Sound-Money Program To Be Advocated Before Next Congress

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—The United States faces an orgy of currency inflation which will culminate in disaster and impoverishment, unless the next Congress has a majority which will stand for a sound-money program, members of the Economists' National Committee on Monetary Policy believe.

Chicago Fair Must Be Dismantled Within Next Few Months

CHICAGO, Oct. 1.—Another day and the century's biggest entertainment venture and the $27,000,000 World's Fair becomes "just a job for the second-hand man."

It's still doing business as a pleasure ground but wreckers are cutting it a cold and calculating eye. The fair is 20,000 tons of light structural steel in them, plus many items too numerous to mention.

Steel will be the big salvage material, so that how much the fair is worth, at the close on Oct. 31, will depend upon the steel market. The fair management estimates that they own 100,000 tons, exclusive of the giant halls, which will give them about 11,500 tons to sell.

Plans are still highly uncertain; nothing official has been said about what parts of the exposition are to remain as a souvenir or what. But the management will be ready to hang price tags on all its equipment.

Many exhibitors will be out in two weeks after the close," said Col. J. Franklin Bell, who considers his job as chief of demolition no simpler than his work of closing out the American engineering corps in France, after the war.

"Most of the rest will be packed up and on the way by November but some won't be able to move that soon, so that it is possible some of the buildings can be touched before February."

GERMAN DOCTOR SAYS FISCH DIED WITHOUT MONEY

Specialist Rallies To Support Of Bruno Hauptmann's Friend

LEIPZIG, Germany, Oct. 1.—(AP)—The doctor who treated Isadora Fisch in his last illness yesterday said emphatically that he died in abject poverty.

(Bruno Richard Hauptmann, indicted in New York for extortion following discovery of part of the Lindbergh kidnaping ransom in his garage, said Fisch, his dead friend, gave him the money.)

Rallying to support the assertions of Fisch's family that neither he nor they had money, Dr. R. Chamitzer, white-haired stomach specialist, showed the still unpaid bills for Fisch's treatment to evidence his belief in their poverty. "Look here," he said, "I still presented them even today because I am convinced the family has no money."

Today's tale from a wayside filling station: Eight natives of Boston, Mass., drove into the station late Saturday night, enroute back to their homes after having toured the nation. Traveling in two big Packard automobiles the party had spent exactly $612.46, including the sum paid for gasoline in Sanford, for gasoline since they left Boston. Prices ranged from eight to 24 cents per gallon, one of the men said. Spokesman for the party remarked that he would not spend such an amount next winter, for the entire group had planned to come direct to Florida. "We think Florida is the very best of all of the 48 we now have visited," the spokesman said. Seminole County was one of the few counties which they did not have an opportunity of viewing in daytime, he added, but he concluded, "We're coming back to look around and see what you're got."

"Help Keep Sanford Clean," is the appeal which is painted in yellow letters on the green sides of new and modern style trash cans which were placed on downtown streets this morning. Two cans now are available, with five more to be placed next week. The cans were made by L. B. Hodgins, local tinner, at the request of the City Commission. They are exact duplicates of cans which could have been purchased from out-of-town firms.

Police Seek Associate Of Bruno Hauptmann

The Associated Press reports today that police in New York today began a search for unidentified associates of Bruno Hauptmann, the man charged with the slaying of the Lindbergh baby.

Police Attorney Samuel Foley is to convene a conference of Governor Bruce and Attorney General David Whitely of Pennsylvania regarding the case of Hauptmann and the question of his extradition.

Washington, D. C., Star reports that two witnesses have been identified today by the police as the "John" of the Lindbergh kidnapping and ransom.

INSULL COMES TO TRIAL AT LAST

Samuel Insull (above) fled half way around the world in trying to dodge trial for the collapse of his utilities empire in the Midwest—but the trail finally led to the federal court building in Chicago. Arrested in Greece last October, he was returned to this country and docketed for trial, starting today. Federal authorities accuse him of having engineered what they term a $163,000,000 swindle in the failure of his many companies. (Associated Press Photo)

RUMORS PERSIST THAT SHOLTZ IS TO BE PROMOTED

Governor Says He Will Serve 4-Year-Term And Then Step Out

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.—(AP)—A report apparently of untraceable origin has gained circulation in Washington that Dave Sholtz, Florida's young and smiling governor, was in line for an important federal appointment.

The governor, passing through the capital recently, firmly denied to friends any knowledge of an impending offer of a post here. Notwithstanding, the report persisted.

Most frequently connected with Sholtz was the job of assistant secretary of the navy, now held by Henry L. Roosevelt, cousin of the President and once by the President himself.

There have been no recent indications, however, of a possibility that Henry Roosevelt may retire or that another assistant secretary's post will be created. Friends of the governor also expressed doubt he would leave his executive position in Florida, which has two years to run, for any job in Washington.

Sholtz comes to the capital often, and each time calls upon just about every member of the cabinet, and often the President. The debutant governor, with the air of a natural salesman, has a right-of-way into almost any office here.

Whether his free and easy mixing in Washington had anything to do with the appointment report, no one seemed to know. In fact no one here apparently knew (Continued on Page Three)

HUGH JOHNSON SHEDS TEARS IN FAREWELL

2000 Give Former NRA Head 10 Minute Ovation After He Delivers His 'Swan-Song'

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.—Tears streaming from eyes that once blazed defiance at the mightiest captains of American industry, General Hugh S. Johnson yesterday said goodbye to the NRA.

Lately, he said, "there seemed to have been a regular 'last call for dead cats.'"

Johnson appeared a lonely figure as he strode on the barren stage at the commerce department auditorium. As he spoke, members of the new Recovery board who will take over the duties the blustering general has abandoned, were moving into the Administrative suite.

He will hold their first meeting today under the direction of S. Clay Williams, chairman. At the same time, Miss Frances Robinson, Johnson's 56,000 a-year executive assistant, resigned. Co-workers were massed in front of the auditorium stage when Johnson, dressed in a dark blue suit, appeared. There was a burst of applause. He waved for silence. In the crowd were division administrators and stenographers; office boys and porters.

"This occasion is at once one of the saddest and one of the happiest moments of my life," the general began. He praised the workers for a "job well done" and expressed regret that this was the last time all would meet together.

Urging them to be loyal to the new NRA board whose members he praised highly, Johnson said he began urging President Roosevelt last May to accept his resignation.

"I predicted this end in the beginning," he explained. "It was to be red fire... dead cats... oblivion!"

Official Manifesto Urges Japan To Get Ready For Russia

TOKYO, Oct. 2.—(AP)—An official pamphlet which urged Japan to make ready for possible war with Russia spread uneasiness among the nation's economic leaders today.

This was reflected in the stock exchange. Leading shares declined on an average of two yen which is about 60 cents.

Newspapers said members of the Cabinet as well as civilians were taken back by the Army's surprising manifesto which proposed drastic changes in the national economic life, and in the non-military government departments.

It asserted that the United States had three airplanes to Japan's one, and that America wanted a navy larger than this country's in order to support its foreign policies toward the Orient. Political writers predicted the statement would be a grave political issue at the impending special session of the Diet.

Insull Faces Judge As His Trial Opens

CHICAGO, Ill., Oct. 2.—(AP)—Samuel Insull, Sr., head until 1932 of a $4,000,000,000 public utility system, went on trial in United States District Court here today for mail frauds which it was charged cost investors $143,000,000.

Insull, in a gray sack suit, was almost the last of 16 defendants to arrive in the courtroom. "I have nothing whatever to say," the principal defendant declared.

Apopka State Bank Held Up At Noon By Unmasked Trio; Kidnaped Official Released

Richberg Is 'Top Man' In Revamped NRA Unit

In President Roosevelt's reorganization of the NRA, Donald R. Richberg (center) emerged as the new "top man" in the industrial recovery drive. He heads a new industrial emergency committee of which will outline policies for the revamped NRA. Members of the NRA's new administrative agency to be known as the National Industry Recovery board, include Leon C. Marshall (upper left), former John Hopkins law professor; Clay Williams, (lower left) North Carolina tobacco manufacturer; A. D. Whiteside, (upper right), publisher of financial data; Sidney Hillman, (lower right), president of the Amalgamated Clothing Workers' union.

Nation-wide wave of bank robberies struck near home today when three unmasked men entered the State Bank of Apopka at about 12:30 o'clock this afternoon, forced an official of the bank to open a vault, scooped up all currency in sight, and escaped after kidnaping the bank's assistant cashier and was forced to ride the running board of the bandit's car until he was released on the outskirts of the city.

Amount of the loss was undetermined early this afternoon. Frank Burgess, assistant cashier of the bank, was acting as teller when the three men entered the bank with drawn guns. They forced Burgess and Miss Grace van Sicken, the bank's book-keeper to lie on the floor while they completed the robbery.

The men made no attempt to conceal their features, and they left fingerprints. Suddenness of the attack which came during the noon hour was matched by the speed in which police and sheriff's deputies went into action immediately after word reached Apopka police of the robbery.

Sanford police were among the first notified, as was Sheriff J. B. McClelland's office, and all available police and deputies set out for western Belvidere County in an all-out effort. Report had it that the escaped trio are last seen heading (Continued on Page Seven)

TAX ASSESSMENT ROLL FOR STATE, COUNTY OKEYED

$100,000 Difference Is Indicated Over Figures For 1933-34

Approval of the state and county 1934-35 assessment of an approximate total of $7,200,000 was a highlight of yesterday afternoon's session of the Board of County Commissioners, John Meisch, Sr., presiding.

The assessment it was indicated in data supplied by S. F. Doudney, Tax Assessor Alex Vaughn's office, will be about $100,000 less than it was last year.

The actual figures will be released late this week, Mr. Doudney stated. He also pointed out that with millage reductions having been ordered in every district except Longwood district, the total tax levied on all properties will be around $505,000 instead of the $520,851.99 of last year.

The Commissioners passed a resolution in which they set forth that disposition as to be made of anticipated gasoline tax monies, and they passed another resolution transferring funds from one account to another.

The E. I. and D. I. Roll for 1932 as well as the annual report for 1932 was presented and approved. The Commissioners voted to increase the monthly appropriation for the Seminole County Welfare Board from $125 to $200.

Hospital bills totaling $58 were ordered paid. Commissioners S. F. Doudney and G. B. Seary were authorized to purchase fertilizers to be used on the grove at the county home this season.

No action was taken on a request by the Florida World's Fair Commission that another $500 appropriation be made by the county.

APPLAUD BONUS DEMAND

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Oct. 2.—(AP)—From cheering an appeal by President Roosevelt that they cooperate to end economic distress, the Veterans of Foreign Wars in a convention yesterday turned to applaud the demand of Texas for payment of the bonus.

IMPORTS INCREASE

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.—(AP)—Imports of diamonds into the United States during the first half of this year increased 60 percent compared with the first six months of 1933. The United States is the largest ultimate purchaser of diamonds and the bulk of them is mined in South Africa.

President Asked To Force Truce By Ordinance

Manufacturers Seek Labor's Support Of Plans To End Strife

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—(AP)—Issuance of a proclamation for a "truce on industrial warfare," during which present employment relations would be continued, was urged yesterday by the National Association of Manufacturers, challenging the American Federation of Labor to take a similar action.

President Roosevelt, in his address to the nation Friday night, declared he would call for an industrial truce between capital and labor while the newly organized NRA evolves legislation designed to safeguard the rights of each.

In commending the President's address, William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor now in session in San Francisco, said Sunday night that he hoped the National Association of Manufacturers would take the "President's requests to heart."

The association said that "undoubtedly the public recognition by the President in his talk to the nation that Recovery must be based upon the system of fair profit and through the process of individual initiative will be a helpful factor in supplying the confidence in the future which is essential for business progress."

"The manufacturing employers of the nation have been and are now ready to co-operate with President Roosevelt in sound measures to restore cordial employment relations and speed economic Recovery," the manufacturers' statement said.

"The President will find employers willing to sit down with him, as he proposes, to devise (Continued on Page Three)

Sanford Lodge No. 62 F. & A. M. meets at the Masonic Temple at 7:30 o'clock tonight, reminded Worshipful Master A. L. Betts this morning. "Members are requested to make note of the fact that meeting hour time has been changed from 8:00 o'clock to 7:30 o'clock," he said. Work will be exemplified in the Fellowship degree, and refreshments will be served at the end of the meeting.

Indicating a near end to a large part of the construction work required at the new Standard Oil Co. terminal on the lakefront is the fact that huge gasoline storage tanks that have been erected for some days now are being given a first coat of paint. The terminal promises to be one of the largest of the several scheduled to be built in the vicinity of French and Myrtle Avenues. (Continued on Page Seven)

Princeton, N. J., Oct. 2.—Sign of the times: a custom that has been in force since Princeton University was founded 183 years ago—the ringing of the bell atop Nassau hall at 7 A. M. today—has been abolished. Students long have complained that the bell awakens them too early, and after the clanging will be heard at 8:30.

Suddenness Of Affair Matched By Speed In Which Roads Are Lined With Police

Nation-wide wave of bank robberies struck near home today when three un- masked men entered the State Bank of Apopka at about 12:30 o'clock this af- ternoon, forced an official of the bank to open a vault, scooped up all cur- rency in sight, and escaped after kidnaping the bank's assistant cashier and was forced to ride the running board of the bandit's car until he was released on the outskirts of the city.

Amount of the loss was undetermined early this afternoon. Frank Burgess, assistant cashier of the bank, was acting as teller when the three men entered the bank with drawn guns. They forced Burgess and Miss Grace van Sicken, the bank's book-keeper to lie on the floor while they completed the robbery.

The men made no attempt to conceal their features, and they left fingerprints. Suddenness of the attack which came during the noon hour was matched by the speed in which police and sheriff's deputies went into action immediately after word reached Apopka police of the robbery.

Sanford police were among the first notified, as was Sheriff J. B. McClelland's office, and all available police and deputies set out for western Belvidere County in an all-out effort. Report had it that the escaped trio are last seen heading (Continued on Page Seven)

WALLACE CRACKS DOWN ON HILLS PER HIS LETTER

State Party Chairman Had Sought Cash To Aid Party War Chest

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2. — (AP) — Democratic National Committee representative's call on the government employees to contribute a percentage of their wages to the party war chest has been rebuffed by Secretary Wallace, who said that his employees are under no obligation to do so.

Wallace's memorandum was issued after his attention had been called to a letter from George R. Hills, the committee's finance director for Florida. Hills asked all government employees who had lived in Florida to donate at least $10 per $1,000 of annual salary he or she received.

Wallace, quoted from the civil service act provision that no government employee was "under any obligation" to contribute to party funds or render political service, added:

"Employees are reminded that such contributions made by them are presumed to be entirely voluntary."

Hills' letter said:

"The Democratic National Committee is now taking active steps to reverse the deficit of the Democratic party which remained after the campaign in which President Roosevelt was elected. Florida's quota of that deficit is $10,000 and, as director of finance for the National Committee in Florida, I am confronted with the responsibility of raising that amount."

"It is clear that the party will not be in a position to carry out proper campaigns in future elections until the obligations of the party, presidential campaign have been liquidated."

"I am addressing you in the hope that you will see fit to contribute in the matter outlined. Your action will be a direct endorsement of the President in doing the work that sufficient funds will be secured to meet Florida's quota of such expenses of this state now employed by the federal government will promptly contribute not less than $10 per $1,000 of annual salary he or she received."

"While your contribution will be appreciated in whatever amount you feel able and disposed to make, the basis suggested above is set out to give you some guide as to minimum requirements."

Proper Foods Will Prevent Pellagra, Says FERA Nurse

Type of food that should be eaten to prevent, relieve, and cure pellagra was listed at the FERA office in the Court House this morning by FERA Nurse Francis MacDougall.

Here is a sample diet which works wonders, Nurse MacDougall stated. This sample is handed to every person on relief whenever it is indicated that a lack of one or more kinds of food may lead to a serious condition.

AMOUNT TO BE EATEN EVERY WEEK

Milk — fresh, evaporated, or dry skim, 3 1/2 quarts; Fish — Canned, dried, fresh, lean meat, eggs, cheese, 1 pound; Potatoes — (Irish or sweet), 5 pounds; Onions, 2 pounds; Cabbage, greens, carrots, turnips, collards, beet tops, cauliflower, spinach, 3 pounds; Canned Tomatoes — (do not cook), 1 No. 2 can; Dried beans or Peas — field peas, string beans, 1 1/2 pounds; Fat Meat, lard, bacon etc., 1 pound; Cornmeal flour, whole wheat, rice, sugar, peas, 1 to 4 pounds; Fat meat, lard, bacon etc. Maltine — 1 pint; Sugar, 1 1/4 pound.

1933 LEGISLATIVE SESSION EXPENSE MAINLY FOR PAY

TALLAHASSEE, Oct. 2. — (AP) — Salaries of employees of the State Senate and House of Representatives — not including the members — required more than half of the total costs of the 1933 legislative session.

A check for $220,916.05, handed over last week from the general revenue fund to the state treasury in payment of the legislative expenses, covered these items:

Payrolls and mileage for senators, $15,467.70.

Payrolls for Senate attendants, $52,828.

Payrolls and mileage for House members, $20,091.40.

Payrolls for House attendants, $38,808.

Printing bills, $38,196.57.

Miscellaneous Senate bills, $54,341.

Miscellaneous House bills, $2,236.61.

Members of the House paid mileage and attaches, except in case of a committee of 20 a day for the session. Pages are paid daily.

When the 1933 Legislature was in session, the general revenue fund did not have sufficient money to pay the expenses. As the bills for salaries and other expenses were audited and approved, they were paid by the state treasury out of available funds, and the amounts were carried as "debts," awaiting the time the general revenue fund would make payment.

A collection of state taxes in other revenues since July of last year covered the general revenue fund sufficiently that the full payment for the last Legislature was made to the treasury by Comptroller J. M. Lee.

FRENCH PILOT KILLED

MIAMI, Fla., Oct. 2. — (AP) — Gustave Leconte, noted French aviator and international record holder, was killed yesterday when his parachute failed to open as he leaped from a falling airplane.

Produce production and at the same time keep up body weight is necessary. Anything that will keep the birds well and hearty will help to prevent the winter molt. The fall or winter molt is often a blessing in disguise. The flock that goes into a molt, especially if it is a neck molt, will, of course, drop off in production. While in the molt they will gain in weight and be in much better condition to produce strong, healthy chicks. The flock that molts during the winter will lay eggs later the following fall when egg are high in price. It is wise to take precautions to prevent a fall molt but don't get discouraged if one occurs in the early hatched pullets. If the body weight is maintained, the molt will be prevented. Heavy consumption of feed, especially the grain or fattening feed, will hold body weight. With the early hatched pullets we have not only to maintain body weight but we must feed them so that they may lay eggs, grow feathers and increase in size and weight.

Ickes Will Ask For Bigger PWA Grants

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2. — Secretary Ickes is expected to request today that he be authorized another substantial Public Works appropriation from the next Congress to provide employment and private enterprise once more can

A survey by Florida newspaper publishers in connection with the celebration honoring Cal Herty, Florida's first leader in restoring Florida to prosperity reveals that by 1934 they had recovered in virtually all fields of activity. Basic, of course, has been the record-breaking $100,000,000 of tourist season. Developing from this have been the particular advances in building construction and real estate.

By 1934, according to the Florida Association of Real Estate Brokers, building up in the first six months of 1934 sales totaled $2,750,000,000, the Realty Journal in St. Petersburg and Atlanta report in July added $2,075,000 to

GREEN SUGGESTS THAT INDUSTRY MEET NEW ORDER

Labor Head Looks For No Modification Of Social Justice Idea

COSCHICTON, Ohio, Oct. 2. — William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, said recently he looked for no modification of "social justice" legislation proposed by President Roosevelt. He reiterated that "Industry ought to adjust itself to the changes of the new order."

Labor's chief executive said he told the same thing to George Houston, president of the Baldwin Locomotive Works, three weeks ago after he said Houston contemplated or projected "oppressive legislation" which would hamper the Securities Act as one which threatened a burden on business.

He complained to me that such legislation was having a bad effect on business and that conditions under the type of social justice legislation must be remedied before business could recover," Green said.

"I stated my opinion that industry ought to adjust itself to the changes of the new order, that the legislation would bring no injury to industry because it would pass on to the consumer the added charges, just as it passed workmen's compensation law charges on to the consumer."

Green said he assumed that in his discussion with Houston the latter was presenting only his own views. Published reports had said Houston headed a group of industrialists which had confronted Green with a specific plan to alter drastically the policies of the National Recovery Administration.

More Eggs

At Lower Cost Per Dozen

The way to make more money from your poultry is to lower the cost of producing a dozen eggs.

Experiment Station data show that the most noticeable factor influencing egg cost per dozen is the percentage of egg production. It isn't how much your feed costs; but rather how many eggs you get.

The Letter a Dozen Eggs the lower the feed cost per dozen eggs.

Hens that are laying at 60% production show about one-half the cost per dozen of those that are producing at 30%. The 30% hens eat almost as much as the 60% hens. The big difference is that the 60% hens are getting the proteins, minerals and vitamins they need.

The More Egg Mash

Wayne Egg Mash should be kept before your hens every day of the year. There is no danger of them over-eating the mash so long as it is fed dry just as it comes from the bag. The more Wayne Egg Mash you can put into your hens, the greater will be your reward in eggs. Keep it before them all the time in clean self-feeders, placed high enough above the little so that dirt and straw will not be scratched into the mash, and none will be wasted in the litter.

The More Eggs

Whenever you enter the laying house, or pass by the feed hopper, run your hand through the mash to fluff it up. This encourages the hens to eat better.

Wayne Egg Mash is unequalled as a laying mash for hens and mature pullets. It was developed by the Allied Mills Nutrition Staff who are leaders in the science of most efficient feeding. It insures High Egg Production at Low Cost.

THE EARLY HATCHED PULLET

By H. D. MUNROE

Professor Poultry Extension Penn. State College

A fall or winter molt in a flock of early hatched pullets can be prevented in many ways. By good management. Good nutritional means. Good poultry practice. That is to lay at an optimum of from four to five months. It includes having the birds in good flesh when they start to lay and keeping them in good condition. Thin birds usually molt. The pullets should be housed when the first one starts to lay. The houses should be cool in summer and moderately warm in winter.

COOLIDGE HELD FUTURE OF GOP AS GUARANTEED

They Will Not Go In on Eclipse, Because Of Defeat, He Said

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 2.—(AP)—The future of the Republican Party, Calvin Coolidge wrote before his death, is guaranteed "by the requirements of good government."

Published in the current issue of the Saturday Evening Post, the posthumous message of the former President asserts:

"Parties disintegrate only when their power for public service is gone. Nothing indicates that the Republican Party is approaching that stage."

Mr. Coolidge died in the interim between the defeat of Herbert Hoover and the inauguration of Franklin D. Roosevelt.

His last discussion of public affairs, "Political Parties," set forth the view that:

"So long as human nature continues to be what it is, our country will need the services of two great parties to secure the best that there is in the Administration of public affairs. Sometimes, one party will be in control and sometimes the other party."

By candid criticism and investigation the minority will always have not only a restraining influence but oftentimes a constructive influence on the proposals of the majority. The Republican Party is not going into total eclipse because it does not control the national government."

In the portion of his article released by the Saturday Evening Post for quotation, the former President wrote:

"When a political party has been decisively defeated at the polls, the question naturally arises whether it will ever regain the support of the majority of the voters. The answer to this question depends upon the party itself."

"Unless we are to be overcome by absolutism or anarchy, unless we are to abandon our system of self-government, it will be necessary to resort to parties for the most efficient discharge of the political functions of the people. The requirements of good government guarantee the future of the Republican Party."

"Though it is relieved of the responsibility which attaches to a party in control of the government, it, nevertheless, has important duties to perform."

HAUPTMANN'S BEACH PARTY FRIENDS QUIZZED

Pictures casually made at a beach party years ago had far-reaching consequences for friends of Bruno Hauptmann, the Lindbergh suspect. Finding the photograph at the left in Hauptmann's album, authorities identified the girl as Anita Lutzberg and the man on the right as Hans Kloppenberg and summoned both for questioning Hauptmann, whose wife was in Germany at the time, is shown laughing with Miss Lutzberg. The picture on the right shows her leaving District Attorney Samuel Foley's office after the questioning during which she said there was a "mysterious John" at the party. (Associated Press Photo.)

Student Who Died

The body of a 21-year-old student at Clemson college in South Carolina, was found on the quarter of a hotel in Atlanta, Ga., and authorities learned today that he accompanied a friend from a window two times above. Friends, who accompanied him to Atlanta for the Georgia vs. Clemson football game, said they left him alone in his room. His home was at Laurens, S. C. (Associated Press Photo.)

Mickey's Detroit Tigers

TIGERS' PILOT READY FOR SERIES

Mickey Cochrane, first American league pitcher to come to the motor city in 25 years and now he is going to bat for the World Series, crotch with St. Louis of the National League. Always a good money player, Mickey is likely to be prominent in the showing of his team in the series. He has had one of his best years and is rated as one of the backstops in baseball today. ## Cards, Tigers Prepare For One Of Most Interesting World's Series In Years

BY EDWARD J. NEIL
DITTOIT, Oct. 2.—(AP)—The annual hysteria known to the national pastime as the world series roared Detroit again for the first time in 25 years yesterday as Mickey Cochrane's Tigers and the city as well as the country's attention was attracted to the new baseball heroes, the Detroit Tigers.

The Cards, with rubber-armed Dizzy Trout in the van, and his brother Paul, a pitcher, leading the way, were expected to be the motor city's first major league champions since 1909, the first time since the city's first major league team, the White Sox, made the championship.

There were all kinds of rumors that the rival manager, Frankie Frisch and Cochrane, would pull off their first major league triumph in the opening game of the series, the storied night battle in the motor city, where their last great triumph was in 1909, the year the National League championship was won by the Detroit Tigers.

But last night, through the late hours of the evening, the Detroit Tigers, who were expected to be the motor city's first major league champions since 1909, the first time since the city's first major league team, the White Sox, made the championship.

SOUND MONEY PATTERN NOW BEING PURSUED

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—(AP)—A distinct "sound money" pattern followed by the financial markets in the past fortnight is a complete reversal of the trends of August and early September.

In foreign exchange dealings, the dollar has risen to a point higher than it has reached in any previous year.

The bond market has improved, with the number of so-called inflation issues declining moderately.

Other factors, in the belief of exchange experts, the strength of the dollar indicates a growing belief that the dollar is being maintained as a means to recovery.

Nevertheless, it is believed that the strength of the dollar may spring chiefly from deflation conditions abroad rather than any important change at home.
