Russell To Enter Race In Florida

Georgia Senator Reveals Plans To Run At Request Of Florida's Delegation

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP) — The Alabama Supreme Court ruled today that candidates for presidential elector can run in the Democratic primary without promising to support the national party nominee. In a 5-3 decision, the court held unconstitutional a party loyalty pledge adopted last month by the Florida Democratic Executive Committee. The ruling came one day ahead of the qualifying deadline for candidates entering the May 6 primary.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Russell (D-Ga.) says he will enter the Florida Democratic presidential primary May 6 "at the unanimous request of the Florida congressional delegation."

Russell announced Thursday that he is a candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination. Later, he met for more than an hour with Florida congressmen and others from that state.

Also attending the conference were Ferris Bryant, Okla. speaker of the Florida House; State Rep. James A. Boyd, Leesburg; J. H. Coleman, Deltona Beach; Frank Upchurch, Ft. E. Wolfe; and James Hughes of St. Augustine.

In Miami, Judge W. Raleigh Petteway, chairman of the Florida Kefauver - for - President committee, said his group was not disturbed by the request that Florida congressmen are supporting Russell.

"Sen. Kefauver will personally campaign in Florida from Pensacola to Key West," he said, "and we have complete confidence in his ability to successfully appeal to and win the support of the Democrats in Florida."

"The people and not the politicians will decide this issue," Senator Richard Russell has added an explosive element to the presidential campaign with his decision to become a candidate for the Democratic nomination.

Cape Cod Area Is Again Hit By Snow; Reaches To Boston

BOSTON (AP) — Cape Cod which has not yet dug out of the worst storm to hit the summer vacation belt in this generation got another snowfall today, but was expected to be as devastating as Wednesday's paralyzing blizzard.

The Weather Bureau said the new fall, starting about dawn, would end late in the afternoon and add about three inches of snow to the 14 to 20 inches which crippled the area.

The district forecast said the new snowfall may extend as far as Boston from the Cape.

Wednesday's storm left drifts as high as 12 feet and isolated the Cape for 16 hours. Officials of Cape Cod towns say it may be several days before the majority of roads are even passable and before full utilities services are restored.

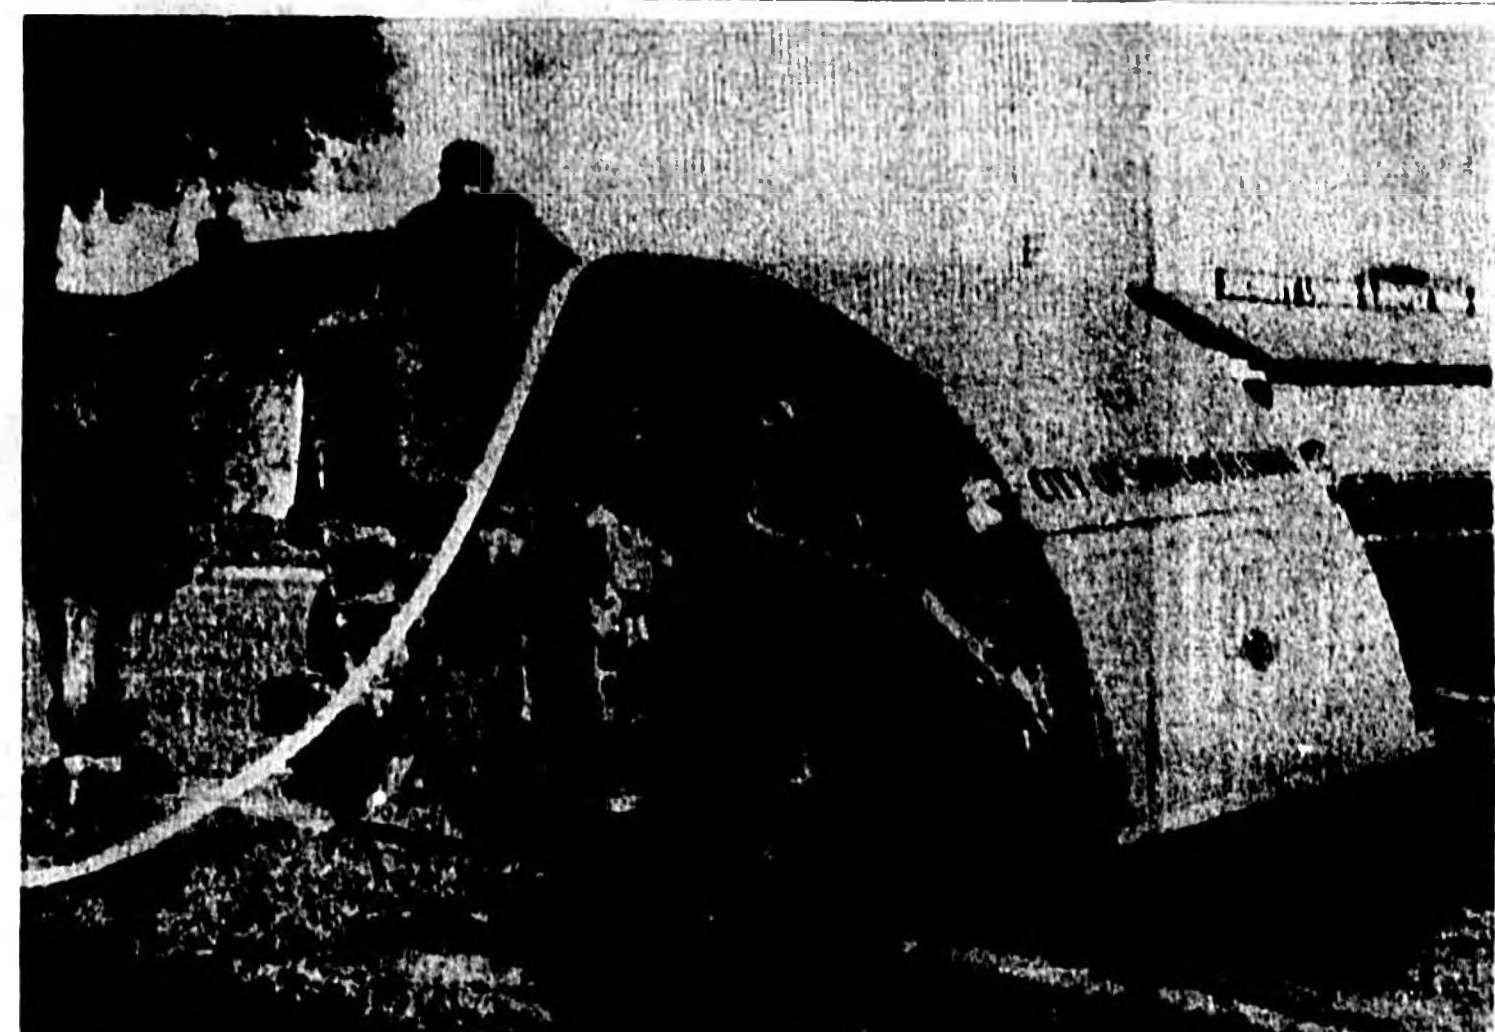

Some 10,000 homes were left without light and heat, all roads were blocked and scores of motorists were marooned.

Some 14 persons lost their lives in the storm throughout Southern New England but none of the deaths was hit as hard as the Cape. Snow also fell today in Wyoming and Colorado and parts of Kansas, Nebraska and the Dakotas. Further hit sections of the Eastern Great Lakes region.

Some colder weather was reported in the Midwest with readings of 5 below zero early today at Calumet, Mich., and Aberdeen, S. D. The cold headed across the North Central states.

Mild weather was reported in the Gulf states. Temperatures were around seasonal levels in other areas.

New Street Sweeper

Aiding in maintaining Sanford's reputation as a clean city is the new $10,000 Elgin street sweeper which the City recently purchased. At the wheel is M. H. Anderson, while Willie Newman, Negro assistant, stands by. The new sweeper is faster in action than an old one which it replaces, said J. L. Dugg, superintendent in charge of this work. Another old sweeper is still being used.

Allies Reject Finally Russia As Supervisor

Smash Thru Former Red Supply Base

By GEORGE W. MCARTHY, MINNAPOLIS, Minn. (AP) — Allied troops on the Rhine today smashed through the Red supply base at the mouth of the Moselle river, a member of a neutral supervisory commission is "firm, final and irrevocable."

A U. N. spokesman said the Allied statement was the "strongest since last July" when the Reds were warned that armistice negotiations would break down unless they abandoned demands for a cease-fire line on the 38th Parallel.

The Communists replied in almost equally strong language that "any such attitude would not be accepted and would be categorically rejected by our side."

Col. Don Darrow told the Reds: "I now tell you formally, unequivocally and with the fullest authorization that the U. N. Commission's decision to reject the Soviet Union as a member of the neutral nation supervisory commission is final and irrevocable. Further debate on this subject is completely futile."

He said, "under no circumstances will there be a change in the decision of the U. N. Commission to reject the Soviet Union as a member of the neutral nation supervisory commission."

Brig. Gen. William P. Nichols, official U. N. spokesman, said that "any such attitude would not be made without the prior knowledge of higher military levels."

"I think the next move is up to the Communists," he said. "The commission on prisoner exchange made little progress in its first session since Feb. 6. Staff officers turned (Continued on Page 2)

Ceremony Delayed For Housing Project

Due to recent rainy weather which slowed up construction at the new Edward Higgins Terrace public housing project, the cornerstone ceremony, scheduled for Sunday afternoon has been postponed for two weeks, it was announced today by George W. Jones, executive secretary of the Sanford Housing Authority.

Located at Pecan Avenue and West Third Street, the project includes 20 units for white tenants and is named after the late Edward Higgins, who was largely instrumental in reorganizing the Sanford Housing Authority after the last war and inducing the Federal Housing Administration to build three public housing low rental projects here.

ROBERTHOOD STOLEN — A 1940 Buick sedan containing nearly $400 was stolen last night from the office of Mrs. Mary Higgins at 1000 E. Third Street.

Police officers searched the thief on West Third Street and wearing the stolen Buick, he was taken to the hospital where he had had operations on the stomach. Tourist Travel To Florida During February Reaches New High Point

By E. V. W. JONES, MIAMI (AP) — A new record tourist tide swarmed into Florida in mid-February.

The state's resort accommodations were swamped despite many new hotels and tourist courts constructed since last year. In a number of places, the overflow kept in hotels and in hotel buildings and on patios in private homes.

The tide spread over the entire state—the Gulf Coast, the central lake area and the Atlantic resorts were equally jammed.

They found the state cleaner than ever before insofar as illegal gambling was concerned. They proved how wrong the old "liberal policy" spokesmen were in claiming that without casinos and bookies there would be no tourists.

A good many of them did their betting legally at horse and dog race tracks and set new betting and attendance records. Tropical Park's attendance was up 117,000 to a total of 387,900, and betting up $7,019,000 to $20,754,937 for a 40-day season.

Haitian race course, the beautiful racetrack, likewise was running up record attendance and betting figures.

Tourist surveys by newspapers on Florida's Gulf and Atlantic Coasts brought similar reports of a relatively slow start with a mid-February jam of unprecedented proportions.

"From Pinellas County's beach resorts on down as far as Naples landings were having to turn visitors away by the hundreds," said the Tampa Tribune in a story of one frozen February week-end.

"Reports of travel-worn tourists giving up their search for rooms and sleeping in their cars were heard in almost every town."

The Miami Herald reported the Florida Keys filled up. This famed fishing area has boomed during the past several years.

A qualified real estate man estimated 130,000 persons in the Fort Lauderdale area late in February. The entire Gold Coast from Palm Beach to Miami was reported by the Miami Daily News as sparkling "as it never has before."

Bumper-to-bumper traffic along highways slowed driving and brought some unexpected problems. A local news commentator, caught in traffic on a Fort Lauderdale bridge, edged into a private driveway and borrowed a telephone from a householder.

He had a scheduled news broadcast, nosed into traffic again and drove on, still miles from his studio.

New Hampshire Sentiment Leans To Eisenhower

AP Poll Shows Senator Taft Trailing By Narrow Margin

BEVERLY, Mass. (AP) — National Association of Broadcasters (NAB) survey, said today the general "will be the right place at the right time," during the presidential campaign.

Replying to a telephoned query by Philip Reed, Northampton Hampshire Gazette newsmen, Lodge spoke in answer to a report that Eisenhower will return to the United States sometime within the next few weeks.

He said "Some strange and unexpected developments will occur shortly."

Seminole County Day At Fair Is Praised

Yesterday's Seminole County Day at the Central Florida Exposition in Orlando was described as a very successful by Forrester Breckenridge, Seminole County Chamber of Commerce manager.

John Pierson did a wonderful job of setting up and operating the County's booths and displays that made our exhibit a success," he said.

Mr. Breckenridge also cited the splendid job the women of the Veteran Agricultural Club performed in manning the booths.

Several crates of celery was distributed among the spectators as well as 200 copies of the special mail-away issue of the Herald. The Belgium Gardens gave Asplen plants to the visitors while the Castlesbury nursery distributed fern plants.

French Cabinet Falls On Vote Over Rearming

De Gaulle Given 1st Chance To Form New Government

PARIS (AP) — President Vincent Auriol is hunting for a new Prime Minister today who can find the money to pay France's share of Atlantic defense costs.

Premier Edgar Faure, 43-year-old mystery novelist, quit the job before noon after the National Assembly turned down, 300 to 283, his plan to hike present taxes 15 per cent for rearmament. Faure rejected an alternative plan to impose a new one per cent sales tax.

He had formed his Cabinet on Jan. 20 — only 40 days ago. He lost out on the second of 20 votes on confidence he had put before the Assembly.

Eight wingers, led by the followers of Gen. Charles de Gaulle and including 28 members of Faure's own Radical Socialist Party, lobbied the Premier and got the first chance to set up a new government.

A rightist coalition might agree on a new sales tax but would find the harnessed troublemaker on other issues. The Gaullists, for example, strongly oppose the European rearmament plan unless the nations in it federate politically first.

Faure had just returned from a Lisbon meeting of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) which endorsed the European army plan and where the United States promised France additional aid of 500 million dollars.

Faure's plan was to raise 35 billion francs (about 137 million dollars) to pay her part of increased defense costs.

"Proposed income tax hikes were the core of objections to the tax bill."

A spokesman for Auriol said the President would spend all day seeking political leaders and expected to wind up his conferences by evening.

"That did not necessarily mean he would find a man willing to take on the presidency. And any new Premier would have to work out a program that would win Assembly approval before he could take office."

Auriol may call on Jacques Soustelle, the brilliant young floor leader of the Gaullist party who has refused in previous crises but might try this time.

Mrs. C. L. Park will serve as residential chairman of Sanford County Judge Douglas Stenstrom. He pointed out that some winter visitors, not acquainted with Florida fishing laws had recently been found fishing in fresh waters by game wardens.

Acheson Takes Fight For Foreign Aid To People

European Re-arming Said To Justify American Support

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER, WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State Dean Acheson carries to the country tonight his appeal for support of more billions for foreign aid. He is expected to emphasize that progress in European rearmament amply justifies American help.

The State Department arranged maximum radio and television presentation of Acheson's speech on short notice to get it to the largest number of people.

The department said the speech would be broadcast by CBS, NBC and Mutual and televised by DuMont at 9:30 p. m. (EST). In addition it will be telecast at 11:15 by NBC television network and re-broadcast by ABC radio network at 1:30. The speech will run about 30 minutes.

Acheson's immediate purpose is to report on decisions regarding German rearmament and the European defense buildup reached during his just-completed mission to London and Lisbon.

In so doing he will be launching a campaign for public support of the administration's foreign aid program which soon must stand the test of getting funds from Congress.

Thursday Acheson gave the House Foreign Affairs Committee a private report on his work abroad. Chairman Richards (D-S. C.) said later the committee had received complete details of Acheson's talks with British, French and German foreign ministers in London and with ministers of the London North Atlantic Treaty Council in Lisbon.

Richards said he thought Acheson and those with him had done a "fine job" and that Acheson "realizes that we are not yet out of the woods in solving Europe's defense problems."

The House conference "might turn out to be a real starting point toward integration," Vorys said. "At best it will be a stepping point for the stalling which has been going on in Europe the last few months."

The big point which Acheson has stressed since his return Wednesday is that the progress which has been made in solving Europe's defense problems is so great as fully to justify American support and financial encouragement.

The North Atlantic Treaty Council reached agreement on a program for the building of forces in Western Europe covering not only the European nations, including West Germany, but also the United Kingdom.

A local Negro, R. H. Johnson, assistant chief at the Mayfair Inn, was reported to have been shot to death last night while on a visit to his home in Winter Haven.

The shooting has resulted in a mystery as it has not yet been determined who fired the shots or why.

Johnson is said to have been visiting his wife and children, and when he stepped from his automobile, someone immediately opened fire. He died en route to a Winter Haven hospital.

FISHING LICENSES — Any non-resident of this county over the age of 15 is required to have a fishing license in order to fish in the fresh waters of Florida, it was announced this morning by County Judge Douglas Stenstrom.

He pointed out that some winter visitors, not acquainted with Florida fishing laws had recently been found fishing in fresh waters by game wardens.

New Workers Are Cut From 7,000 To 700 And Funds Asked Reduced By 2 Percent

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Appropriations Committee recommended today that the much criticized Bureau of Internal Revenue be allowed 700 new employees instead of the 7,000 it has asked. The committee's stand was taken in sending to the House a $3,442,633,000 bill to finance the Treasury and Post Office Departments for the year beginning next July 1.

The total represented a cut of 2 per cent from the amount President Truman asked for the two departments but is $182,282,000 more than they received in their regular appropriation bill last year.

In opposing 7,000 new employees for the Bureau of Internal Revenue, the committee noted that President Truman is proposing a large-scale reorganization of the tax collecting service. It said it assumed this would result in savings.

Furthermore, the committee said the workload for handling the new tax on gambling is not as heavy as had been anticipated, and the bureau "track-record" drive has reduced its peak.

The bill is the first of the regular departmental appropriations bills to come out of committee at this congressional session. A House vote on it is due next week.

The committee's 2 per cent trimming sliced $2,600,000 from the amount President Truman asked. Of this, $3 million dollars, or about half of the total cut, was made on the recommended budget for the Bureau of Internal Revenue.

Here is what the committee recommended:

Treasury Department: $648,655,000, a cut of $14,300,000, or 2.2 per cent, from the President's request, but a boost of 435 million over this year's allotment.

In addition to this departmental financing the bill continues what are commonly called "permanent appropriations" and trust funds of $12,251,890,367 for the Treasury Department. These include $6,500,000,000 for interest payments on the national debt, and $4,437,000,000 in old-age and survivors' insurance funds.

The committee recommended for the Internal Revenue Bureau a $270,007,000 budget. Although a cut of $3 million from what was requested, it is an increase of $18,000,000 over the previous year's allotment.

Investigation Is Begun Into Death Of Accident Victim

Assistant State Attorney Hubert Griggs today started investigation into the circumstances of a local automobile accident occurring here Monday night which resulted in the death yesterday afternoon of Moss Tucker, 17-year-old Sanford Negro.

The action by Mr. Griggs followed statements to him by Chief Roy G. Williams, regarding the death and the accident which involved the collision of two automobiles late at night at Ninth Street and Magnolia Avenue, resulting in the injury of four persons.

The driver of one of the automobiles, Joseph C. Burch, who was not injured, was charged by police with careless and negligent driving, and with leaving the scene of the accident, said Chief Williams.

At the time of the accident, Tucker was a passenger in a Plymouth taxicab going east on Ninth Street and operated by Leroy McClelland, Negro, who suffered back injuries. The former was first taken to Fernald-Loughlin Memorial Hospital, and then to Orange General Hospital for further treatment, and suffered head and neck injuries. Both had (Continued on Page 2)

No Easy Solution Is To Be Found For Marrying Problem

By Hal Boyle
NEW YORK (U)—Millions of lonely single girls are moping this year because they aren't among the married. "What does it really take to win a husband?" they wonder.

In this big, crowded world of today, sociologists and psychologists have been unable to come up with a test tube solution. Now business is trying to solve the problem. For the creation of new families is becoming more and more important to industry. If people quit getting married, the nation would soon smother with unemployed refrigerators, washing machines and lawnmowers.

I have at hand the results of a little business research into the matrimonial field. It is a survey made by Shadow Wave, a Lever Brothers home permanent.

This firm polled about 100 guys and 100 gals on this question: "Now business is trying to solve the problem. For the creation of new families is becoming more and more important to industry. If people quit getting married, the nation would soon smother with unemployed refrigerators, washing machines and lawnmowers."

The returns are in and, I must say, very distressing. The disturbing truth is that there are dramatic and fundamental differences of opinion between the sexes on just what qualifies a man to get in a mate.

Even where there were areas of agreement, the emphasis differed. Both sexes agreed the girl ought to be well groomed and attractive in appearance. But the girls themselves stressed neatness, while the bachelors voted heavily for more definite feminine allure.

"Masculine personality" was high on the men's list; the women voted for "charm," and just what that covers remains a mystery.

The ability to cook rated near the top with the lads, but the ladies hardly even mentioned the kitchen art, perhaps because of growing womanly conviction that cooking is something done only in the back rooms of restaurants.

Many men put down "a sense of humor." The girls worried it more often "the ability and willingness to humor him."

In general the bachelor girls pictured the prospective bride as a nice clean girl—it was amazing how many mentioned cleanliness—in love with her and her home, conversationally gifted and so informed about her husband's business affairs she could even help him figure out his income tax.

This ideal bride, seen through the men's eyes, however, could best be portrayed as Rita Hayworth with her vocal chords removed, standing in a boudoir with a frying pan in her hand.

Revised Rates On Long Distance To Go Into Effect

WASHINGTON (U)—Revised rates for interstate long distance telephone calls — with some moving up, other moving down — will be made effective across the country at midnight (local time) tonight.

The Federal Communications Commission today announced the revised rates, publicly announced 30 days ago by American Telephone and Telegraph Co. and associated companies in the Bell System.

This means the changes will be applied automatically.

In general, long distance calls up to 500 miles will cost from 8 to 10 cents more while charges for calls beyond 500 miles will be reduced by 5 to 15 cents.

Also, over distance station-to-station calls costing 30 cents or less, the initial talking period will be cut from five to four minutes.

Included in the changes is a provision for reduction in toll charges between points on Long Island, N. Y., and also Northeastern states, by figuring the charge on a direct airline basis. The present formula computes the distance from Long Island via New York City.

The Bell system estimates the increases will yield slightly more than 22 million dollars additional revenue annually and that the reductions will reduce income by nearly eight million dollars a year, leaving the system with an annual gain in gross revenue of about 14 million dollars.

The revisions are designed in part to establish greater uniformity between interstate and intrastate long distance rates. They also reflect a newly adopted formula redistributing operating costs of the Bell companies between interstate and intrastate service.

HOLLYWOOD

By BOB THOMAS

For 15 years, his work has consisted largely of delivering his glib, brash chant at the beginning and close of his sponsor's radio and television shows. The stilt takes eight seconds. Lately, he has not even been required to come to the studios. His chant is inserted by tape or film, and his salary check comes in as usual.

Riggs is paid well for his 8-second performance. He said he could not reveal his salary because of the possible jealousy of the other performers for the sponsor. But he admitted that he earned more than the $40,000 annual salaries which top tobacco auctioneers can draw in their normal pursuit.

But even such a handsome deal can have its drawbacks.

"For 15 years, I was under exclusive contract," he explained. "I couldn't do anything else. The inactivity is almost enough to drive you crazy."

For sidelines, he had a ranch in the San Fernando Valley, where he raised palomino horses and white-faced Hereford cattle, and invested in a print shop and a furniture factory. But even those interests weren't enough to keep him busy. So when his contract came up for renewal recently, he insisted on a non-exclusive pact. The new, 7-year deal permits him to make outside appearances, as long as they aren't for another cigarette.

"Now I can do some of the things I've had to pass up before," he remarked. "I've had many offers to do film roles in the past, and now I can take them. I also have some ideas for a TV show for myself. One of them, called 'Beat the Auctioneer,' is being considered by CBS."

Speed is a likable, leather-faced man of 32 years and no stranger to appearing before the public. He first developed a yen for his profession at the age of seven, when his father took him to a tobacco auction in the home town, Collinsboro, N. C. Speed was intrigued by the chant and began practicing it. At 17 he was a full-fledged auctioneer, the youngest in the business.

Fast interviewed as a painting and advertising career when speed was 25. The tobacco advertising genius, George Washington Hill, decided to put auctioneers on his radio shows and sent Speed to the tobacco country.

"I was chosen after they had listened to 42 other auctioneers," Speed recalled. "I noticed these men following me around all morning, but I didn't know who they were. Afterwards, they made me an offer. It was much more than I was making—$13 a week as an auctioneer and $12 a week as a dice jockey, so I took it. I've been working for the company ever since." Also chosen was P. F. Boone, who has since retired.

Speed didn't dose an actual tobacco auction for a couple of years, but he hasn't lost his touch. "When you learn the job, you

Tomorrow Slated As Seminole Blues' "Baseball Day"

Chuck Aleno To Be Heard; Radio Quiz To Give Away 24 Baseball Tickets

Tomorrow will be "Baseball Day" in Sanford. A gala radio broadcast from the corner of First Street and Magnolia Avenue will highlight the day's events. The new Seminole Blues manager Chuck Aleno will be presented to the local ball fans officially for the first time.

Aleno will award the purchasers of the first five season tickets with an autographed baseball. During the broadcast over WFLR a quiz show will be conducted by Jim Fields. Winners of the quiz will be awarded one of the 24 single game passes to the Blues home games.

The sale of advance season tickets will be formally launched tomorrow. Yesterday Herman Jacobson made the first purchase of a season box seat by accident.

It seems Mr. Jacobson saw Marlon Harman, director of the club, walking down the street and noticed Mr. Harman was carrying some strange looking papers under his arm.

Mr. Jacobson said, "Marlon, what is that you have under your arm?" Marlon responded, "These are the season tickets to the Seminole Blues games just printed."

Record Breaking Hurricanes Open In NAIB Tonight

COMA. GABLES (Special)—University of Miami's state championship basketball team bids for a berth in the N.A.I.B. Kansas City tournament this week end when it tangles with University of Tampa, Florida State University and Stetson at DeLand tonight and tomorrow.

Though the Hurricanes have twice defeated each of the other entrants in the tournament, Coach Dave Wake's squad will be far from an overwhelming favorite as both FSU and Tampa gave the Hurricanes hard battles while the Hurricanes played heavily advantage in that the tournament is on its home court. Only Miami licked Stetson at DeLand this year and then by a mere 20-16 margin in what was a 6 for 7 performance of the year for the Hurricanes.

Miami enters the game with a team scoring average of 77 points per game, one of the best records in the entire nation. Sensational accuracy has marked Miami's play as the five regulars average 36 percent or better on their field goal attempts and the free throw percentage of nearly 90 percent is one of the better records in the nation.

Miami's captain, Ray Chadroff goes into the game tournament with 430 points, highest ever record for a Hurricane. By held to 18 points by Tampa he played out much over half the contest, picked up one point in addition when rechecking of official records against telegraphic reports of the game gave him a 5 for 7 record against Florida Southern instead of the 5 for 4 he had been shown as getting from the free throw lane in that game.

While Miami is breaking most of the records it has on the books, one mark seems safe. Back in 1928, Willey Campbell, Mackey Macdonald and Abe Friedman all had 300 points or more. This year, Chadroff is over that mark, Keene should set there in the NAIB tournament, but Mel Yanuck at 247 seems too far distant from the 300 circle to make it. However, if Willie Schayowitz adds 10 points at DeLand, all of Miami's regulars will be over 200 points.

Seminole Cagers End Season With Record Of 4-13

Covington Paces All Fed Scorers With 182 Total Points And 11.4 Average

By KRIST CHETLAIN

A potentially great Seminole High School varsity cage team concluded only a mediocre season winning just four of 17 games. The Celery Feds, coached by Fred Ganas, were unable to capitalize on their height advantage most of the year and lost eight of nine conference games.

Recognition was not completely lacking for Jimmy "Swish" Smith, second ranking Fed scorer, was named to the all-East Florida Conference cage team. Gerald "Slider" Covington, the leading county prep basketball point producer, and Wise "Dunker" Herdin were given honorable mention.

"Slider" Covington, pacing the team in scoring, averaged 5-foot-11 inches in height even with diminutive 5-foot-7 inch Junior Motts on the starting five. Herdin at 6-foot-4 inch plus and Covington's standing at 6-foot-4 were the giants on the Seminoles. Mac McCall and Smith each hit close to the 6-foot-1 mark.

Wednesday's loss to Seabreeze in the opening tilt of the Class A group three tourney eliminated the Celery Feds from the state title race and closed the local cage season for 1931-32.

Jimmy "Swish" Smith paced the Ganasmen in scoring most of the season, came out the big leader in every scoring department. Covington's 11.3 point average per game and 182 points was a county high for the prep cage scorers this season. Covington led the Ganasmen in field goals with 69 and free throws with 44.

Jimmy "Swish" Smith grabbed second place for the local individual cage scorers with 54 buckets, 24 charity tosses, 132 points and a 7.8 average. Wise Herdin led the high figures in every classification by scoring 118 points for a 6.9 average a game.

The averages show the Seminoles were outpointed by the opposition points per game. The Seminole opponents held a dominating .771 percentage as compared to the local's .329.

Coach Ganas had little comment on the season's outcome other than to say, "This year there was more interest in basketball in all the Sanford schools than at any time that I can remember."

Ellis Arnall To Decide Whether Price Violators To Get Publicity

By WILLIAM O. VARN

WASHINGTON (AP)—Ellis Arnall, the new price boss, soon will have to rule on a knotty public information policy for his agency.

It's this: Should the Office of Price Administration (OPA) publish the name of a violator when the agency decides the violation was not willful or the result of negligence?

OPA policy as it now stands says no. The name should not be published; the publicity would be unfair if the violation was of innocent nature.

Newspaper editors heading committees on freedom of information say yes. The name should be published; penalties should not be inflicted in secrecy, and the public is entitled to know who the violators are.

OPA policy clearly calls for publication of names when: (1) Any court action is taken against a firm or an individual for ceasing price violations; and (2) when the violator makes a settlement and pays damages exceeding the amount of the overcharge. OPA regards these in the nature of fines or penalties.

But, the name is withheld when the violator pays only the exact amount of the overcharge. Such repayments are made to the purchasers if they can be found; otherwise to the government.

OPA delegates to its Office of Enforcement the power to decide whether there was willfulness—in effect whether the name or names shall be published.

Both the OPA policy of non-publication and the delegation of authority to enforcement agents have drawn the fire of spokesmen for the American Society of Newspaper Editors (ASNE) and the Associated Press Managing Editors Association (APME).

Urging OPA to change its policy and permit publication of the violator's names, these editors have voiced protests against:

1. Draping a cloak of secrecy around the violators as opposed to "the principle that citizens accused by the state must be openly and publicly tried."
2. Making enforcement agents "accusers, judge and jury" in deciding the degree of willfulness and whether the names shall be published.
3. Creating a precedent that "may infect other agencies of government under circumstances not equally safeguarded."

Speaking for the ASNE Committee on Freedom of Information, James Pope, executive editor of the Louisville Courier-Journal and Times, wrote OPA that its policy is "a bad and dangerous system."

He added:

"We are convinced it is far afield from legitimate responsibility for a government agency to decide what news should be withheld. You are deciding what the people should know."

"The growing tendency in Washington to say to persons accused of violation that the quiet payment of their penalties will avoid unfortunate publicity... Even innocent businessmen are likely to prefer the payment of their penalties."

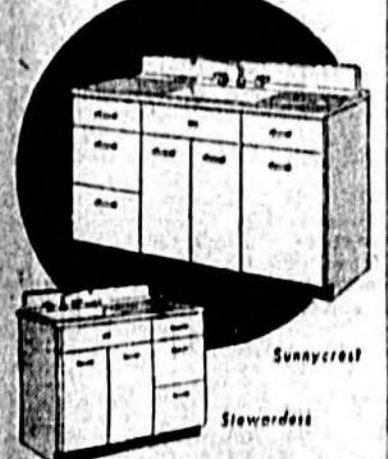

Wiggins said it seems beneath the dignity of the government to "send out its delegated agents thus to indulge in a form of blackmail and extortion to persuade citizens not to defend themselves under due process."

He said "A community is entitled to know what merchants do not violate the regulations and the only way a community can discover this is by OPA informing of what businessmen did violate them."

He said the OPA policy "sets a precedent—however innocently—for secret accusation, secret trial and secret punishment in a pattern that totalitarian governments have so frequently pursued."

Max R. Hall, OPA assistant director for public information, has told Wiggins that "the facts on this difficult question" will be submitted to Arnall for review soon.

Blues In The News

By BOB ANTHONY

The feats of our fishermen here on the Station are getting bigger and better. Earlier in the week I told you of how Chief Haynes came back with 23 nice size fish after an afternoon of fishing. The latest feat was that of FASHION 22's Chief Russell Beckley. Chief Beckley and his wife went fishing the other day in a little lake near their home in Longwood. After a fairly profitable hit of fishing they decided to call it a day and headed for the dock leaving their halibut lines out trailing behind them.

After pulling up to the dock, Chief Beckley went to get his line and then it happened. He had a strike and when he finished reeling him in he found he had caught that certain fish that so many fishermen refer to by saying "you should have seen the one that got away." The prize catch was a 12 1/2 pound bass. Nice going Chief. I wonder if your fishing friend Chief Haynes will be able to top you this time.

Leonard North returned yesterday from a 25 day leave spent in Cambridge, Mass. where he exchanged the wedding vows with a young lady from his home town on the Ninth of February. Leonard brought his wife Barbara back here with him and the Norths are now residing at the Kensington Apartments, New York Avenue, Deland.

James Hull seems to be the happiest man on the Station today. Jim is a member of the Naval Reserve and will be on his way to his home in Huntington, Ind. Chester Whitehurst will be leaving the station today to travel up to Memphis, Tenn. where he will attend the Navy's advanced Tradesman School. The school will last nine months and then Chester will be back aboard with us.

Jim Pilon returned aboard the station yesterday from Detroit, Mich. where he enjoyed a 14 day leave. While in Detroit he acted as best man at his cousin's wedding. George Enley is another NAAS man who has just returned from a leave in the north. George spent his time at home in Lansing, Pa. with his relatives and friends.

The Central Florida Exposition is now going into its last few days. It's quite a spectacle and most of the men here that have attended it have had a very enjoyable time. Ralph Elliott says he liked the "contests of skill" and from a look at the prizes he won a few. Ken Jones and Bill Brennan headed the little expensive but an awful lot of fun, Ken was lucky enough to win a panda bear almost as big as himself. Dottie Von Herling and I enjoyed everything although all I could manage to win for her was a state of a sailor.

Two NAAS men left the station this morning for vacations in the north. Earl McClinnis will be on his way to East Alton, Ill. while Chief Leo Yingling will be spending ten days at Norfolk, Va.

Burt Lancaster and Phyllis Thaxter in the Warner Brothers timeless life story of the greatest of all athletes "Jim Thorpe, All American", showing Sunday and Monday at the Movieland Ride-in Theater.

Meeting Is Held By Sportsman's Group

The Seminole County Sportsman's Association reported at its regular monthly meeting last night that wayside park projects at Wekiwa River and the Geneva Bridge are progressing satisfactorily. Forrest Gatchel, secretary, announced today.

President Robert Z. Johnson said he would be one of the two representatives at the National Wildlife Convention in Miami on Mar. 18-20. The other representative will be appointed later.

The association agreed to join other associations in the state to raise money to fight the new state sealing measure.

Campaign For Governor Begun By Dan McCarty

FORT PIERCE, (Special)—Dan McCarty declared war on the dog racing tracks here last night in his home-town "kick-off" speech of his campaign for Governor.

He served notice on the operators of dog tracks in the state that the time has come when a larger share of their earnings must go into the state treasury in the form of taxes.

McCarty warned the dog track men to "get their house in order" and said that unless they did, he would recommend to the legislature "that this form of racing be eliminated."

He spoke to a large audience, many of whom had come by motorcade from cities over the state to hear him, and declared that if elected he would see that there is no further increase in the tax burden on the people.

McCarty said he would not tolerate a "continuation of their lobbying tactics worked at the legislature to defeat the wishes and needs of the people of Florida."

"Official reports of the racing commission indicate the larger dog tracks are making excessive profits in relation to their investments," the Democratic candidate added.

McCarty went on to put himself on record as opposed to any further expansion of legalized gambling in the state, and warned that "wild and unfounded rumors" fly in attempts to discredit him.

He denied he had sought any support from the present administration in Tallahassee, and hit back at "the irresponsible and unfounded" statement that he was "gambling" Mr. Big.

"It was an untrue statement when it was made," McCarty said, "and it is untrue today. I have never had his support, have not requested his support, and I will not solicit his support. Furthermore, I do not want his support."

McCarty said that the "Mr. Big" charge had been made against him recently by "one of the candidates" for Governor, and cited it as one of the wild rumors to be expected.

The "Mr. Big" term has been applied to W. H. Johnston, operator of several dog-tracks, since last May when it was used in a magazine article on Florida politics.

During his speech, which came at the end of a day-long celebration of his campaign supporters, McCarty touched on the "much unpleasant notoriety" reputation of the state from investigations of gambler influence on public officials.

"We have been shocked," he said, "by the disclosure of investigating committees which have brought to light the racketeer and gambling influence, the political intrigues, and deals which were a part and parcel of and an influence in our state."

McCarty said he believed it had literally "opened the eyes" of the people, who were demanding a "fearless, honorable, God-fearing government" and a return to law and order.

"I am determined," he said,

Missions' Trainer Arrives In Sanford

William Cole, trainer of the San Antonio Missions, arrived in Sanford late yesterday afternoon bringing several trucks of equipment necessary for the club's spring training stay.

Mr. Cole stated he is here to set up things for the arrival of the Missions' first contingent of 20 pitchers and catchers next Tuesday.

Mr. Cole has set up his headquarters in the Valdes Hotel. The Missions will stay at both the Valdes and Montseuma Hotels during their four weeks training period.

The infield and outfield are scheduled to arrive on Mar. 10 to complete the training roster.

The Mission trainer said he is quite impressed with the new Memorial Stadium and clean appearance of Sanford.

Ante-Red Law In New York Is Upheld

Act To Prohibit Subversive Persons In State School System Is Held Valid

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Supreme Court today upheld by a 6 to 3 vote New York's anti-Communist teacher law. The act—widely known as the Feinberg Law—is designed to bar subversive persons from working for the state school system. It was attacked by eight New York taxpayers who insisted the statute violated freedom of speech and assembly. Justice Minton delivered the majority decision. Justices Douglas, Black and Frankfurter wrote dissenting opinions. That meant the majority was composed of Chief Justice Vinson and Justices Reed, Jackson, Burton and Clark as well as Minton. The Feinberg Law was enacted in 1949 to help enforce a state civil service law passed ten years earlier. WASHINGTON (AP)—The Supreme Court today upheld by a 6 to 3 vote New York's anti-Communist teacher law. The act—widely known as the Feinberg Law—is designed to bar subversive persons from working for the state school system. It was attacked by eight New York taxpayers who insisted the statute violated freedom of speech and assembly. Justice Minton delivered the majority decision. Chinese Accuse UN Command Of Lying, Stalling

Red Negotiators 'Admit Right To Reject Soviet Russia'

By ROBERT M. TUCKMAN
MUNSAN, Korea (AP)—Communist negotiators today accused the United Nations Command of lying and stalling today. The Reds acknowledged that the U. N. had a legal right to reject Russia as a neutral inspector of an armistist.

North Korean Col. Chang Chun Sun conceded that the U. N. had the right to reject Russia, but insisted that the Allies give logical reasons.

"We had a thoroughly unproductive and most unpleasant session," Rear Adm. R. E. Laby told newsmen after an arduous session of the prisoner exchange subcommittee.

There was no indication whether the Communists were weakening in their insistence that Russia be named to a neutral supervisory commission or whether they were feeling out the Allied position.

Col. Don Barrow, who heads staff officers discussing truce supervision, and Laby both said they felt the Reds were playing a waiting game, hoping the U. N. will capitulate.

Darrow told Chang nothing Chang could say "would change the fact that the Soviet Union was unacceptable" to the U. N. as a neutral nation to inspect behind the lines during a truce.

Red Cross Work In Korea Is Told To Rotary Club

Col. Runge Outlines Value Of Organization To Soldiers

The value of the American Red Cross to the soldiers in Korea was dramatically explained to Sanford Rotarians today at the weekly luncheon today by Lt. Col. William F. Runge, of Sanford, who has served nearly two years in Korea, Col. Runge said that the lives of many American boys have been saved by blood supplied through the American Red Cross.

He branded as absolutely untrue rumors to the effect that the Red Cross charged the soldiers for blood supplied them in Army hospitals. And he added that this is typical of many of the rumors which have been circulated against the Red Cross.

Introduced by the Rev. H. L. Zimmerman as one who has lived in Sanford many years before entering the service, Col. Runge said he came here as a small boy in 1908, and that he was speaking not as an army officer, but as a civilian soldier, one whose entire army career had been spent either in the National Guard or in the organized reserves.

President Jack Ratigan welcomed into the club as new members William Bush, Jr., Lloyd Lawe, E. J. Moughton, Jr., and Charles Marston. Charles Morrison led the group in singing with the aid of Klugean Forest Brethren-ness at the piano.

Col. Runge said that the American Red Cross is doing a great job which no other agency is equipped to do. Whenever there is trouble at home for the service man's family, the quickest relief is through the Red Cross.

The lucky deflection by a rib of a .32 caliber bullet was all that saved the life of Billy Perry, Negro, about 60, who was shot last night at his home at 1112 Orange Avenue.

Snyder Tries To Save Plan Changing IRB

Treasury Secretary Says Truman Proposal Will Not Bar Local Jury Trial

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of the Treasury John W. Snyder, scrapping to save President Truman's proposed reorganization of the Internal Revenue Bureau from threatened Senate defeat, assured Senators today it would not wipe out taxpayers' rights to get local jury trials in disputed tax cases. Snyder said the assurance in a letter read to the Senate Finance Committee by Internal Revenue Commissioner John H. Dunlop.

Dunlop appeared before the group as a witness for the reorganization proposal. The committee is considering whether to disapprove it. Mr. Truman's plan would, among other things, abolish the present 64 offices of collectors of internal revenue and replace them with some 25 district offices.

Some Senators have suggested that this change might mean a citizen could not bring a tax suit in his own federal district court but would have to go to Washington.

Snyder insisted that was not correct, and said his view was upheld by Attorney General J. Howard Hughes.

Before the Senate committee is a resolution of disapproval sponsored by Sen. George (D. Ga.) C. Davis. Mr. Truman's plan will become effective on Friday of next week unless the Senate meantime adopts the resolution.

Dunlop told the Senators that the reorganization plan presents the basic issue whether Congress wants to "reject the President's recommendation that the tax collectors be taken out from under the political patronage system."

The plan would put all officials in the Bureau of Internal Revenue under Civil Service except for the top man, the commissioner.

Snyder said it is necessary that the public have full confidence in the fairness and impartiality of revenue officials, and that revenue officials should be free from the control of local political clubs.

George has contended that it is not the system, but the type of collectors who have been chosen that has brought the tax collecting into disrepute in many places.

Conservative Is Named To Form French Cabinet

Antoine Pinay Seeks To Find Way Out Of Financial Impasse

PARIS (AP)—Antoine Pinay, 60-year-old Conservative, said today he would see if he could form a new cabinet to get France out of its political and financial jam. Pinay announced his decision to newsmen after a half-hour talk with President Vincent Auriol.

My first impulse was to refuse, he said, "but when the president insisted I consented to do so." He added that when he had done that, he would give Auriel a definite reply.

Pinay is expected to try and form another middle-of-the-road government similar to that of Edgar Faure, which collapsed early Friday morning. His chances are regarded as highly doubtful.

Pinay is a slightly right-of-center member of the Independent Republican Party, a tiny wing group. Some said Pinay had little interest in succeeding. They figured that Auriel himself, a socialist, had called on him only to make clear the impossibility of enforcing a "keep to the right" policy on the middle of the roaders who have been holding the reins for the past five years in France. There have been 19 cabinets since the liberation.

Big Fees And Profits Made In Korea Hit

Senator Johnson Appoints Special Investigators To Study War Shipments

WASHINGTON (AP)—Reports of big fees and $1,000-a-day profits on the shipping of war materials to Korea marked new moves today for wide-scale investigation of how the government's Merchant Marine is being handled.

Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Tex.) assigned investigators of his Senate preparedness subcommittee to look into reports of highly profitable ship charters, promising to make the story public at hearings later.

The Senate investigations subcommittee, meanwhile, sought to wind up this week one phase of its study of fat profits reaped by a group of public figures on the chartering and selling of war surplus ships in the late 1940's. Some members were demanding that it follow through with a much wider study of the ship disposal program.

Johnson's newly launched inquiry deals with the government's big fleet of merchant ships and how some of them have been chartered to private firms under segregated contracts, and others turned over to shipping agents on a fixed-fee basis.

Spokesmen for the Maritime Board, which owns the vessels, said the chartering details were handled by the Military Sea Transport Service (MSTS). They said MSTS draws the vessels from the board's big fleet, primarily to haul munitions to Korea, Japan and other bases.

NEW YORK (AP)—Newbold Morris, President Truman's corruption cleanup man, doesn't think very much of two of Mr. Truman's appointees.

The two, William O'Dwyer, former mayor of New York, and ambassador to Mexico, and Mr. Gen. Harry H. Vaughan, the President's military aide.

Morris said O'Dwyer on NBC's "Meet the Press" that he wouldn't have had either O'Dwyer or Vaughan around if he had his way.

O'Dwyer, who he had defeated Morris for mayor of New York City, figured prominently in the Senate crime investigation which last year Vaughan was a key figure in a Senate probe into the ethics peddling.

Here is a portion of the remarks Morris made in an interview. He wouldn't have appointed him at all.
