PARIS, Oct. 9.—The story of the seven-hour incommunicado detention of Harold J. T. Horan, Universal Service Paris correspondent, by the police was given much attention by the morning papers here today.

Horan was arrested in a spectacular fashion in the secret service investigating his diplomatic "leak" leading to the publication in Universal Service of the text of secret messages of instructions sent to the French Embassy at Washington in connection with the Anglo-French naval accord.

Horan was arrested in his office last night after he had signed a paper to the effect that he would give up his secret service investigating his diplomatic "leak" leading to the publication in Universal Service of the text of secret messages of instructions sent to the French Embassy at Washington in connection with the Anglo-French naval accord.

Horan stated today that after his arrest he was not allowed to communicate with anyone, nor even his lawyer, and was not released until he had signed a paper in which he agreed to leave France on Thursday. Horan also asserted that he was taken to face a possible five years sentence in prison unless he signed the paper.

The "Echo de Paris" after quoting Horan's statement that he would have been liable to five years imprisonment if he had signed the expiation paper, went on to say: "It is not possible that Horan was guilty of obtaining the document."

"Le Populaire" pointed out "it must be recalled that it has been said that in official circles in London there were intimations that the French Government was not negatively unaware of the manner of this journalistic indiscretion."

In denying the secrecy of the police in the matter, "Ami du Peuple" pointed to the official communiqué of the prefecture of (Continued on page 4.)

Politics Grow Warm In Georgia As Carnes Is Injected Into Situation

ATLANTA, Oct. 9.—(INS)—Additional indictments were faced by Clinton A. Carnes, ascending treasurer of the Southern Baptist Home Mission Board, as the grand jury went into session today.

Bolton General John A. Boggs indicated that a large number of his bills would be asked before identification of the investigation. At least 40 indictments, he said, might be brought from different transactions with banks in which Carnes is alleged to have represented the mission board in his own interests.

The name of Carnes was injected into the Al Smith campaign today on a live political issue and stirred up a hotly contested headquarters of the two wings of the Democratic party in Atlanta,

MOTORCADE IS BEING PLANNED BY TRADE BODY

Good Will Tour Will Be Made Next Week;
All Communities In

Volusia And Lake
Stops Are Planned

Merchants Will Give Away Many Tickets
To Vitaphone Film

With a large number of business firms co-operating, the Chamber of Commerce today was completing plans for the staging of its annual good will motorcade Oct. 17 and 18 through Seminole County and parts of two adjoining counties, Lake and Volusia.

The motorcade will be a two-day affair with between 50 and 60 expected to participate. The first of the tour will take the party to every town and community in that county, while on the second day the group will visit DeLand, Springs, Orange City and Eustis, Tavares, Mount Dora and Sorrento in Lake county.

Although plans for entertaining the motorcade at the various stops have not been completed, reception groups are expected to greet the visitors all along the route. The party expects to make the first day in Orlando and possibly at DeLand on the second day.

One of the public's features to be inaugurated in connection with the motorcade will be the distribution of Milne Theater tickets by the group of merchants who are helping to sponsor the event.

The merchants today announced arrangements for the purchase of a block of tickets to hand out to everyone who greets the motorcade.

The tickets will be redeemable between the hours of 11 and 3 on days following the motorcade.

Admission will be to the first offering of Vitaphone pictures in Orlando. (Continued on page 4.)

As the national election draws near it becomes more difficult for even an occasional so-called Democrat to withhold his vote from the nominees of the Democratic party.

Loyal Democrats have never been in serious doubt as to their party allegiance since the party spoke its election or convention. They have felt all along that it was not likely that the party had for a moment neglected its principles or forgotten the people who constitute it.

The Democratic party is the party of the South and must continue to do so. We must all our birthright for a mass of us. Our fathers have waged bitter conflict that our principles should live. Must we now divert and align with our enemies?

An occupational license ordinance passed at a recent special session was re-enacted in Senate with charter provisions. The document provides that a license of $200 be required of all outside betting firms operating tracks in Sanford; a $100 license for peddlars of merchandise; a $10 tax for autos; a daily license fee of $25 for roller skating rinks in permanent structures and a $2 daily license for chautauquas and similar entertainment brought here under auspices of local civic, religious or fraternal organizations.

The Commission designated Thursday and Friday afternoon of this week for hearing complaints from all property owners as to property assessments. The Commission has been sitting the past few days on an executive board and had decided to hold two extra sessions to hear citizens who have not already appeared before the board or who have not received cards notifying them of the meetings.

"If Dr. Barton had paid half as much attention to Carnes as he has to the presidential fight the board would be $1,000,000 to the good," Hardwick said in a speech.

"This is the second lost we Baptists have suffered in the past few months. Unless something is done we Baptists are going to have to employ a man or a Catholic to take care of our money. The same corner has failed us," he said.

The Commission named H. C. Maxwell, W. E. Bettis and J. R. Lawrence as inspectors and L. P. Chittenden as clerk for the approaching city primary election.

It was started last night when

Thomas W. Hardwick, who is stamping Georgia for the Smith Democratic ticket, attacked Dr. A. J. Barton, member of the Baptist Missing Board and a leader of that denomination in the South, in connection with the alleged $7,000,000 shortage of Carnes.

The Beauty Shop

Reduction for the Nose

Meaning reduction for the nose without the aid of the beauty surgeon's knife. And be it known, we wish to be taken seriously in this matter.

The boy with the big nose is given credit for force of character, and sooner or later finds himself called down an executive job.

The girl with the big nose writes to the beauty column asking "Who or what is the nearest, cheapest and best nose reduction clinic?"

Well having seen one young woman with a "fixed" nose and having heard from authoritative sources of a dozen or more nose alterations that proved tragic, we are inclined to recommend the hairdresser and the milliner in preference to the beauty surgeon.

In other words, it is usually safer and much less expensive to reduce the apparent size of the nose than to turn it over to an "expert" for chiseling. And following are a few of the rules for making a conspicuous nose seem less so.

The nose that juts too far forward can be made to look shorter by building out the coiffure in back. If the hair is bobbed, avoid a close shingle. Rather encourage the hair to thicken at the back.

If hair is long, fluff it out and finish it off with a generous "bum."

Pretty much the same rule applies in the selection of hats. And the hat with a brim, by the way, should always be given the preference over the tight turban, where the nose is a substantial feature. Which reminds us that we saw a quite handsome lady with a markedly aquiline nose spoiling her picture completely by wearing one of the popular feathered turbans—she chandelier illusion was evident.

But now a word about the bulbous nose, the nose that errs not in the matter of its length but in thickness. This nose—and rejoice ye who have it—is capable of more than apparent reduction. To a very great extent it can be diminished in size actually.

Here the root of the trouble is likely to be merely an excess of flesh and when this is the case, the thing to do is to break down the extra bunch or two of fatty tissue.

SMITH LEAVES TODAY ON TOUR OF DIXIE AREA

Governor Has 4 Active Weeks Ahead Of Him With Much Touring And Speaking To Do

Will Make Only 1 Talk In South

Address At Louisville On Saturday Will Be Broadcast By Radio

ALBANY, N. Y., Oct. 9.—(INS)

Four weeks from today the greatest electoral army the country ever saw will march to the polls to make the big decision.

With these four active weeks ahead of him and much travelling and speaking still to do, Governor Alfred E. Smith sets out from Albany today on the second of his major campaign tours.

He has made his bid for the West. This time he faces south into Virginia, North Carolina, Tennessee, territory that Democratic presidential candidates of other years have not considered it necessary to bother about. In so doing he has yielded somewhat to the importance of Democratic sectional leaders who have been pouring their fears and their doubts into the ears of the party strategists in national headquarters in New York.

They have been clamoring for speeches from the Democratic standard bearer in the border states and even in the Solid South. On this, however, the Governor has been adamant. He will make a personal appearance in Dixie to satisfy the demands of the local leaders, but his only speech of the week has been reserved for Louisville, Ky., next Saturday night.

There, on the border line between north and south, and in a state that is known for the closeness and turbulence of its political battles, Governor Smith will speak his talk, views on Saturday night. The whole Southland, in fact the entire nation will be his audience, via the radio.

The Louisville speech is to be preceded by a two-day tour of the country in back—Virginia, North Carolina and Tennessee. All are normally Democratic states.

Virginia and North Carolina have never given their electoral votes to a Republican presidential candidate. Tennessee strayed off the reservation once, in 1920, when Harding carried by a narrow margin. Because of conditions peculiar to this year, the Democratic strategists want the Governor to exhibit himself to the voters of these states and the Governor somewhat reluctantly consented.

Governor Smith will leave New York tomorrow night in the same motorcar special train that hauled him 6,000 miles through the Midwest and North West.

His first stop in Dixie will be at Richmond, Va., Thursday morning.

He arrives there at 9:15 A. M. for a short stay before proceeding on into North Carolina. He will visit Raleigh at 3 P. M., Greensboro at and Charlotte at 9:30 P. M.

His stay in each place will be short and the activity probably will be confined to hand shaking and defining the familiar brown derby.

Field Trials Will Be Staged During Month Of February

(Continued from Page 1) a large representation from all parts of central Florida, the organization is expected to grow into one of the largest of its kind in the South. Among the officers, Mr. McCord was for several years president of the Southern Ohio Field Trial Association, while Mr. Horning was for 10 years head of the Virginia Field Trial Association. Mr. Holt was one of the organizers of the South Carolina association.

The Florida organization plans to hold its next meeting Friday night, Oct. 19, at 7:30 o'clock at the offices of the Orlando chamber of commerce. All contestants who are interested in the movement and desire to affiliate with the organization are urged to attend the meeting in Orlando. Any information concerning the proposed trials may be obtained by calling the office of the organization.

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—(INS)—William Randolph Hearst, today issued the following statement in connection with the detention in Paris of Harold J. T. Horan, Universal Service staff correspondent.

"I do not see why the French Government should make such a ridiculous fuss over the publication of its secret agreement with Great Britain unless there is something in the agreement which they are ashamed of and do not want the people of the United States to know."

The Florida organization plans to hold its next meeting Friday night, Oct. 19, at 7:30 o'clock at the offices of the Orlando chamber of commerce. All contestants who are interested in the movement and desire to affiliate with the organization are urged to attend the meeting in Orlando.
