A Practical Mother's Day Idea

It is well enough to observe annual Mother's Day by appropriate messages or flowers or by other sentimental acknowledgments but in the viewpoint of the Melbourne Times something far more worthy could be done in paying tributes to mothers.

"For the protection and betterment of motherhood—individuals and societies and communities are beginning to see that 'Mother's Day' can be something greater than a day for sentiment and for sporadic generosity. They are seeing that the beautiful idea of giving a special day each year to mother can be enlarged to encompass a cause whose aim will be the protection and better care of mothers.

"Notable among the enterprises devoted to this work is the 'Maturity Center' Association, of 1 East Fifty-seventh Street, New York City. For several years it has been helping to arouse the people of America to a realization of the awful fact that child-birth takes in this country that boasts of being civilized, 16,000,000 mothers in the United States die in child-birth each year. And ten thousand of these deaths could be prevented! Ignorance and cruelty work death in hand in this murder work.

"This year the Maturity Center Association is asking communities to join hands with it in an effort to make surveys of all parts of the country to see what towns and rural places are doing for the betterment of prospective mothers. Blank 'appraisal forms' are available for the use of any group of parents who will undertake such a survey. The Association also furnishes programs, without charge, for clubs desiring to show interest in this problem. Prizes, too, are to be awarded groups who make high rating in the survey work, and who present plans for improvement based upon that survey.

"Mother's Day should do something. The appeal it makes to memories, and the call it gives for consideration of living mothers undoubtedly do a great deal for the one day. It causes sons and daughters to remember their mothers in tender ways. It gives many a Mother new courage and new strength to go on with the treadmill of her daily life. She finds that under their careless, selfish actions her children still hold a deep and abiding love for her. She may have only the one day in the year to see that this is so, but somehow it carries her through to the next Second Sunday in May—so much must mothers hoard these glimpses into the hearts of their loved ones.

"But again we repeat that Mother's Day should do something. It isn't enough that we wear a flower for Mother. It is a day for solemn pledges that it shall start a year of service for the protection and betterment of motherhood.

As Others See Us

It is often the case that people are quicker to see someone else's opportunities and advantages, and in the case of Sanford we dare say that many of our citizens are not aware of the fact that other towns are looking at us with envious gaze.

Many complimentary things have been said recently by the press of the state about Sanford's commercial renaissance as regards the use of the St. Johns River as a traffic artery, and the following editorial from the Orlando Sentinel gives some idea of how important our neighboring city considers our development as an inland port:

"Sanford is wide awake to its opportunities and business interests are alive to the fact that Sanford is peculiarly situated—a seaport city in the interior of Florida.

"We have more than once pointed out that Sanford is Central Florida's port. It is becoming more so every day and friend Karl Lehmann of the Seaside Chamber of Commerce is not slow in telling the world about it and at the same time asking Orlando's help in extending its sphere of influence.

"Friend Karl spoke here yesterday and he pointed to the fact that four river transportation companies now are operating a fleet of boats on the river from Sanford to Jacksonville.

"These boats carried out a million boxes of citrus last season, saving the growers $380,000. A tidy little sum they imported from the outside world thousands of tons of fertilizer for use in the groves of this section.

"Grocery companies, the Georgia-Florida Co., and the Winn-Lovett Co., are preparing to build docks on the river front. They realize the practicability of such a move, its benefits, its logic.

"Sanford is truly Orlando's and Central Florida's gateway to the sea.

"Orlando calls for a port. We have one 17 miles away. That's not very far.

"Perhaps Florida will eventually have a canal. But right now Central Florida has a great, broad river capable of carrying its products directly to the sea.

"Let us seize what we have and make it bigger and more effective in every sense of the words. What builds Sanford helps Orlando."

SANFORD, TWENTY YEARS AGO

Miss Annie Hawkins entertained pleasantly a few friends at a luncheon on Tuesday afternoon at her attractive home on Celery Avenue the party going out in automobiles. The first prize was awarded to Mrs. W. P. Carter while the low score prize went to Miss Wheeler. Those present were: Mrs. W. D. Turner, Mrs. W. P. Carter, Mrs. J. E. Bennett, Mrs. Roy F. Symes, Mrs. Mary Symes, Mrs. B. A. Howard, Mrs. G. A. Symes, Mrs. Claude Howard, Mrs. J. B. Moore, and Miss Wheeler.

The many admirers of John Stockton in this city and in Seminole County are anxious to hear him speak and a date is being arranged for him to be here before the election.

The bulkheading of the lake front has started. The dredge boats arrived at the docks from Jacksonville last week and made ready for business last Saturday and it pumped for some time to get the machinery in working order. Yesterday morning the dredging began in earnest and crowds of interested citizens were at the dock to watch the work.

Miss Mabel Bowler of Jacksonville is expected to arrive in Sanford within the next few days. Miss

200,000 VOTERS TENSION EASES MAY GO TO POLLS IN STATE JUNE 5

Democratic Registration Totals Already Have Hit 225,582

TALLAHASSEE, May 12.—(AP) Secretary of State Gray yesterday estimated the Democratic primary vote on June 5 would be approximately 200,000.

With 80 counties, most of them small, still unreported, Democratic registration totalled 225,582, a tabulation compiled by Gray showed.

Only two major counties—Polk and Volusia—remained to report but in the smaller counties unreported thus far were Jackson, Walton, Seminole, St. Johns and Madison.

Hillsborough county led the state with 35,660 registrations, closely followed by Duval with 34,100, and Brevard with 29,484.

Gray announced 250,000 copies of the official campaign booklet, containing advertisements by various candidates, were ordered from the printer. These will be sent to county registration officers for distribution to qualified voters.

The number registered, Secretary Gray said, is not always an indication of the number of votes that will be cast. Payment of poll taxes is necessary to become qualified. May 19 is the deadline for payment.

The registration totals, by counties, compiled so far by the secretary of state, are:

Alachua 8240, Bay 8046, Brevard 29,484, Broward 22,015, Calhoun 5080, Charlotte 1695, Citrus 2454, Clay 2661, Columbia 3124, Dade 26,484, Duval 34,100, Escambia 15,944, Gadsden 2,715, Gilchrist 1444, Glades 1182.

Road Costs For 1934 Will Leave Account In Red

(Continued from Page One) of fixed charges of $3,000,000. The amount estimated to be available for construction and maintenance during 1934 is $4,004,000.18, but work already under way and necessary to keep contracts engaged in maintenance and betterment will cost $1,313,000.

Paving under construction will cost $1,010,000, grading under construction will cost $1,214,000, routine maintenance will cost $1,083,400, and betterment will $1,000,000.

The budget lists 20 projects for construction at a cost of $82,480,000, but Road Department officials declared it was necessary to keep capital budget engaged.

Major projects to be constructed are:

Road 2 from Bartow to Winter Haven $20,000; road 10 from Camp Walton to Niceville $70,000; road 19, Ocklawaha River to Hosford $125,460.47; road 23 from Wildwood to Coleman $124,888.85; road 44, St. Johns River bridge at Mims $22,000; road 82, Columbia county $110,000; road 184, Lakeland to Bartow $35,000, and road 170, Fellsmere to Ocoola county line $40,000.

The Cartwright bill, now pending before Congress, may result in a new allocation of federal emergency road construction funds to Florida. Chairman C. B. Treadway of the State Road Department said this state's share would be about $5,200,000 if the Cartwright bill becomes law.

Harwell Hands In Resignation As Receiver

(Continued from Page One) paid to date amount to $445,794.04, the report indicates, and unsecured liabilities for which receivers' certificates have been issued are $1,244,448.23, with unsecured liabilities unproven of $21,660.27.

Dividends aggregating 55 percent, or $675,653.22 have been paid to date, and cash in the hands of the receiver and the Comptroller of the Currency amounts to $32,264.64.

It also is noted that there remains unpaid $9,335.04 in secured liabilities.

A. F. Rawlings was the first receiver of the institution, operating in such capacity from July 13, 1929 until Jan. 29, 1931. Mr. Rawlings paid 45 percent in dividends.

Mr. Harwell succeeded Mr. Rawlings and has paid two dividends, aggregating 10 percent since that time.

The first dividend released by Mr. Harwell brought about $100,000 into this section, and it represented a seven percent dividend. It was announced in October, 1931, at the start of a new season and at a time when many growers were at a loss as to where to secure funds for the coming season.

The second dividend under Mr. Harwell was also released at an opportune time, in June 1933, at the close of a more or less disastrous celery season. This dividend amounted to three percent, and about $40,000 was made available locally.

As is customary with federal receivers, Mr. Harwell declined to make any statement whatsoever governing any future dividends.

Mr. Harwell came to Sanford from Jasper where he acted as federal receiver for the First National Bank of that town. He has been a federal receiver for the past four years.

Mr. Harwell also is in his 30th year as a practicing banker. He is a native of Georgia, and for 21 years he has served in a bank in Covington, Ga., which he calls his "home town."

He left Covington to come to Florida and for two years he was connected with a bank in West Palm Beach.

He resigned from this post and reorganized the First Bank and Trust Co., at Lake Worth, being at the same time the executive vice-president of the Canal Point Bank.

After a several year period at the head of these institutions, Mr. Harwell resigned, in May, 1930, he entered service as a national bank receiver.

Announcement of Mr. Harwell's resignation created much surprise on downtown streets this morning, and it elicited many expressions of regret that Mr. Harwell plans to leave this city.

Among those heard in comment over the resignation was Walter L. Cooper, realtor and broker: "This is a genuine surprise to me, and I am sorry to hear of it. I have known Mr. Harwell fair, honest and efficient in all his dealings and have had lots of dealings with him during the past three years. He certainly had the interests of all depositors ever in mind and I am sure that all will regret to hear that he has decided to sever his connection with the local receiver's bin."

R. A. Newman, merchant: "I am sorry that Mr. Harwell has resigned his position in this city.

I have had numerous occasions to deal with him, and I have found him to be a gentleman whose activities indicated that he had the interests of his trust as heart as all times. We are going to lose a mighty fine citizen if he decides to leave Sanford, and I am sure that his legion of friends will regret to learn of his decision.

City Commissioner V. A. Speer: "I regret to hear of the likelihood of Mr. Harwell's leaving Sanford. The manner in which he conducted the affairs of the bank has been very commendable and efficient and I hope that this move will lead to something better, for he merits advancement."

F. F. Dorner, Celery Avenue grower and president of the Seminole Agriculture Club: "This move is indeed a surprise. I consider Mr. Harwell one of the finest men ever sent into this city to handle affairs of this kind. He is a noble character and I sincerely regret that he is leaving. We ought to have more citizens of his type. "Happy Landings" Is Presented By Class

A custom of Junior Classes of Seminole High School to present a play annually, was continued last night when the members of the 1934 Junior Class sponsored, "Happy Landings," a three-act farce comedy, in the school auditorium before a large and appreciative audience. The members of the cast, who have been rehearsing for the past few weeks under the able direction of Miss Elizabeth Shoenberger and Miss Helen Verma, class sponsors, showed unusual ability and portrayed their parts with skill. The audience showed with applause its appreciation of the acting from time to time. The plot of the comedy centered about a famous aviator, Jack Hughes, who agreed to do stunt flying for a small college because it afforded him an opportunity of meeting an attractive but elusive girl, Miss Eleanor Hickson. He was pursued by George Anderson, as a jealous Bolshevik, whose wife had fallen in love with a picture of the handsome aviator. The professor, St. Clair Cameron, came reluctantly to the rescue of his friend, the aviator, much to the confusion of the colored maid, Miss Marion Haynes and her "gentleman" friend George McClelland. Charles Betts, as the young girl's father, was encouraged to learn to fly by Miss Marlene Torrance, a young lady with foreign ways, while his wife, Miss Adelaide Higgins tried to prevent him. Other characters were Miss Jane Sharon and Miss Evelyn Echols, talkative spinsters, and the aviator's copilot, J. W. Altman. Much of the success of the affair was contributed to Robert Cornell, business manager; O. P. Herndon, Jr., William Vihlen, and Miss Harriett Brown, business managers; Miss Margaret Takach and Carl Fesler, ticket committee; and the Misses Margaret Verma, Herschel Hamby, and Eugenia Warren, prompters. Music between the acts was furnished by Miss Frances Munson, pianist. Ushers for the evening were: the Misses Sadie Leinhardt, Mary McMahon, Katharine Vernay, Mary Louise Meriwether, Mary Elizabeth Newkirk, and Sam Dighton, Jr., William Spear, Oliver Miller, James Cochran, and John Coleman.

Church Class Holds Anniversary Affair

A "Mother-Daughter" banquet, at which time the twentieth anniversary of the class was celebrated, was given Thursday night at the Montecuma Hotel by the Dependable Class of the First Methodist Church with members of the class and their mothers in attendance. The long banquet table was overlaid with a linen cloth and centered with a large white birthday cake bearing 20 lighter candles. Bowls of pink radishes, roses, white carnations, gypsophila, and ferns were placed at intervals along the length of the table. Places of the guests were marked with novelty crepe paper dolls in pastel shades. Tall fern stands filled with Easter lilies and gladioli were arranged in the corners of the banquet room. The program for the evening opened with "peppy" songs after which Mrs. Harold A. Appleby, president of the class, gave an address of welcome which was responded to by Mrs. John Vaughn. Mrs. W. S. Thornton, who has been teacher of the class since its organization, gave a tribute to the mothers in attendance. Other features of the entertainment were a song, "Mother Machee," by Mrs. Burke Steele with accompaniment by Mrs. R. B. Wright, readings by Mrs. W. E. Kirchoff and Mrs. O. K. Surprise Luncheon Honors Mrs. Watson

In order that they might express their appreciation of her diligence and faithfulness during her two-year term of office, the members of the Garden Club of Sanford gave a surprise luncheon yesterday at Perrydell in Orlando in honor of Mrs. William E. Watson, retiring president of the Sanford Garden Club. A miniature garden centered by a Dresden china figure formed an appropriate decoration on the long table from which luncheon was served. Mrs. W. H. Arnold, Jr. was awarded a mosaic brooch pinned on a sash case for guessing, most accurately, the number of flower varieties in the table display. Included in the 80 varieties was the unique "yellow butter lily" with parsley butter leaves. A shoulder corsage of flowers, the gift of Mrs. C. R. Kirtley, was presented in Mrs. Watson at the beginning of the luncheon. During the serving of the three-course luncheon, which carried out in detail a pastel color motif, each member read a brief poem or extract about a garden. The following original poem was dedicated to the honor guest: "I'll be you didn't know That I could make a garden grow From the letters of a name; The seeds I'll sow, You'll follow row by row And recognize my aim; C for cordulias with waxlike flowers; Ribisus is H, it responds to our showers; A, amaryllis, a tender a lily, Rudasias aren't found where it's too high and cholly; L for Lewisia, the flower of my State, Olandria is O, starts early, stays late; Touch me not, out of this garden I'll pluck, Tulips, her own, will bring it more luck; E, evergreen may this spot remain, Watson's huckle will tell of its fame; Analeas are found in most colors but blue; Thunbergia assists me and brings out this hue; S, for stay jasmine, we love its perfume; Grethia I'll have when the bauhinia blooms; N is no nuttino, single or double, No celosia, next year without any trouble; Now can't you see, that Gardeners all, Her name is last flowing over my garden wall?" After viewing the circle's picture album prepared by Mrs. E. D. Embart, and visiting the gardens of the Perrydell, the group returned to Sanford and went to the home of Mrs. Watson in Lily Court where, during her absence, an out-of-door health had been constructed in the rear garden a surprise gift from the circle. Those attending were: Mrs. W. E. Watson, honor guest, Mrs. J. Benson, circle chairman, Mrs. W. H. Arnold, Jr., Mrs. Andrew Caraway, Mrs. R. R. Dean, Mrs. Harry Heeren, Mrs. E. I. Hoy, Mrs. J. O. ATTEMPT MADE TO HI-JACK RANSOM CASH

Emissary With Large Sum For Release Of Gettle Shoots His Way Out Of Trap

LOS ANGELES, May 14.—(A.P.)—Kidnapers of William F. Gettle, oil millionaire and their victim were hid safely away today after a night of sensational episodes in which an emissary carrying a ransom of $60,000 escaped presumably from hi-jackers after repeated attempts to contact the abductors.

The denouncement of a bizarre series of maneuvers came about 10 A. M. when the intermediary, traveling in a small car with a satchel containing the ransom in five and ten dollar bills shot his way out of a trap. Before he was whipped out a revolver to protect himself from a group he believed to be hi-jackers, he had spent nearly five hours driving through metropolitan Los Angeles picking up at intervals instructions which were to have led to the actual delivery of the ransom.

After coming upon the third of these notes and while driving up a dark street between the old river bridge and the City of Maywood about eight miles southeast of the Los Angeles business district, three machines closed in upon him, police reported. Quickly sensing from the tenor of the notes that the machines could not possibly contain the kidnapers, and fearing an attempt by outsiders to take the ransom away from him, he opened fire. Shots were exchanged.

The emissary, whose name upon police request is withheld, fled to a telephone, notified police headquarters he was safe, and a search was begun for his protection. Officers said that two notes pencilled in Gettle's handwriting and with his Shrine life membership card attached indicated that the ransom payment instructions were leading to the end of his trail as a prisoner, and that he is alive.

Quickening Of Retail Trade Brightens Past Week's News; Business Confidence Drops

Sales Volume Running 12 To 20 Percent Better Than Those Of Spring Of 1933

NEW YORK, May 14.—(A.P.)—Reports of the most substantial quickening of retail trade since March served to brighten the business news of the past week, which dwelt primarily upon evidences of seasonal slackening in industry.

Dun and Bradstreet said warmer weather had brought out a large number of shoppers, and the reports from many parts of the country indicated sales volumes running 12 to 20 percent over a year ago, although drought conditions became so severe in parts of the Middle West as to impair business.

Steel production continued to gain, with "Iron Age" estimating output at 60 percent of capacity, up two percentage points and the best level since 1930 but a weakening of scrap prices and the knowledge that consumers were taking advantage of price protection existing until the end of the quarter to cover requirements tended to detract from the favorable operating rate.

Automobile production declined substantially, although retail sales reports remained favorable. Grant's reports, nevertheless saw in the second successive weekly contraction in output "increasing evidence that the industry's peak operating levels for the year have passed." Freight carloadings declined a little, in a week in which a small gain in the seasonal average and electric power output was off about two percent, or a trifle more than seasonally, but the report reflected the first week of daylight saving.

Moody's seasonally adjusted index for steel production rose to 64, up 2.1 points, but the figures for freight movement and power production contracted a little, with the result that the combined index for the three factors declined 0.2 of a point to 77.1, after reaching a new 1934 high last week.

Retail trade reports indicated the greatest activity in apparel and shoe-furnishings, but interest spread to many other divisions. Retail sales at reduced prices were said to be less in evidence, and merchants uneasiness over possible inventory losses appeared to have abated.

Hesitant Market For Stocks Since Last February Held Sign Of Lack Of Trust

CLEVELAND, May 14.—(A.P.)—Business confidence has not been budding up as well as business statistics because six months of consecutive increases in volumes of production, transportation and trade have not really been well distributed, Col. Leonard P. Ayres, vice president of the Cleveland Trust Company, says in his monthly business bulletin.

Colonel Ayres cites as lack of confidence the hesitant market for stocks since February, as well as the recent long decline which carried average prices down to the levels of last autumn.

The two factors which he holds responsible for the increase in business activity are "the continued expenditure of huge sums of federal funds in loans, subsidies and for public works, and the greatly increased output of the automobile industry which has recently been producing each day new cars worth about $10,000,000."

"It is probably true," he says, "that we now have greater accumulated genuine shortages of goods and construction that the people want and need, and greater accumulations of money and credit seeking employment, than have ever existed before anywhere. We have most of the component requisites for sustained recovery, and world wide business improvement is under way."

His records of business activity in this year of 1934 will furnish the decisive test and measure of the efficacy of our National Recovery program.

Official announcement of his candidacy for the State Democratic Executive Committee as a representative from Seminole County was made today by S. A. B. Wilkinson, Sanford attorney.

HEAVY SLASH IN VETERANS' LIST PROPOSED

Economy League Head Says 37 Percent Of Men On Rolls Do Not Deserve To Be Paid

NEW YORK, May 14.—(A.P.)—Henry H. Curran, director of the National Economy League, declared yesterday that 256,000, or 37 percent of the 687,000 war veterans and dependents now drawing government pensions should be stricken from the rolls.

To these pensioners the government will pay $133,000,000 this year, Curran said in a survey of veterans' benefits under the independent offices appropriation bill. "This money, he said, will be spent 'in violation of the principle of generous treatment for truly war disabled veterans and their dependents, but no gratuities for those who returned from war whole and well' for which the National Economy League stands."

Citing the elimination of 100,000 World War veterans from the rolls, Curran called the saving involved "a great victory" for "those who have been fighting for sound principles in veterans' legislation."

The report said 222,000 Spanish-American War veterans have been restored to the roll under the bill. The League contends 200,000 of these should not be there.

Of the 165,000 World War veterans drawing pensions, Curran declared 69,000 should be eliminated.

These unwarranted pensions cost the American people $95,000,000 a year in contrast with the total annual cost of all pensions of $128,000,000, Curran asserted.

Italians Hop Off On Flight To Rome

BROOKLYN, May 14.—(A.P.)—Captain George Pond and Lieutenant Cesare Sabelli snatched away from Floyd Bennett Field today with the announced intention of reaching Rome without a stop. They said their large monoplane could make the 4,500 mile flight in about 40 hours. The plane carried enough fuel to last more than 10 hours. Weather reports indicated favorable winds but noted a low pressure area over the North Atlantic coast which the fliers said they would fly over.

CHAS. R. DAWSON IS RECOMMENDED AS COUNTY AGENT

Oviedo School Official To Get $2700 Year Starting On July 1

As a result of action taken at a meeting of the Board of County Commissioners this morning, Charles R. Dawson, principal of the Oviedo High School and a part-time vocational agricultural teacher at Seminole County, will resign these two positions at the end of the school term and become this county's first County Agent in seven years. His salary will be about $2700 per year, $1500 of which is to be paid by the county.

The Board has been considering the re-creation of the old office of County Agent for some months, and the morning's action came as the result of agitation begun nearly a year ago.

Before authorizing the creation of the agency, the Board listened to H. G. Clayton of Gainesville, State Superintendent of County Agents, in a talk in which he outlined the duties and responsibilities of county agents and what they mean to any county.

The Commissioners then moved unanimously that $1500 be appropriated in the next budget to pay a county agent $75 per month, $900 salary and $60 per month for expenses.

Upon motion of Commissioner W. B. Williams of Oviedo, seconded by Commissioner S. F. Long of Chuluota, Mr. Dawson was recommended for the appointment, beginning on July 1, 1934.

In an interview before he returned to Gainesville, Mr. Clayton stated that the county agent is the representative of Secretary of Agriculture, Wallace, as well as the Agricultural Extension Service of the United States and the State of Florida.

The state and government will contribute about $1200 per year toward Mr. Dawson's salary while the county will contribute $1500.

GREEN CLAIMS MORE STRIKES ARE IN OFFING

Labor Leader Warns Against Letting Fisher Body Strikers Lose Demands

WASHINGTON, May 14.—(A.P.)—William Green, president of the American federation of labor, warned yesterday that strikes in many branches of the automobile industry would occur unless striking workers of the Fisher body plant at Flint, Mich., win their demands.

"The strike of the workers employed at the Fisher body plant at Flint, Mich., reflects the spirit of unrest and discontent which prevails among the automobile workers at the present time," Green said.

"It is of a serious nature and it is my opinion that unless the workers secure redress for grievances about which they have complained over a period of time, strikes will occur in other manufacturing plants of the automobile industry."

"There will be no peace in the automobile industry," he added, "until the grievances of the workers are fairly settled, discrimination and coercion stopped, the right of collective bargaining established."

Walter P. Grogan, 37, Pauls resident who has been associated with the Umattila Fruit Co. for the past 15 years, died at the Ferndale Laughton Memorial Hospital late Saturday night. He had been ill for several weeks.

Funeral services were held from the Erickson Funeral Home at 3:00 o'clock this afternoon with Rev. Wm. P. Brooks, Jr., of the First Baptist Church, officiating.

Burial was in Evergreen Cemetery where members of Celery Camp No. 625, Woodmen of the World, conducted a ritual service.

Mr. Grogan, widely known in Central Florida because of his work with the Umattila concern, was a native of Brevard, N. C., where he was born on Sept. 1, 1896. He had resided in Pauls for the past nine years, but he had been in Florida for more than 15 years.

Pay Your Poll Tax

With nearly 3500 persons registered as voters in this county, less than 1100 were qualified to vote in the June primaries this morning, a condition which all candidates declare as harmful to the best interests of the county. With all candidates agreed that the coming session of the Legislature promises to be one of the most important in years, hope was expressed this morning that all persons who have so far failed to pay their poll tax for 1932 and 1933 will do so before Saturday night at 9:00 o'clock after which it will be too late. Tax Collector Jno. D. Jinkins, at noon today, had issued 1342 poll tax receipts for 1932 and 1078 tax receipts for 1933. Pay your poll taxes before Saturday night!

CLAIMS AGAINST UPPER ST. JOHNS DISTRICT PAID

County Taxpayers Are Saved $6956 Through Commission's Move

All outstanding claims and judgments against the Upper St. Johns River Navigation District which were created in 1926 for the purpose of erecting a canal between the St. Johns and Indian River for drainage and navigation purposes, were wiped out by the Board of County Commissioners this morning when they authorized issuance of checks totaling $7915.

The morning's action not only concluded a series of negotiations which resulted in a direct saving to the taxpayers of the county of $6956.00, but it also serves to settle the indebtedness existing against the District for some months.

Last June a payment of $5200 was made to the creditors, and hope was expressed at that time that a complete settlement might come this year after the payment of taxes collected under the two mill levy.

The Commissioners' action today was taken upon the advice of their attorney. He had advised the board that he could arrange an assignment of all judgments existing against the district, for $7000, or a saving of approximately $2015.

He also had arranged for the settlement of a bill for $1500 due John D. Sheppard for legal services rendered the District some time ago, and he had arranged to settle a bill of $684.55, due to Howard county for holding an election for the District, for $350.

Since the payment of all these items would satisfy all outstanding indebtedness against the District to taxpayers of the two mill tax levy for such purpose during the coming year, the Board declared itself of the opinion that the settlement proposed is to the best interest of the county, and checks were ordered drawn at once.

U. S. FINANCING OF NEW HOMES IS PROPOSED

Roosevelt Calls Congress Into Action On Employment Aid Program For Nation

WASHINGTON, May 14.—(A.P.)—Government insurance of private financing for home construction and repair was proposed today by President Roosevelt in a message to Congress.

The President urged action at this session on a two-fold program which he said would add to employment and provide "tangible, useful wealth in a form for which there is great social and economic need."

Loans for modernization would be made by private agencies which would be insured by governmental agencies against loss up to a certain percentage of their advances.

Mutual mortgage insurance, under governmental direction, to enable private agencies to make first mortgage loans on newly constructed houses up to 80 percent appraised value of the property also would be provided.

New mortgages would be allowed on existing homes up to 60 percent of the appraised value.

The President proposed further federal insurance for shares and certificate holders in building and loan associations similar to the insurance provided for bank depositors.

It had been planned also to submit a request for a carry-all $1-322,000,000 appropriation out of which public works and other aspects of recovery program would be financed in the fiscal year beginning July 1. The day was already full, however, so its message was deferred until tomorrow.
