2 Pelo Ponies Die In Plane Accident

MITCHELL FIELD, N. Y., June 8. (INS)—Two pole ponies were the only casuatties today when the wings of an army plane crumpled 1500 feet above Mitchel Field, the plane crashing through the mof of a stable while two pilots drifted safely down with parachutes. The plane, a new Curtiss P-11, was being tested by Lieuts. Maxwell Halfour and J. A. Me-Cormack, Cause of the accident is unknown. One of the ponies killed was "Gay Boy" which took part in the international polo games last year.

Brother love - a theme of uniersal appeal-provides the background for "The Forbidden Woman," Jetta Goudal's new Pathe-De Mille special star picture which that Curtis, who has been rather will be on view at the Milane Theatre today.

Adapted by Clara Beranger from Elmer Harris' virile original, "Brothers," "The Forbidden Woman" was filmed with an all-European chat. It brings to the screen the story of a siren spy in the service of Morocco, and her love for two men. Jetta Goudal, in the title role, enters a loveless marriage with a French colonal, portrryed by Victor Varconi, as a means of obtaining secret information, Later she falls desperately in love with her husband's brother, played by Joseph Schild-
