It's the mud that keeps them coming!

It's oocy, gooey, gushy and cold! And It's full of dead things. What more could you want if you're a fifth grader?
In the 20 years of its existence, more than 250,000 atudents have experienced the Super Mud Walk at the Seminole County Environmental Studies Center. While the study center offers a wide variety of learning experiences, it's the mud walk that is the most popular with the students.

The Environmental Study Center opened in 1977. Pat Burketti environmental education specialist, has been there from the start. She said that the mud walk was just part of the program originally con-ceived to increase environmental awareness, knowledge and responsibility, and to engender feelings of protectiveness for the environment in our rapidly growing county."
Burkett said that the plan was to identify different habitate within the 2,000-plus acre park. One of those habitais was the hydric hammock which includes a wetlands area. This is where the mudwalk was set

The mud walk is part of the lesson plan for every fifth grade teacher in Seminole See Nature, Page 6A

Civility in all communications

When the story of the mysterious police tape surfaced Thursday and became more mysterious Friday morning, Herald staffers knew they had to hear it, as Deputy Chief Dennis Whitmire had suggested.

The taped telephone conversation is between Lynn Stogner, who heads the Pinecrest Neighborhood Watch, and communications personnel at the Sanford Police Department. SPD routinely tapes phone calls in case they need to be reviewed later. Stogner was requesting crime statistics for his neighborhood. The call was placed in March. The brouhaha surrounds a voice heard in the background during Stogner's call. Some say they think it is Mayor Larry Dale, joking that he'll get rid of the police department after Stogner allegedly says "they've got me on hold, they're giving me the runaround." Mayor Dale says it's not him, and he's "disgusted by this and a lot of other stuff that's going on."

Time will tell who's on the tape. Herald staffers have varied theories. But one thing we all agree on, is that the SPD communications person. Kelly Wells, dealt with Stogner in a professional way and should not have been treated the way Stogner treated her.

Stogner has built one of the best Neighborhood Watch groups in Sanford. Pinecrest is known as a model for crime-fighting residents and Stogner is largely responsible for its success. His diligence includes many calls to the police to check crime statistics, much like the one made in March, which is the taped call at issue now. In his frustration after being transferred and put on hold, Stogner than seed to get rid of you or something." Other commands were also offensive.

Wells was trying patiently to explain to Stogner that when the information person was not available, another person picks up on that line when it is transferred. That explanation did not satisfy Stogner.

Sometimes all the good a person or group accomplishes can be dashed over one unfortunate incident. We hope Stogner's rude treatment of Wells was simply a lapse of frustration with the system. Civility in communicating with others always gets more accomplished than being rude.

School board must regulate runners' conditions

Td like to touch on a couple of issues today. The first is directed to the Seminole County School Board and it is an issue that needs to be addressed immediately.

I have been concerned for some time about the lack of protection and concern given to our high school athletes, in particular, cross country runners. This is not a new concern of mine and I have tried very hard to create changes that would prevent serious consequences to these young people who are now training and running in conditions that are very dangerous.

If you are a parent, or even if you are not, it would be appropriate for you to express your concerns about the dangers of running three miles during competition and up to six miles during practice. Many coaches, who are out in the heat and humidity of our Florida climate at this time of year, would agree. Others don't care.

So who should be looking at this question and supplying the leadership? ...The School Board, before it is hit with a major lawsuit.

As a parent, I have expressed my concerns. First, I asked for air conditioned buses for travel purposes. I was told that this is an issue that must be addressed by the individual school. Well, that is a waste of time and an unsatisfactory answer. The School Board needs to address these issues and make policy changes to be followed by all schools in Seminole County. I have fought with school officials long enough over this stupidity.

I spent this past Tuesday afternoon in a doctor's office. When he heard of the conditions that these students were traveling in and running under, he was very upset. He felt that the changes that I have expressed for three years were very reasonable and appropriate. He also said that those kids should not be running in this kind of weather without every possible precaution being taken. Those precautions and suggestions have been ignored by various school principals. The only solution is a directive by the School Board to all schools regarding the conditions of travel and other precautions that are to be mandatory for all Seminole high schools.

Rather than waste anymore time in this column, let me just say that this is indeed a strong warning to the School Board to act now and immediately regarding this matter...before some family loses a child.

Some suggestions.

* All athletes should travel in air conditioned buses prior to an athletic event, or have the option of being taken to events by their parents.

* There should be precautions taken to keep the students as comfortable as possible prior to an event.

The time of day should be considered, particularly for cross country races, many of which take place during the summer months.

These are just a few first steps that are not unreasonable. I can't imagine that any school board member would want their child to travel for several hours on a bus that is not air conditioned and then after waiting for perhaps an hour or more, run three miles in close to 100 degree weather with unbelievable humidity. Then return home in a bus full of other kids without air conditioning.

I believe this drives home the comments I made in a past column called "All in the Name of Children." In that particular column, I addressed the issue of how we use children to get additional tax revenues. None of it is ever going to the purpose we were led to believe it would go...to the benefit of our children.

Whenever politicians went to raise taxes,

Whenever politicians want to raise taxes, they often use our children as the bait. The lottery was the prime example. The new one penny tax in Orange County is another...and so it goes. Of course all of those who favor and benefit in some way jump on board and tell us how much they want to help our children. Where have they been in the past? How many would put up the cash or raise money just for the benefit of children and nothing else? The answer is not many...if any.

I am not against taxes. I am against waste. I would like to point out that a great deal of our income is ALREADY going to pay taxes. For those of you who are much younger, it is important to understand that the greater burden of debt placed upon you by the whims of politicians for short political gain, will eventually make you powerless and the voting booth obsolete.

In Orange County they have done just that....It is a whim, a mail in ballot...with no reasonable thought of the consequences. If you have the money, you'll be able to create the world you want.

On public paying to use school facilities

In the near future tite School Board will discuss a new policy concerning the use of Public School facilities. Right now there is a mixture of practices from school to school determined by each principal. Some schools ask for no rental fee from any group for the use of facilities. Some have reciprocal agreements with groups like the Little League where facilities have been upgraded or are maintained in return for the use of them. Some schools use their facilities to generate money for school projects. A lot depends on whether the school is an elementary, middle, or high school.

The debate has been hot and heavy in the Planning Team and among the principals. There have been several drafts of the proposal being given to the School Board. The question that staff has been agontaing over is simple:

Should the facilities:

1. Be available to the public at no charge.

2. Be available to the public at a charge that equals the cost.

S. Be a cash cow to support education?
Each of the approaches has its good and bad points. Which one will prevail is anyone's guess. There are merits in the argument that the taxpayer's paid for the schools and the facilities and that each year's tax bill is a continued payment for the right to use the facilities. Likewise there is validity in the argument that people who use and wear out the facilities should pay for their maintenance, repair and replacement. Finally, there is validity in the argument that anything goes when there are monetary needs to provide educational opportunities for the children of Seminole County.

It should be an interesting decision by the Board.

It should be noted that the Seminoie County manager has transferred another 890,000 into the account to pay Ken Wright's law firm for work on the Adult Entertainment situation. That makes 8150,000 that has been put into that pot. Wright has also been appointed as the attorney for the U. S. Highway 17-92 CRA. This is a long term position that will guarantee lucrative fees for Wright's firm, Shutta and Bowen for years and years to come.

Oh yes, Wright has also just been appointed to the Orlando-Sanford Airport Board.

weeks column, Part I on Voltran, here's a short synopsis. Voltran is Volusia County's transportation coordinator, Volusia County's version of Lynx. It has been in operation for 27 years. The general manager of Voltran is Kenneth R. Fischer.

Also like Lynx of Orlando, Voltran handles regular bus transportation which gives the customer more choices. One of these choices is a bus pass that is available for disabled people who can take this service. "There is a balance," Mr. Fischer said, "to give the customer the right choice to meet their needs."

in fact, a lot of what came out or developed in the "Transportation Disadvantaged" division has found its way to the regular bus service. "I think," said Mr. Fischer, "there is more emphasis on the infrastructure for the shelters, bus stops and benches. "The challenge now," he says, "is to design a transportation system that gives people a choice."

Voltran also does its own training and offers passenger sensitivity training to other operators. Voltran is also keeping up the needs of Volusia County. Since the county's population is growing so rapidly, Voltran has worked to keep up the pace. Officials especially have been diligent in bridging the gap between the East and West sections, its two distinct urban areas of the county.

Like everything in life, the cost of a TD ride has gone up, but not much. Whereas the co-payment, what the passenger usually pays, was $1.50 per one way trip, it now costs $2 per one way trip. This is standard pricing for most paratransit

As was stated in our last series of articles on transportation, many paratransit providers' services are broken down in various ways. ADA (Americans with Disabilities Act) trips for this are provided to eligible disabled clients. TD (Transportation Disadvantaged), is limited to qualified persons. Social Service trips such as the Volusia County Council on Aging and Medicaid service is available for Medicaid approved clients.

Voltran also works closely with two advisory boards. The L.C.B. (Local Coordinating Board) and the ADA Advisory Committee, established in 1990, made up of mostly disabled citizens and advocates. It is this closeness to clients and dedication to what they're doing and the balance that keep Voltran on the road and smoothly grapping.

Are citizens losing control of Sanford?

Are the citizens of Sanford losing control of their town?

What good is the Sanford City Charter when the politicians can turn the charter around to fit their needs at any given time?

This took place at the city commission meeting held on Monday night. September 15th, when appointments were made for the Sanford Airport Authority board. The Sanford City Charter states that no one that has been a commissioner in Sanford can be appointed to serve on any city board within a year after they left the commission.

One of the men that the commissioners appointed to the Airport Authority was not qualified, according to the Sanford City Charter, but was voted on and given a post dated appointment for January 8, 1998, when there were other names on the list that were qualified!

Do we need a city charter?

Do the citizens of Sanford want a dictatorial government or a government of the people, by the people and for the people?

Other things to think about are: Our Sanford Police Department, Public Works Department - keep your eyes open because there is a "Fower Group" that is trying to take over

Keep Sanford Police Department

In regards to the Sanford Herald editorial on Sunday, September 14 regarding the Sanford Police Department. People in Sanford had better wake up to what is going on in their city and take charge.

and take charge.

I have lived in Seminole County for 29 years and moved to Volusia County in January of this year. No matter how long I live in Volusia, Seminole (City of Sanford) will always be where my heart is. Sanford is a beautiful town and has the friendlicat people of anywhere I know of, but their political government is another thing!

As I said, I lived hist outside of the Sanford.

As I said, I lived just outside of the Sanford City limits (Sunland Estates) and had to depend on the Seminole County Sheriff's Office for protection. That was a real joke! If you sak the true citizens about the sheriff's department, they will tell you that you can't depend on them to be there when you need them. We could call the department and the shortest response time we ever received was 40 minutes.

We called and reported someone acreaming one time and they showed up one hour later. My son-in-law came home one time to find our house had been broken into and called me. I told him to call the police (Sheriff's Office), I was on my way home. I told my boss that I had to leave, called my husband at work and spent another 20 minutes getting home for a total of 35 minutes. The sheriff's department arrived approximately 25 minutes after I got home. They said that they did not consider it a priority call. Excuse me, when your home has been broken into, IT is a priority call.

We were told (after they found the teenagers that broke in) that the case was mishandled and they could not bring charges. How often do you see a deputy...how often do the citizens of Sanford see a police officer? Sanford, if you think you have poor response now, you'd better wake up and smell the roses. We would have gladly voted Sunland into the city in order to have better protection!! I'm sure if you survey the people of Sunland, they will still tell you that they would rather have Sanford PD anytime!

To Mr. Walter Padgett (quoted in a Sept. 14 article)...how long have you lived in Sanford, or do you? Did you help vote the mayor and commissioners into office? How do you know the sheriff's department would be better than the Sanford PD? Did you know that the sheriff's department often gets so many calls that they have asked other departments for help? Did you know that if the department takes over that they are not going to hire but a small percentage to help with the extra crime? They can't handle their calls now, how are they going to handle 80,000 more calls a year? You need to wake up before it's too late!

May God be with the people of Sanford, they will need it if the Sheriff's Office takes over!

Political request An Open Letter to Mr. Lee P. Moore

Now that you have been relieved from your duties with the Sanford Airport Authority, and have more time on your hands, could you please become mayor of Sanford again?

My new baby boy deserves the same fairness and credibility that you gave the city when I was growing up.

Dissatisfied with our Sanford police

I have lived in this city for 28 years and in this 28 years. I have called 8PD for many things. Never once have I received satisfaction. We pay your salaries! We want satisfaction! We are tired of the men and women of our fine city collecting paychecks for a job not so well done.

We don't want to see five to eight officers writing tickets at the corner of S. Melionville and 20th St. or anywhere. Hey guys, people are selling drugs to your children, raping your daughters, carjacking your wives, shooting your family. So, what do you think? Got a hint yet? Do your jobs!

We don't want to open our local paper to the police briefs and see five arrests. There's a lot more going on. We want to see a complete page.

SPD: Fixing the problems
I would like to after the following comments concerning the present situation that exists within the Sanford Police Department and between the City Commission and the Police Department.

Department.

The City of Sanford has a strong city manager type of government with elected city commissioners and mayor. Each of the members of the city commission has an equal say- so in the affairs of the city and each of them has a vote in the decision making process; three votes can establish policy and make decisions and three votes can change policies and rescind decisions. policies and rescind decisions.

The voters of Sanford have placed in the commissioners and mayor, a secred trust to make these policies and decisions including those of the Police Department and the Fire Department. This trust should be left with the city commission, but with each member exercising restraint in the operation of these separtments. We have a dedicated group of efficers who need time and space to work from within to fix whatever problems exist. They do ot need outside political pressure to ecomplish this.

It is acknowledged that problems do exist thin the Police Department. I believe where on to some other outside law enforcement ency. Placing the blame for existing roblems can serve no useful purpose.

The Hubler Report included responses from te police officers' questionnaires pointing out rom these officers what they consider the major problems to be. These men and women are dealing with these problems every day. The report states, among other findings, that much improvement is needed with relationships working with the police chief. Much improvement is needed in dealing with the city commissioners and much improvement is needed working with the mayor.

I urge the mayor and commissioners to consider the alternatives in solving this altuation and urge you to preserve our Police Department and give them time to find remedies to improve the situation.

For some people this is where they turn the page, and for this I am sorry. For other who care...I encourage you to read on and hopefully, gain some insight to the men and women behind the badges of the Sanford Police Department. Hopefully, you too will see that they deserve your support in keeping the Sanford Police Department open.

Contrary to what has been previously printed, the Sanford Police Department is in danger of being disbanded because the City of Sanford has been labeled a cesspool and the residents deemed unworthy of their own department because "The majority of them are criminals or criminals in the making."

The Sheriff's Department feels that the Sanford Police Department is outdated. Simply put, they can't see much use in bonding with a community" when their real reason there is to "make arresta".

Seminole County is a vast area, "too widely spread to care what really goes on", according to conversations I've heard. And this is how they intend to run the City of Banford if given the chance. They don't even plan on being a presence unless they "come out to make an ar-

Sanford has been cited as behind the times", because the officers have always made it a point to stop and assist motorists with car troubles, elderly citizens that just want to "talk to someone for a minute and even to give someone directions. They have been seen walking around shopping centers, checking in with local vendors and even stopping in on some local senior citizens just to say "hi". They have also been blasted for responding to barking dog calls when the county would turn it over to animal control which is only open during "normal business hours".

In short, it appears the serve in "protect and serve" will be obsolete should Sanford become part of the county.

I urge the residents of Sanford to speak out and demand the Sanford Police Department remain. Let them know that "community policing" and citizen minded "police officers" are what you deserve. Tell them that every citizen in Sanford is not a potential criminal, and that there ARE enough good people to warrant "onsite" police protection.

My husband, as well as many other men and women chose this rewardless career because they "truly care", and it's not just a job! These men and women put their lives on the line to protect and serve every citizen that calls on them, and the residents of Sanford, just like any other city; deserve a timely response, free of pre-judgment and prejudice.

Please show them that you appreciate everyday what they return to your city on duty. They put their lives on the line to protect and serve you and your families.

They chose your city to work in because they truly care. Please don't leave them feeling like everyone else was right...that there just isn't enough good people to make a difference Let them know that they are appreciated and

In praise of Helen Stairs

Why is it that anytime someone in a small town attempts to make improvements there is always a requisite naysayer who is the first to criticize and the last to contribute? Are there required archetypes for each small town who must act out their parts: The gossip, the jerk, the hero and so on?

I ask because of the recent jabs at Helen Stairs in her role of community volunteer for a variety of groups. Helen has been an anchor point for the Rits Theatre Group from the beginning. She has been at every meeting (unless work or health kept her from it), she has offered her time and support, and has done it all tirelessly and with grace.

In 1993 I came to Helen and asked if she would help me form a non-profit group to restore the old Ritz Theatre, it took some persuading, but she finally agreed to throw in with us and has been a constant source of sound advice ever since.

The first visible steps have been taken in restoring our beloved old building and already when I stand in the shell I can see generations of performers passing through this space presenting the people of Senford (and Seminole County) with wonderful theater, musical and dancing performances. But it is important for Herald readers to understand that this is a process that began years ago and we owe a lot to Helen to allow us to have come

If there are factions in this city who feel she is an inappropriate candidate to head this or any other organization - fine, step forward and introduce yourself to me - I have a lot of Ritz work that yet needs to be done and I'll be happy to drop it onto your deak. Oh, and please remember that the hundreds of hours that you are about to contribute are free, and your out of pocket expense is non-reimbursed. And finally, no matter how good you are in your important new position as the president of the Rits Theatre Group, there will always be some egghead ready to make commenta about your capabilities. Just know its going to happen and go for it! Until that time, we'll keep Helen as our leader.

vation Board (HPB), a member of the Planning and Zoning Commission, and a citizen of the City of Sanford, I take offense to both the article and editorial written by the Sanford Herald regarding the Ritz Theatre Project and the First, let me say that if the HPB was not in favor of the project, why would it have contrib-uted a lion's share of its small budget to this project? It is not the project which the HPB was disappointed in, but rather the lack of compliance by its members. The HPB oversees property owners wishing to renovate the exterior of their homes and buildings within the confines of the Historic District?

These property owners are asked to comply with a set of guidelines or codes similar to those overseen by the Building Department. When someone does not comply with these guidelines or the process for obtaining the re-quired approval, the situation is turned over to code enforcement.

The fact that Mr. Gross, as a board member. did not obtain a Certificate of Appropriateness for the exterior renovations to the Ritz is similar to the lack of obtaining a permit by Ms. Stairs for the bathroom built in her building. It would seem to me that some of the same people who are criticizing the HPB for its request. for Mr. Gross to obtain the require approval for the Ritz are the same people who have com-plained openly about Ms. Stairs.

As for the statement Mr. Gross made that only the windows were removed because of life threatening situations, the picture on the front of the Sanford Herald would seem to indicate otherwise. The worker who Mr. Gross is overseeing is obviously removing the exterior of the See Letters, Page 6A

County. The students travel to the center off County Road 419 for two one-day units, a "wet" day and a "dry" day.

During the dry day, students follow a compass trail, make "wood cookies" from pine cuttings and twine and tour the Natural History Museum.

The museum is housed in the main building on the site. Conatructed in 1926 at the old Oviedo High School, now Lawton Elementary, the cabin-like building has been used as a lunchroom, an ROTC room, a home economics room and as a library. It was moved to the study center in 1977, and features fossils, exhibits, mounted specimens of Florida wildlife and selected live animals are featured with activities that vary with each grade level.

There is also a first-grade program, in which students go on a nature walk, identifying leaves, incorporating skills such as math and science. Private schools and homeschooled children are also invited to use the resources of the study center.

On the wet day, students hike from the main building about a mile to the mud walk atte. Along the way, they collect soil samples. Burkett said the level of the terrain drops about 10 feet in the 1.5 miles from the entrance to the shore of Lake Jesup. The students get to ob-serve five different habitate: Oak Palmetto Scrub, Pond Pine Fiatwoods, Mixed Hardwood Hammock, Hydrid Hammock and Mixed Hardwood Swamp.

The program emphasizes the difference in the soil as the terrain changes toward the lake. The students are told that the awamp where they experience the mud walk, is full of decaying organic matter, mixed with sand. Learning to reinforced by sensual experience. Burkett said. Not only do they touch and feel, but they smell.

"I fell face first into the spring," said Partin Elementary fifth-grader Dustin Mickowski. who was at the study center on Thursday, Seemingly un-daunted by his squalle experience, he described the sulphur water as smelling like rotten Nature-lover Brown, when asked what her favorite part of the day was, answered. "Experiencing the gushy things!" Matt Delai said,"

It was gooey in my toes."

The dream of the Environmentri Study Center began in 1988. A group of citizens and the League of Women Voters saw a need and pushed for a parks bond issue on the 1970 ballot. The only parks bond is-sue approved by county voter. 61.6 million was allocated to purchase the study center acreage, as well as the Central Florida Zoological Park and another site on Lake Monroe.

The Environmental Study Center is a cooperative effort with the Seminole County Board of County Commissioners. The park, Soldier's Creek Park, is open to the public seven days a week. There is a boardwalk to the lake, that is currently under renovation to make the boardwalk wheelchair accessible, the museum is only open during school hours, but will be open for the celebration on Saturday, Sept.

The Environmental Study Center and Soldier's Creek Park is located at 2985 Osprey Trail. .5 miles east of U.S. High way 17-92. For more information on the center or the celebration call the center at 321-

"This is a black/white issue," said School Board Chairman Sandy Robinson to a recent meeting of the Hills of Lake Mary homeowners association. "As hard as it is for most of us to discuss it that way, that is the bottom line."

To reach this equity, some students are being shuffled from the schools that they would normally attend to other schools within their cluster. The schools are divided into two cluster sones: northeast; Hamilton, Midway and Pine Creat; and northwest Idyliwilde, Wicklow and Wilson. School registration will begin

Don't forget UCF when planning for big football weekend

ORLANDO _ This weekend, thousands of people in Central Florida will be glued to the television checking out the Cators and Seminoles.

Then, on Sunday, the bandwagon gang will be checking out the Bucs and Dolphins before spending Monday night watching the Jags coming out party against Pittsburgh.

Right here in Orlando, though, are Central Florida's forgotten stepchildren, the Univer-sity of Central Florida Knights. While everyone is eating their last Dorito and downing their sixth Bud watching the Cators, the Knights will be taking the field in front of 50,000 empty seats.

And that's if all goes well. If Florida-Tennessee is close, the nation's best 0-3 team may have a hard time drawing 20,000 fans to the Citrus Bowl.

That's too bad. Sure winning is everything. Being the nation's best 0-3 team just means you're the nation's best loser. But Central Florida needs to get behind the Knights, es-secially before it becomes impossible to get a

Here's why. First of all, the Knights will have their pick of the best of Bobby Bowden and Steve Spurrier's leftovers. That's not such a bad thing. Marquette Smith of Lake Howell was one of the most highly recruited players in the country and ended up at UCF. Danny Johnson of Lake Mary chose the Knights after hearing from schools such as

Alabama and Tennessee. Another thing is that the Knights will most likely be in a conference in the near future which will offer a chance for bowl games and reasonable home schedule. Let's face it. Idaho this weekend isn't attractive enough to fill a stadium and the problem for the Knights is that they are on the road at places like Ole Miss, Auburn, South Carolina and Nebraska every week and can't get anyone to come to Orlando. That will all change when a major conference (the Big East?) recognizes that UCF would make an attractive addition. UCF needs a conference. After scaring the stuffings out of Nebraska last week and South Carolina and Mississippi in the first two weeks, no one is going to be inviting Central Florida to their homes any more.

So how do we make Central Florida a football power?

Get out and support the team. Tickets are much cheaper than anything you'll find in Gainesville or Tallahassee and the parking isn't so bad. More fans mean more national recognition and an invitation from a major conference.

A major conference means an attractive home schedule and no more home openers against Idaho.

It also means a packed Citrus Bowl which will attract national recruits. There, now don't you feel pressured to buy a ticket to see the Knights and idaho?

Not to jump on the bandwagon which is already packed with people straddling one foot on the UCF wagon and the other on the Bucwagon (which makes no sense since the Jaguars will crush them in the Super Bowl). but the Knights have looked pretty darned impressive, losing by one, two and 14 points to teams that have football traditions dating back to the turn of the century.

They have one of the nation's best quarterbacks in Daunte Culpepper and three Seminole County kids - Lake Mary lineman Danny Johnson, Lake Brantley lineman Jimmy Herndon and Seminole's Emory

Green, a starting linebacker.

Go support UCF and bring major college football to Central Florida while not going broke in the process.

Last Second Shot: Has anyone realized that all six varsity quarterbacks in Seminole County are juniors? That bodes pretty well for the county next season.

No one could have guessed before the season began that Beminole would upset conference champion Lake Howell.

Especially by a score of 41-24.

Last night at Richard E. Evans stadium, an inter-conference battle took place that was one-sided, as expected. The unexpected side, however, came out on top.

"This is a lot of fun," said Seminole coach Jim Worthington, "Our goal is to make it to the state championship game and in order to do that we have to win our district first. All of the teams at that level are tough, so playing these tough conference games can only make us better."

And every week this team improves. Very few mistakes were made by the 'Noles as they overpowered their conference opponent. The outcome of the game, however, was not evi-

The outcome of the game, nowever, was not evident right away.

On the opening play of the game, Lake Howell running back Christian DeJesus almost ran the kickoff back for a touchdown and Travia Vinson entered the end sone two plays later. With only 57 seconds off the clock, Lake Howell had a quick 7-0 lead.

Seminole retalisted on their first drive, with Joe Knight and Deon Howard splitting the running dutter before Knight accord a one-ward running duties before Knight scored a one-yard touchdown run. Knight would rack up over 80 yards and one touchdown and Howard rushed for 227 and entered the end zone five times.

On the 'Noles' second drive, Erick Smith put up a gritty effort, carrying the ball and about five defenders down the field on the kickoff return. He caught several passes throughout the night in addition to receiving all of the kick-offs for an impressive showing.

"I practice everything I can," Smith said. "The "I practice everything I can," Smith said. "The whole team just keeps working harder and harder and doing what we're supposed to do. I know we don't throw the ball much, but when coach needs me, I'm there. Winning is a team effort and as long as I am available when I'm needed, then I'm doing my part."

Seminole again entered the end sone on its next possession and Jason Armstrong's extra point gave the 'Noles a 14-7 edge.

Lyman

LONGWOOD _ Oh so close! Lyman proved again Friday night that this one of the best teams that this one of the transition that the Greyhounds have put on the field in years, but it still came for naught as Edgewater scored the only points of overtime to defeat Lyman 31-24 at the Carlton D. Henley Sports Complex Friday night.

The Greyhounds trailed 24-10 with 7:13 left in the game and could have easily folded their tents and given up. But that was the Lyman teams of old, as quarterback Brian Krause led the home team on a pair of scoring drives and threw two touchdowns to force overtime.

The Greyhounds actually had an opportunity to win in regulation as they got the ball back on the Edgewater 47 with just un-der a minute left on the clock and two time outs remaining.

But the Eagles made a great play to come up with an interception near the 30 and the contest went to overtime.

In overtime, Edgewater quarterback Brian Coates turned a broken play into an eight-yard run down to the two and star running back Maurice White took the ball in a play later to make the score 30-24. Lee Geisler added the extra point and it was Lyman's turn.

Another tough loss for Lake Mary

By JEFF BERLINICKE Herald Staff Writer

DeLAND _ Somewhere, sometime, Lake Mary is going to pull one of these out.

Sooner or later, it will be an opposing coach la-menting a tough, last second loss to Lake Mary, probably after a fumbled snap or blown coverage.

Just like the Lake Mary Rams. Week after week as 1996 became 1997, the Rams have lost games in the final minutes. In fact, after Friday's 28-20 loss to Pine Ridge, the Rams have lost six straight and eight of 13 games, all by eight points or less. Last night was another example of Lake Mary's in-ability to put away an opponent. The Rams over-came a 21-0 deficit and had a chance to tie it when Robbie Randall scored on a five-yard run to make it 21-20 but the extra point attempt was blocked.

Lake Mary still had time for two more drives but both stalled. On the Rams' last play from scrimmage, quarterback Cory Cooper hit, a wide open Randall in the end zone but Randall dropped it. It wouldn't have mattered since Cooper had crossed the line of acrimmage.

It was another wasted opportunity for the Rams. We'll bounce back," Lake Mary coach Doug Peters said. "We have a lot of character on this team. We just have to keep at it."

For awhile this looked like it would be anything but another close loss. Pine Ridge, which also en-tered the game 0-2, scored on its first possession when Jay Rogers took a handoff 80 yards for an opening score.

The Rama bounced back behind the running of Randall and faced a first and goal at the Pine Ridge four but a couple of keepers by Cooper put the Rams on the three with fourth down. Randall was stopped and the Panthers came right back with another long touchdown march, capped by Rogers' 11-yard run OVIEDO _ Leroy Jackson can cover a lot of ground when he has a mind to.

One of the most explosive high school running backs in Central Florida last year. Jackson has moved to the defensive side of the ball and is playing strong safety for the Oviedo Lions this year.

He showed how effective breakaway speed can be on defense in Oviedo's 21-20 win over the Winter Park Wildcats Friday night at John Courier

Early in the third quarter, Jackson ran down Wildcat receiver Greg Hublick from behind to make a touchdown-saving tackle at the Oviedo 15yard line. Four plays later, Winter Park turned the ball over on downs.

That was more satisfying than scoring a touchdown, said Jackson. That kept them from tying the acore (at 14-14). And that may have kept them from winning the game.

but summer is officially over-tor the take Mary AARP. The group resumed their monthly nicetings on Sept. 16 after taking July and August off

In business, there was a lot of ground to cover AARP members were handed flyers about Medicare fraud. It is vital. that persons on Medicare always review their bills and make sure that what is being charged to Medicare is legitimate Operation Restore Trust is responsible for distributing the flyers, the operation is part of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services Began in 1995 to combat Medicare fraud, Operation Restore frust got a return of $10 for every 81 they spent

There are several things you can do to help curb Medicare hand Treat your bisurance cord like a credit card, nevergive your mumber out over the phone, to someone who comes to your door, or in exchange for free medical services. Stay toformed: know what you should be charged for and check the final bill against what you know. If you suspect Medicare traud, call 1-800 HHS-TIPS (1) 800 417 81771

What is considered fraud? Some examples are: Overcharging for services rendered, charging for services never performed and performing inappropriate or unnecessary services

Another handout explained some of the new changes in Medicare. On the down side, Medicare preintums will be going up. On the up side, what Medicare covers will increase, choices will increase, and copayments will decrease.

On the political side, City Commission candidate Jeff Dran stopped by the meeting to introduce himself. He is

You can call Jim at 323-9249.

A great way to start off a new season is with coincily. Wayne and Nancy Joiner were the entertalument for the first fall meeting. They sang, told Jokes. and performed several skits. In one skit, they were Archie and

Conflict over baby's name is sign of big trouble ahead

DEAR ABBY: Your advice to "Sad Mom-to-Be," whose husband insists on naming their firstborn son after both his grandfathers, missed the point completely. The problem is not that Mom and her husband can't agree on a name; the problem is that her selfish, inconsiderate husband has decided he doesn't feel like being flexible on an issue that his wife considers very important. What a cruel way to treat a pregnant wife!

I have shared this bitter experience, Abby. My now ex-husband also insisted on naming our baby for his relatives, and I foolishly gave in. What I failed to understand at the time was that my husband's con-trolling, domineering behavior masked his underlying hostility toward me.

In the years after our baby was born, his mistreatment of me turned physical, and I had to get a court order to force him out of our home. (By the way, the relative for whom my son is named all but abandoned the child after our divorce.) My son is now stuck with a name that means nothing to him.

BEEN THERE, DONE THAT, NEW HAMPSHIRE

DEAR BEEN THERE: You are not the only reader who dis-agreed with my answer to "Sad Mom-to-He." I have received a mountain of mail from men and women who were appalled by the husband's attitude. Read on:

DEAR ABBY: I am frankly astounded at the attitude of the husband - and I say this as a hus band and father, not as a fellow mom-to-be. Of course, we're getting the information secondhand, but somehow I seriously doubt that the man is flexible on many things at all. He seems pretty much like a control freak. Unless the situation is far different than pictured, I'm afraid that "Sad Mom-to-Be" is in

The acouta were welcomed into a room designed just for kids with a view of one of the control rooms. The tour guide, Barbie Hawkins, explained how radio worked in terms that even the adult chaperones could understand. Three lucky scouts won a Radio Asahs Tshirt. The group then recorded a couple of lines that the radio station will play sometime soon.

The bride is the daughter of Diana C. Harrell and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Wilson of Sanford.

Given in marriage by her uncle. Lionel Southward, the bride chose for hew yows a formal length gown with a round neckline and short sleeves trimmed in roses. The bodice was accented with French lace and pearls with a cascading train. Her shoulder length veil of imported illusion was attached to a cap of silk with flowers accenting the hat. She carried a bouquet of white and purple roses with greenery.

Shawnatte Wiggins at-tended the bride as maid of honor wearing a purple A. line formal length gown. Bridesmaids were Luciana Bedford and Roberta Harrell. Their gowns were identical to the honor attendant's.

inflexible. While honoring his grandfather may be more important to him than considering the wishes of his wife, getting her way in nam-ing the child may be more impor-tant to her than considering the wishes of her husband. It is all a matter of perspective.

The most important consideration should be the effect of the name as the child is growing up. (Let's hope the names are not so unusual or outdated as to cause the child embarrassment when he goes to school.) Beyond that, the one to whom the issue is least important should concede the point. The com-promises you suggested are valid. JOSEPH BUTLER.

Lake Orienta kids racing for reading

The kids at Lake Orienta are taking part in a reading program in conjunction with NASCAR.

By JEFF BERLINICKE Herald Staff Writer

Lake Orienta students Carli Mewes and Rvan Parmer

check out updates on their favorite NASCAR drivers.

Who wants to be the next Jeff Gordon? Who wants to be the next Dale Earnhardt?

That's the question at lake Orienta Elementary School where Principal James Burnham has instituted a reading program that is connected to NASCAR racing, a popular subject with his students.

The program kicked off Tuesday with a "Race Into Reading" kickoff that featured an actual race car for his atu-

It is an incentive program that Burnham has reached with several major auto racing organizations and Burnham is as excited as any of his students.

He has recruited business partners and injected his own enthusiasm of auto racing to provide the kids with his reading program.

The kids know I'm into racing and we talk about it all the time," Burnham said. This summer I decided to make a program to get kids into reading and I couldn't believe the cooperation we got from everyone we contacted."

There will be prizes ranging from pizza parties to tickets to the Daytona 500 and Burnham said he expects at least one world-famous NASCAR driver to appear at Lake Orienta during Speedweek next February.

Each grade level was asked to put together a skills list to create an even playing field, or track, to match all grade levels. Students are given their incentives to accumulate laps. For instance, third graders can gain 20 laps every time they read a book from the media center. Thirty laps are gained from completing a story map on a book they've read./ Forty laps are for reading silently every day for 15 minutes for four weeks. The most laps can be gained from putting a story in book form with a cover, title page and illustrations. That will net 100 points.

Once Burnham came up with the idea and it was accepted by the Lake Orienta faculty, he started a letter writing campaign without expecting much response.

He was wrong. There was plenty of response.

First, he wrote to the Daytona International Speedway and was informed that the speedway was trying to pro-mote itself by involving kids in the community. He arranged for tickets and the appearance next spring, then went on to contact local tracks.

New Smyrna Raceway of-fered to invite students to the track and let them pose with winners after each race, then the USA International Speed-way got involved, offering 20 free tickets to Florida Pro Cup races and 20 more for Speed-Fest next March.

Pace Motor Sports than got involved, offering incentives for its monster truck series and the program grew even larger.

Lake Orienta is pioneering the program and Burnham said other schools can easily get involved in a fun way to promote reading.

The school even has its own racing team on campus. Resource officer Christina Brazee, an Altamonte Spring police officer, owns a car with her husband, Jim, and the car carries a Racing for Reading logo during competition.

The battle between the classes at Lake Orienta also includes Pit Stop Bonus Points which allow kids to sere as "Crew Chiefs," and award bonus laps.

Two Lake Orienta students were very enthusiastic about the program.

Fourth grader Carli Mewes is a big Ted Musgrave fan and fifth-grader Ryan Parmer has actually met Jeff Gordon.

"I was kind of nervous but he was real nice," Ryan said.

Maybe some other Lake Orienta kida will set to avente.

enta kids will get to experi-ence the same thing next February.

Who holds the most masterpoints in the United States - or, for that mat-ter, the world? Who's second? (You win masterpoints, but no prizes, for doing well in tournaments run under the auspices of the American Contract Bridge League.) The leader is Paul Soloway, who lives in Mill Valley, which is just outside Seattle. He has over 42,000. Second in Mike Passell, from Dallas. He has just climbed to the 40,000 point plateau

In this deal, from the Knockout Teams at the Bermuda Regional last dummy's queen, Next, declarer ruffed January, Passell took advantage of a defensive mix-up.

Against four spades, West started with two top hearts. If he had now cashed his third honor, Passell would have had no chance, defeated by the bad trump break. However, West, thinking declarer was now out of PHILLIP ALDER hearts, tried to cash the club ace. Passell needed no second chance, He ruffed, played a spade to dummy's queen, and ruffed a club back to hand. Then he took the spade ace, getting the expected news (given East's oneno trump advance).

Passell continued by cashing his three diamond tricks, ending with another club, bringing everyone down to three cards. South and East each held two trumps and one heart. Passell calmly exited with his last heart, endplaying West. Whatever he returned, Passell had to win the last two tricks with his king-10 of spades hovering over East's jack-seven. Note that if Passell doesn't ruff a club at trick five, instead returning to hand with a diamond, he goes down. unable to bring off the trump coup.
