Five Items Set For City Meet

Only five items appear on the short agenda coming before the Sanford Board of City Commissioners tonight.

Stated for discussion at a regular meeting of the board will be "consideration of the closing of Cooke Avenue between Clinton and Lincoln Streets," an item tabled from the last meeting.

Youngster Injured As Car Hits Bike At Sixth, Elm Ave.

An eight-year-old boy was slightly injured Friday afternoon in a bicycle-car smashup at the intersection of Elm Ave. and Sixth St. According to the accident report filed by investigating patrolman L. E. Rock at the Sanford Police Department, a 1947 Olds coupe was traveling north on Elm Ave. when it struck Percell Hickson, son of Sanford Police Department Patrolman Joe T. Hickson. The youngster received lacerations of both knees and bruises on his lower right leg and was treated in the office of Dr. T. F. McDaniel.

The automobile was driven by John Goss David Jr., 32-year-old Navy man attached to the Sanford Naval Auxiliary Air Station, whose address was given as 313 W. 18th St. in Sanford.

Water Is Cut Off As Line Is Broken

Water was off over the entire city of Sanford today at noon because of a break at the intersection of First St. and French Ave. City Manager Warren E. Knowles said today that heavy construction equipment loosened a "sleeve" which the city water crew attempted to repair without having the water turned off.

However, said Knowles, the sleeve loosened more and turned loose, necessitating the water be turned off to complete the repair. Quintia Ray, Water Distribution Foreman, supervised the repairs to the six-inch main.

Kiwanians To Hear Of European Tour By Rolland Dean

A former Sanford newspaper man will address the Sanford Kiwanis Club Wednesday at its noon luncheon meeting.

Rolland Dean, former editor and publisher of The Sanford Herald, will tell the Kiwanis group of his trip to Europe this summer. Both Mr. and Mrs. Dean visited Europe during the summer from which they gathered many pertinent facts about the people of the countries into which their trip took them.

Barry Crim Award Will Be Announced

The regular monthly meeting of the board of directors of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce will be held tomorrow night at 8 o'clock in the commissioner's room of Sanford City Hall.

Forrest Brockenridge, manager of the Chamber, said today that three items will come before the board for action. The Barry Crim Scholarship will be awarded prior to the presenting of two important committee reports.

DWI Case Taken To Circuit Court

A "driving while intoxicated" case, heard in Sanford City Court Friday afternoon, has been appealed to Circuit Court, Chief Roy Williams of the Sanford Police Department said this morning.

Harry Luther Staples of Orlando, was represented before Judge Leonard Friday by a woman attorney, Carmelita B. Tarrari who is associated with attorney Russell Hornsby's office in Orlando.

Maner H. Andersen Funeral Yesterday

Maner Norman Andersen, born April 16, 1888, died at his home on Golden Lake Aug. 5, after being in poor health since March 1 of this year. Born in Denmark, he came to Sanford in 1948 from Ft. Lauderdale and had been employed by the City of Sanford since 1945 until his illness. He was a member of the Lutheran Church.

He is survived by the widow, Mrs. Lucy C. Andersen, of Sanford; daughters, Mrs. Clifford Lundberg, of Leesburg; Mrs. Helen Vonnay, White Water Wis.; Mrs. Joan George, Miami; Mrs. Betty Gaines; Mrs. Mary Louise Dennis, of Winter Park; sons, R. L. Lobb, Orlando; Willie Andersen, Sanford; two brothers and sisters, and 23 grandchildren.

Lt. Cdr. Blake Given Award 11 Years Late
Various Honors Conferred On VC-5 Personnel At Ceremonies Friday

A Gold Star in lieu of his fourth Distinguished Flying Cross was awarded to Lt. Cdr. Gilbert S. Blake, USNR, Administrative Officer of Composite Squadron Five, at a ceremony during the Squadron's formal personnel inspection held at the Naval Air Station on Friday.

The medal awarded to persons distinguishing themselves by heroism or extraordinary achievement while participating in aerial flight, was presented to Lt. Cdr. Blake by his acting Commanding Officer, Cdr. James S. Stafford, USN.

In part, the citation signed by Secretary of the Navy, Thomas, reads, "For heroism . . . in aerial flight as a pilot of a Torpedo Plane in Torpedo Squadron Ten, attached to the USS Enterprise during operations against enemy Japanese forces . . . 31 April to 30 April 1944." Due to an error in filing at the Navy's Bureau of Personnel, the award is eleven years late in reaching its recipient.

Lt. Cdr. Blake, who lives at 1301 Park Ave. with his wife and three children, has been with VC-5 since January 1954. He was commissioned in 1943 upon completion of flight training as a NavCad at Pensacola.

In addition to four Distinguished Flying Crosses, Blake holds among his awards, eight Air Medals and the Navy Unit Citation. He recently received orders to the Naval Air Station at Dallas, Texas and expects to be detached in September.

Achiever Machinist Chief Robert M. Cook was presented with a letter of Commendation for his outstanding work and loyalty while serving with Composite Squadron Eight at Patuxent River, Maryland until March when he reported to Sanford. Chief Cook resides with his family in Casselberry.

'Crate' To Open Nightly For Youths
It was announced this morning that the Celery Crate at City Hall will be open nightly from 7-10 o'clock until school starts. All teenagers are welcome to join the crowd down at "the Crate" for an evening of good entertainment with a variety of activities.

Longwood Expects Large Enrollment In Fall

The largest enrollment in the history of Lyman High and Elementary School is expected during the coming term. The school serves a rapidly growing area in southern Seminole County, including the communities of Altamonte Springs, Bear Lake, Casselberry, Fern Park, Forest City, Longwood and Sanlando.

Lyman was established in 1924 to replace a number of one and two room schools scattered throughout this district. One of these schools was located in Longwood. The building is still standing and is used as the city hall. Another was located in Altamonte Springs near the site of the Altamonte Hotel. Still another was located on the property now occupied by the Chester C. Fegate parking plant. This building has been moved a short distance south of its original location and is now being used as a residence. Several other one room schools were located west of Forest City and between Longwood and Markham.

Hurricane Safety Measures Are Told

Aggravated Assault Cases Investigated; Two Arrests Made

Two cases of "aggravated assault" were investigated over the weekend by Constable J. Q. "Slim" Galloway and arrests made in both instances.

Shortly before midnight, Friday, Morris Rivera, 21-year-old Puerto Rican was arrested for cutting Luis Gerena, a 19-year-old farm laborer, during an altercation in Smith's Beer Garden in Canaan City.

Galloway said that Gerena was slashed on the arm making it necessary to take several stitches at the local hospital. Bond for Rivera was set at $100.

Clinton Harrison was slashed twice, in the neck, Sunday morning about 1:30. Constable Galloway said, by 47-year-old Newt Washington of Sanford. The cutting took place on Southwest Road in the Delusa Bar.

Washington, when asked why he cut Harrison said, "He was sitting at the bar when he got up with a bottle in his hand and I knew he was going to hit me."

Harrison was treated at the local hospital where it was necessary to take nine stitches and use five clamps.

Washington is being held in the Seminole County Jail under a bond of $100.

Rotarians Amazed At Atomic Speech By Dr. Greathouse

With the prediction that within five years the atomic plane will be commonplace and that the greatest discovery of the age will be the direct transmutation of atomic energy into electrical energy, Dr. Glen A. Greathouse, president of Orlando Research, Inc., held the interest of the members of the Sanford Rotary Club to the fullest at its weekly meeting this noon at the Yacht Club.

Introduced by Charlie Morrison, who had charge of the program, a native of Illinois and a graduate of the University of that state, with a long record of accomplishments in the field of biochemistry and biophysics, Dr. Greathouse laid out the particles of nuclear physics, their progress, the nuclear reactions of proton, neutron, electron, helium, and uranium.

His listeners were amazed to learn that between 1000 and one and a half thousand pounds of uranium were converted from tons of phosphate mined annually in the Bartow-Fort Meade-Mulberry district of our state. His most amazing statement was to the effect that one pound of U-235 was the equivalent of 180,000 tons of coal energywise.

President Bill Bush presided and announced that Frank Evans, a member of the club, was a patient at a Boston hospital for a check-up and observation.

Gladwell Arrested On Old Check Charge

The Seminole County Sheriff's Department experienced a busy weekend, with arrests and investigations outnumbering previous "Friday-Saturday-Sunday" periods.

Sheriff Luther Hobby said that "driving while intoxicated" cases are increasing rather than decreasing.

Arthur J. Keskley, a Negro waiter of Orlando was arrested this past weekend and charged with "driving while intoxicated" and for operating a car "without a driver's license." Verne Maston, a 24-year-old Jacksonville carpenter was also charged with "driving while intoxicated." William Landon Hamby, 25-year-old Orlando taxi driver was jailed on the same charge.

Deputy Sheriff Morgan McClelland said this morning that Joseph E. Gladwell, former town marshal of Casselberry, is being held in the Seminole County Jail for investigation.

According to Deputy McClelland, Gladwell, of Sparks, Ga., was arrested at a Casselberry filling station on a warrant nearly two years old charging the former officer with "passing bad checks." Deputy Sheriff O. G. Owens, who also assisted in the arrest of Gladwell, said that the charges involve the purchase of materials for a home in Casselberry, and the payment for them by check.

Gladwell, according to the report filed in the Seminole County Sheriff's office, had recently been released from the Sparks, Ga., hospital following a "heart attack." However, a limp caused difficulties to investigate further, what Gladwell called "an accidental shooting of himself." Blood on the car seat and dashboard caused officers to investigate further the statements made by the arrested man.

Red Cross Offers Rules

Connie May Miss Southern Florida
The chairman of the Disaster Committee of the Seminole County Chapter of the American Red Cross has some safety measures for citizens in following when the big blow comes.

A. B. Peterson Jr. says that there are 14 simple rules to follow for your own protection should a hurricane be felt in this area.

He said that the rules are as follows:

- (1) Keep your radio on and listen for official Weather Bureau warnings and advisories—ignore rumors.
- (2) Have access to or know the location of a telephone. Have readily available the phone numbers of your doctors, fire department and utilities emergency departments, but call only in emergencies.
- (3) Board up windows or put storm shutters in place. Use good lumber securely fastened.
- (4) Check on everything that might blow or be torn loose. Garbage cans, garden tools, signs, porch furniture, swings, and other objects become weapons of destruction in hurricane winds. Remove debris from your property. Check the roof and make temporary repairs with heavy canvas and batten strips. Remove TV and FM cross members, antennas, and stove.
- (5) Provide a two or three day supply of canned and non-perishable foodstuffs. Fill containers with water for drinking and cooking purposes. Sterilize the bathtub and fill it with water.
- (6) Have a flashlight in working condition.
- (7) Prepare a First Aid kit and keep handy, as well as a tool kit for any emergency repairs that may be needed.
- (8) Park vehicles in garage if possible or in walled areas offering protection from flying debris— not near or under trees.
- (9) Be sure that a window or door can be opened on the lee side of the house—the side opposite the one facing the wind.
- (10) If the center of "eye" of the storm passes directly over, there will be a lull in the wind lasting from a few minutes to half an hour or more. Stay in a safe place. Remember the wind will return suddenly from the opposite direction.
- (11) Residents of lake-side or coastal areas should seek high ground away from large bodies of water.
- (12) Do not touch or remove fallen wires nor touch objects upon which they rest. Notify your utilities service department and wait until they sanction its removal.
- (13) If you leave your home for a shelter, upon the master electrical switch, turn out all open flames or burners (leave gas appliances pilot light on). Have the doors of your home securely closed but unlocked.
- (14) Keep calm.

Sheriff Deputies Arrest Nurse Here

A Puerto nurse was arrested Saturday night and charged with "driving while intoxicated," according to a report filed at the Seminole County Sheriff's office by Patrolman Carl Williams of the Florida Highway Patrol.

Navy Personnel Could Certainly Use Transportation Into Town

Seems as if someone is missing the "boat" while a lot of folks are missing rides, and in the meantime Sanford merchants are missing sales.

Even though the personnel and the number of units has increased, by considerable numbers, at the Sanford Naval Auxiliary Air Station, there is no transportation available for those stationed at NAAS to reach Sanford.

Unless a Navy man has an automobile of his own, the only way he can get into Sanford is by thumbing a ride from the station's Main Gate just off of Sanford Avenue.

Sanford merchants could certainly profit by the increased number of Navy men brought into Sanford to shop and to enjoy the hospitality extended by local citizens.

Too Great Familiarity

A habit to give up, Bishop Daniel J. Feeney of Portland, Me., writes in his diocesan weekly, is that of calling President Eisenhower "Ike" and his wife "Mamie." Both terms are disrespectful to people in such high stations, he believes.

His point may be well taken. The custom is universal even among those who know a president intimately, of addressing him as "Mr. President." That was the rule with as friendly a chief executive as Theodore Roosevelt, whom no one dreamed of calling "Teddy" to his face. Headline writers are tempted by their rigid space limits. No one means harm. It is part of our American informality. Pertinent is the reported dialogue between the distinguished physician and the apartment house janitor:

Physician: "Good morning, Mr. Jones."
Janitor: "Howdy, Doc."

TODAY'S BIBLE VERSE

I will bring Israel again to his habitation, and he shall feed on Carmel and Bashan.—Jer. 50:19.—Israel has been absent for many centuries but at long last they have returned. They have had many chances, and have missed many.

Maybe if enough of the merchants get together, a bus running on a regular schedule from the Navy Station to the Sanford business area could be arranged.

We know that the possibilities are tremendous, with additional personnel coming in to Sanford regularly, and additional units, in all probability, still scheduled to be added to the already "bursting at the seams" Naval Air Station.

Let's get those folks to Sanford. We would enjoy having them and we know that they would enjoy being with us.

Courtesy is a by-word in automobile driving. When was the last time you stopped to allow a car to back out of its parking place? Sanford's traffic problem would be partially solved if you participate in a Courtesy program.

24-Hour Sessions Suggested

It seems as if 20 wealthy senators are thumbing their noses at the citizens of Florida as they wallow in their glory of keeping senators and representatives from other sections of the State from performing their duty in accordance with the provisions of our State Constitution.

Add up the costs and you'll find that the taxpayers must provide more than $800,000 for the very select group of senators to jaw over the reappointment of the legislature that is very clearly, and understandably expressed in the Constitution of the Sunshine State.

Our own Seminole County delegation is dedicated to the reappointment of the legislature as provided by law. But their efforts are hamstrung by a wealthy few, the 20 senators who don't depend on their law practice, their farms or their businesses for a livelihood. This infallible group of 20 believe that they, and they alone, should point the finger of approval as to what the balance of our senators and legislators should do for their constituents.

Let us point out that there are 608 spastic and mentally retarded children on the waiting list to get into the Florida Farm Colony. Let us again emphasize that the money taken to subsidize the "Reappointment Party" in Tallahassee could easily admit the 608 children to the treatment and care that they so badly need.

The money for this fiasco must come from some place. And it must come from the taxes that the citizens of Florida pay into the coffers of the State.

And yet, the wealthy 20 lean back and pop the whips of "do as we say or don't do at all."

May we suggest to our lawmakers that a continuous session, 24 hours a day, be started immediately, to settle the reappointment problem of the State.

Monetary Leaders Spoil Warm-Up

NEW YORK (AP)—In a business boom it's hard to spot the point where soundness ends and excess begins. The Federal Reserve banks are raising the rates at which they'll lend money to member banks, and at the same time are keeping a tight rein on the supply of money available for banks to lend to business.

But the nation's monetary leaders think they've spotted inflation warming up and are moving today to forestall its hurling a bean ball. That's why they are boosting extreme case out of mortgages, and browbeating on any tendency to runaway speculation in the stock market.

What the administration and banking leaders seem to fear isn't price inflation, now showing up in industrial materials, but credit inflation. Times are good and if business doesn't cross the line where soundness ends and excess begins, times will stay that way. The Federal Reserve banks are raising the rates at which they'll lend money to member banks, and at the same time are keeping a tight rein on the supply of money available for banks to lend to business.

The commercial banks are raising the interest rates on their loans to business — and just at the time when the volume of such loans is starting to rise toward its usual fall peak.

The Federal Reserve frankly says its aim is to "discourage excess borrowing and protect the

JAMES MARLOW

Reds Like Own Plan, Ike Has More

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Russians, rejecting President Eisenhower's arms control plan, say they like their own better. Eisenhower will come up with another. What are the differences between the two countries on disarmament?

They can be explained in terms of three ideas:

1. For years the United States had insisted there could be no disarmament without complete inspection, meaning, in the case of the United States and Russia, that each would agree to teams of international inspectors.

In both countries these inspectors would have complete freedom to go where they wished and check as they pleased to be sure neither side was cheating after agreeing to disarm and particularly after agreeing on abolishing atomic weapons.

In that way only, the United States felt, could any country be sure it wasn't being kidded into disarming itself while another got ready to attack it.

There the matter stood for years, neither side yielding.

Last May 19 the Russians yielded a bit — but not as far as the United States wanted. They said they would agree to teams of international inspectors being stationed in Russia, but their movements would be limited. They could not have full freedom to check anywhere in Russia. They're stationed at strategic points, like rail centers and airfields.

This was the reasoning behind their offer: No great power nowadays could prepare for war against another without vast movements of troops, planes and materials, all of which could be spotted by the inspectors at the airfields and rail centers. They could sound a warning.

The Western Powers are suspicious of this idea. A similar system was set up in Korea after the armistice there but in North Korea the Reds got around the agreement by building new transportation centers away from those under inspection.

Nevertheless, since May 10 Eisenhower has indicated that perhaps the United States would settle for something less than the 100 per cent foolproof system previously insisted upon by this country.

At his Geneva meeting with Russian Premier Bulganin and the Premiers of Britain and France, Eisenhower proposed on July 21 a twofold plan as an example of this country's desire for disarmament: (A) exchange complete blueprints on their military establishments and (B) agree to let each other's planes take aerial photographs inside their territories to check on military strength.

Bulganin rejected Eisenhower's proposal on the grounds that the areas of the United States and Russia are so huge either side could conceal anything it wished. He said the Russians regard their May 19 idea as more realistic.

Shortly afterwards, at his news conference Eisenhower, apparently not disturbed by the Russian turn-down, said the United States intends to make some new proposals late this month.

He has had Harold E. Stassen studying the whole disarmament problem to bring it up to date and make new recommendations which probably will be different from those this country had insisted upon for years.

Eisenhower said this matter will take a lot of examination by a lot of experts.

Check Meter During Intervals

BOSTON (AP)—When the policeman says you're speeding and you insist you weren't, chances are you're both right—because your speedometer probably is wrong.

That's the opinion of Robert S. Krutchmar, executive secretary of the American Automobile Assn., in Massachusetts.

"On newer cars," he said, "more than 20 per cent of those checked had speedometers that were 'slow.'"

Krutchmar advised motorists to have their speedometers checked at least once a year because "even the most accurate of them begin to get 'fast' or 'slow' after 15,000 or 18,000 miles."

WIN PENDLETON
"Lightning" Syd Hurlon—Making or changing a law usually is a slow and tedious job. Seldom can such fast action be made as Congressman Syd Hurlon managed last week. In one morning's mail he received two letters pointing out an inequality in the new social security law. He dug through the files — studied the law — and quickly agreed that his constituents had a point in their favor. When the Ways and Means Committee met that morning, he brought up the question. His colleagues agreed that it sounded unfair as written — so a check was made with the Social Security people. They said it wouldn't amount to a lot of money if the law was changed. Syd immediately wrote a bill and presented it to the committee — then rushed to the floor and introduced it — attached to the pending legislation and had a number assigned to it (Not the usual procedure by any means). By the time he had returned to his desk in the Ways and Means Committee room with the bill number, he found his bill already had been voted out of committee. Since this is the only amendment on the "hot-tailed" Social Security Bill, it is almost certain to pass. All within less than a day. Friends of his on the committee think he may have set some kind of a record with his fast footwork.

"I don't have a dime," the lady exclaimed and hurried away before Weber could tell her he could take it out of the $3.
"Borrowed it," she smiled.
Weber took the certificate and the dime and pushed out a $3 bill.
"Please change it. I have to pay back the loan," the lady said.

Q. What is the name of this out of meat?
A. Beef blade pot roast.
Q. Where does it come from and how is it identified?
A. It comes from the beef chuck. It is identified by the long, thin blade bone it contains.
Q. How is it prepared?
A. By braising. The pot roast is browned first in 2 or 3 tablespoons of lard or drippings. Then a small amount of liquid is added, from 1/2 to 1 cup. The meat is covered closely and allowed to simmer over low heat until tender. Cooking time for a 3 to 5 pound pot roast is from 3 to 4 hours.

MR. AND MRS. ROBERT H. BERG (Photo by Cox)

At 2 p. m. Sunday Miss Sandra Ann Dunn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Dunn was married to Robert Raymond Berg, son of Mrs. L. J. Berg of New Kensington, Pa., in the First Presbyterian Church.

The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. A. G. McInnis in a setting of white gladioli, chrysanthemums, and ferns. White candles with 12 burning tapers were banked by potted palms and the family pews were marked by arrangements of tuberoses and ferns.

Mrs. George Toash, organist played "Serenade" and "Because" while Miss Norma Faye Harvey, soloist, sang "How Do I Love Thee" and "Because."

The bride given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a ballerina length gown of white tulle and net. The deep neckline was gathered at intervals and embellished with delicate pink tulle. Her petite beauty was enhanced by a light fitting lace bodice coming to a point at her tiny waist. The skirt was of white tulle overlaid with a bouffant skirt fashioned with three tiers of ruffles fanning out to a bell shape at the bottom. The bride wore a single strand of pearls. On her head she wore a tiny white band on the edges of which fell a cascading veil of nylon tulle. The veil was gathered at the top of the head and across the front was a tiny ruffle of matching net from the skirt. She carried a white Bible, a gift from the groom, topped with a cluster of orange blossoms, lilies of the valley and cascading satin streamers interwoven with baby's breath. She wore white lace shoes.

Miss Patricia Dunn, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and gowned in a pink princess-style tulle dress with a waistline seam and deeply scooped neckline edged by a band which stood up away from her neck. The skirt was extremely wide composed of twelve gores. She wore a string of pearls and carried a cascading bouquet of pink carnations embellished with natural greenery and tied with pink bows. Her shoes were of pink lace and she wore a half hat of tiny pink flowers edged with veiling. On her right wrist she wore a silver bracelet bearing one silver heart, a gift of the bride.

Best man was Tommy Saunders of Charleston, S. C. and acting as usher groomsmen were Bud Jennings and Robert Cushing.

Mrs. Dunn chose for her daughter's wedding a street length dress of rosewood silk shantung with a grey background dotted with tiny pink flowers. It featured a sweetheart neckline and a gird skirt joined at the hip line. Her accessories were pink and she wore a corsage of carnations and rosebuds.

The groom's mother wore a street-length dress of pointed green and white nylon featuring a fitted waist and a novelty collar accented by white accessories. On her left shoulder she pinned a corsage of carnations and rosebuds.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the Educational Building of the church. It was decorated with the bride's flowers and potted palms. Mrs. J. W. Brown was in charge of the reception and Mrs. Charles Dunn Jr. and Mrs. A. L. Collins served the cake while Mrs. Charles Dunn Sr. and Mrs. John Dunn served the punch.

Mrs. L. P. Fayton attended the bride's book and floating hostesses were Mrs. A. C. Cleveland, Miss Fatsy Collins, Miss Jeanette Cleveland and Miss Patty Walker.

The couple cut the four-tined wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom standing under an arch of flowers centered by a wedding bell.

For a wedding trip through Florida Mrs. Berg wore a charcoal summer dress with yellow accessories. Upon their return they will reside at 801 W. First St.

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. L. J. Berg, Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Bruley, Fiance, Remaley, New Kensington, Pa.; Lt. Paul F. Hodgens, Tennessee; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dunn Sr., Aberdeen, N. C.; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dunn Jr. and son of Orlando and Tommy Saunders, Charleston, S. C.

The bride was born in Sanford and attended local schools graduating from Seminole High School in 1934. She was active in Glee Club as a member of the Triple Trio, president of the Tri H. Y., was a cheerleader, received two Jaycees, American Legion and Daughters of the American Revolution awards at graduation. She was chosen as one of the six outstanding senior girls of that class. She is employed by The Sanford Herald.

Boxing Movie In For Trouble, Producer Says

HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 6.—Boxing, the dead end kid of sports, may as well brace itself for another going-over from Hollywood.

"The Harder They Fall," a book that was a striking indictment of at least one phase of boxing, is going to be put on the screen.

"I don't think boxing is a sport in any sense of the term."

So said Philip Yordan, who is producing the picture and writing the screen play.

Yordan's sentiments caused any thought that the movie version would soften the blow punched out by the author of the book, Budd Schulberg.

"The Harder They Fall" is supposedly fiction but it is a story that not uncaringly parallels the boxing career of Primo Carnera.

The huge Italian occupied the world heavyweight throne for one year until he was battered into a dreadful mess in 1934 by Max Baer.

The era of Carnera—the fantastic and phony buildup of a hulking giant who was anything but a champion fighter, and the gangster atmosphere that dominated the spectacle from its origin to its finish—is indeed a vulnerable one for boxing.

Yordan obviously does not intend to miss any chances to jab and gouge where it will hurt.

Nothing in agreement to the producer's observation was Mark Robinson, who will direct the film. He, too, has no illusions about the glamor of the business.

Yordan said he does not anticipate the warmest reception from the fight people when actual filming gets underway, with Humphrey Bogart as the star.

He hopes to shoot scenes in New York's Madison Square Garden and Stillman's gym, rusty musty training site for the fighters, as well as some of the pubs along Eighth Avenue where the Gotham boxing crowd gathers.

He indicated he will not be floored with surprise if the International Boxing Club, which owns the Garden, proves to be reluctant in granting use of the big arena.

Thus far, he said, he has had difficulty acquiring old movies of some of Carnera's fights. Once they were easy to obtain.

The character to play the giant boxer has not been selected.

Relatives Give Rehearsal Supper For Wedding Party

A pre-rehearsal dinner was given Saturday night at Toldy's Restaurant for the party of the Dunn-Berg wedding which was performed yesterday afternoon.

The delicious turkey dinner was given by Mr. and Mrs. John Dunn and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Dunn, uncles and aunts of the bride.

Beautiful floral arrangements of white gladioli arranged with pink and white pop poms and interspersed with deep green ferns captured the mood of the evening.

The honored couple later presented those in the wedding party with gifts as a remembrance of the happy occasion.

Among those invited to be with Miss Sandra Dunn and Robert Berg were her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Dunn, the Rev. and Mrs. A. G. McInnis, Mr. and Mrs. George Toash, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dunn Sr., grandfather of the bride, Mrs. L. J. Berg, the groom's mother, Miss Norma Faye Harvey, Miss Pat Dunn, sister of the bride, Thomas Saunders, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Remaley, Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Cushing, Bill Jennings, and the hosts and hostesses.

Boys Make Good At Baylor Camp

Two lads from Sanford were among those receiving trophies and ribbons at the closing exercises of The Baylor Summer Camps at Chattanooga, Tenn., last week.

These boys and their awards are Roy Wright, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Wright, 445 Elliott Ave., who holds the trophy for overnight camping and horses; ribbons for second place in the Canoe Regatta doubles; 25 yard back stroke, third place; and first place in 100 yard relay in the swimming meet.

Glynn Hodges, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Hodges, Paola Road, holds the trophy for third place in archery and third place ribbon in the canoe Regatta doubles.

2 Coaches Robbed Of Traditional Job As 'Town Criers'

GAINESVILLE, Fla.—Tom Gannarelli and Frank Lorenzo are robbed of the traditional role as "town criers" as they prepare for the annual Florida High School All Star game. They haven't anything to cry about since their players are the pick of 1955 high school graduates—most of them top prospects for future college stardom.

Gannarelli had just one day's look at the linemen on his North squad and violated the cardinal rule of coaching by saying how happy he was with his material.

He has some pretty fair backs too—for instance Edwin C. Johns who gained 1,200 yards rushing for P. K. Yonge of Gainesville last season; Don Lucey of Daytona Beach Seabreeze, the state sprint champion; Ronald Kite, who scored 18 touchdowns for Lake Butler, and half a dozen others with similar accomplishments.

Lorenzo's South squad is stacked just as high or higher with talent. Larry Forts of Miami High and Olin Greene of Miami Edison each scored 86 points in the tough magic city competition. Richard Bethea of Clewiston scored 178 points last season. Billy Childress of Dan McCarty High at Fort Pierce scored 108. And there's plenty more too.

Meanwhile the basketball All Stars arrived to start practice for their Wednesday night game. Bucky Hawk of St. Petersburg is coaching the South and Joe Nelson of Daytona Beach Seabreeze the North.

Doug Ford Takes Tam O'Shanter All-American

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN
CHICAGO (U)—Four-year-old Mike straddled Doug Ford's shoulders and pounded tom-tom fashion on his head.

The dad said: "I guess I'll go back to the trailer and do some baby sitting. I've got another, Pamela. But she's only 8 months old."

Doug Ford is the hottest prospect on the circuit right now. His check of $3,450 for winning the All-American Tournament at Tam O'Shanter yesterday boosted his earnings for the season to $19,030 and gave him third place on the PGA money-winning list.

The 22-year-old Ford, winner of the national PGA crown two weeks ago, took the All-American prize with a final 70 for a 72-hole total of 277-11 under par.

Instead of the windup being a race for the title, it was more a retreat. While Ford breezed in with a 2-under 70, British Open champion Peter Thomson, the 34-hole leader, ballooned to 79 for 284 and seventh place.

Most of the other front runners also collapsed with the result that little-known Lee Siggett, Willsborough, Ohio, took second with 70 for 280, and a four-way tie for third developed among Ted Kroll, Tony Holguin, Jimmy Demaret and Freddie Haas—each at 282.

"Of course the big one is yet to come," said Ford. "I mean the World Tournament (starting Thursday). I would settle right now for 274. If the weather remains good, I think it will take that to win."

The 72-hole grand in the World event pays the winner $50,000 in cash and guarantees $58,000 more for its exhibition matches.

Other divisions of the All-American came out this way:
Women's amateur—Walt Smith, Mt. Clair, Mich., 312.

Gold Cup Detroit Bound

SEATTLE (U)—The Gold Cup, orderly symbol of America's speedboat championship, headed back to Detroit today after a merry Sunday mixup in which a loser was the winner and the winner cheered too soon.

Gale V. Joe Schoenitz's romping monster, earned the cup on points.

Half a million people—that's the Seattle police department's estimate of the crowd—thought the victory belonged to Miss Thriftway. This brand new Seattle entry in the speedboat racing picture roared to clear-cut victories in the second and third heats of the 48th 50-mile classic.

The Gale, driven by the owner's son, Lee Schoenitz, finished second in the first heat, second in the second heat and third in the last 50-mile go-round.

But when the race officials figured up the time they found that Gale needed 4.31 fewer seconds to negotiate the 50 miles than did the Thriftway, which finished third in the first heat. The earned Gale a bonus of 400 points for running the fastest race. With points earned during the heats, Gale wound up with 1,223.

Miss Thriftway, lacking a bonus, finished with 1,028 points. The Six-Mo-Shun IV, which brought the Gold Cup to Seattle in 1950, was in the thick of the point scramble until her engine conked out on the next-to-last lap of the final heat. She got third place on the Cup ladder.

The Six-Mo-Shun IV set a couple of records in winning the first heat. Her 107 miles per hour for the third lap and 108 for the heat were new marks in gold cup competition. Failure to finish cost her the 400-point bonus she could have had for recording the day's fastest heat.

Wally Is Defeated By Grandpa Charlie

By SAM LONTEMAN
(Staff Writer)

Well, it happened! Had I not seen it with my own eyes, I positively would not believe it and, even so, right now, I still think it was the very miracle that I said last week might possibly happen. It is a match played before a small but enthusiastic, interested and somewhat partisan gallery, "Grandpa" Charlie Morrison with his back to the wall, so to speak, and on the verge of going down to defeat at the capable hand of young Wally Phillips Jr., staged a remarkable comeback and pulled out the exhibition single set match on the courts of the Mayfair Inn by a score of nine games to seven.

It was indeed an exciting exhibition. Young Wally only 13 years of age, took an early lead of five games to one and it certainly looked like certain for the veteran of over 30 years of tennis action. In fact, Morrison told this writer at one time when the players were changing sides, "Sam, I've got my mind all ready... there's an old saying, 'Youth shall be served' and this youngster has the shot, the youth, the temperament and it looks like 'his' day." And with Wally holding the five to one game lead, it would have taken a miracle for Morrison to come out the victor.

Seated on the sidelines benches were Wally's parents, his sister Merritt, his most ardent supporters, little Miss Kay Ivey and her brother Jack with a teenage unknown (to this reporter) guest, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Dean, Dr. John Morgan, Joel Moss, Ben Steel and several others. In a just west of the screen, were Mr. and Mrs. A. B. McHenry, son-in-law and daughter of the apparent victim, Charlie's wife, Laura, sat on the grass behind the north back-stop, evidently not at all anxious to see her husband go down in defeat to a youngster 50 years his junior.

It was with the score four to one against him, that Charlie took time out to pop something into his mouth and take a sip of a bottled drink offered him by his spouse. Whatever it was, it didn't do any good for Charlie lost his service and was way, way down five to one. Wally, perhaps feeling sorry for the old-timer and (feeling confident) that he could put on the pressure any time he wanted to, stood up and lost his service. Now, now, young Phillips leading five to two, Morrison held his next service; Wally lost his again and then Charlie crossed the net by holding his service and it was five all. Again Wally lost his service giving Morrison the lead six games to five whereas the young tennis star broke Morrison's service and owned the games at six all. At this exciting point Wally had service and he served to set the match to the amusement of the gallery the veteran granddaddy of Central Florida tennis ran out the net by taking the next three games.

Asked by a spectator what he swallowed when he was down four to one, Morrison stated that it was just a large lump of sugar for a quick energizing pick-up. How did he feel after being on

Sammy White Feels Red Sox Pitching Better

BOSTON, U.—Sammy White—the man who caught "em"—feels the Boston pitching staff is improving down the stretch of the torrid American League pennant race as the Red Sox prepare to prove it against New York.

The fourth-place Sox, a game and a half out of first, invade Yankee Stadium tomorrow night for the first of a three-game series with the Yanks, who are three points back of front-running Chicago.

"Frankly, I don't think our pitchers have reached their peak yet," says White. "They've been improving all along. Every one of them is stronger now. This could be the best pitching staff among the contenders."

White, recently called "the best receiver in the league" by Cleveland manager Al Lopez, singled out Willard Nixon, who will start tomorrow night.

"Nixon has won five in a row starting with the first game of the July 4 double-header we swept in New York. He's getting better as he goes along." (Nixon's season's record is 11-3 and his lifetime mark against the Yanks, 7-2.)

White banged out two doubles and a single in yesterday's 10-13 win over Kansas City.

White, durable and dependable, has been a big cog in Boston's uphill dash since early June. So valuable is he that despite the avowed capabilities of reserve Pete Daley, White has appeared behind the plate in all but four of the club's 108 games. His judgment commands complete respect from the pitchers.

His 285 batting average is deceptive. His lineup has had a drive in 67 runs.

Islanders Throw Last Minute Surge To Top Gainesville

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Daytona Beach scored five times in the ninth to beat Gainesville 19-18. Fourth place Cocoa beat West Palm Beach 6-3 in 11 innings. A scheduled Labor Day game between Daytona Beach and West Palm Beach was postponed and may be held since the two are not scheduled to meet again.

Frank Mirfield, Daytona Beach pitcher, won his own game with a two-run triple in the ninth. In that big inning for the Islanders also came a double by Mike Priddy, singles by Ken Lofthall and Vern Watercrutter and two walks. The late Daytona Beach man took the starting role away from Al Gennett who drove in four Gainesville runs with four hits.

Cocoa's Doug Williams doubled in the bottom winning run over West Palm Beach. An error provided another run for a cushion. West Palm Beach scored once in the ninth to send the game into extra innings.

THE LITTLE LEAGUE LEARNING CURVE

IF YOU CAN GET IN FRONT OF EVERY BALL FROM GOING THROUGH YOUR FEET, YOUR BODY WILL HELP PREVENT A GROUND BALL FROM GOING THROUGH YOUR FEET. YOU SHOULD BE ABLE TO FIELD IT SUCCESSFULLY.

WELL, YOU CAME TO SHOW ME THE DANGERS OF SPACE! AND I'M ENJOYING THE EDUCATION!

OH, YOU GUYS WERE DEADLOCKED? GOING INTO TENTH? LET'S HOLD THESE EGGS DOWN!

WONDER HOW JERRY'S MAKING OUT WITH THOSE GIRLS? HEY, I KNOW GAIL AND PAULA—THEY SOUND LIKE THEY'RE INTO HIM!

WHA! OH—JUST HUNG IN TO MYSELF EARLIER. STILL PUZZLING OVER WHAT TO NAME MY TWINS!

WHAT A WIFE TO SAY, DREAM!

WITH A RUNNER ON BASE, A SHIRT CATCHER COMES UP TO CROUCH AFTER EACH PITCH. READY TO FIRE A PEG TO BASE?

THREE DATES

WASN'T DOUG A DOLL TO LET ME HAVE HIS CAR WHILE HE'S AWAY ON THAT CANOE TRIP?

I SAW IT PARKED OUT FRONT—TAKE A TIP—KEEP AN EYE ON IT!

COME ON!—I'LL DRIVE YOU HOME! YIKES!—I'VE LOST THE KEY!

HOW ABOUT THAT?

I WISH YOU WOULDN'T DATE BOYS YOU HARDLY KNOW!

OH, BUT DAD, ALLISON'S NOT A STRANGER! NOT REALLY, I MEAN!

HE SAYS HE'S KNOWN ABOUT US FOR LITERALLY YEARS!

WELL, THAT'S DIFFERENT! THAT MAKES HER A FRIEND OF THE FAMILY!

PRACTICALLY, I GUESS—

HIS FATHER USED TO BE AN OLD BOY FRIEND OF MOM'S!

LOVE RANGES

NEW QUEEN BEE MOVED IN WITH HER COLONY DOWN BY THE OLD EYECANON...

RAT-TAT-TAT!

SAY... THIS FELLOW'S A GOOD REPORTER!

HUNTERS COMIN' DOWN THE OLD FOREST ROAD... YOU SURE, DIMSIE?

RAT-TAT-TAT-TAT-TAT!

SCRATCH!

HUNTERS! HUNTERS! HUNTERS!

BLAM! BLAM! BLAM!

CLICK, DAW!

WHY SEE NOW WHY I PREFER CRITTERS TO PEOPLE?

STACEY WILL NEED INFORMATION FROM FERRELL!

WHEN AM I GO TO MEET PLACE, WE FOLLOW!

SHOTS IT, TONTO, AND WE'LL FIND FERRELL!

YOU'RE NOT GON' ANYPLACE!

CHUCKS BLANDERS

ALL RICH UP THE HORSE IN TOWN, STACEY, BABY! BRING YOU THE OFFERIN' MONK!

HE BELIEVES I'ND FOR THE OPTION TO BUY THE BUNCH! THAT PROVES THE HORSE'S VALUE! HE'S DRIVING AWAY ANY OTHER FRIEND!

WANT A SOUNDAN' ALL BUCKY!

HE'S COMIN' PERSON!

CHUCK! SET THE MESSAGE!

IF CHUCKY WILL BE COMIN' TO BRIDGESPORT 'N' ARMYVILLE ALONG ROUTE 2, AIR COVER WILL—

GO ON!
