Electronics 'Marvel' Helps Speed Up Navy Supply

Deep in the confines of Building 100 at the Sanford Naval Air Station there dwells an electronic marvel—created by IBM and installed in Sanford, Fla. by the Naval Supply and Fiscal Department.

This short and very busy civilian employee, Mrs. Shirley Horn and Mrs. Nancy Butler, know the common simplicity of this electrical marvel by feeding it punched data cards at the staggering rate of 2,500 per week.

It's name? The Electronic Accounting Machine. (Printing Card Punch and Printing Data Transfer) and it has completely revolutionized the supply and fiscal operations at NAS. First, it saves background information.

The Naval Air Station Supply Department in Jacksonville is the only supply command point of fiscal accounting activity for NAS Sanford. Therefore, if a replacement part is needed for a "nick" aircraft in Sanford, the quicker the Supply "gets the word," the faster the repair can be made. That is where our "marvel" comes in. It "checks" the "nick" against the "spare" and returns the picture. Making use of a direct telephone circuit, (or "hot line" as it is more commonly referred to), information concerning the stock part needed is relayed to the Supply Center via the EAM and, which closely resembles the familiar IBM card. The machine not only transmits messages, but receives them also. The latter feature permits fax to notify Sanford of the action being taken concerning the items requested. During peak periods, as many as 300 items are requested daily; aircraft parts, general stores, electronic equipment; almost everything it takes to keep a Naval Air Station operating efficiently.

In this connection, NAS Sanford Supply maintains stocks consisting of over 24,000 separate items, representing over three and three-quarter million dollars in value. All of these items are received by this station installation, some less frequently than others, but nevertheless needed in order that NAS Sanford can function effectively as it must.

The advent of the Electronic Accounting Machine, bringing with it a new concept to the supply and fiscal organization, has been in use here since July 1946. The entire Supply Bureau Division now bears the title of Mechanized Auxiliary Service and is operated under the supervision of Herbert Gilliard. For instruction concerning the operation of the machine, Mrs. Horn and Mrs. Butler attended an IBM School for key punch operators and also received of extensive training at the NAS

Jax Machine Records Division.

The "hot line" serves other purposes too. Should NAS Supply Dept. receive a request for a high priority item that is temporarily out of stock, they frequently contact NAS Sanford to supply the needed item, if available here. Such calls are handled by Mrs. Maxine McGrath, who locates the item and invoices it to the activity requiring it. These shipments of emergency nature reach ships and stations throughout the world with a minimum of delay.

Capitol Is Scene Of Mystery Blowup

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A mysterious object exploded with a firecracker-like pop and lit out an eye-smarting vapor in a corridor of the Capitol Tuesday.

Police who were called to the scene said they could find no remains of the object. Nor were they able to locate the person or persons who threw it. They attributed it to a prank by young tourists.

The vapor rose near a barber shop on the House side of the Capitol. An hour later it still had not completely dissipated.

Here's One Public Opinion Poll That Won't Show Any Political Trend

By DICK WEST
WASHINGTON (UPI) — Good morning, or good evening, sir, or madam, as the case might be. I represent the Noxy Nellie Public Opinion Polling and Sampling Co.
 My firm has been retained to poll and sample all of the public opinion that has been previously polled and sampled by other pollsters and samplers.
 If you can spare a few minutes out of your busy day, I would like to have you fill out this questionnaire. When you have finished, mail it to us along with a 1960 poll tax receipt and we will send you a free copy of Chester A. Arthur's campaign speeches.
 Please read each question carefully and check the answer that comes closest to representing your views.
 What is your present political affiliation?
 () Democrat. () Republican. () Independent. () Fickle.
 What do you consider the most important qualifications for the presidency?
 () Intelligence. () Leadership ability. () Fretty wife. () Good golf swing.
 What do you regard as the major issue of the campaign?
 () Foreign affairs. () Domestic affairs. () Love affairs. () What size is there?
 How many times do you intend to vote for your favorite candidate this year?
 () Once. () More than once. () Less than once. () None of your business.
 If someone tried to buy your vote would you:
 () Feel insulted? () Feel complimented? () Call the cops? () Demand more money?
 What do you consider the most effective form of political advertising?
 () Television. () Newspapers. () Billboards. () Television when set is turned off.
 There has been some talk that a woman might be nominated for president. If that happened would you:
 Men answer here— () Vote for the other party? () Get Drunk? () Head for the hills? () Move to Canada?
 Women answer here— () Feel proud? () Feel jealous? () Feel faint? () Vote for the other party, get drunk, head for the hills and move to Canada?
 Do you tell your wife how to vote?
 Men only answer— () Who me? () Beg pardon? () Don't understand question. () Are you kidding?
 Would the fact that a candidate is young and handsome influence your vote?
 Women only answer— () Yes. () Yes. () Yes. () Are you kidding?

TO THE VOTERS OF SEMINOLE COUNTY:

Since it is impossible for me to see each of you in person, I am taking this means of expressing to you my gratitude for having been given the privilege of serving you on your Board of County Commissioners during those past four years. Having been elected to this position by you, the people, I have humbly endeavored to represent you. Though there have been times when my decisions or actions may not have been in accord with the views of some individuals, I can honestly report to you that I have made a sincere effort to do what was best for ALL the people of this county.
 I do not favor myself as a County Manager. It is my belief that whatever duties would be performed by a County Manager should be performed by the County Commissioners in their respective districts thereby saving the county this additional expense.
 Now, based on my qualifications, my past record and experience in office, I am asking you to re-elect me your County Commissioner. My family and business circumstances are such as to allow me to spend all the time necessary to adequately conduct the business of the county. I pledge to you to continue to serve you to the very best of my ability and to keep first and foremost the interests of the county at heart.
 I appreciate the vote given me on May third and will be grateful for your support and vote on May Twenty-fourth.

Weaver To Quit 'Gunsmoke' Show

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Dennis Weaver, who vaulted to stardom with a limp, has announced he is quitting television's "Gunsmoke" series at the end of next season in hopes of starring in his own series. Weaver, who played the limping not-so-bright sidekick of Matt Dillon in the top-rated show, said: "There isn't too much opportunity for creativity left in a role you've played for six years. I've gone just about as far as I can go with him in development. I'd like to stretch my acting muscles in a different type role." Other members of the "Gunsmoke" cast, Jim Arness, Amanda Blake and Milburn Stone, have signed new three-year contracts.

Rickey Testimony On Bill Slated
WASHINGTON (UPI) — Branch Rickey, silver-tongued spokesman for the fledgling Continental League, was listed as the leadoff witness today on the Senate's controversial baseball bill. Rickey was expected to favor the bill. A controversial feature would limit to 100 the number of baseball players which a major league team could control, thus opening possibilities for the new league to obtain players.

Whitney Indicted For Second Killing

MIAMI (UPI)—Dennis Whitney, the red-haired California youngster who has admitted killing seven persons by shooting them in the head, was indicted Tuesday by the Dade County grand jury for one of his two slayings here. Whitney was indicted in the death of Arthur Keeler, 32, killed Feb. 29 at the service station where he worked as night attendant. Whitney, 17, of North Hollywood, was convicted of first degree murder in West Palm Beach earlier this month in the death of his only woman victim, Mrs. Virginia Selby of Hialeah. He escaped a possible death sentence when the jury recommended mercy. Their action gave him a mandatory life sentence.

Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I have been looking for a job since last September. I am 22, a college grad (Liberal Arts) and people tell me I am nice looking and have a pleasing personality. I'd like a selling job.

Everywhere I apply, I am told, "Sorry, but you have had no experience." Abby, how is a girl going to get experience if nobody will give her a job?

INEXPERIENCED

DEAR INEXPERIENCED: If you're after a selling job, the first thing you must do is demonstrate your ability to sell a would-be employer. Make a case for a chance to prove yourself. An employer is not likely to hire a sales person who is content to take "no" for an answer without a struggle.

DEAR ABBY: I met a man at a dance. He asked me to dance. He was a wonderful dancer and I fell in love with him at once. I asked him to take me home and he did. He explained that he was a married man but didn't get along with his wife. Divorce was out because of religion.

I kept calling him at home. I knew it wasn't right, but I couldn't help myself. I just went crazy over him. He came to my house a few times, but would never be seen with me in public. I bought him a watch for his birthday.

One day he mentioned he needed $300 to repair his car. He didn't ask for it. I insisted he take it and told him to pay me back when he got the money. After that I never saw him again. I called him up and he said it was too risky to be seen going into my house. How do I get my money back? And also the watch.

FOOLISHLY YOURS

DEAR FOOLISHLY: The watch is HIS—but you got the works, Lady. Unless you want to make it a matter of public information, you'd be smart to write off the "loss" as tuition in the school of experience.

DEAR ABBY: I am going to marry a very nice fellow but I find myself in a peculiar situation.

Three weeks ago he took me to meet his mother, who seemed very charming. Soon afterwards she invited me over for tea and "a talk." When I arrived she had a friend of hers there who used to be a beauty operator. They spent the whole afternoon debating on how I should wear my hair and what I should do with my eyebrows.

This afternoon my future mother-in-law telephoned and asked me to stop over after work. She wanted to "teach me how to dress."

Abby, I suppose everyone could use a little advice along these lines, but I used to model for a wholesale house, and I go to a good beauty shop every week. People usually ask ME for advice on grooming and fashion and I am very hurt by the whole thing. I would like to get off the "redecorating hook" and remain friends with this woman. But how?

HURT

DEAR HURT: Go—listen courteously, and then do as you please.

DEAR ABBY: I am eight years old and am going to be nine on September 10th and I have a question for you, Abby. Is there any such bird as the STORK or did they make that up, too?

CHARLES

DEAR CHARLES: Yes, there is a bird known as the stork. . . but don't believe everything you hear about it.

"What's your problem?" Write to Abby in care of this paper. For a personal reply, enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

For Abby's pamphlet, "What Teenagers Want To Know," send 25c and a large, self-addressed, stamped envelope in care of this paper.

French Movie On U. S. Praised

CANNES, France (UPI) — Warm praise Wednesday for a young Frenchman's movie about the United States overhauled a flat fight at its screening caused by opera star Maria Callas. The temperamental diva showed up at the Cannes Film Festival for the first time for the showing of "L'Amérique Intolante" ("Unusual America"). A fist fight broke out on the steps of the festival palace between officials, police and photographers maneuvering for positions to photograph the singer. Both European and American critics praised the film by Francois Reichenbach in which no professional actors were used. The young Frenchman used a documentary technique to produce a warm-hearted portrait of the United States.

Number of Emmy Awards Are Cut To Keep Viewers, Critics Happy

By VERNON SCOTT HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — To the inevitability of death and taxes can be added the inescapable awards made in show business. Coming up next month are the 1958-59 Emmy Awards, sponsored by the Academy of Television Arts and Sciences — the most criticized statute give-away program of them all. Confusion of categories — such as pitting Jack Benny against Bishop Fulton Sheen for best male personality — caused howls of anguish from critics and viewers. To compensate for crowding diverse shows and individuals into too few categories the academy increased the number of awards last year. This led to a welter of 42 categories. The outcry was worse than before. Everybody who ever appeared on television — with the possible exception of J. Fred Muggs — wins an Emmy, was the general complaint. But the TV Academy is nothing if it isn't sensitive to public opinion. This year the number of awards has been cut drastically to a mere 31, which is seven less than the movies' Oscar lineup. Who are the shadowy characters behind a late maneuvering? They're such well-known individuals as Walter Cronkite, ABC's president, and producer Harry Ackerman, who are trying to keep everyone happy. "But he's another what we do, it's wrong," said Ackerman, who is vice president and executive producer of Screen Gems. "This year, however, we think we've found a solution. There will be 16 categories for the regular awards to performers, directors and the like. Then there are seven general program categories covering a fairly broad scale of shows."

TV Tonight

Pat Boone entertains on ABC at 9 P. M. Frankie Vaughan sings on Ernie Ford's NBC show at 9:30. ABC's "The Untouchables" at 9:30 repeats "The Jake Lingo Killing." An Ernest Hemingway short story, "The Gambler, The Nun and The Radio" becomes a 30-minute special on CBS at 9:30. A hospital patient diverts himself by watching the life-and-death drama of another patient, a Mexican gambler, Charles Richford, Elmer Parker, and Richard Conte have the main roles.

Beauty after Forty

If you are interested in plastic surgery (and from the many letters I receive I know that you are), you should read the new book, "Beauty Surgeons" as told to Alyce Castled by Robert Alan Franklyn, M.D. Dr. Franklyn believes in plastic surgery as a means to a woman's or man's happiness, success and well-being. He is well-known in Hollywood where men and women have great need of plastic surgery to keep going. Many people are beginning to realize that to live with an unattractive nose, or lines and wrinkles is simply not modern, and to suffer from not having a well-developed bosom or from an over-developed one, is foolish in this modern age, especially with men like Dr. Franklyn available, who are eager to help. The book is published by Whitehorn Publishing Company and any book store will have it or can obtain it for you. At a recent fashion show for men, I was intrigued not only by the clothes designed by the New York Custom Designers' Guild and the Manhattan Tailors' Association but with the startling innovation of the use of Ocean Pearl also known as Mother of Pearl. It is used in buttons as well as in accessories, such as the tie clip and matching cuff links, and some of the Ocean Pearl was dyed to match the magnificent fabrics. The show was presented at the famous El Morocco, where celebrities gather to see each other and others go to see the celebrities. The decor was a perfect setting for such smart new clothes for men, who will take to color slowly—but they are beginning to wear it. One thing is sure. Well-dressed men are interested in bright linings for overcoats and, with the new pearl buttons, the ladies must "get with it" to keep ahead of the men's new fashions. The "mother-of-pearl" is catching on, also, and one well-known woman of the career world wears all gray to match her hair exactly.

'Eyewitness To History' Manages Optimistic Note

By FRED DANIG NEW YORK (UPI)—A TV viewer's petstore! Perhaps it was keeping with the tradition of up-beat endings that CBS-TV's "Eyewitness To History" picked its videotaped way through the summit rubble Tuesday night and somehow ended the half-hour on an optimistic note. "Journey to Understanding," on NBC-TV, concluded on a gloomier note. Wouldn't it be a heck of a thing if history must record that the last summit meeting ever held by civilized men was attended by Joey, Sammy, Peter, Frank and Elvira? "Doble Gillis" included a couple of deft, sparkling vignettes Tuesday night — Marjorie Bennett as a scheming grocery customer and Doris Parker as a croquet-mad society matron. Arizona Francis limped on-stage after injuring herself at a dance rehearsal for NBC-TV's "Arthur Murray Party" Tuesday night. Kathryn indicated it was a show-must-go-on gesture by Arlene but it smacked more of the book plug-must-go-on tradition. Last week, when Mrs. Murray told the inside story about why she changed her hair color from brunette to blonde — it was Arthur's idea — she asked her fans to write in and tell her how they felt about the switch. On Tuesday night's show, her guests—Miss Francis, Basil Rathbone and Phyllis Kirk — all voiced approval. Miss Francis added a proxy "gay" vote for her mother. Audience applause also indicated unanimous approval of the blonde Mrs. Murray. Personally, I prefer Arthur's hairdo. The prolonged writers strike has led to a flurry of statements by TV producers who say they will continue to "refuse" to use scripts previously rejected.

Art Federation Plans 'Paintnik' Picnic Sunday

The Florida Federation of Art is sponsoring a "paintnik" in DeBary Sunday, from 10 a. m. to 4 p. m. A "paintnik" is a picnic for painters, where they can picnic and paint and also be observed by curious spectators.

This "paintnik" will be held on the lawn and grounds of the historic Count DeBary Mansion, which is the state headquarters for the Art Federation.

The Federation has announced that spectators are welcome. Admission will be 30 cents and beverage and cake are included in the admission. Anyone who is really hungry is advised to bring his own lunch. Artists from all over Florida will be painting. If you have never seen an artist at work here is the chance.

Summit Blow-Up Causing Some Americans To Cancel Red Trips

NEW YORK (UPI)—Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's summit blow-up has caused "some, but not many" American tourists to cancel summer trips to Eastern Europe and Russia, a quick survey of travel agencies showed today.

Nikita May Have Missed The Boat

INDIANAPOLIS (UPI)—The president of a firm which built a jet boat for President Eisenhower to give to Nikita S. Khrushchev said today the Russian Premier may have missed the boat, literally, when he torpedoed the summit conference.

showed agencies were receiving numerous inquiries but that most travelers were apparently taking a "wait and see attitude."

Some agents are advising clients to cancel their trips, either because they believe Americans may be subjected to uncomfortable hostility or because they feel that "if the jet not good enough for them, no one should go."

Jack Wieman, president of American Tourist Bureau, a "wholesale" agency which handles arrangements with Russia's Intourist and others for other agencies, said he felt that "if they don't want President Eisenhower, why should we give them 10 million dollars in tourist money."

He said he also felt things might be "thoroughly unpleasant" although not dangerous for Americans in Russia this summer.

Retail prices of farm foods decreased generally in 1960 for the first time during the past four years.

Atlas Zooms To Record In Flight

CAPE CANAVERAL (UPI) — America today fired an Atlas missile with a dummy warhead on a 9,000-mile flight to a point off the tip of South Africa.

The 85-foot Atlas took 35 minutes to make a trip that, aimed at the northeast, would have penetrated deep into the heart of the Soviet Union.

The Atlas soared 1,600 miles to the edge of space with the dummy warhead plus 1,000 pounds of "normal research and development" instruments.

The nose cone hit the water just north of Prince Edward Island, off the southern tip of Africa.

The shot exceeded the previous long distance missile mark set by Russia, 7,767 miles over the Pacific Ocean last January with a so-called "super rocket."

The Air Force said the purpose of the test "was to obtain data on re-entry at increased velocities resulting from longer range flights."

The Atlas passed between South America and Africa but did not cross any land masses, the Air Force said.

Two ships and an airplane were stationed downrange to track the missile's nose cone.

The longest previous shot by an Atlas was 6,325 miles over the Atlantic.

As it pulled from its pad and disappeared high into a hazy sky it appeared well on its way to an historic flight that would overshadow the best that Russia has offered publicly in the way of long distance shots.

Soviet missiles fired a multi-stage ballistic missile last January that sent its nose cone into the Pacific Ocean 800 miles from Pearl Harbor and within two miles of its target. That shot covered 7,767 miles.

Fern Park Rally Scheduled Tonight

Candidates will be waging a last minute appeal for votes for the forthcoming second primary at the first of two political rallies scheduled at the Fern Park Legion hall at 8 p. m. today.

The primary will be held next Tuesday and a heavy vote turnout is expected.

The final rally will be held at 7:30 p. m. Saturday at Sanford's Municipal Stadium prior to the Sanford Greyhound-St. Petersburg baseball game.

Admission price to the rally at the stadium will be a voting registration card.

Three commission races will be at stake in the primary, and a considerable post in District 4 and Peace Justice post in District 6.

Races include: District 2 County Commissioner; J. D. Cordell and Ted Williams; District 7, James A. Avery and incumbent Lawrence Swafford; District 8, incumbent Homer Little and John Fitzpatrick.

In the constable's race, Bob Carroll will face O. G. Owen and Elmer Ashley and Homer Sewell will square off in the peace justice race.

Both rallies are sponsored by the County Democratic Executive Committee.

Tornado Levels Kansas Town

By United Press International

Tornadoes swept death and destruction through the plains states and the Midwest during the night, virtually leveling the small town of Meriden, Kan.

Authorities said almost all the homes and business establishments in Meriden, a town of 388 persons, were demolished by the twister. One person was killed and at least 50 injured.

The body of Mrs. Mildred Hundley was found in the wreckage of the safe she operated in Meriden. Tornadoes also struck Topeka and Leavenworth and swept away homes in farm areas of northeastern Kansas.

Officials reported that heavy northwesterly winds caused considerable damage. Houses and barns just disappeared and we're trying to find out if anyone is missing."

The American Red Cross sent a disaster unit to Topeka and Silver Lake, near Topeka, Kan., after a tornado swooped through the farm area. Nine homes were destroyed and several persons injured.

The twister skinned across northeastern Topeka before hitting the Topeka, Silver Lake area. It smashed through a trucking company lot, destroyed a concrete block building and overturned several semi-trailers.

The wind was so strong it picked up one of the trailers and hurled it 100 feet.

High winds blew over the radio tower of the Missouri Highway Patrol station at Macon in the northeast part of the state. No one was injured, although part of the tower fell on a nearby building.

Winds of 85 miles an hour rushed across Oklahoma City, overturning an oil well.

Witnesses said the wind lifted a big steel roof off a theater for 20 seconds and then dropped it back in place.

Fish Catch Off

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The 1955-56 commercial fishery in the United States today is reported to be slightly below the record catch in 1954.

The average price paid fishermen was 6.71 cents per pound, the lowest in 14 years.

Mail Rate Hike Asked

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The U. S. Chamber of Commerce urged Congress today to streamline the nation's mail handling and raise postal rates to make the Post Office Department self-supporting.

The chamber called for postal rate increases on first, second and third class mail to wipe out the expected $244 million Post Office Department deficit in the next fiscal year.

Pastor In Charge Of Beverly Aadland

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — The late Errol Flynn's teenage playmate, Beverly Aadland, has been given permission by a judge to move out of Juvenile Hall and into the home of an actor-entertainer.

Superior Judge Allen Miller, finding Beverly to be "a bad girl but not a real bad," snubbed the 17-year-old blonde's mother and awarded custody to the Rev. Leonard Eller and his wife.

"I'm very happy," sobbed Beverly, who was escorted by her mother, Mrs. Florence Aadland, 53, who added she thought Beverly would be better off living with the Ellers than with her. She was given visitation rights.

Eller, a costume designer and actor, is an ordained Baptist minister who now is chaplain with the non-denominational Hollywood Christian Group. It is restricted to show business people interested in religion and meets once weekly in a filmland hotel.

Queen Mother's Romance Denied

LONDON (UPI) — Buckingham Palace today emphatically denied a report appearing in a New York newspaper that Queen Mother Elizabeth, 59, wants to marry Sir Arthur Pass, the treasurer to her household.

"It is bogus," a palace spokesman said. Lawyers for Sir Arthur, 74, also declared the report was "wholly without foundation."

The New York Daily News carried the report in a copyrighted dispatch from London.

Art Show, Auction Starts Sunday

The Sanford Art Assn. will present a broad new selection of pictures to the public at its second show on the Civic Center public Sunday and Monday.

The works will be on display from noon to 6 p. m. Sunday. The association's auction, with the Navy's Jack Frost as auctioneer, will be held at 7 p. m. Monday.

The display will be open to the public from noon Monday through the auction.

"We hope there will be the same good response to the show and auction that we had to our first show last November," Mrs. Helen DeWitt, president of the association, said.

Mrs. J. O. Gregory is the show chairman and the members will exhibit works that haven't been shown before, she said.

TWO LYMAN High School students, Mary Lynn McCanna and James Henry Beusee, have been awarded $400 a year general scholarships to be used in preparation for careers as teachers. The two students were selected in a competitive examination taken by more than 1,000 students in the state. Another Seminole County student was also named recipient of the award. She is Dian Alken of Seminole High School. (Herald Photo)

Final School Day For SHS Graduates

The culmination of 12 long years of school will come to a climax today for the 1960 graduating class at Seminole High School.

A "Fun After Graduation" event will take place at New Smyrna Beach Monday under the supervision of Mrs. Harry Robson, chairman of the all-day picnic.

The event is being sponsored by the Rotary Club with the assistance of local merchants.

Donating to the affair were Ralph Wight, William Shook, Earl Toney and the Winn Dixie Store and Heller Motors.

The helicopter was forced to return to Ft. Greely for repairs.

Paul Crews, leader of the stranded group, radioed that "all five persons are in worsening condition."

Collins Endorses Carlton In Governor Race

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Gov. LeRoy Collins today endorsed Doyle E. Carlton Jr. for governor in the May 24 run-off primary.

Collins, who made the announcement at his weekly news conference, said he thought Carlton was the candidate "best qualified and equipped to make this state the best governor."

"I shall vote for him on election day," the governor said.

Collins said Carlton had "clearly indicated" he wants to keep the state on its present course in racial matters. And Collins said he was proud of the course the state had been following for the past years.

He said, "where is there another state that has done a better job in this area than Florida." In the campaign debate Thursday night, Carlton said he would do everything lawfully he could to maintain school segregation, but would never order school closed.

Bryant reiterated his stand for segregation, but added, "I will never close the schools of Florida."

Both said they favor raises for teachers and a minimum wage law.

Collins' announcement would support Carlton came as a long-awaited indication of his choice in the governor's race.

Collins said he has no present plans to make a speech on behalf of the Wauchula rancher "but I never close the door."

Collins apparently broke his long silence as a result of much pressure from Carlton supporters. It also was believed that recent endorsements of Bryant by former Gov. Millard Caldwell and Mrs. Dan McCarty helped force Collins' hand.

He refused to endorse a candidate in the first primary and had indicated until his announcement today that he would keep mum until election day.

The outright attack on Collins' policy toward the lousy race problem by Caldwell Thursday night also played a part in the surprise Collins announcement.

The governor had said earlier that he would stay out of the campaign unless forced to defend his administration.

Caldwell said in a statewide broadcast Thursday night endorsing Bryant that the Collins administration was "soft toward integration."

Collins' endorsement of Carlton brought a stream of questions from newsmen on the race angle of the campaign.

But the governor refused to comment on whether the election of Bryant would, in his opinion, be a repudiation of the racial course taken by the Collins administration.

Carlton and Bryant indicated in their Pensacola debate Thursday night they hold doubts about the wisdom of capital punishment.

The heavily-populated areas of the Southeast Florida coast drew both men from the Florida page-handle today as they stumped through Dade and Broward counties.

Carlton said in the television debate he favors modification of the capital punishment law. He said there is a definite distinction between a man who kills with premeditation and one who kills on impulse.

"It has been proved that capital punishment is not a deterrent to crime," he said.

Bryant said he would have to be faced as governor with the problem of allowing a man to be put to death. He said he feels that if capital punishment were abolished, persons who commit capital crimes should be put in prison permanently.

The debate failed to produce clashes such as occurred at similar appearances in Tallahassee and Miami.

Khrushchev Delays Berlin Action; Says He'll Wait To Negotiate

BERLIN (UPI) — Premier Nikita Khrushchev said today he will wait until the next summit meeting in six or eight months before he takes any action against West Berlin.

Khrushchev spoke before a cheering crowd at a "hate Eisenhower" rally in an East Berlin hall. Above him was a banner proclaiming "An end to the provocations of Eisenhower and Adenauer."

He officially made President Eisenhower one of the three men most condemned by the East German Reds. The other is Adolf Hitler.

Khrushchev told the crowd he thought there could be a summit meeting in six or eight months, but said Eisenhower had failed under the influence of the Pentagon's "cold war circles" and would not be there.

"We will wait for negotiations," Khrushchev said. "If the next president will not negotiate, then we will wait for the next one after that.

"But for a solution of the problem of the remnants of World War II, a German peace treaty and the resolution of the Berlin problem, we will not wait very long."

Khrushchev said if the Western powers are not soon ready to solve these problems the Soviets and East Germany will have to meet with their friends to decide how they should be resolved.

This sounded like a call for an all-Communist peace conference. Prime Minister Harold Macmillan told the House of Commons today there may be grave implications, new threats and new dangers as a result of the collapse of the summit conference.

Macmillan, first of the western leaders to report publicly on the summit, said, "There is no doubt that what has happened is a serious setback."

"We must be prepared for the international outlook to become more stern."

He praised President Eisenhower for wisdom and courage in announcing an end to U. S. flights and declined to predict what Khrushchev has in store for Berlin.

Macmillan said Khrushchev gave no suggestion shortly before the summit meeting was to have started that he intended to wreck it.

He said Khrushchev mentioned the spy plane incident in a letter eight days before the conference and expressed belief the conference would achieve little. But he did not indicate his own course, Macmillan said.

Macmillan said Khrushchev stated in the letter he would not negotiate under threats, but that Britain believed those "threats" ended when Eisenhower said the spy plane had been suspended.

Khrushchev said today Khrushchev has come under the influence of American "cold war circles" who have no interest in reaching a settlement with Russia.

Khrushchev, frowning darkly while a German interpreter read his speech to 5,000 Communist functionaries in East Berlin, said he admitted that "President Eisenhower has a tougher position than I do."

He told the Communists that Penitance was opposed to the full negotiations at the summit and arranged the dispatch of an intelligence plane over the Soviet Union on May Day in order to sabotage the efforts of government meetings.

East Berlin communists rounded up tens of thousands of persons to cheer Khrushchev when he the streets of East Berlin to greet under heavy guard through the city.

The Reds originally planned an outdoor rally but after Khrushchev was booted to Paris they announced he would speak instead in the Werner Seelenbinder Hall where the audience of 10,000 could be carefully screened.

President Charles DeGaulle of France indicated in his cabinet today he will steer a more independent course in world affairs following the summit flaccid.

DeGaulle called the cabinet into special session to discuss the effects of the summit collapse. He will report to the nation in a broadcast next Tuesday.

Eisenhower returned home today to a scheduled fanfare of trumpets and warm bipartisan welcomes designed to show national unity in the face of Russian insults and threats.

The president, returning from the scuttled summit conference in Paris and a hero's reception in Lisbon, was scheduled to land at Andrews Air Force Base at 3 p. m.

Marines To Stage 'Mock' Armed Forces Day Attack

The Marine Barracks of the Sanford Naval Air Station will spotlight the Armed Forces Day activities Saturday with a make believe attack on a fortified "pillbox" similar to those used on the battlefields of Tarawa and Iwo Jima.

A rifle squad composed of 13 Marines, armed with machine guns, flame throwers and a bazooka, will be used to capture the two foot high pill box, located at the northeast side of the airfield.

The Air Station will open its gates at 11 a. m., following the parade which will start at 9:30 a. m.

J. G. Galloway, grand marshal of the event, said the parade will form promptly at 9 a. m. on Oak Ave. at the Fourth St. intersection.

At 9:30, the parade will begin its jaunt along Oak Ave. to First St., turn east and move along First to San Carlos Ave.

4,000 Marchers Say 'Ban The Bomb'

NEW YORK (UPI) About 4,000 men, women and children, chanting and singing "ban the bomb," marched through the heart of Manhattan early today to demonstrate in front of United Nations headquarters against nuclear tests.

They marched down Broadway and through Times Square after hearing the call by 1954 Republican presidential candidate Alf M. Landon, Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, and labor leader Walter Reuther at a rally in Madison Square Garden.

About 17,000 persons were present at the Garden rally, sponsored by the National Committee for a Sane Nuclear Policy.

Carrying signs reading "ban the bomb," "fallout kills," and "sign nuclear bomb pact," the marchers spread out halfway across the city as they walked along 42nd St. They walked in a leisurely fashion along the sidewalk, chatting with one another, stopping for red lights, and breaking out now and then into disorganized songs and chants.

More than 1,250 civilians and military personnel including four Seminoles County marching bands will be featured.

The activities will climax with the open house at the Navy base from 11 a. m. to 3 p. m. The camera regulation has been waived by Capt. Robert Ely to allow the public an opportunity to get pictorial evidence of the Navy's role in "Power for Peace."

A reviewing stand will be constructed at First and Magnolia with county and city officials and military commandoes viewing the parade.

The sheriff's office reported that Steward was accused of taking the lumber from the Oakdale Hills building project near Forest City.
