U.S. Rejects Soviet Charge Regarding Iran

Pravda Accused By State Department Of Distortions And False Statements

WASHINGTON, Feb. 2 (AP)—A State Department official denounced as "false" and "distortions" today Russian charges that the United States is seeking to make Iran an American "strategic base." He denied in detail charges which the Moscow newspaper Pravda said Russia had made in a note to the Iranian government.

A few hours earlier, the United States formally rejected as "without foundation" a Soviet protest that visits of American warships to Italian ports were violation of the new Italian treaty.

Press Officer Michael J. McDermott, told reporters that the United States has in Iran two missions totalling 26 officers. He said these are training the Iranian gendarmes force and advising the Iranian army strictly in accord with published agreements.

He said the United States also has given Iran a $25,000,000 credit to buy surplus war material but Iran is proposing to take only $10,000,000 of this. This is the extent of the American official help to Russia's oil-rich southern

Cold Wave Surges Southward Through Midwestern Region

CHICAGO, Feb. 2 (AP)—Another "extremely cold" wave surges southward through the upper Midwest today as the chilled eastern half of the country eyed the antics of the groundhog for his legendary long-range weather forecast.

Probably most prefer to string along with predictions indicated by gadgets in the Weather Bureau but the groundhog's shadow or lack of it won't go unnoticed whether it forbodes prolonged cold weather or an early spring.

In most of the eastern half of the nation where an estimated 250,000 workers have been made idle because of gas and other fuel shortages in industry, the week-long cold wave was broken, the Weather Bureau said.

Somewhat warmer weather is in prospect today in both the East and South.

In eastern states generally, the temperature was expected to climb

Opposition against M. B. "T. Bone" Smith, incumbent State Legislator in Group No. 1, faded Sunday morning when a candidate qualified to run, and then at 11:59 o'clock, one minute before the clerk's office closed, came back and withdrew from the race. It was reported by O. P. Herndon, county clerk, who kept his office open Sunday morning to accommodate last minute candidates.

The would-be candidate was Robert F. "Bob" Cole, Atlantic Coast Line engineer. In Group No. 2, J. Brailley Odham, incumbent, and J. R. Lytle have qualified to run.

Valde Williams, Sr. has qualified to run as Congressional Committee member. Mr. Herndon announced all commitments, county state and congressional have to run this year for four year terms, he revealed, March 30 is the deadline for this qualification.

Herman L. "Pops" Brumler, former Calery Fed star football player, has qualified to run for constable in the 4th District.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 2 (AP)—Despite rising prices, Americans added $9,000,000,000 to their savings last year, the Home Loan Bank Board reported today.

The agency said this compares with increases of $10,000,000,000 during 1946 and $19,700,000,000,000 in 1944 and $22,900,000,000 in 1944. Total savings at the end of 1947 were placed at $155,700,000,000.

Nehru Promises Restoration Of Peace In India

Ashes Of Gandhi Are Scattered On Waters Of Jumna River

NEW DELHI, Feb. 2 (AP)—Prime Minister Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru told the Indian constituent assembly today that he accepted the restoration of peace in this troubled land as an issue on which his government would stand or fall.

"If we don't do that we are not worth being in this government; certainly not of being his (Mahatma G. Gandhi's) followers or even saying words of praise for this great soul," Nehru said.

"I have a sense of utter shame as an individual and as the head of the government that we should have failed to protect the greatest treasure we possess."

On the banks of the Jumna, meanwhile, the ashes of the assassinated Gandhi were reverently

Plane Crash Victims Found By Frenchmen

DIGNE, France Feb. 2 (AP)—French skiers found today the bodies of Mrs. Shirley G. Martin of Princeton, N. C., and her year old son Benjamin. They were killed with ten others Tuesday when a U. S. Army C-47 transport crashed in the French Alps.

Their bodies were in the snow near the wreckage. Two other women, four more children and 15 Army fliers were killed in the crash of the transport and a Flying Fortress which was hunting for it.

The bodies of 16 of the victims were flown to Frankfurt this morning for removal to the United States.

The women and children were dependents of U. S. troops in the Trieste occupation zone.

Staff Sgt. Angelo LaSalle of Des Moines, Iowa, who kept his office open Sunday morning to accommodate last minute candidates.

Local Tourist Team Beats Orange City

Sanford's Tourist Club Shuffle Board team which had bowed to Deland and Eustis in previous encounters, won 30 games out of 39 over the visitors from Orange City Friday afternoon at the lakefront shuffle-board court.

A hot luck supper was enjoyed by the visitors and local club members at the Tourist Center at 6:30 o'clock.

At 8:00 o'clock the Center was jammed to capacity to see Mr. and Mrs. Lestas in an interesting program of magic and sleight-of-hand. The program included producing flags, ribbons and bouquets from apparently empty cylinders, pouring of numerous glasses of milk from a tiny silver pitcher and making coins appear and disappear. Mrs. Lestas, blindfolded, read the names and suit of cards passed among spectators.

A very interesting trick was the sudden vanishing of a canary bird, cage and all.

CIO Official Seeks Quick Meat Controls

Flanders Bill With "Get Ready" Clause Is Not Good Enough For UAW's Agent

WASHINGTON, Feb. 2 (AP)—A CIO official opposed today legislation to set up meat rationing on a "get ready" basis—he said "it is not good enough."

Donald Montgomery, Washington representative of the United Auto Workers-CIO, who said he spoke for the parent organization, told a Senate Banking Subcommittee that both price controls and rationing are needed.

The subcommittee is considering a bill by Sen. Flanders (R-Vt) which would provide standby authority for rationing meat, but no direct price control. The program could be instituted by Congress or the President, with Congress holding a veto power.

Boris Shikin, economist for the AFL, told the subcommittee "it is difficult to escape the conclusion that a major share of responsibility for rising meat costs rests with the packers."

Shikin did not say whether the AFL favors or opposes the Flanders bill. But he noted that AFL president, William Green has advocated general price control and rationing of food commodities.

Montgomery said that since

New York Giants Formally Open Baseball School At City Airport

By ARTHUR BECKWITH, JR., Herald Sports Editor

The New York Giants opened their baseball school at the Municipal Airport site here this afternoon with nearly 150 young aspirants on hand to greet Carl Hubbell, director of the Giants' farm system, who will conduct the session.

Mayor R. A. Williams greeted the men and was given the honor of throwing out the first ball to inaugurate the first class held in Sanford by the Giants.

Among those present to witness Mayor Williams' toss and to welcome the men to Sanford were City Commissioner John Krider and Florida State League President A. S. Herlong.

Hubbell stated that the school started today with one-day workouts, but will hold two sessions daily from now until the end of the school. "We will not hold a class on Sunday morning, however," Hubbell added. "We want to give the boys a chance to attend the church of their faith every Sunday," he declared.

Instructors for the school include Hal Gruber, recently named skipper of the Sanford entry in the Florida State League; Nick Shinkoff, Giant scout; John (Hans) Lobert, who is a scout and has been in charge of building the Sanford training site for the Giant farm clubs; Bubber Bonard; Bill Harris; Eddie Montague; Jerry Monte; George Mack; Bill McKechnie, Jr. and Gene Bonabeau, scouts for the Giants.

Mayor Williams stated "We certainly are glad to have you men here, and if there is anything we can do to help you, please let us know."

Air Line Service Is Explained And Lauded At Dinner At Mayfair

Joseph L. Dyer, president of Florida Airways, heard glowing tributes paid to the service rendered by this local service airline that now operates six daily scheduled flights per day through Sanford's Municipal Airport at a testimonial dinner Mr. Dyer gave at the Mayfair Inn Friday night to the men and women who had made Sanford Airline Week a success.

President Dyer said that he was deeply appreciative of the enthusiasm and support shown by the citizens of Sanford and Seminole County for the airline service. He pointed out that Florida Airways is a partner in the development and growth of Sanford because "we have invested our money, time and effort here in Sanford to serve you with complete air transportation facilities at all parts of the world from your own airport."

Florida Airways will grow and develop with the remainder of Sanford and Seminole county business.

Mayor R. A. Williams thanked Mr. Dyer for the foresight and vision that Florida Airways had shown in starting this much needed service to Sanford and for

Trade Treaty Signed By U.S. And Italians

Dunn Says He Wants To Confirm Denial That Neither Asks Special Privilege

ROME, Feb. 2 (AP)—A treaty of friendship, trade and navigation—the first the U. S. has made with an ex-enemy of World War II—was signed at the Italian foreign ministry today.

It replaced the pact of 1871 abrogated by joint consent in 1937 as Benito Mussolini, bent on tying Italy's destiny to the Axis, began aiming for economic self-sufficiency.

Because signature of the pact coincided with Soviet Russia's diplomatic drive against extension of America's zone of influence to the Western Mediterranean, the ceremony was the biggest news of the day for Italian editors.

Independent and right-wing editors generally approved and Italian Nova, the Monarchist organ, said that Washington's desire for the treaty proved Italy is now considered "decisive in the world equilibrium."

The left press, hostile to the United States, nevertheless treated the event factually except for the Communist L'Unita, which hinted that the treaty gave Americans unequal privileges in Italy.

Ambassador James C. Dunn, signing for the U. S., said he wanted to "confirm categorically that neither the United States nor Italy has sought or obtained through this treaty any special or exclusive privileges."

Dunn said the document covered "not only the relations between our two countries but also the responsibility of each of our countries to contribute to international cooperation."

Foreign Minister Carlo Spazza signed for Italy.

The treaty—which consists of 27 articles and two additional protocols—in the broadest the U. S. has ever concluded with any country.

Market Director Warns Farmers To Plan Operations

JACKSONVILLE, Feb. 2 (Special)—"Continued instability of world conditions, both economic and political, makes it very important in my opinion that our Florida farmers plan their operations for this year on the most conservative basis," said William C. Wilson, Director of State Markets today.

"It has always been considered a good policy for farmers to do their best to 'live at home'—that is, to produce on their own farms, by their own efforts, a minimum portion of the food consumed by their families. With no very definite indication of a let-up in the 'high cost of living' it seems that this business of producing food on the farm, for use of the farm family, is very important for the coming months."

"We know that during the current year, the price of food will be high."

Truman Advocates Anti-Lynching Bill

WASHINGTON, Feb. 2 (AP)—President Truman today asked Congress for anti-lynching and a fair employment practice laws. He also urged other measures to preserve civil rights.

Mr. Truman submitted a 10-point program.

First was a recommendation for establishment of a permanent commission on civil rights, a joint congressional committee on civil rights and a civil rights commission in the Department of Justice.

The President called for a specific federal measure "to deal with the crime of lynching—against which I cannot speak too strongly."

On poll taxes, Mr. Truman said Congress should vote a law "insuring that the right to vote in elections for federal offices shall not be contingent upon the payment of taxes."

He said seven states still place the barrier of a poll tax "between their citizens and the ballot box."

3,000,000 Germans Protest Food Ration

FRANKFURT, GERMANY, Feb. 2 (AP)—Nearly 3,000,000 German workers will strike at midnight tonight, in the largest mass demonstration yet against strict food rations.

Other strikes were threatened. Labor leaders reported increasing Communist efforts to foment unrest throughout the food-short British and American zones.

The 24-hour protest strikes beginning tonight were called in a large area stretching from Hamburg to Stuttgart.

About 1,600,000 white collar workers in the British zone will leave their jobs for a day in support of their demands for the same food rations allotted so-called heavy workers.

More than 1,000,000 workers will participate in a one-day strike by trade union federations in the American zone states of Wurttemberg and Baden to protest recent cuts in their fat rations and demand more efficient food distribution.

Readers Of Books Normandy Invasion Are Interested In Papers Were Lost Personal Problems Fourteen Weeks

CHICAGO, Feb. 2 (AP)—The average American book reader in 1947 appeared unconcerned about international troubles, the recent war or the atomic bomb, says the American Library Association.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 2 (AP)—The Army has confirmed that secret data on the invasion of Europe was lost in the mail 14 weeks before the troops hit the Normandy beaches.

One librarian said numerous patrons had requested a book "to believe in and live by."

Officials said a sergeant at headquarters in England, "fired from overwork and worried about his sister's illness," sent the papers to his address in America by mistake.

The sergeant, they added, was "completely exonerated of any deliberate criminality."

Circulation figures indicated Americans were reading considerably more than in former years.

is government spending, says Robert Taft, the Republican reaction-
ary. But you know, there might be something to that.

Senator Lloyd F. Boyle of Sanford will go back to the State Senate next year, re-elected without opposition from his district
comprising Seminole and Brevard
counties. Senator Boyle and Senator Carroll of Kasimma were the only two senators who served in the last session who got by
without opposition, a rather significant tribute to both of them,
it seems to us.

Joe Hendricks is not going to run for governor after all. He will be content this year, it seems,
to go to the Democratic National Convention to help cast Florida's vote for President Truman. Perhaps he has in mind running against Claude Pepper in the Senate in 1950. It can hardly be supposed that Rep. Hendricks can be satisfied with being a delegate to the National Convention for long.

Passions of praise and expressions of sorrow, come from all over the world on the death of Mahatma Gandhi. In China Chiang Kai-Shek says, "A great spiritual leader has been taken away from
the world which can ill spare
him." In England George Bernard Shaw says, "His passing shows
it does not pay to be too good."
Premier Smuts of South Africa
says, "He was one of the great men of my time." And so it goes.
Great men everywhere deplore his death.

Politics is picking up in Seminole County. We now have four candidates for county judge and five candidates for sheriff. For county judge we have two young veterans and two—well, shall we say—older men—from whom to make our choice, and for sheriff
the incumbent Percy Metro who was appointed about a year ago
by Governor Caldwell, and three former deputies, Jack Hickson, Ed Walker and Carl Williams,
as well as Ross Adams, a railroad man.

The books are now open for registration for the Democratic primary in May. And everyone should register who is not already registered. And that includes
those who have recently reached
the age of 21, or those who have recently moved to this county.
But a person cannot register until
he has lived in this county for at least six months and in the state
for one year. So if you have not yet registered, do so at once, for some election day you will want
to vote, and you cannot do so
unless you are properly registered.

The Commerce Department has
clamped another embargo on oil
exports from this country in br-
der to conserve diminishing fuel
supplies during the extreme cold spell. There is something about this oil shortage we don't understand. We don't remember ever having an oil shortage before the last war began. It was natural we should have had one during the war when transportation was tied up, manpower was scarce, and
oil was being consumed in unprecedented amounts by battleships
and airplanes. But why now? Is it being stored somewhere as a bridge against future wars? Or has government red tape tied up its production?

Gandhi

An assassin's bullet has finally removed from the world's stage the little old man in his loin cloth, a tragic
figure who sometimes seemed almost as ridiculous as he was noble. Mahatma Gandhi throughout his long life stood for all that was kind and good, and yet at the end of his 78th year the saintly spiritual leader of millions who had
preached non-violence perished by an act of violence.

There is a marked similarity between this Indian leader and the man who preached the Sermon on the Mount.
Probably no one since Jesus Christ has exerted a more profound spiritual influence upon so many people. And whatever may have been his accomplishments in this world, or
his failures and disappointments, they were the result of reason without force.

No one more passionately fought for independence
from the Great Britain; yet no one more patiently kept his feelings under control. No one worked harder to bring reason, knowledge and understanding to the great ignorant
and prejudiced masses of India; yet no one knew better than he that such adjustments require time. No one was more disappointed over the fighting which followed India's independence; but no one understood better that force is not the answer to force.

When the time came for Gandhi to go, it was not a British imperialist who fired the fatal shot. It was not a Sikh of the rugged warrior class of India, it was not a Moslem, of that rival religious faction who so zealously hates the Hindus. It was not a native of Pakistan, now on the verge of civil war with Hindu India, it was one of Gandhi's own people, a Hindu of Poona, who opposed the Ma-
hatma's policy of non-violence.

The act leads to one inescapable conclusion that there are now as there were two thousand years ago some very evil men in the world whose conversion to goodness offers little hope for success. "This frail old man of 78," said the Manchester Guardian, "may be a politician among saints,
but is no less a saint among politicians."

Taxpayer Trouble

More trouble ahead for the taxpayer in some states!
The city income tax is a coming danger. While only four cities have it as yet, there are likely to be more. Columbus, O., levying 1/2 of 1 per cent, and Toledo, O., with a 1 per cent rate, have found financial salvation in this new way of assessing their citizens. St. Louis, which adopted the idea in 1946, is already doing pretty well. And Philadelphia got $25,000,000 out of its income tax last year. That is real money, even for a city as large as Philadelphia.

The temptation is great. Most cities need more money, or at least can use it. The excuse for the municipal income tax is that it reaches the suburban dwellers who work in the big city but pay their taxes in their own villages. There will soon be more than four cities, probably, employing this new device. And whatever the rate which may initiate the tax, it will be raised later.

Taxpayers may not like this idea of city income tax.
But it has one merit. It is out in the open and aims to be fair. It is hidden taxes that are the great evil, and those like the gasoline tax, put on for one purpose but never removed and now used largely for ends quite different, which are so unfair.

Nobody likes to pay taxes, but they are a necessary
evil. They give us pavements and police and fire-fighting and many other useful services. But every citizen has a right to know what he is paying for and why and how much.

And most Floridians will be glad that Florida has a Constitutional provision against income taxes.

American Literature

Less than a quarter of our colleges and universities
require knowledge of American literature for graduation.
This fact, brought out at a recent meeting of the National Council of Teachers of English, seems to have shocked those present. Actually, there is no reason why it should.

The most convinced patriot would find it hard to name
many American writers who rank with the greatest of all time. Poe, Hawthorne and Whitman undoubtedly; Lincoln
and Emerson at certain moments; Prescott and Parkman
among the historians. Who else? Our recent Nobel prize
winners, Sinclair Lewis, Eugene O'Neill and Pearl Buck
can hold their heads up among today's writers. Time alone will give them permanent rank. What about Henry James, Willa Cather, Carl Sandburg, Stephen V. Benet?

Harsh as it may seem, American literature so far does not rank with English, French or German. But should not students learn about it anyway? Good and bad, it is a vital expression of our civilization. Comparison makes a good basis for discrimination. If it's good, why? If not, why?

Yale Scientists Say Lack Of Iodine
In Blood May Cause Miscarriages

NEW YORK, Feb. 2 (AP)—A blood test that may help prevent miscarriages in early pregnancy has been reported by four Yale scientists.
They presented evidence that a lack of iodine in the blood may cause many women to lose their babies. The test can detect this lack, and miscarriages may be prevented by giving thyroid products.
So far, however, the evidence for this still is incomplete. Dr. John P. Peters, professor of medicine, told a special conference on problems of pregnancy. The work was done by Drs. Evelyn B. Man, Martin Heinsmann, Carl E. Johnson, and Dr. Peters.

The iodine is a special kind
which is found attached to a protein in the blood. Most of all of this iodine is apparently contained in the active thyroid gland. Non-pregnant women normally have a certain amount of the iodine. When they become pregnant, the amount rises quickly
and sharply. This increase is found as soon as pregnancy can be detected. It stays at that level until the birth of the baby,
then falls again to the former
amount.

The Yale researchers observed
that in many cases where the increase failed to show up, mis-
carriages have occurred early in the pregnancies. Its failure to rise may therefore be a sign of threatened miscarriage.

They gave the thyroid products to women who failed to show the increase, and these women did not have any miscarri-ages. A few other women who had miscarriages carried their babies
successfully when they received
the hormone.

The low amount of iodine, Dr.
Peters stressed, is not only a cause of miscarriage. Also in later months of pregnancy, a lower level of iodine apparently
is not any obstacle to successful

"ACROSS THE WIDE MISSOURI"

Hal Boyle Sees People As Basically
Good, Requiring Merely To See Need

NEW YORK, Feb. 2 (AP)—The headlines scream:
"Man shoots wife, slays lover."
"Rich hubby trapped in love nest with blonde."
"High-living bank cashier flees with $85,000."
"War looms in Balkan friction."

And some readers get the idea that there is little in life except chaos and disorder. They overlook the fact that it would be a terrible world
indeed if it were a matter of page one news every time someone found a man living a good life.

Old Diogenes didn't need a janitor to find an honest man.
All he needed was to wipe the windshield of own cynicism.

The world is full of people who are basically good. If it weren't,
the bad ones would lock up the good ones and murder and may-
hem would be about as newsworthy
as a scratched finger is today.

Philanthropy is as natural to man as hunger or toenails or sleep. If the ordinary man is only a two-bit Andrew Carnegie in the field of giving—why, it's because that's the best he can do.
A newspaper doesn't print all the neighboring acts of kindness and anonymous deeds of good will that go on in its community every day because—among other reasons—there simply wouldn't be
space for them.

But occasionally a story comes along illustrating the age-old
goodness of people that is so
dramatic it becomes news.

And such is the story of 15-
year-old Marilyn Losby of St.
Paul, Minn., and the townspeople
who helped her to live.
Marilyn suffered from a rare
disease called "constriction of the aorta." This is an ailment which constricts the main arterial trunk line. Seeking to force the blood
through, the heart becomes enlarged. Unable to carry on, it surrenders to death.

The girl was told only two doctors in the United States
could operate and cure her. One was a surgeon in the Children's Hospital in Boston. He agreed to perform the delicate operation—
which consists of removing the small constricted section of the
artery and sewing the two loose
ends together again.

But Marilyn and her widowed
mother lacked money.

Marilyn went to work as a baby sitter. But the funds grew slowly, and each month of delay
made her risk greater.

Then Paul Light, a columnist
on the St. Paul Pioneer Press,
learned of her case and published
the facts.

"I don't know what's to be done about it," he told his readers. "I've merely given you the story. I thought it might interest you."

It did. By nine o'clock next morning more than $2,000 for the operation fund had been contributed. The Elks Lodge
wanted to assume the whole cost.
A trust fund was established, and Paul Light wrote later:

"The hardest part of our job
was shutting off donations. I could easily have collected $10-000."

Marilyn went to Boston. She needed the courage she brought with her. For one so nearly grown
it was a particularly difficult
operation. It took five hours.

But she is alive and well today,
one of 40 similar patients saved
at the Children's Hospital by the technique employed there.

She owes her life to unknown
friends who needed only to hear
of her plight to come forward
with help.

And they weren't even asking
for first call on Marilyn's services
as a baby sitter.

Marilyn is located on the site
of ancient Greek Massalia.

THE WORLD TODAY

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

The frail body of Mahatma Gandhi has been consumed in the white flames of the burning that
beside the sacred Jumna River,
in an awesome but impressively
beautiful ceremony which one
must see to understand.

The Mahatma's body is gone—
murdered by one who made the salasam of goodwill even as he fired the traitorous shot. But the spirit of this world-finger,
whose last act as he sank dying
to the ground was to give the sign of forgiveness to his assassin, still lives within the hearts
of the host who worshipped him.

These circumstances present
the Indian sub-continent, housing
close to a fifth of the world's population with a problem which
is both momentous and unique.
It is this:

Can the spirit of Gandhi, the
martyr, continue to exercise the same influence over the country's inflammable millions as he has exercised in life? Can Gandhi,
dead, still hold in leash the bitter, primitive hatreds which con-
dole the Indian peninsula into
the horror of a fratricidal strife
such as the world never before
has seen?

Now that's not just an academic query. The question of whether Gandhi the martyr is as big as Gandhi alive is one of the gravest of our troubled globe.
And it's one nobody can answer
at the moment. Only time can tell, and pending its answer the anxiety must continue.

Gandhi's assassination has emphasized a complication in the Indian situation. We no longer
are concerned merely with the communal warfare between the Hindus and the Moslems. There's a dangerous split among the Hindus, and they total about three-quarters of the subcontinent's
population.

The police of New Delhi, capital of the dominion of Hindu India where Gandhi was slain, have held Narayan Vinayak Godse as the Mahatma's assassin. The authorities also have identified
the accused as a member of the politic-religious Hindu organization known as the Mahasabha.
This is a militant body which would change India into a religious state and revive the ancient Hindu laws and practices. It advocates India for the Hindus and has been charged by government
officials with increasing communal hatreds by means of anti-Moslem propaganda.

Well, of course, all that is utterly opposed to the code of Gandhi and his followers, including such leaders as Pandit Jaw-haral Nehru, prime minister of the dominion of India. The Mahasabha, while powerful, is a minority organization. But that's not the whole story.

Sardar Vallabhai Patel, home
minister of the Indian government, yesterday announced the discovery of a plot to kill Prime Minister Nehru, minister of education Azad and Patel himself.
The home minister said arrests
were being made made and added
that there was ample evidence
"we were marked to be liqui-
dated because a certain group believed we were making too many concessions to Pakistan and Moslems generally." He didn't further identify the "certain group."

So there still are people in India who would impose their wills
as conquerors upon the rest. The dangers of such a situation are obvious. Speculation whether a wholesale fratricidal warfare may develop is futile. There is no body wise enough to answer that today. One thing alone stands
out clearly:

Recluse, 80, Burned
To Death Saving Pets

DES MOINES Feb. 2 (AP)—
Mrs. Lillian Otte, 80, all but one of whose 33 pet dogs had been destroyed a day earlier under State Health Department orders,
died last week of burns suffered when she tried to rescue a dog and 16 chickens from her flaming home.

Shortly after she ran into the yard, her clothing aflame, the dog and cat followed her un-harmcd. The chickens perished
in an upstairs room.

Mrs. Otte lived alone in a delapidated dwelling which she refused to leave although it had been condemned for living purposes. She owned a farm and several urban properties.

Hollywood

HOLLYWOOD, Feb. 2. (AP)—MGM is lending every effort to make the "Mrs. Miniver" sequel as good as the original and even offered Noel Coward the writing job. But he turned it down.

Coward replied that he had never tried to write about somebody else's characters and didn't want to start now. The future of the Greer Garson-Walter Pidgeon opus is still in doubt.

Word has come down from Louis B. Mayer that the new "Mrs. Miniver" must be as good as the first one, or better, otherwise it won't be undertaken.

The trouble is—as Pidgeon points out—how are you going to find such climates as Dunkirk and the air blitz?

Seminole Hi

By BOBBY PARK

If the rest of this semester is as active as the first weeks has been, there won't be a student in the school who can complain of not having anything to do.

New dues went into effect in the Key Club Tuesday amid a chorus of groans even though they meant the increase. Fred Rossetter, as the new president, presided over the meeting. It took as though there will be a large degree of formality in the Key Club during the coming semester since Fred announced the club will follow Robertson's Rules of Order. Several motions were made during the meeting, most of them by Bobby Pullin who seems to be moving FOR SOMETHING or SOMEWHERE all the time.

About 80 people attended the Latin Club sponsored cruise on the Frenchman's Bay Wednesday night. Mr. Coleman said the club had requests for more reservations than they could handle and had to refuse a good many people. There was such an immediate response by so many students that the Latin Club may plan another excursion soon.

Thursday morning the Ovisdo High School presented for the students a well planned program on the theme of Robert E. Lee's birthday. This is an exchange program and some of our students will soon visit the Ovisdo High School with a similar program.

First of course, was the scripture and prayer followed by the student body singing "God Bless America" and "America, The Beautiful." After the assembly recited the pledge to the flag Edward Brown gave a talk on Robert E. Lee. The talk began with Lee's father and noted all the outstanding dates in Lee's history and quoted opinions of Lee of some of the outstanding statesmen and writers. The Ovisdo students then presented a double duet, eight hands on two pianos. A recitation of "Conquered Men" was given. Following this was a collection of Southern Melodies, including the themes of the majority of beloved old southern music, which drew two encores from the audience.

Charleen Whiteman then delivered an original essay on one of the foremost problems of the South today. Quoting several references and prominent authorities she presented an accurate report on an old worry of the South.

Then followed "Old Man River" by a girl's trio with piano accompaniment.

THE FIRST BAND CONCERT OF SEMINOLE HIGH SCHOOL went off smoothly before an audience of about 200. When the free-will offering was taken $53.47 was contributed. The band has grown in its 4 1/2 months of existence from a microscopic beginning to well over a 50 piece band. Right ON THE DOT at 8:00 o'clock (certainly an UNUSUAL event) the band began a wide variety of well performed music. Alan Hetzel led his cornet solo accompanied by Frances LeFils, treated the audience to an outstanding and difficult piece that certainly took plenty of work. The entire band said "WELL DONE" for a swell presentation of a difficult composition. Thursday was also a special occasion for Frances LeFils whose 17th birthday fell on this occasion. As a birthday present from Mr. Black and the band she conducted her fellow musicians in a lively composition. The band is sorely in need of funds for new uniforms and instruments which are too expensive for individual members to purchase. Won't you contribute something

Patty Lou Brown And W. E. Smith Honored

Mrs. R. E. Mitchell and Mrs. W. E. Smith were hostesses for a family dinner on Friday evening at the home of the latter. The dinner honored the birthdays of Mr. Smith and his granddaughter Patty Lou Brown. Sharing honors with them was Mrs. A. D. Brown who celebrated her birthday last week.

Dinner was catch by candlelight at the dining table which was decorated with spring flowers. Centering the table was a large birthday cake which was cut by Miss Brown.

Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Brown, Patty Lou Brown, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Mitchell and Bobby Mitchell. Following the dinner the group attended the performance of the Letas, magicians, at the Tourist Center.

Martha Earle Wright Ends Nurse's School

Friends will be interested to learn that Miss Martha Earle Wright recently graduated from the Little Jolly School of Nursing Memorial Hospital in Houston, Tex. The graduation exercises were held in the First Baptist Church of Houston.

She entered Cadet Nurses training in February of 1945. She plans to return to Sanford sometime in March.

ROLLINS MAGAZINE

WINTER PARK Feb. 2. (AP)—S. Kendrick Guernsey of Jacksonville, president of Rotary International, will contribute to the 21st edition of the Rollins College animated magazine, Feb. 22. President Hamilton Holt of Rollins announced today.

Guernsey, along with General Jonathan M. Wainwright and several other persons will speak on the "Living Magazine," a highlight of Founders' Week.

Dr. Holt, who originated the event, will act as editor, and Dr. E. O. Grover, vice president of Rollins, will serve as publisher.

For this well-worthwhile cause? Don't think that it will be just another of those things. Our band is growing and is going to keep on doing so. It needs YOUR help. IT CAN do it alone but not nearly so rapidly or efficiently. Give your donation to Mrs. Hollenbeck, of the Band Boosters Club, and you will SEE the good your contribution does.

Celery Feds Nip Maroons In Hard Fought Contest, 41-38

The Seminole High School Celery Feds defeated the Palatka High School Maroons at the local gym Friday night by a 41 to 38 margin, but the Celery Feds dropped a 31 to 28 encounter which was extended for a three minute overtime period.

The varsity was a nip and tuck affair with the two teams deadlocked at the half by a 22 to 22 score.

The Feds broke through the Palatka defenses early in the third period and forged ahead and paced the invaders by a 34 to 24 score at the end of the third quarter.

Fred Siegrist bucketed 17 points for the locals in the contest.

Tomorrow night the locals engage the Deland High School Bulldogs at the Seminole High School gym in a twin bill.

Sports Roundup

NEW YORK, Feb. 2 (AP)—The papers said that a Florida (Thee-Finger) Brown was seriously ill in Terre Haute, Ind., and many miles away in New Haven, Conn. Big Ed Walsh was talking about Brown and the great Chicago Cub teams for which he used to pitch. . . . Walsh, you remember, was one of the all-time pitching greats for the White Sox about the same time that Brown hurled for the Cubs. . . . "Brown was a great pitcher—one of the best," remarked Ed. "His forefinger was off at the first joint, right here, as he didn't throw quite like anybody else. . . . These Cubs were a great team—Trinker, Evers, Chance, Schulte, Steinfield, Kling—all great players. They'd hit 350 for the whole season." . . . The interviewer asked: "Did you ever pitch against them, Ed?" . . . "Yes," said Walsh, "I beat them twice in the World Series and several times in city series." . . . What Big Ed didn't mention was that he blew those hard-hitting Cubs down with a two-hit shutout in his first World Series game and he could beat almost anybody with his spitball and spitballer's need in those days although the "spitless wonders" seldom gave him much support. . . . And what's more, Walsh looks almost as if he could do it today.

Yes, Team . . . When Jack Haer, Oklahoma U. basketball coach, rounded up his 1948 squad (in the snow) Wednesday, he found only two regulars from his 1947 team which won the district N.C.A.A. title. . . . Outfielder Rudy Rufer had just signed with the Phillies, for a reported $10,000 bonus, and pitchers Jack Venable and Hal Cumberland and second baseman Jimmy Mitchell had previously signed with other major league clubs. . . . That's a good end for Haer's coaching but mighty tough on the Sooners.

One-Minute Sports Pace . . . Browning Ross, Villanova's pint-sized distance runner, claims that Forest Efron is the most underrated athlete in their particular branch of the business. . . . Paul Brown is reported to have bought some property in Coral Gables, but not as a football farm. . . . The Rangers' Buddy O'Connor has drawn eight million in bonuses during the current hockey season. . . . Personal record for misbehavior. He never before had more than six a season. . . . Jimmy Conner, All-Southern Prep back from Richmond Academy (Augusta, Ga.) who signed a Georgia grand-slam deal, has turned up at South Carolina U. and should hear the moans. . . . The border conference has organized a baseball championship tournament to be played at Tucson in May. . . . Jacob Rice, the Texas automobile dealer who doubles as a football official and tries in Rhubarbs, has been getting a big play as a speaker since he started blasting football evils.

Data All Brothers . . . (Bill) Dodds will be shooting for his 20th consecutive indoor mile triumph in the Wannamaker Mile at tomorrow's Millrose games. . . . Baltimore was the best defender (it says here) club in the first half of the Basketball Association of America season because it allowed only an average of 60 points per game. . . . Hialeah racing fans are getting worked up over a "grudge" race between Armed and Assault in the 550,000 Widener Cup, 21. . . . One side contends Assault wasn't fit and ready for their match race last year and the other claims Armed isn't getting the credit due to him. . . . Lynn Patrick's "peewee" hockey players from New Haven will play in the Garden Feb. 22. . . . There goes Tom Lockhart again—commercializing ten-year-olds.

Williams Is Irked By Public Interest

BOSTON Feb. 2 (AP)—Javial but apparently irked about public interest in his domestic affairs, Red Sox slugger Ted Williams stepped off a Miami plane early today and was greeted by a small army of newspapermen and a few friends.

"I heard about the birth of my daughter 10 hours after it happened. A Boston newspaper phoned me the news. I was out fishing at the time," Williams explained.

"I tried to make plane reservations but was unable to do so until yesterday," he continued. "I've heard there has been a Boston sootier. But that's my business and none of the public's."

Williams said he would visit his wife and daughter in their Boston hospital later today, and would remain here until they were able to leave the hospital.

"When they get out, they will go to the home of friends and I'll go back to my Florida fishing," he added. "It was cold in the everglades and the fishing was poor but I'm going back as soon as I can."

NEW RECORD

ATLANTA Feb. 2 (AP)—Georgia Military College led in team scoring at the southern AAU weight lifting tournament over the weekend at which a new AAU world record for the shoulder bridge press was made. Bob Weeks, 30, South Carolina state trooper from St. George, bettered the old world mark of 238 pounds by 67 when he pressed 455 pounds.

Trippy Is Offered Tidy Sum To Boss Semi-Pro Combine

COLUMBUS, Ga., Feb. 2 (AP)—Sports Editor Tom Kinney of the Enquirer said today in his daily column that Charlie Trippy, Chicago Cardinal halfback, has been offered $1,000 a month and expenses to manage a semi-pro baseball club at Metter, Ga.

Kinney said his source of information could not be divulged. He added, that the bid was made recently and "will come to light Feb. 10 when the ten Ogechee (semi-pro league) clubs hold a league meeting at Metter."

Trippy, All American halfback in 1946 at Georgia, played baseball with Atlanta in the class AA Southern Association last season and hit the .331 in 109 games. Several times last fall he said his future activity would be restricted to football.

Hank Sars He Will Await Developments

NEW YORK Feb. 2 (AP)—Hank Greenberg, the long-hitting veteran first sacker, says he plans to adopt a "waiting" attitude of allowing himself for 1948 baseball play.

The big home run hitter spiked rumors at the annual New York Baseball Writers' Dinner last night that he had already signed to play with the Cleveland Indians. The slugger has been given his release by Pittsburgh.

George Sauer Named Navy's Grid Coach

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Feb. 2 (AP)—George Sauer, who piloted Kansas University through two highly successful football seasons, has signed a four year pact to coach at Navy.

He will be Navy's first civilian coach in 15 campaigns.

By signing with Navy, Sauer has taken on what observers say will prove one of the toughest assignments in major collective football.

Navy has won only two games in two seasons and will face California, Cornell, Duke, Missouri, Penn, Notre Dame, Michigan, Columbia and Army next fall.

His appointment was announced Saturday night. No financial terms were disclosed.

Tucson Open Laurels Go To Southerners

TUCSON, Ariz., Feb. 2 (AP)—A pair of North Carolinians who came through in a pinch, Stewart (Skip) Alexander, Mid-Pines, and John Palmer, Helen, are heading eastward today with first and second prize money of the $10,000 Tucson open tucked in their slacks.

After a dismal over-par third round Saturday, Alexander came back yesterday with an eight-under-par 62 to tie the course record for 18 holes and equate the 72-hole mark of 264. He collected $2,000.

Palmer had equalled the 62 record set by Herman Kelsler, Akron, O., to get back in a contending position at the start of the final holes two strokes behind pace-setting Bobby Locke, Johannesburg, South Africa. He ripped the easy El Rio course apart in the final nine holes to score four birdies, earn a total of 265 and $1,400.

Greer Garson Stars In War Picture

One hundred G. I.'s took over a movie set recently to celebrate their discharge from the army.

Realism was the feature of "Desire Me," Greer Garson's new starrer, showing at the Ritz Theatre on Tuesday and Wednesday, when 100 soldiers from Fort Ord acted as extras impersonating French soldiers returning from Nazi prison camps.

Thirty-five out of the one hundred men used had been actual prisoners of war, and all were on eve of discharge.

"Our checks as extras," grinned Sgt. Oliver Wagner, spokesman for the group, "were just so much gravy, and did we spread that lough thin!"

Forty-five states were represented by men who served in the famous Rainbow, 50th and 28th Divisions. All were in holiday mood because within 24 hours they would be homeward bound.

Technical Sgt. Francis Walton and Milton Spelcher were two of the soldiers who didn't have to make-believe for the cameras. So were Corp. Richard Sheehan, Sgt. Angelo Franz and Sgt. Donald Courtney. All had spent from 45 days to 18 months in Nazi prison camps. Bialaz-A 1 and Stalag-A 8.

All five had seen plenty of action had been wounded and were from one to four battle stars. They were liberated after the Battle of the Bulge.

Tramman Killed In Rock Island Crash

IOWA CITY, Ia., Feb. 2 (AP)—A Rock Island Rocky Mountain Rocket, westbound from Chicago to Denver, plowed into a freight train here last night, killing a trainman and injuring a score of passengers.

The trainman was Clifford H. Hull, 31, Ill., conductor of the freight train. His body was found in the wreckage.

The diesel locomotive smashed the leading, virtually demolished life last freight car, partially wrecked another and came to rest with its front end protruding about six feet off an underpass 20 feet above a switching track on a lower level.

Firemen extinguished flames which burst into life from the debris from the freight cars.

The Rocket was carrying 100 to 150 University of Iowa students returning to the campus.

Air Hero Advocates Firm Pact With Reds

BETHLEHEM, Pa., Feb. 2 (AP)—The United States will be able to remain at peace with Russia "if we can awaken Stalin and his henchmen to the realization that our chips are down and that we've got to call the cards," says Capt. Eddie Rickenbacker.

Rickenbacker, in an address at the Lehigh University commencement exercises, said that he feels war can be avoided only if this country convinces Russia that "all our air power chips are blue."

Rickenbacker also urged the establishment of funds for GI scholarships in addition to the existing government aid provided veterans.

The present program, he said yesterday, "does not reach into the realms of post-graduate work for students who have the will and mental capacity but not the financial means to continue their studies."

Congress Plans Curb On Reds' Activities

WASHINGTON Feb. 2 (AP)—Admiral W. H. Standley, former ambassador to Russia, and Ferec Nagy, exiled Hungarian premier, will help Congress work out legal curbs on Communism.

They have been lined up as witnesses by a House Un-American Activities Subcommittee which opens hearings Thursday.

One bill before the subcommittee, by Rep. Mundt (R-S.D.), would require Communists and their organizations to register with the government. Another, by Rep. Helms (R-Calif.), would define Communism and make its practice treasonable.

The hearings will start off with Mundt, Attorney General Clark and McDonough as witnesses.

Nagy, ousted from Hungary and now a refugee here, is billed for the second day. Standley, a retired officer who once was chief of naval operations, will be questioned next Monday.

Guerrillas To Free Parliament Member

ATHENS Feb. 2 (AP)—The Communist regime of Markos Vafaldas broadcast today that Luka's Koutsoyepatos, liberal member of parliament captured by guerrillas Jan. 13, will be released.

The broadcast quoted Militiades Porphyrogenidis, Vafaldas' "minister of justice," as saying Koutsoyepatos will be released because of his age and because he had expressed himself as favoring reconciliation. He was captured while on a hunting trip near Leavada.

The Greek press says 100 guerrillas were killed and wounded and 35 captured in a violent battle of Aghi Vlassis, north of Agrinion in west central Greece. Twenty government troops were reported wounded.

The Ministry of Public Order announced 1,500 guerrillas Saturday attacked four villages in the Ptolemais area north of Korane, in central Greece. Details were sketchy, but the announcement said the villages had been looted and burned after defending themselves stubbornly.

TRUMAN POLITICS

WASHINGTON, Feb. 2 (AP)—President Truman and the man who will direct the campaign to return him to the White House talked over today what President Truman should do this year.

Perceptible ideas are observed in some labors.

Air Line Service

The additional campaign now being put on by the company to acquaint the public with the facilities offered to business, tourist and other interest.

"Sanford needs, appreciates and supports our airline" Mr. Williams said.

President C. Kilpatrick of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce expressed gratification over the fact that Sanford is on the airline map of the world and that the Chamber of Commerce could sponsor Sanford Airline Week in order to bring this to the attention of the Seminole County trade area.

F. M. Hays of Louisville, father of Mrs. Sybil Routh of Sanford, and Volle Williams, Sr. reminded the dinner party of the improvements made in transportation in recent years. Mr. Hays, who admits to 86 years of age, took his first airplane trip recently when he flew to Florida from his home in Kentucky.

"I have traveled by everything from ox cart to the airplane now and I want to tell you that there is nothing like it. I am still young and still learning and from now on I travel by air. It is the comment of this 'old timer'."

Volle Williams, well known as a pioneer local air enthusiast, explained that he took his first airplane ride in 1913 and has been at it ever since. He pointed out the obvious advantages of it in business where speed is money.

M. J. Brown, secretary treasurer of Florida Airways, pointed out that the company spends in excess of $10,000 per year in Sanford now and that the continued growth of the company will mean much to local business from that standpoint alone.

Postmaster Joel Field explained how the use of air mail has increased locally since the beginning of the airline service to Sanford, and while not launching his air mail sales talk to the aviation enthusiasts present, he did remind them as he has everyone else in Sanford "Let it fly for a nickel."

E. Ward Higgins, secretary manager of the Chamber of Commerce, expressed gratification for the services rendered to the business interests here and for the drive recently launched by Florida Airways to acquaint the trade area with the advantages of air transportation.

C. C. Collins, Jr., of the Railway Express Agency, A. Reid Mun, Adjutant, Florida Department of the American Legion, J. H. Van Hoy, representing the Bird and Sons Roofing Manufacturing Company, East Walpole, Massachusetts, Gordon Brison, president of the Rotary Club, Raymond Lundquist of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, Mrs. Joel Field, president, Pilots Club, Bill Morrison, Vice President, Kiwanis Club, Richard Dean, Vice President, Lions Club, County Commissioner H. B. Pope, County Manager H. N. Sayer, R. H. Thompson, F. E. Rounhill, Jr., A. C. Stine, H. H. Coleman, Mrs. Sybil Routh, Senior Vice President of the Florida Department of the American Legion Auxiliary, also were present and spoke of the benefits of the airline to Sanford. Oscar Bergstrom, vice president and general sales manager, Florida Airways, M. D. Holman, vice president in charge of operations for the airline, Mrs. Dorothy Fox, local manager for Florida Airways and other airline personnel were present.

Baseball Pays Last Respects To Game's Herbert Pennock Today

KENNETT SQUARE, Pa., Feb. 2 (AP)—Baseball pays its last respect today to one of the game's greatest pitching stars and most beloved executives—Southpaw Herbert J. Pennock.

The 53-year-old general manager of the National League's Philadelphia Phillies died Friday in New York of a cerebral hemorrhage. He will be buried today in the farm country of Chester county.

It was here that the former portside ace of the Philadelphia Athletics, Boston Red Sox and New York Yankees was born Feb. 10, 1894. Here he acquired the familiar title of "Squirrel" for his non-baseball past-times of hunting and riding the bounds.

Funeral services at 2 P. M. today will be private with only members of the immediate family attending. The Rev. J. W. Rennie will officiate. Burial will be in Union Hill Cemetery.

Pennock collapsed as he entered the sports superstation of the Philadelphia in 1941, when young Bob Carpenter assumed ownership. Pennock lifted a club regarded as the "door-mat" of the National League to one that was a dead serious pennant hopeful.

Pennock collapsed as he entered New York's Waldorf-Astoria Hotel to attend a National League meeting. He never regained consciousness, dying an hour later.

3 Women Killed In Chinese Mill Riots

SHANGHAI, Feb. 2 (AP)—Two women workers were trampled to death and a third was killed in a three-story fall today in rioting punctuated by gunfire between 600 policemen and strikers among 7,000 cotton mill workers. More than 60 workers were injured, many seriously. A dozen policemen were hurt. Police, using tanks and riot cars, brought about surrender to the strikers who had barricaded themselves in the big Sung Sing cotton mill. More than 300 workers were arrested. The strikers began their sitdown four days ago to enforce demands for a new year bonus of two months' pay. Officers fired into the rambling three-story building after seven policemen had been seized and held as hostages. The strikers then dropped pieces of iron machinery and stones on the policemen, 10 of whom were injured. Two officers were shot.

Murray States ERP Price Cut Will Be Fatal

Curran, CIO Maritime Head Says Administration Has Forsaken U. S. Seamen

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3 (AP)—The CIO declared today a deep cut in the $6,800,000,000 start-up cost of the Marshall Plan would be "well-nigh fatal."

CIO president Philip Murray said a slash of as much as $1,800,000,000 would make it "merely a relief program and nothing more."

Furthermore, the European Recovery Program should run at least until the middle of 1952, as asked by President Truman Murray said.

"No practical man or group of men could hope to bring about the needed rehabilitation in fewer than four years at the very minimum," the CIO leader said in a statement filed with the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

Meanwhile Joseph Curran, CIO Maritime head, told senators that the Administration has "written off the American seaman" in the Marshall Plan.

Curran testified before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee in opposition to the Recovery Program's provision for transfer of 500 merchant ships to 10 western European nations.

As he testified, a group of demonstrators carrying banners inscribed "Marshall Plan Means Seaman Starve" and "Stop Ship Transfers" paraded in front of the State Department.

Reporters were told by participants that the demonstration was arranged by the CIO National Maritime Union and other groups.

Asserting that the jobs of half a million Americans are at stake, the demonstrators demanded that the European Recovery Program be:

1. Require that all shipments be carried in American ships.
2. Ban the further sale of vessels to foreign countries.
3. Screen steel exports so that the American shipbuilding industry is not starved while foreign shipyards reach new peaks.

"Taken together, the proposals to transfer at least 600 vessels to foreign registries and the decision of President Truman not to ask for adequate funds for shipbuilding in his budget message demonstrate that the Administration has written off the American Merchant Marine," Curran declared.

As the hearing resumed, the State Department furnished the committee with a statement contending that if the full $6,800,000,000 asked by President Truman is not voted by Congress shipments to Europe would be curtailed.

The statement said that all but $800,000,000 in goods would be shipped before July 1, 1950. It said the remainder represents "pipeline" supplies, adding:

"If the amount which has been requested is reduced below $6,800,000,000, it will be necessary, therefore, either to allow the pipeline to become empty or to reduce shipments financed by U. S. funds under the program below the required $6,800,000,000 level during the first 15 months."

Bloodworth Named Manager Of Store

Harvey Bloodworth, formerly assistant manager of the Table Supply Store on West First, also produce manager of the same store, for two years, was recently promoted to manager of the Table Supply Store at Sanford Avenue and Fourth Street.

Mr. Bloodworth, who served in the Army in General J. C. Hatcher's Division, spent over a year in New Guinea, where he was injured and retired.

Born in Georgia, Mr. Bloodworth came to Sanford a little more than two years ago and has made many friends here.

LEND—FLORE— MOSCOW, Feb. 3 (AP)—A Tass dispatch from Washington said today that eight U. S. ships transferred to Russia under lend lease during the war are being returned.

The dispatch said Alexander Fenyushkin, the Soviet ambassador in Washington, informed the United States government Saturday that the vessels, which were used and a cargo vessel, would be returned during February and March.

(The state department in Washington continued last night that Russia had notified it of the projected return of the vessels. The United States has asked the Russians to return nearly 100 borrowed ships, or pay for them.)

Southern Demos Plan Split With Truman On Civil Rights Issue

TALLAHASSEE, Feb. 3 (AP)—Governor Millard Caldwell of Florida said today he will support Democratic renomination of President Truman even though he disagrees with some of the President's civil rights proposals.

"As a Democrat, I will go along with the Democratic Party," Governor Caldwell said. "The fact that we made a serious mistake years ago when the South gave up the two-thirds rule and the fact that I am in disagreement with the President's proposals are besides the point."

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3 (AP)—In an angry outburst in the House floor, Dixie Democrats accused President Truman today of "stabbing" southern supporters by asking laws against lynching and racial discrimination.

Rep. Williams (D-Miss) shouted: "I would rather see my party go down in honorable defeat than win an empty victory by stabbing its best friends in the back."

Other southerners chimed in similarly. In congressional cloakrooms, some Southern Democrats were talking of calling a Dixie convention to split away from the President on the civil rights issue.

Rep. Cox (D-Ga) started the flare-up in the House over the President's civil rights message, sent to Congress yesterday.

Cox said: "When I read this message I wonder if after all Henry Wallace is such a bad man. The President attacks people from the section of the country whose support he must have if he is to be re-elected. The whole thing saddens and sickens me."

By JACK BELL
WASHINGTON, Feb. 3 (AP)—Southern Democrats talked bluntly today of calling a Dixie convention to split away from President Truman on the civil rights issue.

One deep South senator who asked not to be quoted by name told a reporter present plans are to ask the conference of southern governors to call an All-Southern Convention.

Such a political gathering could pick its own candidate for President. But the main objective would be to work out some way to withhold at least part of the South's electoral votes from Mr. Truman.

The governors will meet at Tallahassee Friday. They are certain to take up Mr. Truman's message yesterday urging Congress to act on a 10-point Civil Rights Program.

The southerners are boiling mad over four of those points. They call for (1) A federal anti-lynching bill, (2) a Permanent fair employment practice commission, (3) An end to Jim Crow rules in transportation and (4) Outlawing state poll taxes.

Senator Eastland (D-Miss) called these proposals "outrageous." "The South will have to protect itself," he said.

Wheeler Selected U. S. And British Director Of AFL Zones Paralyzed Political League By Food Strikes

Ex-Senator Was Defeated In 1946 For Re-election

MIAMI, Feb. 3 (AP)—AFL President William Green today announced the selection of Burton K. Wheeler, former Democratic senator from Montana, as director of the AFL's political league in the coming elections.

The post will pay $20,000, Green said. Wheeler will appear before the 30-member administrative committee of the newly-formed league here tomorrow. The committee still must approve the selection of the executive council, but Green indicated there would be a formality.

The AFL head said the wartime isolationist views of ex-Senator Wheeler would not interfere with the political objectives of the labor organization, because they were primarily to bring about repeal of the Taft-Hartley Act.

Wheeler was defeated for re-election in 1946, despite the personal endorsement of John L. Lewis, United Mine Workers' chief and friend of the Montana senator, among the miners of that state. Lewis is no longer in the AFL, so had no direct hand in the choice.

The 66-year-old former legislator has been living in Washington, and served in at least one official post by appointment of President Truman, since his retirement.

Wisconsin Rape Law Is Unconstitutional

MADISON, Wis., Feb. 3 (AP)—A Wisconsin law which prohibits publication of the identity of a rape victim was held "unconstitutional and invalid" by Superior Judge Roy H. Procter today.

Judge Procter dismissed a charge against William T. Elyne who accused of publishing the name of a young woman who told authorities she was raped by two men who shot her brother-in-law and tossed his weighted body into the Wisconsin River. The man now is serving life terms for murder.

Elyne pleaded innocent and challenged the constitutionality of the law. His attorney contended the statute was "ambiguous and uncertain." Judge Procter said he agreed with the contention.

Jewish Agency Reveals Arabs Hatching Plot

Arab League Accused Of Trying To Prevent Partition By Acts Of Aggression

JERUSALEM, Feb. 3 (AP)—Police said Jews bombed Arab welfare headquarters in Haifa today, killing four Arabs. Otherwise Palestine was reported relatively quiet. Occasional sniping was reported in the border area between Jaffa and Tel Aviv, and a few shots rang out in Jerusalem.

LAKE SUCCESS, Feb. 3 (AP)—The Jewish Agency for Palestine appealed today for Security Council action against what it called an Arab plot to overthrow the Palestine partition plan.

The Agency, recognized officially as the voice of the Jews of Palestine, turned in a 22-page memorandum to the United Nations Palestine Commission. It asked that the Security Council act under charter provisions concerning threats to peace.

The commission now may decide whether to refer the agency's plea to the Security Council directly, to include it in its special report, or deal with it in its general consideration of partition.

The agency accused the Arab League of:

1. A campaign of threats, incitement and propaganda, officially sponsored by the league.
2. Direct acts of aggression against the Jewish settlements of Dan, Mfar, Sdeh, and Yehiam by Arab invaders on Jan. 9, 14 and 21.
3. Preparation for further aggression in Palestine by Arab League members.

The commission was created by the UN Assembly to carry out the partition of Palestine. It is working on a special report to the Security Council in which, authoritative sources said, the members will ask the council for an international force to make partition effective.

California Seeking Drought, Cold Relief

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 3 (AP)—California, with a taste of moisture here and there to slake its six-week drought, was still looking today for a good storm.

The Weather Bureau forecast freezing temperatures in the agricultural Sacramento and San Joaquin valleys; scattered showers elsewhere.

But the monotonous "mostly clear" indicated no letup in the drought period which has extended 45 days in the San Joaquin valley and 27 in the Sacramento.

The west side of the San Joaquin felt a trace yesterday—made showers induced by dry ice dumped into moisture-bearing clouds.

Los Angeles got a drizzle and San Diego .05 of an inch, its first in 55 days.

KKK PARADE ATLANTA, Feb. 3 (AP)—Ku Klux Klanmen will parade in Swainsboro tonight despite an appeal to Governor M. E. Thompson to stop the demonstration.

Samuel Green, Georgia grand dragon, declared.

The appeal to the governor was reported to have been made by the non-sectarian anti-Nazi league in New York City. Thompson was out of the city and unavailable for comment.

Candidates for county positions have until Mar. 20 to qualify, it was announced today by O. P. Herndon, county clerk. Sunday, Feb. 1, was the deadline for candidates seeking state positions, including the Legislature.

County positions for which candidates may qualify to run in the May 4 Democratic Primary election are Clerk of the Circuit Court, Tax Assessor, Tax Collector, County Judge, County Prosecuting Attorney, Sheriff, Superintendent of Public Instruction, Supervisor of Registration, County Commissioner in District No. 1, in District No. 3 and District No. 5.

FUEL OIL NEW YORK, Feb. 3 (AP)—New York City, hungry for fuel oil, has asked the U. S. Navy to share some of its supply.

Mayor William O'Dwyer revealed yesterday that he had appealed for "all the oil the Navy can spare." He said his plea had not been answered yet.

Riots Sweep India In Wake Of Gandhi's Slaying

Gandhi, ardent followers of India's spiritual leader turn their fury on property of persons connected with the Hindu Mahasabha, the extreme anti-Muslim political organization. This is a group in which Nathuram Vinayak Godse, Gandhi's assassin, was a member. Police and troops were called out to quell enraged mobs. Appeal Is Made For Donation To Negro Boy Scouts

Montez Harris Tells County Commission Of Project's Value

An appeal for funds to complete improvements at the negro boy scout headquarters located on Island Lake south of Maitland, was today made by Montez Harris, negro, who appeared before the County Commission and stressed the need of completing the mess hall by May when 150 to 200 trainees are expected to arrive at the camp from five southern states for courses training them in the scoutmaster's art.

The Commission took the matter under advisement to determine what can be done in the way of aid. County Clerk O. P. Herndon pointed out that the 120-acre camp had one of the finest layouts of its type in the state, and that the buildings and grounds are a credit in any county.

County Chairman H. B. Pope commented that the Commission had been considering a negro recreation project in the county. Commissioner J. E. McClelland spoke favorably of the project and pointed out that the County had already built a pier at the lake. Commissioner B. J. Overstreet termed the project a very worthy cause.

In her appeal, Montez Harris pointed out that James Foster, negro scout leader, had been compelled to get his scout training elsewhere. She told of a $1,500 donation from a Mr. Howard of Daytona Beach and pointed out how boy scout training aids in making law-abiding citizens. She termed the camp an ideal recreation center.

Stetson Chorus To Sing For Tourists

The Sanford Tourist Club met last evening and made plans for shuffle board tournaments and entertainments. It was announced this morning by E. M. Armitage, director of tourist activities.

Plans were made to engage the Stetson Variety Male Quartette and the Stetson Radio Chorus for a concert at the Tourist Center, Monday, Feb. 16 at 8:00 P. M.

"This is an organization of 25 voices," said Mr. Armitage. The public will remember from last year the wonderful concert given by the Variety Male Quartette, and this was one of the high lights of last winter's entertainments. The concert will be given under the direction of Prof. Harold Giffin, voice instructor at the University. Further information about the concert will be given at a later date.

"Weather permitting, shuffleboard players will go to Deland Friday where they will play the Deland Tourist Club members," Mr. Armitage announced.

Following the business meeting last evening, indoor games were played by the club members and their friends.

Food Prices Reported Sagging But Not Enough To Be Positive

By SAM DAWSON
NEW YORK, Feb. 3 (AP)—The first robin has been sighted by the food consumer, which means you. Food prices have sagged slightly. Some say we aren't close enough yet to tell if it's a robin or a crow.

But the statisticians say wholesale prices are down from the January peak, which put them 165 per cent above last year's level. Bacon is 6 per cent off. Butter is 5 cents a pound less in New York than it was last week and butchers say people won't buy at highest prices.

A sugar slide-rule artist figures that before the month ends refined sugar should drop in price to match raw sugar's lowered level.

Paul Willis, president of the Grocery Manufacturers of America, Inc., declines to see a "trend." But he does believe that prices on "dry" groceries will go no higher. He thinks the industry has supply and demand in good balance now.

H. W. Dyer & Co., sugar economists, say it's possible that the price of refined sugar may come down 10 or 20 cents a hundred pounds before March.

Northeastern refiners have been buying raw sugar at an average $5.80 a hundredweight. The refined sugar they're now selling came from raw sugar bought from the government at $6.82. Their inventories are now reasonably low.

In the South and West, however, demand for refined sugar has fallen off so sharply and unexpectedly that refiners have high-cost inventories to work off. Resistance to price drops will be strongest there.

The $1-a-bushel pay-day buyers now owe almost as much as they did before Pearl Harbor. The year started with installment credit outstanding at $4,158,000,000. (Continued on Page Six)

Thomas W. Lamont, World Famous Financier, Dies In Florida Home

NEW YORK, Feb. 3 (AP)—Thomas W. Lamont, 77, a country clergyman's son who became head of Wall Street's famed "House of Morgan," died last night at his winter home in Boca Grande, Fla.

Death of the board chairman of J. P. Morgan and Co. was announced in New York early today by R. G. Wesson, a vice president of the banking firm.

"His heart finally gave out," Wesson said. The financier and philanthropist had been in poor health for more than a year. He had been in Florida since early January.

Wesson said the slight, genial banker died peacefully in his sleep. At his bedside were his wife and two of their four children, Corliss Lamont and Mrs. C. C. Cunningham.

Lamont's almost legendary role in the financial world began in 1893. Then 33 years old, he became secretary and treasurer of the newly-organized Bankers Trust Co. His reputation as a shrewd organizer and astute financier spread rapidly and eight years later, J. Pierpont Morgan invited him to become a partner in J. P. Morgan and Co.

For two decades before the death of the younger J. P. Morgan in 1913, he was second only to Morgan himself in guiding the destinies of the International Banking house. With Morgan's passing, Lamont succeeded him as senior officer of the firm.

Unlike Morgan, who was born to wealth, Lamont was the son of a Methodist Episcopal minister and teacher of Greek. Lamont described his boyhood days in Hudson River valley, published in a book, "My Boyhood in A..." (Continued on Page Six)

Queen Wilhelmina Forecasts Aid To Marshall Program

THE HAGUE, The Netherlands, Feb. 3 (AP)—Queen Wilhelmina forecast today a real contribution to the Marshall Plan from the East Indies when the United States of Indonesia comes into being.

"Blessed with many riches of the earth, a United States of Indonesia can take a great share in the common fight against famine and need," she said in an address prepared for a special broadcast.

The monarch spoke to Holland's wartime allies on recent events in the Netherlands East Indies, where a new federal interim government has been formed under Dutch sponsorship. This embraces virtually all Indonesia except the Indonesian Republic, which has been invited to participate. The interim administration will present (Continued on Page Eight)

Shanghai's Unrest Reported As Critical

SHANGHAI, Feb. 3 (AP)—American and other foreign officials, predicting that Shanghai's social unrest will worsen—today rushed plans for the swift evacuation of their nationals in an emergency.

Shanghai police were ordered, "shoot to kill" if the past week's rioting flares anew.

Three women were killed and 110 persons, including 40 policemen, were injured yesterday in a pitched battle involving a portion of 7,000 sitdown strikers at a cotton mill. Three hundred workers were arrested.

Within the week, university students and thousands of cabaret girls rioted separately. Mayor K. C. Wu, was roughed up, but not injured, when he intervened in the student strike to prevent bloodshed.

Foreign observers see little basis for optimism.

Senate Group Votes Against Meat Controls

Brannan Says Rationing Is No Good If There Are No Price Controls In Force

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3 (AP)—A Senate Banking Subcommittee today voted against authorizing the government to get ready for meat rationing.

Chairman Flanders (R-Vt) told reporters the vote was three-to-two against his bill to let the Agriculture Department set up rationing machinery.

He said he and Senator Sparkman (D-Ala) voted for the measure. Against it were Senators Capehart (R-Ind), Buck (R-Del) and Willis Robertson (D-Va).

The subcommittee's recommendation against the measure goes now to the full banking committee.

It could override the smaller group, but that appears unlikely.

The action came shortly after the Administration had asked Congress again to keep rent controls and to give it power to fix prices for meat and other foods and to ration them, if need be.

In the continuing Capitol Hill debate over how to deal with high prices:

1. Charles F. Brannan, Assistant Secretary of Agriculture, went before the Senate Banking Committee and said meat rationing won't work without price controls. The committee has a bill by Senator Flanders (R-Vt) to get ready for meat rationing, but not for price controls. Brannan said, too, that controls on meat alone won't be enough; that they will be needed on foods which are substitutes for meat.

2. Tighe E. Woods, housing expert, told the House Banking Committee controls ought to be continued two more years and made stronger. That group is just opening hearings on whether to keep controls which will end Feb. 20 unless Congress votes to continue them.

Brannan declared there is no inconsistency between the Agriculture Department's views and those President Truman has expressed. Flanders had called them inconsistent after two developments last week.

First, Brannan testified in defense of the Flanders Bill. Then Mr. Truman told a news conference there was no use having rationing without price controls. That was one reason Brannan was called back today to clarify (Continued on Page Eight)

The monarch spoke to Holland's wartime allies on recent events in the Netherlands East Indies, where a new federal interim government has been formed under Dutch sponsorship. This embraces virtually all Indonesia except the Indonesian Republic, which has been invited to participate. The interim administration will present (Continued on Page Eight)

Public Warning On Substitute Fuels

TALLAHASSEE, Feb. 3 (AP)—A warning against the use of substitute products in fuel oil and kerosene heaters was issued by the state inspection service today. Nells Berryman, assistant state chemist, said it has been reported during the current fuel oil shortage that tractor fuel, mineral spirits, kerosene solvent, and other products are being used in heaters.

"We wish to point out that this is a dangerous procedure," Berryman said. "The flash point of some of these products may be low enough to cause an explosion or fire when used in equipment designed to burn fuel oil or kerosene."

Berryman urged the public to have any substitute products tested before it is used. The state has no authority to prevent use of such substitute products, Berryman said. However, he added most manufacturers have such regulatory powers under fire safety ordinances.
