

Holding Book At Angle Makes Reading Easier

By HENRY H. HENNING, M. D.

WANT to be able to read more easily and at the same time guard against eyestrain? Then read this:

Recent tests have proved that the angle at which you hold the reading matter has considerable effect upon both the visibility of the words and the speed at which you read. The size of type also is an important factor.

Specific Distance
Some 100 university sophomores took part in the tests. A headset kept their eyes a specific distance from the reading copy.

It was proved conclusively that these students could read more quickly when the copy was held as a 45 degree angle. Laying the reading matter flat on a table greatly reduced the speed and ease with which they read.

The students also found that it was much easier to read 10-point type than the smaller 8-point type.

Many newspapers, incidentally, are now using type larger than 8 point. They are using more white space around the type which also makes for easier reading.

If you have normal sight, I think you'll find it best to hold this newspaper or whatever else you may read about 17 inches from your eyes.

If you can't read well at this distance, I suggest you have an eye examination.

A good rule to follow when reading is to hold the copy on a 45-degree angle from the vertical and just under a foot and a half from your eyes.

If you wear bifocals, here's another tip: Don't tilt your head forward when reading. Instead, lower your eyes. And when reading a newspaper, fold it in half and hold it low.

QUESTION AND ANSWER
A. G.: I had a baby two years ago and breast-fed her for eight months. However, my breasts will not dry up. What would you suggest that I do?

Answer: It would be well for you to have a complete physical examination to determine whether there is some hormone difficulty causing the breasts to discharge.

In such cases, the cause often is not found and the discharge usually stops by itself if given time.

Wyatt Earp TV's Highest Riding Western Star

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Highest riding Western star of TV these days is Wyatt Earp, otherwise known as Hugh O'Brien.

The ratings show that the Earp epic has been shooting down its opposition "The Brothers," "Noah's Ark" on Tuesday nights and racking up the largest audience for that evening. It is reckoned to be the highest rated of the cowpoke sagas and ranks with Disneyland and Lawrence Welk as one of ABC's three top shows.

Naturally this is highly gratifying to O'Brien, a hep, handsome ex-Marine who was born in Rochester, N. Y., and grew up out West in Chicago. When I caught up with him, he had finished his 37 Earp films for the season and was costarring with Marilyn Erskine in a Ford Theatre film.

Why has Earp been so successful?

"Partly because it's a show the whole family can watch," said O'Brien, who wears makeup scars for his role as "prizefighter." "We don't insult the intelligence of adults. In fact, a breakdown of our audience shows that it is divided almost equally among men, women and children. Strangely enough, the women lead slightly. "Also, we have been favored by our time. Last year we started out opposite Phil Silvers and he beat us by a few points. Then Silvers moved up a half-hour and that favored us. A lot of people preferred to move to another half-hour show rather than come in on the middle of an hour show, such as NBC had."

His only regret: that the lateness of the show 8:30 here, 7:30 in the East eliminates many potential viewers under 8 years.

SHORT DIVISION
FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP)—When Mr. and Mrs. William T. Ohlhauser couldn't get together on a division of their community property, the divorce court judge ordered it all brought before him. Their worldly goods were spread before him — one ironing board, four tea glasses, a lamp and a grinder.

Ohlhauser got the ironing board and meat grinder and his wife got the tea glasses and lamp.

CARELESS MONEY
SUNBURY, Pa. (AP)—Neil Weisbeck, of Buffalo, N. Y., was fined $21 and costs in Union County court here for "literally throwing money around."

Patron Albert Hess said he arrested the Bucknell University student because he said the youth threw several pennies at a lighted sign and broke the glass tubes.

The exciting Ford Fairlane 500 Club Victoria (above)—over 17 feet long—is one of two new, bigger Ford sizes this year.

If you think it looks new... wait till you drive it!

...For there's where Ford's newness really pays off
...In melting mountains...In smoothing the bumps
...In straightening the curves

You can see that Ford's longer, lower Sculptured Look makes other cars look downright old-fashioned. But the part you can't see—the new "Inner Ford"—is what shows its stuff when it drives a Ford. It's revolutionary on the wheels up! And it feels it.

Ford's wider frame lets you sit sweet and low. It lets Ford hug the roads because of its lower center of gravity. And Ford's new front suspension, rear springs and new easy handling are part of the scheme to make you think every road is cloud-smooth.

The magic touch of the new Ford power plants makes mountains disappear. What looks like uphill feels like downhill. You get this surging power in a wide choice of new Silver Anniversary V-8 engines. Or you can choose Ford's new, more economical Mileage Maker Six, the most powerful Six ever offered in the low-price field.

There's magic in Ford's price tag, too! You won't believe this big new Ford is still priced Ford-low. But it is. Come in and test the magic of the new kind of Ford. It's a real "Wizard of Ah-h-h-h!"

First Mayfair Inn PGA Hole-In-One Made

Board Probing Cause Of Hot Water Heater Failures In Local Area

Clinic, Exhibition Underway Today At Country Club

By HUGH ANSELY
SPORTS EDITOR

The first Clinic and Exhibition at the Mayfair Inn Seminole County Club got underway today prior to the Second Annual $15,000 PGA Mayfair Inn Open.

Ed "Pinky" Oliver amused the crowd with his antics. The winter pro for the Mayfair Inn, along with traveling pro Jay Herbert, conducted the PGA sponsored clinic, with Chick Harbert as the emcee.

Ed Fergal, who has one of the most severe handicaps of any tournament professional in his area, demonstrated his most effective club, the 3 iron. A childhood accident left Ed with an almost useless left arm and hand. His ability to adapt an unusual golf swing to the injury and to so perfect the swing as to become one of the nation's leading money winners will long live in the history of great sport stars.

E. J. "Cute" Harrison showed the attendance how an "old timer" played golf. He well demonstrated his fesse in both droll and delightful wit and his shotmaking artistry. Over the link grind for more than a quarter of a century, Harrison ignores his 47 years and plays like a 25 year old. He stands 6-2 1/2 and is a solid 205 pounder that has been a professional since 1930. This year he came into the limelight of the golfing world in August when he won the Am. O. Bhanter All-American title.

Doog Ford, Al Bessell, Lionel Hebert, Tony and Julius Beto were scheduled to be on display later in the afternoon.

The clinic got underway at 8 p.m.

Circle Changes Date Of Christmas Party To Dec. 18

By MARIAN JONES

OVIEDO — Due to conflicting dates on Dec. 13 which would affect some of the members of the Mary Lawton Circle members, the date of their Christmas party, followed by a meeting, will be changed to Tuesday, Dec. 18, at 7:30 p. m. at the home of Mrs. A. B. Jones Jr. with Mrs. Lawson A. Hardy as co-hostess.

All circle members are urged to come and bring a gift not to exceed $1.

Field Thanks Folks For Mailing Early

Postmaster Joel S. Field expressed his thanks today for everyone's cooperation so far on his annual "Mail Early for Christmas" Campaign. He said, "I know the time has passed to talk about mailing early." To the inevitable last minute mailers he suggests they use Air Mail for every Christmas card or gift going out-of-town, and don't fail to get them into the mail right now! Even a few hours delay at this critical time may mean disappointment for friends or loved ones on Christmas Day.

The flood of outgoing Christmas cards and gifts is matched by a like torrent of incoming mail that is becoming greater every day.

D. Sanders Turns Pro Yesterday

More than 120 golfers started teeing off yesterday morning shortly before 8 o'clock in the qualifying rounds which precede the Second Annual Mayfair Inn's $15,000 PGA Open which will get underway tomorrow.

Of the more than 120 golfers, only 80 were chosen to bring the field up to the maximum of 180 golfers for the tournament.

Those qualifying yesterday did so with scores of 73 and under. However, for a short while tension was running high when there was a possibility that scores up to 78 would allow players to qualify.

Leading interest was in the five top low-score golfers, three who came in with 66 and two who carded 67s.

Biggest play of the day went to Charles "Chuck" Malachuk of Addison Ill. who slammed in a "hole-in one" on the 10th, a 125 yard hole. The unusual feat brought Malachuk two eagles on a score of 68. The honeymooning golfer is the first Mayfair Inn PGA tournament player to turn in a "hole in one" record over the course.

Next big interest around the Mayfair Inn Golf Course yesterday was in Doug Sanders, young Miami golfer who turned pro just in time to "play for money" in the local contest which gets underway in earnest tomorrow.

Sanders was met at the 18th when he came in from a practice round by his former University of Florida golf coach, Andrew J. Bracken who is now principal of Seminole High School. Across the green could be heard Sanders' greeting when he yelled "Mya Coach!" And then followed the tense conversation between golfer and coach.

Smiles covered the face of Lionel Hebert who came in from a practice round yesterday with a 65. It was with a 65 last year that he won the Mayfair Inn's Pro-Am tournament. "I'm feeling mighty good now—and I hope that I can keep on making 65s," Hebert commented as he continued his practice swings onto the putting green.

Biggest crowds at the Mayfair Inn Country Club were found around the scoreboards manned by PGA officials and those who checked each card carefully for additions and totals.

Four Sanford golfers were exempt from qualifying and will enter the tournament Thursday: Bill Fook, Melvin Fleischer, C. E. Phillips and Harry Toke who are the amateurs who will be playing along with Donald Blippinghoff of Coral Gables Carl Hubbell of New York, Freddie Hutchinson of St. Louis, Mo., and Tom Sheehan of New York.

The Council also voted to hold the annual town Christmas party Friday Dec. 21 at the Community House with $200 being allotted for this purpose. Mayor Lawrence Swafford volunteered to act as chairman.

Mrs. T. F. The action was delayed for further study in the matter.

A former Police Sgt. from the state of New Jersey appeared before the Council to make application for the job of Altamonte Police Chief.

In another action the Council made a motion to hold a re-registration for voters in town set an early date in 1957.

Post Office Offers New 'Combination Mail' Service

Sanford Postmaster Joel Field explained today to postal patrons the use of the new economical "Combination Mail" service for mailing a personal letter or message inside a parcel.

Explaining that many people are unaware that a violation of postal regulations is involved if first-class letters are enclosed within a parcel without the payment of additional postage, Field noted that Combination Mail service provides a method of mailing such letters within parcels.

In Combination Mail, the postal patron is permitted to combine one class of mail with another class.

Here are some of the most common examples of how Combination Mail may be used:

1. A first-class letter in a parcel post package.
2. A first-class letter inside a third-class parcel (one weighing up to ounces and containing printed matter or merchandise).
3. A first-class letter enclosed within a piece of second-class matter — such as a personal letter mailed inside a magazine.

When mail of one class is enclosed within another the patron merely has to indicate on the outside that an enclosure is made. For example, when a letter is enclosed within a parcel post package, he should mark on the outside wrapper of the package "First Class Mail Enclosed".

In such a case, he will pay the parcel post postage plus the cost for the enclosure. If the parcel (Continued On Page 3)

Directed Verdict Given

BUSINELL, Fla. — Seven white men were cleared today of charges of flogging Jesse Woods, 26-year-old Negro who had been forcibly taken from nearby Wildwood jail.

The men were cleared on a directed verdict by Circuit Judge T. G. Futch after State Atty. A. P. Buie himself asked that four of the men be freed.

The case blew wide open when Buie complained that witnesses changed their stories when they came into Sumter County courthouse to testify.

The defense then moved that directed verdicts of acquittal be granted for the other three defendants.

The state had just lost a battle to get in a statement from George Georgia Boy Altman. The statement was taken after Altman's arrest in connection with the flogging case.

dropped against Keith Sands of Jacksonville; Max Stumborg of Wildwood, Fla.; Leaman Lundy of Belview, Fla.; and Doyle Folk of Marion County.

The other three defendants were Robert Neamith of Belview, Ezekiel Alderman of Wildwood and Altman.

Woods, a farm laborer, was arrested Oct. 27 on charges of drunkenness and disorderly conduct. Arresting officers reported that the Negro said, "Hello there, Baby," to a white school teacher.

Woods testified at the trial that he was released on bond and asked to be placed back in jail because white men were following him.

He related that he was forced from the jail, taken east of Wildwood, kicked, beaten on the shoulder by both ends of belts and struck by fists.

Itch May Be Emotional!

DOY ON ICHT
 Many cases of itching are caused by some emotional disturbance. We've known for a long time that there is close connection between the mind and nervous system. A New Brunswick, N. J., physician has taken the problem a step further.

Dr. C. J. Doyoff made a study of several patients suffering from chronic itching. He found that the itching was connected with the nervous system and the external genitalia. He found a strong relationship between the itching and "emotional" conditions, such as anxiety, depression, or nervousness.

In none of the cases was there any underlying physical disease to which the itching could be attributed.

Most cases of such itching, or pruritus as it is called in medical terminology, are associated with some event.

First, we generally find a marked history which has directed the attention of the patient to the itching. This history usually has ceased to exist by the time the itching begins.

This itching is not relieved by any of the usual remedies. It is usually accompanied by some nervousness, depression, or nervousness. It may be the result of a change in the patient's life.

Tranquilizing drugs such as morphine, which Dr. Doyoff used in his studies, help greatly to control the patient's anxiety. So, maybe if you can't get your itching cured, you can get your nerves cured.

It is not likely that the itching will disappear if you are not cured of your nervousness. However, the fat-free diet and reduction of weight which help many the event involves a family lack in the future.

TALLAHASSEE—The Board of Education today offered for sale $250,000 worth of school construction bonds for 17 counties.

Apparently the only bidder will be the state itself through a couple of its retirement funds.

Two weeks ago a bid was received from Ira B. Haupt and Co. and Talley Haupt and Co., also contingent upon the state agreeing to repurchase at a premium price more than two million dollars of the bonds. The state refused.

BRIDE FOR WEEK IN 1936
WEST PALM BEACH—Mrs. Nicole V. Beets of Delray Beach was a bride for a week-end in 1936.

Yesterday she filed suit for divorce on grounds of desertion, contending Alva Beets disappeared without her giving him cause to do so a week after they were wed April 6, 1936, in New York City.

IMPROVEMENT METHODS

There are no forms and no red tape of any kind connected with the collection of postage. However, where mail of two different classes are sent together and the proper postage is not paid as provided by Combination Mail, the entire package becomes subject to a higher postage rate. For example, in the case of the 2-cent parcel post package containing the 3-cent first-class letter, the whole assembly—parcel letter—would become subject to first-class postage for its entire weight.

We are calling special attention to this matter now. Field offices are the ones to give the most attention and guidance of postal patrons in their Christmas mailings.

Christmas Carols Reflect Spirit, Real Meaning Of Joyous Season

Nothing puts you in the mood, and reflects the spirit of Christmas, as much as Christmas carols.

Whether you hear them for the first time this year sung by a choir, over the air or a family group—they bring to mind the real meaning of Christmas. A non-religious song, "I'm Dreaming of a White Christmas" by Irving Berlin brings back fond memories to almost everyone.

Ever since the first Christmas carols have been an integral part of this joyous holiday season. According to the Bible story of Christmas, the first carol was sung by a chorus of angels—the "Gloria In Excelsis"—Glory to God in the highest.

The early settlers in America brought many of the old European carols to this country. "Adeste Fideles," long a traditional hymn, has an unknown origin.

"Away in a Manger," Luther's hymn, came to us from Germany. "God Rest Ye, Merry Gentlemen" from England and the lovely "On Holy Night" from France. From Austria came "Silent Night, Holy Night."

Americans too, have contributed to our rich heritage of Christmas songs. In 1840, Edmund H. Sears, a Unitarian minister, composed "It Came Upon a Midnight Clear." "We Three Kings of Bethlehem Are" was composed by Dr. John Henry Hopkins, Jr., an Episcopalian rector.

Perhaps the best known and most beloved of all American carols, "O Little Town of Bethlehem" was written in 1868 by Phillips Brooks, a young Episcopalian minister. A trip to the Holy Land was his inspiration for the carol.

The gay holiday song, "Jingle Bells," has been popular for almost a century and was composed by another American churchman, John Pierpont.

For the children, there are several catchy Christmas songs such as: "Santa Claus is Coming to Town" and "Rudolph, the Red-Nosed Reindeer."

Our big selection of Christmas songs, hymns and carols express the friendly, joyful spirit of the season—and saved by all! Our big need is—more people to sing them.

Grievance Committee

In so many words, the medical profession of Seminole County has said: "We want every person who is in need of medical attention to get it at the time that it is needed."

Bear in mind, however, that this isn't a statement—but from the desire of the Seminole Medical Association, which only last night held its annual meeting for the election of officers and for the discussion of important matters concerning the profession—there is an earnestness in their plea for complaints to be funneled through them so that the medical attention needs of Seminole County citizens can be provided without incident.

A Grievance Committee, headed by Dr. Daniel H. Mathers, a standing committee of the organization, has been named in order that complaints from people who feel that they have not received the proper attention from representatives of the medical profession can be investigated and settled.

The medical profession is one of the noblest of all—and there is no person who faithfully follows the prescribed ethics and lives according to his oath—who will deliberately deny a citizen his rightful access to the learned wisdom of a doctor.

Support Christmas Seal Sale

If you have not yet purchased your Christmas Seal—do so at once.

Tuberculosis has proved a wily enemy. Through the years it has shifted its ground, creating a constantly changing problem. The fight has been long, and will be longer yet. Progress has been steady and, although total victory is not in sight, there have been many triumphs along the way.

In the end, the defeat of tuberculosis will be the result of contributions of many men and women. The American people who have supported the Christmas Seal Sale through the years will have their share in the victory honors.

A burglar recently broke into Liberman's home and stole clothing and jewelry. The burglar apparently didn't realize what a wonderful chance he had to create a sequel to the classic story of the theft of the bishop's candlesticks.

Inside Washington

WASHINGTON—When the Democrats take control of the new 83rd Congress in January, look for family quarrels to break out.

Adam Clayton Powell, Harlem congressman, will be the storm center of one. He openly urged Negroes to vote Republican during the election. Already, Democratic leaders have cut off his patronage allowance of two jobs and may decide to take away his committee posts. All this despite his seniority on the House labor committee—his third-ranking Democrat.

If such a move comes up, however, northern Democrats are likely to be just as insistent that the same punishment be meted out to Rep. John Bell Williams (D), Mississippi, who also repudiated the national ticket on behalf of States Rights Candidate T. Coleman Andrews.

In the Senate, some northern Democrats are grumbling over the "don't rock the boat" leadership exercised in the last session by Senator Lyndon Johnson of Texas, the majority floor leader. They are convinced that his refusal to take a firm stand on civil rights and labor legislation cost the party heavily in their sectors of the country.

If they press for action on civil rights, there is likely to be a battle royal in the judiciary committee whose chairman is Senator James O. Eastland, a strong pro-segregationist.

Foreign Policy—The United States, faced with the crisis in the Middle East, is resisting strong British-French pressure to change its course. The State Department, reflecting high-level administration policy, is sticking with its insistence that the Anglo-French-Israeli force pull out of Egypt—even at the risk of making Egypt's President Gamal Abdel Nasser a "strong man" among Arab states.

The United States, however, feels that winning friends among the big bloc of Afro-Asian peoples is more important than the high stakes of oil and other issues in the Middle East. Officials also argue that the long-range battle to bring the Asian and Africans into the free world camp is won, the Middle East situation will resolve itself.

Basically, the United States is standing on a policy of opposing colonialism in all of its forms. Thus, on the one hand, the Americans oppose Britain and France on their moves into Egypt, but also vigorously fight via every diplomatic means the Soviet Russian drive into Hungary and Moscow's threat against other satellites.

If a solution can be found in the Middle East, officials believe, then Russia will be the loser. Neutralist nations will become "neutral toward the west" rather than accepting the propaganda from Moscow.

Population and politics—Future-minded Democrats and Republicans are finding plenty to cheer about in current population trends.

Democrats, who scored some substantial gains west of the Mississippi river in the congressional elections, point out that the West is gaining population more rapidly than the East. This means they ought to have a good chance

Remove Personality Warts Now

NEW YORK—Do you want to be a changed man in 1957?

Well, now is the time to start removing your personality warts. Most people wait until New Year's Day to make their good resolutions.

On that day you are likely to be hypocritical, unfair to yourself. You don't see yourself in the right perspective. You are full of self-hate. You see a thousand things wrong with you, whereas even a jury of those who really know you best probably wouldn't credit you with more than 750 character faults.

So what happens? You resolve to improve your conduct in 1,000 ways all at once. This is manifestly impossible, unless you lie down and die, which is certainly carrying self-improvement right out the window.

Unable to correct all your supposed 1,000 faults, you soon give up the struggle, saying "what's the use?" That leaves you with the hopeless feeling you have added the 1,000th defect to the list—you're a guy who can't keep a pledge.

The reason you should make your New Year's resolutions right now is that you won't have to make "so many. You have a Christmas feeling toward the world, and are full of goodwill. You don't see so many things about yourself that need changing, because you love yourself even as you do your neighbor. Maybe even more.

The danger here, of course, is that you may be full of so much goodwill you find yourself absolutely flawless. You can't think of a single way to change yourself for the better.

In this case you need the help of others. Here's what to do: Take six sheets of paper and give one each to your closest mother, your boss, your favorite bartender and your wife. On second thought, maybe you'd better give your wife a loose-leaf notebook or a tape recorder.

Next, ask each to write down what they think are your greatest faults and how you can make a better man of yourself in 1957. This may result in your wife getting your cramp. But she won't mind. An opportunity like this doesn't come very often.

Then comes your big problem—weighing and interpreting the criticisms and suggestions. Here's how you get about it: To start with, examine the list made by your closest friend. Whatever he has written down, it is safe to assume, is what he is saying about you behind your back. If you don't like his list, your first resolve should be to get a new friend, one you can trust not to be so honest.

The chances are your enemy merely has written down "the best way to improve yourself in 1957 is to drop dead." Resist this temptation. To obey it will get you nowhere.

Instead, resolve to forgive your enemy. Go even further. Really bring him into your circle. Bind him to you. The best way to do this is to borrow money from him. Then he'll really have your interest at heart—and his principal.

Next, take up the lists made by those who know you at your best and worst—your wife, mother and bartender. Naturally their lists will be long, and it would be impossible to correct in one lifetime all the things they know are wrong with you.

The thing to do is to check the defects that appear on all three lists, and resolve to correct them immediately. Certainly anything about you that offends your mother, wife and bartender needs your urgent attention.

Last, take the boss' list. If he merely has written, "Why, Joe, you're a right as you are," make a quick resolution to hit him for raises on Jan. 2.

On the other hand, if he lists more than 10 of your bad habits, the odds are he suspects 10 more. You should resolve to look for a new job right away. There's enough trouble in life already without having to work for a boss you can't fool.

One final tip. If your wife writes "You're a perfect husband, darling, and I wouldn't want you to change in any way," you'd better resolve to hire a private detective and find out what she's up to while you're away at work.

TARZAN TREED

ALEXANDRIA, Va. (AP)—Auntie Bittles arrested a young jungle-type burglar.

He was a 14-year-old boy picked up for looting food and clothing stores of about $200 worth of staples and supplies. Police said the boy cashed the goods in tree huts and caves where he apparently intended to live the life of Tarzan.

WRONG MARR

DALLAS, (AP)—Dallas County Commissioners had to reconsider the salary of about $200 worth of three assistant district attorneys.

Through error, the assistants were officially raised to a salary of $31,300 a month. That's more than the Commissioners make. The clerk didn't make the proposed raises read "bi-monthly" as they should have.

NO APPLE FOR THE TEACHER PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—A company which wanted to welcome the annual convention of the Arizona Teachers Assn. left a barrel of apples in the school gymnasium where the meeting was to be held.

But there were no apples for the teachers when they arrived. The students got their first.

Good Books

Parents concerned about what their children read could do worse than heed this excellent general rule: If you don't want your children to read trashy comics and books, see that plenty of good books are available to them.

This is not an infallible method of steering children away from literary gutters, but it works better than any other method. It works especially well if parents introduce their children to the pleasure of good books at a very early age, even before they start school.

This necessarily involves reading aloud to children who have not yet learned to read. And that, as many a parent has discovered with surprised pleasure, is fun for both reader and listener. It is fun that provides youngsters with a key to that delightful place, the wonderful world of books.

TODAY'S BIBLE VERSE
 Speak to me nothing but truth in the name of Jehovah.—I Kings 22:16.

 He had just finished repairing a gun and was going outside to test it when the bank burglar alarm sounded.

 She suggested that much of the information be consolidated on separate 80-loaf tapes. The Army said her idea would save 10,000 a year in tape.

Good Sick-Room Visitor Observes Eight Rules

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M.D.

FEW things can be more irritating to a patient than a bad visitor. A bad visitor is one who is ill than speak in a natural tone. Two visitors might be too much for the patient. If happily looking forward to getting another visitor is present when you arrive, don't stay unless the thoughtful friend can quickly bring gloom and despair. I've previously advised you how to be a good patient. Now let me tell you how to be a good sick-room visitor.

- Eight Rules
1. Don't just barge in. Learn from a relative or friend when it is convenient to call. Don't call a doctor or nurse to ask about visiting the patient.
 2. Be adaptable to the patient's mood, and remember to be slightly on the cheerful side.
 3. Don't sit down unless asked to do so. And if you do sit, don't sit in the patient's light or in a position where he will have to strain to see you.
 4. Shake hands only if the sick person offers his hand first. Speak in a natural tone.
 5. Two visitors might be too much for the patient. If happily looking forward to getting another visitor is present when you arrive, don't stay unless the thoughtful friend can quickly bring gloom and despair.
 6. Ask how the patient feels, but don't ask for a diagnosis. Let the patient talk about whatever he wants.
 7. Get ready to leave if the patient becomes restless or there is a lag in the conversation.
 8. When you're ready to go, leave without any prolonged questions and answers.
 9. If there is any way that gas gangrene can be prevented from developing?

"Now, Marge, I did try to stay out of jail—and I got thirty more days for resisting an officer!"

Stetson Highlights
Seen in the audience during the performance of the Finnish Gymnast Team at the DeLand Auditorium last Thursday night were Mr. and Mrs. Roy W. Nichols and Miss Ann Whitaker. The gymnasts, sponsored by the Women's Physical Education Department of Stetson, really presented an unusual and thoroughly enjoyable program of "modern Finnish movement for women."

The Stetson Band traveled to Daytona Beach last night where they presented a program of light numbers and melodies, in the Christmas spirit, in Peabody Auditorium, to the delight of the Daytona Tourist Club. Next Tuesday night the same program will be presented in Elizabeth Hall at Stetson. Following this will be the annual Candlelighting Ceremony conducted at Hulley Tower.

Opening night for Stover Theatre's religious drama "Job" will be Thursday (tomorrow) night at the University Theatre. This second production of the year will run December 13, 14, and 15 with curtain time being at 8 p. m. Also, a matinee performance will be given on Saturday afternoon, Dec. 15, at 2 p. m.

faculty of the School of Music, who takes the part of Job. The play is under the direction of Bruce Griffiths, new on the Stetson Speech and Drama faculty this fall, who also designed this dramatic adaptation of the Bible story.

George Frederick Handel's "The Messiah" will be given three times this year by the 115 member Stetson Chorus and 35 piece orchestra, according to Harold M. Giffin, director.

Sanders Turns Pro; Coached At Uoff By SHS Principal

Doug Sanders, the great amateur that was coached during his college days at the University of Florida by Andrew J. Bracken, turned pro today.

Sanders gained national recognition as an amateur and was granted exemption by the PGA for tournament play. He came under the tutelage of Bracken during the former's career at the University of Florida. "When I saw him been competitive spirit I knew he was a potential great," Bracken said.

"Doug is in a particularly fine position right now," Bracken said today. "He has the recognition and finish that a pro usually acquires in not less than a decade."

Under the guidance of Bracken, Sanders led the University of Florida golfing team to a dream they had been trying to realize for 21 years. Doug led his team to Southeastern Conference, Southern Intercollegiate, and Florida Intercollegiate championships all in one tremendous sweep to unprecedented victories.

After his unprecedented leadership in the record 1955 season with the U of F, Sanders came to the first Mayfair Inn Open last year, and when he left Sanford he took the amateur trophy with him. His brightness outshone highly favored Sammy Sneed and he finished only five strokes behind the Mayfair champion, Al Balding.

Last spring Sanders rode high in the Canadian league. He opened the 1956 season with a sweeping victory in the Canadian Open.

The amiable youth, to be married Dec. 21 to pretty Betty Jane Estes of Cedar town, Ga., is planning to spend his honeymoon on the Caribbean tour. "They play a fast game, and it should get me in good form," he said.

When asked how he felt about the chances of making the name in pro ranks that he did in amateur, Sanders said, "If I can make it, I should know in a short time."

About Sanders chances in the $15,000 Mayfair Open, after Bracken had remarked that Sanders had a tremendous amount of experience for a young man, Sanders said, "Yes, I have had a lot of experience for a young man, but I haven't been playing much in the last few months. Not only that, but the woods are just full of excellent players around here. This one is going to be tough."

Sanders is an insurance representative of Western Life in Canada, and of North American Life and Casualty in the U. S. and Ken McMurray all tied for high point for the Seminoles with a meager seven points each.

The Seminoles made the trip thinking they would be on equal grounds with the Barracudas, but it was soon very apparent that they were the midgets. The towering King and the fine zone defenses, all but blanked out the Seminoles.

Trailing 31-13 at the half, the Seminoles offered little resistance during the entire game.

New Smyrna Beach ran wild last night over the Sanford Seminoles 34-78. Joe King, 6-5 Barracuda, waged a personal war with the Seminoles and almost outscored all the Sanford players combined. King scored the bucket on 15 occasions and made both of his free throws to give him a total of 32 points—only one bucket less than the entire Seminole squad.

Lynn Joyce was elected captain yesterday as the girl's basketball team at Lyman High School prepared to open their season tomorrow night against Clermont at the Oviedo gym with game time set for 8 p. m.

The girls have been working hard with the whole team cooperating in an overall training plan.

Other games scheduled this season are:

Dec. 14 Mt. Dora
Jan. 8 Oviedo
Jan. 11 Clermont A and B girls
Jan. 15 Kissimmee A and B girls
Jan. 22 Oviedo
Jan. 25 Pierson
Feb. 2 Seville
Feb. 15 Tavares
Feb. 19 Kissimmee

All games are away except the game with Clermont Jan. 11 which will again be played in the Oviedo gym.

This year's team is coached by Miss Francis Cobb.

For Charles "Chuck" Malchaska, of Addison, Ill., today was a perfect day at the Mayfair Inn. In his qualifying round Malchaska aced with an eight iron on the 18th for a hole in one. He had also eagled on the second.

With five bogies, he missed an 18 inch putt on 18 and came in with a two under par 68 to place himself as one to watch during the tourney.

It was a sunny day at the Mayfair Inn Seminole Country Club. It was very warm, no rain, no clouds, a perfect day for golf, the course was fast, and the scores were low.

Lionel Hebert moved prominently into the picture as a strong challenger for defending champion Al Balding. Hebert, who last year won the Pro-Am, was over the links for a practice round. He finished with a 5 under par 65 for the best score of the day. Hebert made birdies on 2-5-9-10-12.

All smiles as he came in from the 18th, he said, "I feel good and I hope that I can do as well in tournament play."

Lafayette's 200 victory over Temple during the 1956 season was its first in four meetings with the Owls of Philadelphia.

My New York

By MEL HEINER
NEW YORK—No one, I suppose, has a more wistful view of newspaperwomen than I have belabored them to the point where my picture is posted in the New York Newspaper-woman's club with a $300 reward dead or alive and, indeed, one old harridan of a columnist steps out of elevators rather than ride with me. My dislike of the species is once in a great while tempered by the appearance of a good newspaperwoman, which is possible if not probable. Such a one is handsome, dark-eyed Marjorie Farnsworth, daughter of a well-known sports scribe, and currently a brightest and certainly one of the most memorable of all. It's more than 20 years since I saw Miss Miller dance with Clifton Webb in As Thousands Cheer, but the memory is green.

They called her "Baby" Miller, the stagehands and sister stars, according to Marjorie, and Ziegfeld saw her first in Les Shubert's Passing Show of 1915—"saw her, wanted her, and following his usual formula, got her." Miss Miller made her debut in Dayfield saw her at the Winter Garden, she as dancing in front of a chorus of lovely, lusty show-girls.
"Against this loveliness of flesh and fancy," Marjorie writes, "the sweetness and cameo beauty of the Miller girl stood out as a string of perfectly matched pearls from Cartier might if placed alongside a carelessly tossed heap of beads on a five-and-ten counter."

Why do women like that so often lead tragic lives? Marjorie's was. Her first husband was Frank Carter, a dancer, whom she loved passionately. He was killed when his car turned over and pinned him under the front seat. She was 21. After that—"She was different. The victrola had to play constantly, the band had to shorten intermissions so that Marjorie could dance—and forget Frank Carter."
Her second husband was handsome Jack Pickford. "This one is for keeps," they said. "We have so much in common." What they did have in common was temperament. Five years later Marjorie divorced Jack in Paris. Her theatrical star continued to ascend to the point where she made $5,000 a week—"but the brush of tragedy was to paint her life again and again."
Pickford died in Paris at 36—Marjorie was crossing the Atlantic as a stowaway on the American hospital—and, while she didn't know it, "Baby" Miller had only four years left.
In 1934 Marjorie married Chester O'Brien, a chorus boy in As Thousands Cheer, and two years later she went into a hospital with a toxic condition from a sinus infection. Before she went, she stopped one day by the window of a Fifth Avenue store and saw a silk dress that she told a companion she must have.
"You want to wear that dress when you leave the hospital?" the companion asked. "Yes," she said. "When I leave I want to be buried in it. I'm certain I won't leave the hospital alive."
Three weeks later she was dead. In the classic, "corny" phrase, another of the bright lights on Broadway had faded out. Miss Sugarplum, aged 37, was gone. She had outlived what Peggy had called the Era of Wonderful Nonsense, but not by long.

Electroshock Therapy And How It Is Applied

By HERMAN H. ROBINSON, M.D.

EVERYONE will develop an epileptic-type convulsion upon being given electroshock treatment. How quickly such a convulsion develops or how much current is needed depends on the individual patient.
Convulsion Helps
It is the convulsion which helps the epileptic patient. The electricity serves only to produce it and to render the patient unconscious and thus free from pain.
The electroshock apparatus consists chiefly of voltage- and time-controlling devices utilizing a 60-cycle alternating current.
Electrodes are applied to the head by means of a rubber band or are pressed against the temples by leopards. Tight clothes are loosened, hairpins and other metal objects are removed.
While some physicians treat the patient on his side or in an upright position, most prefer the patient be on his back with his body fully extended on a firm-surfaced, insulated bed. A rubber mouth gag is usually used to prevent biting the tongue.
100 to 300 Volts
The current (ranging from 100 to 300 volts) is then applied for one-fifth to one-half second.
The actual amount of current passing through the body is roughly about enough to light an ordinary 100-watt bulb.
As soon as the current is applied, the patient loses consciousness.

What Happens
A rapid flexing of the extremities signals the start of the convulsion. This is followed by a rigid extension of the body. This lasts for about 10 seconds, after which there are jerking contractions of the extremities and a jerking of the head. After about 30 seconds, the convulsion is over. Generally, the patient will remain unconscious for from 10 to 20 minutes. Invariably he returns to consciousness disoriented and confused. Often a patient will not know who or where he is. His memory usually returns in about an hour.
The course and number of treatments, naturally, vary with the response and condition of the patient. For an average depressed patient, six to ten electroshock-produced convulsions usually are enough. In schizophrenia, 20 treatments seem to be needed. Ordinarily, two or three treatments can be given in one week. In case of a relapse, additional treatments might be needed.
QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS
Mrs. M. M.: My husband uses freshly squeezed, diluted lemon juice to wash his hair. Is this dangerous?
Answer: There is no evidence that this could prove injurious to hair.

LONG, THIN LINE
LITTLE ROCK, ARK. (P)—The Arkansas Supreme Court has a long, thin line to follow in handling one dispute.
The case involves a strip of land 4.5 inches wide and 140 feet long.
Building owner Bertha Breier contends that if the land is not awarded to her, half of a cafe wall will be torn down.

MAIL GOES THROUGH
BELLEVILLE, Pa. (P)—Postmaster Ard. B. Caron likes to talk about Belleville's 10 Sam Yoders and 8 Ezra Peachey.
"I've never been bawled out by any of them. If the letter gets into the wrong Ezra's or Sam's hands, it's simply passed on until the right one has it," said Caron. Belleville has only 1,300 residents.

Conning The News

BY VIRGINIA CONN

The board of the Officer's Wives Club met this morning at Betty Guy's to discuss the December luncheon and to meet the new representatives from each unit. We discussed what had been accomplished in the past six months, and offered suggestions as to how the activities may be improved. Each member explained her job, and the new girls retired to another room to elect their officers. The results were: Dornell Kellene, President; Genevieve Quicker, Vice-president and welfare; Pat Todd, recording secretary; Betty McBratnie, publicity; and on the luncheon and decorating committees will be: Malie Barlow, Evie Williams, and Pat Hansen. Margie Martin will be the new treasurer, and the representative from Seven (unknown at this writing), the new member from the old board were Betty Guy, Jane Pette, Ruth Tully, Betty Emanski, Dottie McDonald, Fran Murray, Anita Madden and myself. Betty served coffee and cookies, and her flowers as usual were beautiful. On the dining room table were pink gladioli and rain tree spray-silver. Yellow chrysanthemums in unusual arrangements graced other spots in the living room.

The luncheon will be held at the B. O. Q. Thursday at 1:00 p. m. The new board will be introduced at this time and the guest speaker will be Mrs. Dickerson, who has landscaped so many gardens in Sanford. She will hold a question and answer period. Please try to come, it is probably too late to make reservations now, but you can try, by calling ext. 319 at the base.

Dottie and Mae Donald are leaving the 21st to spend Christmas in Hartford, Conn. with Dottie's family. Joan Fellini is leaving Saturday for Christmas in Boston. The Guys are NOT going to Chicago.

Pat Hansen's mother, Mrs. Sallie Harvey, has been staying with Pat for the last month. At the moment she is visiting in Miami, but will be back for Christmas.

Took a run out to the Club to see how things were going. My car is still stuck in the sand up there, too. And I don't know why it is so easy to walk around eighteen holes on the golf course, but the short walk home is exhausting. Charles Malchanski of the Brookwood Country Club, Addison, Illinois made a hole-in-one this afternoon. This remarkable young man used a roll eight iron, and came in with a thirty-three after getting bogles on two holes. In any language that is some golf, but the girls up at the club say all to the fact that he is on his honeymoon. His opponent, E. Mlacuse (Chicago) from Buenos Aires said that he lost all heart after this. And to him one must play from beneath the heart and not above. What this all means I do not know, but I assume he is discouraged.

Followed Ed Furgol, Dutch Harmon, Leo Biogetti, and Doug Sanders, around for four holes accompanied by Ida Be Wilson, Ann, Marsh, Louise Parker, and Grace Martin. All of them were having difficulty putting, as the greens varied in speed. They were not qualifying, so there was not the anxiety present as there was in so many other matches. The day was perfect, warm, nice breeze. If the weather holds this should be the best tournament ever. We were especially interested in Doug Sanders, as he has just turned pro. While out in the fairways we were intercepted by Lt. CDR and Mrs. L. D. (Byron-Butta) from Pensacola. Mrs. Butta is the president of the Women's Golf Association there, and they had come over to play golf and look Sanford over. Of course, they can't play golf this week, but I'm sure they were very favorably impressed with Sanford, and hope they will be stationed here some day.

Gerry Castagno is home from the hospital and was watching from the clubhouse roof. The baby is still there however, as I guess that would be a little too much confusion. Among others I saw up there were working hostesses Fanchon McRoberts, Blanche Nicely and Vern Smith. Jim Swenson and Mack Cleveland were watching the players come up on winning.

Welcome back to the men of VAH-7 and VAH-3 who have been on T. A. D. What a wonderful Christmas present you are.

Three Gala Parties Are Held Monday

By MARIAN JONES
OVIEDO—From all reports we hear those parties held Monday evening were "out of this world" when it came to decorations and planning. We wish we could have gone to all three, but are afraid we would not have been able to manipulate today after devouring all of those delicious refreshments served at all three.

Mrs. T. R. Pipkin's Kettle-Flue Circle started their party off with a covered dish supper at the home of Topple (Mrs. J. W.) Beasley on Lake Charm.

Mrs. Beasley had the table beautifully decorated with the Christmas motif for this special occasion.

The members of the circle presented to Mrs. Pipkin, their leader, a lovely gift, after which gifts were exchanged among the membership. The business meeting was conducted following all the gaiety.

Mrs. Charles T. Niblack's home was the scene of another lovely party—that of the Chappel Guild Circle of the Oviedo Methodist Church. Mrs. T. L. Lingo, Mrs. J. W. McKinnon and Miss Esther Beisel cohosted this affair with Mrs. Niblack. The Christmas spirit prevailed everywhere.

Gifts were also exchanged and refreshments served followed by a short business meeting. Those present for the occasion included: Mrs. Charles G. Shaffer, Mrs. E. L. Luttrell, Mrs. Roy Weisenberger, Mrs. James Wilson, Mrs. J. H. Staley, Mrs. Roy Weisenberger, Mrs. W. R. Meek and Mrs. George H. Carlton.

Reports from the home of Vera (Mrs. A. A.) Myers on Lake Charm sound very interesting. This was the setting for the "Two in One" party given by Vera and Louise (Mrs. Milton) Gore. As those involved are members of both the Pearl Martin Circle and

Vesper Choir Will Make First Morning Appearance Sunday

The choir, under the direction of Mrs. Albert Hickson, consists of the following members, Deanna Nichols, Rose Mary Southard, Linda Hamilton, Susan Shlager, Margaret Jones, Janice Lane, Evie Dooney, Vicki Ferguson, Eileen Myers, Leslie Jones, and Sandra McKnight.

'Birthday Of King' Presented Tuesday Night At Pinecrest

The stage of the Pinecrest School auditorium, Tuesday night, was the scene of the beautiful presentation of "The Birthday of the King" the moving religious scenes and choral music featured the children of the first through the sixth grades, under the outstanding direction of Mrs. Dorothy Hauser.

The story of the birth of Jesus, the message of the angels to the shepherds, the visit of the Wise Men, were told in oral chorus by the children of the fourth grades directed by D. M. Paul.

To the familiar strains of "O Come All Ye Faithful", the children of the first grades, marched upon the stage, where they sang "Silent Night".

The first scene found the shepherds gazing at the star which shone over Bethlehem, while the chorus of fifth and sixth grade children sang "Christmas Eve", "The First Noel", and "White Shepherds Watched their Flocks".

The Shepherds and Sheep were third grade boys. Then the Angels appeared unto the shepherds and the chorus sang "Angels We Have Heard on High". The Angels were third grade girls.

The little village of Bethlehem, birthplace of the Holy Child, was depicted in a frame setting on the stage, while in the background the voices of the chorus told the story of "O Holy Night" and "The Birthday of a King".

In the Nativity scene, surrounded by a life-sized cow, donkey and several sheep, appeared little Paula Jean Eiam as Mary, Dick O'Connor as Joseph and Clara Rossman as the Angel, hovering over the manger of the Babe. The chorus sang for this beautiful scene, "Away in a Manger" and "The Friendly Beasts".

Fatty Glen Johnson in a sweet soprano voice sang "Gesu Bambino" and then the Fourth grade children continued with their recitation of the Christmas Story, after which "We Three Kings of Orient Are" sung by the chorus brought on the Wise Men, Tommie Drake, Robert Jackson and Jimmy Robbins, bearing gifts for the King. The Angels returned to the stage, then the Shepherds walked in on their hind feet and knelt down before the manger.

"O Come Little Children" sang the Chorus, and the boys and girls of the Second Grades marched upon the stage each bearing a gift for the Prince of Peace. Then the children and all the audience which overflowed to standing room only in the cafeteria, sang "Joy to the World". Reverend D. M. Paul pronounced the benediction and from the stage Mrs. Margaret Reynolds said "In the words of Tiny Tim 'God Bless Us, Every One'".

Chestnuts roasting on an open fire. Jack Frost's been nipping at your nose. This certainly is that "fun" time of year when it's awfully nice to be inside, especially inside your warm and cozy kitchen. In fact that's probably the family's favorite gathering place when it's Happy Beef Stew for dinner. It's the perfect cold night dinner.

Vary your beef stew occasionally to promote taste changes in the menu. Slickest trick for this beef stew is to mellow-cook it in bright flavor and though the family won't care as they eagerly dive in, it's loaded nutritionally too. There are eight different vegetable juices contributing to the favor-color-nutrition melody that's bound to please everyone.

Happy Beef Stew
1 1/2 pounds beef cubes
1/2 cup shortening
1 1/2 cups vegetable juice
1 1/2-ounce can (1 1/2-ounce can)
1 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon powdered thyme
1 medium onion, halved
1 medium potato, quartered
2 cups cut green beans (18-ounce ounces package, frozen)

Dust beef with flour; brown in shortening. Add coolant vegetable juice and seasonings; cover and simmer about 1 hour. Add vegetables; cover and continue cooking over low heat until vegetables are done. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

Bride Elect Is Feted Recently At Two Parties

By MARIAN JONES

OVIEDO—Miss Georgia Dishman, whose marriage to Kenneth L. Malcolm will be an event of Sunday, Dec. 16, at 3 p. m. at the Oviedo Baptist Church, was the honoree at two parties given by friends in Oviedo.

Mrs. Milton Gore and Mrs. Gene Gore co-hosted a kitchen shower at the home of Mrs. Milton Gore.

The wedding motif was used in the decorations for this occasion. Miniature white umbrellas were used for favors on the serving table. These were filled with nuts.

A game similar to bingo was enjoyed by the guests and honoree.

Those present were the guest of honor, her mother, Mrs. Charles Dishman; Mrs. J. L. Malcolm, mother of the bridegroom elect; Mrs. W. H. Usrey, sister of the bride-elect of Orlando; Mrs. Jimmy Malcolm and Mrs. Felton Lavender sister-in-law and sister of the bridegroom elect; Mrs. Youn Harris, Mrs. James Parlin, Mrs. J. N. Thompson, and Mrs. Theodore Aulin Jr.

The hostess gift to the bride-elect was a table cloth and napkins.

Miss Shirley Partin and Miss Betty Beasley co-hosted a linen shower at the home of Miss Partin on Monday night.

Games were enjoyed and prizes awarded before delicious refreshments were served to: Miss Peggy Fleming, Miss Janet George, Miss Shirley Malcolm, Miss Phyllis Ciemanc, Miss Yvonne King, Miss Jinx Miller, Miss Melante Jackson, Miss Nellie Beasley, and Mrs. Harold Riley, the latter of Orlando.

Holiday Buffet

It's time for linens and bells, gifts and heavenly kitchen smells. To enjoy the season to its fullest, plan your culinary strategy well in advance. Buy a larger turkey than usual, then you can use the leftovers in many interesting ways. In a few minutes put together any of many tasty casserole dishes. One of the greatest aids to casserole cooking is a well stocked shelf of condensed cream soups. Here's a recipe for TURKEY PAPRIKA using condensed cream of mushroom soup as the delicious sauce. It's quickly baked and just the thing for a spur-of-the-moment party or a hearty family meal during busy holiday time.

Accompany the TURKEY PAPRIKA with a salad of avocado and tomato wedges tossed with crisp greens. Try a dressing made with three parts oil to one part lemon juice seasoned to taste with oregano. For dessert, spoon mashed barely thawed frozen strawberries over vanilla ice cream.

Some more parties are being planned for the popular bride-elect but will be held following her marriage due to conflicting dates at this time of the year.

EVERYTHING IN THE BACK is the new look for this afternoon dress in blue and black textured wool, from the collection of Pattullo-Jo Copeland. Double back skirt panels fasten at the waist by a center bow. Shoulder flanges narrow the waist at back and stem from a squared yoke front.

Department Proposed To Keep Watchful Eye On Water Supply

OCALA, Fla. — A department to keep a watchful eye on Florida's water supplies will be proposed to the 1957 Legislature.

The Water Resources Study Commission completed its draft of a proposed law creating the department to operate under supervision of the Cabinet Board of Conservation.

It would have enforcement powers and it could set up conservation districts in separate counties or groups of counties, either at the invitation of county commissions or upon determination of need after public hearings.

The law as drafted by the commission headed by Byron Herling of Leesburg would empower the water conservation department to work with existing agencies, including the Florida Geological Survey, in a continuous study to determine the best ways to use water supplies and guard them against waste.

It would compile information through research of its own and other agencies, cooperate with flood control and drainage districts and it could authorize capture, storage and use of water in excess of existing reasonable uses.

In addition to giving the department enforcement power the law would direct all law enforcement agencies to assist.

Penalties for violation would be classed as misdemeanors punishable by a maximum of six months imprisonment and $500 fine.

One of the suggestions of the commission is that the department be able to control through issuance of permits any attempts to modify weather. Another suggestion is that the department investigate beach erosion and recommend protection laws.

Counties Released From Med Fruit Fly Quarantine Rules

Two Florida counties have been released from quarantine regulations set up by the Mediterranean Fruit Fly Eradication Program. Palm Beach County was due for removal Dec. 11 from shipping restrictions, while Hendry will come off Dec. 12 and Broward Dec. 18. That will hike the total to 11 of the medfly-infested counties now free to move fruit and vegetables without treatment or certification.

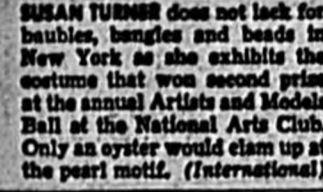

Palm Beach and Hendry counties, plus Broward, Collier, Dade, Lee and Pinellas, were placed under federal regulations last summer in regards to the interstate movement of fruits and vegetables.

Federal restrictions are in effect for at least 90 days following the last recovery of a medfly, or 120 days after the last recovery of medfly larva.

Palm Beach was the third county in the state in which the medfly was discovered. This was on May 14 with recovery of a fly at West Palm Beach. Hendry followed on May 26 with a find at Fort Denard, while the first fly recovery in Broward was on June 8 at Melbourne.

Counties previously released from state quarantine are Glades, Indian River, Lake, Martin, Monroe, Okechobee, St. Lucie and Seminole.

Holy Roman Emperor Charles V, who died in 1558, had 27 pairs of spectacles to match each of his costumes.

CHANUKAH, the Jewish Festival of Lights, celebrating military and spiritual victory of the Jews over Syrian oppressors more than 2,000 years ago, will have double significance for these Hungarian refugee children. They recently arrived in the United States after their escape from Soviet oppressors in their homeland. They are shown gathered around a menorah with Rabbi Dr. Ezekiel Landau, spiritual leader at the United HIAS Service in New York. He is lighting the first candle for the festival which lasts eight days.

A LEAPING CHIMPANZEE named "Rudy" knows what he likes as he heads for the arms of Margie Graner in New York. Margie is a regular Rockette in the stage show of the Radio City Music Hall while Rudy is an addition from a circus in England for the Christmas season. Sharing the stage, the pair enjoy rehearsing together.

New Penitentiary's Design May Omit Discipline Problem

SAN JUAN, Puerto Rico—Prison officials think the design of Puerto Rico's new two million dollar penitentiary, now under construction, will eliminate many disciplinary problems.

The designer, Luis Lampon Sierra, is in complete agreement and he should know. Lampon designed the new prison while he was a prisoner himself at a local penitentiary.

It all started when Lampon was interviewed on arrival at the penitentiary to begin serving a sentence for malfeasance in public office. Penitentiary authorities learned he had at one time been a teacher of mechanical drawing and they assigned him to work as a draftsman at the Justice Department office here.

"I had never done architectural drawing," Lampon said. "But I knew it was only a step away from mechanical drawing. Besides, I had been a construction foreman and had done work on houses and commercial buildings."

Lampon, on parole, was transferred to the San Juan District jail so he could be closer to the Justice Department office.

Every morning he was driven under guard from the jail to work in the office and was returned for his meals and to sleep.

The only thing that set him apart from other workers on the new penitentiary project was his blue denim prison uniform.

"He was a model worker and a model prisoner," recalls his supervisor at the Justice Department office, Horacio Bravo. "In fact I had to call him down once because some relatives of his came to visit him at the Justice Department office."

"I told him that could not be, since he was always under prison rules. Another prisoner might have rebelled, but he took it as though I had done him a favor by reminding him of the violation. He didn't have any more visits at the office."

Luis spent long hours studying modern prison design and finally came up with a plan for arranging buildings for the new penitentiary. He recalls that the director of the department's correction division, Porfirio Diaz Santana, was always greatly interested in his work and that he gave him a manual on minimum requirements for prison design and other reading matter along the same lines.

Lampon also consulted with various prison officials on the special needs for their departments.

"The dietitian, for example, would tell me about needs for kitchen space," Lampon says. "So would the men in charge of the prison warehouse and the superintendent in charge of dining areas. After all these facts were compiled I was set to go to work."

The main idea in his design, he says, was to organize the prison in such a way that was space was eliminated without creating the danger of traffic jams on stairways and in narrow halls.

"By my own experience I had learned that trouble usually starts on stairs or in halls while prison groups are moving from one area to another," Lampon says.

"In the old penitentiary the stairs has so many corners it was easy for a man to lag behind, hide in a corner and bump somebody he had a grudge against."

"Passages were narrow enough to permit inmates to pass close to each other, a situation that often increased chances of fist fights and arguments."

"In the new penitentiary design, all stairways are outdoors and this enables guards to control prisoner traffic over a big area at one time. Dark corners and narrow passages are eliminated." The new prison, with room for 750 inmates, is expected to be completed by 1960.

PRISONERS SCRAMBLE around the wreckage of a T-33 jet trainer to fight flames in two burning homes in Englewood, Calif., after the plane crashed because of engine failure. The pilot walked away from the wrecked craft and no injuries were reported in either of the homes, which were hit by the wings.

Since release from prison, Lampon Sierra has been doing odd jobs with a private construction firm.

Justice Department officials are worried that present plans for the new penitentiary are not complete and that the designer is out on parole. A flawless good behavior record indicates they'll never get Luis Lampon back in his old capacity.

The obvious solution is to hire him, and the officials are trying to get authorization to do just that. It looks like Luis will soon be going back to his old job—this time in a business suit.

The tourist industry in Texas now earns more than $412 million annually. This is an increase of $136 million since 1950.

PGA Open Is Predicted As 'Anybody's Tourney'

Four Days Hard Work Are Ahead

The tourists of professional golf stopped off in Sanford today to try for a little cash to stuff in their Christmas stockings—$15,000 prize money in the Mayfair Inn's $15,000 Second Annual PGA Open.

It will take four days of hard work over the 6,140-yard Mayfair Inn Country Club course, which has a par 36-31-70.

But the reward to the best workman over the 72 holes is $2,400.

Twenty-nine others in the field of 132 will collect smaller prizes down to $100 for 30th place.

After two days of practice rounds, most professionals visiting Sanford for the big event, found the short but sporty course, owned by the New York Giants baseball organization, in good shape for tournament play.

"Anything can happen here between now and Sunday," is the comment heard around the club as both golfers and sports writers discuss the probable outcome at the climax of the tournament.

It has been generally agreed that the course is about two strokes faster than it was for the first annual Mayfair Inn PGA Open. The greens and fairways are in much better shape, narrow, sporty, and "velvety smooth."

On hand to greet the visitors and professionals was Horace Stoneham, head of the New York Giants baseball organization. Stoneham arrived in Sanford Tuesday night.

Most speculation of the tournament is saying that a total score for the 72-hole tournament, or better, will walk away with top money. All betting last year's Mayfair Inn champion, from (Continued On Page Twelve)

Y., overcame two bogies and a double bogie on the first nine holes in tournament play this morning at the Mayfair Inn Country Club, with seven birdies on the back nine to set the early pace in the Mayfair Inn $15,000 PGA Open at 67.

Homa birdied on 11, 12, and 13 in a row. His double bogie came on No. 4 when he hit a straight tee shot into the middle of the fairway with the ball landing in the middle of a fallen clump of spanish moss. When he hit the ball it went out of bounds.

His score was 36-31 for a total card of 67.
