

SPORTING GOSSIP

Base Ball

The Sanford ball team had their revenge on Kissimmee at Holden Park Thursday, when they defeated them by a score of 5-3.

"Ule" Brakefield did the twirling for the home team and had the Osceola cow punchers eating out of his hand at all stages, pitching a far better game than the score would indicate.

The first two innings were about as "beehy" and ragged as any seen around here in many moons and it was in these innings that Kissimmee "lucked" in two of their three tallies. The third they got by courtesy, as Sanford had a safe lead by then and allowed a runner to score while they busied themselves retiring the side. Just playing it safe, that's all.

The only real feature of the game was Joe Chittenden's home run drive scoring a runner ahead of him. The game was won right there as the score stood 2-2 when he came across with his "Baker."

Winter Park will have a ball team here Thursday. It is rumored that they are the Rollins boys under another name as the college team has officially disbanded. Father Waloco is going to get even for their win of last week, at least he says he is. Come out, you Missourians and be shown.

Busy Word.

There is no word, long or short, in the English language capable of performing so much labor in a clear, intelligible sense as the verb to get, and here is an old-time specimen of its capabilities.

"I got on horseback within ten minutes after I got your letter. When I got to Canterbury I got a chaise for town; but I got wet through before I got to Canterbury and I have got such a cold as I shall not be able to get rid of in a hurry. I got to the treasury about noon, but first of all I got shaved and dressed. I soon got into the secret of getting a memorial before the board, but I could not get an answer then; however, I got the intelligence from the messenger that I should most likely get one the next morning. As soon as I got back to my inn I got my supper. When I got up in the morning I got my breakfast and then got myself dressed that I might get out in time to get an answer to my memorial. As soon as I got it I got into the first chaise and got to Canterbury by three o'clock, and about tea time I got home."

The Patient Walter.

Prof. W. Lawson Tall apropos of the new serum cure for hay fever, said at a medical banquet in Denver:

"This cure is the result of patience, the result of much patient toll. Indeed, when I think of the patient waiting involved in the perfecting of this cure, I am reminded of Dr. Bob Sawyer's ante-room."

"Dr. Bob Sawyer stepped proudly into his ante-room one day. There were quite eight or nine persons there. And Dr. Bob, looking from one face to another with complacency said:

"Well, who comes first? Who's been waiting the longest?"

"Here, doc—that's me," said Snip the tailor, rising and flourishing his unpaid bill. "I've been waiting over eighteen months!"

Spare the Rod.

Parents take notice. The advocates of whipping as a means of discipline are accustomed to quote King Solomon as saying: "Spare the rod and spoil the child." What Solomon did say was: "He that spareth the rod hateth his son." But the word "rod" in that connection does not necessarily mean corporal punishment. It simply means parental authority and guidance. The same Hebrew word is used in Psalms, cxlii, where David says: "The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want; his rod and his staff they comfort me." The rod was the symbol of authority and power, not a rawhide, a ruler or a hickory stick.—Exchange.

His Wife's Accomplishments.

"Naturally, I am glad that my wife is a good housekeeper, nevertheless the flaunting of her accomplishments becomes somewhat embarrassing at times," said the middle-aged globe trotter.

"Shortly before starting back to America we watched the changing of the royal guards one morning at Buckingham Palace. It was an impressive ceremony. Loyal Britons and sympathetic visitors alike stood interested and silent. Presently the new ranks formed and the old guard, preceded by the Coldstream band, marched away to the barracks. Then my wife spoke:

"Well, said she, I'm glad I came. If I hadn't seen it for myself I never would have believed that the queen has scrim sash curtains just like mine hanging at three of her front windows."

Furniture Polish.

Many people do not know that lemon oil is the basis of all fine furniture polishes. A small bottle of polish usually costs 25 cents. You can buy a quart of crude lemon oil in bulk at a paint shop for 15 cents. For using on furniture proper, dilute with one-third turpentine, apply with a soft rag, and you will have the finest polish you could buy. It is fine to use on hard wood, stained or painted floors. A quart of oil will last nearly two months.

Then She Pondered.

"If you were fair," his wife said, "you would acknowledge that I have done much to make you what you are." "Oh, I acknowledge," he replied, "that you deserve nearly all the credit for making me what I am. By the way, do you happen to realize that what I am is head over heels in debt?" —Judge.

The land developing company has a gang of men clearing the remainder of the 80 acre tract known as the Wolverine Farms, located between Beardell Avenue and the railroad.

Mr. Smith, the West side, and Beck Hammock farmer, will begin picking ten acres of cucumbers on his west side place next week.

Walter Ingraham returned to Jacksonville Tuesday, after spending the winter here.

Miss Mary Avena was at home from school last week with an attack of sore eyes.

Miss Maude Allen was the guest of her friends in town the greater part of last week.

Mrs. J. D. Hart, of Geneva, entertained a party of ladies on Thursday afternoon of last week. Delicious ice cream and cake were served.

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Chamberlain were in Clairmont for a week-end recently, guests of New York friends, who have been wintering there.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Esteridge have been entertaining their daughter-in-law and grand-son, of Mulberry, for several weeks.

A little boy belonging here overheard his Aunt and a neighbor lady talking about cookie baking one day last week, and said, Oh, Auntie, please will you get that cookie secret and make us some cookies.

Miss Grace Rich, of Cameron City, was Miss Ellsworth's guest on Wednesday.

ENTERPRISE

Mr. J. M. Gamble, President of the Florida Christian Association, has leased the Epworth Inn, and Mr. J. B. Martin, of Cincinnati, Ohio, will be General Manager during the summer. There will be many improvements made to the hotel, and the grounds will be beautified, will have launches and small boats for the use of their guests.

Dr. Barrett, L. L. D., of Philadelphia, Pa., arrived at the Epworth Inn for a short rest.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. White, after spending over one year here, left for St. Petersburg, to spend a few weeks before going to their home at Braddock, Pa.

Mr. A. W. Brown sold his home place to a Miss Smith, of Boston, Mass. In the fall she will make many improvements to the property and set out orange and grapefruit grove.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Chambers and daughter left Monday for their home in New Castle, Ind.

On Monday there was a party from St. Louis, Mo., looking about for a site on which to settle a colony of forty families, so they came here. The writer found they are on a deal with Mr. A. W. Brown for the balance of his town lots.

Capt. J. B. Suttles and wife left Wednesday for New York to spend the summer, on account of Mrs. Suttles' health.

Mr. Geo. H. Court sold one of his cottages to Mr. A. C. Acker, of Bridgeport. Con. Mr. Acker has put out a small grapefruit grove.

The farmers here have a fine prospect for a fine crop of tomatoes this spring.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mansfield left Wednesday for their home in Mass. after spending the winter at Mrs. Grant's cottage.

Mrs. F. A. Gordon is building a concrete house for his incubators and brooders for his chicken plant and his duck farm.

The citizens met at the school house on Monday night and formed a stock company to build a telephone line to Orange City, so as to connect with DeLand. F. A. Gordon, president, John Smith, vice-president, Wm. S. Thayer, treasurer and H. Adams, secretary. Board of Directors are F. A. Gordon, W. S. Thayer, and H. F. Quackenbush, W. H. Adams, Gen'l Manager.

The Epworth Inn Training School will be crowded after this season. They found that they could not run a school and hotel together and make a success of both, or either.

The Davis House closed today. They have had a fine winter business—full all the time.

Rev. Father M. Y. Curly, of DeLand, on Thursday night delivered a lecture at the Catholic church. The subject was "Why I Am A Catholic." The little church was full of non-catholics. They paid strict attention to the sermon and all wish Father Curly to return again and give some more sermons.

The Civic Improvement Club meets twice a month. They have made many improvements in our town—shelled the sidewalks and opened up Clark street from Lake Monroe to Volusia County Boulevard.

ZELLWOOD NOTES

MONROE MEANDERINGS

Special Correspondence to The Herald. Mr. Osteen, the father of Ellis Osteen took a spoonfull of Carbolic acid by mistake, last week, and only the heroic efforts of Dr. Denton pulled him through. He is now on the road to recovery.

Ferryman Osteen is ditching and improving the road greatly on this side of the river, at his own expense, and his efforts are greatly appreciated by the people. If the county commissioners would take half the interest in this road that Mr. Osteen does, this part of the county would blossom like the rose.

Mrs. E. N. Johnson has returned to her home at Knoxville, Tenn., after spending the winter here.

Beans are being shipped from here in large lots this week and are bringing good prices so far.

Letter From Capt. Bryan

My dear Mr. Editor:

I note your write up of our sale in your issue of the 9th., and I thank you for the nice things you said about our pianos also for the nice things you said about me personally in your issue of the 6th.

Now Mr. Editor, don't you think that you over reach yourself when you attempt to criticize our judgment in the matter of bringing so many good pianos of good quality to your town? It may be that we can judge better than you in our own line. Who was it who said "Save me from my Friends"? If you or any of your friends are nervous about your bills send around and get your money. Can't you realize that your criticisms will cause some people to hold off and try to get our prices down. Now if this sale is a failure as you seem to intimate, and if we have to slaughter our prices to clean up our stock and get away from here and we lose money by the operation, will not your article be good evidence in a damage suit? It is true that we have a large stock here, probably too many fine pianos, and it is true that our time is limited and expense heavy and it would be suicidal to our sale to have to ship away any of this stock, as you intimate this stock must be sold here and sold quick or we will have a heavy loss but it is not kind of you to "Rub it In". I was very trump piano "Bums" Jim Cross' pianos that would be well sold at any price it might do for you to jump on us and help pull down our prices and spoil the profits of our sale, but we are state people "Old Timers" selling standard assets with established prices and every dollar taken off the prices means that much loss.

However we are here and have got to get away—we have got to make our bills. Therefore we have got to sell this stock. We always take our money cheerfully. When we are footing up our loss on this sale we will certainly remember who cast the first stone.

Yours very truly,

J. A. BRYAN

Now Mr. Bryan, we are sorry if we have in any way done you an injury. We assure you that we had no intention of doing so. We can't see that you have any complaint against us even if we have unwittingly stumbled on a fact that you ought to have known and opened your eyes to the true situation and put out own people wise so that they could take advantage of this opportunity to get a bargain in a fine piano. While we have no desire to injure you or your company our first duty is to our home patrons and if you have put yourself in a position to be "squeezed" it is not our affair, but we do insist that circumstances point to a good opportunity to get a bargain in a fine piano, equal to a fire sale and we will take a chance at a damage suit.

We are not all uneasy about our bills as you and your Company have always paid your bills here, but we will miss a good bet if you don't sell some mighty fine pianos at a very low price before you sell all those pianos in Sanford.

CANDIDATE FOR CONGRESS AT LARGE

TO THE DEMOCRATIC VOTERS OF THE STATE OF FLORIDA

GENTLEMEN:—

I have announced and qualified as a candidate for Congressman at Large from the State of Florida in the approaching Democratic Primary and respectfully ask your approval of this candidacy. The views which I entertain and will express in writing and in public speech are, I sincerely hope, in keeping with conservatism and sound business sense. My fellow citizens and business acquaintances have encouraged me in this race, and I feel that they well testify that I am in no sense an extremist, but upon the contrary disapprove of demagogery and purely experimental legislation, whether masquerading in the guise of "progressiveness" or under any less alluring name. Rejected, I will devote my very best efforts to the faithful and constant service, not of any special class, but of all the people.

Yours very truly

The cause is a most worthy one and the admission is only ten and twenty cents.

TO-NIGHT AT THE IMPERIAL THEATRE

Russell-Fry Nuptials
Miss Emma Russell and Mr. Wesley Fry were quietly married at the Methodist parsonage last night by Rev. C. H. Summers. The couple stole a march on their friends and not even their relatives were apprised of the event.
Miss Russell is a sister of Mrs. John Gillon and is a native of Kentucky. She has been a valued employee of the Herald Printing Co. for the past two years and by her sunny disposition has made many friends in her adopted home.
Mr. Fry is superintendent of the Sanford Light & Fuel Co's plant and has been a resident in Sanford for many years, having the respect and esteem of his employers and friends.
The young couple will make Sanford their future home, and are today receiving congratulations and best-wishes, in which The Herald most heartily joins.

Helping Hand Society
The Helping Hand Society of the Baptist church held their regular meeting at the home of the Misses Gatchel Tuesday evening. The Scripture lesson was read by Mrs. E. E. Cox, leader of the mission study class. The topic considered by the class Tuesday evening was "The Young Woman's Auxiliary." Several articles relative to the topic were read by different members of the class. When the study hour was over the young people had a social time together in the enjoyment of music and pleasant games. Ice cream, cake and punch were served. Quite a large number were present.

Birthday Party
Miss Vanmeter Styron entertained a happy party of little guests at her home, 201 Fifth Street, on Tuesday, April 9th, from 3 to 5 p. m., the occasion being her eighth birthday.
The little hostess was the recipient of many pretty gifts.
The hours were merrily spent playing games on the lawn; at the conclusion of which refreshments, consisting of iced lemonade, cake, and candy, were served. The table was beautifully decorated with roses and carnations, and each little guest found a punny beside her plate, souvenir of a delightful afternoon.

The little guests were: Lilian Shindler, Izetta Stone, Damarus Musson, Elouise Wright, Louise Seigh, Florence Price, Emma Hooser. The only out of town guest was Master "Buster" Brown, (A. W. Jr.) from Jacksonville, Fla., who, with his mother, is visiting at the Styron home.

Quiet Home Marriage
Miss Harriett Annie Lang and Mr. Marshall Guinea Norman were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Willis Wednesday evening at 6 o'clock, by the Rev. C. H. Summers of the Methodist church. Mr. and Mrs. Norman left on the midnight train for Virginia, where they will make an extended visit. On their return to Florida they will make their home at Altamonte Springs, where the groom is agent for the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad.

Easter Egg Hunt
The children of the Episcopal Sunday-school enjoyed a very pleasant Easter-egg hunt, in the church yard Wednesday afternoon.
Several of the lady teachers in the Sunday-school were present, and helped the young people have a good time, hunting the pretty eggs. After the hunt was over, light refreshments were served by the ladies.

Editor Douglass in Town
E. A. Douglass, editor of the Oveido Advance and one of the most enthusiastic boosters of the East End was in the city yesterday and although he was busy, buying glad rags and fine raiment to adorn his handsome figure he still had time to pay The Herald office a visit. "Doug" was greatly entranced by the typesetting machine and expects to install one at Oveido in the near future. A body guard of friends escorted him to the train to keep him from being killed by the street cars and as he finally found his seat in the Oveido Cannonball he breathed a sigh of relief and said: "Give me Oveido and Orlando where a man can walk on the streets any time and never be jostled by the crowd."

Meeting of Reading Circle
The Reading Circle of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Methodist church will hold their regular meeting at the residence of Mrs. W. E. Housholder Tuesday afternoon, April 16th, at 3 o'clock.

Was Some Potato
A. M. Tyler has a fine lot of Irish potatoes on his farm in Mecca Hammock and brought in some today for home use. Among them was one that weighed 12 ounces. The potatoes were smooth and fine and look as though Tyler was a good farmer.

Office in Herald Building Telephone No. 14th

Do we get that new tourist hotel or do we stay in the agricultural village class?

Frank Clark is certainly getting a bunch of free advertising from his opponents.

The county commissioners of Osceola county are wide-awake and they are aiding materially in the development of the county by subscribing for eight hundred copies of the Klamm's Valley Gazette, to be mailed weekly to homeseekers throughout the United States.

According to a few pin headed people in Sanford, The Herald has been a bunch of hot air advocating impossible improvements. Yet in the next two years we will have that tourist hotel and an electric line from Sanford to the beach. We may also mention that The Herald has invested more money in Sanford in three years than the P. H. have in twenty.

Heard a man say the other day, speaking of a certain Florida town: "I guess it's not much of a town. I've seen its newspapers and they're bum." By no other institution is a community so surely—and so frequently sized up as by the newspaper sent out from it, which falls into the hands of many who form from its make-up and general character their impression of the place of its publication.—Lakeford Telegram

Braxton Beacham will win the nomination for Congress at Largo. There are many and various reasons for believing that he will be successful, the main one being that everywhere Mr. Beacham goes and expounds his principles he makes friends and votes. He is a plain man and represents the plain people and his success in business stamps him as a man of business principles and methods. The affairs of the state will be safe in the hands of a successful business man. The days of the orator and politician are past and the people are thinking for themselves, therefore their thoughts turn to such a man as Braxton Beacham

NOW FOR BASE BALL In the Reporter-Star of Thursday is an article calling upon the enthusiastic fans of that city to rally around the umpire and organize a ball team for this season. This is good advice, for the long days of summer will soon be upon us, and if we can't have a ball game with Orlando life will not be worth living. Sanford has already organized and unless we can play Orlando there would be no use in organizing at all. A game between Sanford and Orlando excites more enthusiasm than the big league series and we implore the glad people of Orlando to organize a team. The Sanford management will confine the players to home boys as much as possible, in order to cut expenses and also because a home team arouses more enthusiasm.

MAKE A STATEMENT Last week we published an article from the Oviedo Advance calling for a statement from the County Executive Committee regarding the expenses of conducting a primary election.

Since that time several candidates and other parties interested have come forward to discuss the matter and all of them agree that the assessments are rather high for the actual cost of a primary.

To set at rest all rumors concerning the cost of a primary The Herald asks the secretary of the Orange County Executive Committee to render a statement immediately after the first primary, in order that some idea of the expense entailed by a primary can be formed.

A glance at the assessments of the various county candidates will convince any one that the primary is rather a costly affair, and with an itemized statement may be some economy can be practiced.

ANOTHER FAKE Luther Burbank, the advertised and alleged wizard of horticulture, has sold out all his creations to a couple of California men who will syndicate and advertise and set up a confidence game nation wide in its scope. Any warning against the scheme will be useless. The public, or enough of them to make the enterprise pay cannot be dissuaded from throwing their money away on the reported wonders advertised as "Burbank creation." They are worthless for all commercial purposes. For instance, his wonderful spineless cactus, which was to produce eighty tons of forage per acre was known and cultivated in Tanpa as well as various parts of Europe before he discovered it. Besides nothing has yet been invented or created that will eat it. And it may be safely taken for granted that our wonderful things sold in his name are just as valueless. Don't buy any stock or goods sold or offered for sale by the Burbank syndicate—at least not more than a quarter's worth at any one time.—Tampa Times.

OUR CANNING FACTORY For years The Herald has pulled for a canning factory for Sanford where all the surplus of our many crops could be utilized making money for growers, manufacturer and consumer.

There are more tomatoes used by the people of Florida than any other state in the union taking the population in consideration. These tomatoes are shipped here from Baltimore and other large cities.

Every year there are hundreds of bushels of tomatoes left in the field here at Sanford that could be canned and attain a commercial value.

There are by products from fruits and vegetables of all kinds to be used. A scientist has discovered that a fine grade of coffee can be made from the peel of the orange.

Another that flour can be made from potatoes and now comes a former New York chef who finds that canned celery has the famous asparagus tips backed off the menu card. The possibilities of a canning factory here operated upon a large scale are unlimited. Will you let this glorious opportunity slip by?

THE REAL PROBLEM UNSOLVED

Those who sit in high places, far removed from the sweat and toil of the fields, have suddenly had a forewarning of what may happen should the hand of the husbandman be stayed. With the startling admonitions of James J. Hill and others, who speak with the voice of authority, that unless we produce more we shall not be able to eat, falling upon long indifferent ears, the city populace finds that it is facing not only the reality of the high cost of living, but also the specter of not being able to live at all. As a result of this fear, we find federal and state governments and railway and steamship companies turned philanthropist. The farmer's mail is flooded with bulletins and circulars of advice, demonstration trains, comprehensively fitted up, traverse the country, affording free views and free lectures at every stop. All these aids, however, have to do entirely with the problem of production, and the burden of the advice is how to grow more to the acre in order that those who live in the cities may not starve. But the farmer is concerned with an entirely different problem. How to get a living profit from the results of his arduous toil, is the question of most interest to him, and neither federal nor state authorities nor railway demonstrators have undertaken to solve it for him. To be sure, greater yields cheapen the cost of production; but it so happens that whenever the producer grows a big crop the price goes down, and the only person benefited is the consumer. Therefore, while the farmers welcome all outside suggestions intended to increase his crops and lighten his labors, he is more vitally concerned with getting his share of the dollar.

TIME FOR THE RECALL

The American people as a whole hate to break in upon the sacred privileges of the criminally robed judges who have the last word in the most important court cases. The recall has been discussed from every angle and there were many who did not favor the recall of judges, but the recent decision regarding the Beef Trust has upset most of our cherished idols regarding the judiciary.

One of the lessons to be deducted from the outcome of the packers' trial at Chicago is that an imperative necessity exists for applying the recall to all unsatisfactory jury decisions. The acquittal of the beef trust magnates has been received everywhere with disappointment. If the question were today put to a vote before the people of Chicago or Illinois or the United States, there is little doubt that the verdict of the Chicago Jurymen would be upset? Then what more need be said? No man who is in his full senses or who is not completely steeped in moral obliquity will assert that a fossilized judge is any better than twelve fossilized farmers, clerks, or small merchants gathered together on a jury. If a man is guilty, the fact that twelve men say he is innocent cannot make him innocent, and any law that permits such a travesty of justice should be immediately repealed. It is true that bribing twelve Jurymen may be a little more difficult than buying up a single judge, but there is nothing the predatory interests cannot do if they set their hearts upon it. The recall of judicial decisions, while certain to postpone the outbreak of a French revolution in this country, cannot permanently avert it. To do that we must have also the recall of jury verdicts and other legal formulae that stand in the way of the public getting just what it wants precisely when it wants it.

Vegetable Movement Last Week

The movements of vegetables from Sanford during the week have been fairly active with the price firm and showing a slight advance over the previous week. There will be 100 cars more of celery to move and a small quantity of lettuce. Irish potatoes will begin to move this week in carloads and are now being contracted for at from $4 to $5 per barrel net in Sanford. This movement is reported to be two weeks in advance of Hastings. The movements of celery for the week were as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Days, Carloads. Monday 13, Tuesday 25, Wednesday 26, Thursday 17, Friday 23, Saturday 17, Total 121

The price averaged close to $2 per crate. One carload of lettuce moved and readily brought $450 per hamper. Beets brought $2 per crate, the shipments amounting to 304 crates. Cabbages were steady at $4 per crate, 317 crates being moved at this price. The income to the growers for the week amounted to $94,849.

The acreage to potatoes is quite large as is also the tomato acreage. Cucumbers and beans are doing well and squash will be ready to move in a short time. Peppers are now being set in the field. Strawberries are ripening fast but the local market takes the entire output. Some fields of onions look good and one planter will put in something like twenty-five acres at 55 cents per peck, sweet potatoes are selling at 75 cents per peck.—Times-Union

The Baby Show

The management of the Imperial theatre has just closed arrangements with the Dixie Amusement Co., to have the Baby Show here in Sanford.

This entertainment has been attracting wide attention throughout this part of the state, and is a decided novelty.

Expert photographers will canvas the entire city and photograph all the babies, and school children free of charge. The pictures will show on the big curtain at the theatre, ten feet in size. Not a child will be missed.

Beside the regular picture, the kodak man will catch the pictures of many of the grown up people, at times when they least expect it, and if the person in the audience when his snap shot picture is shown he will be given a nice present.

Many special attractions will be added every night, and the management promises the best entertainment ever given for the money in Sanford.

In addition to the baby and home folks pictures, the company brings its special soloist, who sings illustrated songs each night. They also show the finest motion pictures, direct service.

The Dixie Amusement Co. comes here well recommended as a high-class entertainer, and we wish them success here.

Every member of the chorus which is practicing for the concert, to be given on the 22nd are urged to be present at the practice, at Comfort Cottage Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock, sharp.

about, as I frequently do. "The telephone about them as soon as we get to Wolhurst." Then a terrible shock struck me. "Oh, I say, you didn't have your name on them, did you?"

"On what?" How kindly, even if quickly, she was regarding me! The big white hat shifted an inch or two nearer. I realized with joy that she was beginning to forget about being put out with me.

"Why—" I looked about cautiously and dropped my voice, though it was not likely any one could hear above the quiver of the train. "Why, in your black pajamas you left in my room."

A kind of little gasp was all I heard, and then she was on her feet and looking—not at me, but above my head—looking away off down the length of the car. Somehow—why, I couldn't understand—I had a weird, horrible feeling of abasement, as though I had killed a child, or had done some other dashed unreasonable thing like that. Her face had flushed but now was deadly white. And then, by Jove, I saw she was looking for another chair.

I jumped up at once and moved into the aisle.

"I'm so sorry," I said miserably, "so sorry, dear, I hurt you. I didn't mean ever to speak of the pajamas. I knew you wanted to forget about the other night, and I knew you wanted me to forget, too—"

"Oh, please—" She shrank back, her beautiful eyes like those of a frightened deer. But it was the last car, and I blocked the aisle. I didn't realize at the time that I was doing it. It came to me afterward, and was one of the things I kicked myself about for hours, more or less. Just at the moment I was so dashed wild about setting myself right with her. The only other thing I had presence of mind to remember was the nearness about us of a lot of beady-eyed cats, and so I drew nearer, and lowered my voice so none could hear. For I had another feeling of inspiration as to what really was the matter with her!

"Why, Frances—sweetheart," I pleaded softly—just loud enough for her to hear above the train, "I know you are put out with me because you found me gone the next morning, but honestly, dear, I acted for the best—indeed, I did." And to be on the safe side, I profited by another inspiration: "And, my darling girl, I'll never mention the pajamas and the other night—never any more—as long as we live, nor the cigarettes nor cigars nor whisky. Why, I don't care if you—"

"Tarrytown—all out for Tarrytown!" came in a high tenor voice from the end of the car, and something bowed down the aisle and brushed me aside. It was the frump.

"Come on, Frances!" she exclaimed sharply, "our station." Next instant they were streaking it for the door, with me a good second. I saw Frances look behind once with—oh, such a look! Dashed if it didn't shrivel me, you know—that sort. And, by Jove, I knew Pugsley was right, and that I had failed to put the ball over!

I was not six feet behind as they scrambled through the station to the other side where a large car stood panting. I saw Frances clutch the frump's arm and whisper something, and I heard the frump's reply, for her voice was loud and strongly masculine.

"Crazy?" she rasped. "Nonsense! Drunk, more likely. Most of them are half the time."

I didn't have time to see what she referred to, for just then we reached the side of the car. I didn't see a thing of Billings, but the chauffeur jumped to the ground and received the ladies and their bags. He seemed to me devilish familiar, too. By Jove, the way he held my darling's hand was the most infernally audacious, outrageous thing I ever beheld! I should have liked to punch his head. He helped them into the tonneau and was so busy with his silly jackass chatter that he closed the door before he turned and saw me. I was just standing there, leaning a little forward with my cane, you know, and fixing my monocle reproachfully on Frances—trying to get her eye.

And then, by Jove, I felt a blow on my shoulder that almost bowled me over, for I had my legs crossed, you know.

"Well, I'll be hang—it's Dicky!" And he was grinning at me like a what's-its-name cat. And with the grin I recognized him. It was the fresh young fool who had been so devilish familiar at the pier the morning Frances left.

Then he banged me again, dash it, and tried to get my hand, but I put it behind me. But he did get my arm, and he turned toward the car. His voice dropped.

"See here, I want you to meet—"

"Eh?" He broke off, staring at the frump, who was making signs with her eyes, frowning and beckoning him with her green flower-pot. He left me, murmuring something, and stepped to the running-board. I could see the flower-pot bobbing about energetically and twice Frances nodded, it seemed to me reluctantly.

"Crazy—drunk? Pahaw, you're baty!" he said to the frump rudely. Then I heard another murmur and his harsh voice rose again. "Yes—Lightnut, I tell you—Dicky Lightnut Yes—Jack Billings' great friend. You just wait till he's back from the city, and if he don't get upon his hind—Eh, what? His name is Smith? Rats!"

All this time I was just standing there, trying to catch Frances' eye. I felt sure if I could catch her eye she would see how devilish sorry I was. I moved back a few feet, for, dash it, without a sign from her, I had no idea now, of course, of considering myself as one of the party. Not finding Billings with the car, and the information I caught that he was still in the city, just left me high and dry, you know.

"All right, Miss Smarty," the yellow-topped chauffeur rasped, addressing the frump. "I'll just show you!" He turned about and jerked his head.

"Oh, Dicky! Here, just a minute, old chap—will you?"

Of course I took no notice of him whatever. In fact I looked in the other direction.

"Lightnut!" he called. I just stared up at the castle on the hill. I felt devilish annoyed, though. I recalled a conversation the other day at the club in which Van Dyne remarked that the intimacy affected now by chauffeurs was growing insufferable. Declared his man had asked him for a light that morning.

The fellow stared a little; then he came toward me, smirking in a jocular, impudent way.

"Say, stop your kidding, old man, he muttered. 'Girls have no sense of humor, you know. Come along. I've just been telling them you are my best friend!'"

I stole another look at the car, but Frances avoided me, so I came to a decision. I turned shortly on the driver.

"See here now, my good fellow," I said sharply, "you stop subjecting those ladies to annoyance. Drive on, or I'll report you to my friends."

He stared—seemed to be trying to stare me out of countenance, in fact. Then the grin slowly faded.

"Why, Dicky!" he exclaimed in an aggrieved tone, "don't you remember me—don't you know me?"

"I certainly do not," I answered with decision. I felt my face getting

Rev. J. M. Bass
Hamlin, Tex., Aug. 18, 1910

To Whom It May Concern:

Rev. J. M. Bass and Mr. Stapleton held a great meeting at Raton and are now in the midst of a wonderful meeting at this place. Bro Bass preaches a pure, close gospel, but it is free from sensationalism, so common among too many of our evangelists. He presents the Word of God and depends upon the Holy Spirit to bring conviction to the hearts of the people.

Bro Stapleton sings the gospel with great power. The Lord is using these dear brethren to lead multitudes into the Kingdom of God.

I most heartily endorse the methods used in these meetings, and recommend these men of God to the brethren wherever their labors are needed.

Yours fraternally,

ENDORSEMENT OF

HON. R. HUDSON BURR

BY MONTCALM BROWARD

Jacksonville, Florida, April 8, 1912

HON. R. HUDSON BURR
Tallahassee, Florida

DEAR SIR:—

I am writing this to assure you of my support of your candidacy for the office of Congressman from this District. In doing so I am actuated by these motives.

First—I know you to be a man possessed of the characteristics and the necessary ability to fill the office to the best interests of the people you would represent. You have been courageous and able in the past, and I believe you will display the same qualities in any position to which you may be elected.

Second—I cannot forget how you fought shoulder to shoulder with my brother, Governor Broward, for the people; not only when he was a candidate for office, but in the fight he made, against such great odds, when he was endeavoring to bring to perfection his plans for the drainage of the Everglades. It required moral courage of a high order to stand up as you did in these contests, and I believe you are entitled to the support of Democrats throughout the District.

In conclusion I want to say that I hope the people will recall these facts and will nominate you in first primary. I again assure you that I shall not only vote for you but shall try to get my friends to vote for you also. You have my permission to use this letter.

Wishing you success, I am,

Yours sincerely,
(Signed) MONTCALM BROWARD

A CONFESSION OF GUILT

The public has learned to look with suspicion upon any man who is eternally protesting his innocence.

Congressman Clark has done more DAMAGE to the material welfare of Florida and her people than can be repaired by ANY DOZEN of our most CAPABLE MEN in a term of years.

He has created SUSPICION and doubt in the MINDS of people of other states as to our INTEGRITY and HONOR.

HE has made unsubstantiated charges on the floor of Congress, as a representative of Florida, which reflect upon the state administration and the citizens of this state. The general public has no personal knowledge of conditions in Florida. It is bound to assume that a representative of Florida, holding a seat in the National House of Representatives, is to be believed.

And now Mr. Clark comes back to the PEOPLE of Florida asking that they again elect him as their representative, so that the false IMPRESSIONS and SLANDERS which he has given rise to may go unchallenged. In the National House of Representatives, Mr. Clark is LOUD-MOUTHED and apparently courageous in ATTACKING and INSULTING the memory of FLORIDA'S DEAD and living REPRESENTATIVES. He refers to Governor Gilchrist as a "PIN HEAD" and he insults the memory of the late revered GOVERNOR BROWARD. Now he comes back to Florida, meek and lowly, begging the people of the Second Congressional district to believe that he loves Florida and is a friend of the people.

Mr. Clark must be crazy to assume that the people of this district are so dense that they cannot understand infamy and treason when they see it. Or does he believe that the FLORIDA EAST COAST RAILWAY is strong enough to ELECT HIM without regard to the WISH of the PEOPLE of this district?

Mr. Clark's settlement day has arrived. He owes a debt to the people of this district and he has BETRAYED their trust. They have decided, if the signs of the times are read aright, that they will extend to him no FURTHER CREDIT.

Representative Clark has painted in Washington the BLACK-EST picture his IMAGINATION could portray of the Florida Everglades reclamation project. In his effort to blacken and denigrate the reclamation plan, he has not hesitated to insinuate that STATE OFFICIALS who have lent their energy and effort to the RECLAMATION PROJECT have been actuated by motives not ENTIRELY HONORABLE. He has, by INFERNAL, at least, tried to blacken the good names of our two National Senators, Messrs Fletcher and Bryan. Whatever Mr. Clark might say against these two illustrious representatives of this state would not effect their HIGH STANDING at home. But we who believe in them have a duty to perform. If Frank Clark were to be sent back to Congress it would be a practical admission on our part that all of his outrageous slanders were true.

Mr. Clark has even now stopped the steadily increasing tide of immigration to Florida. He has apparently accomplished one of the things most desired by RAILROAD INTERESTS owning lands in other SECTIONS and who had already been profiting resulting from the wide publicity given the Everglades Reclamation Project.

Was Mr. Clark serving the interests of Florida in his scandalous report which has been printed in the newspapers of EVERY STATE in the UNION?

Mr. Clark says he was trying to PROTECT the people of the United States from the land sharks of Florida. If he was really trying to PROTECT the people from land sharks why did he not name the "SHARKS" instead of leaving the impression that every person offering a foot of land for SALE was to be included in this ANALYSIS? If he was honest in his statement why did he not set the machinery of the Post Office Department at work and have dishonest land sellers INDICTED for FRAUD?

I submit that only cowardly blackguards and scoundrels attack from AMBUSH. The people of Florida have stood by Mr. Clark's campaign of BLUSTER and BUNCOMBE in the past, but they are now fully aroused and they are asking Mr. Clark to play his cards where they can see them. He has FOOLED the people with PROMISES before. Now they want to know what he has done. They do not care what he has done for Mr. Flagler. They did not send him to Congress to REPRESENT the Florida East Coast Railroad. They want to know what he has done for the people of the state of Florida.

The answer is written in big letters—NOTHING!

The truth about Florida is GOOD ENOUGH
The truth about Mr. Clark is BAD ENOUGH

ARE MICROBES IN YOUR SCALP?

It Has Been Proved That Microbes Cause Baldness.

Professor Unna of Hamburg, Germany, and Dr. Sabouraud, the leading French dermatologist, discovered that a microbe causes baldness. Their theory has time and again been amply verified through research experiments carried on under the observation of eminent scientists. This microbe lodges in the Sebium, which is the natural hair oil, and when permitted to flourish it destroys the hair follicles and in time the pores entirely close and the scalp gradually loses its shiny appearance. When this happens there is no hope of the growth of hair being revived.

We have a remedy which will, we honestly believe, remove dandruff, we terminate the microbe, promote good circulation in the scalp and around the hair roots, lighten and revitalize the hair roots, and overcome baldness, as long as there is any life left in the hair roots.

We back up this statement with our own personal guarantee that this remedy called Rexall "R3" Hair Tonic will be supplied free of all cost to the user if it fails to do as we state.

It will frequently help to restore gray and faded hair to its original color, providing loss of color has been caused by disease, yet it is no sensa dye. Rexall "R3" Hair Tonic accomplishes these results by aiding in making every hair root, follicle and pigment gland strong and active and by stimulating a natural flow of coloring pigment throughout the hair cells.

We exact no obligations or promises—we simply ask you to give Rexall "R3" Hair Tonic a thorough trial and if not satisfied tell us and we will refund the money you paid us for it. Two sizes, prices 50 cents and $1.00. Remember, you can obtain it only at our store—The Rexall Store—L. R. PHILPS & CO.

Couldn't Walk!

"I used to be troubled with a weakness peculiar to women," writes Mrs. Anna Jones, of Kenny, Ill. "For nearly a year, I could not walk, without holding my sides. I tried several different doctors, but I grew worse. Finally, our druggist advised Cardul for my complaint. I was so thin, my weight was 115. Now, I weigh 163, and I am never sick. I ride horseback as good as ever. I am in fine health at 52 years."

TAKE CARDUI The Woman's Tonic

We have thousands of such letters, and more are arriving daily. Such earnest testimony from those who have tried it, surely proves the great value of this vegetable, tonic medicine, for women.

Cardul relieves women's sufferings, and builds weak women up to health and strength. If you are a woman, give it a trial. It should help you, for it has helped a million others. It is made from pure, harmless, herb ingredients, which act promptly and surely on the womanly organs. It is a good tonic. Try it! Your druggist sells it.

CHARACTER SHOWS IN BACKS

Straight and Upright Carriage Means You Are Determined, Energetic and Reliable.

If your back is straight and upright you are correspondingly straight in your conduct. You will hold your head up, for you are not afraid to look the world in the face.

Even when you're sitting you keep your back straight. There is an air of real strength about you—both physical and mental. In short, you have plenty of backbone. You are determined, energetic and to be relied upon.

If your back is stooping and rounded you are a creature as weak as you look, you are prone to lolling about and too lazy or too feeble to take a front rank in the battle of life. The tramp is an excellent example.

If you are a criminal, your back is stooped or round, but the scholarly stoop of the bookworm must not be confounded with the foregoing. There is a difference which is difficult to describe, but it is readily recognized by the close observer.

If you are mean and covetous your back is narrow and rounded and your shoulders are high. You are always sly. You generally have the appearance of drawing yourself up into as small a compass as possible. You are always yourself, so to speak, and people should give you the cold shoulder.

Are you too straight backed? That is, do you hold your head so high that there is a preposterous fall in the small of your back? Then you are so puffed up with self-esteem that you carry your chest out so far it's absurd.

Costly Picture in Lumber Room. A picture estimated to be worth $25,000, which for so many years was hidden away in a lumber room at St. Mary's hall, Coventry, has just been restored and put in a place of honor in St. Mary's hall.

Owing to damp and an accumulation of dust and dirt, the picture had become so defaced that the corporation of Coventry had decided to sell it if they could get $375 for it. But Messrs. Todd & Co., a London firm of picture restorers were at work upon the picture in St. Mary's hall, and one of their experts recognized it as a masterpiece.

It was found to be one of the finest examples extant of the work of Jacob Jordaens, a pupil and fellow worker of Rubens. Jordaens was born in Antwerp, and the picture was probably painted about 1640. It represents Haebus springing from his car upon seeing Ariadne. The canvas is about thirty feet by ten feet high. Presented to Coventry by Edward Ellice, M.P., in 1855, little value was attached to it, and it was subsequently consigned to the lumber room.

A Most Generous Nature. They had been married but a short time, and their happiness was idyllic. Her slightest wish was law, his merest whim was gratified. "And all this on $7.00 a week!" "Today," his wee wife murmured, as they sat together after their evening meal, "I saw the loveliest lace curtains." And she sighed. "But I knew you wished to economize, so I didn't get them."

And again she sighed. "Dearest," he murmured fondly, "everything you want shall be yours! Anything which adds to your happiness, and brings gladness to your dear eyes; anything that lightens your domestic cares, my darling, and glides the lowering clouds; anything which borders the thorny path of duty with sweet, fragrant flowers, and appeals to your noble, aesthetic nature, you shall have, my loved one; you must have it, if"—and his voice broke a little with the stress of emotion—"if it doesn't cost more than eighteen pence!"—London Tit-Bits.

Paper Plates for Animal Pets. Using paper plates for animal pets will be found to be a good plan. Some people do not take the care to wash plates kept for dogs and cats, although they should be kept scrupulously clean and be used for no other purpose. Paper plates, which may be bought by the hundred for but little money, may be burned after they have been used. It is also a good idea to have a piece of zinc put on the back porch, where the pets are likely to be fed, and place the dishes on this for them. The zinc is easily cleaned.

Her Natural Occupation. Now and then the childish comment goes right to the heart of a difficult problem or situation. A little boy who longed to stand on the seat of a car and look out of the window was sternly reproved by his mother. "What a 'frail-cat mammal' exclaimed another youngster, seated near. "Yes, I suppose she is nervous," was the adult reply, "but then, you see, she has to take care of her little boy and it keeps her busy." "Well, isn't that what she's for?" was the innocent, pertinent question.

POTATOES MOVING NOW

Sanford Growers In The Game Early This Season

3 CARLOADS LAST SATURDAY

Bringing Five Dollars Per Barrel at Sanford, and Culls Three Dollars

You can grow anything at Sanford! This statement has been made many times by the people of this section who have been wise enough to diversify their crops. The old idea of making celery king has been banished, and the grower who gets away from the celery idea long enough to plant "sure things," will make money every season.

The greatest talking point in favor of Sanford is the fact that the grower here can usually get into the stretch ahead of competing places, which insures a good price.

Irish Potatoes this season ought to be a money crop on account of the scarcity of tubers throughout the United States, and the Sanford growers who are shipping now are receiving five dollars per barrel for the No. 1 spuds, and even the culls, put up in crates, are selling at one dollar or three per barrel.

Last Saturday the first potatoes to move in car lots left Cameron City, and probably have the distinction of being the first to leave the state.

Michaels & Co., of New York; Bender Steinberg Co., of Cincinnati, and the M. O. Coggins Co. were purchasers.

Dr. Minnick Ward & Dutton and Howard & Peckard helped to fill three cars.

The potatoes averaged fifty barrels to the acre, and on the same ground are corn and tomatoes growing from which a good crop can be expected,—and, just what these growers will realize from an acre of land is left to the pessimists—who claim that you "can't grow anything in Florida at a profit."

Clara Barton Dead

Miss Clara Barton, founder of the American Red Cross Society, died at her home in Glen Echo, Md. Saturday morning.

The cause of her death was chronic pneumonia, with which she was stricken about a year ago. Her brother, Stephen Barton, of Boston, was with her when she died.

She had been confined to her home "Red Cross," at Glen Echo, since last fall when she returned from a visit to New England. It was thought her trip was beneficial, but soon afterward she was taken severely ill.

Miss Barton was born at Oxford, Mass. in 1821.

She celebrated her ninetieth birthday anniversary December 25, when she received many messages of congratulation from all parts of the world.

Clara Barton might properly be called the Florence Nightingale of America. Like her British prototype, her works of mercy were not confined to her native land, but were carried even into the eastern hemisphere. She will be written down in history as the founder of the Red Cross in America, but her powerful personality also made an indelible impression upon the International organization itself through her active participation in the periodical conferences at Geneva, Rome, Vienna and St. Petersburg.

Lovely Wedding

A social event of much interest to a host of friends both in Sanford and Jacksonville, occurred at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Carrie Blaine Yelzer, Monday morning, April 15th; when Miss Vivian Blaine Yelzer was united in marriage to Mr. Robert Eugene Larramore, of Jacksonville.

The happy girlhood of the lovely young bride was spent in Jacksonville and Sanford. Her charming personality endeared her to everyone with whom she came in touch. Mr. Larramore is of an excellent Georgia family, and is a prosperous young business man in Jacksonville.

The details of this April bridal occasion, were characterized by exquisite taste and simplicity. The guests were chiefly the young girl friends of Miss Yelzer.

The rooms were decorated in pink and white—a color motif that was beautifully carried out in every way. Mr. Clarence Mahoney accompanied Mr. Witherington on the violin, in a number of selections, before the Bridal Chorus gave the signal for the event of the day. Miss Sadie Williams, in white and pink, came first, scattering rose petals, and was followed

TITANIC SINKS; 1234 LIVES LOST

New Atlantic Liner Titanic Sinks Before Rescuers Can Save All On Board

One of the Worst Catastrophies in History Takes Place at Sea and 1234 Souls Go to Watery Graves

One of the worst marine disasters of modern history if not the worst that ever happened in the world's history is that of the sinking of the fine new White Star liner Titanic off the banks of New Foundland Sunday when she crashed into a gigantic iceberg and crushed the steel prow like an egg shell.

The "C. Q. D." signal sent out from the doomed ship was caught by the Virginian of the Allen line, 175 miles away and afterward by the Cunarder Carpathian, both vessels immediately steaming for the ill-fated Titanic and the Carpathian taking off the women and children. Earlier reports claimed that all would be saved but the very latest reports say that the ship sank before the rescuers could save the crew. The ship was making her maiden trip from England to America and was supposed to be one of the finest vessels afloat.

The Herald in order to give the readers the real news telegraphed New York and received the following messages at noon:

New York, N. Y., April 16, 2 p. m. "A Wireless message sent by Captain Rostron of the Carpathia to the Cunard Line here from Latitude 41.45 north and longitude 50.20 west reads as follows:

"Am proceeding New York unless otherwise ordered with about eight hundred. After having consulted Mr. Ismay and considering the circumstances with so much ice about, considered New York best. Large ice bergs and twenty miles field ice with bergs amongst."

"Another message from Captain Rostron to the Cunard Line said: "Titanic struck iceberg, sank Monday 3 a. m. 41.16 north latitude, 50.14 west longitude. One thousand two hundred thirty-four souls are lost when big ocean liner sinks."

New York, April 16, 9 a. m. "A significant line in the Cape Race Dispatch was the announcement that the number saved by the Carpathia was large, nearly all being women and children. The same facts would likewise spell the doom of practically the entire crew of eight hundred. Notable passengers on the Titanic whose fate is in doubt were Mr. and Mrs. John Jacob Astor, Major Archibald Buft, Aide to President Taft; Charles M. Hays, President of the Grand Trunk R.R.; His wife and daughter; Benjamin Guggenheim, J. G. Widener, of Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. Isidor Straus; J. B. Thayer, Vice-President of the Pennsylvania R.R.; Washington Roebling, builder of the Brooklyn Bridge.

The Titanic cost ten million dollars and was a total wreck. Fourteen hundred passengers were on board.

The Olympic's Dispatch Follows.

New York, April 16, 12:30 p. m. "Carpathia reached the Titanic position at day-break found boats and wreckage only. Titanic sank about 2:20 a. m. in 41.16 north 50.14 west. All her boats accounted for containing about 675 souls saved, crew and passengers included. Nearly all saved were women and children. Leyland liner Californian remained and searching exact position of disaster. Loss likely total 1,800 souls."

The Captain goes down with his ship. Greatest vessel afloat. Was her maiden trip.

Little Folks Recital

The recital given by the little folks at the studio of Mrs. Fannie S. Munson, Saturday afternoon, who are the youngest members of Mrs. Munson's class was a perfect success and a delightful entertainment.

The effort made by each little pupil, to do her best, and reflect credit upon her kind, patient teacher, resulted in the splendid rendering of each selection. The fine audience that greeted the little folks, were delighted with their proficiency, and entertained by their performance of the program, that was published in Tuesday's paper. The little folks were assisted by Miss Mabel Bowler, who sang two solos, accompanied by Miss Florence Frank. Miss Clara Morrow, gave several very fine readings. In every respect, the recital by the little folks, was as meritorious and enjoyable as any that have been given by Mrs. Munson's pupils.

Ladies' Meeting

The fine audience of ladies, who attended the mass meeting for ladies, in the Methodist church, Sunday afternoon, had the pleasure of hearing a very fine address by Mr. Frank F. Fitch, who is an interesting, entertaining and fluent speaker.

While so much interest and attention is being centered in the men, whom it is primarily desired to benefit, by this great movement that is being carried on, Mr. Fitch reminded the ladies that they must not overlook the fact that they, too, have a very important part to play in this movement, to insure its success. He explained the origin of the Men and Religion Forward Movement, whose gigantic proportions owe their conception to the mind of a young man, whose noble efforts, in trying to work out his idea, for the uplift of his brother man, nearly cost him his life. Mr. Fitch paid a tribute to the influence of women in the home, in society, and her influence and power in the church—dwelling strongly on the power of prayer, to help in the accomplishment of this great purpose, that has been launched, and in all other efforts and desires of the heart. The address was very helpful.

Sanford Wins and Loses

The local ball team played two games of ball in the last few days, returning the winner in the Kissimmee game, and loser to Winter Park.

On Thursday next Kissimmee will send up the best they have to try and even up matters. We have beaten them 2 out of 3 games to date. Yes, next Thursday is the day, Holden Park the place, and 3:30 the time. COME OUT!

W. H. Milton Here

Hon. W. H. Milton, candidate for Governor was in the city Saturday and expected to make an address but on account of rain was unable to do so. He met many of the people of this section and made a most favorable impression.

CULLED FROM THE STATE PRESS

An Epitome of the Week's Most Important Happenings in the State's Domain.

Titusville was hit on Thursday by a small tornado. The damage done is estimated at between $900 and $1,000. No one was hurt, although two had narrow escapes.

The ice and cold storage plant which is in course of construction in Hawthorn is being rapidly rushed to completion.

A number of new buildings are in the course of construction at Bushnell. This little town is rapidly coming to the front since it became the county seat.

Pinellas county will vote on the proposition of issuing $370,000 in bonds—$300,000 for hard roads and $70,000 for a new court house.

The 25th annual session of the Florida State Horticultural Society will be held in Miami, May 14. The meeting promises to be interesting and offers fruit growers an opportunity to see the East Coast as well as to visit Key West. The Florida East Coast railroad has made round trip at the rate of one fare plus 25c. Other railroads have not as yet made any concessions in the way of rates, although the members of this organization furnish thousands of cars of fruit every season to both the A. C. L. and the S. A. L. Few societies have accomplished the good work that the Florida society has.

Clover Club

The Clover Club, composed of the young ladies of the Congregational church, held their regular meeting at the home of Miss Walker Saturday afternoon where they were delightfully entertained. The rooms were attractively bright by the gorgeous beauty of the nasturtiums, with which they were decorated. White and yellow was the lovely color scheme.

At the March meeting of the club each member was given a dime, with which to begin her career as a financier. Each member told in rhyme at the meeting Saturday afternoon, the amount of money she had made, and how she had achieved the desired result. Fifteen dollars was put in the treasury of the club, by the members, made by the multiplication many times over of a certain number of dimes.

The "Napoleons of finance" will have to look to their laurels, now that the Clover Club have entered the field; for the cultivation and multiplication of dimes. The amount earned will be used to furnish the parish room of the parsonage. The members of the club have taken another dime with which to make the money this month to furnish the parsonage. With such efforts back of the determination to succeed, there can be no doubt, but what the parsonage will be painted.

The club were invited into the dining room where a large embankment of nasturtiums made a rich and effective centerpiece, for the lovely white of the table. Each place card supported a clothes pin doll, dressed in white, with dainty yellow ribbons. On the back of the cards, conundrums were written, each question, relating to some part of a lady's dress.

A delicious fruit salad, with dainty New England buns, were served. The meeting was very interesting, profitable and entertaining.

State Congregational Conference.

Sanford gets another proof of its advantages as a convention city this week. The Congregational churches of Florida are coming here today for their annual conference. This conference has incorporated the Wednesday program of the Men and Religion Forward Movement as part of its program, and has added other features of its own.

The first business session of the Conference will be at the Congregational church on Wednesday morning, opening at nine o'clock. All day Thursday is given over to the Conference with a business session in the morning and a general program in the afternoon and evening.

The work of women for missions is the subject of Thursday afternoon and unique features are being planned. On Thursday night there will be several speakers who are directly concerned with the missionary activities of the Congregationalists and these men will tell the stories of their work.

Rev. Lawrence Phelps, D.D., a professor at Atlanta Theological Seminary will preach at eleven o'clock tomorrow morning. The public are most cordially invited to all sessions of the Conference.
