

Holland's Views On Cloture And FEPC Re-Stated

Re-affirms Stand On Taft-Hartley Law, Tidelands Question

BARTOW — Spenser L. Holland re-stated his stand on the FEPC, the tidelands question, the Taft-Hartley Law and the senate rule on the limited debate.

That means Holland is against the FEPC and any move to clamp a time limit on senate debate. He wants the Taft-Hartley Law kept by all means and is dead set to the states to control offshore, sub merged lands.

He says he is sure his stand or viewpoint is right at the National Democratic Convention. He had planned to work for Stevenson's election because the Illinois governor struck him as a moderate Democrat.

Then, Holland related in effect Stevenson got too chummy with President Truman and turned his entire campaign into one of appealing to the ultra liberal voter. So Holland just kept quiet.

Holland was asked in an interview if he expected the GOP administration to pay any attention to him and Sen. George Smathers on patronage.

"I certainly do," Holland said. "I explained to Smathers and Smithers 'will have our own confirmation power,' adding 'I suppose they will consult us in advance.'"

About the whopping vote Florida gave Republican candidate Eisenhauer and the GOP victories in Pinellas and Sarasota Counties, Holland said "As the state as a whole, I don't see any two-party state." He admitted, though, the "Republicans have made progress in Florida."

Will the Florida flood control project and Jim Woodruff Dam in West Florida be affected by the new administration?

"I don't believe they will be affected in the slightest," Holland replied. He said "After all the flood control project was authorized in the 80th Congress which was controlled by the Democrats."

Those things in Florida shown to be in the interest of defense will not be changed by Republicans, he predicted. For instance, the negotiation of deepening the East Coast Intracoastal Canal beyond Cocoa will depend upon its value from a defense standpoint.

In this connection, Holland reported that appropriations already have been made for the reactivation of big Air Force bases at Eglin, Fort Rucker and Fort Gordon. The speed of their completion depends upon Air Force needs, he said.

Of veteran administration facilities, he said an appropriation has been voted for improving the VA hospital at Lake City and advertising for bids probably will be made sometime this month.

The future of proposed VA facilities at Gainesville and Tallahassee, he went on, depends on the results of an overall study by Congress.

Switching to what lies ahead in the new Congress, he said "I think we can reduce the size of the House."

Holland will be the third ranking Democrat on the Senate Public Works Committee and the fourth ranked Democrat on the Agriculture and Forestry Committee. He also is a member of the Democratic Steering Committee which makes committee assignments.

There has been some talk in Washington Holland might take spot on the Senate Foreign Relations Committee. He wouldn't comment on that, if he does, he would give up one of the other committees.

Holland has a major bill drawn for putting before the new Senate on tidelands. He was one of the leaders in getting similar bill through the last Congress but Truman vetoed it.

"It looks like we have an excellent chance of passing it this time," he said.

The senator said his bill will provide that states gain control of coastal lands out to what he calls "their constitutional boundaries" three miles offshore everywhere except West Florida and Texas where the limit would be 10 1/2 miles.

Three Persons Die, 3 Hurt In Chicago Fire

CHICAGO — Three persons perished and three others were believed burned to death in a fire yesterday which destroyed a South Side furniture store and warehouse. An explosion preceded the spectacular blaze.

Firemen found the bodies of two men and a woman in the smoldering ruins of the four-story building of the General Furniture Company at 1315 South Halsted Street.

Firemen said another employee, a salesman, and two unidentified women customers were reported missing in the basement at the time the explosion and fire broke out. They were trapped by flames. Firemen searched the debris for their bodies.

Employees were in the store, located in the heart of the city's largest neighborhood business center, when the fire broke out. An alarm four were accounted for.

Police identified the dead as Earl A. Smith, 54, the store's person manager; Earl Hildbrand, 35, a salesman; and a woman whose name was not disclosed.

of road materials sales kickback continued its hearing today with testimony from Chester B. Treadway, Tavares, head of the now closed Construction Equipment Co.

This is the firm which S. L. Kilgore charges was set up as a collecting agency for 10 cent a ton rake-offs on road materials sales.

H. A. Bargeon, Orlando, another defendant in the Kilgore suit, preceded Treadway.

Before entering he angrily denounced newspapers, the Orlando Sentinel in particular, for giving prominent coverage to the Kilgore charges.

When he came out Bargeon, addressing a Sentinel reporter covering the hearing, said "Now print any thing you want to."

"Thanks I will," the newsman replied.

"I'll knock the ... out of you, too," was Bargeon's retort.

TALLAHASSEE — A representative of an Orlando civic club and an attorney came here today to offer to the governor petitions to remove three Orlando City Commissioners.

Thomas Comer, who described himself as a special representative of the West Church Street Improvement Assn., and Maxwell Weeks, an attorney, said they planned to offer to the governor petitions for the ouster of City Commissioners E. H. Moses, William James and Walter Hans.

They said they had 1228 signatures on their petition to remove Moses, 1103 on that for ouster of James and 1071 for removal of Hans.

Each of the petitions charged the commissioners usurped the powers of the mayor in making appointments, refused to confirm his appointments and removed "faithful" employees arbitrarily.

No action could be taken in the matter until a contract has been signed with the City. Mr. Coleman pointed out that the contract would be of a nature similar to the one between the City and the power company for power at the sewage disposal plant at the Sanford Naval Air Station. This contract was inactivated, he said, after the Navy took over the facility.

Mayor Stempier was authorized to enter into a contract with the company. Mr. Coleman said the field could be in operation under the new set-up in a month's time after the contract is signed.

No one appeared either for or against the rezoning of the west side of Laurel Avenue, between Ninth and Tenth Streets from one-family to a commercial industrial classification.

The hearing concerning the proposed rezoning was held at the authorizing pending the sale of the property to the Southern Bell Telephone Company. The property is the site of the company's proposed exchange building.

A letter was read from W. B. Williams, head of the local Area Rent Control office, and another from Capt. J. L. Chittenden, commander of the Sanford Naval Air Station, concerning the rezoning of the west side of Laurel Avenue, between Ninth and Tenth Streets from one-family to a commercial industrial classification.

Both men concurred with the rezoning and recommended the rezoning be continued. The City Manager was authorized to write the letter.

A report was received from the Sealed bids for auditing the City books were deferred until the next meeting of the Commission.

Points Needed For Rotation Home Are Increased By Two

TOKYO — Behind the lines in Korea will need two additional points for rotation home after Jan. 1.

Gen. Mark W. Clark's headquarters today gave lack of replacements from the U. S. as the reason.

There was no change in the rotation requirement of nine months service — 36 points — for soldiers at the front. Rear area troops will need 40 instead of 38 points.

Troops at the front get four rotation points a month. Those near the front get three and soldiers far from the front get two.

Soldiers in Japan whose families are with them get one point month by others get 1 1/2.

Clark, Far Eastern commander, and Washington have disagreed in recent months on the problem of adequate replacements. Pending pressure forced Clark on Oct. 22 to withdraw an order increasing the battle-line rotation requirement from 36 to 38 points.

Saturday the Army's February draft call was upped to 1,000 men — the highest quota since early in the Korean War.

Clark's headquarters said the new increase "is made necessary because of lack of receipt of sufficient replacements from the United States to continue rotation in January on the basis of 36 (points) and still maintain the combat effectiveness of the Army and other Army units throughout the command."

It added that rotation requirements after January would depend upon the situation.

"The decision to retain the rotation criteria at 36 (points) for Zone A (front line) is in line with the previously announced policy of giving priority consideration to troops in the forward combat zone who are daily exposed to the greatest dangers and hardships," the statement added.

Near Record Is Set For Strikes During Year Just Closing

WASHINGTON, Dec. 30 — The year just closing brought more strikes and more idleness from work stoppages than any period since the industrial convulsions of 1946, the Labor Department reported today.

It said 4,950 stoppages began in 1952. This was close to the record of 4,985 set in 1946 when labor went after its "first round" of post-war wage boosts.

The 1946 strike wave had much to do with enactment of the Taft-Hartley Industrial Relations Act in the following year. Stoppages in 1952 exceeded—in number of shutdowns, workers involved, and days of production—any previous year under the Taft-Hartley law.

Thirty-four major stoppages, involving more than 10,000 workers each, were recorded in the survey made by the Bureau of Labor Statistics (BLS). The biggest was the two-month strike of the CIO United Steelworkers.

AFL unions were involved in 17 of the major stoppages, CIO unions in 12, and independent unions in 5. The industry most hit was construction; it had 7 big strikes, 4 of them affecting projects of the Atomic Energy Commission.

Strikes of all sizes outnumbered the 1951 total by about 5 per cent but man-days of idleness more than doubled—increasing from $2,900,000 in 1951 to $5 million this year. (A man day is the time of one man for one day.)

Some 3 1/2 million workers were involved in this year's stoppages, an increase of 2,200,000 last year. Economic issues, primarily wages, were the dominant cause of the large shutdowns, BLS said. In several cases, including the steel strike, the wage issue was related to demands for union security.

Plane Missing With Ten Persons Aboard

MANILA, (AP)—Philippine Airlines said today a DC-3 passenger plane is missing en route to northern Luzon with seven passengers and three crew members.

Two of the passengers were identified as Marshall Mann of San Francisco and Mary Irton, he flew to live in a small town near Cincinnati. Both are employees of the United States Information Service in Manila.

The twin-engine plane left Laoag in Ilocos Norte province this morning for Aparri, about 100 miles away.

Spread Of Strike In Singapore Threatens

SINGAPORE, (AP)—The strike of 10,000 workers in the Singapore Naval Base threatened today to spread to the base medical services. Fifty hospital attendants said they are waiting to receive their wages on Friday before joining the strike on Saturday.

They said grievances over pay conditions submitted to the Admiralty two years ago were still unsettled. The strikers are asking higher pay, increased living allowances, pension rights and sick leave.

Strange Story Of Shanghaied Negro Recounted In Ohio

COLUMBUS, O. — The strange story of the shanghaiing of an Alabama Negro as a prison point from Detroit and his lodging in an Ohio jail was disclosed last night as Michigan state police attempted to prevent the man's return to the South.

Michigan Gov. G. Mennen Williams telegraphed Ohio Gov. Frank J. Lausche imploring his aid. But the telegram reached Lausche after Gerda Hill, 21, an auto plant worker, was released from the Toledo jail in the custody of the man who transported him there.

Toledo Police Chief Ray E. Allen said a man who identified himself as Birmingham Deputy H. Batson had placed Hill in the jail. Batson had explained they were "in transit." He produced an Alabama warrant charging Hill with bond jumping.

Hill told the police he was accosted on a Detroit street at pistol point, handcuffed and shanghaiied across the state line.

At Birmingham chief Deputy Wilton E. Hogan said Batson was not a deputy sheriff. A Birmingham hooding company said one of its employees, H. Brady Batson Jr., had gone to Detroit to pick up a bond.

The Negro reportedly had jumped a $50 bond after he was arrested for driving without a license.

Michigan had not authorized Hill's extradition and sought his return to the state. Ohio highway patrol said the man had ample time to get out of the state.

Move Made To Keep Langer From Senate

GRAND FORKS, N. D. — State Senator J. B. Bridston said today he plans to mail to Washington, probably today, a petition asking that Sen. Langer (R-N.D.) "stand aside" when other senators take their oaths at the opening of the new Congress.

He said the petition would ask that the North Dakota senator be prevented from taking his oath until an investigation is made of various charges. Legislation bills Langer has sponsored.

Bridston said earlier that Langer has introduced a large number of bills which had the effect of allowing certain aliens whom the government is trying to deport to stay in this country.

Langer himself predicted earlier that a move would be made to keep him out of the Senate, but that the move would fail. Langer is slated to head the Senate Judiciary Committee in the new Congress.

Rubinstein Seeks Help Of Court To Stop Deportation

WASHINGTON (AP) — Serge M. Rubinstein, Russian-born financier and convicted draft dodger, today asked the U. S. district court to prevent his deportation.

His attorney filed a suit seeking an order barring Attorney General McGranery from taking Rubinstein in custody or deporting him.

McGranery yesterday ordered Rubinstein taken into custody by 4 p. m. today for deportation.

Rubinstein, 44, has been fighting deportation for nearly 10 years.

Rubinstein's complaint to U. S. district court, filed by attorney Jack Wasserman of Washington, contends that no moral turpitude grounds for deportation was involved in the draft dodging conviction.

Rubinstein said in the complaint that he has no passport and no right to enter any foreign country. In such circumstances, aliens who are taken into custody for deportation are usually held at Ellis Island, N. Y., without bail.

Discussing Rubinstein's case last night, a justice Department official said that normally he would be ordered to Russia but would be given a chance to select some country that would accept him.

Canada has extended official recognition to the new state.

Canada thus becomes the 34th country to recognize Viet Nam, which has a kind of dominion status within the French union. The other two associated states are

WEDNESDAY DEC. 31, 1952

Happy New Year!

Florida is getting a lot of good publicity these days in northern newspapers and magazines.

It will cost $335,000,000 to operate the state of Florida for the next two years, Governor-elect Dan McCarthy is told. And the part about it is it probably will.

Now that this is the season for good New Year resolutions, would not it be a fine thing if everyone would turn over a new leaf and not say anything unkind about anyone else unless they are sure it is true?

The four day Christmas weekend took a toll of American lives amounting to 740, not including the injured victims or property damage. There will be another big toll over the New Year weekend. Make sure you are not included in it.

We see where Gerhart Eisler, the Communist who fled this country a few years ago because he was so in love with Russian ways, has been fired as chief Soviet propagandist in the Russian zone of Berlin because of his extravagant expense account. Oh, well, here today, gunned tomorrow.

What were the ten best movies of 1952? Your guess is as good as the next one's but here are some included in the New York Herald Tribune's selections: "High Noon," starring Gary Cooper; "Limelight" with Charlie Chaplin; "The African Queen" John Huston's famous African adventure; "Viva Zapata" by John Steinbeck featuring Marlon Brando; and Cecil B. DeMille's great spectacle "The Greatest Show on Earth." There may be better pictures than those but it would be hard to find them.

From Tuskegee Institute, Negro college, founded by Booker T. Washington in Alabama, comes a report of a new record in which all right thinking southerners can rejoice. For the first time in the 70 years since the Institute has been keeping a record, not a single lynching in the entire country has been reported for a 12 month period. For further evidence of the decline in lynchings the Institute reports that for the ten year period from 1913 to 1922 there were 597 lynchings; for the ten year period from 1943 to 1952 there were 21. For the past fifty years, 66 percent of all lynchings during the half century took place in the first ten years, only a little over 2 percent in the last ten years. One cannot escape the conclusion from this that lynching is no longer a serious national problem and that federal anti-lynching laws are unnecessary.

Emma Clarissa Clement, selected as "Mother of the Year" in 1946 by the Golden Rule Foundation, died the other day at the age of 79. She was the granddaughter of a slave, was born in Kentucky, and graduated from Livingston College in 1898. "I have always believed that parents are responsible for how their children turn out," she said, so she devoted most of her life to the rearing of her children. "The best way to keep track of them is to keep them at home," she said, so she made her home as hospitable for them as she could. She raised seven children and saw all of them through college. One of them is now secretary of A.M.E. Church's missionary society. Another is president of Atlanta University; and is a college professor. One is in the State College. She is now a field director for the American Red Cross in Italy; another is an Army chaplain with the 8888 Central Postal Directory in London; and another is in the U.S. Army in England.

Behind And Ahead

Soon 1952 will be a date in the history books, a period of past time, a memory point for events that happened during the days it was marked on the calendar. At the close of the year a man finds himself thinking of the twelve months he has just lived and of the year that lies ahead, now, frightening because it is new, hopeful because it is the nature of man to look ahead with hope.

The year 1952 brought different things to different people. Yet there is a bond of common experience and the patterns of all lives are similar. There was sorrow and suffering, dear ones departed. There were quiet times when a moment of peace rested the heart and refreshed the soul. There was the joy of the birth of a child, symbol of the continuity of life and a promise of eternity.

There were Spring and Summer. Fall and Winter in 1952, as there have been before. There were sorrows and beauty, harsh sounds of impending war and reasoned words of good men who sought to find a way to peace. For some fortune smiled, for others the year was a grim struggle to continue to exist.

Through the year man continued his upending journey forward, falling and slipping sometimes as the way grew rough, but always getting up, dusting himself off and being journeyed to move along the road again. It was a journey whose beginnings have been lost in the ages of man's history, one that cannot end as long as man holds the spark of divine life within his bosom.

This was 1952 and it is behind us. Ahead—who knows? It is only safe to say that there will be wonder, adventure and a chance for man to rise to new magnificence.

No Smoke, No Fire

The first Russian attempt to exploit the incident in which 82 Communist prisoners-of-war were killed in a prison camp riot in Korea has failed. After an all-night session, during which Soviet diplomats hurled invective and abuse instead of presenting evidence, the United Nations General Assembly voted 45 to 5 to reject a Russian resolution to condemn the United States for what the Reds called "mass murders."

Americans deplore the unfortunate incident. It goes against the grain for us to hear of unarmed prisoners shot by soldiers, even when the soldiers are our own, the prisoners our enemies and the killings unavoidable. But in war the rule of "kill or be killed" is the only one on which an individual or a nation can operate. When rioting prisoners threaten the lives of their guards, those in charge have no choice.

Russia will do its best to use the 82 dead prisoners for propaganda purposes. Distorted and told with half-truths and deliberate fictions the story may be believed in some quarters of the world where people are suspicious of the United States.

To counter this our government might do well to volunteer to submit the matter to an investigating committee of nations not involved. This would not satisfy the Reds and they would probably scorn any such investigation as they did the offers to investigate the ridiculous charges of germ warfare leveled against the US. But it might serve to convince nations too well informed to accept Red charges at face value, yet willing to believe a small fraction of the lies on the grounds that where there is smoke there is fire.

We must show that there is neither fire nor smoke.

THE WORLD TODAY
By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON P — That man of the year, the little man, any guy trying to sit out this New Year's Eve quietly, finished reading his paper and leaned back. He could hear his wife in the kitchen with the dishes.

He reached over in turn on the TV and then didn't. Later, this was going to be a noisy night. He'd turn it on around midnight and he could look at the mobs in the night clubs blowing horns.

He always liked to sit back and watch other people perform. He had done plenty of performing himself on other New Year's Eves. That seemed a long time ago, not so long. Just a few years. Well, why not this year.

Maybe it was because he was a little older. He got up and looked in the mirror. Not much older. He could still parade around if he wanted to. But this time he was glad he was home.

"Why don't you turn on the machine," his wife said. "I'll be in a minute." He said "All right" and turned on the TV switch. Some people guessting about a man in a suit, one that cannot end as long as man holds the spark of divine life within his bosom.

This was 1952 and it is behind us. Ahead—who knows? It is only safe to say that there will be wonder, adventure and a chance for man to rise to new magnificence.

hops for the best, he told the cowboy who was just saying goodbye to the girl.

He could hear his wife turn off the kitchen light-switch. She'd be in a second. Here come the arguments over which station, he thought. He had a whole new year of arguments coming up.

There are some 3,000 species of rodent.

Sanfordites Attend Tampa Convention

Mrs. A. B. Duxbury and a group of her dancing students have returned from Tampa where they attended the Dance Masters of America convention held at the Tampa Terrace Hotel. The meeting opened with a reception in the Caribbean Room on Dec. 20; and on Dec. 21 six hours of classes for the dancing group were followed with a banquet in the Palm Room.

Featured at the banquet was a floor show consisting of students of members of the Florida Chapter. Miss Joni Saunders performed a novelty toe number, "Take Me Out To the Ball Game"; and Miss Claudette Waitz, an acrobatic tap entitled "Grand Central Station." The floor show was followed with a party for all students given by the Mother's Club of St. Petersburg.

Classes continued on Sunday with advanced work for teachers only, a round table discussion and a luncheon meeting. Ann Whitaker, a former student of the Duxbury School of Dancing, was examined in tap and ballet and will be accepted by the organization in the March meeting.

Ionian Singers To Appear Here Jan. 9

Presenting a portion of their program without accompaniment, the Ionian Singers will appear in the auditorium of the Southside Primary School at 8:00 p.m. Jan. 9, under the auspices of the Municipal Concerts of Sanford.

Doing all their rehearsing of a cappella music without the aid of a piano, these men say that singing can be more precise in intonation than possible to achieve with instrumental assistance.

They have endeavored to build their programs in such a way as to make them rewarding to the lovers of abstract music, and, at the same time, interesting through-out to the many persons who come for entertainment instead of education.

The repertoire of a vocal ensemble is different from that available to instrumental groups. Long works in sonata form seem never to have been attempted for concerted voices, but the Ionians have been able to introduce variety of style, mood and expression in their selection of the smaller, available forms.

Lake Mary Church To Hold Watchcare

Kelly McAllister, who will emphasize the spiritual part of their lives, the members should remember in the coming year.

Although he lives in Tampa, the Rev. McAllister has worked closely with the Lake Mary Church during the past months of his pastorate. He is looking forward to an active year.

Miss Sayer, Mr. Wright Exchange Vows In Lovely Baptist Candlelight Service

The marriage of Norma Jean Sayer and Robert Welcher Wright was solemnized last night at the First Baptist Church amid beautiful decorations in silver and white. Profusions of tapers sprinkled with star dust lighted the wedding scene.

The ceremony was performed by Dr. W. P. Brooks Jr. at 8:00 o'clock against a background of white chrysanthemums and poinsettias with fern trees sprinkled with the glitter dust. Family pews were marked with satin rings decorated with clusters of silver foliage and holly. Glitter dust also sprinkled the lighted tapers and magnolia leaves in the windows of the church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Holt Newton Sayer of this city and Mr. Wright's parents are Mr. and Mrs. George Frederick Wright of Savannah, N. Y.

Prior to the ceremony Mrs. Evans McCoy rendered a program of nuptial music including "Evening Star" by Wagner and "Daybreak" by Ferdi Grofe. Dick Aiken, tenor, sang "Wonderful One" and "At Dawning". The traditional wedding marches were used and following the ceremony the Lord's Prayer was sung by Mr. Aiken as the benediction.

Mr. Sayer gave his daughter in marriage. The bride was beautiful in a gown of imported French lace and satin. The off-shoulder fitted bodice was finished with a yoke of tulle and featured long tapered sleeves which ended in points over the hands. Panels of the lovely lace extended the full length of the voluminous skirt which ended in a Cathedral train. Her train length veil of French illusion fell in triple tiers from a calot of illusion and lace applique outlined with iridescent flakes. The bride carried a satin covered Prayer Book with a white orchid showered with lily of the valley and white satin streamers. She wore a heart-shaped pearl encrusted pin, given to her by the bridegroom.

The attendants were gowned alike and included Mrs. Kenneth Hagen Wright, maid of honor; and Mrs. Charles LeGrette of Orlando. Mrs. Gerald Lossing, Mrs. Robert Frisch of Long Island, Mrs. Lew Draper of Lake Wales and Mrs. James Kynes of Cocoa Beach, as bridesmaids. Junior bridesmaid was Miss Cynthia Sinclair of Atlanta, cousin of the bride.

They wore beautiful gowns of white embroidered net, white tulle and satin. At the waistlines were satin girdles with ruffled bodices of silver embroidered net. Silver metallic embroidered panels were set in the voluminous skirts of net. All the attendants wore white gloves and carried bluing ring bouquets with side arrangements of white camellias and silver balls. The junior bridesmaid, Miss Sinclair, wore short gloves and also carried the white camellias bouquets with silver.

Little Martha Jean Tappie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Tappie, was the flower girl and wore an exact duplicate of the bride's dress. She carried a small nosegay of white camellias and baby orchids.

Serving as best man for Mr. Wright was Glenn Lingie Jr. and the groomsmen were Gerald Lossing, Charles LeGrette, Lester Guthrie, James Kynes of Cocoa Beach, Thomas Vaughn, Dr. Neil Powell and Kenneth Hagen. Young Jimmy Barke served as ring bearer.

Mrs. Sayer, the mother of the bride, wore a navy satin formal gown fashioned with portrait neckline and matching stole. She wore a corsage of bronze Lady Slipper orchids. The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Wright, was gowned in garnet colored tulle with a cordian pleat trimming. The dress featured a very full skirt and matching stole. She wore a corsage of garnet colored camellias with a white satin cloth upon which was a five tiered wedding cake topped with white orchids. Silver candelabra held white tapered dusted with glitter dust and the table was decorated with white camellias. Punch was served from another table, also covered with a white satin cloth and centered with white bride's roses. Crystal and silver appointments were used.

Greeting the guests at the door were Mrs. A. W. Lee, Mrs. F. E. Roumfilat, Mrs. C. W. Baker and Mrs. W. E. Kitchhoff Jr. Showed them to the receiving line were Mrs. L. F. Boyle, Mrs. Glenn Lingie, Mrs. Julius Dingfelder and Mrs. P. H. Tappie. Presiding at the bride's table were Mrs. Wilford Conrad, Mrs. Alfred Doudney, Miss Betty Duncan and Miss Ann Edson of Orlando.
