Mrs. Pope's Art Work Displayed

The latest member of the Sanford Art Assn. to have her work displayed in Senkarik's Paint and Glass Store is Marguerite (Mrs. Herbert B.) Pope of Indian Mound Village. Most of Mrs. Pope's presentation consists of family portraits that she has done, and portrait painting is her first choice, although she has also done some very striking landscapes, and still life pictures in oils. The portraits are of her mother, Mrs. Margaret Howell, as she looked at 28 years of age, done from an old picture in a locket and of Mrs. Howell's son and daughter and two of her granddaughters. Mrs. Pope studied with Newton

Merrill in Winter Park, at his art studios and also worked for two years with the late Mrs. Sophie Parsons, a famous portrait artist. She is now working with local artist Ed Stowe. The portraiture of the Madonna which is on display was done from a picture of the original statue which stands in the Chartres Cathedral in France, and the one of the Madonna and Babe from a very old painting. First successful use of a parachute in a descent from a moving airplane was made by Capt. Albert Berry at St. Louis, Mo., in 1912.

Eichmann Loses Plea To Disqualify Judges

JERUSALEM (UPI) — Adolf Eichmann today lost the first round in his desperate battle to escape the gallows for the alleged slaughter of millions of Jews during World War II. Three Israeli judges ruled they were not prejudiced and were fully competent to try the former Nazi SS colonel on 15 counts of the persecution, deportation and mass murder of the Jews. After almost a week of legal sparring, the "trial of the century" began officially when Eichmann pleaded innocent to all the counts in the indictment. Eichmann had his earphones clamped tightly on his head as he sat in the bullet-proof glass box where he will spend many of his daylight hours for weeks to come and heard presiding Judge Moshe Landau slam the door on any possible technical escape. Landau, speaking briefly and quickly in Hebrew, threw out one of the challenges made by the defense against the jurisdiction of the court—that the three Israeli judges could be swayed in their judgment because members of their families might have been victims of Nazi terror. "It's true," said Landau, "that the holocaust terrified every Jew but it's our duty to conquer these feelings. Judges dealing in this trial are experienced judges, accustomed to weighing the evidence. The accused is being defended by an experienced counsel. We will fully observe the guarantees provided an accused by law." The court also ruled it irrelevant that Eichmann was kidnapped illegally by Israeli agents, as charged by the defense. And it rejected a request by the defense that two employees of Al Airlines be called to testify in an attempt to prove the Israeli government ordered Eichmann's abduction from his refuge in Argentina. The court's ruling consumed about 20 minutes and the judges then got down to the business at hand—proceedings that will decide Eichmann's guilt or innocence.

Time Passing

Time was passing slowly for some city workmen today. The crew removing the downtown clock found that it took a lot more digging and pulling than had been anticipated as they took the clock away to a new stand in the Tourist Center area near the Civic Center.

The city had agreed to wait 60 days to move the clock, but apparently Moses changed his mind about waiting and asked that the clock be moved today, Knowles said.

Crowds gathered to witness the transfer of the landmark and some ventured the opinion that it's going to be hard to give proper directions to strangers now that the clock is gone. The old clock finally gave in to the busy workmen who swarmed about it, but as the four faces were removed they stood out in the sun - all with different times, but defiant to the end.

45-Senator Plan Approved

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Two House committees today approved the 45-senator reapportionment plan, tacked on a bill to elect member House and Senate members to the calendar for an early vote.

The compromise solution to the six-year-old reapportionment struggle would give Florida seven new senators and 14 new House members in 1963, all for fast-growing areas.

The House part was adopted after representatives from Dade and Brevard counties made a strong bid to get the membership up as high as 109. They warned that it might make the difference between approval and rejection at the polls in the 1962 general election, but their plea failed.

Sen. Ted Davis of Hollywood and his House colleagues said they could not sell the 104-member plan to the voters of their county. But Sen. W. C. Herrell of Miami Springs said Dade would go for the compromise.

The House apportionment would give Dade two more representatives for a total of five; Duval Hillsborough and Pinellas counties one more each for a total of four each; Broward, Orange, Palm Beach, Polk and Escambia one more each for a total of three each.

The legislative delegation is really caught in the middle on this proposed county code legislation. The County Commission strongly backs it while the City Commission is opposed to it. It will be very interesting to see how State Reps. Mack Cleveland Jr. and Gordon Frederick vote on it.

Spring bounces back today on the heels of warm air streaming north and east from the Gulf of Mexico.

The Midwest gradually returned to normal from its weekend pummeling of snows as high as 20 inches in Minnesota. Snow on downtown Chicago streets vanished overnight after a 3.5-inch fall between Saturday night and Monday.

The legislative delegation has informed the city commissioners that if they want to meet on proposed urban renewal legislation they will have to come to Tallahassee. City Manager W. E. Knowles received a letter from Rep. Cleveland asking suggestions on convenient dates for commissioners. Indications are that the commission won't make the trek and will shelve urban renewal this legislative session.

Warmer air from the Gulf raised temperatures to the 40s from the Atlantic Coast southwest along the Appalachians and west to Colorado. The mercury ranged from 80 to the low 80s in the Carolinas, most of the Deep South and Texas.

The Seminole County exhibit at the Southeastern Industrial exhibit in Orlando this week will be on television tonight. An official of Channel Nine, which will televise the show, called to say that a video tape portion of the exhibit will be seen at 10:30 p.m. today.

The City Commission Monday night hired James R. Jernigan of Rock Hill, S. C., as city recreation director at a salary of $5,700 a year.

New officers will be elected and installed at the final meeting of Seminole County Council of Schools at 9:30 a.m. Wednesday at Southside School.

Mrs. E. W. Williams will serve as installing officer. Mrs. Gordon Frederick will preside.

NAACP Asks Desegregation Of Sanford Public Facilities

The city was presented with a petition late Monday afternoon to desegregate all public parks, playgrounds and recreation facilities within 10 days.

The petition was signed by 38 Negroes who said they were residents of Sanford.

The petition was drawn up by Francisco Rodriguez, attorney for the NAACP in Florida.

City Manager W. E. Knowles said today that the City Commission met in special session

Monday night to discuss the matter but declined to comment further.

Knowles did say that the "board would study the petition."

The next regular meeting of the City Commission is April 24. Knowles added that he doesn't expect any special city meetings this week to discuss the matter.

The petition calls for the "abolishment forever" of the practice of racial segregation in the use of all parks, playgrounds and recreational facilities in the city.

It asks that "henceforth no citizen of the city shall be deprived of the use of any playground or recreation facility because of race or color."

The petition stated that Sanford has denied these rights for Negro citizens and called it unconstitutional and void and in violation of the 14th Amendment.

Cuban Invaders Claim Advances

United Press International

Invading Cuban revolutionary forces have seized an airstrip and are now flying planes in and out of the beachhead area in Cochinos Bay where the major landing was made, high exile sources said today.

The landing strip was captured after fighting described by the sources as "heavy."

Invading rebel forces in Las Villas Province are "under extremely heavy attack" by Communist-built MIG jet aircraft, a top exile source said today at midday.

An exile spokesman said flatly that liberation troops in Las Villas and Oriente provinces "are firmly established and being supplied."

He said that in the Las Villas area there were two points where consolidation was under way. He declined to elaborate on this.

The principal movement, he said had been a spread of troops fanning out from Jaguey Grande, where he said more than 100 of Premier Fidel Castro's militiamen were killed Monday.

The spokesman said that "complete communications" have been established between liberation forces in Las Villas and Oriente provinces with the secret Cuban Revolutionary Council's general headquarters outside Cuba.

The communications network, he said, "is routed through a third country outside of the United States."

Pressed to amplify the remark, he replied, "We are getting our news from our forces in Cuba through a certain Latin American country."

Twenty-four hours after the invaders dashed ashore in Las Villas province, Castro proclaimed over an emergency national radio hookup that his forces were "fighting valiantly." He said details would be disclosed later on new "successes obtained by the army."

As Castro spoke the Soviet Union hinted it would go to his aid unless the intervention ceased. Russia flatly accused the United States of helping the invasion. Thousands of Russians "besieged" the American embassy in Moscow.

dent Kennedy today discussed with Democratic congressional leaders the Cuban crisis and Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev's threat to intervene. House Speaker Sam Rayburn called the situation "serious."

During a breakfast meeting at the White House, Kennedy received a message from Khrushchev blaming the United States for the anti-Castro invasion. Khrushchev urged Kennedy to "put an end to the aggression."

The president was expected to reject the Soviet leader's charge that the United States prepared and began the invasion.

U. S. officials said they also expected Kennedy to make it clear that the United States and the other republics of the western hemisphere would not tolerate any foreign Communist intrusion into the affair.

Military officials here, backed up by diplomatic opinion, did not believe Russia would risk war with the United States over Cuba. They point out that militarily it would be virtually impossible for the Russians to aid the embattled Castro.

Contractor License Bill Supported

The County Commission today by a 4-1 majority refused to be swayed by a host of contractors and voted to support general state legislation for the licensing and examination of all building contractors.

District 2 Commissioner James P. Avery, who has fought a local bill for the past five weeks, voted against supporting the general act.

At the same time, the County Commission withdrew a request for local legislation after State Rep. Mack Cleveland Jr. informed the board by letter that a general act will be introduced.

Bryan Kimball, chairman of the Zoning Board, asked the commis-ion to rescind its previous action on local legislation and give their full support to the statewide bill.

Contractors accused the board of not taking into account "the wishes of the people" and said "let the legislators fight this out with the contractors."

A delegation from the Seminole County Builders Assn. and Suppliers Credit Assn. said that the bill would protect the people.

In other business, the commission, by a 3-2 majority, voted safeguards to prevent over-expenditures in the road and bridge fund. Expenditures must not be made unless the commission gives its approval. Avery and District 2 Commissioner Ted Williams voted against the motion.

The board awarded the low bid to Bell and Hough Inc. of St. Petersburg for the sale of the $500,000 road bond issue bonds. The firm was lowest of six bidders with an interest rate of 4.34 percent from 1964 to 1973 and four percent from 1974 until 1985.

The commission also approved new insurance coverage for the courthouse, including a new policy to insure valuable papers.

The courthouse will now be insured at $380,000; $50,000 for contents and $235,000 for valuable papers. The commission hopes to save $500 annually under this plan.

Veteran Penney's Manager To Retire

Ralph N. Blackwelder, manager of Penney's department store here for the past 12 years, and a veteran of 31 years of service with Penney's stores, will retire at the end of April.

Blackwelder started with the Penney company at Concord, N.C., in September, 1930 as a salesman in the work clothes department. He was made manager of that store in August, 1933.

In October, 1936, he was transferred to the Sanford store as assistant manager. The Penney store at that time was located in the present Western Auto building.

After several years here, he was transferred to Clinton, S. C., as store manager. In July 1949, due to the retirement of E. I. Hoy, manager of the Sanford store then, Blackwelder was given the opportunity to return to Sanford as manager. He gladly accepted, as he and his wife were both fond of Florida living and of Sanford.

After retirement, Blackwelder plans to "catch up on his fishing" and work on his woodcraft in his woodworking shop. He and Mrs. Blackwelder also plan to make a long-awaited visit with their son, H. V., his wife, Mary and their four grandsons, Buddy, Bernie, Bobby and Barry, who live in Wilmington, Del. where the younger Blackwelder is an architect with the DuPont Company.

Blackwelder said that the new Sanford manager will be announced by the personnel department of the Penney Company in Dallas within a few days.

U. S., British Offer Nuclear Ban Plan

GENEVA (UPI) — The United States and Great Britain presented a complete nuclear test ban treaty to the Soviet Union today and offered to sign it immediately.

Arthur H. Dean, chief United States delegate to the three-power test ban conference, presented the document at today's 22nd meeting. It sums up the joint Western position on treaty language and contains what the West regards as adequate provision for control.

The document puts into formal language the position which was presented by Dean at the meeting of March 21, when the talks were resumed after a 14-week recess.

The treaty would ban nuclear tests for the purpose of developing weapons in outer space, underwater and in the atmosphere.

However, it called for an unpoliced moratorium period of three years for small nuclear underground tests while monitoring equipment is perfected to detect the small explosions.

Major Joe Baker, spokesman for the city, emphasized the importance of the road as a way of "easing the traffic flow" into the city.

County Commissioner Chairman J. C. Hutchison said that the project was the No. 1 priority project as far as the County Commission was concerned.

County engineer Carlton Ellis said that he reviewed plans on the project and called them "well designed. Seminole County will be proud of this road," Ellis added.

Britain Shocked By New Spy Case

LONDON (UPI) — Britain was shocked today by its second spy case of the year when a government official was charged with passing secret information "useful to an enemy."

The accused man is George Blake, 38, who was remanded in custody for six days at a 30-minute closed hearing before Chief Magistrate Sir Robert Blundell at Bow Street Court.

Details of the case against him were not revealed. Neither was Blake's government post.

Blake's arrest came in the midst of a reported massive spy hunt in Britain that included a combing of all ranks and civilian employees in the country's air, land and sea forces.

SAN QUENTIN, Calif. (UPI) — Twenty-nine condemned men on San Quentin Prison's death row submitted a list of 24 demands Monday in connection with their five-day hunger strike. Tanker Burned

FORT LAUDERDALE (UPI) — Gasoline fumes were ignited during the unloading of a tanker at Port Everglades Monday night, burning one man on the hands, legs and scalp. Authorities said they did not know how the fumes caught fire during the unloading of the S. S. Trinity. Flames shot 60 feet into the air and were plainly visible in the Fort Lauderdale area.

Fugitive Caught

JERSEY CITY, N. J. (UPI) — Philip Alfred N. Normandin, a trigger-happy trumpet player, was arrested here by federal agents Monday night, only hours after he had been placed on the FBI's list of 10 most wanted criminals. FBI director J. Edgar Hoover in Washington credited the speedy arrest to an "alert citizen" who read in Normandin's description in a newspaper, realized he knew him and reported his whereabouts to the FBI.

Altamonte School Equipment Stolen

Principal George Dabbs reported today that the Altamonte Springs Elementary School was broken into sometime Monday between dark and 9 p. m. and that an Adler typewriter and a tape recorder are missing.

This is the second time the school has been entered since Saturday when entry was gained by breaking an office window. The vandals apparently went to the cafeteria where they broke more glass to get in the room. Although his office and the cafeteria were thoroughly ransacked Saturday, Dabbs said nothing was taken.

Bank To Host Coffee Club Meet

Officers of the bank have planned a special program, including a tour of the new facility on First St. Door prizes will be awarded. All members of the chamber and non-business people are invited to attend.

New Recreation Director Hired

The City Commission Monday night hired James R. Jernigan of Rock Hill, S. C., as city recreation director at a salary of $5,700 a year.

Jernigan, who is expected to start work in two weeks, will replace Ronald Perry who resigned earlier this month.

Jernigan is 39 years old, a graduate of North Carolina State College and is presently assistant director of recreation of parks at Rock Hill.

Council Of Schools To Name Officers

New officers will be elected and installed at the final meeting of Seminole County Council of Schools at 9:30 a.m. Wednesday at Southside School.

Mrs. E. W. Williams will serve as installing officer. Mrs. Gordon Frederick will preside.

Dedicated Fight

The City Commission is split over urban renewal and one commissioner has stated that it won't do anything to help remake the downtown section of Sanford.

We take exception to this and point out a remark made by William L. Slayton, commissioner of the Urban Renewal Administration. Mr. Slayton says that urban renewal is a "program to remake the downtown area of a city."

He said aesthetic qualities are needed downtown because drabness creates a subconscious depression in people. "The fact that a new building creates controversy among the citizens means that an awakening to beauty has occurred."

Slayton warned that corporations have changed their outlook. They no longer think only of an industrial site but look at a city in terms of the quality of public service, the character of its schools, and also, and very importantly, the location and quality of its housing and neighborhoods.

We agree with Slayton and realize it's a tough business. It needs tough minded people and dedicated people. A split city commission won't help.

Worry Clinic

CASE H-465: Harry H., aged 44, is an office manager.

"Dr. Crane," he began when I was in Phoenix addressing his Executive Club, "I wish I could improve my memory."

"Why, I may be introduced to people at a party and within 2 minutes I can't recall their names. It is thus very humiliating to have to ask them a second time as I try to present them to other folks at the party."

"Is it old age or do I need some special system to perk up my memory?"

Don't alibi unduly about old age, for you can have a keen memory at the age of 75 or 80, if.

And that big "IP" means IF you follow the simple rules of psychology outlined as follows:

(1) Stay in contact with external reality. As we grow older, most of us cut off many of the social bonds that used to keep us in active touch with the world around us.

So keep up your membership in a Sunday School class and your lodge. Attend meetings, despite your aching joints. Remember, moreover, that when you give in to your stiff joints and sit still, those joints tend to "freeze," so it will not be long till you are chair-fast or bedfast.

And quit fussing on your "in-laws." Don't indulge in a daily recital of your aches and pains or the hospital experience when you formerly had surgery.

Instead, turn your attention OUTWARD. Join the "Compliment Club," where the search for merits in your companions will train you to become a social detective, farsighted out virtues and linking them with the appropriate names and faces.

"Howdy, Grandpa, how do you feel today?" is the usual query of friends and relatives of the aged.

Quit it! Leave that type of question for your physician. You laymen should extort your old folks by turning their attention to the weather, or the crops or politics, or grandmother's new quilt.

(2) Get a clear original impression.

A good memory is like photography. You can't produce a clear print later if your original negative is fuzzy and indistinct.

So ask to have the stranger repeat his name. Visualize it. And in order to add more incentive to remember, engage in a secret contest with your mate. Make a deal that the one who recalls the most names from the party, gets 10 cents or a quarter from the loser for each additional name!

"Intention" to remember is thus just as vital as paying "attention," for you can notice the names of all the streets between your house and downtown, possibly doing this 10,000 times, and still not be able to recite them in order.

But if you seriously INTEND to remember them, you can probably do so with not over 25 repetitions!

(3) Use the new name AT ONCE. Don't stop by saying, "I'm glad to meet you." Instead, get that new name in action pronto, as by commenting, "I'm glad to meet you, Orien Fifer."

(4) Cross index the new name by making many associations with it.

Speak it. Write it down when you have a chance, so you can see it. And link related ideas to it, as by associating Orien Fifer's name with being a life player or "fifer." That's how the stage memory experts develop their phenomenal memories.

Send for the booklet "How to Improve Memory and Study More Efficiently," enclosing a stamped, return envelope, plus 20 cents. It offers many more hints.

The St. Bernard dog became famous in the Swiss Alps, near the St. Bernard monastery, where rescued travelers were taken.

There is no difference in the front and back of a canoe. The bow and stern are the same.

HARD BOILED EASTER EGGS

ROME—Mostly questions: Isn't Ingemar Johansson's fiancée, Birget Lundgren, approaching a world's endurance record for fiancées?

Why doesn't Italy turn over the reception of the Queen of England when she arrives in early May to the Italian Monarchist Party? The Monarchist Party adores royalty, and is in a lousy over the approach- ing visit. Instead, Queen Elizabeth's visit will be in the hands of politicians who want no part of a monarchy—in their own land at least.

What would be the harm in 24-hour television when so many people sleep in front of their screens already?

Wouldn't the Leotian crisis be eased by the election or appointment of a head of state with a name that the world could pronounce and come close to spelling?

The tension would slacken with the arrival of a strong man named, say, Tom Smith, or Pete Edwards or Joe Lard.

Isn't a thing of beauty a joy forever until it gets in the way of progress? Does it then just become a tree that must give way to a widened road, a waterfall to a parking lot, a charming building to a skyscraper?

Now that Castro has taken up golf, how would you like to be the one to beat him on the final green for the country club championship? If Fidel can shoot birdies as well as he does enemies, he'll lower the course record every time he plays.

Peter Edson's Political Notebook

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—The best reason for celebrating Pan American Week and Pan American Day this year is that the Cuban anti-Castro factions have finally united in a revolutionary council under Dr. Jose Miro Cardona. Castro admits that an opposition front has been established on the island. And there is active training in guerrilla invasion forces to back it up.

"Coffee Day" was inappropriately celebrated in Washington at the Pan American Union with a cocktail party, of all things, not a Kaffeklatch.

Elsewhere, an American Week has been celebrated more by words than by deeds. Everybody and his brother seems to be writing a report telling somebody else what he ought to do to save Latin America from a fate worse than the Congo or Laos.

President Kennedy's White House speech calling for his Alliance Para Progreso—Alliance for Progress with Latin America—has just been printed in a 16-page pocket pamphlet with a bright, spring green and blue cover.

It makes a handy companion piece to the 36-page "white paper" pocket book on Cuba, put out by the State Department to call on Fidel Castro to sever his ties with communism and be good.

This document is faintly reminiscent of a larger, more comprehensive blue book on the Argentine, issued by the State Department during the war. It called on dictator Peron to sever his ties with the Nazis. Its effect was to anger the Argentine people. They responded by keeping Peron in power till 1955. All you can do is hope the new white paper won't have a similar effect.

In other circles, Committee for Economic Development, made up of 200 U. S. progressive business leaders, has just released a 60-page report in a bright yellow cover bearing the title, "Co-operation for Progress in Latin America."

In the main, CED endorses the Act of Bogota, where the American Republics agreed they'd better do something. Also, CED says Latin American businessmen ought to get together to reform their countries' economies.

Population Reference Bureau of Washington is in with another pocket size pamphlet, "Latin America: Decade of Decision." The burden is that there will be a population explosion down there by 1970 if somebody (else) doesn't do something.

Inter-American Development Bank has just issued its first annual report of 48 pages bound in baby blue and white. It is full of statistics. They show, among other things, that the bank had about $147 million in paid up capital as of Dec. 31, and that its expenses up to then were $1.6 million.

In this period the bank received 194 applications for loans and 174 inquiries. But it had made no loans. Good, conservative way to run a bank.

Since then, Inter-American Bank has made five loans, but it hasn't disbursed one centavo. Its president, Felipe Herrera, and most of his staff are in Rio during Pan American Week, along with U. S. Treasury Secretary C. Douglas Dillon. They may announce some new loans down there to show they're in business—for the second year. But this hasn't done much good down there yet.

International Labor Organization, currently holding its annual meeting in Buenos Aires, has published a 148-page report in deep blue and white cover, calling for "a new substantial burst of progress in Latin America . . . if present trends toward a slackening of growth are to be reversed."

Meanwhile, Congress is taking its own deliberate time to act on Kennedy's message request for $500 million for Latin-American social development. This was authorized last year at the request of former President Eisenhower.

Congress renewed the sugar act just before it was to expire March 31. This gave the President authority to take away Cuba's quota and also Dominican Republic's, which makes both mad.

Finally, ex-Sen. William Bennett, publisher of Encyclopedia Britannica, is bringing out a 60,000-word report on his trip to 12 Latin-American republics with Gov. Adlai Stevenson last year. It will be published in book form under the title of "The Voice of Latin America."

This is the umpteenth report on Latin America that has come out in the last few months. Words. Words. Words. One more study paper and the Latins should unite to declare war as the best possible way to celebrate Pan American Week.

Readers Write

Dear Editor: I was glad to read in the Herald that the monstrously which is called the clock is going to be moved from First street and Park Ave.

It is a traffic hazard and holds up the traffic in all four directions. Another traffic hazard is on 25th St. and Park Ave. Those three cabbage palm trees. They are not pretty, they belong out in the woods in their natural place.

So while the city is moving the clock, I hope they move the cabbage palms too. Lets grow up with our fast growing city.

Cards Aiming For No. 1 Spot In Flag Race

United Press International
For the benefit of those who thought the St. Louis Cardinals' 1960 third-place finish was a fluke, manager Solly Hemus' boys are showing off some power that indicates this year they're seriously shooting to go even higher.

Shortstop Daryl Spencer topped a three-homer outburst Monday night with a grand slam blast that gave the Cards a 9-5 victory over the Los Angeles Dodgers. Joe Cunningham and Don Taussig also hit St. Louis homers.

Mickey Mantle of the New York Yankees and comeback-bound Gary Geiger of the Boston Red Sox also hit important homers in Monday's abbreviated major league schedule.

Mantle's homer, with a man on base, was his first hit of the year and helped the Yankees gain a 3-0 triumph over the Kansas City Athletics.

Geiger, out for the last half of last season because of a collapsed lung, hit a seventh-inning homer that proved to be the deciding run in the Red Sox' 3-2 victory over the Los Angeles Angels.

Duke Snider hit a two-run homer in a losing cause but it enabled the 34-year-old Dodger outfielder to reach a significant milestone. This was the 370th homer of Snider's career and placed him seventh on baseball's all-time homer-hitting list.

The Cards were one of the big surprises of last season when they wound up in third place. This season the consensus picked the Cards to finish fourth, but their early-season showing hints they could be a serious pennant threat.

Cunningham, whose batting average slipped to .280 last season after a .345 mark in 1959, collected a homer, double and two singles Monday night. Spencer hit his grand slam—the third of his career—in the ninth inning off reliever Larry Sherry. Spencer also drove in a run with a single.

Bob Miller, who took over the St. Louis pitching after starter Bob Gibson was knocked out in the seventh, was the winner, although he needed help from Mickey McDermott in the ninth. McDermott retired Wally Moon for the final out with the bases loaded.

The victory moved the Cards into a first-place tie with the San Francisco Giants. The Cards-Dodgers game was the only one played in the National League.

In the American League, Mantle's homer and Whitey Ford's three-hit pitching sent the Yankees on to victory over the A's. Mantle also had two singles and a walk. He also drove in the Yankees' third run. Ford struck out eight and did not permit a runner to get past second base.

Jerry Walker, usually Mantle's nemesis when he pitched for the Baltimore Orioles, yielded the three Yankee runs during the seven innings he worked.

Jackie Jensen's single, a bases-loaded walk and Geiger's homer supplied the Red Sox with their three runs against the Angels.

Mike Fornieles, who last season set an AL record of 70 relief appearances, came to the rescue of starter Tom Brewer in the seventh when Ted Kluszewski and Steve Bilko hit doubles. Albie Pearson hit a Los Angeles homer.

Durocher Riding 3 Day Suspension

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Dodger coach Leo Durocher is riding out a three-day suspension for his shirking kicking duel with umpire Jocko Conlan in comparative contentment. The penalty, in effect, was just a slap on the wrist.

National League President Warren Giles set Lippy Leo down for the three days, Monday through Wednesday, but at the same time indicated he was less than pleased with the conduct of Conlan who, like Durocher, has a low boiling point.

Durocher and Conlan exchanged kicks to the shins Sunday in the fourth inning of the Dodger-Pittsburgh game after the Dodgers staged a mass protest over a foul call by the plate umpire on Norm Larker's pop fly.

Durocher, in numerous rhabarbs with umpires during his tenure as manager of the old Brooklyn Dodgers and New York Giants, laughingly said he was "over-matched" because Conlan wore shin guards.

When he was first asked if he had anything to say about the suspension, Leo kept his lip zipped and replied, "No. Not a thing." He loosened up a little later and told reporters, "Whether you're right or wrong, what can you do? Giles is the president. I've been suspended before and I know I can't touch an umpire. What made me mad was getting thrown out of the game in the first place."

Stenstrom Sets New Handicap High

Stenstrom Realty established a new high handicap series in the Hi-Nooners league when they rolled a 2266 against Monroe Harbor and took the four points.

Al's Barber Shop is leading the league again after taking three points from Smith's Amoco, North Orlando Homes won three points from the CPO Wives. The Capri won three points from the Big Dip. Ollie Yelnik was back in form to help Shoemaker Construction take three points from Dawn's Beauty Salon.

Adeline Karns converted the 2-7 split. Mary Elmore the 3-10, Elaine Smith the 4-7, Jean Webster the 4-10 and the 5-7 was made by Vivian Rowberry and Jean Webster. Turkeys were rolled by Betty Cox, Kathy Gray and Carolyn Keen.

Brown, Charnley Battle For Title

LONDON (UPI)—Joltin' Joe Brown of Houston, Tex., is looking ahead to another easy pay night when he gives Dave Charnley of England a second crack at his world lightweight title tonight at Earls Court Arena.

Brown is a solid 7-4 favorite for the scheduled 15-rounder, which will start at approximately 8:15 p. m.

In their first meeting at Houston in 1959, Brown cut up Charnley so badly the pale-faced English fighter was forced to quit at the end of the fifth round.

"He's the first guy I ever knocked out sitting on a stool," Brown bragged.

Foodmart, Bankers Cop Junior Play

Foodmart defeated Perfection 8-7 in Little Major League play Monday while First Federal knocked off Yowell's, 10-8.

There will be a meeting in the Civic Center at 7:45 p. m. Thursday to organize various leagues of a men's softball church and city league. All managers and men interested in playing are urged to attend.

Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Well, St. Valentine's Day came and went and so did Easter with not so much as a "boo" from my husband. I've been married 14 years and he has never given me even a 10-cent card for my birthday, anniversary or any other occasion. I remember him on all occasions and he seems pleased.

I'll admit, he doesn't drink, chase or curse. He works hard and steady and is a good church-going family man. But do you think I am asking too much to want a token of his affection to show my friends now and then?

WAITING AND HOPING

DEAR WAITING: A man shows his "affection" to his wife by being a good family man 365 days of the year. Don't confuse his lack of sentimentality with lack of love. Some men are not the "remembering" kind, but their love is deep and constant.

DEAR ABBY: I recently had a date with a gentleman—at least I thought he was. I am in my middle forties and he is in his early fifties. (It was a date arranged by mutual friends.)

When we got to the restaurant, I didn't wait for him to open the car door for me. I just opened it myself and hopped out. He said, "A LADY always gives her escort the opportunity to be a gentleman."

Now this man is from Virginia and he did a lot of talking about his fine Southern background. Then he threw in some cracks about how refined and feminine the Southern ladies were. I was born in Brooklyn and am proud of it. Should I have said, "Drop dead, you—ah?" How would you have handled it?

FROM BROOKLYN

DEAR FROM BROOKLYN: You should have said nothing, and thanked him for a lovely evening—and a short one.

DEAR ABBY: I am only 15 but I would like to speak from knowledge and experience.

I think the advice you gave "In Love in Korea"—to wait until he got back to the states before marrying the girl he fell in love with over there—was the best advice that could be given to anyone.

I know someone who was sent overseas for Uncle Sam. He met a girl there and married her a few weeks later. Now they have a family. But there is no love in the family because the parents do not get along. They can't separate for religious reasons.

You may say, "How do you know so much about this family?" Well, I will tell you how. The family is mine. The "girl" is my mother, and the "boy" is my father. I don't say that all overseas marriages don't work, but ours is an example of one that didn't, and I'm an example of what a real family should be like. Thank you, Abby, for warning others. You could have done no better.

We The Women:

By Ruth Millet

Neighbors of a 57-year-old Pennsylvania woman had brought her a new house. They had intended on building one for her, but she had no intention of leaving her old house. She had lived there for 20 years and she had a good neighborhood.

At twilight when we grew tired of hide-and-seek and run-sheep-run, we would sit on somebody's porch steps and speculate about what the neighborhood scold would do to any kid she caught in her neighborhood.

I had forgotten all about our scold until I read about the woman in Pennsylvania. And then I recalled her, and decided that she added as much excitement to our young lives as TV thrillers offer kids today.

Science Fair To Include Work Of Six Schools

The Seminole County Science Fair scheduled Thursday and Friday in the Bill Fleming Memorial Gym at Seminole High School will include entries from the high school, Sanford Junior High, Lyman High and Junior High and Oviedo High and Junior High Schools.

The fair will be open to the public from 8 p. m. to 8 p. m. Thursday and from 8:30 a. m. to 8 p. m. Friday. At 8 p. m. an awards ceremony will take place and all students with entries are urged to be present.

Awards of merit will be given entries in all classifications as determined by the judges. There will be a first, second and third award in the biological sciences and the physical sciences on both the junior high and senior high levels.

Other awards will be given by local organizations in the county to projects in their field of interest.

What is a Science Fair? Although most people have a pretty good idea, here is a more exact definition.

"A science fair is a collection of exhibits, each of which is designed to show a biological, chemical, engineering, mathematical or physical principle, a laboratory or other procedure, or an industrial development.

"It is a form of activity on the part of the junior high and high school students to show what they can do in sciences. The exhibit may be prepared by an individual or by two persons, but not more than two unless it is a classroom project for display only."

The purpose of a science fair is to offer opportunity for the display of scientific talent and to provide recognition of this talent.

To motivate, encourage and inspire in students and teachers the desire for scientific experimentation and discovery;

To encourage talented youths to enter scientific careers;

To focus attention on science and stimulate the student, the teacher and the community interest.

CHEMISTRY TEACHER, PAUL HICKSON and Jaycee President John Alexander, examine a Science Fair project entry by Allison Blake, entitled, "The Crystal Field Theory." The fair will be held at Seminole High Thursday and Friday.

Methodist Men Attend Class At Thornton Home

Twenty-nine members of the Brotherhood Class of the First Methodist Church met Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Thornton on W. First St. for their regular Sunday School hour.

The host is a member of the class but is unable to attend weekly meetings at the church because of ill health.

The group of men is well known for singing of old Methodist Hymns and Sunday members held a regular song fest led by Dr. H. W. Rucker and Mrs. Burke Steele, class pianist.

Rev. W. E. Timms taught the lesson.

All persons of the area who are interested in shell collecting or topics related to oceanography are invited to join the group.

TWO THRILLED BOYS HAPPILY HOLDING SACKS containing 50 silver dollars each, were the proud winners of the second and third prizes at Kingswood opening. Richard Benton, left, a ninth grade student at Seminole High, says he will save his $50 for the present. Steve Stankiewicz, a neighbor of Richard, and a student at All Souls School, plans to use part of his money to finance his summer camp trip with Boy Scout Troop 548.

3,000 Participate In Kingswood Event

An estimated 3,000 people attended the model home opening of Kingswood Builders in Sunland Estates Sunday. Model homes were open for inspection and one was furnished for the viewers by Berry's Warehouse furniture and one by Kingswood Builders themselves.

Five homes, all different styles and floor plans, were displayed for the prospective home owners, who crowded through the homes all afternoon.

Promptly at 5:30 p. m. the builders, Billy Brumley, Art Harris and Byron Leach began drawing the names out of a revolving cage for the awarding over 1,000 silver dollars to children under 18 who attended with their parents.

There were 357 individual awards totalling $1,028 and although many were there to receive their money when their name was drawn, the names of the other winners are published in the Kingswood ad in the Her-

Liz Taylor, Lancaster Lead Oscar Parade

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (UPI)—Elizabeth Taylor, beset by tragedy and scandal in recent years, stood with her golden Oscar today at the pinnacle of her career—the best actress of 1960.

The dark-haired beauty won the coveted award for her role of a footloose lady in "Butterfield 8."

But her acceptance of the statuette Monday night at the 33rd annual Academy Awards presentation was as dramatic a moment as any she had been called upon to play in the movies.

Leaving a sickbed to attend her triumphant hour, Miss Taylor was accompanied by husband Eddie Fisher and her physician. She is still recovering from a near-fatal attack of pneumonia suffered last month in London.

Muscular Burt Lancaster won the best actor award for his performance as the hell-raising preacher in "Elmer Gantry."

After receiving the award Lancaster said, "Next year I hope to co-star with Liz in 'A Child Is Waiting,' about retarded children. Liz says she wants to do it very much."

Shirley Jones won the best supporting actress award for her portrayal of a prostitute in "Elmer Gantry." She was offered the role by Lancaster after a succession of good-girl roles in musicals.

Bearded Peter Ustinov, the English character actor, ran off with the best supporting performance award. He played a roguish "Spartacus" who ran a school for gladiators.

Best picture voted by the Academy was "The Apartment."

All four winners in the acting categories were first-timers.

Billy Wilder accepted three awards—best director, best original screenplay with L. A. L. Diamond and the producers award for best picture, all for "The Apartment."

All the top winners were involved in sexuality and sex. Miss Taylor played a girl of easy virtue with many lovers. Lancaster portrayed a preacher who specialized in seducing women. Miss Jones was an out-and-out prostitute, and Ustinov's role called for him to provide girls for the gladiators.

"The Apartment" was a study in loose morals with co-star Jack Lemmon providing his living quarters as a trysting place for his bosses.

The two-hour, ten-minute Oscar show was nationally telecast with

TAYLOR

Bob Hope as master of ceremonies as a crowd of more than 5,000 persons crowded Santa Monica Civic Auditorium. Another 5,000 movie fans stood outside in the fog-shrouded evening to cheer their favorites.

The dramatic moment was the presentation of a special award to Gary Cooper for his "many contributions to the motion picture industry."

The actor was at home, ill. His friend, Jimmy Stewart, accepted the Oscar on his behalf and was almost overcome with emotion as he said, "Coop, we're very, very proud of you. All of us are tremendously proud."

Miss Taylor appeared tired, showing the strain of her illness. She was pale, and circles rimmed her violet-blue eyes. She spent 15 minutes in the ladies room before she was able to take her seat in the auditorium.

She was helped to the stage by Fisher, who turned to kiss his wife before she limped to the rostrum to accept the Oscar from Yul Brynner.

In her brief acceptance speech she whispered, "I really don't know how to express my gratitude for this, after everything. I guess all I can say is thank you. Thank you with all my heart."

City May Invoke Policy To Close Play Facilities

The City of Sanford may invoke a policy closing down the Civic Center and all recreation facilities in Sanford if any attempt is made to desegregate any recreational facility by Negroes.

A check by the Herald today of Negroes who signed a petition Monday asking for desegregation, revealed that they plan to go through with their threat of filing a suit in District Court in Orlando in 10 days unless "full desegregation is ordered by the city."

City Manager W. E. Knowles declined to comment on whether the City Commission will discuss this issue Monday night. He also declined comment on whether the board will order the closing of all facilities.

However, the city has a policy that if any mixing is attempted at any of the facilities, the facilities will be closed.

Of the 38 Negroes who signed the petition, which asks the city specifically to integrate all parks, playgrounds and recreation facilities, 14 were pastors, one a doctor and eight non residents of the city.

The Herald contacted nine of the signers this morning and all refused to say who circulated the petition except that "they meant business."

One said "They just slipped it under the door and I signed it."

Foster Home Plan Studied, But Fund Lack Delays It

County Commissioners Tuesday afternoon agreed on the need to establish a foster home program for dependent children in the county but admitted that there was not enough funds in the current budget to get the program off the ground in the immediate future.

Cost of the program is expected to be approximately $15,000 and the Commission agreed to consider adopting the state child welfare program, in late summer or during the next fiscal year.

Mrs. Anne Curwright, district director of public welfare from Winter Park, explained the program and said that there is an "immediate need for $15,000 per year for the cost of care of the children. That sum would pay for smaller and foster homes, clothing, school expenses and medical care. This amount would provide care for about 23 youngsters, Miss Curwright said.

Miss Curwright said that 21 counties are now participating with the state under a foster home plan. Funds for the care of the children are maintained on a joint state, federal and local basis.

American Pilot Downed, Castro Says

United Press International Premier Fidel Castro's government claimed its forces shot down four rebel planes on a bombing mission over a government militia mobilization area in Matanzas Province today, including one with a "U. S. pilot" aboard.

A communique broadcast over the emergency national radio network identified the American pilot as Leo Francis Burley or Burney, Boston, Mass.

The communique said the planes bombed the "civilian population" in the area of the former U. S.-owned Australia sugar mill in Matanzas Province. This area previously has been identified in Castro regime broadcasts as a mobilization area for his militia.

The broadcast claimed the Soviet armed intervention in Cuba. President Kennedy warned Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev Tuesday night this country would act immediately to hurl back any "military intervention by outside forces."

The president's sternly worded note also cautioned Russia against using the Cuban situation as a pretext "to inflame other areas of the world." Kennedy said this would be "dangerous to world peace."

The American note, handed to Soviet Ambassador Mikhail Menshikov at the State Department, was a reply to a message from Khrushchev asking Kennedy "to put an end to the aggression against the republic of Cuba."

The claim of downing the four liberation force aircraft came at mid-morning. During the night Castro turned loose a wave of terror throughout Cuba in an effort to keep the invasion from setting off an internal uprising.

Two Americans and seven Cubans were executed by firing squads, and there were mass arrests of Cubans, U. S. citizens and other foreign nationals.

Castro firing squads executed two Americans—Angus McNair of Coral Gables, Fla., and Howard Anderson of Yakima, Wash. In addition, there were mass arrests of Cubans, U. S. citizens and other foreign nationals.

The Cuban Revolutionary Council said today its invading forces have "completed the planned first phase of their military operation in the south of Cuba" and linked up with guerrilla groups in the Escambray Mountains.

The Castro regime boasted that the invasion force in south-central Cuba would be totally wiped out in "a matter of hours." Thousands of Communist rioters stoned the U. S. legation in the Bulgarian capital of Sofia today, smashing windows and smearing walls with ink in protest against the invasion of Cuba.

The outbreak was part of a worldwide wave of anti-American violence fostered by the Communists. It recalled the anti-Belgian campaign organized after the death of Congolese Patrice Lumumba.

Here's What Improvement Group Is Talking About

F. E. Roumillat Jr., chairman of the Downtown Improvement Committee, wrote the following editorial for distribution among Seminole County residents receiving the Chamber of Commerce Sem-Gram. It gives a graphic picture of what is being done and what is being attempted by the committee.

For sometime there has been growing concern among downtown business firms over the appearance of the main business section of Seminole County's major city... Sanford. There have been vacant buildings, empty storerooms filled with trash, and other conditions that have greatly detracted from the general appearance of Sanford's principal shopping center.

This problem is not peculiar to Sanford... It is experienced by most cities the age of ours. Either stores and buildings are brought up to modern standards, or there is a gradual withdrawal of development and trade to outlying shopping centers. And once shopping patterns are established, they are very difficult to change. The Downtown Improvement Committee, therefore, was organized to evaluate our problem and do something about it as quickly as possible.

Our first meetings revealed that we had taken on quite a project, and yet the picture held wonderful encouragement in our two most outstanding commercial buildings... First Federal Savings & Loan Association, and Florida State Bank. These, we felt, provided the much needed impetus to complete what we believe should become a community endeavor.

We have one of the most beautiful natural settings in Florida. Now all we need is the wholehearted cooperation of local business men and government to prevent a tendency to blight from spreading, and to make the most of what we already have.

Progress made this past year is interesting. In addition to our two new bank buildings, one of the most hopeful signs is the recent purchase of the old Hill Hardware building and the plans now underway by the new owner, Maquet Jacobson, for modernizing the structure. A request for help by our Committee to Atlantic Coast Line President, Mr. Tom Rice, brought his immediate response. The office portion of the old ACL freight depot has already been torn down, and the area facing the street will be beautified.

The Sanford Herald has a fine new facade which greatly enhances the entire block. Stine Machine is freshening up with a paint job. Firestone Stores is preparing the lot at First and French for a brand new home. Sanford Shoe Center's remodeled store on W. First follows the trend to develop that end of the main thoroughfare. George's First Street Tavern has been torn down and is being replaced with a new building. Senkarik Glass & Paint Company's purchase and renovation of the old Buick place has given a new look to the second block of S. Magnolia. The Sanford Atlantic Bank's drive-in eliminates an unsightly alley. Western Auto's new warehouse gives a boost to Commercial Ave. The Florida State Employment office is now quartered in attractive offices at 2nd and French built and financed by local business men. (The former F.S.E. location, nicely remodeled, is now the home of Miller Auto Parts). Hill Lumber and Hardware Company has made changes which help the Third Street area.

Yet there is still much to be done before downtown Sanford wholly reflects the progressive spirit of those who have courageously faced the future and done something about it. Crumbling and antiquated buildings with sagging overhangs and peeling paint still hold us back. We have looked at them so long that we have been lulled into a state of foolish complacency. This receives a serious jolt when some outside individual or firm, looking for a central Florida location, is greatly disturbed by the apparent lack of a coordinated plan to remedy the situation.

How can you help? Look at your own place of business objectively, as if you had never seen it before. If an honest and unbiased appraisal leaves you pleased, then what about the place next door? Do you like it? Does it help your business?

The Downtown Improvement Committee must have the complete cooperation of the City Commission and our fellow businessmen; without this unity the program will fail... just as all other unsupported efforts fail. Won't you help us finish the job? Remember, it is OUR future we are talking about.
