Book Lovers Club
The Book Lovers' Club was entertained by Mrs. Fred Williams Thursday afternoon. A very interesting magazine contest was prepared by Mrs. Williams for the entertainment of her guests. A list of the names of persons, places and objects suggestive of the names of several well known and popular magazines of the day were distributed. The object of the contest was to ascertain which member of the club could give the largest number of magazines the names of which were suggested by the list of names given them by the hostess. Mrs. Geo. Fox, Jr., was the fortunate winner of the contest and also the prize, a handsome silver teaspoon. The consolation prize a bunch of lovely roses was received by Mrs. H. Ward. After the contest was over, a delicious salad course was served, followed by refreshing orange punch, served in orange cups, with dainty cakes. Mrs. J. O. Jackard, Mrs. F. F. Dutton, Mrs. W. T. Fields were Mrs. Williams specially invited guests to meet with the club, the members of which who were present were Mesdames Chas. H. Dingee, R. J. Holly, F. L. Woodruff, H. McLaulin, Ernest Tolar, Geo. Fox, Jr., H. Ward, Luke.

Ball Association Dance
Quite a good crowd attended the dance given in the city hall Monday evening, under the auspices of the Ball Association. Everything conspired to make it an enjoyable occasion. The management of the dances was all that could be desired, the floor in good condition for dancing and the music furnished by the Carnival Italian Band was charming and delightfully inspiring. A variety of delicious cakes and ice cream, for the refreshment of the dancers, was on sale during the evening.

Black and White vs. White and Black.
For many years a large department store has spent thousands of dollars on placards with which almost every article of merchandise is ticketed throughout the store, and only within a short time did they realize the amount of money that was being wasted in using the white cardboard with black lettering.

These white cards soon became soiled and shop worn if allowed to remain in place any length of time. The cards which are handled by customers in bins, trays, etc., are even more so. By substituting the black cardboard with white lettering this store has overcome this difficulty to a very great extent. The show cards are always clean, fresh and bright-looking and they last many times as long, saving the firm several hundred dollars in the course of a year.—Business.

"Grandfather" Clock 200 Years Old.
A remarkable hand made clock is in the possession of the Swedish Lutheran Orphanage at Avon, Mass. It is one of the old "grandfather" type and consists of 13,000 pieces. It was made about 200 years ago by Henry Haven and is still running. The works are of wood, the case a handsome check-board of inlay work, the material mahogany and white boxwood. Henry Haven was several years completing it. Two heavy weights and two bob weights are the only metal in the works. The clock was in the possession of the Blanchese estate of Avon for generations. When the property was sold for a Swedish orphanage the clock went with other furniture to the new owner.

Big Trade in Frozen Meat.
Argentina supplies 90 per cent. of the frozen beef and frozen mutton consumed in Sheffield, England. Australia and New Zealand provide the remainder. Its use is constantly increasing. Frozen meat is never sawed, but it chopped with a cleaver. The retailers receive the meat in quarters which they chop into angular blocks, from which the quantities desired by customers are cut. These blocks afford material for fine window displays, and the windows of frozen-meat shops are generally piled high with all sizes and shapes of solid red beef.

An Absolutely Free Show.
Aviation is the small boy's delight. He can sit on a fence and watch the show for nothing; nor does he have to carry water for the elephant.

Words Modernized.
The thimble was originally known as a thumb bell. "Variat" is the same word as "vase" and each is an offshoot of the feudal "vassal."

Finland Appeals to Tourist.
Finland, with its thousand lakes, is now considered attractive enough to be on the general tourist's list.

THE SANFORD HERALD

IN SANFORD—Life is Worth Living

Number 83

SANFORD, FLORIDA, FRIDAY, MARCH 8, 1912

Volume IV

ALL AROUND FLORIDA

The General News of The Land of Flowers.

CULLED FROM THE STATE PRESS

An Epitome of the Week's Most Important Happenings in the State's Domain.

Tallahassee is now busy laying water mains, grading the streets and otherwise preparing for the mile or more of vitrified paving that is to be done there.

News comes from Lakeland now that strawberry shipments are going forward heavily now and splendid prices are being obtained. Prices received in the northern markets vary between 50 and 75 cents, which is fine for this time of year.

A $25,000 monument is to be erected in one of the parks in Jacksonville as Florida's tribute to the heroism and sacrifices made by the women of the Confederacy. When completed this monument is to be the handsomest of its kind south of the St. Johns and Dixon line. In a short time the design of the monument will be placed on exhibition in Jacksonville.

The University of Florida base ball team won Tuesday's game from Rollins College at Winter Park by a score of 4 to 1. Shaw and Terry were the battery for Florida, Pratt and Pike for Rollins. The Florida boys have played four games since leaving Gainesville last week—two with Stetson and two with Rollins—and the honors were divided, the men under Coach McLeod winning one game from each of the opposing teams.

Base Ball Dope

There has been no little activity in the camp of the local base ball management during the last two weeks, and before very long we will see Mr. Lam and Miss Rooster perched in the grandstand hot horse and happy.

And speaking of the grand stand, Pres. Spencer and Manager Stevens tell us that they want to build a new one, larger and more comfortable, and that all they require is the financial support of the local base ball enthusiasts. This is only one of the many contemplated improvements, all of which depend entirely on the public.

The object of the management is to make up the team of as many local ball players as can make good, thereby increasing the interest by having Sanford boys representing Sanford and to a large degree getting away from the professionalism as far as our home talent will permit. Quite a few local future greats have asked for a try out and as soon as the diamond is sufficiently dry, Father Wallace will have his volunteer crew out and putting them through their paces.

The Herald has its ear close to the ground and will give its readers the news, hot off the bat and in a big league style.

P. S. No Diamond Dust today. Wet grounds.

Orlando Man Missing

Orlando, March 6.—John McQuarters, one of the city mail carriers, left home on Sunday telling his wife he was going to Sanford and has not been seen or heard from since that time.

He did not notify Postmaster O'Neil that he was going and the service has been crippled somewhat by his absence and no information as to his whereabouts has come to his wife or parents, who live in this vicinity. His wife reports that he has been somewhat dissatisfied with his job and has been more or less despondent at times.

It is also reported that he has been reading a great number of Socialist books and papers of late.

His family does not, up to this time, fear that he has met with any accident, but are greatly troubled and uneasy about him. His friends at Sanford report that he has not been seen by them. The anxiety of his friends will increase as time goes by and no word comes from him.

The Wednesday Club

The Wednesday Club are invited to meet at the studio of Mrs. Munson Wednesday afternoon, Mar. 13th, promptly at 3 o'clock. Mrs. Munson will give her paper on "Scandinavian Music" with "Illustrative Music Selections." She respectfully urges the members of the club to be there promptly at 3 o'clock, as she desires to begin her program at that hour.

A NERVOUS THIEF

Smashes Window Of Palmer & Seig And Steals Clothing

Palmer & Seig have such a good brand of clothing that a party of parties unknown broke the large plate glass window in their store on Tuesday night and extracted three suits of clothes, two shirts and a belt. The act was a very nervous one as the store is in the heart of the city and the window was smashed by a large bolt being thrown against it. The beat of the policemen had evidently been closely watched and when they went to meet the train as is their custom the thief had a clear field for his operations. The act was evidently accomplished during the heavy downpour of rain as people living in the vicinity of the store although awake heard nothing of the noise that the following glass must have made. The party evidently needed clothing badly to execute such a bold stroke this class of work usually being done in a jewelry window or some business where the robbery would fully compensate the thief for the risk.

Big Rally Sunday Night

No pains are being spared to make a success of the big rally for men next Sunday night. The organization committee in charge of the big meeting represents the five Protestant churches of Sanford under the Men's Religion and Forward Movement. All the congregations of the city will unite in the one meeting at the theatre.

Mr. Marcus C. Fagg of Jacksonville, state superintendent of the Children's Home Society of Florida, will be the leading speaker taking for his subject, "The Need of a Social Conscience." Five minute addresses will follow from Messrs. D. I. Thrasher, B. I. Whitney, S. J. Perkins, A. R. Chappell and G. B. Waldron. Music will be furnished by a men's choir, aided by an orchestra of eight pieces. Mr. C. Walker will preside.

While the meeting is designated as a Men's Rally, a most cordial invitation is extended to the women and children. Every body is welcome. At the theatre next Sunday night at 7:30.

Helping Hand Society

The members of the Helping Hand Society of the Baptist church held their regular meeting at the home of Miss Martha Fox Tuesday evening. A very fine attendance of the society was present with water conditions.

The guests were entertained with a delightful musical program consisting of vocal and instrumental selections followed by a musical contest. A pretty little music story was told with the exception of blanks to be supplied with appropriate musical terms. The prize, a pretty little letter opener, was won by Miss Ruth Stewart who had the largest number of correctly filled in blanks.

The charming young hostess served a delicious fruit salad, sandwiches and coffee.

Harry On The Job

The Herald takes pleasure in announcing to its readers that Harry Earnest will again handle the base ball dope for this paper during the season. There is no better or more fluent writer or a man who more thoroughly understands the national game than Harry, and his whole souled desire to assist by giving the team plenty of publicity is appreciated by the management. He will have entire charge of the sporting page and whatever he says will go. If you don't agree with him tell your troubles to Harry.

Fine Display of Photos

W. H. Leigh the photographer who is making extensive improvements in the old Ensminger studio has a display in the window of his place that is attracting most favorable comment. The photos and crayons show the touch of an artist's hand and if Mr. Leigh can produce this grade of work in his new studio he will get a large patronage. He expects to open his studio in a few weeks and will have most elegant quarters.

West Side Meeting

The regular meeting of the West Side Improvement Society was held at the Robbins Nest yesterday at 3 p. m. After the regular business was transacted plans were proposed for improvements. A social half hour was spent. Meeting adjourned to meet again the first Thursday in April.

FAVORS BRICK ROADS

Editor of Reporter Star Makes Trip Through the Mud

THROWS ROQUETS AT SANFORD

Cities of Sanford and Orlando Are All Right But Separated By "Gulf of Mud"

A Reporter-Star man visited Sanford today, and while not surprised, was delighted to see the growth, hustle and prosperity of our neighboring city. Vegetables, especially celery are on the move and fine prices are being realized. One grower having shipped and received his pay for the crop of ten acres amounting to over twenty thousand dollars. Others have been equally fortunate, and as the celery is being moved acre and acre are being gotten into shape for other crops to follow.

All available space at the hotels is taken and as soon as rooms are vacated others drop in to fill them. While never before catering to the tourist, Sanford thinks if one not to be disappointed, and an immense hotel is promised before next season opens. With miles of paved streets, as fine water as can be found anywhere, an abundance of the finest vegetables grown to be had at all seasons, and beautiful Lake Monroe and the St. Johns on which thousands have entered the Land of Flowers this season, there is no reason in the world why Sanford should not prove to be one of the popular winter resorts of the State, especially with such boosters as Editor Holly of the Herald, who never tires of singing the praises of the Celery City.

And Holly was the only booster to be found in "Lucky Sanford." Every man you meet has something to say of a highly complimentary nature, every bit of which is true.

But Holland the garage man, and distributor of the Overland one of the best automobiles brought to this section, tells of the great demand for cars, an indication of the prosperity of the section while Hand Brothers the liverymen, care keep in rigs and saddle horses, the demand from tourists and prospectors being so great.

But between Sanford and Orlando there is a great gulf about as rough a stretch of road as one cares to encounter, such work as is done is done at a tremendous cost. It was encountered on this popular highway, when innumerable loaded wagons were passed, all laboring through the mud, consuming double the time that should be taken to say nothing of the wear and tear on engines and teams.

This stretch of road should be of brick or some other material that will stand the wear and tear as the saving on vehicles alone in a few years would far exceed the cost to the county. Not that brick is needed anywhere on this stretch, then, as many other parts of the county, but a thorough fare used to the extent of this connecting the two principal cities of the county and passing through a number of hamlets and villages should be of a material that will stand to an extent the great strain put upon it. While brick roads all over the county will mean millions of wealth to the county, that section between Orlando and Sanford should be kept in condition to accommodate the heavy traffic, which has increased four fold in the last three years and will be ten times as heavy in the next three.—Reporter Star.

Called Out Department

An alarm of fire Wednesday night brought out the auto fire truck on the run and they tore up First street in a way to frighten the oldest inhabitant. The alarm proved to be a small blaze on Sanford avenue that was extinguished before the truck arrived.

Bears In The City

Several "Wops" and cinnamon bears were in the city on Wednesday and made much noise and several runaways. The bears were a trifle dirtier than the "Wops" jagoes.

TO THE VOTERS

Tomorrow (Saturday) is your last call to pay your poll taxes in order to vote in the spring primaries. It is up to you now to pay your poll tax and see that your friends do the same. The Sanford people can pay their poll tax at the office of the Marks Real Estate Agency and save time, but pay and pay now. This is the last call.

CELERY AVENUE BRIDGE ASSURED

Steel Drawbridge At East Coast Ferry Will Be Built

From developments here today it would seem that a bridge over the St. Johns river at East Coast Ferry, providing the citizens of Orange county a direct route to the coast is assured.

A company of Volusia county citizens from the New Smyrna district motored over to Orlando this morning and called on the Orange county commissioners in session today, and made a proposition to furnish half the funds for building the bridge, if Orange county would furnish the other half.

The visitors came on behalf of the people of the southern section of Volusia county, who are anxious to boom this route to the coast in preference to the northern route through DeLand.

The Orange county commissioners were disposed to entertain the proposition favorably and instructed the commissioners clerk to secure specifications from bridge builders for submission to the War Department, this detail being necessary before a bridge can be constructed across a navigable stream.

The visitors from Volusia were W. H. Newell, mayor of New Smyrna, W. P. Wilkinson, county commissioner of the New Smyrna district, Messrs. J. H. Hibbard, R. S. Sheldon, R. H. E. Roper, Oscar Lyons and Whitney Hibbard.

The fact that the question of the construction of this bridge has been virtually settled by the visit of this delegation today will be gratifying news to the citizens of this county, and especially the motorists, who have long complained of the hardship of the indirect roads to the coast.

The more tourists that have come into Orange county, the more insistent has been the demand not only for a bridge at East Coast Ferry but for an improved highway thence to New Smyrna.

The authorities of Volusia county have insisted upon ignoring the demands of the southern section of the county in favor of a highway leading through DeLand, for the reason that the northern half of the county being more populous has exerted the most influence.

There has been a movement on foot for quite a while in the New Smyrna district to build the bridge independently of county aid, and that movement has now crystallized into a subscription fund which the visitors here today assured the local commissioners will be ample for all purposes.—Reporter Star.

The pleasure of the dance was enjoyed by a large number of the guests. The hospitality of the Elks was very much enjoyed and the evening in every respect was a charming success. A delicious chicken salad course was served.

THE CELERY MOVEMENT

Continues To Bring The Highest Record Prices

OUR GROWERS ARE SELLING HERE

High Prices Are Causing Whole Country To Sit Up And Take Notice Of Us

Thirty-five cars of celery will go forward this week and about fifteen of lettuce. The price of celery remains firm at $3.00 per crate, although several sales are reported that brought $3.25 and $3.50 per crate f. o. b., Sanford.

The entire shipment of celery and lettuce this week will total over $40,000 for the week or about $10,000 more than last week.

Lettuce market is slightly off today and the price per crate will likely go to $1.50 on account of the heavy shipments now leaving other sections of the state but the growers predict that the price will hover around the $1.25 mark during the season and they will be well satisfied if it does not go below the dollar mark.

Some prices this week on celery sound like fairy tales but the figures spell the truth. One of these is the sale of celery by the Colbert Bros. on the West Side where they stand good to receive about $4000 from less than one and one half acres, a price which if the stuff runs as high as reported is certainly a record in the quick fortunes made here.

The prices here this week and the many buyers and visitors look like a rush to the gold field.

Opens His Bible Class

Those who attended the opening session of Professor Maris' Bible Class at the Congregational church last Sunday morning were delighted with his methods. There were about twenty-five present and others have promised to attend. Professor Maris began with the opening words of John's Gospel and so unfolded the subject that the class at once became deeply interested. The class meets at ten in the Peoples church every Sunday morning. A cordial invitation is extended to the public. The Professor has been used to having large classes and there is room for all.

At the morning service Mr. Waldron will attempt to answer the question "Who is my Neighbor?"

Metropolitan Concert Company

It is the generally expressed opinion of those who attended the fine concert given by the Metropolitan Concert Co. at the auditorium of the High School Wednesday evening that was by far the best musical entertainment given by any company in Sanford for a long time. The selections were all fine and perfectly rendered and thoroughly enjoyed by all whose privilege it was to hear them.

Invasion of Candidates

Sanford was honored yesterday by the visit of a bunch of candidates from Orlando among them being B. M. Robinson, Judge Martin, W. E. Martin, Arthur Butts and Phil Slemmons. With the exception of the latter none of these gentlemen have any opposition and they did not wear that worried look that goes with the usually harassed candidate.

Mr. Fagg In Sanford

Mr. Marcus C. Fagg of Jacksonville, who is to be the chief speaker Sunday night at the Men's Rally will speak Sunday morning in the Presbyterian church. His subject in the morning will be the work of the Children's Home Society in Florida. Mr. Fagg spoke at the home of Mrs. Henry Wight this afternoon before a large gathering of ladies. He is the guest of Mrs. Wight, while in the city.

Frank Clark called Governor Gilchrist a "pin head" the other day in Washington and as yet no one has denied the charge. Frank is absolutely correct.

Brother Kellar of the Orlando Reporter-Star was among the visitors to our sanctum this week. We are always glad to welcome our Orlando friends. We were poor once ourself.

Pictures in the Times-Union of the Jacksonville policemen on the traffic squad look nice but wouldn't the picture of the officer who captures the murderers of the Silverstein family look better?

Lakeland has nine lakes within its corporate limits, and all fit to drink.—Lakeland News.

What a fine town for Jacksonville people to live in during the summer.

The Herald has a beautiful cartoon illustrative of Sanford celery prosperity, and the farmer looks exactly like a bloated trout magnate. Which may be no exaggeration, either.—St. Petersburg Times

Mrs. L. P. Lawrence will have charge of the society column of the Reporter-Star. Mrs. Lawrence is one of the best in the profession and on the Reporter-Star is returning to her first love. Congratulations to that paper and the readers thereof.

The Herald has added several small items to the equipment in the past two weeks, among them being a $1,000 typesetting machine. We will give a description of the machine upon arrival as the transportation companies have it now and it may look like a sausage machine before it reaches Sanford.

"Sanford people coming into their own," says a headline in the Herald of that city. Why we have been thinking all the while that Sanford had all she desired, the reputation of being THE celery growing city of the country.—Tallahassee Democrat

So we are but the "just as good" had to have their coming and now that the fate and fortunes of all dead or in jail Sanford again, comes into her own at the rate of $30,000 per week. Our hat is in the ring and the money in the bank.

FAVORS A CLOSER COMMUNION Editor Kellar of the Reporter-Star is one of the coming newspaper men of Florida and embodies a big Kentucky heart and a good business head in his make-up. He covets a closer relationship with the newspaper men of Florida, a cost system and a fraternal spirit, and expects to attend the meeting of the Florida Press Association in Palatka in June.

HERALD IS OFFICIAL ORGAN Every time I come to town The Boys keep asking my dawg aroun No matter if he is a houn They got to stop askin my dawg aroun

At last The Herald has been appointed by the commissioners of Orange county as the official organ and will print the delinquent tax sales for the year preceding. As far as the memory of man runneth the tax sale has never been printed in a Sanford paper and we know that the readers will pardon us if we get cheery over the affair. The monetary consideration is not considerable, but the prestige given the paper is great and The Herald feels that the efforts expended to give the people a real newspaper have been appreciated by the county commissioners.

We hereby tender our thanks to each and every member of the board for their consideration of our claims and not only does the appreciation come from The Herald but from the people of Sanford, for each and every one of them are interested in our success.

The tax list will be printed here on our new typesetting machine, and those who do not subscribe for The Herald should send in their subscription at once and get the official paper of the county.

Alrathip Man Here W. L. Bonney, the famous aviator will make an exhibition flight next Saturday in Sanford at the Holden Ball Park under the auspices of the Commercial Club. The aviator will arrive here on Tuesday and the airship will be on exhibition on the lot next to the Herald building where it can be seen for a nominal sum until Saturday when the flight will take place inside the ball park. An admission fee will be charged at the grounds to make up the sum asked the aviator. One of the greatest flights ever seen in this section by one of the most daring drivers in the business today, Bonny has a number of thrills that will startle the spectators.

Interesting Antiquities. One of the huge stones of the Avebury Druidical circle, which is much larger and older than Stonehenge, has fallen owing doubtless to the effects of weather. Aubrey, who acted as guide to Charles II on a visit to this district in 1663, declared that Avebury as far surpassed Stonehenge as a cathedral does a parish church.

The rampart and fosse enclose nearly 30 acres, but of the original 600 stones there are now only 13 standing, the number in 1722 being 44. In addition to the circle Avebury possesses an interesting church dating from before the Conquest and an Elizabethan manor house, while a mile away is Silbury hill, the largest artificial mound in Europe, being 135 feet high and having a base which covers five acres.

Bunting Thoroughly Tested. In very truth a modern battleship does, in modern phrasing, carry some bunting. About $150,000 is spent by the United States navy for flags each year. Every case of bunting costs the government $660; every roll costs $11.25. The bunting comes from Massachusetts. Every piece is subjected to the most severe test. It must weigh five pounds to every forty yards and stand the weight test of seventy pounds to two square inches. It is steeped in salt water for six hours and then exposed to the sun for the same period of time. If after this treatment it continues to be bunting of a distinguishable color it is pronounced fit for service.

Snakes in Plaster. In a small part of a South Carolina swamp represented on the second floor of the American Museum of Natural History is included a snake group among the bogs, vines and water hyacinths. The group shows side by side poisonous snakes, the water moccasin, and the non-poisonous, the brown water snake.

An example of the deadly moccasin water snakes of the south is made from a wax cast by James C. Bell, with color work by Frederick H. Stoll. It is extremely lifelike and realistic, quite enough to give the visitor an equalizer with the speech.

THE UTILIZATION OF WASTE products to the very fullest extent is, of course, the aim of every industrialist, and the Wood Waste Distilleries Co., Wheeling, West Virginia, U. S. A., certainly makes this possible in the case of the waste material of wood-working establishments. By means of their distilling apparatus ranging from a capacity of 75 to 500 gallons, the industrial alcohol and turpentine contained in sawdust are effectively extracted, while the resultant fiber is ready for paper manufacturers. This still will actually pay for itself over and over again every month, and Colonial and foreign fruit canning companies, chemical works, saw mills, varnish makers, oil refineries, sugar refineries, etc., cannot fail to find it a profitable acquisition.—R. Mr. M. O. Overstreet of Orlando was in the city today for several hours. Mr. Overstreet is chairman of the Board of County Commissioners and stated that his business affairs would prevent his candidacy for this position again and that he would not be in the race. This is bad news because Mr. Overstreet has made an ideal County Commissioner and his many friends should prevail upon him to again become a candidate for this most important position.

Paper Drinking Cups

In the schools of Austria the children are taught to carry several sheets of writing paper in their pockets at all times. Then when a child is thirsty, he can roll one of the sheets into a cone and make a perfectly serviceable cup which may be placed, after being used, in the nearest waste paper box. How to roll the cones deftly is taught the children. The turning of a notch about half an inch long near one end before rolling the cone serves to make the improved cup stronger. 44

Old Cornwall Ceremony

Dancing is a part of a semi-religious ceremony held at St. Ives, Cornwall, on the day of the feast of St. James. The people dance the old Cornish "Flurry" dance and "The Girl I Left Behind Me," and then sing the "Old Hundred." After that they have a banquet and small sums of money are distributed. The custom dates from a century ago, when a fund was established for the purpose by a man named Knill. It is known as the Knill ceremony. 44

A Bequest

I give to good fathers and mothers in trust for their children all good little words of praise and encouragement and all quiet pet names and endearments and I charge said parents to use them justly and generously as the needs of their children may require. From the last will and testament of Charles Lounsbury, in which he distributed his "Interests in the world" to succeeding men. 44

Falling of the Rate

The advice of the old lawyer to his son was that no matter what his relations with womankind he should never write a love letter and never destroy one. It is probable that this counsel of perfect wisdom fell on deaf ears, for when any particular man is consumed by a fever for any particular woman he at once commences writing love letters. 44

Glass Sidewalk

For some time the city of Lyons, France has been using glass for sidewalks instead of brick or stone. It is laid in blocks eight inches square, each block containing sixteen squares, resembling a checkerboard. It has proved more lasting than stone, and much cheaper.—Denver Municipal Facts. 44

His Real Meaning

When a bad tempered man grows emphatic in his remarks and says he does not care a "course" he means, or should mean to be correct that he does not care a cross the lingual metathesis here being similar to that which makes "gooseberries" out of gorseberries. 44

Lesson of Grief

There are moods in which we court suffering. In the hope that there, at least, we shall find reality strange peaks and edges of truth. But it turns out to be scene-painting and counterfeit. The only thing grief has taught me is to know how shallow it is.—Emerson. 44

An Old Team

The Hittites were an ancient race of more than local fame. Their inside play was very fine; they studied well the game. They beated Babylon one year by twenty points or so; left Tyre and Sidon in the rear, and beat out Jericho.—Washington Herald. 44

Long Headed Husband

"This is good wine. I must take home a few bottles to my wife." "She never touches wine, as you know." "True, but it will be a little present for her, and I can keep it from going to waste."—Washington Herald. 44

Loss of Appetite or Distress After Eating a Symptom That Should Not Be Disregarded.

Appetite is just a natural desire for food. Loss of appetite or stomach distress after eating indicate indigestion or dyspepsia. Over-eating is a habit very dangerous to a person's good general health.

It is not what you eat, but what you digest and assimilate that does you good. Some of the strongest, heaviest, and healthiest persons are moderate eaters.

There is nothing that will cause more trouble than a disordered stomach, and many people daily contract serious maladies simply through disregard or abuse of the stomach.

We urge all who suffer from any stomach derangement, indigestion, or dyspepsia, whether acute or chronic, to try Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets with the distinct understanding that we will refund their money without question or formality. If after reasonable use of this medicine they are not perfectly satisfied with the results, we recommend them to our customers every day, and have yet to hear of one who has not been benefited by them. We honestly believe them to be without equal. They give very prompt relief, adding to neutralize the gastric juices, strengthen the digestive organs, to regulate the bowels, and thus promote perfect nutrition, and eradicate all unhealthy symptoms.

We urge you to try a 25c box of Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets, which gives 15 days' treatment. At the end of that time your money will be returned to you if you are not satisfied. Of course, in chronic cases length of treatment varies. For such cases we have two larger sizes, which sell for 50c and $1.00. Remember, you can obtain Rexall Remedies in this community only at our store—The Rexall Store.

BACK THE VULNERABLE PART

Comparatively Easy to Kill Snake by Striking It With Cane or Stone.

The first impulse of a man on seeing a snake is to stamp on its head, which, according to the Rosary Magazine, is unwise. A snake's skull is very tough, as behooves a part of the body that is always liable to be knocked against stones, etc., owing to the extreme short-sightedness of all serpents.

The back, on the contrary, can be broken with a light rap, for it consists of a delicate system of ball and socket joints. Should snakes be harmless the best plan is to leave them alone; should they be dangerous a shot from a revolver is safe and effective.

In case no revolver is at hand a rap with a cane will be sufficient, but care must be taken to keep away from the head of the creature.

A snake does not normally go about hitting its skull against hard objects; it only does this when in a hurry. Moving at its ordinary pace it feels its way with its long, delicate, forked tongue.

In the same way when about to swallow its food it touches it all over with its tongue in order to ascertain where to take hold, and this process has given rise to the mistaken idea that a snake covers its prey with saliva prior to swallowing it. No doubt a considerable quantity of saliva is generated during the process of deglutition, but it does not come from the tongue, which is merely used as a feeler.

When a snake bites it inserts its head up to the nape of its neck and opens its jaws till they are in the same plane, i. e., at right angles to the body. These jaws are provided with six rows of strong, sharp teeth, four on the upper and two on the lower jaw.

This is a very formidable arrangement, but when you remember that a medium-sized constrictor can project its head with sufficient force to knock a man off his feet, and will either on provocation or sometimes without it, let go this catapult, rat trap machinery, you are likely to avoid constrictors so far as is possible. Such a snake can take hold of a man and shake him or strip the skin and flesh from the part seized as if it were paper.

A Clear Distinction.

Sorry you couldn't get to the Sit and Argue club last night, "squire," sympathetically said Hi Spry. We had considerable of a discussion. I want to tell you Prof Twigg's pretty nearly convinced the rest of us that the planet Mars is not inhabited. He contended that if there is no life on Mars—

What's that got to do with it?" interrupted the Old Codger. "Even if there is no life on Mars it don't follow that Mars is uninhabited. Look at the town, right here, for instance!"

The Italian Soldier Under Fire.

These Italian soldiers were a new experience to me. For sheer unemotional daring I have never seen anything to equal the behavior of the Italian soldier under fire, and mark you, heavy fire. They are, as a whole, a splendid body of men from the point of view of physique and discipline. Much more than this can be said, however. The good spirits and earnestness and other good soldierly qualities of these men can only be spoken of in terms of highest praise. "Chummy" is the word I must use to describe the relationship and feeling existing between officers and men, and under such conditions where each is so essential to the other a wiser policy cannot be adopted.—Frank J. Magee, in Metropolitan.

Very Anient Sword.

"Some of the Arabs have two-handed swords," says ex-Lieutenant Montague, late with the Turks in Tripoli, "left behind by the crusaders." But one never can be certain of anything in this world. After one of the British campaigns in Egypt an officer brought back as trophy such a formidable weapon, which he hastened to submit to the late Mr. Jack Latham, head of the Wilkinson Sword company, in Pall Mall, saying that, in his opinion, the thing belonged to the first half of the eleventh century. "No," said Mr. Jack, with a smile, after a slight scrutiny of the blade, "it belongs to the second half of the nineteenth century. There's our trademark in the corner of the hilt."

English Women Intemperate.

"Women now provide a disproportionately large part of the habitual drunkards," says the head constable of Liverpool, England. Thus, during 1910, in the class of three or more convictions within twelve months there were 183 men and 184 women, and in the class of six to sixty convictions (all told) there were 733 men and 774 women. For two years the "black list" in Liverpool has consisted solely of women.—Temperance.

Women and Love Letters.

It is one of the settled facts in the history of love letters that men will write and women will keep. A woman cherishes her love letters as she cherishes her mirror or her powder puff. She kisses them before she goes to bed, and presses them to her bosom before she dons her hair up in the morning. She reads them for weeks and knows where to find them for years, and about the only safe thing the man who has written them can do is to marry her.

Influence of Clothes.

Clothes have a most surprising influence on the mind. If you don't believe it some day when you are tired or perhaps blue, or even cross, take a bath put on something dainty fresh from top to toe, and your best go to meeting gown, and you'll feel as if a fairy wand had suddenly touched you with some wonderful, transforming power. You'll find yourself looking at the world through a rosy mist, instead of clouds of dull gray. It will be easy to smile.—Suburban Life.

Waterproof Glue.

To make an impermeable glue, soak ordinary glue in water until it softens, and remove it before it has lost its primitive form. After this dissolve it in linseed oil over a slow fire until it is brought to the consistency of a jelly. This glue may be used for joining any kind of material. In addition to strength and hardness, it has the advantage of resisting the action of water.

To Get Rid of Snails.

A friend whose large garden was being overrun with snails wrote to the bureau of agriculture at Washington for a remedy. She was told to put large pieces of cut raw potato on the under side of a board, raised at one end a few inches from the ground. This she did, with the result that in one week a thousand snails had collected in that one spot.

Permanent Institution.

We are getting the information from Paris right along now that the corset is going to be abandoned the coming season. Every few years something of this kind is given out, but it doesn't appear to affect the corset. Paris can do almost anything with the fashions, but it has never yet been able to put the corset out of business.

Arsenic for Baking Powder.

To use arsenic instead of baking powder while she was making bread was the terrible mistake made by a native woman recently at La Grange Bay, W. A. Five natives died from eating a portion of the loaf, and two others are recovering.

Lpad to Fall of Man.

A Brooklyn magistrate has decided that cucumbers are fruit. If they would grow on a tree, they would be a workable theory that they accomplished the fall of man. They have frequently done so before.

Bee's Sting.

The most practical and altogether effectual remedy for bee stings is to put ammonia on them immediately. This is a simple remedy, but the application of ammonia will give instant relief and prevent swelling.

Not So as to Be Noticed.

A New York man is advertising for a wife who can make $15,000 a year. A woman who can do that, however, does not have to avail herself of a mail order husband.

CULLED FROM THE STATE PRESS

An Epitome of the Week's Most Important Happenings in the State's Domain.

The year 1912 promises to keep the pace set last year for development in Fort Meade. Permits for twenty new buildings and additions to existing buildings have been issued since January 1.

It is understood that on last Sunday there were over one hundred bathers in water at the electric pier in St Petersburg. This sounds like summer.

Work on the new St. James building which is being erected in Jacksonville by Cohen Bros. for their new department store, is progressing rapidly. It will be about eight months before the building is ready for occupancy.

A Lakeland printer girl won a spelling match at Tampa. A person to be an efficient printer must know how to spell.

The potato crop of 1911-12, from Hattings and vicinity, will be the largest in the history of that section, according to statements made by well known planters and shippers in that territory.

An unfortunate tragedy occurred at St Augustine Sunday evening when a portion of "Whitney's Oldest House" was destroyed by fire and Mr. Everett C. Whitney, the owner, was burned to death in the building. The fire and tragedy occurred on Hospital street, near Bridge street, and in the heart of the city, causing a great deal of excitement and the assembling of an enormous crowd. The origin of the fire is not definitely known but it is presumed to have been caused through accident by Whitney, who was the occupant of the building and sick in his room at the time.

The negro woman implicated in the recent Jacksonville murders is said to have confessed and the whole secret will be laid bare at the special session of the grand jury to be held next week.

Growing Sweet Potato Draws

The farmers who intend to raise a crop of sweet potatoes should prepare for it by making a seed bed in time to have them ready for setting in the field as early in April as possible. This will allow the vines to grow sufficiently to be cut into suitable lengths for planting the main crop late in May or early in June.

When heavy rain and cold weather prevail through the month of February, it is not advisable to make the bed too early. Cold moist soil is detrimental to the growth of the thrifty plants we need for setting out in the field. If the bed is made early in March and cared for as suggested here better draws will be had in the same time, than if it is started earlier under unfavorable conditions.

A preferable location for the bed is on the south side of a building or of a light board fence, so that the sun will keep the soil warm for the sweet potato is a plant of the tropics.

In making the bed it is advisable to clear a space on the ground of the desired length and not more than four feet wide, so as to be easily accessible when pulling the draws. It is sufficient to level the soil with a rake or hoe and take care that no water will stand in the vicinity in rainy weather. It is advisable to make a frame for the bed by setting ten-inch or twelve-inch boards on edge and driving stakes. On the bottom of the bed a layer of horse manure about four inches thick should be placed. This should be covered with soil to a depth of a few inches and tramped well so as to ensure it being solid and prevent the escape of moisture. If sunny warm weather prevails, the bed should be allowed to remain in that condition for a few days so that the soil will be as warm as possible when the seed is laid in place.

Though this method of making a bed is not the one usually employed, it will give a large number of strong draws in a short time.

One of these essentials towards a good crop is the use of good draws for the first planting. To this end we must see that nothing but high grade seed potatoes are used. The practice of using poor seed potatoes is really wasteful. Nothing but the healthiest potatoes available should be used when making the seed bed, and they should not be too small nor too large.

Each potato should be carefully put down in the bed separately so that they do not touch one another, in which case rot will be apt to occur. Any larger than the average should be split in halves the long way of the potato and the cut side laid next the soil. After the soil is all placed in position it should be covered with a thin layer of soil, and on top of the soil another thin layer of horse manure with a very little soil on top of that to prevent evaporation. In ordinary practice we have found one bushel of seed sufficient for an acre.

If dry weather prevails after making the bed it should be watered occasionally with a sprinkler. The aim should be to keep the soil in such a moist warm condition that we get draws as early as possible.

After the sprouts show above the ground and get to growing well, soil should be added every few days so as to make long necked draws. By covering shallow at first and increasing the soil depth as the plants grow, we get the best conditions for quick growth. If we cover deep at first, growth is retarded, and time is what counts when once the season for planting has come.

Weather Report

Rain tonight except fair extreme north west portion colder, north and central portions Wednesday generally fair.

SANFORD GROWERS FEARED

Present Prices Mean Net Return From Crop Will Be Profitable.

Sanford Fla. Growers in this section are considerably excited over prices being realized for their shipments of celery prices ruling here today on good stock being $4 per 10 inch crate. Although the crop is cutting just about one-half normal yield with continuance of anything near these prices the total amount of money realized for the celery crop in this vicinity will exceed that of last year by several thousand dollars. The March movement will be light as there is not enough stock sufficiently matured to justify prediction of a heavy movement. Indications now are that there will not be much doing as far as a fair movement is concerned until early April. The main movement will be on between April 15. The probabilities are there will be about 10 to 15 cars move from point during the present week, all of which has been sold.

Lettuce shipments are also light. A number of cars will be loaded during the week, quality only fair. Price for lettuce around $2 bumper, with some extra stock commanding a premium.

The M. O. Caggins Co. will load a number of cars of celery and lettuce during the present week. Chase & Co. J. E. Pace and others will also have a number of cars. The movement is limited, and no one operator is loading very heavy at the present time. Produce News.

Mrs. M. A. Jameson

Died at the residence of D. C. Robb, on February 28, in the 83rd year of her life. Mrs. M. A. Jameson.

Mrs. Jameson was born in Kentucky, and spent the earlier portion of her life there, coming to Sanford some twenty years ago. She made her home for several years past at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Robb.

She left two daughters and one son to mourn her loss, Mrs. Robb, of this city, Mrs. T. S. Mixley, of Memphis, and W. E. Jameson, of this city. Van is any attempt to measure the loss of a mother to her children after all the poets have sung and lovers dreamed, outside of heaven there is no love like mother-love. We believe the tender care devoted to those nearest and dearest, went with her to the better land, and in the possibilities of eternity, may be needed hereafter. We fancy her awaiting them in the place prepared for her, a little apart from the innumerable company in bright array, perhaps in one of the "palaces of ivory" with windows crystal clear of which old Bonar quaintly sang. In the light, not of the sun, neither of the moon, we see her beyond the fields of asphodel, under the waving palms, beside the still waters bordered with silver lilies. These may be merely figures, but they bear a precious meaning to yearning hearts made for the deep household loves, hearts that will not be comforted because the Angel of the House is missing.

RELIGIOUS MOVEMENT

Men of Sanford Enrolled Under Forward Movement

ROUSING MEETING SUNDAY NIGHT

Prominent Speakers Urged More Activity Among the Men of Christian World

The Men's Religion and Forward Movement for Sanford started off with an enthusiasm last Sunday night that filled the Imperial Theatre to the doors. The audience began to gather early and when the time arrived to open every available seat below was taken and there were many in the balcony.

The music of the evening was in charge of Professor Wildman. An orchestra of eight pieces was led by Mr. Reasoner. This orchestra played two selections at the opening, appropriate and most acceptably rendered.

Mr. F. R. Walker presided, introducing the speakers with a few well chosen words. After the singing of Gossamer by the audience led by the orchestra and a choir of men's voices, prayer was offered by Mr. Laurin Philips. The scripture lesson of the evening, from the 17th of John and was read by Mr. Frank Forster.

Mr. Marcus D. C. Fogg, Jacksonville superintendent of the Christian Home Society of Florida was the principal speaker of the evening. He spoke on "The Need of a Social Conscience" with an earnestness and power that held the close attention of his audience. Giving telling instances from political life he showed that the Christian people should have it in their power to have the kind of government that they want and told them how to go about it.

If you don't want a good representative in the legislature you had better to have him declared Mr. Fogg and the great audience half of whom were voters showed their approval in spontaneous applause. Conditions at the Maranatha Reform School and other state institutions were said to show how little appreciation of Florida's responsibilities there is as yet in our Legislature and among the people.

The orchestra played a short selection after which followed brief addresses from several representative men of the city. These were to the point and evidently met the approval of the audience. Mr. D. E. Thurston spoke on the necessity of re-organizing the M. R. & F. M. and emphasized the spirit of oneness that is growing up between the churches and among Christians as the result of this movement. Professor N. J. Perkins dwelt on the importance and advantages of bible study. Then Mr. A. R. Chappell spoke on personal evangelism.

One final word remained to be done to finish the meeting by a round up of the men who were there. This was given to Mr. D. E. Walker, who had attended the Jacksonville convention and there outlined the purposes and methods of the Movement. He called attention to the five lines of work for which men's activities are asked, and most of which had already received attention during the evening, as follows:

1. Evangelism
2. Missions
3. Bible Study
4. Boy Work
5. Social Service

These five departments were posted in conspicuous positions before the audience. Every man present was urged first to declare his allegiance to the work and then, if he could, to make choice in which field he will follow. Cards distributed through the audience for this purpose. The result of the evening and of previous similar alignments is that there are now 126 men in Sanford pledged to stand by the Men's Religion and Forward Movement. Of these 91 have definitely chosen their field for work: For Evangelism 3, Missions 5, Bible Study 32, Boy Work 32 and Social Service 19. It is hoped that those who have not already chosen will consider those fields in which the representation is now the lightest.

Announcement was made that there is to be a Men's Religion and Forward Movement convention in Sanford for four days beginning Sunday, April 14. This convention will be addressed by men from Jacksonville, Atlanta and other cities. Every man in Sanford should be lined up before that time.

The Organization Committee, which has so far had the work in charge, wishes to thank Mr. George A. DeCottea for the free use of his theatre and his courtesy in advertising the Sunday night meeting. They wish also to thank the orchestra and choir for their part in the services. Thanks are due to the uppers in charge of Mr. Frank R. Kent. They wish particularly to acknowledge their obligations to the Herald for the generous space given in its columns to this movement.

This passes an occasion long to be remembered in Sanford, and thus begins a movement that may have far-reaching influences for good upon our city.

Pythian Sisters Banquet

The Pythian Sisters gave a banquet last night in the castle hall in the Welborne Block which was largely attended by the Knights and their ladies and many visitors. Refreshments were served and a good time enjoyed by all present.

Among those present from a distance were Mrs. M. S. Brown of Palatka, who is Past Grand Chief.

Today Mrs. Brown and Mrs. M. Frank who is Grand Mistress of Finance and Miss Florence Frank who will represent Sanford Temple No. 17 will go to Tampa to attend the annual meeting. Representatives of Phoenix Lodge No. 5 of this city, Henry McLaughlin and Felix Frank will accompany them.

Tampa will extend a most cordial welcome to the visiting Knights and a reception banquet and ball will be given there at the Tampa Bay and automobile club in the city.

FOR A LIBRARY BUILDING

Valuable Suggestion To Place Building In South Park

At the last meeting of the council a committee presented to the council a petition to have the city of Sanford contribute a certain amount each year for the support and maintenance of the Sanford Public Library.

The Library Association owns a lot just south of Spencer's bakery that is of no benefit at this time to the Association. The writer believes that this lot could be sold and the funds thus secured could be used as the basis of a building fund which could be utilized in erecting a nice modest library building in the center of the Ninth street park. All objections as to the availability of the park for this purpose could be properly arranged if taken up with the right parties and if the Association lot could not be sold outright, a ninety-nine year lease could be made on it which would serve the purpose just as well.

The Ninth street location would be an admirable one, in that it is quiet, sufficiently removed from the business center and is large enough to prevent any noises on the adjacent property from bothering the patrons in any way. It is also within easy distance of the High school Primary school, grammar school and the Catholic school, thus furnishing the pupils good consulting facilities, with such works as the library now contains.

As the proposition now stands, it would seem illogical for the city to appropriate money to maintain the library while it is located on the second floor and right in the heart of the business center, but by erecting a suitable building and placing it in the Ninth street park, there would be no reason for a single resident to make an objection to the city in assisting in maintaining this public service institution.

The vast number of winter visitors who come to Sanford each fall and remain until spring now we have no place to while away their time, with the exception of the few checker games that are daily pulled off in the old fire house shed which now stands on the Association's lot and with the erection of a library building a place would be provided for the guests of the city to gather and feel that in so doing they were not encroaching upon the good graces of any one. The writer would be pleased to hear from some one else on this subject. If there are points against it they should be discussed and all barriers removed that would in any way prevent the erection of a library building at the earliest possible moment.

Will Not Come to Sanford

The Commercial Club failed to get enough money pledged to make up the sum demanded by Aviator Bonney as a bonus and he will not appear in Sanford this week, although he may later. His rates are rather high, probably because he is an air man.

Sanford Crop Conditions

Sanford, Fla., March 8.—Celery and lettuce are moving freely at fair prices, and also a large acreage of late celery and lettuce will be ready for market about April 10. The acreage in cucumbers, tomatoes, Irish potatoes and beans will be large and crops at the present time look well. The extreme wet weather which retarded the bleaching of celery and caused some damage from blight, is now greatly benefiting other crops. Celery has been bringing from $1.75 to $2.00 this week as to grade quality and pack. The total movement was about 15 cars and about the same number of cars of mixed vegetables moved.

One grower sold 1 1/2 acres of celery Monday for more than $2,000. A. Dornier will cut 20 acres this year and it is estimated that the crop will net him in the neighborhood of $20,000. J. F. Jones has just finished setting several acres of lettuce which has a splendid stand and he hopes to get into the market about April 15, if weather conditions remain favorable. Mr. Jones will no doubt have some fine lettuce on the market not later than that date.

Davis Bros. have 3 acres of vegetables of various kinds includes onions, celery, lettuce, cauliflower, cabbage, beets, Irish potatoes, eggplant and pepper. All of these crops are looking fine. They are also extensively engaged in the poultry business. A. McDonald has 5 acres of celery, 3 acres of cucumbers, and 2 acres of tomatoes. Mr. McDonald's celery is looking fair and other crops are in good condition. J. C. Hall has a nice acreage of cucumbers, Irish potatoes and beans. M. N. Stewart has 3 1/2 acres of celery which is in good condition and a small acreage of cantaloupes. A. R. Chappell has 19 acres of celery and other vegetables, his crops are doing well and he anticipates a good yield.

Shipments next week will be heavier and if present weather conditions hold the growers will yet retrieve some of the loss occasioned by the wet weather during January and February.—New York Packer.
