BUT THE OFFICERS WERE SMOOTH ENOUGH TO CAPTURE THEM AT ONCE

One of the boldest attempts at highway robbery that has happened in this city in some time was that of two negroes who held up Mr. Baker in his store on First street Erylay afternoon. One of the negraes named Will Robinson walked into the store and asked for a dime's worth of tobacco and when Mr. Baker pulled out his bag of small change to slip in the dime the negro's confederate named Jesse Wilhams grabbed the sack and bear of them ran out of the stone. Officers were summoned and Deputy Sheriff Lee and Policeman Kennedy took the description of the negores and were not long in locating Robinson. He denied having any complicity in the robbery but the sweating process forally made him confess and he told where Williams could be located. London, Nov. 22 .- The Entente Allies have demanded that Greece either join with them and fullfil her treaty obligations to Serbia, or demobilize, and to impress King Constantinople that they mean what they say the Allies have declared a commercia, blockade of the Hellenic Empire, according to Athens dispatches.

There is no confirmation of these statements here, but it is certain that Lord Kitchener, the British war secretary, who had an hour's nudience with the King of Greece yesterday and afterwards saw Premier Shouloudis, took a firm stand.

The Greek cabinet met to consider the situation and a few hours should show Greece's attitude. The Greek government again has affirmed its friendliness to the allies, but has not taken the steps required to prevent Greece from being counted among the friends of the Central Powers.

The Entent Allies will not permit any delay; the position of the Serbian armies makes any prolongation of the present uncertainty imposrible. Already the Serbians are making what may be their last stand before Monastir and also on the plains of Kossovo.

> Miss Rhoda Phipps was quite equalto the task of taking care of the old people. A strong woman helped her in the kitchen, and there were neighbors near by who were ready to do extra work. Job, the good middleaged man who had taken care of the horses for many a year, was no mean hand at household as well as stable service, and at this special Thanks giving season Miss Rhoda kept them all busy until the pantries were piled thick, with dainties Mrs Phipps thought that there was too much food

But Miss Rhoda said she "would ciak it," and laughed her mother back to her post beside the fire.

By ten o'clock Thanksgiving morning the whole farmhouse was in speckless order. Nunt Judy and Uncle-Ben had promised to come carly, and so had son John and his family. Deacon Phipps was restlessiy peering up the road, long before the proper time. and Mrs. Philips was almost as impatient as ho. Presently over the brow of the fill came a great touring car. The deacon scowled, but as he heard, first the sweet Cabriel horn, and then the rough roar of the Klaxon, his face relaxed a little. Who were in the car? It was not the family of son John. Surely it was Thomas and his minfater brother, with several members of their families, and Mrs. Phipps fairly cried .wish joy as she saw them.

There is another load just behind us," they shouted, as they drew up befure the door.

"Another load!" There were half a dozen loads before the final toll was taken, and when two strong, big Phipps sons lifted out from one of the cushioned limousines poor, lame old Aunt Betty, who could not have such a softly padded vehicle, the tears were dropping all over Mother Phipps' best white lace jabot.

WHO SAID TURKEY?

First Thanksgiving Service.

So far as is known, one of the first Harvest Thanksgiving Services" ever held in modern limes was that provided for in an official document, on, titled "Form of Prayer and Thanksgiving to Almighty God, to be used in all churches and chapels in England and Wales and in the town of Bethwick-on Tweed on Sunday, the 17th day of October, 1847, being the day appointed for a general Thanksgiving to Almighty God for the late Abundant Parvest, by Her Majesty's Special Command." With the exception of one in November, 1769, in grattitude for various successes on sea and and. including the capture of Quebec, and for" "an uncommonly plentiful Harvest," this was probably the first servico of the kind held in modern times

Cadences of Bong.

As the custom is among certain Swiss herdsmen on the Alpine slopes, as the sun goes down for each to call to the one above him, through his norn, "Praise ye the Lord," so across this land, through its valleys and over its piains and up its mountainsideseverywhere ought to ring the note of praise to the decilning sun of another year, and to the ever-rising sun of national greatness and destiny.

There is nothing, good or bad, But thinking makes it so."

If we are not thankful it is our own fault. There are few of us whom fortune has so abused, but on this one day of the year we cannot find something to be thankful about-if we but think, We can at least be thankful for the free blessing of light, the blue sky so clear and deep in the November days, the sunshine that brightens the carth and the life that runs in our veins.

There are few of us too, so poor we cannot give a thought of gratitude for other blessings we have. There are This Heading THREE CENTS a few of us so placed in life that we cannot help someone else to be thankful if we try.

From the first Thanksgiving day when Governor Bradford sent out men to bring in wild turkeys for the feast. in honor of the first harvest in Plymouth, there has been a general opinion that this is a harvest festival and so it becomes a home festival. That is one of the blessings of the day to mothers and fathers. GOOD ROADS MEETING A' GAINESVILLE

WILL BE EDUCA-TIONAL AND GOOD RESULTS ARE PROMISED .

Did you ever hear of a good roads school? Well, that is what the meeting at Gainesville, December 9th, will be. The people of Florida are in the good roads humor and they will build more good roads, but the big question is, of what shall the roads be built? What method of! construction shall be used and how shall the roads be maintained? These are the questions which puzzle the county commissioners in particular and road builders generally.

London, England, Nov. 26,-Al-He claims that when he sighted though the full text of the Greek government's reply to the collective note presented by the entente powers had not yet been made public in England there is every indication that the British government is satisfied with the position taken at Amens. The assurances given along the coast to make provision them and excerted them safely into Kissimmic is greatly impressed. The Woman's Club has voted to Greece differ in marked degree than > Whether this guaranty of safety will carry Greece to the extent of opposing with her army any Germun forces which might attenut to pursue the allies across the Greek border probably will not be ascertained until full details are received. in regard to the accurances given by Greece From the joptimistic tone of Athens dispatches to London however it may be inferred Greece. has yielded on every essential point raised by the allies. The Greek situation therefore is regarded as having been cleared finally.
