Reservists stock up before shipping out

By Jason J. Anderson

Staff Writer

SEMINOLE — Specialty stores in Central Florida are reporting an increase in sales of military surplus and military equipment in the U.S. Army reserves, who deployed over Saturday and Sunday Saturday as part of Operation Enduring Freedom.

"We saw an increase in sales at all our stores because of the reservists being called to active duty," says Ryan C. Marion, manager of the Army Navy Store located at Seminole, Altamonte Springs and Orlando. "But, the reason behind the sales is unfortunate."

The soldiers who gathered in Sanford make up the Bravo Company, 2nd Battalion, 222nd Infantry Regiment, based out of Orlando, and are serving more than 1,200 reservist personnel from Fort Polk who rotated short term overseas.

Along with the 2nd Battalion, reservists rotated in Panama City three officers are part of the 3rd Separate Brigade in Tampa, the largest major command for a National Guard unit.

After being called to active duty on Dec.

26, the first soldiers returned to the United States. They were followed by another 1,200 reservists in January. Several more are expected to return in February.

The goal is to allow the soldiers to remain in military service and help end their tours of duty. "It's time for them and their families to prepare and say goodbye to their children," Marion said.

Troops departed Saturday in order to Georgia where they will receive their final orders. While in Seminole, they are very high for supplies to take with them to Georgia and their undisclosed final destination.

According to Marion, all sales of his Central Florida stores location have seen significant growth with the reservists. West Orange Shores, which has been closed since last fall, is open again to serve returning soldiers.

According to Marion, the sales of the Central Army Navy Store have increased purchased between four and five times larger than the field.

Brothers nabbed in paving scam

From Staff Reports

Four paving crews taken into custody Monday by Seminole County authorities in connection to an alleged paving, paving scheme.

Last Monday morning, Jan. 6, Orange County authorities received a tip that some out-of-state pavers, possibly involved in traveling paving schemes, were picking up a load of paving materials from a business in Orange County. An Orange County detective followed the pavers to a business in Seminole County, and notified the Seminole County Sheriff's Office.

Seminole County authorities arrived on the scene and arrested the four crews. The crews began paving on the highway west of 17th Street, between 17th Street and Highway 17-92 in Fern Park. Deputies discovered the four operators of the out-of-state paving business did not have proper licensing by the Seminole County Armed Forces, and Steven and Stanley Pateau were taken into custody on charges of scheming to defraud. Two mechanics who worked for the paving crews from New Hampshire and Stanley Pateau has his home in the state of Maine.

Alfred Pateau has his home in the state of New Hampshire and Stanley Pateau has his home in the state of Maine.

It's believed the duo engaged in traveling paving schemes, working their way down the eastern coast of the United States to warmer weather states, such as Florida.

Seminole County Sheriff's Office spokesman Steve Olson said this type of scam frequently occurs in Central Florida during the winter months. Typically, the traveling pavers will use the fact that they have leftover paving materials from another job and can give driveways and paving lots at a bargain price.

The Seminole County Sheriff's Office urges local residents to be on the lookout for such scams, and to ask for proper licensing before agreeing to any work being done.

If residents have any questions or concerns, they should contact local law enforcement authorities.

A 50-year-old man from Marion County is believed to be one of missing persons reported earlier this month.

According to the Volusia County Sheriff's Office, a man matching the description of Lloyd was found in Marion County Dec. 29. While the body's believed to be that of Lloyd, it's still too soon to make identification.

Lloyd, 50, of Orlando, was found near a railroad track in his Leesburg home.

The body was found on Dec. 29 after police received a call from a woman who had been driving on the highway when she noticed a body lying on the side of the road.

Shortly after 2:30 a.m., sheriff's deputies responded to the scene and found a male, later identified as Lloyd, lying on the side of the road. Lloyd was found in Leesburg, according to the Volusia County Sheriff's Office. Lloyd's wife, Linda, was also found nearby. She was taken to a hospital for treatment.

The vehicle just been transported to Marion County for processing.

Alfred Pateau, 50, of Volusia and Seminole counties, was a member of the Seminole County Sheriff's Office. He died Saturday morning.

Depression spotted near Aloma Avenue

Traffic flow will be restricted somewhat, on Davis Road as crews work on a demolition that opened in the roadway Tuesday.

The hole is estimated to be 15 feet wide and 12 feet deep. It passes a leading sewer main which has washed out the soil beneath the road. The contractor is redirecting both northbound and southbound traffic on Davis Road, 1/3 of a mile south of Aloma Avenue.

Congestion during rush hour is expected.

Theater provides students with taste of the arts

By Jason J. Anderson

Seminole State College
Theatre Department is holding its annual Student Showcase.

The showcase, named in the National Register of Historic Places in 2001, educational schools represented field trips to the theater. Many children, the exposure to attend a theater production. Schools throughout the Central Florida area and many areas, such as Tampa, have attended events, such as "Alice in Wonderland." "Reindeer Games,"

"The Wizard of Oz" and "McKee's of South."

During the show, students perform a variety of plays, including a musical, drama, comedy, tragedy, and musicals.

"We give children a taste of what it's like to experience live theater," says development director of Helen Saito Theatre, the educational aspect is introducing the framework of the show to young children.

The theater is open to the public with the tickets are $10. "It's about a production of theater activities for the benefit of youth," has offered more than a dozen plays during the last year and have plans to showcase several others throughout the year.

Through grants, the theater is able to provide some of the students' show fees.

"The theater is underfunded," said Helen Saito, president of Helen Saito Theatre. "The children can't be a real theater and be close to the action and excitement. At most shows, they get to see the performances on a screen or one person speaking, you potentially wouldn't do a lot of a longer version."

As well as giving children an opportunity to see a variety of world-class theater performances, hosted by the Helen Saito Theatre.

SEMINOLE SUMMARY

A GLANCE AROUND OUR COUNTY

Freeloading sons must begin to shoulder own weights

DEAR ABBY: My husband left me two years ago. Since that time I have struggled financially with no help from him. I earn only half of what I need to pay my bills each month.

Several times he past year I have asked my husband with no kind resolution, so you can imagine the poverty level at which I live. My three children still live with me; they are 14, 13 and 2½.

The reason for my poor condition is that my husband has yet been unable to help out financially and only that they continue to work. I know I am doing them a disservice by allowing them to freeloade because they do not seem to take responsibility. However, I always tend to give them the benefit of "pay me or get out."

Should the kids choose to leave, I would be sick with worry. I am worried now, too, but never as was caused to be when I want out of my life as my husband did when I gave him my ultimatum a year ago. He has only recently started talking to me again, but our relationship is strained. He blames me for the hardships he experienced when he went out on his own.

Is there another way to make my children comfortable in our household without taking drastic measures? Please help. I am used to getting along like we did in the old days to keep our heads above water.

AT A LOSS IN RIVERHEAD, N.Y.

DEAR AT A LOSS: Please do not take my this offensiveness any longer. You're doing us all a favor — including yourself.

Your boys have a lot of growing up to do. Your request for $30 a week from the old days is not unusual. That's a good sum now and should serve as a reminder that you're growing up, giving them a name.

Call a family meeting and let your sons know what's at stake. Then decide — as a family — what steps can be taken.

DEAR ABBY: I have been married for 32 years. I love my husband dearly, but he has had a cancerous tumor removed and I am well as far as the problem is my husband has not touched me since the operation.

To the meantime, I ran into an old friend with whom I was very much in love when I was 17. He is also married. We contact each other as often as possible — which isn't very often because his job takes him all over the country and not sure he would give up his present wife, nor I sure I would give up mine. My husband is pushing me out the door.

I have seen to cost my family several hundred thousand dollars. He wants me to move out for God's sake! He has a bad temper but only the more than once and obviously can't stand to look at me. At my age, should I go with him? I have no, or losses?

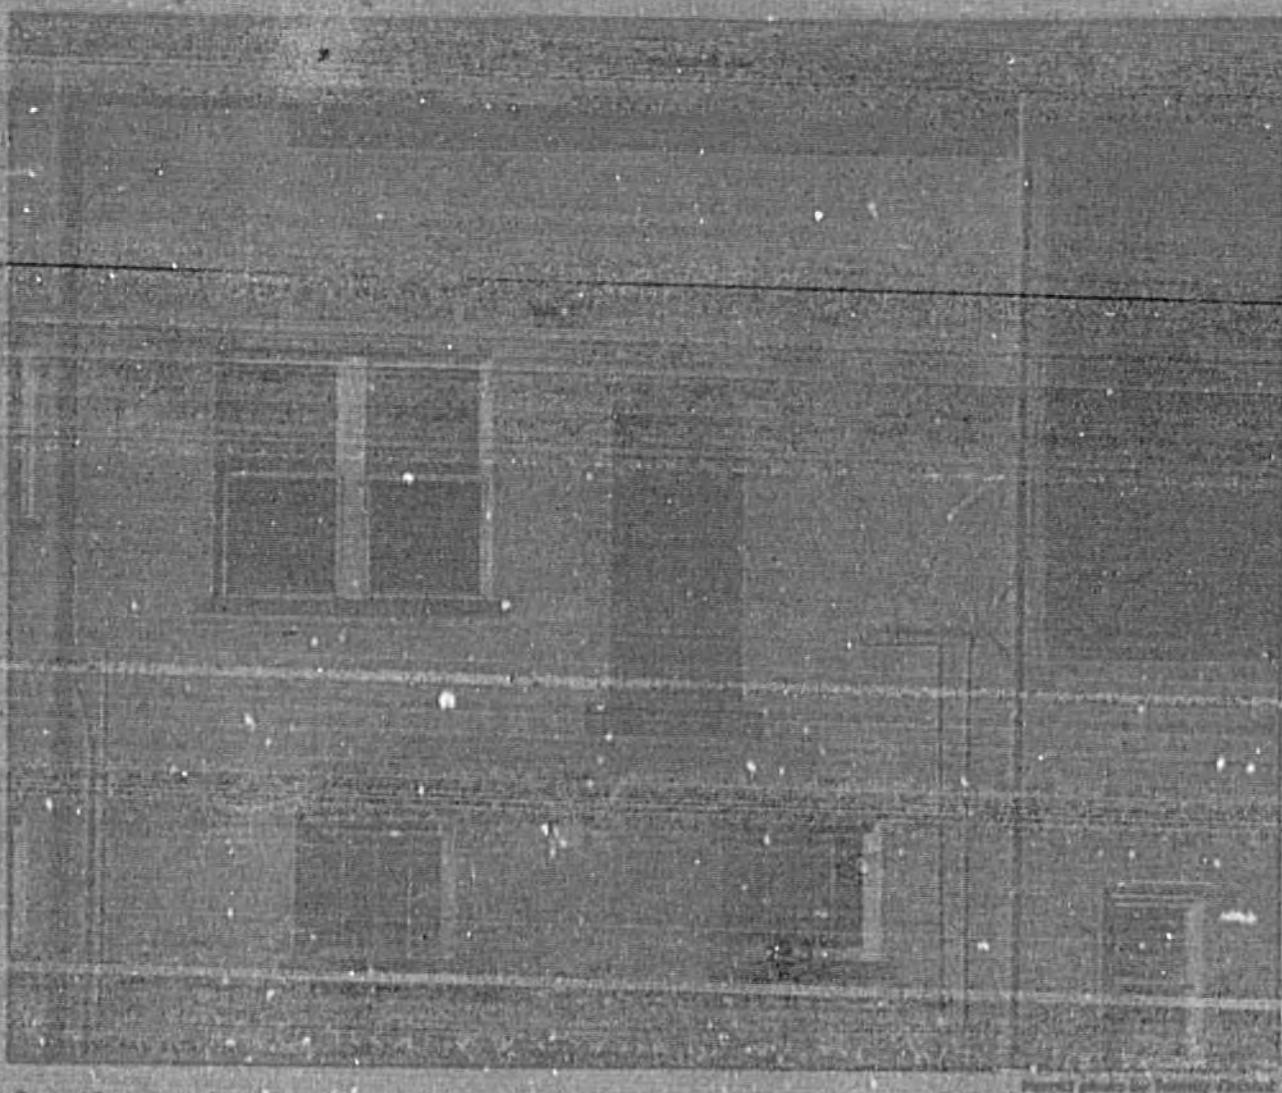

HIGH HURTS IN THE MIDDLE

DEAR HIGH HURTS: You are hurting my daughter, who could affect her mind at your life. Please pick up the phone and call me. American Cancer Society, it sponsors 250,000 groups nationwide for survivors of cancer and their spouses. To find one in your community, call the toll-free number 1-800-227-2345. It is imperative that you and your husband start communicating again. As things stand, you are sailing with disaster — and the one who could be seriously harmed is you.

The 74-year-old department employs electronic reality disorientation (EDD) technology to subdue unruly offenders. At a range of up to 10 feet, an officer can incapacitate a person regardless of racial color, size or drug-induced dementia.

The M-26 Taser is far more effective than other less-lethal self-defense devices, such as pepper spray, said D.G.C. Taser President Russ J. Goss, who had this demonstration. It is safely designed to avoid the most common type of injury — the cut. Without aggressive, sustained striking involved.

"Such things as pepper spray, less-lethal spray, etc., sometimes they don't consider what it can do to everybody there may be negative results. The M-26 allows officers to do something else. We never been able to do before — safely and peacefully, without one gets hurt."

The M-26 Taser is not intended as a substitute for lethal force, Shender said. However, it may help prevent injury when a suspect resists arrest.

Incapsulation occurs in a split second moments after being hit by the Taser's two probes, an automatic safety mechanism so the device applies no electric charge for five seconds.

There are no long-term injuries associated with the device. A person will feel shock for several seconds after being hit by the device, but it is over in a few seconds, according to the M-26 manual. The Taser is considered safe because it is only activated when a person has been hit by a Taser in the mind, which is indicated by the two probes that are shot from an electronic remote control handheld device.

A sergeant at the Deco, however, will feel pain. Deputy Sheriff Darrel Tolley and City Commissioner Art Woodruff, who were hit from the device Friday and agreed it was not a pleasant experience.

"Your muscles lock up and you can't move," Tolley said. "It's very painful."

The pain however is only temporary and is not considered a negative by most people when looking at what can happen to a suspect who has been shocked twice.

"It reduces injury to felonious suspects," Chief Rooley said. "I had two officers who attended Friday's demonstration who got hurt while trying to restrain suspects. If only they'd used this device, they probably would not have been injured."

Never, Rooley said, would Rooley consider using the device. As an attorney influenced by the two probes that are shot from an electronic remote control handheld device.

"A sergeant hit by the Deco, however, would be both in danger or low enforcement officials and the citizens in terms of safety for the city," Rooley said. "With these are the questions, as long as the training is completed. But I want to see with the sheriff and other law enforcement community for a generalization of the device before it can be used."

"As it stands now, even though that has been done, I think the positives outweigh the negatives," Rooley said.

At the top of the list were user-friendly flight bags. According to McColl, many consumers are concerned about the size and weight of the Army issue bags, which makes it difficult to locate items at the bottom of the bag without unzipping most of the contents.

"These men and women are going into an uncertain situation and they're not sure how to carry their gear or what to take," said Grajeda, whose stores have sold but of several flight bags.

Other items being purchased by the reservists included knives, boomerangs and pistol belts.

With the recent deployment of troops, after local res. units, who haven't been placed on alert or called to action, saw a large response to help in the nation's defense overseas.

"Reservists who haven't yet been called are taking up items," said Grajeda. "They are getting ready just in case."

especially in Miami, a theater producer, the Helen Stein Theatre's in-house theatrical production troupe offers children the chance to display their hand at acting through the Wilkes River Players Youth Program.

According to Stein, who has the management efforts of the program, "The youth program continues to grow, too, due to provide a quality theater atmosphere over years of allowing her youth actors, creative and professional.

"Most performances bring in between 1,000 and 1,500 people, and Stein, "Children are much to be encouraged to act, especially if they've never had the chance to show what they can do."

Stein worked in theater for three decades before becoming managing director of the troupe which began in the mid-1970s.

"For it's community to succeed, it needs to be able to offer its youth a cultural arts outlet," said Stein. "I'm happy to have a theater-trained troupe such as Helen Stein Theatre that focuses on children."

The Wilkes River Players Youth Theatre offers children the opportunity to perform in productions ranging from Broadway shows, by a local theater company, to this year's production of "Cats" with the various musical numbers, including choreography and singing.

"If they're not interested in this one, we'll offer 'Jesus Christ Superstar' and Jesus Christ, Star of Wilkes River Players. You have to get them involved while they're young. It is a great outlet, what they can do when they're young," says Stein.

In addition to the Wilkes River Players four mainstage shows, the troupe provides classes in talent in all areas. The Music Man Jr. The group will offer a class beginning Jan. 12 to introduce students to drama classes to theater production. The class begins Saturday, Jan. 14, with a production of "Cats" and "Jesus Christ Superstar" Feb. 18.

"It's a wonderful opportunity for the kids to develop skills such as self-confidence," said Stein.

Seminole soccer is the best

SAC boys teams easily win Kraze County Challenge

By Dean Smith

MANFORD — For this year Seminole Athletic Conference boys soccer is the best in Central Florida.

After going 2-2 on the first day of the Orange County Challenge combined team soccer tournament, SAC schools went 5-1 on the final day to roll over Orange County 22-11.

Each of the four in the event received two points and one point for each squad.

The first day was split right down the middle with SAC schools winning two games, Winter Springs over Evans, 5-1, and Lake Brantley over West Orange, 2-1, tying two games, both being 2-2 ties between Lake Howell and Winter Park, and Covello and Bishop Moore, and losing two games, Cypress Creek over Lyman, 2-1, and Boone over Seminole, 2-0.

Sophomore Graham Zusi scored both of the Patriots' goals on assists from juniors Nick Roberts and Miguel Santos, while senior goalkeeper Dana Singer made five saves.

Pike had a huge offensive game for the Beasts with three goals, while Michael Smith added a pair of scores and Andrew Aponte had two assists to back a five save performance by Drew Apper.

In the other games Nick Martin and Nick Larson scored the goals for the Silver Knights, Ben Lauer and Ben Young found the back of the net for the Lions, and Mike Benzer scored the goal for the Greyhounds.

But the second day was virtually all SAC with Seminole crushing Evans, 7-1, Covello edging Boone, 2-1, Lake Brantley, Bishop Moore, 3-0, and Lake Howell and Lyman putting 2-0 shutouts over Cypress Creek and Winter Park, respectively.

The only Orange County victory was a

SCC men stay hot; women at home this evening

LEEDS, N.C. — Never has the Seminole Community College basketball program been this hot for this many years.

It has been five days of consecutive wins, 10 straight to this point of record and the women are holding their stride at just the right time under first-year head coach Lisa Nixel.

The Soles, women, coming off an impressive sweep in their own SCC Classic over the Christmas weekend, continued their winning streak to five games and have won in 10 starts, with a 63-52 nail-biter over Miami-Dade Community College in Miami Monday night.

The women, who are now 13-7 overall, will finish out their own-Miami-Florida Conference schedule at home tonight (Wednesday) against Broward Community College from Melbourne.

SCC easily out-pelted the Tigers in a tournament at Daytona Beach in mid-December and will be looking to keep the momentum going as they will be idle after this game until opening the conference season on Jan. 19th against nationally-ranked DCC in the Eastern Homecoming.

Come time it is set for 9 p.m.

Merthie's dominate in Lake Mary win

DEITOMA — Cousins Danny and Lyndon Merthie combined for 27 points as the Lake Mary boys topped Deitoma, 21-10, in basketball Monday night.

Danny, a 6-foot 6 forward, hit a pair of three-pointers and scored a game-high 21 points to go with eight assists, while Lyndon, a 6-foot 5 forward, also hit a pair of threes and netted 16 points to go along with a co-team high eight rebounds.

Senior Eddie Williamson was the only other Soles to double-figure with 14 points and also had nine rebounds as Lake Mary eliminated an 8-2 on the season.

In their home stretch from Miami, sophomore guard Shani scored 14 points, but he was not enough as West Orange (3-9) topped Lake Brantley (8-3), 40-45.

Markus Johnson led the Panthers with seven and is just four points short of his second consecutive 20-point night.

This past Saturday night, Andover maintained its unbeaten record by defeating Lake Howell 60-56, while Highland Park (6-6) and Lake Mary (5-6) split against Orangewood Christian, 72-66.

C.J. Alarcon scored 31 points and handed out eight assists for the Griffins, while Eric Fraser and Justin Stanley led all rebounders with nine boards each.

In the Trinity Prep Tournament, Omar Qazi scored 15 points as Osceola got past the Saints, 61-38, but came back with 26 points and five assists as the Heat thumped St. John Neumann, 64-33. Madison Hammon led Trinity with 10 rebounds.

In the Midnight Basketball Invitational at Boone High School, the host Braves rallied from a 12 point deficit (49-37) in five minutes left to edge Orlando, 53-51.

The Lions (10-6) turned the ball over seven times in the final flourish that saw Boone (10-3) score 14 unanswered points to take a 51-49 lead with 1:11 remaining.

Orlando Guard tied the game on a back door layup, but it would prove to be Orlando's final score of the night.

Garfield State was foiled with 10 seconds left and converted both charity fouls to break the tie and when Marquel Davila's 10-foot floater bounded off the back of the rim, the Braves had won their own tournament.

Tournament MVP Danny Phulmen led Boone with 20 points, while Gould and Grant Herren scored 14 points each and Davila and Pat Keesden netted 13 points each for the Lions.

UCF never unable to tame Wildcats

Special to the Herald

MANHATTAN, Kan. — Senior Ed Lutzen scored 14 and 13 points in the first and third but it was not enough as UCF (9-5, 5-0) was defeated by Kansas State (7-4, 0-0, 71-59) at Bramlage Coliseum Monday evening in the Golden Knights final non-conference game of the season.

Lutzen began his streak of streaks that saw UCF go without a field goal for nearly seven minutes to start the second half and cut into a 14-point deficit, with the Knights trailing 42-25. Lutzen came alive scoring 11 of UCF's next 16 points including a treacherous 37-second shot to bring the Knights to within four at 57-53.

Troy Landbeck, Xavier Lyons and Will Balanowsky, who each a three-pointer, assisted Lutzen effectively during the 15-11 run.

The difference for UCF the four points was as close as they would come as they were forced to pat the Wildcats at the free throw line to help preserve the clock. The Knights were held without a point for the final four minutes of the game final outcome.

The Wildcats hit seven treys in the first half but were held scoreless from long range in the second half. KSU had three players hit a pair of pointers in the first half including Tim Ellis who drained curves after 2 quarters late in the first half giving the Wildcats a 15-point cushion their largest of the game.

Marius Boyd nailed a trifecta as time ran out in the first half to close the gap to 43-33 at the break.

Dolzen was one of three UCF players in double figures as Lutzen and Lyons each netted 12. The Knights shot 36 percent from the field but missed 6 of 20 from behind the arc, led by Landbeck and Balanowsky who each a three-pointer. The Knights hit 9 of 15 at the free throw line and were led by Lyons and Dolzen who each had eight boards.

The Wildcats, who were shooting 51 percent from the field on the year, were held to 42 percent for the game and hit 7 of 24 points from long range.

Clyde DeJesus and Hayden Marques each scored 16 points to lead the Wildcats. Marques finished with a double-double grabbing 10 boards. Pasco Pervis also registered a double-double grabbing 9 games high 15 boards and scoring 11 points. DeJesus, who was among the nations leaders in three pointers, finished the game just 2 of 11 from beyond the arc. KSU held a 40-38 edge on the boards.

The Golden Knights will return to Orlando before heading back out on the road for a pair of games in the Atlantic Sun. UCF will play against Troy State on Saturday Jan. 11, tip off is set for 8 p.m. The second game will have the Knights in Macon, Ga. to take on Mercer on Monday, Jan. 13, tip off against the Bears is slated for 7 p.m. The games will be broadcast live on See UCF, Page 5

Black bears in central Florida topic of discussion

Special to the Herald

ORLANDO — When the Ocala Black Bear Working Group meets later this month there will be only one item on the agenda: black bears in central Florida.

Since about 1985, the number of black bear sightings in the state has been steadily rising, with central Florida producing the highest overall number of calls to the Florida Fish and Wildlife Conservation Commission (FWC).

While the FWC has been working to collect scientific data to determine if the bear population in the state is growing, the increased number of calls and other anecdotal information suggests to biologists that the number of bears is indeed on the rise.

In 2000, the agency convened a statewide working group of representatives from 13 public agencies and private organizations, all of which had some stake in black bear conservation and management. From that group emerged a conservation strategy that included an objective to form local bear conservation working groups for each of the state's sub-populations of black bears.

The local group for what is referred to as the Ocala bear sub-population is the Ocala black bear Working Group. This group will be the first to formed by the FWC and will meet for the first time on Tuesday, Jan. 14, at 10 a.m. at the 4-H Camp in the Ocala National Forest. Its intention is to prepare a viable, local black bear population.

The purpose of this sub-population is to ensure the state's sub-population grows and adapts to its environment. Bears range far and wide and although a place like the Ocala National Forest (ONF) may seem vast enough to contain them, the Ocala bear sub-population extends well beyond the edges of the ONF. In fact, bears know few geographic boundaries. In addition, there is excellent bear habitat near large metropolitan areas such as Orlando, and bears seeking new territories often wander into urban and other developed areas.

These bears can cause problems for the people they encounter. The bottom line is that humans must be ready to allow humans and bears to coexist if the bear is to survive in Florida.

For more information on the working group, contact Jason at 850-488-3804.

SCC

and as always, moves on into the SCC Health and Physical Education Course in time.

Men's head coach Scott Cromer, meanwhile, is pleased but not amazed by his team's start.

"I knew that this program would return to past glory," said Cromer before his team set out for Georgia on Monday. "You can only keep a sleeping dog down for so long so eventually he's going to wake up." SCC has always had a great reputation in men's basketball, and I know we could keep it going. This is my fifth season here and every year we have gotten a little better and now we look like the Raiders or not. The SCC men's program never had a losing season in almost 30 years under Joe Sterling and Bill Peleg, but after some troubles in the early 90's that led to a shutdown of the program it has taken Cromer this long to get the Raiders back on track.

A little bump in the road.

Next week, an overtime loss at home to Middle Tennessee College of New York, has been quickly forgotten as the Raiders ended a three road win in four days this past weekend to improve to 11-5 on the season.

SCC has won three in a row and nine of their last 11, all but one on the road.

But the most impressive wins have been the last two.

Friday night in the Florida JUCO Shootout at Clermont High School, the Raiders beat No. 7 ranked Lakeland 57-51.

On Saturday back from a 24-22 halftime deficit to defeat the Indians, who were ranked No. 2 in the nation in the preseason poll released by Street and Smith magazine.

The Raiders also had Street & Smith Preseason First Team member Nick Williams to four points and Preseason Fourth Team pick Juel Michael Young to 6 points.

And, on Saturday night on the road, SCC beat then 13-point favorite Lakeland 57-51.

SCC again had a big night, led by 17-3, and never let the home team get a chance at a comeback.

Bracy again was the scoring leader with 23 points, while Morris and sophomore standout Daniel Jones were the others each had 14 points and 5 rebounds.

Back-up freshman point guard Jamel Cooley and sophomore Johnson both came off the bench to score nine points.

The Raiders will now be idle until Nov. Saturday (Jan. 18) when they open M-PC play against rival and No. ranked Daytona Beach Community College. The Raiders have been playing much better since a home road win and have the Raiders a row for their money.

The game is set to begin at 7 p.m. following a 7 p.m. warm-up between the two equally powerful teams from the same conference.

SCC is 3-1 at halftime and loves to play defense. The Raiders are 3-1 in games from the second half on.

Florida State transfer JD Tracy also scored 11 points, while Rashawn Johnson, a freshman from New Jersey who has seen limited action this season, added eight points.

SCC has won one of another Panhandle Conference power on Saturday as the Raiders crushed Pensacola Junior College 77-57.

MONTEZUMA DEFENDING CHAMPS IN ATLANTIC

SUN OF INNS

ORLANDO — Ed Dotson came up a point shy of his career high finishing with 19 points and Devore Lyons recorded his first career double-double as UCF (9-1, 0-1) opened its play in the Atlantic Sun Conference with an 80-69 win over Florida Atlantic (4-6, 0-1) at UCF Arena Saturday afternoon.

The Golden Knights offense was led by a combined 39 points from Dotson and fellow senior Ray Edwards who had 15. Abellard paced the Knights in the first half, scoring 10 points. Dotson shouldered the load in the second half with 15 of his own. Lyons, who made his third career start, chipped in 10 points and a team-high 10 rebounds.

Dotson struggled offensively in the first half shooting just 2-of-9 shooting, but turned things around in the second half hitting 5-of-8 from the field. After shooting a 10-of-10 first half with just less than 10 minutes remaining, UCF would never trail again and grabbed its first double-digit lead with 7:01 remaining after a lay-in by Lyons made the score 60-58.

Dotson was able to help UCF overcome a 22-21 shooting deficit and open up an eight-point lead at 69-61 with 5:51 left in the game after an injury-don't dunk on a fast break.

The UCF defense, which recorded a season-high 13 steals and forced the Owls to turn over 10 times, did a good job of getting the ball to the glass and making it easy for the offense.

UCF now leads the Atlantic Sun Conference with a 2-0 record and is 3-0 at home this season.

Dotson led the Knights rebounding with 11 and Edwards added 10. Abellard had 10 points and 10 rebounds. Lyons had 10 points and 10 assists. Freshman guard Shaeenah Johnson had 10 points and 10 rebounds. Lyons career-best 10 points and extended out the double-digit scores. UCF also hit 18-of-36 free throws, the charity stripe.

Ernest Crumley who finished with 18 led the Owls. Avery

Headley posted a double-double with 16 points and 12 rebounds. FAU, which is now 0-9 on the road this season, shot 41 percent from the floor and hit 17 free throws in 21 attempts.

The second half went to the Knights 37-26.

FLORIDA STATE DOWNED UCF WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

TALLAHASSEE — Forward Gemma Adcock scored 16 points as the Florida State women's basketball team dropped UCF 77-67.

It was UCF's third consecutive loss as the Golden Knights dropped to 1-7 on the year. FGCU improved to 9-3.

The Knights started off strong with 10 points in the first quarter, but the Seminoles responded with 12 points in the second quarter.

Florida State's lead grew to 12 points in the third quarter, but the Knights closed the gap to 10 points in the fourth quarter.
