Hard Luck Southpaw Billy Pierce Cops Earned Run Title

San Francisco, N. Carolina, Utah Still High

By MELDON SAKOWITZ
The Associated Press

NEW YORK (AP)—Billy Pierce, hard luck lefthander of the Chicago White Sox, was the American League's earned run leader in 1955 while several other southpaws also showed to good advantage in the official pitching records.

Pierce, who lost 4 games by a 1-0 score, still managed to rack up a 15-10 win-loss mark.

He gave up 48 earned runs in 206 innings for an earned run average of 1.97, the lowest since 1946 when Hal Newhouser of Detroit finished with 1.94. Pierce also is the seventh White Sox pitcher to cop run laurels. The last was Saul Rogovin in 1951.

Tommy Byrne of the New York Yankees, Herb Score of Cleveland, Billy Hoelt of Detroit and Ed (Whitey) Ford of the Yankees were the other lefthanders who shared pitching honors with Pierce.

Score led in strikeouts with 245 to establish a major league record for first year men. The old mark was 227 by Grover Cleveland Alexander of the Philadelphia Phillies in 1911.

Byrne, making one of the year's best comebacks, topped the list in winning percentage. The veteran won 16 games and lost 5.

Ford, making one of the year's best comebacks, topped the list in winning percentage. The veteran won 16 games and lost 5.

Hoelt, who was the pace-setter in shutouts with 7. The Tigers' lefty had a 16-7 record.

Picking the most complete games, 19, Ford also tied Cleveland's Bob Lemon and Boston's Frank Sullivan for the most victories. Each won 18 games.

Ford, in addition, was second to Pierce in the earned run competition with an average of 2.62. Early Wynn of the Indians was third with 2.85 followed by Score with 2.85 and Sullivan with 2.91.

For the first time in its history, the junior circuit failed to produce a 20-game winner.

North, South Men Prepare For Clash

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—North and South football squads, preparing to meet in the Orange Bowl Monday night, planned two practice sessions today, with particular attention to passing.

Coach Bernie Crummins of Indiana and Art Lewis of West Virginia are using Freddy Wyant (West Virginia) and Jim Miller (Wisconsin) as passers with Gene Kaphis (Notre Dame) doing most of the receiving.

The South squad is under Coach's Wally Butts of Georgia and Rex Enright of South Carolina.

Offensive signal calling was by George Welsh Navy; and Nick Consoles Wake Forest, with Harold Burnine Missouri and Ron Beagle Navy snagging passes.

Buster Brannon, Texas Christian basketball coach, is enthused over the present freshman team. "I can hardly wait until next year," says Brannon.

Hoelt was the pace-setter in shutouts with 7. The Tigers' lefty had a 16-7 record.

Picking the most complete games, 19, Ford also tied Cleveland's Bob Lemon and Boston's Frank Sullivan for the most victories. Each won 18 games.

Ford, in addition, was second to Pierce in the earned run competition with an average of 2.62. Early Wynn of the Indians was third with 2.85 followed by Score with 2.85 and Sullivan with 2.91.

Alabama Outlook Brighter

By JOHN CHANDLER
The Associated Press

Alabama headed home for the Christmas holidays today and then an engagement in the New Orleans Sugar Bowl basketball tournament Dec. 26-30 with a brighter outlook on life after scoring an upset 89-64 victory over the highly-rated Holy Cross Crusaders.

Coach Johnny Dee's Alabama cagemen, leading 46-36 at halftime last night in Boston Garden, fought off a furious Holy Cross second-half rally to deal the Crusaders their first defeat of the young season.

Holy Cross, winner of five straight, had been ranked No. 7 in this week's Associated Press poll, but that voting had been concluded before Alabama upset the appreciable.

The Bama boys know how Holy Cross feels. Alabama won the Birmingham Classic tournament recently. Then the Tide, rated No. 5 in last week's AP nationwide poll, went on the road. First North Carolina walloped Alabama 90-77, then in New York last Saturday St. John's of Brooklyn beat them 87-79.

Alabama beat Holy Cross from the free throw lanes, converting 27 of 34 chances, while the Crusaders made good on 12 of 19. Holy Cross bagged 36 field goals, five more than Alabama.

Vanderbilt, rated No. 8 in this week's ratings and the only other team in the top 10 to see action, pulled away in the second half to drub Georgia 63-41. Georgia led 15-11 soon after the start before the Commodores began to roll.

Other games involving ranking teams showed Indiana an 80-61 winner over Cincinnati, Illinois over De Paul, and Dequesne 71-55 over Loyola of Los Angeles.

The Rice Owls ran their unbeaten string to seven by defeating Kansas 75-66. The Owls led by 19 points at one time. Temple Tucker, 6 foot 10 Rice center, tallied 27 points.

Warming up for a big game tonight against San Francisco, the nation's No. 1 team, Wichita barreled 16 points through the hoop in an overtime tilt and whipped Texas Christian 79-66. After regulation time the score was tied 33-33, but four TCU players fouled out in the extra session. One of them was Dick O'Neal, who got 33 points for the losers.

Robin Freeman scored 21 points as Ohio State defeated Tulane 72-66.

MORRILL HAS BID FOR CANADIAN LEAGUE

PASADENA, Calif. (AP)—All American quarterback Earl Morrill, who'll lead the Michigan State Spartans in the Rose Bowl on Jan. 2, says he has a $16,000 bid to play next season in the Canadian League.

Morrill has been drafted by the San Francisco 49ers of this country's National Football League. But he says he won't make up his mind until after baseball season this spring.

He may forego pro football entirely to concentrate on baseball since the Detroit Tigers reportedly are interested in him.

U. of F. GATORS WIN OVER MIAMI
MIAMI BEACH (AP)—A crowd of 2,304 last night saw the University of Florida basketball team come from behind to whip Miami 74-69. Miami once held a 14-point lead but the Gators closed the gap to 46-45 at halftime and moved ahead with three minutes to go.

John Spreckels III Has Name Changed

SEATTLE (AP)—John D. Spreckels III, who once inherited two millions dollars, is plain John D. Smith, cabinet salesman, today.

He got the new name recently in Superior Court. He said the Spreckels name had been a handicap because it made it tough to get a job. Prospective employers looked upon him "as a financier or a playboy."

Spreckels inherited the two million dollars from his grandfather, sugar baron Adolph B. Spreckels, in 1930 at the age of 20. Most of it is gone now.

Spreckels has been married and divorced four times. Testimony in one of the divorces 10 years ago said he had gone through $100,000 in a three-month betting spree. Three years ago his fourth wife divorced him when he was a hotel night clerk. Wife No. 4 waived alimony, got $100 a month for support of their infant son.

Since then, he has taken a job as a salesman for his brother Adolph, who operates a custom cabinet shop here.

Asked if he had any debts, Spreckels said he owed the government some back income taxes. "I'm paying $25 a month on that."

"Have you been involved in any other court actions?" Judge Lloyd Shorette asked.

"Nothing but divorce cases," Spreckels answered.

"Petition granted," the judge said.

But changing names doesn't come so easily. When a reporter called the furniture-making firm to check on family relationships, the new Mr. Smith answered the telephone: "This is John Spreckels."

Biggest Boost Is In New Hampshire For Sen. Kefauver

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Sen. Estes Kefauver, whose 1952 campaign for the Democratic presidential nomination got its biggest early boost in New Hampshire, wants to battle with Adlai Stevenson for that state's support in 1956.

There was no immediate word from Stevenson but one of his supporters, John Rogers Penn, said he would seek election as a New Hampshire convention delegate pledged to Stevenson whether or not the 1952 nominee enters the contest.

Kefauver announced Sunday he is entering the New Hampshire primary and expressed hope "the snow and ice will not deter" Stevenson.

Stronger hints came from friends of Sen. William F. Knowland (R-Calif.), the Senate minority leader, that he might not wait for announcement of President Eisenhower's political plans to enter some primary on his own.

President Delivers Christmas Message

WASHINGTON (AP)—Expressing hope that infinite peace may "live with us and be ours forever," President Eisenhower sent his Christmas message Sunday night to his countrymen and the world.

"To each of you, whatever you may be, from Mrs. Eisenhower and me, a very merry Christmas," he said.

Then from Gettysburg College near his country home in Pennsylvania, he presided a boy, and 2,000 varicolored lights on a giant Christmas tree in Washington burst into brilliance.

"Well, it worked," he said as he saw the lights go on via television. Mrs. Eisenhower sat beside him.

The tree, a 66-foot spruce from the Black Hills of South Dakota, stands just south of the White House grounds.

Mrs. O. K. Goff's Kindergarten Class Presents Yule Play

The children of Mrs. O. K. Goff's Kindergarten Class recently presented a unique and unusual Christmas program using the theme "Children From Around the World at Christmas Time" in the First Baptist Church Annex.

Opening with song the play characters were then introduced: Children, Crain Saunders and Mary Margaret Reynolds; Fairies, Rheralyn Williams, and Margaret Jarrell; Spirit of Christmas, Sidney Park; Children from England, Jackie Angel, Candy Wharton, Ronnie Westbrook, Brad Hollingsworth and Steve Easterday; Children from Norway and Sweden, Larry Smith, Cyndee Morrison, Gregory Carlton, Mary Jacquelyn Hampton, Chuck Brantley and Kathryn Young; Children from Germany, Sandra Perkins, Bobby Smith, Jamie Shaffer, Tommy Rollin and Joan Shaffer; Children from Holland, John Mero, Kathy Todd, Paula D'Amico and Phillip Lee.

Children from France, Roger Butler, Viki Mills, Donnie Choresing, Debbie Rowland, and Bruce Schlarf; Children from Italy, Cindy Kennedy, David White, Margie Gaines, David Lowe, Mary Elizabeth Parsons and Bruce Anderson; Children from Mexico, Mary Lillian Laffler, Duane Vihlen, Candis Adams, David Richards and Wayne Hardin; Children from Japan, Laura Ann Henderson and Carrie Hatchett.

The children showed the audience how children in the different lands celebrate their Christmas by word of mouth and dances. They wore bright costumes from the land they represented and ended the program with the song "Christmas".

Mrs. R. Humphrey accompanied the youngsters on the piano adding to the program with some of her original songs.

Mrs. Goff wrote the play.

Honey butter makes a breakfast special when served with waffles or pancakes. Heat 1/2 cup butter or margarine in a small bowl until softened, then beat in 1/4 cup honey gradually; continue to beat until smooth. This will keep well in a covered jar in the refrigerator.

Want a gently flattened cookie shape instead of a bumpy irregular drop? Measure out tablespoons of the dough on your greased cookie sheet, then flatten them by stamping with the base of an ordinary tumbler completely covered with a damp cloth.

USO

Saturday night at the Sanford USO a St. Nicholas Dance was held with the Garden Club as senior hostess. Mrs. Betty Toll represented the group while Miss Betty Nichols and Miss Phillis Phillips were junior hostesses.

To add to the Christmas spirit a large Santa greeted the guests from the center of the room surrounded by four colored lights.

Refreshments of coffee and cookies were served to the crowd attending.

Sunday night was "Tree Trimming Night" with Mrs. E. C. Kuhn as senior hostess. Miss Peggy Best, Miss Marian Davis and Miss Betty Nichols were junior hostesses for the event.

The large tree and the dancing room were decorated by those attending including Pat Casube, Bob Campbell, Mike Connelly, Artie Johnson, Ray Fowler and Mike Garman. Ernest Syson and Joe Romano along with Sue Vance, Mary Lou Bowen and Jeanette Cleveland were having a time with the lights. Joanne Harris and Dick Jroselose and Lois Muse and Pat Parsons helped Betty Nichols and Walter Clark "fix" the room decorations.

The tree stand was made by Mrs. McLaughlin and Ernest Syson. Several Santas were hung in the different appropriate spots and a red bell added a cheerful note to the laughter. The Christmas Tree lends an air to the USO and "everyone had a grand time helping decorate". Steaming cups of coffee and cookies were served afterwards to the workers.

Ruth Mitchell Wanted Venture; Gets More Than Bargained For

By DOROTHY ROE
AP Women's Editor

Ruth Mitchell wanted adventure—and she got more than she bargained for.

Now a blonde, vivacious and youthful-looking grandmother, the sister of the late Maj. Gen. Billy Mitchell was one of the pioneer women aviators pilots, heard her own death sentence as a prisoner of the Nazis, faced starvation in German prisons and now has lived to see wide recognition of her brother who, she says, died of a broken heart after his outspoken advocacy of air power led to a court-martial at the height of his career.

Ruth lives in London these days, in a flat she swears is haunted by the ghost of Lord Byron, a former tenant. Currently she is touring the United States in connection with the motion picture "The Court-Martial of Billy Mitchell."

This loyal sister has refused many honors in the past because she felt the world had not given proper recognition to Gen. Mitchell. But now that Congress has voted to strike the 1925 court-martial from his record and is expected to restore his rank as a major general, and now that a motion picture has been devoted to his story, she feels that justice has been done.

Ruth Mitchell was born in Milwaukee, educated abroad, married an Englishman, William Van Breda, and had two children. Her son was killed in World War II.

After the death of her husband, Ruth took up a career of photography and writing, went to the Balkans shortly before World War II to cover the marriage of King of Albania, and stayed four years—most of them in prison.

"All the women in those prisons expected to die, and I think all the rest of them did. We were starved, tortured and beaten... But I wouldn't have missed the experience for the world. It taught me the heights of courage to which the human soul can reach."

Egg Nog Greet the Season!

HOSPITALITY SIMMERS ON THE HEARTH! By Christmastime, it reaches a rolling boil. And every household bubbles with the merriment and the spice of the season.

Contributing its own unique excitement to the festivities is egg nog, one of the oldest of holiday refreshments, and still one of the best. Wherever it is served, it speaks hospitably to all comers, and speaks it with such mellowness and charm that no one can resist.

Happily for hosts, and visiting carolers, egg nog ready to serve comes into the market early—in time to lend an extra festive touch to Thanksgiving. It is available from that date through New Year's in market place or through regular milk delivery. The nog is spicy and sweet, rich and smooth, laced delicately with a non-alcoholic rum flavoring. Ready to serve just as it comes from market or milk delivery, the traditional holiday drink makes a fine "ready-for-company" addition to the refrigerator shelf throughout the holiday season.

Served in a festive pitcher or bowl, the luscious milk drink has a way of turning any simple buffet into a royal supper. For afternoon or evening refreshment, for casual guest or formal party, egg nog says "Welcome" in the best tradition of the holiday season!

Annual Christmas Program Is Given Wednesday Evening

The Annual Christmas program by Mrs. H. R. McCall's Kindergarten was held at her home on 2117 Melville Ave. last Wednesday at 6:30 p. m. in the yard.

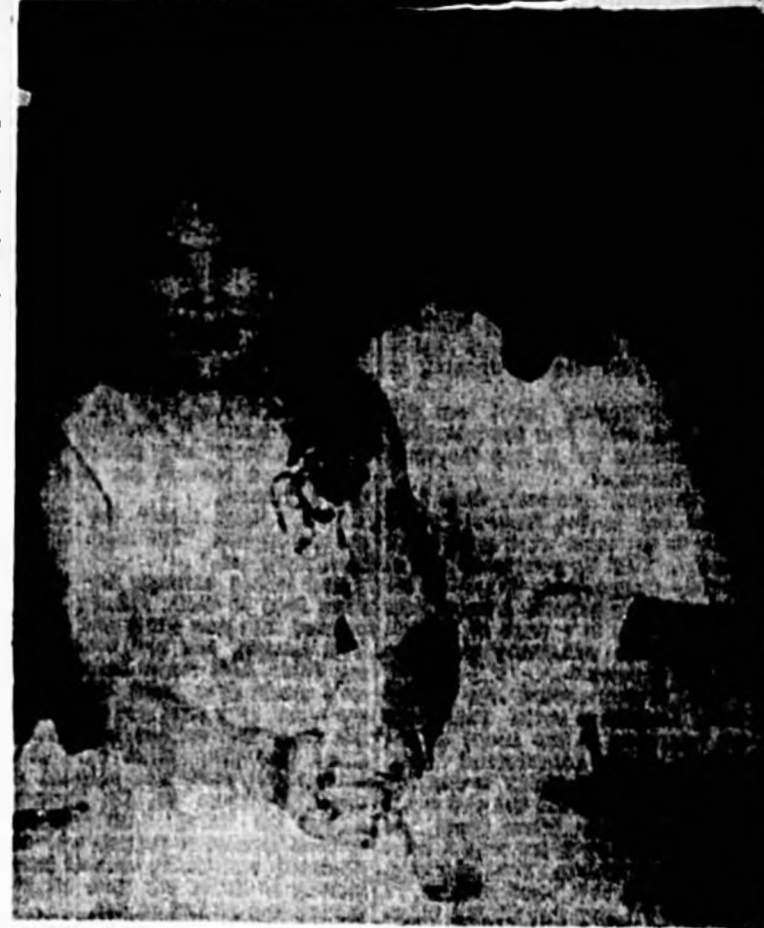

The manner scene was chosen this year with the cast of characters being: Sharon Evans, Mary; Ronnie Davis, Joseph; Ronnie Vinyard, Diana Hiskins, Patsy Thompson, Angles; Bruce McKibbin, Mike Buyus and Billy Shepard, Shepards; Bill Crappa, omeo; Mike Brown, Bukie Linker, Lewis, Cobb, Karen Karsey, Janet Lewis, Bill Crappa, Connie Sires, Richie Newton, Rany Senwick, Patricia Gustavson, Tommy Brubaker, Johnny Hawkins, Ira Abramson and Joe Demers, Choir.

Special numbers were done by Karen Karsey, solo, "How Far is It to Bethlehem; Janet Lewis and choir, "Silent Night; A poem, Rickie Newton, "Why Do Bells On Christmas Ring?"; and Connie Sires in "Little Candle".

"I saw Mama Kissing Santa Claus" was done by Bill Crappa Toys" was done by Randy Senwick and another poem "Aggravating wick."

"A letter To Santa Claus" was done by Johnny Hawkins. Mrs. J. A. Young was the accompanist for the children.

Refreshments were served under a lighted tree.

CHIEF WILLIAMS and his wife were among those enjoying the music of the Starlighters at the annual Policeman's Ball held Saturday. The dance was a "complete success". (Staff Photo)

Important universal problems. "The Warning Bell" pinpoints these problems from rural schools in Lancaster County, Pa., to cities the size of Houston, El Paso and Des Moines.

The program serves to demonstrate that when radio or television undertakes what network executives like to call "programming in depth" the way is arduous, the paths confusing, and the goal a challenge. It will be worth listening to this most recent report on one of the nation's most complex problems.

NEW YORK — Whether the world's problems are growing more complex or we simply treat them more complexly is subject to debate. In any event, the burdens of good journalism are greater. And this applies to the electronics journalism of television and radio as well as to what you read in your daily paper.

Tomorrow night, for example, CBS radio is tackling the complex problems of the public schools in a 35-minute program narrated by Arthur Godfrey. Ralph Backlund, CBS radio's alert executive producer in charge of public affairs programs, discussed recently how the program entitled "The Warning Bell" was put together.

Most CBS radio network stations, the National Education Assn. and the Citizens Committee for the Public Schools were contacted to find 14 communities across the nation where various typically critical school situations could be dramatized. Hundreds of persons spent thousands of hours to place on tape a total of 40 hours of interviews and discussions — enough to keep you listening for almost two solid days.

"And then," said Backlund somewhat ruefully, "we had to cut 40 hours to 35 minutes. We feel we've succeeded in focusing on the most

2 Present-Giving Problems Are Faced By Cuban Parents

By PHIL WANGLEDORF
HAVANA, Cuba (U.P.)—Cuban parents face two present-giving problems during the Christmas season. Children receive gifts from Santa Claus on Christmas and from the Three Wise Men Jan. 6.

Until recent years most Cubans followed only the Latin-American custom of showering toys on their children Jan. 6, the feast which commemorates the Three Wise Men's presenting gifts to the Christ Child.

Traditionally, Christmas in Cuba is a religious and family celebration. Members of the family gather late Christmas Eve, known as "Noche Buena" or the Good Night, for a feast of young roast pig, black beans and rice and fried bananas.

Then off they go at midnight to an old cathedral or to a modern air-conditioned church to attend the Misa del Gallo or the Mass of the Rooster.

Before the last war only the more wealthy among Cubans had adopted the United States-type Christmas. Now it has spread to others. As early as mid-November Christmas decorations go up in stores, and shop windows are filled with gift suggestions. Imported evergreens are sold from sidewalk stands.

The Cuban government this year will distribute 200,000 food packages — each of which will include $1 — so the poor can hold their family dinners on Christmas Eve. The dollar will be used to buy a young tender pig for roasting.

On Jan. 6 the government will distribute truckloads of toys to poor children.

FROZEN FISHERMEN
EDMONTON, Alta. (U.P.)—Henry Netter and Rudolph Dickerman of Edmonton were some of the worst today for a 14-mile hike in frozen clothes and in 17-below weather.

The two men drove their car on frozen Lake Wabamun, 36 miles west of Edmonton, yesterday to do some ice fishing. The car broke through into five feet of water, drenching its two occupants. On their walk back for help their clothes froze solid but doctors said they suffered no ill effects.

Moscow Has Year Of Big Travel

MOSCOW (U.P.)—However else Moscow may classify 1955, it goes into Soviet records as the year of the big travel.

A recapitulation shows how far the Soviet Union has moved this year toward exploiting the intense curiosity that exists abroad.

Prime Minister Nehru and Canada's Foreign Secretary Lester B. Pearson admitted that sheer curiosity was a powerful motive in prompting their visits to Moscow.

For stay-at-homes, who wanted to see a real live Russian, personalities ranging from Prime Minister Bulganin and Communist party boss Nikita S. Khrushchev to coal miners and athletes put themselves on display abroad.

Official Soviet figures say over 40,000 foreigners visited the Soviet Union this year. Most of these were from Communist countries, however.

Basically the increase in visiting had political aims—either immediate, such as Bulganin's and Khrushchev's Belgrade reconciliation with Marshal Tito, or long-range through international sporting events.

The policy so far seems to have paid off.

This program got underway tentatively while Georgi Malenkov was premier in 1954 but its biggest impetus came Feb. 8, 1955, the day Bulganin took over. The Supreme Soviet that day invited every national legislative body in the world to send a delegation to visit Moscow.

The trickle of visitors soon turned into a flood. Parliamentary delegations came from France, Belgium, Japan, Albania, Yugoslavia, Finland and numerous other countries. Several members of the U.S. Congress flew in Trade un-

Man Unknowingly Delivers Letters To Half-Sister

MILL VALLEY, Calif. (U.P.)—James Conley delivered mail to Marie MacDonagh for four years without knowing she was the half-sister who was separated from him a quarter century ago.

They decided Monday, after getting everything clear, to spend Christmas together.

Mrs. MacDonagh is a clerk at Shoreline Market.

A customer, Mrs. James West, asked last Wednesday if she knew the name of the mailman who just walked in with a sack on his shoulder.

Going over to Conley, Mrs. MacDonagh asked:
"What's your name?"
"Conley."
"That's funny. That was my stepfather's name. What's your first name?"
"Jimmy."
"I had a younger brother named Jimmy."
"Well, I had an older sister named Marie. What's your name?"
"Marie."
It was just like that.

Mrs. MacDonagh recalled their mother got sick when I was about 14 and Jimmy was 7. She went to foster parents and Jimmy to an orphanage in Martin County, Virginia.

Pizza Bakery In Full Swing

DENTON, Tex. (U.P.)—Bianca's Pizza Bakery is doing all right in this Texas college town but don't waste your time looking for Bianca.

The establishment belongs to a couple of gals who tossed their college training aside to go into business.

The proprietors, Nancy Barker, 24, a blonde who quit a school teaching job, and Barbara Coggrove, 22, whose only qualification for the pizza business was a diploma in English.

In the 2½ weeks they've been in operation, Nancy and Barbara already have made enough profit to pay off their original investment. They take on the average of 30 of the crisp Italian dishes a day.

Roommates several years ago while attending North Texas State College here, the two girls talked often of going into business together. All they needed, they figured, was a good idea.

Barbara hit on pizzas while in Florida during the summer. She and Nancy then began haunting restaurants, lounges and bars in Dallas, sampling pizza and copying sauce recipes.

Now they have their own "special" recipe, along with varieties about importing cheese and herbs from Italy, getting special boxes from New Jersey to deliver the pizza in, and the like.

Their dreams at first were big. They wanted to rent a building. Finally they settled for the kitchen of their small rented cottage in which to bake the pizza. Both take turns at the twin pizza ovens, but Nancy keeps the books.

They're saving up for a vacation in Europe and later hope to have a regular little Italian restaurant.

Villagers To Have New Stone Church For Yule Masses

By PETER BUCKLEY
Quebec Press Staff Writer
QUEBEC (U.P.)—Villagers of Island of Orleans Parish will attend Midnight Mass this Christmas Eve in a modern stone church.

For more than 200 years parishioners in the village near Quebec have worshipped in a little wooden church built in 1717.

Time at last caught up with the St. Lawrence River Island. The church has become a museum. Horse-drawn sleighs, with bells tinkling, will still bring villagers to Mass this Christmas Eve, but they will share parking space beside late-model cars.

With the spread of English influence, sweeping changes have come over the "Jour de Noel" throughout Quebec province in the last few decades.

New Year's Day, until recent years, was traditionally reserved for visits to neighbors and relatives, the giving of presents and hospitality. Now it is still a time to visit but Christmas has become the day when Port Noel (Father Christmas) makes his trip from the North Pole.

One tradition that has hung on, although considerably modified, is the "revolution." On Christmas morning after Midnight Mass, they gather around the Christmas tree — another innovation — for the exchange of gifts followed by a meal. This meal nowadays is inclined to be a modest affair of sandwiches, or a cold turkey and fruit cake or cookies.

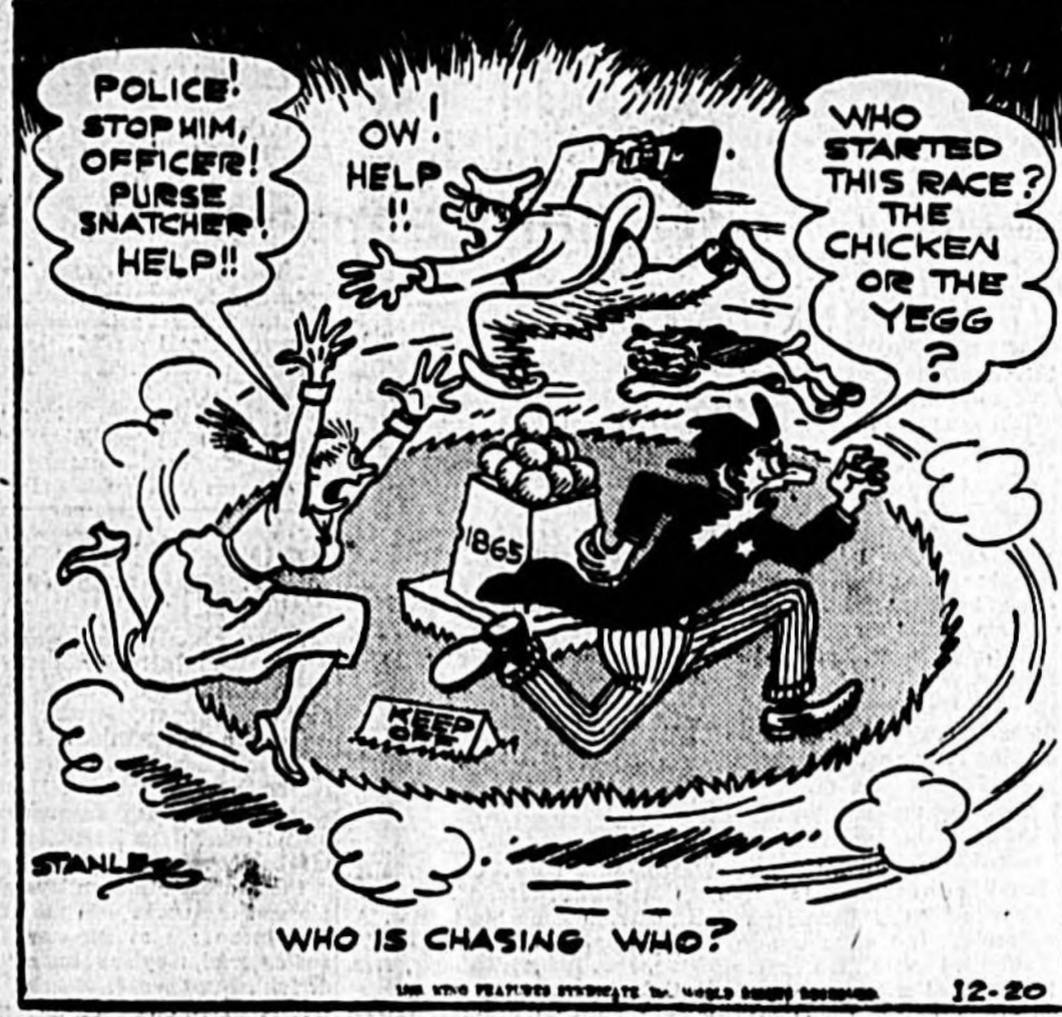

The Christmas Day dinner itself is almost a duplicate of that entered in English-speaking families — stuffed turkey, baked potatoes, vegetables and dessert, usually pie. There is little of the strictly French tradition in the meals.

POOR SPORTS
ESCANABA, Mich. (U.P.)—Arthur Sullivan, 60, of Green Bay, Wis., killed a buck deer with his car three days before hunting season opened.

He told Michigan conservation officials he was getting ready to call them to hunt the season away when a squirrel of red pointed ears, running through the snow, hit him on the trunk, and sped away.

Contract Bridge Players In U. S. Meet In St. Pete

Of interest to local contract bridge players will be an announcement made today regarding the Annual All-Southern States Championships to be played Jan. 4 through 7.

Contract bridge players in various parts of the United States will make their headquarters at the Sereno Hotel, St. Petersburg, during the Eighth Annual All-Southern States Championships, sponsored by the St. Petersburg Bridge League in cooperation with the Chamber of Commerce and the Florida Unit, and sanctioned by the American Contract Bridge League.

The 11 events will be held in the spacious ballroom of the Sereno Hotel, located in the heart of Florida's famous Sunshine City. The schedule of play includes Open Individuals; Women's and Men's Pairs; Mixed Pairs; Teams of Four; St. Petersburg Pairs;

Sereno Pairs; Pinellas Pairs; Shuffleboard Pairs, climaxed by the Masters Pairs, for which red points, the goal of all players, will be awarded. Awards will include beautiful floating trophies, master points and permanent trophies.

Many bridge notables will attend from every part of the nation. The All-Southern Championships has become the largest and most outstanding sectional tournament in the United States. Last year a total of 27 Life masters were in attendance. Mrs. Beryl Hewson, who conducts the St. Petersburg Shuffleboard Bridge Club largest duplicate club in the United States, is general chairman.

Trappists Reverently Celebrate Christmas In Own Quiet Fashion

HUNTSVILLE, Utah (AP)—A tinsel tree, gaily wrapped gifts, a family feast, jokes and laughter and, maybe, a word or two about Jesus. That is Christmas for most Americans.

But not for 70 men living in a rugged, mile-high Utah valley. They pray and think, hear and sing of Jesus and of His coming to earth. That is their Christmas, and nothing more.

These men, who rarely use their voices except to praise God, are Trappist monks. There are roughly 700 like them celebrating Christmas this year in 11 monasteries scattered across the nation.

Although called Trappists, their real name is Cistercians of the Strict Observance, or Reformed Cistercians. It is an order of the Roman Catholic Church. The monks at the Abbey of our Lady of the Holy Trinity have announced the world to become contemplatives. Their profession is prayer. Their function is not to teach, nor to win converts, but simply to love God.

With a few exceptions, such as the monk detailing to great visitors, they do not speak in conversation. They exchange information by signs. They do not eat meat, fish or eggs. A typical meal consists of soup and cooked vegetables. Christmas Day the food will be something special—soup, two vegetables, homemade bread, cocoa, fruit and a few sweets.

On Utah Highway 30, leading east from Ogden, a tiny roadside sign reading simply "Monastery" shows visitors the way to the abbey. There is a site, a barn—each with a humble cross—amid the rolling fields of the 1,600-acre ranch. A dormitory and a church, the principal buildings, are converted quonset huts.

The observance of Christmas starts Dec. 24 at 5:30 a. m., when the festival of the nativity of Jesus Christ is solemnly announced in the church. Then one of the monks delivers the Christmas sermon. The High Mass of the Vigil is sung by the Abbot, which marks it as a special occasion.

The cloisters are decorated with greens. A crib and a representation of the Cave of Bethlehem, peopled with figurines, are erected in the church, all along simple, modest lines.

In the afternoon a bell begins to toll and the sound of heavy shoes sifts into the chapel. The Trappists file in, heads shaved except for the monastic crown, in long white robes. They genuflect in front of the altar and take their places in their stalls.

Then begins the first vesper of the Feast of the Nativity, one of the many magnificent Gregorian chants more than 1,000 years old. Later, when the music is finished on the day before Christmas, the monks retire at 8 p. m., only to rise again at 9 p. m. They sing other Gregorian chants for two hours, then, at midnight, sing the Pontifical Mass.

They return to their straw pallets until 3:20 a. m. Christmas Day, when they again sing their chant and say Mass. Around 8 a. m., they eat some cocoa, a piece of bread—something different—a piece of home-made butter.

Sometimes during the day they get the opportunity to write letters. Some, one of four occasions during the year when they may do so. The rest of the day is spent praying, thinking, singing their chants, until finally, at 7 p. m., they return to their hard beds and their Christmas will be over.

Singing Sister Gets Broken Jaw

NEW YORK (AP)—Arthur Godfrey's singing McGuire sisters will have to get along without one member of their trio for a while. Sister Phyllis has a broken jaw.

Dorothy McGuire, who lives with Phyllis and her husband Neal Van Ellis, explained yesterday that the jaw was broken in a family rough-house game with their French poodle Tinker.
