Love blooms eternal and doors can't stop it. Monday the sheriff's office received a call from a man who complained his girl friend had locked him out. Upon investigation, the girl friend said she did not know the door was locked. When last seen, the complaining man was entering the house, his face cracked by a huge smile.

Chairman John R. Alexander, of the Seminole County Commission, and Harold Johnson, county attorney, plan to go to Tallahassee this week to check on the progress of the county's legislative program. Their trip was authorized by the Board of Commissioners Tuesday.

A special meeting of the County Board of Commissioners will be held May 4 to accept bids on the mixers fire ant bait. There is expected to be only one bid since only one company makes the poisonous bait.

All was confusion on First Street between Oak and Park Tuesday. On one side of the street cars were parked parallel. On the other side they were parked angular.

LBJ Renews Peace Talk Bid

Parking Woes Being Ironed Out—Wilson

Parking in downtown Sanford is due for one more go-round—this one, it is hoped will get the matter straightened out once and for all. Acting Mayor A. L. Wilson told The Sanford Herald that the city borrowed an erasing machine and started today to erase all parking lines on First Street from Sanford to Oak Avenue, then remark them correctly, as originally ordered by the City Commission at the April 12 meeting.

"I'm not putting the blame on anyone," said Wilson, "but somehow there was a misinterpretation of City Commission instructions and the 30 degree angles were marked 10 feet apart instead of eight feet. This has cut the number of parking spaces considerably and has caused a great deal of confusion. Also the area between Park and Oak, which was changed to parallel parking has been confusing to motorists because of lines going both ways.

"We ask the public please to bear with us for a few more days until we get this matter straightened out," Mayor Wilson urged.

After all the old lines are erased, the area between Oak and Park Avenues will be marked parallel parking and the area between Park and Sanford Avenues will be 30-degree angle parking eight feet apart.

The more oblique angle parking is expected to decrease the traffic hazard encountered when motorists back out of the angled parking stalls, usually across the center line, blocking traffic in both lanes.

Two parking stalls will be eliminated in line with requests from Police Chief Arnold Williams. One is the first stall on the southeast corner of Park Avenue and First Street, and the other is on the southwest corner of Magnolia Avenue and First.

Chief Williams said motorists backing out of these two stalls have to drive across the pedestrian crosswalks, "which is extremely hazardous."

Senate OKs U Funds

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — The Senate gave swift and unanimous passage today to a bill authorizing a $75 million bond financed program of university and junior college construction in the next biennium.

The measure, which now goes to the House, was introduced today with the whole Senate as co-sponsors and acted upon immediately.

A large part of the money will start construction of new universities in Orange County, three miles south of Orlando on SR 520 at the Seminole County line, and at Pensacola.

It will permit $43 million for new university buildings and $37 million for junior college expansion. The additional $5 million in buildings plus amounts to meet the interest on the bonded debt will come from surplus moneys in the state utilities tax revenue fund earmarked two years ago for the program.

Without the approval of the $75 million amount, the state would have been limited to a $50 million bond issue for the next two years. The projects to be financed will be spelled out in a capital outlay bill accompanying the general appropriations bill.

The state already has sold $75 million in bonds for higher education construction in the current biennium. Tuesday, the Senate held a heated session in which a bill relaxing usury laws to permit unlimited interest rates to corporations was killed by a 5-39 vote. Silver-haired Sen. Verle Pope, of St. Augustine, called it a "money changer's bill."

Meanwhile, the House passed and sent to the Senate a group of election law changes including authority for illiterates to get help in voting booths. The House also passed a measure making it illegal to sell, barter or possess blank drivers licenses. Other bills received from the House in the Senate were a requirement for all public schools to fly the state flag and permission for counties to give teachers time for lunch and planning when they are not directly responsible for children.

Bulging Mississippi Rips Out Seawalls

ROCK ISLAND, Ill. (UPI) — The bulging Mississippi tore through three battered dikes today and kept relentless pressure along miles of river front.

Hundreds of exhausted workers kept up their battle against the upper Mississippi's worst flood in history.

For three weeks the river has swollen out of its banks, sending thousands of persons fleeing from their homes from Minnesota to Missouri.

The crest was expected in the Illinois-Iowa "Quad Cities" industrial complex today and was expected to hold at the peak level for three days.

Water broke through a seawall at Davenport, Iowa, and threw up a secondary dike west of its Betterdort (Iowa) plant, near Davenport. The river burst through the Chaney Lane dike at Milan, a small town adjacent to the Illinois-Iowa Quad Cities industrial complex where the Rock River flows into the Mississippi.

With a siren piercing the nighttime air, muddy waters poured through about six blocks of lowlands, and the weary workers threw themselves into the task of piling sandbags on a secondary dike along railroad tracks.

Milan Mayor Glenn Reid had said that if the Chaney Lane dike, which runs for three miles, were to break, the whole town would be in jeopardy. The 2,500 residents were alerted to move out.

The other break came downstream. The river eroded today a 150-foot hole in a dike south of Quincy, Ill., about 140 miles downstream from here, and swept inland across rich farmland.

Civil defense officials said no injuries were reported. However, they said 60 homes and 15 industrial facilities were endangered in a 6,000-acre area.

War's End Up To Communist Aggressors

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Johnson intends to continue the U. S. air strikes on North Viet Nam until the Reds stop fighting and meet his offer of "unconditional" peace talks with other than "silence, slander, or the sound of guns."

The Chief Executive rejected suggestions that a suspension of the air assaults might lure the Communists to the peace table.

"Whether we make friends or lose friends," he told a news conference, "we are resisting aggression and as long as the aggressors attack, we will stay there and resist them."

Johnson said that "the moment" North Viet Nam ends its aggression the United States will cease "the destruction of their bridges and their radar stations and the ammunition that they use on our bolivies. . . . He renewed his offer of "unconditional" peace talks, but he conceded that, so far, it had been met "with silence, slander, or the sound of guns. But just as we will not lag in battle, we will not weary in the search for peace."

The President's 33-minute meeting will be covered in the White House's official East Room Tuesday capped a series of policy statements over the past few days by his top diplomatic and military advisers.

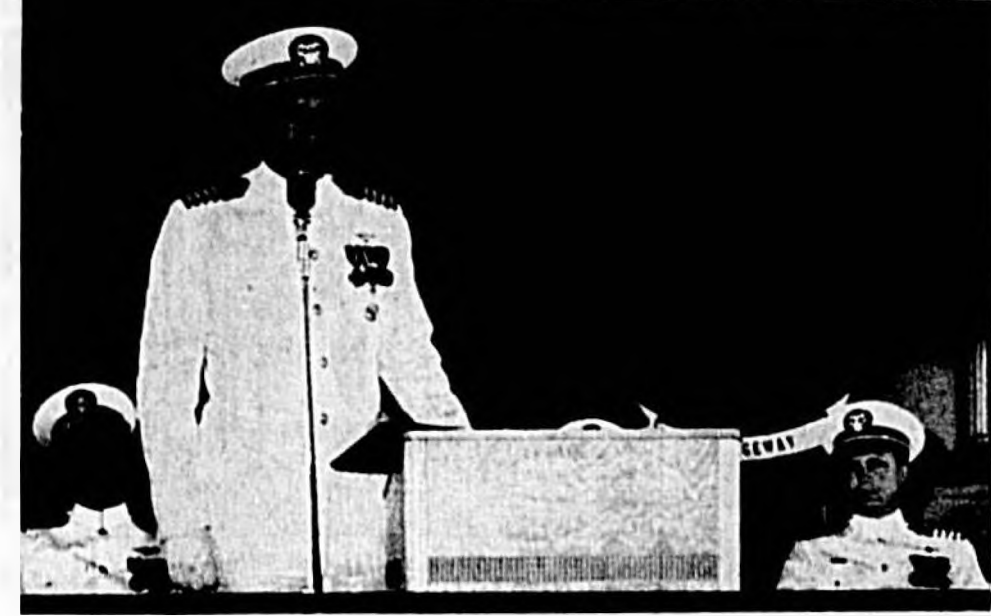

His pungent defense of his policy was televised live in the United States and beamed abroad by the government's Voice of America radio transmitters.

The conference ranged over a wide field of subjects, including new presidential appointments, an announcement that the budget deficit is being reduced, a comment on the voting rights battle in the Senate, and a defense of his action in postponing the U. S. visits of the Indian and Pakistani leaders.

But it was dominated by discussion of what the Chief Executive called the "crucial struggle" in Viet Nam.

Fowler Relieves Mayo

CAPT. JAMES O. MAYO, in his final inspection as commanding officer of Reconnaissance Attack Wing One, bids farewell to staff officers. He will take over command of the fleet officer USS Nantahala. (Herald Photo)

By Paul Brookshire
The challenge of the "uncertain days ahead" means that Reconnaissance Attack Wing One will have to continue to improve, Capt. Richard E. Fowler Jr. declared Tuesday in assuming command of the Wing in ceremonies at Sanford Naval Air Station.

"You are more capable than you have ever been before and your task is more important than ever before," Captain Fowler told the officers and men of the Wing.

"There lies ahead an opportunity for solid and significant achievement," the new commander declared.

Captain Fowler told the men they are the elite of Naval aviation and that he looked forward to being a part of a program so vitally important to the Navy and the free world.

Fowler assumed command of the wing from Capt. James O. Mayo, who is leaving Sanford to become commanding officer of the USS Nantahala. He will report to his new assignment in Norfolk June 7.

Mayo received the highest commendations from his superiors in the change of command ceremony. Adm. David L. McDonald, chief of Naval Operations, wired his regrets that he was unable to attend the change of command ceremony.

He said he wanted to personally commend Captain Mayo and all members of the Reconnaissance attack team, including NAS Sanford and their Seminole County and City of Sanford civilian supporters, "for the great strides that have been made in the Navy's highly important reconnaissance capability."

Rear Adm. Robert Goldthwaite, commander Fleet Air, Jacksonville, was the guest speaker at the ceremony.

Goldthwaite praised Captain Mayo for his part in effectively introducing the complex RA-5C aircraft into the Wing and for "solving many of the problems of its introduction."

"It will be missed in Sanford but he is departing with the knowledge of a job well done," Admiral Goldthwaite said.

Captain Mayo said it had been a "great honor and privilege" to have served as the Wing's commander. He said the officers and men had exhibited a high degree of operational readiness.

Opening Of Channels To Chinese Favored

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The U. S. Chamber of Commerce today went on record formally in favor of opening "channels of communication with the people of mainland China."

The resolution, as approved without debate by 1,000 chamber delegates, said a long-range objective of the United States should be "a free and democratic China on the Asia mainland."

The resolution said that the United States should continue to recognize the Nationalist Chinese government on Taiwan and should continue to withhold diplomatic recognition from Peking and oppose a United Nations seat for Red China.

Commerce Secretary John T. Connor told the delegates earlier that if they do not pay more attention to consumer needs, they face the prospect of more government controls.

Ernest J. Loohebeck, chairman of the chamber's policy committee, said the resolution was "not designed to give approval for trade with Red China."

The disavowal of endorsement of trade with Peking represented a step back from a statement by the chamber's new president, Robert P. Gerholz. The Flint (Mich.) businessman said that "trade talks would be part of opening up communications" with the Red Chinese.

The resolution said that the United States should continue to recognize the Nationalist Chinese government on Taiwan and should continue to withhold diplomatic recognition from Peking and oppose a United Nations seat for Red China.

Marines Strike Out In Search Operation

SAIGON (UPI)—U. S. Marines struck out from the Da Nang air base today in their biggest operation of the war against the Viet Cong.

In the Communist North American planes dropped a million propaganda leaflets while attacking key transport facilities.

Size of the Marine search and clear force was not announced but it involved several companies. Gen. Wallace M. Greene, the Marine Corps commander, said his men will fan out as far as necessary to defend the Da Nang air and missile base from attack.

"The one job I want them to do is to find Viet Cong and kill them," Greene told newsmen at a briefing at the end of an official inspection tour. "We got one today and we're going to get more."

There are almost 10,000 Marines in the Da Nang area 350 miles northeast of Saigon and

Anti-Pollution

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The House was expected to give its approval today to an administration-supported proposal calling for a two-year, $300 million federal program against water pollution.

Tuesday, the Senate held a heated session in which a bill relaxing usury laws to permit unlimited interest rates to corporations was killed by a 5-39 vote. Silver-haired Sen. Verle Pope, of St. Augustine, called it a "money changer's bill."

Death Sentence Change Sought

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Rep. Robert L. Shevin of Dade introduced a bill today removing the mandatory death sentence in capital cases. The proposal would require juries to recommend the death sentence to send a man to the electric chair.

Currently the death sentence is mandatory unless a jury recommends mercy. Shevin's proposal would reverse the procedure, making life imprisonment mandatory unless the jury recommends death.

Bank Aide Tries Suicide

BLUFFTON, Ind. (UPI) — There's a $216,752 shortage in the funds of the Farmers & Merchants Bank.

Rose Johnson, the bank's chief bookkeeper for the past 28 years is in the hospital recovering from 17 gashes inflicted above and below her elbows.

Police records say that Mrs. Johnson's wounds were inflicted a week ago Monday in a suicide attempt.

The story came out today in this eastern Indiana town, 25 miles south of Fort Wayne, when bank President Amos Gerber acknowledged that the community of 7,000 had been buzzing about it for a week.

Mrs. Johnson was one of the best known and most respected women in town. She and Gerber were regarded as mainstays of the bank.

Two years ago she and her husband bought one of Bluffton's biggest homes and filled it with antique furnishings from the items she had collected as a prominent antique dealer.

About a month ago Mrs. Johnson was hospitalized briefly for surgery. Before the operation she told other bank employees she would take care of "the savings account file" when she returned.

But to be obliging, the other employees worked on the file so that Mrs. Johnson would not be overburdened with work when she returned.

When she came back to work three weeks ago, they told her they couldn't get the accounts to balance.

Employees said she told them "give me a tape on it and I'll take care of it." She brought them back, apparently in balance. But bank officials were suspicious. They notified Joseph McCard, director of the State Department of Financial Institutions.

Bank examiners found that shortages apparently began at the Farmers & Merchants two years ago. More than half the total shortage vanished within the past four months, bank officials said.

On April 19, Gerber told Mrs. Johnson of the examiners' findings. He said she stayed late at the bank that day and left shortly after 5 p.m.

Two hours later Mrs. Johnson's 15-year-old son found her in the bedroom of their home. It took 100 stitches to close her wounds.

The next day Federal Bureau of Investigation agents searched her home,

A Red Cross Senior Lifesaving Course will begin Monday at the home of Mrs. William Eggers, instructor, at the end of Lake Howell Lane off SR 436. Co-instructor for the course will be Mrs. James Birkenmeyer of Caselberry, water safety coordinator for South Seminole County.

The 18-hour course is open to anyone 16 years old or older. Adults wishing to help in the water safety program are especially urged to take the course as a prerequisite to the instructor's course.

Adult volunteers are needed to assist with the area's swimming program this summer.

The lifesaving classes will be held from 4 until 5 p.m., Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, and on Saturday morning. There is a $1 registration fee.

Students with a transportation problem should contact Mrs. Eggers by telephone.

Close Trimmed Naturally Tender.

What natural aging does for fine cheese and fine wines it also does for the fine beef you get at Winn-Dixie. It mellows and enhances the flavor of W-D Beef and increases its tenderness without destroying the fine beef texture or making it soft and spongy; as artificial tenderizers sometimes do.

Pascual's Home Run Tops Twins' Win

Camilo Pascual is known around the Minnesota Twins' clubhouse as a fellow with a short temper, a dazzling curve and a whip-lash batting swing.

He's succeeded in controlling his temper fairly well in recent years but both the dazzling curve and whip-lash swing were on display Tuesday night when he pitched a two-hitter and hit the second grand slam homer of his career in the Twins' 11-1 rout of the Cleveland Indians.

The 31-year-old righthander from Havana, Cuba struck out five, walked only two and allowed only four Indians to reach base safely. He started slowly against the Indians yielding a leadoff double to Dick Howser, who scored on an infield out and Max Alvis' sacrifice fly, and walks to Chuck Hinton and Rocky Colavito but then retired 21 consecutive batters.

Pascual's grand slam capped a seven-run first inning and came off relief pitcher Stan Williams after the Twins had chased starter Sam McDowell. The only active AL pitcher who has hit more than one grand slam, Camillo hit the first of his career off Bob Turley of the New York Yankees on Aug. 14, 1960.

The Chicago White Sox downed the Boston Red Sox, 10-1, the Washington Senators beat the Baltimore Orioles, 5-2, and the Los Angeles Angels nipped the Detroit Tigers, 4-3, in other games. Kansas City at New York was rained out.

In the National League, Milwaukee bombed St. Louis, 9-6, Los Angeles beat Pittsburgh, 6-4, Cincinnati topped New York, 3-2, and San Francisco outslugged Philadelphia, 14-13.

As Part Of Mets' 'Youth Movement'

Yogi Resumes Active Player Status

HOUSTON (UPI) — You could not really call what the New York Mets are doing with their youth movement, but for Yogi Berra it is his latest challenge in more years of baseball than he cares to admit.

Yogi, at 40, is back on the active roster with the Mets. Yogi was ready to go against the Houston Astros Tuesday night, but wasn't called upon.

Instead, he spent the night coaching from first base. You wonder what to think of those Mets. First they get a guy named Casey Stengel, for whom "retirement" is something a pitcher should do to better himself. And Stengel makes the Mets' losing ways a profitable business. Then the Mets sign Warren Spahn, a 44-year-old pitcher who considers age something people do to cheese to make it taste better. And Spahn starts off the season winning as though it were going out of style.

And then the Mets put Yogi back on the active roster. The veteran catcher agreed Tuesday to be reactivated as a player for a two-week trial period, "to see if I can be of any help to the club." Berra said he will go back to coaching if he finds he is unable to play well after the two weeks. If he returns to coaching, he would not be able to play again this year.

Berra said he will not make more money as a player than a coach. "I already have a good contract," he said. "I'm making a lot of money now." Yogi will blow out 40 candles on his birthday cake in two weeks, and that's not springtime for a baseball player. But Yogi, made a first base coach at the start of this season, took batting practice every day with the squad, and caught batting practice as well. He kept in condition and although he had left the impression in New York he wanted no more of active play, he was ready when the Mets wanted him.

Kilowatts, Kingswood Tie League Lead

The mighty Kilowatts of the Men's Six-Pitch Softball League forged into a two-way tie with Kingswood for the league leadership by virtually declaring war on Chase, rampaging their way to a 10-1 victory last night in an abbreviated four-inning contest. The Kilowatts' 14-hit attack included two home runs by Larry Helman, home runs by Don Carter and Jim Warner plus timely hitting by winning pitcher Leroy Estridge and L. C. Smith.

Chick 'N' Treat rallied for six runs in the sixth inning to stave off any threat Leroy Robb Construction could muster and went on to post a 14-7 triumph. Leading the way for the winners were Leon Dodson with three hits and Larry Watson, Charles Becker and Doug Braswell with two hits apiece. Ed Hamm was the game's winning pitcher. George Griffin had three hits to lead the losers.

In Church League action, the Knights of Columbus continued their winning ways, notching their fourth successive victory, a 13-10 win over Congregational Christian. Larry Pivec's three home runs were the highlight of the game. Pivec knocked in the winning runs as K of C rallied in the sixth for four runs after trailing 9-10. Pacing the 16-hit output of the Knights was Fred Galletto with four singles. Ray Middleton had a double and a homer to lead the Congregational hitters. Nick Constantine posted his fourth win in as many outings.

The Church of God of Prophecy tallied seven all-important runs in the seventh and final inning to down Pinercrest Assembly, 11-6, at Fort Mellon Park last night. Bob Welch took credit for the win on the mound. Tex Ferris with three hits paced the Church of God while Ernie Whitaker was top hitter for Pinercrest with three safeties.

Dana Yelneck starred on the mound for Hunt Lincoln-Mercury as the Comets blanked the Locomotive Engineers, 3-0. Yelneck twirled a two-hitter and struck out nine in shutting out the Engineers. Calvin Grunt at the plate, getting two hits in three official appearances at bat.

George's was awarded a 6-0 forfeit win over Sanford Atlantic in the Little American. George's was leading 5-2 when the Bankers, in the second inning, sent in an ineligible pitcher.

In the Junior League, Kilwanis and Civitan went two innings beyond the normal seven before Kilwanis could manage a 7-6 win. Sidney Lloyd, the winning pitcher, won his own game by driving in the winning run in the ninth with a single. Lloyd, along with Wally Jernigan, had three hits and Melt Morgan chipped in two. The game yesterday was the continuation of a 6-0 tie game April 23.

Hurricanes End Season, Topple Yellow Jackets In 4-0 Shutout

By Jim Baccus
Herald Sports Writer

The South Seminole Hurricanes completed their baseball season at Cooper Field in Casselberry Tuesday afternoon with an impressive 4-0 victory over the Leesburg Yellow Jackets.

Bruce Stuart hurled a four-hit shutout for the 'Canes in registering his team's fifth win of the season against three losses and a tie.

South Seminole scored all its runs in the fourth inning, off Leesburg's George Goetz.

Jim Lucas led off the inning with a single. Matt Hiekk reached first on an error and Mike Hargis beat out a bunt to load the bases. Lucas scored on an error for the first run.

Leonard Hollis slammed a two-run double, scoring Hiekk and Hargis. Mickey Hawks then rapped a single to bring in Hollis for the fourth run.

The Hurricanes pounded the Jackets for nine hits in the affair. Shortstop Tom Pinnock had a perfect plate record, a pair of singles and a walk. Hiekk also had two hits, along with a pair of stolen bases.

Stuart allowed the Jackets only four singles in the affair, while chalking up five strikeouts.

Pentecost Appears Assured Top Spot In Bowling Singles League

With just one week remaining in the Singles Classic League, Harry Pentecost looks like he has sewed up the number one spot with a 9's point lead over second slotted Jack Kanter.

In Monday's action, Pentecost blasted the pins with a 223/792 four-game total and clipped three points from Paul Marquette's 203/692. Jack Kanter remains in the second place position even though he lost three points to Jack Frost, who had a good night of bowling with his 229/786 series.

In third place is John Spokal, just three points behind Kanter. Spokal lost three points to Joe Kern despite a 217/744 to Kern's 202/729.

John Bridges is currently in the fourth spot, only a bare single point out of third. Coming in fifth is Phil Decks Sparmate.

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — world featherweight champion Vincenzo Salvator decked sparmate Chico Hernandez in the second round for the second consecutive day Tuesday during training sessions for his May 7 title defense against Paul Rojas at the Coliseum.

The Broiled Team, by winning three out of four this Friday, clinched the League Championship.

Tough is in second place closely pursued by Never Better and Fat for a tie for third place with one game behind. Archie Long had high three games with a 313; Edward Parsons a 303; Ellisworth Ogden, 302, and Glenn Smith had high one game with 106.

It takes two factories to build one Volkswagen convertible

Life would be much easier if the VW convertible were built in one factory. But it's not. Two factories do the job better. The same plant that builds the VW Sedan also builds the VW convertible chassis. They put the engine together, install the torsion bar suspension system. Etc. The rest of the job is finished in Osnabruck, where the famed Karmann coach-makers live. The way they build convertible tops is not to be believed. Everything is hand-sewn. Hand-fitted. Hand-formed. And the finished top looks it. You won't find a visible strut or cross-bar. The top is leakproof and airtight. It has a real glass window in back. It's upholstered better than almost any sedan you can name. It's as snug as almost any sedan you can name. Ours, included.

Strikes . . . Spares

By John A. Spolski
Didja ever hear of people with names like "Impatient Bowlers," "Beatniks," "LFML's," or the "Gully Dusters"? With names such as these it should enhance their chances of ultimate stardom, but when you add excellent bowling scores to their ledgers, then you just might be looking and watching some future professionals!

Our heartfelt congratulations to the above for their pin busting in our First Annual Junior Bowling Tournament. This past Saturday, we played host to our Junior League members in their competition in the team event.

Coming in first in the Bantam Division (ages seven through twelve) were the Impatient Bowlers: Louise Zuell, Lynn Warnecke, Penny Bernall and Rickie Payne. (What happened fellahs, looks like the gals had it all to themselves.)

Second slot fell to the Beatniks with their 1,816 series, as compared to the winning 1,892. Two more ladies on this team in the forms of Beth Pettis, Bonnie Unger joining with David Hite and Scotta Roche.

A scant eight pins separated the two top teams in the Junior-Senior Division with the LFML's 2,251 to that of 2,243 for the Gully Dusters.

The first-place four-some was composed of Brad Fox, Tom Petrunic, Ken Martin and Paul Glad. Shooting well for the Gully Dusters was David Carter, Frank Patterson, David Kniffin and Bob Driscoll.

This coming Saturday morn we'll have the Doubles and Singles with squads at 9:30 and 11:30.

Talking about the younger keepers as we are, this past Sunday we had one of the highest games rolled by any bowler for the week, a round-rolling 265.

Bowling along with his mother and witnessed by quite a few adults on adjoining lanes, Billy Callan strung-out eight consecutive strikes to cap off his highest individual effort . . . a gigantic 265. Congratulations, Billy. Maybe you can do as well in the Doubles and Singles this coming Saturday.

A pleasant surprise in the form of six couples coming out for the Sunday Scotch Doubles this week. Winning shares of the prize money dropped to Marge and Jess Carathers with their 1,017 series. Second place was awarded to Jerry Wisdom and partner Eleanor Belque with their 947 set.

Was over to Daytona Beach to see some of our gals compete in the Women's Florida State Tournament and already saw four or five local gals' names on the "hit parade" of early leaders.

Don't exactly remember their scores but can recall that Etta Dorman, Elaine Kostival, Geri Williams, Helen Marchesano and Jane Spolski were listed on the tote board.

Incidentally, if you'd like to know what took the marbles in the various events last year, here's the info, thanks to Dot Button dropping it off for me here at the lanes:

TEAM: A—3,022, B—3,072 and C—3,070; DOUBLES: A—1,303, B—1,303, C—1,254; SINGLES: A—683, B—673 and C—708.

So now you have a pretty good idea of what it'll take to bring back some of the loot.

Next week we start our local qualifying for the Beat The Champ Tournament, sponsored by AMF. We'll have four weeks in May during which time you'll be able to be one of the top three men or women qualifiers and then roll-off against these same bowlers in the first week in June to see what six top bowlers will be representing Jet Lanes.

These same six bowlers will be rolling against professionals Tommy Tuttle and Olga Gloor in Winter Park on Sunday, June 20th, at 2 p.m.

It's open to men and women and it's handicapped. Perhaps the strongest selling point is that there isn't any entry fee for this tourney.

Have you signed for your summer league yet? Many of the leagues are starting within the next week or two and could use bowlers . . . both men and women.

Favorite Named

YONKERS, N. Y. (UPI)—New Zealand's Smoke Cloud Monday was installed as the 5-1 morning line favorite for Thursday's $50,000 National Championship Race, the last of a $200,000 three-race series at Yonkers Raceway.

Bold Lad Romps Home In Trial, Next Is Derby

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (UPI)—Bold Lad, the 1964 juvenile champion, was back at peak form today for Saturday's running of the $125,000 added Kentucky Derby but a field of about 12 horses still was in prospect for the rose run despite the colt's smashing triumph Tuesday in the Derby trial at Churchill Downs.

Bold Lad streaked to a four-length triumph in the last prep race for America's racing classic, running a mile in the fast time of 1:33 1-5. But only two of the five horses which tried vainly to match his speed were out of the first of the Triple Crown Classic.

Darby Dan Farm's Bugler and Triple R. Stable's One Afternoon fell by the wayside but Carpenter's Rule and Apple Core, if the track is muddy, will be back for another crack at the Wheatley whiz. "There is no sense saying he didn't beat much," said Jim Conway who saddled Chateaugay for his 1963 Kentucky Derby victory and who has Bugler this year. "Bold Lad has been tested before and when he showed he was in form that was it for us," he added.

Perne L. Grissom's Carpenter's Rule was second in the trial and both the owner and trainer Frank Childs agreed that "if we don't start we don't have a chance to win, so he is a definite starter."

The M. G. Cosbys Entertain Guests From New York

Recent visitors of the Michael G. Cosbys of North Orlando were Mr. and Mrs. William VanBree and children, Tom, Barbara and Nancy, of Merrick, N. Y.

The VanBrees were on a two-week trailer trip around the state of Florida and came especially to Central Florida to visit the Cosbys.

Although the visit was brief, it was a happy one and particularly delightful to the ladies who are friends since their career days when they worked together in one of New York City's leading advertising agencies.

Mr. VanBree is a draftsman with Shell Oil Company in New York.

The Cosbys also entertained during the Easter holidays, her brother and his family, Mr. and Mrs. John F. Zeller, and daughters, Lorraine and Virginia, from Merrick, N. Y.

The Cosbys enjoyed taking their nieces to Florida Wonderland; showing them some of the chores involved in horse ownership; they all went horseback riding, and then renewed their strength with the tasty goodies of a barbecue.

Three year old Michael was extremely disappointed when he learned that his cousins had to return to their studies in New York.

Children Honor Parents When...

The Ted Williams Observe Silver Wedding Anniversary

Silver slippers, wedding bells and magnificent floral arrangements tinged with silver foliage enhanced the decor of the spacious Ted Williams Pluosa Drive home last Sunday afternoon when more than 200 guests called during the appointed hours at an open house reception to congratulate Selma and Ted Williams on their silver wedding anniversary.

Greeting the guests at the entrance foyer were Mrs. Robert (Dottie) Williams and Mrs. Cecil Carlton.

Forming the receiving line with their parents were Mrs. Paul Morgan (the former Jane Williams) of Denison, Texas, Miss Linda Williams, Miss Mary Beth Williams and Larry Williams. Unable to attend the fete was son, Jimmy, who is with the U. S. Marine Corps, stationed in California.

Mrs. Williams received the guests in a lovely pale blue afternoon frock featuring a soft pleated chiffon skirt and a sheer lace bodice. She wore the beautiful corsage presented her by her children and only grandchild, Jayne Katherine Morgan, of Denison, Texas.

The refreshment table, overlaid in white heirloom damask featuring hand embroidered detail, was centered with an antique silver epergne arrangements of sweetheart roses, chrysanthemums and baby's breath interspersed with tall white tapers. Dainty refreshments were offered in crystal and silver appointments.

Pink roses, apple blossoms, blue hearts, silver bells and butterflies decorated the unique four-tiered cake at one end of the table. The four columns dividing the tiers were ornated with white doves holding silver wedding bands and a sugar slipper contained dainty roses. A silver band accented with silver leaves and roses encircled the top layer, centered with the silver numerals, 25.

Coffee was poured from antique silver service at the opposite end of the table. A side table, covered in an Italian cut cloth, was centered with an epergne arrangement with a handsome silver bowl containing sparkling fruit punch.

Pouring and serving were the Meses Marion Roberts, W. H. Stewart, Jack Burney, Bob Tuttle, Hugh Carlton, Lauren Johnson, John D. Carlton, George Hughes, J. H. Lee, W. W. Tyre and J. W. Brown.

Floating hostesses were the Meses Sylvia Williams, Sheryl Williams, Ada Rupert and Debbie Jarvis.

Floral arrangements were designed and created by the Meses W. A. Norris, J. H. Lee and J. E. Terwilliger for the reception with the honor guests receiving many arrangements as mementos.

Among the out of town guests attending were Rev. and Mrs. J. E. McKinley, St. Augustine; Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Tuttle and children, Allen, Jack, Gary, Jimmy and Karen, Orlando, and Mrs. Paul E. Fiteger and Louri Anne, Tallahassee.

Also Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Carlton, Cross City; Mr. and Mrs. J. Paul Reynolds Jr. and J. Paul Reynolds III, Melbourne; Mr. and Mrs. John B. Dean and Betty and Mr. and Mrs. Willard Dean, Mark and Wayne, all from Leesburg.

Luncheon Fetes Bridal Attendants Of Miss Beasley

By Evelyn Landy

Mrs. Charles Niblack and Mrs. James Wilson, Oviedo, were hostesses at a lovely bridesmaids luncheon Friday at the Skyline Restaurant in Orlando. The luncheon was in honor of Miss Rose Marie Beasley, bride-elect of Moultrie Banks.

A decorated wedding ball and pastel spring glowers arranged in a shell lent a festive air to the luncheon table.

Appropriate bridal place cards were used.

The buffet luncheon was enjoyed by Miss Rose Marie Beasley, guest of honor; Mrs. Joshua G. Beasley, mother of the bride-elect; Mrs. Curtis M. Banks, mother of the groom-elect, and Mrs. Billy Smithson, Miss Jan Beasley, Mrs. Curtis Banks, Miss Charlotte Schlegel, Mrs. George Riggins and Mrs. Marie Cooper.

Progressive Parties Given Seniors

By Evelyn Landy

One of the most fun-filled parties of the season was enjoyed Saturday afternoon and evening when four graduating seniors of Oviedo High School were honored by their parents at four different progressive parties at the homes of the guests of honor, Gay Ulrey, Karen Jansen, Nancy Swenson and Arthur Evans.

The party began at 5 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Don Ulrey in Oviedo. The refreshment table carried out the class colors of red and white. A large white globe topped by a bright red graduation cap was the center of interest, flanked by two silver candelabra with red candles. An arrangement of red and white roses was also used. Punch was served from a crystal punch bowl by Mrs. Wesley Swenson. Various hors d'oeuvres were served to the guests.

Leaving the Ulrey home at 6 o'clock, guests drove out to the home of the Leonard Jansens on Bear Gully Lake in Goldenrod. A delicious steak supper, together with baked beans, tossed salad and French bread was served from low tables on the lawn. Guests were seated on cushions on the ground. Green table cloths were used and napkins were placed in black circles which formed a graduation cap on top. Many orchids were pinned among the branches of the trees.

The next party was at the home of Mrs. Nancy Swenson. This was a dance enjoyed by the students on the tennis court. The entire court was surrounded by lighted candles. A Caribbean hot-making contest was enjoyed by the guests. Jim Courier won a prize for the funniest hat and Nancy Swenson for the most original. Marilyn Partin also won a prize.

Soft drinks were served by the hosts.

The final party ended at the home of the Wesley Swensons on Lake Hayes. The house was decorated with fish nets hung from the ceiling and here and there life savers were placed. Small pennants reading "Ahoj Seniors" were placed among the net. A most novel decoration in the living room was a large treasure chest and anchor.

The Swensons served dessert of ice cream and all the fixings for sundaes to the guests who ended the long, most enjoyable parties at 11:30 p.m.

The attractive and novel table decorations were pastel spring flowers used with a figurine of a teenager in a cap and gown. Also used was a white world globe topped with a graduation cap. The theme of the table decoration was depicting Marilyn conquering the world.

Favors of a graduating figurine was presented to each guest, who were, in addition to the guest of honor, Mrs. James Partin, Miss Maureen Boyle, Miss Joy Walnright, Miss Linda Riggins, Miss Suzanne Partin, Miss Gay Ulrey, Miss Marian Carpenter and Miss Sherry Waltz.

Beauty Briefs

Take heart, homemakers. Our hands have great snap-back power. A chemist for a hand cream firm says hands respond rapidly to proper care. If you have allowed your hands to become seriously chapped or damaged by harsh detergent, you need to give them TLC (tender loving care). In the morning soak your hands for a few minutes in a solution of lukewarm water with a few drops of baby oil, bath oil or olive oil added. Salad oil works, too. Pat dry. Always wash hands with lukewarm, not hot water, and smooth on a cream or lotion every time your hands have been in water.

Fabric colors this spring range from creamy, off-white beiges through citrus, corals and light pinks. Lipsticks keyed to fashion shades are soft and clear giving some color to the lips.

Local Library Use Up 100% At New Building

By Dottie Austin
This is National Library Week. The slogan for this year is "Open your future... read."
Mrs. Sarah King, Sanford librarian, said today that since moving the local library from the Fifth Street location to the present site in the old post office building on First Street circulation has increased 100 per cent.
"During the summer months, circulation will increase even more and again we will have our summer reading incentive program," she added.

"Since we revised our old system we have had 6,000 persons registered in the past three years. There is great room for expansion in this building, but as with many other cities our book supply is way below what it should be. For a city the size of Sanford, we should have 100,000 books, according to national standards. We have about 25,000," Mrs. King explained.

From 50 to 150 new books are purchased each month and the local library stocks 50 periodicals and five daily newspapers.

The Sanford librarian recently attended a three-day meeting of the Florida Library Association — the first time that a Sanford librarian has ever attended.

The local institution is open from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Monday through Saturday, as well as on Friday from 6 to 9 p.m.

"However, after the close of school we will discontinue the Friday evening hours until next fall," Mrs. King noted.

Queried as to the age group which reads the most, Mrs. King replied that youngsters in the nine-to-12-year-old group are the most avid readers.

"Things really start to bustle in here shortly after school is out in the afternoon. We have a steady stream of youngsters of all ages. One of our needs is for more chairs and tables to be used for study and research projects."

"And, of course, we certainly hope we get our air-conditioning next year," added Mrs. King.

G. T. Willey, of Orlando, honorary chairman of National Library Week in Florida, says that the library, more than anything else in our society, represents the repository of human knowledge. It is the written record of events and the accumulated wisdom of mankind.

'Project Fire' Launch Tuesday

CAPE KENNEDY (UPI) — Within five years, a three-man Apollo spaceship returning from the moon is scheduled to make a meteoric dive into earth's atmosphere.

The astronauts' lives and the success of their historic mission will depend on a blunt heat shield and its ability to fend off rays from a fireball of gases with temperatures approaching 30,000 degrees.

To make certain scientists have correctly predicted the re-entry heating a moonship will face, the federal space agency developed two small spacecraft to be rammed toward earth at the 25,000-mile-an-hour speeds of spacecraft returning from the moon.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration announced today that the second of the instrument-laden Project Fire probes is set to be launched next Tuesday.

The first Project Fire payload was driven into earth's atmosphere a year ago at speeds up to 25,800 mph. It indicated that scientists may have over estimated the re-entry heat.

Next week's spacecraft is designed to confirm the first probe's measurements and make a more thorough study of high-speed heating.

The agency said that re-entry heat from a lunar flight is significantly greater than the temperatures produced by Mercury and Gemini capsules returning from earth orbits at 17,000 mph speeds.

Voc-Ed Centers Win Approval From Cabinet

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Vocational education centers in four counties got tentative Cabinet approval Tuesday but still undecided is a bigger question — whether such training should be at the high school or junior college level. Gov. Haydon Burns, for one, thinks it should be in junior college.

An tentative approval was given for centers in Escambia, Polk, Manatee and Volusia Counties, he commented.

"Unless we decide at the start to require these vocational centers to be part of the junior colleges, we will put ourselves on the brink of expensive overlapping."

No policy decision was forthcoming, however. School Supt. Thomas D. Bailey said his staff was carefully working out guidelines for training.

And Secretary of State Tom Adams suggested the whole matter should be held over to see whether the Legislature decides vocational centers should be associated with academic ones.

The four centers temporarily approved for 60 days included the Polk vocational center at Bartow, Daytona Beach Junior College, William Woodham High School at Pensacola and Manatee vocational and technical center in Bradenton.

In other business, the Cabinet:

—Decided to bring under single administration junior colleges in Pinellas, St. Lucie, Lake and Palm Beach counties.

—Approved a policy of automatic admission to universities of graduates from state junior colleges.

Edward Murrow Dies Of Cancer

PAWLING, N. Y. (UPI) — Edward R. Murrow, best known American commentator of World War II, died Tuesday at the age of 57, a victim of cancer, at his Hudson Valley farm home.

Three weeks ago the former head of the U. S. Information Agency asked the doctors attending him at New York hospital to permit him to die here. They allowed him to go home, for they and he knew his case was hopeless.

"I believe that all of us feel a deep sense of loss," said President Johnson, heading a long list of mourners, from the prominent to the mundane, whose lives had been touched by the bushy-browed journalist.

After the war and with the advent of television, he became widely known for his frequently controversial programs, "See It Now," "Person to Person," and later "CBS Reports."

Funeral service will be held at 2 p. m. Friday at St. James Episcopal Church in New York City.

The contest was sponsored by St. Richard's Council 5357, Knights of Columbus. Susan is a student of Sister Mary Veronika's eighth grade class at All Souls.

First runnerup was Karen McKay, daughter of Mrs. L. T. McKay, also of Sumnerlin Avenue, Sanford, and second runnerup was Emily Dougherty, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Richard H. Dougherty of Loch Arbor.

Karen is a student in Mrs. Robert Nolte's seventh grade class and Emily is in Sister Mary Veronika's class.

All three winners were awarded appropriately engraved crucifixes by Most Worthy Grand Knight Theodore Michels, who complimented the youngsters on their outstanding spelling ability.

A total of 320 words was spelled before a champion could be determined.

Also participating in the contest and presented with rosaries by Ralph Pezold, Grand Knight, were Neal Olmstead and Thomas Doyle of the fifth grade; Larry Crimmins and Randall Brister of the sixth grade; and Julie Miller of the seventh grade.

Sister John Berchmans was in charge of arrangements for the event and Mrs. Louis Huddleston acted as announcer.

History Class To Be On TV

By Jane Casselberry
South Seminole Junior High School students from Guy Strickland's American History classes will appear on the American History educational TV program over Channel 6 at 9 a.m., Thursday, May 20.

The program will be taped on May 19 and will be in the form of a quiz show with two teams competing.

Strickland has devised this approach as an interesting and painless method of review for his classes. Team members were selected from those who have participated in class quiz shows in the past.

Although there will be only four students on each team appearing on the program, two alternates also were picked from both the second and fifth period classes.

Students chosen include Herbert Swezey, John McCanna, Bob Anderson, Hermine Harich, Sherry Kersey, and Phillip Greenhill, second period team; and Gerald Haas, David Harkins, Maxine Skolsky, Gerard O'Conner, Tom Pinnock, and Bobby Richardson, fifth period team.

Assistant Principal Richard Barnett will serve as moderator presenting the questions.

RETIRED PUBLIC WORKS DIRECTOR S. M. Richard Sr. was feted with a retirement party by public works employees at City Hall. Co-workers presented "Sid" with a 12-foot aluminum fishing boat, named "The Whistler" and a cake inscribed "Good luck, Sid." (Richard is well known for his constant whistling as he goes about his duties.) Mrs. Rosa Rotunda, assistant finance director presents "Sid" with the cake, as he stands in the new boat.

Nation Economy Free Of Threat Of Steel Strike

PITTSBURGH (UPI) — The nation's economy today was free of the threat of a crippling steel strike for at least four months.

Top negotiators for the United Steelworkers (NSW) union and the country's 11 major producers initialed an interim agreement, averting a strike threatened for midnight Friday.

The union's wage policy committee, which has the final say on all major contract decisions, was expected to approve the pact at a meeting scheduled for this afternoon.

While negotiations on an over-all agreement continue, the interim pact provides an 11.5 cent hourly increase. The 11.5 cents would be paid into a union "escrow fund" by steel producers and the USW will apply the fund toward wages, pensions or whatever it decides is best.

The union and industry negotiators outlined procedures for bargaining on an over-all agreement.

The interim pact provides that either side may give a 30-day termination notice Aug. 1. The earliest strike deadline would be Sept. 1.

USW President David J. McDonald confirmed details of the interim agreement in a statement. The terms had been reported earlier by United Press International.

McDonald said that the 11.5 cent interim increase was not the final figure the union would accept in any long range agreement.

"The union's position was and remains that the minimum terms of a final settlement must include the 3.2 per cent improvement recommended by the presidential guidelines, plus an adjustment for increase in cost-of-living," he said.

The interim pact provided a 2.7 per cent improvement, the union said.

Talks broke off last Wednesday after seven weeks of bargaining. At that time the union had proposed a 17.9 cent an hour increase over a three-month period which it said was based on the presidential guidelines.

The industry countered with a 10-month proposal calling for a two per cent increase amounting to about seven cents per hour.

After each side rejected the other's offer, the union's wage policy committee voted to authorize strike action against the 11 major producers.

Approval was granted to extend a strike to independent producers unless they agreed to accept terms negotiated with the major producers.

All's Not Work In The Senate

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — State senators had some fun at the expense of silver-haired Sen. Verle Pope, of St. Augustine. He was charged with looking "sooty."

A bill was introduced by Doyle Carlton, of Wauchula, Pope's cousin, to see that the Senate appropriated $25.15 to buy Pope some new clothes.

Pope, once declared the Senate's best-dressed man by a burlap corporation, had been looking sooty and needed some of his glamour restored, according to the grinning Carlton.

No Highway Robbery

Back in 1961, Congress was told that the National System of Interstate and Defense Highways would cost $41 billion, or about $1 million a mile.

Four years later the figure stands at $46.8 billion, an upward revision of $5.8 billion. Federal Highway Administrator Rex M. Whitton has announced.

Before cries of boondoggery are raised, it should be pointed out that the greatest part of the increase—3.6 billion—will go into improvements in the system. It means, says the American Road Builders Association, safer highways, greater service and longer roadway life.

Less than $2 billion of the increase is attributable to the rising cost of land acquisition, engineering and construction. (Construction costs have gone up a not unreasonable 4 per cent in the four years since the 1961 estimate.)

The remaining $200 million goes toward added costs of engineering and administration. A breakdown of the major sum of $3.6 billion—will go into improvement of the 414 miles not approved at the time of the first estimate; more interchanges and traffic lanes to provide better service and to meet the demands of increasing traffic loads; wider shoulders on bridges to improve safety; heavier pavements to lengthen their useful life; changes and additions in a variety of highway elements, such as embankments, drainage structures and signs.

According to the ARBA, two obvious conclusions should be drawn from the figures of the new report:

(1) For the most part, the bigger tab to the American public is buying a more modern, more serviceable and more enduring highway system.

(2) The nearly $2 billion increase in engineering, right of way and construction costs should be a warning that any delay in completing this vitally needed complex of national highways will cost taxpayers considerably more money.

Thought For Today

Jesus said to them, "Render to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's." And they were amazed at him.—Mark 12:17.

As we take just and full measure of all authority, let neither time nor the times press us so hard to render unto Caesar the things which are Caesar's that we neglect to render unto God the things that are God's.—A. Whitney Griswold.

Time Of Crisis

Ever since the overthrow of South Korea's dictatorial old President Syngman Rhee in April, 1960, springtime almost by tradition has become a time of crisis in Korea. Frequently such times are bloody.

The anniversary of the riots which led to Rhee's downfall came on Monday, April 19, and once more events are following an established pattern. The issue is a new agreement between Korea and Japan.

The student-led riots of 1960 cost 183 lives and left more than 6,000 persons injured, 200 of them maimed permanently.

In March, 1961, student-led crowds again were on the streets, this time in demonstrations with anti-U.S. and Pro-Communist overtones. These led to the military coup which overthrew the ineffective government of President Poon Yun and his Premier Dr. John M. Chang. Poon Yun, however, remained as president.

The springs of 1962 and 1963 were relatively quiet except for the resignation of Poon Yun as president and the rise of Gen. Chung Hee Park as provisional president in 1962, and mass arrests in 1963 following announcement of a plot to assassinate Chung Hee Park.

But the violence which had overthrown Syngman Rhee and had been influential in the fall of Premier John M.

Chang had sown its seed. The students now regarded themselves as watchdogs of the government.

There also was a heritage left over from the Syngman Rhee regime and some 50 years of Japanese rule.

Rhee shared his countrymen's hatred of the Japanese. In January, 1953, Rhee established the "Rhee Line" which extended Korean territorial waters to within 90 miles of Japan and banned Japanese vessels from their richest fishing grounds.

Even after Rhee's downfall, Korean insistence upon retaining the "Rhee Line" stood as the chief barrier against attempts to establish normalcy in Korean-Japanese relations.

The Lighter Side

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Ordinarily I am too busy solving problems here in the nation's capital to take on problems in other parts of the country.

But last weekend, as a special favor to Robert Moses, I made a trip to New York to see what I could do about straightening out the World's Fair.

The fair, as you may know, has been having financial difficulties, mainly because its first season last year did not attract as many visitors as had been expected.

Moses, who is president of the World's Fair Corp., did not exactly retain me as a consultant to tell him what might be done to make the second season, opening April 21, more successful.

But since he has implied that some of last year's press notices were unfair to the fair, I felt that I owed him that much, anyway.

By giving him the benefit of my thinking, I can perhaps help erase any hard feelings that may have resulted from articles he considered less glowing than the fair deserved.

At any rate, I hope Moses will realize that I am doing this for his own good. It seems to me, based on what I saw during a pre-opening tour of the grounds, that those responsible for planning the fair misinterpreted the mood of the country.

Its theme, generally speaking, is futuristic. The accent is on space conquest, push-button kitchens and other scientific wonders, both real and visionary. Which may have been a mistake.

It is true that there is a great deal of interest in tomorrow's moon landings and dishwashers. But there is also reason to believe that a lot of Americans are getting fed up with always looking ahead and will seize any chance to escape temporarily from the relentless march of progress.

The World's Fair, or at least what I saw of it, offers very little opportunity for nostalgia. There is to be sure, one exhibit that features dinosaurs. But not many of us go back far enough to feel nostalgic about them.

I am therefore recommending to Moses that he immediately set aside an entire building for the display of pickled peaches.

Political Notebook

WASHINGTON (NEA) — Last September in Kansas City more than a score of industrialists, bankers, farm and labor leaders met in the first of several conferences to consider what they could do about the obvious plight of the nation's state legislatures.

Next month the fruit of those labors, an organization tentatively labeled the Citizens' Conference on State Legislatures, will hold its first formal session in a place not yet designated.

That meeting, of the organization's board of trustees, will mark the birth of what could be the most ambitious effort in half a century to improve the caliber and performance of U.S. state legislatures.

With a few significant exceptions, these bodies are handicapped today by miserably pay for legislators, inadequate staffing and work space, poor research facilities, and sessions which too often are both infrequent and too short for sensible law-making.

If the citizens' conference gets off the ground as scheduled, and draws the expected ample financial support from some of the major foundations, the hero may turn out to be an unsung official of the Ford Motor Co., Horace Sheldon, field manager of the firm's Civic and Governmental Affairs office.

Sheldon's normal duties sharpened his awareness of the painful shortcomings of most state legislatures. For some two years he discussed the problem with businessmen, legislators and others, and then began conferring with interested persons in small groups.

The aim of the Citizens' Conference, whose trustees still are being chosen, is to build public understanding and support for efforts at the state and local level to refurbish the legislatures.

The Citizens' Conference will undertake substantial research, says Sheldon, and probably will extend its efforts over a span of several years. It will not itself plunge into the various states, but will try to work co-operatively with activist improvement groups wherever found.

When the city changed from parallel to angle parking, the reason given was to create space for more cars, which it did.

Now comes the change in angle, and what do we have? We have, less parking space than we had with the original parallel parking. For instance, in one section of town, the writer inquired and found the following figures:

Parallel 5 cars
Previous angle 7 cars
New angle 4 cars

This same percentage seems to prevail all over town.

If the city is so eager to have residents go to the shopping centers with their business, they've sure given them a big boost in that direction with this new improved parking system.

University of Massachusetts. He is a political moderate.

The board of trustees now being put together already includes several industrialists, a publisher, a union official, two college presidents, a social welfare specialist. It is intended to be a blue-ribbon group capable of attracting national attention.

Preliminary soundings suggest the conference will not lack for foundation money when the moment of need arrives. Estimates of ultimate cost are not being divulged, even privately. Small contributions from interested parties are covering the interim costs.

The citizens' conference may find itself urging state constitutional revision in many places, since often the shortcomings of particular legislatures are embedded in antiquated constitutional features.

Sheldon reports that the reception for this budding enterprise has been uniformly good so far. Political scientists join in offering approval.

The Sheldon project, bearing the stamp of business initiative seems to cry out for endorsement by state and national leaders of the Republican party, which makes greater reliance on state government a ringing article of its political faith.

Letters

Editor, Herald:

It seems to this observer that whoever is responsible for the new parking arrangements on First Street must be either a store-owner in one of the shopping centers outside of town or a member of an adjoining town's Chamber of Congress, trying to attract shoppers.

Dr. Crane's Worry Clinic

Velma is a slave to a complex that afflicts millions of people of all ages. In fact, many of you readers have it, too, though you may not have diagnosed yourself thus far. So scrap book this case or mail it to a friend who needs it. And learn how to widen your perspective quickly, as outlined below.

CASE V-475: Velma T., aged 15, has a physical defect. "Dr. Crane," her high school teacher began, "Velma is a lovely girl with a brilliant mind.

"But she shuns people and has declined the invitations of boys who have asked her to attend school parties.

"For she has one leg a little shorter than the other. But with a built-up shoe, she gets along very well.

"However, she imagines people shun her, or if they do invite her to a party, she thinks they are patronizing.

"Dr. Crane, could you please talk to her and see if you can give her the proper perspective on life?"

Velma demonstrates a very widespread ailment of human beings.

It is called the "cripple complex."

Alas, it is not restricted to young people, either, but affects millions of men and women, even after the age of 40.

For example, many women (and some men, too) get into a neurotic condition when they visit their dentist and find that they must have false teeth.

Maybe they have only a couple of old roots remaining but they will hang on to these for years as vain symbols of their youth.

Actually, the modern dentist

Jacoby On Bridge By Oswald Jacoby

1965 Vanderbilt Cup Winners Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Today we have a father-son discussion of misuse of the Blackwood convention.

Oswald: "What do you think of South's four no-trump bid?"

Jim: "When I was first learning bridge you taught me never to use Blackwood when I held a worthless doubton in an unbid suit or in one bid by our opponents. South violated this rule and missed a slam because after his partner showed one ace, South was afraid to bid six because of the chance of losing two clubs."

Oswald: "If North had shown two aces, South would have bid six but might well have missed seven. Incidentally, when he dropped the bidding at five he violated another cardinal rule of Blackwood usage which is "When you bid Blackwood you intend to bid a slam if your partner's response indicates that your side has at least three aces."

Jim: "That is, so right. Incidentally, South had a perfect bid at his disposal after North's jump to four hearts. All he had to do was to bid five hearts."

Oswald: "Yes. This particular bid is not too well known but every good player should have it in his kit. The idea is that when your side has bid three aces and found a major suit fit a bid of five in that major asks partner to go on to the slam if he can take care of the second round of the fourth suit."

Jim: "South certainly had the ideal hand with which to use this bid. Too bad he didn't know about it since the slam was about as easy a one to make in the play as I have ever seen."

We The Women: By Ruth Millett

Two psychologists who have made a study of conversation claim they have discovered that women talk more than men, but say less.

It could be that women only SEEM to say less, because women don't dare be as direct and positive in getting their ideas across.

In order to appear reassuringly feminine to the men in a group, a woman often has to sneak in her definite opinions, mixed with what appears to be small talk and idle chatter.

In order to persuade a man to accept her suggestions, a woman usually has to go at it in such a roundabout way that she does use up a lot of extra words.

For instance, before a woman gets down to the point of asking her husband if she can redecorate the living room, she may make such seemingly idle chatter as telling him in detail what the Joneses have done to their house, then talk about having his boss over to dinner, then talk unhappily about how shabby the sofa looks and how badly the walls need painting—and so on.

None of that is wasted breath—it is not the idle chatter of an empty mind that doesn't know where the conversation is heading.

It may seem a woman isn't saying anything when she is chattering away on apparently unrelated subjects. But she'll make her point at the exact moment, when she thinks the time is right.

Women build themselves up in the same roundabout way. Listen carefully to that rambling, seemingly pointless story Mrs. Jones is telling and you'll discover she is making a point.

She'll slip it in so smoothly you're barely conscious the chatter was to let you know that junior's quite a brain, or Sis is very popular, or that she is married to a most successful man.

Highlights

9-10 p.m. CBS. "My Name Is Barbara." When you get a special by Barbara Streisand, you get a special by Barbara Streisand. The hottest young star of Theatre and records brings you a virtual one-woman recital, nothing new for her, since she is almost the sole asset of her Broadway vehicle, "Funny Girl." Barbara performs some 25 numbers and refreshingly steers clear of overworked standards other than the ones she's overworked herself.

Most of the material is musical comedy in origin and she naturally does several of the selections she does on Broadway. Of even greater interest is the fact that she gets a chance to do a couple of songs ("My Man" and "Second Hand Rose") actually performed by Fannie Brice, the role she plays in Funny Girl. A well-produced show with a tastefully excellent selection of material. How much you enjoy it will depend on how much you enjoy Miss Streisand.

7:30-8 p.m. CBS. Mr. Ed. "My Horse the Mailman." Ed is so captivated by a picture of the pony Express, he is determined to carry on the fine old tradition. But in order to deliver mail, he has to have some—so he steals it. Wilbur doesn't believe in horsing around and has to pretend to be selling Ed in order to get him to stop. As usual, the dialogue carries the far-fetched situation.

7:30-9 p.m. NBC. The Virginian "The Executioners." (color) (rerun) Hugh O'Brian is very good in his guest role as a vengeance seeker looking for the man who murdered his father, an equally remarkable performance is given by Colleen Dewhurst as a passion-torn middle-aged schoolteacher. Pippa Scott, Doug McClure, Gary Clarke and Robert Shaw round out the rest of the cast.

8-9:30 p.m. ABC. Patty Duke. "What's Cooking Cousin?" Patty has a big rival for Richard's heart—his stomach. He keeps breaking dates with her to accept dinner invitations tendered by a plain girl who's a whiz of a cook. Patty tries to use Cathy to fight food with food, but just as it looks as if she'll triumph, she's left to her own devices. French singer Jean-Paul Vignon makes a brief guest appearance.

9-11 p.m. NBC. Wednesday Night Movie. "Cry Terror!" (rerun) James Mason, Rod Taylor and Inger Stevens star in this 1958 film concerning an extortionist, a TV repairman and his family.

TV Time Previews

Stelger, as an intellectual criminal, forces Mason, the electronics man, to make tiny bombs which he places in an airlines building in an effort to extort a half million dollars from the Company. The climax comes when Stelger kidnaps Mason's family and Mason has to save them. Newsmen Chet Huntley portrays himself.

9:30-10:30 p.m. ABC. Burke's Law. "Who Killed the Grand Piano?" In this one we get to watch a bunny mother putting her charges through their paces at a bunny club, we get a lecture from a professional Ghoul on monsters, and we see a super-valet pianist receiving a manicure from several people who wear surgical masks as they perform this elaborate operation. There are many other similar distractions, and with trimmings like these, who cares about a murder or who did it? List Ed Begley, Martha Hyer, John Casavetes, Marilyn Maxwell and Nehemiah Persoff are among those who might have.

10-11 p.m. CBS. The Danny Kaye Show. French singing and movie star Charles Aznavour and Danny Kaye make a good combination. After Charles sings "Vanice Blue" and "For Mama." They get together for a delightful medley. In the comedy sketch, Aznavour portrays French Inspector Fouchet who has been searching for fugitive Gaston Leduc for 25 years; Kaye plays Leduc. Danny also gives the Mexican version of "Jack and the Beanstalk." Stan Worth, pianist and singer, offers "Walk Right In" and "I Believe in You," and Danny closes the show with "Bunch of Blues."

Horoscope Forecast

THURSDAY, APRIL 29, 1965

GENERAL TENDENCIES:

A wonderful day and evening to get busy and quickly decide the path you most wish to follow in the days ahead and to show that you are the one who is willing to be the leader who brilliantly programs matters for future reference. Study carefully whatever comes to your attention and make progress to success.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) Know what you want from others in the future and waste no time in stating aims to close ties who can help much in their attainment. Be very friendly with them. They appreciate this.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) Much study and private labor is required before you get finest ambitions rolling nicely. Follow your intuitions and you get ahead. Keep your mind focused on the over-all aims.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Good friends in every sphere of your endeavor appreciate your finest talents and give the support you need. Something unexpected brings you chance to get long-anticipated aim. Be sociable tonight.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) You are now able to get the backing from higher-up quite easily, but you must be prepared to give full details. Enthusiastically go after that which is of a civic nature. Be clever.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) You can develop in several new avenues now. You must not waste a moment of this fine day. Make new plans. Partners whose views are different to yours should be listened to. Follow best ideas.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) Follow your hunches for the information you have long wanted and you find it. Making close ties happy by some kind thought is very wise, too. Show them your kind devotion.

LIRRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 23) Listening to the ideas of associates and asking them for advice will lead to greater rapport between you. You quickly come to agreement. Conditions around you are bettered.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) Getting work ahead of you tackled in a dynamic fashion sees it melt away very fast, and you are free for other things on the morrow. Get wardrobe in order. Improve your health.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Putting those creative thoughts to work, but also take some time for amusement you need. Show devotion to those you like. Get into mutually congenial hobbies.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) Locking into fundamental affairs with kin will reveal how to increase your holdings. Get rid of projects that are simply no good. Find better and more lucrative channels.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Contacting all those who can assist you where buying or selling is concerned, new accounts, etc. is wise today. Accomplish a great deal. Then be happy with friends, relatives.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) Finances are uppermost in your mind now, and this is good, since you need to become more prosperous. Get in touch with business experts. They give you best pointers.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY, he or she will be one of those interesting young ones who cannot be led to do what he or she does not like, but will use every bit of energy for whatever is truly interesting. Be sure to give the right course of education in whatever is the forte here so that a great success will be assured throughout the lifetime. A fine, sparkling spirit here, too.

"The Stars Impel, they do not compel." What you make of your life is largely up to YOU!

When the telephone rings at the home of District 3 Commissioner Lawrence Swofford it's usually someone with a road problem.

When the Seminole County Board of Commissioners meets, Swofford usually presents a list of roads in his district that need maintenance or roads and streets that he wants taken into the county road system.

Swofford says he knows of some roads being maintained by the county on which there are no houses.

Swofford advocates discontinuance of service on some roads and adding others for maintenance. The latest he had added to the system are Hobson Road, Adair Avenue and Lake Marion Drive in the Sanlando area.

Swofford suggests a "revised policy" on adding roads to the county system.

Commissioner Chairman John R. Alexander says he doesn't believe there is anything wrong with the present road policy.

He says a certain number of miles of road are being taken into the system each year.

"Roads with several houses on them are given priority over roads with just one house," he says.

Commissioner John Fitzpatrick says he'd like to see a list of roads on which Swofford wants discontinuance of maintenance.

Joe Akerman and his wife, Princess, of Lake Mary were proud spectators at all the ceremonies last Saturday honoring his famous astronaut cousin, John Young, in Orlando. They were among the classmates and relatives who enjoyed a short reunion with the busy hometown hero after the ceremonies were completed. Many anecdotes were exchanged about the old days when John was growing up in Orlando. Akerman is a science teacher at South Seminole Junior High School and his wife is financial secretary there.

South Seminole Junior High School Civics teacher, Mrs. Jo Ann Rowe was astonished last week when she was called out of class to receive a phone call from Mrs. Haydon Burns, wife of the governor. Mrs. Rowe is taking a group of her top students for a tour of Tallahassee and had written to inquire about visiting the governor's mansion never expecting a personal invitation by phone from Mrs. Burns herself.

Bid of $123,024, submitted by B. B. Sweet & Son of New Smyrna Beach, has been approved for building a six classroom, library, and administrative addition at the Enterprise Elementary School to replace that part of the school plant which burned last summer. The new building is to be completed by Aug. 20.

Tom Gilchrist, Jr., vice president and general manager of WESH-TV, will speak at the monthly dinner meeting of the Sanford Shrine Club tonight. His subject will be: "The Future Potential of Seminole County."

Of every 10 women arrested, only one is convicted. (Never underestimate the power of a woman.)

"Be Kind To Animals Week" is coming up May 2-8. So is "National Music Week."

Gov. Burns has proclaimed Saturday, May 1, as Law Day, USA, in Florida. He calls on all Floridians to join in a national observance of the American heritage of individual liberty under law.

TWO PAYDAYS
TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Employees of state institutions will receive their paychecks twice a month instead of once monthly beginning June 1, Gov. Haydon Burns said.

City Water Due Cutoff

Citizens of Sanford should take their baths and get all final drinks of water before 10:30 p.m. tonight, because after that the water will be shut off all over the city for several hours.

City Manager W. E. Knowles said today that the shut-off is made necessary in order that city water lines along 25th Street, now undergoing reconstruction, can be lowered.

"We are doing it at this late hour in order not to inconvenience our citizens any more than necessary," Knowles said.

Sanford Manager Wins State Honor

Warren E. Knowles, Sanford's city manager for the past 11 years, was named president of the Florida City Managers Association at the annual meeting of the organization in Fort Lauderdale Wednesday.

Knowles was elevated to the top position from the office of vice president which he held last year.

Recently Knowles received recognition from the International City Managers Association for 15 years of public service.

In 1957, three years after coming to Sanford, Knowles was presented with the Distinguished Service Award from the Sanford - Seminole Jaycees and this group again honored him in 1962 with the Good Government Award.

Formerly city manager of Berwick, Me., and Derry, N. H., he holds a degree in civil engineering from the University of Maine and has done graduate work in public administration.

National recognition also was accorded Knowles for his reorganization of the city public works department. He is a member of the Seminole County water control and conservation committee and a former member of the Seminole County utility franchise directive committee.

Florida Leads Income Increase

ATLANTA (UPI) — Personal income in the Southeast climbed seven per cent to a record $79.8 billion in 1964, the U. S. Department of Commerce said today.

Record gains were made in every state, the department said.

The seven per cent increase was compared with a six per cent increase nationally.

Contributing to the regional gain were substantial salary increases in construction and manufacturing, coupled with above average increases in all other major private non-farm industries.

Total income increased by more than $5.2 billion over 1963, the department said.

Florida led the southeastern states in total personal income with $13 billion. Virginia had $9.7 billion, North Carolina $8.5 billion, Tennessee $7 billion, Louisiana $6.5 billion, Alabama $5.9 billion, South Carolina $4.2 billion, Mississippi $3.3 billion and Arkansas $3.2 billion.

Driving Age Law May Be Altered

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — The Senate highway safety committee today approved a measure which would raise the age requirements for operators and restricted drivers licenses.

The bill, as amended by the committee, would raise the age requirement for an operator's license from 16 to 17 and the requirement for a restricted license from 14 to 15.

The measure also would require persons under the age of 18 years using restricted licenses to be accompanied by a licensed driver of at least 21 years of age, instead of the present requirement of 18.

Monroe Causeway Pushed

Lake Roadway Would Cost $3.5 Million

By Paul Brookshire
Sen. Mack Cleveland Jr. and Rep. S. Joseph Davis Jr. said today they would make a concerted effort to include funds for a Lake Monroe causeway in the governor's $300 million road bond program.

The causeway, first proposed in 1957, almost became a reality until the advent of Interstate 4 shunted it into the background.

The four-lane causeway would run from the end of French Avenue (U. S. 17-92) in Sanford to Enterprise, connecting Sanford directly with the Deltona and Orange City areas in South Volusia County.

The proposed four-mile span would cost an estimated $3.5 million as originally planned.

"I will do everything within my power to get this project included in the Governor's program," Davis said today from his office in Tallahassee. "It would be a great boon to our area and open up South Volusia County to our trading area," he added.

The $300 million bond program to improve the state's primary highway system did not contain one dollar for Seminole County.

"I don't know if I will be able to support the Governor's bill as it now stands because it bypasses Seminole County entirely," Davis declared.

"And I can assure you that I am very interested in getting something for Seminole County out of the governor's program," he said.

Senator Cleveland said Seminole County would not benefit from the Governor's program at all as it now stands.

"I am all in favor of getting this causeway included in this bond program," Cleveland declared. "Certainly our area needs it very badly."

The Senator indicated there may be tough sledding for the Governor's program as now outlined because it bypasses many cities and counties, such as Sanford and Seminole.

The causeway would return to 17-92 much of the traffic lost to I-4 and prevent the loss of millions of dollars invested in motels, restaurants, filling stations and other businesses from Winter Park to DeLand, authorities believe.

'Great Society' Plans Lead To Welfare Cut

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The House appropriations committee, hopeful that President Johnson's Great Society programs will begin reducing relief rolls in the next year, today cut $212 million from his request for welfare assistance funds.

Johnson asked $3.2 billion to help the states pay their relief costs in the fiscal year beginning July 1. The reduced funds were contained in a $7.96 billion money bill covering labor programs and health, education and welfare activities.

The welfare cut would leave federal aid for state public assistance programs $187.9 million below the current appropriation level.

No-Strike Pact

PITTSBURGH (UPI) — The executive board of the United Steelworkers (USW), overruling opposition within its ranks, today recommended approval of a four-month, no-strike contract extension.

The recommendation will go to the union's 163-member wage policy committee, which was expected to formally accept the extension agreement.

Rebel Forces Entrenched In Santo Domingo

SAN JUAN, Puerto Rico (UPI)—U. S. Marines took up combat positions around the Polo Ground refugee center in Santo Domingo today to protect Americans caught up in the Dominican Republic insurrection.

The U. S. Marine landing was the first in Latin America since 1928 when they landed in Guatemala.

Street fighting was reported in the heart of the capital where rebel forces were strongly entrenched.

So far the Marines have not been directly involved in the "very tense and very serious" situation. They have fired no shots.

An estimated 400 Dominicans have been killed and another 1,200 reported wounded in the fighting.

NO U. S. CASUALTIES
No American casualties have been reported.

The fighting was between leftist forces loyal to ousted President Juan Bosch, now in exile in San Juan, and military units which deposed him in 1963. A rebel move to return him to power began last Saturday.

The so-called loyal force arrayed against the Bosch supporters are under command of air force Brig. Gen. Elias Wessin y Wessin. They appeared to have an edge over the Bosch forces and Wednesday declared, apparently prematurely, that the revolution was crushed.

The military overthrew Bosch originally because he was considered too friendly with Cuba's Fidel Castro.

FOR PROTECTION
WASHINGTON (UPI) — The White House said today that President Johnson's dispatch of Marines to the Dominican Republic was solely to protect American lives.

Press Secretary George E. Reedy made the statement when asked about reports that the action was taken to prevent a Castro-directed Communist takeover of the Latin American country.

Reedy cited Johnson's statement Wednesday night that he had ordered the Marines in to protect the lives of Americans and other foreigners in Santo Domingo.

Before announcing the Marine landing Wednesday night, Johnson and Central Intelligence Director William F. Raborn briefed congressional leaders of both parties at the White House.

Tass, the official Soviet news agency, charged today that the United States had "grossly interfered" in the internal affairs of the Dominican Republic.

After considerable discussion, Johnson and Alexander agreed to draw up a resolution that would meet the approval of county commissioners.

Dr. Roberts instructed a committee to proceed with completion of the application for study grant funds from the U. S. Office of Economic Opportunity, pending approval of a resolution of "recognition" from the County Commission.

County Question Stalls Action By Community Unit

Community Action Committee was stalled Wednesday when it was revealed by Dr. W. Vincent Roberts, chairman, that the County Commission failed to approve a resolution of participation.

County Commission Chairman John Alexander explained that County Attorney Harold Johnson objected to the word "participation" without a clearer interpretation of how much money the "participation" would involve.

Red Korean Jets Fire On U. S. Plane

WASHINGTON (UPI) — For the 11th time since the Korean War armistice of 1953, an American plane has been attacked by Communist North Korean jets—this time over international waters.

The Defense Department reported that two Russian-built North Korean MIG jet fighters fired on an Air Force RB47 reconnaissance plane Tuesday night over international waters more than 50 miles off the North Korean coast.

The plane, which carries a crew of six, returned safely to Yokota Air Base, Japan. None of the crewmen was injured, officials said.

The official North Korean news agency, in a dispatch monitored today in Tokyo, said ment forces aided by armed U. S. helicopters have killed 231 Communist guerrillas and captured 37 in three major assaults against the Viet Cong.

Two of the operations were airborne and amphibious assaults against Communist training centers in the Mekong delta 30 and 80 miles south of Saigon.

"A U. S. spy plane RB-47 illegally intruded into the air above Sinchang and Riwon at noon Wednesday and conducted reconnaissance.

"An Air Force unit of the heroic Korean Peoples Army shot down the spy plane at 12:31, dealing a powerful blow in a self-defense measure," the dispatch said.

The Pentagon said the six-engine RB47 was on a "routine mission" over the Sea of Japan and was flying parallel to the Korean coast when it was hit by the two MIGs. The U. S. plane returned the fire, but it was not known what results.

The third major attack was against Viet Cong positions in Quang Nam province 370 miles northeast of Saigon and west of Da Nang.

In the air war, a force of 37 U. S. Air Force, Navy and South Vietnamese planes carried out a successful series of strikes against bridges, highways and communications in North Viet Nam.

All planes returned safely and there was little anti-aircraft fire.

In Sydney, the Australian government announced it was sending a battalion of about 800 combat troops to South Viet Nam to aid the Americans and Vietnamese in the war against the Viet Cong.

Australia now has about 100 advisers and transport pilots in South Viet Nam.

In the Mekong delta section where the government hoped to clear out this Communist-infested swampland south of the capital one American helicopter pilot was wounded today. Two other Americans were killed Wednesday when the offensive opened. Their deaths were reported earlier.

Two men also are believed to be guilty of a burglary in Orange County, Tuesday night.

"We think these two are responsible for several break-ins and enterings in Seminole and Orange counties," Sheriff Hobby said.

Two Men Face Burglary Charge

Two Seminole County men arrested Wednesday morning for a traffic violation in Orlando, were turned over to Seminole Sheriff J. L. Hobby to face breaking and entering charges here.

The two are Leon Harris and William David Jackson, both in their 20s.

They are charged in two instances of breaking and entering Tuesday night at Hoot's Hideout and Kuhn's Realty, both in the Sanlando Springs area. Among items reported stolen were a gun, beer, recording machine and money out of coin boxes. Some of the loot was recovered, Hobby said.

The men also are believed to be guilty of a burglary in Orange County, Tuesday night.

"We think these two are responsible for several break-ins and enterings in Seminole and Orange counties," Sheriff Hobby said.
