitations, the committee said that such a situation "cramps a utility and the public is eventually not adequately served."

"It has become more evident," the report added, "that a development of local sales of investment securities by operating companies direct to users of service will be helpful in preventing such unfair political attacks."

The report outlined the expansion of the public utility business in the last year and pointed to the sale within the last two and a half years of nearly $2,500,000,000 of bonds, notes and stocks. This expansion, it said, was continuing.

The task of raising funds for public utilities, the committee found, "has been made difficult" because of "the general systems of taxation throughout the country."

MR. AND MRS. POLLY TICK

At High School Auditorium Tuesday, November 6

When the curtain rises on the opening scene, the audience beholds Father Time and Dame Fashion discussing the approaching fashions for men and women. Father Time reads in his record book of girls in hoop skirts and bell bonnets as in the days of long ago. Dame Fashion sees in her crystal ball men in ruffled trousers and frocks—all of which will be portrayed in an ensemble of music composed of the entire cast.

The time is 1075. The women, since getting the ballot, have taken the reins of government and gradually exchanged places with the men. The women now dress in mannish clothes and attend to practically all the business, leaving the men at home to do the housework, sewing, darning, nursing, etc. The married men dress in frills and furbelows, and seem at the beginning of the play to have lost all their masculine habits and to have surrendered all of their male attire except their pants, to which they hold with bull-dog tenacity.

In the first act, the women go off to the lodge, leaving the men behind. The neglected husbands get together for a knitting party. Bill Lawson, who still retains his masculine dress, drops in to chide his friends about the shackles they are wearing; and is told that after he is married he will surrender his freedom just as they have done. This brings on an argument during which Sullivan O'Brien rushes in with the startling news that the women are planning to send Daisy Ann Gray to Congress so as to pass the Anti-Trouser Bill. After the meeting the "Emancipated Women" march in armed with brooms and in military style, present them to the men.

The second act opens with an ensemble of music showing a house-cleaning scene in which Tick is assisted by his married friends. While they are in the midst of the scrubbing in comes Billy, announcing that he is about to start a movement which will overthrow this petticoat government, in which plan the men join heartily. Just as the house-cleaning begins again, Sullivan O'Brien breaks in, announcing that Senator Zella Highlow, the author of the Anti-Trouser Bill, will ask to the women, that evening, whereupon the men devise a scheme to keep Senator Highlow from the meeting and at the same time stage their revolution.

The development of this scheme comes in act three. The voting precinct where the women have planned to bring about the climax of their triumph is stormed by the men. Then follows an exciting controversy. The result of this we cannot disclose, suffice it to say it all ends happily.

The grand finale is a beautiful chorus featuring the entire cast.

Turkish national assembly republican and elects Kemal Pasha first president.

SANFORD HAS TEN THOUSAND PEOPLE

In the figures published today from the city records as compiled by Engineer Craig it would seem that Sanford has about nine thousand people now in the actual city limits. Sanford is different from most cities being located in the midst of the greatest farming section in the world and where they grow products on the intensive farming plan. This means that just outside of the city limits there are about two thousand people that could really be counted in the city limits for they are just over the line now. This would give the population of Sanford somewhere near the twelve thousand mark and should be considered by the companies that are loaning money in Florida on the plan of the cities having ten thousand or more inhabitants. If a survey of this city could be made for the loan companies it would demonstrate that Sanford has the best loan values of any city in the state regardless of the number of inhabitants living in the real city limits. And on the other hand the corporate limits of Sanford do not extend all over the state but are just large enough to cover the real taxable area and if Sanford does not contain ten thousand people today we are sadly mistaken and a real census would disclose that many. The figures given by Engineer Craig are given in another part of this issue.

The Daytona Journal issued a sixty page trade edition on Monday. Taken a good town to do this stunt and we congratulate Daytona and the Daytona Journal.

Governor Walton has received a fine offer from the chautauqua course to deliver lectures all over the country. We hardly think he will lecture in the south.

Lloyd George recently said that the world would be better if it could get the "Lincoln touch." Ed Higgins was all swelled up about this remark and thought it applied to a Lincoln car.

The chairman of the Chicago Church Federation publicity committee at a recent meeting said that the church and the press were twin brothers. Well, they are rather close in relationship or would be if the ministers would get closer.

HALLOWEEN STUFF

Charges of misuse of money and plotting and thievery are being made against the high officials of the Ku Klux Klan in Atlanta. All big organizations have to go through this period especially where there is so much money involved.

Willis Powell of Lake County was pulled in Orlando for parking his car on the main stem over an hour and says that he cannot afford to go back and pay his fine for fear he would be pulled again. Come to Sanford, Willis, and park your car as long as you like day or night.

Lloyd George says "Democracy is on Trial." You are right, old chap. It was on trial in the United States four years ago and the Republicans are on trial now and they will be found guilty just as the Democrats were. Of course Lloyd George was not referring to the Democrats of America when he made this remark.

The former Crown Prince of Germany wants to go back to his native land and has asked permission of Germany and of Holland. It would seem that a plot is brewing to bring the royal family back into power and the riots and trouble all over Germany would indicate that the royalists are in for a change in government.

Now that the weather has settled down and the storms are over we should get some real fine winter weather. And winter weather in Florida means cool, crisp days and gold nights—but not too cold. If the right kind of weather prevails in the Sanford section from now until Thanksgiving the lettuce growers will make a fortune. And if they make a fortune we will all have some Christmas money.

All great men die and leave but little of this world's goods in the shape of property or money. It seems that genius and art and brains cannot get down to the digging of gold and few great men pile up fortunes. Just another case of a man working for the people instead of for himself and we see cases of it every day. Few newspaper men ever garner the checks that their great work deserves and yet they labor all their life for the benefit of the public.

Maybe you have noticed the Sanford Daily Herald getting bigger and bigger and better and better. This is an account of the better advertising patronage that the live merchants of Sanford are giving us from time to time. If you want a paper sixteen pages or more patronize the merchants that patronize your home paper and you will have the best paper in the state and you will have the best stores in the state. Good stores and good advertising go hand in hand and every time your merchants advertise they are helping to bring new people to Sanford.

We want you to read the reports of the city's finances and the report of Engineer Craig published in last night's Daily Herald and then send a copy to your friends who are thinking of investing in Sanford. Those two reports are better than all the advertising that the Chamber of Commerce could do in six months and by the way it was Secretary Pearman of the Chamber of Commerce who compiled these reports. And now all the people should pull for the ownership of public utilities for it will make Sanford a city of twenty thousand people in five years.

Everybody in Sanford should be playing golf these fine golfing days. It is one of the finest outdoor sports that has ever been invented. When you go to some other city to visit you will have to know how to play golf or you will be lost as everybody plays golf now. And with the finest links in the state you should be enjoying yourself at the Country Club several times during the week. You are helping to build something that will be an asset to your city and you should do your part to keep it going. Read what the Lakeland Star-Telegram says in this issue about the Country Club and what it means to any city.

Bonar Law, former premier of England, died at his home yesterday and his death will be mourned by the English folks all over the world. He was an uncompromising leader who wanted what he wanted without any equivocation and he made many enemies as all great men make but he was a man all the way through and he was responsible for much constructive work before the war and during the war and afterward. In fact his work in the war and the fact that two of his sons lost their lives in the war is probably what hastened his end.

The government has dropped the charges of conspiracy and draft evading against Edwin Bergdoll, the notorious draft dodger and brother of Grover Cleveland Bergdoll who escaped to Germany and is there yet. It seems that Edwin has served part of his time and is now on a parole and will probably escape the sentence as first imposed because he chose to remain and face the music. Draft dodging was not so easy as some of those who tried it found out. The faithful old mother of the Bergdolls was probably responsible for the shortening of Edwin's sentence for regardless of what she did in these cases you cannot forget that it was a mother's heart and a mother's mind that was doing all of this work to lighten the burden made heavy by breaking the laws.

We understand that birds and ducks and deer and turkeys are being killed now that the opening days of the hunting season are drawing near and no one seems to be looking after the enforcement of the game laws. If the next legislature needs and adjourns without making an iron clad law about the game of Florida they ought to be put in jail. The legislature in many years has had sense enough to pass a real game law and yet all they need is a copy of the laws of other states that are protecting the game. The trouble with the game laws of Florida is that the people as a whole wink at the breaking of the laws. Seminoles county had a real game warden at one time in the person of Archie Cason but since he did his duty as he saw it he made the law breakers and their friends mad and the laws were changed and Archie was taken off the job.

THINGS

I could sell you the house and could sell you the chairs, I could sell you the pictures which hang on the walls, I could sell you the curtains and sell you the stairs, But you wouldn't catch their real beauty at all. You wouldn't see what I see in that chair, The lost little girl who had once nestled there.

You wouldn't know as you looked at that scene Of the sheep in the meadow, hung over the grate, With the hills in the distance, the grass glowing green, That it has a story that it could relate.

You'd never see the small fingerprints fair Of the baby who loved every lump that is there.

You'd never think, as you climbed up the stairs, Of the feet that had raced where you wearily tread, You'd never know that this small room was theirs, And this was their table, and this was their bed. These are things which you look at, just things which you see, But things which are freighted with beauty to me.

SANFORD HAS TEN THOUSAND PEOPLE

In the figures published today from the city records as compiled by Engineer Craig it would seem that Sanford has about nine thousand people now in the actual city limits. Sanford is different from most cities being located in the midst of the greatest farming section in the world and where they grow products on the intensive farming plan. This means that just outside of the city limits there are about two thousand people that could really be counted in the city limits for they are just over the line now. This would give the population of Sanford somewhere near the twelve thousand mark and should be considered by the companies that are loaning money in Florida on the plan of the cities having ten thousand or more inhabitants. If a survey of this city could be made for the loan companies it would demonstrate that Sanford has the best loan values of any city in the state regardless of the number of inhabitants living in the real city limits. And on the other hand the corporate limits of Sanford do not extend all over the state but are just large enough to cover the real taxable area and if Sanford does not contain ten thousand people today we are sadly mistaken and a real census would disclose that many. The figures given by Engineer Craig are given in another part of this issue.

The Daytona Journal issued a sixty page trade edition on Monday. Takes a good town to do this stunt and we congratulate Daytona and the Daytona Journal.

Governor Walton has received a fine offer from the chautauqua course to deliver lectures all over the country. We hardly think he will lecture in the south.

Lloyd George recently said that the world would be better if it could get the "Lincoln touch." Ed Higgins was all swelled up about this remark and thought it applied to a Lincoln car.

The chairman of the Chicago Church Federation publicity committee at a recent meeting said that the church and the press were twin brothers. Well, they are rather close in relationship or would be if the ministers would get closer.

SENTIMENT--Old and New

Things Worth While Picked Up Along the Way; Some From Pens Long Ago Laid Down; Some From Pens of Later Days.

THINGS

I could sell you the house and could sell you the chairs, I could sell you the pictures which hang on the walls, I could sell you the curtains and sell you the stairs, But you wouldn't catch their real beauty at all. You wouldn't see what I see in that chair, The lost little girl who had once nestled there. You wouldn't know as you looked at that scene Of the sheep in the meadow, hung over the grate, With the hills in the distance, the grass glowing green, That it has a story that it could relate. You'd never see the small fingerprints fair Of the baby who loved every lamb that is there. You'd never think, as you climbed up the stairs, Of the feet that had raced where you wearily tread, You'd never know that this small room was theirs, And this was their table, and this was their bed. These are things which you look at, just things which you see, But things which are freighted with beauty to me.

HALLOWEEN STUFF

Charges of misuse of money and plotting and thievery are being made against the high officials of the Ku Klux Klan in Atlanta. All big organizations have to go through this period especially where there is so much money involved.

Willis Powell of Lake County was pulled in Orlando for parking his car on the main stem over an hour and says that he cannot afford to go back and pay his fine for fear he would be pulled again. Come to Sanford, Willis, and park your car as long as you like day or night.

Lloyd George says "Democracy is on Trial." You are right, old chap. It was on trial in the United States four years ago and the Republicans are on trial now and they will be found guilty just as the Democrats were. Of course Lloyd George was not referring to the Democrats of America when he made this remark.

The former Crown Prince of Germany wants to go back to his native land and has asked permission of Germany and of Holland. It would seem that a plot is brewing to bring the royal family back into power and the riots and trouble all over Germany would indicate that the royalists are in for a change in government.

Now that the weather has settled down and the storms are over we should get some real fine winter weather. And winter weather in Florida means cool, crisp days and cold nights—but not too cold. If the right kind of weather prevails in the Sanford section from now until Thanksgiving the lettuce growers will make a fortune. And if they make a fortune we will all have some Christmas money.

All great men die and leave but little of this world's goods in the shape of property or money. It seems that genius and art and brains cannot get down to the digging of gold and few great men pile up fortunes. Just another case of a man working for the people instead of for himself and we see cases of it every day. Few newspaper men ever garner the shekels that their great work deserves and yet they labor all their life for the benefit of the public.

Maybe you have noticed the Sanford Daily Herald getting bigger and bigger and better and better. This is on account of the better advertising patronage that the live merchants of Sanford are giving us from time to time. If you want a paper sixteen pages or more patronize the merchants that patronize your home paper and you will have the best paper in the state and you will have the best stores in the state. Good stores and good advertising go hand in hand and every time your merchants advertise they are helping to bring new people to Sanford.

We want you to read the reports of the city's finances and the report of Engineer Craig published in last night's Daily Herald and then send a copy to your friends who are thinking of investing in Sanford. These two reports are better than all the advertising that the Chamber of Commerce could do in six months and by the way it was Secretary Fearman of the Chamber of Commerce who compiled these reports. And now all the people should pull for the ownership of public utilities for it will make Sanford a city of twenty thousand people in five years.

Everybody in Sanford should be playing golf these fine golfing days. It is one of the finest outdoor sports that has ever been invented. When you go to some other city to visit you will have to know how to play golf or you will be lost as everybody plays golf now. And with the finest links in the state you should be enjoying yourself at the Country Club several times during the week. You are helping to build something that will be an asset to your city and you should do your part to keep it going. Read what the Lakeland Star-Telegram says in this issue about the Country Club and what it means to any city.

Donar Law, former premier of England, died at his home yesterday and his death will be mourned by the English folks all over the world. He was an uncompromising leader who wanted what he wanted without any equivocation and he made many enemies as all great men make but he was a man all the way through and he was responsible for much constructive work before the war and during the war and afterward. In fact his work in the war and the fact that two of his sons lost their lives in the war is probably what hastened his end.

The government has dropped the charges of conspiracy and draft evading against Edwin Bergdoll, the notorious draft dodger and brother of Grover Cleveland Bergdoll who escaped to Germany and is there yet. It seems that Edwin has served part of his time and is now on a parole and will probably escape the sentence as first imposed because he chose to remain and face the music. Draft dodging was not so easy as some of those who tried it found out. The faithful old mother of the Bergdolls was probably responsible for the shortening of Edwin's sentence for regardless of what she did in these cases you cannot forget that it was a mother's heart and a mother's mind that was doing all of this work to lighten the burdens made heavy by breaking the laws.

We understand that birds and ducks and deer and turkeys are being killed now that the opening days of the hunting season are drawing near and no one seems to be looking after the enforcement of the game laws. If the next legislative meets and adjourns without making an iron clad law about the game of Florida, they ought to be put in jail. No legislature in many years has had sense enough to pass a real game law and get all they need is a copy of the laws of other states that are protecting the game. The trouble with the game laws of Florida is that the people as a whole wink at the breaking of the laws. Seminole county had a real game warden at one time in the person of Archie Cameron but since he did his duty as he saw it he made the live breakers and their friends mad and the laws were changed and Archie was taken off the job.

FORBES CHARGED WITH REMOVING LARGE STOCKS

Of Narcotics and Liquors From Government Hospitals

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—Charges that Charles R. Forbes, while director of the Veterans' Bureau still was seeking as late as September, 1922, surreptitiously, to remove large stocks of narcotics and liquors from the government hospital at Perryville, Maryland, were made today at the continuation of the senate investigation of the Veterans' Bureau.

James M. Williams, a Philadelphia dairyman, was the witness, his testimony being designed to support in part the sensational story told to the committee last week by Elias H. Mortimer, also of Philadelphia, about his alleged relations with Forbes at a time when he was seeking contracts for hospitals from the director.

Williams testified that aside from proposing removal of the narcotics and liquors, Forbes, with a man named Bieber, had sought to obtain from Mrs. Mortimer certain papers belonging to Mortimer and also to "embitter" Mrs. Mortimer against her husband. This was at a time after Mortimer, according to his testimony, had "broken with Forbes," and when Williams understood, Mrs. Mortimer was contemplating a divorce from her husband.

The witness also told of remarks by Forbes that $80,000 was "coming to Mortimer, but that he would see that Mrs. Mortimer got it." Williams explained that from what he could gather from the conversation, Mortimer was "arranging contracts" with the bureau. The witness also said Forbes had stated that Mortimer was to be arrested and that the reason the former director sought his papers was that he did not want them in Mrs. Mortimer's possession at the time of the arrest.

Forbes, accompanied by his attorney, was present throughout the sessions today. During Williams' testimony he made a number of notes and conferred frequently with his counsel who apparently had some difficulty in restraining him from interrupting the examination as he did on several occasions at the opening of the investigation.

Besides the charges against Forbes, the committee inquired today in the purchase of a site for the bureau hospital at Excelsior Springs, Missouri, from E. L. Morse, at a cost of $110,000 and the alleged negligence and carelessness in the handling of disability and insurance claims of veterans. The Excelsior Springs matter will be taken up again tomorrow, with Morse on the stand.

AT THE PRINCESS TODAY AND TONIGHT

"Watch Your Step," the new Goldwyn picture now playing at the Princess theater is a smooth comedy with many surprises. The hero, played by Cullen Landis, has a mania for speed, and is cured only by a strange series of incidents that arise after he has had his one grand smash-up with a racing car.

The hero's nature seems changed after this, as are his clothes (a band of tramps get them), and he takes up life in a small country town. Things are different here, especially the feminine interest added in the person of Patsy Ruth Miller. She is young, pretty and charming, and we didn't blame Cullen Landis for hanging around until the final reel. He had to meet a lot of opposition before that date he made to look at the moon. But he got what he wanted, as well as his father's forgiveness. Let us hope that his father gave him a tricycle for a wedding present instead of another racing auto.

"Watch Your Step" was directed by William Beaudine. It is a fine example of rollicking, clean comedy.

West Palm Beach Holds Up Croker Will Proceedings

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla., Oct. 31.—Judge H. P. Robbins in probate court here today issued an order binding all persons possessing documents and papers in this city and belonging to the late Richard Croker, to hold the instruments intact until certain questions as to a purported will of Croker is settled.

The order follows a petition filed by Joseph Mendel, mayor and W. E. Mageers, of West Palm Beach, calling attention to a will recently uncovered in Ireland which is alleged to bequeath local institutions a considerable portion of the Croker estate.
