Stamps? He's Got Lots Of 'Em

By CLAUDE ROSE
Herald Feature Writer

"It just goes to show you how foolish a fellow can get," said Gail "Friday" Ross, one of Sanford's most ardent stamp collectors. He was looking around the small room at the Valdez Hotel where he lives, surveying the boxes and albums filled with stamps he started collecting in 1892.

He has no record of how many stamps he has collected in the past 63 years, but estimates that 150,000 or more have been in his possession at one time or another. His collection at present is worth several thousand dollars and he has the bulk of it in safe keeping.

"If you're born a collector," says "Friday," who will celebrate his 77th birthday Wednesday, "you save everything. Take those tobacco tax stamps. Only a fool would save those."

Included in the portion of his collection which he keeps in his room, in addition to both domestic and foreign postage stamps, are federal tax stamps for alcoholic beverages, cigars, cigarettes, oleomargarine, and narcotics which date back to nearly the turn of the century. He also has several coins but said most of that collection many years ago.

Every single issue of 1c, 2c and 3c stamps printed since 1900 is included in his collection and there are very few other denominations of which he does not have at least a single one.

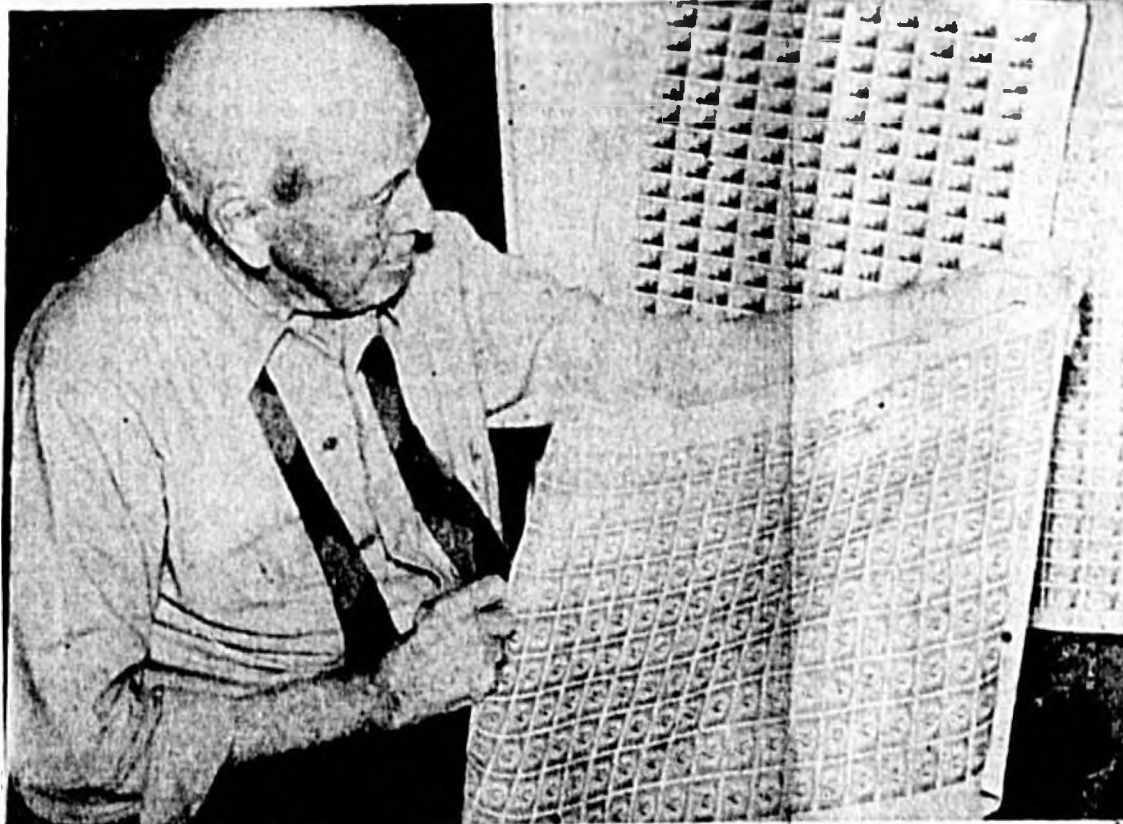

Newspapers he doesn't buy as many as he used to but still orders a few sheets occasionally from the American Philatelic Agency in Washington, D. C. In earlier days, he was in the habit of buying 10 sheets of 50 stamps each every time a new issue came out.

He has made no plans for leaving his collection to anyone when he passes on. However, he adds that "my brother will probably get it and no doubt he'll throw it away. He won't know what's good and what isn't."

"I had no particular reason for starting in this crazy business," Friday relates. "But it all started with the Columbian Exposition series in '02. They put out a surcharge in 10 different denominations from 1c to 45¢ and I just said to myself, 'Guess I better start saving a few stamps' and I've been at it ever since."

"Three years later, in 1895, someone stole three albums from him, including those original Columbian issues, and he was a little discouraged. But, true collector he was, he went right back and started again."

The most valuable stamps he owns are a special souvenir sheet of four cancelled Austrian stamps issued in 1933 in commemoration of the International Philatelic Exhibition in Vienna. He paid $5 for the set and it is now worth approximately $175. "I'm holding for $200 on them, and (Continued On Page Eight)

3 Persons Jailed In Baby's Death

DAYTONA BEACH (AP)—Three persons were jailed yesterday here in connection with the death last October of a newborn baby girl whose body was found, wrapped in rags, at the city dump.

The arrests climaxed a nine-month investigation. Deputy Sheriff Buddy Young said those jailed were Ruby Lee Helt, 29, the child's mother, Mrs. Pearl Jones McKinley, 43, the grandmother, and Fred Clark, 36, a friend of the family.

Young said an examination of the child's body by a pathologist showed she had been born dead. The mother was charged with concealing the death of a child and held under $500 bond. The others were held under $200 bond on accessory charges.

Two Sanford Men Plan To Attend Kiwanis Meeting

M. R. Strickland, president of the Sanford Kiwanis Club, and A. L. Wilson, president-elect of the local organization, will attend the annual convention of Kiwanis International which is being held this year in Cleveland, Ohio, on June 26-30 representing the Sanford group.

They will hear, as one of the four star speakers, Dr. Reuben K. Youngdahl, pastor of Mt. Olivet Lutheran Church in Minneapolis, Minn., and leader in many advisory matters along with Earl Taft Benson, U. S. Secretary of Commerce, A. D. P. Heeneey, Canadian Ambassador to the U. S., and General Nathan Twining, Air Force Chief of Staff.

3 Children Drown In Storm Cellar

QUANAH, Tex. (AP)—A frantic father dived into a dark flooded storm cellar yesterday in a futile effort to save three of his children.

"I heard my little boy call out, 'Help, Daddy,' and that was all," said farmer Ira Keeney. "I dove back in there and tried to save them, but I just couldn't find them."

The three Keeney children, Doris, 5, Thomas, 4, and Alma, 3, all drowned.

The family had taken refuge in the cellar about 4 a. m., when Mrs. Keeney saw threatening clouds and awakened her husband. They feared a tornado.

Keeney told reporters he opened the cellar's horizontal door to investigate a trickle of water. A flood poured in upon him.

"My wife and one of the babies was standing right there by me," he said. "I grabbed the baby and set her outside. When I turned back water was already almost up to the top of the cellar."

"The lantern went out and there was a lot of sticks and trash on top of the water. I tried to dive back into the cellar to find my babies, but I just couldn't get back far enough."

Keeney walked to a neighbor's and called Quanah, 20 miles south east, for help. By the time an ambulance could get over the muddy roads with the help of a wrecker, it was judged useless to try to revive the trapped children. Their bodies were taken from the flooded cellar about 9 a. m.

A sudden, 3½-inch rain caused a dike on a nearby draw to break, and food the storm cellar, located in a low spot, Hardeman County Sheriff M. C. Owen said today.

The torrential thunderstorm in this northwest Texas area was one of a series of squalls that pounded the state from Dallas to far west Texas and across the northwest Panhandle-pains region. Much of the area is among the state's worst drought country.

Funeral Rites For Mrs McKay Held In Miami

Funeral services for Mrs. Katharine McKay, 68, of Sanford, Fla., were held Wednesday at 4 p. m. by Rev. Terence Murphy, pastor of St. Mary's Catholic Church, 170 O.E.S., Miami.

Mrs. McKay was Past Grand Matron of the Grand Chapter of Florida in 1922 and 1923. For seven years she was a member of the Board of Trustees of the Macmillan Home in St. Petersburg. She was a life member of Seminole Chapter No. 2 O.E.S., and member of the Past Matrons' Club, which she organized.

She was a Past President of the Sanford Women's Club and Past President of the County Federation of Women's Clubs. Mrs. McKay was a past noble grand of Seminole Rebekah Lodge and past deputy president of District 10 of the Rebekahs.

Mrs. Stella Moore, representing Seminole Chapter No. 2 O.E.S., and Mrs. Louise Billa, President of Seminole Past Matrons' Club, attended the funeral.

Westside Pupils Get Second Shots Of Polio Vaccine

With only about 50 per cent of the Seminole County children who received the first shot showing up for the second, the inoculation program continued today at Westside school.

Parochial school students were also invited to receive their shots there.

The recent vaccine scare and the problem of transportation "definitely" have something to do with the low turnout for the second shot, Dr. Terry Bard, County Health Officer, said.

He said the first shot offered protection for probably three or four months, although the exact period is not known.

Tomorrow, absentees will be given shots at the County Health Unit.

Vending Machines Found In Woods

Seven peanut vending machines, five of which were smashed, were found yesterday in the woods near West 20th St., Constable J. Q. (Slim) Galloway reported.

The coin boxes were missing from the machines.

Galloway said two boys came across the machines and reported them. The machines had been there for some time, he added.

Galloway said he had no reports of so large a number of machines being missing, but was checking the possibility they might have been stolen in another town.

Goodrich Company Strike Averted

CHICAGO (AP)—A strike of some 11,500 production and maintenance workers at nine B. F. Goodrich Co. plants has been averted.

Company and CIO United Rubber Workers officials came to terms last night on a five-year contract after two weeks of secret negotiations. A strike had been called for last midnight.

Supporters Seek To Prevent Cuts In Ground Forces

WASHINGTON (AP)—Supporters of President Eisenhower's defense program faced a battle in the Senate today on efforts of some Democrats to expand air power further and prevent a cutback in the ground forces.

Up for decision, under limited debate, would be a passage vote by tonight, was the bulky $21.8-billion defense money bill.

Sen. Symington (D-Mo.), former secretary of the Air Force in the Truman administration, was spearheading what appeared to be an uphill drive for three major changes:

1. Addition of about 40 million dollars to prevent a cutback of about 12,000 in the manpower of the Marine Corps between now and June 30 of next year.

2. Addition of about 250 million to prevent a similar reduction of $8,000 in the regular Army.

3. Addition of 200 million dollars to speed up production of supersonic jet fighter aircraft.

The first two proposals already have been defeated in the Appropriations Committee by a 2-1 margin. Normally the Senate accepts its decisions.

Sen. Chavez (D-N.M.), floor manager for the measure, was on the losing side in those tests but told the Senate Friday he now will vote to uphold the committee decisions.

Sen. Saltonstall (R-Mass.), former chairman of the Senate Armed Services Committee, was expected to aid Chavez in opposing additional cutbacks.

"We are not reducing our fighting strength by the changes in numbers of men most of whom come from supporting units," he said.

Traffic Mishaps Result In Damage Totalling $165

Damage totaling an estimated $165 was reported in two traffic accidents here Sunday, City Police said.

One of the accidents occurred at 11:35 a. m. on French Ave., 125 feet south of 12th St. intersection, while the other took place at 10:40 a. m. on Park Ave., 350 feet south of the 12th St. intersection.

Involved in the French Ave. accident were a 1947 Mercury coupe and a 1951 Ford sedan. The coupe, driven by Cecil Presley, 18, Lake Monroe, backed into the parked Ford, Police said. Driver of the Ford was listed as Emily Marie Spravey, 17, of 1022 W. 2nd St., Sanford. The Mercury was undamaged, but the Ford sustained an estimated $55 damage.

The other accident involved a 1948 Pontiac sedan, driven by Eugene Lee Wood, 38, of 25 South Halifax Ave., Daytona Beach, and a 1949 Chrysler sedan driven by Venera Harper Taylor, 37, of 1136 South Peninsula Drive, Daytona Beach.

Damage to the Pontiac was estimated at $45 and to the Chrysler at $65. Both cars were going south on Park Ave.

Watch Out, Drivers Told

Fourth Of July Warning Issued By Police Chief

"The Fourth of July is Independence Day, but the driver who gets too independent on the road may do his celebrating in jail."

This warning was given by Sanford motorists today by Chief of Police Roy Williams, who is making an all-out effort to see that traffic accidents will not mar this year's Independence Day celebration.

"The Police Department and the National Safety Council are sponsoring a safe vacation during July," Chief Williams said. "This program deserves the support of all citizens and you can show your cooperation right at the start by observing the rules of safe and sane driving over the weekend of the Fourth."

An aggressively independent attitude on the part of drivers is bound to lead to accidents, Chief Williams said. He pointed out that drivers must share the road with all other drivers and with pedestrians, and if they're too impatient on their rights or carry a chip on the shoulder most of the time, they're inviting trouble.

"Make courtesy your code of the road," Chief Williams urged. "You'll find that you'll be much more relaxed when your trip is over, and you'll have a much better time."

"And it may surprise you to find," he added, "that other drivers will return your courtesy almost every time."

The chief also warned against trying to cover too many miles in too short a time and driving at speeds too fast for conditions. He gave the following tips for a safe trip:

1. Don't try to cover too many miles.
2. Be prepared for heavy holiday traffic.
3. Get an early start, pause for rest occasionally.
4. Don't speed.
5. Don't drink before driving.
6. Remember that the application of common courtesy to traffic situations will prevent many accidents.

Chief Williams said it would be a good idea for drivers to pass the July slogan, "Drive to Arrive Alive—Slow Down and Live!", on their dash boards.

'Davy Crockett' Burglar Sought By Orlando Police

Orlando (AP)—City police today are looking for an unknown burglar who apparently enjoys hearing himself sing the ballad of Davy Crockett.

The burglar broke into a lumber company last night, attempted to jimmy open a wall safe and took $1 worth of small articles.

"Research in chemical and engineering laboratories must run concurrent with such expansion," he said. He emphasized that laboratories such as that with which he is associated serve such a need, operating as a private laboratory for such new industries.

Methodist Church At Jacksonville Gets Milton Ware

The Rev. H. Melton Ware, son of Judge and Mrs. R. W. Ware of Sanford, has been assigned to the First Methodist Church in Jacksonville after serving for nine years in the Methodist church in Vero Beach.

Rev. Ware spent most of his life in Sanford graduating from Sanford High School in 1932 and the University of Florida in 1934 where he was a member of the football squad.

He then graduated from Candler school of Theology of Emory University and did his post graduate work at Columbia University in New York. He went into the Florida Conference in 1938 and served at Hastings and Baytown Beach.

In 1942 he enlisted as a chaplain in the U. S. Army after which he was assigned to Vero Beach.

Rev. Ware is married to the former Adelaide Stevens of Fort Worth, Ark.

Lions Due To Hear Chemist

Robert Nanz, a member of the Lion's Club of Sanford, will be the guest speaker at the weekly luncheon meeting of the Lion's Club tomorrow, W. H. H. Duncan, club secretary, announced.

Nanz, who will speak on the industrial future of this section, said he would explain in his talk how modern industry's expansion is directly related to the expansion of commercial industries.

A number of new chemical manufacturing and processing plants are under construction at the present time and several research and development points are already in operation, Nanz pointed out.

"Major manufacturers look to the south as a place to locate," he said.

As the state grows, the chemist told The Herald, there will be a need for the establishment of additional firms to manufacture fertilizer ingredients, metal, and plastic construction materials, and the machines to make these products.

"Research in chemical and engineering laboratories must run concurrent with such expansion," he said. He emphasized that laboratories such as that with which he is associated serve such a need, operating as a private laboratory for such new industries.

HOSPITALIZED after his 1954 Ford sedan went over the embankment at the railroad crossing on Eighth St. yesterday was Harvey H. Gore, 31, Lake Monroe. He was released from Fernald-Laughton Memorial Hospital after treatment for minor injuries. Damage to the car was estimated at $500. (Photo by Lumpkin)

Rewards Continue To Climb

WEST PALM BEACH (AP)—Rewards for the return of information concerning the fate of Judge and Mrs. C. E. Chillingworth totaled at least $45,000 today but the investigation of their disappearance has apparently made little progress.

Members of the wealthy judge's family last night offered $35,000 for the return of either or both for "information resulting in the arrest and conviction of the party or parties responsible for their disappearance."

The announcement came from Loren D. Simon, a Palm Beach attorney who is the judge's brother-in-law, and George W. Wright, the missing couple's son-in-law.

Sheriff John Kirk, meanwhile, said the five-day investigation of the couple's disappearance "is at a standstill."

"We're out of clues," he said. "This is a difficult case but we're still scratching around for new leads."

A tractor drawn plow turned up the sandy beach at Chillingworth's ocean front home at Minalapan yesterday without uncovering anything to indicate how they vanished, Kirk said.

He said his officers are now trying to determine who bought two rolls of adhesive tape which were found at the home. He said the man from whom the tape was bought could not remember who bought it.

Local DAV Unit To Receive Award

A national citation of the Disabled American Veterans will be awarded the Sanford Chapter No. 20 for surpassing its membership quota for 1954-55. As of June 1 it had 33 members.

Judge Alfred L. English, National Commander of the DAV, commended local Chapter officials in a message received here today from the organization's national headquarters in Cincinnati.

The DAV nationally seeks to reach a goal of 210,000 members by next July and has reached a new national record for the 14th consecutive year.

RED FLEET ATTACKED
TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—Nationalist China announced today its warplanes attacked a fleet of more than 400 Chinese Communist vessels about 15 miles from Matsu, a Nationalist island, and sank more than 30. The vessels presumably were supply convoys. This was the largest number of Red vessels yet reported so close to Matsu.

Reapportionment Battle To Resume

TALLAHASSEE (AP)—House and Senate return to the reapportionment battle Wednesday after a three day respite from the problem which has had them hopelessly deadlocked for two weeks.

Each has before it a bill passed by the other branch before adjournment Saturday. The bill approved by the Senate and sent to the House would reshuffle the 30 senatorial districts to give Bay and Monroe counties senators of their own.

The House measure which now is before the Senate would shake things up even more and give Bay, Monroe, Sarasota and Manatee their own senators.

The House measure is not expected to stand much of a chance of Senate passage. It would combine Jefferson, Wakulla and Liberty counties into one senatorial district. Sen. Clark of Monticello now represents the single county of Jefferson in the 22nd

District, will accept Wakulla County but is dead set against Liberty. Clark, who has served longer in the Senate than any other member, is so influential that it is difficult to pass a bill over his objections.

There may be a fight in the House on behalf of the Senate bill but it faces opposition from Rep. Bryant of Marion County who has prepared an amendment which would rewrite it to conform with the measure the representatives passed Saturday.

Even if it should pass without being amended, it would have to be approved by Gov. Collins who might or might not consider it fair reapportionment.

It meets his demand that the present 9th District of Citrus and Hernando counties be broken up and that Bay have a senator of its own but it still would leave populous Sarasota and Manatee sharing a seat.

Looking For An Iron Bed Head? Mrs. Harold Hall May Have It

By CLAUDE ROSE
Herald Feature Writer

Navy families, and others who move often or need to live on a close budget, can get some valuable tips from Mrs. Harold Hall. She and her husband, LCDR. Hall, NAAS special services officer, have moved about 18 times in 9 years and each time she has furnished their apartment or home with used furniture which she has restored.

"I have very complete files of decorating ideas, things to make for the home, and methods of restoring furniture which are available to anyone interested," she says. "I don't claim to be an interior decoration expert, but I've had enough practical experience to be able to help young couples who want to make their home attractive and cozy on a slim budget."

After being married in 1946, the Halls went to Panama River Air Station (now Patrick Air Force Base) and from there to Coco Solo, Panama. However, she didn't really get the "fix-up" paint job until 1947 when Mr. Hall was released from active duty and they bought a restaurant in Orlando. They worked hard to redecorate it themselves.

When he was recalled to active duty in 1948 and they went to Whiting Field, near Pensacola, the bug had bitten hard and from then on it has been a very enjoyable, and practical hobby for her. Her husband helps her a great deal.

They have furnished a complete home in Orlando, three apartments in San Diego, and two homes in Sanford with restored furniture since 1950. Friends say that the home which they built at First and Mellonville is very original and attractive.

An example of her work is a unique coffee table which she made in San Diego. For $2 or $3 (she doesn't remember exactly)

Young Folks Study Plans In Marriage, Take Responsibility

Wedding bells will chime merrily for the under-18 group while parents gaze at the thought of their darling daughters meeting new responsibility.

Marriage is a serious proposition as even golden anniversary celebrants will admit. But happiness may be had by any intelligent young married couple.

The prescription is simple. . . . Respect for your spouse is the first ingredient necessary to wedded bliss. That means quarrels belong in the home, if at all. Ditto criticism, and if it is given it should be constructive. No belittling of your man to others with in or without his presence.

No one is perfect — good to remember when you become intolerant of one of your help mate's faults. If you can't resist the impulse to let off steam, meditate for just one moment on one of your own faults that might irritate him before you speak off.

Encourage him to family devotion instead of wanting him away from his sisters, brothers or even mother and father. Possessiveness can ruin a marriage.

If he enjoys a religion, different from yours, respect his point of view, rather than trying to get him to conform to yours.

Feed him to the best of your ability. Learn how to cook interestingly. Nobody who can read a cookbook should be able to concoct well-balanced tasty meals without too much hysteria.

Men are not necessarily neat (because their mothers picked up after them as children) so don't heckle him because he leaves his shoes in the living room occasionally.

Keep your home clean, neat and cheerful. If it is as stiff looking as a window display in a furniture store, how can your man be comfortable?

Be a good hostess. Even a blase man likes to brag that his wife is a good cook and homemaker. Encourage him to bring his friends and business associates to the home.

Your good appearance is more important in holding your man than getting him in the first place. Make a regular routine of your beauty (without overdoing it) and no man should object to the time she bought the base of an old wood stove and after cleaning and application of a coat of paint, placed a slab of marble on top. She had many favorable comments on it from friends and visitors.

Her five children, Eddie, 6, Alan, 4, Andy, 3, Danny, 30 months, and Randy, 4, months have kept her mighty busy in the past few years but she has also managed to take singing, art and guitar lessons. She takes an active part in church affairs and Navy wives' organizations at the various bases where they have been.

Her hobby of "fixing-up" old furniture and interior decorating developed into a business this month when she opened the "Curiosity Shop" on Rt. 17-82, just south of the city.

In the new shop she has all sorts of old and odd things. There's everything from a pearl handled button hook with a name plate dated January 1, 1896, to a second-hand guitar (all strings attached). She even has a pair of shoulder-length leather gloves, believed to be debutante gloves worn many years ago, as well as many pieces of second-hand furniture. It isn't strictly an antique shop nor is it a second-hand store.

She aptly says of herself, "I like to be active in many things. That's the way to really enjoy life, and I enjoy it very much."

5 Local Gardeners Attending Course

GAINESVILLE — Florida gardening enthusiasts registered at the University of Florida, today, for their eleventh annual short course, Dean Emeritus Hume of the U. of F. College of Agriculture, Henry P. Orr, Auburn, Alabama Polytechnic Institute, and Mrs. Clifford E. Cyphers, noted New Jersey flower arranger, will headline the three-day program.

"From Blue Print to Blue Ribbon" is the subject of the 1958 event for which more than 400 Floridians have registered. The General Extension Division of Florida is conducting the course in cooperation with the University of Florida College of Agriculture and Experiment Station and the Florida Federation of Garden Clubs.

Registrants from this area include Mrs. I. Friescher, Mrs. P. R. Gosses, Mrs. E. A. McDaniel, Mrs. L. E. Gosses and Mrs. J. A. Young.

Sleep Tight

Put your mattress to this test. Is it shaking, rattling, creaking, sagging, or does it sag in the middle? Are there broken stitches, missing buttons or tufts, torn handles or droopy borders?

If springs show broken connections or sagging edges, these too can lead to disturbed sleep. If any of these problems exist in your bedding, be sure to get a new mattress.

You spend at it. Be interested in his work — whatever it is. Help him to surmount obstacles so that he might get ahead in whatever he wants to do.

When things go wrong offer sympathetic understanding instead of siding with his critics. Jealousy can't exist in a happy home. Be mature and curb your tendency to be suspicious of his roving glances or of someone else's in his direction.

Cooperate on money problems. Keep within the budget you've set and help him to buy a new suit or shoes when he needs them even if you must scrimp.

Be selfish. You'll find it one of the keys to happiness, married or not — a better example to set for a selfish mate than heckling him because of neglect, inconsiderateness, unthoughtfulness.

Don't be on of those wives who sits waiting to see if her man is going to forget a birthday or anniversary. Rather, give a genuine hint a couple of days before, and save yourself the despair. You'll never know then whether he might have forgotten it and you can give him the benefit of the doubt.

A good memory never has been an indication of greater love anyway. Some people are more prone to sentimental gestures than others — that's all.

Real Blows Thrown In Fighting Scene With Little Aerie

HOLLYWOOD — The bell rang and the actors came out of their corners. But this was no ordinary fight—they exchanged real blows. After a couple of minutes of hefty slugging, the bell rang again. Even the hardened crowd of movie extras applauded the fighting.

One of the fighters, war hero Audie Murphy, sported red on his cheek. This was no make-up; it was the real thing. A stickler for reality, he had trained for nine weeks to get himself down to welterweight and into shape for his role as a boxer in "World in My Corner." He looked in top condition and was still slugging after three grueling days of fight scenes.

His opponent was well chosen for the role. He is Chico Velazquez, not only one of the country's top welterweights, but also a dramatic arts major at New York University.

While Chico was in the ring, his manager Steve Ellis provided some background on the lad. Managing is "an avocation" with Ellis. He's also a top-flight announcer, broadcasting the weekly bouts on ABC radio.

"Chico came to me about five years ago," recounted Ellis. "He said he wanted me to manage him. He was only 17 and had dropped out of high school. I told him the only way I would consider it was if he would return to his home in Stamford, Conn., and finish school."

Chico, who has Mexican-Italian blood, returned to school. When he was graduated, Ellis started him in as a fighter. His record has been impressive: four losses in 10 fights. He's now in line for a shot at the title.

His many TV appearances drew Chico to the attention of producer Aaron Rosenberg and director Jess Bibbe. And when they learned he was also a drama major at NYU, he was a cinch for the job.

After finishing a rugged round, Chico paused to talk. He shrugged off an eye cut that Audie had opened the day before.

"Joe said to really mix it up, and that's what we've done," he said. "I've seen the rushes and the stuff looks great. It's the first time I've ever seen a fight that looks real in a movie."

Did Moore Put Over Fast One?

By GAYLE TALBOT

NEW YORK (U)—The most intriguing aspect of Wednesday night's fight is the possibility, seemingly not too remote, that Archie Moore has put over a fast one on Bobo Olson and his advisers, having to do with the amount of weight Archie has had to shuck off to come in at the 175-pound limit.

For the past week a whisper has been rustling through local fight circles that Moore, who is known to be a slick one, didn't actually scale a whopping 164½ pounds for his twilight victory over Nino Valdes last May 2 in Las Vegas. All Archie actually weighed, the rumor goes, was 156½.

The promoter of the Las Vegas venture just happened to have been one Jack (Doc) Kearns, who as Jack Dempsey's manager once pillaged the little city of Shelby, Mont., and who has been trying to improve upon that performance ever since. And one of those who has been most active in spreading the tale of Moore's weight duplicitly just happens to be close to Kearns. For that reason the fight crowd is more than a little inclined to credit the yarn.

The angle is, natch, that Olson, who still is only a heavy middleweight, was suckered into the match in the belief that he would be fighting a veteran who had been forced to punish himself cruelly in melting off close to 25 pounds in a month's training. In other words, if you believe the whispers, Bobo was lured into thinking Archie would come in too weak to swing a cat with any authority.

Memphis Seizes Lead In League

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Memphis took over the ever-changing Southern Assn. lead yesterday with a sharp 4-2 victory over Chattanooga, but the Chicks were trailing by 18 runs when the curfew prevented their return to the No. 2 spot.

Chattanooga awoke from a bating slump, erupted for 13 runs in the third inning and led the tribe 19-1 after six innings in the second game of a doubleheader when the curfew struck. The seven-inning nightcap will be completed Tuesday night. The Lookouts and Chicks already had a twin bill on tap for tonight.

Only two active players in the major leagues have hit more than 400 doubles. They are Mickey Vernon of the Senators and Stan Musial of the Cardinals.

Ben Hogan Quits Competitive Golf

SAN FRANCISCO (U)—Tournament golf has seen the last of Ben Hogan, he says, but it'll see a lot more of a hitherto unknown lowly who used the old master's style—even his clubs—to win the National Open Golf championship yesterday.

Jack Fleck, 32, operator of two municipal golf courses at Davenport, Iowa, played the four-time links king off his feet in the first 18-hole playoff of the Open in five years. He took the lead on the fifth hole and held it grimly, posting a 11-under-par 69 as Hogan skidded to a 72 over the heavily roughed and lightning-fast greens of the Olympic Country Club's lake course.

Fleck's triumph was a dandy—and a heartbreaker. It was the first tournament of any kind he'd ever won outright and it apparently marked the decline of the Hogan era in golf.

"I'm through with serious competitive golf," Hogan said in a choked voice to thousands of fans packed on the hillside overlooking the 18th green after it was all over.

"I want to become a weekend golfer. It's too hard to train for a big tournament." Just how he meant it defied interpretation. He was a tired man, discouraged at his failure to reach the coveted honor of being the first man in history to win five Open titles. The feeling was that he might—probably would—make another bid for the crown by the time next year rolls around.

Fleck's victory made him top man in the nation's golf picture and netted him $6,000 in cash prize money plus thousands more from other sources. He is the longest shot to win the Open title since Sam Parks pulled the trick 20 years ago. Hogan won $3,600.

The actual triumph was almost too easy, an anticlimax to the sensational surge of birdies Fleck rode into a 287 tie with Hogan late Saturday to force the play-off.

Fleck took command on the fifth hole when Hogan decided to play his second shot safe after slicing his drive into the rough and wound up with a bogey 5. The one-stroke lead was all Fleck needed. Hogan birdied the short eighth—and Fleck did the same. Two more birdies on successive holes put Fleck three strokes ahead after 10 holes.

He bogeyed the 11th, but Hogan gave the stroke right back by fluffing a 12-inch putt on the 12th. The grim-faced Hogan, smoking incessantly, stroked in a 30-foot putt for a birdie on No. 14, and clipped his deficit to a single stroke on the 17th when Fleck's second shot was short, forcing a bogey 5.

But Fleck was equal to the pressure.

Cardinals Defeated By Cocoa

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Although the first-half championship is secure, the Orlando Flyers on the Florida State League aren't letting down.

Last night, the leaders did in Lakeland 9-0 in a demonstration of home run baseball and fine pitching. There were only two homers — by Manager Tommy O'Brien in the first and Mike Kasabian in the second—but they scored seven men. Kasabian's blow came with the sacks loaded.

Hapless Lakeland batters were unable to connect with Joe Valmas' pitches. He allowed only five hits and his infield alone handled seven popups.

Some good pitching was seen by 612 fans at Daytona Beach as the Islanders' ace, Bob Arendt, coasted to his 11th victory 13-0 over West Palm Beach. He gave up three hits, struck out nine and walked two.

Bill Patrias led a 17-blow Daytona barrage with a triple and single good for three runs batted in. Eight Daytona safeties came in the eight run third inning that routed starter Claude Raymond. The victory enabled Daytona to pull even with West Palm in third place.

In other action, second place Cocoa whipped Sanford 9-3 before 441 fans and Gainesville defeated St. Petersburg 4-3 before 383.

Cocoa's Jack Herdly scattered seven Sanford hits. His mates took advantage of two singles and an error to sew up the game in the fourth inning.

Shortstop Willie Miranda of the Orioles made 11 errors in his first 24 games. No other shortstop had more than six at the time.

Rookie pitcher Larry Jackson of the Cardinals played football in the Little Rose Bowl game at Pasadena, Calif., in 1951.

See-Saw Battle Rages For First Place

Yanks Blast White Sox To Capture Lead Again

By ED CORRIGAN

The Associated Press
The New York Yankees perched atop the American League again today in the see-saw battle for first place. They got there by whipping their No. 1 rivals, the Chicago White Sox, twice.

That's never been any problem for the Yanks, who could always fight the pretenders to their throne on even terms.

In the view of Manager Casey Stengel, it's the league have-nots that make the difference. After Cleveland grabbed the pennant last year, he complained that the Indians had managed to fatten themselves on the second division clubs.

That makes Boston's 11-7 victory over Cleveland yesterday significant. The Red Sox couldn't lick the Indians in Boston at all last year and, in fact, beat them only twice in 22 games.

It's different this year. The fifth-place Red Sox have won 7 of 12 from Cleveland, and have taken three of a four-game set. Ted Williams blasted a pair of home runs yesterday as the Sox teed off on Indian rookie ace Herb Score for eight hits in the four plus innings he lasted. Mel Parnell and Tom Hurd handled the Sox pitching.

The Yanks beat the White Sox 7-1 and 5-2, using the home run to good advantage. Elston Howard and Bill Skowron homered in the opener and Gil McDougald and Mickey Mantle in the nightcap.

There was no other action in the American League. In the National League, the Brooklyn Dodgers stretched their lead to 11 games by beating the St. Louis Cardinals 7-4 while the second-place Chicago Cubs were splitting a double-header with the Philadelphia Phillies. The Phillies won the first 1-0 behind Ron Nease and Jack Meyer, and the Cubs took the nightcap 8-7, a curtailed 6½-inning affair because of darkness. Milwaukee whipped New York 8-7, and Pittsburgh and Cincinnati split a pair, the Pirates taking the first 6-2 and the Redlegs the second 4-0 with Joe Nuxhall wielding the whitewash brush.

The Brooklyn peppered an assortment of five St. Louis pitchers for 15 hits—including a home run by Sandy Amoros—in their victory. Carl Furillo was the only regular except pitcher Carl Erskine and Karl Spooner, who didn't get a hit. Spooner, who relieved Erskine in the fifth, was the winner.

The Phils won the first game in the 15th when Marv Blaylock singled and Willie Jones doubled him home. Cub reliever Ed Jeffcoat's six-game winning streak was broken, while Meyer, who gave up only four hits in the last eight innings, snapped a six-game losing skin.

Michigan State athletic teams acquired the nickname "Spartans" in 1926.

Bobo Olson bids for a spot among the ring's super champions Wednesday night when he challenges Archie Moore for the world light heavyweight title at New York's Polo Grounds.

The balding middleweight king from San Francisco is a 9-5 underdog, however, against Archie the Gypsy who will be making his fourth defense.

Weight is the big problem for Moore, who had to boll down to 175 pounds. His weight at Las Vegas, May 2, when he whipped Nino Valdes, was announced at 196½ pounds although some claim he really weighed 10 pounds less.

Olson, normally a 168-pounder who has to work hard to make the 160-pound middleweight limit, will come in at about 170 pounds. The bout will be carried by ABC radio and TV.

A victory for Archie will put him in line for a Sept. 22 date with heavyweight champion Rocky Marciano. Gene Polir, already mentioned

But International Body Has Been Useful

U. N. World Very Much Like Old World

WASHINGTON (U)—There was almost an exhilaration in those June days in 1945 at San Francisco when the United Nations was born. There was a sense of a new world born: a world of peace and brotherly cooperation.

Reds Got False Germ Confession From U. S. Pilot

WASHINGTON (U)—An Air Force spokesman says a false germ warfare confession was obtained by Chinese Communists from one of four returned American jet pilots, but no disciplinary action against the officer is planned.

He named the flier as Capt. Harold Fischer Jr., of Suez City, Iowa, a double jet ace of the Korean War who was released May 31 after more than two years in Chinese prison camps.

The spokesman said Fischer and three other fliers released with him also "confessed" to crossing the Yalu River into Chinese territory under Air Force orders. But he said no such orders had been given.

The spokesman said the actions of all four men are under study, but he indicated they probably "will be given a clean bill of health."

The Air Force has declined to discipline any of its men for actions while they were Chinese prisoners, on the ground they were acting under pressure of Communist mistreatment.

The Marine Corps likewise declined to bring court-martial proceedings against Col. Frank Schwabe, a flier who made a false germ warfare confession. The Army, on the other hand, has convicted four former prisoners of war on charges of collaborating with the enemy, and has filed charges against a number of others.

The officers released with Fischer are Lt. Col. Edwin Heller, Wynnewood, Pa.; Lt. Lytle Cameron, Lincoln, Neb.; and Lt. Ronald Parks, Omaha, Neb. The four were tried May 24 on Communist charges of "intruding into China for harassment and provocative attack," Heller told a news conference in Honolulu June 2 that all four pleaded guilty and were ordered "deported" to the United States.

The Air Force spokesman announced the "confessions" in commenting on a copyrighted story published today in the Minneapolis Tribune.

Fischer, now in San Francisco for an appearance at a United Nations anniversary ceremony, was not reached immediately for comment.

The world of the U.N. is now 10 years old. It resembles very much the old world of hatreds, distrusts, wars and fears. Yet, while the U.N. has not worked perfectly, it has been useful.

This week its members' foreign ministers meet in San Francisco to celebrate the anniversary.

The U.N. is a meeting round for nations—a place where to some extent they can influence each other for good through the pressure of world opinion publicly expressed.

The U.N. has failed to produce, as was intended, an international armed force to prevent war. There have been more wars, some of which the U.N. helped settle, but no major war. Some optimists believe a big war may be prevented as long as the nations can meet, if only to revile each other. But if a big war begins, there would be no more U.N.

The U.N. has spread some feelings of cooperation and brotherhood through the health, education and agricultural programs of its various agencies.

It seems certain the world would be different if the United States, unable to depend on the U. N.'s nonexistent international army, had not gone outside the U.N. to protect itself.

That was done through the alliances this country made with its non-Communist friends in Europe and Asia. Russia also went outside the U.N. to make its Communist alliances.

In 1945 the Allies, in blood and mutual sacrifice, had won the Hitlerian war which ended in May. It did not seem far-fetched at the time to think they might, with less effort, stick together to keep peace.

The wishful may have thought so. The realistic kept their fingers crossed. No one at San Francisco was more realistic than the representatives of the United States and Russia.

They put the veto into the U.N. Charter, useful both as a fire escape and as a roadblock they could employ against each other when they wished.

Without the veto, a two-thirds vote of the U.N. members could have obligated them to act in a crucial situation contrary to their desires or their interests. Neither would take a chance on that. Russia, in fact, has used the veto 60 times to block what it didn't like, until now it has rendered the Security Council all but helpless whenever Russia wants to make it so.

And the United States not knowing what the future held, wasn't giving the U.N. a blank check either. Both nations reserved the right to say no and block action on a major issue before the Security Council.

Total Eclipse Falls Over Asia

COLOMBO, Ceylon (U)—The moon totally eclipsed the sun over South Asia today.

Heavy unseasonal rain clouds blocked the view of the eclipse from observation posts set up by most foreign and Ceylonese scientists.

But only a light cloud was over the central Ceylon spot guarded by an American team from Harvard University. A spokesman said the phenomenon was fully visible for the four minutes that the eclipse was total, beginning about 8:10 a.m.

"We are quite happy," one of the Americans said. "Our experiments were very successful."

German technicians attached to a combined British-Ceylonese team kept copiously when a single black cloud obscured their view. The team was trying to check theories of the late Albert Einstein and had brought with them a telescope designed for Potsdam University, where Einstein once taught.

The Harvard team took pictures of the sun's infrared spectrum and another of the corona—the ring of incandescent hydrogen gas from the sun outlining the moon's shadow—in an effort to determine its precise shade. In the Philippines, an American scientist was flown in a U.S. Air Force jet trainer to record the event on special cameras.

The eclipse began at sunrise in the Indian Ocean, along the eastern coast of Africa and southern Arabia. As the earth rotated, it streaked at 24 miles a minute—visible entirely or in part—across India, China, the Indochinese and Malay peninsulas, Indonesia, northern Australia and the Philippines.

The 180-mile-wide path of total darkness streaked 7,200 miles across Ceylon, south Siam, central Indochina and the Philippines.

The longest totality lasted 7 minutes 7.9 seconds, at one point in the South China Sea. New York's Hayden Planetarium said many scientists think it was the longest since 1719 A. D.

The American continents didn't see it. The last total eclipse was June 30, 1954. Its path crossed the upper United States and eastern Canada. The next visible in the United States will come Oct. 2, 1959, and will be seen only in some of New England.

Only Few Seats Exchanged In French Electoral Test

PARIS (U)—Half of France's upper house was renewed yesterday in the nation's biggest electoral test before the 1953 national assembly elections. The results showed little change in the political climate, with the major French parties swapping only six seats so far.

The vote for members of the Council of the Republic (Senate) went almost unnoticed. It was an indirect election with the public having no part.

The campaign has been extremely quiet—confined mostly to luncheons and small get-togethers among professional politicians.

The Senate is the advisory upper house of the French Parliament. Its members are elected for six-year terms, with half the group named each three years. It can delay legislation, but cannot finally veto actions of the dominant assembly.

The election was done by deputies of the lower house, members of the municipal councils, members of regional councils and some supplementary electors representing larger towns.

Up for renewal yesterday were 153 seats—123 from metropolitan France, 3 from Algeria and 25 from overseas areas. The National Assembly will name six additional senators next month to represent Frenchmen living in Morocco, Tunisia and other foreign territories.

TOY TELEPHONE FATAL NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—A 6-month-old boy, just learning to crawl, jammed a toy telephone into his throat and died before it could be withdrawn.

Mrs. Karl G. Erdelbel said she left her son Joseph alone yesterday for only a few moments. When she returned she found the boy in his throat.

Efforts to pull the toy out brought on severe bleeding, so the boy was rushed to a hospital. He was dead on arrival.

Weekend Mishaps Kill 4 In State

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS Violent accidents killed four persons in Florida over the weekend. Three of them were the result of highway traffic.

The toll, however, was far below the 20 persons who died in many types of violence the weekend before. Twelve were victims of traffic then.

Highway patrolmen at Tallahassee said they were unable to account for the sudden slowdown in traffic deaths but reported that the entire state apparently was "quite."

A 26-year-old sailor crashed a motorcycle into a telephone pole near Jacksonville yesterday. He was Marshall Ray Webb, of Kansas City, Kan., from the aircraft carrier USS Lake Champlain.

Stamps?

(Continued From Page One) "I'll go tit," he chuckles. Probably his favorite coin, and no doubt the most valuable, is a commemorative half dollar minted in Hawaii 150th anniversary coin-1928. It was given to him in 1935 by the late John H. Mackey, former Florida state labor inspector, with the following note:

"Friend Gail, Please accept with my friendship this coin, the smallest number ever issued of a commemorative U. S. coin, only 10,000. The entire lot sold out in 1 hour at $2 each. In 2 weeks later after issue they sold at $5 and in 1930 sold up to $17. Value today $10 but this coin will be one of rarest and one of the most valuable. Yours, Mackey"

And Mr. Mackey's visions seem to have come true in grand style. According to the latest information which "Friday" has the coin is now worth $97.50.

"Friday" was born in State Center, Iowa, in 1878 and his parents named him Gail Borden. After his father's employer, the founder of the Borden Co., "My father worked for Mr. Borden for 15 years when he was just starting out," he says. Friday gained his nickname in Jacksonville many years ago because he was "always everybody's man Friday."

"If I had it to do all over again, I'd never get started in this foolish stamp business," he says. "I've accumulated so much junk I can't even try to keep track of it anymore."

Italian Police Seek Group In $305,000 New York Robbery

5 Holdup Suspects Hunted

ROME (AP)—An order was flashed to police throughout Italy today to keep a close watch for four men and a pretty girl, suspected of complicity in New York's daring $305,000 robbery of the Chase Manhattan Bank branch last April.

There was no arrest order. But the word went out to find the suspects and trail them until further orders.

Interpol, the little-publicized International Police Organization which acts as a U. N. against crime, gave the word.

Police said the leader of the group is believed to be Giuseppe Taro, also known as John Michael di Tacco, a 31-year-old New Yorker.

They gave the names of those with him as John Timothy O'Connell, 35, Daniel William McGuire, 28, Peter Jerome

Kirkham, 31, of Manchester, England, and Jeannette Forest, 27, of Montreal, Canada.

Police speculated that if they are trying to get away through Italy, they probably hope to slip through to Africa or the Middle East in a small ship.

No roadblocks or other extraordinary measures have been ordered. They are not necessary in Italy. No one—not even an Italian—can get public lodging without filling out a police form. Each of these is checked within hours. Foreigners must show passports. Wanted persons usually are turned up within 24 to 48 hours.

A North Italian police officer reported the tipoff came when Di Tacco sent a cable to New York June 17 asking a man under surveillance there to help him reach an Italian contact.

Last night Naples police were told to be on the lookout. Today the order was broadened.

But police emphasized there were no charges against the group and that they had no arrest order. They simply want to locate them and keep them under surveillance as long as they stay in Italy.

The hunt centered today in Naples. It has been a center for deported American hoodlums with Italian contacts.

The Queens robbery was still being investigated by four men on April 6. Their haul was mostly in $5, 10 and 20 dollar bills which the bank had on hand to meet a payroll that day.

Geneva Parley Plans Approved By West, Soviet

By MAX HARRISON

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Russia and the Western Powers were reported to have reached a virtual agreement early today in arrangements for the top-level talks in Geneva next month.

Informed quarters said Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov told the Western diplomats at the end of a four-hour meeting that at first sight he saw no reason to object to a series of proposals they had agreed on in New York last week.

He was understood to have told them he would study the proposals more carefully and give his reply in a day or two. The Western foreign ministers apparently were so certain of his acceptance that no further meeting was arranged.

Diplomats at the meeting said Secretary of State John Foster Dulles, British Foreign Secretary Harold Macmillan and French Foreign Minister Antoine Pinay had proposed that:

1. The purpose of the summit meeting should be to ease world tension and not to negotiate the settlement of specific problems.
2. The meetings should last from four to six days.

3. President Eisenhower should be the first presiding officer, to be followed by French Premier Edgar Faure, British Prime Minister Sir Anthony Eden and Soviet Premier Nikolai Bulganin.
4. The meetings should be held in the Palais des Nations, U. N. headquarters in Geneva, and that the U. N. should be requested to service the sessions.

5. No council of foreign ministers should be held before the chiefs of government meet.

The four foreign ministers will have dinner together tonight with Pinay as host, but no serious discussions were planned.

These developments came as the U. N.'s 10th anniversary meeting got down to its long program of speeches on the world outlook.

Macmillan was scheduled to deliver a policy declaration for Britain—the first major foreign policy pronouncement since last month's British elections.

President Eisenhower's opening address was praised by other delegates as excellent and inspirational.

The President, speaking yesterday afternoon, pledged that he would uphold the principles of the U. N. Charter at the Geneva conference. He declared this a "season of high hope" for world peace.

"The United States will leave no stone unturned to work for peace," he said. "We shall respect no method, however novel, that holds out any hope however faint."

Two guards were wounded in the escape attempt that took place in a corridor outside the office of Sup. L. P. Chapman. Heron's former wife Ruth and her husband Raymond Staffs of Miami, have pleaded guilty to smuggling the gun to him.

Heron, serving a 25-year term at the time for a Miami armed robbery, is also under 25 years sentence for robbery of two Kansas banks in 1931.

Trial Set For Convict In Killing Of Official

Budget Promises Air Superiority, Senators Asser!

Democrats Edge Toward Attack On Eisenhower

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senators Byrd (D-Va.) and Symington (D-Mo.) said today a $31,882,000,000 defense money bill will help keep America ahead of Russia in long-range aerial striking power.

The Senate passed the bill 80-0 yesterday and sent it back to the House, where a somewhat different version was approved some time ago.

One of the major differences was a Senate amendment designed to block a proposed 22,000-man reduction in the Marine Corps. This amendment was adopted 40-39. It was President Eisenhower's first reversal on a major military recommendation since he entered the White House.

The bill would provide funds to arm and support a military force scheduled to be trimmed from 2,061,300 men as of June 30 to 2,881,000 a year later.

It carries 356 million dollars more than the House voted to step up production of long-range bombers.

Left intact were House-approved provisions to reduce the Army by 27,000 men to a new level of 1,027,000, to cut the Navy by 8,000 men to 664,000 and to increase the Air Force from 910,000 to 975,000 men.

This trial is a civil action to cancel Bridges' citizenship on the ground that he obtained it by fraud on Sept. 17, 1945, after falsely swearing he never had belonged to the Communist party.

Bridges and his trio of lawyers exchanged startled looks yesterday when Lynn J. Gillard, chief assistant U. S. attorney, suddenly summoned him to the stand as an adverse government witness on the opening day of trial.

Defense attorney Richard Gladstein protested the move was "unfair surprise" but Federal Judge Louis E. Goodman overruled the objection.

Survivors include the widow, Mrs. Mattie Wheeler, two daughters, Mrs. P. M. Campbell, Mrs. R. L. Kemp, of Jacksonville; and one granddaughter, Miss June Kemp, Jacksonville.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Democrats took a step yesterday toward open attack on President Eisenhower with the 40-39 Senate vote aimed at canceling his cut in Marine Corps strength.

It was the first successful major challenge in Congress toward open attack on President Eisenhower with the 40-39 Senate vote aimed at canceling his cut in Marine Corps strength.

The result, engineered by Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas, the Democratic leader, could encourage other assaults on the Eisenhower program.

It might signal a shift in strategy, supplanting what has become the general Democratic theme that the President is a man of stature but can't lead a divided Republic.

Symington, who dropped plans aimed at canceling Army cutbacks as well, said in an interview:

"I don't think the senators who voted to reduce the Marine Corps, which is composed of volunteers, are going to be able to explain that when they are questioned by the parents of men who are drafted for other services."

Symington aimed directly at Eisenhower. He suggested the President wasn't infallible when, as a consultant, he approved a low military budget before the Korean War.

Sen. Margaret Chase Smith (R-Maine) took Symington to task for what she called an attempt to "discredit the President's military judgment." Sen. Goldwater (R-Ariz.) said no one could have foreseen the attack in Korea.

Heroux Is Sane Judge Informed By Psychiatrists

LAKE BUTLER (AP)—George A. Heroux Jr. is scheduled to go on trial Monday for the fatal shooting of J. G. Godwin, assistant state prison superintendent, at Raiford April 4.

Circuit Judge George L. Patten found the 25-year-old convict sane here yesterday after listening to a report by two Jacksonville psychiatrists who had been named to examine him.

Drs. William Ingram Jr. and William H. McCullagh said Heroux was mentally competent to stand trial.

The court deferred ruling on a motion by defense counsel John E. Sauter Jr. of Jacksonville for a change of the trial site. The attorney said it would be difficult to obtain jurors who had not formed an opinion in this county where the state prison is located.

Heroux, arraigned on a murder indictment after the court's ruling, listened impassively while the charge was read. He said nothing and his attorney entered a plea of innocent for the heavily guarded prisoner.

Two guards were wounded in the escape attempt that took place in a corridor outside the office of Sup. L. P. Chapman. Heron's former wife Ruth and her husband Raymond Staffs of Miami, have pleaded guilty to smuggling the gun to him.

Heron, serving a 25-year term at the time for a Miami armed robbery, is also under 25 years sentence for robbery of two Kansas banks in 1931.
