

FRACTURED CLOUTS

Championship Dispute May End By Spring

NEW YORK (UPI)—Harry Markson, managing director of Madison Square Garden Boxing, Inc., said today he believes the dispute over the world middleweight championship will be settled "by next spring."

At present the 160-pound crown is split. Terry Downes of England is recognized as champion in Europe, Massachusetts and New York. However, the National Boxing Association recognizes Gene Fullmer of West Jordan, Utah, as middleweight ruler.

Downes is scheduled to defend his share of the title at Boston Sept. 23 in a four-round bout with ex-champion Paul Pender of Brookline, Mass. Paul and Terry are tied at 1-1 in their two previous title bouts.

Markson disclosed, "Fullmer's manager, Mrv Jensen, informed me today that Gene wants to fight the Downes-Pender winner for the undisputed title as soon as his fractured right elbow heals."

Fullmer fractured the elbow in his successful sixth defense against Florentino Fernandez at Ogden, Utah, Aug. 5.

Markson, discussing the situation in his office at the Garden, added: "And I am informed reliably that both Downes and Pender desire a title-clearing match with Fullmer, in case of victory on Sept. 23."

If Downes keeps his title in the Boston fight, brown-haired, slender-faced Markson continued, "Downes-Fullmer fight should draw well at either Los Angeles or San Francisco. And if Pender beats Downes at Boston, a Pender-Fullmer fight would be a big attraction at Las Vegas, Nev."

He stressed that the Garden would be "very interested" in televising the title-clearing match, wherever staged.

If Downes defeats Pender on Sept. 23, would he be willing to make another defense in the United States?

"I understand he would," Markson answered. "I'm reliably informed that George Parnassos, the California promoter, is friendly with Downes and manager Sammy Burns."

If a title-clearing fight is held and Downes, Pender or Fullmer becomes undisputed world champion, whom would Markson personally favor as the challenger who should get the first crack at the crown?

Without hesitating an instant Barry replied, "Dick Tiger of Nigeria. He's the champion of the British Empire and he has merited a title bout for some time."

Isn't there an advantage, from the promotional standpoint, in having a split title? After all, there already have been five middleweight title bouts this year; and Downes-Pender on Sept. 23 will be No. 6.

Markson answered: "When a title is split, the two segments lose lustre. A co-champion never has the glory nor the box-office appeal of an undisputed champ. No one knows that better than the co-holders of a crown."

The latest split in the 160-pound diadem occurred on May 4, 1959, when the National Boxing Association vacated Sugar Ray Robinson's title because of his delay in defending. Robinson lost his remaining portion of the title to Pender, who lost it to Downes. Meanwhile, Fullmer won the vacant NBA portion by beating Carmen Basilio.

'Bums' Flag Special Halted

United Press International
St. Louis Cardinals have applied the brakes to the Los Angeles Dodgers' headlong dash for the National League pennant — and now it's up to the Cincinnati Reds to make the most of the opportunity.

The Reds and Dodgers begin the most important series of the NL season so far with a single game tonight and meet again in a doubleheader on Wednesday. The Reds — who've been feuding with the Dodgers for the last few years — can take over the lead by sweeping the series.

The Cardinals gave the Reds an important lift on the eve of the big series when they downed the Dodgers, 5-0, Monday night and cut Los Angeles' lead to two games. The victory ended the Dodgers' six-game winning streak and marked only Los Angeles' fourth loss in 23 games.

Ernie Broglio, a 21-game winner in 1960 who has been struggling to reach the 500 mark this season, showed up at the Los Angeles Coliseum with a sore shoulder but when the game was over it was the Dodgers who were "hurtin' all over." The 195-pound right-hander from Berkeley, Calif., turned in a five-hitter for his second shutout and ninth victory of the season.

The game was the only Monday night action that had any real bearing on either pennant race. The Milwaukee Braves downed the Pittsburgh Pirates, 8-3, and the Chicago Cubs scored a 9-2 victory that stretched the Philadelphia Phillies' losing streak to 17 games in other NL games. In the American League, the Minnesota Twins beat the Kansas City A's, 6-2, and the Los Angeles Angels defeated the Washington Senators, 5-1.

Broglio also struck the big blow in his own cause when he singled with the base filled in the second inning to drive in two runs. Joe Cunningham drove in two runs with a double and a single and Stan Musial contributed three hits to the Cardinal attack.

Don Drysdale, who has shown signs of leading the Dodgers' late-season flag drive, was tagged for four of the Cardinals' runs and suffered his seventh loss against 10 victories. It was only the third time this season that the Dodgers were shut out.

Ed Mathews hit the 362nd homer of his major league career to move past Joe DiMaggio into 10th place on the all-time list as the Braves dealt the Pirates' Harvey Haddix his sixth defeat. Joe Adcock had three hits and Hank Aaron had two in the Braves' 11-hit attack that brought relief.

pitcher Tony Cloninger his third win. Dick Stigari and Roberto Clemente honored for the Pirates. Ernie Banks drove in three runs with a homer, double and Jerry Kindall knocked in four to lead the nine-hit Cub attack. Dick Ellsworth pitched a six-hitter to win his sixth game for the Cubs while Frank Sullivan suffered his 11th loss for the Phillies. The Phillies' 17-game losing streak is only two short of the modern National League record.

Harmon Killebrew hit his 34th homer of the season and Billy Martin connected for a three-run homer for the Twins who handed Kansas City's Jerry Walker his ninth defeat. Jim Kaat pitched a seven-hitter and struck out four to win his fifth game for Minnesota.

Ted Bowdief pitched a seven-hitter to raise his season record to 9-4 behind a 10-hit Los Angeles attack that included three hits each by Lee Thomas and Leon Wagner. Chuck Cottier had three hits for the Senators.

VENERABLE AND VALUABLE — Charley Conerly bears a striking resemblance to a baseball pitcher as he passes in practice with the New York Giants on the Fairfield, Conn., university field. The Mississippi alumnus is expected to do considerable chukking in his 14th season in the N.F.L.

League Leaders Don't Blame The Baseball If Homer Record Is Smashed

CHICAGO, Ill. (UPI)—Babe Ruth's home run record is broken this season, it will not be due to any changes in the baseball being used. That's the word from Mrs. Beryl Gauthier, chief stitcher of the official major league ball.

The other day Joe DiMaggio remarked that the ball of two decades ago had closer stitches and higher seams, allowing pitchers better control.

This statement raised inquisitive eyebrows, what with Mickey Mantle and Roger Maris of the New York Yankees trying to knock stitches, cover and four rolls of yarn off the ball in their attack on Ruth's record of 60 home runs in a single season set in 1927.

Officials of A. G. Spalding & Bros., Inc., here have been insisting for years that there hasn't been a change in the ball since the cushioned cork center was introduced in 1925. "In fact," said a spokesman, "we aren't allowed to make any changes. All the balls are made according to major league specifications."

If either Mantle or Maris tops Ruth's record, 73 women stitchers will have had their piece-working fingers in the record pie. All of them have been tutored by Mrs. Gauthier and have spent up to seven months in apprenticeships before graduating to the major league balls.

Each woman handstitches between 40 and 80 baseballs daily. A needle in each hand, they fling their arms back like oarsmen. Back and forth the needles go through 108 holes in the two pieces of horsehide until the 98 inches of waxed red twine is gone.

Same horsehide—same thread—same number of holes.

The almost finished spheres then go through a rolling machine to flatten the stitches — as they have for years.

But Marshall, in a letter to National Football League Commissioner Pete Rozelle, not only said he would draft Negro players but even listed two of them as his first and second choices for 1962. The letter denied the team ever had discriminated against Negroes.

Marshall, whose team is the only one in the NFL which has never hired a Negro, said half-

St. Petersburg manager Bob Bauer, perhaps discouraged at his team's sixth place standing in the Florida State League, took matters into his own hands Monday night with a pair of homers that paced the Saints to a doubleheader sweep.

In the opening contest against Palatka, Bauer broke up the game with a bases-empty homer in the seventh inning that gave St. Pete a 3-2 decision. He homered again in the sixth inning of the nightcap against Orlando, this time with one on, as the Saints coasted to a 9-0 triumph behind the three-hit pitching of Tom Metcalf.

Sarasota and Tampa, the only two clubs in the league playing better than .500 ball, continued to coast. Tampa took two from Leesburg, 3-1 and 8-1, and the Sun Sox battered Daytona Beach 14-3.

A two-run triple by Ted Maley highlighted the Tarpons' victory in the first game. Archie Botolongo boosted his pitching record to 11-7 with a smooth five-hitter in the second.

Sarasota blanked Daytona with a 16-hit attack, scoring eight times in the fifth inning on nine hits and three errors. Ron Banovic, the league's winningest pitcher, hung up his 16th triumph to go with eight defeats.

13 Injured At Ball Game

OTIS AIR FORCE BASE, Mass. (UPI)—Thirteen persons were injured Monday night when a 30-foot section of grandstand containing about 100 persons collapsed before the start of a semi-pro baseball game.

Some 2,500 persons were at the game, including American League President Joe Cronin and three New York Yankee players. They were not involved in the accident.

Otis officials said the grandstand buckled because it was overloaded. It was made of reinforced steel tubing with wooden plank seats. The highest seat was about seven feet off the ground.

Those in the upper rows fell on persons below when the structure gave way with a crash. All of the injured were treated at the base hospital but only four were hospitalized and their injuries were not serious.

At the time of the accident, former New York Yankee star Phil Rizzuto, now a radio sportscaster, was acting as master of ceremonies.

Attending the game were Yankee players Elton Howard, Bill Skowron and Bill Spafford along with former Brooklyn Dodgers catcher Roy Campanella. The game went on as scheduled.

County Can't Give Exemptions For Shelters

County Attorney Mack Cleveland Jr. told the County Commission Tuesday afternoon that it had no authority to grant exemptions from county taxation of any shelter improvements.

"There's no provision in the law for this," Cleveland said, "and it would be solely a matter for the Tax Assessor."

Mayor Joe Baker of Sanford asked the County Commission to cooperate with the city in providing encouragement to the home-owners to make improvements or additions that may be used for other business, the board agreed to ask the City Commission, in a formal request, for use of a portion of the city warehouse at Municipal Stadium for storage and distribution of surplus foods for county welfare cases.

The commission is considering entering into the Federal Donated Surplus Commodity Distribution to the Needy program which would supplement the county's welfare program.

Cott to the county to enter the program would be the hiring of a commodity supervisor at a salary of $3,800 a year.

Board members also look under advisement a request from the USO for $300.

Heard Cleveland report that there was not sufficient traffic about at the intersection of SR 436 and SR 434 near Forest City for a traffic light. However, the State Road Dept. recommended a flashing beacon.

By: LARRY VERSHEL
Nobody asked me but... Is it true that the County Commission will sell admission tickets to its next regular meeting?

I'll bet department heads under the County Commission jurisdiction are spending many a restless night these warm summer evenings.

I'll bet, too, they were sleeping Tuesday when Chairman J. C. Hutchison wished he were back in the Pacific fighting Japs.

The County Commission doesn't need an administrative aide—what they need is a public relations staff.

I wonder how many of the present board of commissioners would be elected if there was an election tomorrow.

There's a good chance now that the firemen in the city may get some sort of partial Kelly Day and that two additional men will be hired. The city will meet in budget session Thursday night at 8.

Still no decision on whether the city board will give its high priced help a rest of living boost.

Mary Eather's has gotten into the downtown improvement swing and plans to redecorate its store on Park Ave.

Tax Assessor Defends Bill On Sharpener

Tax Assessor Mary Earle Walker defended the cleaning of an electric pencil sharpener Tuesday at the County Commission meeting and the board, by a 3-1 vote, agreed to pay the $8.50 bill.

Last week, the board tabled action on the bill which called for cleaning, oiling and adjusting the sharpener.

District 3 County Commissioner James P. Avery voted against paying the bill.

Other members of the board felt that they were doing it to pay it.

Said Mrs. Walker: "the sharpener will pay for itself. It was the first repair bill we have had on this in 10 years."

Doctors Back Stand By Brothers

Doctors throughout the county today gave Dr. Clyde D. Brothers the county's health program in a vote of confidence on the heels of his abrupt firing as county health director by the County Commission Tuesday and said that the county's health program is in jeopardy unless some financial aid is given the department.

Brothers had asked for a $20,000 increase in his budget and had threatened to resign unless additional money was appropriated.

Tuesday the board disregarded a letter of resignation from Brothers and voted instead to advise the State Health Dept. that Brothers had been dismissed.

The commission's tentative budget for the fiscal year starting Oct. 1 includes a .12 mill levy for the county health department which is expected to produce some $20,000.

Dr. Brooks Smith, president of the County Medical Society said that the society had given the doctor a complete vote of confidence on his proposed budget and added "speaking for myself, I feel the department must get more financial aid to keep the public health operations up to par."

"If we are to have increases in population with the accompanying increases in health aid demands, we cannot continue with the same millage we had for these many years," he advised, adding "Dr. Brothers has done a good job."

Dr. Vincent Roberts agreed with Smith and said that as far as he knew all the members of the society were in agreement with Brothers' program.

"We are happy with the job he has done," Roberts said.

The Herald also polled other doctors and although they asked that their name not be used, they too, gave Brothers a vote of confidence.

Stop Meddling, Reds Tell West

BERLIN (UPI) — The Soviet Union today told the Western Allies to stop "meddling" in the affairs of "sovereign" East Germany.

A few hours before a scheduled giant West Berlin rally protesting the Communist move in sealing the border early Sunday, the Soviet Berlin commander flatly rejected Western notes delivered to him more than two weeks ago charging that the Communists were harassing East Berliners commuting to West Berlin.

Col. A. V. Solovoyev sent his reply in separate notes to the United States, British and French opposite numbers several days ago. The reply was released today by the East Germany news agency ADN.

The Western commandants sent another note to the Soviet Commandant Tuesday, charging that the East German closure of city borders was illegal and violated four-power agreements governing Berlin.

An unexplained power failure struck East Berlin for an hour, just before the start of the mass protest rally amid hints of a new Berlin blockade.

All traffic on elevated, streetcar and subway lines was halted by the failure which lasted from 11 a. m. to noon.

It could not be determined immediately whether the loss of the power was a Communist harassing tactic. It also could have been the work of anti-Communists in East Berlin or equipment breakdown.

The power failure cut off all electricity to the Soviet sector of Berlin and halted elevated trains in West Berlin because the power that controls them comes from East Berlin.

Sanford Attorney S. J. Davis Appeals To Board

Commission Goes Along With Rule On Exemption

The County Commission at the start of the Board of Equalization hearing this morning sustained Tax Assessor Mary Earle Walker's action not to grant home and exemption to servicemen, who rent their homes in the county when they are ordered elsewhere.

Sanford Attorney S. J. Davis, who said he represented a serviceman who was ordered to another base, urged some consideration to the same six months last year, but licenses for hotels decreased.

Mrs. Walker advised that the state law says that anyone who moves from his home and rents it, cannot be entitled to home-stead exemption.

County Attorney Mack Cleveland Jr. agreed with Mrs. Walker and said that the board would have no other alternative than to comply with the law.

Another serviceman, Lt. M.C. Premeo, told the board that he had a letter from the attorney general which stated that some individual counties had granted exemption to these people.

Dunn Back In Thick Of Fight Again

District 4 County Commissioner Vernon Dunn, who 24 hours earlier almost got himself wrapped up in a fist fight with another commissioner, was in the thick of the fight again this morning at the Board of Equalization meeting.

Harsh words flew between Dunn and Attorney Stephen Magyar over Jericho Road in the Slovak Village property which is located off SR 436, between the Turkey Farm and Goldenrod.

Magyar complained that the people living in the subdivision received absolutely no return value from their property taxation as they had no school age children, no county roads, no fire protection, no drainage and no grading.

He further stated that because of the inaccessibility of the village, due to the terrible condition of the sand roads, he could not rent or sell property.

Words flew when Dunn stated that the county had no property there and had asked for road rights of way.

Magyar insisted that the road belonged to the county and was not private property and that he had offered several times to give the right-of-way of the necessary 50 feet, to the county.

Other property owners complained of low-flying planes, junk yards, swamp land, and inaccessibility, while First St. residents came to remind the board that two large notebooks filled with material and told them that he had a "rather lengthy" matter contained on 37 legal pages, to be brought before the board.

Accordingly, he asked that commissioners meet with Casselberry and himself on the property sites at any time chosen by them. This they agreed to do.

County Board Asked To Reconsider Cut

Tax Assessor Mary Earle Walker today at the opening of the board of equalization meeting asked the County Commission to reconsider its action of cutting off $15,000 in reappraisal work for her office.

In a two page letter read to the board, Mrs. Walker said "normal funds available for this office are insufficient to carry on a reappraisal program along with the regular duties of the office."

Mrs. Walker also pointed out that there is still a great need for reappraisal work in a substantial part of the county. "This has been shown by spot reappraisals which were necessary to be made for the 1961 tax roll and also by the fact that when notices of assessed valuation for 1961 on real estate were mailed, countless protests have been filed and voiced since the figures used are those which appeared on the 1959-60 tax rolls."

GOP Hit For Playing Politics

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield, today accused the GOP congressional leadership of playing politics with the critical Berlin situation.

Mansfield made the charge in replying to a statement made Tuesday by his GOP counterpart, Sen. Everett M. Dirksen, on behalf of the GOP congressional leadership on Berlin by top Democrats weakened the nation's bargaining position and confused its allies.

The Montana Democrat's suggestion that all Berlin be made a free city was singled out in the GOP statement, as were comments by Chairman J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee and W. Averell Harriman, President Kennedy's ambassador at large.

Gas Company Removing Tax From Billing

City Manager W. E. Knowles said today that the Sanford Gas Co. notified him that they were calling in their previous billing in order to remove the utility tax that has been added to the bills.

However, Knowles said that in the revised billing shown to him by a consumer, the tax had merely been removed as a tax and added onto the standard bill.

Knowles stated that the city of Sanford is notifying the Sanford Gas Company to explain this procedure or the city will represent the consumer by notifying the Utility Commission in Tallahassee to ask for an explanation of this unauthorized rate change.

Bulletin

BERLIN (UPI) — West Berlin Mayor Willy Brandt called on President Kennedy today for action instead of words on the current crisis.

Army Planning To Alert 111 Reserve Units

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Army was ready to announce plans today to expand to about one million men and alert more than 100 reserve units for possible call-up in the mounting Berlin crisis.

Army Secretary Elvis J. Stahr Jr. scheduled a news conference for this afternoon to give details of the ground force buildup now projected under President Kennedy's preparedness program.

The Navy and Air Force already have outlined plans calling for manpower increases respectively of 25,000 and 25,000.

In advance of Stahr's conference, a high government source said Army National Guard and organized reserve units would not be called to active duty immediately. But he estimated there would be 111 units on the list being alerted today for possible call later.

No units as large as divisions are on the list. They range in size and function from small maintenance units to artillery batteries and support battalions.

It had once appeared to Army leaders that their expansion would be more limited than the administration at first indicated. But authorities said the plan now is to carry out substantially the buildup that Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara outlined to Congress late last month.

He said then that "initial estimates" showed the Army might need a 133,000-man increase, which would raise its authorized strength to 1,008,000.

Apart from alerting reserves, the Air Force announced Tuesday a 28,000 buildup. It said it would rely on voluntary enlistments, re-enlistments, and extensions of tours as much as possible but would not hesitate to order mandatory extensions, if necessary. With the increase, the Air Force will number 852,900, and Congress has voted money for a further 33,327.

The Navy said Monday it would freeze 26,000 men on their jobs for six to 12 months beyond normal tours. Congress has authorized a 28,000 increase in the Navy to a total strength of 637,000.

Irregularities

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Irregularly reports on insecticides increased nearly 35 per cent in the year ended June 30 due to stepped up enforcement of Florida's pesticide law, it was announced today.

JAIME NEBOT VELASCO (left), Ecuadorian representative to the Inter-American Economic and Social Conference at Punta del Este, Uruguay, listens intently to the speech of Antonio Ortiz Mena, Mexican delegate. Ecuador, Bolivia and Uruguay head a group of small Latin nations that have balked at a proposal worked out by larger nations for the assigning of funds under the 10-year, $20 billion program for Latin-American development. In the large-nation group are Mexico, Argentina, Brazil, Chile and Peru. Diplomats were hoping to heal breach.

U.S. Wins Solid Okay On Alliance Program

PUNTA DEL ESTE, Uruguay (UPI) — The United States, strongly supported by Mexico and Argentina, fought off a last-ditch attack by Cuba today and won solid approval for a proclamation that will put President Kennedy's agreement for progress into action.

The agreement signaled the beginning of a $20 billion war against poverty, illiteracy and economic instability among the underdeveloped nations of Latin America.

A four-power committee — The United States, Brazil, Haiti and Ecuador — meets later today to polish the final reports of the Inter-American Economic and Social Conference. Quick ratification is expected tonight.

Thursday, the delegates of the 21 western hemisphere republics will convene for the last time to sign the document enacting the 10-year alliance.

The Cuban delegation fought the declaration to the bitter end. Cuba's economic czar Ernesto Guevara said: "We would like to get an answer, either from the chairman of this conference or from the delegation of the United States whether we are in or out of the alliance for progress."

The question was not answered. Secretary C. Douglas Dillon, chief U. S. delegate, was forced to warn the delegates to halt a seething debate that backed away at the heart of the keynote document of the conference — "a declaration to the peoples of America."

Backed by two of the hemisphere giants, Argentina and Mexico, Dillon won quick and decisive support from Brazil and the other delegations fell quickly into line.

Easterly Wave Gains In Intensity

NEW ORLEANS (UPI) — The U. S. Weather Bureau reported today an easterly wave has moved into the southeast Gulf of Mexico and increased in intensity during the first 12 hours.

A reconnaissance plane was to fly into the area this afternoon. The advisory said the wave would move westward 10 to 15 miles per hour and should intensify slowly.

Squalls were expected in the southwest Gulf this afternoon and tonight with winds reaching 35 miles per hour in gusts.

Adenauer Calls Cabinet Session

BONN (UPI) — Chancellor Konrad Adenauer called the West German cabinet into another Berlin crisis session today prior to meeting with Russian Ambassador Andrei Smirnov.

Smirnov returned to his West German capital from Moscow on Saturday, presumably carrying fresh instructions from Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev.

Big Prizes

There will be two big prizes given away at the drawing Friday night by the Downtown Merchants Assn.

A ladies wrist watch and a man's wrist watch, both worth $60 will be awarded to two lucky people.

The success of the last two Friday night, Open-TM-Nine Shopping promotions have been very pleasing to both the merchants and the shoppers and it is certain that a precedent has been set here.

As the opening of school draws near, buying and activity along that line has greatly increased and some enterprising citizens are already doing their Christmas shopping.

New Explorer Satellite Fired

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (UPI)—America's Explorer XII satellite sailed through space today, but scientists on earth were kept waiting to see if the little moonlet followed its planned course.

The satellite is designed to send to earth vital data on radiation and the mysteries of the sun. The 50-pound, octagon-shaped ball was launched Tuesday night with seeming perfection aboard a three-stage Thor Delta rocket.

Cautious scientists attached to the Goddard Space Flight Center, which conducted the test for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA), said the nature of the planned trajectory would make it impossible for about ten days to determine if the satellite is on its planned path.

The Mission declined to say that the planned orbit had been achieved but their comments indicated this was the case. Other reports received here added to the belief the shot was a success.

It takes 21 hours for the ball to make one orbital pass and at least two of these will be needed to give a good picture of how it is traveling, one scientist said.

Tracking stations at Trinidad, Ascension Island and Johannesburg, South Africa, confirmed to their unofficial satisfaction, however, that Explorer XII was doing its job.

The satellite, crammed with 10 instruments, was sent into a long elliptical orbit that would carry it as far as 80,000 miles from the earth and as close as 170 miles. It appeared to be functioning perfectly and was sending back data almost from the time it was launched.

Robert Gray, chief of Goddard's field products branch here, said the long ellipse was planned to study within one trip the structure and behavior of protons and electrons near the earth, where they are dense, and far out in space where they are scattered.

During its space voyage, the new Explorer traversed the two doughnut-shaped Van Allen Radiation Belts, deadly trapping stations for radiation from the sun. Instruments were transmitting new data on the belts to earth.

This was all to the good so far as the programmed test was concerned, Gray said.

Foreign Aid Loan Meeting On Demo Agenda

WASHINGTON (UPI)—House Democratic leaders planned another strategy meeting today in which they might decide to offer a compromise for President Kennedy's long-term foreign aid loan proposal.

Sources said a nose-count showed that if the House voted now on the foreign aid bill the decision could go either way.

Most likely compromise — if the leadership decided to offer one in place of Kennedy's request for five-year authority to borrow $8.8 billion directly from the Treasury for development loans — probably would be one of two forms:

—Cutting the five-year authority to three years.

—Granting the long-term authority but substantially cutting the amount of money. This would force the administration to justify to Congress the need for additional funds each year, if it wanted a program of the size now contemplated.

In the Senate, Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield, Mont., still held out hopes that work could be finished on the bill Thursday night or Friday.

Sen. John J. Williams, (R-Del.), handed the administration another headache today by proposing an eight per cent interest ceiling on any relending of aid funds sent abroad. The amendment clearly was aimed at Latin America, where interest rates often run much higher.

The Kennedy program had its closest call thus far in the Senate Tuesday night. A move to slash the $8.8 billion loan authorization by $1.4 billion failed on a 46-46 tie vote.

Disarmament: Assistant Senate Democratic Leader Hubert H. Humphrey, Minn., predicted that Kennedy probably would use his favorite legislative weapon—the telephone — to urge enactment of his peace agency plan before Congress quits. Humphrey expected calls from the White House to individual lawmakers on behalf of the President's proposed U.S. disarmament agency for world peace and security.

Bound And Gagged Bodies Of Two Boys Found In Brooklyn Field

NEW YORK (UPI)—Two slight Brooklyn boys set out Tuesday for a bicycle shop, but met death instead in a weed-choked field at the hands of a knifer who bound, gagged and stabbed each at least 25 times.

Augustin Trinidad Jr., 13, had been stripped naked by his killer. His hands and feet were bound with twine and suspenders, and his mouth gagged with a necktie. He was stabbed 25 times in the chest and back.

His companion, Jaime Luis Ruiz, 9, was stabbed 30 times in the chest and back. He, too, was bound hand and foot and gagged, but was still dressed in dungarees and a T-shirt.

Assistant Inspector Raymond V. Martin said medical examination showed the boys had not been sexually molested. But he hinted strongly there might be a sexual connection with the crime.

Martin said early today that police plan to bring in "numerous known sex molesters for interrogation."

The boys' bodies were found in a marshy, weed-covered field in Brooklyn's Canarsie section shortly after 6 p.m., less than two hours after they were last seen alive.

Bicycle riding rated high with both lads, and about 4 p.m. Ruiz told his step-father, William Reata, he was going out with his friend, Trinidad. A few minutes later, according to police, a neighborhood boy, Rafael Rivera, 11, saw them on Trinidad's bicycle. The pair told Rivera they were heading for a bicycle shop.

Police have not yet learned if they reached their destination, nor how or why they went to the field about a mile from their homes. But somehow they were trussed, gagged and slain near a creek that runs into Jamaica Bay. Time of death was set at between 4:45 and 5:30 p.m.

Ruiz's body was discovered by Amato Morro, 30, a hospital worker and part-time junk dealer who was searching the field for scrap.

Morro ran panic-stricken toward a bowling alley 700 feet away and shouted to passing steelworker, John McDougal, 35, "Get the police, mister. There's a dead kid up there."

While the two men were leading police to Ruiz's body, they ran onto Trinidad's body about 15 feet away. Trinidad's clothing was missing from the scene.

Inspector Martin said police were checking a possible connection between the double slaying and the unsolved fatal stabbing of Jose Vasquez, 8, in Manhattan June 9. Vasquez was stabbed seven times on a rooftop across the street from his home.

Plans To Save Part Of Kennedy's Program Shelved

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Plans to try to save a shred of President Kennedy's school aid program went on the shelf again today.

The House Education Committee had scheduled a meeting today to consider two compromise proposals designed to salvage part of the administration program.

But Chairman Adam Clayton Powell, (D-N. Y.), called off the meeting without setting a new date.

Although there was no official explanation, it was believed school aid leaders wanted to wait for results of a poll being conducted by the House Democratic leadership.

Returns from the private check of House members will determine whether any attempt to pass new school aid legislation in the waning days of the session would be futile or possible. The results are expected to be known this week.

One of the compromise bills would authorize a three-year, $375 million federal public school construction grant program, a one-year extension of the $312 million "impacted areas" aid plan, and a one-year $180 million extension of the 1958 National Defense Education Act without additional assistance to private and parochial schools.

The other would extend the impacted areas program for one year and attach to it a $1.8 billion aid plan for college classroom construction and two-year student scholarships.

Southerners 'Decent', Freedom Rider Says

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Southerners are "very decent people" who need federal help in overcoming segregation in bus terminals, according to a spokesman for the "freedom riders."

Carl Rechin, attorney for the Congress of Racial Equality, told the Interstate Commerce Commission Tuesday that it should give the South a hand by barring segregation in interstate buses and terminals that serve them.

He said he had just come back from Jackson, Miss., where "freedom riders" have been jailed en masse for testing segregation in the bus station.

"The people of Jackson are a wonderful people, like the people all over the country who are very decent," he said. However, "they need the help of the ICC to get rid of this tradition of segregation which we think is morally wrong."

The anti-segregation rules, requested by Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy, would produce an initial shock in segregated areas, Rechin said, but would lead to a prompt end of segregation.

But the bus industry and the state of Mississippi took exception. Spoken for by the industry said the rules would create problems instead of solve them and impose unfair financial burdens on buslines.

In a statement sent to the hearing, Atty. Gen. Joe T. Patterson of Mississippi called the proposals "an unwarranted intrusion" in the affairs of his state.

The ICC took the proposals under consideration.

Yardner's Corner

By CECIL A. TUCKER, III
County Agricultural Agent

Your plants — just as you yourself — would die quickly without water. Water is just as necessary to plant growth as air, light, and proper nutrients.

Water composes about 10-95 percent of the plant tissue, depending upon the plant structure. For example, most growing tips contain about 90 percent water. Stems and leaves contain somewhat less, usually 50-75 percent moisture, and seeds usually contain 5-15 percent moisture.

The water in plant cells keeps the leaves erect and not wilted. This is necessary for the normal physiological processes within the plant.

Water acts as a solvent in the conducting tissue of the plants and also acts as a reaction medium for many physiological reactions.

Now let's take a look at how water outside the plant affects plant growth. Water is an important solvent in the soil surrounding the plant roots. In the soil solutions, roots are able to absorb nutrients from the soil. But if these nutrients were not in solution the plant could not use them. If there is very little moisture in the soil, then the plant will be unable to absorb enough nutrients for its needs. On the other hand, excessive moisture can produce the same effect.

Aeration, or the amount of oxygen present in the soil solution, is quite important. Soils with excessive moisture or heavily compacted soils will not have adequate aeration. Consequently the normal absorption function of the root system will be lessened.

Other things also affect plants' ability to absorb water. A sharp reduction in temperature normally slows down root absorption. The concentration of various salts in the soil solution affects water absorption. If the concentration of salts is too high, then water absorption will be reduced. In some instances of excessively high salt concentration, water actually moves out of the root system into the soil. If the situation is not corrected, wilting and desiccation of the plant tissues occur and death will result. The health and size of the plant root system governs the ability of the plant to absorb water. A vigorous, wide spread root system can absorb more water than a restricted or unthrifty root system.

Since most people keep ornamental plants of one sort or another, let's consider how water affects these plants. Keep several basic rules in mind:

First of all, water plants only when they need it. Heavy, infrequent watering will encourage a well-developed, deep root system. At the same time you guard against root damage that could result from excessive water.

It is usually a good idea to water before and after fertilization. This decreases the chances of injuring the plants' root system from excessive salts in the soil solution.

Incomes Show Upward Trend

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Commerce Department disclosed today the total of individual incomes of all kinds climbed in July to a new high.

Record industrial production last month and the lody money gain reflected a strong midsummer economy that is expected to generate still higher output, income and possibly employment in autumn.

The department said payroll gains in July were "widespread among industries," especially in manufacturing, construction, trade, transportation and government. Increased defense spending promised more progress in the next few months.

This report of more take-home pay for wage and salary workers followed Tuesday's word from the Federal Reserve Board that factory, mine and utility activity hit a new high last month.

The board's index of industrial production rose to 112 — erasing the former record of 111 which had stood for 18 months. The new reading meant that industrial output last month was 12 per cent higher than in 1957, the base year represented as 100 on the index.

One important dark spot stood out in the otherwise bright economic picture. Unemployment has persisted at nearly 7 per cent of the labor force, the rate reached at the bottom of the 1960-61 recession. Labor Department economists are hopeful it will come down to 6 per cent by the end of the year.

Personal income reached a record annual rate of $419.2 billion in July, the Commerce Department said.

Hair on the head grows at a rate of about three-fourths of an inch a month.

Big Difference

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Is it a comma or is it a period?

The answer to that question may mean the difference between $200 and $50,000 to a Sherman Oaks, Calif., security guard who was mentioned in the will of a 90-year-old panhandler he had befriended.

Joseph H. Morris, 90, died two weeks after being arrested as a panhandler and his handwritten will dated Oct. 6, 1959, was filed for probate Tuesday. But there was doubt about an important punctuation mark.

Officials said that following the name of Morrison McMullen, a guard at a warehouse next to Morris' rooming house, there was a 2000 bequest then the punctuation mark and then a list of all assets. Morris said anything left over should go to a niece, Jean Morris of Chicago.

Officials said they could not tell if Morris meant to leave only $200 to McMullen and then listed the assets for the record, or if he intended to leave it all to the guard.

If the punctuation mark is determined to be a period, Miss Morris probably would get the estate, estimated at $50,000, officials said.

A hearing on the will has been set for Sept. 6 before Judge Clyde C. Triplett.

Mikoyan Warns Japan Of Crisis

TOKYO (UPI)—Soviet First Deputy Premier Anastas Mikoyan today told Japanese Premier Hayato Ikeda that the Berlin problem was "related to Japan" and that Japan will not be able to remain safe in the event of a war.

He urged Ikeda to break Japan's defensive ties with the United States.

It was the third attack on the controversial Japan-U.S. security treaty in as many days by the visiting soviet leader. He earlier had told Foreign Minister Zenaro Kosaka and other cabinet members that the Soviet Union regarded the treaty as "aggressive."

During his talks with Ikeda, probably the most important of his nine-day visit to Japan, Mikoyan delivered a message from Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev. No details of the message were available.

Sea Scouts Paper Drive Next Week

The Sea Scouts of Ship 506 will begin picking up old papers in Sanford Monday in an effort to raise funds for the group's activities.

Residents will be asked to contribute any old newspapers, magazines or other paper materials by stacking them in front of their homes for pickup on days scheduled by the Scouts.

First area to be toured by the Scouts for paper pickups will be all streets from Lake Monroe south to Eighth St. and including all streets bounded on the east by Virginia Ave. and on the west by Persimmon Ave. Pickups will be made between 8 a.m. and 4 p.m.

Anyone in this area wishing to call the Scouts for paper pickup may telephone FA 2-0940. Other areas will be canvassed each day from Monday through Aug. 25 and the locations will be announced as they are scheduled.

"We hope the public will take advantage of this chance to get rid of any old papers they have and at the same time help the Sea Scouts pay their own way in building their organization," an advisor to the Scouts said in inviting residents to take part in the week's old paper drive.

Judge Rules Out

Student Transfer

ATLANTA (UPI) —A federal judge told the Georgia Board of Education Tuesday it cannot allow the transfer of a white student from a school scheduled for integration to one which will remain segregated.

U. S. District Judge Frank Hooper overruled the state board at the request of the Atlanta School Board. The city group had originally turned down the transfer request of Sandra Melkild, 17, to transfer from an Atlanta high school which will accept three Negro students later this month.

The state board had accepted an appeal filed by the girl's parents, who said their daughter would suffer "psychological damage" if forced to attend an integrated school.

Atlanta will accept 10 Negro students at four previously all-white schools when fall classes begin in three weeks. It promised not to make assignments on a racial basis.

Hooper ordered members of the state board to appear in court Friday to show cause why their decision in the case should not be voided.

Hard Way To Go

All public officials who are responsible for giving the taxpayers something for their money are hard pressed to make ends meet these days.

And yet the American public never was known to pay more taxes, evident and hidden, than at the present time.

This shoe fits all of America from the housewife to the federal agencies which handle stipulated amounts of money on regular or erratic basis.

And once the taxes are collected and tabulated the public has a rough time rationalizing the allocations, appropriations and mounting debt structure.

Our municipalities and our counties are pulling up to a screeching halt . . . it's budget making time. Expenses are running high. Costs of government direction and administration are mounting. Services do not appear to be provided in a similarly increasing pattern.

But there's only one taxpayer who can justify his voluble complaint against the government agency which spends his tax money. The only man who dares live in a glass house and still throw stones is the one who finds he can maintain his family in 1961 on the same salary he earned in 1941.

If this isn't true in his own home he cannot expect it to be true on a larger scale.

Dr. Crane's

Worry Clinic

CASE J-469: Joan L., age 17, is a very lovely grade school teacher.

"Dr. Crane," she began, "I want to give you a follow-up report. Last term I came for advice about my 4th graders. Several of the children were obviously neurotic."

"They chewed their fingernails incessantly or picked on other youngsters."

"Two members of the class were bullies always trying to make some other child cry."

"And one boy was a chronic trouble maker. He had been sent to the principal's office twice when I first saw you."

"So you suggested I hold a 'Fear Party' and thus reassure the entire class by having a public confession."

"Well, I decided to try the plan. So one afternoon I informed my class we were going to have a new kind of party—a 'Fear Party'."

"Then I began by telling them that when I was nine years old, I was always petrified with fear of snakes."

"When my brothers found out about it, they made matters worse by always trying to scare me with real or imagined snakes."

"After I had completed my personal confessional, I asked the class if any of them were like me, in having been afraid of snakes."

"Two little girls put up their hands, so I let each one tell her story."

"Then a little boy timidly raised his hand and said he was not afraid of snakes but he was scared of lightning."

"By the time he had completed his confessional, another boy admitted that he was scared of getting polo shots or other medical injections."

"And by the time the hour was over, each child in my room had confessed to one or more phobias."

"In fact, although they started out a bit ashamed about acknowledging their terrors, before the end of the hour it was socially an approved thing to admit some secret dread."

"So as an entire class, we faced our many phobias and began to laugh at them. We even discussed how silly some of our fears were, and how we could overcome them."

"Dr. Crane, it seems miraculous, but ever since this confessional I have never had such a well-adjusted class in my five years of teaching."

"The neurotic children have calmed down. The bullies are now more friendly, and we even launched on the 'Compliment Club' as an entire class project for one full week."

"That little boy who was the chronic trouble maker, became a good child, for I found out that he was afraid of the dark, and was thus trying to compensate for his hidden terror by excessive bravado and naughty deeds."

"Since I also teach a Sunday school class of teenage girls, I have had a 'Fear Party' there, and it has been very successful."

"Several girls admitted that they had cherished secret terrors for years, thinking they were the only people on earth who ever were such fraidy cats."

"In fact, they had almost believed they were abnormal to the point of losing their minds or going crazy."

"Now that they have found it normal to have those same dreads and secret fears, they are 100 per cent relieved."

"So tell other teachers to try your 'Fear Party' plan, for it is marvelous."

WATER FOR STEEL

According to surveys, a single large steel mill may require as much as 500 million gallons of water a day, or enough to supply a city of several million persons.

LONDON — Just reading about the English Royal Family tires me.

I don't mean by this that I am anti-monarchist and would like to see the Queen unseated, the Duke reduced from Admiral to Lieutenant, the palaces all converted to rest homes, and the Crown jewels sold to help balance the budget.

Reading about the Royal Family makes me physically tired. It wears me out, just as watching squirrels on a treadmill would exhaust me.

The Royal family never rests, with the possible exception of Prince Andrew, and it won't be long before he'll be put to work window-dressing. By the time he is in rompers he'll have engagements to keep, assignments to fulfill, the same as all the others.

Since I got here I have been watching the Court Calendar in the papers each day, that Royal engagement book open to the public. Never did so few work so hard, so steadily, as the Queen and her relatives.

The Queen Mother just celebrated her 81st birthday but she is busier than anyone in the Kingdom. She broke a bone in her foot not long ago, but this mishap didn't slow her down a bit. She called for a royal wheel chair and kept moving.

In the few days I have been here she has visited three livestock shows, inspected half a dozen orphanages, christened a ship, reviewed several regiments, and generally kept busier than Mrs. Roosevelt in her prime.

Just as tireless, if not more so, are Princess Alexandra, her mother, her brother, the Duke of Gloucester, the Princess Royal, and the rest. They go down into coal mines, open housing projects, snip ribbons, award ribbons, attend endless dinners, greet distinguished visitors, walk miles in museums, praise the work of craftsmen, appear on balconies, and honor weddings with their presence in front pews.

It is true that they are well paid for this work, are well clothed, eat handsomely, live in palaces, but when do they find time to enjoy these luxuries? From the time they have their royal tea in the morning, until they tuck themselves into their royal beds at night, they are on the go.

The worst part must be the way they have to act in public. Dressed to perfection, with every curl and crease just right, they can't sneeze, cough, yawn, or frown. They must act as if every second were a pure delight.

Even on their holidays they can't relax. The Duke of Edinburgh's sailboat was forced aground by launches filled with photographers a few days ago, costing him first place in a race at Cowes, and the Queen's every step was photographed at the Goodwood races.

When the Royal Family isn't putting on a show at home, they're abroad, where the strain is even greater. The home folks might forgive a slip, but when traveling abroad every act, every gesture, every word, must be perfect.

It's a wonder to this commoner that some, if not all, of the Royal Family hasn't gone quietly daffy long before this.

FIRST FEDERAL Savings & Loan ASSOCIATION

Peter Edson's Political Notebook

WASHINGTON (NEA) — The 25-hour talkathon which Sen. William Fulbright, D-Wis., staged in his futile effort to block confirmation of Oklahoma oilman Lawrence O'Connor as a member of the Federal Power Commission has important bearing on the upcoming fight to change Senate rules limiting debate.

It raises the question of whether the Senate liberals may not be the principal losers in the long run if it becomes possible to shut off debate by three-fifths of the members present and voting, or 60 out of the full membership of 100.

The present Rule 22, which will be up for revision as the last item of business by the present Senate, provides that debate may be limited by two-thirds of those present and voting, or 66 out of the full membership of 100.

At the beginning of this Congress the Senate liberals wanted to stage another battle for revision of Rule 22 downward.

They were talked out of it by the argument that such a battle would bring of a filibuster and give the new Kennedy administration a black eye.

Senate majority leader Mike Mansfield, D-Mont., and minority leader Everett Dirksen, R-Ill., therefore promised the liberals that if they'd wait till more important bills were considered, the rules change would be taken up before Congress adjourned this year.

The bind in this now is that with Congress kept busy till Labor Day or beyond on Kennedy administration programs, a long debate on rules change will further delay adjournment.

The proposal to change Rule 22 so that debate may be ended by a smaller majority is inspired, of course, by advocates of more liberal civil rights legislation. This is the fashionable crusade of most liberals today and it usually brings on a bitter fight and filibuster from the southern conservatives.

They number 18. But 35 votes are needed to block a cloture proposal to cut off debate under the present rule. They usually pick up the 17 votes they need from northern Republican conservatives who — being in the minority — want to preserve their right to unlimited debate against all liberal proposals. If the rule were changed, 41 votes would be needed to block cloture.

If the rule can be changed before the end of this session, however, it will pave the way for introduction of more liberal civil rights legislation next fall.

This could include such measures as a compulsory school desegregation law, as again demanded by Americans for Democratic Action. Last fall 41 Senators released a statement promising to bring such a bill before Congress this year. Among them was Sen. John F. Kennedy, D-Mass., then a candidate for the presidency.

One of the chief criticisms which liberals level against the Kennedy administration now is that it has not proposed broad civil rights reform, as promised by the Democratic platform. The administration's aid to education bill, one of its key programs.

ENLISTED "GENERAL"

First enlisted man in the U. S. Army to attain the rank of general was Adolphus Washington Greely who, in 1887, was appointed chief signal officer of the Army and a brigadier general.

tion's position is that what is needed first is enforcement of civil rights laws already on the books, before additional legislation is passed.

On the question of changing Senate rules, President Kennedy's position today is that it is the business of Senate and House to adopt their own rules, without White House interference. This policy was not practiced precisely in this year's fight to enlarge the House Rules Committee. The White House had a special interest in that. But even this reorganization of the House Rules Committee did not succeed in clearing the administration's aid to education bill, one of its key programs.

I have the Key to your Opportunity To Own Your Own Home!

Tired of moving on short notice? Dissatisfied with high rents? Want to feel the security of your own home? I have the key that lets me help you unlock the door to a home of your own.

There have been many of our Navy friends who have received orders transferring them to new assignments, including members of VAII-13 who left this month. A number of the families have sold their homes, and there are still some on the market for sale.

Many of those who are being transferred have requested me to assist them in selling their homes. In many instances beautiful 3 and 4 bedroom, 1 and 2 bath homes in subdivisions in all sections of Sanford can be bought for very small equities. A number of homes with monthly payments as low as $75.00 a month and with as little as a $250.00 down payment are available.

I want to do everything I can to assist these friends in selling their homes. I want the opportunity to show you these excellent home ownership opportunities. Rental rates on similar type homes in Sanford today are from $100.00 to $135.00 a month. I honestly believe that this is an excellent opportunity to help many of our fine Navy friends sell their homes and it is also an excellent opportunity for you to own a home. My interest is to help them and to help you.

I will be glad to discuss personally with you any of these home buying opportunities and take you and show you these homes—or, I will arrange an appointment for the homeowners to show you the homes because I am confident that you will agree that these are quality homes at prices you can afford. These homes range in price from $3,200.00 at $52.00 a month to $19,500.00 at $125.00 a month.

P. S. There were 11 homes sold in beautiful Sunland Estates last week alone, so don't wait, take this opportunity to purchase a beautiful home at a price you can afford.

Don't Count Cincinnati, Tigers Out Of Flag Race

United Press International
That million-dollar New York to Los Angeles World Series may not materialize after all because the major league pennant races are far from over as far as the Detroit Tigers and Cincinnati Reds are concerned.

The experts keep insisting the Yankees and Dodgers are about to pull away from the field but both were yanked unceremoniously back to it Tuesday night when the Tigers picked up a game and a half in the American League race and the Reds gained a full game in the National League.

The Tigers hit into the New York lead by scoring dramatic 2-0 and 3-2 victories over the Baltimore Orioles while the Yankees lost to the Chicago White Sox, 2-1, and the Reds sliced the Los Angeles lead in half by downing the Dodgers, 5-2.

The Tigers now trail the Yankees by only two games while the Reds are only one game behind Los Angeles and can take over the NL lead if they sweep tonight's two-night doubleheader with the Dodgers.

A crowd of 49,538 in Detroit saw the Tigers win both their games like champs. Frank Lary pitched a four-hitter and gained his 17th win against six losses on Norm Cash's two-run seventh-inning homer in the first game. And then Al Kaline's single on a 2 and 2 pitch capped a last-of-the-ninth three-run rally, during which pinch-hitters Bubba Morton and George Alusik delivered run-scoring hits, to pull out the nightcap.

Ex-Milwaukee lefty Juan Pizarro yielded Roger Maris' 40th homer of the season but pitched a four-hitter to snap Yankee star Whitey Ford's winning streak at 14 games. Rookie catcher Camillo Carron's two-out single, following a single by Roy Sievers and Minnie Mino's double, drove in both Chicago runs in the second inning. Maris' homer left him 15 games ahead of the record homer pace set by Babe Ruth in 1927.

Joey Jay, also a former Brave, pitched a six-hitter to win his 17th game for the Reds, who tagged 13-game winner Sandy Koufax with his eighth defeat. The Dodgers reached Jay for two runs in the first inning but the Reds tied the score on Frank Robinson's two-run double in the fifth and went ahead when Wally Post led off the sixth with his 15th homer.

A crowd of 47,515 saw the Dodgers fill the bases in the eighth but Jay pitched out of the jam to hand Los Angeles its second straight loss after they had run up six consecutive victories in the Coliseum.

The Boston Red Sox rocked the Cleveland Indians, 8-0, the Minnesota Twins downed the Kansas City A's, 9-4, and the Los Angeles Angels scored an 8-7 triumph over the Washington Senators in other AL games.

In the National League, the Chicago Cubs extended the Philadelphia Phillies' losing streak to 18 games, 6-5, the Milwaukee Braves defeated the Pittsburgh Pirates, 4-1, and the San Francisco Giants shamed the St. Louis Cardinals, 3-2.

Frank Matzone hit two homers and three singles and Jackie Jensen, Carroll Hardy and pitcher Gene Conley also homered for the Red Sox, who snapped a 10-game losing streak on the road. Conley turned in a six-hitter in raising his season record to 7-10 while Gary Bell was the loser.

Billy Martin hit a three-run homer and Bob Allison and Harmon Killebrew connected for two-run homers behind the nine-hit pitching of Jack Kralick, who won his 11th game for the Twins. Jim Archer was routed in the fourth inning and suffered his eighth loss for Kansas City. Albie Pearson's two-run double in the ninth inning enabled the Angels to pull out their victory over the Senators and give relief pitcher Tom Morgan his fifth win. Ken Hunt homered for Los Angeles and Gene Woodling had a triple and two singles for Washington.

The Cubs extended the Phillies' losing streak to within one of the NL record when two-run homers by Ernie Banks, Ron Santo and Billy Williams produced all their runs. Jack Curtis won his eighth game for the Cubs and Art Mahaffey suffered his 17th defeat for the Phillies.

Hank Aaron hit his 31st homer and Frank Thomas his 21st for the Braves, paving the way for Carlton Willey's fifth victory. It was the fifth straight win for the Braves, who kayoed Joe Gibbon with a three-run splurge in the sixth. Pirate center-fielder Bill Virdon singled in the first inning for the 1,000th hit of his career.

Giants Land Tittle
In Pro Grid Trade

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—The New York Giants and the San Francisco Forty-Niners agreed today they had strengthened themselves for the strenuous National League campaign ahead.

The Giants took on that "secure" feeling in the quarterbacking department by obtaining the veteran Y. A. Tittle, 34-year-old signal caller, from the Forty-Niners.

In exchange the Forty-Niners got a 240-pound, 23-year-old lineman named Lou Cordileone, a lad grid scouts agree will be a future star.

But Tittle was the big name. The bald, 195-pound, 6-foot former Louisiana State ace had become a landmark at Kezar Stadium. He had played 10 years with the Forty-Niners and before that three years with the Baltimore Colts.

"He's the man we wanted to fill out our quarterbacking staff," said coach Al Sherman of the Giants. "Chuck Connerly is our No. 1 man. But at 40 nobody expected him to play full time. Tittle will fill in between Connerly and young Lee Grosscup."

That Tittle can handle the job there's no doubt. He has been a standout with the Forty-Niners and in 1957 he was voted the National League's "player of the year" when he led the club to a tie for the Western Division championship.

He still has a great passing arm. But a bad knee and then a groin injury damaged his effectiveness last year and John Brodie took over as the No. 1 quarterback.

Miss Nancy Rountree Marries Sherwood Jerome Lancaster

Miss Nancy Alice Rountree, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Norman Rountree, became the bride of Sherwood Jerome Lancaster, Fernandina Beach, son of Mr. and Mrs. Grover Cleveland Lancaster Sr., Vanceboro, N. C., Friday at 10 a.m. at the Holy Cross Episcopal Church in Sanford.

Rev. John M. Thomas performed the single ring candlelight ceremony. His son, Christopher, served as acolyte.

White caryanthemums and pom poms decorated the altar, flanked by green-branch candelabra holding white tapers. The bride was matched with white satin streamers punctuated with pom poms.

Mrs. Charles A. Petherbridge presented a program of organ music including "Trumpet Tune" and "Trumpet Voluntary" both by Purcell.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white embroidered Swiss organdy with a fitted bodice and full sleeves. The neckline was scalloped as was the full skirt. Her veil of silk illusion was held in place with a crown of seed pearls and crystals.

She wore a diamond pendant which was a gift from the groom. White satin streamers fell from the small bouquet of white roses and lily of the valley which topped her white satin prayer book.

Maid of honor, Miss Rosemary Garner, Fernandina Beach, wore a dress of pink organdy identical in style to that of the bride. Her bridesmaids were of pink satin with a full veil, and she carried a nosegay of pink sweetheart roses.

Junior bridesmaid, Miss Carol Booth, Fernandina Beach, wore an ensemble and carried flowers identical to those of the maid of honor.

Brother of the groom, Rodman Lancaster, Moorehead Beach, N. C. acted as best man.

Ushers were Richard Rountree, brother of the bride, Grover C. Lancaster Jr., brother of the groom, Vanceboro, N. C., and William Anderson, Robert Stovall and David Huff, all of Fernandina Beach.

The mother of the bride wore a pale blue linen sheath with a matching hat and white accessories. Her corsage was of white phenacis orchids and tuber roses. For the occasion, the mother of the groom chose a dress of blue silk with accessories of the same color. Her corsage was of white phenacis orchids.

A reception followed immediately at the Sanford Woman's Club which was decorated with white caryanthemums, pom poms, sweetheart roses and fern.

An imported white linen cut-work cloth overlaid the table which was centered with a net fan arranged with sweetheart roses and pink satin streamers. Crystal candelabra holding white tapers flanked the centerpiece.

The punch bowl, floating with an ice ring, pink roses and lily of the valley, was at one end of the table, with the three-tiered white wedding cake at the other end.

Petit-fours topped with white wedding bells tied with pink icing bow-knots, pink and white mints in the shape of roses, punch and nuts were served.

The guests were greeted at the door by Mrs. Wade Garner Sr., Mrs. Eugene Estridge III, and Miss Jeannette Kinlaw kept the bride's book.

Mrs. Leo Carey, Mrs. Julian Wilson and Mrs. Warren Herbst, aunts of the bride, served at the table. Also, Mrs. Martin Stinecpher, Mrs. David K. McNab and Mrs. John W. Tester served.

Assisting Miss Grace Marie Stinecpher as floating hostesses were Mrs. Ralph W. Lossing Sr. and Mrs. W. Max Lossing, aunts of the bride, Mrs. James DeBrine and Mrs. Clarke Messler.

Mrs. Lancaster wore for traveling a blue sharkskin suit with a pleated skirt. Her accessories were white, and she wore a white carnation corsage.

After their trip to Grand Bahama Island, the newlyweds will make their home on South Fletcher Ave., Fernandina Beach.

Family Specials Highlight Friday Night Shopping

Massive Drainage Work Set

The County will start work early next week on an extensive drainage project which will control flooding for the entire portion of South Sanford, County Engineer Carlton Bliss said today.

Bliss said the project will start digging canals along Osora Rd. to Lake Jessup in the first phase of the program with two other phases expected as soon as engineering work is completed on the overall three mile projects.

Civil Defense funds will help pay a cost of the program, the engineer added.

The project will include adequate drainage for south Sanford, Seminole High School, Lake Jennie, Lake Ada and the entire Pinecrest area.

All the rights of way for the work have been donated, Bliss added.

One of the most outstanding results of the new Friday Night Shopping hours, begun three weeks ago by the Downtown Merchants of Sanford, has been the opening of opportunity for the whole family to come downtown and shop together.

Dad, Son, Grandfather and Husband have all been quick to take advantage of the after-work hours when they have a chance to take a leisurely stroll downtown and try on shoes and clothes, look over garden tools, electrical appliances, shop tools, autos, boats and accessories. His eye is also caught by gift items in many stores which he might like to give his wife and family for Christmas.

Mother can bring the kiddies down and shop for their back-to-school needs, while Dad holds the baby and minds the others.

Grandmother can come down with Granddad to shop together and make their purchases and visit and chat with their friends. Seeing friends and neighbors has been one of the most interesting sidelights of the Friday Night Shopping, enjoyed by all.

School-age children, teen-agers and college bound students, many of whom hold daytime jobs, also are taking advantage of the opportunity to see and buy new school clothes and school supplies for themselves, which the downtown merchants are featuring these preschool weeks with lavish window displays.

All the latest styles and colors in clothing, shoes, materials and other articles are on display with special accents on good buys, bargain prices and large selections. At the same time, many stores are still giving extra-special low prices on summer's end merchandise that the thrift-conscious shopper cannot afford to bypass.

Two beautiful Bulova watches, one for a lady and one for a man will be the give-away prizes this Friday night, to be a gift to some lucky winners. The drawing will be shortly after 9 p. m. from the sound truck on the corner of First St. and Magnolia Ave.

A HELMETED East-Berlin policeman stands guard at a barbed-wire barrier along the closed border of West Berlin to thwart further escape by residents of the Red-held sector. The U. S. has charged the border-closing is a violation of Soviet agreements with the West.

'Poor Man's' Space Vehicle Launched

CAPE CANAVERAL (UPI) — The Air Force today launched a "poor man's space vehicle" that may become a key to discovering whether other nations are secretly testing nuclear bombs at high altitude.

A four-stage Blue Scout Jr. rocket soared off its launching pad at 9:29 a. m. in the deepest planned space probe to date that used a solid fuel projectile.

Its mission was to study proton and neutron radiation above the Van Allen radiation belts. The 27-pound package of instruments was plotted for a 140,000-mile voyage.

The Blue Scout took off with bullet speed and was quickly lost in clouds that covered the cape area today. As it disappeared from sight, it trailed a long plume of smoke.

Although it was not an orbital shot, it was to achieve somewhat the effect of orbiting. The earth was to revolve four times before the capsule completed its 114-hour journey and returned to the earth's atmosphere where it would burn to a crisp.

Sailor Facing Two Traffic Counts

A Sanford sailor was charged with careless driving and destroying property in a one car accident along W. First St. Wednesday night.

The Navy man, Arthur Payne, is attached to VAIL-3 at the Navy Base. Two other sailors were in the car at the time of the accident. One of them, Jack Bryan, received minor cuts and bruises. The other was identified as James Eamhart.

Police said that Payne was traveling too fast along the street, now under construction when the accident occurred. He apparently lost control of his vehicle and slammed into four drainage piers, police added.

Happel Construction Co. of Tulsa, Okla.

Nursing Home Hunt On

The County Zoning Director has been asked to look for a suitable piece of property to be used for a new nursing home facility for Seminole County.

County Commission Vice Chairman James P. Avery, in a letter to Robert Brown, zoning director, asking that a place be found, suggested that the site be in "suitable surroundings" and that there "is reason to believe that during the latter part of the 1961-62 fiscal year sufficient funds will be available for purchase of a site."

Convicts Seize Guards, Workers

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (UPI) — A group of convicts at the state prison here seized a number of guards and workers today and held them hostage in the prison commissary.

The prisoners claimed they were armed with pistols, zip guns and knives.

Frank Sanders, one of the group, said they seized the hostages to protest what they called a lack of recreation facilities.

Sanders said one of the prisoners was Raymond Farra, who was involved in a previous insurrection at the prison, on the edge of Nashville.

Warden Lynn Bomar said, "We're trying to get all the prisoners back in their cells and then we'll see what we have." The prisoners threatened to "execute somebody" if officials tried to rush them or use tear gas.

should not be exposed to excessive noise, dirt odors, smoke or traffic disturbances.

Avery also stressed the need for adequate sewage, water and possible gas facilities.

"Possible future expansion should be one of the factors in determining the size of the site and it should be large enough to provide an ample parking area for visitors."

$50,000 Pledged For TV Schooling

The County School Board today voted to pledge $50,000 out of next year's budget for educational television purposes for the Central Florida Area.

The board adopted a resolution asking the Federal Communication Commission to reserve TV Channel 11 in Orlando for educational purposes and agreed to pledge $3.81 for every student in the county schools to carry on the program.

Supt. of Schools R. T. Milwee told the board that it would gain economically in the long run from classroom in the future. "It wouldn't have to utilize as many classrooms in the future," he added.

Milwee added that seven other counties in the central Florida area already have gone on record as supporting the program.

In other business, the board rejected all bids for milk for the coming year and agreed to ask the dairymen to resubmit bids that meet with state requirements concerning cartons and butter fat.

Officials pointed that the schools are losing a great deal of money each year because of milk carton leakage.

School Aid Bill Showing Signs Of New Life

WASHINGTON (UPI) — School aid legislation, left for dead more than once this year, was showing signs of life again today.

Democratic leaders were fashioning a new education package designed to give President Kennedy part of what he proposed in three different education bills.

They hoped the new program would be enacted before Congress adjourns.

Senate leaders were reported generally agreed on a program that would include parts of the three administration bills.

The new package was said to include:

- Aid to school construction amounting to $225 million a year.
- Extension of the $300 million a year program to aid areas "impacted" by schoolchildren of federal workers.
- Extension of some parts of the National Defense Education Act Additional aid for higher education.

Leaders decided to delay action — originally scheduled for early next week — on a bill to extend only the present impacted areas bill. They were said to be withholding final agreement on the new package pending assurance from the House Rules Committee that it will not pigeonhole it like it did most of Kennedy's original program.

Commission Okays Furniture Bids

The County Commission met in special session Wednesday and awarded the low bid for furniture for the new County Jail to the Bishop Office Supply Co. of Orlando for $10,887.

The other bidder was Swaney's of Sanford who bid $8,324 but the bid did not include a file cabinet.

On July 25, local dealers protested the furniture specifications calling them "discriminative and restrictive."

However, the board agreed to let the specifications stand and readvertise the bids.

Hijacked Plane Back Home

MIAMI (UPI) — A hijacked Eastern Air Lines prop-jet Electra was brought back to the United States Wednesday by the same crew which took it to Havana at gunpoint July 21.

The pilot, Capt. William E. Buchanan, said on his return here the Cuban government appeared to be "quite concerned" over recent attempts to steal American passenger planes by hijackers.

Bulletin

The Volusia county school board today approved the application of two Negro girls to the previously all white Volusia Ave. Elementary School at Daytona Beach.

The application of a third Negro girl for transfer for the same school was denied.

By LARRY VERSHEL
Nobody asked me but... What would have happened to the light-fisted county budget if the commissioners had gotten the approval of our legislators for a pay raise they discussed earlier in the year?

One thing the County Commission and I are in complete agreement about — that I'm a lousy playwright.

The City Commission isn't waiting until the next fiscal year to purchase emergency generators in case of an outage. City Manager W. F. Knowles has been authorized to purchase six generators NOW.

Watch for the Back to School edition in Friday's Herald. There'll be plenty of real good buys.

What ever happened to the Humane Society???

Wouldn't it be a good idea for the city to make a complete study on utilizing the Civic Center to its full advantage?

Tax Assessor Mary Earle Walker is to be commended for her noble defense of the electric pencil sharpener in her office the other day.

Big Three Warns Reds

LONDON (UPI) — The Big Three Western powers protested to the Soviet Union today against recent illegal Communist measures in Berlin and warned the Russians of the grave dangers that can result from such actions.

The United States, Britain and France made their protests in identical diplomatic notes handed to the Kremlin in Moscow.

The notes charged that sealing off the East-West Berlin border by the East Germans "illegal" and a "flagrant and particularly serious violation of the quadri-partite status of Berlin."

They termed the measures of the East Germans "illegal" and said the West is holding the Soviet Union responsible for them.

The notes also urged the Soviet government "to put an end to these illegal measures."

"This unilateral infringement of the quadri-partite status of Berlin can only increase existing tensions and dangers," the notes said.

The protest in Moscow today was the second Allied move since the Communist East Germans clamped down their restrictions in Berlin early Sunday. It followed a protest by the Western commandants to the Soviet commandant in Berlin Tuesday.

The strongly-worded Allied diplomatic notes, urging "the most serious attention of the government of the U. S. S. R.," made these other points:

The latest restrictions in Berlin "have the effect of limiting, to a degree, approaching complete prohibition, of passage from the Soviet sector to the Western sectors of the city."

Freedom of movement with respect to Berlin was reaffirmed by the four-power agreement in New York of May 4, 1949, and by the decision in Paris on June 20, 1949, by a council of ministers of the four powers.

The Western powers have never accepted that limitation can be imposed on freedom of movement within Berlin; the boundary between the Soviet and the Western sectors is not a state frontier.

The measures taken by the East German authorities are illegal.

The Allies do "not accept the pretension that the Soviet sector of Berlin forms a part of the so-called 'German Democratic republic' and that Berlin is situated on its territory."

"They will be brought up to full strength and issued all the required equipment," said Maj. Gen. George T. Dunca.

Britain, France Boost Forces

BERLIN (UPI) — Britain and France followed the American lead today in bolstering their military forces in Berlin and Germany.

At the same time, the East Germans disclosed that two million members of the Communist youth organization would be mobilized "voluntarily."

The twin military moves on either side of the sealed East-West Berlin border came as the Allies delivered stinging protest notes to the Soviet Union over the Communists' illegal actions in this crisis-riven city. The notes warned that such actions can have grave consequences.

Earlier, the West Berlin police reported the defection of 10 uniformed members of the Communist East Germany people's police and two members of the Red workers' militia during the past two nights.

Mobilization of the Communist youths will reinforce the ranks of the 400,000-man "people's army," the "people's police" and the workers' militia already involved on the Red side in the cold war contest for Berlin.

Uneasy West Berliners who have been critical of the West for the relative softness and slowness of its reply to the Communist action of sealing off the city's borders early Sunday took heart from today's moves.

The British announced in London that they will bring their crack army of the Rhine to a full battle-ready strength of 35,000 men. It was learned this meant an addition of 4,000 to 5,000 men.

This force will be bolstered with additional twin-engine Javelin night and day jet fighters that are geared to fly in any weather.

In Paris, President Charles de Gaulle announced that France, too, will strengthen its air and ground forces in Germany and at home in light of the Berlin crisis.
