

Tigers Tie Dodgers For G-F Leadership

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Thomasville Tigers of the Georgia-Florida league are tied for first place with the Valdosta Dodgers at .602.

The Tigers gained the tie last night when they edged the Waycross Bears 6-5 while Valdosta was losing to the Tallahassee Pirates 9-2.

At the other end of the standings eighth place Americus defeated the Cordele Indians 12-3. Albany stopped a four game winning streak of the Moultrie Packers with a 5-3 triumph.

After an eight game winning streak the Bears have dropped three out of their last four games. Thomasville collected but five hits off Harwood but they counted for six runs. The Tigers made three miscues.

The Pirates added their third straight victory last night after dropping nine straight. They also were outbitten by their opponents, scoring nine runs on five hits in the 11-inning game. The Pirates scored seven times in the eleventh to take the game.

The American Phillies opened with a four run lead over the Indians and were never seriously threatened. With 13 hits they added to their lead in the fifth, sixth, seventh and ninth innings. Cordele was scoreless after the third inning.

Moultrie and Albany both scored twice in the first inning. In the second frame Albany pushed across two more to clinch the game. The Cards hit Moultrie's Busa for eleven times. Back of the Cards was touched for nine hits.

"Goodbye, my angel—pray for me—your baby."

Harrison told police that Miss Landis had been ill for a week, suffering a recurrence of an amoebic infection she incurred during a wartime entertainment tour in the South Pacific. The actor said he and Miss Landis had been discussing plans for a film they were to make in England.

Only last Mar. 22 the actress filed suit to divorce her fourth husband, theatrical producer Horace Schmidt, on grounds of cruelty. Schmidt, who was at Cincinnati, O., said he was shocked by his wife's death and was leaving immediately for California.

The actress' mother, Mrs. Clara Landis of Seminole Hot Springs, Calif., did not arrive at her daughter's home until about four hours after the discovery. She collapsed, crying:

"Oh, my baby, I want to see my baby. Why didn't somebody call me?"

The mother was accompanied by Miss Landis' sister, Mrs. Walter L. Ross, of Long Beach, Calif. Other survivors are the father, Alfred L. Landis of Richmond, Calif., and a brother, Lawrence R. Landis, San Bernardino, Calif.

The body was taken to a Santa Monica mortuary.

Miss Landis, daughter of a railroad mechanic, was born Frances Beale at Fairchild, Wis. She moved to San Diego, Calif., as a small child and was educated there and at San Bernardino.

She had been in films for 11 years and made her first real hit when she appeared in a leopard skin in the "1,000,000 R.C." Thereafter she starred in many films.

Before her marriage to Schmidt she had been the wife of Major Thomas C. Wallace, author Irving Wheeler and yachtsman Willie Hunt. All three marriages ended in divorce.

Arabs and to return to Tel Aviv Wednesday to hear a Jewish reply on the truce extension.

In Cairo an Egyptian cabinet source said there is little doubt the Arabs will resume fighting in Palestine when the four-week truce ends Friday, despite U.N. appeals for an extension.

Emerging from a three-hour conference of the Arab League's general committee, Secretary General Azzam Pasha reported no decision was reached on the truce extension proposal.

Azzam Pasha said Count Bernadotte had been sent to the Middle East primarily to reach a final Palestine settlement, not a truce, and that such talks might continue six months, even if fighting is resumed in the Holy Land. He said Count Bernadotte will meet Arab leaders tomorrow.

The cabinet source said last night the majority of Arab leaders opposed extending the truce.

BELGRADE, July 6 (AP)—Yugoslavs were reported today to have given evidence of support for Premier Marshall Tito, who has been denounced by the Soviet-controlled Cominform.

The Yugoslav Communist newspaper Borba said last night that in five days the public subscribed $50,000,000 of the $70,000,000 national loan.

Other press accounts said local committees of the Communist Party all over the country are sending messages to Belgrade that they are "with the Marshal."

The national organization of war invalids resolved that its members will renew their efforts toward helping build socialism under Tito.

Yugoslav-Albanian relations apparently remained strained. The Yugoslav legation in Tirana said Albanian police had blocked all food for Yugoslavs in the border town of Buttrari.

Borba, which carried the report, said: "This made the feeding of Yugoslav representatives impossible."

It was assumed in Belgrade that the Yugoslav representatives were supervising one or more of the numerous Yugoslav-Albanian trade agreements.

Albania severed trade relations with Yugoslavia last week and ordered the expulsion of military, political and cultural missions but there was no indication that any of them had left Albanian soil.

CREW ESCAPES
SEASIDE PARK, N. J., July 6 (AP)—The fishing trawler Reliable blew up in a 50-foot burst of flames within sight of the New Jersey shore early today and all seven crew members were found uninjured in a drifting lifeboat several hours later.

The rescue was made by a picket boat from the Barnegat Inland Guard station which came upon the small lifeboat after searching vessels reported they could find no survivors at the scene of the blast.

CONVICTION UPHOLD
TALLAHASSEE, July 6 (AP)—The Florida Supreme Court today upheld the death sentence of Lacy Stewart, 18-year-old negro, who was convicted twice for the murder of Erich Spiller in St. Lucie county.

The court reversed the first conviction and ordered a new trial. Stewart, who escaped from a state road camp, was convicted at playing Solfer at White City, south of Fort Pierce, on Oct. 29, 1946.

JAP HANGED
YOKOHAMA, July 6 (AP)—A U.S. Eighth Army commission today sentenced Lieut. Comdr. Kato Shunji, former Japanese navy officer, to be hanged for war atrocities against an American flier.

Witnesses testified that Lieut. Kato was used for pistol target practice and then executed by Kato and other officers. They had been shot from his ship, which was captured by the Japanese in June, 1944.

Finnish Reds Expected To Demand Key Posts

HELSINKI, Finland, July 6 (AP)—Finnish political circles believe today the Communists and their allies will demand key posts in the new cabinet despite their loss of at least a dozen parliamentary seats in last week's election.

The informants predicted that a cabinet will be formed only after long negotiations. A government spokesman told newsmen last night that preliminary negotiations will begin July 12 when the present parliament meets for the last time.

Formal negotiations, however, will not begin until the new parliament meets July 21. There were rumors that the Communists would back their demands for strong representation by strikes, if necessary, which apparently will emerge from the election as Finland's strongest political organization, probably will demand the premiership, informed sources said.

that we have ever had in our city. It was back in 1926 and 1927 that the late Past Imperial Potentate, J. Putnam Stevens of Portland, Maine, spent some time here each winter.

During the evening, the Morocco Temple 45 piece band will give a concert at First Street and Magnolia Avenue, said Mr. Lane. The Chanters of Morocco, including "15 of the finest singers in the South, will also entertain."

Morocco Patrol, which has won recognition in different cities of the United States as one of the finest Patrols in Shrinehood, will take part in the celebration.

"Candidates will entertain you on the streets with their funny stunts during the morning, the big parade will be held promptly at noon," Mr. Lane stated. It will form on Commercial Avenue near the Valdes Hotel and will march up Park Avenue to First Street.

Thereafter, the parade will turn east on First Street where Shriner's will disband. They will be taken in buses to Seminole High School auditorium where the "Big Ceremonial" will be held.

Hope Rises In Search For 23-Month Old Tot

SOMERSET, Pa., July 6 (AP)—A child's footprint, in a wooded area a mile from the Collier cabin, today led searchers forward with new hope that 23-month-old Donald Collier may still be alive.

The baby disappeared last Friday afternoon and 300 or more volunteers and officers have been searching for him ever since.

Searchers said the footprint, a size 10, was found in a clearing, made since Saturday night's heavy electrical storm.

State police said the footprint gave hope that Donald is still alive since he children live in the vicinity where it was found.

Donald is the son of an Allegheny county coal miner.

Panamanian Leaders Flee Political Riots

PANAMA, Panama, July 6 (AP)—Arnoldo Arias Madrid, his election to Panamanian presidency challenged, many of his supporters under arrest and he himself a political refugee, says "my little country is going to hell."

Arias showed up in the United States-controlled canal zone, where he took refuge yesterday with a dozen other top leaders in the wake of political riots which claimed three lives in Panama over the weekend.

Panama's government declared a state of emergency Sunday following a shooting incident between Panama police and Arias' followers. The district attorney's office in Panama said 310 Arias men are under arrest.

Truman-Hopeful

One of Mr. Truman's confidants, who would not be quoted by name, said he felt that much of the strength behind the move to deny him the presidential nomination would disappear with the removal of General Eisenhower from the picture.

The President has maintained all along that he will win nomination on the first ballot. He said as much at his last Washington news conference.

Since that time the movement to draft Eisenhower had spread, Frank J. Hague, national committeeman from New Jersey, was among those who joined it.

Even in the face of the growing opposition, the President's official party has insisted that General Eisenhower is a Republican and would not accept a draft.

Mr. Truman appeared in good humor as he met crowds at Willard, Mo., Springfield, Mo., and other points on his way back east from Bolivar, Mo., where he spoke yesterday with President Richard B. Russell.

He steered clear of political talk at his platform appearance at Springfield. He held to the theme of Western hemispheric solidarity that he used at Bolivar. Asked to say something at Newburg, Mo., he said: "There is nothing to say—this is really a non-political trip."

Mr. Truman has not indicated his choice of a runningmate in the event of his nomination, his associates say.

His chief counsel, Clark M. Clifford, likely will go to Philadelphia to help present the presidential view point in the drafting of a Democratic platform.

Mr. Truman has not said whether he will go to Philadelphia for the acceptance speech if he is chosen although his associates believe he will do so.

In the little southeast Missouri town of Bolivar, Mr. Truman received a statue of Simon Bolivar, the South American liberator, from Venezuelan President Romulo Gallegos. The Venezuelan chief executive and his wife accompanied Mr. Truman to Bolivar.

WET-DRY VOTE
SEBING, July 6 (AP)—The High point commission today set Aug. 13 as the date for a wet-dry referendum in that county.

Decision to hold the referendum came after a round-and-round debate between wet and dry leaders over validity of the referendum vote.

The first petition for the election did not contain enough names, the commission held.

Wet leaders threatened the petition, discovered a number of names which the commissioners had overlooked.

BIBLE VERSE TODAY

Peter's cowardly denial was a shameful weakness, but some of us are not quite confident at times.
The Lord said unto Peter, art thou also one of this man's disciples? He said I am not—John 18:17.

Did you have a safe and sane
Fourth? If you are alive to read this, we offer our heartiest congratulations on having survived the hazards of the highways.

New construction in the United States totaled some $1,605,000-000 last month, the highest on record. New housing alone has accounted for over three billion dollars worth of construction in the first six months of this year.
One is moved to wonder in the light of the continuing scarcity of labor and materials, what new construction would amount to if supplies of all kinds were plentiful,
prices reasonable.

The American Legion comes out strong in favor of federal aid to public schools. Some good Americans are opposed to federal aid for schools on the grounds that he who holds the purse strings calls the tune and they are afraid of what Uncle Sam might do toward regulating what is taught in public schools as well as providing who shall be taught where and by whom. However, federal aid for highways has not reacted against highway construction not established customs of local communities.

Sir Stafford Cripps, British
chancellor of the exchequer—treasury to you—prepares the way for another loan from his generous Uncle Sam by announcing that dollar reserves in the sterling area (where British money rules) have dwindled to less than two billion dollars, and at the rate they are spending that it won't last long. Britain has two ways to get dollars with which to buy sorely needed goods from the United States; one, by borrowing; the other by selling us stuff made in England. Two quirks operate against the latter plan:
British failure to produce; American tariffs which make British goods exorbitant in price.

Only four people lost their lives from fireworks accidents during the Fourth of July holiday, so effectively do state regulations
now work against the careless use of fire-crackers, Roman candles and sky rockets. Time was when the number of deaths from such accidents would have reached into the hundreds, and thousands would have been laid up for weeks with burned hands and faces. Those were the days when we rolled out if bed in the morning to the tune of "cannonading" on the village square and kept up the racket happily until long after nightfall, or until the last firecracker had been exploded. Nowadays, we save it to automobiles to provide the bulk of holiday fatalities.

Carole Landis, beautiful blond screen actress, who has stirred a good many pangs of jealousy
during her 11 years of public life since she appeared in her first movie "I, 000,000 B. C.," is found dead after taking a bottle full of sleeping pills. "This is apparently a suicide," says the chief of detectives who investigated the case. Why did Miss Landis take her own life when she apparently had everything her young heart could desire. . . .
money, fame, beauty, personality,
abilities, swimming pools, and, believe it or not, overlooked, four husbands? Well, maybe it was because she had four husbands,
and one could make her happier,
maybe merely having things, even when those things are such as she all others jealous, is not enough. Maybe with all the things
she had, she lacked something.
The selfishness, peace
and contentment that comes from doing things for others.

Defection Of Tito

The best guess seems to be that the sudden rupture
between the men of Moscow and Marshal Tito of Yugoslavia indicates a Russian move to gain absolute control of its satellite states. Although the Yugoslav government is Communist in nature and is counted within the Soviet sphere, yet the government has not followed the Communist pattern in all respects and Tito has been to some degree an individualist.

It has been inferred that the Politburo has decided it is time to make the satellites of the Russian bloc of states completely Communist. This might involve throwing out all non-Communist parties in states, such as Yugoslavia and Hungary, where such parties still exist, and eliminating all vestige of co-operation between Communists and non-Communists.

Success in such an undertaking would immeasurably strengthen the Soviet bastion in Europe, would cause non-Communists throughout the continent to tremble. Failure would reveal a weakness behind the iron curtain, could result in partial loss of the satellites.

Is the Russian hold on the eastern nations so strong that it can force a state such as Yugoslavia to purge itself of non-Communists? The men in the Kremlin must have good reason to believe they have such a hold, else the attempt would not have been launched.

New Star

The discovery of an important new star is always good cause for excitement among astronomers. One just announced by the observatory of the Case Institute of Technology at Cleveland, O., is of more than usual interest because it is the result of probing the outer rim of the known galaxy of stars, not with a giant telescope but with new photographic processes.

For 18 months the Case observatory has been attracting world-wide attention with its work with new methods of infrared photography, which "sees" through the clouds of dust which often obscure ordinary vision and photography at great distances. The new star, called a "super-giant" perhaps 10,000 times brighter than our sun, is believed to be in an area of space never before explored.

One immediately conjectures what marvels might be discovered by combining this new photography with one of the giant telescopes, such as the new 200-inch instrument at Mt. Palomar Observatory, Calif. The question which always holds the layman's imagination is whether on some distant planet or star there is life comparable to that on our own planet, life with which we might communicate, perhaps exchange visits. Will infra-red photography find the answer?

School Vacations

Long summer school vacations are a waste, says John W. Studebaker, recently resigned United States Commissioner of Education. But he would have pupils and teachers spend the summer at camps, not continue the same old grind in the same old buildings.

The long school vacation may date back to the time when the bulk of the population was rural, and the children were needed to work on the farm. It may also be due to a desire to make the teaching profession attractive. Teachers often do not get any too much money, and are subject to a good many social restrictions. A long vacation is a real argument for being a teacher, as non-teachers are apt to feel in the summer.

Johnny and Billy and Mary and Susan might demur at giving up their summer vacation, but should find camp a satisfactory substitute.

Tall Tales On The A. P.

Charlotte (N.C.) Observer

John B. Bogart, city editor of the New York Sun fifty years ago, has a definition of news that has never been surpassed:

"When a dog bites a man, that is not news, because it happens so often. But, if a man bites a dog, that is news."

That definition has been quoted by reporters and city editors for the last half century as the test of whether a particular story deserves a place in the news or not.
And so, when a fish caught a Boston boy, it got in the papers.
This youngster, like a million others, went fishing and caught a fish. As he was taking it off the hook, it sank its teeth into his finger with such vigor that the boy had to be taken to a hospital, where doctors pried the jaws of the fish open and extracted the teeth from the finger.

Bogart probably expected never to see a story of man who actually bit a dog, but such a tale came out of Los Angeles a few years ago on the wires of the staid Associated Press, which sometimes unleashes enough to be facetious
but never enough to be careless with its facts.

Then there was the yarn from Switzerland, also circulated by the AP, to members about the rabbit that shot a man. The hunter lay down for a nap in the woods, but forgot to set the safety

Russian motorized troops have made important moves in Romania since Monday. The dispatch, from tributed to "unconfirmed reports"

In Washington, Press Secretary
Charles G. Ross said Mr. Truman

blockade against the civilian population of Western Berlin is calculated to bring things to a head.
This blockade of course represents a savage attempt to force the democracies to evacuate the city of the torturing German people.
Having got the western allies out of the way, the Bolsheviks could form a separate state in Eastern Germany, with Berlin as its capital.

Washington, London and Paris
struck simultaneously but separately, and for the first time directed their demand to Moscow
rather than to the Soviet authorities in Germany. They have called Stalin's hand, and at a time when the iron curtain is showing considerable wear and tear at vital points like Yugoslavia, Finland
and Czechoslovakia.

Equally impressive was the announcement in Washington that the ambassadors of Canada and five Western European nations
had been called into conference with the Undersecretary of State, Lovett. The five Europeans are Britain, France, the Netherlands, Belgium and Luxembourg, which recently formed an alliance. These conversations will have to do with possible American military support for the Western European bloc. This is the first time that Canada has been brought into discussions between the bloc and Washington, but her inclusion is a natural one since her defensive interests interlock with those of the United States and Britain.
Solidarity between Canada and America is vital to the well-being of the western hemisphere.

Whatever official attitude may be taken by Moscow towards the demand from the democracies that the Berlin blockade be lifted, there can be no doubt that the general European situation provides an anxious moment for the Russians. The defiance and dislike being registered by the three satellite states comes from countries which are strategic points
in Russia's battle front through Northern and Southern wings respectively. Czechoslovakia was designed by the Reds to be the strong point of the center.

These signs of weakness developing in the Bolshevik battle-line certainly don't lend strength to the Russian campaign against the western allies in Germany.
When the battle line still seemed unimpaired it was quite clear that Moscow was prepared to force the issue against the western powers by all means short of atomic gunfire. Russia has been wanted war, but in order to further her Red revolution in Europe
she has been willing to take many risks in an effort to browbeat the democracies.

The allied notes calling for an end to the food blockade should force the Soviet to disclose
whether it has carried its chal-

other survivor, found six life preservers and gave them to the women in the boat. Then all aboard jumped into the water except L. R. Burnett, who owned the vessel. He was badly burned and died a short while later.

Sanders, whose lips were cracked and seeling from exposure, testified he was lying on a bunk in the cabin at the time of the blast. He said there were six life preservers on a rack above him.
He took them on deck, gave them to the women and jumped over the side.

Sanders declared he never had reason to believe the vessel was unsafe and said he did not notice
whether there were other life preservers aboard.

Another witness was J. T. Bland, who chartered the Hazel a week previously for a fishing trip with 29 boys of the Ocala School Patrol. He said the vessel appeared in good condition at that time.

Pete Baylor, a fisherman of the Ocala Key area, estimated there were about 17 life preservers on the Hazel. He testified he helped Burnett repair and recondition the craft about a month before the miscap.

Another witness was Mrs. Sarah Musich, mother of Salem Musich, who perished. She testified "a man, who sold fish" at Yanketown told her the boat "shouldn't have been in the water."

Thomas Shashy, who went to Yanketown the day after the explosion, informed the board that a boy named Billy told them the boat had burned Sunday. That was before anyone had definite knowledge of the vessel's fate.

Shashy said, Mrs. Mary Shashy, his mother, testified that a woman at the scene told her the Coast Guard had not been notified the boat was missing until Tuesday.

The board recessed shortly before noon. It was to go to Yanketown and resume its inquiry
later this afternoon.

Conducting the investigation are Commodore M. H. Leslie of Mi-

Boys—Robert, John, James, Michael, William, Richard, Joseph, Thomas, Stephen and David.

The department also produced the most popular names of 50 years ago and 20 years ago. It proved conclusively that there are fashions in first names as definite as there are fashions in clothes. Fashions in girl's names show a trend toward the fancy.

(or Anne), Margaret, Catherine, Gloria, Helen, Teresa, Jean and Barbara.

But not so with the boys. A half century ago it was John, William, Charles, George, Joseph, Edward, James, Louis, Francis, and Samuel. Most of them were still in the running three decades later: John, William, Joseph, James, Richard, Edward, Robert, Thomas, George and Louis.

A batch of New York City birth certificates doesn't necessarily show a nationwide trend. But as far as the current lists of the top ten are concerned, I think they do. There's been a revolution in the troublesome business of naming one's offspring.

In the pre-historic days before talking movies and radio, most families used a pretty simple procedure in naming their youngsters.

The first man-child usually was named after his mother. The only trouble with the system was that the beneficiaries of the names usually being called "Junior," "Baby Mary," or "Little John" all their lives to distinguish them from their namesakes.

Girls nowadays are being tagged with names that sound pretty to parents (and are, incidentally, the given-or taken-name of movie stars). Thus, even if Diane sounds pretty grim with a mandatory last name, chances are she'll acquire a new one in 20 years—attached to a wedding ring.

A few years back it seemed that everyone was naming their boys either Peter or Michael. That phase has passed. And so, thank heavens, has the cute vogue of calling each chubby little future president, "Butch."

Today's feature—Things I never expect to see:

Ginger Rogers and Larry Parks having a chummy chat about politics. . . . David O. Selznick quietly announcing his new film as "A pretty good picture." . . . Gary Cooper giving an interviewer "A hot story." . . . Gene Autry and Roy Rogers striding arm-in-arm down Hollywood boulevard.

Charlie Chaplin teasing an open house for the press at his studio. . . . Bob Hope changing the format of his air show. . . . Robert Walker saying "I'm happy at MGM." . . . George Raft declaring he'd like to give up tough guy roles. . . . Pat O'Brien singing "There'll always be an England." . . . Olivia de Havilland and Joan Fontaine making up. . . . Hollywood

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD, July 7 (AP)—It looks like a life-long acting career for Margaret O'Brien.

The talented tot's mother had hoped to retire Margaret from the screen during the in-between years, but the little gal is putting up a fight. She turns on the tears whenever a retirement is mentioned, and it now appears that Margaret will stay in pictures.

She plans to bridge the awkward period by appearing in a film series based on "Violet," the super-intelligent moppet. Margaret herself sold legs Louis B. Maye on the character.

Maggie, now 11, is maturing so fast that her mother has to prompt her not to act sophisticated. Mrs. O'Brien has laid down one hard and fast rule: No dates until Maggie is 15.

Barry Sullivan is up for the role of Caesar Borgia in "Lancelotti Borgia," starring Ray Milland and Paulette Goddard. . . . 20th-Fox is taking no chances on being accused of playing politics. . . . noted on Linda Darnell's copy of the "Three Wives" script that a mention of "Eisenhower" was altered to read "George Washington." Just in case he chooses to run. . . .

Bette Davis goes to New York after "June Bride," her first visit in 10 years. She's not fond of the town. . . . Lex Barker is doing well in his first Tarzan role. I hear he is six grunts ahead of schedule. . . .

The Gregory Peck version of "A Tale of Two Cities" will be given-or taken-name of movie stars). Thus, even if Diane sounds pretty grim with a mandatory last name, chances are she'll acquire a new one in 20 years—attached to a wedding ring.

Sanford Giants Defeat St. Augustine In 8 To 7 Contest

Joe Schultz To Get Recreation Honors Mound Call Tonight; Lloyd Clifton Is Married In DeLand

By ARTHUR BECKWITH, JR.
Herald Sports Editor

The Sanford Giants ripped the rejuvenated St. Augustine Saints last night by an 8 to 7 victory. The Sanford Giants, who have been playing in the Florida State League since 1947, defeated the St. Augustine Saints, who are playing in the same league, in a contest that was one of the most exciting of the season.

Lennie Wortham opened on the hill for the Giants, and was replaced by Ben Unsworth. Rudy Lake came to the rescue in the eighth and tossed the final frame.

Manager Hal Gruber shuffled his batting order last night. Johnny McManus was the second man in the order, Tommy Cataldo was in the third slot, Lake playing third base most of the night, he in the fourth position. Charlie Papp was moved to fifth and Len Matis was advanced to sixth. Tim Tyler and Connie Kavala were dropped to seventh and eighth respectively.

Lloyd Clifton, Sanford second sacker, was married in DeLand last night. Manager Hal Gruber will be out of the lineup for a few days, according to Gruber.

Tonight the Giants move to St. Augustine for a return engagement with the Saints, and tomorrow evening the locals return to the Municipal Park for a contest with the Daytona Beach Indians.

Joe Schultz, chubby right-hander, will probably get the nod for his duty tonight in St. Augustine. In the event, Lake plays in tonight's contest, and it is likely that he will open the game at third base, he will be the league record for number of games played, and it is likely that Manager Hal Gruber will send him to the hill tomorrow night against the Indians.

Tommy Cataldo, who has been a regular for Lake, and he will be presented the Zeb Hatfield trophy for being the most popular player in the Florida State League.

Len Matis paced the Sanford side last night by ripping out a double and a triple in four trips to the plate.

Sanford was resting on a seven run lead until the fourth canto. When the Saints came back, the Giants were able to hold them off. The Giants won the game by a score of 8 to 7.

Johnny McManus opened the sixth by drawing a free pass. He was the first player to reach base.

Sanford's victory was a significant one, as it marked the first time the Giants had defeated the Saints in a home game.

The Giants' victory was a testament to the skill and determination of their players, who were led by Manager Hal Gruber.

mittet—was limited to hearing proposals of major farm organizations for the party's agricultural plank. These groups are fairly well agreed as to what they want for the farmers.

Thursday's schedule calls for a parade of witnesses on the question of whether the party should commit itself to President Truman's civil rights program—to which Southern Democrats object violently—or strike a compromise. But for Friday was an airing of views of labor leaders on the Taft-Hartley Labor Act. They have demanded its repeal. On this issue—on civil rights—Democrats in government are sharply divided. President Truman vetoed the legislation, but many Democratic lawmakers are void to override the veto.

Myers has set his sights on a short platform comparing favorably with the 1944 version of less than 1500 words.

Farm groups listed to be heard today included the American Farm Bureau Federation, the National Council of Farmer Cooperatives, and the National Cooperative Milk Producers Federation. All were prepared to ask the Democrats to pledge themselves to government farm programs designed to assure farmers a "fair" income. The cooperative organizations want to assure that farmers and co-ops will not be made subject to federal income taxes. Some business groups are pressing for such taxation.

Meanwhile the drooping balloon of the Eisenhower boom hung over the forthcoming Democratic National Convention.

President Truman's representatives—highly encouraged by the General's couldn't-take-it statement—scurried back to Washington for fresh strategy orders.

The expectation was that they would come back to Philadelphia primed to put out the word on Mr. Truman's choice for second place on the ticket—a selection he has delayed while he awaited the latest word from the wartime European commander.

Although Democrats in such widely separated areas as California and New Jersey declined to take Eisenhower's "no" as final, the feeling in this convention city was that it is all over but the shouting.

The shouting may center on various ineffectual efforts to draft Eisenhower and to put Justice William O. Douglas in as a substitute. But party members who arrived early for next week's meeting of the faithful said that only his own action can prevent Mr. Truman from walking off with the nomination on the first ballot.

There was no giving up in the draft-Eisenhower ranks—at least publicly.

of cargo. Heretofore the planes concentrated on building up food supplies. Western Berlin, meanwhile, further curbed street cars as a fuel conservation measure.

The scope of the air lift is indicated by U.S. Air Force figures on the 18 hours from 4 P. M. yesterday to 10 A. M. today, when 116 flights brought 610 tons of food into the city.

After a night of good weather, heavy rains once again complicated the job. One plane limped in on a single motor, but no other incidents were reported either by British or American fliers.

The warning on the planes' safety came in a dispatch of the Soviet licensed news agency ADN, reporting a June 30 American request for a change in procedure at their Berlin air safety center. The Russians replied, the agency said, that Americans are violating Four-Power rules for air traffic control and warned that U.S. authorities must take "full responsibility for the safety of American planes."

Frank Cranston, first of the Boys State speakers, revealed that the counselors were State Highway patrolmen who sounded the sirens of their automobiles at 4:30 o'clock each morning to route the boys out of bed. He praised the fine meals, told of assemblies at the Little Theater, and said the boys had an enjoyable time, with two and a half hours a day for recreation. Speeches of Mayor Fred Lowry of Tallahassee and Department Commander Reese were enjoyed, he said.

Stanley Brumley told of the politics of Boys State, and the city, county and state elections. He revealed that he had run for the office of State Commissioner of Agriculture, but lost to a city boy "who probably didn't know a turnip from a beet." He turned toward Kiwanian George Austin when he announced that Billy Austin, the latter's son, had successfully nominated James Grant, sponsored by Orlando Kiwanis as candidate for governor of Boys State.

James Ludwig told of the hot discussion and tabling of a proposed Boys State law to keep the state off the highways. Bill approved, he said, included establishment of a medical school at Gainesville and increasing the scope of the Florida Highway Patrol. He told of James Grant's fine address on Communism, of a talk by Governor Caldwell and of "dramatic councilors ragged" on errands.

Bobby Hixson declared that the boys had been "treated nice," and referred to the shirts with Boys State insignia, and the pins the boys were wearing, which served as "meal tickets," he said. He also told of enjoyable trips to Waukulla Springs under escort, and expressed appreciation to his sponsors.

Mr. Field outlined the Boys State program, sponsored each year by the American Legion and civic organizations and introduced Mrs. Fox, President Frank Lamson announced that Shriners will entertain Kiwanis next Wednesday.

more acute.

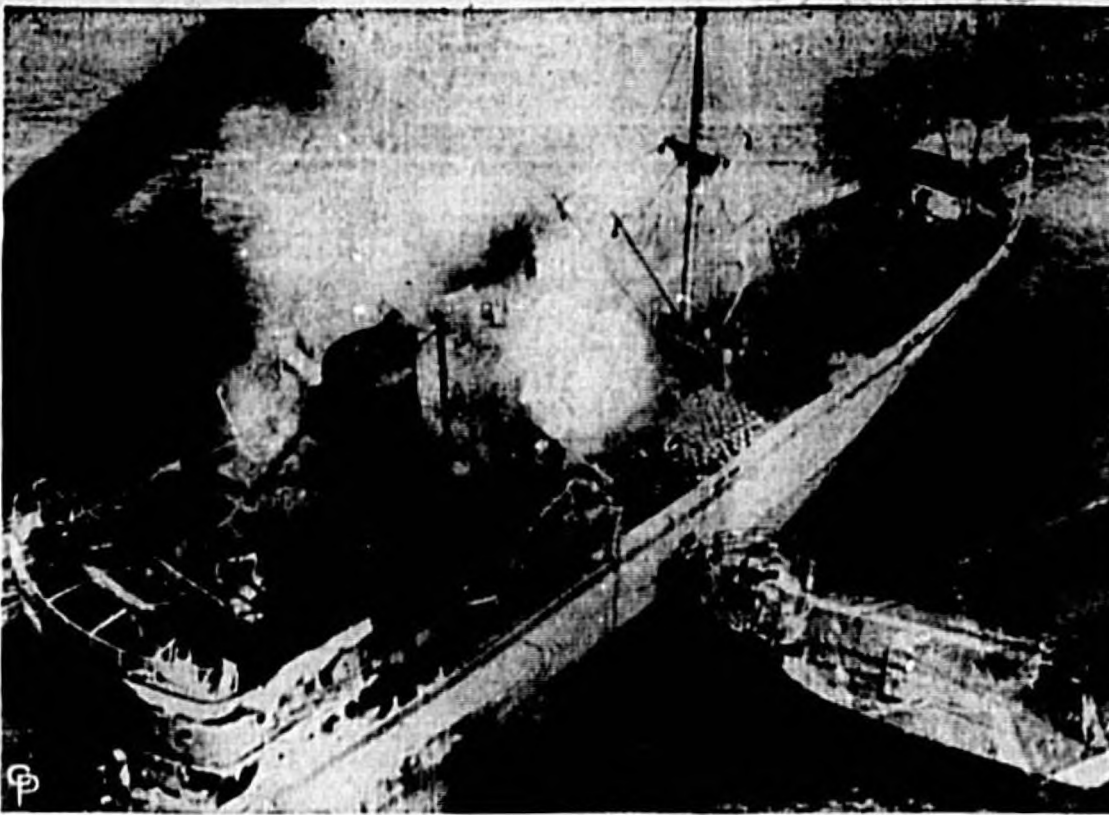

Bevin recalled that former Prime Minister Winston Churchill said "the bad management of the labor government" is the cause of Britain's need for aid. The Foreign Secretary said "This is nonsense."

London newspapers hailed acceptance of the Marshall Plan generally as the turning point in the British struggle for solvency. "We are indeed incurring a heavy burden of responsibility," the liberal News Chronicle commented. "But it is clear we are not being asked to make any promises which we cannot honorably perform. We can discharge this debt by intelligent use of our resources and by diligent hard work."

in the port city of Haifa. The United States and France have indicated acceptance of the request. Belgium has not yet replied. Gromyko fought bitterly in the past against limiting military representation in the holy land to the United States, France and Belgium—the three nations comprising the council's consular truce commission. Last month he lost a lengthy fight to have Soviet military observers join the 93 Americans, French and Belgians assigned to truce control duty by Bernadotte. In that case the council majority gave Gromyko's appeal the silent treatment and joined in abstaining to kill the Soviet plan in a vote.

hell-bent to fling blame the government?" asked Rep. Bender (R-Ohio), subcommittee chairman.

"It was a case of government personnel dealing with a thoroughly organized and cartelized industry," Kilday replied. He said he urged the FBI to investigate the rate-making activities of Army department officers. He added:

"I recommended that they be looked into criminally."

Kilday said four men representing the nation's 900 railroads had the final say in negotiating what rates the government should pay the railroads. They operated on a "take it or leave it" policy in recommending rates to the government, he said.

"For that reason the government was denied the right of shopping around for lower rates," he testified.

Kilday said that "for all practical purposes," the four-man rate board was under the thumb of A. F. Cleveland, chairman, who recently retired from the post of vice-president of the Association of American Railroads.

He said that Cleveland's role in negotiating government freight rates has now been taken over by W. J. Kelly, who also succeeded him as vice-president of the AAR. Kilday recommended the creation of a central rate-making agency of the government backed by a "prosecuting arm of the strongest kind" to deal with the railroads.

"Could you convince the railroads that sure as night follows day they'll go to the court house when they impose unjust rates on the government, then you'll get

Arab Forces Open Tel Aviv Drive In Southern Palestine

Jews Accept Count Bernadotte's Plea To Extend Truce For Four Weeks

LAKE SUCCESS, July 8, (AP)—The United Nations Security Council was called into emergency session on the Palestine crisis today. The session was called for 2:30 P. M. to take up a request from the Jewish State of Israel for action to stop an Egyptian attack in Southern Palestine. The call was sent out by the U. N. shortly before 1 P. M. This allowed the delegates only an hour and a half to travel to U. N. headquarters.

By MAX BOYD
CAIRO, July 8, (AP)—Israel's high command announced today that Egyptian forces opened an offensive south of Tel Aviv in the waning hours of the Palestine truce.

Count Folke Bernadotte, United Nations mediator, said at Rhodes that the Arabs rejected his plea to extend the four-week truce, although the Jews had accepted the proposal.

Renewed Arab-Jewish war on a full scale was expected tomorrow. The Jewish high command said the Egyptians already were throwing air, artillery and armored car attacks at Beer Tuvia, 23 miles south of Tel Aviv.

Rex Harrison To Face Coroner On Miss Landis' Death

HOLLYWOOD, July 8, (AP)—British actor Rex Harrison faced the coroner's questioning today in connection with the suicide of screen starlet Carol Landis. Harrison apparently was the last person to see the blond actress alive at her home Sunday and was the first to discover her body slumped on her bathroom floor the following afternoon.

"Our intent in calling Mr. Harrison," explained Coroner Ben Brown, "is to hear nothing on date to clear up completely any unexplained points in Miss Landis' death."

The star's brother, Lawrence Rudolph of San Bernardino, Calif., indicated the family does not expect to question Harrison.

Meantime, search continues for a second will. The only one found so far was filed in 1944. Jerry Geisler, Miss Landis' attorney in Los Angeles, said today:

Blaze Reported In 9th Street Station

A blaze in a filling station at Ninth Street and French Avenue yesterday morning caused a small amount of damage before firemen put it out, Fire Chief M. N. Cleveland reported. The fire was caused by a defective gasoline motor inside of the station. The filling station is owned by W. R. Wilson. The call was received shortly after 9:00 A. M.

Recent rains have stopped grass fires on the outskirts of the city. Chief Cleveland said. He pointed out that summer time, when grass is usually green, is an unusual time for such fires, and said that this was the second summer he could recall when there were such blazes.

Tale Of Death And Sacrifice In Boat, Told

Three Survive Ordeal After Being Swept To Sea By Typhoon

By SPENCER DAVIS
MANILA, July 8, (AP)—A harrowing tale of death and sacrifice when 11 men were swept to sea in a small boat Sunday was told today by one of six known survivors.

He is Brother Vincent Sheerer, 32, of Holy Hill Shrine, Wis., who described his experience as "A nightmare I never expected to survive."

He and two Filipino youths were rescued today by a U. S. Navy flying boat 40 miles off Luzon.

Three Filipinos died of exhaustion and exposure.

Two other members of the party, including Father Leo McCrudden, 32, also of Holy Hill Shrine, are missing and feared dead.

Two members of the party swam ashore Sunday after a typhoon swept them to sea and another was picked up by a launch.

Brother Vincent, sunburned and swollen from immersion, related "we were willing to take any chance and that is how Father and I got into a rubber raft on July 5 with one companion."

Brother Vincent said, "They paddled away from us in a rubber raft. They paddled away from us in a rubber raft. They paddled away from us in a rubber raft."

Barton Says Check On Rails Is Needed

WASHINGTON, July 8, (AP)—A federal official testified today that the government spends hundreds of dollars annually on railroad transportation "without adequate check."

Frank L. Barton, chief economist of the budget bureau, told a House subcommittee today that there is no adequate check on the government's freight bill "either in advance or afterwards to determine whether the rates are just, reasonable and lawful."

Barton testified after Rep. Bender (D-Ohio), subcommittee chairman, had told reporters that Bennett E. Meyers, retired major general sent to jail by one congressional committee, would be called as a witness.

William T. Farley, president of the Association of American Railroads, replied that any insinuation of some connection between Meyers and the railroads is "pure invention."

Timber To Be Exhausted In 30 Years Unless Owners Reforest

By CHARLES HASLET
AP Special Washington Service
WASHINGTON, July 8, (AP)—The Forest Service said today that the nation's "saw" timber will be exhausted in about 30 years at the present rate of cutting unless private owners take steps to conserve, replant and reforest.

An official of the department told a reporter that if the forests are handled properly, however, the danger of exhausting the "saw" timber—which can be cut for lumber and other forest products—would be over in a few years and there would be enough lumber for everyone.

No one was injured, as members of the fraternity of the Sons of Reel, had exhausted all political arguments concerning Dewey, Eisenhower and Truman, had settled the Russian question, decided the future course of Sanford, revised the state constitution to their own satisfaction, and having thoroughly launched city, county and state officials, had gone home for a cat nap.

Western Heads Disagree Over Russian Notes

Officials Attempt To Iron Out Differences Over Publication Of Protests

WASHINGTON, July 8, (AP)—A disagreement has developed among the western powers over plans for publication of their notes of protest to Russia on the situation in Berlin. Officials in Washington, London and Paris were reported today to be trying to iron out the differences.

The time for release of the notes, which insisted that the Russians lift the Berlin blockade, remains to be fixed but seems likely to fall within the next few days.

The difference of British and French views, on the one hand, and American views on the other, is important because it appears to reflect different estimates of the seriousness of the conflict between East and West in the German capital.

Britain and France, according to reports from their capitals, have been pressing for prompt publication of the notes delivered to the Russians on Tuesday.

While no official statement of their position has been made, it is reported here that the foreign offices in London and Paris believe the important consideration is one of propaganda. They are understood to argue that the western powers should not allow the Russians opportunity to publish an unfavorable reply before the western powers publish their protest.

The State Department, on the other hand, is understood to take the position that the latest involved in the Berlin situation are of such extreme seriousness that propaganda is of secondary importance.

Dutch Election Is Marked By Losses For Communists

By HENDRIK KERSTING
AMSTERDAM, The Netherlands, July 8, (AP)—Complete election results revealed today that the Communists have lost strength in the Netherlands and rightist groups have scored gains.

The Communists were deprived of two of their 10 seats in the lower chamber of Parliament as a result of yesterday's general election. Their decline was particularly marked in Rotterdam, where they pulled 30 per cent fewer votes than in the last election two years ago.

The middle-of-the-road Catholic People's Party retained its 32 seats. The Catholics polled 1,531,206 of the 4,828,738 votes cast maintaining their position as the nation's No. 1 Political Group.

But the Catholic-labor party coalition which makes up the present government lost some strength to the rightist groups—the Conservative Anti-Revolutionary, Christian Historical and Freedom.

Government Is Nearing End Of Strike Inquiry

Attorneys Plan To Interview Lewis' Counsel About Industry's Charges

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Government today neared the end of its inquiry into the three-day-old strike of steel industry coal miners and geared itself for court action.

NLRB attorneys planned to interview Welly Hopkins, chief counsel for John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers, about the industry's charges that Lewis and the Union are violating the Taft-Hartley Act.

The NLRB wants Hopkins' side of the industry accusation before deciding whether a formal complaint against Lewis is warranted.

The issue in the present walk-out is the union shop clause in the new wage agreement accepted by commercial coal operators. The steel industry was willing to accept the $1 a day wage hike and 20-cent welfare fund royalty provisions of the agreement but not the union shop.

About 76,000 soft coal miners are idle in the dispute.

A wage dispute pulled out some 1,100 members of the CIO oil workers union at four branches of the Standard Oil Company in Cleveland.

In New York a factional fight for control of the CIO National Maritime Union was being decided by a ballot count. Results will not be known for at least two weeks. The fight is between a right wing group headed by President Joseph Curran and a ticket headed by Frederick N. Myers, a former vice president.

Curran's group has been claiming a clean sweep; his opponents have not commented.

In Hollywood the Screen Actors Guild has reached an agreement on a new collective bargaining contract with representatives of all major studios. The agreement, which will be signed today, is expected to end a long dispute.

Their home town addresses were not released.

Col. Paul H. Prentiss, base commander, said they were the only persons aboard the transport. The cause of the crash was not determined.

Endorsement Of Civil Rights Is Demanded; McGrath Talks Peace

Party Chairman Schedules Parley With Young Roosevelt On Truman Nomination

DETROIT, July 8, (AP)—CIO United Auto Workers President Walter P. Reuther believes the democrats should nominate Supreme Court Justice William O. Douglas for President "to insure maximum mobilization of the labor vote."

ST. LOUIS, July 8, (AP)—Robert E. Hanneman, former Postmaster General, issued the following statement today: "Harry Truman has been a good President for all of the people of America. He should be renominated and re-elected."

PHILADELPHIA, July 8, (AP)—Democratic Chairman J. Howard McGrath today scheduled meetings with leading party leaders in an effort to clear away their objections to President Truman as the party's nominee.

McGrath told a news conference he will meet with James Roosevelt, California Democratic chairman, as soon as the son of the late President arrives in Philadelphia.

Roosevelt has been one of those seeking to sidetrack Mr. Truman in favor of some other presidential candidate, preferably General Dwight D. Eisenhower.

Although he plans individual talks with the anti-Truman leaders, McGrath said he would not attend a caucus of the group called here for Saturday night by Roosevelt and others.

The national chairman disclosed that if Mr. Truman is the nominee, McGrath intends to take over general supervision of the President's campaign with headquarters in New York City.

The Democratic National Committee, meeting here after next week's convention closes, is expected to select McGrath as its campaign manager.

Battleship New York Sunk With Bomb, Shell Fire

Survivor Of Atomic Tests And 2 Wars Rests In Pacific

By LEIF ERICKSON
ABOARD U. S. CARRIER BOXER, July 8, (AP)—The once tough old battleship New York—survivor of two wars and two atomic bomb tests—sank finally with just a "slight push" from small bombs and shells.

Navy task force officers expressed regret that she didn't survive an experimental attack long enough for them to test their weed-bait bombs.

But a 52 year old chief storekeeper who had boasted the New York still could take a terrific beating sadly remarked: "She was a tired old lady. What was the point in taking more of a beating?"

He is Daniel Connor of Pawtucket, R. I., who served on her when she was commissioned 34 years ago.

The exercises, 40 miles southwest of Pearl Harbor yesterday, cost the life of a Marine fighter pilot. He spun into the sea off the Boxer's stern nearly two hours after the sinking.

The 30,000-ton onetime grand dame of the United States fleet—survivor of two wars and two Bikini atomic blasts—went down at 2:30 P. M. after eight hours of air attack and light shelling.

Rear Adm. Marshall R. Green, task force commander, explained: "When you get somebody off balance, you don't have to push very hard."

The experts had figured it would take torpedoes to finish the radioactive old battleship today.

Green said the New York was damaged materially by the atomic blast.

Freight Lines Get Extension On Rates

TALLAHASSEE, July 8, (AP)—A 10 percent increase in Florida truck freight rates, granted last November for a six-month period, was extended for another four months today by the State Railroad and Public Utilities Commission.

The Commission said it intended, when the increase first was approved, to hold further hearings and determine whether it should be allowed to continue beyond May 14.

However, the Commission explained, "An overcrowded docket has made it impossible for the Commission to hold such hearings."

The increased rate will remain in effect until midnight, Sept. 14.

While all the American prisoners perished in the fire, none of the 300 Japanese military and political prisoners lost their lives.
