

Attorney General Seeking Indictments for Printing Federal Income Tax Lists

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—The government's action to test the legality of publication of income tax returns by newspapers has been started, and an indictment in one case is expected within a few days.

No Names Announced
Attorney General Stone announced Tuesday he had instructed United States attorneys to institute proceedings to "six or seven" instances but he declined to indicate the newspapers against which grand jury presentations have been ordered. He said, however, that one suit will be filed soon, and in well informed quarters it was said the attorney general believed the indictment may be forthcoming within forty-eight hours. There were indications that it was already under consideration by a grand jury.

Almost simultaneously with Mr. Stone's announcement, the bureau of internal revenue sent additional instructions to internal revenue collectors which will act to restrict the time in which the public may make use of the income tax records under "public inspection" provisions of the law. Commissioner Blair requested the collectors to limit the books to public examination to three days a week and three hours a day, advising them that experience since the books first were opened had demonstrated that many persons desired to see the records for no obvious reasons.

To Warn Public
Mr. Blair informed the collectors the limitation appeared necessary that their offices might continue to function without delay in disposition of general business. He suggested also that the collectors refer to those who examine the record, the warning against publication, mentioning penalties carried in the law.

The internal revenue bureau expects to take no further action in the publicity matter and the department of justice, with the views of the attorney general in the hands of United States attorneys along with the evidence, will do little more than exercise supervisory direction of the cases involving the legality of publication of returns. Mr. Stone is prepared, however, to join in any plan to hasten a judicial interpretation of the apparently conflicting provisions of the law, relating to publication.

Thoroughly Gone Over
The attorney general has gone over every phase of evidence submitted at his request several days ago by the United States attorneys concerning publication and what as described as the best cases have been selected for presentation to the courts. While Mr. Stone declined to go into details, saying that the matter was a grand jury action until indictments are announced, he indicated that the department believed all phases of the conflicting provisions of the law would be covered in the selected cases. He is especially desirous of having the cases presented with consideration for the varying conditions under which publication was made.

Meanwhile, representative Tinch, Republican, Kansas, a spokesman of the farm bloc, announced after a conference tonight with Senator Curtis, of Kansas, that legislation would be held in abeyance until congress had the benefit of conclusions reached by the agricultural commission. He said that, in fact, he did not expect the enactment of any farm legislation at the short session and added the opinion that as to a large portion of the agricultural sections of the West the emergency condition had passed.

Chairman Carey explained in his statement that while in view of the broad scope of the commission's work it probably would be incomplete by March 1, he thought some progress undoubtedly would be made for the first time in the history of the American Railroad Association presented its 1924 report to the board of directors. The report also showed that seven new transportation records had been set throughout the country generally during this period.

That 1924 was the first year in which the carriers averted the usual autumn lull in a death of freight cars was attributed to a new system in the handling of "empties." In the past, it was pointed out, it had been customary to mobilize great fleets of rolling stock which were concentrated regionally for the movement of crops or coal.

This year the car supply problem was analyzed in advance so that it was dealt with in fraction units of itself, the report showed. This was reflected particularly in the fact that more cars had been kept on the home lines than ever before. Western-owned cars, for example, were pushed back to their home yards at far greater speed and their handling measurably expedited.

The considerable degree to which the improved system seemed to gather its own headway without noticeable coaxing or monitoring from headquarters in Washington was taken to indicate the likelihood of its becoming permanent.

These results were obtained, it further was pointed out, in a year which, except for coal, coke and ore, bids fair to become the heaviest transportation year in American railroading.

At the session today eleven bureau chiefs and members of various government commissions were called in for consultation. All were requested to furnish information as quickly as possible regarding their respective activities. Data requested included information on the government financial picture as relating to agriculture, particularly from the federal farm loan board, the federal reserve board and the war finance corporation; and on government statistics collected and disseminated by various agencies and the purpose they serve.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—The commission appointed by President Coolidge to solve the problems of American agriculture began Tuesday to shape its program of work so as to take advantage of the coming short session of congress for any remedial legislation which it may by that time have concluded to be necessary.

After an all-day session behind closed doors the commission announced, however, that it would be impossible to complete its work before congress convened next month and that after its session today and pending the assembling of data on which it will base its work it would take a three or four weeks' recess.

As one of the most pressing problems Robert D. Carey, of Wyoming, chairman of the commission, announced that the cattle industry would be one of the first subjects studied.

Meanwhile, representative Tinch, Republican, Kansas, a spokesman of the farm bloc, announced after a conference tonight with Senator Curtis, of Kansas, that legislation would be held in abeyance until congress had the benefit of conclusions reached by the agricultural commission. He said that, in fact, he did not expect the enactment of any farm legislation at the short session and added the opinion that as to a large portion of the agricultural sections of the West the emergency condition had passed.

Chief Executives Of 26 States Pleased With Reception Of Sanford's Citizens

Visit to Celery Fields And Golf Course Is Part Day's Program

Flag decked Sanford and its citizens greeted the governors of 26 states and their guests this morning en route from Jacksonville to southern Florida, and due to the efforts of Arthur Yowell and R. W. Penman, Jr., it is believed that the party of chief executives carried away with them a most favorable impression of Florida's largest producing section.

Twenty-one of the city's most select closed cars were lined up at the Clyde Line dock when the Orceola landed the distinguished guests on Sanford soil, and within five minutes after the gang plank had been lowered the cars were loaded and the motorcade had started, headed by a scout car from the Chamber of Commerce, and two motorcycle policemen.

The route, which had been carefully mapped, included Sanford's most attractive residential districts in addition to the celery and lettuce fields on the outskirts of the city, and the governors and their guests viewed with great interest the fields that supplied most of their supply of these delicacies.

A back drive through the community was terminated at the country club, where the visitors were served light refreshments and given a chance to stretch themselves and admire the 18-hole course.

Following a 10-minute rest, the party repaired to the waiting motor cars and drove to the Orange county line, pausing for a five-minute stop at Longwood where a delegation of ladies served cigars and punch.

Mayor J. E. Walker officially welcomed the visitors and expressed regret at the short length of time that they were permitted to remain in Longwood, adding that he and his committee desired it an honor to entertain such a distinguished following.

Governor Hardee thanked the citizens of Longwood on behalf of the gubernatorial party for the courtesies shown them, and assured them of his continued good will toward all progressive measures undertaken by the community.

The party then resumed its trip to the beautiful lake that marks the Orange county line, and the visitors were transferred to cars supplied by the Orlando Chamber of Commerce.

What apparently interested the visitors most was the scientific system of sub-irrigation employed by the celery farmers, and many were the expressions of wonder and amazement as the city's guests from all parts of the nation got first-hand knowledge of the principals of lettuce and celery culture.

"Simply marvelous" was the brief but sincere opinion of Governor Channing H. Cox, of Massachusetts, as he surveyed the wide acres of early celery in the outlying sections of the town.

Charred Body of Cincinnati Preacher Found In Basement Furnace of Home in Suburb of Columbus, Ohio
COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 19.—Rev. C. V. Sheatsley, pastor of Christ Lutheran Church, whose wife's cremated body was taken from the furnace at the home Monday, today changed his testimony and told the prosecutor he believed she killed herself. Yesterday he spurned this belief.
COLUMBUS, Ohio, Nov. 19.—Police admittedly are without a clue to the mysterious cremation late Tuesday of Mrs. Addie Sheatsley, 50 years old, wife of Rev. C. V. Sheatsley, pastor of Christ Lutheran Church of Bexley, a suburb, whose charred body was found in the basement of their home.
County Prosecutor King, with Police Lieut. Shellenbarger, spent the entire day questioning members of the family and witnesses.
The tragedy last night, declared by Coroner Murphy to be a suicide, but to be a murder by County Prosecutor King, is one of the most baffling in the history of the Columbus police department. The Sheatsleys have lived in the community for nine years all of which time the minister has had charge of the church. Their domestic relations always have been amicable, police were told.
Unwilling to accept the coroner's version of the affair, Prosecutor King said a complete investigation would be made.
Each member of the family was questioned during the afternoon. Clarence, a son of Mr. Sheatsley twice was questioned as to why he did not report the finding of his mother's body in the furnace shortly after 3 o'clock. Testimony showed that his eldest brother and both sisters came home more than an hour earlier than the father, but that the younger boy did not report his finding to them.
Milton, the older boy, related that he attended classes at Capitol University during the morning and that all members of the family were present for dinner at 12 o'clock. He and the two girls left home about 12:15 p. m., leaving Clarence, his father and mother alone in the house.
Testimony established that the minister left home about 1:30 p. m. and Clarence testified he left about 15 minutes later.
Milton returned home about 3:15 p. m. and smelled a peculiar odor even before he had entered the house. He did not investigate, thinking it was a rabbit pit burning, he said.
Not until his sisters returned from school about 4:30 p. m. and were attracted to the furnace by the odor did Milton investigate, he said. He accompanied them to the basement and opened the furnace door a trifle, but hurriedly closed it when a volume of smoke and it fumes poured forth, he said. He retraced his steps upstairs and soon afterward went to the school.

The dawn of the final week. The last dash to the wire. The beginning of the end. Four short days more, and The Herald's widely famed automobile contest comes to a dramatic close. All of Sanford and Seminole county is watching, waiting, wondering. Who will win the automobile and other prizes, is the question on every lip. Excitement is keyed to the highest pitch. Riding on the crest of this wave of enthusiasm are ambitious contestants, exerting vigorous effort to capture the wonderful prizes that will be awarded Saturday night.
A storm of votes is gathering and they are beginning to descend upon The Herald Office already.

ing array of splendid gifts been offered. Never has such a battle been waged to win. On this page appears the final voting schedule. All subscriptions turned in during this final week receive votes according to this changed.

Study this vote scale carefully. Note the tremendous looks certain that the prizes will be won by small margins. No one contestant can appear certain of victory, and there is abundant speculation as to the outcome.

This final week will decide.
The race is too close to bank upon any possibilities and there are too many persons interested in every contestant to insure any one an easy victory.
Over-confidence loses battles. This is no time to hesi-

Officials of the general hospital board said today that the Montgomery hospital was not so large or so costly as the Wesley Memorial Hospital in Atlanta, but the Alabama structure was probably one of the most convenient and perfectly equipped of its kind—or will be—in the United States.

Particular attention is called to the X-ray apparatus that will occupy two large rooms in the Montgomery hospital. It was said to be the newest and most complete outfit that money could buy. The X-ray machine, which is already in place, has been produced as one of the most powerful and efficient of its type that has ever been brought South.

Membership enrollment in the Golden Cross Societies, organized two years ago to foster and maintain hospital work, will begin immediately after Thanksgiving and continue until the middle of December, according to officials of the hospital board. The societies in Alabama will aid the Montgomery hospital while those in Georgia will raise funds for the Wesley Memorial Hospital in Atlanta. Georgia and Alabama are expected to lead the Southern Methodist church in hospital charity work.

Plans are under way in Alabama to raise not less than $200,000 for the enlargement of the Montgomery hospital, it was stated here today by Dr. C. C. Jarrall, secretary of the general hospital board, it being the purpose of Alabama Methodists to make it an adequate memorial to the heroes who fell in France, and Flanders. Bishop A. Canfield, of Atlanta, who is chairman of the general hospital board, made a strong plea in behalf of the hospital at the recent Alabama Methodist conference in Talladega.

Mayo Gives Advice To Melon Growers Of State Florida

TALLAHASSEE, Nov. 18.—If the watermelon growers of Florida are to overcome the handicap placed around their industry by the state of Georgia in the drastic quarantine act passed by a special session of the legislature there in August, they should begin early to prepare for the shipping season, they have been advised by Nathan Mayo, commissioner of agriculture. With the view of clarifying the situation as much as possible Mr. Mayo, through correspondence with Dr. Peter Bahnsen, state veterinarian, who has charge of enforcing the Georgia law, has been advised by the latter that "properly handled excelsior, new shavings and sawdust or other mill products not exposed to tick infestation, will be acceptable to this department for bedding in melon shipments."

The Georgia act against the tick fever tick provided that "no melon or melon seed of any other fruit from Georgia through tick infestation or through pine straw or other material used for bedding or transporting of hides, or the use of pine straw or other materials exposed to tick infestation originating in the tick infested and quarantined areas of any other state into, within or through Georgia is hereby prohibited."

"Florida should understand the situation and be governed accordingly," Mr. Mayo advises the growers. "If straw is to be used no tick infestation should be conducted at once from each shipping point with the source of supply of suitable straw." The suggestion is made that melon growers at each shipping point put their orders and have someone to handle in cartons the material which they decide to use, whether it be straw, excelsior, shavings, or sawdust. A growers' association can readily perform the costly routine buying, the commissioner suggests, but adds that his office cannot undertake to perform this function in any way.

"Tampa Special" Is Placed On Run For The Winter Months

The "Tampa Special" has again been put into service for the winter months, it was announced today by the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad through Superintendent J. L. Dumas, who stated that the train this year is greatly improved over that of last year. New dining and parlor observation cars recently built and delivered by the Pullman Company, have been included in the new train. The new schedule represents a great improvement, shortening the time from all points in the north and west by more than an hour, said Mr. Dumas. The "Tampa Special" will make the connections in both directions with the cities with the limited stop cars, trains for the scenic spots, and territory arriving at Talladega on the 21st of the month.

GERAES, Brazil, Nov. 18.

Although Minas Geraes borders on the states of Rio de Janeiro and Sao Paulo, and spreads over the central Brazilian plateau with a square mileage nearly equal to that of Texas, the rumors of revolutions and the spreading of machine guns in the surrounding states have not excited the contented Minas farmers. They are selling plenty of coffee and cattle at good prices, and the state government has lots of money in its pocket, thereby making unnecessary a policy of heavy taxation. More people live in Minas Geraes than in any other Brazilian state. The population totals between 6,000,000 and 7,000,000. About 5,000,000 live in the country or in towns of less than 2,000 inhabitants. There are only two cities having a population over 25,000, another proof that the state is rural in its make-up. These are Belo Horizonte, the state capital, with 60,000, and Juiz de Fora, a manufacturing city of about the same size.

Latest Population Figures Released State Legislature

TALLAHASSEE, Fla.—The legislature will have the latest population figures carry out the mandates of the state, as provided in the polls Nov. 4, 1924, when the legislature adjourns. This is assumed to be made by the State Board of Agriculture for the State, to be taken in accordance with the provisions of the constitution. This requires that they be taken every ten years, commencing with the federal census of 1910. The constitution provides that the basis for reapportionment shall be the census of 1910, and under that census the population was 1,513,000.

THE SOUTH AND WEST

(Continued from page 4) period? Ohio went Democratic in 1915; Kansas in 1896 and 1916; Nebraska in 1890, 1903 and 1916; Missouri in 1888, 1892, 1896, 1900 and 1916; Illinois in 1892; Montana in 1896, 1900 and 1916; North Dakota in 1916 (and against the Republican candidate in 1892); South Dakota in 1900; Idaho in 1896, 1900 and 1916; Colorado in 1896, 1900, 1908, and 1916; Arizona in 1916; Nevada 1896, 1900, 1908, and 1916; Arizona in 1916 and California by electoral vote in 1892 and by popular vote in 1916.

What more natural, then, than for the Democracy of these two regions to stand together, certain in no spirit of narrow sectionalism, but for the very opposite and infinitely higher purpose of saving their party from a fatal narrowness in interests and ideas? It is no alliance of the South and the West against the East that we would counsel; but an alliance of that which is liberal and constructive against that which is reactionary and decadent.

Riding The Oar

All crew men will know, and almost everyone else will understand, what we mean by "riding the oar". Its application is most odious to all athletes, or men who do things, and one sure to bring blood to the cheeks and a burst of energy most surprising.

A few of such men get by. They are lucky enough to catch their oar and strain just as the coach's eye comes their way. But most of them are discovered long before the big race and find themselves discarded to a seat in the third, fourth or fifth sholl.

But this trouble is that men who "ride their oar" on college crews, and many men who never went to college but were just brought up wrong, continue to "ride their oars" when they are trying to make their way through life.

The first, and perhaps the least harmful because he would never amount to anything anyway, is the office man, the clerk, stenographer, salesman, or bookkeeper, who spends all his time trying to do just enough to get by, and no more.

But who cares? Sooner or later the boss catches him, becomes disgusted, fires him, and gets somebody else to take his place.

But there is another kind of "oar rider" who is really of great harm to a community. He is the fellow who buys property and hangs on to it year in and year out without making even the smallest improvement on it, or without doing anything to further the development of his city.

He may offer the excuse that he cannot afford to build on his property, or he cannot afford to improve the buildings already there, or he cannot afford even to clean up the grounds, build sidewalks or fill in low places.

THE SOUTH AND WEST THE ATLANTA JOURNAL

From Santa Barbara, California, which is not so far from Georgia when one considers that political sympathies outspaced over aeroplanes, comes a comment on certain aspects of the recent Democratic frustration, which should be read and digested by the party's every friend.

"Tammany," this California paper maintains, "never expected to nominate Governor Al Smith (for president). It was Tammany's only desire to secure the defeat of William G. McAduo.

Assuredly it did not vote Democratic, unless we are to assume that its ranks were half blotted out before election day and its right hand utterly robbed of her cunning.

The Democracy, within forty-eight years past, has succeeded in electing three men to the Presidency. Samuel J. Tilden was elected in 1876; and he was elected despite the forces of Tammany.

What now of the future? A Californian contemporary view is that the Democracy of the nation ever is to win, it must be by throwing Tammany and its affiliates out of the party and going back to first principles.

However, one may prefer to phrase it, this is the idea and the impulse in which Democratic faith (Cleveland and Democratic) have their being.

In addition to the large expenditure for new building here, in the last four years, the city has spent for new streets and storm and sanitary sewers four million dollars more, so that there has been spent here, in four years, for improvements, public and private, a total of over $27,000,000.

For a city of this size to expend that sum for improvements is decidedly notable and it shows how the Sunshine City is growing and prospering when so large a sum of money is being distributed in such a manner.

Enjoyable Musical Program Is Given at Home Mrs. Whitner

The home of Mrs. B. F. Whitner was the scene of one of the most enjoyable musical programs ever given in Sanford, when Mrs. Whitner and Mrs. W. S. Leake gave an afternoon of Nevin's music.

The guests were met at the door by Mrs. Raymond Phillips and Mrs. M. Minarik and conducted to the living room where the program was heard. The spacious living room was a picture in yellow. Large baskets of yellow elders were arranged artistically through out this room.

The program opened with a brief sketch of Ethel Burtie Nevin's life by Mrs. Tackache. The following program was then rendered:

Piano: "A Day in Venice," Mrs. J. Tackache; Vocal duets: "Deep in a Roses' Glowing Heart," "In a Bower," "Every Night," "Slumber Song" by Mrs. Tackache and Mrs. Leake.

Solos: "Rosary," "Narcissus," "Little Boy Blue," by Mrs. Leake; contralto: "At Twilight," "A Life Lesson," "A Summer Day" and "Mighty Lak a Rose," sung by Mrs. Tackache, soprano.

The afternoon of music was planned for the benefit of the St. Agnes Guild and it proved to be a most entertaining afternoon. The Guild was indeed fortunate to have two such accomplished musicians to render a program. Mrs. R. R. Dean accompanied Mrs. Leake and Mrs. Tackache at the piano and too much cannot be said of the mastery in which she played.

The large audience that assembled to hear these local artists was thoroughly repaid during the afternoon.

Miss Fern Ward Wins Bon Ton Bridge Prize

Mrs. Jimmy Ridge proved a charming hostess Monday afternoon when she entertained the Bon Ton Bridge Club most graciously at her home on Park Avenue. The living room, where the game was played presented a festive appearance. The color scheme of yellow was carried out by using marigolds and yellow chrysanthemums. The individual tables were also of yellow. Dainty yellow nut cups were placed on each table.

After a very interesting game scores were counted and it was found Miss Fern Ward held high score and was presented with dainty hand painted salt and pepper shakers with coasters to match.

The hostess assisted by Mrs. J. D. Chittenden and Mrs. Dentzel Stafford served a delicious salad course.

The members present were Mrs. Ed Betts, Mrs. J. O. Woodruff, Mrs. B. D. Caswell, Mrs. W. W. Potter, Mrs. J. D. Chittenden, Miss Fern Ward. Substitutes for the afternoon were Mrs. Dentzel Stafford and Mrs. Leo Rockwell.

Delicious refreshments consisting of a salad course was served with hot chocolate, by the charming hostess.

Gleaners' Class of Presbyterian Church Has Social Meeting

The monthly social meeting of the Gleaners Class of the Presbyterian Church was held Monday night at the church and proved one of the most enjoyable events in the class's history. The social was a surprise birthday celebration for Mrs. E. D. Bullock's eighty-seventh birthday and also to celebrate Mrs. T. M. Puleston's recent birthday.

The class met in the church parlors and after a short preliminary social, Miss Fern Ward played a match while the members gathered in the class room where the surprise was in store for the two honorees. Flowers in large wicker baskets were used to help in the festive occasion. Mrs. Alfred Lilia and Mrs. Gibbs composed words appropriate for the event and they were sung to the familiar tunes of Auld Lang Syne and Home Sweet Home. Mrs. L. C. Rebout sang those melodies accompanied by Miss Ward at the piano.

On the table in the class room a handsome birthday cake was placed.

Little Miss Betty McKinnon and Miss Marjorie Bu Rose entered singing "We are Sweet Sixteen Today" each carrying a basket of beautiful roses and presented these to Mrs. Bullock and Mrs. Puleston as a token from the Gleaners' Class.

At a late hour a tempting salad course with tea and waffles were served by members of the class.

Delightful Musical Program Is Given By The Cecilian Club

The meeting of the Cecilian Music Club which met at the studio of Mrs. Fannie Munson on Saturday was well attended. Because of the late hour of the meeting caused by students having to attend school, the usual music talk given by Mrs. Munson was omitted.

The program presented was much enjoyed and covered the following numbers: Legend—Trygvevorgeson, Miss Margaret Peters; Slumber Song—Kern, Miss Juanita McMullen; Chorus of the Butterflies—Rofe, Miss Ella Spencer; Danse Ecossais—Baker, Miss Sara Williams; Paper Chase—Lawson, Miss Mary Nixon; Valse Triste—Sibhus, Miss Irma Smith; Uncle Zeb and His Fiddlers—Mark Antony, H. C. McMullen; Duet Feathered Songsters—O'Hannons, The Misses Margaret Peters and Carmen Guthrie; Heilig March—Martin, Roy Syvies; Curious Story—Heller, Miss Betty Hjortenista.

Miss Julia Laing Is Entertained With A Shower By Mrs. Brady

One of the most delightful showers with which Miss Julia Laing has been honored was the linen shower given by Mrs. E. E. Brady at her home on Palmetto Avenue last week. The lovely home of Mrs. Brady presented the color scheme of pink and white throughout. Radiance roses were used in large wicker baskets and placed in the living room and dining room where the guests were entertained. Lighted taper were placed on the mantel and tables and cast a rose hued glow over the room.

When the honoree entered she was met at the door and conducted to a large pink and white chair over which hung a pink parasol. From this the gifts were showered on Miss Laing. After the gifts were opened and admired each guest was given a cunning little bride and told to write wishes for the honoree. Miss Laing was then given the wishes and asked to read them. Miss Margaret McRae gave a group of appropriate readings in her usual charming manner.

The gracious hostess assisted by Mrs. Arthur Moore served tempting refreshments consisting of fruit salad with hot tea. On each plate favors of pink nut cups filled with punts were placed.

Miss Laing was charming in a black crepe satin made with trimmings of variegated braid and tan indestructible voile. With this was worn a becoming hat of black velvet trimmed in tan, and accessories to match. The guests included Mrs. C. H. Smith, Mrs. R. W. Turner, Mrs. Roby Laing, Mrs. R. F. Cooper, Mrs. Volie Williams, Mrs. C. O. Whittle, Mrs. Austin Williams, Mrs. Zeb Radliff, Mrs. Ben Austin, Mrs. Ben Guthrie, Mrs. Fannie Lee, Mrs. John Sneed, Mrs. B. Steele, Mrs. Arthur Moore, Mrs. Sherman Moore, Mrs. J. E. Laing, the Misses Martha Brown, Marion Hand, Margaret McRae, Tressie McRae, Anna Lee, Jeanette Laing, Margaret Davis, and Miss Mollie Hunter.

GATORS' BADLY CRIPPLED FOR NEXT CONTEST

UNIVERSITY OF FLORIDA, Gainesville, Nov. 19.—Football fans who journeyed out to Fleming field Tuesday afternoon to see the fighting Gators prepare for the strong Mississippi Aggies, were subjected to disappointment, for the charges of Coach Van Fleet confined the afternoon session to a lengthy chalk talk and conference with the doctors.

And no less than 12 of the husky Florida gridiron battlers spent a big portion of the afternoon with Dr. Thomas. The team, crippled worse than in two seasons, entertained hope that the injuries will round into shape by Saturday and continue to stay mended.

"Tiny" Chaplin, Van Fleet's new fullback threat, who has demonstrated this fall that in his remaining two campaigns with the Gators he will be a star to be reckoned with, was the only Florida player seen in uniform this afternoon. Several of the varsity lotted about the gridiron in "cits" but only "Tiny" wore the loggery.

The big ex-freshman line smasher was indulging in an extended punting program, and his high and lazy spirals that drifted anywhere from forty to sixty yards caused the big group of admirers to evidence their pleasure and satisfaction.

Florida is crippled badly in the backfield, comparatively few of the line men being on the "blink." Joe Merrin, plucky little right end, and "Boots" Davis, huge tackle-guard, are bothered with injuries and the condition of "Horse" Smith and Clyde Norton is far from perfect.

But the defense will likely be okeh by Saturday, it being the offensive contingent that is worrying Coach Van Fleet. Jones and Bramby are evidencing injuries; Captain Newton Stanley and Livingston are all under the weather, and big Bill Middlekauff, the demon fullback, is not even in school, laying up in bed at Orlando, nursing a smashed foot.

With the Fighting Gators forgetting all about their Mercer reverse; forgetting they ever rode on a train and thinking only of the game that comes, the outlook is brightening up, and provided the injuries mend, the Mississippi Aggies will find Florida a scrapping, determined machine, primed to get back into the good graces of Southern football.

Schooner Is Wrecked Off the Boston Coast

BOSTON, Nov. 18.—The Schooner Rebecca G. Whildin was abandoned five miles off Pollock Rip Lightship last night after being disabled by a storm.

Her Captain and crew of three brothers, were rescued by the Steamer A. L. Kent, which saw her distress signals.

A steep chase is supposedly so called because in the early days of the sport the goal was some conspicuous object, as a church steeple.

DRINK WATER TO HELP WASH OUT KIDNEY POISON

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract. Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salts which helps to remove the body's urinous waste and stimulates them to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 grains of acid and waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active.

Drink lots of good water—you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to help clean and stimulate clogged kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in the system so they are no longer a source of irritation, thus often relieving bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia water drink, which everyone should take now and then to help keep their kidneys clean and active. Try this; also keep up the water drinking, and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and backache. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year.

Wants Equal Golf Suffrage

Miriam Burns, champion of Kansas City, and one of the best women golfers in the country, has launched a campaign for equal suffrage on the links. Miss Burns objects to the man-made golf regulations which keep women players off the links on Sundays and holidays. She wants all the golf clubs to permit women players the use of the course every day.

Hulbert Elected President Amateur Athletic Union At Annual Convention

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Nov. 19.—The thirty-sixth annual convention of the Amateur Athletic Union, national governing body in a dozen different branches of sport activity, brought its two-day session to a close Tuesday by electing Murray Hulbert of New York president to succeed William C. Prout of Boston, and selecting Pittsburgh as the 1925 convention city.

Acceptance of two new sprint record performances, one by Lou Clark and the other by Charley Padlock, in spite of disapproval of them by the record committee and promises of action to present in future of such athletes. Willie Rivalta, Finnish American champion star, from competing for their native lands in the Olympics after receiving the benefit of American training, also were prominent in the convention's closing developments.

Spirited controversy developed over the Clark and Padlock records. The former's mark of 15.3 seconds for 100 yards indoors made at Baltimore last February and the California star's record equaling performance of 93.5 seconds for 100 yards outdoors, made at the national championships in September, were accepted by convention vote after the record committee reported adversely on them. It was claimed that incompetent timing existed in Clark's performance and that Padlock was aided by a slight wind, but testimony of officials who watched both performances stated that they were legitimate, swayed the convention to favorable action. Padlock also was credited with equaling his own 220 yard record of 2:04.5 seconds, also made in the national title competition.

The record committee's supplementary report resulted in approval of the following additional records: 200 yards breast stroke swimming, 2:56.5, Robert Skeels, Ill. A. C. at Indianapolis, June 25; women's 70 yard low hurdles,

Many Star Golfers Of Florida Are To Play At Seabreeze

SEABREEZE, Nov. 19.—Florida's star golfers are entering the East Coast fall tournament, to be held on the Clarendon hotel course next week, and as the course has rounded into first-class condition since the recent flood period, record play is anticipated. Quite a number of players from other states have already gathered and announced the intention of competing for the handsome trophies that will be offered.

Among entries received today was that of Hugh Loudon, of Babson Park, who won the summer championship in the all-Florida contest after grueling battle with Dick Pope, Winter Haven youngster, and Jack Butler, Jacksonville's long driving star.

Players are scheduled to represent every section of the state, thereby inaugurating Florida's winter season in an auspicious manner. Play begins Monday and will be concluded Thursday with a Thanksgiving day feast, at which the trophies will be presented. Players desiring to compete are requested to notify Harry Rawlins, professional at the Clarendon Hotel, Seabreeze.

The Brooklyn baseball club in nearly thirty-five years has had only two presidents, Charles H. Byrne and Charles H. Ebbetts. The former handled the club from the time Brooklyn joined the National league until 1897, when Mr. Ebbetts was elected.

10.15 seconds by Nellie Todd, at Chicago, Oct. 11; women's 100 yard dash, 11.3-5 seconds by Norma Zilk, Chicago, Oct. 11.

Other developments of the closing session included approval of the holding of all-Southern track and field championships in 1925 as proposed by L. Dibendetto, of New Orleans; passage of resolutions in memory of Harry S. Burdick of Spokane, A. A. U., A. A. U. official who was killed in an accident recently; resolutions praising the three year leadership of President Prout, and transfer of two Florida counties, Pensacola and one other, from the jurisdiction of the national Florida Association to the South eastern Association.

Notes of Sport

Golf can be positively traced in Scottish history back in 1487.

San Francisco is building the largest public swimming pool in the world.

Ralph Greenleaf has held the world's pocket billiard championship for five years.

Nearly 300,000 games of lawn tennis are played in the public parks of London each season.

The first American lawn tennis tournament of any note was held in Philadelphia in 1880.

The twenty-second annual mid-winter golf tournament will be an attraction at Pinehurst during the Christmas holidays.

Stake offerings for the season of winter racing starting at Tijuana on Thanksgiving day will set a new high record for the Cofferth track.

Both John Heydler and Ban Johnson, the respective presidents of the National and American leagues, began their careers as newspaper writers.

Cash prizes amounting to more than $25,000 are offered for the next international hydroplane meeting, to be held at Cannes, France, March 28, to April 7, next.

Charley Weinert, who rather surprised the sporting world by winning over Luis Firpo, is an Austrian by birth and has been active in the fight game for something like ten years.

In the Harvard-Yale football game of 1881, Yale was the winner, although the Elis failed to score. Under the rules prevailing that season "in a game, otherwise a tie, the team scoring four or more safeties less than its opponents shall win the game."

At the Harvard stadium in 1923 Charles E. Brickett, the celebrated Crimson star, set the high record for field goals kicked by one individual in a Yale-Harvard game. Brickett scored five goals, one from placement after fair catch, and four from drop kicks.

Beginning with James J. Corbett, who took the title from John L. Sullivan in 1892, there have been seven champion heavyweight pugilists, not counting Marvin Hart, on whom Jeffries bestowed his title. Bob Fitzsimmons followed Corbett, and then came Jeffries, Burns, Johnson, Willard and Dempsey.

Rider, Chained to Bicycle, Starts around World

Chained and manacled to his bicycle, an Ohio man has started to pedal his way around the world. He sits down on the headpiece, in the opinion of the scientist. People laugh at what they do not understand, he says, or what seems to be inferior to them, as was the case when scoffers derived a great deal of amusement from the theories of Columbus and Galileo. He must eat, sleep, bathe, shave and do everything within six feet of his bicycle—the length of the chain that holds him. At the start of the trip, the chief of police of Toledo snapped the manacle in place on the rider's right wrist and filled the keyhole with molten lead so that it cannot be unlocked.

Death of Laughter Seen as World Becomes Wiser

Birds That Topple Steeples

The stopping of the large clock in the tower of an English church, due to jacksaws having built their nests in the works, has called attention to the damage done by these birds. They seem to have a special liking for steeples and similar high places, and often cause such structures to become weakened and to tip owing to constant pecking at the mortar of the masonry. One spire threatened with collapse was found to be crumbling from the attacks of swarms of young jacksaws housed in the interior. They were gathered and lowered to the ground in buckets and the openings through which the old birds gained entrance to the tower were screened.

Snow Stored in Earth in Winter Sold as Ice in Summer

In some of the smaller towns of Europe where a supply of ice for cooling foods and drinks during the long, hot summers is important and where neither artificial nor natural ice is available, snow is stored and packed into cone-shaped pits dug in the earth where it freezes into solid lumps. After storms, gangs of men shovel the snow into carts and haul it to the pits and pack and tramp it down as hard as possible. When the heap is nearly level with the top of the pit, it is covered with a foot-thick layer of earth as a means of protection and insulation. In summer it is sawed into oblong blocks and sold in the town.

RED PEPPER HEAT STOPS BACKACHE

RED PEPPER HEAT STOPS BACKACHE
 The heat of red peppers takes the "ouch" from a sore, lame back and does not hurt you, and it ends the torture at once. When you are suffering so you can hardly get around, just try Red Pepper Rub, and you will have the quickest relief known. Nothing has been so effective in penetrating heat and peppers.

Just as soon as you apply Red Pepper Rub you will feel the tingling heat. In three minutes it warms the sore spot through and through. Pain and stiffness are gone.

Ask any druggist for a jar of Red Pepper Rub. Be sure to get the genuine, with the name Bowles on each package.
