Dual Taxation?

Altamonte Commissioners Favor Suit Against Seminole County

By TENI YARBOROUGH
Herald Staff Writer

It was the consensus of the Altamonte Springs Board of Commissioners Tuesday night to actively and financially support efforts to bring a dual taxation suit against Seminole County.

The city commissioners stipulated, however, prior to such action discussions will be held with an expert witness in dual taxation cases to "define areas in the municipality to focus on," City Manager Jeff Etchberger said.

The purpose of the dual taxation suit is to adjust taxes paid by city residents, so they are not paying for county services they don't receive, Etchberger said.

According to Etchberger, city residents are paying city and county taxes while county residents only pay county taxes. Yet, he said, the city residents never benefit from some of the county services they fund.

In a recent dual taxation suit, the City of Palm Beach was "a clear winner," Etchberger said. The lower court ruled in favor of the municipality over the county.

Although the Palm Beach case has not reached the appellate court yet, it could be used as precedent in such cases, he said.

Etchberger said the action is quite expensive and "too much for one municipality to finance on their own." He said Sanford and Casselberry have discussed their intentions of filing a dual taxation suit against the county collectively and have encouraged Altamonte Springs to join them.

The action against Seminole County is necessary because of the "lack of positive action from Seminole County on their fiscal 1981-82 budget, despite our communique to them," Etchberger said.

Casselberry Mayor Owen Sheppard said he and City Attorney Ken McIntosh are currently working on a plan to present to council concerning action against the county.

"As long as we, under the law, provide real and substantial benefits to the citizens, double taxation is not a solid issue," Seminole County Administrator Roger Neiswender said today in response to the Altamonte consensus.

"We are not just a large city. We are an outpost of the state government providing such services for all residents like health, court, jail and others," Neiswender said.

Neiswender said he is willing, at the Board of Commissioners' direction and cities' requests, to "once again sit down with the city officials and try to reach some sort of settlement.

"However, if the cities want to go to court to fight this thing, we'll go to court, too," he said. "The Palm Beach case was decided in a lower court and it is not precedent. We can't make adjustments on every lower court decision. They're overturned too often in higher courts."

Farmers Named To Conference

Three Sanford area farmers have been named delegates to the Governor's Conference on the Future of Small Farms to be held Oct. 30-Nov. 1 in Ocala, Lt. Governor Wayne Mixson announced. Invited to participate on the recommendation of County Agricultural Extension Agent Frank Jessa were Margaret Tucker, Bruce Cepuran and Ezekiel Dixon.

Agriculture is vital to the continued economic success of the people of our State and the small farm is essential to the stability of the agriculture community," Mixson said. "Governor Graham and I look to this Conference to provide direction to state government in the 1990s relative to our encouragement of the existence and growth of the small farm in our State."

"I am looking forward to the insight and sense of direction that we will receive from the 250 delegates we are asking to the meeting," Mixson said.

'Zeke' To Share His Secrets For Small Farm Success

By JANE CASSELBERRY
Herald Staff Writer

"Know what you're doing and do all you can" — that's the formula for successful farming espoused by Ezekiel "Zeke" Dixon of 1910 W. 13th St., Sanford.

Zeke, who will be 76 Oct. 19, is still bullish on America and the merits of hard work after 35 years of scratching a living from the soil.

Named one of three Seminole County delegates to the upcoming Governor's Conference on the Future of Small Farms, Zeke can tell plenty about running a small farm.

The Farmers Home Administration got the benefit of Zeke's common sense and experience when he served last year on the county committee that makes loan recommendations. His term expired in June.

He and his wife of 57 years, Irene, 72, still raise a variety of vegetables year round on the two acres behind their home, but they lease their other five acres of farmland on West First Street. Their youthful energy and enthusiasm belie their age.

Most of the vegetables they grow are sold from their house, while the rest are sold to the produce market at the Sanford Village Flea Market, they said.

"I've learned what it takes to stay in the business," said Zeke, "and from experience I've seen that greed will kill you."

Born in Tait in 1905, Zeke's mother died in childbirth, so he never knew her. When his father remarried he was raised by his stepmother.

A third-grade dropout, Zeke says he was a "kid who was paid not to go to school."

"I had to work so I went to work in the fields," he said. "What I know I know from experience. That way some times you get knocked over the head."

Irene, who was born in Lake City met Zeke when her parents were working as farm laborers in Sanford. She was only 16 when they were married.

"I had $2.50 in my pocket when we got married," Zeke said, "and the marriage license cost $1.50. A friend let me have the money for the license."

"We were married at 7:30 in the morning and I cooked his breakfast afterwards," Mrs. Dixon recalled.

Before buying his own farm, Zeke worked for 20 years for celery grower Otto Schmehl.

Zeke and Irene raised six children and it wasn't easy, they said. During World War II Zeke was called before the local draft board.

"When they learned I was supporting my wife and six children on $15 a week, they said it would cost the government a lot more to do it if I was drafted, and I could serve better by staying where I was," Zeke said.

"When I went into farming we kept our kids in school and they didn't have to drop out to work in the fields," Zeke said. "They all finished high school. Two of my daughters went to college and earned their master's degree. One teaches in Lake County and the other in Maryland."

All of the Dixon children, now between 47 and 55 years old, have moved away from Sanford. The youngest daughter died a year ago. One son, retired after 20 years in the Armed Forces, is now a television technician as is a second son. They own their own businesses. A fourth daughter operates a nursing home in Ft. Pierce.

"I raised my children to be an asset to the community, not a liability and, thank God, everyone of them has grown up to be an asset," Zeke said.

The Dixons also have 15 grandchildren and several great-grandchildren.

Only once was it necessary for the Dixons to accept welfare.

"I was sick and wasn't able to work and support my family, so my employer, Mr. Schmehl, arranged for me to get help from the welfare," said Zeke. "As soon as I felt better I sent my wife down to tell them we appreciated the help, but I had gotten to where I felt we could go on our

$49 Million Budget OK'd

No Tax Hike For Seminole

By DARLENE JENNINGS
Herald Staff Writer

It's official. Seminole County taxes will not be raised for the coming budget year.

The county commission approved a $49.2 million budget for 1981-82 that calls for no tax increase, with hardly a snag Tuesday evening. The approval followed the second public hearing on the budget.

The tax rate for the new budget year will be held at $5.237 per $1,000 of assessed property value.

The only protest about the budget came from the Seminole Community Action (SCA), a community service group, which had asked the board two weeks ago to approve a $17,000 request but was granted only $6,500.

A roomful of SCA supporters attended the meeting. Several asked the board to reconsider its position on SCA funding.

"I'm here to pierce the conscience of the commissioners," said Ruthia Hester, SCA Housing Specialist. "By not putting in the extra $11,000 we need to continue, 65 people may not be able to keep their jobs. If I lose my job," Hester said, "I'm entitled to go down to the food stamp office and the unemployment office and that's going to cost the county more," she said.

"I'm not here to ask for compassion — I'm a taxpayer and I resent that remark — I'm just here asking you to allow us to continue for another year," Hester continued.

Two weeks ago, during the first public hearing both sides of the SCA issue talked about "having compassion" for recipients of SCA services.

Another SCA supporter demanded that the board "justify" cutting SCA's funding.

"Every action has been responsible in putting this budget together," Commission Chairman Bob Sturm replied. "And the budget is reflective of the true needs for most of the people in Seminole County."

Reverend Amos Jones, director of the county board, said he would not be making a final appeal to the board, because according to Jones, "all the score cards were already in."

"Preparations for the budget began in January and it's been a long process and the board of county commissioners has taken a conservative approach to benefit Seminole County," said Eleanor Anderson, Office of Management and Budget Director after final adoption of the budget.

"The board is definitely in line with Reagan's view not to increase taxes," Anderson said.

The board had committed itself, all along, not to raise taxes.

The only other protest to the budget during the budget hearing was in the form of a letter that was entered into the record from Judge S. Joseph Davis concerning the circuit judges' budget.

The letter was read to the public and then submitted to the board. It said: "A 4 1/2 percent increase in the (judges) budget will be inadequate and we request the budget to be restored to the original request."

The judges had asked for $225,888 for 1981-82, but the board has only approved $216,853 for the new fiscal year.

The board approved all county department budgets as proposed in the budget.

Sanford Renews Knowles' Contract

The two paragraph "employment agreement" City Manager W.E. "Pete" Knowles has had with the city of Sanford for more than a decade has been ratified again by Sanford City Commissioners.

Knowles, employed by the city for 28 1/2 years, most of that time as city manager, is guaranteed four months salary as severance pay if he is fired or forced to resign and the same vacation time and benefits as other employees, under the terms of the agreement.

Currently Knowles' annual salary is $42,500 annually. In addition as fringe benefits he is vested in the Florida State Retirement System and is given group health insurance and life insurance. All city employees receive the same fringe benefits.

While regular employees receive $5,000 worth of life insurance, supervisors receive life insurance policies valued at the same amount as their annual salary. Department heads are given 1 1/2 times their annual salary in life insurance benefits and Knowles, as city manager, receives a life insurance policy valued at twice his annual salary.

The severance pay portion of the agreement, says that the four-months salary will be awarded Knowles if he is fired, resigns because his salary is reduced by a larger percentage than other employees or if he is requested to resign by the commission. — DONNA ESTES

Motorcycle Rider Dies After Crash

A 19-year-old Altamonte Springs man, seriously injured in a motorcycle accident in Orange County Sunday night, has died.

Mark Delliaeco of 1026 Woodall Drive died at 10 a.m. Monday at Florida Hospital-Orlando.

The accident in which Delliaeco sustained his fatal injuries occurred about 7:15 p.m. in rural Orange County, according to the Florida Highway Patrol.

A FHP spokesman said Delliaeco was riding his motorcycle north on Apopka Vineland Road when he drove into a curve near Kune Road and ran off the street. He travelled about 100 feet on the grassy shoulder before coming back onto the road and losing control.

The motorcycle slid about 30 feet, flipped over, and slid a short distance before coming to a stop in the northbound lane, the spokesman said.

'Golden Age' Couple Bid Games Tearful Farewell

By JANE CASSELBERRY
Herald Staff Writer

It was an emotional moment this morning for the Golden Age Games Executive Committee and grown men — and women — were unabashedly teary-eyed.

Committee members stunned and saddened with the announcement by Jack and Edith Harrison that they will be leaving Sanford to move back to Maryland to be near their son.

Edith was overall Golden Age Olympics women's champion in 1976 and she and her husband traveled all over the United States promoting Sanford's annual week of competition for senior citizens. She was at the first meeting to plan the Golden Age event seven years ago and has been active on it ever since, as her health permitted.

The Harrisons present scrapbooks documenting each year's games to Golden Age Games Chairman Jim Jernigan and said their reluctant farewells. The committee responded with a standing ovation.

Edith said "This is the hardest thing we've had to do in our 50 years of married life." The Harrisons moved here seven years ago from Maryland and have made many friends through their participation in the Golden Age Games (formerly Olympics).

It was also announced this morning that Buster Crabbe, former movie "Tarzan" and Olympic swimming champion, will, for the third year, be honorary chairman for the Golden Age Games under the sponsorship of General Foods' Post Cereals. He is scheduled to make national television ap-

WORLD IN BRIEF

Terrorists Plant New Bombs Targeted For Americans

FRANKFURT, West Germany (UPI) — Terrorists planted two bombs today on a rail line used to supply the U.S. Air Forces Rhein Main Air Base in the latest attack against Americans, a West German justice spokesman said. The bombs were defused.

The spokesman said the attack, the fifth on Americans and American installations since Aug. 31, was designed to disrupt rail transport to the American air base. It came one day after an attempt to kill Gen. Frederick J. Kroesen, the commander-in-chief of the U.S. Army in Europe.

The West German interior minister said terrorists have marked Americans as their main targets and security officials had expected the ambush of Kroesen to be followed by more attacks.

The bombs, with time fuses attached, were in 13-pound fire extinguishers placed on the tracks on a rail line about a mile from the American base, the spokesman said. They were discovered at 8 a.m. and disarmed about 30 minutes later.

Intelligence agencies have received reports terrorists were planning to disrupt the U.S. Army's two-week annual fall maneuver in Germany that began Monday. Documents found in hideouts also disclosed plans for attacks on American installations.

Egypt-Soviet Ties Breaking

CAIRO, Egypt (UPI) — Egypt and the Soviet Union were close to a complete breakdown in relations today with the expulsion of the Soviet ambassador and six other Russian diplomats, but Cairo said it does not want to sever all ties.

The Egyptian government, retaliating against what it said was a Soviet plot against President Anwar Sadat, Tuesday ordered sweeping expulsions of Soviet diplomats, journalists and technicians and sharply downgraded diplomatic relations.

But Egyptian officials said they did not want to break all lines of communication with the Kremlin, despite charges Soviet Ambassador Vladimir Polyakov personally directed the plot against Sadat.

The officials predicted Moscow would stop short of breaking diplomatic relations with Cairo because it is eager to keep Egypt as a listening post in the Middle East.

pearances and tour Florida on speaking tours.

This year's games will be held Nov. 9-14. Tote bags and caps will be given to participants.

Jernigan and Greater Sanford Chamber of Commerce Executive Manager Jack Horner reported on the National Conference on Fitness and Aging held in Washington last week. The Golden Age Games were featured at the conference and were the only senior citizen program represented there not sponsored by private funds and efforts.

A video tape was prepared by Post to be shown at the conference as a composite of last year's games.

Wimpy Wimberly of the Lake Monroe Amateur Radio Society reported his group would man a base station at the chamber of commerce and portable units at each event at this year's games. Results of each event can be relayed instantly to the headquarters and if needed emergency help obtained.

Treatment For Aging To Be Meeting Topic

Dr. John Nestor, interim director of satellite services for the Seminole County Mental Health Department, will be the guest speaker at Thursday's meeting of the Seminole Resources for Human Needs Committee.

The meeting will begin at noon in the second floor conference room of the Welaka Building, 107 1/2 N. Oak Avenue.

The primary topic of discussion will be treatment programs for the aging in Seminole County.

The public is invited to attend.

WEATHER

NATIONAL REPORT: — Four times in the last 16 days, a hurricane has taken aim at Bermuda and four times it missed. It's happened so often, residents of the resort island are getting used to it. "People are getting a bit blasé about hurricanes here," said Colin Roberts, an editor at the Royal Gazette newspaper at Bermuda. "There is a total lack of preparations this time." The latest threat was from Hurricane Harvey, still a big, dangerous hurricane but no longer a threat to land. At 6 a.m. EDT, the center of Harvey was about 575 miles east of Bermuda, heading east at about 20 mph with winds of 105 mph and slowly decreasing today. In the states, showers and thunderstorms moved from the central Gulf Coast today and up the Atlantic Seaboard. Rain-slick highways in Maryland and Alabama caused traffic accidents that killed five people and injured 23 others Tuesday. A cool Canadian air mass moved into the Plains region and parts of the Midwest today — dropping some early morning temperatures to near 40 degrees. Illinois, Indiana and Michigan reported lows ranging in the mid-40s to low 50s. A frost warning was posted late Tuesday in North Dakota, where temperatures were expected to drop into the low to mid-30s.

Sanford Chief Makes Unexpected Bust

It only happens in the movies. Off-duty Sanford Police Chief Ben Butler was driving home from the station Sunday, when a man ran into the street and flagged him down.

The young man asked, "Are you a police officer?" to which Butler replied, "Yes," adding that he was off-duty. "Well, that guy just robbed a store," the man said as he pointed at a truck driving down the road.

Butler said he gave chase, turning on the emergency light of his unmarked car, and after a short pursuit stopped the suspected robber.

Butler said he held the man at gunpoint until Lake Mary police arrived.

Butler said it was fortunate there was no gunfire since all the commotion drew a crowd.

William R. Love had little choice but to admit to the robbery, Butler said, with the rolls of money bloating his pockets as he stepped from the truck.

William R. Love, 22, of Winter Park, was being held in county jail this morning under $5,000 bond on a charge of robbing the Central Food Store, State Road 434 and Pressview Avenue in Longwood.

TRUCK BURGLARY
Ronald K. Bogen, 21, 4220 S. Orlando Drive found various tools and a television missing from his truck Monday morning, according to Sanford police reports.

A rear window was apparently pried open while the truck was parked at his home. A radio, valued at $85, and tools and tool box valued at $285 were taken sometime during the previous night.

TRIPLE THREAT
Bryan Hatcher only planned to drive his friend home on Goldenrod Road but ended up having his life threatened — three times.

The 17-year-old, of 7607 Village Green told deputies he was acosted between 1 and 1:45 Monday morning by a man who identified himself as a police officer. Hatcher said the man pointed a blue steel revolver in his face and threatened to kill him three times.

Hatcher reported he knew the vicinity in which the man lived.

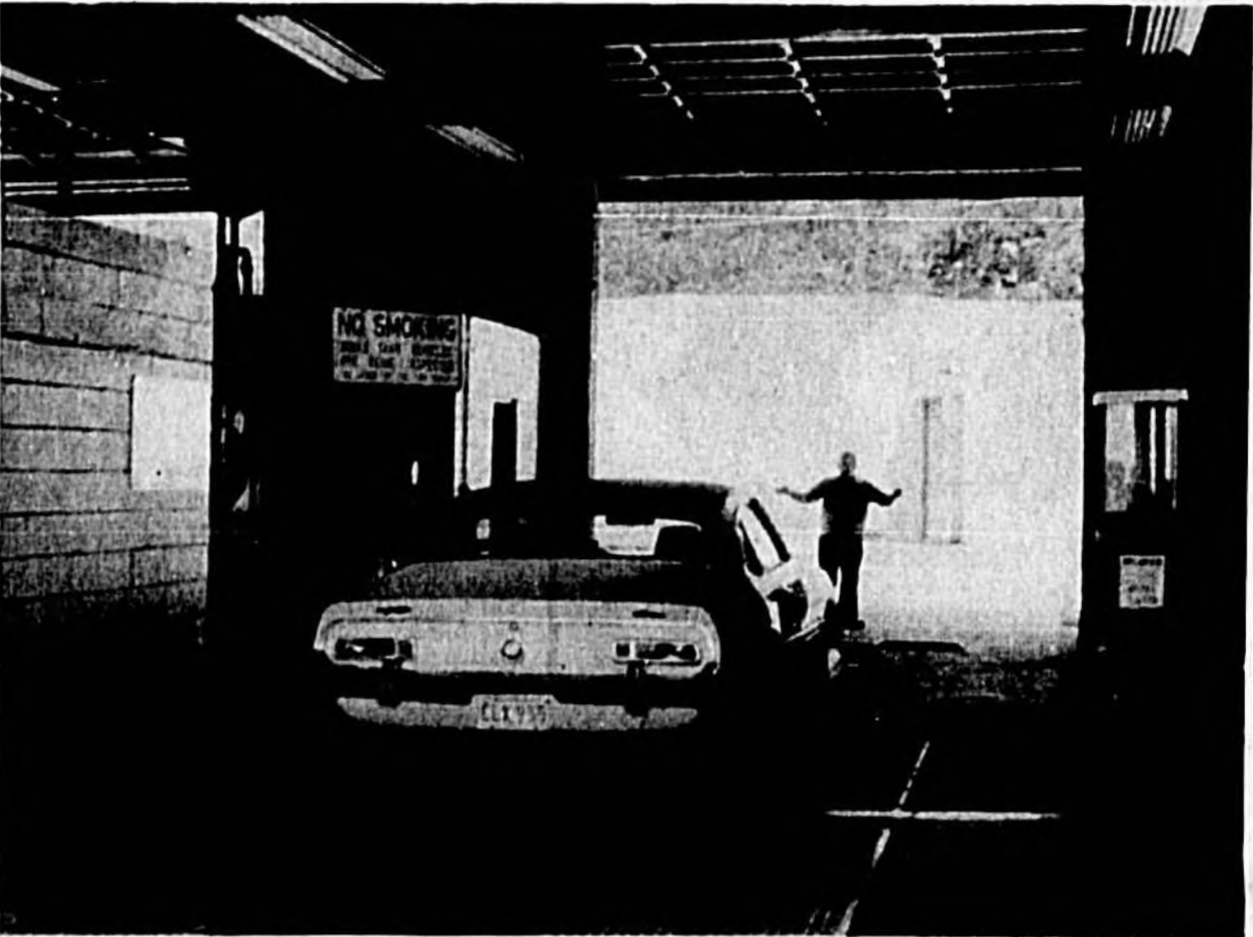

TRAVELING COMPANIONS
A St. Cloud couple told police Monday night they were harassed and assaulted with a knife by two men.

David and Christine Leeper, Rt. 4 Box 4C, St. Cloud, were traveling in their vehicle east on State Road 436 in Altamonte Springs when they noticed another vehicle swerving in and out of traffic, Altamonte Springs police said. When the Leepers turned onto Interstate 4, so did the other vehicle.

The Leeper's told police that the passenger of the other vehicle began shouting obscenities at them and then, threw a glass bottle at the Leeper's car. The glass bottle shattered on the hood of the Leeper's car police said.

Police also said the passenger of the other vehicle struck the Leeper's car with a police-type nightstick and then threw the stick at the car.

This harassment continued into Orange County and the Orlando city limits, police said. In Orlando, both vehicles came to a stop and the driver of the other car threatened the Leeper's with a knife.

LAST CALL
After 5 p.m. Friday the Casselberry Motor Vehicle Inspection station above, will be the only inspection center open in Seminole County — until Sept. 30, when it will close down too. The Sanlando and Sanford stations will close this week. Residents of the county voted this year not to require county inspections.

Winter Springs Pair Wins Unopposed

Winter Springs Mayor Troy Piland and Councilman Maureen Boyd have been re-elected unopposed. Piland was elected to a sixth consecutive term in city office and Mrs. Boyd to a second term on the city council.

City Clerk Mary Norton said today when the candidate qualification period closed Tuesday, neither had opposition. And a spokesman for Seminole Elections Supervisor Camilla Bruce said the names of neither official will appear on the Nov. 3 city election ballot.

Piland was first elected to the city council in March, 1971. Later he was appointed mayor and then elected to that office. He was also elected unopposed two years ago. Mrs. Boyd is completing her first two-year term in office. On the Winter Springs ballot Nov. 3 will be a race for the council seat currently held by Wilfred "Hap" Arnold. Candidates for that seat are former Councilman Bill Jacobs and political newcomer, Burley Adkins.

The people will also be asked on the ballot whether they favor or oppose proposed revisions to the city charter. Among the proposed revisions are changing the name of councilmen to commissioners and changing terms of office from two years to three years. — DONNA ESTES

The Leeper's managed to lose the other car in traffic and notified police of the incident, police said. No arrests have been made.

SMELL THEM, DON'T PICK THEM
A song by a popular country and western singer tells listeners to stop and smell the roses. Well, if you are ever at T.G.L.Friday's, 227 W. State Road 436, just smell the flowers, don't pick them.

According to Altamonte Springs police, James Stevenson, T.G.L. Friday's manager, became quite upset when a young man left the restaurant and pulled a handful of flowers out of the ground along the walkway.

Police said Stevenson yelled at the man to put the flowers back but the man only yelled obscenities at Stevenson and walked to his car in the parking lot.

Stevenson gave police a description of the man and the vehicle and said he will press charges when the man is apprehended.

DIRE PREDICTION
A 30-year-old man was transported to Florida Hospital-Altamonte Monday after deputies restrained him in the middle of Orange Boulevard where he was shouting: "The world is going to end."

Deputies were called when the man broke the window of a nearby house and then kicked in the door trying to enter the home.

The man's mother reported he was a mental patient at the hospital and had not been taking his medication at the time of the incident.

DOUBLE TROUBLE
Dale William Swafford, 22, was arrested at about 9:30 p.m. Monday in the Jal Alal parking lot, U.S. Highway 17-92 in Fern Park, on bigamy charges.

Swafford, with no listed address in Orlando, was arrested by deputies on a warrant issued from Orange County.

Older Americans Won't Shoulder Budget Cuts

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Reagan, seeking to calm older Americans, says budget cuts will not be made "at the expense of those dependent on Social Security."

Reagan Tuesday also said he would veto any appropriation bills that do not fit his budget specifications — guidelines aimed at producing a balanced budget by 1984.

The president made the promise and threat at a White House gathering of business executives. Earlier in the day, Republican leaders suggested Reagan may have to cut Social Security cost-of-living benefits in 1982.

Later, White House communications director David Gergen told reporters Reagan had ruled out politically sensitive cuts in Social Security and a further slash in defense spending next year.

Gergen said Reagan agreed "to look into" the possibility of cuts in social programs, exclusive of Social Security. He said Reagan is firm on reducing military spending by only $2 billion and his view is "defense is not negotiable."

O'Connor A Vote Away

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sandra Day O'Connor — who opposes school busing, favors capital punishment and views abortion as personally "repugnant" — is one vote and an oath away from becoming the Supreme Court's first woman justice.

The Senate Judiciary Committee Tuesday approved Mrs. O'Connor for confirmation, sending President Reagan's nomination of the 51-year-old conservative to the full Senate.

Confirmation seems certain and a vote is expected Monday. She is likely to be sworn in before Oct. 5, the day the Supreme Court reconvenes from its summer recess.

Desegregation Works Well

NEW YORK (UPI) — School desegregation has equalized academic opportunities of blacks and whites and may even promote integration of neighborhoods, a seven-year federally financed study said.

"School desegregation seems to have a positive effect on children," said Dr. Willis D. Hawley of Vanderbilt University in Nashville, Tenn. "Despite all the resistance generally positive results are found."

Hawley said success occurred where integration began earliest — in kindergarten or the first grade. However, he said desegregation was "clearly not as successful as advocates had hoped."

Hawley said there was no evidence to suggest desegregation had a harmful impact on the educational levels achieved by white children.

No-Nuke Assault Continues

AVILA BEACH, Calif. (UPI) — At least 450 anti-nuclear protesters who invaded the Diablo Canyon reactor site by land and sea Tuesday were arrested, but hundreds more massed in the rugged coastal hills today to pursue their long-awaited blockade to stop the reactor's start-up.

Demonstrators, including TV star Robert Blake, paddled ashore in rubber boats, scaled fences on homemade ladders and marched through the brush into the arms of waiting law enforcement officers.

There was no violence. Protesters did not resist as they were handcuffed, herded into buses and hauled off to holding areas at the California Men's Colony and the Cuesta College gymnasium.

Duck Season Shot Down

SALT LAKE CITY (UPI) — Seventeen states in the western half of the country may have to cancel or curtail this year's duck hunting season because waterfowl in Montana have become contaminated with the highly toxic insecticide endrin.

Endrin in high concentrations has been fatal to humans. It causes damage to the central nervous system and brain. In low concentrations, it has caused birth defects in guinea pigs.

Lonnie Schroeder, wildlife biologist with the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, said Tuesday fish and game officials in both the central and Pacific migratory flyways were awaiting the results of tests to determine the extent of the poisoning.

Those tests should be completed by Sept. 25 — eight days before the duck season is scheduled to open.

Schroeder said endrin was sprayed over 125,000 acres of winter wheat near Miles City, Mont., that had been infested by army cutworms.

City Employees Get Pay Raises

Sanford City Commissioners have granted merit salary increases to 17 employees, who have completed one year in grade and given "above average service" to the city.

Granted pay raises were: Richard Poovey, police officer from $13,678 to $14,758; Mitchell Tindel, police officer, from $15,695 to $16,690; Doug Bishop, Richard Nooney and Ralph Russell, all police lieutenants, from $19,712 to $20,982; Josh Black, parks maintenance worker I and Harold Clark, public works street maintenance worker I, from $9,891 to $9,455; Robert Dickerson, parks maintenance worker I, and Clarence Johnson, public works maintenance custodian, from $9,455 to $10,095; James Bennett, Eddie Key and Johnnie Cain, public works refuse collectors, from $10,840 to $11,315; Joe Lewis Mickle, parks maintenance workers I from $10,065 to $10,692; Jerry Thomason, public works street heavy equipment operator, from $13,567 to $14,427; John Prather, public works street supervisor from $14,308 to $15,108; James Henaley, public works maintenance tradesworker from $11,806 to $12,567; and Nathaniel White, public works shop mechanic helper, from $9,682 to $10,388.

Goldwater Raising Cain With 'Political Preachers'

By IRA R. ALLEN

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Barry Goldwater, crusty, profane, hobbled by an ailing hip, conservative guru to a generation of New Rightists.

Without his failed ideological bid for the presidency in 1964, there might never have been a breeding ground for Ronald Reagan — or, for that matter, Jerry Falwell.

Now Goldwater, 72 and miffed at his exclusion from the pantheon of "New Right" leaders, is raising Cain with "political preachers" like Falwell.

In a speech inserted into the Congressional Record Tuesday, and followed by a news conference, Goldwater, R-Ariz., denounced Moral Majority-style religious groups that inject themselves into politics. He called them "a very serious threat to our liberty."

"I have spent quite a number of years carrying the flag of the 'old conservatism' and I can say with conviction that the religious issues of these groups have little or nothing to do with conservative or liberal politics," the Arizona senator said.

On abortion, busing, prayer in schools and pornography, Goldwater lines up with the Moral Majority.

But, he stressed, "they have no particular bearing upon the future of our country." Lawmakers should not be bothered by single-issue lobbies when national security and economic survival are at stake, he said.

Diversity of opinion is what made America great, Goldwater said, unwittingly echoing a series of commercials made by liberal TV producer Norman Lear. Both extolled the Americanism of people liking their eggs cooked differently.

What apparently bothered Goldwater most was the Falwells of the New Right preempting the conservative mantle that Goldwater had to wear through some pretty chilly times after his losing presidential race 17 years ago.

"I don't like the conservative cause that I've been fighting for all interpreted as putting up with all these groups that I think are dangerous to the country," he told reporters.

Falwell, attending a White House reception for businessmen, shrugged off Goldwater's comments.

Clad in a dark suit with a brass lapel pin reading "Jesus Christ," Falwell said the Moral Majority was a political organization with a constitutional right to speak out on the issues.

He said that Goldwater may have considered himself a right-winger in his day, "but perhaps the times have passed him by."

When Falwell came out against the nomination of Arizonan Sandra O'Connor to the Supreme Court, an angry Goldwater said, "Every good Christian should kick Jerry Falwell in the ass."

Now he was asked if he still held that view.

"I might aim a little higher," snapped Goldwater.

"You mean you would kick him in the head?"

"No. Not that high. There are other good places."

Goldwater was not included in Time Magazine's list of New Right leaders.

"The New Right avoids me. I'm not quite far enough to the right. I don't know how the hell to get over there, and I don't particularly want to get in that bunch. I want to be a conservative."

Student Info Policy Comes Up Again

Administrative Assistant Ralph Ray will try one more time at tonight's Seminole County School Board meeting to get approval for a policy to release certain information on school students to the public.

The information Ray wants the board to permit releasing includes: statement that the student is enrolled, his name and address, student's telephone number if listed, student's date and place of birth, student's participation in school-sponsored activities and sports, weight and height of members of athletic teams, dates of attendance, date of graduation, and awards received.

Last week, the board, voted to withhold information until prior approval is received from parents. Ray, and other school administration staff, said it would be a nearly impossible task to get prior approval from all parents before programs for various athletic events are printed.

Under the Ray recommendation information of this sort, called "directory information" would be released unless parents request the principal of the school attended by their child not to do so.

The policy would be published in the code of student conduct booklet each school year.

A week ago, when the plan was defeated, Board member Allan Keeth said it would be a more positive action to receive approval from parents rather than requiring parents to notify the school they did not wish the information released.

Also at tonight's meeting, the school board is scheduled to consider a contract and job description for the new deputy in the school program. Sheriff's deputies are currently working at Lake Brantley High School and Milwee Middle School.

Ratification of the proposed contracts with school teachers and non-instructional personnel unions, will not be considered tonight.

Castro: Reagan A Fascist

HAVANA, Cuba (UPI) — Cuban President Fidel Castro assailed President Reagan as a "fascist" whose administration is "bathed in blood" in a scathing attack that prompted an American diplomat to stalk out of an international conference.

Castro, in a two-hour speech Tuesday to the Inter-Parliamentary Union, also accused the United States of waging germ warfare against Cuba and strongly suggested the CIA caused an epidemic of dengue fever that has killed 157 people.

Dressed in green army fatigues and jabbing his finger in the air, Castro said 157 people — including 99 children — had died in Cuba in an epidemic of dengue fever, a tropical fever carried by mosquitos. He strongly suggested the CIA was to blame.

In calling Reagan a "fascist," Castro blamed Washington for deaths in Angola, El Salvador and Lebanon.

Challenged To Greatness

As the first woman to be nominated to serve on the Supreme Court of the United States, Sandra O'Connor has already arrived at a celebrity status that could not have been expected of a male court nominee, no matter how distinguished. Her first appearance before the Senate Judiciary Committee that will pass on her qualifications was, predictably, a media event.

All of this hoopla is understandable, but should be kept in perspective. Who can deny that President Reagan selected an Arizona state appeals judge, experienced and qualified but obscure, partly — and perhaps mostly — because she is a woman? And why not? After all, Mr. Reagan pledged such a move during his campaign for the presidency. Besides, why shouldn't sex be considered for representation on the highest court along with race, region and religion?

President Lyndon Johnson broke the racial barrier by appointing Thurgood Marshall to the high court in 1967. President Nixon, as did more than one of his predecessors, made region the basis for at least one Supreme Court appointment, unsuccessfully nominating two Southerners before winning confirmation of Lewis Powell of Richmond, Va. in 1971. Louis Brandeis and Felix Frankfurter were selected to be justices partly at least because they were of the Jewish faith.

But there is a real problem with selecting justices or judges to "represent" a gender, a race, a region or a religion. Jurists are not supposed to represent anybody. They are not supposed to be a friend at court for anyone or to legislate for any particular element. They, of course, are supposed to interpret the Constitution with utmost impartiality. Now that Mrs. O'Connor is breaking the sex barrier, we must hope there will be an end to the idea of judicial representation. To be sure, we must expect presidents and governors to appoint those to the bench who share their political philosophy. But the point is, be they liberal or conservative, jurists should be able and experienced.

Judge O'Connor's qualifications now come under intense Senate examination, as indeed they should. From all accounts, she is handling this ordeal with grace and confidence.

But Judge O'Connor is not without her vigorous critics, chiefly those who accuse her of not being hard-nosed enough about abortion. Nevertheless, her opponents' search of Arizona records has produced evidence of a balanced, conservative and constructionist mind that is open and not altogether predictable — with actions to please and annoy liberals and conservatives alike. For example, as state senator, Judge O'Connor voted to prohibit labor unions from making political contributions, against forced busing for racial quotas in the schools, for an amendment to put voluntary prayers back into classrooms, and against gun controls.

On the other hand, Mrs. O'Connor voted against the death penalty, for lowering the legal drinking age, and reportedly for a bill to legalize abortion.

So, it would appear that President Reagan's instinct for broad philosophical perspective is much sounder than the narrow obsession about isolated controversial policy issues such as abortion. Mrs. O'Connor herself voiced this perspective admirably in her initial testimony, affirming her belief that the family is mankind's basic unit of society, the hope of the world.

Equally reassuring are her thoughts about the lawmaking proclivities of the courts: Judges are not only not authorized to engage in executive functions, they are ill-equipped to do so.

Such philosophy is what really matters and it is what President Reagan reached out for in this nomination. We have every reason to believe Justice O'Connor will write some lucid and important judicial history — not because she is a woman, but because she is a human being challenged to greatness.

BERRY'S WORLD

"OK, gang! This next one is REALLY awful, so turn up the volume as high as you can."

By DONNA ESTES

A common complaint from local government officials concerns the latest problem — whatever it is — that the Legislature has either created or refused to solve.

School board members in recent days expressed gratitude that one piece of legislation passed in both Houses of the Legislature earlier in the year was promptly vetoed by Gov. Bob Graham.

The legislation proposed to withhold state funding to school districts for the educations of children of foreigners. Seminole has 131 such students in its schools this year.

In all cases, the parents are residents and taxpayers of the county, according to Dan Dagg, superintendent of instruction. If the legislation had become law, the school system in addition to receiving property taxes from the parents either as homeowners or through rents they pay would have had to collect from each about $1,200 which the state normally pays the district for each student.

Dagg noted that the federal courts require school districts to admit the children of foreign residents to the public school systems, even if those residents are illegal aliens.

Why the Legislature would want resident foreigners to pay taxes and pay tuition both is anyone's guess.

Two big political powers in Seminole County in the 1950s and 1960s and still no slouches at wielding a good deal of political influence — attorneys, Doug Stenstrom and Mack Cleveland Jr. — will face each other before the Florida Cabinet in the next few weeks.

Stenstrom, the former county judge, past state senator, and veteran of 25 years as school board attorney, will be representing Sheriff John Palk in his appeal to Gov. Bob Graham and the cabinet for more money in the 1981-82 fiscal year. Cleveland, former state senator, former county attorney and for many years a member of the Sanford Civil Service Board, is to represent the county commission in its fight to keep the sheriff from receiving the extra cash.

Both Stenstrom and Cleveland are Sanford natives, both are distinguished lawyers and both are Southern gentlemen. It will be an interesting contest to observe.

The Seminole County League of Women Voters will present State Sen. John Vogt, D-Cocoa Beach, and State Rep. Bobby Brantley, R-Longwood, in a discussion of the reapportionment issue at 7:30 p.m., Sept. 24. The meeting will be held at the Altamonte Springs Civic Center, 830 Magnolia Ave.

The public is invited to attend.

Taxes, Refugees, Tourists

WASHINGTON (NEA) — More and more is coming to light about how the administration persuaded Democratic representatives to support the Reagan tax cut. Almost all of the 48 Democratic defectors were able to extract some promise from the White House in return for their votes.

Most of these deals involved relatively minor local issues. But they enabled the legislators who made them to claim credit for having helped to pass the tax cut while fending off party criticism by showing what they had done for their districts or for interest groups important to their districts.

Here are two examples of the dozens of deals worked out in the final hours before House passage of the tax bill.

To Rep. Royden Dyson, a first-term Democrat from Maryland, one of the most important issues facing the federal government was the disposition of some 900 Cuban and Haitian refugees housed at Fort Chaffee, Ark.

This issue was so important to Dyson and his constituents because one of the sites being considered as the new semi-permanent home for the refugees was an abandoned naval training facility at Bainbridge, Md. The local folks were up in arms at the prospect of having the refugees as neighbors.

But now their congressman is assuring them that they will not have to fear the Cubans or the Haitians. He says that his vote for the president's tax cut guarantees that the refugees will instead be moved to a former army ammunition plant at McAlester, Okla. A proud Dyson told a Chamber of Commerce meeting in Elkton, Md., one of the larger population centers in his district, exactly how he did it.

At a point when the administration "was desperate for votes," said Dyson, he "met with the president and two top aides at the White House" to discuss the possibility of his voting with them on the tax bill.

Dyson recalled having told Reagan that he wanted something in return — "a promise that no refugees would be sent to Bainbridge." He said that the president responded, "If you will vote with me, I would be very hesitant to do that."

The congressman reported that he had even asked Reagan to "put it in writing" — a request that he said "was received with a gasp and the president's comment of 'I don't think we can do that.'"

A White House spokesman refused to comment on Dyson's disclosure but revealed that McAlester was one of two sites still being considered to house the refugees. A Justice Department source said that the Bainbridge site was found "unsuitable."

The other deal concerned the U.S. Travel Service, a small operation hidden within the bowels of the Commerce Department. Several administrations have tried to do away with the service on the grounds that its function of promoting U.S. tourism duplicates the efforts of this country's airlines, hotels and tourist attractions.

But the tourism industry has fought hard to protect the little agency. And thanks to Rep. James Santini, D-Nev., the agency appears to have escaped the clutches of the Office of Management and Budget.

Rivalry Makes Game Hard To Follow

WASHINGTON — Inter-service rivalry was supposed to end with the creation of the Defense Department after World War II. It didn't, of course: The costly duplication, petty jealousies and Byzantine empire-building continue to this day, particularly during the perennial battle of the budget.

It's the same in the secret world of spies and counterespies. The misnamed Central Intelligence Agency was intended to bring all the government's clandestine activities into one happy family. But it hasn't worked out that way.

There are a dozen U.S. intelligence agencies, supposedly watched over by the CIA but actually determinedly guarding their own special turf. They spend an inordinate amount of time and effort keeping watch on their rival spy agencies — and thanks to "double agents" of divided agency loyalty, they generally succeed.

A top-secret White House report shown to my associate Dale Van Atta cited an example of this. The attorney general's office once formed a small, supersecret group to investigate the National Security Agency.

The investigation remained secret for one week. When an NSA employee was called to testify, he was sworn to absolute secrecy. But

JEFFREY HART

Truman Was Right

If you went to church last month, you probably listened to some sermon about the shame of Hiroshima and Nagasaki. I did, at least, and I read the editorials in the newspapers. We, Truman, were wrong.

Well, Professor Paul Fussell of Rutgers has published a pertinent essay in a recent issue of the New Republic. The essay is major, right up there with the political essays of George Orwell.

Fussell is a friend of mine and an elegant fellow, a literary scholar, the author of books on poetics, on 18th-century literature, on travel literature.

But in 1945, Fussell was an infantry soldier scheduled for the invasion of the home islands of Japan, and he was glad we dropped the bombs and ended the war.

He makes one subsidiary and telling point: most articulate people, most who speak and write, never actually fought. They do not understand the actual situation of the draftee, the conscript soldier facing combat. He is able to cite, however, a couple of well-known authors.

In "Goodbye Darkness, A Memoir of the Pacific War," William Manchester — another combat soldier — wrote: "After Blak (a Pacific island, retaken from the Japanese after fierce fighting in 1944), the enemy withdrew to deep caverns. Rooting them out became a bloody business which reached its ultimate horrors in the last months of the war. You think of the lives which would have been lost in an invasion of Japan's home islands — a staggering number of Americans, but millions more of Japanese — and you thank God for the atomic bomb."

Fussell cites James Jones, another ex-infantryman, who asks us to imagine the emotions of a soldier watching the build-up for the Japanese invasion:

"What it must have been for some old-timer buck sergeant or staff sergeant, who had been through Guadalcanal or Bougainville or the Philippines, to stand on some beach and watch this huge war machine beginning to stir and move all around him and know that he very likely had survived this far only to fall dead on the dirt of Japan's home islands, hardly bears thinking about."

When the bombs fell on Hiroshima and Nagasaki, Paul Fussell was an infantry lieutenant in Germany.

"My division," he writes, telling how it was in 1945, "was to take part in the invasion of Honshu in March 1946. (The earlier invasion of Kyushu was to be carried out by 700,000 infantry already in the Pacific.)"

"I had already been wounded in the leg and back severely enough to be adjudged, after the war, 40 percent disabled. But even if my leg buckled when I jumped out of the back of the truck, my condition was held to be satisfactory for whatever lay ahead."

"When the bombs dropped and news began to circulate that 'Operation Olympic' would not, after all, take place, that we would not be obliged to run up the beaches near Tokyo assault-firing while being mortared and shelled...we cried with relief and joy. We were going to live. We were going to grow up to adulthood after all."

Fussell knows what the invasion would have cost, staggering casualties. But he brings Truman's strategic decision to drop the bomb down to stark personal terms: "When the young soldier with the wild eyes comes at you firing, do you shoot him in the foot, hoping he'll hurt badly enough to drop or mis-aim the gun with which he is going to kill you, or do you shoot him in the chest and make certain he stops being your mortal enemy?"

Fussell knows the answer to that question. And because he has a grasp of moral reality he has supreme contempt for those who do not. He condenses all of that contempt in an acid phrase: those who condemn Truman merely wish to display the fineness of their moral weave.

Truman did what his oath of office required. Second-guessers, please shut up.

How About Vibrant Inertia?

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The United States, according to one of my favorite economic analysts, is entering a period of "negative growth."

Oooh, I just love economic jargon. Don't you? It's all so exquisitely meaningless.

I mean, what is the everloving, blue-eyed world is "negative growth?" Is it anything like "positive shrinkage," do you suppose?

When I went to school, the economy either grew or it didn't. Went up or down, so to speak. Or else stayed in the same place.

Nobody had yet figured out a way for the economy to go up negatively. As a result, people pretty well know where they stood.

People could be fairly certain that if times didn't get better, or didn't remain as they were, which, goodness knows, was bad enough, why then times most surely would get worse. It was that simple.

This sense of exactitude lent a certain stability to life. It was somehow reassuring to know the economy was going to either expand or contract. But borrrrrring!

I much prefer modern economic trends and predictions. There is such an air of excitement about them; a venture into the Great Unknown.

Those of us whose spirits tend to lapse without constant stimulation are grateful when the economists come up with tingling terms like "negative growth" to enliven our rather humdrum existence.

Don't quote me as an authority on this, but I get the impression that "negative growth" was made possible through the advent of "supply side" policies. For that, we can tip our hats to President Reagan.

Except for Reagan's backing, the "supply siders" could never have prevailed and the country probably would have continued down the path of "stagflation." Nobody in his right mind wanted that.

"Stagflation," which apparently developed under President Carter and perhaps other recent chief executives, occurs when we have economic stagnation and inflation simultaneously. This is almost as bad as having "recessive prosperity."

Stagnation alone is an awful load, and inflation by itself can be devastating. Put them both together and you can see the advantages of switching to "negative growth."

Meanwhile, whatever happened to the "tight money" the economists were so vigorously kicking around a few months ago?

One seldom hears that term used at high levels any more.

What one hears a lot of nowadays is talk of returning to the gold standard. Now there's an issue we can all understand.

If you think the present kind of growth is negative, imagine what we would have under the gold standard. "Dynamic torpor" is my prediction.

our other intelligence agencies wild. Footnote: I first began reporting about the activities of Ed Wilson and Frank Terpil a year ago. These stories have since been confirmed in a series of articles in The New York Times.

A MOVABLE FEAT: Veteran Rep. Jack Brooks, D-Texas, has accepted an offer from his alma mater, Lamar University in Beaumont, Texas, to locate his library there.

Part of the library will be a replica of Brooks' congressional office. The university wants to furnish it with the congressman's office furniture: two desks, three tables, two bookcases, a sofa and seven assorted chairs.

Normally, senior members of Congress are allowed to take their personal desk and chair with them when they retire. But the Lamar library is a federal depository, and the House has given Brooks special permission to transfer the furniture to Texas.

But in the past — as with former Speaker Carl Albert — such a request has been granted only when the member retires. And Brooks, who is only 58, has given no indication that he plans to leave anytime soon.

This raises an interesting question: If Brooks' Capitol Hill furniture is shipped off to Lamar, where will he and his staff sit?

Longwood Citizens To Pay Higher Taxes Next Year

Longwood residents will be paying considerably more property taxes next year as a result of the city commission's tentative approval Monday night of the proposed $1.58 million budget for fiscal year 1981-82 which begins Oct. 1.

The planned tax rate of $3.16 per $1,000 of assessed property value represents a 35.9 percent hike over the present figure of $2.17 per $1,000.

A final public hearing and adoption of the budget is set for Sept. 28.

Also Monday, commissioners approved higher water rates. Longwood residents will now pay $4 per 5,000 gallons of water used, plus 60 cents — as opposed to the present 50 cents — for each additional 1,000 gallons up to 30,000 gallons. Consumers who use more than 30,000 will be charged a flat rate of 70 cents per 1,000 gallons.

During a discussion of the proposed budget, commissioners said they were forced to raise taxes because of decreased revenues resulting from increasing eligibility for homestead exemptions. The taxable value of property in Longwood, for example, was reduced last fall by $14 million as a result of homestead exemption increases approved by the voters.

The budget, if adopted, will include $559,482 for the police department; $237,959, fire department; $19,197 building and zoning; $54,259, recreation; $373,531, street department; $30,289, administrator; $23,283, finance; $49,131, general services; $12,000, legal services; $5,500, Land Planning Agency; $1,025, city engineer; $400, for the Code Enforcement Board. A total of $59,725 will come from federal revenue sharing sources.

The $15,000 included in the budget for enlargement of the public meeting facility in city hall, came under attack Monday because the existing facility is well able to handle the small crowds which normally attend city government meetings.

Mayor John Hepp, however, retorted, "I have pride in this city, and I like to see this room jam-full of people. I'd like to have a beautiful facility for the people to come to — to attend the meetings," Hepp said.

After the budget hearing, commissioners proclaimed election day as Tuesday, December 10. Steven Uskert, District 1, June Lormann, District 2, and John Hepp, District 4, are all up for re-election.

Nazi Conspiracy Trial Highlighted By Tapes

ASHEVILLE, N.C. (UPI) — Conversations tape-recorded by an undercover agent show one of six Nazis accused of plotting to firebomb Greensboro wanted the alleged explosives to tie up emergency officers and funeral hearses for a long time.

The voice of Frank Braswell, 48, of Penland came up frequently during the eight hours of recordings made by Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms agent Michael Sweat that a federal district court jury heard Tuesday.

The panel of seven men and five women were to resume the retrial today by listening to 2½ more hours of tape recordings, including more threats by Braswell.

At one point in the tapes Tuesday, Braswell said during a conversation with Sweat that he wanted the bombs to detonate at 4 p.m. to "keep the firefighters, police and hospitals tied up just as damn long as we can, and the morgues too."

Sweat, portraying a mercenary, asked on the tape about whether innocent people would be hurt.

"If they're not part of the solution they're part of the damn problem," Braswell replied.

Prosecutors claim Braswell and the other five plotted to detonate firebombs in four parts of Greensboro during 1980 provided six other Ku Klux Klansmen and Nazis were found guilty of the shooting deaths of five communists at an anti-Klan rally the year before.

But the KKK members and Nazis were acquitted and no bombs were detonated.

The defendants were tried last July, but the case ended with a hung jury unable to break from its 10-2 split in favor of a guilty verdict. So another jury was selected Monday.

Today's expected tapes featured a tapped telephone conversation Braswell had with a friend in which Braswell brags that his group had an impact on the innocent verdict.

"We meant to level that damn city, we meant to kill as many people as we could," Braswell said. In another conversation, he is recorded as saying: "You know why it turned out that way?... They don't like napalm."

Besides, Braswell, the others indicted are his wife Patsy Braswell, 32; Joseph Gorrell Pierce, 28, and brother Roger Allen Pierce, 32, of Walnut Cove; Raeford Miland Caudle, 38, of Winston-Salem; and James C. Talbert, 30, of Kernersville. Defense attorneys maintain that the Nazis could see through Sweat's cover all along. They were merely "telling him tall tales" about the bombs, as one attorney put it.

The lawyers also claim Sweat prodded the Nazis into thinking of bombings.

On Tuesday's tape, Sweat's conversations with the group featured several comments like: "Well, if you need explosives I can help you out there."

For St. Johns River

Sanford To Help Seek Pollution Solution

The Sanford City Commission promised full cooperation Monday in trying to find a solution to the problem of pollution of the St. Johns River.

Alex Senkevich, Central Florida District Manager for the state Department of Environmental Regulation (DER), asked the city commission to name a staff member to help with a study to locate the hundreds of drainage ditches and pipes discharging urban and agricultural runoff into the St. Johns River. There has been no regard for cleanup of the discharge, Senkevich said.

The area of the river to be studied is the stretch between Lake Washington in Brevard County to the U.S. Highway 17-92 bridge in Sanford, he said.

"It is expected that review of storm water sources will indicate some funding will be needed by local government to complete the effort," Senkevich said. He said cost estimates will be compiled and submitted to DER Secretary Victoria J. Tahinkel for review and consideration for possible state funding.

Sanford Mayor Lee P. Moore wanted to know if Sanford would be required to pay for storm water runoff in the north Seminole area and if so, how much it would cost.

Senkevich said he wasn't sure. He said the entire clean-up project would cost "quite a bit of money." That money, he said, should probably come from the state.

Senkevich thought Sanford could provide manpower for the clean-up within the city.

Knowles offered to aid Senkevich in his study, using whatever city staff is necessary.

Why is FPL's fuel adjustment so high?

Michael C. Cook, Vice President, Fuel Resources and Corporate Development at Fort Everglades Oil Storage Facilities.

Why is there a fuel adjustment in the first place? Customers are understandably annoyed by high summer bills, and particularly the size of the fuel adjustment. But fuel represents about 45% of the total cost of generating electricity, so the cost of fuel does have a big impact on the bill. Since fuel costs change frequently, it's important to have a timely and fair way to cope with these enormous, fluctuating costs. The fuel adjustment allows us to pay our fuel bills so that we can continue generating electricity, and to pass on any savings directly to our customers.

Why does it always seem to keep going up? Because the cost of fuel has gone up, especially residual oil, the kind we use most. About half of our electricity is generated by oil; even more in the summer. So oil prices have a dramatic effect on the fuel adjustment.

Prices have risen so much in the past few years that we now spend $4 million a day on oil.

I've heard that oil prices were dropping. Will the fuel adjustment go down as a result? Oil prices have dropped somewhat recently, but this summer we'll be using even more oil than usual because one of our nuclear plants that generates lower-cost electricity is being repaired. During months of moderate temperatures, overall use of electricity decreases, and we burn less oil. This could mean a lower fuel adjustment. A lot will depend on the weather, the price of oil and how much generation we can get from other fuel sources.

What is FPL doing to fight high oil prices? Everything we can. We shop for bargains in the oil market, both in contract fuel supplies and in open market purchases. We're not building any more oil-powered generating facilities. And before we use the ones we have, we use all our other less-costly generating sources — nuclear, natural gas, and coal-generated power from other utilities brought into the state by transmission lines. We've also been mixing coal and oil at one plant, and we're pursuing opportunities for converting our oil plants to coal use.

Doesn't the fuel adjustment destroy the incentive to buy fuel economically? No. First of all, our own performance standards are extremely high. In addition, there are efficiency incentives built into the fuel adjustment regulatory proceedings, and FPL must prove that all fuel was bought and used wisely when its case on the fuel adjustment is presented.

Does FPL make a profit on the fuel adjustment? No. Not a cent of the fuel adjustment goes to profit. All of it goes directly to pay for the cost of fuel.

By SAM COOK

It was a good thing for the Seminole High volleyball team that the "Link" wasn't missing Tuesday night when the Tribe, Lyman and Lake Brantley tipped off the season at Lyman High School.

Seminole's little lefthander Jackie Link turned in a splendid all-around performance as Donalyn Knight's forces whipped the Greyhounds, 15-13, 15-7 and then disposed of the Lady Patriots, 10-15, 15-2, 15-3.

Karren Newman's Lady 'Hounds jumped to a 4-0 advantage, but seniors Tony Hardy and Dee Hogan combined for eight points to pull the Tribe ahead, 11-4.

Winnie Wycoff then ripped off four straight serving points to pull Lyman within 11-8 before a Tony Hardy slam severed the rally.

Teri Hardy, no relation to Tony, nudged the Tribe lead to 13-8, but juniors Lynn Lugerling and Pam Stambaugh ran control in game two, Hogan hit the last three points for the 15-7 victory.

Lyman's Newman, who was debuting in Seminole County, after several successful years in the Miami area was satisfied with her team's first effort.

"They were fluid on the court going from offense to defense," said Newman.

"Lugering was real consistent. We can always count on her."

"Seminole was okay, but we're going to get them next time," she warned.

In the night's second contest, Lake Brantley stunned the Tribe 15-10 in the first game, but Seminole rebounded to rout Sandy Denmark's girls, 15-2, 15-3.

In the deciding match, the "Hardy Duo" paced the Tribe to an early 9-1 bulge. Pendarvis added four more before, Link, Teri and Tony finished off the Pats.

In the third segment of Tuesday's tri-match, Lyman whipped Lake Brantley, 15-12 and then outlasted the Patriots, 18-16 in the night's most exciting action.

After the two teams seasawed in the first match, Donna Dunlap and Gebhardt gave Brantley a 12-12 tie with five consecutive points.

Carol Rogers, however, rapped three straight serves to help Lyman to the victory. Rhonda Tempsta had two liners from the serving area which helped the 'Hounds tie the game earlier.

Rogers again started Lyman going in the second match with three points, but Carolyn Maier answered with three of her own for Brantley.

Lyman seemed to have the game put away when Amy Babcock and Winnie Wycoff ran off eight straight and Stambaugh added one for a 12-3 edge.

Gregory and Sharon Tripplett, though, rallied Brantley for a 12-12 tie. The Greyhounds assumed the upper hand, 14-12, but Brantley went ahead, 15-14.

Rogers nailed two more to jump Lyman up, 16-15, but the Pats tied it 16 all. Lugerling finally won it for the 'Hounds with two tough serves, 18-16.

In other Five Star action Tuesday, Jo Luciano's Lake Howell squad tipped Apopka, 15-13, 15-13 and then ripped Daytona Beach Mainland, 15-6, 15-13.

Senior Jane Yearick and sophomore Christy Scott had some key serves in the Apopka victories, while Yearick and Diane Dumont combined on some nice sets and spikes to top Mainland.

"We had a big lead in the second Mainland game too, but we fell asleep," said Luciano, whose Silver Hawks are defending district champs. "Julie Geesaman and Dawn Crawford got us the big points and Cathy Saunders made a critical play too."

Tonight, Seminole travels to Oviedo for a junior varsity and varsity match. Tuesday, Lake Howell goes to Lake Brantley for a tri-match against the Pats and Spruce Creek. Lyman plays DeLand Tuesday in DeLand.

Red-Faced Montgomery, Oviedo Seek To Solve Quarterback Woes

By SAM COOK
Herald Sports Editor

Red seems to be the "in" color to wear at Oviedo High School this week. Some people wear it as a shirt. Some wear red shoes, but Oviedo football coach Joe Montgomery wears a red face.

Monty's rosy look didn't come from a last fling at the beach, but it came from a "beached" offensive attack at the hands of Umatilla last Friday.

"I'm completely disappointed and embarrassed," said Montgomery Tuesday about the Lions' lethargic 14-0 setback. "We acted like we were in slow motion." Oviedo travels to St. Cloud

"I was hoping one of the three (Jones, Kessinger or Huggins) would emerge as the quarterback. But all I think it (shuffling) did was kill any consistency."

— Oviedo's Joe Montgomery

Lions

Friday. Montgomery points to four crucial scoring drives which brought the blush to his cheeks.

The first came in the second quarter with 43 seconds remaining. The Lions had a first and goal at the Umatilla 10 yard line. Junior quarterback Kris Kessinger, who started for the orange (red?) and black, threw an interception to kill the drive.

Two more scoring chances presented themselves in the third quarter. On one occasion, tight end Kipp Sopp was open in the endzone, but Kessinger threw wide.

Again in the third quarter, Montgomery reached into his bag of tricks for a surprise maneuver. Quarterback Jody Huggins tossed a pitch to halfback Lamar Smith for an apparent sweep.

Smith, however, sloshed to a halt and tossed the ball back to Huggins. In the meantime, flashy wide receiver Jimmy Hamilton had gotten 20 yards behind the nearest Umatilla defender.

Huggins, though, couldn't get him the ball as his attempt fell short. "The ball was soaking wet," pointed out Montgomery. "It was almost impossible to throw."

Quarterback Karl Jones is one of three Lions in the running for the starting job.

The last chance to light up the scoreboard came late in the fourth quarter. Oviedo had a fourth and one at the goal line. Montgomery sent Smith up the middle, but he was stopped six inches shy.

"Up the middle is the only way to go. You've either got it or you don't," said Montgomery.

But it was "no go" all night for the Lions. Montgomery preferred to shoulder the blame. He alternated Kessinger, Karl Jones and Huggins at quarterback, looking for a leader.

"I was hoping one of the three would emerge as the quarterback," said Montgomery. "But all I think it did was kill any consistency."

Montgomery is undecided on a starter. He said the performances in practice the rest of the week will determine who gets the nod.

One thing decided—at least for five weeks—is the fate of linebacker Todd Duncan. The hard-hitting 180-pounder dislocated his shoulder against Umatilla and will be lost for awhile. Duncan injured the shoulder in the first half, but continued to play. It was discovered Saturday night that it was dislocated. Lion tight end and kicker Kipp Sopp is suffering from muscle spasms.

"Kipp fell on his head trying to block a punt," Montgomery said. "All he may be able to do Friday is kick."

LION TALES — Oviedo is on the road again Friday at St. Cloud. Montgomery rates the Bulldogs better than Umatilla. Junior running back Brent Fullwood is St. Cloud's top offensive threat. The 6-foot-3, 190 pounder runs a consistent 9.9 100-yard dash.

Another junior, Jerry Shepherd, runs from the fullback slot. Shepherd is 6 feet tall and 170 pounds and a very hard runner according to Montgomery.

"They're a small, scappy team that's very quick," said Montgomery.

Senior Seminole Jackie Link had a fine all-around night as the Tribe tripped two opponents in volleyball action at Lyman.

Seminole Junior Varsity Opens Today At Daytona

Head Linebacking

Sanford's Seminole High junior varsity football team kicks off its season today at 4 against Daytona Beach Mainland and Coach Bill McDaniel looks for a good year from his sophomores.

"I'm pleased," said McDaniel who serves as the school's strength coach. "We have a better attitude this year and we've had good practices."

The Fighting Seminoles' turn out started slowly with just 15 players, but the squad peaked at 32 and 28 of the total will dress out today.

Last year the JV's record was a not-so-good 2-5. The junior Seminoles, though, did blast Mainland by 20 points and might have left a bad taste in the junior Bucs' mouth.

"We were leading and we decided to try some new things," recalled McDaniel. "They worked, but I think they thought we were trying to run up the score."

'Eager' Futtrell Leads Quarterbacking

Mike Futtrell will be the starting signal caller for McDaniel today.

"Mike is eager. He listens well and he is willing to try anything you tell him," said McDaniel.

Futtrell's partners in the backfield will be Teddy Jones, who also doubles at safety on defense, and Willie Bass. Bass, however, is sidelined for today with an injured ankle. Oscar Morris will replace Bass and Tim Lawrence, one of the Tribe's top linebackers, will lend depth. Lawrence, a 35-40 yard booter, will handle the punting duties.

On the receiving end for Futtrell's tosses will be Rob Cohen and Steve Alexander. "Alexander is real fast and a good athlete," points out McDaniel. Alexander will also kick the extra points.

Offensive Line

Handles Defense

In the offensive line, Seminole will go with tackles Keith Brown and Rickey Whittaker along with guards Tom Miller and David Linton. Todd Hildebran will hold down the center job.

"They have good strength and protect well," said McDaniel. "This year the defense was given a tough time in scrimmages."

McDaniel plans to lay off the stunts and stunts defensively. He will use a 4-3 and 5-2 along with an occasional 7-Diamond.

Ceongle Bradwell and Jeff Bender will be the defensive ends today. Bender, however, will be used as a linebacker today and McDaniel is undecided on the end spot.

Miller and Linton will double up as defensive tackles.

The linebacking corps is solid with William Wynn, Bender and Lawrence. "They are all good hitters," assessed McDaniel. "And Wynn is a super athlete. I might play him at middle linebacker." Wynn also handles the kickoff chores for Seminole.

Alexander, Dennis Tough On Carriers

Stevin Dennis plays the "monster man" spot for the young Tribe with Alexander, Jones, Charles Ruffin and Brian Cash in the defensive secondary.

Alexander and Ruffin will be the safeties with Cash and Jones at the cornerbacks.

Chris Kessinger cocks to throw a spiral. Kessinger is the brother of former Oviedo standout Troy.

'Breaks' Go Against Knights, Wood, Allen Suffer Fractures

The University of Central Florida Knights didn't have many breaks go their way in Saturday's 3-0 setback to Presbyterian, but Monday UCF finally got some "breaks" — all bad.

Starting signal caller Mike Wood was "wired up" for a broken jaw after two opinions were gathered as to the x-rays on his face. "I didn't think it was broken at first," said UCF Coach Don Jonas. "But the x-rays showed the fracture."

Wood will be lost for six weeks. Jonas is undecided at this juncture whether to redshirt his option quarterback.

"It will change our offense some," said Jonas who will turn the reins over to ex-Lyman QB Bob Burkhardt. "We'll run less and pass more."

Another bad break for the Knights came when starting defensive tackle Danny Allen fractured his left hand. Allen, a 1978 Lyman graduate, will be lost for three or four weeks. — SAM COOK

Brett Slaps Woman Reporter

ANAHEIM, Calif. (UPI) — Kansas City Royals' third baseman George Brett allegedly slapped a woman reporter in the face Tuesday morning then punched another reporter who came to her aid, a witness said.

The fight in the lobby of the Anaheim Hyatt Regency started when Brett began needing Kansas City Times' sports reporter Mike Fish.

Templeton Apologizes; Rips Up Expos

By United Press International
Garry Templeton apologized to the general public Monday for his behavior last Aug. 26. And Tuesday night, he made up to his teammates in a different manner.

Put into the starting lineup by Manager Whitey Herzog for the start of a crucial series with the Montreal Expos, Templeton lashed out four hits in five at-bats, scored twice and knocked in a run to help the St. Louis Cardinals score a 3-2 victory in the first game of a double-header.

With Templeton relegated to a pinch-hitting role in the nightcap, the Expos scored a 4-3 victory to salvage a split.

"I was certainly surprised to start the game, but that's why I came back," said Templeton, who was hospitalized with "depression" following his outburst Aug. 26 at St. Louis. "I wanted to contribute. All I have in my mind now is playing baseball."

Herzog had said Monday Templeton would play in two of the five games at Montreal, but few expected him to be in the lineup for the

NL Baseball

"If we save him for the prom, we won't have a dance," said Herzog.

Templeton singled in the first off loser Bill Guleksson, 4-8, stole second and scored on Keith Hernandez' single. Then, in the sixth he hit the third of four singles and scored the Cardinals' second run on Dane Iorg's single. He capped his performance by singling home Gene Roof in the seventh.

In the nightcap, errors by left-fielder Gene Roof and shortstop Mike Ramsey enabled the Expos to score two runs in the fifth and salvage a split of their double-header.

Pirates 8, Cubs 2
At Chicago, Luis Tiant pitched a four-hitter and contributed a three-run double to help the Pirates to victory.

Reds 4, Astros 0
At Houston, Charlie Leibrandt, 1-0, tossed a five-hitter for his third career shutout and George Foster lined a pair of RBI singles in sparking the Reds to victory.

Padres 8, Dodgers 2
At San Diego, Terry Kennedy delivered a three-run double in the fifth — his seventh consecutive hit over a two-game span — to cap a four-run inning that led the Padres to victory.

Giants 6, Braves 5
At San Francisco, pinch-hitter Dave Bergman's suicide squeeze with the bases loaded and one out in the ninth inning scored pinch-runner Joe Pettini to cap a three-run rally that gave the Giants their victory.

Deja Vu...Ayala Menaces Monge With Homer

By United Press International
To Cleveland reliever Sid Monge it was deja vu and then some.

"I batted twice against Monge last year in pinch-hit roles and got my last hit of the season off him," said pinchhitter Benny Ayala after clouting a three-run homer off Monge in a four-run ninth inning Tuesday night to lead the Baltimore Orioles to a 7-6 victory over the Brewers.

Held to four hits by rookie Tom Brennan over the first eight innings, the Orioles began their ninth-inning rally on a single by Terry Crowley.

Mike Stanton, 3-3, then replaced Brennan and was greeted by a single by John Lowenstein and a game-tying double by Doug DeCinces.

The four-run rally proved to be just enough as pinch-hitter Dave Pagel hit his first major-league homer, a two-run shot in the ninth, for the Indians' final runs off starter Dennis Martinez, 13-4, who allowed seven hits in going the distance.

"We were trying just to get the ball over the plate to Pagel," said Oriole's Manager Earl Weaver. "It was one of the worst games he's (Dennis Martinez) had in the second

AL Baseball

In other AL games, Toronto downed Minnesota, 4-2, Baltimore edged Cleveland, 7-6, Milwaukee trimmed New York, 2-1, Texas trounced Oakland, 12-2, Kansas City shaded California, 3-2, and Seattle defeated Chicago, 8-4. Detroit at Boston was rained out.

In the National League, it was Pittsburgh 8, Chicago 2; Cincinnati 4, Houston 0; San Diego 8, Los Angeles 2; San Francisco 6, Atlanta 5; St. Louis split a double-header with Montreal, winning the first 3-2 and dropping the second 4-3; and Philadelphia at New York was rained out.

Blue Jays 4, Twins 2
At Toronto, Luis Leal, 7-10, picked up his third straight victory and the Blue Jays took advantage of three Minnesota errors to snap the Twins' seven-game winning streak.

Brewers 2, Yankees 1
At Milwaukee, Cecil Cooper hit an RBI single in a two-run third inning and Rollie Fingers notched his major league leading 25th save to boost Milwaukee.

At Arlington, Texas, Al Oliver had four hits, including a pair of doubles, and four RBI to spark a 10-hit attack that powered the Rangers.

Royals 3, Angels 2
At Anaheim, Calif. George Brett doubled in a first-inning run and scored another in the third on Willie Aikens' single to spark Kansas City to its seventh win in eight games.

Mariners 8, White Sox 4
At Seattle, Bruce Bochte belted a tie-breaking solo homer to trigger a three-run seventh inning and Lenny Randle hit a two-run triple to power a four-run eighth that carried Seattle.

Frazier Likes Leonard Balance Over Hearns

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (UPI)—If it takes one fighter to know another, to relate to all the inner emotions that course through him these final few hours leading up to a multimillion dollar hyped-up spectacle like this, one man is singularly equipped to speak with authority for Sugar Ray Leonard and Tommy Hearns.

He's able to do that because he has, in his time, been in their shoes.

Sitting only a few feet away from each as they came in separately into one of the huge convention rooms at Caesar's Palace Monday, he listened to what both had to say about their impending 15-round meeting Wednesday evening for the world welterweight championship and some of the things he heard merely reinforced the feeling he had before.

"I'm a Leonard man," Joe Frazier pointed out when a newsmen asked whom he liked in the fight.

"Why?"

"If you paid attention to him, everything he said makes sense," said Frazier, sitting next to his son, Marvis, who is fighting in one of the preliminaries on Wednesday night's card. "He talked about balance, stance, and making Hearns think inside the ring... any experienced fighter knows exactly what Leonard was trying to say."

"What about that right hand of Hearns?" Joe Louis said Hearns has the hardest punch of any man he ever saw in his division.

"I don't think Hearns can punch that hard," Frazier said, unimpressed. "I saw him fight that Irish guy (Randy Shields) and I thought his balance was off. That's what Leonard was talking about."

"He knocked out 30 of the 32 opponents he has beaten," the reporter persisted. "Doesn't that mean anything to you?"

Frazier stood his ground. "I hadda lotta knockouts, too. Marvis, here, also has knockouts. That doesn't always tell the whole story."

With Leonard due to get $8 million and Hearns $5 million for their 45 minutes, or less, of labor, and more than $40 million already taken in the promoters are calling the contest "the greatest fight in history."

"Money-wise, it's the 'greatest' fight in history," Frazier conceded, "but from a physical standpoint nobody can really say anything definite because Leonard and Hearns haven't fought

Milton Richman

yet."

The most surprising aspect of the fight, at least to me, is how extraordinarily candid and open Leonard is in revealing his game plan beforehand. He talked again Wednesday about the way he intends to beat Hearns, even going into such specifics as how he will use his lateral movement to keep his taller opponent off balance and tie him up.

"Hearns is a clumsy fighter," Leonard declared, without trying to sound as if he was putting him down. "He hits hard, but when he throws his right hand, he's off balance. Hearns fights one way. He can't fight any other way. I've heard he's gonna box me. I wish he'd try."

After Leonard had left the room and it was Hearns' turn to talk, he contradicted Sugar Ray.

"I'm very flexible," he said. "I feel I can change my style whenever I want and whenever I need to."

Hearns, who showed up in a pearl-gray business suit in contrast to Leonard, who wore a white commander's cap and matching white yachting outfit, said he believed he had the proper balance in the ring, no matter what Leonard had to say about that, and he felt "very" confident about beating him.

He answered all questions asked of him easily and patiently although he wasn't as expansive in doing so as Leonard had been a few minutes before. Even when there was a question that didn't especially intrigue him, Hearns came back with an appropriate reply.

"Why were you late today?" was one of the inquiries made of him.

"Because I wanted to be late," he answered without so much as changing expression.

And when questioned as to whether he thought Leonard was trying to psych him out, he replied the same way.

"If he is," Hearns said, "he hasn't done a very good job of it."

FLORIDA IN BRIEF

Bizarre Murder Case

Goes To The Jury Today

ORLANDO, Fla. (UPI) — The week-long trial of teenage murder suspect James Leighton goes to the jury today with the prosecution seeking the death penalty.

Leighton is accused of murdering and dismembering the body of 46-year-old jewelry salesman David Coplon of Sunrise.

Leighton, 18, took the stand in his own defense Tuesday and pinned the slaying on his 29-year-old former lover and business partner Elizabeth Kelley.

He admitted dismembering the salesman's body in the back of a rented U-Haul truck, but said he only did it to protect Ms. Kelley. Coplon's torso was later found in Georgia. His hands, feet and head were found encased in concrete in an Orlando dump.

Leighton's testimony differed sharply from Ms. Kelley's. She said earlier in the trial her young boyfriend planned to rob and kill Coplon and ordered her to strike Coplon with a hammer after he had beaten him with a wooden board.

State Takes Over Programs

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (UPI) — The Cabinet is bucking a state Senate committee and assuming control of federal alcohol, drug abuse and mental health programs to try to pick up a $10 million windfall.

President Reagan, as part of his effort to balance the federal budget, combined 57 federally funded programs into nine "block grant" programs which must be administered by the states if they are to function after Oct. 1, 1982. Reagan and Congress also slashed funding for the 57 programs by 25 to 30 percent.

Graham recommended assumption of the block grant for alcohol, drug abuse and mental health programs, but not a community services block grant and the Cabinet accepted his recommendations unanimously.

Tom Herndon, Graham's director of budgeting and planning, said there is "a strong likelihood" Florida will get an extra $10 million by administering the one block grant now.

Can Childers Keep Senate Presidency?

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (UPI) — Senate President W.D. Childers didn't do much for his faltering campaign for a second term by reshuffling his committees last month, but he may now be able to keep the presidency from Curtis Peterson.

Childers brought peace to a horribly divided Senate, at least for a while, by appointing Dempsey Barron of Panama City as chairman of the reapportionment committee.

And there were other appointments during the August shakeup that, while probably not enough to let Childers become the first Senate president to succeed himself, may enable him to keep the 1983-84 presidency from Peterson of Lakeland, Barron's choice.

Childers already had lost control of reapportionment because Barron has 24 of the Senate's 40 votes on that issue through his "Dempseycrat" coalition of Republicans and conservative Democrats.

So there was no further loss in the appointment of Barron as reapportionment chairman.

Childers probably benefited by halling, at least for a while, the feud between himself and Barron that weakened and embarrassed the Senate and almost led to a fistfight between the two on the Senate floor.

And by dumping the two Republican co-chairmen he had appointed in an earlier move to break up Barron's bi-partisan coalition, he made a gesture to Democrats to remember that reapportionment traditionally has been a highly-partisan issue and they should think about banding together against the GOP.

Perhaps the most significant thing

Childers did was add to the commerce committee four senators who will be sympathetic to trail lawyers' views during the upcoming bitter fight over "Sunset" review of the insurance code — Ed Dunn of Daytona Beach and Gwen Margolis, Paul Steinberg and John Hill of Dade County.

The committee now appears stacked in favor of the lawyers, who want to weaken the no-fault automobile insurance law and make it easier for accident victims to sue for damages.

The insurance industry is fighting to keep the no-fault law intact and it usually has been able to count on the Senate — led by Barron — to support its views.

The insurance struggle will cut across the lines of the Barron and Childers' coalitions. Barron is siding with the insurance companies — his Panama City law firm represents some of the biggest — but the 27 Senate votes the trial lawyers claim they can count on in a pinch includes about half of the "Dempseycrats," according to one count.

own, so we did.

"Now I don't want any hand-outs. I get provoked at my government giving so many handouts. People should work for what they get if they are able," he said.

A political conservative and a Democrat, Zeke supported President Reagan, Senator Paula Hawkins and U.S. Rep. Bill McCollum in their recent election campaigns.

"I'm very fond of politics, I love it just as much as I do farming," said Zeke. "I'm a registered Democrat, but that's just a label. When I get ready to vote, I don't vote according to what somebody tells me, I vote according to my conscience."

How does he assess his candidates' performance?

— Senator Hawkins "I got a letter from MY senator, she speaks my language, but if she varies in any way I'm going to her staff office and let them know she's getting off the beam, but I haven't had to do that yet."

— Bill McCollum "He's right on the beam."

— President Reagan "I hope he can do what he set out to do. I saw where striking school teachers in Rhode Island were told to go back to work or be fired.

He has his views on religion as well as politics. "I believe in living it, not talking it," he said. "I joined the church and was baptized, but in my opinion organized religion is like organized labor. If there's not enough love and respect for your fellow man all that other is just formally. We are responsible for each other regardless of color, cause we're the only animal on earth that has this responsibility."

"I've had it hard, we've all had it hard, but we've got the opportunity if we want to better conditions and we can do it," Zeke said.

Judge Validates Bonds For Iron Bridge Plant

An $8 million bond issue has been validated by Circuit Court Judge Vernon Mize, Jr., facilitating sewer transmission line hook-up to the Iron Bridge regional sewage treatment plant.

Mize validated the bonds in the absence of Judge Kenneth Lefter, who was scheduled to conduct the hearing. Hook-up to the Iron Bridge facility will be completed in approximately 15 months, if no problems occur with contracting and construction, according to South Seminole-Orange County Transmission Authority Executive Director Ernest "Pat" West.

The Iron Bridge facility, owned and operated by Orlando, is located in Oviedo and has capacity to treat 24 million gallons of wastewater per day, said Raymond Hodell, construction project coordinator.

The bond validation is the end result of a two and a half year effort by the Authority to reach an interlocal agreement between Maitland, Seminole County, Winter Park, Winter Springs and Casselberry, West said.

The agreement, signed Thursday by all entities, has been the cause of much consternation for the authority.

The bond validation hearing previously scheduled for August 28, was continued to Sept. 11 after Casselberry, Seminole County and Winter Park balked at signing the agreement in "the final hour".

However, the five entities arrived at a suitable agreement and the interlocal agreement was unanimously approved at Thursday's meeting and presented to Judge Mize at 4 p.m. Friday.

If you're one of the increasing number of Americans who look toward the two-wheeler for your daily dose of exercise and recreation, you should be just as prepared as your bicycle. First of all, don't overdo it. Begin slowly and build up your endurance gradually. And, above all, keep in mind, bicycles are the number one cause of recreational injuries in the United States. And, there is a lot you can do to avoid accidents. For example, check your bike carefully - tighten wheels, brakes, seat, etc., before setting off. Make sure the bike is the right size for you - and don't ride double - unless you have a bicycle built-for-two. Avoid wearing anything loose or that tangles, and know and follow all bicycle safety regulations.

Cook Of The Week: Helen Moye

Over 500 Cookbooks In Collection

By LOIS SMITH
Herald Correspondent

Few kitchens can boast of such special treats as homemade chocolate covered cherries, Easter eggs, fresh baked bread or freshly blended mayonnaise.

But, the kitchen of Helen Moye does. On any given day you can visit her home and find an assortment of homemade goodies.

Helen, a recent widow, lives with her daughter and son-in-law at 309 West 16th St. This seems a perfect setting for Helen: a quiet, restful, tree lined neighborhood, befitting a lady who exudes inner peace and compassion for others.

Helen proudly states, "The Moye family has lived in Sanford for over 75 years." In fact, she and her late husband, James, were the first couple married by Dr. W. P. Brooks at the First Baptist Church. "That was on Nov. 30, 1930," she smiled.

"I began collecting cookbooks years and years ago. I now have over 500 in my collection. Some are really beautiful books, so descriptive and colorful. I enjoy reading them, like others might enjoy a favorite novel," she said.

"Cooking is something I have always enjoyed. You know, true joy comes from doing for others. I take pleasure in giving pleasure through my cooking. Most people really appreciate receiving some type of homemade dish. Every Christmas, I make coffee cakes for my friends and neighbors. I think they would truly be disappointed if I didn't. What a heart warming feeling it is to think people appreciate you that much," Helen said.

In addition to all the wonderful things she creates in her kitchen, Helen's talents extend into other areas. She is an accomplished seamstress and has a flair for art. "I make all of my own clothes," she said. Combining her sewing ability and artistic talent, Helen began making hand-painted wrap skirts, canvas purses and Christmas stockings. Also, she enjoys crevel and prefers to design her own patterns, she said.

According to Helen, one of her favorite pastimes is visiting her backyard aviary. In residence there are six finches and two morning doves. "The birds are so interesting I could spend the entire day watching them," she mused.

SWEET AND SOUR MEATBALLS

This can be served as a main dish with rice or as party hors d'oeuvres.

- 1 egg
- 1 pound ground beef
- 1 tablespoon corn starch
- 1/2 cup chopped fine onion
- salt and pepper to taste

Combine above. Form into balls — make small ones for hors d'oeuvres larger about 1 1/2 inches for meal. Brown on all sides in pan with a little oil. Drain well.

SAUCE

Heat 1 tablespoon vegetable oil and 1 cup pineapple juice in saucepan.

- Add:
- 3 tablespoons corn starch
- 1 tablespoon soy sauce
- 3 tablespoons vinegar
- 6 tablespoons water
- 1/2 cup sugar

Cook over low flame until sauce thickens. KEEP STIRRING. Add meatballs to sauce, then I can drained pineapple bits and 2 large green peppers cut in strips lengthwise. Heat the sauce. DO NOT COOK or color and crispness are ruined.

FRUIT SALAD DELITE

- 1 can (17 oz.) fruit cocktail
- 1 can (20 oz.) pineapple bits
- 1 cup small marshmallows (can quarter large marshmallows)
- 1 sliced banana
- 2 cups "toasted" coconut
- 1/2 cup mayonnaise
- 1 cup frozen whipped topping
- 1/2 cup maraschino cherries

Place coconut on foil covered cookie sheet in 325 degree oven. Spread out. Check often — stirring to evenly brown. Remove and cool about 10 to 15 minutes. Drain fruit well. In a large bowl combine all ingredients EXCEPT save 1 cup of coconut. When well mixed, top with remaining coconut. Extra frozen topping can be added when served.

PARTY SEAFOOD MOLD

- 2 cups diced boiled shrimp or 2 cups chunk tuna or 2 cups canned salmon
- 1 1/2 ounce can tomato sauce
- 3 ounces cream cheese
- 1/2 cup diced small celery
- 2 envelopes unflavored gelatin
- 1/2 cup cold water
- 1/2 cup mayonnaise
- Dash worcestershire sauce

Heat sauce and cream cheese together until melted and blended well. Dissolve gelatin in cold water. Add to cheese mixture. Cool. Add other ingredients. Put in mold or rectangle pyrex dish; cut in squares to serve. Garnish with parsley. If salmon is too bony — mash with fork until bones blend with salmon.

HELEN'S CHICKEN ROLLS

- 6 whole chicken breasts — deboned
- 3 cups fresh bread crumbs
- 1 small onion — diced fine
- 2 celery ribs — diced fine
- 2 tablespoons chopped parsley
- 1 teaspoon poultry seasoning
- Season salt to taste
- 1 stick margarine

Saute onions and celery in butter, stirring often until done. Add bread crumbs, stirring until well mixed. Add parsley, poultry seasons — salt. Cool slightly. In smaller bowl beat 2 eggs into 1/2 cup water. Put 2 cups fresh bread crumbs in small bowl. (Additional to above stuffing). Put 1 cup all purpose flour in small bowl. Put deboned chicken between 2 layers of wax paper and pound until very, very thin. In center of chicken place dressing (divide stuffing into 6 parts). Roll chicken over and around dressing into a roll shape. Pin with toothpicks. Roll in flour, dip in egg mix and then roll in bread crumbs. Arrange in baking dish. Bake at 350 degrees about 20 minutes or until well browned.

MR. AND MRS. CAREM GAGER

Happy Anniversary Today

Twenty-five years ago today, Mr. and Mrs. Carem (Juanita) Gager were married in Miami, and four years later, they moved to Sanford where they have lived since. The couple's silver wedding anniversary celebration came a little early and will continue a little late. Their children, Wayne and Shane of Sanford, and Cindy, a student at Treveca Nazarene College, Nashville, Tenn. arranged a surprise reception for their parents at the First Church of the Nazarene, Sanford, where they are active.

Assisting with the reception were Kathleen Larson, Mildred Sterner and Bob Cardell. Gager is principal at Pine Crest School and Mrs. Gager is a homemaker.

The faculty at the school honored the Gagers at another reception and presented them with a silver tray. On Friday, the Gagers will join friends from the church for still another celebration at Walt Disney World.

SEAFOAM DIVINITY

- 1 cup light brown sugar — lightly packed
 - 1 cup white sugar
 - 2-3rd cup water
 - 1-3rd cup light corn syrup
 - 1/2 teaspoon salt
 - 2 egg whites
 - 1 teaspoon vanilla
 - 1 cup broken pecans
- Combine sugars, water, corn syrup and salt in 2 quart heavy saucepan. Bring to boil over medium heat — stirring constantly. If sugar crystals form on sides of pan, wipe them off. Boil gently at a fairly low boil without stirring until it reaches hard ball stage — 265 degrees. Just before the temperature reaches 265 degrees beat egg whites with mixer until peaks are formed when beater is raised. Beat constantly on medium speed. Slowly pour hot syrup in a fine steady stream into egg whites. Continue beating until mixture starts to lose shine. Stir in vanilla and nuts. Drop by spoonfuls on lightly buttered wax paper. Yield: 25-30 pieces or about 1 1/2 pounds.

01' SOUTH PEACH PIE (OR APPLE PIE)

- 2 heaping cups peach wedges (peeled, sliced fresh)
- 2 heaping cups apple wedges
- 1 cup sugar
- 1 cup whole milk
- 1 cup all purpose flour
- 1 teaspoon baking powder
- 1 stick butter
- 1/2 teaspoon almond flavoring
- 1/2 teaspoon vanilla
- 1 teaspoon cinnamon

Preheat oven to 375 degrees. Put stick of butter in rectangle baking dish and place in the hot oven until melted. Blend sugar, flour, baking powder, dash salt and cinnamon in mixing bowl. Add flavoring and milk. Blend well. Lay fruit wedges evenly in the melted butter. Pour batter over fruit. Bake in 350 degree oven about 30 minutes. Can fruit can be used — but it is not as tasty as fresh.

Love Thy Neighbor, Not Thy Pot

DEAR ABBY: Recently our 12-year-old son was grounded by his father for calling the police to report that our neighbors had marijuana growing in their garden.

Dear Abby

I feel that this punishment was unjust since marijuana is illegal, and our son was only doing what he was instructed to do by the local police in lectures at his school.

These neighbors are not into drugs. They are good friends and don't even smoke the stuff, but they were given the plants and were growing them just for the fun and novelty of it. Since the police confiscated only two dying plants, no charges were filed against our neighbors. They admitted it was a silly but dangerous thing to do.

Regardless of the neighbors' intentions, I feel that our son's motives and his willingness to do what he thought was right were commendable, and he should not have been grounded. What do you say?

CONCERNED MOM

DEAR MOM: Knowing that these neighbors were "good friends" of yours, I'm wondering why your son didn't discuss his "marijuana find" with his parents before calling the police to report these friendly neighbors. Sorry, Mom, I can't agree that your son's motives were altogether commendable.

DEAR ABBY: You won't believe this, but I've been married only three months and I'm already halfway to the divorce court!

I married the sweetest, best-natured man in town. Everyone envied me because he was such a swell catch. He's 40 and I'm 34. Before we were married we lived together for two years and got along like a pair of lovebirds, but as soon as we made it legal, our relationship started to go downhill.

Now he finds fault with everything I do. He used to be a wonderful lover. Now he's snoring by the time I get into bed. He used to be tidy and neat. Now he's a slob.

I was the one who was pushing for marriage, so now he blames me for ruining a beautiful relationship. Abby, we're not the only couple this has happened to. What is there about marriage that destroys romance?

SORRY IN SACRAMENTO

DEAR SORRY: Marriage is a legal commitment that makes some people feel trapped and uncomfortable — especially those who have enjoyed all the benefits of marriage without any of the responsibilities. It doesn't destroy all romances. Some it enhances.

DEAR ABBY: The letter from the mother who didn't want her daughter-in-law in the family portrait prompts this letter. (The portrait, she said, should be only of Mother, Father and their children, excluding the spouses of their married children.)

Well, I don't blame her. Statistics show that one out of every three marriages today ends up in the divorce court. And if you live in California, it's one out of every two!

So who needs a family portrait with ex-daughters (or sons)-in-law?

BLOOD IS THICKER

DEAR BLOOD: Once married, the spouse becomes a part of family history, so regardless of how long the marriage lasts, that part of history can't be denied by simply omitting the spouse from the portrait.

Artists Begin Season

The Sanford-Seminole Art Association held its first meeting of the 1981-82 season Monday at the Sanford Civic Center.

Members and guests were served a covered dish dinner followed by a sing-along with piano music provided by Adrian Fedderman.

President Ed Senkarik held a brief business meeting and Jean Winters brought members up to date on the progress of the "Fall For Art" show coming up on Oct. 10 and 11.

Applications are still being accepted and anyone interested should contact a member of the association.

The new slate of officers serving with Senkarik are: Vicky Lilavoia, vice president; Trude Nopper, secretary; and Ashby Jones, parliamentarian.

... Vicky Lilavoia, Jean Winters and Jeanette Pollicastro are the new officers of the Sanford-Seminole Art Association.

Beta Sigma Phi

Beginning Day Festivities

Zeta Xi

According to the American Sociological Society, as researched by Myra Michels, there are seven basic functions of a family.

At the first meeting of this year, members of Zeta Xi chapter of Beta Sigma Phi were asked what they thought these seven were.

Most members were happy to find their thoughts closely resembled the answers: feeding, clothing, shelter, socializing, educating children, legitimizing sexual relations and reproduction.

Myra Michels and Maureen Haig led the program discussion.

Activities of the Beginning Day Luncheon, held at Lake Buena Vista Country Club, were shared and according to president Bonnie Jones an exciting part of the day was when the boat carrying members across the lake ran into some difficulty and members were "lost at sea" briefly.

A note was read from Sandy Crews who is going on leave of absence and plans were made to have a booth at the Flea Market in Sanford on Saturday.

A fund-raising plastics party will be held Sept. 29 at the home of Nina Crouse.

Announcement was made that a Beta Sigma Phi area meeting will be held Oct. 24 at Daytona Inn Broadway. Reservations are required by Oct. 10.

Hostesses Judy Jett and Bonnie Jones served refreshments to Kathy Bukur, Maureen Haig, Norma Loepf, Pam Matley, Myra Michels, Deborah Partlow and Virginia Powell.

Gamma Lambda

Gamma Lambda Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi held the first meeting of September at the home of Debbie Brooks.

Mrs. Brooks presented the program entitled "The Test of Friends". All members took a quiz made up of multiple choice questions. Points were given for all answers and the scores were totaled to see who was the kind of that (A) people looked up to, always put other peoples needs before their own; or (B) a good friend, gets along well with people; or (C) needs to work on giving of themselves.

President Darcy Bono discussed communication of the State Convention to be held in May of 1982.

Gamma Lambda's service projects for the year will continue to be B.E.T.A. house and the Lakeview Nursing Home.

The budget was discussed and approved. Committee chairmen were reminded of their duties.

Preceptor Beta Lambda

The first meeting this season of Preceptor Beta Lambda chapter of Beta Sigma Phi, was held at the home of Viola Frank. The evening began with a buffet dinner prepared by the hostess.

The business meeting was called to order by President Helen Hamner. The Valentine Girl was selected by the chapter for the upcoming Valentine Ball. Susan Byrd received this honor.

Plans are being made for the All Chapter Luncheon to be held November 7. Preceptor Beta Lambda will be the hostess chapter.

Attending the meeting were: Viola Frank, Susan Byrd, Margie Beine, June Helms, Annette LaRosa, Joyce Sammett, Verla Sauls, Helen Hamner, Barbara Gorman, Kitty Corley, Betty Jack, Grace Marie Stinecpher, Glenda Emerson, Ruth Hoffman, Linda Keeling, Phyllis Senkarik and Delora Mark.

Birth Announcements

Mr. and Mrs. David F. (Jimmie) Cook, 2504 Heritage Circle, Waycross, Ga., announce the birth of a son, Robert James, on Aug. 26, in Waycross. He weighed 7 lbs., 9 oz., and is joined by an older brother, Chris, 6.

Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. James Robinson, 112 W. Coleman Circle, Sanford. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Cook, 2406 DeCottee Avenue and the great-grandmother is Mrs. A.L. Wilson, 458 Rosalia Drive, all of Sanford.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark A. Westerfield (Christine Brown) of Sanford, announce the birth of their second child, a daughter, Kristy Lynn, who weighed in at 7 lbs., on Sept. 2, at Winter Park Memorial Hospital. She is joined by a brother, Eddie, 4.

Maternal grandmother is Mrs. Maxine Brown, Peebles, Ohio. Paternal grandmother is Mrs. William A. Westerfield, Oviedo.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott Downer (Daisy Lee) of Sanford, announce the birth of a son, Christopher Lee, who weighed in at 7 lbs., 5 oz., on Sept. 6, at Seminole Memorial Hospital. He is joined by a brother, David James.

Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Lee of Sanford. Paternal grandparents are Margaret Koger and James Downer, both of Sanford.

In And Around Geneva

Neighbors Hooked On Beautiful Country

When the Geneva Elementary School was the target of a projected growth analysis a few years ago, it was announced that Geneva was the fastest growing rural area in Seminole County.

The School Board then purchased about 10 additional acres of land adjacent to the existing school grounds to meet the community's anticipated needs.

At that time I was reminded of an old Girl Scout song with lyrics saying, "Make new friends, but keep the old — one is silver, the other's gold."

The lines of this song are fitting this week, too, as we welcome Mr. and Mrs. Harlan C. Herman to our community.

Harlan and his wife, Mae, have been watching over the construction of their new "retirement home" on Lake Geneva Drive for several months now — and they've finally come to moving-in day.

You'll want to get acquainted with this warm and colorful couple. Harlan played professional baseball in his younger years for the Milwaukee Farm Team as a catcher. Also, since we don't go by house numbers — they are right next door to their son and daughter-in-law, Larry and Jackie Herman.

Other newcomers to Geneva are The Scott Baumers of Hart Road. Scott, Charmane, and their kindergarten-age son, Scott, Jr., moved from Orlando last Dec. 26 during Mr. Baumer's first year as band director at St. Luke's Christian School in Slavia.

As his wife put it, "He got hooked on the beautiful country out here."

The Baumers both graduated from Valencia Community College with degrees in music education. Mrs. Baumer is currently teaching private piano lessons in her home on Tuesdays and Wednesdays, and Mr. Baumer has recently added the duties of choir director for the First Baptist Church of Geneva to his schedule.

You may contact this new family at 349-5009 for more information regarding their musical activities.

Some 'old friends' to all in Geneva, Ed and Imogene Yarborough, are very excited about donating a side of beef to the Oviedo High School Athletic Association for a drawing.

The tickets, selling for $1, may be purchased from any of the football players or boosters prior to the Nov. 20 homecoming game — you need not be present to win.

The proceeds from this fund-raiser will go toward buying athletic equipment and supplies for all departments. Imogene adds, "It'll be approximately 300 pounds of fed beef, cut and freezer wrapped". For more information, you may call her at 349-5342.

Another project Mrs. Yarborough is spearheading for the varsity football players and coaches is finding sponsors for their "home game meal plan".

The gridiron squad will eat a nutritious, planned meal at a local restaurant about 4 p.m. on the day of home games, and then return to the gym for a brief rest before taking the field for the orange-and-black Oviedo Lions.

The contribution needed to sponsor one player for five meals is $25; however, if you would like to donate a lesser amount, you may do so. The first home game is Oct. 2.

On Monday, Sept. 21, at 7:30 p.m., the Oviedo High School Parent Teacher Student Association will host the annual Open House and first meeting at the school. P.T.S.A. president, Marge Williams, urges parents to become active this year, adding, "your input determines our output".

A representative of the official class ring jeweler will be on hand at this meeting so ring samples may be seen and orders placed by the Juniors and their parents.

Members of the school administration, P.T.S.A. board, and the Local School Advisory Committee will be present at this meeting to answer any questions parents may have.

Mrs. Sandy Wisdom, president of the Geneva Elementary School Parent Teacher Organization, announces the annual Open House meeting will be Tuesday, Sept. 22 at 7:30 p.m.

Parents will be meeting the teachers and staff, and after a brief meeting, baked goods and coffee will be served for a fee of 10 cents per item. The money realized from the refreshment sales will go to pay for the babysitting service provided at each meeting for those who have small children.

Besides meeting the new principal, Mrs. Nancy McNamara, parents will be greeting five other new staff members: Adele Dorman, second grade teacher; Terry Celones, art teacher; Charlotte Brown, music teacher; Martha Lyle, speech specialist; and Pamela Trace, media specialist.

PEOPLE

Tom Snyder Guest

Arrives By Armored Car

NBC's Tom Snyder is well-known as a collector of diverse guests for his "Tomorrow Coast to Coast" show, but rarely does one of them arrive in an armored car. Tony Angelo, who is suing the government for $50 million, did last week, and he came with armed bodyguards and went on camera in silhouette.

It was not, however, the government he was hiding from. The Mafia, it seems, has put a $100,000 price on his head and the temptation to collect it right in the NBC studios might have been too great to resist.

Angelo — which is not his real name — is an ex-con and a former syndicate "soldier" who turned state's evidence on the promise he would receive a new identity and a new life under the Justice Department's witness protection program.

His testimony sent eight men to prison and resulted in indictments against 25 others, but Angelo said the promised protection was not forthcoming. Because he must live in hiding now, he is suing the Justice Department for default of contract.

Royal Marriage On Rocks?

Princess Anne and her husband Capt. Mark Phillips are having some rocky times in their 8-year-old royal marriage and the captain is being sent to Australia to let the dust settle, an Australian newspaper says.

The Sydney Sunday Telegraph said in a front-page story Sunday that Phillips is being sent on a private visit to Australia next month by Queen Elizabeth to "think things over."

However, a Buckingham Palace spokesman denied the marriage was in trouble, the newspaper said.

Inmate For Governor?

He cannot vote for himself, and he certainly can't campaign in person but Southern Michigan Prison Inmate Gustave Jansson still wants to run for governor.

Officials in the secretary of state's office will ask Michigan Attorney General Frank Kelley to resolve an apparently unprecedented legal question — whether an inmate can run for governor.

Jansson has filed with the secretary of state's elections division papers forming a gubernatorial committee and has indicated he intends to seek matching campaign funds.

John Turnquist, head of the division's campaign finance reporting unit, said nothing in the state's campaign finance law makes it illegal for an inmate to form a campaign committee or receive state matching funds.

State law prohibits inmates from casting ballots.

Ford Had Friends

The late Shah Mohammad Reza Pahlavi of Iran pledged $100,000 towards the Gerald R. Ford Presidential Museum, which opens Sept. 18 in Grand Rapids, Mich., according to museum records. Among the biggest contributions were $3 million from the state of Michigan, $1 million from the Japanese government and $200,000 from Saudi Arabia. More than $16 million has been raised so far for the museum and the Ford Library, which opened earlier this year at the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor.

Quote Of The Day

Orrie Boss, celebrating his 101st birthday with cigars and whiskey in Lowell, Mich.: "I got drunk once or twice in my life, but I always managed to get to the grass before I fell down (although he said that was a joke, he didn't drink that much). I've never had a serious illness in my whole life. My doctor's been dead for 14 years. And I've never been in jail, not in 101 years. That's some record, for an old man, wouldn't you say?"

David Leon

Actor John Lennon Look-Alike

By Dick Kleiner

HOLLYWOOD (NEA) — If you see David Leon on the screen in "Beatlemania" you say "ooh!" and "aah!" But if you see David Leon off-screen, you just shrug and think, "There's another good-looking young gentleman."

That's because the on-screen uncanny resemblance to John Lennon is heightened by make-up trickery. Off-screen, the same features are there — the beakish nose, the friendly smile — but the rest of it is different. Leon doesn't wear the Lennon glasses or the Lennon hair.

"My hair is much lighter than Lennon's was," Leon says. "For part of the movie I darkened it, and for part of the movie I wore a wig."

With the glasses on and the hair dark, Leon is Lennon. Physically, at least. And of course, that was one reason why he was chosen to be one of the four Beatle-like performers in "Beatlemania."

"But," Leon hastens to add, "physical resemblance was not the main reason I got the part. There were a lot of others who tried out who looked as much like John Lennon as I did — maybe even more like him."

It was, he insists, his musical ability that got him the part. He is, always has been, a singer and performer. And he is, always has been, a great admirer of Lennon and the other Beatles.

He calls himself "an intense Beatle fan." He was infected with that fervor in childhood, and it continues today. He remembers seeing the first Beatle performance on American TV — on Ed Sullivan's show in 1964 — when he was 9 years old.

"From that day on," Leon says, "I was a big fan. I bought every record, I collected things, I went to every performance I could."

Then he set out for a musical career of his own. When he was 11 his parents bought him a drum set (for $89 at a large Los Angeles discount store — and he remembers it as "a pretty good set for the money").

"I banged and crashed a lot from then on," Leon says, "and my parents tolerated it, and me. Later on, I switched from drums to guitar and I began singing — but I was always into rock."

He went to California State University at Northridge, graduating with a degree in film making.

But even during his college days, he was still a musician, performing with a string of local Los Angeles rock groups. It was while he was with one of them that he heard about auditions being held for the Los Angeles company of the stage version of "Beatlemania."

The show had been running in New York, and they were forming companies in various cities. Leon was hired to be the Lennon of the Los Angeles company.

Then came the movie. They auditioned people who had been in all the companies, plus others who had never done the show. They wound up with the four you see on screen — two from the New York company, two from the Los Angeles company.

When John Lennon was shot, David Leon was in that period between "Beatlemania" engagements. He was watching Monday Night Football when he heard the news.

"It was a terrible shock," he says, "but just because I had played him it didn't affect me more than other people. It hit me hard, but just like every other fan, nothing else."

POINTED ANNIVERSARY

1981 marks the 100th anniversary of Pinocchio, the beloved character created by Carlo Collodi. Puppeteer Bill Baird, who has appeared all over the world with his puppets, will pull the strings of a $3,000 Pinocchio on a new coffee commercial. Above, the puppet is seen with Baird and Page Morton Black, his co-star on the Chock Full'o'Nuts commercial.

Southeast Bank Presents 22%* Interest While You Wait.

While you're waiting for your October 1 Tax Sheltered Certificate yielding 12.61%*, we'll pay you a full 22% right now.

In the interest of your interest, Southeast Bank will pay you at an annual rate of 22% if you invest from $2,500 to $25,000 from now until October 1, 1981. Your investment must be in increments of $500.

Then, on October 1, Southeast Bank guarantees to redeem this investment and, at your request, will automatically deposit your money in our new one year Tax Sheltered Certificate.

This Certificate will pay the highest rate allowed by law for qualified tax exempt savings certificates. And the first $1,000 of interest you get will be tax free. (If you file jointly, $2,000 is tax free.)

*Check the chart below to see what this means to you in your tax bracket.

Fiber Diet

Maintains Weight, Assures Nutrition

Maintaining your ideal body weight and increasing dietary fiber are two recommendations made by nutritionists and other health professionals to today's consumer.

The recently developed Fiber Diet emphasizes a low-calorie, high-fiber diet plan which allows a wide variety of foods to help assure that daily nutritional requirements are met.

Participants in the diet, which was tested in two medical centers associated with the UCLA Medical School, found their appetites to be satisfied. High fiber foods such as whole grain breads and cereals and many fruits and vegetables generally require more chewing, take longer to eat and may help to create a feeling of fullness.

The Fiber Diet is designed to encourage a fiber intake of about 20 to 25 grams per day while allowing an individual 1200 or 1500 Calories per day, depending on the weight loss desired. It is also a convenient diet for those who want to maintain their weight but increase their dietary fiber intake.

The complete Fiber Diet is explained in the 48-page Kellogg's Fiber Diet Planner. Instructions on how to follow the diet, a Calorie-Fiber Counter and seven days of sample menus are included. To receive a free copy, print name and address, including zip code, on a postcard and send to:

If you are thinking of ways to increase the dietary fiber content of your diet while decreasing calories, the main dish is a good place to begin. These recipes should appeal to you as you get started serving delicious main dishes which are lower in calories and higher in fiber.

Tuna Salad Stuffed Tomatoes is a cool combination of your favorite vegetables — radishes and cucumbers — blended with tuna and wheat bran cereal in a seasoned yogurt dressing. Use the salad to stuff plump, juicy tomatoes and you have a refreshing luncheon meal.

Chicken Tomato Pilaf combines that old standby, cooked chicken, with tomatoes, rice and wheat bran cereal for a quick but delicious meal idea. For a hearty variation, lean ground beef, browned and drained, can be used in place of the chicken.

Fruits, vegetables and whole grain breads and cereals have been recognized as making a positive contribution to the overall nutritional value of a diet.

These foods are not only important sources of many nutrients, but they also help to increase dietary fiber intake as well.

If you are looking for a way to include even more fiber in your diet, try adding bran cereals to yeast bread and roll recipes. Bran cereals enhance the texture of bread as well as lend whole grain flavor.

For a delicious, tender and fast bran roll, try Bran Batter Rolls. They are simple to make, with no kneading required, yet yield a tasty, attractive roll that is a welcome addition to any lunch or dinner meal.

Whole Wheat Bran Bread is a dark, hearty bread with the flavors of whole wheat, bran and molasses. The recipe makes one loaf — delicious by the slice and just right for toast or sandwiches. Both breads are tasty ways to add fiber to your diet.

- 1 pkg. active dry yeast
- ¾ cup milk
- 2 tablespoons molasses
- 3 tablespoons margarine or butter
- 1 egg

Stir together all-purpose flour and whole wheat flour. In large bowl of electric mixer, combine ½ cup of the flour mixture, the cereal, salt and yeast. Set aside. In small saucepan, heat milk, molasses and margarine until very warm (120 degrees to 130 degrees F). Gradually add to cereal mixture and beat on medium speed of electric mixer for 2 minutes, scraping bowl occasionally. Add egg and ¼ cup of the flour mixture. Beat on high speed for 2 minutes. By hand, stir in enough remaining flour mixture to make a stiff dough. On lightly floured surface, knead dough about 5 minutes or until smooth and elastic. Place in greased bowl, turning once to grease top. Cover lightly. Let rise in warm place until double in volume (about 1 hour). Punch down dough. Shape into loaf. Place in greased 8½ x 4½ x 2½-inch loaf pan. Cover and let rise in warm place until double in volume (about 1 hour). Bake at 375 degrees F about 25 minutes or until golden brown. Yield: 1 loaf, 14 slices, 1 slice per serving.

Stuff a tomato with a tuna-vegetable combination.

TUNA SALAD STUFFED TOMATOES

- 2 tablespoons reduced calorie mayonnaise
- One-third cup plain yogurt
- ¼ teaspoon seasoned salt
- ¼ teaspoon dill weed
- ½ cup chopped, unpared cucumber
- ¼ cup coarsely chopped radishes
- 2 tablespoons chopped onion
- ¼ cup All-Bran or Bran Buds cereal
- 1 can (7 oz.) solid pack white tuna in water, drained and flaked
- 4 medium-size tomatoes

In medium-size mixing bowl, stir together first seven ingredients. Stir in cereal. Add tuna, tossing gently to moisten. Chill mixture. Slice tomatoes into 8 wedges, cutting nearly to base. Spoon tuna mixture into center of tomatoes. Additional cereal may be sprinkled over salads before serving. Yield: 4 servings.

CHICKEN TOMATO PILAF

- 1 can (3 oz., ½ cup) sliced mushrooms, drained, reserving liquid
- ¼ cup chopped onion
- 1 small garlic clove, chopped
- 2 tablespoons vegetable oil
- ¼ teaspoon salt
- Dash pepper
- ½ teaspoon leaf thyme
- 1 can (14½ or 16 oz.) whole peeled tomatoes
- One-third cup All-Bran or Bran Buds cereal
- ¼ cup uncooked rice
- 2 cups cubed, cooked chicken

In large frypan, brown drained mushrooms, onion and garlic in oil. Stir in reserved mushroom liquid, salt, pepper, thyme and tomatoes, cutting tomatoes in pieces. Bring to boil. Stir in cereal, rice and chicken. Cover lightly and simmer about 35 minutes or until rice is tender. Sprinkle each serving with snipped fresh parsley and additional cereal, if desired. Yield: 5 servings.

BRAN BATTER ROLLS

- 1 cup All-Bran or Bran Buds cereal
- 2½ to 3 cups all-purpose flour
- 2 tablespoons sugar
- 1½ teaspoons salt
- 1 pkg. active dry yeast
- 1 cup milk
- ½ cup water
- 2 tablespoons margarine
- 1 egg, slightly beaten
- Poppy seed (optional)
- Sesame seed (optional)

In large bowl of electric mixer, stir together cereal, 1 cup of the flour, sugar, salt and yeast. Set aside. In small saucepan, heat milk, water and margarine until warm, (115 degrees to 120 degrees F). Add to cereal mixture. Reserve 1 tablespoon of egg. Add remaining egg to cereal mixture. Beat on low speed of electric mixer for 30 seconds, scraping bowl constantly. Beat on high speed for 3 minutes. By hand, stir in enough remaining flour to make a stiff batter. Cover lightly. Let rise in warm place until double in volume (about 45 minutes). Stir down dough. Portion dough evenly into 16 greased 2½-inch muffin-pan cups. Brush tops of rolls with reserved egg. Sprinkle with poppy or sesame seed, if desired. Bake at 400 degrees F for 18 to 20 minutes or until golden brown. Serve warm. Yield: 16 rolls, 1 roll per serving.

Microwave Magic

Color Autumn With Flavorful Apples

I would think that the apple is probably our country's favorite fruit. It is certainly versatile and available year-round.

Florida even has a variety, called Anna apple, which experts say can be grown in our area. We planted two trees of this variety in our back yard. One did not survive and the other had one apple.

We're looking forward to the shipment of apples that will soon appear from North Carolina and Virginia.

In the meantime, the Mutuz apple, which is a crisp all-purpose apple is available at several roadside stands. This apple comes from North Georgia and is usually on the market by the middle of August.

Other apples that are perhaps more familiar and good for cooking and baking are: McIntosh, Jonathan, Winesap, Grimes Golden and Courtland. Any apple that can be baked, stewed, boiled and sauteed can be microwaved.

The apples used for the following recipes were medium juicy and medium tart. These characteristics differ in apples; therefore, some adjustments in the amount of sugar and in the cooking time may be needed.

Apples go well with pork. This recipe offers a change from serving a side of applesauce with pork chops.

JOHNNY APPLESEED CHOPS

4 pork chops, 1/2 inch thick. Brown in heat resistant ceramic skillet
2 apples peeled and sliced
1 tablespoon brown sugar
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon seasoned salt
1/2 cup water
1 1/2 tablespoon flour

1. Arrange browned chops evenly in skillet. Top with apple slices. Sprinkle evenly with brown sugar, salt and seasoned salt.
2. Combine water and flour. Pour over chops.
3. Cover with skillet lid or vented plastic wrap.
4. Microwave 100 percent high 3 minutes or until steaming, reduce power to (30 percent) low and microwave for 45 minutes until meat is tender. Rotate dish once.

APPLE SAUCE MICROWAVED

8 medium apples, cored, peeled and sliced
1/2 cup water
1/2 - 3/4 cup sugar

1. Combine apples and water in glass casserole cover.
2. Microwave 100 percent power (high) 10-15 minutes or until apples are tender. Stir once during cooking time.
3. Stir in sugar. Blend well. Mash with potato masher for chunky sauce. Sprinkle with cinnamon. Water can be decreased to one-third cup if apples are very juicy and sugar can be increased if apples are very tart.

This apple pie has a crumb-top, 9-inch pastry shell. I use my favorite crust recipe and 9-inch glass pie plate. Microwave the crust 4-5 minutes on 100 percent power (high). Rotate the crust 4 times if your microwave is not equipped with a carousel.

PIE FILLING

4 cups peeled, sliced apples
1/2 - 3/4 cup sugar
1 tablespoon flour
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
1/2 cup sour cream
One-third cup brown sugar (packed)
3/4 cup all-purpose flour
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
1/4 cup butter or margarine

1. Combine apples with sugar, flour, cinnamon and sour cream.

Massachusetts Cranberry Chili.

Berries Add Tang To Chili

Chili comes in many guises, depending upon the region where it is made. And it knows no season, or time of day, for that matter, when it is enjoyed by its enthusiasts. In fact, there is even an International Chili Society whose home base is Newport Beach, Calif.

Here is a version of chili from the cranberry bags of Massachusetts, adding, of course, cranberries for extra tangy flavor. They blend well with the chili seasonings.

CRANBERRY CHILI

2 pounds boneless chuck, cut into 1-inch cubes
1 1/2 cups chopped onion
3 tablespoons vegetable oil
1 large green pepper, seeded and chopped
2 cans (1 pound each) whole tomatoes
1 bay leaf
1 1/2 teaspoons salt
3/4 teaspoon ground cloves
3 tablespoons chili powder
1/4 teaspoon hot pepper sauce
1/2 teaspoon paprika
1 cup fresh cranberries

Brown meat and onion in oil in heavy skillet. Cook over medium heat until onion is tender, and meat is brown. Add green pepper, tomatoes, bay leaf, salt, cloves, chili powder, hot pepper sauce and paprika. Cover; simmer for 3 hours, adding hot water if necessary to keep mixture from thickening too much. Add cranberries. Cook 10-15 minutes or until cranberries pop but still hold their shape. This kitchen-tested recipe makes 6 servings.

Midge Mycoff

Seminole Community College

2. Combine brown sugar, flour and cinnamon. Cut in butter until crumbly.
3. Spread apple mixture evenly in the baked pie shell. Top with crumbs completely covering the apples.
4. Microwave 100 percent power (high) 8-9 minutes or until apples are tender. Rotate once.

Apples add flavor and moisture to all baked products, be it quick breads or a cake. This recipe for apple nut bread has lots of cinnamon added for flavor and color.

APPLE NUT BREAD

1/2 cup cooking oil

3/4 cup sugar
2 eggs
1 teaspoon vanilla
1/4 cup milk
2 cups shredded apple (3 medium)
1 3/4 cups all-purpose flour
1/2 teaspoon baking powder
1/2 teaspoon soda
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
2 tablespoon graham cracker crumbs

1. Mix well oil and sugar in large mixing bowl. Add eggs, one at a time, beating well after each. Stir in vanilla, apples and milk. Add remaining ingredients except graham cracker crumbs.
2. Grease bottom and sides of a microwave safe loaf pan. Sprinkle with graham cracker crumbs. Shake out excess crumbs. Pour batter into loaf pan and spread evenly.
3. Microwave 50 percent power (medium) uncovered 10 minutes. Rotate once or twice then microwave 100 percent power (high) 3-4 minutes or until surface is no longer doughy. Let cool on rack 10 minutes before turning bread out of pan. Cool completely, wrap and store for several hours before slicing. This aids in slicing and enhances the flavor.

BAKED APPLES

5 medium cooking apples
3 tablespoon butter or margarine
One-third cup brown sugar
1/4 cup chopped dates or raisins (optional)
Cinnamon or nutmeg

Core apples; cut a strip of peel from top of each. Place in 8" shallow round baking dish. Dot with butter; sprinkle tops with sugar. Fill centers with dates or raisins, if desired. Sprinkle with cinnamon or nutmeg. Cook by microwave oven for 6 minutes turning apples in dish once. Let stand several minutes. Serve warm or cold.

Cooking time will vary with the size and variety of apples. Also, allow about 1 minute additional cooking time if apples are filled with dates or raisins.

Next week's column will be on recipe conversion.

Brunch: Popular Way To Entertain

It's easy to understand why a Saturday or Sunday brunch has become such a popular way to entertain. With a little planning, you can add the final touches to a meal and then spend a lazy afternoon with good friends and good food.

The theme here is casual and inexpensive. Brunch should be more economical as well as more relaxed than dinner. These special but easy recipes can also be prepared ahead of time, allowing a hostess to feel like a guest!

Festive Cocoa-Almond Filled Braid makes a showpiece dessert bread. The chocolate ricotta filling is extra rich since it's made with unsweetened cocoa — the most concentrated form of chocolate.

Colorful Glazed Sausage and Fruit Compote is quick to prepare, and takes just 30 minutes to heat before serving. Using fully cooked brown 'n' serve sausage means there's no need to precook the links—and no guesswork about when sausages are sufficiently cooked.

The warm and spicy sausage and sweetened fruit make a pleasing combination of flavors and textures that's especially appealing on a cool day.

"Finger foods" like Brown 'N Serve Sausage Bites En Croute are always popular at parties. These precooked sausage links, with just the right seasoning, are cut into bite-sized pieces and wrapped in a rich, flaky pastry. The sausage bites can be prepared ahead of time and frozen. Then pop them in the oven about 20 minutes before serving.

FESTIVE COCOA-ALMOND FILLED BRAID

Yield: 1 braided loaf (8 to 10 servings)

Ricotta Cheese Filling (recipe below)
 1/2 cup milk
 1 tablespoon water
 2 tablespoons margarine
 2 1/4 to 2 1/2 cups unsifted all-purpose flour
 1/4 cup sugar
 1/2 teaspoon salt
 1 envelope active dry yeast
 1 egg
 1 tablespoon margarine, melted
 Vanilla Glaze (recipe below)
 Sliced almonds for garnish (optional)
 Prepare filling; set aside to chill.

Heat milk, water and margarine over low heat until very warm (120 degrees to 130 degrees F); margarine does not need to melt. In large bowl stir together 1 cup flour, sugar, salt and yeast; add warm milk mixture and beat at medium speed 2 minutes. Add egg and 1 cup flour; stir by hand until smooth. Sprinkle 1/4 cup flour onto kneading surface; turn out dough onto flour. Knead dough, adding additional flour as needed, until soft, smooth and elastic, about 5 minutes. Place in greased bowl, turning to grease top; allow to rise, covered, in warm place until doubled in bulk, about 1 hour.

Roll dough on lightly floured surface into a rectangle measuring 12 by 15 inches; move rectangle onto lightly greased baking sheet. Spread filling in center third of rectangle up to 1/2-inch of top and bottom edges; make eight diagonal cuts on each side of filling to within one inch of filling. Braid strips around filling; pinch ends to seal. Cover; allow to rise in warm place until almost doubled, about 1 hour. Bake in 350 degree F oven for 30 to 35 minutes or until golden brown; remove from sheet. Brush with melted margarine; allow to cool 20 minutes. Drizzle with Vanilla Glaze; garnish with sliced almonds. Serve warm or cool.

RICOTTA CHEESE FILLING

1/2 cup ricotta cheese
 1 cup sugar
 1/4 cup unsweetened cocoa
 1/2 cup all-purpose flour
 1/2 teaspoon vanilla
 1/2 teaspoon almond extract
 1/2 cup slivered almonds
 Combine ricotta cheese, sugar, cocoa, flour, vanilla and almond extract in medium bowl; stir in almonds. Chill.

VANILLA GLAZE

Blend 1/2 cup confectioners' sugar with 1 tablespoon milk until smooth.

GLAZED SAUSAGE AND FRUIT COMPOTE

Yield: 5 servings (4 cups fruit)

8 ounce package brown 'n serve sausage links, original variety
 16-ounce can sliced pears
 16-ounce can sliced cling peaches
 16-ounce can apricot halves
 8-ounce can pineapple chunks
 10 maraschino cherries
 3 tablespoons butter or margarine, melted
 1-3rd cup packed brown sugar
 1 teaspoon lemon juice
 1/4 teaspoon ground ginger
 Drain fruit well. Arrange fruit and sausage links in a single layer in shallow baking dish. Combine butter, sugar, lemon juice and ginger. Mix well. Spoon butter-sugar mixture over fruit and sausages. Bake in 350 degree F oven for 30 minutes. Serve warm.

BROWN 'N SERVE SAUSAGE BITES EN CROUTE

Yield: 60 pieces

2 packages (8 ounces each) brown 'n serve sausage links
 2 cups all-purpose flour
 1/4 teaspoon salt
 1 cup shortening
 1 teaspoon lemon juice
 1/4 cup cold water
 Dijon mustard
 Egg glaze (1 egg beaten with 1 teaspoon water)
 To make dough, combine flour and salt in large bowl. Cut in shortening until the consistency of cornmeal. Combine lemon juice and water; add liquid to flour mixture. Mix until a solid mass forms.

On a floured surface roll dough into a 12 by 14 inch rectangle. Fold into thirds. Give folded pastry a half turn. Repeat rolling and folding procedure twice. Then roll pastry into a 12 by 14 inch rectangle. Cover dough with plastic wrap and let rest 1 hour at room temperature.

While dough rests, brown sausages according to package directions. Drain and cut each link into thirds. Cool.

Cut pastry into 60 strips each 3/4 by 3-1/2 inches. Spread strips with mustard. Roll a strip around each sausage piece, mustard inside. To seal, brush ends of dough with egg glaze and press together. Brush pastry with egg glaze and place pieces 1 inch apart on greased baking sheet, seam down. Bake in 400 degree F oven 20 to 25 minutes or until golden brown.

Note: Brown 'N Serve Sausage Bites En Croute may be assembled, brushed with egg glaze and then frozen in a single layer. Once firmly frozen, pieces may be transferred to plastic bag or freezer container. To bake, preheat oven to 400 degree F. Place frozen sausage en croute on greased baking sheet. Bake 25 to 30 minutes or until golden brown.

Sausage bites, fruit glazed sausage and almond filled braid set the pace for a leisurely and delightful fall brunch.

SAVING

This is the heavy gauge porcelain on steel cookware scientifically engineered to help you prepare the finest meals you've ever tasted! Natural flavors are preserved because the snug fitting covers seal in moisture. And you can cook evenly and gently over lower heat settings with a minimum of water. Beautiful to look at. Kids Learn At Home On The Range

Children's Experiments

Children are naturally curious. They like to explore how things work and why things grow. According to Camp Fire, the national youth agency, exploring and experimenting can help girls and boys develop resourcefulness and increased powers of observation and reasoning.

ROOT-TOP GARDEN

Materials: Shallow, flat bottom container, fresh vegetables (carrot, beet, turnip, rutab and/or parsnip) with tops that show a little stubble or bit of green stem, small pebbles.

Steps: Cover the bottom of container with pebbles. Select one or more vegetables with tops that will fit into the container nicely.

Cut the leaves back to within an inch of the vegetable crown. Leave about 2 inches of the vegetable end. Have group arrange the cut roots with their short tops in the container, using pebbles to hold them in place. Slowly add enough water to reach the top of the root without covering it. Place the container in the light and green shoots will soon appear. The plants should always be supplied with water.

Making the Most of the Activity: Use the vegetable ends to make snacks with chip dip, cheese spread or peanut butter.

Materials: Clock with second hand, pencil and paper. Steps: Explain that the heart is a pump that pumps blood through little tubes called arteries. Each time your heart beats your arteries swell slightly. This is called a pulse, which you can feel in your wrist.

Ask Blue Birds to guess how many times they think their hearts beat in a minute. Have them write down their predictions on a chart. Then have the children sit quietly and place the first 2 fingers of their right hands on the inside of their left wrists, just below the base of the thumb.

Have the children count the number of times their hearts beat during minute. Record it on the chart. See how close they come to their predictions.

RAIN AND SHINE WATCHERS

Materials: Cloth, felt or vinyl of 2 different colors (a bright and a dark color); a supply of pebbles.

Steps: Have each child make a brightly colored "Shine Bag" and a dark colored "Rain Bag." Glue, stitch or draw a sun symbol on the Shine Bag. Put raindrops or umbrella on the Rain Bag.

Have each child take a bag home and add a pebble (or bean) to the Shine Bag for each sunny day and a pebble in the Rain Bag for each cloudy day.

Making the Most of the Activity: Make a Rain and Shine Chart to tell what days were mostly cloudy or sunny. At the end of a month, 6 weeks or a season, hold a contest to guess the number of beans or pebbles in each bag.

These easy experiments are from What, When, Why, a book published by Camp Fire for leaders who work with Blue Birds, Camp Fire members in first, second and third grades. For more information about What, When, Why write Camp Fire, Inc., 4601 Madison Ave., Kansas City, Mo. 64112.

Avocado Ad Lib

You don't need a recipe to enjoy the wonderful flavor and versatility of Florida Avocados!

Add slices to meat, chicken, ham, cheese, club and BLT sandwiches.

Fill a pita pocket with avocado cubes and fresh veggies marinated in a piquant dressing.

Add slices of avocado to a grilled cheese sandwich.

The traditional party sandwich loaf with ham, cheese or chicken fillings can have an avocado one, too. Mash, season and spread.

Avocado combines well with blue cheese, alfalfa sprouts and bacon bits. It's delicious on whole wheat bread.

Arrange avocado slices in hot dog bun before adding hot dog, chili, cheese or bacon.

Slice avocados into fruit, tossed green, fresh spinach, potato, three-bean and macaroni salads.

Alternate avocado and grapefruit slices on individual salad plates — serve with Italian or vinaigrette dressing.

Add avocado slices and rings to molded salads.

*Serve avocados au naturel with a squeeze of lime.

Add diced avocados to chicken, tuna or shrimp salad sandwich filling. Top an English muffin and heat through. (AFNS)

Part 5 in a Series
NOTE TO PARENTS: "How can I get my child to eat vegetables?" is a common lament from parents. One answer, according to cooking school instructors, is to encourage children to take part in the preparation — or in the growing, if you have a garden. Turning the cooking or raising of vegetables into an adventure usually improves appetites immensely!

This recipe for Savory Sunny Broccoli has been designed by the Kraft Kitchens. It is sure to become popular because the high-nutrient broccoli is combined with a favorite dish of children — macaroni and cheese. Water chestnuts are also added for fun and for crunch. The recipe is divided into steps, so that adults and children can cook together.

SAVORY SUNNY BROCCOLI

1. Shop together the day before for your ingredients. You will need: 1 package (7 1/4 oz.) macaroni and cheese dinner, 1 package (10 oz.) frozen chopped broccoli, 1 can (8 1/2 oz.) water chestnuts, 1 tomato, margarine, milk, and onion salt.

2. Following directions on broccoli package, place frozen broccoli in a small amount of boiling salted water in a saucepan. Cover and cook as directed, just until tender. Drain.

3. Measure 6 cups water into a large pan. Add 1 teaspoon salt.

4. Heat water to boiling. Add macaroni from box. Stir. Boil rapidly, stirring occasionally, 7 to 10 minutes or to desired tenderness.

5. Meanwhile, open can of water chestnuts; drain.

6. Cut water chestnuts in half.

7. Drain off water from macaroni as soon as it is done; return to pan.

8. Add the following to the macaroni: 1/4 cup margarine, 1/2 cup milk, and cheese sauce mix from the box. Mix well.

9. Stir in drained broccoli, halved water chestnuts, and 1/2 teaspoon onion salt. Mix well. Heat thoroughly, stirring occasionally. Spoon into serving dish.

10. Cut 1 tomato into wedges. Arrange on top of macaroni-broccoli mixture. Serve hot. Makes 6 servings.

Indian Summer

A Trio Of Get-Together Ideas

Sparkling Grape Punch, Amber Punch and Strawberry Quencher are three great drinks to serve on great days when summer meets fall and a refreshing cooler is welcome.

INDIAN SUMMER is that special time during the fall when summer pays another visit. It's a time to savor those waning warm days and enjoy being outdoors while the weather's still nice.

Here are three easy ideas for friendly get-togethers with family, neighbors and office pals. These casual parties don't require a lot of planning, just a little initiative to invite people. These are the kinds of get-togethers where everyone relaxes and enjoys themselves.

THE FAMILY REUNION

If a special cousin or favorite aunt is paying a visit, use it as an excuse to hold a family reunion. Even if no far-flung relative is coming to town, have a family reunion anyway. It will be fun to have all the aunts and uncles, grandparents and grandchildren, cousins and in-laws get together.

WHERE TO GO: A big backyard. Every family has a favorite house, someplace the clan likes to gather, someplace that brings back good memories.

WHAT TO BRING: So that everyone can enjoy the reunion, and so that no one gets saddled with all the work, have each household bring something. Here's a list of things to include: Specialty dish. Have everyone bring the recipe for which he or she is most famous. Maybe it's fried chicken, bean salad or lemon meringue pie.

- Disposables, such as lots of paper napkins, plates and eating utensils.
- Lawn chairs.
- Outdoor toys for the kids.
- Old family photos.

WHAT TO DO: No doubt the buffet of favorite family foods will become the center of attention. Set out the food and enjoy it. The children will have fun playing with each other whether it's an organized game of ball or hide and seek. Maybe you can even find an old croquet set, and both children and adults can enjoy this traditional lawn game.

Go through the photos, reminisce, exchange pictures to complete albums, and just laugh about old times.

WHAT TO DRINK: You're going to need a drink that will appeal to everyone — children and adults. It also should be easy to fix, so you can keep a pitcherful replenished all day. Try Strawberry Quencher, a flavorful combination of strawberry flavor sugar-sweetened soft drink mix, orange juice and ginger ale.

THE NEIGHBORHOOD FOOTBALL BASH

Football season starts and everyone's going to get the football fever again. Take advantage of football-mania and hold a neighborhood party.

WHERE TO GO: A patio or clubhouse. A roomy patio is perfect for this kind of party. Or, if you live in an apartment or condominium complex, book the clubhouse for a day so you'll be able to enjoy both the outdoor common area and the party room without messing up anyone's house.

WHAT TO BRING: Again, the key to having fun at a neighborhood party is to keep it easy and casual. Here are some suggestions:

- Snacks such as chips and pretzels to satisfy the munchies.
- Do-it-yourself sandwich ingredients such as cold cuts, cheese slices, breads and spreads.
- Portable television so you can watch the game either from an outdoor vantagepoint or indoors.
- Football for a little touch football or just tossing back and forth.

WHAT TO DO: Keep activities free-flowing and fun. Involve kids and grown-ups in a light game of touch football. Award trophies to everyone, for Youngest Player, Most Improved Field Goal Kicker or other attribute.

Set up a sandwich assembly line so that everyone can create their own, then adjourn to the TV set to watch the game.

WHAT TO DRINK: You'll want something refreshing that will keep spirits cooled off when the game gets heated. Amber Punch, a refreshing blend of instant iced tea and orange flavor sugar-sweetened soft drink mix, is a good beverage to keep on hand during football season.

THE OFFICE PLAY-DAY

Just for the fun of it, get together with the gang at the office, and their families. Invite your closest associates, the whole department or the entire company.

WHERE TO GO: A close-by park or picnic area. Find an area with lots of space, so there will be room for games and grilling.

WHAT TO BRING: There's always one person in the office who is the organizer. Let that person make assignments as to who brings what. Here's a list of items you'll want to include:

- Grills, charcoal, barbecue utensils.
- Kabob makings such as marinated meat or chicken, green pepper, onions, tomatoes, mushrooms, zucchini slices, miniature cob corn or anything else that can be skewered.
- Disposables such as tablecloths, paper plates and napkins, plastic cups and eating utensils.
- Badminton set.

WHAT TO DO: Set up the badminton set and choose up teams. Let families play opposite each other or let departments vie for the championship.

Let everyone create their own kabobs and have different adults supervise the barbecuing.

WHAT TO DRINK: This Sparkling Grape Punch can become one of the activities. Have a contest for naming the punch, and let the boss judge the winner. A combination of grape flavor sugar-sweetened soft drink mix, cranberry-apple drink and lemon-lime carbonated beverage, this punch should spark a lot of interesting suggestions. And, of course, everyone will have to sample more than one glass to capture the proper essence in a name.

This fall, don't let all the warm Indian Summer days go by without getting together with people you like.

SPARKLING GRAPE PUNCH

- 2 scoops grape flavor sugar-sweetened soft drink mix
 - 2 cups cranberry-apple drink
 - 1 quart water and ice cubes
 - 1 can (12 fl. oz.) lemon-lime carbonated beverage
- Dissolve soft drink mix in cranberry-apple drink in non-metal bowl or pitcher. Stir in water and ice cubes and beverage. Makes about 2 quarts or 8 servings.

AMBER PUNCH

- 2 scoops orange flavor sugar-sweetened soft drink mix
 - 1 tablespoon instant iced tea mix
 - 1 quart water and ice cubes
- Dissolve soft drink mix and instant tea in water and ice cubes in nonmetal bowl or pitcher. Makes 1 quart or 4 servings.

STRAWBERRY QUENCHER

- 2 scoops strawberry flavor sugar-sweetened soft drink mix
 - 2 cups water
 - 2 cups ice cubes
 - 1/4 cup orange juice
 - 1 can (12 fl. oz.) ginger ale, chilled
- Dissolve soft drink mix in water in nonmetal bowl or pitcher. Add ice cubes, orange juice and ginger ale and serve at once. Makes about 1-1/2 quarts or 6 servings.

PERKED MOCHA COCOA

- Yield: Four 8-ounces servings
 - 2 1/2 cups cold water
 - 1/4 cup unsweetened cocoa
 - 1-3rd cup sugar
 - 3 tablespoons ground coffee
 - 1/2 teaspoon salt
 - 1-1-3rd cups milk
 - 1/2 teaspoon vanilla
- Reserve 1 cup water; pour remaining water into percolator. Thoroughly combine cocoa, sugar, coffee and salt in small bowl; pour into percolator basket. Assemble percolator; pour reserved water over cocoa mixture in basket. Stir until all water passes through; plug in percolator. Allow to perk completely and finish dripping.
- Meanwhile, heat milk in small saucepan over medium heat; stir in vanilla. Pour 1-3rd cup warm milk into each serving mug; fill with mocha cocoa. If desired, garnish each mug with a dollop of whipped topping and a light sprinkling of cocoa.
