PAVING PROGRAM PROGRESS SHOWS SALIENT SUCCESS DELAYS DENOTE DIRECTION

AND DEMONSTRATE THAT EACH STEP BEING CAREFULLY TAKEN TAKES MUCH TIME

And Average Citizen Has No Idea of Amount of Work Necessary to Start Right

Complaints and rumors of complaints have been heard from time to time as to the apparent slowness of city officials in completing the paving program authorized in the last bond issue. While it is very commendable that the progressive spirit of the Sanford people causes them to chafe under the delay, the following explanation secured by the Sanford Chamber of Commerce as to the cause of the delay will show that there is a great amount of preliminary work necessary before the city commissioners can proceed further. Legal requirements demand that the city engineer make a preliminary survey of the various streets to be paved and furnish the commissioner an estimate of the cost of the various improvements.

Following the legal procedure requires the preparation of a preliminary assessment roll in which is entered the preliminary assessment against the various property owners owning property abutting upon the streets to be improved. When this assessment roll is completed, the law requires that each property owner be personally notified in writing of the proposed improvement of the street in front of his property, this notice to contain the estimated cost of the improvement, also the estimated assessment against the property. This notice also to contain a fixed date upon which the Board of Equalization of the city will hear any just complaints. Obviously it is impossible to actually serve a great many property owners, as some of them are non-residents. When this is the case the law requires that the notice be published in the city papers for a certain number of weeks in the usual paper.

A great amount of detail work is involved in these various legal transactions, but upon the completion of the equalization, which is now in progress, and about completed, the city commissioners will be able to enact an ordinance directing that the city shall proceed with the said improvements. Bids for the proposed improvements cannot be advertised for until after the final ordinance directing that the improvements shall proceed has been duly enacted.

The majority of the people are familiar with the lists of the streets proposed to be paved and otherwise improved, and can more readily see the vast amount of detail involved in notifying each individual property owner on these various streets as required by law. The City Engineer has been constantly engaged in the preliminary work necessary in having these improvements started and has been compelled to employ several assistants. All legal aspects of the matter have been consummated by the city commissioners and in a very short time the equalization board will have completed its labors and then bids for actual construction can be advertised for. Certain of the improvements to be made are to be paid for in full by the city, among which is the sewerage extension. Bids for this work have been advertised and received and all of them rejected for the reason that they were entirely too high. They are now being re-advertised.

Practically the same procedure applies to the construction of the yacht basin. Before permit could be secured from the War Department to extend the pier of the basin into Lake Monroe the riparian rights had to be secured. Satisfactory agreement has been reached with the Lake Front Improvement Company, the former owners of these rights, and it will be but a short time before the U. S. Engineer's office will give the necessary permission. The plans for the yacht basin which the Chamber of Commerce, has on numerous occasions advised, were drawn by Mr. Donnelly and both the plans and specifications

BOMBED HOME OF ALDERMAN IN CHICAGO

POLITICS SAID TO BE AT BOTTOM OF THE OUTRAGE

(By The Associated Press) CHICAGO, Nov. 6.—A bomb explosion early today jolted Alderman William O'Leary from bed and slanted his residence in West Garfield Boulevard. O'Leary said he was unable to assign cause for attack, although his suspicion was that a possible political enemy may have been behind it. A meeting of the ward captains was held in the alderman's home last night.

THE REVIVAL AT THE CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

Rev. J. S. Hays, pastor of the Congregational church, is spending the week-end at the Congregational church, with his wife and children, as they hold his residence in a private home. In the morning of the first day of the revival at the church, which he opened at the church, "What is a Christian?" and at night of the Congregational church, "Preparation for a Revival." We certainly have a host of good things before us, and every Christian should make a special effort to be at the church. At the meeting of the church, Mr. Hays gave an interesting address on the expiatory of the First Psalm. Every one present was delighted with the message.

FOUR NEGRO CHILDREN BURNED TO DEATH AT EAST POINT, GEORGIA

(By The Associated Press) ATLANTA, Nov. 6.—Four negro children, the oldest six years old, at East Point late last night. The mother left them in the care of a 12-year old boy to go to church. On her return only the boy survived, he being slightly burned before being rescued by a negro man. There was a grate in the room where the children slept.

are in the hands of the City Engineer. This portion of the preliminary work, which in itself evolves a great many details, is taken care of.

Plans have all been drawn for the public library building, and the committee appointed by the city commissioners to handle this building have accepted them. The location for the building, however, has not yet been definitely decided upon, although it has been tentatively decided to place this building in one of our public parks or squares.

When the work on these several projects is well under way Sanford will be a small edition of New York which is noted for being continually in a state of dis-repair. It is unfortunate that this work could not have started earlier in the season so that the tourists would have had an opportunity to take note of these improvements, however the engineers in charge of the work are unanimous in believing that actual work on the paving program will begin the first of the year.

NINETY-FIVE MEN ARE ENTOMBED TODAY IN PENNSYLVANIA MINE

Men Had Just Entered Mine When the Explosion Occurred

SPANGLER, Nov. 6.—The first rescue party to enter the Reilly mine reported at noon that they had found three bodies and feared some, if not all, of the ninety men entombed were dead. The rescue party found bodies in the third entry on the right of the main entry. The bodies were brought to the foot of the shaft and the rescuers went back for further exploration.

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 6.—A Pennsylvania locomotive screeching through mist and rain at the rate of a mile a minute is on its way to Spangler with mine rescue crew. Special left Pittsburgh at 10:51 and was due at Cresson, one hundred miles away at 12:51. Arrangements made for quick switching to Spangler branch at Cresson. Spangler is twenty-two miles from Cresson, on sharp up grade.

CRESSON, Nov. 6.—The rescue train averaged 57 miles an hour from Pittsburgh to Cresson. It had a clear track to Spangler and expected to make the two and a half mile run in twenty minutes.

SPANGLER, Pa., Nov. 6.—Ninety-five men are reported entombed in the Reilly mine of the Reilly Coal Company, near here early today. The men had just entered the mine when an explosion occurred which it was believed blocked the entrance. The extent of the explosion has not yet been determined but company officials said it "was pretty bad." Mine rescue crews were ordered from Pittsburgh and other points while news of the explosion spreading rapidly the party this region brought scores of miners anxious to help rescue the men entombed. Many of the men married and resided in this county. News of the explosion brought their wives and children to the shaft mouth where they gathered in dumb horror, hope and despair. The shaft section is about two hundred feet deep, was not damaged by the explosion and the cage contained the opening. It was said by mine authorities that one of the main entrances was blocked by falling debris about 400 feet from the foot of the shaft.

CUTTING OUT THE MIDDLEMAN

Under the caption "Cutting Out the Middleman," the Oregon Growers, the monthly publication of the Oregon Growers Co-operative Association, at Salem, prints the following in its last issue: "We don't know the answer, but perhaps they will give that next time."

A farmer rushed into town and inquired of the first man he met where he could find an undertaker.

"An undertaker," the man asked seriously, "is there some one dead at your place?"

"No," replied the farmer, "but my wife is mighty sick."

"Well, then," the man advised, "what you want is a physician, not an undertaker."

"No," said the farmer, "what I want is an undertaker. You know I've joined the co-operatives, and we've cut out these middlemen."—California Fruit News, Oct. 28, 1922.

WELL ATTENDED MEETING CHAMBER OF COMMERCE AT VALDEZ LAST NIGHT

Mr. Wadbrook, manager of the Sanford Country Club, gave a very interesting and instructive talk on golf, briefly detailing the history of the game from its beginning to the present date. He stated that his purpose in appearing at the meeting was to have the Chamber of Commerce invite President Harding to play on the Sanford course this winter. His suggestion, which the meeting agreed was a very practical one, was to have Senator Fletcher extend the invitation personally to President Harding. Mr. Wadbrook advised that he would, through his intimate acquaintance with Senator Frelinghauser, also use the latter's influence to persuade the president to accept the invitation. President Connelly requested S. O. Chase, chairman of the Golf Course Committee and Mr. Wadbrook to confer with the Publicity Committee and carry out this idea. Chairman Holly, of the Publicity Committee, also advised that the golf course was being extensively advertised in the principal golfing magazines of the country. Mr. Whitner in addition suggested that signs be posted at the railroad station, the Clyde dock and the entrances to the town advertising the course and giving its location. This suggestion was referred to the Publicity Committee.

Mr. Lincoln advised that it would be to the advantage of Sanford to have better lighting facilities on Park and Duval avenues, particularly at this time when tourist travel via river boats is being so largely promoted. The impression of a well lighted city from a boat would most favorably influence the tourist trade. Mr. Lincoln is chairman of the City Planning Committee for 1922.

The Chamber of Commerce meeting was held in the Chamber of Commerce building at 8:30 p. m. The meeting was well attended and of great interest to the members of the Chamber of Commerce. the Speaker's Committee of the Red Cross, spoke very eloquently in behalf of that organization and requested that the fullest co-operation be given the executive committee of the Red Cross in their efforts to raise Sanford's quota on Red Cross Sunday which will be held November 12th. There will be no daily soliciting drive between the hours of one and two o'clock on that date and all citizens of Sanford have been asked to be home to sign up as members of the Seminole County Chapter of the American Red Cross.

Another fine day presages another fine week.

And tomorrow is election day but you would never know it.

And the reports from northern states say that the Republicans are due a hard fall.

The Florida team was not heavy enough for Harvard but they at least let them know Florida was there. And it is all good advertising.

Headlines in dailies say that a white man has been discovered in Georgia who was eight years in virtual slavery. He must have been running a daily newspaper.

The Florida team was not heavy enough for Harvard but they at least let them know Florida was there. And it is all good advertising.

still believe that the measure as proposed by the last legislature is as good as the state will get in the next ten years. Watch the future events and see if our prediction is right.

The campaign in Sanford for the office of city commissioner is being conducted along a high plane and among gentlemen. There is no mud-slinging, no charges or counter charges, no undue excitement. The voters will make up their minds in peace and quiet and no blaring of trumpets will disturb their peaceful moments of reflection. It promises to be one of the best and most peaceful campaigns on record.

CONTEMPIBLE GRAFT

Some of the Florida newspapers have joined in the censure of subordinates on newspapers using the columns for selfish purposes. No honest newspaper should allow a subordinate to receive a penny from outsiders, for putting anything in or keeping anything out of a newspaper. The one who does it is merely a common cheap grafter. In an editor knowingly tolerates such graft the only rational explanation that can be given is that the editor is also a grafter and is "petting his" too.

Journalism is a lofty calling and should ever be free from taint. It is not honest or decent when it tolerates graft or down-right stealing.—Jacksonville Observer.

NEED MORE LIKE HIM.

J. D. Ingraham is president of the Model Land Company, a gigantic enterprise which is an auxiliary of the Florida East Coast railway, and he is a valued asset to Florida.

These lands are among the best in Florida and are being rapidly cultivated. Mr. Ingraham is brimful of energy and enterprise. He takes an active interest in all worthy developments. He is quick to see Florida's needs and give active cooperation. He is also a man who is making good use of his money.

HEALTHY THE HIGHWAYS

The Florida team was not heavy enough for Harvard but they at least let them know Florida was there. And it is all good advertising.

all the passing years. It will keep green and fresh the memory of our soldier boys for all coming time. No more delightful and appropriate pledge to their memory could be devised. The trees are yet in their infancy, and will need protection and care for a time, but they will soon be strong enough to withstand the storms and ravages of wandering cattle, and will grow in grace and beauty for many years. The planters are already paying dividends in a profusion of red and white blossoms.

From all over the state comes evidence of approval and appreciation. Up in Volusia county there is a triangle of roads upon the apex of which stands a monument engraved with the names of those who gave their lives for their country. Lake and Orange counties have decreed the removal of the unsightly signs which disgraced their highways. It is but a step to the planting of trees, and that will be done. Other counties will follow suit in time, until the traversing of the roadways of Florida will become one long pleasure ride. There is no state in the union where improvement is so easily accomplished, and so satisfactory in its results. Shading our highways will conduce more to the comfort and satisfaction of our home folks and visitors than anything that could be done at the same expense. The sooner the work is begun the sooner we will get results. Hillsborough has set the pace. Let the others follow.—Tampa Times.

CONGRATULATIONS TO THE NEWS.

We hasten to congratulate Clayton Codrington, of the DeLand News, upon his big special edition of Thursday of last week. It was commemorating the installation of the big web press—Duplex—that the News has just installed in order to give DeLand a real big daily paper. Clayton has just installed many thousands of dollars worth of new materials and has made many changes in the News office, getting ready for a big city over there in that beautiful college town. His special edition was a good one and showed that the business men of DeLand realize what the News is doing in the effort to keep DeLand just ahead of the procession of the growing Florida cities and they took generous space in the News and intend to take generous space all winter to give the News the kind of support it takes for a growing daily paper.

HOW MUCH IS THE NEWSPAPER WORTH?

The newspaper is the one organ we look to for daily and weekly news items and helpful and entertaining information. It informs, entertains and amuses. Without it our lives would be listless, we would not know the happenings within our very county or township, we would be deprived of essential and necessary knowledge of things over, around and about us.

Of all the institutions of man which serve us, there is none more unselfish and more useful than the home newspaper. It carries announcements of our social, of our farm, of our business, of our family life. It is our daily companion. It is our daily guide. It is our daily comfort. It is our daily joy. It is our daily life.

the newspaper. Its readers are ALL the people, regardless of station in life, irrespective of education and knowledge, and without distinction as to social condition. It mirrors life and our community as it is, without catering to the influential or forgetting the unfortunate, caring no more for the pleasure of the rich than for that of the poor, thinking less of the applause of the unscrupulous than of its editor's own conscience.

No business deserves more support and gets less. Nobody hesitates to pay one or two dollars for a few gallons of gasoline to burn upon the roads, but everybody hates to lay that much on the counter of the home newspaper. Everybody wants to read the paper, and they find it so nice to reap the benefits of free advertising, but nobody seems willing to pay the puny price the editor sets for his services. Everybody seems to think that reading matter ought to sell for nothing and that the editor works for his health.—Agricultural News Service.

American Legion members are requested to be present at the annual meeting at the court house on Thursday, November 9th. Fraction of 100 for the new year.

NOTICE
All Legion members are requested to parade with army clothes or civil uniform clothes. By request of Legion committee.

GENEVA

The patrons and teachers Association held a delightful and most interesting meeting at the school house last Thursday afternoon. The school trustees had made the Geneva school a freest of a beautiful large flag and the children took this day to give a fitting program in honor of the gift. After which everyone retired to the school and the flag was raised and the children and mothers sang our beautiful national anthem, "The Star Spangled Banner." After the flag raising the regular business meeting was held. Delightful refreshments of punch and cake were served, and a most interesting talk on bird life which both children and grown ups enjoyed was given by Mrs. Herron of Sanford.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Pattershall, of Orlando, spent the week end with Mrs. H. H. Pattershall.

Mrs. J. M. Littler and Mrs. Layton and children spent a few days last week with Mrs. Littler's daughter, Mrs. T. W. Prevatt.

Mrs. Hodges and Mrs. Josie Prevatt of Chuluota took dinner Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Kilbee.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Tillis, of Sanford spent Sunday with Mrs. Tillis' father E. H. Kilbee.

Mr. and Mrs. P. T. Wakefield spent Saturday in DeLand.

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Jacobs spent Sunday with Mrs. J. M. Prevatt.

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Prevatt, Mrs. J. M. Littler and daughter and Mrs. Layton and daughter of New Smyrna and Mrs. Fred McFarlane visited Mr. and Mrs. Will Prevatt at Moore's Station Sunday.

Mrs. Clifford Proctor, of Sanford, is visiting Mrs. William Kilbe.

Miss Helen Courtney is visiting Mrs. Howard Flynt.

Mrs. J. M. Littler and Mrs. Layton, of New Smyrna, spent the day Saturday with Mrs. Fred McFarlane.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Rehlinger, of Fort Meade, were visiting friends in Geneva last Sunday.

T. W. Prevatt and mother, Mrs. J.

M. Prevatt, spent Wednesday in Longwood.

The Community Club of Geneva gave a Hallowe'en party at Town Hall Tuesday night. A great many came masked and there were many original costumes. A large number of folks, young and old, attended and everyone reported a pleasant evening. The Community Club served refreshments consisting of doughnuts, coffee and apples.

A meeting will be held at the town hall on Wednesday night, Nov. 8th, to try and organize a band for Geneva. Mr. Ball, of Sanford, has been asked to instruct those who will take part in the band.

The community was shocked and greatly saddened by the death of Miss Evelyn McLain at Fernald-Laughton hospital at Sanford week before last. She had been sick about five weeks with typhoid fever but had seemingly been improving until she was taken suddenly worse, about a week before she died. Little Evelyn leaves many dear school girl friends to mourn her loss and everyone will miss her for she was well-loved by everybody. She leaves besides her father and mother, two brothers and four sisters. The sympathy of all goes out to the bereaved family and especially to the mother, who could not be here, as she was sent to Wisconsin to regain her health some time ago and the family did not realize. Evelyn was seemingly ill until too late for her mother to reach here before her death.

NOTICE
On November the 10th I shall be compelled to advance my price on wood one dollar per cord.

This advance in price is made necessary to meet the cost of cutting and hauling, and no orders will be accepted after that date, except at the new price, $8.50 per cord.

All orders in hand prior to November tenth will be filled at present price.

They Couldn't Know

The mind of 1818 couldn't conceive of the miracle that human ingenuity would perform during the twentieth century. It couldn't imagine the wonders that would be wrought by new agricultural methods and modern manufacturing genius. It was ignorant of transportation as we know it, or the progressive side.

Back in 1818 the greatest newspaper of the day declared that the world had reached the limit of human expansion. It even went further, saying that there weren't of good merchandise of proved value.

the many things we need in order to live profitable, happy and useful lives. It presents for our approval articles of all kinds and for all purposes. The requirements of each member of the family are met by advertised offers methods of today. It could not see the vital part that would be played by advertising.

Even today there are some who fail to realize what an important factor advertising has become. Advertising is as much a part of today's life as electricity, anti-septic surgery or automobiles. It keeps us up-to-date on enough supplies in the world to support further growth of population.

The advertisements save time, money and effort for those who read them and follow their guidance. They are practical guarantees of satisfaction.

YOUTH WINS VICTORY OVER EAST, AS ALABAMA WINS

(By The Associated Press)
PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 6.—The University of Alabama made international football history Saturday in the Southwestern trounced the University of Pennsylvania, 9 to 7, in the most bitterly fought grid-battles seen on Franklin field in long time. A touchdown and placement goal represented the score of the game from the south, while Pennsylvania's seven points were made on a touchdown and point after touchdown. The Quakers showed superiority in kicking for distance and in forward passing, but in generalship, defensive play, and the power to deliver the ball when the opportunity presented itself, the southern team outclassed the home eleven. Alabama's line generally held like a stone wall at critical periods. About twenty thousand persons saw the game.

Bartlett, Hubert, Probst and West starred for the Alabamians. New and Clements were everywhere in the field and few gains were made around their ends. Captain Miller of Pennsylvania always an aggressive player, was not able to show his hitting style of play, for a southern player was usually in his path. Hamer player a swirling game for Pennsylvania and MacGraw and Thurman played effectively. Thurman was later removed for unnecessary roughness. For this Pennsylvania was penalized half the distance to its goal in the third period which had considerable to do with the touchdown that gave Alabama the game. It played well in Pennsylvania's territory and upset the team.

There was the scoring in the first quarter. In the second half, the Alabamians pointed and Pennsylvania lost possession of the ball on a thirty-six yard line. Herb Sauer substitute for McGraw was given the ball and after dashing to the end of the field and then turning back to the three yard line, he kicked a field goal and gave Alabama a 7-0 lead.

Hubert Probst kicked a field goal in the second quarter. In the third quarter, the Alabamians kept the Southwestern from scoring. Bartlett was the hero of this attack. Taking the ball on Pennsylvania's thirty-yard line, he broke through the line and dashed to the end of the field and then turning back to the three yard line, he kicked a field goal and gave Alabama a 10-0 lead.

FOR THE MOVIE FAN

And that's what you'll see at the Princess this coming Friday and Saturday in "The Loves of Pharaoh"

If you call around at the show to-morrow night you will see Dorothy Dalton selling her kisses at $1.00 each.

She plays the leading role in "The Siren Call."

"The Siren Call" is a picture of the Great Northwest—different from any you have ever seen.

And it's different because it was filmed in the Yosemite Valley.

Look Osborne's program over for the week. Plenty of good ones.

An exceptionally strong cast of players will be seen in the Whitman-Bennett-Associated First National production, "Wife Against Wife" at the Princess Theatre Wednesday. Pauline Starks has the leading role as a little French model who incurs the jealousy of an artist's wife. Other players are Percy Marmont, Edward Langford, Emily Fitzroy and Ottola Nesmith. "Wife Against Wife" is a film version of George Broadhurst's successful stage play, "The Price."

FLORIDA PRESENTS HARVARD WITH 'GATOR MASCOT

AND THEN GO IN AND HOLD THEM TO THREE TOUCH-DOWNS

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Nov. 6.—Harvard repulsed another Southern invasion Saturday, defeating the University of Florida, 24 to 0. The team with the alligator mascot was unable to cope with the Harvard system of football play. The system, supported Saturday by only a few regulars by many second string men and in the end by a team that was one of tertiary strength, stopped almost at inception all the Southerners' attempts to score, and proved productive of 24 points—three touchdowns and three subsequent goals, with one goal from field.

Before the game Captain Duncan, of the 'Gators, came out into the middle of the field, and there presented to Captain Charley Buell, of Harvard, the alligator brought up for that purpose. Buell, Owen, Gehrke, Chapin and many of the regular Harvard varsity linemen were kept out of the game, yet if they had been in the chances are the score would not have been larger. Florida's fumbles and that early game back fever handed the Crimson an early lead. At the end of the first quarter, however, the teams were playing on a fairly even basis.

By far the best feature of the Floridian scheme was the punting of Ray Dickson. Rumor had brought here some extra punt shoes at the previous week. But they were not available. Dickson's punting was the best of the game. He kicked a 40-yard punt into the end zone, a 35-yard punt into the end zone, a 30-yard punt into the end zone, and a 25-yard punt into the end zone.

Harvard's first score came in the second quarter. A 30-yard punt by Dickson set the Harvard offense on the Florida 30-yard line. The Harvard offense then drove for a touchdown and a field goal.

Harvard's second score came in the third quarter. A 30-yard punt by Dickson set the Harvard offense on the Florida 30-yard line. The Harvard offense then drove for a touchdown and a field goal.

Harvard's third score came in the fourth quarter. A 30-yard punt by Dickson set the Harvard offense on the Florida 30-yard line. The Harvard offense then drove for a touchdown and a field goal.
