

Wright Hurls 5-Hit Ball As Lookouts Defeat Saints

Sanford Pounds Pair Of Hurlers For Nine Blows

Rodgermen Win Shut-out Contest, 6 To 0; Victors Saturday

ST. AUGUSTINE, June 28.—Behind the five-hit hurling of Wright, Sanford fireball ace, the Lookouts defeated St. Augustine, 6-0, here yesterday. Sanford pounded the offerings of Davis and Medler for nine hits.

Buddy Lake, former Lookout hurler, has returned to the Florida State League, and now wears a Palatka uniform and possibly may be in the box tomorrow when his mates face Sanford here at 4 P. M.

The Celery City nine scratched once in the third on a scratch hit, a stolen base and two errors. Their big inning was the fifth when they shoved three markers across the platter on as many hits. Torres opened the stanza with a single, went to second on Wright's sacrifice and pulled up at third when Clary went to second on a fielder's choice and he and Torres counted on a hit by Bistruf. Then Clary singled to left to score Swindell. The other two Sanford runs came in the eighth.

The Saints threw away their lead in the eighth when they pitched the bases with but one out. Fitzgerald led off with a walk and went to second on Langston's single. Zupanec struck out and Gibson crammed the corners by beating out a hit to short. But all hope died as Turblom and Kinard popped up.

Islets Flounder As DeLand Reds Defeat Leaders

Daytona Pitchers Give 15 Safe Bingles; Second Loss In Row

DAYTONA BEACH, June 29.—Pounding Hall and Fralick for 15 hits, including a homer by Bolling in the first frame with Bolling on second, DeLand's Reds turned a their second straight win over the league-leading Islanders yesterday, 9 to 1.

The Reds chased Hall from the box in the sixth with one out, after reaching the 18-year-old right hander for nine hits and five runs. Jim McGloin, DeLand left-hander, was nipped for 10 hits, but he managed to keep them well scattered.

Teen collegers, DeLand left-fielder, rapped out three singles in five trips to the plate and made two fine catches. Morton, with a double and a single in four times up, performed best for the Islanders.

The Reds pounded Fralick for five hits and four runs in the eighth inning, but Manager Arnold Anderson let the eccentric right-hander remain in the box. Islander errors paved the way for four of the Reds' runs.

Sanford Shows Best Week Of Season In Wins, Losses

Lookouts Capture All Home Contests, Winning Three And Dropping One; Pitchers Showing Up

By E. H. CULLUM
The Lookouts had the best week of the season insofar as wins and losses are concerned, winning three and dropping one, records for the June 2-7 period show.

What is better, they won all of their home games last week. On Monday they took both ends of a doubleheader from Gainesville, 3 to 1 and 5 to 4. Tuesday they trounced the DeLand Reds, 9 to 0, and on Saturday won a pitchers' duel from the Saints by a 1 to 0 score.

Following are players hitting averages for the games played at home last week:
Mote, 1.000; Maly, .400; Clary, .333; McGowan, .333; Bistruf, .333; Overstreet, .333; Powell, .333; Swindell, .000; general average, .250.

Bistruf's homerun blows in the two games with Gainesville's Monday were the hardest hit balls ever seen on the local lot. His triple to deep center in the game with DeLand also was a powerful wallop.

McNally, who rejoined the team the first of last week, is a tower of strength to the infield. He is playing first base like a veteran and is now proving his value with the wallop.

Maly has rounded into form and is playing sensational ball around the keyholes sack. Those who were unable to attend Saturday's game missed one of the best exhibitions of the year. Doc Hardin had his hard fast one, his curve ball and change of pace working to perfection. He struck out seven, walked only two, allowed three hits and only five men got so far as first base and then only two reached second. Only seven balls were hit to the outfield.

Owen Wright yesterday handed the Saints their second white-washing of the week, the fray ending 6 to 0. The Lookout hurler let down the opposition with only five hits.

Teen collegers, who is now in left field for DeLand, says the State League, although these "D" balls is much faster than the class "C" Sally League brand. Teen pitched a great part of the season in the Sally.

America Studies Olympic Report On Three Fronts

Final Tests Scheduled For Randall Island Stadium July 11-12

NEW YORK, June 29.—(P)—Uncle Sam through widely scattered athletic battle-fronts and found re-assuring support for his belief that the 1936 Olympic track and field team will be the strongest ever assembled.

Semi-final tryouts, conducted in Cambridge, Milwaukee and Los Angeles, developed a flock of surprises, comebacks and notable achievements, all pointing toward an exciting climax when the qualifiers gather from all parts of the United States for the final tests, July 11-12, at Randall's Island stadium here. On the way to New York and Berlin, most of the nation's stars will bid for honors in the National A. A. U. championships next Friday and Saturday on Princeton's famous cinder-path.

Many of America's greatest college athletes, including Ohio State's versatile Jesse Owens, were not in action Sunday, having already qualified for the final tryouts, but Olympic records were bettered in seven events.

The decathlon, held as a final test at Milwaukee, saw Glenn Morris, 24-year-old Denver "barometer" salesman, break the world record by amassing 7880 points under the new scoring system.

This automatically made Morris our No. 1 man for the classic all-around competition and revived hopes of retaining the Olympic crown worn four years by "Jacking Jim" Bausch of Kansas.

Four poles cleared 14 feet 3 inches, including a pair of newcomers to such dizzy heights in Dave Weichert of Rice and George Vrapoff of San Francisco. Two sprout "finds" surpassed the 21.2 seconds for the 200 meter of one turn, but one of them, Bob Rodenkirchen, Jersey City schoolboy, was ruled out on non-compliance grounds.

Comebacks by a trio of world record-breakers caught the headlines. At Cambridge, Bounding Bill Southorn served notice of his return to form by outfooting his Pennsylvania rival, Gene Venke, in the 1500-meter final, thus paving the way for a hot match with Glenn Cunningham, winner of the "metric mile" at Milwaukee. At Los Angeles, Bill Grepper, still the listed world record holder in the pole vault, scored 14-3, while Frank Wykoff, who has chased the 100 yards in 9.4 seconds, returns to form with a 10.5 triumph in the 100 yards, equalling the day's best. Wykoff thus will bid for a place on the Olympic team for the third time.

James Dunn sold lunch-wagons and made $10,000 profit in ten months at one time before becoming an actor.

Azaleas, G-Men Divide Games Over Saturday, Sunday

GAINESSVILLE, June 29.—The Palatka Azaleas downed the Gainesville G-Men, 4-1, here yesterday afternoon, breaking the Gainesville winning spree which had carried them to four straight wins. The Azaleas, outthit the G-men, 10-5. Bill Henderson, a crafty right-hander recently released by the Gainesville club, held his former team-mates to five hits.

Fernald held the Palatka hitters in five of the nine innings.

PALATKA, June 29.—E. Padgett, husky Gainesville right-hander, handed the Azaleas a 10-0 white-washing here Saturday, by limiting the locals to six scattered hits while the G-men were conceding for 14 base blows off the combined offerings of Hugh Smith and Jef Emerson.

Hagen, Laffoon Cop Four-Ball Meet In Toledo

Couple Stave Off Last Minute Rush From Mangrum, Wood

TOLEDO, Ohio, June 29.—(P)—Walter Hagen, master showman of them all, and young K. Laffoon of Chicago, won the inveterate four-ball team play tournament yesterday, staying off a last-minute drive by Ray Mangrum, lanky lad from Dayton, Ohio, and Craig Wood, the blonde bomber from Deal, N. J.

The veteran and his young partner suffered their only defeat in the tourney in the last match, a three-down verdict to Mangrum and Wood, but they had built up enough of an edge in the six previous rounds to finish at the top.

Mangrum and Wood clicked into second place, with Light Horse Harry Cooper and Horace Smith, finishing third. First place was worth $1,000 to Hagen and Laffoon, and they added another $100 for the low ball score, nine under par 62.

Hagen and Laffoon were 42 under par for the 126 holes, a mark bettered only by Mangrum and Wood, who clipped 45 strokes off the figure. Tommy Armour of Chicago and Bobby Cruikshank of Richmond, Va., who finished next to last, were 23 under par for the rout.

The final standings and prize each team won in the second annual classic were: Hagen and Laffoon, plus 13, $1,100; Mangrum and Wood, plus 11, $800; Smith and Cooper, plus 9, $700; Danny Shuta and Vic Ghessy, even, $600; Henry Picard and Johnny Revolis, minus 3, $500; Lawson Little and Jimmy S. $500; Armore and Cruikshank, minus 11; $300; Jimmy Hines and Willie Klein, minus 12, $200.

Gov. Sholtz Decides Not To Be Candidate For Senate Vacancy

Governor Says He Is Not Able To Run Because Of Previous Commitments

Wells Pleads To Get Out The Vote

Hill Seen As Taking Fletcher's Seat Until Next Election

JACKSONVILLE, June 30.—(AP)—Gov. Dave Sholtz today told the State Democratic Executive Committee he would not be a candidate for United States Senator.

Sholtz had previously announced that he would run for the vacancy caused by the death of Park Trammell.

Addressing the state committee today the governor said that "because of previous commitments from which I cannot be released, I do not expect to be and shall not be a candidate for the United States Senate from Florida."

The governor leaves Tallahassee next Tuesday for Los Angeles where he will be elected the Grand Exalted Ruler of the Elks at the national convention opening July 15.

J. B. Hodges, of Lake City, was re-elected chairman by acclamation as the new state executive committee began its first business today.

Democratic Congressman Harry H. Wells of Tallahassee, urged Florida Democrats to get out a huge vote for the Roosevelt-Garner ticket next November. Wells said he and other southern delegates at the Philadelphia convention had opposed the "two-thirds rule." With the rule gone now, he said, there will be a re-apportionment of delegate representation.

The vote polled in the various states for the national ticket will be the governing factor in the number of delegates the states will have in the next national convention, he said.

"In view of this Florida Democrats should all the more get out the largest possible vote in the November general elections."

Wells said Georgia has failed to support the New Deal properly and has suffered in consequence. He expressed the hope that Florida will elect a strong senatorial delegation that will keep in step with the Administration.

Sholtz will head the Elks for one year. In his announcement the governor said he wished to be re-elected.

Parole Of Two Convicts Voided On Sheriff's Plea

Marengo, Oliver Are Returned To Jail; Planned Robbery

TAMPA, June 30.—(AP)—Acting at the request of Sheriff McLeod, the State Pardon Board Monday revoked paroles of two convicts it had released and who were caught here with sawed-off shotguns planning a cigarette robbery.

The prisoners were Louis Marengo who had been paroled not once, but twice, and Ray alias Jack Oliver, both robbers.

This action came along with statements by Governor Sholtz and Secretary of State Gray, two members of the Pardon Board, that they would tighten up pardon procedure in the future and make a new investigation of cases on which they already had passed.

At the same time it was revealed that the Pardon Board had released Manuel Perez, Apr. 28, after he had served six months of a three-and-a-half-year sentence for selling marijuana, a narcotic weed.

Perez was released on an application presented by Paul Antinori of Tampa with a plea that he needed to care for his mother and two sisters.

His parole brought the total of known pardons in recent months to 12. The beneficiaries included a murderer and the Jefferson Loan Society robbers, serving life terms.

Marengo, holder of the "double deck" pardon, was first convicted here in 1933 and sentenced to serve one year for automobile theft. Charges of breaking and entering and grand larceny against him at that time were deferred. After serving a few months of his sentence he was released.

Ruth Bryan Owen Seen As A Possible Senate Nominee

TAMPA, June 30.—The name of Ruth Bryan Owen, minister to Denmark, was brought to the front yesterday as a possible candidate for one of the two vacant Senate seats in Florida.

On her way home by ship from Copenhagen, Mrs. Owen was out of touch with those seeking to confirm widespread rumors that she would run. As a citizen of Miami she would vote as a South Florida candidate.

As a former member of Congress her friends in Tampa who heard the report, said service by the Senate would appear more desirable to her than in Washington.

Commission Nods Approval To Anti-Lottery Campaign

Board Takes No Official Action As Junior Chamber Of Commerce Delegation Makes Personal Plea

The City Commission last night indicated its desire to halt gambling in Sanford, although it took no official action on a plea submitted by the Junior Chamber of Commerce, an organization fighting for the abolition of "Cuba" within the city limits.

Gordon Barnett, JayCee spokesman, discarded the usual dilly-dallying that accompanies presentation of touchy problems to the public. He reached the point at once and asked the Commission's backing along with that of all law enforcing bodies.

Each of the commissioners individually expressed himself in favor of the movement to erect a barrier against the form of lottery that is the subject of the Junior Chamber's campaign.

Mayor Shinholzer reiterated a statement of a week ago, declaring his belief that the JayCees could depend upon official support.

Several commissioners voiced approval of the fight carried on by young men's organization and offered commendation.

D. K. McNabb told the City governing board of rumors of boycott against certain businesses owned by or employing Junior Chamber members. He said he had heard the "Cuba" backers had made that threat.

Mr. Barnett pointed out that some merchants are suffering from the presence of the lottery here and indicated that a petition may be circulated to obtain names of all persons who would like to see it stamped out.

In discussing a method of campaign, City Attorney Fred E. Wilson voiced the opinion that the battle could better be carried on by those having jurisdiction.

Circuit Court Hears Third Murder Trial

Oliver Robinson, a negro, was being tried on first degree murder charges this afternoon as the second day's activities of circuit court continued.

The defendant is alleged to have been responsible for the death of Ernest Hayes about six months ago. The latter died after having been strangled in the head with an axe.

Tomorrow's docket includes the third murder trial since the court opened Monday. George Dines, a negro, is to face charges in connection with the death of F. C. Francis, colored, whose body was found buried near here some weeks ago.

Lehman Agrees To Help Roosevelt In State Of New York

Resignation Is Handed In By Wilkinson

Commission Accepts City Judge's Offer To Step Off Bench

The resignation of S. A. B. Wilkinson as city judge was officially announced Monday night at the City Commission.

Mr. Wilkinson tendered his resignation by letter to the city fathers last Wednesday.

The former city judge could not be reached for a statement, since he is attending a meeting of the Florida Democratic Executive Committee in Jacksonville.

Under provisions of the municipal charter, the county judge officiates on the city bench during the absence of the city judge. Judge Sharon presided in the local court yesterday.

Commissioners indicated that they would delay the appointment of a city judge probably until next Monday night, apparently to allow sufficient time for all aspirants to file their applications.

Ms. Wilkinson assumed duties on Mar. 1, 1935. He held the post continuously until his resignation.

He was a candidate for county prosecuting attorney in the June 2 primaries, but was eliminated from the second primary.

In receiving applications for the city judgeship, the Commission also accepted one bid, that of J. E. Preston, for assistant tax collector, which was made vacant through the death of M. E. Terbell, to whose family a resolution of condolence and sympathy was directed. Action in this case is expected Monday also.

The Commission last night heard Fred Williams, city engineer, discuss several public works projects proposed for Sanford. Among them were the reconditioning of the municipal golf course and reconditioning the pier. A park, a $12,000 sewer and certain street repaving also shared the limelight.

On recommendation of Chief Roy Williams the board suspended sentence on two negroes, Thomas Williams and Mike Huston, jailed for 50 days on a disorderly conduct charge. The prisoners agreed to leave town.

Permits to sell beer were granted to Louis Perites and J. A. Gramley.

Smith Plans Three Addresses Against New Deal Methods

WASHINGTON, June 30.—Alfred E. Smith, snubbed by the Philadelphia convention when he and others suggested nomination of some "genuine Democrat" instead of President Roosevelt, plans to make at least three campaign speeches attacking the New Deal, a close friend of the former governor said last night.

Smith will not directly support the Republican candidacy of Gov. Alfred M. Landon, the press informant said, but his attack on the Administration would have that effect inasmuch as a vote for Landon would be the only course open to those seeking to prevent against the New Deal who did not find any of the left wing parties attractive.

As this indication came of Smith's role in the coming campaign, Senator Borah of Idaho, who is still a question mark in the Republican side of the political fence, announced he will leave tomorrow for his home, where he must decide by July 11 whether he will seek re-election to the Senate.

Governor Changes His Mind And Yields To Pleas Of Democrats To Seek Re-Election

President Goes Back To Capital

Illinois And Michigan Are Reported Safe For New Dealers

ALBANY, N. Y., June 30.—(AP)—Governor Herbert H. Lehman announced today that he would yield to party pressure and run for a third term. The chief executive of the state called newspapermen to his office and gave them the statement declaring he could "no longer resist the pleas of my party both in the state and the nation."

The New York governor's decision came suddenly a few days after the Democratic National Convention had staged a wild 17-minute demonstration for him, and the President had invited him to Hyde Park for the week-end.

Lehman had announced earlier this spring that the time had come for him to ask relief from the cares of office. But today he said "regardless of personal considerations, however compelling, if my party in this state chooses to nominate me again and if the people of the state again call on me for service, I shall proudly accept the call and will, during the coming two years, devote myself to the interests of the people of the state."

President Roosevelt canvassed the political situation in the battleground states of Illinois and Michigan and was informed Monday his chances for carrying both were good despite recent intraparty discord.

Frank Murphy, former Detroit mayor and present high commissioner to the Philippines, and Gov. Henry Horner of Illinois, came here at the invitation of the President and talked politics with him at a lengthy luncheon conference.

Both said they had informed the President the Democrats in their states would be united for him in November.

WASHINGTON, June 30.—(AP)—President Roosevelt returned today from Hyde Park where he went after accepting the Democratic nomination in Philadelphia Saturday night.

Underwriters Seek Normal Fire Group

Southeastern Underwriter's Association today had advised the City of Sanford to bring its fire department personnel back to normal as hastily as possible.

The department was slashed some months ago because the effect of the homestead amendment made it necessary to nip off budgetary expenses it was pointed out.

City Commissioners last night indicated their desire to comply with the request when the municipality was financially in a position to do so, although no action was taken.

Generally fair tonight; Wednesday partly cloudy, probably scattered showers near southwest and extreme south coast. Extreme northwest Florida: fair tonight; Wednesday partly cloudy.

The Pardon Racked

Following so closely on the heels of the recent disclosure that a Jacksonville man had been pardoned twice only to kill someone else each time he was released from prison, this latest sensation from the Pardon Board reveals that, with only three of its members present, eight convicts, two of them life termers, had turned loose to pray upon the public, and that two of them actually had been re-arrested within a few weeks' time at the point of committing an armed robbery, calling for action. If the next session of the Legislature doesn't do anything else, it should abolish this pardon racket.

City Fathers Move To Obtain Ball Park Clubhouse

Hope To Secure Needed Expenses From Government

Board Okeys Proposal To Draw Up Set Of Plans For Building

By FAT PATTERSON
The City Commission last night made the inaugural move to obtain clubhouses facilities at the local ball park for the accommodation of the Chattanooga Lookouts in the spring training season of 1937.

W. C. Hill and Charley West headed a delegation that appeared before the city fathers to revive the issue that cost this city the Chattanooga club's presence last year.

Officially, the commission authorized an expenditure of $40 for plans of a clubhouse which will be submitted to some governmental relief agency in hopes of obtaining construction funds from that source.

There were wide gaps in the estimates voiced before the governing board. One faction believed the structure could be erected for approximately $800. It would be serviceable without being either a thing of beauty or an eye sore. Another contingent said an elaborate house could be put up for maybe $2,000 or $3,000.

Indications pointed to the fact that efforts would be concentrated on securing the use of the Chattanooga club's clubhouse next spring only if guaranteed a clubhouse.

The delegation pointed out the need for haste in laying plans for the construction movement, although it was said the edifice did not necessarily have to be completed before possibly early March.

In plans for the new building would be included a project to roof the grandstand, although it was apparent the clubhouse would receive the greatest concentration of effort.

Other sporting projects discussed by the commission last night included one to recondition the municipal golf course and a proposal to transform the lower floor of the country club into a ball room.

Mulloy Annexes Pair Of Matches In College Play

Southern Racqueteurs Well Represented In N. Y. Tourney

NEW YORK, June 20.—(AP)—The tournament favorite, smooth-stroking Gardner Mulloy of the University of Miami, won two matches with the loss of three games and gained the third round yesterday in the Eastern intercollegiate tennis championship on the grass courts of the Richmond Country Club, Staten Island.

Mulloy, a semi-finalist last year in his first tournament on grass, routed John Schmidt, C. C. N. Y., 6-0, 6-2, and H. Teifer Mook, Dartmouth, 6-0, 6-1.

Bill Tilden's nephew, William T. Tilden, III, of Princeton, also won twice to gain the round of 16.

Playing in impressive fashion, Tilden eliminated John Albertson, Swarthmore, 6-0, 6-3, and Richard G. McBride, Georgetown, 6-1, 6-0.

Princeton's hopes of retaining the team crown, however, were even slimmer than they were at the start of play yesterday morning as Edward F. Oelner, one of last year's three Tiger representatives, was eliminated in the first round, 6-2, 6-4, by William J. Simpson of Cornell.

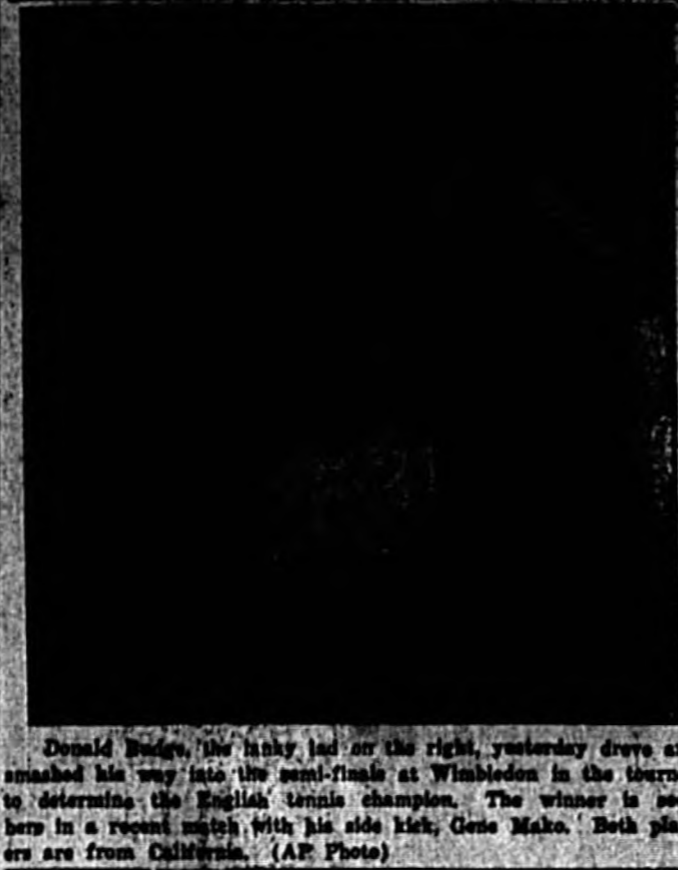

A minor upset was scored early in the day as Harvard's captain, German G. Gilman, national and international tennis racketeer, lost to John W. Dietz, Lehigh senior, 6-2, 6-4.

While Mulloy scored twice, Paul Gulborg of Dartmouth, seeded No. 2, advanced through the first round on a bye and saw action only in the doubles. He and J. Norman Anderson, New England intercollegiate title-holder, defeated C. F. Lawrence and Edward Henneman, Harvard, 6-3, 6-4.

Seeded players who won first round matches in the singles were George C. Stevens, Yale captain; Burt Behlward, of Georgia Tech; Barclay A. Kingman, of Williams; and George E. Doss, University of Pennsylvania.

Southern of Jacksonville, Fla., defeated Charles Gilbert of Columbia, 6-3, 7-9, 6-3. John Hendrix, of Miami, Fla., eliminated Gerald McCarthy, Manhattan, 6-4, 7-9, 6-3.

U. S. Plans To Dominate Olympic Field In Berlin

American Athletes At Best Are Capable Of Sweeping High Jump, Pole Vault And Other Events

NEW YORK, June 20.—(AP)—Due mainly to an extraordinary group of able young men who have consistently displayed their ability to out-jump and out-vault the world, the United States figures to dominate most of the Olympic field events.

Foot-war years have developed keen opposition in some specialties, especially from the Japanese, but the Americans have sustained a record-breaking pass in enough events to warrant expectations that our lads will grab a substantial number of points at Berlin in August.

At their best, this country's athletes are capable of sweeping the high jump and pole vault, in spite of Japan's potential challenge in both events. Our record-breakers in other specialties, such as Jesse Owens in the broad jump and Jack Torrance in the shotput, may be harder pressed, but they have shown their ability to come through under such circumstances. We will have a good chance to take the hammer and discus throws, but comparatively poor prospects for winning the javelin, pentathlon and boy, step and jump.

The United States has already suffered some setbacks. Eugene Francis, national broad jump champion and rival of the great Jesse Owens, failed to recover from a leg injury. John Lyman, one of our best shotputters, did not show up. The world record holder, Earl Brow, world record pole vaulter, has retired from competition. These losses may be offset, however, by the rapid improvement of our athletes.

Germany's Olympic team losses have been heavy. Germany will join the United States in dominating the American weight events. The German team will be led by the world champion, Walter Ulmer, who won the gold medal in the world championship at Berlin last year.

Atlanta's Atom Is Blasted From Wimbledon Meet

Budge Crushes Quist To Gain Semi-Final; Perry Undefeated

WIMBLEDON, England, June 20.—(AP)—Don Budge, whose hair looks like a scorching sunset, again joined the tennis titans of the world yesterday as he administered a crushing defeat to Adrian Quist, Australian titleholder, and landed in the semi-final round of the all-England championships for the second year in succession.

Like the three other winners of penultimate brackets—Fred Perry, the defending champion, H. W. (Bunny) Austin and Baron Gottfried von Cramm—Budge sailed through without the loss of a set, winning at 6-2, 6-4, 6-4, in an afternoon providing few thrills for the 30,000 spectators swarming the stands and the grounds.

Perry and Austin claimed Americans as their victims, Perry annihilating a willing but outclassed Bryan (Bity) Grant of Atlanta, 6-4, 6-3, 6-1, and Austin making Wilmer Allison, the 21-year-old American champion, look as though he at last had reached the end of the trail. Austin won, 6-1, 6-4, 7-5.

Von Cramm, finalist against Perry last year, administered the same bitter medicine to the veteran Jack Crawford of Australia, trouncing at 6-1, 7-5, 6-4, just before a virtual cloudburst ended hostilities for the day.

Perry, who had seen plenty of Grant's style of play in America, knew what to expect and refused to be drawn into long romps with the Atlanta mite. Instead he closed in as quickly as possible and on almost every point smashed Grant off the court.

The Briton broke away swiftly to a 3-0 lead and then Grant brooded and pulled up level. He swarmed all over Perry for that stretch but faded rapidly, falling an easy victim to Perry's steaming, low-bouncing drives. The crowd, nevertheless, vigorously applauded Grant's courage in the face of the odds.

Budge played smoothly and never was forced to step up his game to the limit against Quist, who couldn't keep the ball in bounds more than two or three strokes at a time and had difficulty keeping his footing on the slippery turf.

Baby Mary Hoerger Finds Weight Of Championships Bears Heavily On Youth

'Fat' Boys Accept Offer Of 'Leans' For Diamond Fight

NEW YORK, June 20.—(AP)—Little Mary Hoerger, the 12-year-old Miami baby, who never had time for dolls, left the national outdoor diving championships any more. The crown of champion, one that makes strong men quake under pressure of defeat, pressed on her babyish head and took its toll.

Everyone, most of all Mary's own mother, didn't think pressure could reach that far down toward the cradle, but it did. Nervous and jittery Mary tossed away her title.

Years ago, Mary's mother, then Frances Blisbarrow of St. Louis, was a sensation around her home town as a distance swimmer and 10-foot board diver. Lack of funds prevented her from competing in national events. Heart broken, she vowed that if she ever had a girl of her own, she'd make her the youngest national champion in sport. Her dream came true last year when Mary, a little blonde wisp of 11 who hit the water like a pin, won the national outdoor title.

Then came the drills for title defense.

"Mary is a funny little girl," mused the proud mother, now Mrs. Frances Hoerger, as she watched her daughter drill. "The strain of champion doesn't bother her one whit. She doesn't know what it's all about. I can't get her to become serious about it. She giggles, jokes and fools around. But when the checks are down, she gets serious; she reaches her peak."

That's what the little champion did. As she pulled herself out of the water after each dive, she giggled and had a swell time. Other girls, pressing and striving for form, worked hard and long. Yet in their seriousness, they didn't approach Mary's form off the three-meter springboard.

And then came the hour when she had to defend her title, a prized one that thousands of girls struggled for years to win without success. As defending champion, Mary was called to make the first dive.

Suddenly, the full weight of champion fell on her.

"Oh, mama," she pleaded, "I don't want to dive first. I want to dive third or fourth—any place but first."

She had to dive first but as her babyish frame arched through the air and toward the water, it was a far different form from the one that pierced the salt waves so gracefully during the drills. It twitched with nervousness and the warty into water wasn't so smooth. Later, she fell to pieces completely with one of her worst dives, sinking her title. She finished second, 2.13 points behind the graceful, steady Gladys Eckert of Chicago.

When it was all over, Mary experienced her first heartache in life. She knew that thousands of

Cronin Explains Reason For Sox Lagging Position

Injuries Hurt Famed And Costly Club; Veteran In Field

NEW YORK, June 20.—(AP)—Joe Cronin, the young man who answers questions about why the Boston Red Sox are seven and a half games back of the Yankees, came to the big town full of excuses and determination today.

"What happened to us? Why we've been chipping up since before ball games all year," he said. "You won't believe it, but we've had our regular ball club on the field in exactly three games all season. The rest of the time we've looked like a traveling hospital."

"I've had infielders in the outfield and outfielders in the infield. Bing Miller is playing in the outfield now, and Bing is 45 years old. We have only one of our regular outfielders. Both Matusz and Coombs are in Boston and there's no telling when they'll be back."

Joe said he had mentioned it to the boys that if they have any notions about winning the pennant, they'd better start in the double-header against the Yanks today.

"If we can do better than break even in this four-game series, we'll be all right. Cleveland, Detroit, and Washington are eyeing the title all the time now and I figure they'll be pointing for the Yanks. That'll help us."
