Chit-Chat of the Play Houses in Sanford

"The Heart of Paula"
To those who have not had the chance to visit the troubled and troublesome republic to the south of us, the coming Pallas picture of old Mexico, "The Heart of Paula" to be seen at the Star Theatre for one night only, April 14 will be the best substitute.

The every day life in a small Mexican town with its open air shops; the wandering meat peddlers; the wrinkled faced old women with their cooked dishes for sale, the drinking water carts and the bare headed marketing house wives all form a typical picture of this exotic country. Many such scenes as the above are part of this fascinating love story that is full of dramatic and stirring moments.

An American is about to die. Marching with firm step, shoulders squared and eyes unafraid Bruce McLean, an innocent man is to be shot because he had won the hatred of an insurrection leader.

The American consul was powerless. His lack of prestige bound him hand and foot. The Mexicans always returned evasive answers to his repeated protests.

The firing squad lined the far side of the newly dug grave and scorning the eye bandage the Americans faced his death.

Thus he would have died but for the great love that he had awakened in "The Heart of Paula." Paula weak with the fatigue of her desperate struggle to save Bruce and shield him from the insidious rifles.

The price that she paid for his freedom was the life of her own.

was two to one at the studio that the principals would not finish their picture whole. In the first two days they had four mishaps. The first day Victor Moore was arrested for driving with his muffler open. The same day, while Miss King was trying out the racer which had been loaned by Barney Oldfield, a young racing driver, she skidded on a slippery street and slew a "4d." The next day while watching an explosion, Miss King was struck in the side by a flying piece of rock and knocked down. It was thought at first two ribs were broken and she was rushed to the hospital. Fortunately she suffered only a bad bruise. Percy Hilbourn, the photographer was also knocked down by the force of the explosion, but fortunately the camera was uninjured.

The Price of Malice a Wonderful Photoplay

Hamilton Revelle, the foremost romantic and dramatic star of the stage or screen will be seen here at the Star Theatre on Tuesday, April 18th in "The Price of Malice," a five part Metro production. Barbara Tennant, the charming and talented young actress will be featured in this notable photoplay, which is replete with big scenes produced upon an elaborate scale. The Mexican War Theme of the "Yaqui"

"There is no subject of such importance just now, as the Mexican question. The strained situation along the border, the almost imminent possibilities of serious consequences keeps Mexico continually in print. To have a feature film treat with faithfulness to detail, its locations on the very soil of Mexico, and to bring to residents of the United States truthful replicas of life in Mexico may be considered timeliness extremes. This is what "The Yaqui," sensational Bluebird Photoplay will do when exhibited at the Star Theatre on Saturday, April 15th, with the favorite camera actor, Hobart Bosworth, playing the star part.

CURBSTONE GLEANINGS

BUDGET OF OPINION "JUST BETWEEN YOU AND ME."

EVEN THE GATE POST NOT IN IT

A CHIEF IS AMONG YE TAKING NOTES AND FAITH, "HE'LL PRENT 'EM"---SO SAYS SAUNTERER.

A band of noble American women who claim a heritage in the sacrifices and achievements of the mothers of our revolutionary, civil and Indian wars, who are stirred to action by the red blood pulsing through their veins, have organized a "National Security League," and have issued a stirring address against "unpreparedness" or "peace at any price," in which they draw attention to the following startling picture of futile sacrifice and unexampled pathos:

"There have just come back from Europe the defeated stragglers of the Great Illusion. It sailed with mighty prophecies---what a hope it held! The millions upon millions of fighting men, tense, agonized, with everything at stake, grappling to the death in mortal strain they were fond of Peace and Christmas cheer they must be told that war is a savage game, they must be hidden from the ministrations of the world lest he defend himself. He delivered into captivity? Weakness is not a virtue. Inefficiency is not a merit. Strength is of God. No nation can be absolved from the duty of self preservation.

"In a Valley Forge our penniless fathers froze and starved to win this land. Today we stand a hundred millions in the richest country the sun has ever looked upon. They grudge us these leaders, the money to make safe the land that our fathers died for; they grudge us the cost of defense; well, it is taxes on men's lives---choose! 'You shall not crucify mankind again upon a cross of gold!'"

He was married in 1884 to Miss Orlena Brien of Bristol, who with one daughter, Mrs. Howard of Winter Garden, Fla., survives. He is survived by a son, Mr. N. Nuckolls, a newspaper editor at Winter Garden, Fla., and a daughter, Mrs. Nuckolls, who lives in Orlando. He was buried in the city cemetery.

WON THE MEDAL

Norfolk & Western Railway Accident Prevention Medal

We are pleased to announce the capture of the Norfolk & Western Railway Accident Prevention Medal for the year 1915. The medal was awarded to Mr. J. H. Blakemore, chairman of our safety commission, whose energy and activity in this direction has been so conspicuously and promptly rewarded.

The capture of this prize by the Norfolk & Western is a source of gratification to Vice President S. D. Maher, who addressed a letter to General Manager A. C. Needles, which is in part as follows: "I extend to you and all the officers and employees of the company, and especially to the officers and employees of the Safety division, my congratulations on the award, by the board of award of the American Museum of Safety, of the E. H. Harriman memorial silver medal to the Norfolk division of this line, for making the best record in accident prevention and improvement in sanitary conditions and hygiene during the year 1915."

Special mention is also due to Mr. Blakemore, chairman of our safety commission, whose energy and activity in this direction has been so conspicuously and promptly rewarded.

"The data on which this award was based was taken from the returns to the Interstate Commerce Commission such as made and sworn to by all lines and cannot of course be disputed. The additional data submitted by the company, made up by Mr. Blakemore, which I have read over carefully, is a creditable paper, and ought to be read by all of the officers of the Norfolk & Western Railway."

"Thus life steals us from the dust. We wake to think and sleep to dream. We love and laugh and weep and sing and sigh, until death steals us back to dust again."

"An election will be held in Birmingham, Ala., upon the issuance of $2,000,000 of school building bonds."

FROM THE GOVERNMENT REPORT OF SAME.

Washington, Dec. 11, 1915.
A preliminary statement of the general results of the census of manufacturing in Florida has been issued by the Bureau of Economic Warfare, Department of Commerce. It consists of a summary of the figures for 1909 and 1914 by totals prepared under the supervision of Mr. William M. Stewart, chief statistician for manufacturing.

The figures are preliminary and subject to such change and correction as may be found necessary from a further examination of the original reports.

The census of 1914 like that of 1909, with reference to manufactures, excluded the lumber trades, the building trades, and the other food industries and those connected only with establishments conducted under the license laws. In the 1909 census, the value of products was $11,122,000 in 1914 and $7,890,000 in 1909, the increase being $3,232,000, or 29 per cent. The average per establishment was approximately $1,100 in 1909 and $1,400 in 1914.

The value of products represents their selling value or price at the plants as actually turned out by the factories during the census year and does not necessarily have any relation to the amount of sales for that year. The amount of sales for that year is the amount reported for the year in the census of manufactures.

Value Added by Manufacture.
The value added by manufacture in 1914 was $11,122,000, as against $7,890,000 in 1909, an increase of $3,232,000, or 29 per cent.

Cost of Materials.
The cost of materials used was $11,122,000 in 1914, as against $7,890,000 in 1909, an increase of $3,232,000, or 29 per cent.

Value of Products.
The value of products was $11,122,000 in 1914 and $7,890,000 in 1909, the increase being $3,232,000, or 29 per cent.

Salaries and Wages.
The total salaries and wages paid in 1914 was $11,122,000, as against $7,890,000 in 1909, an increase of $3,232,000, or 29 per cent.

Capital Invested.
The total capital invested in 1914 was $11,122,000, as against $7,890,000 in 1909, an increase of $3,232,000, or 29 per cent.

quity contained in the census schedule calls for the total amount of capital both owned and borrowed, invested in the business, but excludes the value of rented property, and the equipment which was employed in the conduct of manufacturing enterprises. In the final bulletin and reports the rental paid for such property will be shown separately.

Cost of Materials.
The cost of materials used was $11,122,000 in 1914, as against $7,890,000 in 1909, an increase of $3,232,000, or 29 per cent. The average cost of materials per establishment was approximately $13,000 in 1914 and $12,000 in 1909. In addition to the component materials which enter into the products of the establishment for the census year there are included the cost of fuel, fuel supplies and rent of power and heat. The cost of materials, however, does not include unused materials and supplies bought either for speculation or for use during a subsequent period.

The census inquiry does not include amounts paid for miscellaneous expenses, such as rent of office, royalties, insurance, repairs, advertising, traveling expenses, or allowance for depreciation.

Value of Products.
The value of products was $11,122,000 in 1914 and $7,890,000 in 1909, the increase being $3,232,000, or 29 per cent. The average per establishment was approximately $1,100 in 1909 and $1,400 in 1914.

Michigan Man Thinks We Should Send Copies Over North

The following letter from a Michigan man who formerly resided here, is a great booster for Sanford. A copy of the letter that he has received at this office, says: "I am a man who appreciates the work of The Herald. I would suggest that you run the Million Dollar article again. This is the kind of reading matter that makes these northerners prick up their ears. If you could arrange with your board of trade or Commercial Club to scatter a few thousand copies of this issue here in the north, it would do more good in Sanford and Seminole county than any other thing that could be done. I would suggest that you select a number of high class firm journalists with which you could then marked copies of this issue. If one of them mentioned it, it would be a good advertisement. The Herald is the best possible educator, especially when it is put up like the April 14th issue. And should be circulated here in the north at all hazards. I appreciate what you are up against so far as getting any help from the north. I am sure that the north is waiting for the day when you will be able to get the north to help you. Soil Yields Abundant Crops.
In some of the island of the West Indies there are areas of cane which have yielded fair crops for twenty years without replanting. In Cuba the most progressive planters usually allow no more than two or six rotation crops, the fields being then replanted. The soil is so rich that rotation of crops has apparently not been found necessary.

Couldn't Fool Him.
Herbert was asked to stay for dinner. His hostess, knowing his condition for chicken, laughingly told him to stay and have chicken for dinner. Herbert asked to see the fowl, and she took him to the kitchen and opened the oven door. To Herbert's surprise he felt in a roast of beef. Then he said only: "I'm afraid I can't stay. I only like chicken wix legs on."

your ribs, but increased population will. So I say again, get busy, fill your columns with "pretty" things about Florida in general, and Seminole county and Sanford in particular, start them north and by the time another season rolls round you couldn't stop the south bound procession with a club.

The cherries are ripe, gentlemen, it's up to you to pick them.

Kindly rush the extras, as per request. If you start anything in the publicity line, and I can be any help to you let me know. I would like to see Sanford's population double in the next few years, and it can be done just as sure as night follows day, if the proper steps are taken right now. But if nature is allowed to take her course, and no special effort made, you and I both will be under the daisies long before anything of this kind happens.

GRAMMAR IN DECAY

MODERN CARELESSNESS OF DISTINCTION IS CRITICIZED.

Vocabulary Has Become the Despair of Dictionary Makers, But the Proper Usage of Words is Little Considered.

Whether our speech is to serve us as a mitten or as a glove depends on the pains we are willing to take with distinctions like those in "should" and "would," "what" and "that," "the boys" and "of the boys," a writer in the Boston Herald observes. For our thought, both in seeing things and in feeling them over is far subtler and more finely shaded than the corresponding string of words that we address to our friends. In such expressions as we can reach, we depend on the trim distinction of our grammar as directly as the typist on the distinctions of her keyboard or the wood carver on the differences of his gouges. To lose from good usage even one well based grammatical distinction is to lose by just that amount our means of matching our thoughts with our words.

Unhappily our careless use of the mother tongue is confusing terms and dropping distinction that even colloquial wording can ill spare. Our most pompous vocabulary grows weaker than the dictionary makers' can be seen in appendix and new editions. But our grammar like an aging tree is decaying at the top. Take for instance "would" and "should." Here in New England the distinction lingers. In the middle West and beyond "would" has hopelessly merged with its own service that of "should." The smoother phrasem "I would like" and "I would be grateful" already appear in formal writing, and only the verbalist is vexed. The distinction of who from "that" for all the good examples in the talk of statesmen and in the common use of the press. It is as good as gone from our modern books. In a running battle by continuing a race, "I saw John running." "I saw John's running," how many of us can tell apart, an adjective, infinitive, participle and verbal noun, those four "runnings." Is it any wonder that we are letting slip the good distinction between "He didn't like Tom interrupting" and "He didn't like Tom's interrupting." A graver loss has come of our laziness with substantive forms. Our school children think as quaint when we say "If he were" or "Wherever it be." Shouten of Demosthenes and Cicero. What could even the orators have done had Rome and Athens dulled their athleticke subtleties into blunt indicatives?

Language is the world's oldest wonder. No one really knows how it began or how it attained its structural perfection. The Greek grammar was finer than the Roman; the Sanskrit finer than the Greek. Language is the one taking argument for a prehistoric golden age. Its laws have been studied and named and marveled at by men like Grimm and Meoiler and our own Whitney as if human speech had some mysterious life of its own. The least the rest of us can do is to pass it to the next generation with the least possible change from our own living.

Facts

GET the facts on the operating cost before you buy any automobile. Find out the truth before you after. And don't be satisfied with hearsay or a salesman's claims. The price of gasoline is high; so is oil and there is sure to be an increase in the cost of all tires.

So, what you want is the car that will give you most miles per gallon of gasoline, per gallon of oil and per set of tires.

Here are the facts proved by the Maxwell stock touring car that recently set the World's Motor Non-Stop Record:

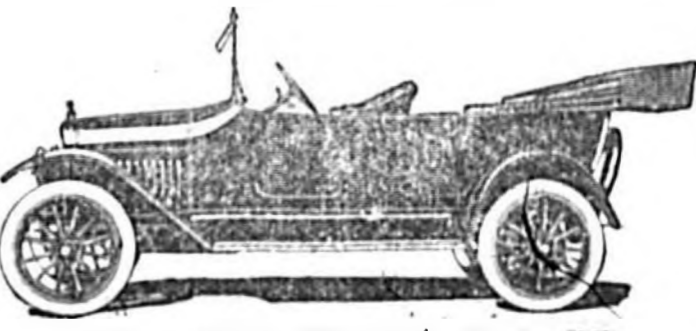

Maxwell World's Non-Stop Record Facts
Miles without a motor stop	22,023
Average miles per day (44 days)	500.6
Miles per gallon of gasoline	21.88
Miles per gallon of oil	400
Average miles per tire	9,871

Remember that this was a Non-Stop Endurance Record in order to prove that the Maxwell car was exceedingly sturdy, reliable and trouble proof.

No attempt was made or could be made to save gasoline, oil or tires. So these figures merely indicate what would be possible under ordinary driving conditions.

Right now we have a Maxwell we can deliver to you, and if you don't want to pay cash, make a deposit and pay the balance as you use the car. But don't put it off. We know the Maxwell factory can't get half enough freight cars to carry their doubled output. Later on we may not be able to supply you. But we can NOW. Better phone us for a demonstration today.

WHERE BALL STARS SPARKLE

Scout Mike Kahoe Gravely Informs Umpire Evans Where He Had Seen Many Crack Players.

Late last summer Umpire Evans found Mike Kahoe scout for the Boston Braves after he had returned from a scouting expedition that had covered a number of western minor leagues.

A lot of them, he answered Evans' curiosity was aroused for Kahoe, an young successful in digging up young phenoms, evidently had picked up some new ones.

IS STRONG FOR DISCIPLINE

Percy Haughton, New Owner of Braves, Always an Advocate of Obedience to Training Rules.

Discipline is likely to be the watchword of the Boston National league baseball club under the direction of the new president, Percy D. Haughton, during the coming season.

While it is not to be expected that Haughton will insist that the players of the Boston Braves will be held to the same degree of accountability that prevails in college football circles, it is certain that the new president of the club will insist upon an observance of all the rules recently laid down by former President Gaffney in his letter to the players, and may even go further. With Haughton as president and George Stallings as manager, it would appear as though the players of the Boston club will have to make baseball playing strictly a business proposition in 1916, or learn that a new regime prevails in the game.

NOTES OF SPORTDOM

"Home Run" Baker will receive $10,000 a year.

Spike Henderson will open a base ball school in Salt Lake city.

The signing of Otto Merz gives Omaha six pitchers it believes it can depend on.

The Denver club of the Western league has sold Pitcher Harry Gas to the Athletics.

Benny Baker, the outfielder, is trying to land a job with the Los Angeles team of the Pacific Coast league.

The New Yorks have drawn freely Connie Mack for players—Baker, Brown, Dalley, Walsh and Shawkey.

The Cincinnati Reds will play an exhibition game with the New York Americans in some neutral city, on July 24.

With Melstner and Melstner both on the South Bend Central league team the waters are in for a lot of trouble this season.

Manager Fohl of Cleveland declares that Fred Combe, the young south paw, is one of the few players who work too hard.

The Birmingham (N. Y.) State league club announces the transfer of Outfielder Jack Blake to the Buffalo Internationals.

Pitcher Bert Larson who was with St. Paul, Omaha and Kansas City last year, has been recruited from the latter club by Topeka.

Arthur Irwin, veteran scout and famous player, has been appointed business manager of the Toronto International league team.

Columbia university will build a $20,000 boating clubhouse for its rowing candidates on the Edgewater side of the Hudson river.

The transfer of Charley Moll to Winnipeg has given "Shorty" Brantigan a chance to manage the Superior team of the Northern league.

The Cincinnati club has purchased from the St. Louis interests southpaw Heinie Schulz who jumped from Park Chances to the New Yorks in the last field.

Jim Thorpe, the famous Indian athlete, reported as the best all-round athlete in the world, who is now a member of the New York National league club, has lately joined the ranks of the golfers.

The loss of Hellman, Corhan and Schmidt will leave a great gap in the San Francisco machine, but Owner Berry is optimistic and declares that the Beals will be even stronger than they were in 1916.

PADDY NEEDED THE MONEY

Respect for the Dead Evidently Had Little Place in the Makeup of This Irishman.

A good job story has been resurrected of Paddy Maher, who one time was a handy man for an undertaker in a town in the County Kerry.

So healthily had the people become that the undertaking business was very slack, and full time was never certain and overtime out of the question.

Therefore Paddy resolved to undertake to Liverpool. Arriving there practically penniless, he applied to an undertaker for a job.

"What can you do?" asked the undertaker.

"Anything at all about a funeral," said Paddy.

"Well, I can't give you a regular job," said the man, "but you can go and lay out old Cohen the Jew, in Palestine street, for a start."

Away went our hero and shortly returned having done his work and brought measurements, etc.

"Here's nothing else for an hour or so," said the boss, "so we'll go and have a drink."

"They had one, and then Paddy said, 'Now we'll have one with me.'"

"I thought you were spent up," said the boss.

"So I was," said Paddy, "but tuck ye here."

And he produced a sovereign.

"Where did you get that?" asked the astonished boss.

"I found it in the old Jew's hand when I laid him out."

"Oh, you shouldn't have touched that," said the boss in alarm.

"The Jew always put gold in the hand of their departed. You've committed a great crime."

"What of an old Jew want with gold when he's dead?" asked Pat.

"To pay his fare across the Jordan," replied the undertaker.

"Oh," said Pat with a broad grin, "let the old Jew pay his fare."

The Higher the Lower.

The Xerox was on the street floor, I understand. Do they associate with the people in the other apartments?"

"No indeed, they consider those who live above them beneath them."

Cheap Flowerpot Stand.

An ordinary flower box with wooden clothespins stuck around the edge, inverted and stained black, makes a very attractive Japanese flowerpot stand for summer homes.

Memorial to George Eliot.

There is soon to be opened at Nuneaton, her birthplace, a memorial to George Eliot, says the London Chronicle. The memorial, which is the gift of a private individual, has taken the form of a museum and art gallery, the spot chosen for it being a very appropriate one in the midst of scenes made famous in the novel.

Two minutes' walk in the opposite direction brings one to the school where the writer received her first initiation into the wonders and the beauties of our language.

This is the first public memorial to be erected to the novelist's memory, the other one in existence being that erected at Arbury, where George Eliot was born.

The Answer.

The Artist—Do you know the difference between working and playing? The Musician—Yes, the man who gets music out of a violin is playing, the fellow that gets noise out of a drum is working.

His Reason.

"There's old Dunn. I don't care to meet him. Let's turn this way. Last fall I requested a loan of $20."

"Well, he ought to have unliken you, he's rich enough."

"The trouble is, he did."

Of Two Evils—

Hugh had been left with his grand parents when his mother was called away by the illness of her father. A few days after she went away the little fellow said "I wish I was where mother is."

"Why, just think, if you were there you would be missing your school," to which he replied "Yes, but don't you know it is a great deal better to miss your mother than your school."

SEMINOLE BONDS SELL DESPITE WAR

BARNETT BANK PAYS BIG PREMIUM FOR SOME

With approximately thirty five representatives of bond houses in attendance and some twenty bids, the road bonds of Seminole county were sold yesterday afternoon to the highest bidder, at the court house, at 1 p. m.

The sale yesterday was most satisfactory in every particular. The bonds sold higher than was anticipated by the most optimistic bidders. The price of $264,775 for the issue of $250,000 or approximately 6 percent above par.

The high price at which these bonds were sold should give the citizens of the county cause for rejoicing. It means that there will be $14,000 more money for road purposes than was anticipated.

The fact that the capitalists of the county are willing to pay a premium for the bonds is a reflection on the confidence in the county government.

seemed to make a rush on Sanford all at one time.

Among those present were Governor Trammell and Senator Bryan who are candidates for the U. S. Senate, B. J. Ford and Royal Dunn, candidates for Railroad Commissioner, Congressman W. J. Sears and several others.

The candidates for the U. S. Senate and Railroad Commissioners are making their regular itinerary and speaking tour in Class A as outlined by Chairman Rainey, but just why they should be taken to Orlando last night and then brought up to Sanford two weeks from now, practically going back over the same territory is difficult to understand.

They spoke in Orlando last night. Congressman Sears was on his way to Washington to resume his duties and stopped over a few hours here to visit with friends, but will return for a tour of the district in a few weeks.

Congregational Church Special Easter services will be held both morning and evening. In the morning the pastor will speak of "The Easter Hope" and in the evening his subject will be "The Stone Rolled Away." Attractive Easter music will be given at both services.

AMERICANS SHOULD BE WITHDRAWN

IS BELIEF OF OFFICIALS AND SITUATION IS TENSE

General Pershing's camp at the front in Mexico, April 15.—(Via aeroplane to Columbus, N. M., April 20).—American aeroplanes have been fired upon several times by Mexicans and in at least one case the assailants were Carranzan soldiers.

Washington, D. C., April 21. Maj. Gen. Hugh L. Sott, chief of staff of the army was on his way today to the border, as the personal representative of Secretary of War Baker, to report on the military problems confronting General Funston.

General Scott's report, on which the Washington government's final action on General Carranza's request that the American expeditionary force in Mexico be recalled, probably will depend to a great extent on what is expected under a week or ten days. Meanwhile, the department is making every effort for unless further outbreaks against the American troops, the recall of the expeditionary force will be immediate.

State department officials were expected to begin work today on some of the questions involved in the continuing reports by Carranza that the expeditionary force before the border is being recalled.

McKay is Elected

Tampa, April 20. T. B. McKay was re-elected mayor of Tampa, defeating Frank C. Bowyer, the reform candidate by a majority of 546 votes.

Watson, the reform candidate for municipal judge was elected over Cohen, incumbent, by a majority of 390. The results in Ybor City wards may be contested.

McKay, who is owner and editor of the Tampa Times has been mayor several terms, and a bitter fight against the administration ticket was made by the reform element which nominated Bowyer.

Wicker-Jennings

The following from the Richmond News Leader will be interesting, as the Wicker family resided here for many years:

"A pretty wedding took place last Saturday in the parlors of the officiating minister, the Rev. J. J. Wicker, pastor of Leigh street Baptist church, when Miss Alice Jennings became the bride of Lawrence Pope Wicker. Mr. Wicker is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Wicker, an is employed as foreman in the American Locomotive Works. After a sojourn in the north Mr. and Mrs. Wicker will make their home in this city."

Will Come Back

The many friends here of T. R. Andrews were glad to see him here last week. He was looking over his home place, Shell Mound on Celery avenue and expects to come back here in the fall with his family and settle down here for life. He has been living for the past year at his home in the state of Maine.
