Police Fire Into Crowd in the Chicago Stock Yards Strike

JAPS ACCEPT PROPOSALS FOR UNDERSTANDING AND QUADRUPLE ENTENTE

Authorized Statement Made by British Spokesman

5-5-3 RATIO GOES

FOR CAPITAL SHIPS AND BROUGHT ABOUT COMPLETE SETTLEMENT

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—The Japanese government has accepted the proposal for the quadruple understanding in the Pacific, an authorized British spokesman said today. The spokesman said the 5-5-3 ratio proposition regarding capital ships in some way related to complete settlement and that this proposition had not yet been accepted by Japan. Calling attention to the Associated Press dispatch from Honolulu quoting Japanese newspaper as to acceptance by Tokio of the quadruple plan, the spokesman said this was correct and that the Washington conference knew it to be correct.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—A mutual pledge not to go to war over disputes in the Pacific without a "cooling off period" of discussion is the basis of the new four power treaty proposed as a substitute for the Anglo Japanese alliance.

Discussion of the proposal among the arms delegates have reached a well advanced stage, although none of the governments concerned the United States, Great Britain, Japan and France, has given its final approval. A suggestion that the Anglo-Japanese pact be revoked has gone to London and Tokio. Possible controversies over the Hawaiian group, and Yap, would come under the provisions of the new agreement. Yap is to be the subject of a separate treaty negotiations for which are nearing completion, and Hawaii is to be considered for purposes of the agreement as part of the American mainland.

WAS IT A RAINBOW?

A strange phenomena attracted the attention of hundreds of people this morning on the lake shore. Directly across the lake was stretched long bands of rainbow hues all the colors blending in a beautiful effect. It was not a bow but had all the appearances of the rainbow. It was probably the reflection of the sun on the still waters of the lake forming a prism of the colors. It was something that even the oldest inhabitant had never seen in Sanford and caused many to stop and view the sight.

ALLEGED AUTO THIEF CAUGHT HERE TODAY BY ORANGE DEPUTY

J. L. Wilkenson deputy sheriff of Orange county with headquarters in Winter Garden is here today in company with his brother, M. L. Wilkenson and while here succeeded in bagging a young man named Dillard of the Oakland section who Mr. Wilkenson says a few months ago took a Ford car belonging to Miss Jessie White of Ocoee. He was hot on their trail for some time and only recently had the goods on them and succeeded in getting the car where they had left it in the woods. Deputy Wilkenson says that in his opinion there is an organized band of these auto thieves in this section and he hopes to bag them all in a few days. He leaves today for Orlando with young Dillard who will stand trial in that county where the car was taken.

SUB SINKS IN HARBOR, CREW SAVED

SUBMERGED TWELVE HOURS BEFORE ESCAPING THRU TORPEDO TUBES

(By The Associated Press) BRIDGEPORT, Conn., Dec. 8.—The submarine S-48 sank off this harbor last night and was submerged twelve hours before the crew by lightening ballast tanks raised one end of the craft and escaped through torpedo tubes. Thirty members of the crew were taken to the New York navy yard hospital for observation. Many had been overcome by chlorine gas and three including Lieutenant Francis Adams, in command, are said to be in serious condition.

The submarine was making a nose dive when the accident occurred and went down in eighty feet of water.

Mob Threatens Jail Where Five Negroes Held for Murder

Dyersburg, Tenn., Threatened With Riot Last Night

(By The Associated Press) DYERSBURG, Tenn., Dec. 8.—The danger of mob violence threatened last night when several hundred men gathered at the county jail here where five negroes are held in connection with the murder of a farmer are believed to have been averted today and the sheriff said he considered his forces ample to control the situation. Troops ordered here by Governor Taylor are expected to arrive about noon.

Fire last night destroyed the Tyler grocery store in Goldsboro. The building was enveloped in flames before the fire department could reach the scene and as there is no water available at that point the efforts of the department were confined in keeping the flames from other property. The Tyler store was a total loss and the friends of Mr. Tyler sympathize with him in his loss.

FREIGHT TRAIN WAS MAIL ROBBER

WEST PALM BEACH, Dec. 8.—Sheriff Baker, hastily summoned one day last week to Gomez to round up a mail pouch robber, discovered that the "bandit" was a passing freight train. The train which was stationed on a passenger train as mail guard reported that a pouch which was supposed to be hanging on a small crane there had disappeared and the sheriff was summoned to the scene. The pouch inter was found lying beside the track a short distance away, having been hooked by some object protruding from a freight train which was just ahead of the passenger.

FIFTEEN HUNDRED POLICE ON DUTY SINCE EARLY MORNING TO KEEP DOWN WHAT PROMISED TO BE A BIG RIOT.

LAST NIGHT'S CASUALTIES INCLUDED ONE DEAD, NINE SERIOUSLY INJURED

A Few Hours Before Two Hundred Police Had Fired Into a Crowd of Thousands of Sympathizers Wounding Many of Them.

CHICAGO, Dec. 8.—(By The Associated Press).—Fifteen hundred policemen were sent to the stock yards early today when long before daylight several groups of persons, including a few women, gathered about the yards. Only a few hours before two hundred policemen had fired into thousands of strike sympathizers who attacked the plant employees and police. Last night's toll of casualties included one dead, nine seriously injured and uncounted number hurt when mounted police charged into the crowd. All saloons in the neighborhood of the yards were closed today in order of Chief of Police Fitzmorris. The man killed last night was an unidentified negro who was seized by the crowd and thrown into the creek north of the yards and pelted with stones until he sank. The body was recovered several hours later.

Forty men were cut and bruised this morning when strike sympathizers stoned the elevated train carrying packer employees to the yards. All windows in the train were broken by missiles thrown at it.

HARRISON BOMBS REPUBLICANS FROM PRES. HARDING ON DOWN—MESSAGE AROUSES SENATOR'S IRE

Says They Are Doing Same Things For Which Wilson Was Censured

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—The Republican party's leadership, from President Harding down, was assailed in a speech in the Senate today by Senator Harrison, Democrat, Mississippi, who declared Mr. Harding was doing the "very things for which he, as a senator, had denounced President Wilson." The president's message to Congress yesterday, he added, constituted an appeal to partisanship to disavow their allegiance to "bloc" organization.

Mr. Harrison attacked the Senate Republican leaders, saying they had "shifted and hopped until none of know where or when or why."

Secretary Mellon also was denounced, as seeking in his annual report of the treasury department, to "help along" the ideas of President Harding with respect "to relieving the rich" of heavy taxation. The Mississippi senator added he was "pained" to see the regular session of Congress start off so inauspiciously, saying that with the appeal of the President "for a partisan lineup" it was apparent that the policy of "abandonment" which characterized the extra session would be continued.

When Mr. Wilson opposed or urged legislation, Mr. Harrison continued, the then Senator Harding described him as a "dictator and an autocrat," and when Mr. Wilson issued his appeal in 1918 for the election of a Democratic Congress Mr. Harding was equally bitter in his denouncement.

"Yet we have the spectacle," he said, "of the President coming here and making a speech against the soldier bonus, a thing unprecedented. They, yesterday, he came here and appealed to the agricultural group to line up, to get behind the party banner."

He added, however, that it might have been that the President was calling for the Republican senators to line up and retain the seat of Senator Newberry of Michigan, now under contest by Henry Ford, in connection with the 1918 election, as a matter of party policy.

The discussion also involved the league of nations. Mr. Harrison, however, returned to a discussion of the President's message with the remark that the Newberry case was "so nauseating that I do not want to hook it up with the league of nations."

Continuing, he said he was confident there had been a misprint in the President's message where Mr. Harding had expressed appreciation of the "signal achievements" of the extra session. What the President meant, he added, was probably "single" achievement, for otherwise the message appeared "most contradictory and conflicting."

The action of the House in fixing a fifty per cent surtax rate in the revenue bill, he declared, constituted a "plain repudiation" of the executive's stand. It was apparent, he added, that the House action had "riled the President considerably."

"But I insist," he said, "that the progressives in the House had courage and they told the President where to get off."

Non-Partisan Policy Adopted By Orlando Chamber Commerce

Will Not Mix Up in Politics of Any Kind

ORLANDO, Dec. 7.—By a vote of 30 to 22 the following resolution was passed by the Orlando Chamber of Commerce at its weekly meeting yesterday noon:

"That this body go on record as opposing the endorsement by the Chamber, as an organization, of any person aspiring to public office or position."

The resolution was introduced by W. C. Lawson, one of the more recent acquisitions to the real estate fraternity in Orlando. He said that he wished to commend the Chamber of Commerce upon its recent stand in the highway engineer matter, but that on reflection he wanted to raise the question of the propriety of the Chamber of Commerce lending its influence to the appointment or election of any man to public office, inasmuch as the highway election was over and that the details of the bond issue had passed into the hands of the county board of commissioners. He said that such action in the future might open the doors to criticism and that he was offering the resolution to prevent a recurrence of something that might create friction within the ranks of the commercial organization.

HARDWICK TO SPEAK AT GOVERNORS' MEETING

(By The Associated Press)

CHARLESTON, Dec. 7.—Governor Thomas W. Hardwick of Georgia was on the morning program today of the governors' conference, which opened here yesterday, but the score of visiting state chief executives did not hold a very arduous business session, because of the fact that the city of Charleston becomes official host, and has arranged much entertainment. Governor Hardwick's subject was "Income Taxation," a topic of special interest both among states not using this medium of raising money, and with those who have tried the plan.

BRITISH ISLES ENJOY PEACE OF PERMANENCE

LONDON, Dec. 8.—With the tension and anxiety of the past weeks giving place to general rejoicing, this has been a day of all-around congratulations, of recalling the memories of the great figures in the Irish struggle, whose work and sacrifices paved the road to today's accomplishments and of preparations of the necessary formalities for bringing the new Irish free state into being.

Nowhere is there any real idea that anything can now happen to prevent its birth, although difficult details may have to be encountered.

The two Georges—King George and David Lloyd George—to whom the public accords chief credit for bringing about peace, were photographed together in a smiling group of the majesty's ministers on the terrace of Buckingham palace today, and the picture was extensively displayed in the evening papers.

Downing street, where stands the official residence of the prime minister, was inundated with telegrams of world. The premier presented to Lady Greenwood, the wife of Sir Hamar Greenwood, chief secretary for Ireland, the pen with which he signed the Irish treaty, as an "appreciation of your husband's efforts for peace."

It is recalled that the prime minister's first speech of importance in his political career was delivered in company of Michael Davitt at a political meeting in Wales in the eighties, and was in favor of home rule.

LENA CLARKE WAS INSANE WHEN MILTMORE WAS KILLED SAYS DR. RALPH GREENE

Is Constitutional Psychopath and of Weak Mentality Testimony Shows

That Lena M. T. Clarke was insane and did not know the difference between right and wrong at the time she shot to death F. A. Miltmore, that she is what is known as a constitutional psychopath, suffering from paranoid delusions, and that if she were sent to an asylum or hospital for the insane that she would remain there for the rest of her life, constituted the opinion of Dr. Ralph N. Greene, of the Florida board of health, in testifying as a health witness to the sanity of the former West Palm Beach postmistress yesterday.

Eight witnesses were called to the stand by the defense during the seventh day of the trial to testify as to their opinion regarding the sanity of the woman who robbed the West Palm Beach postoffice of $32,000 and then came to Orlando and lured F. A. Miltmore to her room where he was found dead with a bullet in his heart. The testimony of the seven witnesses was a chain of corroborative testimony declaring that Lena Clarke was crazy.

With a paper, written in the cell of the defendant during the time of his investigations, allowing him to refresh his memory, Dr. Green for over an hour and a half told of the woman's peculiarities and the deductions he had made based on his long experience with patients suffering from mental and nervous troubles. He related the stages of her early childhood, from the age of nine months when she learned to walk and to talk at the age of one year. And of a blow from a well handle which had fractured her skull when she was but three years old of the diseases, including scarlet fever, dengue fever, and influenza; also a nervous breakdown she had once suffered; of an attempt made to kidnap her at an early age; of a fireworks display which had left her with a fixed dread of fire, though it fascinated her to such an extent that she wanted to walk straight into it.

An abnormal fear of water had been peculiar to her also all her life, he found on investigation, and the fact that she had never been permitted to sleep alone due to periodic attacks of nightmare was spoken of by him and testified to by her sister, Maude, on the witness stand.

Of her religious beliefs he found that "she took the best out of every creed and religion and applied it to her own life."

He related the ideas peculiar to her case that she imagined that she had a group of enemies, always sneering at her and sending her threatening messages and otherwise persecuting her. He said that such ideas of persecution would indicate in his experience an unbalanced mind.

What he termed as grandiose ideas, the belief that she had passed through a number of lives before the one she lives, pointed to the fact that she was unbalanced. In his investigations he stated that he had made a blood test seeking traces of hereditary insanity. He said that her blood had tested pure from any taint, but stated that her mother had suffered from rheumatism at the time of her birth and one cousin had died of insanity.

ORLANDO, Nov. 29.—The defense scored the first big victory in the Lena Clark case Saturday when Judge Andrews allowed the evidence of Chief Vestel to be admitted.

Following the ruling of Judge Andrews the jury was recalled to the room and the witness related the confession which every effort of the defense to prevent had proved futile.

The state followed up its advantage and called to the stand Rona Norman, who had occupied the cell next to the one in which Lena Clarke was lodged the night of the tragedy.

"What have they got you for," she asked the new arrival in a friendly manner.

"I killed a man!" the new arrival replied.

"Later I asked her why she killed him, and she only laughed," he witness testified.

The court room drew a long breath of expectancy when the state called for Dr. A. P. Black, chemist at the University of Florida, who had made the chemical analysis of the stomach of Miltmore.

"I found no trace of alkaloid poisons in the organs sent me for analysis," came the testimony, and another problematical feature of the trial, closely guarded by the state's attorneys, was solved. The doctor explained that morphine, the drug Miss Clarke claimed in her first story to

Chief Vestel, had been administered by her to Miltmore, would come under the classification of alkaloid poisons, of which there were a large number.

E. G. Hyder, manager of the Western Union telegraph office in Orlando, was called to the stand by the state to produce the telegrams which had been filed by Patterson for Miss Clarke immediately following the murder. He submitted five messages, filed at 8:47, and they were read as evidence. Their contents threw no light on the crime at Orlando. One to F. J. G. Pulsifer, U. S. postal inspector at West Palm Beach, asked him to come to Orlando immediately, or send some one else.

Mrs. Miltmore Last Witness. . . The state called as the last witness of the day Mrs. F. A. Miltmore. Her testimony was immaterial, but the figure in deep mourning was the cynosure of all eyes, and the twelve men in the jury box recorded the last trump of the state at the conclusion of the fifth day of the trial of Lena Clarke and Baxter H. Patterson.

The first week of the most memorable murder trial in the history of the state ended with the state announcing that it would complete its evidence Monday morning. Judge Andrews' ruling permitting the state to offer the testimony of Chief Vestel in regard to the confession of the defendant that she killed Miltmore, to the jury has woven a strong web of direct and circumstantial evidence to prove the guilt of the former West Palm Beach postmistress.

After the state completes its testimony Monday morning the defense will begin its real fight. Three separate campaigns, with each move clearly mapped out, could have been prepared by the master of legal strategy who directs the formidable team of the Lena Clarke defense. They are in categorical phrase as follows:

1. The Campaign of Circumstantial Evidence. Had the Defense managed to exclude the testimony of E. D. Vestel from the jury the state would to a large extent be forced to rely upon circumstantial evidence to convict. This item has been fought with the state victoriously.

2. The Campaign of the Insanity Plea. The defense, from the calling of the first man from the venire of 76, summoned for jury, up to the present moment in the case, has at every opportunity struck with a view of proving apparently that their defendant was insane at the time Miltmore met his death. "Are you prejudiced toward the plea of insanity?" was the question that went to every move of the defense from the first. It has predicted the fight that will be waged this week when the defense draws on its witnesses, as the constant propounding of the law governing circumstantial evidence forecasted the struggle which has marked the last week of the trial.

3. The Campaign of Self Defense. Here is the hidden bolt of the defense which may be loosed should the expert legal diagnostician see the tide going against Lena Clarke when the establishing of a reasonable doubt as to her sanity is being striven for. No inkling of a "self defense" plea has been given so far by the defense in the trial, but in the twinkling of an eye it could come when a homely, red-headed woman in weird checked gingham is put on the stand, who saw God creating the universe and placing the stars.

The sword that kept Adam and Eve out of the Garden of Eden also kept her in, though she wanted to leave and learn life.

She was later Isis of Egypt, the last queen of the Jews, St. Cecilia, Esau and several others. She talked with Saul of Tarsus and fussed with Cleopatra over Mark Anthony. Shakespeare wrote Orphelia for and about her when she was in that existence.

A picture her brother loved fell the moment he died of the bite of a snake.

She believes in theosophy, astrology, crystal gazing, spirit communication and every weird pseudoscience. Joseph B. Elwell lent her $38,000 to cover her shortage caused by Miltmore.

Assistant State Attorney Mohr was Hamlet in a former existence of his.

In his next existence Eugene Debs and she are going to run for president and vice-president and be elected. Then he is going to be assassinated and she will become president.

ORLANDO, Nov. 29.—Lena M. T. Clarke took the stand in her own defense this afternoon and in describing the scene in the room in which she is charged with having killed F. A. Miltmore on the night of August 1, after she put a drug in a glass of water he drank, she said she suddenly became dizzy, the lights blinded her and the next she knew she bumped into someone in the hall.

This, she said, brought her somewhat out of her dazed condition and the next she saw was Patterson coming down the hall.

Miss Clarke charged Miltmore with drugging her brother Paul and stealing $30,000 in July, 1918. She says she obtained the money with which to replace the loss from Joseph Elwell, but later began juggling the money order accounts and took enough to repay Elwell. She admitted taking the $32,000 registered packages from the registered pouch in August of this year and putting spurious packages in their stead.

The morning session was given over to a great extent to a resume of testimony. The session was enlivened by one unusual and quite unexpected touch. At 10:45 a. m., just before States Attorney Jones rested the case for the state, Lena Clarke's handbag, that was found in room 87 after the murder, was introduced into evidence by the prosecutor. It was a small handbag and worn into condition of being shabby, but it contained something dear to the girl's heart and that was the last check her dead brother, Paul, had ever given her. The contents were emptied out upon the table, and the check was folded in with several others. Court was in a relaxed mood, there was an examination going on of the contents of the bag when all of a sudden, like a voice from the sky, Lena exclaimed: "You can have everything else but that check of my brother's."

Reaching across the table to grasp the coveted piece of paper, her tone loud, her voice fairly echoing through the room, there was about it and the action itself a childish quality, some intimate suggestion of the infantile. A very evident and embarrassed silence fell over the room, and then Mr. Jones relieved the situation by assuring Miss Clarke that she could retain not only her brother's check, but all of them.

There was also introduced as evidence at the time the cigarette stub found in the room when a search was made on Wednesday following the killing on Monday. It was recalled that the cigarette butt bore the imprint of a popular brand which Officer Frank Gordon said Patterson told him he smoked.

Mrs. J. T. Ellis, of Georgia, who declared she heard the report of the gun that killed Miltmore, was the last witness for the state. She said she went to her room, No. 85, on the fourth floor, adjoining No. 86, on the evening of the crime, and went to sleep. She was awakened some time later, she thought perhaps about 9 o'clock, by the report seemingly of a pistol. Then she said she went to sleep again. Later, as she was going down the hall to go out she saw men at the door of No. 87 and then saw a woman's hand lying on the bed.

The chief of police was recalled to tell about finding $725 in the flush tank of the bath room adjoining room 87.

He saw Lena in the jail, he said, some two or three days after the murder and she told him that the night before she had a dream and in this dream she saw the money she had lost in the bath room.

Chief Vestel said he took Frank Gordon, special officer, with him to the hotel when they searched the bath room, and finally in the flush tank, under the large copper ball, found a wad of bills. There was $725 in the roll in tens and fives. He took the money back to the jail, went into the cell and "we sat down in the bunk and counted it. Miss Clarke said she missed some and couldn't account for where it had gone unless she had spent it.

Postoffice Inspector Bannon was recalled as the first witness of the morning and Mr. Jones, for the state, tried to get him to repeat certain testimony relating to the money shortage in the West Palm Beach postoffice, but it failed to get by the judge.

The question, however, was opened up as to the alleged burned money order slips to the amount of $20,000. Mr. Jones got Mr. Bannon to say that if these slips, declared to have been burned, were not destroyed, could not Miss Clarke get duplicate credit for them? The inspector said he thought it likely that she could.

Mr. Davis, for the defense, made the inspector admit that if a double credit was gotten it would certainly be discovered in the postoffice auditor's office.

Miss Ella Spellman, assistant clerk at the San Juan, was the witness this morning. She said she saw Miss Clarke in the lobby about 8:30 Monday night. Dr. A. P. Black, a chem-

WHAT IS CO-OPERATION? BY THE MELBOURNE TIMES

Webster says it is: "The act of working or operating together to effect joint operation; concurrent effort or labor; as the co-operation of the combined powers, the co-operation of the understanding and the will."

The latter definition seems to be the one now generally accepted. There are a number of organized efforts now working for the welfare and the upbuilding of Melbourne, morally and physically.

Many devote their time, talent and money towards increasing the activities of the Chamber of Commerce, believing that through this organization most of the problems effecting the city's welfare can be solved.

LEESBURG TO VOTE ON COMMISSION FORM

LEESBURG, Dec. 2.—January 25, 1922, has been set by the city council as the date for a charter election in Leesburg. This is the first step in a well-defined movement here to put this city under a commission form of government.

The mayor and city council and the various organizations and civic bodies are all honest in the endeavor to do what is best for the city, but there are those who believe that their particular organization should have the right of way in furthering certain movements.

Many devote their time, talent and money towards increasing the activities of the Chamber of Commerce, believing that through this organization most of the problems effecting the city's welfare can be solved.

Put out your holiday goods and stimulate the business.

Take a generous space in the Christmas editions of the Daily and Weekly Herald. They are trade pullers.

Nothing succeeds like success and nothing dampens enthusiasm like a pessimistic soul who thinks the country is going to the devil.

Justice seems to have full sway in Alabama. Dispatch from Montgomery says that two negroes were hanged in the jail at that place.

Man in Washington wants his marriage annulled on the grounds that he was kidnapped and made to marry the woman that he had never seen. Yes, that's old stuff. All of us were kidnapped.

The meat packers in Chicago have struck but we don't want the meat men in Sanford to find it out. It might raise the price of Florida beef—sort of a sympathetic strike for higher wages as it were.

"Corn is Still King" says a dispatch from Washington. We'll say it is and yeast and raisins are queens and "skimmings" and bran mash and sugar and other "ingredients" are the full house.

"Florida Must Stamp Out the Liquor Business," says William Jennings Bryan in a speech at Jacksonville. Other men have said it before William said it. But saying and doing it are quite different. To stamp it out one must have larger boots than the bootleggers. Some stamp.

This is a good month for acquittals and we suppose that Fatty Arbuckle having already paid out a million or more will get his acquittal today. Another week or so will see him quitting his wife again and then for the old life with probably another show girl killed.

New York financiers will establish three pre-cooling plants at Sanford. It means the working of a three million dollar company for Sanford. This is only another spoke in the fast-developing wheel of the Celery City.—Reporter-Star.

The Rotary Club and kindred organizations scatter more sunshine along life's pathway than any other big force in any city. That idea of good fellows getting together, singing songs and telling of their trials and tribulations does much to inspire us to greater efforts.—Sanford Herald. The Herald is right, providing such clubs as Kiwanis, Rotary, Civitan, Lions and others follow the precepts of their founders, eliminate petty politics from their calendar of activities, and build along broad and impersonal lines. Failing to do these things and they become a liability on the community.—Orlando Sentinel.

FLORIDA JUSTICE

A friend dropping into our sanctum this morning wanted to know if we intended to write an editorial about the miscarriage of justice in Florida as exemplified in several instances lately.

To which the reply is that no such editorial is forthcoming.

For many years in this state the editor of the Herald has called attention to the fact that if a person had money enough they could commit almost any crime and get by with it for money procures good attorneys and good attorneys do the rest. For years we have asked that juries use more judgment in their decisions, pay more attention to the evidence and less to the silver tongued orators of the legal profession and there would be more people in the prison farm at Raiford.

This paper will not call attention to the cases of recent origin.

Neither will it produce any editorial on Florida justice. The subject is too well known to need any editorials. It is in the class with other antedeluvian ideas that seem to hang over in Florida and until they are dissipated the state will never come into its own.

Florida justice may be all right at times and we doubt if there are any more peculiar decisions rendered in Florida than in other states but it does look like crime will never be suppressed as long as human life is held so cheaply that it is difficult to convict one of taking it. However, we have hopes.

Lettuce weather, celery weather, shopping weather, and weather that means money.

From now until Christmas is the harvest season for business of all kinds. You can harvest your crop by advertising in the Herald.

Now is the time for the merchants of Sanford to go after the Christmas trade with a vengeance. And the way to go after it is to take space in the Daily and Weekly Herald.

Bob Holly says: "In looking through a New York catalogue of ladies' wearing apparel the other day"—For the love of Mike, is that now form of amusement in Sanford?—Reporter-Star. Not a new form of amusement, old dear, but decidedly the safest.

Whether Frostproof is really frost-proof is the subject of much discussion between the Highland News and the Haines City Herald. And they're using rather warm words for so cool a subject.—Tampa Times. That's easy! There is no frost line in Florida.

Headlines say that "Doctors Will Be Quizzed on Use of Alcohol as Medicine." What do doctors know about alcohol? Might just as well ask the Four Horse Men of the Apothecary's Shop (or was it the Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse?).

Clerk of Court, B. M. Robinson says that Lena Clarke is the first person to go from the Orange County Court to Chattahoochee. Well, courts do not always get their hats on straight. Orlando still has the Brossier Twins and Bill Glenn, Walt Essington, Pat Beggs, Jack Hughes, C. E. Howard and Josiah Ferris to fall back on. You never can tell.

Fatty Arbuckle had the mistrial that the Herald prophesied yesterday and it was no surprise to those who have been watching the proceedings. As to whether Fatty is guilty or not will always remain a mystery but it did not seem that the prosecution proved anything tangible at the trial. However, Fatty is done for with the American public.

What a wonderful fellow that man is who "never makes a mistake." You know him. We all have at least one on our acquaintance list. He cannot conceive that it is human to err, and therefore he permits no one, from his wife down, to doubt anything he says or does. A characteristic of this mighty man is that he insists on doing everything that is to be done in his vicinity because there's nobody who can do it right or, at any rate, as well as he. We just simply hold our breath in fear of what will happen to the community when he dies. Of course, everything will go to smash. Of course!—Punta Gorda Herald.

There is more or less a feeling in the public mind that times are hard and everybody should economize. This is all right. The world could stand a little slowing up. But here in the Sanford section we have everything that makes life worth living and while we may feel to a certain extent the hard times that are prevalent in other parts of the country we should not economize to the extent that the Christmas spirit is crushed. This is the time of the year when we should be gay and light-hearted and filled with the spirit of giving. We can all give something and we should not cut down on the Christmas giving. Our stores have stocked up for the occasion and everybody should buy and make this Christmas one of the biggest and best in our history.

WHY NOT WRITE "US UP"

Said a well-known business man to us the other day: "It would not hurt you to occasionally mention our business in the paper. It would help to fill up, you know." Yes, we might do it. We haven't the least idea on earth that it would hurt us, and it would, as he suggests, help to fill up. We might do all this, but at the same time, thank God, we do not have to do it unless we feel like it. It would not hurt him, neither, to come around and say: "Give me a column or a half column of space for an advertisement, and here is the money for it."—Williston Progress.

THE SNOW BIRDS ARE HERE

A few days ago a quartette of young women, under direction of a man, arrived in Palatka selling chances on a decrepit old automobile for the benefit, it was announced, of some orphan's home. The young women engaged expensive suites at a local hotel, dined lavishly and otherwise deported themselves as opulent tourists from the coal regions. They took a considerable sum out of Palatka and left behind them small green tickets that are worth just about as much as the dried ink on their smooth surfaces.

Yesterday an automatic talker was parading up and down the streets selling some of our supposedly hard boiled business men a map. It was a map that is given away free by many business firms and can be bought in local stationery stores for twenty-five cents, still some of our local business men paid several dollars for one. It was the same old gag as that of last year. It will be again next year unless the council at its session tonight passes an ordinance taxing itinerant snow birds who come here under protection of an interstate law, a thousand dollars a day to do business. We hope the council will take this step.—Palatka News.

POLITICS MENACE OR BLESSING

Good government, it has been said, is only possible where all citizens take part in elections and political campaigns.

Newspapers, included in the number the Times, have urged that every person should qualify and vote on all public questions.

When the politicians run things to suit themselves because the people do not take part in politics, the people are blamed for allowing the politicians full sway.

In theory this is correct and in practice it should be correct, but it is not always certain that a community gains when it drops everything in the heat of political campaigns and devotes itself entirely to public affairs.

If the people could settle their political problems merely by walking to the polls and casting their ballots, perhaps the theory would be carried out in practice, but when a people must divide themselves into hostile camps and every other thing is relegated to the background while politics takes the whole stage, there is some question as to the benefits being worth the cost.

Is politics, as it is known today, a menace or a blessing?

Do the people gain what they seek, or do they lose more than they gain?

There are probably those in St. Petersburg today who would say that no great good can come from the political campaign into which St. Petersburg has been swept for the past several months and which will continue practically unabated throughout the present month with another election no farther away than April and a primary to be held before that. They find basis for this viewpoint in the fact that the turmoil has upset business and has given to the visitors and those in other cities about us and even in the farther away north an impression of the city which is anything but commendable.

There is some merit in such a viewpoint, but that merit comes not from the fact that the theory of general participation in politics is wrong but from conditions which have resulted from the lack of it. If all citizens had always shown an interest in their affairs to the degree that they are now showing it, the conditions which make it so necessary now would not obtain.

Once let the people take full charge of their public affairs and conduct them with the same care that they manage their own private business affairs and the odium and turmoil that attaches to politics will disappear.—St. Petersburg Times.

COMMUNITY CHRISTMAS TREE

The Sanford Rotary Club is making preparations for a Community Christmas tree and this year of all years is the time to put on the community tree. There are not as many children in this county perhaps as some other section that are needing things but there are many at that and then the community tree is not wholly for the needy ones but for all the kiddies and to make the hearts of all the youngsters glad. It also gives us the chance to make some good donations for the homes for friendless children and other institutions of that kind. It warms the real big heart that beats for all mankind and makes all of us realize our duty to the children everywhere. The Community Christmas Tree should be started this year and made a permanent institution—something for the children and the older folks to look forward to each Christmas. Let us all get together on this big idea of service and join in the movement that means so much to our community and to all of us.

To break a cold take 666. 13-15tc

Christmas Message from Uncle Sam Office of Postmaster General,

Washington, Nov. 22, 1921. To the Boys and Girls of the United States:

Christmas is almost here. Your great post office department has a big job ahead and needs your help.

Think what it means to be Santa Clause to our 100,000,000 people and to deliver Christmas parcels to every family in this great country within the short space of a few days and without disappointment.

It can be done, and were going to do it if we may have your help. I want to enlist the active assistance of ever yboy and girl in the schools of our country in getting parcels mailed this week to relieve the rush that comes directly before Christmas.

"Our postmaster has asked us to mail our Christmas parcels this week, for, unless we do Uncle Sam's load may be so heavy the last few days before Christmas that he won't be able to deliver all the presents by Christmas Eve."

The parcels must be well wrapped and tied and addressed plainly in order that they may arrive in good condition with their Christmasy appearance unspoiled. You can put on your package: "Do not open until Christmas."

Better a week early than a day late.

If you care a rap, wrap with care, Help to make Christmas happy.

Mail 'em early! make it snappy, Early to buy—early to mail.

Early to reach the end of the trail. If you haven't been treated courteously turn right around and see the postmaster about it.

The Senior Class has received their class rings and are proudly displaying them. These rings have been selected by the whole school as the official ring of the Sanford High School and can be worn by all graduates of the institution. The design is a seal, with the figure of an Indian in the center and four stars, one for each year of High School, around this is embossed the name of the school and the year of graduation.

The Athletic Association will soon put on a clever play, "Caught Out, or 'Pete Boyd's Proposal'."

This will probably be given next week. They expect to give the play in Leesburg also at a later date.

The Seniors are glad to welcome Bertram Shepherd back again. He went to Wofford College in Spartanburg, S. C., but decided to come back to Sanford and graduate with the class.

LAKE MONROE

Farmers are cutting every lettuce. Much of the product is badly damaged by the hot weather. The remainder, discolored by the past few cold days. The market is a raising one however and the lucky men who have superior lettuce hope to command a fancy price. Cabbage and celery are looking well and growing fast. The Lake Monroe express office, the largest shipping station outside of Sanford, in the county, is now taking on a business aspect. Many hampers of nicely packed lettuce cabbage, etc., are being sent away, the most of them, as yet, to southern markets.

Miss Dorothy May Lee captivated the crowd with a vocal solo, "I Love You Truly." The costumes made the little folks look quite grown-up, the little boys in their dress suits and the little girls in their picture hats and long dresses. Jack Varn as the minister read the amusing ceremony with as much dignity as if it had been real. The entertainment was gotten up by Mrs. T. W. Lawton's S. S. Class, for the benefit of the park fund. BOARD OF HEALTH IS MAKING LIST OF ALL APPROVED AUTO CAMPS

JACKSONVILLE, Dec. 2.—(Special)—For several months the state board of health has been reminding city and town officials of their responsibility in the sanitary upkeep of auto camps. The tourist season is now under way and automobile travelers are pouring into the state in great numbers. Poorly maintained auto camps are health menaces. The bureau of sanitary engineering of the state board of health is now preparing for publication, throughout the country and state, for the guidance of campers, a list of certified or approved camps. This list is demanded by various travel agencies and automobile clubs. No cities or towns will appear on this approved list unless their camps are operated in a strictly sanitary manner in accordance with the state board of health regulations. Tourists will be advised by the state board of health to stay only at certified camps in order to minimize the health menace.

MURDERED MAN WAS SECRET SERVICE

ST. PETERSBURG, Dec. 6.—Roxie Casoletto, better known as Roxie Brown, of this city, mysteriously shot to death in a hotel in Orlando last week, for fourteen years was an attaché of the Italian Secret Service, according to his father in law, W. M. Winters, of Syracuse, N. Y., who declared that Casoletto was robbed after the murder.

Casoletto realized that his life was in danger, Mr. Winters said, and told his wife three months ago that he might be killed at any time as the business in which he was engaged was dangerous. Winters declared Casoletto had his wife made a free agent and deeded to her valuable property in this city so there would be no complications and no claims upon his estate in the event of his death.

Winters said Casoletto went to Orlando to purchase poultry and had $650. and a gold watch in his pockets and that the money and watch were missing after he was killed.

Sanford Band Will Render Concerts Every Other Week

Committees Decide Upon Dates and Other Matters

Sanford is now assured of the band and assured of two concerts every other week which is sufficient unto the day thereof. In other words the members of the band want to go for a trip once in a while on Sunday and do not want to be tied down to a concert every Sunday. Other people want to go to other places Sunday afternoons and do not want to miss the concerts here and by stringing out the concerts they will last longer on the money that has been set aside for them.

At a meeting yesterday it was decided to hold the concerts every other Sunday and the first one will be held Thursday of this week in the band stand in Central Park or down town if the merchants desire it. Frank Akers was appointed to act for the Tourist and Convention committee of the Chamber of Commerce and S. Runge for the band and all the matters of concerts and other business affairs will be transacted through these men. The band has already made a fine reputation through the first concert and everyone interested recognizes the fact that in Mr. Ball Sanford has a man who will take charge of the band and bring it up to a high standard. Sanford is fortunate to have a man like Mr. Ball to take the band and the Chamber of Commerce and the city commission and the citizens generally have a great interest in the Sanford Band and will back them up every time.

NORTH CAROLINA WINS OVER FLORIDA

(By The Associated Press) JACKSONVILLE, Dec. 5.—Versatile football artists under excellent leadership from the University of North Carolina Saturday triumphed over the heavier University of Florida eleven. The final score, 14 to 10, bespeaks a desperate attempt on the part of the Floridians in the last half. Adopting an aerial attack in the third period they appeared more on the offensive, made a touchdown and in the next period succeeded in rushing the ball to North Carolina's ten yard line before they were stopped. Despite the warm weather there were thrills a plenty for the 7,400 fans.

The Tar Heels overcame a disadvantage in weight of 20 pounds to the man by fleetness of foot and aerial passes, aided materially by football technique comparatively speaking. Captain Lowe served as a pivot from which eleven forward passes spread out to a well trained machine. Two of these passes gave the Carolinians the victory. Changing about the North Carolinians squirmed through holes in an unexpected line and again they skirted the ends. As a result North Carolina had far the better of it in the matter of yardage.

Florida's first score came after a kicked a goal from placekick from mid-field. The second and final came when Dixon tossed a pass to Carlton for a twenty yard gain. The work of Lowe and Johnson in Carolina's backfield featured while Pomeroy bore the brunt of Florida's offensive efforts.

Think of having a football line composed entirely of Ulsterites!

WILL HAVE SAXOPHONE BAND IN SANFORD

Sanford will soon have one of the finest saxophone bands in the state if not the south if the plans of Bandmaster Ball and the members of the new Legion Sax Band go forward. A number of the young men met yesterday and agreed to organize the Sax band and on Wednesday night they will meet to complete the organization. They want 24 players and they do not need to be experienced players—in fact many of them never had a saxophone in their hands but Mr. Ball will teach them to play and there will be 24 of them four to a section. Attend the meeting Wednesday night in the band room at the court house if you are interested. The following have signified their willingness to join: Clarence Bergquist, Archie L. SANFORD CHAMBER OF COMMERCE GETTING OUT ADVERTISING OF A DISTINCTIVE TYPE TO BE PUBLISHED

In All the Big Papers and Magazines of Commerce in the United States

Attention is called to an advertisement of the Sanford Chamber of Commerce appearing in this issue. It is probably the most unique publicity ever originated by a commercial organization in the State of Florida.

This advertisement appeared simultaneously in the December 1st issues of the New York Journal of Commerce and the New York Wall Street Journal.

The idea carried out in this advertisement was prompted by statements of various individuals in Sanford that our development would be quickened by a transfusion of new finances.

GERMANY MAY BE GRANTED 3-YEAR DELAY

IN PAYMENT OF INDEMNITY, PRESS IS INFORMED BY RELIABLE SOURCES

PARIS, Dec. 6.—Germany will probably be granted a three years' delay in her cash indemnity payments, the Associated Press is informed from the most reliable source.

The suggestion of a three year moratorium has been abandoned at the earnest solicitation of France. The French representatives explain that the word moratorium was especially offensive to the French people in connection with the indemnity inasmuch as it was understood as meaning complete suspension of payments of all kinds.

The reparations holiday cannot be used by Germany as a means of evading all future payments of indemnity, French officials explained, but it is being considered so that Germany will better be able at the end of two or three years to fulfill her reparation obligations, and she then must be prepared to pay full a "reasonable indemnity."

DAYTONA WILL STAY IN THE LEAGUE

DAYTONA, Dec. 6.—Daytona will retain its berth in the Florida State League and have professional baseball next summer it was announced at a meeting here last week, attended by President Titus of the local club, and representative business men.

"The Daytona Club is now in better shape than any other team in the league," Judge Titus said. "We still have all our equipment and we need two players to replace Pitcher Manners and Third Baseman Stapleton, both of whom were sold. One other pitcher also is needed. We expect the team will not cost us over $18,000 or $20,000 ext season and if we can go through that season all right we will have several good players for the big league market and their sale will bring in enough money to carry us through the next season."

Wanted - a Wholesaler Capitalists - Manufacturers Wholesale - Men of Broad Vision SANFORD Florida The City Substantial

Wholesalers and investors to Sanford. Irregardless of whether the Sanford Chamber of Commerce does, or does not, receive direct inquiries as a result of this publicity, the fact is evident that the great possibilities of this section have been brought directly to the attention of individuals in the world's greatest financial centers.

A live Chamber of Commerce invariably boasts a live publicity committee. The Publicity Committee of the local Chamber has proven that it is always several laps ahead of others, as is evidenced by the "kind that is different" publicity it has originated since the Sanford Chamber of Commerce was organized.

Advertisements are now appearing in the Manufacturers Record and the Traffic World setting forth the advantages of Sanford as a wholesale and distributing center.

Sanford publicity will also appear in conjunction with that of other Florida cities in a co-operative plan of advertising which provides for an All-Florida section in more than fifty of the largest dailies in the United States and Canada, including the photographic section of a number of these papers.

The Publicity Committee is having prepared a four-page letterhead, the inside pages of which will contain views and varied statistics of Sanford. These will supplement the booklets and can be purchased by local business concerns, who in turn can have their business cards printed on these letterheads.

Another excellent medium for advertising your city and organization has been provided in automobile plates and the principal speaker of the evening. Mr. George F. Washburn, of Clearwater, and a large property holder of Sanford property, has consented to address the members at the January meeting.

Now is the time for all good shippers to join the Central Florida Water Traffic League and build up a heavy tonnage on the river and incidentally hasten the day when Sanford will be a prominent distributing point for this section of the state. Business concerns in Sanford, when approached for membership in the League, have complained of the slowness of the Clyde Line in adjusting claims. It should be borne in mind, however, that this movement is not one to solicit business for the steamship company, although it is admitted that at the present time they are receiving the direct benefits, but is intended to promote the development of the facilities of the St. Johns river, to secure equitable freight rates into, out of and through Central Florida, and generally to assist in improving the service for and solving the traffic problems of the shippers of freight into and out of Central Florida and its trade territory. At such time as volume of business warrants additional river lines will be operated and our business men exempted from annoyances caused by lack of competition. The main idea at the present time, however, is to build up a volume of business on the river that will make effective the objects for which the Central Florida Water Traffic League stands. The only way to do this is to Ship by Water. Do not withhold your membership in the League on account of controversy with the steamship company but remember the big idea behind this movement and what it means to Sanford.

BABE RUTH LOSES SHARE IN PROFITS; GETS SUSPENSION

CHICAGO, Dec. 5.—"Babe" Ruth's share of the world's series profits in 1921 were declared forfeited and Ruth himself suspended until May 20, 1922, by Judge K. M. Ladis, in a decision today fixing punishment for participating in a post season barnstorming tour.

Ruth may apply for reinstatement May 20 or within 10 days after that date. Judge Ladis said. The 1922 baseball season starts about the middle of April, so that Ruth will be prevented from participating in baseball for at least one month next season.

Bill Plercy, New York American pitcher, and Bob Meusel the Yankee right fielder was given the same punishment by Commissioner Landis. They participated in the trip with Ruth.

The trio started out from New York City playing several dates in

New York state, but the trip was called off after they had been warned that they were violating the rules of organized baseball.

Ruth's share if the 1921 world's series amounted to $3,302, which he will lose by the Landis decision. Meusel's share was the same while Plercy received $100 less than his teammates.

QUICK REACTION ON HARDING'S NEW MESSAGE

HOUSE DOES NOT AGREE WITH PRESIDENT ON ALL POINTS

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—Quick reaction to President Harding's message to congress was evidenced yesterday in the House during an afternoon of rambling debate on a dozen topics.

Urging prompt passage of soldier bonus legislation, Representative Galivan, Democrat, Massachusetts, declared the "men who won the war received but scant attention" in the message.

Representative Huddleston, Democrat, Alabama, asserted that the president, in his attitude toward labor, had "learned nothing from the past," but "proposes to hold on to the old system, the old struggle between the employer and the man who works for him."

"When the worker at last roused to exasperation was unable to endure his condition any longer rises up and undertakes to avail himself of the strength of his organization," he continued, "this beneficent president would intervene and strike him down."

Representative Mondell, Republican, leader, was quick to reply, asserting that he had never heard so many "extravagant and misleading statements."

Mr. Mondell charged that the Alabama member had misrepresented the president's position and had made it appear that Mr. Harding had gone out of his way to express views unfavorable to labor.

Lauding the message generally as one of "conviction, and full of frankness and candor," Mr. Mondell said that throughout it ran a "spirit of cordial co-partnership and co-operation with congress."

While Representative Garrett, Tennessee, acting Democratic leader, did not discuss the message on the floor, in a formal statement he declared it was "wholly lacking in force," and that there was nothing of leadership or in the nature of an appealing call in it.

The "message holds out no hope that anything will be done at this session," continued Mr. Garrett, "that will improve upon the humiliating failures of the extra session just cleared."

"The President's attitude upon the question of giving the notice as to abrogation of commercial treaties required by the Jones shipping act is at once commendable and laughable. As a senator he twice voted for those provisions. As a candidate for president he did not hesitate to make insinuating criticism against Mr. Wilson because the latter stated he would not give the notice. As President he acknowledges he was wrong in his action as senator and is content to to mark Mr. Wilson's tracks."

LAKE WINS IN ELECTION YESTERDAY

DIG VOTE POLLED AND GREAT INTEREST TAKEN IN CAMPAIGN

The election for City Commissioner yesterday demonstrated among other things that Sanford is becoming a big city. There were more people voted yesterday than have ever voted before in any city election in Sanford—almost a thousand of them—and while the big vote was due in a measure to the fact that many of the women voted it was also due to the fact that Sanford is growing in population.

It was a very quiet day with the exception that many of the cars were busy all day bringing in the suburban voters and those who were too busy to get down to the polls to walk and the many interested ones who stood at the polls all day and kept up the excitement by their surmises of how it was going.

Promptly at sun down the polls were closed and the counting of the ballots began and in about one and one-half hours the result was made known as follows:

Forest Lake	551
H. R. Stevens	381
Lake's majority	170

Total votes cast 932

It means something to a city when the presidents of banks offer themselves for the office of city commissioner. It also means something when people take such an interest in the city election as was taken yesterday. H. R. Stevens, the present incumbent, was one of the first commissioners to take office under the new form of government. He is president of the People's Bank and Master Mechanic of the A. C. L. and president of the Rotary Club.

Forest Lake is president of the Seminole County Bank, was mayor of Sanford two terms many years ago, was member of the legislature for two terms and is prominent throughout the state.

IRELAND FREE STATE—HOLDS SAME RIGHTS

AS CANADA AND OTHER COUNTRIES—TREATY WILL FOLLOW

LONDON, Dec. 7.—The centuries old quarrel between England and Ireland was ended, as had been feverently hoped, in the small hours of Tuesday morning by the signature of the prime minister's cabinet room of "a treaty between Great Britain and Ireland," the title of The Irish Free State and the same constitutional status as Canada, Australia and other overseas dominions.

The question of allegiance which up to the last moment threatened to wreck the negotiations, was surmounted by permitting the members of the Irish parliament to swear allegiance to the constitution of The Irish Free State and "be faithful to His Majesty the King."

The treaty has yet to run the gauntlet of the Ulster government and of the Imperial Parliament. The imperial parliament has been summoned to meet on December 14, and will be opened in state by the king, who has taken the closest personal interest in the Irish negotiations since he practically instigated them when he opened the Ulster parliament.
