Business Economy

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP)—Manufacturing as a contribution to Florida's economy increased about 60 per cent recently, the State Chamber of Commerce reported Saturday in its weekly business review.

This contribution is measured by the value added by the processes of manufacturing to the costs of raw materials and power used in making the finished goods.

In 1968 this value added by Florida manufacturing plants was $2.9 billion; in 1967 it was $2.4 billion and in 1966 it was $1.9 billion, based on a study released by the Bureau of the Census. The gain over the five year period was 50 per cent. The comparable national figure was 53 per cent.

Payrolls of industrial plants measure the growth of manufacturing. In 1967 they totaled $386 million. And by 1968 they amounted to $1.4 billion, a 61 per cent increase. This gain was a result of higher hourly wages as well as of more employees.

WES-KAY was one of the first modern laundromats in the Sanford area. Located near the intersection of 20th and French, Wes-Kay has more facilities to serve the customer.

Wes-Kay Had It First

R. D. Wesley, better known as Wes to the many patrons of the WES-KAY WASHETERIAS, seems to always be coming up with a "FIRST" AND ONLY.

Here are some of his past "First and Only's":

1. FIRST and ONLY coin laundry in Sanford to offer DOUBLE LOAD WASHERS for the SAME PRICE as all other single loads.
2. FIRST and ONLY to offer air-conditioned comfort for his customers at the French Ave. location.
3. FIRST and ONLY laundry to offer SINGLE LOAD WASHERS for 40 per cent LESS THAN ANY OTHER coin laundry.
4. FIRST and ONLY to offer dyeing service (at the French Ave. location).
5. THE FIRST dollar bill changer IN SEMI-COIN COUNTRY was installed at Wes-Kay on French Ave.
6. THE FIRST dollar bill changer IN SEMI-COIN COUNTRY was installed at Wes-Kay on French Ave.

There are many others but this will give you an idea as to why people drive right by one, two, and three coin laundries to go to Wes-Kay!

Since Wes recently started operating the WES-KAY II WASHETERIA at 111 W. 27th St. (near Pinecrest School), he has been constantly improving the facilities offered, and NOW HE HAS AIR CONDITIONED COIN LAUNDRY IN SANFORD. This is ANOTHER FIRST and ONLY! Not only can you wash in air conditioned comfort, but you can save at least 40 to 50 per cent of the cost of doing your laundry anywhere else in Sanford! You can't beat that, can you?

If you have never washed at either one of the Wes-Kay Washeterias, you are in for quite a surprise. At Wes-Kay you can use a DOUBLE LOAD (20 pound) washer and wash ten (10) double sheets or about two bushel baskets of clothes for the SAME PRICE THAT YOU PAY FOR A SINGLE LOAD WASHETER ANYWHERE ELSE IN SANFORD!

In fact, we guarantee that you can wash MORE clothes, CLEANER, and CHEAPER at Wes-Kay and if we can't prove this to you your money will be cheerfully refunded. Incidentally, Wes has never had a demonstration. No obligation, easy financing.

Few Jail Inmates Sleep On Floors

Need for modern and enlarged facilities to house Sanford's municipal operations was pinpointed by City Manager W. E. Knowles last night when he told City Commissioners, in a budget work session, that at times the city jail is crowded to the point that prisoners are obliged to sleep on the floor.

(Knowles review of the city's needs are detailed in Reporter Tom Alexander's report elsewhere on this front page.)

The present facility on Fulton Street now housing police headquarters, city jail and municipal court was one of the first county-owned and operated, Knowles reported, and long ago was condemned in state inspections. "The city," the manager said, "now operates out of these facilities that leave a great deal to be desired."

Knowles recommended a newly built plant, costing an estimated $400,000, to house a police headquarters, with crime laboratory, communications center, records center, etc.; a security center (jail), and a municipal courtroom.

"Separate facilities to house some functions," Knowles concluded, "are not efficient and are costly to the taxpayers. These should be consolidated. A cost figure for this complex may be $400,000 but it depends greatly on what is to be included and construction costs at the time it would be built."

Sanford Needs $7 Million Outlay For New Buildings, Knowles Says

Sanford residents may be faced with a unit cost increase due to the rising cost of operating water and sewage treatment facilities along with garbage pickup. It was pointed out last night at a City Commission workshop session.

City commissioners started working on budget demands for the coming fiscal year, and one of the major items discussed was proposed salary increases that would cost the city $103,704.

Items included in the review were:

- The city fathers then took a look at a list of capital improvements the community must have in the near future. The report was prepared by City Manager W. E. Knowles with a total projected cost of $7,213,000.

Salary Hike Urged For City Employees

Sanford city fathers started reviewing budget details in a workshop session and one of the first items they were faced with was a proposed 3.03 per cent salary increase.

The proposals were made by City Manager W. E. Knowles, who also offered a comparison chart with salaries presently being paid in neighboring Winter Park compared to those in Sanford.

The biggest increase in salaries if approved, would be in the police department. Sanford's 33 law enforcement officers were paid a total of $184,877 this year and a raise would bring the amount to $215,621 in the next fiscal year. This would mean the mean pay per employee in the department would be $6,533.

Knowles stressed that the city is having difficulties in enticing people to work in different public work areas and that private enterprise is siphoning many of the employees due to higher wages.

The city's 27 firemen received a total of $150,411 this year and Knowles requested that $18,540 be added to the payroll. Mean pay per fireman would then be $6,257.

Departmental raises in the utility administration, utility plants, water district, and sewer collection combined show an increase from the present $184,931 salary budget to one of $205,654 resulting in $20,723 to be shared by the combined departments. 44 personnel. Mean pay per employee would be $4,661.

The 20 employees of the recreation, parks and cemetery along with the zoo received $79,933 this year in salaries. Budget proposals indicate $9,782 for next year, making a budget of $89,715 and in terms of mean base pay $4,843 per employee.

Broken down into areas the general government increase would be $81,541 or nine per cent for 149 employees. The total utility increase would be $28,123 or 10 per cent for 44 employees.

Other items discussed last night included:

- Report on filling the finance director's vacancy.
- Discussion of employee sick leave, longevity, reduction of hours for police personnel from 44 to 40, and civilian status for some administrative personnel in the police department not involved in actual enforcement of the law.

Longwood Rezoning Proposed

Rezoning of both sides of SR 424 from SR 427 east to Grand Street was recommended by the Longwood Planning and Zoning Commission last night.

The advisory board recommended that the City Council rezone the area to permit location of light commercial and professional enterprises on the highway.

"The character of the street has changed from residential to light commercial," Mayor Kenneth Brown remarked as he urged the highway be retained for a higher type, commercial and professional use rather than industrial development.

The board also agreed to recommend that the zoning ordinance be amended to include classification for apartment buildings.

First tract to be given the new designation will be lots on Wildmere to allow construction of apartment units there. Builder will be required to submit set of duplicate plans drawn to scale for the multi-family dwellings. Law provides that the builder must comply with building inspector's requirements.

Public hearing on the apartment rezoning has been set by the City Council for July 1 at 7:30 p. m.

Public hearing on zoning amendment designating the new category of commercial/professional is set for July 10.

Dumpers' Clean Up At County Dumps

Ten "culprits" who dumped trash and garbage outside the county sanitary landfills during hours the dumps were closed are "cleaning up their own piles," J. C. Lavender, county road superintendent, reported to the County Commission yesterday.

The sheriff's department found the names of the "culprits" in the dump's materials and called on the violators over the weekend. When confronted with the evidence, the dumpers "voluntarily" to clean up the mess, Lavender stated. Work began Monday and is nearly completed now, he said.

The county has been having a rash of dumping outside sanitary landfill locked gates since a new policy came into effect closing the facilities on Sundays. Under the policy, one dump is open each Sunday on a rotating basis.

Dumps at Sanlando, Upsala, Cameron City and Ovida are open Monday through Saturday from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. County employees on hand at all four landfills during the open hours to see that no scavenging is done and no fires set.

HE'S HARD TO SPOT IN THE WATER...

BUT... it is a five-foot gator getting plenty of "elbow room" from everyone, in the water near the marina. (P.S.—He is definitely NOT a friendly Gator.)

Road Work Aimed At New Park

An improved Wekiva Springs Road to link SR 434 with the new proposed state park in Orange County was suggested by Commissioner Greg Drummond yesterday.

Wekiva Spring Road is the dirt street extending from State Road 434 immediately south of the Mid-Florida Country Club in a westerly direction to the "Bridge to Nowhere" crossing the Wekiva River. The bridge was constructed years ago by the State Road Department. Seminole County built a road to the bridge but Orange County never appropriated monies to build a road on its side of the span.

"I do not believe it is the state's intent to require the county to provide access roads to state parks," Drummond declared as he predicted Wekiva Springs Road, currently an unimproved street, will be a major access to the state facility.

County Engineer William Bush was instructed to contact the State Road Department for preliminary plans for improvement of the road.

In other business, the Commission made its recommendations for appointment to the two seats vacated by the resignation of Raymond Siefert, resigned.

Informed Public Opinion Of Prime Value Now

Editorial Comment

Informed public opinion, with the accent on "informed," is becoming more and more recognized as the most important factor in the creation of a sound community.

This is always true. But it is peculiarly so, when the community is one such as Sanford-Seminole where growth and progress have jumped out of the dictionary and become lively, inescapable, visual challenges.

Public opinion, unhappily, is not always created from factual information through the responsible mass media, public meetings or speeches by those who should be talking out loud.

In any city or county where the status quo is accepted by those who live and vote in the community, forces far removed from where they are being felt, this challenge of informational accuracy is easily met. But not so here in Sanford, not so in the quietening areas of activity in our county. This newspaper with its policy firmly set to do everything possible to inform its readers as to what is taking place, the responsibility is vital.

It is the motivation for the county-wide staff of correspondents who make our "Page One," outstanding interviews, leading personalities, talking with politicians, listening to the conferences which take place almost daily our reportorial staff feeds in those stories which make our "Page One," outstanding among the newspapers of Florida.

When editorial comment such as this is made it is not the opinion of any one man, it is the result of daily conferences when local problems which have surfaced, and some which have not, are analyzed and discussed.

Rarely a week goes by without our holding a meeting with an outstanding leader in our city, and our county who has intimate knowledge of what is going on in his sphere of activity and who has realized that informed public opinion must have its base in informed writing, reporting and comment.

There are traditional and boisterous circumstances which would cloud such informational efforts. These usually arise from rumors not clarified, charges not explained, or a combination of circumstances which would lead to an assumption which the facts do not support.

Every editor is well aware that all interviews and all conferences are not held in the balanced atmosphere of impartial interest or devotion to the common good which would be almost Polly-anish to expect.

Indeed, one of the best guides to the formation of sound public opinion came from a national leader during WW II when citizens were advised to read dispatches from both our own and the enemy lines and sort out carefully all facts that would be favorable to the Allies in German dispatches and all favorable to the Hitler hosts in Allied reports.

It was not easy then. It is not easy now. But to look at a controversial issue — payroll, taxes, education, civil rights — with that formula is an exercise in judgment that pays very high rewards.

Public opinion is, to be sure, the target of mass media. It is, in essence, the force which projects to be created and then supported or abandoned. It acts through governmental agencies and commissions. It acts through voters.

It is also, happily, an effective critic and the factor which renders a final judgment. In our community there are several known projects which are ready for such treatment. Others will come along as this year of 1969 gives way to the promising and challenging 1970s.

We will continue to do our part in giving our readers access to all of the news — events and statements — and will do so in our persistent effort to fill the role of the only daily newspaper printed in Seminole County and the traditional obligation to seek out and publish the news!

Mellonville School

Recognizing a combination of circumstances which would have baffled even wiser heads, the Board of Directors of the Mellonville Private School have decided to wait another year before attempting its operation.

It was in April that this movement to establish a private school which would be dedicated to quality education in Sanford took shape.

Since then it has gone through the founding routines of marshalling those interested in such a program, electing a board of directors and then selecting its officers.

There were two basic problems which these devoted persons had to meet. Most essential was that of financing such a school. This, it appears, was the principal stumbling block towards the goal of opening in September.

The other, was that which all schools face — in being and in prospect — the gathering together of a faculty which could meet all the regular demands of education and add to it the zeal which must go into any founding project.

We are sure that the need for quality education can never be fully met in Sanford or anywhere else. We are sure that those who felt the need for such a school as "Mellonville" is deep enough to assure that the project will not be abandoned.

As we have said elsewhere and at other times, our state, county and city is enduring the pressures of growth and change which surface in all sorts of situations.

If this drive of such a group with John Y. Mercer as chairman of the board of directors, supplying a background of fiscal and educational experience of a very high order, was not able to generate steam enough for a full year, this year, we are not at all persuaded that this is any sort of an end.

Rather we would look at it as an endeavor which already has done much to focus attention on a situation which needs to be recognized and has, even more importantly, suggested that Sanford does, indeed, need a private school which would make "quality education" or education with excellence as a measure of its success something greatly to be desired!

"I Still Say It's Just Baby Fat!"

CRANE'S WORRY CLINIC

Praise For Daily Newspapers

By George W. Crane, Ph. D., M. D.

CASE K-527: Back in 1956, this daily newspaper column of actual office cases, was also converted into a daily dramatized network radio show. It's title was, "The Worry Clinic."

It had run on the Mutual Network and was transferred to CBS as part of an hour's program, involving "Hymns of All Churches," plus "Ed's Little Crocker."

The daily radio "Worry Clinic" involved 6 or 8 actors and psychanalysts get part way into their series of "seances" as if he were almost God Almighty.

My Chicago patients also would regard me in that same fashion and no outsider could divulge their attachment till later in their course of treatment.

But I tartly reminded Paley's psychoanalyst that even in 1936 there were over 130 daily newspapers which would still reveal to "ze American public and for FREE zee basic rules for happy living like zee psychoanalyst wanted to receive for his own $25 office fees."

Since I saw how easily just one of the three major radio networks could thus be censored and regimented, even by an immigrant refugee psychoanalyst, I came to the conclusion that the American newspaper constitutes our first line of defense for those basic freedoms reserved for us in our famous U. S. Constitution.

Every newspaper is thus an independent revealer of truth; not required by the FCC (a political appointive board) to bow to license renewal!

(Always write to Dr. Crane in care of this newspaper, enclosing a long stamped, addressed envelope and 20¢ for copy typing and printing costs when you send for one of his booklets.)

Domestic Comment:

Tito, Italy Fear Soviet Navy

By LEON DENNEN

NEA Foreign News Analyst

ROME (NEA) — It was to "explore" the unprovoked expansion of Russian naval strength in the Mediterranean sea, the Italian Foreign Minister Pietro Nenni said today at conferences with Yugoslav President Tito.

Nothing disturbs Italian leaders more than the Russian Mediterranean, which was once considered safe under the protection of the American Sixth Fleet is fast becoming Russian sea.

"We know that the Sixth Fleet is still superior to anything Russia has in the Mediterranean," a high ranking official of the Italian Foreign Ministry said. "But what guarantee do we have that the same American senators who want to withdraw U.S. troops from Vietnam and West Germany will not decide one day that it is not in our interest to risk a conflict with Russia over Italy?"

Not that the Italian expect a Soviet attack but, like most West European nations, they no longer consider an American-dominated NATO as an effective defense against Russian aggression.

Tito, of course, has been watching the Russians like a hawk ever since they invaded Czechoslovakia. A Marxist-Leninist himself, he understands the Russians and does not trust them. He particularly fears their policy of "limited sovereignty" which ostensibly gives Moscow the right to intervene in any Communist country where, in Russia's view, "socialism is threatened."

Even Italy's Red leader Luigi Longo longer trusts the Russians. To avoid a split in his own Communist party, he must pay lip service to Moscow's leadership. But at the latest gathering of international Red leaders in Moscow, Longo insisted—despite the Kremlin's attempt to hush him—that Russia had no right to invade Czechoslovakia and the Soviet doctrine of limited sovereignty was contrary to the principles of Marxism-Leninism.

Obviously, in anticipation of Soviet aggressive moves, Nenni and Tito decided their nations should work together in finding ways to start "broad and direct contacts" which would bring about a conference on Mediterranean problems.

Interpretive Report:

Ted Kennedy Lets Chips Fall

By BRUCE BOSSAT, NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON (NEA) — The measure of Sen. Edward M. Kennedy's rising status as a 1972 Democratic presidential prospect can be taken from the Senate Democrats in January.

The more conservative elements in both parties had left him fairly well alone until he began swinging hard against the ABM and the Hamburger Hill military operation by U.S. forces in Vietnam. Now, however, they are chopping at him. And his adverse mail has reached heavy proportions.

The Kennedy utterances that are displacing the conservatives naturally have an appeal to the partisan liberals. But they are far from totally motivated by the senator's activities.

Evidently no one who has not been subjected to the doctrinaire "right" pressures can have a true appreciation of their intensity.

They want the senator's name on every cause they espouse, no matter how realistic its substance. They want him grabbing a hammer and marching in every protest they mount. They want him spouting the language of "total commitment" by which they live.

Kennedy continuously spurs this ultimate partisanship, and has no intention of ever moving that way. He is the pragmatic type, interested in forward movement, but only on the practical level where the substance of proposals is real and the hopes of winning the day more than fragile.

Says one friend: "You can't just be playing one bulge in the corner all the time... If you do that, no one will pay any attention to you, and you won't have any effectiveness at all."

Arguments like that do not improve the partisan liberals. Again and again they say to Kennedy and his key supporters: "You just don't understand how deeply we feel about this."

He insists he does, but that he cannot simply respond to their every wish. Hearing that, they tend to dismiss him as a "hack" overburdened with an ineffectual for caution.

An aide protests: "It's not caution, it's discretion. It's the new habit of open assault, typified most by his criticism of the Hamburger Hill maneuver, is less a response to criticism than it is a short while ago."

Customers can commend and patronize those who are not afraid to express their patriotism, those who write Freedom plays, books, TV shows and screen plays, those who produce anti-communist shows or publish anti-communist books. They can begin phoning writing and visiting to commend businessmen who advertise in patriotic publications or who use patriotic media and messages in advertising.

To the questioning advertiser, the answer is: If there is no patriotism, finally there will be held. The customer, sovereign in our individual-initiative profit-motive system, can take control and save Freedom. Guess who can not see it a short while ago.

After a career as an advertising pioneer and publisher, Babcox began work on his B.A. degree in political science four years ago at the University of Akron. Here, the Ohio school's 1969 graduates. Christine Babcox, left, received a college degree while Becky Babcox was graduated from an Akron high school.

Special War Study Ordered

By JOHN M. PEARCE, Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — A new expansion of scientists critical of the nation's supersecret chemical and biological warfare arsenal has reacted with untrained enthusiasm to President Nixon's order for a full review of all CBW programs.

"I think that's one of the best things that's happened in a long time," said a Yale University biologist Dr. Arthur W. Galston said after the White House Tuesday announced a sweeping reappraisal of whether development and testing of CBW agents is necessary and proper.

Press Secretary Ronald L. Ziegler also announced that the 1925 Geneva protocol designed to curb chemical and biological warfare will be re-examined. The United States promoted the document 44 years ago but still has not ratified it.

Nixon's review, to be conducted by the Arms Control and Disarmament Agency and the State and Defense departments, came after a rising congressional and public outcry. The concern was spurred by the death of some 6,000 people through Friday, and the resubmission of the Geneva protocol, which he, Sen. J. W. Fulbright and 35 Congressmen are requesting in a resolution.

Irish Voters To Polls In National Election

DUBLIN (AP) — The stout grip stopped and the voting began today in Ireland's national elections. Observers predicted the Labor party would sap some of the ruling Fianna Fail party's strength, which could create a political crisis or a period of minority rule.

Ireland's 176 million will elect 143 of the 372 candidates running for seats in the Dail, the lower house of Parliament. The Dail's 144th member, the house speaker, is unopposed.

Voting is by proportional representation, a complicated system in which voters list the candidates in their district in order of preference. The total vote for each candidate is determined by weighing the number of votes he received as a first choice, second choice, third choice and so on. Thus, in Ireland, pre-election polls, don't work.

But officials of Prime Minister James Boland's Fine Gael party privately conceded they had little hope of outright victory.

Each candidate in the campaign was that as the strongest of the three major parties, the Fianna Fail was the only one with a chance of winning a majority and providing a stable government. He used the same argument last year in trying to obtain proportional representation, but the electorate voted 60-40 to retain the system.

First Gls Ready To Leave S. Vietnam

WASHINGTON (AP) — Nearly 18,000 soldiers and Marines are being sent to Vietnam, including Korea and Thailand. There were reports a group of Marines already had arrived in Okinawa.

Daniel Z. Henkin, the Pentagon's top spokesman, said he did not know whether those Marines were the advance guard of the withdrawal, but added: "I wouldn't be surprised to see some small advance parties go to both Okinawa and Hawaii" to prepare for the larger movement.

Henkin said that, according to general guidelines, Army units for motivation will include men of the 7,400-man 1st Brigade of the 9th Infantry Division and the division headquarters will go to Hawaii, and a Marine fighter squadron of about 400 men will be sent to Iwakuni, Japan, in July and August.

The new announcement completed details of the 25,000-man troop withdrawal announced by President Nixon at Midway 10 days ago.

At the same time, the Pentagon identified the 20 Army reserve and National Guard units being brought home for demobilization. They are support-type outfits from 17 states.

Posting of two-thirds of the 25,000 troops being withdrawn on Okinawa, Hawaii and Japan will serve to replenish the reserve of U.S. forces in the Pacific which was depleted starting in 1965 to fight the war in Vietnam.

That reserve is normally held in readiness for emergencies

Strikes And Spares

BY JOHN A. SPOLSKI
In just couldn't be happier! The Seminole High School bowling league, Mondays at 10 p.m., got off to a rousing start with 10 full teams and lots of good scores to boot.

And then, where we were hoping to fill in the few remaining vacancies in the Saturday morning Bantam League (ages six through 12) and the Junior-Seniors (13 through 19) at 1 p.m., we were flooded with a number of late-comers and these teams were filled full.

Incidentally, we were advised that shirts and blouses would be ordered for the summer leagues by the Sanford Loyal Order of Moose No. 1821... and not wait until the start of the fall league.

In any event... our summer leagues are coming along real well, especially so with those new faces of residents who've been in any of our leagues previously.

We welcome you all to the world's largest participation sport... BOWLING.

BOWLING POT POURRI

Congratulations to Chuck Kanavel for rolling a 221-602 in the Tuesday evening (Unprofessional) League. Some of the keepers who did real well were the Griffin 207, Charles Elberry 204, Coach John Franklin 213, Jim Mastriani 211, and Don Witt with an even "duce" - 200.

Interest is mounting for the 9th Annual Firecracker Special, presented by the Sanford Men's Bowling Association and sponsored by Maryland Fried Chicken.

The Monday evening Singles Classic Leagues, both the A of higher averaged bowlers and the B group, continue to show scoring prowess. Johnny Jaco leads the "lower" group with a resounding 194 average, having cleaned up all of his opponents to date and totalling an 8 and 0 mark.

Monday night's action dissolved the league-leading tie in the A group between Alex Serrano and Split-ski with these two going head to head. Serrano rolling the "real" ball with a 223-814 to Spolski's 216-800. (And we promised that we wouldn't mention the name of the "little fellow" who had all of a 402 series... AND "HATS" FOR FOUR GAMES!)

Others bowling well were Rich Murphy 215 and Doug Owens, who's probably the hottest bowler in Sanford right now, with a 217.

Sandra Fashions continue to hold a firm grip on the number one spot in the Thursday evening Egler's League with a log of 30 and 9. On this Monday evening they have S. Redding, D. Morrison, J. Lee and J. King.

Seminole High's bowling league (Mondays at 1 p.m.) produced a couple of notables, too. Like Joe Cuneo with a 202-516, Eddie Adams 186, Jack Humphrey 202-534. A couple of openings still exist for those interested in joining.

The makings of the eighth team for tonight's City League will take place at 6:45 tonight. If you'd like to bowl on "team" in a summer league, then bring your "bomb" along tonight and be prepared to roll.

One of the most pleasant surprises of this summer season just has to be the Sunday evening Mr. and Mrs. League. So many new faces in this one which gives you an indication of how big and strong this particular league will be for the "fall"... and you know, that's only some 10 weeks away, don't you?

Sanford Scuttles Bishop Moore

By GARY TAYLOR
Herald Sports Staff
The Sanford Post 53 diamond nine pitched for five runs in the fifth inning, and Bobby Lundquist worked well in relief, as they defeated Bishop Moore Post 242 by a score of 7-5.

Sanford got into trouble in the first inning when Steve White reached on an error and scored on Ron Wroble's one-out double. Wroble came home on a single by Jim Lawrence.

Mike Rudd, the starting pitcher for Sanford, got into more trouble in the fourth inning and Bobby Lundquist came in to relieve him with the bases loaded and only one out. Lundquist struck out two batters to end the inning.

Rudd, and ball as big as marbles, held up the game for over 45 minutes. Sanford came to bat trailing 3-0. Dale Wagner led off the fifth with a single. Then David Richardson walked. Mike Ferrell and Steve Shumaker singled, and Mike Rudd doubled before the first out was made.

Bishop Moore scored one more run in the bottom of the fifth on two walks and an error.

Sanford added two insurance runs in the sixth inning on hits by Dale Wagner and Skipper Sankar.

Bobby Lundquist was the winning pitcher with nine strikeouts in 5 1/2 innings. Mike Rudd pitched 5 1/2 innings striking out three and walking one. He hit two batters.

John Coody was the losing pitcher. He was relieved in the sixth inning by Ron Wroble.

Dale Wagner and Mike Ferrell each had two hits for Sanford. Mike Rudd and Glenn Robinson each had a double.

Jim Lawrence and Dave Malatesta each had two hits for Bishop Moore. John Schofield had a triple, and Dave Klein added a double.

Sanford's next game will be Friday afternoon at 3:30 at the Evans High School field.

Baseball's Great One On Mick's Biggest Day, Kids Stayed Home

By MURRAY OLDERMAN
NEA Executive Editor
NEW YORK—On the great day in the life of Mickey Mantle, the Yankee slugger, the home runs he hit in Dallas, Texas, A swimming pool was in the process of construction in the backyard.

There to watch its progress was Mickey Mantle, 12; Billy, 11; and Danny, 8.

His dad had just received a pulsating nine-minute standing ovation from some 60,000 people in Yankee Stadium, the kind of sentimental outpouring that tugs at the heart.

Mickey Mantle—the old man—didn't cry, but it took an effort. And he was visibly affected by the demonstration and tribute of the special ceremonies in his honor.

There to share his feeling were his wife Marilyn and his mother and his mother-in-law. Also the men who discovered him and the managers for whom he played and the players with whom he shared 18 years in the big leagues.

But not his four sons. "They don't go much for this kind of stuff," he explained later. "I guess they'd rather stay home and watch the pool being built."

The pool may be a symbol of affluence in this society, but to Benjamin Bradock ("The Graduate") it was the escape route—down to the bottom in his scuba diving outfit or lounging on an inflated raft playing beer—and could also be called the instrument of dramatizing the generation gap.

The absence of the Mantle boys from one of baseball's all-time heart-throb moments, and particularly one in which they had a personal stake, vividly portrays baseball's own generation gap.

It's a dry fact in the polls that older people are the ones who stick to baseball, who gush in its sentimentality, who identify vicariously with the heroes of another generation (and therefore can name the starting lineup of the 1934 world champion Detroit Tigers). Baseball's great hold on the public was its tradition, its continuity of records and its obsession with statistics.

All these were polarized under one grand heading—the national pastime.

Without denigrating the old timers, that isn't the scene any more. It's Joe Pepitone and his elaborate coffee. Not Roger Maris and his crew cut.

That's if there's no swimming pool handy.

Tigers Are Moving, So Are Orioles...

Mickey Mantle

By MIKE BRYSON
Associated Press Sports Writer
All of a sudden, the Detroit Tigers have regained their 1968 championship form.

The Tigers polished off the New York Yankees 8-0 and 6-3 in a doubleheader Tuesday night to run their winning streak to seven points a year ago, 9 1/2 games behind the Orioles.

But, the Orioles also won again, turning back Washington 5-1 for their fifth straight and 11th in 13 games.

The net result is this: At the start of their current winning streak, the Tigers were in third place, 9 1/2 games behind the Orioles.

Seven victories later, they're still third, and they've gained only one game on the American League's East Division leaders.

The Tigers have a 34-23 record in their fifth straight year, an amazing clip.

"They're playing .725 ball," said Tiger Manager Mayo Smith. "There's no way they can't get that up all the way. But we'll just have to keep on our own pace until we meet them. You can't do anything about them when you don't play them."

In other AL activity, California trounced Minnesota 13-1 and Cleveland whipped Boston 4-2. Oakland at Kansas City and Seattle's doubleheader at Chicago were rained out.

Paul Blair had a pair of doubles, driving in one run, and Dave Johnson homered and had two hits.

"This was my best game of the season. I had real good stuff tonight," said Cuellar, who hurled 5 1/3 innings of hitless ball until Frank Howard touched him for a double in the sixth.

Meeting Of The Minds? Namath Meets Pete Rozelle

NEW YORK (AP)—Joe Namath, the controversial New York Jets quarterback, has agreed to meet with pro football Commissioner Pete Rozelle but whether there'll be a meeting of the minds remains to be seen.

The meeting will probably be next week. Rozelle is finishing off the coast of lower California and Namath will be out of town until next week.

Namath and Jets President Phil Ielcin had their first face-to-face meeting Tuesday since June 6 when Namath tearfully announced he was quitting football rather than follow Rozelle's orders to give up his half interest in a Manhattan restaurant allegedly frequented by undesirable characters.

"News of an imminent Rozelle-Namath confrontation was the only item to emerge from the one-hour meeting between Namath and Ielcin. There was no word on who's calling the plays."

In another development, Namath said on television Monday he was going to try and play football again.

The swinging quarterback, who led the Jets to the Super Bowl, commented on the pre-taped Mike Douglas show last victory was in the Kemper New England, and Lee Trevino, the deposed Open champion who lost to Tiger Woods in the Kemper Open.

Both Palmer and Trevino rank high among the challengers, along with Deane Beman, the little man from Bethesda, Md., who finished in a tie for second at the Open, gangling Army sergeant who made last week's United States Open—the world's most prestigious title—his first tour victory, was one of the late arrivals for the $150,000 Kemper Open.

The long-shot, Open champion didn't get in from Texas in time to take a practice round on the long, lush Quail Hollow country club course, a rolling, 7,500-yard, par 72 layout.

But the ruddy-faced guy, a 14-year veteran who came on the tour less than two years ago, was scheduled to participate in today's pro-am event that precedes the Thursday start of the 72-hole event.

"We must eliminate the traffic jams on our courses—the game is becoming more chaotic every day," said Roger K. Crane, a vice president of Golf Management Corp.

A 15-handicap player weary of cooling his heels half an hour at various spots on the course, usually the par threes. Players took as much as five hours to get around. There were five hours to play a round that produces more holes than fun.

CHARLOTTE, N. C. (AP)—For the first time in his career, Orville Moody is ranked as one of the prime contenders for a pro golf crown.

The tough, stocky former Army sergeant who made last week's United States Open—the world's most prestigious title—his first tour victory, was one of the late arrivals for the $150,000 Kemper Open.

The long-shot, Open champion didn't get in from Texas in time to take a practice round on the long, lush Quail Hollow country club course, a rolling, 7,500-yard, par 72 layout.

But the ruddy-faced guy, a 14-year veteran who came on the tour less than two years ago, was scheduled to participate in today's pro-am event that precedes the Thursday start of the 72-hole event.

"We must eliminate the traffic jams on our courses—the game is becoming more chaotic every day," said Roger K. Crane, a vice president of Golf Management Corp.

Handicap Will Stop Jams On Golf Tour

By WILL GRIMSLEY

NEW YORK (AP)—Golfers should be handicapped for slow or fast play as well as for scoring averages, a leading management consultant suggested Monday.

"Our finding was that the current system of scheduling tee times is becoming more chaotic every day," said Roger K. Crane, a vice president of Golf Management Corp.

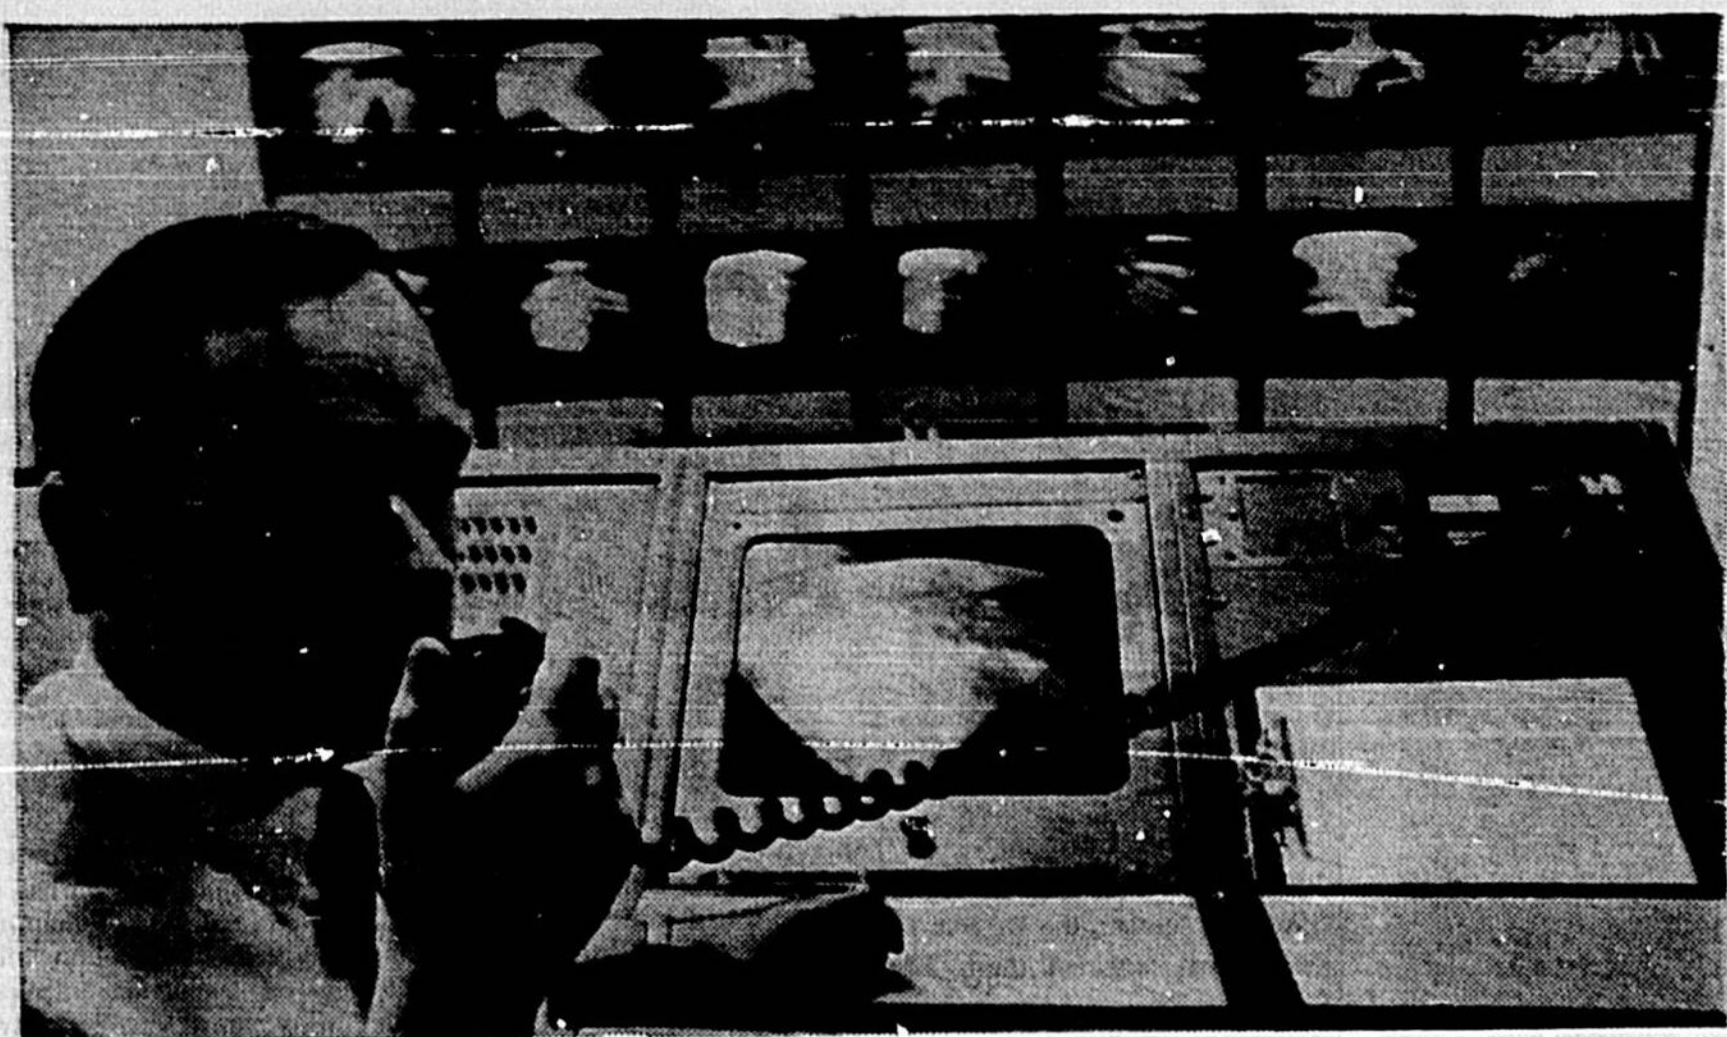

"We found that there are traffic jams at various spots on the course, usually the par threes. Players took as much as five hours to get around. There were five hours to play a round that produces more holes than fun."

Crane, a graduate of MIT with a degree from Harvard, went to the computer to find an answer. "We programmed a computer simulation golf course and found that the current system of scheduling tee times is becoming more chaotic every day," said Roger K. Crane, a vice president of Golf Management Corp.

TRAFFIC CONGESTION, a major urban problem, is being relieved in at least six U.S. cities through the use of computers. New York City has now joined Detroit, Houston, San Jose, Calif.; Austin, Texas; and Wichita Falls, Texas, in using IBM systems to control and speed the flow of traffic. By closed-circuit television, by photo, a traffic engineer in Houston observes the computer-controlled flow of vehicles along the Gulf Freeway. Through sensing devices in the pavement, the system detects gaps in approaching traffic and turns an on-ramp signal light green. A motorist reaching the green light in an average manner will then reach the freeway at the right time to merge into the gap. Bottom photos show crowded conditions on Dallas' Central Expressway where a new IBM system will be the first in which both a freeway and adjacent city streets will be controlled by a single computer, co-ordinating traffic movement in both areas.

Man To Study Bottom Of Ocean

Undersea Lab Progresses

By JIM STRITMAN
Associated Press Writer
MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—The Navy's problem-stricken Sealab 3 program is progressing "in less spectacular—but equally important—technological ways" as it remains high and dry following the death of an aquanaut earlier this year, a project official reports. "The difficulties we have in talking about this program is divorcing the death of Berry Cannon from problems that would have taken place even if that accident had not occurred," Dr. John P. Craven, chief scientist for the Navy's Deep Submergence Systems Project, told an oceanography conference here. "The Navy's present program is to defer Sealab until it can be improved in terms of increased reliability.

"It's deferred for good, sound, technological reasons and is making progress in less spectacular—but equally important—technological ways," Craven said at the Marine Technology Society's fifth annual conference. Although no diver had yet set foot in the 57-by-12 foot steel cylinder habitat when Cannon died, Sealab 3 had been in the water unattended for two days. Helium-oxygen breathing mixture with which it was pressurized was leaking slowly at places where power and communication lines entered the unit. Cannon, one of four men sent down to inspect the unit 610 feet below the surface, was stricken with carbon dioxide poisoning while swimming from a diving bell to the undersea habitat.

The Navy later disclosed that a diving rig lacked a carbon dioxide filter which protects deep divers, and suspended the $10 million man-in-the-sea project until completing a formal investigation into Cannon's death and improving reliability of the habitat itself. The project calls for five nine-man teams to spend 12 days each living and working at the bottom of the sea. It was to pioneer techniques and equipment the Navy can use in exploring the world's submerged continental shelves, rescue and salvage operations.

The 2000 species of starfish, flat-bodied marine animals in the shape of a star, vary from five to 50 radiating arms from the central body. A starfish will die if it is on dry land for any length of time.

McGinn said would provide an average increase of 10 to 15 per cent of some 50,000 state employees. "It will attract qualified people to work in state government," he said. "It's a new approach by making the salaries competitive with private industries."

The pay raises were recommended in a $1.662 billion study conducted by professional consultants. Kirk brought up the question of how much University of Miami law professor Dennis O'Connor and Miami lawyer Alan Millicede should be paid for conducting an independent study of the state's leases with coastal petroleum.

State Aides Given Salary Hike

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP)—Cabinet members virtually urged Gov. Claude Kirk to veto the bill that would make the state liable for civil suits, claiming it would cost the state too much money.

The Cabinet also gave final approval to $30 million worth of pay raises for state employees, and decided to ask a Florida Bar committee to recommend how much two Miami attorneys should be paid for recommending that the state void a lease with Coastal Petroleum Co. Cabinet Democrats tried to appoint the heads of five new departments—Law Enforcement, National Resources, General Services, Revenue and blocked them by refusing to

Moon Launch Slated For July 16

By HOWARD BENEDICT
AP Aerospace Writer
CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP)—With only one open item, the Apollo 11 man-on-the-moon mission has received a go-ahead to aim for a July 16 launching. The Apollo program director, Air Force Lt. Gen. Samuel Phillips, gave the order to proceed Tuesday night after a nine-hour flight readiness review in which he received reports on all aspects of the mission. "I am confident," he said, "that we can proceed with preparations to meet the July launch window. We are at this time subject to successful completion of the remaining tests."

Phillips said the only major unsolved problem involves the short guidance system which misbehaved on last month's Apollo 10 moon orbit trip and caused the lunar module to gyrate for several seconds before the astronauts controlled it. "Although this problem is not completely resolved at this time, I am confident this will not become a constraint to the July launch," the Apollo director said. The Apollo 11 astronauts, Neil Armstrong, Edwin E. Aldrin Jr. and Michael Collins, planned several hours in spaceflight simulators today with Armstrong and Aldrin also rehearsing what they intend to do during 2 1/2 hours walking on the moon.

Armstrong and Aldrin are to land their lunar vehicle on the moon's Sea of Tranquility July 20 while Collins orbits at an altitude of 68 miles. While outside the lunar lander, they'll collect rock samples, set up scientific instruments and evaluate how well man can work in the moon's one-sixth gravity field. Astronaut Donald K. Slayton, director of flight crew operations, told the review the astronauts will work a 10-hour day, six-day week until the launch. "If things go as planned, I have no reservations that the crew will be adequately trained and rested for the mission," Slayton said. Dr. Charles Berry, director of medical operations, reported after a physical examination that the astronauts are in excellent health.

Jetliner Skyjacked By 'Black Panther'

By MELVIN LANG
Associated Press Writer
MIAMI (AP)—An armed Negro who left Black Panther literature and shouting in his luggage forced a Trans World Airlines jet to Cuba Tuesday after telling the pilot he was "a desperate man who had to get to Havana."

The TWA jet, carrying a crew of seven and 80 passengers, was diverted about one hour after leaving Oakland, Calif., on a scheduled nonstop flight to New York by a tall, well-dressed, bespectacled man. Nora Hampton, fashion editor of the Oakland Tribune and a passenger aboard the Boeing 707, said the hijacker left his luggage at his seat after being admitted to the cockpit. In it, she said, "He had some of the Black Panthers' shifty black suits, an African shirt and two black sweaters. Also a sheaf of papers with a six-inch blade."

Other passengers and stewardess Lori Lintz of New York said the hijacker also was carrying a copy of Eldridge Cleaver's "Black Panther" book. Cleaver, a leader of the militant black power group, reportedly is in Cuba. Nan Schwager, a stewardess who was making her final run before going home to St. Paul, Minn., for her marriage next week, said the cross-country hijack began when the man showed her a gun and politely ordered her to have the plane diverted to Cuba. Capt. George Behnk opened the door of the cockpit and allowed the man to enter. He remained in the cockpit for the three-hour flight, at times donning a crewman's cap and listening to radio conversations with ground control points and twice ordering coffee brought in by a stewardess.

The hijacker later disclosed that a diving rig lacked a carbon dioxide filter which protects deep divers, and suspended the $10 million man-in-the-sea project until completing a formal investigation into Cannon's death and improving reliability of the habitat itself.

The project calls for five nine-man teams to spend 12 days each living and working at the bottom of the sea. It was to pioneer techniques and equipment the Navy can use in exploring the world's submerged continental shelves, rescue and salvage operations.

Legislative leaders responded by claiming the governor was upset because they avoided new taxes.

By letting the bill become law, the governor averted an almost certain special session in the next few weeks. State staffers would have had to work without pay after July 1 until lawmakers could convene and pass some sort of money bill.

The $1.662 billion bill was $14 million less than the operating and the Cabinet. Legislators showed about the $294 million bond issue for construction programs the Cabinet recommended.

Speeds of 100 to 125 miles an hour are commonplace on Western European trains.

MISS KATHY CORBEAU, bride-elect of Brad Wallace, Jr., was guest of honor at a bridal tea, June 14 at the home of Mrs. C. L. Swinney, 298 West 17th St. Co-hostess was Mrs. Charles F. Steenwerth. Left to right are Mrs. Steenwerth, Mrs. W. B. Wallace, mother of the future bridegroom, Miss Corbeau, honor guest, her mother, Mrs. William R. Corbeau, her grandmother, Mrs. Ruemmele and Mrs. Swinney.

Bridal Tea Compliments Miss Corbeau

By CECILIA FARMER
The C. L. Swinney home on West 17th Street was the scene of a bridal tea, June 14, honoring Miss Kathy Corbeau, of Orlando whose marriage to Brad Wallace, Jr. will be an event of July 11, at Cavalry Presbyterian Church, Orlando. Co-hostess was Mrs. Charles F. Steenwerth.

The lovely Swinney home was decorated with floral arrangements throughout the party area. Two outstanding arrangements were placed in the living room. The television set was adorned with white daisies and greenery and on a nearby table was a crystal vase with purple throated orchids. Placed at other vantage points were white roses, nasturtiums and Spring flowers.

Miss Corbeau greeted the guests wearing a pink silk linen dress with matching accessories and her mother, Mrs. William R. Corbeau, chose an aqua embroidered ensemble with white accessories. The hostess presented them both with orchid and white daisy corsages. Mrs. Steenwerth wore a white China silk shift with hand printed gold design and white accessories and Mrs. Steenwerth chose a blue and yellow polyester print with matching accessories. Mrs. Steenwerth greeted the guests at the door and in the refreshment table was a beautiful Dutch imported cutwork linen cloth and held a large assortment of various types of sandwiches, fruit, nuts and mints and other party delicacies all in silver and crystal containers. The end of the table was a cut glass punch bowl with matching cups and round tray filled with fruit punch and white roses frozen in an ice ring.

Directly behind the punch bowl, on the buffet, was a beautiful arrangement of white gladioli, daisies and greenery in a long low container flanked by two three branched silver candleholders with white tapers. The bride's book table was adorned with a bride's candle with daisy designs and surrounded by white daisies.

Playing from 4 to 5 p. m. were Miss Edna Chittenden and Mrs. J. M. Warner and from 5 to 6 p. m. Mrs. Walter Bach and Mrs. Joe Cooley. Approx. 100 friends were invited to call between the appointed hours of 4 to 6 p. m.

Attending the reunion were: Peggy and Byron Fox, Zella Varn, Fots and Martha Pitts, Velington, Swede and Alvo, A. Vikten Nordgren, Ruby Booth, Ruth and Tommy Swagerty, Minnie Beck Krafter, R. E. Higgins, Hamilton and Mina Howard Rissee, Pete Schirard, Vera Phillips and Bessie Hutchison, all of Sanford.

Also Edna and Fulton McKenney, Jacksonville; Ann and Bill Cochran, Coward; Kathleen Long, Tallahassee; A. A. and Jessie Carter, Mexico; Hollywood, Margaret Long Pittman, Cayman, Fla.; T. J. and Hazel Appleby Bissett, Columbia, S. C.

Also Chick and Natalie Farnsworth Wilson, Deland; Madge Phillips Neiswander and her husband, Benson Junction; Grace Hattminger Daniel, Orlando; Bob and Virginia McDannel Lewis, Deland; James and Mary Lenox Oberlin, Amer. Iowa; and Benny and H. C. Watts, Orlando.

Miss Nelson, B. E. Rutherford Repeat Vows

By MRS. CLARENCE SNYDER
Mr. and Mrs. James Nelson, 2407 DeCottee Ave., Sanford, are announcing the marriage of their daughter, Charlotte Gill Nelson, to Jerry E. Rutherford of Osteen, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Rutherford.

The marriage was solemnized Friday, June 13, at 8:00 p. m. by Justice of Peace, J. S. Peterson, in the presence of the immediate families. A reception was held at the Rutherford home.

The bride was a member of the 1969 graduating class of Seminole High School. Mr. Rutherford attended Deland High School and at present is employed at the C. O. B. Boat Works.

Following a honeymoon in the southern part of the state they will reside in Sanford.

Nancy Sechrest Showered

By MRS. CLARENCE SNYDER
Mrs. Glenn McCall, left, was hostess to a recent bridal shower honoring bride-elect Miss Nancy Sechrest.

The living and dining rooms featured bridal decor enhanced with arrangements of roses. A crocheted cloth overlaid the refreshment table which featured an antique crystal row punch bowl, a sheet cake embossed with yellow roses and cupcakes containing slipper nuts and toasted nuts.

The hostess presented the honoree, her mother, Mrs. J. W. Sechrest, and her grandmother, Mrs. N. W. Cochran with cartoning corsages.

Other invited guests were the Misses H. M. Russell, J. L. Darnell, Ben Bullard, S. G. Coe, Mrs. Robert Goodrich, E. M. Hopkins, E. E. Gregory, W. R. Giles, Charles S. Roberts, W. A. Gibson, E. P. Williams Jr., and Virgil W. Keenan.

Seminole High School Class Of 1929 Meets For Memorable 40th Reunion

By DORIS WILLIAMS SOCIETY EDITOR
The class of 1929 of Seminole High School gathered on June 14, at Holiday Inn, Sanford, for a 40th reunion celebration.

A get re-acquainted and fun hour started the ball rolling at 6:30 p.m., followed by a buffet dinner. Master of ceremonies for the affair was Pete Schirard. As the roll was called, each former student gave a brief review of the past 40 years.

The Shasta Daisy was the class flower and in keeping with tradition, the beautifully appointed banquet tables featured artistic arrangements of Shasta Daisies.

Of the 47 class members, 24 were present for the reunion. Class officers were H. C. Walters, Jr., president; Antoinette (Shubert) Cochran, treasurer; C. R. Schirard, secretary; and Elmina (Howard) Ribbespencer, to whom the class presented a gift of silver.

A special guest at the reunion was Mrs. Bessie (Rayce) Hutchison of Sanford, secretary to the faculty in 1929.

Attending the reunion were Peggy and Byron Fox, Zella Varn, Fots and Martha Pitts, Velington, Swede and Alvo, A. Vikten Nordgren, Ruby Booth, Ruth and Tommy Swagerty, Minnie Beck Krafter, R. E. ### Engagement Announced

Students selected by Alpha Lambda Delta for outstanding academic achievement. She will teach at Lawrence High School this summer and will teach mathematics at Eisenhower High School next year.

L. Watson was graduated from Seminole High School in 1963 and received a bachelor of science degree from the University of Florida in 1966. He also received a commission in the United States Army at that time. He is serving in the Quartermaster Corps at Ft. Sill, Okla.

The wedding will be an event of Saturday, Aug. 16, at 4 p. m., in the Church of the Holy Trinity, Lawton, where Miss Pruitt's father is pastor.

Rev. and Mrs. Dan Pruitt, Lawton, Okla., announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Patricia, to 1st Lt. Leo A. Watson Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo A. Watson, Daytona Beach, and former residents of this city.

Lt. Watson is the grandson of Mrs. H. Q. Touchton of Sanford. Miss Pruitt was graduated from Lawton High School in 1963 and from Oklahoma Baptist University, Shawnee, on May 31 of this year. She is a member of Alpha Lambda Delta, Lambda Delta Psi, Student Education Association, Tau Epsilon and was one of 15 senior women.

Lt. Watson has with him a square pan with pastry and fill with apples or apple pie filling. Cover with a top crust and bake. Frost with confectioners' sugar and call it "baked apple square."

Childhood Dream Came True

By JOY STITLEY Associated Press Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Jessica West's new book about the Quaker forefathers she shares with her second cousin, President Nixon, is just off the press and yet being a writer was a childhood dream she never expected to come true.

"I wanted to write all my life," declared the author of "Except for Me and You," set- ting back comfortably in a big chair in her New York hotel room and kicking off one shoe.

"But writers to me were people like Dickens. I didn't know that a writer was just a person who writes," she explained. "I had never seen anyone who had written. I had never seen anyone who had seen anyone who had written. I thought a writer would be someone wearing a big sign saying 'I am a writer'."

Now Miss West is entitled to wear that sign herself. Since her first book, "The Friendly Persuasion" in 1945, she has produced a dozen others including Book-of-the-Month Club selection "Crossed Deliberately." Her new volume is a companion piece to "The Friendly Persuasion," recounting the earlier life of Jess and Etta Birdwell and focusing on their activities with the underground railroad of Civil War days.

The characters are modeled after Josine and Elizabeth Millous, great-grandparents of both Nixon and Miss West, whose maternal grandfathers were brothers.

Born in Indiana, the author moved at the age of 4 to Yorba Linda, Calif., then a Quaker community that had attracted many branches of the Millous family. "But we lived right across an irrigation canal from the Nixons and I felt closer to them than to my first cousins. Richard's mother gave me the my first birthday party when I was 7 years old."

She went to Whittier College, which Nixon also attended, and after graduation married H. M. McPherson, a classmate whom she calls "Max." She did graduate work at the University of California, earning a Ph.D. in English. The date was set for her doctor's orals when she was thought she was finished with the Quakers. "But then I started reading about the underground railroad. It's such an exciting and moving chapter in American history—here we have search and hiding and fear, black and whites working together and whites dying too."

Community Action Chief Urges Attendance Public Meeting Called On School Situation

BY MRS. R. B. THOMAS JR., 322-7376
All organizations in Seminole County, social, civic, fraternal, church, business, professional, etc., who dare to realize the necessity of quality education for every child in Seminole County are urged to be represented in a meeting...

The meeting will convene Thursday at New Mount Calvary Missionary Baptist Church at 8 p.m. The church is located at 1100 W. 12th Street. We wish simply to assist our school board in drawing up and implementing such a program in our schools. Indeed it is our solemn duty to now serve as a conscience for our school board and our community by also making it perfectly clear that the present school board is not the best one to lead to our intelligence and an obstacle to excellence in the education of our children. We ask you to attend if you care to see the future of our county.

Dear Abby: By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I am a 30-year-old widow who recently met a very charming and attractive 32-year-old widower. He is a delightful company and we really hit it off together very well. But there is one drawback. He has two married daughters (whom I have never met) who want to ruin his life. They are so afraid that someone going to "take Mother's place" they can't stand it. She died three years ago. With the man takes me out we have to go places where his daughters will not find out about it. Also when he comes to my home he takes a taxi so on one will see his car parked in front of my house. How can I convince him that he should live his own life and quit worrying about what his daughters think? Do you think I should insist on meeting his daughters and try to make them like me? IN DOUBT

Jacoby On Bridge Jacoby and Son

In match point duplicate you are sure of a bad score any time your opponents bid and make a doubtful game contract. Even when declarer has no problems in the play you can be sure several other declarers will have stopped at that score. If you are sure of a bad score you can be sure of a really bad score. Yet this result is due only to poor luck. You held seven cards against the wrong opponents. East won the second club with the king and shifted to the four of hearts. South won the trick and noted that there was no play for his contract unless trump broke 3-2. He also noted that a 3-3 diamond break would be helpful. Could he handle a 4-2 diamond break? Possibly!

Polly's Pointers By Polly Cramer

DEAR POLLY—I love house plants which I always had throughout the house. My kids no longer used their saucer soil so I have put it to excellent use. I brought it into the house pointed it white inside and out. Some of the readers can give me some ideas other than buying it with sand. I then arranged my potted plants in the taller ones are in the center and the shorter ones around the edges. The sand absorbs the drain water from the pots. —Polly Cramer

"We The Women"

A novel ending problem around here is my own fault. I have reaped my children with tales of low mother earned her own way to summer camp and now I can't talk them out of being slain. It's not that I don't recognize firm resolve and ingenuity when I see it, and it's not that I want to stifle any budding entrepreneur. The only thing is, I keep thinking about how much farther ahead I'd be if I'd invested my money in AT&T stock instead of all these rash sales. Besides seeds, I now have on hand: 30 boxes of Christmas cards (could a beta if I got late delivery, mother?); four subscriptions to a comic book featuring the exploits of a mouse in space. (Just this ONCE, mother!); 50 tickets to an ice cream social that was held on May 17. (I forgot, and it didn't get the money by Wednesday. Mrs. Read will KILL me.) "Look, I explain. The idea is that you sell this stuff to people..." "Crazy!" my daughter answers. From the floor where she is peering over today's mail offerings, "I can get this bicycle by selling only 350 boxes of all-occasion cards. I think I have 10 boxes of those left from the last time." "I warn. Aunt Ruth!" my son exclaims. "Good old mother is getting tired of the long-distance phone bills." I point out. "Wow!" my daughter screams. "This is it! I go into business selling these subscriptions. I'll soon need an assistant..." "This assistant is tired of the neighbors asking when she's going to get the rest of the order." "We'll have to write another letter asking the company..." my son says, looking pointedly at me and my typewriter. "I'll make you a package deal," I say. "Stop going into business and I'll not only send you both a camp—" I raise your allowances! "Mother!" my son says with disdain. "As this ad says, we are learning to be self-reliant and preparing ourselves for the future."

Potato Salad is A Tasty Standby

Potato salad—an old standby.

By AILEEN CLAIRE
 NEA Food Editor

The delicatessen, or place where delicacies or fine foods are sold, is an East Coast, big city phenomenon still finding its way into smaller U.S. communities. A major supermarket chain reports that stores in larger southern cities, for example, only recently accepted the "deli" idea.

Wherever a deli exists, one of the mainstays will be potato salad. A man responsible for the takeout salad business celebrates his 53rd birthday in June. He is Richard Hellman, who started selling mayonnaise he used in his delicatessen potato salad for home use in small, wooden, bottle-like containers in the '20s. Prior to that all mayonnaise was homemade, as was potato salad. Only in cities with delis was potato salad store-bought.

Save Money While You Cook With Flair

Who says low-budget meals must be dull? Here are some ideas to help you save money while you cook with flair.

HEARTY POTATO SALAD
 2 pounds potatoes (6 cups cubed, cooked)
 1/2 cup chopped celery
 1/2 cup chopped onion
 2 hard-boiled eggs, chopped
 8 slices bacon, cooked, drained and crumbled
 1/2 cup real mayonnaise
 1/2 cup dairy sour cream
 1/4 cup tarragon vinegar
 Salt and pepper
 Freshly lettuce
 Deviled eggs

Roll up hard salami slices. Cook potatoes in salted boiling water until tender but not mushy. Drain. Cool; peel and cube. Toss together potatoes, celery, onion, eggs and bacon. Mix mayonnaise, sour cream and vinegar. Toss with potato mixture. Taste; add salt and pepper. Chill. Core, rinse and drain lettuce. Crisp in refrigerator. Line salad bowl with dark green outer leaves. Fill bowl with potato salad. Garnish with eggs and salami rolls. Makes about 6 (1/2-cup) servings.

When your youngsters decide at the last minute to have a gathering of the gang, don't despair. All the ingredients for a hearty Pizza Loaf—straight from pantry and refrigerator—can be assembled quickly and then baked.

Serve the Pizza Loaf on plates with forks, or in paper napkins to be eaten with fingers. Toss a huge mixed green salad and complete the menu with fresh fruit, ice cream cones and lots of ice-cold beverages.

For a special feature, it might be fun to let your youngsters have a Bake-and-Serve party. Added by your supervision, the Pizza Loaf recipe is easy for young cooks to follow. Divide guests into groups of filling-mixers, dough-rollers, butter-brushers, and cheese-sprinklers, and your party is on its way.

PIZZA LOAF
 2 cans, each 4 1/2 ounces, deviled ham
 1/2 cup canned tomato sauce with tomato bits
 1/4 teaspoon dried crushed oregano leaves
 2 cans, each 5 ounces, refrigerated crescent dinner rolls
 2 tablespoons grated Parmesan cheese

Butter or margarine, melted
 In a small mixing bowl stir together deviled ham, tomato sauce and oregano.

Unroll dough from one can, separate into four rectangles and pat each rectangle to flatten and close diagonal serrated lines. Cut each rectangle in half to make eight rectangles. Repeat process with remaining can of dough; there will be 16 rectangles altogether.

Spread each of the eight rectangles with one tablespoon of the deviled ham mixture but not quite to edges. Starting from long edge, roll up each.

In a lightly buttered loaf pan, 9 by 5 by 3 inches, arrange eight of the rolls in a single layer, seam side down, placing the long sides of rolls parallel to long sides of pan. Then sprinkle with one tablespoon of the Parmesan cheese.

Spread each of the remaining eight rectangles with one tablespoon of the remaining deviled ham mixture and proceed as above to form second layer of rolls in loaf pan.

Brush top lightly with melted butter; sprinkle with remaining tablespoon Parmesan.

Bake in a preheated 375-degree oven until top is deep brown and center of loaf is baked through—40 minutes. Turn loaf out of pan on wire rack, turn right side up and cool slightly. Cut crosswise and serve warm.

Makes eight servings.

Banana Split Eclairs

Have the eclairs and double the fun! The smart hostess uses her head and serves glamorous, easy-to-make food. Banana Split Eclairs are just such a choice! Designed to be a party's highlight, they let the homemaker relax and enjoy her guests. Set out the "fixings" and let ice cream lovers assemble desserts to suit themselves.

The crisp, elegant, elongated cream puffs are ready and waiting to be cut in half. Scoops of multicolored ice cream frozen hard and arranged in your prettiest glass bowl. Bananas are sliced and sprinkled with orange juice to keep them from darkening and to enhance their flavor. And ice cream toppings are nearby to top off the eclair-banana banana split.

When made with enriched flour, the delicious eclairs carry nutritional gifts from the milling industry to you. Enriched flour is an important source of the essential B-vitamins: thiamine, niacin and riboflavin and the mineral, iron—all necessary in maintaining good health.

BANANA SPLIT ECLAIRS
 10 eclairs

1 cup water
 3/4 cup butter
 1 cup enriched flour*
 1/2 teaspoon salt
 4 eggs

Bring water and butter to boil, stirring until butter melts. Add flour and salt all at once. Reduce heat. Cook, stirring constantly until mixture is smooth and firm, 5 to 10 minutes. Remove from heat and cool slightly. Add eggs, one at a time, beating well after each. Drop batter onto greased baking sheet, spreading to form 1 x 3-inch rectangles. Bake in preheated 400° oven 25 to 35 minutes, or until firm. Cool. Turn loaf out of pan on wire rack, turn right side up and cool slightly. Cut crosswise and serve warm.

*Spoon flour into dry measuring cup; level. Do not scoop.

Red, White And Blue Cup Cake

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
AP Food Editor

JULY 4th REFRESHER
Readers keep asking for this old-fashioned butter cake recipe.

Red, White and Blue Fruit Cup (Strawberries, Pineapple, Blueberries)

1-2-3-4 Cake
2 cups sifted cake flour
1/2 teaspoon baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup butter
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 teaspoon vanilla
4 large eggs
1 cup milk

Line the bottoms of three nine-inch round layer-cake pans with wax paper; butter paper. Sift together the flour, baking powder and salt. In large bowl of electric mixer, cream butter, sugar and vanilla for 10 minutes. Thoroughly beat in eggs, one at a time. Gently beat in flour mixture in four additions alternating with milk, just until smooth after each addition; begin and end with flour mixture. Turn into prepared pans and bake in a preheated 350-degree oven until cake tester inserted in center comes out clean—30 to 35 minutes. Turn out on wire racks, remove paper, turn right side up and cool. Fill and frost as desired.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

During a teenage party, one of the girls tossed a playful challenge at her boy friend: "Marry me—I dare you!"

The idea seemed so hilarious that they drove across the state line, found a justice of the peace, and went through a formal wedding ceremony. Afterwards, both the "bride" and the "groom" returned to their respective homes.

A few days later, uneasy about what they had done, they went to court to have the ceremony annulled. And the court ruled that, despite the formalities, they were never truly married.

"Here works," said the judge, "without any intention corresponding to them will not make a marriage."

Most courts agree that, if a marriage is purely in jest, it has no legal standing. However, it is a different story if the marriage—although meant to be temporary—is no joke. Thus:

An engaged couple had a bitter quarrel the night before their wedding day. In tears, the girl said she should break up. But the young man pleaded:

"My boss has promised me a raise on the basis of our getting married. Let's go ahead so I can get the raise. Then, later, we can have the marriage annulled."

But in this case, the court refused to grant an annulment. The judge said: "This ceremony, even though entered into for a special, limited purpose, was still a marriage at the moment it was performed. What about a 'trial marriage'?" One couple got married with the previous understanding that, if things did not work out, either one of them could have it annulled.

But here, two courts found grounds for annulment. As one judge put it: "Marriage is not something to be swept aside lightly. To permit the annulment of a marriage otherwise legal, upon mere proof that the parties agreed beforehand to have it annulled, would destroy the dignity of the marriage relationship."

In 1872, New York made Memorial Day a state observance. Soon all states except a few in the South followed New York's example.

Strawberry Cream Pie Delicious

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
AP Food Editor

Holiday Weekend Supper
This cream pie is patterned after one served in New York. Grilled Steak Sandwiches, Potatoes, Sliced Cherry Tomatoes, Strawberry Cream Pie Beverage

STRAWBERRY CREAM PIE
1-1/2 cup sugar
1/4 cup cornstarch
1/4 teaspoon salt
3 eggs milk
2 large eggs, well beaten
1 teaspoon vanilla
9 inch baked pastry shell
4 lady fingers, sliced lengthwise
3 tablespoons kirsch or 2 tablespoons light rum
1 pint strawberries, washed and hulled
Red currant jelly, melted
Heavy cream, whipped

In top of double boiler, stir together sugar, cornstarch and salt. Gradually add milk, stirring until smooth. Cook over boiling water—have water just touch double boiler top—stirring constantly until mixture is thick—about 10 minutes. Cover and continue cooking 10 minutes longer, stirring occasionally. If glass double boiler is used, continue cooking five minutes longer; replenish boiling water in bottom if necessary.

Blend a little hot mixture into eggs, then stir into remaining hot mixture in double boiler top. Cook over boiling water two minutes, stirring constantly. Remove from boiling water and stir in vanilla. Cool to room temperature. Cover bottom of pastry shell with half of cooled filling. Cover with lady fingers, sprinkle with kirsch and then cover with remaining filling. Chill for two hours. Just before serving, arrange strawberries on top of pie. Brush red currant jelly over strawberries to glaze. Decorate with whipped cream.

SUNDAY SUPPER

Here is an easy-to-make first course for sophisticated tastes. Charlotte's Russian Madrilaine Cold Rice Chicken

Deep-dish Blueberry Pie
Charlotte's Russian Madrilaine
1 1/2 ounce red-cedar connoisseur madrilaine, chilled for at least 4 hours

Commercial sour cream
Put one teaspoon of the caviar in each of four small oriental rice bowls or soup cups. Turn madrilaine into a small mixing bowl and flake with a fork; divide madrilaine among the bowls. Top each bowl of madrilaine with a generous tablespoon of sour cream. Spoon remaining caviar over sour cream. If assembled in advance, chill no more than 20 to 30 minutes before serving. Makes four servings.

SUNDAY DINNER

This recipe produced the airiest of sponge cakes.

Grilled Steak Potatoes
Zucchini Salad
Airy Sponge Cake with Raspberries and Whipped Cream
AIRY SPONGE CAKE
6 large eggs, separated
1 1/2 cups sugar
1/4 cup cold water
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 1/2 cups sifted cake flour
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon cream of tartar

In a large bowl of electric mixer beat egg yolks until thickened and lemon color. Gradually beat in sugar until thick and ivory color. Gradually beat in water and vanilla to blend, gradually fold in flour and salt. In medium bowl, with clean beater, beat egg whites and cream of tartar until they hold stiff straight peaks when beater is slowly withdrawn; add to yolk mixture and fold in. Turn into 10-inch ungreased angel cake pan. With a knife, cut through batter to help eliminate air bubbles. Bake in preheated 350-degree oven until surface springs back when lightly touched with finger tip—one hour. If cake browns too thick toward end of baking, lay a sheet of foil over top. Invert pan and cool completely one hour. With a small sharp knife, loosen around sides and tube; ease out of pan with fingers.

New Ecumenism

LONDON (AP) — The Roman Catholic hierarchy of England and Wales has approved a new ecumenical venture. Nunns may now help chaplains of all denominations with hospital work and, if their superiors approve, will be encouraged to offer themselves for appointment as Clough sisters in state hospitals.
