In Bank Affair Is Ordered By Judge

NASHVILLE, Tenn., July 11.—

(AP)—Speaking in open court with the grand jury present Judge Charles Gilbert yesterday instructed Richard M. Atkinson, district attorney general to draw a conspiracy indictment against Collake Lea, publisher, und Luke Lea, jr., in connection with affairs of the closed Liberty Bank & Trust company of Nashville.

The judge's order said it appeared to the court "an indictable offense, towit, unlawful conspiracy in violation of section 6693 of the code of Tennessee" had been committed "and that Luke Lea and Luke Lea, jr., are probably guilty thereof."

Since no private citizen would NASHVILLE, Tenn., July 11.

Since no private citizen would agree to act as prosecutor, Judge Gilbert directed Atkinson to file the bill of indictment as ex-officio prosecutor and to comply with the order within five days.

When the grand jury reported yesterday, the foreman told the judge Atkinson had been before the investigators, but that no action had been taken in regard to the Liberty Bank, which closed last November, followed shortly after the suicide of its president, R. E.

Upon receipt of the grand jury's eport, Judge Gilbert summone Atkinson into open court, where all the investigators were present, and gave instructions for filing of the bill of indictment.

The attorney general told the coult he was ready and willing at all times to perform his duty. He here yesterday when his wife, Frank Lemons, 32, the father, Liberty Bank or in any other concourthouse quickly by a defense

Law Will Be Made

SALT LAKE CITY, July 11, sAP) Sentor Smoot, chairman of the Senate finance committee and co-author of the Smoot-Hawley tariff act, expressed belief yesterday there will be no revision of the law at the forthe ming sea-ion of Congress. Commenting on a statement by Senator Robinson of Arkansas, the Democratic leader, raying an effort at revision would be made in the next session, Senator Smoot said:

"I desire to call Senator Robincon's attention to the fact that never has a tariff bill been enacted during a session immediately predo not think for a moment that revision of the tariff will be made at this coming ression of Congress. Under the flex ble provision of the present tarff act either reductions or increases can be cored on specific items, without disturbing our whole financial and business structure."

Refetring to protest; on the Smoot-Hawley far ff from foreign governments, the Hance chairman thereof the Scinter Thomaso-Oklahoma Demo int, Lad sent a letter to other countries, "inviting criticisms from the r respective foreign countr'es against the pro vision of the Smoot-Hawley bill and particularly requesting crit's cisms as to whether the enactment of the bill would affect their countries."
