(Continued from Page One) States gave this version to the United Nations to "conceal this totally unjustified attack on a Soviet plane." It added: "In actual fact, the Soviet plane not only did not fly over the American vessel, but did not even approach it, being at a distance of more than ten kilometers (six miles) from it and was carrying out, as already pointed out above, a training flight. "It opened no fire on American fighters and was brought down as a result of the attack on it without cause by 11 American fighter planes." The note described the action as an "outrageous violation of generally recognized rules of international law." It demanded a "strict investigation" and "the punishment of the persons responsible." It also asked for "compensation for the loss caused by the death of the crew, consisting of three pilots, and of the destruction of the Soviet plane." The note continued: "The Soviet government also considers it necessary to draw the attention of the United States government to the serious consequences which such actions on the part of the American military authorities may have."

Hurricane

(Continued from Page One) gauge was smashed by a falling tree. Meanwhile, Coast Guard cutters thrashed through still choppy seas in search of the small fishing boat. "The Times" overdrive with three men on board on a trip 70 miles into the Gulf of Mexico in quest of fish. All hurricane warnings were lowered at 10:30 A.M. (EST). But residents as far north as Cape Hatteras, N. C., were advised to take precautions against strong winds in squalls. At the same time the Weather Bureau warned of squalls over northern and central Florida and said there would be dangerous gales in the west central part of the state. High tides were expected from the Tampa Bay area southward and on the Atlantic Coast from Ft. Augustine to Savannah. The hurricane doubled back and headed south after stalling all day yesterday in the Cedar Key area, where the greatest damage was reported. Aid was rushed to the stricken Cedar Key where Florida Highway Patrol Captain Olin Hill estimated between 400 and 500 were homeless. A convoy of six trucks left Turner Field at Albany, Ga., with C and K rations for 500 persons. One tank truck carried a supply of water and others hauled 100 cots and 250 blankets. Aty and three medical personnel were in the convoy, sent by Third Army headquarters in Atlanta. The Red Cross and National Guard rushed in emergency food, fresh milk and drinking water from Gainesville, 62 miles to the northeast. The hurricane thrashed Cedar Key with winds estimated up to 125 miles per hour throughout the day. All 200 buildings in the community were damaged and 75 percent of them were wrecked. The town of 900 was without electricity or drinking water. Trees and telephone poles were down and debris cluttered the roads. Bridges were damaged and causeways littered with seaweed and broken timbers. The town's small fiber factory was damaged and its fishing fleet of 100 boats was sunk. Some can be salvaged but it was estimated the loss to the 150 and 200 fishing and pleasure boats in the area will average $1,000 apiece. Several houses were unroofed and boat houses bowled over in the Crystal River area to the south. Torrential rains fell and tides were abnormally high. Both deaths attributed to the hurricane were caused by electrocution. E. J. Costrove, 32-year-old oil company official, was electrocuted while trying to remove a fallen wire from his backyard fence at Tampa. Mrs. Mattie Ker-

Marine Insult

(Continued on Page Two) planned to lay it before the convention this afternoon. The chairman of the committee, Harvey Helman of Indioctt, N. Y., predicted overwhelming approval of by what he described as "peevish and disgruntled" members. National Commander Clay Nixon had said some members were so angry that they wanted to throw Mr. Truman out of their organization. But Helman said the resolutions committee considered no expulsion proposal. Nixon said a resolution had been proposed to "throw the President out of the league, and things of that sort," but that he would try to quash anything along that line. A commander in chief of the armed forces, the President is a member of the league. Nixon, in saying he wanted to hush the whole matter, told reporters, "We are not interested in fostering disunity." He added: "If the President hasn't understood the status of the Marine Corps by this time, nothing can bring him to his senses. Many people are highly inflamed about it. But this is the time to get the country in shape for a shooting war. I don't think we ought to carry it any further." Nixon said he was hopeful President Truman might appear at the league's banquet Friday night, not to apologize, but to attend as commander in chief. Frank A. Hecht, president of the Navy League, issued a statement which called Mr. Truman's remarks "a gratuitous insult from the commander in chief to one of our fighting forces." He added: "The President owes an apology to every Marine, to every ex-Marine and to the widows and parents of Marines who died fighting for their country. They don't like being compared to the No. 1 enemy of democracy." WITH U. S. MARINES IN KOREA, Sept. 6—(AP)—Fighting Marines were angry and profane to say on learning of President Truman's remark that the Marine Corps has a "propaganda machine that is almost equal to Stalin's." None would be quoted by name as what their commander-in-chief had to say. Their immediate reaction generally was stunned surprise. (They apparently got their first word of the President's statement through war correspondents and the Army's service newspaper Stars and Stripes.) "Did he say that?" queried a Marine sergeant who has been on the Korean frontlines 32 days. The sergeant happened to be a veteran of World War II Pacific fighting and a squad leader on the battle for "No-Name Ridge" in the Nakdong River bulge two weeks ago. "He should have been up some of those damn Korean ridges with us," put in an enlisted leatherneck. "Maybe they were just propaganda too." Most Marine officers were reluctant to comment on President Truman's letter to Rep. Gordon McDonough (R-Calif.) which was made public in the United States. The officers said they believed anything they might have to say might affect their relations with other U. S. fighting forces in Korea. The nearest thing to a reply came from a field officer, who was asked for his views. "I think," he replied, "it is very unfair to ask me to comment on such an unfair statement." WASHINGTON, Sept. 6—(AP)—President Truman prodded Congress again today to vote statehood for Alaska and Hawaii, and Democratic Leader Lucas (Ill.) said the Senate may consider next week statehood bills already passed by the House. Lucas' statement was made after E. L. Bartlett, Alaska delegate, and Joseph R. Farrington, Hawaii delegate, said President Truman told them at a White House conference he would "use every possible influence" to get a Senate vote.

Truman Plans Radio Talk On Saturday Nite

Nation Will Be Told What Wage-Price Control Policies To Be Instituted

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—(AP)—President Truman declared today that the United States is fighting in Korea "for a peaceful world, not for conquest." "The government of the United States is trying by every means at its command to support the United Nations with all it has—men, arms, and efforts for peace," he said.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—(AP)—President Truman will address the nation Saturday night to report on what homefront controls are in store in the current emergency.

In disclosing this at a news conference today, Mr. Truman declined to say whether he plans even limited price control. He said he would give his answers to the Saturday night speech.

The administration already has told Congress it needs $40,000,000 to build up an organization which would be ready by next April 30 to handle selective price controls.

The President told a news conference yesterday he had no knowledge of one published report that W. Stuart Symington, chairman of the National Security Resources Board, would be in overall charge of home front mobilization.

He also said that no plan is now under consideration for a single economic stabilization agency to use his powers to stabilize prices and wages.

Such powers are embodied in the defense production bill now awaiting his signature. One thing the President did say was that he would not use his powers to stabilize prices and wages.

County Agrees To Pay Half Of Cost In Digging Ditch

The County Commission this morning voted to co-operate with the City in the digging of a ditch to drain off excess water during periods of heavy rains in the southwest part of the city and vicinity.

City Manager Clifford McKibbin, who conferred with the commissioners on the project, estimated that the project will cost about $2,000 with the County and City sharing the expense equally.

"I do not know of any drainage project in the county that I would rather approve than the said Commissioner W. G. Kilbee.

Mr. McKibbin pointed out that the ditch would relieve the flooding which during storms has been particularly heavy in the vicinity of the Southwest Road.

Truman Talks To Marine Group And Offers Apology Joel Field Made New President Of Sanford Kiwanis

President Says When He Makes Mistake He Corrects It

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—(AP)—President Truman made an unheralded visit to the Marine Corps League's meeting today and expressed hope there will never be "another misunderstanding" between him and the Marines.

It was a personal and emphatic follow-up to his apology of yesterday for his earlier "unfortunate" words about the fighting corps.

The League gave him a standing ovation and applauded furiously when he said, with a grin: "I am sure you will correct me."

GE STRIKE
WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—(AP)—Government-sponsored peace talks in the CIO strike against General Electric opened today with a warning from Federal Mediation Director Cyrus Cheng that the walkout is a threat to the defense program and the nation's economy.

SENATE HITS DEFENSE PLANNERS FOR SLEEPY-HEADED APPROACH
WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—(AP)—A Senate subcommittee has accused top defense planners of making a sleepy-headed approach to many problems vital to national security.

The subcommittee, headed by Senator Lyndon Johnson (D-Tex.), called for a shakeup of the munitions board and blasted at "sista psychology" in the Pentagon.

It accused the Defense Department of "the lack of any real central attack and policy" in handling the disposal of war goods and plants declared surplus after World War II, but now needed because of fighting in Korea.

"We need more imaginative and far-sighted men in the munitions board to handle stockpiling of critical defense items, especially rubber," the report added.

Johnson's group said skilled handling of rubber resources, the munitions board might avert nationwide speed limits and truck loading controls such as were imposed in World War II days. But these should be invoked if necessary, it added.

The Defense Department and the armed forces under it, even since the Korean fighting started, have continued their big bargain sale of properties left over from World War II, while buying similar items at non-bargain prices in the open market, the report said.

Commie Tie-up Hotly Denied By Chapman

Interior Secretary Dares Senator To Repeat Charges Outside Senate Room

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—(AP)—FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover was reported to have told Senators today his agents are ready to arrest 12,000 dangerous Communists if he should break out with Russia. A member of the Senate Appropriations Committee, asking not to be named, quoted Hoover as telling the group in a closed session that he needs more funds for additional agents to keep a close check on these persons.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—(AP)—Secretary of the Interior Chapman, with the blessings of President Truman, vigorously denied today that he has ever had any Communist ties.

"I have none whatever. I never have," Chapman told the Senate committee investigating charges brought against him by Senator Schoepel (R-Kan.). He said he had never had any connections with any subversive group, "open or closed."

Chapman dared Schoepel to his face to repeat the charges outside the Senate, where senators say anything without danger of prosecution for damages.

While he was testifying, Mr. Truman confidently told his White House news conference that Chapman will exploit attacks against him into little bits as other attacks, he said, have been exploited before.

Schoepel had said in a Senate speech Tuesday that there was "a strong and personal alliance between the Russian Soviet camp and the Interior Department."

Freedom Crusade In County Headed By Paul Raymond

JACKSONVILLE, Sept. 7.—(Special)—Harold Cole, State Chairman of the "Crusade for Freedom" in Florida, announced today the appointment of Paul E. Raymond, Daytona Beach, district chairman for Volusia and Seminole counties.

During the next six weeks millions of Americans will be asked to sign the Freedom Scroll and contribute to the all-out fight against Communist aggression and false propaganda.

The Crusade for Freedom was planned long before the Red invasion of Korea. Success of Communist propaganda among the Koreans shows clearly the need for a great counter-offensive with truth as its weapon.

This will be accomplished through the establishment of independent radio stations on which refugees from Iron Curtain countries will talk to their ex-countrymen on the airwaves of the stations called "Radio Free Europe."

Contributions will also pay for a 10-ton Freedom Bell to be installed as an outpost of Freedom in Berlin and which will be dedicated to World Freedom on United Nations Day, Oct. 24. The bell will speak as a symbol of hope to enslaved people and as a warning to tyrants.

Larry Grant and Ann Sheridan are co-stars in one of the funniest pictures of the year, "I Was a Male War Bride", showing Thursday and Friday at Movieland Drive-In Theater.

WHY MANGANESE HELPS

BERKELEY, Calif. —(AP)—For some time it has been known that plants will not grow unless there is manganese in the soil they feed from. This was discovered by plant nutritionists P. K. Stumpf and C. C. Delwiche of the University of California College of Agriculture.

Now, working with graduate students W. D. Lewis and C. McInneson, they have found out why manganese enables a plant to grow. They discovered a new enzyme in plants that enables them to utilize glutamic acid, one of the building units of protein. Without manganese, this enzyme doesn't work and the plant stops growing. No other metallic element is known to have this effect, and studies are continuing in the hope of increasing crop yields.

PREFER OWN FUNERALS

DARWIN.—(AP)—Body-snatching on a fairly large scale is going on in Darwin under the nose of authority. The bodies—or rather the bones—are being snatched for a very different purpose from that of grave robbers of the past.

They are being quietly removed by aborigines from orthodox graves in the Darwin aboriginal cemetery. Aborigines dig up the skeletons in the dead of night and whisk them away for tribal burial in the wilds of Arnhem Land.

This is a huge aborigine reservation east of Darwin. All North Australian tribes have their own funeral rites and burial customs, and they are uneasy about the white man's burials in public cemeteries. That is why they are always eager to bury their dead brothers' bones.

Portsmouth on the Outer Banks of North Carolina, has more buildings than people. Once a thriving town of 1,000, and North Carolina's first port of entry, Portsmouth's population is now 18. Fishing and hunting are its industries.

Chemists at Southern Research Institute report they have found a way to make kraft paper from old railroad ties.

Vietminh Reds Use Wholesale Killings To Disrupt French

By SEYMOUR TOPPING SAIGON—The Communist led Vietminh are today employing wholesale political assassinations in a calculated drive to disrupt organization of the French sponsored state of Vietnam.

Ho Chi Minh's terrorists have designated Bao Dai government officials as their leading targets. The strategy is to rob the infant Vietnam government of key members and to frighten others away from official service.

Terrorists have wounded two Vietnamese cabinet members and shot down several newspapers within the last weeks in Saigon itself. The head news editor of the Deputy-Minister of Central Vietnam who was killed at his desk in the provincial capital, Hue. The assassins escaped in each case.

Only the attacks on prominent individuals are publicized. But in towns and villages all over the country Vietminh terrorism is applied.

The Vietminh Radio recently disclosed that during 1949, in South Vietnam alone, 2,355 "spies and enemy agents" were killed, and 1,633 others wounded. The broadcast said 213 village officials were "suppressed" and 104 others freed to quit.

In the Indochina war, the French also use mass terrorism. Whole villages are sometimes razed on flimsy evidence that they have harbored Vietminh or are accountable for some local Vietminh operation. The taking of hostages is practiced by both sides.

Priority objective now is security. French forces are being augmented by a Vietnamese national army and expanded police agencies.

Powers of police have nominally been turned over to the Bao Dai government. However, the French have maintained their own police security forces which work closely with the Vietnamese.

In date, the well organized Vietminh underground works effectively even in Saigon, principal stronghold of French power in Indochina. Bombs are thrown almost nightly into the city's crowded cafes to warn the populace that the Vietminh are omnipresent. Killings occur on busy streets with bystanders making no effort to halt the escaping assassins.

The Vietminh terrorists have been helped in their work by at least the tacit cooperation of the people. Many of them are in open sympathy. Others fear retaliation.

No quarter is asked or given and no holds are barred by either side. The Vietminh have publicly marked the top police officials of the French and Vietnamese Surete for execution. Some of the sentences have already been carried out.

The French and Vietnamese Surete won their most important victory recently. The leaders and most of the Vietminh terrorist organization for Saigon were rounded up in a single day's raids. Valuable files were taken as well as weapons and propaganda material.

The Vietnamese Chief of Surete, Nguyen Van Tam, found his own dossier the most interesting among those seized. He was scheduled to be assassinated before July 30.

It is certainly that the police will soon face a replacement terrorist cell furnished by the vast Vietminh underground that is fed from the areas controlled by Ho Chi Minh's troops.

TODAY'S BIBLE VERSE

Historically God has had to use men of humble origin, simple habits and self-educated, because sophisticated people were busy about their own personal business and had no time to save any part of humanity: His food was locusts and wild honey—Matt. 23:4

We wouldn't go so far as to say that every time the President opens his mouth he puts his foot in it, but he certainly bit off more than he could chew when he began mouthing about the Marines.

The head of the Civil Service Commission, somewhat belatedly, reveals that President Woodrow Wilson secretly investigated and fired disloyal employees during World War I. Only 246 persons out of 2,800,000 federal employees at that time were found to be disloyal. However, the element of Communism was not a significant factor in affecting loyalty in those days.

A poll of the Kiwanis Club showed that 18 of its members are native Floridians, six Georgians, while three each are from Tennessee and Alabama. Texas, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Kentucky, and North Carolina are represented by two each. Other states represented among the membership are Michigan, Arizona, Mississippi, Vermont, New Hampshire, Rhode Island, Illinois, New York, Virginia and South Carolina. There is even one member from Wales. We doubt if many Kiwanis clubs throughout the country boast such diversified membership.

Archbishop O'Hara of Savannah, Ga. returning to New York from Romania, declares that charges of spying lodged against him by the Reds were false from start to finish. Sometimes we wonder if similar charges lodged against prominent people in this country, sometimes by ex-Communists themselves, are not equally false from start to finish. How easy, for instance, to discredit valuable leadership, to sow the seeds of suspicion and distrust, by having a faithful member of the Communist Party renounce his affiliation, become a good Christian and a good Democrat, then go about accusing others of being Communists, or ex-Communists, even when he knows they are not, and never have been.

High tribute is paid by John Temple Graves in the handy man, the colored handy man, who still exists in some places in spite of efforts of the "52-20 Club," the jobless benefits department, the New Dealers, the Fair Dealers, the Do-gooders, and the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People to destroy him. "The handy-man came by our house the other day, and what a man!" writes Mr. Graves. "There is American free enterprise and individual initiative for you! The big job was finding a way to get rid of some deep, ugly stains on a stone floor where a lighted candle had dripped hot wax. But it wasn't big for the handy man. After a preliminary heat treatment he drained a cupful of gasoline from his early-model Ford, poured it over the stains, rubbed hard, and presto, all clear! Then he climbed up a tree in the backyard and lopped off a top limb which was obstructing a view we liked. After that he fixed a hole in the roof, unplastered some Bermuda dirt to cover a bare place in the front lawn, looked over for termites, doctored a warty rose bush, mended several electric lines, eliminated all door squeaks, washed rust stains from the white front of the house, mended and applied a little concrete to replace a cracked walk, dug a new rain-water system around the house, and so on and so on."

Britain And Europe

The progress toward real unity among the nations of Western Europe may be profoundly affected by the ability of the British Labor government to remain in power. For centuries Great Britain has been able, at crucial moments, to exert decisive influence in the course of events on the Continent. Now the two dominant British parties have taken opposite positions on two significant questions of unity in Europe. These are the French Schuman plan for an international steel and coal pool, and Winston Churchill's proposal for a unified European army.

The Labor government has opposed the Schuman plan. The Conservatives might also dislike it, for different reasons, but they made it a parliamentary issue of opposition to the government, thus becoming supporters of the plan. Since Churchill is the leader of the Conservatives, his plan for a unified army must have their support. The Laborites oppose it. Thus the present Labor government has taken a stand against the two most promising moves toward unity in Europe, while the Conservatives presumably would encourage those moves.

The tenure of the Labor government in Great Britain is shaky and uncertain since the general elections this year. Each side is biding its time, waiting for a favorable moment to force a new election. The Conservatives with the hope of taking over and the Laborites with the hope of regaining a workable majority. On the timing and outcome of that election might possibly hinge the future of all Europe.

Homing Lobsters

The homing instinct of pigeons, while not precisely understood, has been made use of in various ways for years. Some dogs and cats, travelling great distances with no obvious guidance, have eventually reached home in safety. Now comes the lobster to join the ranks of these instinct-guided creatures.

Scientists at the Bermuda Biological Station have recently trapped lobsters, tagged them and carried them miles out to sea, and released them. These same crustaceans were found again in the Bermuda traps in three days' to a month's time. Conflicting tides and shoal barriers seemingly interposed no obstacles for the homing lobsters.

It might seem strange that the Creator has not endowed his higher handiwork, man, with this useful instinct. It may perhaps have existed in primitive man and been so suppressed by the urge to wander, explore and conquer that it has become atrophied. Parents searching for lost children deeply regret its absence.

Coffee Drinkers

It is hard to imagine any matter which has not been the subject of a survey in recent years. One has been made for the Pan-American Coffee Bureau to learn what beverages American drink, and the Bureau finds, with unquestionable satisfaction, that coffee is consumed by seventy per cent of Americans in summer and by seventy-five per cent in winter. These are much higher figures than were reported for any other beverage; milk and chocolate milk were second with fifty to fifty-one per cent.

The figures need not be doubted by anyone who recalls the panic which was spread by last spring's false rumors of an impending coffee shortage. In the history of wars and sieges, a city occasionally has been reduced to surrender by cutting off its water supply. What power would be wielded over America by an enemy who could cut off our coffee supply?

Chapman Denies

Chapman denied the present Secretary of the Interior.

Schoepfel's attack, Chapman told the Senate committee, "far surpasses in viciousness, in venality and in utter falsity" any made against him in 17 years with the Interior Department.

He said he believed Schoepfel made the accusations in the hope of blocking passage of a bill proposing statehood for Alaska.

Chapman called the Senator's statements "another instance of the use of the smear technique which has become the stock-in-trade of little men in high places."

Senator Schoepfel sat in the committee room today as Chapman made his prepared statement of reply.

Chapman accused the Senator of "weaving together names, dates and incidents" to make it appear that Chapman had something to do with the Alaska statehood committee hiring Randolph Feltus as a lobbyist.

He quoted Schoepfel as having said: "I have been advised that the deal hiring Feltus was arranged between Oscar Chapman and Governor Gruening of Alaska."

Chapman termed "a fantastic fabrication" Schoepfel's accusation "that I have attempted to sabotage the government's policy in Formosa" by helping to block assignment of William Gardner, an engineer, to help strengthen the Formosan economy.

Mr. Gardner is in Formosa and has been there for some time, he said. Chapman added that the Reclamation Bureau, a branch of his department, helped to get Gardner there.

Schoepfel had produced in the Senate a photographic copy of Chapman's oath of office as Undersecretary of the Interior in 1946, from which a loyalty affidavit had been stricken. The Senator had demanded an explanation.

Chapman said he was sworn in at a formal ceremony, at which it is customary to administer only the oath, leaving it to the employee to sign the affidavit later. He said he did so, and produced a copy of the copy of the oath he had previously signed a loyalty oath in 1941, the

Many Christians Fleeing Path Of Communist Battlelines In Korea

By BILL ROSS (For The Herald)

KOREA—(AP)—Among the thousands of white-clad refugees streaming down mountains and valleys in the path of the Korean war is one of the largest religious migrations of our time.

It is made up of Korean Christians fleeing from Communism. They come from tiny hamlets among the saw-toothed ridges. They come from Korea's over-crowded cities.

But the religious migrants all have the same purpose—to escape the overpowering restrictions that Communism would place on their rights to worship as they please.

Headquarters of this religious pilgrimage is a Korean city which cannot be identified. More than 200 Christian ministers have taken sanctuary here.

But the preachers of the word did not come alone. Many brought their congregations. Army officials estimate that more than 20,000 refugees here are religious migrants who fled before the Red invasion.

Leader of the Moscow-like mass of homeless persons is an American-educated Baptist minister.

He is a native Korean who graduated from Princeton University. Because many of his family and associates are in Communist held territory, he must use an American name, Dr. Henry N. Park.

After Dr. Park finished Princeton's divinity school, he spent a year at Louisville and after graduation returned to Korea.

Here he was heavily engaged in religious teachings, as well as helping his countrymen achieve a better standard of living—that is, until that fateful day June 25 when the Communist invasion began.

Dr. Park immediately pulled up stakes. He knew that Christians could not live with Communism. He had been told as much by Korean Reds in his own city.

They offered him the choice of staying in his home and embracing Communism or leaving. Dr. Park—and many of his flock—left.

They made their way south, always just a step ahead of the crushing Reds until the United Nations line of defense was established. The little band ultimately was joined by some 200 other ministers and their congregations who spontaneously came to the same conclusions as Dr. Park regarding Christian faith under the Hammer and Sickle.

Each morning the ministers gather most of their flocks and pray for an early United Nations victory in Korea so they can go home and live in peace.

An official Army guide says his embattled land has about 30,000,000 population and that Communism, Buddhism, Shintoism and Christianity are all followed as religions but that Christianity is said to exert the most influence.

The Korean Christian pilgrims would seem to bear this out.

Resolution seeking to end what Russia calls "inhuman and barbarous" bombing attacks on North Korea.

Malik said this resolution did not concern China in any way, since the "Syngman Rhee clique" and General Douglas MacArthur are not victims of the bombing but aggressors and "have no place here."

Council President Sir Gladwyn Jebb of Britain ruled that the council already had decided that China had a right to take part in the Korean discussions. Malik said he disagreed with the ruling, but he did not make a formal challenge.

It was this issue of Korean representation that tied up the council in a procedural stalemate for the whole month of August, while Malik was president.

The council took up the Soviet bombing resolution after Russia used her 14th veto yesterday to prevent a U. S. sponsored ban on aid to North Korea.

Malik had said certain defeat on his move to call a halt to the American bombings.

As soon as the brief exchange over China was over, Malik launched into a detail attack on the United States, charging indiscriminate bombings of schools, hospitals and other non-military objectives.

He said he would not name those he said were victims of these "unfounded and unjust" attacks, but he said the attacks were not aimed actually at these men but were "direct attacks on the President of the United States."

There has been criticism of Secretary of State Acheson and Secretary of Defense Johnson during the Marine convention.

Mr. Truman walked in to the crowded room with a broad grin on his face. He kept that grin until he started speaking.

He turned serious when he asked for their support in the Korean war which he said he hoped would lay the foundation for the peace which is his only aim in life.

Mr. Truman said that only the Korean invasion occurred, the United States had to support the United Nations, it had to "fight" or back down.

He expressed hope the Marine League—an organization of former Marines—would support him in his efforts to "get peace in the world." The ex-Marines applauded vigorously.

There was no show in the convention hall of the bitterness considered by Mr. Truman's original cracks about the Marines.

The commandant of the league, Clay Nixon, had prepared the way for the President's visit with a little speech.

Nixon told his comrades "matters discussed yesterday are at an end."

He said the President was coming to the meeting and told them, "We will expect you to demean yourselves as Marines and Americans."

"No wisecracks will be tolerated," Nixon said and added, "There is no place for levity in a country at war."

A longer sounded attention as the President walked grandly up to the speakers platform. He was applauded again when he was introduced to the meeting by General Clifton Cates, commandant of the Marine Corps.

Cates said, "We are gratified to have the President of the United States with us." Then he added, "We in the Marine Corps admire courage, especially personal courage."

THE NATION TODAY

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7—(AP)—

Preventive war; Secretary of the Navy Matthews speaking publicly, suggested this country should be willing to begin a war to insure peace.

For this he got his knuckles rapped by President Truman and Secretary of State Acheson.

And the President himself in his broadcast last Friday night said this country is against a preventive war.

But what Matthews said publicly was only what some other top men in the government have spoken of privately.

And since Matthews broke the idea into the open, members of Congress have talked of "preventive war."

What is a preventive war? No one has defined it but it could be summed up this way:

That when this country feels it is ready, it should attack Russia to block it once and for all from taking over the world, including us.

Critics of the "preventive war" thinking have called it "immoral" and contrary to the American tradition of peacefulness.

They can argue this way: For this country to resort to an attack on Russia to settle the differences between the two would be a resort to force and violence, plunging the world into blood and death probably for millions.

It would be a rejection of civilized and intelligent efforts—at least on our part—to iron out problems by trying every last peaceful method.

We have an obligation, as an enlightened nation, not to use violence except to defend ourselves against attack.

And although so far we have proclaimed our willingness and shown it in Korea—to stop the use of force on any nation, we would be guilty of using force in a so-called preventive war.

But—

On what grounds would this country be justified in making a preventive war on Russia, since it would mean firing the first shot?

Those in favor of it could argue this way:

Malik said this resolution did not concern China in any way, since the "Syngman Rhee clique" and General Douglas MacArthur are not victims of the bombing but aggressors and "have no place here."

Council President Sir Gladwyn Jebb of Britain ruled that the council already had decided that China had a right to take part in the Korean discussions. Malik said he disagreed with the ruling, but he did not make a formal challenge.

It was this issue of Korean representation that tied up the council in a procedural stalemate for the whole month of August, while Malik was president.

French Gendarmes Round Up 200 Reds In National Drive

PARIS, Sept. 7—(AP)—

Sweeping down at dawn today, French police rounded up nearly 200 foreign Communists, including some Russians.

There were indications that the police had hoped to grab 300 suspected spies and saboteurs but found many were absent from their hotels or residences.

All of the suspects will be expelled within 48 hours, an Interior Ministry source said, specifying the drive was aimed at crippling fifth column activities by foreign Communists in France.

Police sources said that a Polish prisoner among those being questioned, and that among those police had failed to nab were a Yugoslav doctor and a Spanish Communist general named Lister.

In southwestern France, where 30 Spanish Communists were taken, police said they had been offered the choice of being sent to Combs or being expelled from the country to which they seemed attached, presumably Russia.

"One remarked that most of them refused the second choice," said a police spokesman.

Other suspects included Czechs, Poles, Rumanians, Bulgarians, and Yugoslavs, another 50-odd in the northern France coal regions; about 15 in the Metz area of northern France. In Marseille, 250 persons were questioned, including 100 foreigners, but only 15 were held.

positively was that there would be no military dictators, and all controls necessary will be under civilian administrators. He said this in reply to a question as to whether such controls would be under a civilian.

Another reporter expressed belief that United Nations forces in Korea will make up for temporary setbacks before the week is over.

He said that there had been no actual change in the main front line in Korea.

A reporter, mindful of reports of setbacks at the front, asked him "since when?" Since the last ten days, Mr. Truman replied.

Another reporter commented that a lot of people seem to think that ground was being lost by U. S. troops under heavy attacks by Red Korean forces.

Mr. Truman said that the U. N. troops were being pushed back at certain points, that certain points had crashed.

But, he said, the North Koreans are being thrust back toward their former lines and he felt this observation would be accomplished before the week is ended.

He said he based his optimism on his daily briefings by General Omar Bradley, chairman of the joint chiefs of staff, and was not attempting to pose as an arm-chair strategist.

Mr. Truman said he won't sign the McCarran Communist registration bill in Congress sends it to him.

He explained the bill, sponsored by Senator McCarran (R-Nev.), is the same as the Republican Mundt-Nixon bill but revised by McCarran to make it a little worse.

The bill is now pending in the Senate. It aims to tighten up generally existing anti-subversive laws and would also require registration with the government by Communists and Communist front organizations.

LIGHT FISH, CANCER NEW YORK—(AP)—On Bimini, a small tropical island in the Bahamas group, 60 miles east of Miami, American Museum of Natural History researchers are investigating in fish the relationship of light and hormone to growth and cancer.

The scientists divide their time between the museum's laboratories in New York and the Lerner Marine Laboratory, a museum field station, on Bimini. Their project is supported by research grants from the American Cancer Society.

It has been found that fish kept in darkness develop abnormal growths, including several types of cancer. The light factor apparently reduces activity of hormone-secreting glands of the fish. The hormones ACTH is being injected into the coarctus fish and its effects on the tumors are being studied.

Hollywood

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD, Sept. 7.—(AP)—Jack Benny announced today he is going to take the big jump into television.

The fiddle-murdering comedian will make his regular television debut on Oct. 29. The show will be for his radio sponsor, and he will do three others this season, at intervals of eight weeks. I asked him how he picked his timing.

"I have to go to New York for the television shows," he explained. "That means I will have to tape-record my airshow a week in advance so I can get away. If I tried to do this every four weeks it would be too much. So my sponsor and I agreed on every eight weeks."

Last year Benny made his TV debut on a program to dedicate the local station KTTV. He views the new program with this philosophy: "I don't say that I'm going to be any better than anyone else on television. But on the other hand, I see no reason why I should be worse, either."

What about the format?

"I'll do an hour-long show. It will be variety entertainment with perhaps a scene from my radio program. The first show might picture Rochester and me at home. We could show some of the things that we talk about on the radio—the cigarette machine, the pay telephone, and so forth. On other shows I might have a scene with Dennis Day or Phil Harris or Mary."

People tell me that television is a completely new medium. I don't think so. I'm going to make them the same kind of entertainment I do on stage appearances. It's the same type of show I used to do at the Orpheum in vaudeville days.

I asked Benny about his future in television. He admitted that he foresees the day when he will give up radio entirely.

"It would be hard to do both radio and TV and do both to the best good," he said. "And perhaps radio will not be able to afford a show like mine. After all, the others on my show are stars in their own shows and have their own shows."

He admitted he would have to live in New York when he starts doing television exclusively. "I wouldn't mind living in New York for a year," he said, but he indicated he would return westward as soon as cross-country video becomes a fact.

When I asked how often he would want to do TV, he gave an interesting insight into the new medium.

"I think I would do something like a half-hour every two weeks," he said. "I wonder if it isn't a mistake to be on television every week. The matter of coming into people's homes and being seen is a lot different from just being heard on radio."

"Even if you could be good every week—and that is doubtful—I wonder if that isn't too much of an intrusion. Pretty soon people might become so used to seeing you that they no longer can judge whether you are good or not."

Benny said he didn't know whether he will be using one of his noted props on TV. "We'll have to take tests to see whether I should wear the toupee," he said.

ing might be defeated by control orders terms.

The Commerce Department is preparing to order inventories limited to "normal quantities"—perhaps determined by some present Korea base. It would be possible for the department to force "hoarders" to dispose of some of their accumulations in advance of the order's issuance.

Officially expressed belief that inventory-building business loans have risen considerably more than a normal seasonal amount since the second half of 1950 began.

An unbroken series of week-in-week gains began June 1, more than three weeks before the Korean fighting started, then picked up steam in mid-July—just when the consumer buying rush was in high gear—and has produced rises of more than $100,000,000 in every week since.

For the months of June, July and August, the cumulative gain amounted to a fat $1,584,000,000. In the preceding nine months there had been a rise of only $100,000,000.

knocked out Thursday. The Reds moved 84 new Russian tanks into the line Wednesday.

A bitter and indecisive day-long battle for the last northern ridge before Taegu raged between U.S. First Cavalrymen and the Communists.

The Reds were within sight of the city.

Correspondent Jack MacBeth, with the cavalry, reported the Americans stuck to their positions under heavy Red pressure.

Once the Americans had to turn their guns around to mow down Communist infiltrators.

One cavalry regiment slugged it out at close range with attacking Reds.

While this battle swirled at the southern end of the Kumhwa "bowling alley", other cavalry units beat off two dawn attacks from four miles northeast of Wasaga, 12 miles northwest of Taegu.

AP Correspondent Ben Price reported the Allies rolled back the Communist force that had smashed through South Korean lines and posed a sharp new threat to Taegu.

South Korean forces were pushing eastward from Yongchon, a key highway junction 20 miles north of Taegu, which the North Koreans held briefly Wednesday.

Elements of the U.S. 24th Division drove 3 1/2 miles north of Kyongju, another main highway point 18 miles southwest of Red-captured Pohang port on the Sea of Japan coast.

Americans control the airfield six miles south of Pohang.

The gains were slow and bloody.

The U.S. 8th Army in Korea reported that elements of the 25th Division in the southwest gave some ground at the outset of the push toward Pusan. But the communists said, the Americans regained it in a fierce midday counter-attack.

In the southwestern fighting the 25th Division has inflicted more than 13,000 casualties on the Reds in seven days.

Immediately north of that bitterly contested ground U.S. Marines and 2nd Division Infantry men pushed back remnants of four Red divisions across the Nakdong River west of Yongju. Yongju is 32 miles south of Taegu.

The fight there was grim and bloody. Hand to hand combat raged.

The Marines and doughboys charged with bayonets and swung their rifle bats as clubs. Korea captured dominating hills.

American officers estimated 7,500 Communists had been killed and wounded there in a week of fighting.

U.S. casualties have been heavy along the 55-mile front in the southwest and west.

Three Communist divisions are pounding toward Taegu from the east. Two more Red divisions have been identified in the drive down the Kumhwa highway toward Taegu.

The North Koreans were reported mauling fresh strength opposite the gash they have cut in Allied lines southwest of last Pohang port, around most important on the Korean southeast coast.

Correspondent Price reported from the field that lines of cars and men were moving toward the battle zone through mountain passes to the north.

An intelligence officer said the two-mile-long truck columns were moving southward along the east coast. One was 12 miles north of Pohang and the second was 40 miles to the north.

Both were plunging ahead with Allied aircraft and warships offshore.

The trucks carried men and supplies.

A South Korean spokesman announced in Tokyo that South Korean navy units made a surprise landing Wednesday at the start of a "very important naval operation." He said the landings were made on an island off Kusan on the west coast of Korea and on another off Mokpo in the southwest.

The naval units were still fighting for the islands.

The spokesman said the operations are "preliminary to a really powerful naval action."

Roaring back on the tail of disappearing typhoon rains, Allied airmen hit combat zones with 500 attacks during their recent flight day Wednesday. Half of these support assaults were west and south of Pohang where the Red breakthrough was attributed to Delia, told police he stabbed Delia with a pocket knife because "he pushed me around."

London advertising executive, told newsmen later today, however, that the battle was not over.

"I don't consider the case closed," he said. "We have not lost as you can see we are still here. We have decided the best policy is to be extremely cautious so as not to provoke further incidents. You know my son-in-law is very excitable."

"I'm still waiting for the result of the legal action I started in London to prevent their leaving."

Emmer, her father and brother Warwick, flew to Paris Tuesday night after French police confirmed that Daynes and the child had arrived here.

The 10-year-old Daynes in the Hotel Chateau Fontaine and Mrs. Daynes went there for a talk with her husband.

After they had talked an hour, she ran from the room screaming, "He's got a knife. Break down the door. Please protect my baby."

Her brother seized a fire axe, smashed down the door, rushed in and grabbed Daynes by the throat. The two men fought on the bed while reporters and photographers milled about the room. The child added quietly in a corner: "Police finally broke up the brawl and led the two men into the lobby."

The subcommittee said it blocked one such deal, the proposed sale of a government-owned synthetic rubber plant at Akron, Ohio, to private buyers. The plant since has been ordered operated by the government, it added.

It accused the Air Force of having attempted "a polite brush-off" of the group's first inquiries into surplus disposal, but said the Air Force later took some corrective steps.

In its demand for new blood in the munitions board the report accused both the board and defense officials handling surplus items of being "slow to adjust their thinking and actions to the realities of the post-Korean world."

The report called for intensified research into improved methods of producing synthetic rubber and feasibility of domestic production of natural rubber, saying "We believe present (rubber) stockpiling plans are inadequate."

In that connection, the government moved yesterday to increase particularly to the lack of air support for defensive forces.

In addition to claiming 41 tanks hit Thursday, the airmen reported destroying 24 enemy gun emplacements and 15 fuel and supply dumps.

B-29 bombers again hit Communist railroad yards near Pyongyang, the North Korean capital, and damaged seven bridges.

Although winds were recorded at the Municipal Airport at up to 60 miles an hour, according to Wally Krohn, Jr., no damage was reported there. Rainfall was recorded by E. J. Electric current in some portions of south and west Sanford and vicinity was interrupted for a short time after 1:30 P.M. by the falling of a tree in the vicinity of the Wekiva River over a main feed line, said H. H. Coleman. Another circuit was switched in and current restored.

The extra crews with the three-emergency mobile generators and the portable sub-station, have been sent back to Miami, he said.

Sid Edmond reported this morning that damage is minor in the city, and workmen have already mended and main fronts for the most part to clean up. Only two trees were reported down on Main Avenue near Twentieth Street and on one Irosquois Avenue in the DeLeonwald section.

At the Central Florida Experiment Station Dr. R. W. Bowersby stated that as far as he knows, damage to cotton seed beds was very small. He added that in places where there had been salt in the soil, this had probably been washed out, improving its condition.

It will start at a point southwest of Crooked Academy on Goldsboro, and will follow northward the new short spur freight line of the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad to the Leeburg-Sanford branch which it will then follow eastward to Mills Creek. The ditch will be of the open type and about five feet deep.

Due to the storm, said Commissioner O. E. Fountakis, two small bridges have been made unsafe to use. One of these is located near Sandlands Springs on the road leading to Forest City, and over the Little Wekiva River. The other is over a small creek near Altamonte Springs on the road to Sandlands Springs.

ITALIANS SETTLE IN BRAZIL
RIO DE JANEIRO.—(AP)—A group of 32 Pezera farmers have left Rio for Bahia state as advance guard for 500 families to come later.

They intend to set up farm colonies near Iturbi. The government of Bahia has agreed to furnish each family 50 hectares of land, three cows, one pig and some chickens.

T. Primo, agronomist in charge, said the plan is sponsored by a cooperative which pays for transportation from Italy and supplies the farmers with equipment and seeds.

Despite the crude surveying instrument of the 1750s, the Mason Dixon line was eventually found to be only 100 feet off.

Detroit Tigers Are Hot In Pursuit Of N. Y. Yankees In American League

DETROIT, Sept. 7.—(AP)—The resurgent Detroit Tigers were hot in pursuit of the pace-setting New York Yankees today in their bid to regain the lead in the American League pennant scramble.

Optimism among the Detroiters soared to a new high last night after they whipped the Cleveland Indians 5-3 to whittle the Yankees' lead to half a game.

Manager Red Rolfe explained it this way: "This wasn't just another ball game to us, but rather it was a test to prove to my players that they had shaken off the effects of our unhappy eastern road trip."

The Tiger manager referred to his club's last trip in which it dropped eight of 12 games and topped out of the league lead.

"We've still got a long way to go, though, and as far as I can see it's anybody's race," he added.

Those sentiments were echoed by Cleveland Manager Lou Brudreau, who was unhappy, but far from downhearted, as his fourth place Indians slipped 4 1/2 games off the pace.

"Nothing has hurt us a bit, but with luck we could start out of it and do ourselves a lot of good in the remaining weeks of this race," Brudreau said.

Brudreau's casualty list included Big Luke Easter, who missed last night's game because of a knee injury which forced the versatile Lou to fill in at Easter's first base spot.

The Detroiters had dreams of being back in first place by nightfall as they called on Art Houtteman (17-11) to pitch the Series windup, Bob Felley (13-10) was due to go for Cleveland.

The Tigers would take over the No. 1 spot by edging the Indians again today if New York continued by dropping another to Boston.

Nashville Poses Threat To Barons For Second Place

By HUGH SCHUTTE, Associated Press Sports Writer

The Nashville Vols, behind the starting hurling of Memphis cast-off Bob Schultz, are threatening to bump Birmingham's Barons from the Southern Association runner-up spot.

It's an impossibility for Nashville to overtake the front-running Atlanta Crackers, who have clinched at least a tie for the pennant. But the Vols are just a half-game back of the Barons and coming up fast.

Schutte won his 26th victory against just six losses last night when he blanked New Orleans, 1-0, on eight hits.

Aided by the Memphis Chick Atlanta lacked into the situation in which they lead by six games and have the game number 2 to play. A victory for the Crackers tonight or a loss for Birmingham will give the flag to the Georgians.

While the Crackers were dumping a doubleheader to Little Rock 3-2 and 6-3, the Chicks were blasting Birmingham twice, 5-2 and 11-2.

Mobile also won both ends of a twin bill, downing Chattanooga, 2-0 and 6-4.

The cellar-dwelling Travelers, who couldn't win a game in Atlanta this season, made their home record five out of eight in winning the two pitchers' duels.

Los Lombardi hurled a three-hitter to take the opener as the Pele drove Craker starter Don Lohle from the mound in the first inning. Walt Nohs gave up only two hits and no free passes in his seven-inning relief stint, but the Travelers were in front to stay.

Little Rock's Ed March and Art Fowler of the Crackers each gave up nine safeties in the afterpiece. The Chicks turned Birmingham's own weapon on the Barons in sweeping the windmill. Nick Eiten slammed a three-run homer in the first game to back up Charlie Culllar's first-hit nitching.

Alex Grammas, Bill Wilson, F. McEhee and Renee Kramel all had circuit stunts in the afterpiece to give Lefty Marx Rothblatt his 22nd victory of the season.

Right-hander Marion Fricano got credit for both Mobile victories. He beat the Lookouts' Norman Brown in the short onener and then relieved John Hall in the fifth inning of the afterpiece. Benny Taylor sewed up the second bear victory with a pair of homers.

Guard rails in farrowing houses will prevent many baby pigs from being crushed by their mothers.

Gator Squad Goes To Gym For Early Practice Session

GAINESVILLE, Sept. 7.—(P)—Fent-up energy of two full days is straining his legs, says the Florida Gator football team this morning as Coach Bob Woodruff planned to take the squad outdoors again if the weather gives any kind of break at all.

The hurricanes that beset Gainesville way Tuesday but turned back while sending high winds and heavy rain as ambassadors on the Gators into Florida's gymnasium for the past three practice periods.

It's hard to tell about football players on a gym floor," Woodruff said, "and we'll be on the field again Thursday if possible."

The sparseness of Florida's gymnasium has enabled the Gators to get jump work done, but particularly in the sphere of play assignments. Dummy scrimmage for both the offensive and defensive units have occupied two days now, and the accent will probably be on heavy bodily contact as the squad can take the field again.

Tentative defensive units for yesterday's dummy scrimmage drills had guards Jimmy Rawls and James Reeves, tackles Chris Laurad and Jack Wilcox, and ends Mike Kelley and Bob Flowers on one line. The other line used Bob Horton and Harford Knowles at the ends, Jack Pappas and Dwayne Douglas at tackles and Dick Peiry and Stanley Cain at guards.

DEATH TOLL, already over 6,000, continues to mount in India's province of Assam floods which followed the earthquake of August 15, the fifth most severe ever recorded. Figures like that in a village road (top) are often 6-feet deep. The quake made geological history, according to Dr. D. N. Wadia of the Indian government, by adding 198 feet to Mt. Everest (bottom, left). This peak in the Himalayas Mountains, already the highest point on earth, rose to 29,202 feet, says Dr. Wadia. Some geologists believe the Assam earthquake, which affected nearly 30,000 square miles, indicates that the Himalayan chain is gradually moving southward toward the plains of India. (International)

Rural Common Sense by SPUDS JOHNSON

GREAT NEED EXISTS FOR REDUCING ACCIDENTS ON FARMS OF THE COUNTRY

Agriculture has more accidental work deaths than any other major field of activity in the United States, according to the National Safety Council. This fact emphasizes the need for improved farm safety. Although the Agricultural Extension worker stresses farm safety, his advice too often goes unheeded because of the universal feeling that "it can't happen to me". However, facts prove the hazards of agricultural employment and rural living, so it is wise for the farmer to face these facts and endeavor to do something about them.

National Safety Council figures show there are more motor vehicle accident fatalities than any other type among farm people. In 1948, the last year for which complete figures are available, 6,500 farm residents lost their lives in this type of accident. In addition, 250,000 farm folks were injured and lost time from work.

House accidents are the next largest killer of farm people, with 6,000 being as a result of such accidents in 1948. This is an average of 22 deaths per 100,000 farmers.

Occupational carelessness is the third most important cause of farm accidents and kills more than 4,000 farm people annually. Fire tanks high on the list of killers, and one out of every three persons killed by fire is a farm resident. Besides the loss of life, farm property damaged annually in fire amounts to over $20,000,000.

There are just four of the many types of accidents that cost the nation's farmers millions in life, health and property.

Mrs. Darline Evans, 1612 Jefferson St., Kansas City, Mo., says she has made her family the happiest in the middle west.

It wasn't long ago when Mrs. Evans said she was very cross with her whole family but now her disposition has changed entirely. She started taking HADACOL after she found her system was deficient in Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin, and Iron.

Here is Mrs. Evans' own statement: "Before I started taking HADACOL I was very nervous and irritable—in fact, I made my family's life miserable. I was unable to sleep nights—I would just toss and turn all night. I had no appetite at all—eating food to me was just a chore. I know I was the most miserable person in Kansas City. Then I heard about HADACOL. I was able to test it. I have taken over 4 bottles of HADACOL. I have a wonderful energy and what is so absolutely marvelous is that I am content with HADACOL enough."

Many thousands of folks have been helped whose systems were deficient in Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin, and Iron. HADACOL can help you, too, if you suffer from stomach distress, nervousness, insomnia, aches and pains of neuritis, or a general run-down condition, caused by such deficiencies. Let HADACOL help you as it has helped others all over the country. Even hundreds of doctors are now recommending HADACOL to their patients suffering from such deficiencies.

That's the kind of product you want—that's the kind you should buy and that's the kind you should start taking NOW!

Give remarkable HADACOL a chance to benefit you. Remember, you have nothing to lose. HADACOL will make you feel great. After the first few bottles you take, or your money will be refunded. Only $1.25 for Trial size; Large Family or Hospital size, $3.50. 1950, The Lottner Corporation.

Truman Signs Bill To Help GI Families

Senator Lodge Calls For 30 U. S. Divisions By June 30; With 10 In Europe

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8.—(AP)—President Truman today signed a bill granting monthly allowances of $45 to $85 to enlisted servicemen to help care for their families. This is in addition to their regular pay.

To be eligible for these allowances the enlisted men will have to allot part of their pay to their families. These allotments will range from $40 to $80 monthly, depending on a man's pay grade. The allowances are retroactive to Aug. 1. It is estimated that from that date to June 30, 1951, the cost to the government will be about $300,000,000.

Enlisted men in the lower three pay grades will receive an allowance of $45 for one dependent. Those in the four higher pay grades will be allowed $67.50 for one dependent.

All seven pay grades will be granted $67.50 if they have two dependents. Likewise all grades will be allowed $85 if they have three or more dependents.

Meanwhile backers of an excess profits tax on corporations, blocked at least temporarily by the progress of the $4,500,000,000 general tax boosting bill.

This brought word from Chairman Doughton (D-NC) of the House Ways and Means Committee that such tactics might kill the tax bill.

Rep. Eberhardt (D-Pa) objected when Doughton sought unanimous consent of the House to send the bill to a conference committee of House and Senate members to smooth out the different versions of the tax bill passed by the two houses.

There is no chance to get an excess profits tax in this bill until judgment day," Doughton told newsmen later. "It is just delaying."

Mighty Hurricane Stalled 800 Miles Off Georgia Coast

MIAMI, Sept. 8.—(AP)—One of the mightiest hurricanes of the century probably wallowed a few miles westward from its stalled position 800 miles off the Georgia coast during the night.

The great storm is blocked by high pressure to the north. It seemed to be spreading out a bit and forecasters took this to mean it might be losing some force. The great winds whirled around the central eye at 100 to 140 miles an hour.

Its position places it only 200 miles southwest of the vacation Isle of Bermuda. A hurricane alert was in effect there.

Grady Norton, chief storm forecaster in the Miami Weather Bureau, said reports from ships and Bermuda during the night indicated the storm wallowed in a westerly direction. Norton said the movement was only a drift and did not indicate a change in direction.

Local Boys Enlist In U. S. Marines

George W. A. Lobb, 21, a former member of the Sanford Police Department, recently returned from the Marine Corps. He is a graduate of Seminole High School, and a former student at Alabama Polytechnic Institute at Auburn. He served as a Marine rifle coach and was a member of the Marine Corps Recruit Depot football team at Parris Island.

Pfc. Luther M. David, Sr., 610 West First Street has enrolled in the Volunteer Marine Corps Reserve, M. Sgt. Walt Swindell, 1018C, Jacksonville, reported today. Mr. David is a local postman.

SLOW DOWN

OAKLAND, Calif., Sept. 8.—(AP)—The law means business here when it says "slow down for school children."

A total of 518 motorists were given traffic citations in the two days since school opened Wednesday.

U. S. DEFENSE

MOSCOW, Sept. 8.—(AP)—Inventia asserted today that the United States was retreating all of Canada, Greenland and Iceland under the pretext of North American defense.

The Soviet government newspaper claimed the United States had more than 500 airplanes of varying sizes in Alaska, two on the northern coast of Labrador and Newfoundland, 10 military plane bases in Canada, six in Greenland, and one in Iceland.

FESTIVAL OF THE FLOATS moving down Atlantic City's famed Boardwalk inaugurates the race for the nationally coveted title of "Miss America of 1950." After this public presentation of the fifty-four contestants, the judges now take over the annual pageant. (International Soundphoto)

Alabama And South Dakota Girls Score In Miss America Contest

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Sept. 8.—(AP)—Misses South Dakota and Alabama have been added to the preliminary contest winners in the Miss America pageant.

That means that in their respective groups of 18 girls each, they scored the largest number of points toward getting into the Saturday night finals. Fifteen of the 54 girls will compete Saturday night for the title of Miss America 1951.

Jaycees Oppose More Power For Highway Patrol

The Sanford Jaycees came out flatly yesterday against a proposed increase of police powers of the State Highway Patrol, which, as Volie Williams, Jr., put it, "would reduce the rank of sheriff to that of mere process server."

This action, following the presentation of a resolution by Mr. Williams to that effect, was reported to be the exact opposite to that of the Bradenton Jaycees who favored such increase of state police powers.

Among those who voiced vigorous opposition to extending more power to the highway patrolmen was County Judge Douglas Stenstrom.

Reds Make Sneak Move To Admit Communist China To UN Council

By STANLEY JOHNSON

LAKE SUCCESS, Sept. 8.—(AP)—Russia, stepped down in an attempt to get the United Nations Security Council to condemn "barbaric" U. S. Air Force bombing in Korea, prepared today to try and sneak Communist China through the U. N. back door.

A regular meeting of the council was held, and plans were discussed for the 25th anniversary of its founding. This will be observed on Oct. 24 at the San Ork Club. Local chapter members, various prominent Lion officials and members of neighboring Lions Clubs will be invited. A floor show is planned.

DEATH TO SPIES

BUENOS AIRES, Sept. 8.—(AP)—The Argentine chamber of deputies approved today an anti-spy bill providing the death penalty during wartime for spies and saboteurs. The measure now goes to the senate.

PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE

RED BAY, Ala., Sept. 8.—(AP)—Bishop Homer A. Tomlinson, general overseer for the Church of God (New York headquarters), today announced he will be a candidate for president of the United States in 1952. He said the government needed "a man of God" as its head.

He made the announcement at the 48th general assembly of the church in session here, proclaiming a "holy war" against Communism.

Marine League Asks Ouster Of Johnson

Similar Resolution On Acheson Is Defeated By Veterans; Asks Red Clean-Out

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8.—(AP)—The Marine Corps League today demanded the ouster of Secretary of Defense Johnson, but defeated a similar proposal that Secretary of State Acheson be fired.

The Johnson resolution asked President Truman to replace the Defense Department chief "with a competent and far-sighted statesman."

The organization of Marine veterans also adopted resolutions urging:

1. That the President "take immediate and drastic action to oust every known Communist sympathizer,unist and fellow traveler from the State Department or any other department or government office where they may be found."
2. That Congress pass legislation providing for membership of the commandant of the Marine Corps on the joint chiefs of staff.

The resolution asking the discharge of Secretary Johnson passed with only one dissenting vote—that of retired Brig. General Robert C. Kilmartin, of Washington.

When the resolution proposing Secretary Acheson's removal was submitted, Kilmartin gained the floor to remain in the league that "President Truman asked our support and we ought to give it."

Explaining that he had wished to speak before the Johnson resolution, Kilmartin said:

C. Of C. Discusses Help In Placement Of Area Contracts

Plans to aid the government in the placement of contracts were discussed Friday night by a committee of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce at a meeting with C. Mulhead, field manager from the Jacksonville office of the U. S. Department of Commerce, Lea R. Lecher, assistant chamber of commerce manager, announced today.

In order to simplify operation by the committee in the placement of the contracts as a contribution to the war effort, Mr. Mulhead explained how to use the "Consolidate synopsis of Department Defense and General Services Administration Procurement Information."

This synopsis lists what quantity and type of materials are

Shriners Parade In Meeting Held In New Orleans

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 8.—(AP)—Over 5,000 Shriner members paraded in New Orleans last night to the tune of oriental music and Danland jazz, blasting cannons and waving scarves.

The Nobles of town in number estimated about 15,000 as delegates to the 10th annual southeastern Shrine Association Convention. With their merry-making, the Crescent City took on a carnival atmosphere almost like Mardi Gras.

Dr. Potat Urges Increase In Crippled Children's Help

Following a hearing conducted by State Attorney Robert Greig this morning into the circumstances of the fatal shooting of James Pote, 11-year-old Negro, at the home of Sally Mae Baker, Negro, in Midway Sunday night, the Negro was ordered by Judge Douglas Stenstrom to be held for further action by the state. Bond was set at $5,000.

The Negro, who had been arrested on a warrant charging the fatal shooting, was represented by W. W. Spencer, Jr., son of James Pote, testified that the son had been on the door of his home at about midnight, and then entered it. He heard two shots fired in the living room, and then saw the body of his son lying on the floor. He testified that the body had been turned over to the sheriff's office.

The possibility that the boy had been shot by a neighbor, who had been in the area at the time, was also mentioned. The boy's father, James Pote, testified that he had been in the area at the time of the shooting.

Many Motorists Fail To Obtain Licenses

Yesterday, 367 drivers licenses were sold at the office of County Judge Douglas Stenstrom. This makes the total of 1,040 sold to date. Last year, the total sold was 11,260 in Seminole County.

On this basis, 10,260 motorists have not yet secured the 1951 licenses, and those who put it off too long, will probably have to get a new license. At present two extra checks, Mrs. Charles Bowen, and Mrs. C. A. Shriner, are assisting Mrs. R. P. Fowler with the sales which are being made in the hallway.

Oct. 1 is the deadline for securing the licenses which remain at 11 for operators and 12 for chauffeurs.

Psychologist Advocates Mental Check For Middle Aged Persons

By FRANK CAREY

Associated Press Science Reporter

STATE COLLEGE, Pa., Sept. 8.—(AP)—The "rate of the world depends" on expansion of the science of treating people from middle age on—particularly along psychological lines, a New York psychologist said today.

It is particularly important, said Dr. George Lawton, that psychological and mental hygiene services be made widely available to and used by middle-aged and elderly people who hold positions of power in government, education, labor and industry.

But it is also important that such services be available for and used by all persons in the second half of life—not only to help them live well-adjusted lives but to offset any damaging emotional effects they might have upon children in their midst in case the older persons themselves need guidance.

In a report to the American Psychological Association's annual meeting on the campus of the Pennsylvania State College, Lewton said:

"In nearly all our institutions—government, industry, education—policy is initiated and controlled by individuals in the middle and older age range. It is these individuals who are available to middle-aged and older men and women through community health centers."

Bond was set at $5,000.

Spencer, Jr., son of James Pote, testified that the son had been on the door of his home at about midnight, and then entered it. He heard two shots fired in the living room, and then saw the body of his son lying on the floor. He testified that the body had been turned over to the sheriff's office.

The possibility that the boy had been shot by a neighbor, who had been in the area at the time, was also mentioned. The boy's father, James Pote, testified that he had been in the area at the time of the shooting.
