Semi-Pro Baseball Tourney Rates 2nd To World Series

WICHITA, Kan., June 19.—(Special)—Next to the world series, the biggest event in baseball is staged in this prairie country. It's the annual National Championship Semi-Pro Baseball Tournament for leaders of sandlot baseball in every section to decide the official U. S. Semi-Pro title.

Only seven years old, the coming edition of the national tournament, starting here Aug. 15, is expected to draw no less than 125,000 fans, paying off approximately $25,000 in prize money with a minimum guarantee of $5,000 to the United States champions.

The event is open to all baseball clubs with the exception of those in organized professional baseball or classified as barnstormers.

To participate in the national tournament, however, a team must first win its state tournament.

State tournaments are being staged in every section during a brief period in July with numerous advantages to every team entered. These include:

1. Official state championship trophy to winner.

2. Leading teams to share in prize money.

3. All visiting clubs to receive mileage allowance.

4. Each team to the publicized in 1942 National Semi-Pro Baseball Guide with complete resume of the state tournament.

5. Photos of state champs and runners-up to appear in 1942 guide.

6. All-State players in to receive certificates.

In addition to its nation-wide series of tournaments, the National Semi-Pro Baseball Congressional sponsors three separate national associations — umpires, scorers and leagues.

Managers of teams desiring to enter state championship tournaments should communicate with their state semi-pro baseball commissioner or write National Semi-Pro Baseball Congress, Box

Washington, June 19.—(Special)—Six senators and 13 members of the House of Representatives will be Washington's contribution to the nationally-known speakers who will be heard by delegates to the four-day Townsend convention to open June 20 in Buffalo, N. Y.

The closing session of this sixth national parley of Townsendites will be the scene of a symposium to equal the Lincoln-Douglas or Webster-Haynes debate contests of bygone days, officials say. For at that session on the afternoon of Independence Day, July 4, two of America's most able orators will give their divergent views on the issue: every "American" is discussing today—isolation or intervention. Russian Government Press Says Nation Will Defend Itself

Moscow, U. S. S. R.'s Capital, Is Calm; Red Army And Reserve Is Trained

Finland Calls Up More Reservists

Soviet Stands Ready To Meet Any Attempt At Invasion

MOSCOW, June 20 (AP)—There was no outward indication in Moscow today that Soviet Russia expects an invasion, but the government newspaper Izvestia asserted that "neither through the forests, nor the steppes, mountains nor seas will the enemy ever step across the forbidden boundary."

While the capital was perfectly calm, an intensive training of the Red army and its reserves was underway throughout the Soviet Union.

The Russians were represented as ready to answer blow for blow any attempt to violate the Soviet frontier.

In Helsinki, Finland, the Finnish Defense Ministry ordered reservists of all classes up to that of 15 years old to report for service immediately.

Military punishment was ordered for those failing to obey. For the last two days calls for various groups of reservists have been issued as Finland, alarmed by news of an impending clash between Germany and Soviet Russia, prepared to defend itself.

Germany last night charged American consular officials with "machinations" against the Reich, including espionage and requested that all United States consulates and offices of the American Express Company in Germany and German-occupied countries be closed by "July 15 at the latest."

(Italy today, in a parallel action, ordered American consulates in Italy and occupied territories also by July 15. The Italian Foreign Minister announced the order in a note to United States Ambassador Phillips.)

The Reich government, according to the official D.N.B. news agency, called United States Charge d'Affaires Donald Heath to the foreign office and handed him a note requesting that the offices be closed and that American officials and employees leave the country.

The note said the attitude of both American officials and officers of the American Express Co. "long has given rise to serious objections."

The German action apparently was in retaliation for President Roosevelt's order of June 18 closing all German consulates and information services in the United States, effective July 10. D.N.B. said it had learned from competent sources that "representatives" on hand in the United States had "acted in a manner contrary to the interests of the German reich."

Montezuma Hotel Is Purchased By Land Of Orlando

Sale of the Montezuma Hotel, one of the oldest in Seminole County, to Floyd E. Land of Orlando for an undisclosed sum was announced today by Everett L. Lewis, who succeeded the late Hotel Owner, C. W. Williams, of Fort Meade, who had operated it for four and a half years.

The former room rates for room and board reported to be $10 to $12 per week or $12 to $15 per month.

The new owner plans to make the hotel a modern one, and will add a swimming pool, and a restaurant, and a lounge.

A Warsaw Street Scene

After two German soldiers were shot in a brawl in a Warsaw cafe, according to the British Press Service, the proprietor of the restaurant was hung by the Gestapo over the entrance of his home (above) and more than 100 other Poles were shot.

David Gatchel Named Governor Of Boys' State In Tallahassee

Turtle Race Will Be Sponsored By Ivey On July 11

With $5 in cash as the first prize, a turtle race will be held at Fort Mellon Park on the waterfront Friday, June 27, at 3:30 P. M. sponsored by Ivey's Shoe Store on First Street, it was announced today by John Ivey, manager.

To each boy or girl who buys a pair of Keds shoes between June 20 and June 27, a miniature live turtle will be given by Ivey's Shoe Store. The boys and girls will keep their turtles until time for the race, and Mr. Ivey urges that they be "trained" for the big event.

Young Gatchel was a candidate of the Nationalist Party, and defeated Mike Sanders of Palatka, running for the Federalist Party.

With the opening of Boys' State on Saturday, Gatchel was placed in one of the two parties, the Nationalist, where he immediately gained popularity.

Preceding the party caucus on Wednesday, he campaigned vigorously against several candidates, the Stanford boy dates.

The Nationalist Party Wednesday and that night he made his first campaign speech.

Projects he supported in his platform were R. O. T. C. units in the schools, boosting of Boys' State, an improved Boys' State band, and serving of meals by waitresses during breakfast at the college cafeteria.

Thursday morning the 226 citizens of Boys' State cast their votes for a governor. The election results were announced yesterday at 1:15 o'clock during the lunch period.

Other boys from Seminole County held the following positions: Earl Jester, city attorney; Elmer Hunt, city commissioner; Pat Blankenship, health commis-

How quickly Adolf Hitler would settle affairs with Russia remained to be seen. Moscow said there was no indication that the U. S. S. R. expected an invasion, although Europe in general for days have chafed over the fact that the Nazis are pressing their possible drive into the Soviet Union.

On the Middle East war front the see-saw fighting toward a climax in the siege of Damascus.

The Vichy French acknowledged the British were attacking the oasis of Guta, on which Damascus is situated, but asserted that the tanked infantry still was several miles outside the city itself.

Australian soldiers were reported driving an advance in the face of stiff resistance in the drive toward Beirut, Lebanon.

The Germans carrying on a subtle fear campaign against Soviet Russia yesterday brought a real and imminent threat of new war along a 1000-mile front.

Germany's power politics in the East reflected the growing sense of strength which the Nazis had manifested since signing up Turkey in "friendly" treaty on Wednesday.

The half-hidden maneuvers that went along with that success made it appear that there was apt to be war from above the Baltic to the Black seas, regardless of whether the Nazis really intended to start shooting.

For alarm had spread so far and deep—as exemplified especially by urgent war preparations in Finland—it seemed likely that just one little incident might be enough to take the situation out of the hands of the powers diplomats and into the hands of millions of fighting men.

Gaines will play in Orlando Monday night and the contest is expected to draw a large crowd because of the fact that the supposedly talented team will meet two of its former players, Matt Williams and Bill Daugherty.

Gaines was still looking for more Seminole players the day the local directors gave up the franchise, according to one of the officials. Gaines is reported to have called Sanford and asked for Pete McKinney, extra fast hitting outfielder.

Palatka fans do not expect much from the ladies this year, since it is at the bottom of the ladder and has been badly crippled by the loss of players—but they are looking for a good season next year when they can start anew, it was declared.

An Orlando report says John Gaines will welcome an investigation of the charges of spiritiving away Sanford's ball players, brought by Charlie Glick, former team manager, at the league meeting Tuesday night. Since League President Henry L. Gray has promised to make an investigation, as soon as the orphan club is placed in some city, action can be expected.

Official States WPA Hospital Project Is Out

"You can readily see that it would be unwise for the County to sell those bonds and then have to require the people of this County to pay taxes for interest and sinking fund without being able to use that money."

Mr. Harkness' reply is as follows:

"Dear Mr. Herndon: "This will acknowledge receipt of your letter of June 12, advising that the Board of County Commissioners is planning to sell $70,000 of Seminole County hospital bonds, the proceeds therefrom to be used as a sponsor's contribution in the possible construction of the county hospital."

"In reference to the Work Projects Administration making a definite statement as to whether or not we will be in position to allocate the federal funds involved, I wish to advise that the project is not yet perceptible under our existing regulations. Further, it would be my specific recommendation that the County do not sell its bonds at this time with the idea of the Work Projects Administration undertaking the construction of this facility, as every indication is that sufficient labor will not be available for the next 12 months to undertake the work in question. As you no doubt know, Congress is considering the WPA appropriation for the next fiscal year has reduced the funds involved by approximately 10 percent, which means that the relief rolls in Florida will be drastically reduced."

"It is with the above thought that I base my opinion that we will not be able to assist in the construction of this facility, of course, are interested in facilities of this nature and would like, if possible, to assist your community in undertaking this work. However, we are definitely limited in the number of projects we can handle and in addition are trying to give first consideration to those projects of a primary defense nature."

"If we can be of any further assistance in this matter, please advise me accordingly."

Johns Re-Elected Head Of Arcadia Children's Home

The Florida Baptist Children's Home was organized at the Florida Baptist Convention held in Okaloa, Indiana, in 1910; it was located at Arcadia because that city made the best bid in contributions of money and property for the home. The institution was opened for the admission of children on Feb. 1, 1911, and on that day one child was admitted. At the present date 148 children are enroled.

The first superintendent was Rev. B. M. Bean, who served from 1911 until 1911. He was succeeded by Rev. J. M. Tolson, who served until 1912 when he resigned and was succeeded by superintendent John E. Johns.

The Florida Baptist State Convention elects the board of trustees of the home, and they elect the superintendent.

There are eight main buildings on the grounds, and these are being repaired, remodeled and renovated. There also is a dairy.

Russia, left standing alone by the new German-Turkish treaty—treaty that also put Britain's old Turkish allies in the curious position of ostensibly trying to be war friends simultaneously to both London and Berlin—was so extraordinarily silent as to indicate that apprehension in the Kremlin was correspondingly high.

Moscow said nothing whatever about the treaty, despite its obvious and far-reaching effects on the Soviet. WASHINGTON, June 20.—The Office of Production Management has informed the government that production of automotive tires and 30,000 other items will be sharply curtailed.

The OPM's production division said that although imports are at their highest point in history, and at present there is a shortage of rubber, some form of rationing will be necessary because of shipping difficulties and the need of building stocks.

State Department Asks Closing Of Italian Consulates

Order Is Follow Up
Of Similar Edict
Against Germany's
Staff Last Week

Consul Employees
Will Also Leave

Break Between Germany And America
Is Debate Topic

WASHINGTON, June 21
(AP)—The closing of all Italian consulates in the United States was ordered today by the State Department as a follow up of a similar edict against Rome's Axis partner, Germany, earlier this week.

Officers and employees of Italian consular offices were ordered removed from the United States by July 15.

An authorized German spokesman declared yesterday Germany has proof of "dozens of cases" of espionage in which he said United States consular officials in Germany gathered information for the British secret service and passed it on directly or through a certain central office in Washington.

The question of whether consulars would be allowed to remain in the United States was the subject of a debate topic at the Vichy French Foreign Ministry and the United States embassy here.

It was decided that the two countries would have a brief diplomatic conference to determine the best course of action.

It was agreed that the two countries would meet again in the near future to discuss the situation.

"Usually when nations first come into contact they are irritated by each other's diplomatic activity. That is, the break comes from the top down."

The telegram was sent by the Williamses, who are members of the American and National War Councils.

Young Williams has been stationed in Puerto Rico as a civil engineer and will return to Sanford for a visit after his boat goes to New York.

CAA Will Survey
Sanford Airport
For Development

191 Other Airfields
In United States
Will Be Inspected

Sanford's new municipal airport is scheduled to be surveyed for possible airport construction or inspection from the funds appropriated for the year beginning July 1 for airport development program. Representative Joe Henshaw advised the Sanford Herald in a telegram from Washington today. Date of the survey of the airport, which is at present being graded and cleared by WPA.

Speaking of the rescue fleet, which showed a blaze of lights about 18 miles east of this port, Admiral Wainwright added:

U. S. Senator Charles O. Adams also wired the Herald of the airport survey. He said:

"The Civil Aeronautics Authority has this morning advised me that your airport is on a list of 191 airports in the United States to be surveyed for construction and improvement under the defense program, for the fiscal year 1941-42."

"Final selection by law is limited to 140 fields, which must be certified by defense authorities. Release and full information is anticipated for this afternoon's news."

The information indicates that the Sanford field is proposed to improve the road field to a Class 1.

The survey will be conducted by regional representatives of the Civil Aeronautics Authority in Atlanta.

WASHINGTON, June 21
(AP)—The Civil Aeronautics Administration announced today 191 airport sites would be surveyed for possible construction or improvement work under a $94,797,750 CAA appropriation for the year beginning July 1.

Of these, only 140 could be selected under the law for construction work with 1941 funds.

Among the airports listed for the survey was one at Sanford, Fla.

Federal funds will be spent only for improvement of actual landing areas. Local communities will be required to provide land, construct buildings, and maintain and operate the airport. Federal funds will be used for grading, draining, paving roads and similar work.

Those planning to go are Dale Hoffman, J. L. Inley, Jr., Dan Deasey, Charlie Peeler, Earl Moore, Sam Thompson, Wade Sistrunk and Ray Fox.

Letter From England Says People Have "Lively Time" During Air Raids

F. T. Hooper of Cardiff, Wales, writes his daughter, Mrs. T. E. Stiles of Wilkes-Barre, Sanford, that all his people are well, but he admits that "we have some very lively times and generally we go to bed about 2:00 o'clock or 3:00 o'clock in the morning as a result of air raids."

In his letter, which was opened by an English postman and unanswered, Mr. Hooper said:

"We have had several air raids. I saw it dated March 10, so you see it was eight weeks coming. I think it was to write more often instead of writing twice a month."

"I am taking it more nights and days now than ever before. His oldest boy, Fred, is in the R.A.F."

Cardiff's Royal Infirmary at Cardiff, where Mr. Hooper may have been staying, was hit by a bomb during the night, but no one was injured.

Ocean's Floor

Cause Of Sinking Of
0-9 May Be Left
Unsolved, Admiral
Edwards Declares

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., June 21
(AP)—Possibility that the sunken submarine O-9, and her crew of 33 dead might be left on the ocean floor, entombed under the compression of 440 feet of water that has crumpled the craft's steel shell, was sounded today by the Navy's high command.

Admiral Richard E. S. Edwards, commander of submarines of the Atlantic fleet, intimated the cause of the sinking might go unsolved. The death of all 33 officers and men of the sunken submarine O-9 was indicated late last night by the Navy after wreckage from the craft shot to the surface from the tremendous depth of 402 feet.

Rear Admiral Wainwright announced that efforts to place a line aboard the submarine would be suspended until the morning and this apparently sealed the fate of the men trapped on the ocean floor.

Speaking of the rescue fleet, which showed a blaze of lights about 18 miles east of this port, Admiral Wainwright added:

Only if a line was placed aboard the O-9 could the Navy's rescue fleet be used and without line to the surface the men below could not be reached by their oxygen tanks in trying to come up. Despite the wreckage, air bubbles and an oil slick, the exact location of the submarine had not been established.

The O-9, one of the nation's oldest submarines and only recently recommissioned after a decade of idleness, went down on a deep dive at 7:56 o'clock this morning. About two hours later a smoke bomb distress signal came to the surface.

A frantic search followed, but no word came from the O-9, save any direct contact made, until the rescue ship Falcon, one of a dozen navy vessels which rushed to the scene, radioed shortly before 8:00 P. M.

"Have picked up painted cork pieces of the O-9, grating, oil slick, air bubbles, drift of 67 feet,"

The submarine previously had been reported at a depth of 370 feet, although it was built to stand only the pressure of a 300 foot depth. The Falcon report placed her at 402 feet.

Officials called for the survey was one at Sanford, Fla.

Discuss New Taxes

Six County officials will leave Tallahassee, called by J. M. Lee, comptroller, at the request of Governor Speer, to discuss new tax laws passed by the Legislature.

A frantic search followed, but no word came from the O-9, save any direct contact made, until the rescue ship Falcon, one of a dozen navy vessels which rushed to the scene, radioed shortly before 8:00 P. M.

"Have picked up painted cork pieces of the O-9, grating, oil slick, air bubbles, drift of 67 feet,"

The submarine previously had been reported at a depth of 370 feet, although it was built to stand only the pressure of a 300 foot depth. The Falcon report placed her at 402 feet.

Officers called for the survey was one at Sanford, Fla.

Federal funds will be spent only for improvement of actual landing areas. Local communities will be required to provide land, construct buildings, and maintain and operate the airport. Federal funds will be used for grading, draining, paving roads and similar work.

Letter From England Says People Have "Lively Time" During Air Raids

F. T. Hooper of Cardiff, Wales, writes his daughter, Mrs. T. E. Stiles of Wilkes-Barre, Sanford, that all his people are well, but he admits that "we have some very lively times and generally we go to bed about 2:00 o'clock or 3:00 o'clock in the morning as a result of air raids."

In his letter, which was opened by an English postman and unanswered, Mr. Hooper said:

"We have had several air raids. I saw it dated March 10, so you see it was eight weeks coming. I think it was to write more often instead of writing twice a month."

"I am taking it more nights and days now than ever before. His oldest boy, Fred, is in the R.A.F."

Cardiff's Royal Infirmary at Cardiff, where Mr. Hooper may have been staying, was hit by a bomb during the night, but no one was injured.

Principals of the white schools of the county met today to discuss the adoption of new text books for the fall term, and the state, T. W. Lovett, county superintendent, laid the ground work.

The group is to choose books for the whole county in order to have a uniform list, Mr. Lovett added. At the meeting the principals are expected to view the annual budget for the year.
