Recurring Shocks and Fire Hinder Rescue Work Being Pushed By Agents of Mercy

MANAGUA, Apr. 1—

tion of their city by an earthquake and terrified by constantly recurring tremors, the people of Managua feverishly carried on the rescue work today against terrific odds.

Day broke bleakly in the stricken city with the fire still raging in many sections. Estimates of the dead reached 1,000. The number of injured tentatively was placed at 2,000. The entire population of Managua is homeless. Hardly a building remained standing.

Fire threatened to complicate the catastrophe. No more than among American civilians were reported but three, connected with the military are dead. The entire population of Managua is homeless. Hardly a building remained standing.

A scarcity of foodstuffs was brought about by a demolition of the business section and by the privation. A scarcity of medical supplies also existed. Though the Nicaraguan and American Red Cross are active, (Continued on Page 4)

Calendar

FRIDAY
 The monthly meeting of the Junior Christian Endeavor Society of the First Presbyterian Church will be held at 7:30 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. Herman Brown, Park Avenue, with the meeting opening with a prayer by Mrs. Brown. Billy Zachry, president of the society, presided over the meeting at which time programs were arranged and leaders chosen for the April meetings. Social service and other work for April was also discussed and planned.

SATURDAY
 An Easter sale of colored eggs, candy, and fancy articles will be held from 3 o'clock to 5 o'clock on First Street for the benefit of the Orphanage at Sanford, Fla.

SUNDAY
 The American Legion Auxiliary will present an Easter Monday matinee at the Mayfair Hotel.

MONDAY
 The congregation attended the service last night at the First Baptist Church where a revival service was held under the leadership of the pastor and his singer. The pastor preached how that the people had made against the revival and that they would be held in the same charge as the people against people to be held at length upon the revival and fearful consequences.

SAILS TO TEACH

NEW YORK CITY—They'll be doing business a lot faster in Europe before long if Stella Williams, 25, of Brooklyn, America's speediest woman typist (124 words per minute), accomplishes her mission on which she sailed for Plymouth on the liner "Lafayette." She will explain her skill to business people in Europe.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin W. Moore left Monday for points in Tennessee where they were called by the death of the former's sister.

Church Circles Have Meetings On Monday

Entertaining for the members of Circle Number Seven of the First Baptist Church, Mrs. E. F. Cooper was hostess at their regular meeting held Monday afternoon at her home on Cameron Avenue. Mrs. C. A. Anderson presided over the business session and had charge of the devotional while Mrs. Cooper conducted the mission study lesson and the Bible questions.

It was decided that the next meeting be held at the County Home on Saturday, Apr. 11. The meeting then adjourned for a social period when a salad course and coffee were served by the hostess, assisted by Miss Beaufort Boyce. Adorning the rooms where the guests were entertained was a profusion of lupins and ferns.

The home of Mrs. W. S. Gufford, 111 West Eleventh Street, was the scene of the meeting of the Business Woman's Circle of the First Baptist Church held Monday evening. After the business session Mrs. John D. Abrahams conducted the mission study class.

Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by her mother and Miss Annie Laurie Jewers. Those present were: Mrs. F. L. Hite, Mrs. Roy King, Mrs. John D. Abrahams, Mrs. J. V. Johnson, Mrs. D. K. McNab, Mrs. W. S. Gufford, Mrs. W. M. Brown and the Misses Lorene Franklin, and Annie Laurie Jewers.

Mrs. M. L. Porter and Mrs. James A. Williams, who were called to Atlanta recently because of the death of their mother, have returned to their homes here.

James W. Barnes, local representative of Frost and McNab, Inc., of New York City, plans to leave tomorrow for Beaufort, S. C., where he will spend some time on business.

Mrs. W. T. Waller, of Centerville, Ala., who has been visiting her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. DuBose, has gone to Cocoa to spend a week with her son, Dr. J. B. Waller.

PARTY HINTS

Next to Christmas, Easter is the holiday most enjoyed by youngsters. After a long winter indoors, Easter breaks the monotony—then there are new frocks to show off, and if the day is warm and sunny, an opportunity for outdoor games.

Of course, an Easter luncheon should carry the invitation. Get a package of crepe paper napkins decorated with bunnies and Easter designs. Cut out the flours and paste on pink or blue correspondence cards, then cut out the top part of the card, leaving the bottom uncut. Write the name of the little guest at the bottom with the invitation:

"Between you and me and the Easter rabbit here is a host or hostess is going to have a party. Please come." Elaborate decorations (except for the refreshments table) are not necessary, if there are plenty of small prizes to keep the children thrilled. Simply cut scampering bunnies from crepe paper, design and paste to lampshades, or stiffen them and stand on the mantle or book cases and hang from the doorway on threads.

TOMORROW: Easter games to play with eggs.

PLANE CRASH CAUSE BEING PROBED

Sanford, Fla., Apr. 1.—(Continued from Page One) The cause of the crash of the plane as it was called into landings, was being probed by the coroner's jury. The coroner's jury was called into session at 10:30 a. m. and by 11:30 a. m. the coroner had called away to view the wreckage and carry away pieces of the plane's fabric.

The crash killed all eight occupants instantly. Witnesses said the craft, flying through clouds and fog, lost a wing in the air. First reports that there had been an explosion in the air and that the wreckage had drifted unaccounted for.

The dead: Knute Rockne, H. J. Christensen, Chicago; J. H. Hooper, Chicago; W. B. Miller, Hartford, Conn.; C. A. Rohrecht, Wheeling, W. Va.; Robert Fry, pilot, Los Angeles; Jess Mathias, pilot, Los Angeles.

The body of Rockne was identified by W. L. White, son of William Allen White of the Emporia Gazette. The famous coach boarded the plane just before its departure from Kansas City in mist and rain, at 9:15 A. M. He was bound for Hollywood to complete arrangements for making a feature-film picture and several short subjects.

By a margin of minutes he had reached his sons, Knute, Jr., 14, and Billy, 11, who returned to Kansas City school from visiting their mother at Corn Creek, Pa. Rockne left the station 20 minutes before their arrival in order to reach the airport in time for his plane's scheduled departure at 9:30. It was then held up 45 minutes by delayed mail.

The plane was in radio communication with the Kansas City Airport until it reached Gasport, Kan., southwest of Sanford. It asked for weather conditions at Wichita. When communication was interrupted at approximately 10:30 a. m. the accident occurred.

PARIS FUR CREATORS ESTABLISHING SMART JACKETS FOR SPRING

An interesting manipulation of the pelt worked with fancy cuttings, like a fabric, characterizes this jacket of black pony. The cuttings are outlined with a silk braid. The belt is of black suede.

This sports jacket in light brown pony can be worn either with flat yovers or with one of the revers buttoned up and holding the scarf collar of nutria. The cuffs on the sleeves are relieved with a little flounce of nutria.

A fur jacket of black brei-rehwan is presented with an irregular hem with dipping movement at back, as seen by the little sketch at the back.

Hudson is revived this season; of models on this page, the idea of greater elaboration results in giving fur jackets, as a type, increased importance.

U. S. Agencies Of Mercy Begin To Aid Quake Area

The first word came over the Associated Press wires at 11:41 A. M. and at noon Mr. Hoover announced that on the strength of that information alone his instructions already had gone to the officials concerned.

It was not until 4:45 P. M. that the first official government message was received. It was a navy message, saying that Lieut. Commander Hugo Frederick August House, of the navy medical corps, had been killed in the quake, but that so far as known no other member of the navy and marine contingent in Nicaragua had lost his life.

The other witnesses, most of whom saw a man fleeing from the scene of the murder, said they were likewise certain the state had arrested the wrong man.

Harry J. O'Connor, one of the witnesses, appeared to have cleared up one point concerning the shooting when he said a friend shouted to him "be sure to bet on Sly Schneider" as he started for the tunnel with the race track his ultimate destination.

Cognizance Taken Of Recent Fall By New York Governor

(Continued from Page One) A. B. (AP)—Governor Roosevelt last night took cognizance of an unofficial poll of Democratic national delegates, which indicated a preference for the governor as the 1932 presidential candidate, by calling attention to an earlier statement on a similar matter.

The governor respectfully calls the attention of editorial writers and others, he said at the poll announced by Jesse leader Straus, "to a statement issued by him on Nov. 7, 1930, which he now desires to reiterate."

The statement, issued by the governor shortly after the Democratic state chairman, James A. Farley, had declared the plurality given Roosevelt in the 1930 gubernatorial election indicated his presidential strength.

QUAKE DEATH TOLL PLACED AT 1 THOUSAND

A message received at the state department today said the American legation at Managua was in flames and all archives were lost.

Flames started up from the wreckage of demolished buildings, sweeping 20 blocks in the center of the city, destroying the American and British legations and causing property damage estimated at $30,000,000.

The marines took over immediately, declaring martial law and superintending the removal of the dead and injured. Hundreds were treated at the one hospital left standing.

Water mains burst at the first earthquake, and the only means of communication with the world outside was by airplane and radio.

The people showed remarkable self-control, proceeding in an orderly manner to save what they could out of the disaster, but every house in Managua felt the blow.

SAILS FOR HOME

(Continued from Page One) Although, Fessenden expressed a desire to retire from the chairmanship as soon as possible, the President wishes him to remain as the help for several months at least.

There were strong indications yesterday that a new speaker probably would not be elected until the fall or possibly until December meeting of the house when a city will be chosen for the 1932 national convention.

Watson said the president's no notion of calling a special session of Congress to deal with employment and farm relief urged by a delegation of 10 state organization representatives here last week. The senator expressed the personal belief that business was improving and would continue to do so if politics were forgotten for a while.

The farm board's decision to halt wheat stabilization operations after July 1 also was discussed, but not even a hint was given from the conference as to plans for disposing of the more than 200,000,000 bushels now held by the grain stabilization corporation.

The conference was the first of a series planned by the president after his Caribbean trip. He expects to confer with Republican Leader Tamm of the house on Thursday evening.

Hoover That Tax Be Made

He believed the sale of war term certificates, such as the $100,000,000 so quickly over-subscribed Monday, could give the treasury for some time and that by holding down expenditures next year a tax boost could be avoided.

Dispelling rumors of an early retirement by Chairman Fessenden, the Indianan said there was "the great truth" about reconvening the committee.

"Our thought," he said, "was to let the country rest from politics, so ahead and attempt to build a new political structure from the floor of the house."
