By South Lake
Mr. and Mrs. Stonewall Jackson Holder of Holder's Cottage on Lake Irene in Longwood, celebrated their 64th wedding anniversary recently.

The Holders met and married in Dayton, Tenn., where he worked on the railroad. In 1925 they moved to Alton, Ohio, where she was one of the 12 charter members of the Alton Baptist Temple which now has a membership of 27-28 persons.

Here since 1945, the Holders attend the First Baptist Church of Longwood. Mrs. Holder is a member of the Women's Missionary Union there and is justly proud of the fact that she has missed church only three Sundays during the past 27 years.

She enjoys flower gardening as a hobby and both Mr. and Mrs. Holder attribute their long and happy life to the fact that they are vegetarians, drink plenty of Florida orange juice, sleep 13 hours every night and rest their eyes for one hour each afternoon.

The couple has five living children, John C., George M.

and Mrs. Norman C. Capper, Alton and Mrs. Francis (Hess) Wolbert of Orlando. They have 14 grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

Lake Monroe Jottings . . .

Hello again. How's the world treating you these days? I declare it surely feels like fall is in the air. So nippy of a morning and in a short time its hot. . . . Happy birthday to James Carroll. He says he is sixteen and never been MISSED. . . . Have you visited the Highway 46 antique shop on W. First St.? Gee the things to be found there. Very old woodstove, handcarved chairs, dishes galore, well just everything that makes up an antique shop is there. Go out sometime. It would be worth your while. . . . Well the band goes to Winter Park tonight to the football game. Wonder what Mr. Cowley has worked up for the Band to do this time? They had a wonderful half time program last Friday here during the game between Sanford and Seabreeze. . . . Of course Grace Edwards and I are ready to go with them. They have been asked to march in the Christmas parade at Titusville and DeLand. Isn't that nice? . . . Hope you will go to see the High School Glee Club in their forthcoming program on the 30th. I hear that it is really going to be good. I know that I am planning on going. . . . H. D. Members don't forget Craft Night tonight at Olga Hunters. They will probably be home by the time this goes to press. They went to bring home Mable's uncle who has been out west visiting. . . . Mrs. H. A. Robert Lee, who is in Navy and by the way has only two more years to go, came in from his ship as it was docked in Jacksonville to pick up some more servicemen and then go on down the coast to Puerto Rico for a cruise. They started from Virginia. Lucille said that was the first time she had seen her brother in two years, and was certainly glad to see him. I bet she was. . . . Terry Collins, son of Virginia and Teddy Collins is stationed at Lackland Air Force Base in Texas. That is where Bill Phagen is also. We received a letter from him the other day. Bill must be getting the Herald there as he mentioned the Jottings in the paper. Hi Bill. . . . Also had a letter from Grace Thurston who now resides at Brandon very near Tampa. She says that she gets the Herald and reads it from cover to cover but really enjoying the Thursday edition better. She also says that there are several Sanfordites now living near her. Two of them are the Robert Parters. She says Hi to everyone. . . . Claude and Rena Hawkins have had company the past weekend. The Bob Gildeweils of Greenboro, S. Did you attend the Community Meeting held at the Monroe School by the PTO in regards to the starting of a fire department out here? Harvey Pugh, Ed Zimmerman from Lake Mary and Darwin Bruce and Ed Healy from DeBary told of their volunteer fire departments. Mr. Ruby will look into further particulars for the one out here. . . . Little J.U. Lee had the misfortune of breaking his right arm last week. The accident occurred at home. Gert said he is doing fine. . . . Mr. and Mrs. Paul Dennis have had as their house guests Mrs. Bob Gray and sons of Crescent City. . . . Rev. Leon Dean is the new pastor of the Paola Wesleyan Methodist Church. . . . Mrs. Dean is teaching at the Monroe school. They have a daughter Pamela. Glad to welcome them to the neighborhood. . . . Woodrow and Agnes Burned and boys will be leaving us come Monday. Woodrow will be stationed in Springfield, Mass. We will certainly miss them very much. . . . Our thought this week was given to me by Mrs. P. J. Allen and is called Complaint: Impatient people water their miseries and hoe up their comforts; sorrows are visitors that come without invitation, and complaining minds send a wagon to bring their troubles home in. The author is Spurgeon.

Former Church Trustee Gives Statement On Hearing

C. W. Mullins, instigator of a suit to establish his legal rights as trustee of the Altamonte Springs First Baptist Church against Rev. Lewis D. Haines, pastor of the church, today issued a statement pointing out that last week's decision handed down by Judge Valle Williams Jr. had nothing to do with charges originally brought against the minister and in no way cleared him of misconduct charges presented before a meeting of the church in July.

"Last week's hearing had only to do with settling aside a former ruling after I failed to take active part in the affair," Mullins said.

"As to the guilt or innocence of Haines," Mullins said, "charges stemming from actions of the minister last February and of his arrest for these actions are still on record in the Maliland Police Dept."

"All interested persons are invited to attend the lectures."

Mullins went on to say that "as trustee of the church I have never been consulted about any affairs of the church or money spent even though I was supposed to okay any and all transactions that were carried on since Haines' arrest."

"I quit attending church in Altamonte Springs and asked our attorney to request that the restraining order in my favor be dissolved by Judge Williams which was done on Oct. 9, 1952."

"Regarding the statement made by H. R. Hamby that if we had taken the effort to learn the truth as it occurred instead of passing opinion on public reports that supposedly took place, we know of no other records that could be more exact than those in the Maliland Police Station."

"As long as James Spencer, C. W. Mullins, Clifford Smith, Leslie T. Bryan and Robert Bradford were trustees and Mrs. Don Harris the treasurer, we never failed to make our payments on the church and we had the respect of the community."

"We voted Mr. Haines out of that church, we gave him proper notice of 60 days and 'they' have refused to recognize this as a business meeting."

"Another hearing held last Thursday dealt with notes that Mrs. Grace Bradford and Bryan hold against the church. Present at the hearing, other than the attorneys, were Thomas W. Sotherland Jr., Hamby, Bryan and Mrs. Bradford."

"At that time, Judge Williams indicated that he would enter judgments on behalf of Mrs. Bradford and Bryan against the First Baptist Church of Altamonte Springs for the money they loaned to the church in August of 1949," Mullins said.

Mrs. Bradford and Bryan each loaned the church $2,500 in 1958 in order to enable the church to proceed with building of its first unit.

Where Is Super-Carrier? Enterprise?

The Defense Department today announced "cancellation" of an amphibious maneuver in which more than 6,000 Marines were to have landed at Vieques Island near Puerto Rico Tuesday.

The Navy today refused to explain the exact whereabouts of the newest super-carrier, the nuclear-powered Enterprise with some 400 men from the Sanford Naval Air Station aboard.

The giant ship put out from Norfolk, Va. last Thursday. Reporters flying to Puerto Rico Sunday sighted it steaming south in the Atlantic. The big carrier was not originally listed as among the vessels assigned to this exercise.

It was also reported the Navy abruptly canceled a tour by newsmen aboard warships today amid mounting speculation that Navy-Marine maneuvers in the area were somehow linked with the Cuban situation.

The official explanation given was that the ships assembling in the area for scheduled maneuvers did not get close enough to this naval base on the southeast coast of Puerto Rico to permit the air transport of reporters to the vessels.

Also canceled was a scheduled morning press conference with Vice Adm. Horacio Rivero, commander of the amphibious exercise, aboard the flagship Mt. McKinley.

The maneuvers involve a force of about 20,000 men and 60 ships, including an estimated 6,000 battle-ready Marines. The Marines were due to storm ashore in a mock amphibious assault on the small island of Vieques.

Navy officials insisted the landing will be carried through as scheduled Tuesday. They said it had been planned for some time and in no way involved Cuba.

"We won't talk about Cuba, politically or military," one official said.

There was a private conference at the Capri at noon last Friday between three members of the county school board and the majority of the City Commission.

The result: an unofficial okay to kill the lease agreement between the school board and city and start charging a 10-cent tax on each ticket. . . . Next step will be a conference between attorneys on legality.

The Seminole Jaycees in their game at DeLand last Thursday piled up a new record for points made by a Warrior JV grid squad in a season. The former record was 150, the current one now is 163—and with a game to be played tomorrow at 7:30 p. m. at Memorial stadium!

The Winter Park Wildcats were "up" for their Homecoming adversaries from Sanford—than whom there is none they'd rather trounce . . . Apparently our lads thought it was "just another ball game" . . . Speaking of Seminole High football . . . There is a fine spirit on the ENTIRE squad . . . The Varsity goes to the Jaycee games, supports the team with yells and wholesome regard for their ability . . . Ditto the Jaycees for the Varsity . . . They play like arch enemies against each other in scrimmages, though . . . Maybe that is what gives them the respect one for the other! ! !

Lake Monroe Man Held In Murder

James DeLoach, 45, of Lake Monroe, is being held without bond in the County Jail on a first degree murder charge in the death of Hillman Behrens, 49, also of Lake Monroe. DeLoach admitted to stabbing Behrens to death Saturday, according to Sheriff's Department officials.

Four Mishaps Mar Weekend Traffic Mark

Four minor accidents marred the local traffic scene over the weekend.

Friday night a car driven by Jack D. Parker, 25, McCoy AFB, overturned when Parker went into the exit ramp from I-4 leading to SR 46, at an excessive speed, and his car overturned. He was accompanied by his wife and daughter, but no injuries were reported, according to Trooper Jim Chambers.

Trooper Jim Chambers reported a motor accident at 8:15 a. m. Sunday when a small sports car, driven by Thomas Bergstrom, 22, SNAS, was knocked into another car, driven by Raymond F. Gleason, SNAS, when a third vehicle, driven by Robert Adams, 21, also of SNAS tried to pass Gleason's car after the three had emerged from Big Tree Road and headed south on Hwy. 17-92.

Sunday night, William Befosse, 54, address unknown, driving a small camper-type truck, with a Washington state license, holding a California driver's permit, and headed for Winter Haven, struck a car driven by Robert Crane, 68, Fern Park when he attempted to get between Crane's vehicle and an unidentified car. Befosse was held on charges of driving while intoxicated and is now in the county jail.

Hunt On For Storm Survivors

ROERVIK, Norway (UPI)—Norwegian rescue teams, hampered by rain and heavy winds, today pulled survivors and bodies from the storm-lashed seas where a coastal vessel with nearly 100 persons aboard went aground and apparently sank during the night.

A Navy spokesman, Cmdr. Dahl Johansen, said 48 survivors and eight bodies were brought ashore. Unconfirmed reports said three more survivors had been picked up, and several others sighted on small islands near the disaster area. Another report said 12 more bodies had been seen floating in the sea.

It was not immediately possible to determine the number of persons still missing from the 3,173-ton Sanct Spirit, which was believed carrying about 45 passengers and 45 crewmen.

A spokesman for the ship's owners, the Norwegian shipping firm Stavangerbakk Dampskibsselskap, said it was not known how many persons were aboard the ship. He said some of the survivors reached land in five lifeboats.

The Sanct Spirit apparently hit a reef off the rugged northern coast of Norway shortly before midnight as it battled a storm in the narrow strait between the mainland and Vikna Island, where Roerвик is located.

A search of nearby islands and fjords got under way at daylight, but heavy rain made visibility very poor.

Early today a Catalina search plane of the Norwegian air force reported sighting wreckage, mailbags and luggage from the missing vessel.

Chinese Troops, Tanks Open New Onslaught Against India

NEW DELHI (UPI)—Chinese communist troops opened up a new front today in the undeclared border war with India and threw tanks into action in another sector of the embattled frontier, the Indian government said.

The government said the Communist forces launched a new "vigorous attack" this morning at Kibitso, on the eastern tip of the border, more than 100 miles from any previous reported fighting.

It said that tanks were brought in to crush an outpost in Ladakh, on the north-west sector in northern Kashmir, after the Indian post had earlier driven off Chinese artillery and infantry attacks.

It was the first time tanks had been reported employed in the border war that raged for the third consecutive day today between the world's two most populous nations.

An official Indian military spokesman said that eight Indian posts had been overwhelmed by advancing Chinese forces in Ladakh, and that seven more outpost units "had fallen back to regroup."

The Indian government report coincided with a Chinese Communist claim that its troops had captured at least four more Indian border points in their drive southward.

A New China News Agency broadcast monitored in Tokyo said that Chinese troops had "recovered Chipu, Jichang, Changto, the Hatung pass and other places" along the Sino-Indian border.

The Communist Sunday report also said that at least seven other Indian posts in the frontier conflict that threatened to engulf the little Himalayan state of Bhutan.

Peiping Radio reported the Indians had launched a "violent" counter-attack early today at the extreme eastern end of the border after a weekend of losses.

Worried Indian government officials, struggling with the massive problems of getting reinforcements and supplies into battle areas two and three miles high, were preparing for the possibility of a major war with their giant communist neighbor.

"From the way they (the Chinese) are going, there's no limit to where they may go," Defense Minister V. K. Krishna Menon told newsmen Sunday.

The Chinese communists claimed the capture of seven more Indian outposts on the Tibetan border Sunday, and Indian sources admitted the Chinese had advanced as much as five miles since the battle started Saturday.

Indian newspapers, and even Krishna Menon, referred to the fighting as a "war." The Indian Express, this country's largest circulation newspaper, demanded that relations with communist China be broken off.

Wright Murder Trial Date To Be Set Soon

State's Attorney Arthur Steel is expected to set a trial date the first week in November for Mrs. Christine Wright charged with second degree murder in the death of her husband April 14.

In May a Seminole County grand jury returned a true bill indicting Mrs. Wright for the murder of her husband, Virgil James Wright.

The offense which carries a 20-year to life penalty, was defined in the bill as "envenoming a depraved mind and as being without premeditated design."

Wright was found at the back of his home in Sanford lying in a flower bed, shot in the face. His wife told deputies she called the police twice, once without giving an address and then again giving the location of the home.

JFK Summons Congress Leaders On Policy Move

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Kennedy summoned some top congressional leaders back to Washington today amid reports that a new U. S. foreign policy move was in the making.

There were many indications that a crisis had developed.

The White House had no immediate comment, but all signs pointed to a clarifying statement within a matter of hours.

Senate GOP Leader Everett M. Dirksen, R-Ill., was one of those summoned back to Washington by the President.

An aide said in Chicago that "the senator was told at 8:45 a. m. that the President was sending a jet plane here to pick him up for the return to Washington. I understand he talked to the President directly."

The aide said that a similar summons had been issued to Leslie Arends, House Republican whip, who also is campaigning in Illinois.

County Board To Talk Fate Of Drag Racing, Air Strip

Top subject on the agenda for the County Commission meeting Tuesday will be the matter of the Osceola Air Strip and its future uses, according to Commission Chairman General J. C. Hutchinson.

The board will be asked to make a decision on which of the three possible courses will be taken for the 1,150 acre airstrip. The FAA indicated several weeks ago the county would have to make up its mind as to whether the strip would be closed completely, kept partially open or reserved wholly to use by aircraft.

There will also be a discussion of the suggested priority list for county roads, submitted a month ago by County Engineer Bill Bush.

Also on the program for the meeting will be a discussion of a letter from the County Courthouse Committee on space for an office for the administrative assistant included in the budget for the coming year. The committee's recommendation is that space be rented outside the courthouse.

The appointment of a Board of Adjustment and Appeals to the Building Code will be talked over by the commission and some action may be taken. The board will be made up of experts in the building field competent to judge on the permissibility of variations in the building code used by the County Zoning Board.

Big Question

The future use of Osceola Air Strip by the Seminole County Timing Association, depends on a number of legal questions, among them being the degree of liability that attaches to the county in the event of an accident or injury while the timing group is using the strip, said County Attorney Harold Johnson today.

The matter will be thoroughly aired at the County Commission meeting Tuesday, and is certain to arouse some debate on whether or not the county can retain the air space and still permit the controlled non-air use, said Johnson.

The attorney feels the county should protect its interest in the property as an air strip. In the event the need for such use arises. The question now is to determine the county's degree of liability, in view of its partial financial interest in the air strip, if it is used by an outside activity.

The question is not whether the timing association should be permitted to use the airport for its activity but whether or not the future use of an air strip will be endangered by non-air uses.

Stolen Bank Car Recovered

Two young men in their late teens, who stole a car belonging to the Sanford Atlantic Bank Friday afternoon, have been apprehended in Fort Pierce.

The car was parked in front of the bank on First St.

Benjamin F. Dimore and William Harold White are being held in the county jail in Fort Pierce, awaiting Sheriff's deputies from Seminole County, who will pick them up and return them here sometime today.

Dimore is from Sanford, the Sheriff's office reported and they are continuing investigation on both men. They were captured Saturday after an all-points alert was issued Friday following the discovery of the theft by bank officials.

11 Killed

MIAMI (UPI)—At least 11 persons, including four elderly men, were killed this weekend in traffic accidents. And an accident before dawn today took the life of William Stephens Brown, 20, of Tampa, a sailor whose car collided with a tractor-trailer truck two miles south of Lebanon Station.

Brinkley New 'Expose' Rapped

Federal Highway Administrator Rex M. Whitton today challenged television newsmen David Brinkley to produce evidence to support his allegations of widespread irregularities in the Federal-aid highway system.

Whitton also sent a telegram to David Sarnoff, president of National Broadcasting Company, protesting that "a completely distorted picture of the Federal-aid highway program" had been painted by the newsmen.

Whitton called on Brinkley to prove the charge made in the season's opener of "David Brinkley's Journal" Monday night that thievery on the Interstate Highway System has cost taxpayers $1.6 billion, or $100,000 a mile. The administrator categorically denied this.

Whitton said a point-by-point check of Brinkley's charges while not yet completed has disclosed thus far that many of the allegations were either false or half-truths.

For instance, Whitton continued, "Mr. Brinkley told his television audience the FBI has found crime in the highway programs in Indiana, Illinois, Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, and Missouri, and his findings included price fixing, shakedowns and bribery."

"As far as we can ascertain," the administrator said, "the FBI has made no investigations of the Federal-aid road program in Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont and Indiana."

Southside Shudderings

By Susie Spook
That giant Halloween moon of recent nights has provided the impetus for many a fiendish spook to dream up schemes and stunts that will materialize on Oct. 31 at Southside School. Like a giant pumpkin, that moon was, and it shone bright as the sun as it slowly sank in the west in the early morning hours.

So eerie were the nights, that even Mr. Magic, of television fame caught the bug and saw a chance to prove some of his super mystic powers. That's for true, for one dark night he sent a secret message to head spook Gene Taffer offering to entertain those lucky ghosts and goblins that will be at Southside School on that night of nights, when families of spooks will be seen munching on hot dogs and hamburgers and sipping cold drinks.

Mr. Magic, is some good ole homegrown talent, who has proved himself a master of the mystics as well as a true showman, with plenty of stage presence and personality. He's a favorite of the youngsters, and many a parent will find it pleasant duty to "take the kids." Look for Mr. Magic, he'll be in one of the classrooms on Halloween night at Southside School.

Why ole Susie is going to recommend Spook Taffer for some sort of spider medallion for all his good doings on this carnival. What with selling Florida real estate on the side, he's been doing a bang up job of scheming and planning with those other efficient spooks at Southside, to make this the best carnival of the century. And century it is, for Spook Velma Mitchell vows she must have lived through a hundred or more of these fun nights.

Why all over town, ghosts and goblins have been gathering over a cup of witches' brew, (like the ones at Jerry Kirk's house last week) and making plans like crazy. They're thinking about such important stuff as the Hat Toss Game, pony rides, costume parades, spook house and that wonderful "40 and 8" train that's always so popular. Oh and then there's that auction that gives even the tiniest spook a chance to nod his head and raise the bid, sometimes even against his own papa spook. But who cares, it's a fun night and sometimes it even rains and one can't tell one drip from the other.

Some of these days ole Susie is going to have some genuine names to mention, that is if she can dream up some secret code and get the word from her leader. See ya.

Better Fed Than Red

The greatest deterrent to the spread of communism may not be the atomic bomb, but the Communist's inability to satisfy their people's food wants.

These words were spoken recently by W. B. Murphy, president of one of the nation's largest food processing companies. They voice not an opinion but a fact that is being increasingly recognized around the world.

From East Germany to Red China, in Russia itself, the Communist system of collective farms and state-controlled agriculture is faltering. Only in Poland, where collectivization has been largely abandoned, is there anything approaching abundance.

Why?

Examining the differences between the United States and Russia, Murphy explains the argument that Russia's cold climate is responsible for its agricultural problems. Its climate is similar to that of Canada, where, as in the U. S., the government is plagued with surpluses. Actually, Russia has 40 per cent more available cropland than America, possesses vast grazing and dairy areas and boasts some of the richest soil in the world.

An immediate reason for America's superiority in this field is our intensive use of machines, fertilizers and pesticides. But this is something that Russia's centralized planners could accomplish, although they have not done so yet.

No, there is something else lacking in the Communist system that goes to the heart of the matter. That is the absence of freedom — or to put it in more prosaic words, the absence of give and take between farmer and consumer, free operation of supply and demand, competition between processors bidding for the housewife's dollar.

Rather, under communism, the farmer is told what he shall plant and what he shall be paid for it, and the consumer is told what he shall eat and how much it shall cost him.

Some room for private enterprise does exist in Russia. Farmers are permitted to cultivate small plots on their own time and sell the produce. Yet while this allowance amounts to only about 4 per cent of farm acreage, it produces about 80 per cent of all vegetables and meat consumed by 220 million Russians.

An agonizing reappraisal is long overdue for the Communists. It would be foolish, however, to look for them to turn to some sort of free enterprise, for collectivized agriculture, completely under the direction of the party bureaucracy, is one of the fundamental doctrines of communism.

Yet the longer the harsh facts are resisted, the more serious does the situation become. Russia may win the race to the moon, but if it fails to demonstrate its superiority in so basic a thing as the food people put in their mouths, then the world-wide Communist tide may well begin to ebb.

In Murphy's words, "Neutrals must inevitably conclude . . . that it is better to be fed than go Red."

Political Notebook

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—Castro Cuba is now trying to make a big propaganda build-up on American citizens who have left the U. S. to co-operate with the Communist revolution. But a run-down on records of 11 known U. S. collaborators with the Castro regime reveals a sorry cast of characters with amazing backgrounds.

Most recent to be granted political asylum in Cuba is Richard Cooper Bourret, 33, a Richmond, Va., graduate of University of Miami in Florida. He was last employed as a physicist by Hughes Aircraft in Malibu, Calif. He is married to Gladys Guevara Bourret, who was born in Cuba.

Bourret was rejected for U. S. military service in 1951 because of a long psychiatric history.

His application for a passport to go to Cuba was rejected last year, but he became associated with the Fair Play for Cuba front and somehow got to Cuba where he said he could express himself more freely and where there was not so much military work in progress.

Investigation of a "Free Dixie" program in English, beamed at American Negroes from Havana's Radio Progreso, apparently is using some of the defectors as commentators, though only a few are introduced by name.

One previously identified announcer is Robert Franklin Williams, 37, an avowed admirer of Fidel Castro. He formed a rifle club in his home town of Monroe, N. C., as part of an "armament race with the white people."

A year ago Williams was charged by the FBI with unlawful interstate flight to avoid prosecution for kidnapping a Marshallville, N. C., man and wife at gun point during a racial disturbance. He fled to Cuba and his recorded broadcasts from there take the line that the U. S. is a nation devoted to racial brutality and white supremacy.

Robert Bruce Taber, 43, born in New York City, was paroled from Ohio State Penitentiary in 1939 after serving 10 years of a 30-year sentence for robbery, kidnaping and operating a motor vehicle without the owner's consent.

He was a Columbia Broadcasting System newsman in Cuba during the early days of the Castro revolution and was one of the organizers of the pro-Castro Fair Play for Cuba Committee. He renounced U. S. citizenship to work for the Cuban government.

Joseph Parker Morray, U. S. Naval Academy and Harvard Law school graduate, left a University of California teaching position in 1961 to go to Cuba on a year's fellowship grant as a professor of social sciences in Habana University.

In an article written for the Communist-controlled "New World Review" last July, Morray declared that the Soviet Union and nonaligned nations must force disarmament on the western imperialists who were profiting on the arms race.

Joseph North, Russian-born correspondent of "The Worker," was denied a U. S. passport in 1961 as a member of a Communist action organization. Since his arrival in Cuba he has filed numerous dispatches to "The Worker" praising Castro.

Four of the defectors are women. Irah Mae Warner, 50, born in Spearfish, S. Dak., and Martha McCurdy, 29, born in Harding, Ill., shared a room in Miami, Fla., before going to Cuba in 1959. Since they have been reported teaching and nursing in Cuba and sending pro-Castro letters and literature back to the U. S.

Mrs. Barbara Ines Corrandini Collins, 22, daughter of a Methodist minister, was reported by Havana "Prensa Libre" to have been granted asylum in Cuba last year. She has broadcast commentaries on the Cuban revolution over Radio Havana to gain support for the Castro revolution in the United States. She broadcasts "Axis Sally"-type programs as "Beardless Barbara."

Gloria Ann Gerhardt left New York in June 1961 after establishing a police record for undesirable conduct on loose morals charges.

She is quoted in the pro-Castro language Bohemia magazine as having declared that "the only way the United States can change is through a revolution like the Cuban revolution. . . . That is our hope."

Two of the American defectors to Cuba are Puerto Ricans. Juan Juarez left the island in 1958 to travel through Latin America seeking support for Puerto Rican "liberation and nationalism." He was declared a "citizen of Cuba by decree" in 1961 and re-entered the U. S. as counselor of the Cuban mission to the United Nations. He now represents Cuba on the UN Trusteeship Council, where his specialty is renouncing U. S. rule in Puerto Rico.

Phil Newsom Says . . .

Alliance Short On Progress

Last March 13, observing the first anniversary of his $30 billion Alliance for Progress program, President Kennedy declared that the goal of welfare and equality for peoples and nations is "within our grasp."

But for those Latin Americans who might oppose his program for reasons of privilege, the President had a warning.

"Those," he said, "who make peaceful revolution impossible, will make violent revolution inevitable."

This week in Mexico City, United States and Latin American economists have been studying results to date. The results were disappointing.

The economists found that not only had most Latin American nations failed to achieve the 2.5 percent increase in per capita income sought annually by the alliance, a number either had stood still or actually had suffered an economic decline.

Many had failed to submit detailed plans for projects under the alliance.

A "committee of nine" set up last February to keep tabs on progress found a lack of understanding of alliance goals among the general public and strong opposition to it by "powerful political and economic interests," from the Castro-Communist left to the entrenched wealth of the right.

In short, the Alliance for Progress program—designed to lift the living standard of 300 million Latin Americans—was in a state of "crisis."

Columbia and Venezuela had gone the farthest toward carrying out the self-help demanded by the Alliance and in pressing agricultural reforms.

But it was especially ironic that Venezuela also was in deep trouble.

Under the determined leadership of President Romulo Betancourt, Venezuela had distributed more than 2.5 million acres of land to 55,000 families. New schools enabled the country to cut drastically its illiteracy rate.

Opposition to Betancourt's determined program of economic and social reform followed the classic pattern.

On the far right were those who saw a threat to privileged positions. On the left were those who opposed U. S. participation in Latin American development and presented the Alliance for Progress as a U. S. political maneuver.

From both sides came violence—a bomb attack on Caracas' plush Tmanaco hotel, street riots, assassination attempts and guerrilla raids on small villages.

Lyle C. Wilson Says:

Fat Budget Deficit

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Kennedy administration will spare itself the embarrassment of a pre-election report on the fat budget deficit developed now for the current fiscal year.

The Budget bureau states that its annual budget budget review will not be issued until long after the Nov. 6 congressional election. These mid-year reviews usually are published in September or early October. The bureau said late adjournment of Congress would compel delay this year.

That is a good break for New Frontier congressional candidates. A public confession of deficit by the Kennedy administration just before the election would provide Republicans with something to talk about. The deficit is expected to be in the area of $4 to $6 billions.

That would be for the current or 1963 fiscal year for which President Kennedy proposed a budget last January. He hoped and expected then that fiscal '63 would end next June 30 with a surplus of about $500 million. There was a general expression of misconfidence in this surplus forecast when it was made.

President Kennedy shortly thereafter was compelled to ask Congress to raise the public debt limit to $300 billion because of the inability of his administration and those before him to conduct the U. S. government within the limits of tax revenue.

The public debt was $22.5 billion when Herbert Hoover left the White House in 1933. When the deficit returns for fiscal '63 are in next summer, the United States will have a shocking record of 27 deficits in the past 32 years.

These deficits imply a large degree of fiscal and political irresponsibility for all concerned. They gloomily underwrite the political theory that democracies have a built-in engine of destruction. That is the tendency of ill-informed voters to believe that a majority of them can get something for nothing by supporting candidates who promise to spend lavishly for local undertakings or individual benefits.

The Kennedy administration is planning now to seek a tax cut next year, despite deficit prospects and the probability that the treasury will need to borrow large sums to make up for the tax loss. Some big shot businessmen, conservatives all, are whooping it up for this tax cut program. Like the majority of ill-informed voters, these tycoons also are snake-bit by the something-for-nothing idea.

Sen. Harry F. Byrd, D-Va., chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, believes the spending-deficit policies of the Kennedy and previous administrations have created for the United States a crisis of great danger to the nation.

"Is it possible," Byrd asks, "for us to destroy ourselves from within? Every American should ask himself that question. Nothing could serve Khrushchev better!"

Average price of a drug store prescription in the United States today is $3.00.

Dr. Crane's Worry Clinic

Tommy acted like a split personality. His teacher says he changed suddenly from a good boy into a problem child. But his devoted parents caused the trouble by their failure to tell him the secret mentioned below. Send for the booklet today and by all means pass it along where needed!

CASE N-461: Tommy D., aged 12, is a problem child.

"Dr. Crane," his teacher began, "Tommy was a good student and never caused us any trouble till a few weeks ago. Then he began to get into fights on the playground. In fact, he changed entirely in his personality.

"For he now seems to carry a chip on his shoulder and is hostile to all of us teachers, as well as society in general.

"What could make such a dramatic change in Tommy?"

Tommy is a foster child. His parents adopted him when he was only a baby.

But they failed to inform him of this fact, so Tommy had no inkling that he wasn't their flesh-and-blood offspring.

All went well till a couple of months ago. Then an angry playmate, in trying to whitewash Tommy down in ego, taunted him by yelling:

"Yah - yah - yah. Tommy's adopted! He doesn't have any real parents!"

Enraged, Tommy pounded the taunter with his fists, in order to make that boy take back those insults.

The other boy finally blurted out the fact that his mother had found out about Tommy from a friend who had lived in the village from which Tommy's parents had come a few years back.

In his confused and frustrated condition, Tommy struck home. And he then asked his mother, "Where did I come from?"

She was startled and uncertain, for she and her husband had been avoiding this dangerous situation for years.

"Oh, the doctor brought you," his mother glibly tried to pass off the crisis.

"Yeah, but Billy says I am adopted," Tommy challenged her.

Then his mother broke down and tried to tell him the facts—about seven years too late.

As a result of this belated information, Tommy decided that he had been tricked and cheated, not only by his foster parents, but by all of society.

So he became sullen and resentful. That's when he got the chip on his shoulder.

Many foster children become delinquents, not because they inherit any criminality, for that is not possible.

But if they are not informed properly and early in life, they turn their chagrin and resentment back upon society in general.

The best time to inform a foster child is when he first inquires:

"Mommy, where did I come from?"

It is quite proper to reassure his ego by telling him that you picked him out by deliberate choice, while other parents have no such option but must accept whatever the doctor delivers.

But be sure you also remind the youngster that you parents are not of any blood kin whatsoever.

You picked each other solely because of love and voluntary affection.

And that is also the same way you picked him. So you three are all held together by love, not blood kinship.

And love is the strongest bond that unites families. Cain and Abel were blood brothers but that didn't stop their feuding or Cain's murder of his own brother.

So send for my booklet "Facts About Pregnancy & Foster Children," enclosing a stamped return envelope, plus 20 cents.

(Always write to Dr. Crane in care of this newspaper, enclosing a long 4 cent stamp, addressed envelope and 20 cents to cover typing and printing costs when you send for one of his booklets.)

McClellan Says 'Crime May Rule'

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The United States will soon be "seriously" close to a "crime rule" by the underworld unless the public makes a major crime-fighting effort, according to Sen. John L. McClellan.

What is needed, said the Arkansas Democrat in a new book published recently, is a "resurgence of old-fashioned morality."

McClellan, one of the Senate's chief investigators, said in the book, "Crime Without Punishment," Duell, Sloan and Pearce, that crime today is a major industry run by racketeers employing public relations men, high-priced lawyers and board meetings.

Red Cross Aid To Disaster Victims Cited

The following is the second in a series of reports by Mrs. Gerald Warnke, Director of Public Relations for the United Fund, spotlighting the work of the eight agencies which are benefitted by funds from the annual drive.

By Jeanne Warnke
On a cold windy night last March, a group of Sanford people huddled miserably together in a three-sided shed in some of the coldest weather of the year.

They were cold and sick at heart, and they represented 27 people made homeless that afternoon when a raging fire, fanned by high winds engulfed five homes, destroying all their possessions.

While they waited and wondered what to do, the Sheriff's office had already called the home of the Executive Secretary of the Red Cross, the late Mrs. Alice Ivers, who in turn notified Disaster Chairman A. B. Peterson Jr. and John F. McCloskey, chairman of the board of directors of the Red Cross, and swiftly action to aid the unfortunate people was begun.

The fire victims were taken to a motel, where they were given temporary housing, and merchants of the community opened their places or business so that necessary items of warm clothing could be obtained for the children, to cover them from the cold and enable them to attend school the next day.

A message was sent to the Chairman of the Southeast Area District of the ARC in Atlanta, Ga., telling of the ex- citing conditions and he ordered a Field Director to the site of the disaster with a sizeable check to defray expenses.

An appeal was made, also, to the residents of Seminole County for furnishings and clothing and their response was overwhelming.

This is only one case where county residents were benefitted by action on the part of the American Red Cross, which is one of the eight participating agencies in the United Fund Campaign.

In the year ending June 30, the Seminole County Chapter of the ARC handled 245 cases which included disasters such as the above. They also assisted with government benefits, military aid, personal counsel- ing for veterans and their families.

Certificates were issued to 609 persons who took the First Aid Program and 1,000 or more Water Safety certifi- cates.

VAH-5 Wives Win Many Door Prizes

The Officers Wives of VAH-5 joined their husbands in the Mediterranean, at least for an afternoon. An international flavor prevailed over their monthly luncheon at the Cherry Plaza Hotel in Orlando.

Flags from the various ports the USS Forestal is visiting adorned the tables, and a huge red, white and blue centerpiece of carnations and mums flanked by two miniature American flags was at the head table. Sugar doll place cards depicted the people from these countries in their native dress.

Mrs. L. H. Sette and Mrs. N. W. Thomson, hostesses for the luncheon, went on a shopping spree for the door prizes, for they were from the four corners of the world.

There were Portuguese anchovies for Mrs. T. E. Mead, English chocolate for Mrs. William Shattuck, a French hairstyle from Richards of Sanford for Mrs. J. E. Draim, German potato salad for Mrs. C. L. Fitzpatrick, provincial print place mats from Denmark for Mrs. G. W. Govan, Belgium soap for Mrs. L. E. Pinzel, and an old Swiss recipe of soup for Mrs. P. F. Werner, French bon bon drops for Mrs. K. R. Hamilton and lady fingers from Austria for Mrs. H. A. Lackey.

From deep in the hills of Scotland came jelly for Mrs. R. E. Farmer, miniature chocolate shoes from Holland were won by Mrs. V. D. Monroe and a two foot loaf of French bread was awarded Mrs. D. W. Beard. Mrs. Frederick Carment received a bottle of Italian wine and Mrs. W. S. Dursteler a box of Belgium candy. Mrs. John Latrow was presented with the centerpiece as she came from the farthest point to attend the luncheon.

Mrs. Robert Repp and Mrs. Shattuck both received silver bon bon dishes as farewell gifts from the squadron. Lt. and Mrs. Repp have been transferred to Detachment Eight and Lt. (j.g.) and Mrs. Shattuck to VAH-3. This was also Mrs. Farmer's farewell luncheon. Cmdr. and Mrs. Farmer are being transferred to VAH-3 where he will be Commanding Officer. They have lived in Sanford five years and have been in VAH-5 all of that time, the last 18 months being spent as skipper of the squadron.

The incoming president, Mrs. Sette, presented Mrs. Farmer with a silver bon bon dish and a large silver tray from the wives and in behalf of the officers of the squadron presented her with a grape cluster silver punch bowl and matching silver ladle. Special guests of the squadron were Mrs. James Morgan of VAH-3, an after five, and Mrs. Carl R. Lalumie of New York City. Others enjoying the afternoon were, Mmes. K. C. Fynn, R. H. Lovelace, K. E. Rodd and D. J. Brough.

Continuing on they traveled through British Columbia, Yukon Territory and finally to Alaska. They enjoyed extensive sightseeing tours in Fairbanks, Anchorage, Valdez, Seward and many smaller towns in between.

The Altmans were quite elated over the fact that in covering all these thousands of miles, they only had two flat tires and no trouble or accidents, in spite of having to travel on almost 3,000 miles of gravel roads.

They were greatly impressed with the rugged beauty of the forests, rivers, lakes, mountains and glaciers, in Alaska and the Yukon. They

Seminoles, Cats Tie At 7-7

Sanford's Seminoles won the third quarter, Winter Park won the last quarter and the two eleven divided a 7-7 score Friday night.

The first half didn't count—it was scoreless.

Sanford was holding onto a seven point lead after getting a touchdown and an extra point by Butch Riser early in the third period. Then Winter Park's Leslie King matched Riser's TD and the Wildcats got the point after on a pass play.

The Parkers were going for another score in the waning minutes of their homecoming contest when the Seminole defensive unit got tough along the 12 yard line and held for downs with only a yard to go for a first down.

Sanford's touchdown was set up by a fumble recovery by Billy Higgins, who covered a loose ball on the Wildcat 27 yard line.

Riser showed his usual strength in toting the ball for 20 of the necessary yardage in four plays and the score.

Coach Jim Pigott said after the game that he figured the Seminoles were lucky to come out of the game with the 7-7 tie after two key players were hurt in the first half and couldn't be used again.

Bob Bolt, defensive line-backer and Alex Carmen, offensive guard, both had to be benched for knee injuries. Bolt twisted his and Carmen wound up with a serious bruise.

Pigott credited Coach Jim McCoy's defensive unit with "some real good work" in holding the Wildcats to the single score.

Winter Park has been an up and down team and they really got up for us," Pigott said. "And they really have an outstanding athlete in the King boy. We were lucky that we had Riser to match his score."

Riser had a slight edge in the offensive scrap with King, gaining 80 yards to King's 18 and kicking his team's extra point.

The Seminole coach said he felt that "several" Sanford drives might have gone all the way if they hadn't been halted by penalties for offsides and men in motion.

"All in all, the boys played a good game," he said.

Fullback Jack Carlo and Halfback Jim Washlund also got a pat from the coach for gaining "some real tough yardage" during the game. Carlo accounted for 42 yards and Washlund, a consistent gainer this season, ran for 38 yards.

The tie left the Seminoles with a season card of three wins, a loss and a tie as they start getting ready for Friday's contest with Leesburg.

The addition of Bolt and Carmen to the injured list poses a manpower problem for the Sanford coaches. Already out are Billy Lovelace, Jack Elam and Buddy Lawson.

"We hope to have at least some of these boys back in good shape for the Leesburg game and, from the looks of the Leesburg score over Lakeview, we will need all of them," Pigott said.

The Leesburg griders racked up the Lakeview squad pretty good in taking a 37-9 victory Friday night at Winter Garden in an Orange Belt Conference game.

Giant Defense Stalls Lions; Cowboys Win

Unfamed Press International National Football League quarterbacks filled the air with touchdown bombs Sunday but the most disruptive damage of the day was done by the New York Giants with an old-fashioned weapon called defense.

Little Eddie LeBaron of the Dallas Cowboys threw five touchdown passes, and Billy Wade of the Chicago Bears, Fran Tarkenton of the Minnesota Vikings and Jim Nantz of the Cleveland Browns each passed for three scores in leading their teams to victory.

The Giants won the hard way, upsetting the Detroit Lions, 17-14, with an "attack" that included blocked kicks, intercepted passes, a recovered fumble and any number of bone-jarring tackles.

As a result, the Giants are still on the heels of the Eastern Division leading Washington Redskins, who remained undefeated with a 37-30 victory over the Philadelphia Eagles, while the Western Division Lions dropped two games behind the champion Green Bay Packers, who made it six straight wins by trouncing the San Francisco Forty Niners, 31-13.

LeBaron's five touchdown passes enabled the Cowboys to upset the Pittsburgh Steelers, 42-27; Wade serials led the Bears to a 35-15 victory over the Baltimore Colts; Tarkenton's flips helped the Vikings win their first game of the season, 38-14, over the Los Angeles Rams, and Nantz's tosses stopped the St. Louis Cardinals, 34-7.

Among the many heroes of the Giants defense were: linebacker Sam Huff, who blocked a punt by Detroit's Yale Lary; rookie Reed Bobovich, who recovered the ball; Dick Lynch, who intercepted a Milt Plum pass, and Erich Barnes, who touched off the third-period uprising by becoming infuriated when an official called a pass interference penalty against him.

The Giants trailed, 16-7, when the interference call went against them. Three plays later Huff blocked Lary's punt and Bobovich recovered the ball within range for a game-winning 8-yard field goal by Don Chandler.

Lynch intercepted Plum's pass on the next series of downs and ran it back to the Detroit 33. A 53-yard (Tittle-to-Alex) Webster pass brought the ball within range for a game-winning 8-yard field goal by Don Chandler.

Twice after that the Giants' defense saved them. When Jim Gibbons caught a pass and raged goal-ward, Lynch tackled him hard enough to induce a fumble on the New York 15 and Jimmy Paxon recovered.

The Lions threatened for the final time in the fourth period when Plum's pass to Gail Cogdill brought them to the Giants 30 with two minutes left to play. Again the rugged Giants defenders shoved the Lions back 10 yards in three plays and Lynch blocked a 33-yard field goal try by Wayne Walker. A crowd of 62,000 attended.

Perfect Marks On Line For Unbeaten Powers

United Press International Texas, Alabama and Northwestern locked in a three-way battle for national honors, place perfect records on the line Saturday when the college football season passes the half-way mark.

Top-ranked Texas, confronted by the heartbreak ridge of the Southwest Conference in its remaining games, meets Rice; second-ranked Alabama gets another breather in Tulsa, but the No. 3 Northwestern Wildcats face the task of trying to defeat Notre Dame for only the seventh time in 32 meetings.

Five other undefeated teams among the top 10 seek to strengthen their positions. Fourth-ranked Mississippi takes on Vanderbilt, fifth-ranked Southern California meets Illinois, eighth-rated Wisconsin is pitted against Ohio State, ninth-ranked Washington goes against Oregon and the No. 10 Louisiana State Tigers face Florida.

Texas almost stumbled against SWC foe Arkansas, ranked sixth last week, before gaining a 7-3 squeaker Saturday on Tommy Ford's touchdown plunge from the three-yard line with only 38 seconds remaining in the game.

Alabama, launching a coordinated land and air attack, handed Tennessee its fourth loss, 27-7. Benny Nelson scored twice for the Crimson Tide on passes and Cotton Clark plunged for another Alabama touchdown.

Sophomore quarterback Tommy Myers rallied Northwestern to an 18-14 victory over seventh-ranked Ohio State with an eight-yard TD toss to Paul Flately for one score, and totaled 35 yards in passes to set up another Wildcat tally.

The Glenn Griffing to Woody Dabbs pass-scoring combination led Mississippi to a 21-0 triumph over Tulane and the fourth straight victory for Ole Miss.

Unbeaten Southern California routed California, 32-6, in a game marred by 26 penalties. Hal Besdole, a former quarterback, found himself on the receiving end of scoring passes as he went over twice on plays that covered 46 and 7 yards.

Wisconsin, which ranks with Northwestern as the only undefeated teams in the Big Ten Conference, swamped Iowa, 42-14. Ron Vanderkelen keyed the Badgers with three touchdown throws and Ron Smith scored three times.

A tough defense by Washington enabled the Huskies to shutout Stanford, 14-0. Nat Whitmyer and Jim Sijger accounted for the scoring.

Jerry Stovall carried five times in seven plays to notch the only touchdowns of the game as Louisiana State beat Kentucky, 7-0.

Lyman Ruins Homecoming For South Sumter, 7-6

Lyman's rampaging Greyhounds thoroughly butchered up South Sumter's homecoming contest when the Seminole defensive unit got tough along the 12 yard line and held for downs with only a yard to go for a first down.

It was the defense that made the difference, and the outstanding star of the evening's activity was Lyman's burly defensive right tackle, Dick Balmer.

Coach Buck Metts declared that on two occasions when the South Sumter Rebels were approaching pay dirt and were in a third down and one to go situation, it was Balmer that bulled his way through, tossed the dangerous Swain for five yard losses and forced the opposition to punt.

Paul Blackford, the leading scorer for the Greyhounds all season, was the boy again Friday night. He powered his way over from the one yard line in the second quarter for the touchdown and then rushed over again for the point after to take the lead from the Rebels.

The home team scored their tally in the first stanza of the game when Johnny Dixon, safety man, took a Lyman boot on his 30 yard line, and behind beautiful blocking, and taking advantage of Lyman's overzealousness, carried the ball 70 yards to the end zone. They failed to make the extra point, and that was the game for the Rebels.

Metts says if it hadn't been for a couple of costly fumbles and 30 yards of penalties the Greyhounds might have been able to come up with a bigger margin. "But don't forget, they have a real good team. For sure, it was the best backfield we've met all year, and that Swain boy is really good."

Lyman is the second team to hold the Rebels to less than 40 points all year, and the Greyhound mentor gives the credit to the outstanding defensive game his charges put on to hold their slim lead.

Lyman's record now stands at six wins and none lost, to mark the Greyhounds as one of the top independent teams in the state.

Next Friday night the Lyman squad takes on St. Leo, from Dade City, for their homecoming tilt before what promises to be a sell-out crowd. The Lyman Boosters are serving a pancake supper before the big game.

Statistics: South Sumter 6 First Downs 8 218 Yards Rushing 342 0 Yards Passing 78 0-3 Passes (Att., Comp'd) 5-12 4-30 Punts 137 2 Fumbles Lost 0 25 Yards Penalized 30 Lyman 0 7 0 0-7 South Sumter 0 0 0 0-8

Gators Enjoy Homecoming Auburn For Real; A Threat In SEC

By United Press International It appears those Auburn Tigers are for real!

Before the season began, the sophomore-led Tigers were figured to be at least a year away. When they overcame a 14-point deficit to edge Tennessee, 22-21, they won acclaim for their offense, but attracted only a wait-and-see attitude by the pundits.

A 16-4 victory at Kentucky gained more camp followers, but the Tigers were still viewed with caution. A 54-6 rout of Chattanooga drew little attention because of the caliber of the opposition.

This all led to Saturday's game with highly-regarded Georgia Tech and after weighing all the factors it was decided that Auburn was a touchdown underdog.

Instead, the Tigers rang up 14 points within 4:20 of the first period and went on to upset Tech, 17-14. Perhaps the best proof that Auburn has come of age is the way the Tigers protected their three-point lead in the final six minutes by holding the ball in a daring 78-yard march.

Thus Auburn stands today among the slim ranks of the unbeaten, untied and must be considered a good prospect to maintain this position all the way to Dec. 1 when the Tigers meet Alabama at Birmingham in what could well be the game that decides both the Southeastern Conference and national championships.

Saturday's Auburn - Tech game featured a duel between junior quarterbacks Mallon Kent of the Tigers and Billy Lothridge of the Yellow Jackets. Kent completed 10 of 14 passes and had a total offense bag of 157 yards. Lothridge gained 155 yards and now has 796 yards in five games to edge the SEC.

The SEC's two other unbeaten, untied teams — Alabama and Mississippi — had little trouble. The second-ranked Crimson Tide stretched its unbeaten string to 23 games with a 27-7 victory over winless Tennessee, and fifth-ranked Mississippi cruised past winless Tulane, 21-0, in a heavy rain.

In other games: unbeaten but one-ided Louisiana State edged Kentucky, 7-0, as Jerry Stovall enabled the Bengals to overcome their miscues; the Florida Gators won by a 42-7 margin for the second week in a row in a romp over winless Vanderbilt; Mississippi State scored on a Charlie Furlow pass in the last two minutes to beat Houston, 6-3; and Georgia threw five intercepted passes in an 18-0 loss to Florida State.

Friday night, Miami's George Mira outshone Maryland's Dick Shiner as the Hurricanes outgunned the previously-unbeaten Terrapins, 28-24.

This Saturday, the SEC headliner will be at Baton Rouge where LSU will be host to high-scoring Florida. Other conference games: Kentucky at Georgia, Tulane at Georgia Tech and Mississippi-Vanderbilt at Memphis. Non-league action: Tulsa at Alabama, Auburn at Clemson, Memphis State at Mississippi State and Chattanooga at Tennessee.

Wright Wins Cavern Tourney

CARLSBAD, N. M. (UPI)—To win nine golf tournaments and $21,389 this year, Mickey Wright of Dallas must have hit plenty of fine shots.

She pulled one out Sunday that she says was "the best shot I ever made in golf," and it gave her the Cavern City Open tournament and $1,200 that most of the crowd thought would go to Kathy Whitworth of Jal, N. M.

Miss Whitworth led the Dallas blonde by two strokes after 36 holes of play, and it was still two strokes with two holes to go.

Folley Next

NEW YORK (UPI)—Now that light heavyweight contender Doug Jones has disposed of previously unbeaten Bob Foster in their television fight, Jones was expected to be signed again today for a Madison Square Garden match with heavyweight contender Zora Folley in December.

Patty, Liston Bout In Feb.

NEW YORK (UPI)—Heavyweight champion Sonny Liston, angered at being forced to go on tour to get "eating money," announced today he will break away from Championship Sports, Inc., and make his first title defense in February against Floyd Patterson.

Through advisor Jack Nilon, Sonny made his announcement which designated the new 10,000-seat Baltimore Civic Center as a preferred site for the return fight with Patterson.

Nilon said Sonny will break loose from Championship Sports for alleged breach of payment-contract and make his February defense under new promotion.

It was Championship Sports that staged the fight at Chicago's Comiskey Park on Sept. 25 when big Sonny of Philadelphia took the title from Patterson on a first-round knockout.

But Nilon charged today that Championship Sports failed to give Sonny $50,000 within 48 hours after the Chicago fight, as contracted.

Defense Pays Off For Broncos

United Press International The Denver Broncos are showing their pass-happy American Football League rivals that defense pays off on the field and at the gate.

The surprise team of the league so far this season, the Broncos retained first place in the Western Division Sunday when they beat the Houston Oilers, 20-10, for their sixth victory in seven games.

The win left them a half-game ahead of the Dallas Texans, who dropped the New York Titans, 20-17, in the only other Sunday action. The Buffalo Bills defeated the Oakland Raiders, 14-6, on Saturday night and the Boston Patriots whipped the San Diego Chargers, 24-20, Friday night.

The Broncos won their game by scoring two touchdowns in the fourth period but the win actually was built on a sturdy defense that has allowed only one touchdown in each of its last four games. The Broncos' recent success was rewarded when a crowd of 34,496, largest of the AFL season, turned out at Denver.

The Broncos overcame a 10-6 deficit in the fourth period with a 77-yard scoring drive. AFL scoring leader Gene Mingo, whose 16th and 17th field goals of 41 and 25 yards gave Denver a 6-3 halftime lead, ran 34 yards to the Houston three to set up the score.

Quarterback Frank Tripucka then passed two yards to flanker Bob Scarpitto to put the Broncos in front. Minutes later halfback Donnie Stone ran 48 yards up the middle for a clinching touchdown.
