County commissioners approved the $90,000 to move the used storage tanks donated to SCOPA from the Sanford Lakeland to the port site west of "concrete tanks" before asking the Seminole County Board Monday the $80,000 will only move the tanks to a holding area and at least $60,000 more is needed to complete the tanks reinstallation.

Ryan said he has contacted 15 major oil firms in Florida to determine their interest in using the Sanford tanks and each firm has given a negative response. He said Shell Oil Company told him they were trying to get out of the state because of the tough anti-spill laws.

"It is hard to get a commitment for tanks that are not yet ready to operate from firms which are not sure where their product will come from when the tanks are operative," Ryan said.

Ryan said it will cost $500,000 to build the tank farm utilizing new tanks and the board agreed to control expressing dissatisfaction with the board's decision to place Teague School on double sections designate a full-house around turn it to be a board decision.

The unit I have in mind would establish a major petroleum firm in 18 counties by Ryan told SCOPA board members.

County Commissioner Dick Williams, who represents the county commission on the SCOPA board, advised port officials to have "some concrete plans" for the tank farm before asking the county commission for more money.

Nixon Urges Congress Grant Experiment To Give Cash Housing Payments To Poor

WASHINGTON (AP) — Terminating the federal government "the biggest slumlord in history," President Nixon urged Congress today to authorize a new experiment that would provide the needy with direct cash payments to help meet their housing needs.

Nixon said the direct payments should be considered as a potential substitute for massive public housing projects.

In a long-promised special message, Nixon said the cash payments appear to be "the most promising way to achieve decent housing for all our families at an acceptable cost."

Nixon said that under the direct payment plan, "The federal government would provide qualified recipients with an appropriate housing payment and would then let them choose their own homes on the private market."

Nixon said a recent study shows "it costs between 15 and 40 per cent more for the government to provide housing for people than for private to acquire that housing themselves on the private market."

In 1970, Congress authorized a $150 million experimental program in housing allowances involving more than 18,000 families. Nixon recommended this effort be expanded and that figures be gathered on the cost of safe and sanitary housing in various parts of the country.

Recommending that first priority be given to the elderly poor, Nixon said the cash subsidies "would be carefully sealed to make up the difference between what a family could afford on its own for housing and the cost of safe and sanitary housing in that geographic area."

The President said a final decision on the wisdom of the innovative approach probably would come "late in 1974 or early in 1975."

Arson Blamed In Fire, $150,000 In Trucks Lost

By DONNA ESTES Herald Staff Writer CASSELLBERRY — Arsonists destroyed 26 trucks early today at Air Flow Designs, 250 Jasmine Road, according to Deputy State Fire Marshal Earnest Wright.

The fires were reported to the Casselberry Fire Department at 2:40 this morning when the flames were burning out of the main building, the spokesman said.

Firemen remained at the smoldering ruins until after 4 a.m. The management discounted reports of recent attempts to unionize the company and firmly denied a recently-fired employe might be responsible.

"Negative," the spokesman said to both queries. The fire chief Roger Karcher said the fire was caused by arsonists who set off a series of explosions that destroyed 25 of 27 fully equipped and loaded trucks.

They were started by puncturing and setting afire their gasoline tanks, the spokesman said. Damage estimates by company officials ran as high as $150,000. No one was injured.

The authorities have assured us the arsonists made a few slip-ups and arrests will be made shortly," the spokesman said. The fires were in the compounds to either side of the Jasmine Road plant and destroyed 25 of 27 fully equipped and loaded trucks.

Clyde Lee Freed To Give Testimony

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP)—Gov. Reubin Askew has granted gambler Clyde Lee executive clemency in exchange for testimony against two men described as organized crime figures.

Harlan Blackburn, a major figure in a Central Florida lottery operation smashed last year, and reputed Mafia figure Sam Cagnina, are charged in Seminole County with assault with intent to murder Lee.

Askew's executive order, agreed to Tuesday by the state Cabinet sitting as a pardon board, said Lee's life was in danger while he was in prison and directed the Corrections Division to turn him over to the state Law Enforcement Department for protection.

Lee's five-year sentence, imposed Jan. 25, 1971, in Jacksonville was commuted to time served provided he testified. He was convicted of assisting in an illegal lottery, possession of lottery tickets and possession of lottery paraphernalia.

Askew's order said attempts were made to assassinate Lee June 11, 1971 while he was free on bond pending a conviction appeal.

The order said Lee had given a full statement under oath to State Attorney J. Robert Eagan of Orlando and that the testimony was vital to the prosecution of Blackburn and Cagnina.

"Harlan Blackburn and Sam Cagnina have been publicly identified as being associated with certain organized crime activities and operatives in Central Florida," Askew's order said. Lee had served one-third of his sentence and "has maintained an unblemished prison record," according to Askew.

Knowles and city commissioner Julian Stenstrom represent the city on the library board.

Little Known Locally About Meat Program

By JEAN PATTESSON Herald Staff Writer Virtually no information regarding the National Livestock and Meat Board's program to standardize names of meat cuts has reached Sanford area meat markets, including Publix, Fairway, Park And Shop, and Winn Dixie.

Manager of Winn Dixie meat department, Bob Brown, said he has read about the program in the papers, and is sure it will be implemented soon nationwide.

"At Winn Dixie we started about two years ago identifying what part of an animal each cut was," he said.

"I was really surprised... not the first telephone call about yesterday's lampton on the Bobby Riggers - Billie Jean King forthcoming tennis match.

"I was enjoying myself... right up to the time I bit into a piece of paper buried in my mashed potatoes. It said, 'Prepare to eat cow, steak of latters' (I still don't know if it was my wife or young daughter Janell who was responsible for that little shocker...)

Hypothetical question regarding that woman from Apopka who now has taken the responsibility of "raising" Mayor, the mutton who has been in the news.

What happens if she should violate one of the "conditions" attached to her having the dog? Would Seminole forcibly take it back?

Arrangement For Geter Is Monday

Samuel Geter, the 13-year-old Sanford Middle School student who was arrested and charged Sept. 5 with first degree murder in the death of William Ogilvie, 12, Sanford, will be arraigned Monday in Seminole County.

Geter, was scheduled to be arraigned last Monday but his attorney, T. David Burns of Baywood, was unable to appear at that time. Geter, however, did appear but he said he did not know the name of his attorney.

Geter was indicted for first degree murder Sept. 11 by the grand jury.

Staying in State

Askew Rejecting Talk Of Presidency

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) — Gov. Reubin Askew has tossed more cold water on suggestions that he seek the Democratic nomination for President in 1976.

Askew declined an invitation to appear personally with other prominent Democrats during the live broadcast of the party's national fundraising telethon last weekend.

He sent instead a 60-second tape for airing during longer personal appearances by the party's leading contenders for the nomination, including Sen. Edward Kennedy and New York Mayor John Lindsay.

"He really didn't think it necessary to go all the way out to Los Angeles," said Askew press secretary Don Pride.

"As he has throughout his whole term, he will make no effort to gain any kind of national attention," said Pride. "He's tried to avoid out-of-state travel as much as he could."

Pride said the governor did participate in the state Democratic Party activities coinciding with the national telethon. Askew addressed a chicken dinner in Miami Saturday night, and visited the switchboard where Florida pledges were accepted during the seven-hour telethon.

But Ann Cramer, vice chairman of the State Democratic Party, was getting all the national television exposure with her progress reports of Florida contributions along with representatives from other states.

The state party will receive an estimated $100,000 from telethon proceeds.

Askew was in high spirits last week during a pre-season football luncheon for Florida State University.

He jokingly complained that news reports focused too much attention on his rib injury and not enough on the touchdown he scored during a touch football game with his office staff.

Federal Land Use Plan

Act Dooms Local Authority

Copley News

Local governments in the United States of America began assuming planning and zoning powers late in the 19th Century.

In the interests of seeing their towns and cities develop in an orderly way, property owners by and large have accepted this intrusion into their traditional rights to use a piece of land for whatever purpose they choose.

We are reaching a point, however, where land use controls are spinning a web around property rights in a way that surely would have appalled our grandfathers.

The proposed Land Use Policy and Planning Assistance Act, which has bipartisan support, has the innocent outlines of a progressive piece of environmental legislation.

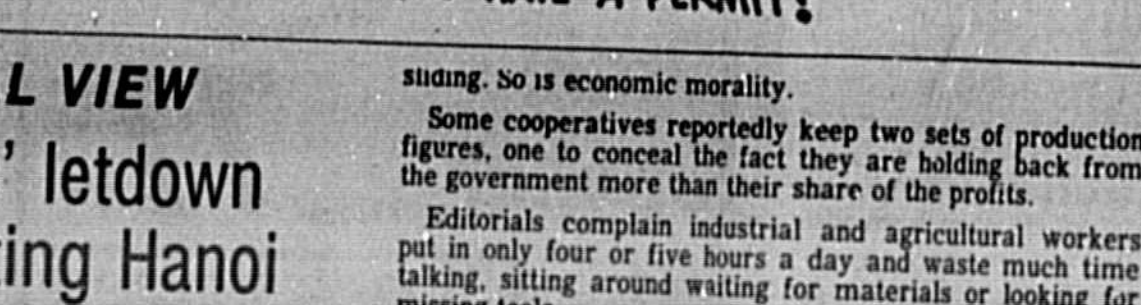

of the individual property owner.

This might be the time for citizens to draw back and consider how far they want to go in creating government agencies to hold sway over the use of land.

What exactly is the deed to a piece of property going to mean when there is an environmental policeman on every corner, possibly in a federal uniform?

The question is as much a philosophic one as a political one.

DO YOU HAVE A PERMIT?

'Grandfather' Clause

by Jack Anderson

WASHINGTON — Members of Congress used to bolster their family finances by putting relatives on the public payroll. This practice, known as nepotism, was outlawed six years ago.

Yet a few veteran legislators are still handing out their federal paychecks to their relatives. They get away with it under a "grandfather" clause, which permits relatives who were on the payroll before 1967 to continue to collect government salaries.

But their employment, though quite legal, clearly violates the spirit of the law. Years ago, when we first started shaking the congressional payroll, hundreds of relatives fell out like over-ripe fruit from a tree.

We continued our payroll searches until the number of relatives was down to barely 50. The passage of the anti-nepotism law finally drove all except a few hangers-on from the payroll.

Now the Administration plans to replace the only consumer-oriented commissioner with an industry man whose business friends donated heavily to the President's campaign.

The donations came from executives and stockholders of WJR radio in Detroit, and its parent firm, Capital Cities Broadcasting. Quello was a WJR employee for 25 years before he retired as a vice president.

Quello has already run into some stiff opposition from citizen groups, including Ralph Nader's raiders. Nicholas Johnson, the commission's secretary, is slated to replace, has also gone on record opposing him.

Quello's critics have cited a WJR internal memo which charges the Detroit broadcaster with being "insensitive" to minority problems.

Printed in Iowa City, Iowa, it offers convicts $25 an article and a thorough assessment of their poems, stories and articles by professors at the University of Iowa.

But "in" has other problems. Graham, a short time after his first issue, suffered a heart attack and is now trying to get out his second issue from a hospital bed.

Representative Spark Matsunaga, D-Hawaii, keeps his brother Andrew on the payroll for $14,000 as a "district director."

Representative Edward Patten, D-N.J., pays his wife Anna an annual $15,500 to be on the payroll.

Representative Otto Passman, D-La., the stingiest man in Congress with foreign aid money, is more generous with his brother Otis who draws a $15,000 House salary.

Representative Ken Gray, D-Ill., the Beau Brummell of the House, pays his father, Thomas Gray, $20,000 a year of the public till to run his congressional office in West Frankfort, Ill.

Florida News Briefs

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) — A bill aimed at ending abuses suffered by Florida farmworkers has been filed by Rep. Frank Carlucci, D-Jacksonville.

Carlucci, chairman of a House commerce subcommittee on seasonal farm labor, said Tuesday the bill would make employers responsible for paying laborers instead of allowing the responsibility for wages to be passed on by farm labor contractors.

The bill would outlaw loans to laborers by contractors and extend the federal minimum wage to all seasonal farm workers, Carlucci said.

"Through the bill, seasonal farm laborers would have many of the rights enjoyed by other workers in the State of Florida extended to them," Carlucci said.

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) — Sen. Lori Wilson says Florida shouldn't need a dime to call the operator from a pay phone.

Sen. Wilson, D-Merritt Island, filed a bill Tuesday to require telephone companies operating in Florida to alter phones so the operator can be dialed without inserting a dime first.

"From the time our children can hold up one finger, we teach them to dial zero in an emergency," said Sen. Wilson. "Yet if they are playing in a park, walking home from school, need medical or police aid, their knowledge doesn't do them a dime's worth of good unless it's in their pocket."

She said she expected opposition to her proposal from phone companies.

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) — Rep. John Forbes, D-Jacksonville, has resigned as chairman of the newly named House Select Committee on Consumer Protection.

"Under the present structure, I do not feel that we could implement constructive change for the people of Florida," Forbes said Tuesday in a letter to House Speaker Terrell Sessoms.

"I would rather see long range reform at a later date than minimal change now," Forbes said.

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) — Sen. Lori Wilson, I-Merritt Island, has filed a bill to require the governor to appoint one consumer representative to each of the 28 state licensing boards.

The boards are composed solely of members from the respective professions and occupations they regulate which can certainly cast suspicion in the public mind of a monopoly, closed shop situation or opportunity for such," said Sen. Wilson Tuesday.

She said the addition to the boards of a lay member of the public not involved in the regulated profession "would open a large window into their operations and help assure that all segments and interests are better protected."

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) — Two legislators were to testify before a U.S. Senate subcommittee in Washington Wednesday to urge protection of the state's right to tax multistate corporations.

House Finance and Taxation Committee Chairman Ralph Turington, D-Gainesville, and House Minority Leader Pro Tempore Eugene Tubbs, R-Merritt Island, will appear before the subcommittee on state taxation of interstate commerce.

Florida's Oil Spill Law To Stand

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) — Florida's oil spill law will stand despite opposition. "No bill will be forthcoming and no legislation unless it is proved beyond a shadow of a doubt that a crisis exists in the State of Florida," Childers told a group of power company officials.

Childers said Tuesday the law could not be changed now because of too much opposition.

Childers said, "There is more opposition to changing the Florida oil spill law than there ever has been. It will take a crisis of the first degree to change the oil spill law."

Cabinet Axes Plane Veto

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) — Cabinet members who lost their personal airplanes two years ago now have given up veto powers over use of aircraft in the executive pool.

"When all available aircraft are scheduled, executive priorities will be exercised only on travel requests received by 12 noon on the day preceding the day of requested travel."

Childers said, "There is more opposition to changing the Florida oil spill law than there ever has been. It will take a crisis of the first degree to change the oil spill law."

The Cabinet Tuesday adopted a plan of operation for the pool which removes the requirement that a Cabinet officer approve before the Aircraft Bureau can assign an executive pool plane to a lower official.

Homer Hutchinson quit as Aircraft Bureau chief last spring with a blast at the Cabinet. He said Cabinet planes were idle while other state officials needed air transportation.

Childers said, "There is more opposition to changing the Florida oil spill law than there ever has been. It will take a crisis of the first degree to change the oil spill law."

Under the new rule, the bureau may assign a Cabinet plane to other officials if all other planes are in use.

Stone said the regulation's requirement that planes be used for official purposes only should be sufficient to avoid breaking the new election law.

Childers said, "There is more opposition to changing the Florida oil spill law than there ever has been. It will take a crisis of the first degree to change the oil spill law."

Bailey, Turner See Jury Picks

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) — Prosecution and defense attorneys had nine preemptive challenges left today in the third day of jury selection in the federal mail fraud trial of super salesman Glenn W. Turner, attorney F. Lee Bailey and seven others.

The defense can eliminate six more prospective jurors and the prosecution three before being forced to accept the selection of U.S. District Judge Gerald B. Tjoflat.

Ten jurors were still unchallenged Tuesday, including two housewives, a newspaper dock worker, an apartment manager, an addressograph operator and a telephone operator, a timber company manager, a

Mississippi Bars Dare To Be Great

JACKSON, Miss. (AP) — Florida financier Glenn Turner and his Dare to Be Great Enterprises have been barred from operating in Mississippi in a court order handed as a major weapon against promoters.

Judge George Haynes issued the order in Hinds County Chancery Court Tuesday against Glenn Turner Enterprises and its Dare to Be Great Inc. subsidiary.

State Atty. Gen. A. F. Summers, who had filed for the injunction, called the decision "the first big victory... for the Mississippi consumer" and said it would be a tool "to stop other unscrupulous individuals."

Guard Worked As Spy

MIAMI (AP) — A Kentucky Republican says he got a job as a security guard at the 1972 Democratic Convention to spy on Sen. George McGovern for the Committee to Elect the President, the Miami News has reported.

Michael B. McMinnoway, 27, of Louisville, said in an interview Tuesday that he and two other security guards, not acting as spies, were assigned to head security at the Doral Beach Hotel where McGovern had his headquarters.

McMinnoway told the newspaper that he was employed by the CRP "to find out what type organization they had" and enjoyed unlimited access to the inner circles of the McGovern staff.

Boy May Regain Use Of His Arm

JUNO BEACH, Fla. (AP) — An 11-year-old boy, whose left arm was mangled when he tried to help his father fight off an attacking shark, probably will regain full use of the limb, doctors say.

Kevin Schlusener was skin diving with his father, Ronald, near Memory Rock in the Bahamas Friday when he was bitten by an 8-foot bull shark.

Ronald Schlusener, 32, who has been working as a commercial lobster diver for two years, said Tuesday he was in 25 feet of water with underwater visibility of about 50 feet when he first saw the shark.

GLOBAL VIEW 'Peace' letdown is hurting Hanoi

By Ray Cromptley

WASHINGTON (NEA) — The end of the bombing and the withdrawal of American troops have not eased Hanoi's pain. They may have made it worse.

Intensive study of North Vietnamese domestic press and radio reports by Asian researchers indicates Hanoi's economic troubles are growing. Politically, the country is plagued by a nationwide letdown in factories and on collective farms, a reaction to the years of wartime restrictions and production drives.

The government, long able to blame economic problems on the bombing and the war effort, no longer has that excuse for its economic bumbles. Criticism apparently is growing apace.

Industrial manpower is dreadfully short. Especially skilled labor. The agricultural labor force is depleted. Discipline is seeking to fight inflation by allowing interest rates to rise.

Higher interest rates supposedly have a multiple impact on inflation: One, they discourage borrowing; Two, they encourage people to put their money into savings instead of spending it.

This would appear to be helpful to the housing market, because savings and loan associations are designed specifically to channel funds into mortgages, but it's a bit more complicated than that.

Some cooperatives reportedly keep two sets of production figures, one to conceal the fact they are holding back from the government more than their share of the profits.

Editorials complain industrial and agricultural workers put in only four or five hours a day and waste much time talking, sitting around waiting for materials or looking for missing tools.

Agricultural cooperatives and factory workers alike, these reports say, neglect their official jobs to work on private plots or in other sidelines (moonlighting).

North Vietnamese news accounts lay stress on the amount of bribery and the theft of state supplies.

Inefficiency and carelessness go hand in hand. There are reports of waste and misuse of very considerable amount of Soviet reconstruction aid and now reportedly coming into the country. Some reports mention excessive amounts of equipment left to deteriorate in the open.

Economic troubles are apparently increasing pressure in North Vietnam to put top priority on domestic reconstruction and cut down on funds being spent in attempts to take over the South.

The funneling of materials to occupied areas of South Vietnam apparently is being covertly criticized. Key Hanoi leaders have come out for building Socialism in the North as the first priority.

Cambodian Highway Reopened

PHNOM PENH, Cambodia (AP) — The Cambodian military command said today that Phnom Penh's highway to the sea has been cleared of Khmer Rouge insurgents again and reopened to traffic for the first time in nearly a month.

Col. Am Rong, the chief military spokesman, said government troops fell on the insurgents from four sides Tuesday at Sala Krus, on the highway 17 miles west of Phnom Penh, and killed a large number.

Am Rong said the total casualties were still to be determined. Convoys between Phnom Penh and Kampong Som, Cambodia's only deep-water port, will probably begin moving along Highway 4 on Thursday, Am Rong said. But a damaged bridge 33 miles southwest of the capital near Moba Saing could delay traffic.

Haiti Holds 3 In Drug Case

PORT AU PRINCE, Haiti (AP) — The Haitian government said three Americans were arrested and 600 pounds of marijuana seized aboard a yacht off Haiti's northern coast on Sept. 11. At the time rumors circulated in Haiti and neighboring Santo Domingo that armed Haitian exiles had made a landing in the same area. The names of the captured Americans were not announced.

Allende Planned Coup?

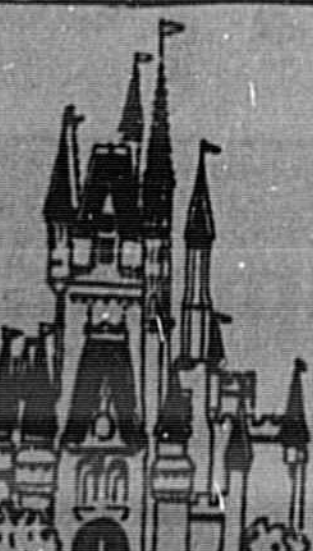

SANTIAGO, Chile (AP) — The head of Chile's largest political party claims President Salvador Allende was planning a coup of his own to establish a Marxist dictatorship when Chile's military commanders overthrew him Sept. 11.

Patricio Aymen, president of the Christian Democratic party, said Tuesday that Allende's hopes of leading Chile "down the road to socialism" had failed and the president was plotting to stage a faked uprising which he would have crushed with his armed supporters and thus established absolute Marxist control.

"The best proof is the enormous amounts of arms that the illegal Marxist militia had," Aymen said. "They formed a true, parallel army, with fire power equivalent to 12 regular regiments and the active presence of more than 12,000 foreign extremists."

Army patrols digging through the burned out presidential palace and the bombed presidential residence uncovered hundreds of weapons shipped in clandestinely from the Soviet Union and Czechoslovakia, according to the new ruling junta. They included anti-tank launchers and rockets, light machine guns, automatic rifles, pistols and grenades.

Also found in a safe in the presidential palace, according to the junta, were plans to assassinate the armed forces chiefs, opposition political leaders and journalists. Reports printed in the two newspapers permitted to publish by the junta said the generals were to be slain Monday night while preparing for the Armed Forces Day parade today and commando squads were then to go from house to house eliminating opposition in leaders.

Bahamian Murder Plot Alleged

WASHINGTON (AP) — A convicted stock swindler says Elliott Roosevelt and a reputed big-time gambler offered him $100,000 to assassinate the Bahamian prime minister.

Roosevelt, son of former President Franklin D. Roosevelt and once mayor of Miami

Beach, Fla., called the allegation "an utter and complete fabrication."

Louis P. Mastriana told the Senate permanent subcommittee on investigations Tuesday that the assassination contract was offered because Prime Minister Lynden O. Pindling allegedly failed to grant a gambling license to Michael McLaney. Mastriana identified McLaney as a one-time employee of U.S. gambling kingpin Meyer Lansky.

When the wheel belongs to you, the road goes anywhere you say. And it's so much better with a '74 Chevrolet.

Caprice Classic. Introducing an elegant motor car, just asking to be enjoyed. Outside: an imposing new grille and, on the Coupe, a distinctive new roof line. Inside: peace, quiet and convenience. With standard power steering to do most of the turning, standard power front disc brakes to do most of the stopping, and a standard Turbo Hydra-matic transmission to do the shifting. If you want the luxury and comfort of a car that leaves little else for you to do but enjoy the ride, you don't have to look beyond the '74 Caprice Classic. However, the freedom of the open road begins with the freedom of choice.

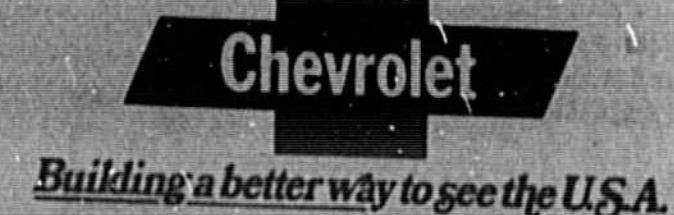

Monte Carlo. You'd think it looks were everything, until you drive it. It has steel-belted radial tires and a refined radial-tuned suspension. Power steering and power front disc brakes. We think you'll appreciate how well it handles, how smoothly it rides. For it's as elegant mechanically as it is in appearance.

Vega GT. This year's version of last year's Motor Trend Economy Car of the Year. (And Car and Driver Readers' Choice as Best Economy Sedan for the last three years.) With a reshaped nose, bigger bumpers, nicer carpeting, new stripes and new colors. Plus more good things to make it better. See what it's like to drive a winner.

Camaro. The way it looks is the way it goes. Quick, sleek and nimble. With a low, wide stance, responsive steering. And comfort that's rare in a car that handles so well. Plus classic new styling, and plushness from the cut-pile carpeting up.

Malibu Classic. A luxury Chevelle, new this year. With full foam seats. A fold-down front armrest. Wood-grained vinyl accents. Elegant inner door panels. Extremely tasteful upholstery and cut-pile nylon carpeting. That's just inside. The exterior is just as classic, in character and in detail, as the interior. Yet, it remains mid-size. And, it remains all Chevelle. With Chevelle handling and at a Chevelle price. Now that you've looked, come and see the new Malibu Classic—and all the 1974 Chevrolets. KENNY EVANS RESTS AFTER WIN... SNA Harrier after 2.2 mile run (Herald Photo By Bill Vincent)

Kenny Evans Paces SNA To Meet Win

By J. RICHARDS Herald Sports Editor

A young Sanford Naval Academy cross country team split the first six places in their opening Single-A meet with Melbourne Central Catholic, but then took seventh and ninth as well as two junior varsity places to win a "five way" meet Tuesday at the SNA Junior School.

Junior Kenny Evans, who just started running this past spring, took first place with an 11:30 time, 26 seconds ahead of Jim Kelly of Melbourne to pace the Middies to a 29-point finish. Ten points back was Melbourne and in third was "surprise" Sanford Naval junior varsity, a last minute entrant in the meet.

The Baby Middle harriers came up with 74 points, outdistancing Montverde with 106 and Lake Highland Prep with 112.

Bill Ross added the third place for SNA with a 12:02 time, just two seconds off his best time of last year when he paced the Middle cross country team. Melbourne's Jim Ralph was just 12 seconds behind the Sanford runner, while Tim Klein's 12:15 barely missed nipping him and settled for fifth.

Bob Grammig, also of Melbourne, took sixth with a 12:27, but from then on out, the meet belonged to the local harriers.

Ken Dettman trotted home with a 12:37 timing, followed by junior varsity runner Steve Odegaard, whose 12:39 time will surely put him back with the varsity runners, reported a happy coach Tim Praay. Brian Parker followed for the Middle varsity with a 12:40, and Steve Von Zaben's 12:46 time earned the jayvees a 10th place finish.

"We only put the jayvees in at the last minute when the other teams didn't bring their varsity teams. I don't think some of the coaches were too surprised with their times and finish," Praay said after the meet.

Evans recorded his best time over the 2.2 mile SNA course, which will soon move to a 2.6 mile layout.

The Middle coach also noted with pleasure the "time spread" between his top runner, Evans, and a "pack" of finishers on his team from 56 seconds at the Greyhound Opener last week to just 32 seconds this time.

"I sure helps having a 'stud' like Evans out to pace your team. The other boys are always trying to catch up to him," Praay said. "We've also started running in a 'pack' now and that will really help our placings."

Friday, the Sanford runners will travel to Trinity Prep for a dual meet with the highly regarded Saints, led by Sanford standout Thad McNulty, Prep transfer and number one runner.

For Meeting With 'Canes Tribe Mentor Shuffling Deck

By DAN GILMARTIN Herald Correspondent

It is going to be a tough week on some senior footballers at Seminole High School. Coach Claude Woodruff is constantly re-evaluating his assets and plans to do some shuffling around at various positions in order to strengthen his squad for the Friday evening clash with Gainesville.

The Purple Hurricanes should make life tough for the local breeds no matter what happens this week in practice. The Gainesville school is currently ranked sixth in the Four-A poll this week by virtue of a 35-0 victory over cross town rival Gainesville Eastside.

A name that has been mentioned at the SNA camp quite a few times the last few days is Mark Whigham, Mark, the sibling of former Seminole and FSU quarterback Frank, is following big brother's footsteps in the signal calling position.

In view of the offensive performance exhibited by the tribe against supposedly weak Oviedo, the Sanford mentor may be giving the sophomore field general a crack at running the show when the locals trek to the university city.

One of the Seminoles biggest problems last Friday night was offensive consistency.

"We would have a couple of plays that would go 25 or 30 yards and then have a couple mistakes, penalties, or broken plays that would kill our drives," stated the first year tribe grid coach.

"Right now I am looking for anyone who can do the job, and it doesn't matter if the seniors or the sophomores are the ones that do it," said Woodruff.

In line with this thinking the tribe coaches are doing some switching in the line with sophomores McGregor and Allen possible starters at guard and Billy Hardy and Mike Goode, another soph, at the tackle positions.

Seminole QB Brent Carl, who went 9 for 9 and was sacked twice while trying to pass, spent a harassed evening because of lack of protection. If the tribe is going to have an attack that will move the ball, pass protection is going to have to improve.

Woodruff thinks his boys can move the football but is frustrated over their inability to put points on the board; and that is after all where it counts.

Game time for the clash between the Big 8 rivals is scheduled for 8:00 p.m. at Florida Field in Gainesville.

Hounds Harriers Are 'Perfect'

By JOHN CHERWA Herald Correspondent

"Fifteen" is to a cross-country coach as 300 is to a bowler and in cross-country action yesterday Lyman Coach David Huggins achieved his "perfect game."

In a meet held at the Lake Brantley harrier yesterday the 'Hound harriers swept first through fifth for a perfect team score of fifteen. In second in the three team meet with 48 points was host Lake Brantley. Third place was taken by Appoeka with 75 points.

Winning the individual honors was Greyhound runner Kenny Duncan with a time of 12:28, a course record. Every runner set a course mark for the place they finished in because this was the first time this particular course was used in competition. This was the second record Duncan has set this season in as many starts.

Second in the individual competition was Mark Bousquet who finished 13 seconds off the lead with a 12:39 time. In the Greyhound Opener he finished third behind Duncan and SNA star Ken Evans.

Moving from sixth in his last start to third yesterday was returning veteran Tom Herron. He finished with a 12:48 on the "difficult" 2 1/2 mile course.

Dennis Burns improved seven places since his last outing to come in fourth. He was three seconds behind Herron with a 12:50 time.

In his first varsity opportunity of the still young season Willie Smith came in fifth with a 12:53. In the Opener he ran jayvee.

In varsity the positions of the top five runners on the team are added together to determine the team score thus making 15 the lowest possible score. Each team can run as many as seven harriers.

Brinker was off his form with a 14:47 and a spot at 14th.

The remainder of the team from Appoeka captured the 15th, 17th, 18th, and 19 positions. Carl A. Hound placed eighth. Jim Boyles (16:19), Preston Schofield (17:05), and Johnny Cannon (17:13) took these slots. Huggins was "real proud" of his team despite various complaints about the course.

Most of the Greyhounds felt that the sand that was in various positions hurt their times and they felt that Lake Brantley knew the complicated course "by heart" another advantage for the opposition.

Nevertheless this was the first time in Lyman history that the cross-country team has accomplished a one through five sweep.

The Hounds next outing will come this Friday when they compete in the Colonial Invitational. Many of the teams that Lyman defeated in the Greyhound Opener will also be in Colonial.

Huggins believes that they can defend their title of "defending runner-up" or even better it.

Chamberlain Negotiating With ABA 5

LOS ANGELES (AP) — It was another in a long list of reports that have made the basketball career of Wilt Chamberlain as controversial as that of any athlete.

And Chamberlain said, "I have nothing to say" concerning a story Tuesday in the San Francisco Examiner that he would sign a $600,000-a-year contract with the San Diego Conquistadors of the American Basketball Association.

The 37-year-old Los Angeles Laker center would neither confirm nor deny the report.

"I'm negotiating with the Conquistadors as possibly being a player and coach but that's as far as I can say," the 7-foot-1 Chamberlain told The Associated Press at a Hollywood Boulevard bookstore. Wilt was there to autograph copies of his book, "Wilt," in a private office.

"He does not want public autographing sessions," Wilt's public relations man commented. "As for what he's going to do, I don't know and I don't think Wilt does, either."

The Los Angeles Lakers of the National Basketball Association likely will sue if Wilt leaves the club because it holds his contract option for one more season.

"We expect Wilt to play this year and if he plays anywhere, he'll play here," said Pete Newell, Lakers general manager.

Counting On 'Leaner' Cards' GM Looks To 1st Place Finish

By FRED ROTHENBERG Associated Press Sports Writer

Leaners used to only count in horsehoes but now St. Louis Cardinal Manager Red Schoendienst is counting on a leaner in his sport.

"If we can keep on winning and if we're leaning the right way, maybe we can fall into first place," said Schoendienst after the Cardinals beat the Expos 7-4.

The victory, coupled with the Pirates' 6-5 loss to the Mets, pulled St. Louis to within 1 1/2 games of Pittsburgh's front-running pace in the National League East.

Elsewhere in the National League, Philadelphia and Chicago split a pair, the Phils taking the first 5-2 and the Cubs the second 3-2; Cincinnati blanked Houston 1-0; San Diego dropped Atlanta 9-4 and Los Angeles douried San Francisco 3-2.

Mets 6, Pirates 5

Ted Williams, one of the greatest batters to ever play the game, said hitting a baseball was sport's most difficult feat.

For Don Hahn, a 233 hitter, it doesn't sound hard.

"It looked good enough to hit, so I swung at it," Hahn said of his two-run single that capped a five-run rally, rallying the Mets to a 6-5 victory over Pittsburgh.

Padres 9, Braves 4

Steve Arlin held Atlanta to five hits and Hank Aaron to a single and a long out in hurling the San Diego Padres to a 9-4 victory.

Aaron lofted a long fly in the sixth that seemed destined to put No. 712 on the Atlanta scoreboard in lights. But the ball died on the warning track and Gene Locklear put it away.

Phil 5 1/2, Cubs 2 1/2

Chicago's Bill Bonham stopped Philadelphia on three hits, 3-2, after Greg Luzinski's 28th homer, a two-run shot, carried the Phillies to a 2-2 decision in the opener.

Reds 1, Astros 0

Andy Kosco's run-scoring, pop fly single in the eighth drove in the game's only run and Don Guillet pitched a four-hitter for his ninth straight victory, 1-0 over the Astros.

Dodgers 3, Giants 1

Joe Ferguson raced home with the tie-breaking run in the seventh on Roy Cey's infield grounder, sparking a three-run inning and the Dodgers beat the Giants 3-1.

In the American League the scores were: Oakland 5, California 4; Cleveland 6, Milwaukee 5; Boston 4, New York 2; Baltimore 6, Detroit 2; Kansas City 4, Minnesota 3 and Texas 7, Chicago 2.

Paternotakes it easy on Navy's George Welsh, a former Penn State aide.

Notre Dame 42, Northwestern 7; Tennessee 31, Army 7; Tennessee's Bill Battle, a former Army assistant coach, has fond memories of West Point. The feeling may not be mutual for long.

Louisiana State 28, Texas A&M 7; Bayou Bengals have been known to stumble against the Aggies...and that's no Aggie joke.

Arizona State 49, Washington State 20; Sun Devils become moon devils in the Arizona night.

The ninth grade Patriot outfit will tackle Crooms October 3 and the Junior Varsity will play their next game against the Lyman JV's October 9.

Tech Facing 'USC' Team Again

NEW YORK (AP) — Do you know the only college football team in the country to face USC two weeks in a row?

The answer is Georgia Tech, which entertains the No. 1-ranked University of Southern California Trojans on Saturday.

Last weekend, favored Tech got caught looking ahead to USC and lost to USC, 41-28. That USC, however, was the University of South Carolina.

The upcoming USC, coming off a 17-0 struggle against Arkansas, isn't likely to be that kind to the Yellow Jackets despite the following ungrammatical words of caution from Coach John McKay:

"If we don't play better this week, even though Georgia Tech got beat, they've got better players than Arkansas. We have to play at Atlanta in the afternoon and we're over our heads unless we play in our field better than we did."

The prediction: Southern Cal 42, Georgia Tech 14.

Last week's count was 41 right—including the Michigan-Iowa (31-7) and Arizona-Wyoming (21-7) scores on the nose—13 wrong and two ties for a percentage of .759. For the season, it's 56-21-3—777.

Nebraska 45, North Carolina

Baby Pats, Leesburg Scoreless

The Lake Brantley Patriots and the Yellowjackets of Leesburg played to a scoreless deadlock last evening at Lyman Field in a ninth grade grid battle.

Pat's coach Kelley Wainescott stated that the contest boiled down to a primarily defensive struggle between both teams' 30 yard stripes.

The Brantley mentor praised his defensive squad for their effort and in particular cited a dramatic goal line stand in the third stanza of play.

Outstanding performers in the defensive effort for the Patriots were Danny Williams and Steve Shackelford.

Darryle Lecarr drew raves from his coach for his performance last night both on offense and defense.

"Lecarr really played a fine game for us in both departments," the ninth graders head coach stated.

Wainescott said that although the team did not win the deadlock represented the first non-losing effort for the ninth grade team.

The grid boss said he plans to work with the offensive line this week in practice for their upcoming contest with Sanford Crooms.

"We need a lot more work on the offensive line," said Wainescott. "I hope this was a case of first one jitters, because we just did not have any holes open at all until the fourth period."

Halback Hal Peters juggled the pigskin well despite the shortage of openings; he was the leading ground gainer for the game.

Steve Shackelford aided the somewhat ineffective Patriot attack with short yardage runs in addition to receiving a screen pass for long yardage.

Wainescott also plans to work on the passing game this week. Pat throwers were picked off three times last evening while trying to go the air route.

The ninth grade Patriot outfit will tackle Crooms October 3 and the Junior Varsity will play their next game against the Lyman JV's October 9.

Made Switch To Local School Don Merrick One Happy Sprinter

By DAN GILMARTIN
Herald Correspondent

The Seminole Junior College Track Team received the services for the upcoming track season of an athlete who has a list of credentials as long as a losing coaching cry (yowl).

The star athlete goes by the name of Don Merrick and hails from DeLeon Springs. He currently is commuting from DeLand where he lives with his family which includes brother Clayton, also a member of the SJC track team. Don has established a name for himself in track circles by such efforts as; runner-up in the state meet in the 100 yard dash with a 9.6 time, fourth in the Atlanta Classic and anchor man on a winning 440 relay team at the same place, sixth place in the National Junior Track Meet held at Gainesville earlier this summer, with a time of 2:12 in the 200, a meet that includes high school seniors as well as college freshmen from all over the country.

The amazing aspect concerning these achievements is that the SJC freshman has been running on the cinders for less than a year. Up until this past spring he had been playing baseball for the DeLand Bulldogs and then did a little bit of running and decided to give it a try.

A natural athlete, Merrick had a best time of 9.4 in the hundred, a shocking Raider coach Terry Long would not mind seeing again. In just three-quarters of a season the University of Florida coach enough to offer him a full scholarship if he came to Gainesville to run. Don signed the letter of intent but had second thoughts concerning becoming a Gator.

When asked why he came to the Seminole campus Merrick said that through his brother he met Vesco Bradley, a former SJC All-American, and Ray Robinson up at Florida A&M.

"I talked to those fellas and I knew they were capable runners and they knew something about running," Don continued, "And so I thought I would give SJC a look."

Another factor in Don's decision to come to Sanford was his role as a newcomer to track circles. He stated that he wanted to get in an atmosphere that would provide more individual attention so he would be able to work on his running ability. "Coach Long has been real good to me and he takes time to help me," stated Merrick. "And I would like to do some good running and by that I tell him 'thank you' with winning times for his team."

Right now Don is working out by running some cross country in order to get in shape by the time track season opens in February. Coach Terry Long and the freshman sprinter have seemingly formed a mutual respect club. The SJC mentor is highly optimistic about the effect he feels Merrick will have on the coming season.

"I feel that Don has the potential to be the best sprinter that Seminole has ever had," said Long, who acknowledged that he was putting Merrick in a very high category. Academically the Volusia County product is currently undecided about his major field of study but is satisfied with his decision to attend the Sanford based Junior College.

"As long as I am happy where I am then that will be the place I will want to be. The people here at Seminole are really fine and I am happy, so I guess I made the correct decision on not going to Florida," said Merrick.

One thing is certain. Not only is Don happy, but so will several coaches be, especially Coach Terry Long.

SNA CROSS COUNTRY RUNNER FINISHES

GRITTING his teeth, Ken Dettman crosses the finish line for Sanford Naval Academy during a "five" way meet with the Middies' varsity topping Melbourne Central Catholic, SNA junior varsity, Montverde and Lake Highland Prep. The Single-A Sanford school is making a strong bid to take the state's top cross country honors in that class and along with Lyman and Lake Brantley have given Seminole County a reputation as a powerhouse in cross country.

Jim Hunter's Pitching Near To Grove Feat

By BERT ROSENTHAL
Associated Press Sports Writer

Chief Bender, and Lefty Grove, great names out of baseball's hallowed past. Their legends now are being revived... because of Jim Hunter's steadily brilliant pitching. The Oakland A's ace righthander, American League leader in winning percentage last year with a .750 mark on a 23-7 record, is bidding strongly to lead the league again. His current 20-4 record, an .833 percentage, is the best in the AL.

No AL pitcher has finished with the best winning percentage two years in a row since Grove did it three consecutive years, from 1929-31. The only other American League pitcher to accomplish the feat was Bender, in 1910-11.

Ironically, both Grove and Bender pitched for the A's when the team was in Philadelphia. Hunter reached the 20-victory mark for the third straight season Tuesday night as the A's edged the California Angels 5-4 and maintained their 7½-game lead over Kansas City in the AL West race.

In other AL games Tuesday night, Baltimore downed Detroit 6-2, Kansas City defeated Minnesota 4-3, Boston topped New York 4-2, Cleveland overcame Milwaukee 6-5, and Texas beat Chicago 7-2.

Volunteer Back Picked For Honor

By HERSHEL NISSENSON

"There was no question I would go for the touchdown and so no question I'd have carried the ball."

Also named Tennessee Coach Bill Battle, looking back to Saturday when the Vols. trailing Duke 17-14 with just over two minutes left, were faced with fourth down, four yards to go at the Duke one-yard line.

Battle disassembled a tying field goal and turned to quarterback Condredge Holloway, who'd already thrown a 27-yard touchdown pass and galloped 49 yards for another score, and Holloway came through with a performance that nailed down honors as The Associated Press' national college back of the week.

The statistics for Holloway, a 5-foot-11, 175-pound junior from Huntsville, Ala., weren't too revealing. They showed 18 carries for 63 yards, he lost 34 on sacks—and six of 12 passes for 50 yards. But his performance in the clutch was brilliant.

On that key fourth-down, Holloway ran an option play to the right. A Duke tackler had a clear shot at his ankles at the five yard, according to a member of the Tennessee staff, "judiciously the ankles aren't there no more."

Holloway leaped away from the would-be tackler and came down at the one-yard line with a first down. Hank Stuckack crashed over for a touchdown with 2:05 left.

Bobby Riggs Picked To Beat King In Battle Of Sexes

HOUSTON (AP) — Bobby Riggs is the pick over Billie Jean King in tennis' Battle of the Sexes at the Astrodome Thursday night.

Billie Jean is younger—21 years younger. She covers the court better. She serves harder and hits his many of her shots—particularly her backhand—better.

But it's Bobby's hustle. You never go against a hustler when it's his hustle.

If the two were prize fighters and were to be judged on gymnasium tune-ups, you'd have to go with the girl. Billie Jean has been overpowering in practice. Bobby has been overpowered.

But that's only for fun. It's different when the big prize is at stake. Riggs is accustomed to playing pressure matches. He has more than 40 years of competitive experience behind him. He is a master craftsman at his trade.

As Wimbledon and U.S. champion and later king of the pros, he was the best. The best male player can beat any woman player without loss of a game, without loss of too many points. But Bobby is 55, not as quick as he once was and not even the best senior player in the United States.

Billie Jean, on the other hand, is a five-time Wimbledon champion, can claim to be 1 or 2 and a had forehead. She can volley well but among the women in the world, Mrs. Court is the only one who can dispute her.

Redskin Pair Named Top Defenders

NEW YORK (AP) — "Kenny and Brig are just alert," Ralph Hawkins, said. "They are two damn good athletes. They're pros."

Hawkins, the coach of Washington's secondary, was talking about safeties Ken Houston and Brig Owens, who teamed up to completely dismantle San Diego's offense Sunday and pave the way to most of the scoring in the Redskins' 38-0 romp over the Chargers.

Specifically, what they did was: —Intercept three passes, two by Houston, which led to a touchdown and a field goal, —cause two fumbles with one leading to a touchdown, and —recover two fumbles, with Owens returning his 36 yards for a score and Houston's setting up a touchdown. And just for good measure, Owens made six unassisted tackles while Houston had three plus one assist.

For all that, Houston and Owens were selected today to share honors as The Associated Press' Defensive Players of the Week in the National Football League.

BASEBALL — The National League Montreal Expos purchased catcher Jose Morales from the Oakland Athletics of the American League.

BUFFALO — The Buffalo Braves of the National Basketball Association traded center Elmore Smith to the Los Angeles Lakers for forward Jim McMillin.

FOOTBALL — Philadelphia Eagles' owner Leonard Delfino's Philadelphia-based team says he plans to sell stadium seats with obstructed views and will not allow another telecast of a home game unless every seat is sold.

TENNIS — Australian Evonne Goolagong signed a multi-year contract with the Pittsburgh Triangles of the World Team Tennis League.

HOUSTON — Third-seeded Rosemary Casals of San Francisco, Calif., defeated Jill Schickel of New York, Jets, and linebreaker Nick Buoniccini of Miami who had 10 jacks and three assists in the Dolphins' 21-13 victory over San Francisco.

Despite their personal heroics, the Washington safeties directed the accolades elsewhere. "Everything starts with the front four, and then it goes back to the linebackers and to us. It's all one unit," said Owens, a 5-foot-11, 190-pound, one-year veteran from Cincinnati.

And Houston, 6-3, 198, starting his seventh year and first with Washington after being obtained from the Houston Oilers, added: "It was just an excellent rush from the front four that did it. When a quarterback gets as much pressure as Johnny Unitas did, he has to throw quick and he doesn't have time to read the coverages."

Even Bobby Riggs Has Trouble Finding Weakness

By LAURIE BECKLUND
Copley News Service

Probably every person who has met Robert Lattimer Riggs since his recent onslaught of fame is searching for a dent in the tennis dynamo's ego, a soft spot in his un-daubatable, invulnerable, inscrutable constitution.

Invincible. Inevitable. Inscrutable. Such words are evoked by the Bobby Riggs myth which was created, produced and directed by Bobby himself.

Sitting on the balcony of his hotel room at San Diego Country Estates near Ramona, Calif., the other day, he exuded self-confidence.

"If I ever discover a weak link in myself, I'll write and let you know about it," Bobby said charitably. His offer was accompanied by a smile which showed long, uneven teeth.

It was the grin of a little boy about to get away with something. A peeling, sunburnt forehead heightened the image of youth.

But Riggs was at the pinnacle of his tennis ability more than 30 years ago, when he won Wimbledon in 1959.

Today, at 55, Bobby Riggs faces the world like a successful Ponce de Leon claiming to have discovered in himself the fountain of youth.

However, the substance of his youthful appearance is in part artificial. He travels with a large leather satchel of vitamins and dumps some 400 pills into his fist but aging body daily.

And the gray of his sideburns glints more naturally than the Claret tint of his thinning hair.

Yet Riggs presented a relaxed, youthful picture of a man at ease with himself on a sunny morning.

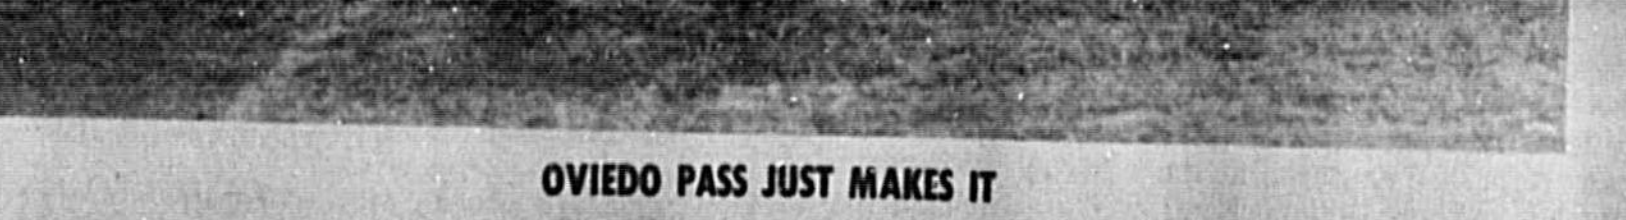

He sat slouched in a patio chair, his feet propped up on his new book, which happened to be lying out on the table for the interview.

The first subject he had decided to talk about was how he was going to psyche out Billie Jean King for their match in Houston Sept. 20.

"First I'll put on my High Karate to distract her," he began. He is doing commercials for the men's cologne.

"And I might send Billie Jean a big black funeral wreath the day before the match that says 'In loving memory of Billie Jean King,'" he said, gathering speed and enthusiasm for the idea.

"And when she sees me, I'll be wearing black. I might have a coffin on one side of the court with a dummy of Billie Jean in it. And I'll be the first to jump over the net and help her mourn her loss."

An Old Pro's Dream Rich 'Tour' For Hungry Golfers

By FRANK MACOMBER
Copley News Service

Whispering Palms, P.O. Box 550, Rancho Santa Fe, Calif. Fees include three rounds of golf a week, lunch, practice balls, practice time on off-tourney days, recreational facilities for contestants' families and help in finding suitable living accommodations.

Littler points out that not only the youngsters, but the older pros, no longer on the big tour, along with many club pros, are eligible to compete in the Golf Inns series.

"I figure that in about 10 years I'll be playing in the series myself," he says, smiling.

PGA Commissioner Joseph Dey has endorsed the Golf Inns tourneys as a valuable supplement to the PGA's so-called "satellite" tournaments for some of the pros who fail to qualify for the main event each week. The satellite purses are comparatively small and the events can't accommodate all the young men who seek to make a living with their golfing skills.

More than 450 pros seek their fortunes on the golf tour each year, with 15 to 20 more coming along every 12 months with "players cards" showing they graduated from the PGA qualifying school at Palm Beach Gardens, Fla.

Golf Inns of America, a corporation that operates several courses and plans to acquire others, believes its series will help to keep many young golfers in the pro ranks until they can make it in the PGA's pressure-packed arena.

"I wish there had been tournaments like these available when I started out to make the tour," says the veteran Littler, whose winnings now are approaching the million-dollar mark. "The series has all the ingredients, not only to develop young professionals competitively, but also to determine how they might make it on the regular PGA tour later."

Vallas and Werschul believe the tournament series will attract young, unseasoned pros from all over the nation, including many who follow the tour, but seldom make the 36-hole cut or finish high up, yet have all the talented tools of the trade for eventual victories.

The Southern California series will be played Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. Entry fees will be $4,800 for all eight weeks of competition. Each tournament will have a 160-player capacity. Entries are being accepted now at

We Can Already See Ruth-Aaron Arguments

NEW YORK (AP) — Babe Ruth didn't need as much time as Henry Aaron to hit his 714 home runs, baseball traditionalists will argue.

For purists, the pre-Ruth all-time career homer record was Roger Connor's 131 in an 18-year career with the Red Sox, Chicago White Sox, Washington Senators and Philadelphia Phillies. Aaron also owned the modern-era lifetime homer record with 119.

PRO CHARTS NBA

3-New York Knicks NBA — Atlantic Division

1972-73 finish: W57, L25 — 2nd Place
PROSPECTUS: People are beginning to see Kinks in the Knicks. Some predict this will be their last great year. The defending NBA champs will lose Dave DeBusschere next season, when he becomes general manager of the Nets. Bill Bradley will probably retire and go into politics. Dick Barnett has retired, to be a Knick assistant coach. But — for this coming season, they are all there. And with Walt Frazier, now an undisputed All-Pro, leading the offense and defense, the Knicks are again strong contenders. They do it with an extraordinary coach, Red Holzman, who has made team defense an art form. The Knicks have led the NBA in defense four of the last five years.

FORWARDS: DeBusschere and Bradley are still magnificent particularly in the scope of the team concept. DeBusschere is a monster on the boards and a good outside shot. Bradley keeps the offense moving with his calculated scampering. Phil Jackson, Jerry Lucas and rookie Mike Davis lead off guard and skill rating: A.

CENTER: Fred is still a question mark, though he came back after injuries to play very well in the playoffs. Lucas is a good back-up center. Rating: B plus.

GUARDS: Frazier ranks with Jerry West as the best in NBA. Earl Monroe is erratic, dazzling at best, desperate at worst. But has made his personal style (with Baltimore) conform to team pattern with Knicks. Dean Meminger is a solid and sparky sub who showed muscle in clutch. Henry Bibby appears to be developing as the little outside shooting guard that Meminger, a diver, is not. Alvin McCall, former Marquette guard, has a chance to stick. His chances are not hurt that uncle is Knick scout Dick McGuire. Rating: A.

PREDICTION: Few expected the Knicks to win it all last season. And their whippersnapper in final playoffs four games to one, shocked many — including Pharoan West, Champbaun, etc. The Knicks line defense is a powerful lever. And the Knicks therefore should again be the team to deal for M.P.A.

Kathleen Connelly Becomes Bride Of James F. Murphey

Miss Kathleen Rosemary Connelly and James Flynn Murphey were united in Holy matrimony, Aug. 18, 1973 at 12 noon, at All Souls Catholic Church in Sanford.

Rev. John T. Ryan, C.S.R. of Sacred Heart Parish, New Smyrna Beach officiated at the double ring ceremony. Millie Cowan, organist, presented appropriate nuptial selections and accompanied soloist, Ruth Brown, who sang "Ave Maria," "The Lord's Prayer" and "Blessed."

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Connelly of New Smyrna Beach and the bridegroom's parents are DuPont Murphey Jr., and the late Mrs. Merle Murphey, formerly of Gainesville.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a formal length gown of organza with schiffelli embroidery and venise lace trim. Her floor length sweeping veil of silk illusion with matching venise lace trim was secured by a camelot style cap headpiece of pleated silk and crystal beads. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses, carnations and lily.

Miss Patricia Connelly served her sister as maid of honor. She was attired in a floor length gown of multicolored chiffon and carried a bouquet of assorted flowers.

Bridesmaid was Miss Beverly Granieri, a cousin. Her gown and flowers were identical to those of the honor attendant.

The groom's father was best man and serving as usher was DuPont Murphey, III, brother of the groom.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Connelly chose a coral chiffon gown and carried a nosegay of roses and carnations on a clutch purse.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Cavalier Motor Inn. Mrs. Thomas Royal was in charge of the bride's book. The couple left for a wedding trip to Montego Bay, Jamaica and are residing at their home on Lake Jessup in Oviedo.

The bride is a senior at FTU majoring in Elementary Education and the bridegroom is employed by the Police Department in Altamonte Springs.

ROSE CIRCLE Mrs. Ruth Simpson was hostess at her Geneva home to the September meeting of Rose Circle of Sanford Garden Club.

A travelogue on her recent trip to Europe was presented by Mrs. Minnie Merriwether.

Following a covered dish luncheon, Mrs. Elizabeth Wilke conducted a workshop making pine cone wreaths for the Christmas Bazaar.

Department Sets Classes In Ceramics There are still some available spaces for adult ceramic classes that are being offered by the Sanford Recreation Department.

Classes will be held on Tuesday from 7-10 p.m., and Thursday from 9 a.m.-12 noon.

First session classes will run Tuesday, Sept. 25-Jan. 29, 1974, and Thursday Sept. 27-Jan. 31, 1974. There is a nominal registration fee for the course.

All non-residents must purchase recreation card at City Hall prior to registering at the recreation office.

For further information call the Sanford recreation department, 323-3161, extension 69.

Concert Association To Present The King Family During Season

During this day of political uneasiness and economic and moral headaches, the King Family breezes into town with a brand new evening of entertainment that promises to dispel gloom and makes your spirit soar to a new height.

The ever-lovely King Sisters, "the gals who started it all," bring with them their talented family, which is naturally headed by the virtuoso of the guitar, Mr. Alvin Rey. Included in the entourage is Robert Clarke, "the actor in the family," who is currently causing the ladies' hearts to flutter with his many "soap opera" appearances. Ken Larsen, who is married to Marilyn, "the baby" of the sisters, will be on hand, with his deep, masculine voice that makes you happy to know that there are still "men who are men." Tina Cole, one of the bright new stars of T.V., who plays the part of Katie in "My Three Sons," will be featured as well as the family's latest star, Miss Lisa Rey, who is causing quite a stir in the entertainment world, with her unbelievable renditions at the harp.

The King gals do a bit of reminiscing about the past, as well as bringing you right up to the today scene. The delightful King Cousins, as well as the King Kiddies, are all on hand to round up a beautiful, unforgettable evening that promises to make you believe that once more "all's right with the world!"

"I was an only child, then I married a King Sister. Now, when you marry a King Sister, you not only get a wife, but you get a set of sisters, a mess of brothers and sisters-in-law, and a whole raft of nieces and nephews, with a bushel of grandchildren thrown in, as well as grand nieces and nephews. In other words, you get a really big, big family."

What's their secret? Laise says it's timing. They know when to "turn off" business and "turn on" relaxation and play. Alvin and Laise have spent close to a year now getting the new King Family Show "ready for the road"—new costumes, new music, new script. The logistics of getting the family, the gear, the guitars and mikes, all to fit into one oversized bus, not to mention baby sitters and school teachers is not easy.

But it has been done and the family is ready and raring to go with a sparkling and captivating performance that tops everything they have done previously. They will be appearing in concert in March, 1974, at Sanford Civic Center under the auspices of Seminole Mutual Concert Association as one of the six feature programs of the season.

Calling All Organizations! Earn Money With Displays

Sanford Pilot Club members met Tuesday evening in the Community Room of the Florida State Bank for their regular business meeting. Various committee chairmen were called upon for reports. Sue Stevenson reported on the recent visit club members to the Sanford Nursing Center. Members entertained and served homemade ice cream and cup cakes and all were so excited that many felt like wanting "to get up and dance."

The new 1973-74 year books were distributed by Doris Stein. The theme this year is "Responsibility in Action" and this little book contains plenty of that for the coming year. Doris also has available Pilot International decals for those that have changed autos or for new members since the club last sold decals.

Open discussion on the club's latest project "Home and Hobby Show and Sale" to be open to the public on Saturday, Oct. 13 at the Civic Center was brought to the floor by coordinator Doris Stein. Floor plans were distributed

Civic Meet In Philadelphia Scheduled In Deltona Dixon-Hadley Nuptials Held

By FANNETTE EDWARDS
Herald Correspondent

DELTONA — Many issues of importance to the community are on the agenda when the Deltona Civic Association holds its first meeting of the fall season tonight at 7:30 in the community center, according to Harold Blough, president.

Former FBI agent Dr. John Linehan, director of law enforcement studies at Seminole Junior College, is serving as legislative chairman for the association and will speak on issues confronting Deltona.

The executive board voted at the last meeting to support incorporation of the community and educate the Deltona residents on the pro's and con's of such a move. Last year, however, association members voted overwhelmingly against incorporation. A tax referendum is now being proposed by some residents.

On Thursday, at 1 p.m., the women's Auxiliary to the Civic Association will meet in the Community Center. New officers are Miss Josephine Mullen, president; Mrs. Charles Weidly, vice-president; Mrs. Robert Dank-worth, secretary and Mrs. Lydia Schmidt, treasurer.

The purpose of this organization is to promote fellowship and to work for the betterment of the Community. All women, who are members of the Civic Association, are automatically members of the Auxiliary and are invited to attend meetings the third Thursday of each month.

A light luncheon will be served before the meeting and after the business meeting, cards and games are played.

Miss Denise Anita Dixon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ezekiel R. Dixon, 5707 Ogontz Avenue, Philadelphia, (formerly of Sanford) and Frank B. Hadley Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Hadley Sr., 5740 Kemble Avenue, Philadelphia, Pa., exchanged wedding vows August 25, 1973, at 2 p.m. at the bride's home.

The bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. E.R. Dixon Sr., live in Sanford.

Officiating clergyman at the double ring ceremony was the Rev. Maxwell Johnson, Baltimore, Md. Miss Yvette Moore of Sanford, cousin of the bride, organist, and Ms. Brenda Wyatt, soloist, presented appropriate nuptial music.

The home decoration included white and roses with white wedding bells with white and silver streamers. Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose an off-white chiffon simple a-line dress with neckline of lace and seed pearls, long sleeves with lace cuffs and double lace trim hem. Her headpiece, dyed to match dress, was petal shape with seed pearls. She carried a cascading bouquet of red roses with white carnations.

Mrs. Gail Baker, matron of honor, was attired in an off-white princess cut gown with high collar and lace insert at bust with long sleeves, lace trimmed. She carried a bouquet of red and green dyed carnations.

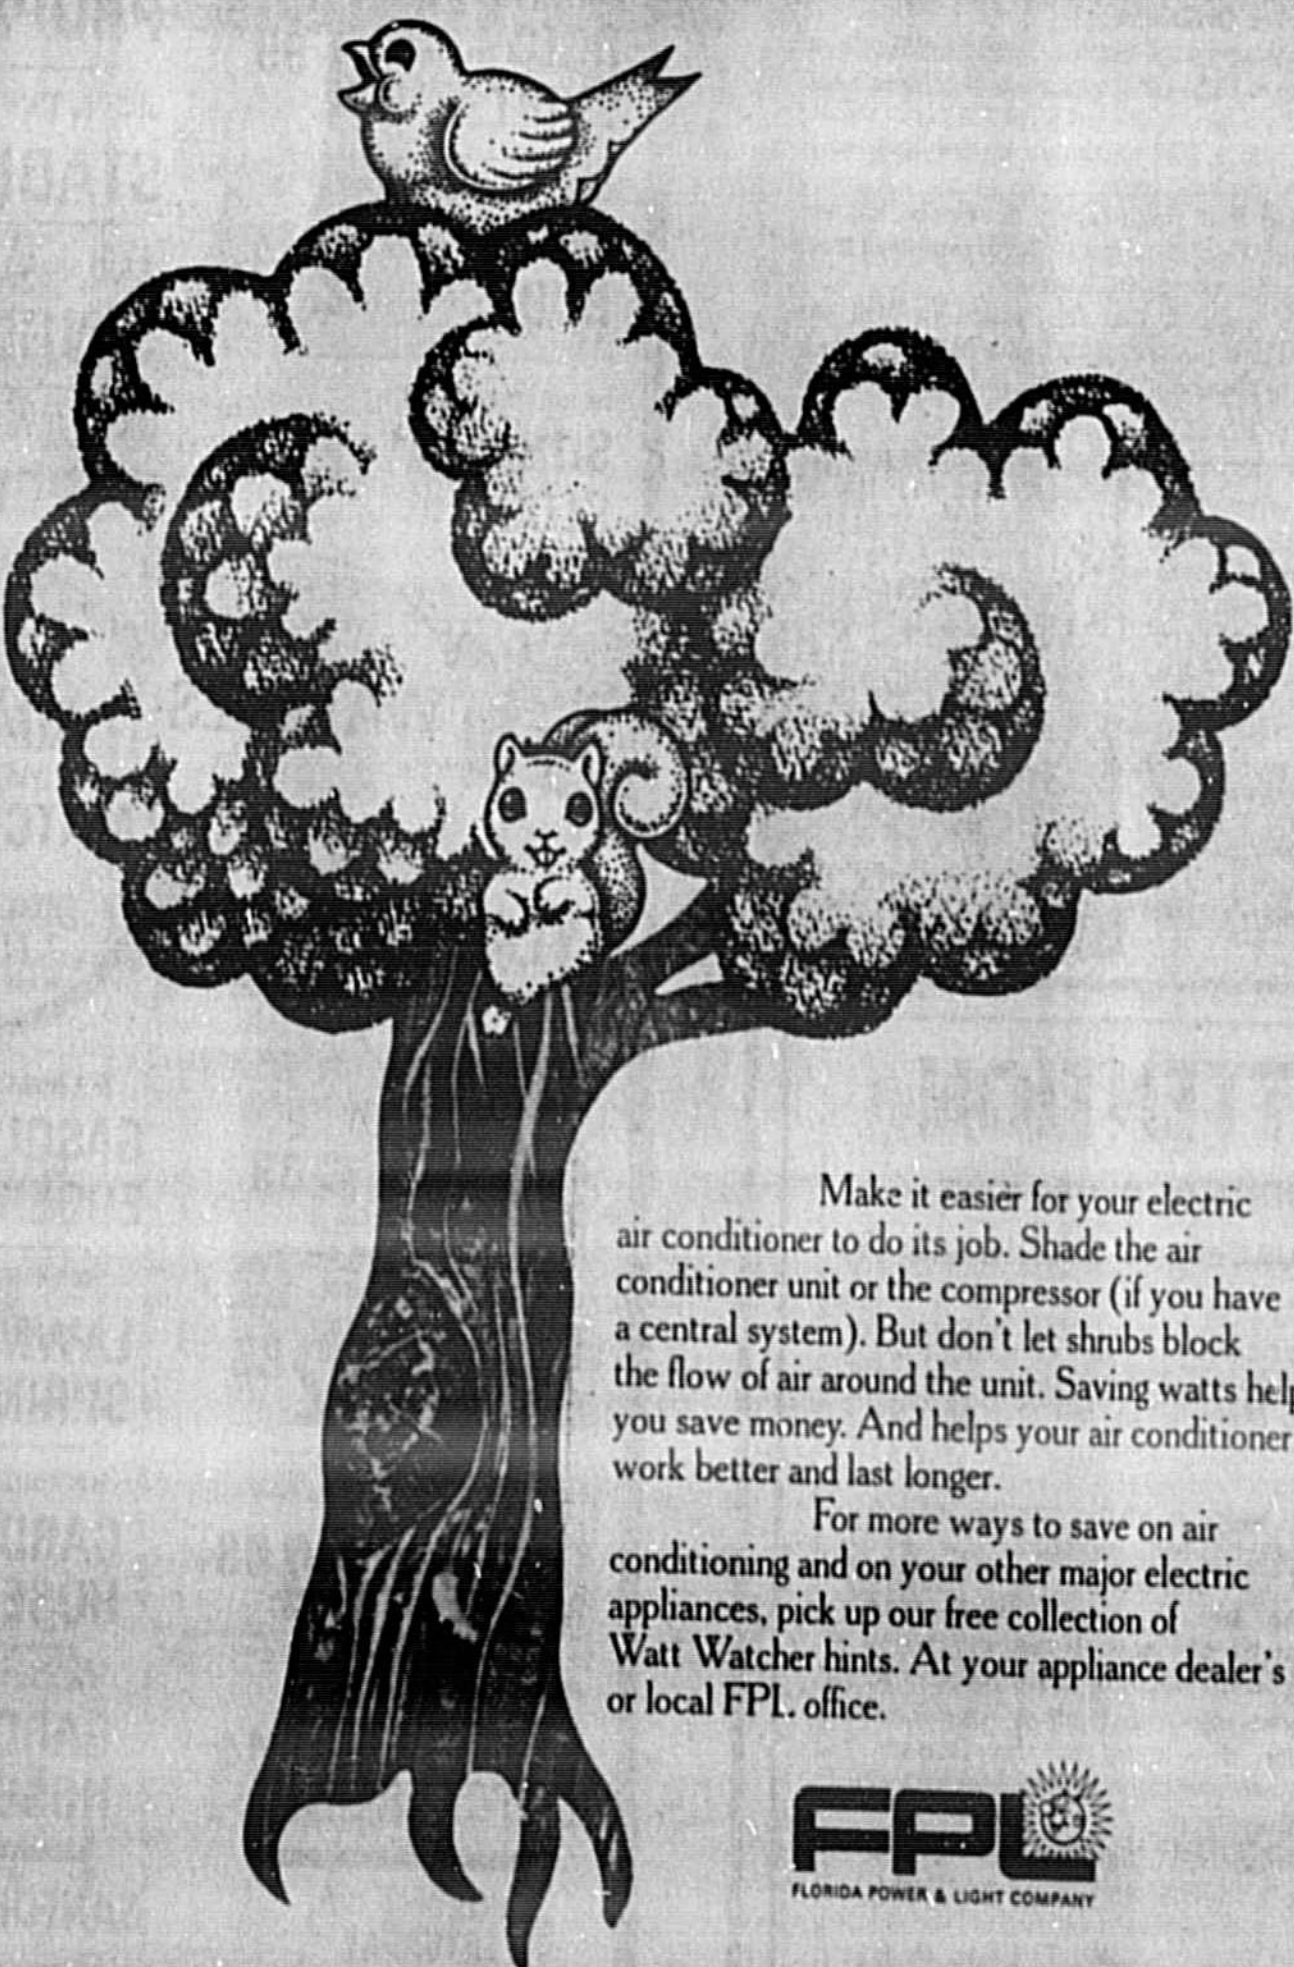

Miss Cheryl Dixon, sister of the bride, was identically dressed as the matron of honor and carried a bouquet of red and green carnations. Joseph Jackson, Salem, Mass., served as best man and usher was Samuel Smith, Philadelphia. Flower girl was Michelle Dixon, niece of the bride and ring bearer was Jerome Glaze.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Dixon wore a floor-length lavender empire waist dress with gold trim with matching accessories and carnation corsage. The groom's mother chose a floor-length green and white empire waist dress with white lace and matching accessories and white carnations corsage. Mrs. Lovella Hadley, grandmother of the groom, was attired in a trest length aqua dress and a white carnations corsage.

The site of the reception was the home of the bride.

Mrs. Robin Dixon, sister-in-law of the bride, presided over the bride's book. Pouring were Ms. Elizabeth Carter, Mrs. Robert Word and Ms. Eula Glaze, Philadelphia. Rice bags were given to the guests by Ms. Marion Mason, and Ms. J. Eldridge.

CEREALS

Clip & Save

Cereals provide a wide range of food value and most of us do not eat enough cereal. Cereals can be a less expensive source of nutrients, especially when eaten with nonfat dry milk. Making cereals at home usually is less expensive than buying prepared ones. Ready-to-serve cereals in multipacks are more expensive (two to three times as much per ounce) as the same cereal in a larger box, according to the U.S. Department of Agriculture. Also, presugared ready-to-serve cereals cost more per ounce than many unsweetened ones and provide more calories but less other food value than those you sweeten yourself. Compare prices per ounce before you buy.

Freezing Foods Requires Skill

Editor's Note: This is the first of two articles on freezing meats, fruits and vegetables.

By TRUDY MORRISON
Copley News Service

With scarcity and prices making meat practically worth its weight in gold these days, you'll want to take the best care of it you can.

Because meat is usually the most precious food in a freezer, it requires special, careful attention.

Package in amounts convenient for your family. Overwrap store wrappings on meat with freezer paper, foil or plastic wrap.

Label packages clearly with crayon or wax marking pencil which doesn't smear from the dampness inside the freezer. Include the name of the food and the date by which it should be used.

For easy separation of individual chops, steaks, patties and so on, use one of the following ways:

TRAY FREEZING
Arrange meat in a single layer on a cookie sheet and freeze, unwrapped. When solidly frozen, store in plastic freezer bags. Label, date and return package to the freezer.

WRAPPING
Put two thicknesses of freezer paper between individual pieces so they do not touch one another. Wrap, date and label package. Freeze.

Don't freeze meat with seasoning, including lunch meat and hot dogs. It can change flavor considerably during freezer storage, because some seasonings get stronger and others get weaker. Wait to season meat when you're cooking it.

Don't freeze home-prepared stuffed poultry, either raw or cooked.

Poultry stuffing can develop harmful bacteria that can cause serious illness. Freeze poultry unstuffed; deep-fat fry it.

Be sure to thaw large cuts—really large ones, like roasts. Otherwise the inside will be barely warm when the outside is cooked. Thaw in the refrigerator. At room temperature, the outside thaws quickly; inside thaws slowly. This causes loss of flavor and meat juices.

Trawling is necessary if you cut meat into pieces, shape it or stuff it; dredge it in flour or crumbs, or roll it in batter or eggs (note of these things stick to frozen meats); deep-fat fry it.

Smaller cuts of meat don't have to be thawed. Just allow about one and a half times the cooking period for small pieces and chops as you would use if they were thawed.

Medium-sized cuts will need about double the usual thawed cooking time.

Strawberry Blonde Pudding Pie

1 1/2 cups enriched self-rising flour
1/2 cup shortening
3 to 6 tablespoons cold water
1 package (3 oz.) strawberry flavored gelatin

1 pint fresh strawberries, washed, hulled and halved
1 box (3 1/2 oz.) vanilla instant pudding and pie filling
Whipped topping, optional

Cut shortening into flour until pieces are size of small peas. Sprinkle with water, a tablespoon at a time, mixing lightly until dough begins to stick together. Press into ball. Roll out on lightly floured surface to circle 1/4-inch thick and fit loosely into pan. Trim pastry and flute edge. Prick bottom and sides with fork to help prevent puffing. Bake in preheated 450° oven 12 to 15 minutes, or until lightly browned. Cool completely on wire rack. While shell is cooling, prepare gelatin according to package directions using 1/2 cup less water. Chill to unboiling egg white consistency; fold cup less water. Prepare pudding according to package directions using 1/2 cup less milk. Spread bottom of pie shell evenly with pudding; top with gelatin mixture. Chill thoroughly; serve with whipped topping, if desired.

*Spoon flour into dry measuring cup, level. Do not scoop.

NOTE: If all-purpose flour is used, add 1/4 teaspoon salt.

Pies are particularly suited to show off the strawberry's rich red color. Multi-layered Strawberry Blonde Pudding Pie suspends strawberry halves in a bed of shimmering strawberry gelatin atop a flaky crust made with enriched self-rising flour. Cut a wedge of pie for serving and a creamy base of vanilla pudding emerges below the gelatin.

Sweetpotato Specialty Pies Superb

Sweetpotato Pie is the sweetheart dish of the South that is now a favorite throughout the country. Many an inn serves this delectable pie as its specialty, subtly spiced, and comfortably couched in a fork tender, flaky crust.

But less well known are the sweetpotato pies for which we offer recipes today. One is intended as a potato course to serve with the main part of the meal. Another is a main dish—Sweetpotato Meat Pie—and the third is a very delicate dessert—Sweetpotato Custard Pie.

There are plenty of delicious sweetpotatoes fresh in the market now to make these superb specialties for your table, the United Fresh Fruit and Vegetable Association assures us, and they also remind us that sweetpotatoes are native to our hemisphere. The Mayas were already cultivating them—and had been for years—before the white man arrived.

New cooks may need the information that sweetpotatoes are very sensitive to cold and should never be stored in the refrigerator until after cooking.

The best quality sweetpotatoes are clean, smooth, wellshaped, firm and bright in appearance.

Savory Sweetpotato Pie is the potato course baked in a pie shell! It's rich with egg yolk, fluffy with beaten egg white, and lightly herbed with tarragon. This would be particularly delicious with ham or pork. Make it when you are having a roast or baked ham, and you can utilize your oven fuel most efficiently.

A really different main dish is Sweetpotato Meat Pie. It is made with diced rather than mashed sweetpotato, ground beef, onion, celery, and savory seasoning such as Worcestershire sauce. Put it in pie shell and bake it well for a very fine main dish indeed.

The dessert side of the story is Sweetpotato Custard Pie, easy to make but mighty fine cooking. A subtle touch of grated orange rind lightens the robust sweetpotato flavor. In these days of inflated food prices, a wonderful dessert can make up for a thrifty-paced main dish and delight a family.

This trio of pies will do varied duty in your dinners, and make the most of the fine sweetpotatoes at your market now.

Fish Fillets

CRISPY BAKED FILLETS

This method produces a crisp coating; looks almost like deep-fried fish.

1 pound fish fillets
1/4 teaspoon salt
Dash fresh ground pepper
2 tablespoons oil
One-third cup cornflake crumbs

Preheat oven to 500 degrees. Wash and dry fillets and cut into serving pieces. Season with salt and pepper, and coat with cornflake crumbs. Arrange in a single layer in a lightly oiled shallow baking dish. Bake 10 minutes without turning or basting. Yield: Four servings.

Molasses Ice Cream

COOKING IS FUN
GOOD DINNER
Baked Fish Steaks
Spinach Casserole Beverage
SPINACH CASSEROLE
Originally made with broccoli, this version is also good.
1 package (10 ounces) frozen chopped spinach
2 tablespoons butter
2 tablespoons flour
1/4 teaspoon salt
White pepper to taste
1 cup milk
2 teaspoons instant minced onion
1/4 cup mayonnaise
2 eggs, slightly beaten
Cook spinach according to package directions; drain thoroughly. Make a white sauce of the butter, flour, salt, pepper and milk; remove from heat and stir in onion, mayonnaise, eggs and spinach. Turn into a buttered 1 1/2-quart round glass casserole (7 1/2 by 2 1/2 inches). Bake, uncovered, in a pan of hot water in a preheated 350-degree oven until a knife inserted in center comes out clean — about 30 minutes. Makes 6 servings.

SATURDAY NIGHT REFRESHER
Cheese Ball with Pear Wedges
Pound Cake Beverage
Pound Cake
Not so rich as some versions.
3 cups sifted flour
1/2 teaspoon baking powder
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon mace
1 cup butter
1 1/2 cups sugar
1 teaspoon vanilla
3 eggs
1/2 cup milk
On wax paper sift together the flour, baking powder, salt and mace. In large bowl of electric mixer cream butter, sugar and vanilla; add eggs and beat at medium speed for about 4 minutes. Sift dry ingredients in 4 additions alternately with milk until smooth each time. Turn into a greased 8-inch pan. Bake in a preheated 350-degree oven until a cake tester inserted in center comes out clean — 60 to 65 minutes. Place on wire rack to cool for 10 minutes; with a small metal spatula loosen around edges and tube; turn out on rack; cool completely.

SUNDAY SUPPER
Cream of Tomato Soup
Madras Sandwiches Green Salad
Honeydew Melon with Lemon Wedges
MADRAS SANDWICHES
Interesting filling combination.
1 teaspoon curry powder
2 tablespoons chopped drained chutney
1/2 cup mayonnaise
2 cups grated (medium-line) green cabbage
1 can (4 1/2 ounces) deviled ham
8 slices rye bread
4 slices cheddar cheese
4 tablespoons butter
In a medium mixing bowl, with a fork, mix together the curry powder, chutney and mayonnaise. Add cabbage and mix well. Spread deviled ham on 4 slices of the bread; top with cabbage mixture, cheese slices and remaining slices of bread. Spread sandwiches on all outer surfaces of bread, with butter. Grill sandwiches in a skillet over moderate heat until golden brown — about 3 minutes on each side. Cut each sandwich into 2 triangles. Serve hot. Makes 4 servings.

SUPPER FOR FOUR
Beet Soup
Salmon Patties
Mashed Potatoes
Green Peas
Frosted Cake Beverage
BEET SOUP FRANCES
Lower in calories than the usual sour cream version.
1 can (16 ounces) shoestring beets
2 cups skimmed milk
2 tablespoons dark brown sugar
2 tablespoons lemon juice
1 teaspoon salt
2 scallions (green onions), minced with green part included
Drain beets; to the beet liquid add enough cold water to make 1 cup. Combine beet liquid, buttermilk, brown sugar, lemon juice and salt. Add drained beets and scallions. Cover and chill overnight to allow flavors to blend. Nice served with a bowl of chopped cucumbers which makes 4 servings.

When you start a meal with a fruit cup, or fruit in some other form, don't duplicate the flavor by serving a fruit dessert. Instead choose this Molasses Mint Ice Cream made in your home freezer. It is absolutely delightful — refreshing to the taste and as smooth as can be.

MOLASSES MINT ICE CREAM
1 1/2 teaspoons unflavored gelatin
1 cup milk
2/3 cup sugar
1/4 cup light molasses
1/8 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon mint extract

1 cup heavy cream, whipped
In a cup, soak gelatin in 3 tablespoons of the milk. In a small saucepan, scald remaining milk. Add gelatin and stir until dissolved. Add sugar, molasses, salt and mint extract; mix well.
Pour mixture into ice-cube tray (without divider) and place in freezer with control set at coldest temperature until frozen about 1/2 inch from sides of tray — about 30 minutes.

Remove from freezer and spoon mixture into a large cold mixing bowl. With rotary beater or electric mixer, beat until fluffy and smooth. Fold in whipped cream. Return to freezer tray and freeze until solid about 1 inch from sides of tray — about 1 hour. Beat again until fluffy, but not melted. Return mixture to freezer tray and freeze until firm — 3 to 4 hours. Makes 1 quart.

Turkey Versatile

Turkey cooking, as such as the turkey freezer case now is the favorite stopping place for shoppers, ideas on avoiding the monotony of baked turkey are appropriate. That's the turkey and cook the individual pieces. For small families this is an excellent route to take because most of the pieces—drumsticks, wings, thighs, and breasts—are suitable for a large meal for two. Additional family-size servings can be had by quartering or halving the turkey.

Turkey pieces can be braised, broiled, marinated for open grill cooking, barbecued on a grill or plain roasted on a grill. Whichever way turkey is cooked, it can be used for sandwiches. To save time this Labor Day, cook some of the pieces specifically for sandwiches or use the leftovers for sandwiches.

And if you need a "holiday" reason to have turkey, remember the first day of autumn on Sept. 22, Columbus Day, Oct. 12, and Halloween, Oct. 31.

On these occasions or any other day, hickory smoked or barbecued turkey is fit for a king. Sprinkle the turkey with monosodium glutamate.

Insert the spit rod of the rotisserie or barbecue pit through the center of the turkey body cavity, parallel to the backbone; run it through the center of the neck skin. Insert one spit fork or skewer firmly into the breast and the other into the tail. Tighten the screws firmly with a pair of pliers. Tie twice around the turkey to hold the wings close to the body. Tie the legs together in the back of the spit so that the thighs are not pressed against the body and the dark meat will cook faster. Balance the turkey on the spit so that the spit will turn smoothly.

Insert a roast meat thermometer into the thickest portion of the thigh or breast. Be careful that the thermometer does not touch the bone. Place the spit on the rotisserie and have the turkey about 6 to 7 inches from the coals.
By now, the fire will have been started early enough for the charcoal lumps to be coated with a greyish-white layer of ash. They're just right for cooking. Sprinkle them with about 1/2 cup of pre-moistened hickory flakes every 20 to 30 minutes during the cooking. A 12-ounce package of hickory flakes will be enough to flavor a 10-pound turkey.
Brush turkey with your favorite barbecue sauce about 30 minutes before taking it off the spit. Earlier brushing means that the barbecue sauce ingredients will burn rather than just cling to the turkey as it will by brushing just about 30 minutes before complete cooking.
If you're not an outdoor cook, try an oven barbecued turkey. A careful choice of turkey calls for 1/4 to 1 pound per serving if the turkey is under 12 pounds and 1/2 to 1/2 pound if the turkey is over 12 pounds. Marinate the turkey for several hours in your favorite barbecue sauce; sprinkle with monosodium glutamate. Then place in a shallow baking pan. Insert the meat thermometer, as directed for hickory smoked turkey. Roast in a preheated 325-degree Fahrenheit oven in accordance with the recommended timetable or until the thermometer registers 185-degree Fahrenheit.
The oven roasting timetable for whole turkeys is 6 to 8 pounds, 2 to 2 1/2 hours; 12, 2 1/2 to 3; 12 to 16, 3 to 3 1/2; 16 to 20, 3 1/2 to 4 1/2. During roasting, baste frequently with marinade, using generous portions during last 45 minutes of cooking.

Beef Care For Health
By Gaynor Maddox
Today beef is so valuable a possession that extra steps must be taken to guard its freshness and wholesomeness. In general, most experts agree that beef, though high in price, is actually the best buy for your money. Therefore, treat it with care and respect.
Make meat the last thing you buy in the grocery store. Take it home right away and refrigerate promptly.
In buying canned beef, avoid cans that are severe, dented, leak or swell. If it looks, tastes or smells suspicious, DON'T EAT IT.
Remember when preparing, storing, and cooking fresh meat, first to keep it clean. Second, to keep these foods hot or cold — not in between. Don't let cooked foods sit around so that bacteria can form or multiply.
When storing, place beef in the refrigerator only if you are going to use it within a few days. For longer storage, freeze products. The refrigerator section should be kept between 35 and 40 degrees. Freezer temperatures should be kept at zero or lower. Wrap meat loosely for refrigerator storage. For freezing, wrap meat tightly in moisture-resistant material, such as aluminum foil.
How you defrost frozen beef is important. Always defrost it in the refrigerator if possible. Meat may also be defrosted at room temperature if left in a tightly closed double paper bag. It may also be placed in cold water to aid thawing if the wrapping is watertight. Cook promptly after thawing.
Special precautions should be taken when preparing beef for barbecues or picnics. You should be as careful as you can when eating food inside. Clean your kitchen frequently. Clean all work surfaces — including wooden cutting boards and counter tops — before and after using them for raw meat. Soap and hot water work well. Do not place cooked, ready-to-serve meat on the same surface or in a utensil used for the raw product unless you have completely sanitized that surface or utensil. If possible, use separate cutting boards for raw and cooked products to avoid "cross-contamination." Wash your hands often.
