

OTHER NOTED FAIRS HELD IN SANFORD

THIS CITY PLAYED HOST TO PRESIDENT CLEVELAND AT FAIR

The great Seminole County Fair to be held in this city next week is not the first fair to be held in Sanford. This city has the distinction of being the first city in south Florida to have a fair and President and Mrs. Grover Cleveland were the guests of honor. Other fairs were held from time to time but after the freeze the people did not have the heart or the money to enter into the fairs and for the past twenty years this city has been out of the fair class.

It is interesting to note that just 27 years ago Sanford was preparing for a fair. We are indebted to Mrs. Marshall for the information in the shape of a copy of the South Florida Argus of the date of January 19th, 1888, her father, E. W. Peabody being editor of the Argus at that time. We note the following notice about the fair:

Our City on a Boom

We learn from Secretary Huggins that our fair is on a regular boom. The demand for space for exhibits has already far exceeded the expectations of the directors, and they have decided to erect an additional building, 35x85 feet, to meet the requirements. The accounts coming in from South Florida are very encouraging, and the displays of fruits and vegetables from that quarter bids fair to be immense. The J. T. & K. W. R. R. are now giving valuable assistance to the enterprise, and the railroads of the state have kindly consented to transport all uniformed military companies competing for the prize free both ways. There is no doubt but what the oarsmen will be here and give an exhibition on the lake during the fair. Letters have been received from a great many horse owners over the state who wish to come, some of whom object to the rules as printed in the premium list. To all such we are authorized to say, come on, the rules will be modified and varied to suit the requirements of the occasion, and a hurdle race will be added.

Stand privileges have been granted the following parties, they being the highest bidders: E. M. Faber, lunch counter, soda water, candy, etc.; L. R. & R. R. Philips, tobacco and cigars; Wm. Friend, lemonade; A. J. Phillips, news stand.

Judges of awards will be appointed later on.

Work on the grounds goes rapidly on, and the prospects of the exhibition are indeed flattering.

New Ferry Service

By a new arrangement with the Florida East Coast Ry. the ferry boat Alma May is to connect with the evening train at Enterprise, thus putting passengers through from Tampa to Titusville the same evening. The morning boat connects with the train going south here at 12:38.

This gives a much better service for passengers going to points on the East Coast in the afternoon.

This new arrangement will be fine for people attending the fair, giving passengers from the East Coast five hours in Sanford and getting them home that night.

Masons, Attention

Special communication F. & A. M. No. 62 Tuesday, 7:30 p. m., Feb. 2nd. E. A. degree will be conferred and examination in F. C.

Regular communication Feb. 4th cancelled. By order W. M. L. L. TAYLOR, Secy.

Blessing in Happiness.

Happiness, like mercy, is twice blessed; it blesses those who are most intimately associated with it, and it blesses all those who see it, hear it, feel it, touch it, or breathe the same atmosphere.—Kate Douglas Wiggin.

To Prevent China Chipping.

A good way to prevent fine china and cut glass from chipping while being washed is to put an old Turkish towel in the bottom of the dishpan.

COUNTY HAPPENINGS

GRAPEVILLE AND UPSALA

Frank Parker is delivering meat through this section on Tuesdays and Fridays for Mr. J. A. Thompson.

Callers on Sunday at Mr. H. G. Lundquist's to see the fine new baby were Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Lundquist of Sanford, Mrs. Borrell, Mrs. Erickson and children and Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Lundquist, and Oran Lundquist and the Pearson boys of Paola.

Mr. J. A. Thompson is having the first coat of paint put on his house. Mesdames Hart and Rowan and Miss Ruby were visiting there on Sunday, also at Mr. Jack Vaughn's.

The Lundquist boys caught a fine string of fish in Crystal Lake on Thursday, some 25 in all, one or two of which were 5 or 6 pounds in weight. We can witness to their good eating qualities.

We are sorry to learn that Mrs. Anna DeForest has had to leave for the hospital again, but hope she will soon regain her health.

Mr. and Mrs. Ballinger spent Thursday at Mr. Vernon Collier's. Miss Edna Thompson spent the week-end with Mrs. Maud Powell on the West Side.

Overdelicate.

It was in a small southwestern town that the town council, which we infer is becoming unduly delicate, caused this notice to appear in the local newspaper when a tax on dogs was imposed. Tax on each dog: male, one dollar, vice versa; three dollars—Harper's Magazine.

Proper Carving.

In carving, ham and beef should be cut thin; pork, lamb, veal and mutton a little thicker. When carving a leg of mutton, take hold of the bone end with the left hand, then cut thin slices down to the bone and loosen each slice by putting the knife flat on the hard bone and cutting through. The slicing should gradually change direction slightly, so to always cut across the grain.

Coming From Orlando

The committee appointed at the last meeting of the Orlando Board of Trade to work up interest in the Seminole County Fair, Feb. 3, 4, 5 and 6, held its first meeting yesterday and 6, held its first meeting yesterday afternoon in Lord & Bradshaw's office.

The committee composed of Messrs. H. H. Dickson, J. N. Bradshaw, S. A. Johnson, J. H. Race and Josiah Ferris, want all who can possibly go on Orange county day, Thursday, Feb. 4, to give their names to one of them.

The start will be made from in front of the San Juan hotel at 9 o'clock sharp. Mayor Sperry, Mr. H. H. Dickson, president of the Sub-Tropical Midwinter Exposition, and Mr. W. R. O'Neal, the secretary and treasurer will lead the procession, and it is especially desired that all cars keep in the rear. Upon reaching the city limits a stop will be made to enable them to enter Sanford in line formation.

Arrangements have been made by the public spirited citizens to make Seminole county's first fair one long to be remembered. It will be given in a modernized way and will be held on the main streets of Sanford. Buildings have been secured, however, for the cattle, poultry and horse show exhibits. Orange county will send up a large delegation on next Thursday and if you have a car join the procession.—Orlando Sentinel.

Real Home of the Rosemary.

The home of the rosemary was originally in the south of Europe, more especially Italy, where it grows to the height of six or eight feet, either being trained upward from the ground or embedding its roots in an old wall. It grows in three varieties—gold, silver and green.

ADVANTAGES OF A COUNTY FAIR

FROM THE GAINESVILLE SUN

The following excellent article about the Alachua County Fair written by the secretary of the Gainesville Board of Trade is worthy of reproduction in The Herald, being both timely and very much to the point:

The county fair has been the agent and a large factor in doing more powerful work for the farmer, the planter, the land owner and the stock industry than anything that has ever been launched in Alachua county.

It has been a wonderful stimulus to better methods of farming, such as better preparation of the soil, improved methods with up to date farm implements which not only saves labor but does more effective work and lessens the cost and also increases the acreage of all feed and food products and last but not least, it has been the very life of the great stock industry. It has taught the stockmen to appreciate the difference between purebred stock and thimble-woods scrub.

It has practically well known to every citizen of Alachua county. The question is, do you appreciate them? Have you been active and instrumental in the great work or have you been on the waiting list—waiting for some one else to do what you should have done? Have you made yourself useful and been a leader or have you been led? Are you going to push or are you going to swing on the back end of the wagon? Are you going to live in a county all of your life and never have your name appear in print as a leader as having been one of the best progressive citizens? These are things, my friend, that you should ponder over and see just where you stand.

Do you know what made the great, northwest the prosperous section it is? It was made by a class of people who had progress stamped upon their brows. They know how to do things and did them. When a public enterprise of any kind was suggested every fellow rushed to the front to be a leader, they never were known to sleep on the job. Climatic conditions in that section were very much against them. This, however, did not deter them. They fought and won. What they accomplished was not done by a few individuals while the others slept it took a concerted effort on the part of all.

I see no excuse in the world for our people not lining up man to man behind the fair movement and putting it across in good shape. It has been demonstrated to you what the benefits are and proven to you that we can hold a good fair, so what more do you want before you assist? In order to meet the obligations there will have to be a little more stock sold at $10 per share. No one who owns a square foot of real estate is too poor to buy a share or more of stock. If you know the fair to be a benefit to the county generally, then be active and help to push it along. Don't wait until the committee looks you up before making up your mind to take some stock. The people who are promoting the sale of this stock are busy men and they are patriotic enough to give their time and pay their own expenses to do what anyone else should do.

Ignorance, laziness, indifference and lack of enterprise will kill and bury the livest enterprise that can be brought before you. If we expect to see things lively, business good and going at a rush of prosperity, we must move ourselves. The fair has been launched and has proven to be a success. All it needs now is some finishing touches which should be put on by the public with no further ado about it. Call up some of the officials and tell them how many shares you want.

I am not quite sure I know just what I would do in regard to the fair if I was a large land owner. I think, however, I would do as a progressive citizen at Loxley did when the fair for Suwannee county was proposed. He said: "A good fair would not only stimulate better methods of farming and encourage the breeding and raising of better live stock, but would advance the values of real estate and would tend the best up to the country along all lines."

I understand this man put about $1,000 in the fair to start with and I understand that he claims it is one of the best investments that he has. We have dozens of large land owners in Alachua county, who I am sure, would find it quite profitable if they would come to the front and help finance the county's greatest and most profitable enterprise—A COUNTY FAIR.

Good Roads Again

The following letter from Mr. C. E. Foote about the good roads movement is most interesting, although he quotes paragraphs credited to this paper that were really in an article from the Miami Metropolis. We appreciate the statement that in time an editor could really become a good roads booster. This is the greatest joke connected with the campaign. The letter follows:
Jacksonville, Fla., Jan. 30.

Dear Mr. Holly:
Sorry I created such an unpleasant impression on your mind, but glad I created some impression. Antagonism is the first step toward investigation with honest and intelligent men; then investigation tends toward unity of thought and action, which is what that association is working for.

I specifically and categorical object to my name being localized, in connection with FLORIDA Good Roads. The interests of your county and all other counties in FLORIDA are alike to me. A Good Roads System for FLORIDA is the "paramount issue" (borrowing one of Secretary Bryan's slogans).

That the Florida newspapers have been the Good Roads "boosters" for years is undeniable. No one with sense questions that fact. The many local systems of improved roads in Florida proves your statement in that particular respect.

You mention "benighted" counties which should have inflicted on them "compulsory" road laws. Do you really appreciate what that would mean? Who are the "benighted?" and are Florida citizens slaves, subject to compulsion?

I really believe, Mr. Holly, that when you think the matter over, you will be one of the greatest Good Roads "boosters" for FLORIDA.

The elimination of localized jealousies and localized contentions and localized antagonisms, to the end that ALL FLORIDA may profit is the principal reason for my presence in Florida.

You must, in this connection, remember that the people of a NATION want FLORIDA'S products; want Florida's climate; want everything that Florida produces earlier and better than other states.

The most excellent celery which you grow about Sanford is marketed in competition with that of Kalamazoo, Michigan, where it is grown under glass at a much greater expense. Still, Michigan has the control of the celery market.

Why?
Because Michigan has a state highway Department and a State Highway Law.

This is only one phase. I would like to talk to you at length, I believe you have the sentiment in you which will make you a tower of strength for Good Roads Laws in Florida.

Sorry your paper with your comment did not reach this office. Was obliged to use the reprint from the Tampa Times.

Yours very truly,
CHAS. E. FOOTE.

Bible Conference at Enterprise

The Lake Monroe Bible Conference will be held at Enterprise, Florida, February 12-22, 1915.

Mr. S. D. Gordon, whose devotional books have brought him into helpful touch with people the world over will be present for the entire session and will speak upon the following:

"God on a Wooing Errand"—Some studies in a gospel.

"The Effect of Music on Prison Walls"—A study of an Epistle.

"The Oldest Gospel"—A study of an Old Testament historical book.

"Discovering God, Uncovering and Re-covering Yourself"—A study of a psalm.

"The Man Who Took a Walk with God and Never Came Back"—The study of a biography.

"The Sore Question of Evil and the Answer"—A study of a prophetic book.

"Why a Shrewd Jew Gave Up a Paying Job"—A quiz Bible class study.

"The Spirit's Eye-view of the World"—A study of some world conditions.

"The Significance of the World War to the Thoughtful Bible Student"—A study of current events and God's plans.

Those who had the privilege of hearing Mr. Gordon's heart reaching and soul inspiring messages last year are eagerly anticipating this year's treat of good things.

No one within reach of Enterprise can afford to miss this wonderful opportunity to study the Bible with a teacher so manifestly taught of God.

Bishop Morrison will be present on the Sabbath.

Miss Belle Bennett the gifted and consecrated president of the Women's Council; Miss Mary White, the evangelistic Bible reader from China; Rev. Mr. Uphaw, editor of the Golden Age, and other Christian workers will speak during the session.

There will be a daily question difficulty period, for the thoughtful consideration of questions and difficulties in Bible study, personal prayer, temptations, soul winning, church work and other questions of vital interest in the personal life.

Watch for the detailed program, to be printed later.

State in Fine Shape

In an article written for the Tampa Tribune, State Treasurer J. C. Luning very rightly says by way of preface: It might be of interest to readers of the Tribune to know something of the financial condition of the state, and then proceeds to make a full, clear statement showing conditions in which every citizen in Florida should feel a just pride. We make the following extract from Treasurer Luning's interesting paper, regretting our inability to print the whole of it at this time.

"The people of Florida have ample reason to congratulate themselves upon the splendid condition of the state's finances. When many states in the Union whose treasury handles a much larger volume of business than does Florida, but I am confident in the assertion, that the finances of no state in the Union are in a more satisfactory condition than that of Florida.

In the first place, Florida has no bonded indebtedness of any great amount, the entire bonded indebtedness of the state being only $601,567, all of which is held by the educational branch of the state government; one might say, one branch of the state government owing the other.

On the first of November, 1914, the cash balance in the state treasury, as shown by the books of this department was $1,593,789.80. Of this amount $531,501.07 was contained in the pension fund, $243,695.19 in the general revenue fund, $62,695.61 in the state board of health fund, $674,724.27 in the several educational funds, and the remaining $42,220.52 distributed among the drainage tax fund, railroad commission fund, shell fish industry fund, game and fish protection fund, and the Florida national forest fund, $306,054.83 of $547,724.27 of the general educational funds on hand in principal for investment and is being invested in bonds in the counties, cities and sub school districts in this state as rapidly as safe investments of this character can be secured, about $50,000 of this $306,000 having been invested since the first of November."

Bob Holly's paper, the Sanford Herald, is always scintillant with the original humor of the genius who conducts it.

From the cordial manner in which the Sanford Herald agrees with the Orlando Reporter-Star that Orlando is "Florida's Best Inland City," it is to be assumed that the Celery City on the seaboard—Miami Metropolis.

Better than that. We are on the great St. Johns river with all the advantages of a sea coast and none of the disadvantages.

Willis Powell, Ed. Lambright, W. L. Straub, Bob Holly, Joe Reese, Hugh Sparkman and a few other newspaper fellows, who are permitted to hold down the editorial chairs of such papers as the Clearwater Sun, the Tampa Tribune, the St. Petersburg Times, the Sanford Herald, the Orlando Reporter-Star, the Daytona Journal, etc., are evidently trying to revive the good old days when the editors really cut some figure in the newspaper game.

THE FAIR

The weather man will be good to us and this morning gives promise of one of the greatest weeks in the history of Sanford and Seminole county. The fair is an unequalled success in every particular.

FRANK MAYES

Despatches yesterday afternoon carried the sad intelligence that Hon. Frank Mayes, editor of the Pensacola Journal had died in that city after a brief illness.

Frank Mayes was a power for good in his adopted state of Florida. He was twice elected as delegate to the national Democratic convention and was an original Wilson man in Florida.

Honest in his convictions, upright, moral, fearless and a most gifted writer, Frank Mayes will be missed from the ranks of the Florida editors and we who knew him best mourn him like a brother.

A CHANCE TO HELP

No one who has given the matter any thought disputes the value of the Dade County Fair both as an opportunity for advertising the products and the advantages of this section of Florida, and as a time for people to get together in a neighborly way for their mutual benefit.

thing to make it serve all the good purposes of which it is capable—the people of Dade County as individuals should see to it that they do something themselves to make the fair a success, something that takes a little individual trouble and a little individual responsibility.

For instance, it is proposed to have "Days" this year an "Old Settlers Day," "Frolwer Day" perhaps, "School Day," "Visitors' Day"—each of which will offer opportunity for some particular interests.

For instance, too, there were several weeks remaining before the fair, why not "drum up" a little crowd of your own; send out some postal cards, write to a few influential people you know and urge them to urge others to come to Miami for Fair Week; for instance, too, the publicity committees of the Board of Trade and the Commercial Club could turn their energies to boosting the fair with all their skills.

THE COUNTY FAIR

A matter for congratulation is the growing prevalence in Florida of the county fair. In the older states of the Union the county fair is an established institution.

There is an immense amount of good to be derived from these annually recurring fairs. As has been said, it is an established institution in most of the northern agricultural states.

After the noonday meal is enjoyed and debris put away, the old pipe, or the more aristocratic but not more comforting cigar, is lighted up and the men scatter to the stock yards or race track as interest or inclination dictate.

Long rows of sheds are filled with the best stock to be found in the county, and, not infrequently, in the state.

Is it horseflesh that interests you? The massive, big muscled Percherons and Normans are ranged alongside of the slender, fleet racers and trotters.

Do your fancies run to the more plebeian swine? Visit the pens where the Poland China, the Berkshire, the Essex, the Suffolk and Tamworth wallow in comfort and contentment in their beds of straw.

In the sheep pen are the big horned, fine woolled Merino, the more comely, smooth-bodied mutton breeds, Shropshire, Southdown and Hampshire, and the long woolled Leicester and Cotswolds.

Poultry, cereals and fruits are displayed in amazing numbers, and command their full share of attention. The domestic science halls are crowded with ladies interested in the displays of home-canned goods, breads and other cookery products and the thousand and one articles dear to the feminine heart.

The fair usually lasts from three to five days, one of which is given over to an address from a noted local or national orator, who tells the assembled yeomanry, in rounded periods, how fortunate they are in being the foundation of the nation's wealth, the basis of its industry and the everlasting safeguards of its prosperity.

The county fair is educational. It promotes sociability, stimulates a healthy competition, and makes for the general good. Hence, we say that it is a good sign that so many Florida counties are beginning to inaugurate fairs.

Seminole, Orange and Polk counties, and possibly others, have fairs projected for the near future. Even a superficial knowledge of these counties is sufficient to assure one that they will prove creditable and convincing.

During Gasparilla week a characteristic Florida product will be made on the court house square in Tampa. It is an opportunity that should not be missed by any county within a radius of 100 miles of Tampa.

Shall We Go To Florida

The above question is a very important one to many people throughout this country. They have read of the fine climate, of the crops produced here and of the splendid returns for products.

A man of family, or one not able to do hard work, should not arrive in Florida with less than $1,000 cash if he intends to grow citrus fruit or vegetables, and must clear land, fence, build his home and wait for crops.

A citrus grove is not a paying proposition until the fifth or sixth year from planting, as a rule. Vegetables are quicker but new land does not give the best results.

We want new people here, but we do not want them to be a failure. The cost of clearing pine land varies from $15 to $50 an acre.

The cost of clearing pine land varies from $15 to $50 an acre. The quality of the land has nothing to do with the price of clearing.

amount to $250. It will cost from $75 to $100 to fence this tract, and fences are very necessary in almost all Florida; the newcomer will find out why. It costs upwards of $100 to sink a deep well. A house and outbuildings that would serve for a time might be erected for $200.

Under and by virtue of an execution issued out of and under the seal of the Circuit Court in and for St. Johns county, Florida, wherein Armour Fertilizer Works is plaintiff, and I. D. Hart is defendant, I will offer for sale in front of the Court House door on Sanford, Florida, Seminole county, and sell during the legal hours of sale.

The Game Laws
E. Z. Jones, the state game warden is thinking of cutting out the game wardens, a move that will not meet with the approval of the people of the county who have an efficient officer.

It is true, the general laws of the state provide that it is as much the duty of the constabulary of the state and other court officials to enforce the game and fish law as it is to enforce other criminal laws.

At the expiration of the present term of the wardens I intend to discontinue the present ward system in practically all of the counties, and in the mean time I do not expect to spend any of the public money in having any special service work by the wardens, because I feel, as stated before, regardless of how hard, when or where the warden works he gets no results.

In conclusion, I desire to say I appreciate the services that you have rendered the department and I regret that the conditions demand that I take this action. I desire further to say that if you wish to be relieved of the responsibilities of the office at the close of the present season, namely: Feb. 20th, I will believe you of the duties of the office, for as I see it there will be nothing in it for you to continue to serve after that date except responsibility.

DOLLETTA, THE DOLL LADY

A wise old Seer once said it was impossible to improve on nature, but the distinguished medical man had never seen Dolletta, the tiny midget mother who will be seen here all this week.

Now, in the first place, Dolletta has been much abused by nature, as she stands but 28 inches high and their second child, a son was born, it was also by means of the same operation that enabled him to see the light of day and gave Dolletta the distinction of being the only woman in the world (regardless of size) that ever underwent two of these operations and came out alive. The fact that she and her children are alive weighs but 37 pounds, and when she went looking for a husband the nearest she could find to her size was Major Hoykin, of Kentucky, who stands 40 inches high and weighs 97 pounds. She was game and they were married in Concord, N. C., nine years ago. A year later, when their first child, a little girl, was born, it was found necessary to resort to the hazardous Caesarian operation, and five years later when and healthy is considered miraculously by the medical fraternity. Her little daughter, who is now seven years of age is a head and shoulders taller than her mother, while the little 2-year boy is almost as tall as his mother. This will be Dolletta's last public appearance in Sanford, and everyone should certainly see and talk to the smallest human mother on earth. She will be on exhibition at the fair, beginning Wednesday, Feb. 3, 4, 5 and 6.

Great Animal Show

The editor and Mr. A. P. Connelly, the secretary of the Seminole County Fair had a real treat last Saturday when they paid a visit to the "Dion Animal Show," one of the feature attractions of the fair. As we entered the mammoth tent, our eyes were first feasted with a most wonderful freak of nature in the way of a cow, Alice by name. Alice has five quarters, the quarter on top of her back giving two quarts of milk daily and in the normal place giving three quarts. The attendant for our education milked Alice from the top of her back and we found the milk just as pure as from any cow in the world. Then we were introduced to Blue Bell, the horse with the elephant skin. This mare has all the ear marks of the horse, yet the skin and tail is like that of the elephant, in fact, the manager, Mr. Dion offered us twenty dollars if we found a hair on her. "Paddy," the smallest mule in the world was still another feature. This mule is just 26 inches high and weighs 140 pounds, and is capable of hauling some 400 pounds. The Badger or Grave Digger was another strange feature in the animal kingdom. Bears, wolves, monkeys, in fact all kinds of strange and curious animals are found in this really remarkable show. If the visitor at the fair wants to see that which is worth while, he should by all means visit Dion's animal show. He will find it most interesting.

Siberian Tigers

One is apt to regard the tiger as essentially a native of the tropics; and many readers will be surprised to learn that this ferocious animal is found as far north as icy Siberia, where it has become a distinct species. (Tigre amurensis) remarkable for its great size, the beauty of its fur and its moderate live for human flesh. —Wife World Magazine.

AWAITING FAMOUS PIRATE

Tampa Prepares For Annual Landing Of Ye Mystic Krewe Of Gasparilla

Tampa, Fla., Jan. —Presenting the varied beauties and resources of semi-tropic Southern Florida, and reviving its romance-written past as well, the tenth annual carnival of Ye Mystic Krewe of Gasparilla, named for one of the fiercest pirates of American history, will be held in this city from February 12 to 16, inclusive, attracting a host of health and pleasure-seekers from the "frigid zone" above the northern boundary line of the Paradise of Flowers. It is confidently expected that all attendance records for Florida events will be broken during the five-day period of festivity, and among the visitors will be many notables of America and foreign countries. President Wilson is among those being urged to attend.

The twelve counties of Southern Florida, owing to their varied resources, have weathered the period of depression resulting from the sudden outbreak of the European war and financial regulation at Washington in a magnificent manner, as shown by the general demand for the holding of a "prosperity celebration" in Tampa. These counties appear to best advantage during the month of February, at which festivities of the tourist and fruit and vegetable shipping seasons are at their heights, and the words of greeting to the visiting thousands will be, "Depression is an unknown experience here." Therefore, the Gasparilla Carnival will be promoted on a grander scale than ever before. In honor of the annual event the railroads and steamship lines have granted extremely low rates to Tampa and other places in South Florida from all points east of the Mississippi river, and from some points west.

More than a century ago Gasparilla and his crew held forth in a crude but well fortified mansion on Gasparilla Isle, which lies just south of Tampa, from which they sallied forth in search of treasure ships and pretty women, many of whom were taken and held captive. Just once did the crew venture into Tampa's bay—Tampa was nothing more than a fishing hamlet then—but they were forced to beat a quick retreat by the men in thearrison known as Fort Brooke. These hardy soldiers, some of whom fought in the War of 1812 and against the Seminoles Indians, put the pirates to flight without a battle. The commander of Fort Brooke, not being a navigator, followed the pirates into the Gulf and returned by throwing shingles into the waters, being enabled thereby to come back over the course taken in going out. For ten years past the ghostly figures of the pirate crew have fallen upon and taken the city, but in the cause of peace and pleasure and not in the quest for blood and gold. The landing of Gasparilla has, therefore, become almost as widely known among the children of America as the landing of DeSoto, which is also portrayed during the Carnival. The Carnival is one of the most brilliant social events of the South each year.

Owing to the increased interest in the monster carnival pageants, the number of allegorical and historical parades will necessarily be increased this year, and scores of floats of marvelous beauty will be entered. Marchers by warship, aeroplane flights, regattas, day and night fireworks displays in the bay and river, a beautiful exhibition of South Florida products on the court house square and other features are being arranged for the entertainment of the visitors. The carnival will excel the fetes of Southern Europe in uniqueness. If not in splendor, and every visitor will be well cared for by the populace.

Potash From Feldapar

German Potash interests are perturbed over the news from Stockholm that a scientist has discovered a process for producing potash from common feldspar. There have been many attempts in Germany to extract commercial potash from the many minerals containing it, but up to the present they have not been successful. The Swedish method at its present stage is understood to be too expensive from a commercial standpoint.

His Confession

Once a clergyman went to pay a visit to an old Yorkshire yeoman, who was lying on his deathbed. After a few preliminary words, the worthy minister said that, if the veteran had anything on his mind, he hoped he would ease his conscience and confide it to his pastor's ear, so that he might die in peace. "Well, sir," answered the old sportsman, "if I only had to live my life over again, I'd flash more with balls and less with flies."

A Vertical Fall

A little Boston girl, about four or five years old, was enjoying a slide upon the sidewalk, when her heels flew up and she fell with great force upon the stones. A lady picked her up, and asked, kindly: "You poor little mite, how did you fall?" The tiny child looked up into her kind friend's face, and, with the tears streaming down her cheeks, sobbed: "Vertically, ma'am."

A Better Guarantee

Some salesmen are equal to almost any emergency and do not spare the "other car" when occasion requires. "But the blank car is guaranteed for life," protested a prospective purchaser to a salesman of the sort. "Yes, I know it is," retorted the quick-witted salesman, "but our car is guaranteed for a whole year." It required several moments for the prospective purchaser to see the point.

WHEN WAR IS SILENT

HAS NO SOPHISTRY WITH WHICH TO CONFRONT WOMAN.

Great as Must Be Acknowledged Are His Powers of Deception They Fall in the Presence of the Mother of the Blain.

War sat on a high place near the city named Earth, where all who passed along the highway called Life could see him as they went on their journeys. Among those who took their eyes from the ground was King. When he saw War he stopped.

"Who are you that sitz beside the highway of Life?" asked King.

War answered: "I am Power, and Dominion, and Pride, I am the maker and unmaker of dynasties. I set up and pull down the rulers of Earth, the great city in which you dwell. By me wealth and strength are apportioned, dishonor is redeemed, right is made plain, and justice is done."

So King went his way, thinking, "War is good."

Soon there came Young Man, and he too asked who War was.

War said:

"I am Adventure and Darling, Boldness and Hardhood. I bestow renown and distinction on men. Those who follow me grow brave of spirit and hard of body. They learn the happiness that comes from ardent toil, the joy that is born of struggle. The people of Earth look with greatest favor on those who enroll themselves in my record book and reward them with the first consideration."

Young Man whistled as he followed the highway called Life, and cried aloud, "War is noble!"

Next Old Man, weak of sight and hard of hearing, peered at War and said: "Who are you, up there?"

To Old Man War replied:

"I am Memory and the Thoughts of Yesterday. I it was who filled your heart with friends and clothed your mind with the good memorials of a glorious past. I took from your your arm, but in its place I gave you something far better, the service of a devoted friend. By me you were made poor in pocket, to beg your bread as you walked the highway called Life, but in exchange I gave you the great days of your manhood to comfort and sustain you."

Old Man's face was lighted by his thoughts of the brave days when he knew War, and as he set one foot before the other he chuckled, and struck his thigh with his hand, and mumbled in his beard: "I mind now that War is the great thing."

But then there came on the highway called Life Woman, who had borne sons that War had destroyed and daughters who had wept upon her skirts for their husbands that War had torn from them. Woman, who had dried the ears of orphans War had made and stanch the blood of wounds that War had given: Woman, who had mourned War's dead, and starved that War might eat.

And Woman saw War and asked him nothing, but fled shrieking away from him on the highway called Life, and as Woman fled from him War was silent, for he had no words to speak —New York Times.

The Old Sad Story

When a plausible, albeit shabby, stranger approached the thrifty housewife and offered to install an electric bell for almost nothing she felt that it was her duty to give him the job. He looked as if he needed it.

Preparations for the work were hardly under way when the "electrician" approached his employer with an apologetic air.

"I've been out of work for so long," he explained, "that I'll have to ask you for an advance to buy some of the material."

He needed 35 cents, he said, but she had no change and gave him half a dollar. He hastened away for the material, and he never came back.

The thrifty housewife told her husband about it when he came home, adding:

"I can't see how I lost anything. He left a pair of batteries here, or I shouldn't have trusted him with the money."

Her husband went out to take a look at the batteries. They were both "burned out."—Louisville Times.

Many Uses of Blotting Paper

Blotting paper has many other uses besides the absorption of ink. If grease is spilled on a rug or carpet cover the spot with a piece of blotting paper and place a warm iron, not hot, over the spot. Grease on the wall may be removed by covering with blotting paper and pressing with a warm iron. Fine lace and collars may be quickly dried by being placed between two sheets of blotting paper and covering with a weight. If you are short on rubber rings when canning, blotting paper rings will serve just as well as rubber. There are many more uses for blotting paper which will suggest themselves to the alert housewife.

Local Color

Successful Author — Yes; I have been wishing for an opportunity to visit that section of the country for a number of years.

Sympathetic Friend — And why, might I ask?

Successful Author — Oh, I once wrote a popular novel with the scenes laid around there, and I want to see how the local color matches up.—Florida Times-Union.

 If we listen to the best guides, we shall turn with equal decision from the vulgar pleasures that beset success. DE ORO MAKES GREAT 3-CUSHION MARK

Alfredo De Oro, Three-Cushion Champion.

Alfredo De Oro, the three-cushion champion, has experienced the thrills of victory in many hard-fought matches, but it is doubtful if any of his performances afford him greater satisfaction than his championship world's record run of 13, made in his match with George Moore for the three-cushion title at New York. Previous to this the best mark of the veteran Cuban in a title match was ten, but now that he hoisted the mark three points, it may stand for a long time. On the other hand, the present season has been productive of some phenomenal performances at the angle game. Early in the season, Pierre Maupome, the Mexican expert, ran 13 in a practice game at St. Louis, and a little later August Kleckhefer, champion of the Interstate Three-Cushion league, made a run of 17 points in a game at Milwaukee. Quite as remarkable as these two big runs was the performance of Harry Wakefield, one of San Francisco's leading experts, who, in a game against a coast amateur, scored 50 points in 2 1/2 innings. Wakefield started with 5, 5, 2, 5, and then electrified the crowd with a run of 15 on his next trial, giving him 32 points in five innings.

TENNIS STAR QUITE MODEST

Maurice McLoughlin Reserved in Telling of His Victories, Even to Members of His Family.

If it wasn't for the newspapers the family of Maurice McLoughlin would never know of the tennis crack's victories until the expression backed up to the door and delivered another trophy. McLoughlin is most modest in regard to telling about his victories, even to his family. He never mentioned his wonderful playing when he defeated Brooks and Wilding, the great Australians, in the singles, and his family learned of his victories only through the newspapers. McLoughlin is an Oakland boy and has had most of his practice particularly of late years, on Oakland courts. In Oakland a all-the-year-round warm climate he not only can play 365 days

BIG MONEY FOR HORSE MEET

Four Stakes of $20,000 Each Among Attractions Held Out for Horsemen at San Francisco.

Four stakes worth $20,000 each, for both trotters and pacers, will be among the attractive features of the harness race meetings to be held in conjunction with the Panama-Pacific international exposition at San Francisco in 1915. Two of these stakes will be made the leading inducements to international racers from all over the world. Those with but two exceptions, will be the richest stakes ever given on the harness turf. The best stake given in America to date was the $100,000 prize division of the $500,000 American derby, raced over the Road to track. Ten thousand dollar events for pacers have been given out rarely, purses with a total value of $100,000 have been the only fair allotment for side whippers. David G. Lively, chief of the department of live stock of the Panama-Pacific international exposition, has officially announced that two harness race meetings will be held at San Francisco in 1915. The two meetings—two weeks of racing in June and two weeks in October, will be held at the new track of the Pacific Coast Jockey Club, which is now under construction and already has a grandstand seating 10,000 people. J. J. Gordon, J. A. McKerron and Secretary F. W. Kelley of the Pacific association. The race program will approximate $25,000 in stakes and purses in addition to prizes in trophies and plates. At an early date there will be published simultaneously for distribution in America and abroad a diagram and tentative program which has been prepared in so simple and yet so comprehensive a manner that horsemen will easily grasp its most salient features. The liberal conditions that accompany the program are such as will readily appeal to horsemen from all countries.

Maurice McLoughlin.

In the year, but he has, within half a block of his home, an electric lighted court on which to play nights. And many of his practice games are played after dark. During the time that McLoughlin is not playing tennis he is a real estate man. He is connected with an Oakland land realty company, and it is on the electric-lighted court of Wickham Havens, the head of the company, that the champion gets most of his practice. Havens is a tennis fan, and any time McLoughlin wants an afternoon off all he has to do is whisper "tennis" to his "boss" and they leave the office for the court.

Friction Among Athletics.

While the members of the Boston team were dividing their world's series money with a free hand some hard feelings are said to have been stirred in the camp of the Athletics because of the split arranged by Connie Mack's players. Davies, Thompson and McAvoy, it is said, were given one share to divide between them, when they thought they were entitled to more.

Bender's Awful Mistake.

Now it develops that Chief Bender, in the first game of the world's series, thought Deal was Gowdy and Gowdy was Deal. From the way Gowdy walloped a couple, Bender must not think much of Deal as a batter.

TUMBLE IN HOCKEY SALARIES

Canadian Ice Thrillers Will Be Lucky to Get $20 Per Contest During the Coming Winter.

How would you like to be a professional hockey player? They are the hardest hit by the war. Canadian ice thrillers used to turn their noses up at a $500-a-game salary. This winter they will be lucky to get a contract calling for $20 per contest. The remarkable tumble in price was caused by the war. Canada is hard hit in a money way, and, according to indications, this coming winter will be a real tough one. Citizens won't feel like handing real money over to the hockey magnates, and the latter will, under no circumstances, dish-out fat stipends to their star players. Art Ross, the Montreal star, was once paid $1,000 for two games. At another time he had a contract with Halesbury which secured him $2,700 for ten games, of $270 per match.

Basket-Ball Stars.

Evans is one of the fastest and cleverest basket-ball men in the country. Maranville is a whirlwind on the polished floor, and Bruggy, the catcher, is declared to be the best basket-ball player in New England. Mann is a whirlwind and Hank Gowdy has starred in the game at Columbus. Besides, they have several others who claim to class up with them, and they could get together a team that probably would sweep the country.
