From the early days of the village it has been customary for the neighbors to contribute a community wreath upon the death of a resident. Around the stove in the general store this morning the question came up and at once a subscription list was placed in cir-culation. Several thought the humble tribute might not be fitting, in the case of a father of the President, but they were quickly overruled.

"It's been done for everybody else, so why not for John Coolidge?" was the response that clinched the argument. Aside from a knot of crope on the door of the Coolidge home and the drawn blinds of the parlor in which the Colonel's body lay, Plymouth's only outward sign of mourning was the halfmarted flag on the schoolhouse. The flagstaff was presented to

Col. Coolidge a year ago by the Massachusetts Sons of the American Revolution. It was on the state house in Boston while the Colonel's son was governor of

About the only thing that Gran-daddy does need is a new coat. But when he's ready to go to the Land-Where-Spring-Is-Coming, he does need that badly. I am sure if you had to hide deep down in the mud at the bottom of the pond and atay there all winter to keep from freezing, you'd need a new coat too, by spring.

But Rubadub, the fairyman of Scrub-Up Land, doesn't even have to find a new coat for him. Mind you—the old frog gentlemen gets it himself! He doesn't buy it, or steal it, or find it, or borrow it, either. He grows it, right on his

He just peels his muddy brown wrinkled coat right off his back and there's a new one underneath, as fresh and green as new grassand a new white waistcoat also, right up to his chin.

But this year there had been a rusty spot on Grandaddy's new coat. He rubbed it and scraped it with his finger, and did everything he could, but it wouldn't budge.

So he had hopped into Scrub-Up

To The Ladies

Much of Sanford's moral and material welfare is directly attributable to the progressive spirit of its women, and the functioning of its Woman's Club which has, in recent years, extended its field of operations to share matters political. educational and civic with bridge luncheons, receptions and the usual social frivolities which constitute in many cities the full program of similar organizations.

The dawning of each day brings a greater realization of the many really worthwhile things that Sanford women are bringing to their city. The Woman's Club is an active community asset, its members are women with a vision crystalized into an objective, women with brains and foresight who assembly at Geneva will hardly are eminently worthy to stand side by side with the stronger maintain peace among nations sex in the building of this city.

The essentially feminine quality that led some harrassed scribe to write "persistency, thy name is women" is what is needed in civic life today. Too often masculine legislators are content to have some really worthwhile bill tabled or loss amid a sea of red tape. Not so with the woman in bad for business, Japanese and public life. With the relentlessness and fearlessness that characterizes the sex, she pushes through to a successful conclusion any measure that she deems worthy and advisable. The good influence of women is felt in every department The good influence of women is felt in every department of Sanford's civic administration. There are women on our playground committee, beautification committee, city planning commission, in fact on nearly every committee respon-

Sanford owes a debt to its women that cannot be easily paid, for it is a debt contracted for benefits not measurable in dollars and cents. The city's freedom from crime, our excellent sanitary conditions, the absence of slums and dis-of a schooner sunk in a few fathorderly houses, the beautification program that is making oms of water on its way from the our streets comparable with those of any Florida city, our Australian gold fields with $10,advanced educational conditions, our well appointed playgrounds; these are only a few of the material things that women have given to Sanford.

perintending the final grading of the track and the work on the approach to the grounds. Wednesday the deep sand in the immediate the deep sand in the deep manent stands are to be erected was a hindrance to visitors, but

Friends of the association are congratulating the officials on the progress made on the construction of the project. Work was started last November and the amount of money expended in the development is said to total over $1,000,.

Track In Good Shape
The track itse's is in good shape for the first race. A solid base of clay and sand has been combin-ed to make the footing the best possible for a distance of 30 feet from the inside rail. On the out-side rail, clay is being added this

The stables now contain about 150 horses, according to racing secretary Ed Knabelkamp, and approximately 250 more are said to be enroute, among them being the good colt, Boon Companion.
The meeting is to actually get underway with the running of the Inaugural Handicap, for three year olds and up, for a purse of $1,-500. Some of the best horses in the south are expected to be entered in this event.

The purses for the 19 day meet are to total at least $75,000, according to the officials. There are to be seven races each day and the lowest purse for any race is $1,-

Mondays and Fridays are to be officially known as "Ladies Days." when all women are to be admitted free of charge.

Secretary Steinmetz stated yesterday that at least one mid-week and one Saturday feature would be run each week.

The general admission will be $2.20, with an additional 10 cents being charged this reason for clubhouse privileges. The added fee for the clubhouse is expected to be donated to Seminole county charity work.

Officials Ontimistic In commenting on the prospects for the season, and also for next year, Mr. Stellinger said, "we know that our venture is of such magni-tude as to prohibit a profit for the enext two years, but we firmly be-lieve in the upbuilding of the coun-ty-end in the stability of our inty and in the stability of our investment to such an extent that we are willing to take the chance of operating with a luse for the time being. We believe that when the work here is complete, we will have the most brautiful racetrack in the United States."

The mile track surrounds two lares lakes the banks of which cless flows from a gentle elevation which envelops the entire grounds. Thus of the association or the beautifying of the enclosure are to be put in operation immediately tollowing the close of the first meeting, Mr. Siteinmetz stated.

READ THESE TRUTHS ABOUT A "REAL FLORIDA" CITY

A day-by-day story of a Florida community that we believe will show more comparative progress in the next five years than any other city in the state.

THIS IS NO. 11

'Binder Boys' Have Never Operated in Sanford

Property values in Sanford and the surrounding country are not inflated. The transient speculator of the "binder boy" type has not been encouraged there. Consequently, values are substantial and offer an opportunity for splendid enhancement as the community grows.

Sanford has tangible assets for the healthy condition of its real estate market. It has a rich agricultural background with the largest celery production in the world. It has Lake Monroe and an all-water route to Jacksonville and the sea via St. Johns River, effecting lower freight rates for the Solid Central Section of the State and pointing to potential possibilities that Cannot be computed. It has good roads and mainline railroad service. It has tourist attractions and a great new tourist hotel.

Sanford has another asset, which, although not measured in terms of dollars and cents, contributes more to its forward drive-and that is the progressive, cooperative spirit of its citizenship.

Sanford is seeking legitimate investors. Preferably those who will become morally as well as financially interested in the further development of "The City Substantial."

At Sanford are inexpensive homes and homesites, farms, acreage, business and industrial locations. Municipally owned utilities. Forty-seven miles of paved streets. Three banks. Modern schools, and churches of all demoninations.

New Forrest Lake Tourist Hotel. Eigteen-hole golf course. Fishing, hunting, water sports. Other recreational facilities of the type that has brought Sanford's Claim of Potential Values

Set forth in a series of fourteen advertisements in this newspaper, in which the Story of Sanford, the City Substantial, is being told, and by which you will be shown that Sanford NOW has every assential for a great city.

—why Eanford values are uninflated and why invest-ments are strictly income earning and not speculative. You'll see, for instance, an $5,000,000 record celery crop being harvested. You'll see a city fronting on a magnificent lake, head of navigation on the St. Johns Rivar afforded cheaper transportation by all-water route to principal Eastern seaports; $400,000 municipal pier and bonded ware-house to be built. Florida.
You'll see, too, the new half-million-dollar Forrest Lake Tourist Hotel.
You'll see property values like those you are accustomed to up North and you will be convinced, as others have become, that today, Sanford offers the same opportunity as St. Petersburg, Miami, Orlando and Daytona offered ten years ago.

They ran out, lather and all. The wintry winds froze the lather to their faces.

Albert Crockett, of the Waldorf-Astoria, tells me this one: A man, stepping up to the desk to register, was handed a pen. "Since when dld you start handing out fountain pens?" he asked, playfully putting the pen in his vest pocket.

"Say, look out!" warned the clork. "Look at your pocket."

A large black spot had appeared. It seems that the hotel has installed a trick, self-filling pen. It seems, also, that a large percentnge of guests who dip desk pens in the ink wells leave a blot on the register. The new trick pen 29x4.40 makes no blot. Othere's an Opportunity

FOR A SUCCESSFUL LOCAL BUSINESS MAN TO FORM A MOST DESIRABLE and profitable CONNECTION

PAIGE $149

THERE is some one man in this community to whom this advertisement will present a real opportunity an opportunity to establish a business of his own, a business that will grow rapidly and surely.

Some man who feels that his present business opportunities are limited-or some real salesman (automobile or otherwise) who realizes that he could make more money and have more satisfaction working for himself than for someone else. Some progressive real estate broker, banker or merchant—these are the types of men to whom this opportunity should particularly appeal

You need not now be in the automobile business. If you have initiative, ambition and some capital, you'll be interested in this opportunity no matter what your present occupation or business is.

About capital - many of the most successful dealers in our widespread organization began business with less than $5,000. Today they are established, successful, and prosperous. The liberal terms of the new Paige finance plan make it no longer necessary for Paige dealers to tie up all their capital in inventory.

This city is one of the very few in the entire United States where this opportunity is still open. And it will not remain open here very long. Because there is seldom offered anywhere, these days, a connection with an organization so well established, so well financed, so well managed and so successful as the Paige-Detroit Motor Car Company.

Consider this: Paige has enjoyed 17 years of uninterrupted success-it has never been reorganized nor refinanced-it is directed today by the same men who founded the business-it had (Sept. 30, 1925) gross assets of $18,325,000 and cash resources of $6,137,659it owns a new plant that is generally regarded finest in all the industry—it has already invested more than $20,000,000 in advertising its cars, and has set aside some $3,250,000 for this same purpose in 1926.

Surely, here's a real opportunity! And somewhere in this city is a man keen enough to grasp it and big enough to make of it a mighty successful and profitable business of his own. If you are that man, we're anxious to hear from you at once.

Neither the Kresge's nor their attorneys would discuss the matter, nor could the exact terms of the financial settlement be learned. Various estimates placed it in the neighborhood of $1,000,000.

Aunouncements of final disposition of the suit came yesterday during the third postponement of the trial granted since the trial started.

Max D. Steuer, attorney for Mr.

rry Funerberg; Kresge, while refusing to divulge the terms of the settlement, said that a transfer of the stock was not included in the agreement.

PLYMOUTH, Vt., Mar. 20.—(A)—With utmost simplicity, funeral services were held today for Col. John C. Coolidge, father of the President, in the white Vermont farmhouse which was his home. PLYMOUTH, Vt., Mar. 20.

(A)—This little Green Mountain village, in which Col.

John C. Coolidge lived died, set aside its ordinary business today to bury its first citizen. In the adjoining town of Woodstock, the President of the United States, a son grieving for his father, waited to pay a final tribute of love.
