Steal-To-Order Trials Scheduled

Richard is accused of buying a stolen color television from members of the theft ring. The television was surrendered to sheriff's deputies before Richards' arrest.

Court records indicate an investigator 'stumbled on it in a hallway' at the sheriff's department after Richards had been told that he was suspected of having possession of the set stolen in a burglary at a south Seminole residence.

Fitts has filed a motion to continue Richards trial, saying he wants to take and swear testimony from one and the defense also wants to see an alleged confession by one in connection with the theft ring cases. The motion alleges one has been incarcerated in a jail in another county and failed to answer a defense subpoena for a deposition.

Last week sheriff's deputies reported that telephone bomb threats had been made to the homeowners whose dwelling was burglarized and the television set taken.

Parker said the theft ring employed four people to steal.

Peanuts

Bates, 42, is married, with two children. He and his wife Sherry Jean, live in Sanford. James, Jr., 15, is a 9th grader at Crooms High School. Their daughter Laura is five.

Bates says he likes hunting and fishing.

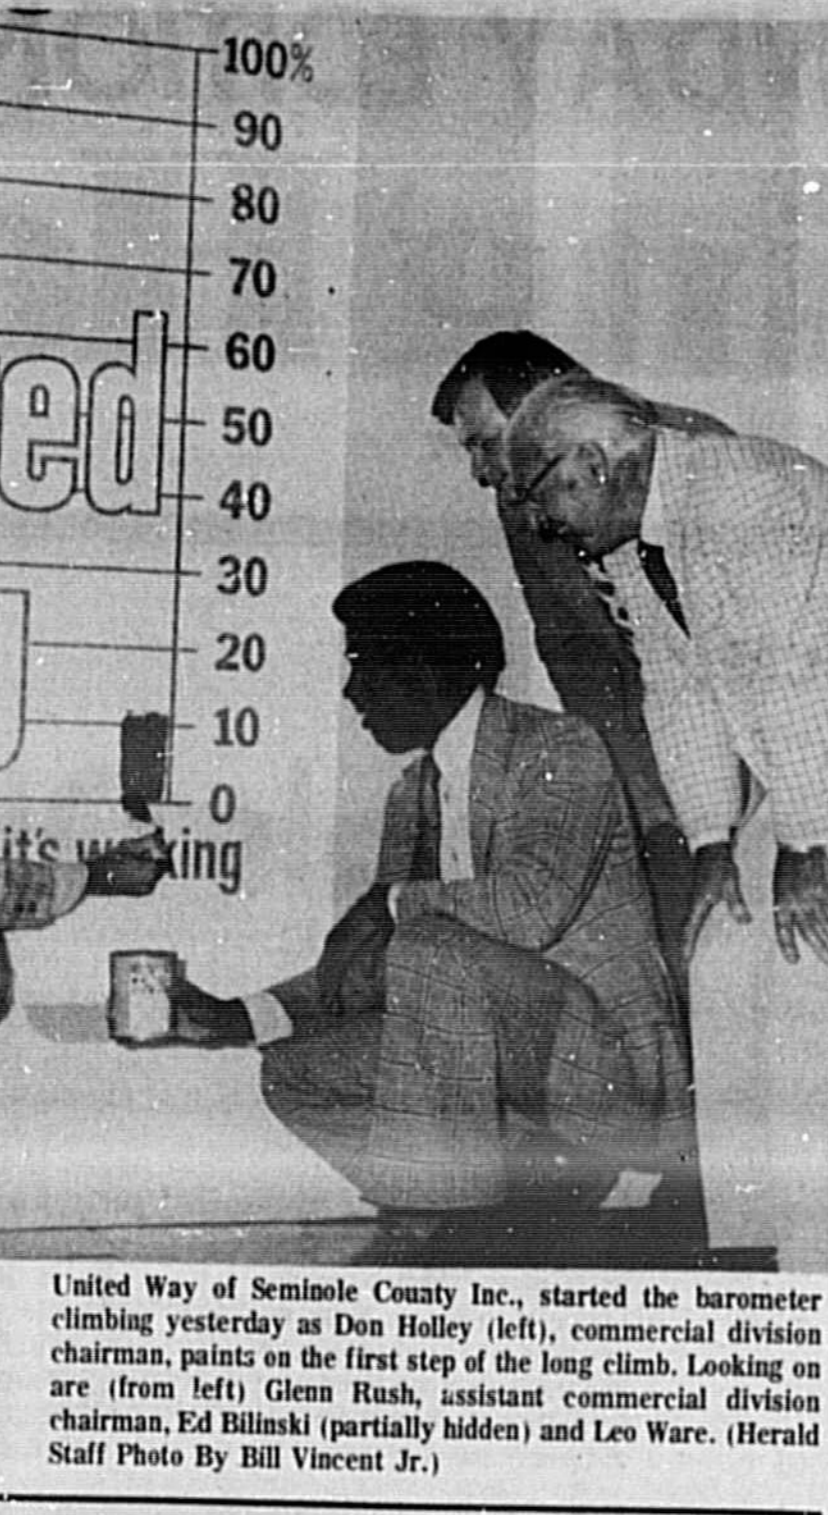

"I don't get much time for them, though. I work about 14 hours a day. Look at this."

He opens the door of a refrigerator room, revealing cartons of bagged peanuts, stacked and ready for shipping.

"And you know," he says, "I'll bet business will be even better next year."

Unpaid Bills Cause Hassle Grant Recommends Woodward For Road

By DONNA ESTES Herald Staff Writer

LONGWOOD - City Council Chairman J. R. Grant, calling Police Sgt. Betty Woodward "not qualified," has recommended she be relieved of police officer responsibilities and be placed on a rotating basis on the road as a patrol officer. He said she would remain "as much as a sergeant as she has ever been."

Bomb Threat

(Continued from page 1A) Deputies and Miss Nicks said this was the first time in memory that they could recall a bomb threat aimed at the police station in Sanford.

Last weekend, a Longwood couple received a similar bomb scare at their home, but no bomb device was found.

The sheriff's office said the couple are witnesses to property recovered in a recent burglary ring being investigated.

Carl Barber Tries To Save Crop Water Causes Problems For Sailor-Farmer

By JOE ASKREN Herald Staff Writer

With almost 20 years in the U.S. Navy behind him, you might say Sanford farmer Carl Barber is used to seeing a lot of water around him.

Recent heavy rains in the area have caused some problems for vegetable farmers and Barber was busy this week trying to "square away" his 42 acres.

"I'm trying to save this crop of yellow squash," Barber piped up over the rumbling sound of his tractor in a field off SR 46 and Jewett Rd.

His tractor pulled a cultivator, or "scratcher," between the soaked rows of squash to help aeriate the soil.

In addition to his present part-time farming activities, Barber is a first class hospital corpsman stationed at the Orlando Naval Training Center.

Burger Suggests

U.S. Copy British

Our founding fathers borrowed a lot from their British cousins when they established the American judicial system. Many of our legal principles and courtroom practices can be traced back to English common law. As our courts and legal professions go through a period of great self-examination, Chief Justice Warren Burger has suggested we borrow something more from the British—the intense respect for ethics and decorum that has prevailed in British courts for hundreds of years.

Justice Burger is not proposing that American judges and lawyers wear wigs in court, which is one way the British remind themselves of the dignity of the law. The Americans and the British do have differences in their legal traditions, and we should never part with some of those that have flourished on this side of the Atlantic. We should not sneer at those wigs, however. From the way some lawyers behave in American courts, the costume should be brass knuckles or boxing trunks.

That's what bothers Justice Burger, who sees such an absence of civility and decorum in U.S. courts that trials can degenerate into "the ancient clash of trial by combat—or worse yet, something resembling a barroom brawl."

The chief justice raised this issue speaking at the dedication of a new law school at Brigham Young University. It is in the law schools where he believes the answer lies. Most legal educators do not attempt to teach ethics, assuming that principles of behavior will be absorbed by new attorneys when they begin to practice law. What a young lawyer might pick up from watching some contemporary courtroom scenes makes us shudder.

Defenders of the no-holds-barred school of courtroom performance claim that disciplinary rules would destroy the independence and freedom of the judicial process and hamper the attainment of justice. They have it backwards, as Justice Burger points out. Nowhere in the world, he says, is there "a more fearless, more vigorous and more independent advocacy than in the British courts."

The British realize that trials can lead to abrasive and contentious encounters between attorneys, and it is this which can interfere with arriving at the truth in a rational manner. Thus the muted and decorous procedure enhances justice rather than impedes it.

That makes good sense, and it is so obvious that the British take the discipline and solemnity of their trial procedures for granted. Too many U.S. law schools appear to be turning out graduates who believe the courtroom and the law are whatever they choose to make of it. If the law schools cannot teach them otherwise—that truth and justice are achieved by a rational process, not an emotional or brute-force contest played out before judge and jury—then the more experienced lawyers and judges should see their obligation to do so.

Inflation At Home

As shoppers, American housewives need no reminder of what inflation means. However, they got one the other day from the Social Security Administration, which reported that the value of their household work—based on prevailing wages for domestic services—has risen from $4,700 in 1970 to $5,500 today.

Some comfort. If the lady of the house started wondering three years ago what happened to the pay for her $4,700 worth of work, she can now wonder what happened to her $738 raise. There's no more steak on the table, and she's probably still mending the same pairs of socks. If wage and price inflation isn't licked, one of these days she'll be in the $10,000 a year bracket—still trying to make a meal for her family out of those leftovers in the refrigerator.

A Cure For Ailing Health Care

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — Medical care is probably the most regulated industry in the nation. Health is the field in which we invest 8.2 percent of our gross national product. We spend far more than the people of any other nation. Yet the state of our medical wellbeing is lower than that of other developed countries.

Prof. H.E. Frech III of the University of California at Santa Barbara, believes there's a connection between this over-regulation and the other government - inspired activities and the inefficiency of our medical services.

The regulations are set up in such a way as to keep those of us who need medical care in the dark as to the best and worst physicians, the most logical treatment, and the necessity of treatment. We have no way of knowing whether the surgeon we consult is promoting more profitable business for himself or offering us the best treatment possible.

One indirect result of government action — and regulation — is that hospitals, all too often, overcharge patients for pharmacy and laboratory services, X-rays, and the daily room charge. By contrast, obstetric and intensive care and the emergency room seem to be operated at a loss.

As Frech puts it, "This latter may be a particularly unfortunate result of cross subsidization because much of what the hospitals prefer may be the duplication of sophisticated services which are rarely used, and is widely believed to be both costly and a source of very poor quality medical care."

Guerrilla Warfare Waged Against Press

WASHINGTON — Many will say it is hypocritical to write as we have done of guerrilla warfare against the free press in America. They hear no gunfire; the paper comes to their door every day seemingly unchanged.

Morris and Vihlen were Jaycees together. Interestingly enough, Morris was a Republican until Nov. 11, 1974, when his party affiliation was changed to Democrat.

While on the subject, might as well mention the Democratic Executive Committee. At a recent monthly meeting, Chairman Rod Cable appointed delegates to the Florida mini-convention to be held in Orlando.

Letters To The Editor

Hello Taxpayers
Hello all you happy taxpayers out there. I thought that I would pass on just a little information to really make your day. But first, get that old "ice pick" out and put another notch in your belt (to make it smaller that is) because change considerably more than in a free market, without incurring more beneficial care or less fraud.

Now that at least a year's wages have been spent (hah) let me tell you that our President (LBJ) he has got that "ice pick" out and put another notch in your belt! He has asked Congress to level double his already high staff of top-level assistants — for which we the taxpayers would share the cost of $1.5 million a year.

Now to let you know a little about foreign aid — Did you know the State Department canceled $2.6 billion in claims against Russia for U.S. Lend-Lease Aid in WWII? The Russians pledged to repay $1.4 million only. The second debt settlement came when the government canceled a debt of $2.2 billion India owed the U.S. in rupees. Now our President agreed to settle for just $100 million a $70 million claim the U.S. has against France. All this without Congressional approval.

Do you know what a parasite finch is? If you don't then I suggest you write to the government because they have allocated $36,500 for a study entitled "Evolution of Song Learning of Parasitic Finches."

Palitzer Prize-winning series exposing corruption in the Indianapolis police department and in the Marion County prosecutor's office. After Floyd Morris, a reporter for The Monitor of Concord, N.H., wrote a story about dubious conduct by area officials in the awarding of a dog track franchise, he was arrested at the dog track franchise, he was arrested at the dog track franchise, he was arrested at the dog track franchise.

Thousands Flee Pennsylvania Homes

Eloise Spawns Flooding in Northeast

The agricultural and industrial heartland of Pennsylvania braced for more flooding today as the Susquehanna River, swollen by rains spun off tropical storm Eloise, continued its southbound rampage.

Pennsylvania was the most extensively flooded of the Northeast states subjected to five days of torrential rains bred by Eloise. More than 20,000 persons in the Susquehanna River Basin fled their homes before the rain ended and the sun shone Friday, and damage was estimated in the millions.

Sammy Davis Hospitalized

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Sammy Davis Jr. has been in a Century City hospital since Tuesday after he walked in "on his own two feet" and requested treatment for neuritis.

Dozens of other Northeast rivers and tributaries were out of their banks in the worst area flooding since tropical storm Agnes devastated the region in 1972.

In the southern New York state counties of Chenango and Steuben hundreds of persons left their homes as flooding rivers threatened a 100-mile swath of the Southern Tier. A state of emergency was declared in Tioga County and Gov. Hugh Carey allocated Steuben, Chenango, Broome, Chenango, Tioga, and Albany counties disaster areas.

HOROSCOPE

By BERNICE BEDE OSOL

For Sunday, September 28, 1975

ARIES (March 21-April 19) You're not overly patient with the family today. If everyone's walking around the house with a long face, you may be to blame.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) Giving orders comes easy to you today. However, if you want others to follow your edicts, you'd better try to set a good example.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) If you've committed yourself to picking up the tab today, first check the prices or you'll make a king-size dent in your wallet.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) Others will make such heavy demands on your time you won't have much to yourself. Put your dreams away for another day.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) You will be hypersensitive today. Weigh what others say or you'll mistake a sincere comment for a put-down.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Have fun with friends today, but don't mix in money or things of a material nature. If you do, hard feelings will result.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) Normally you're very considerate of others' feelings. Today, you'll be so intent on having your way you'll get someone's backles up.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) Be content to let sleeping dogs lie. You're likely to unwittingly dredge up some old, unpleasant issue that could be very disturbing to a friend.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) It's a losing proposition to give business advice to a friend today. If the situation doesn't pan out, b—" blame you for his failure. CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) You're not a good team player today. Avoid getting into a situation where you must rely on a partner. Neither will be happy.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) Where usually you're willing to lend a helping hand, today you will resent it deeply if anyone asks for a favor.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) Take no risks today where someone else is calling the shots. If you can't be captain of your own ship, pass the action.

YOUR BIRTHDAY Sept. 28, 1975 Events and conditions will force you to be extremely ambitious this coming year. Just be sure to repay favors to anyone who's helped on the way up.

For Monday, September 29, 1975 ARIES (March 21-April 19) Make no hasty judgments today on important domestic issues. The perspective you have on them is slightly distorted.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) Your generosity today is apt to exceed your resources or capabilities. Promise nothing you'll have problems delivering.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) If you borrow something today that a friend prizes, treat it with extra respect. A careless mishap could mar the friendship.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) Don't bank too heavily on luck to gain your aims today. Logical thinking and lots of effort are "musts" if your plans are to work.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) You're not too great at keeping secrets today, so be careful. Should you let the cat out of the bag, at least try not to embellish the facts.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Your budget could get a trifle bent unless you begin now to trim some of your nonessential spending.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) You'll do more talking about your goals today than taking action. Your conversation makes for good listening, but poor results.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) This is not a good day to attempt on your own tasks in areas where you lack expertise. Line-up capable assistance.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) Be careful in negotiating agreements today. Get all the details spelled out clearly before shaking hands on the deal.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) You're likely to do things today against your better judgment. Weigh both sides of issues carefully before plunging in.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) Keep your mind on your work today, or you're going to make a big mistake with something that's usually a snap for you.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) You may find yourself in a situation where your first impulse is to grab the tab. Don't — let the freeloaders pay their share.

YOUR BIRTHDAY Sept. 28, 1975 Be extra-alert for opportunities this coming year that emanate from individuals you've worked with before. Check those offered carefully. One may be of real value.

Smoking Won't Help

By Lawrence E. Lamb, M.D. DEAR DR. LAMB — I am writing to you about my brother. What happens to a boy 15 years old who has asthma and smokes one cigarette in the morning and another one in the evening? I don't want my brother to know I wrote you. DEAR READER — Your secret is safe. Most people have asthma cannot tolerate cigarette smoke well. It often acts as an irritant to the lungs and increases asthma attacks and their severity. Two cigarettes a day in a normal person isn't much, but anyone who has any lung problem should not irritate disaster by starting the habit. Two a day is a starter on the way to more a day, and increased lung disease as well as other health problems.

The unexpected.

Life. It's just full of surprises. Unfortunately, though, not all of them are good ones. That's why it pays to be prepared with a savings account at First Federal of Seminole. Save the flexible way, or get top dollar for your savings with First Federal savings certificates. Either way, life's little "downs" won't loom nearly so large anymore. And the "ups" will seem twice as nice. The unexpected. It's what makes life interesting. And it's a good reason why you should be saving with First Federal of Seminole.

Seminole Rolls To 21-12 Triumph Over Spruce Creek

Unbeaten Tribe Eyes A Long Road Ahead

By KELLY CURRIE Herald Correspondent

So far, Seminole High football team has won its first three games, a fact that has surprised some, since it hasn't accomplished that feat since 1973 when the record was eight wins and two losses. The first game saw Seminole completely dominate Oviedo 53-6, as Ned Raines and Herb Branch ran, and Tim Raines returned a punt for a touchdown. The second saw a determined Mainland team

Friday was a special day for Seminole High's Mark Whigham. The multi-talented athlete celebrated his 17th birthday — and he did it in grand style, personally taking charge of the Seminole offense and leading his mates to a 21-12 victory over Spruce Creek.

It was the third straight victory in as many outings for the charges of coach Jerry Posey while Spruce Creek, under the direction of former Jacksonville Sharks' coach Bud Asher, dropped to 1-2. Whigham's statistics in the game were impressive as he rushed for 102 yards, passed for another 80, scored a pair of touchdowns and hit Mike Good on a 41-yard payoff pitch to figure in all Seminole's scoring save for the extra points.

Although guilty of many mental errors (getting hit with 10 penalties for a total of 75 yards) and at times finding it difficult to jell into a cohesive unit, Seminole came through when it counted and checked the visiting Hawks on 189 total yards — 188 rushing (84 of which came on Lorenzo Wilson's touchdown gallop) and just one yard passing.

Whigham got the Seminoles rolling midway through the first period when Good pounced on a fumble by Hawk quarterback Scott Stevens at the Spruce Creek 20. A five-yard penalty and Whigham's six-yard dash got a first down at the nine. The six-footer then promptly rolled to his right and waltzed into the end zone untouched. Bobby Duggar converted following the ensuing kickoff, the first of three successful attempts for the night, and at 5:09 Seminole was on the scoreboard.

Spruce Creek bounced back early in the second period when Bruce McNorton burst through a porous Seminole line to block Whigham's punt attempt and the Hawks recovered at the Spruce Creek 15.

It took just two plays for Art Browne to find a hole in the left side of his line and charge into the end zone unopposed for the score. Ron Asher, son of the Spruce Creek coach, tried to pass for the two-point conversion that would have put his team in front, but the effort failed and Seminole held a slim

2-6 advantage. Seminole saw a good drive, following the ensuing kickoff, fizzle at the Hawk 21 when Herbert Branch couldn't find the handle on a pitch from Whigham and Scott Peterson recovered for the visitors.

Two plays later, however, Bill McDaniel pounced on an errant pignak that squirted out of the hands of Stevens and the Tribe had possession at the Spruce Creek 15. Ned Raines quickly picked up a first down with runs of five and six yards, but a five-yard penalty set the Seminoles back to the 10. Branch got nine back in a hurry and Whigham, on a sneak between his right guard and center, tallied the touch-down that sealed the fate of Spruce Creek with 1:16 left to play in the half. Neither team could generate much in the way of an offense in the third quarter, but with slightly more than one minute gone in the final period, Whigham dropped back and fired a 41-yard scoring strike to Good, who gathered the ball in near the 15 and romped into touchdown territory.

After Duggar's conversion, it appeared the Seminoles had it wrapped up, but Spruce Creek and Wilson in particular, had other ideas. Just 42 seconds after the Tribe score, Wilson took a handoff from Asher, found a big gap in the forward wall and out-traced everyone for an 84-yard scoring dash. (Continued on Page 2-B)

4th Quarter Breaks Hurt Lyman, 32-6

By SCOTT ABRAHAMIS Herald Correspondent

ORLANDO — A dislocated elbow and a freakish score by a Colonial lineman killed Lyman's come-from-behind hopes Friday night. Both bad breaks came within two minutes of each other in the fourth quarter as Lyman was dropped 32-6. Lyman, trailing 20-6 but still much in the game, gained possession at their 24-yard line at the fourth quarter's start. Marching to the 43, the Greyhounds faced a crucial third down and four situation. Quarterback Bob Burkhardt elected to run his sixth and final rush of the evening.

"I was putting a move on a guy when I got hit," he said, z two minutes later on the bench, nursing an ice pack and a dislocated left elbow. Burkhardt gained the needed first down by rushing about five yards around right tackle, where a Colonial defender slammed him to the ground. Burkhardt complained later of spasms in his arm and could move his fingers only with difficulty. He left the game for a hospital before it ended, and his playing status for next week could not be determined at the time.

Back on the playing field, a Lyman offense that racked up 222 total yards in the first half was having its problems. The biggest problem turned out to weigh 195 pounds, however. Having gained a few yards, reserve quarterback Craig Smith faded to pass. The ball slipped out of his hands just as he released it, sending a lazy, tumbling hobbler toward Colonial defender Terry Bailey. The surprised linebacker batted the ball down into his hands, and immediately headed for paydirt 54 yards away. Despite his size and weight, no one could see the lumbering senior before he realized what must be every linebacker's dream — a touchdown. The score pushed Colonial's advantage to 28-6 over Lyman.

With 9:26 left to play and starting quarterback Burkhardt gone, the Lyman effort seemed doomed. Late in the game, another Lyman offensive miscue — a blocked punt — set up Colonial's last score at the Lyman one-foot line. Jim Quance took the ball in on the first play.

As discouraging as the fourth quarter was for Lyman, the entire first half was an offensive field day for both teams. Long plays that set up scores and went for scores — three for Colonial, one for Lyman — resulted in over 550 combined yards for the two teams.

Colonial received the opening kickoff before 2500 spectators under cool, breezy, skies, and marched from their own 35-yard line to Lyman's 33, consuming almost four minutes in the process. Colonial quarterback Johnny Legler then uncorked his second pass of the contest and hit Dan McCarthy for the game's first score, a 33-yard pass play.

A mere 28 seconds later on the first play of the series, Lyman's Wyman Jackson took quarterback Burkhardt's handoff and raced 65 yards past astonished Colonial defenders for the touchdown. Relieved Lyman fans cheered hysterically, and no apparent

Hurricanes Blow Big, Strong Over Patriots

By JIM HAYNES Herald Sports Editor

FOREST CITY — Who said the Hurricanes were dead? Not Lake Brantley. Especially after getting blown out by Gainesville Friday night, 48-3. The G-ville boys did most things right and were unstoppable on offense as they handed the Patriots what might turn out to be their worst thrashing of the season before a less-than-capacity crowd of 3,000.

Small (5-4) Patriot Stands Tall In Loss

The smallest Patriot stood tallest Friday night when 5-foot-4 freshman kicking specialist Rob Fite came on late in the game to get his team on the scoreboard and avert a shutout.

Gainesville clobbered Lake Brantley, 48-3, and the only thing Lake Brantley fans had to yell about was Fite's 21-yard field goal. "I was nervous...not at all," said Fite calmly on the sidelines, shortly after his soccer-style boot safely cleared the cross bars. "Heck, I've kicked 'em from farther out than that. My longest in practice is 40 yards, but I average about 30."

Fite is the only freshman on the Brantley varsity, and coach Sammy Weir concedes that the 104-pound freshman fits right into his offensive plans, especially in crucial situations. "He can kick the ball, that's what counts, not his size," said Weir.

Fite says he hopes to be kicking for the University of Alabama in a few years. Born in Anniston, Ala., the brown-haired, blue-eyed youngster wants to return home for his college education, and a lot of kicks along the way. Fite plays corner on his soccer team, and gained experience kicking the oblong pignak in Pop Warner League.

"It wasn't that much, really," he said, trying to play down his field's resounding defeat. "In two years with the Spring Lake Yellow Jackets I had 27 extra points and two field goals. This wasn't that different." The 14-year-old doesn't exactly fill out his shirt — not yet, anyway. The No. 9 on his jersey is a bit imposing. In fact, when he tucks it in all the way around, the bottom of the nine is under his belt. Elsewhere on the Lake Brantley sidelines, injuries and blank expressions prevailed. Keith Traster had his bell rung well and admitted after the game, "I don't even know what's going on."

Rob Fite, all 104 pounds of him, waits patiently for call on extra point. It never came, he had to settle for field goal.

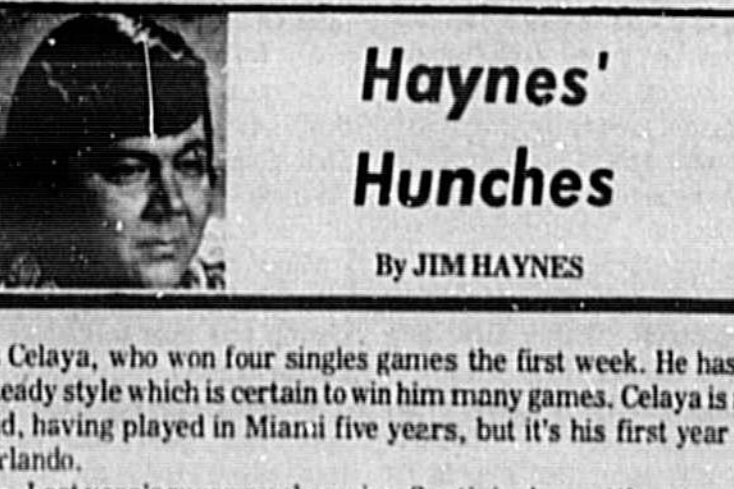

Gainesville, on the other hand was jubilant at its point production. Joe Burke frowned a little about having a 60-yard touchdown run called back in the waning seconds.

DeLand Becomes New Face On Prep Center Stage

No one asked me, but: Whereas Gainesville and Lyman figured as the toughest games on Seminole High's football schedule in pre-season, a new face has moved to center stage — DeLand.

The Bulldogs won for the third straight time, and Friday's matchup between Seminole and DeLand will go a long way toward deciding state playoff berth. The game is in DeLand, and indirectly, Lake Brantley has a message for Seminole. Gainesville whipped Brantley, 48-3, and DeLand beat Gainesville, 9-0. Worried Seminole? You better be. It's pressure-cooker week. Playoffs, state rankings and pride are all on the line.

is Celaya, who won four singles games the first week. He has a steady style which is certain to win him many games. Celaya is no kid, having played in Miami five years, but it's his first year in Orlando. Last year's runaway champion, Santi, is slow getting started, Certain to be rookie of the year at Orlando-Seminole Jai-Alai although he is playing well. It's a game where one can play superbly and still not win. The Seminole Turf Club, which opens a 41-night stretch of harness racing Wednesday, kicks off with Open House today. Exhibition races rate high on list of priorities, because it gives kids a chance to watch the big wheels in action. What a pity minors can't be allowed on premises, even in fenced-in area with no wagering. Harness racing ranks as one of the most colorful sports. The sight of a trotting charger to the finish line, hoofs pounding the turf furiously, is unequalled.

Buffalo Braves Name New General Manager

BUFFALO (AP)—The Buffalo Braves have appointed player personnel director Bob MacKinnon general manager of the National Basketball Association club. MacKinnon, 48, who returned to the Braves in May after serving as head coach of the American Basketball League's St. Louis Spirits last season, takes over the position vacated last spring by Eddie Donovan. Donovan left Buffalo to return to his old job as general manager of the New York Knicks.

Vikings Stay On Sidelines

NEW YORK (AP)—The Minnesota Vikings are having nothing to do with a squabble by the two top football leagues over the services of wide receiver John Gilliam. Chris Henneman, president of the World Football League, demanded in a letter to the National Football League that the NFL return Gilliam, who signed with the Vikings this season after playing for the NFL. "This is the first we've heard of it," said Vikings General Manager Mike Lynn, informed of the letter late Friday.

Tribe Looking At Road Ahead

(Continued From Page 1-B) Then the Tribe goes back to the also-rans as they rumble down the warpath to Dayton Beach to meet Seabreeze. Still they beg for more, with the next game scheduled with Orlando Colonial, back on Tribe turf, if it's any consolation. The weekend of Oct. 31 is an open date, after four possibly nightmarish weeks of football. But be sure that Chief Jerry Posey will do everything he can to get his hand pitched up for that murderer's row of games. But they still won't be out of the woods as the Greyhounds race over from Lyman next.

Gainesville Thrashes Patriots

By LOUIS SAFPIS

ROCKLEDGE — An improving, but still winless, Oviedo High School football team fell to the undefeated Rockledge Raiders 21-8 Friday night. After absorbing thrashings of 34-0 and 39-0 at the hands of Seminole and New Smyrna the Lions were able to give their few faithful fans who journeyed to the coast something to shout about in the last half. But penalties and a rugged Raider offense, that seemed to move the ball whenever it wanted, finally did the scrappy Lions in. The home team took the opening kickoff and used 4:32 to march down the field and score on a quarterback sneak by Ronnie Welch, from the one yard line.

Norbert Seals Paces Trinity Prep Triumph

CHAMPA — Temple Heights furnished inside the other team's 10-yard line to lose the game, this time the Saints fumbled only to put the icing on the cake. Knowles dropped the ball, but picked it up and reversed direction to go against the flow of traffic and ran it in from 12 yards out. "We finally played up to our potential," said Kelley afterward. "And, I might add, we finally played someone in our own class."

Tribe Cops Third

(Continued From Page 1-B) Raines blocked the extra point attempt and that was the extent of the scoring for the night. In their three outings to date, Seminole has wracked up 81 points while holding the opposition to just 18. That's good, but the Seminoles will have to do even better next week as they travel into Volusia County to take on the powerful and undefeated Deland Bulldogs, 18-0 winners Friday night over Jacksonville Forrest. Seminole plays its next home game at the Sanford Seminole Sports Complex on Oct. 10 against St. Augustine High.

Lyman Defeat Tough On 'Hounds' Morale

By SCOTT ABRAHAMS
Herald Correspondent
Lyman's defeat Friday night at the hands of Colonial High School was as disheartening to the Greyhounds as the victory by the Grenadiers was encouraging to them. Both teams have struggled the first three weeks of the season, and after Colonial's 32-6 dumping of Lyman the squads share 1-2 records.

Breaks Costly For Lyman

(Continued From Page 1-B) free-off all was on. Then Colonial's awesome Ken Richardson geared up for the first of his two TD's. The first, a short seven-yard run around right side capped a 78-yard sustained march, and merely whetted his appetite for another TD six minutes later. Lyman gave up possession close to paydirt on their second drive, a strong 64-yard march that netted nothing. Starting deep in its own territory at the 12-yard line, Colonial gained yardage out of its own 25. Then Richardson took over. The 178-pound senior, who rushed for 168 yards (151 of them first half), tore 75 yards through Lyman's middle for the third Colonial touchdown. Another strong drive by Richardson, this one for 80 yards, stalled when Lyman recovered a Grenadier fumble at the Lyman five yard line.

Here's good news for the cane polers and the trollers — speckled perch are hitting on all fronts. Probably the most sought after and most bountiful, and undisputedly the most delicious eating fish in Seminole County's river and lake area, the specks are making an early arrival. Ed and Jean Woods of Letron Bluff Camp called to pass the word that strings of 18 to 20 were landed in short order Wednesday with live Missouri minnows the bait. Neil Bridges was one of the lucky ones who got on the early run.

A few bass are still striking near Marina Isle, but again, the heavy catches were made up of specks and bream. Bass men fishing out of Wekiva River Haven Camp are taking strings of four to five with most of them on the small side, a four pounder being the largest one reported. Another fishing success was made at Camp Seminole this week as Kathy Snyder landed her first fish, a two pound bass. Fishing with some friends, Kathy was the only one in the party to score. Kathy reports catfish biting an almost any kind of bait and the average bass landed at the camp this week was one and a half to two pounds.

Lake Morroe specks are showing signs of coming to life, hitting on trolled lures such as the "Beetle Spin" and "No-Alba." On the East Coast, the waters are still a bit hazy but started their Southward migration. Fishermen on Lake Abasco, near Daytona had a field day with the early run fish Thursday. A call to Merle Keller at the pier brought this response, "Come on over man, the blues are tearing it up! Needless to say the pier was there as soon as possible, just to check the accuracy of the reports of course. By the time we got there, action had slowed somewhat, but two hours of fishing yielded four blues and three channel bass all caught on fingerling mullet. Keller also told of a pair of trout, four and five pounds, landed by Bob White on Wednesday.

Snook fishing in the Daytona area, for many years almost non-existent, has made a terrific comeback. Wayne Brady at the "Fishes Hole" Bait and Tackle Shop had word of nine of them, 24 to 36 inches long, landed by a party of surf fishermen Wednesday evening along with channel bass, blues, and trout.

The Night Marciano Almost Lost A Bout

Many boxing fans will tell you "Rocky Marciano was the greatest fighter to ever live." He is the only heavyweight champion to ever retire undefeated and undefeated. In his 47 professional bouts, Marciano had several close calls with men like "Jersey" Joe Walcott, Ezzard Charles and Archie Moore. But it was in his 26th bout that Marciano came the closest to losing. And the man who almost turned the trick was Roland LaStarza, who now resides in New Smyrna Beach. It was back in March of 1950 when the pair of young, undefeated heavyweights were fought together in New York's Madison Square Garden. A total of 13,658 fight fans were on hand that night despite the fact the bout was being shown on home TV as part of the "Friday Night Fight" series, sponsored by Gillette. Marciano climbed into the ring with a record that showed 23 knockouts in 25 wins. LaStarza, more of a boxer than a puncher, had compiled a mark of 37 straight wins and was made an early 7-5 favorite by the betting gentry.

Boxing

By LOUIS SAFPIS
Marciano was penalized for a low blow in the eighth and when the bell sounded for round nine everyone in the famous arena knew the last two sessions would decide the winner. Both boys went all out to try and catch the eye of the judges. They banged away to the head and body with everything they had while the crowd roared its approval. When the bell sounded at the end of the tenth round, the fans stood and cheered both fighters for several minutes while they congratulated each other for "a job well done."

LaStarza. "In most areas these scores would have meant the fight was a draw. One judge gave it to Marciano and the other to LaStarza while the ref saw it even in rounds. But in New York they have a supplemental points system. Which means — if an official sees the fight even in rounds, then he decides the winner. The number of points he feels a fighter picked up during the bout. Jack Watson called it five to five in rounds but he gave Marciano his 26th straight win when he turned in a scorecard that read "LaStarza — six points, Marciano — nine points." A poll among the press at LaStarza in the eighth round of the fight. Of the 18 in attendance, 14 saw it for Roland. LaStarza didn't get a return bout until three years later. That coming in September of '53 when Marciano defeated the title he won from Walcott in '52. The return bout was scheduled for 15 rounds but the champ was unable to dispose of LaStarza in 14. ## Bowling News Appears Monday

Due to lack of space, Mary Johnson's bowling column does not appear in today's Herald. The Herald will publish the column, in its entirety, in Monday's edition.

WASHINGTON (AP) -- The Federal Trade Commission has accused one of the nation's largest land sales companies of using unfair and deceptive practices to peddle property in Florida and Arizona subdivisions.

The 38-count complaint against Cavanaugh Communities Corp. of Miami and eight subsidiary corporations alleged that many of the lots "are of little value as investments and little use as homesites."

The FTC said some of the lots in flood hazard areas, the exteriors were charming, but most interiors were not suitable for good living by modern standards. The sizes of the rooms, except for the kitchens, were often too small. More important, the traffic layouts generally were poor, with an absence of hallways in most cases, so that passage had to be made through one, two and three rooms in order to reach one's destination. Hence, in the plans Pollitt has drawn up with Colonial exteriors that follow actual structures, he has put up-to-date, easy-circulation patterns on the inside.

requiring construction of homes on stilts to qualify for federal mortgages, and some lot owners may find it impossible to obtain electricity, water, sewage disposal and telephone service.

Cavanagh is the fourth big land company to fall subject to FTC enforcement action. GAC Corp. of Miami entered into a consent agreement in early 1974 for sales of Florida land, and Horizon Corp. of Tucson, Ariz., and Amrep Corp. of New York City were cited March 21 in complaints alleging irregularities in the sale of home and vacation sites in Arizona, New Mexico and Texas.

under federal bankruptcy laws, in federal district court of the Southern District of New York. Also named in the complaint were subsidiaries Cava Cayo Corp., Cavanaugh Marketing Corp., Cavad Inc., Universal Properties Inc., Wellington Orient Inc., Miami Beach Vacations Inc., Palm Beach Investments Properties Inc. and Perdido Bay Management Corp. Also named were Cavanaugh officers Joseph Klein and Arthur Meltzer.

Citizens' Group Seeks Repeal Of Charter

Since the Charter took over the county budget has swollen to $26 million. Stetson professor Wayne Bailey, heading the Charter Revision Commission, blames tax raises on population explosion. Population increase under the Charter has been only 34,000."

By JEAN PATTESON Women's Editor "Teenagers don't have to rebel; toddlers don't have to please. Parents can raise responsible children without resorting to extremes of authoritarianism or permissiveness." This is the promise of Dr. Thomas Gordon's course for raising children, "Parent Effectiveness Training" (P.E.T.).

Neither Authoritarian, Permissive

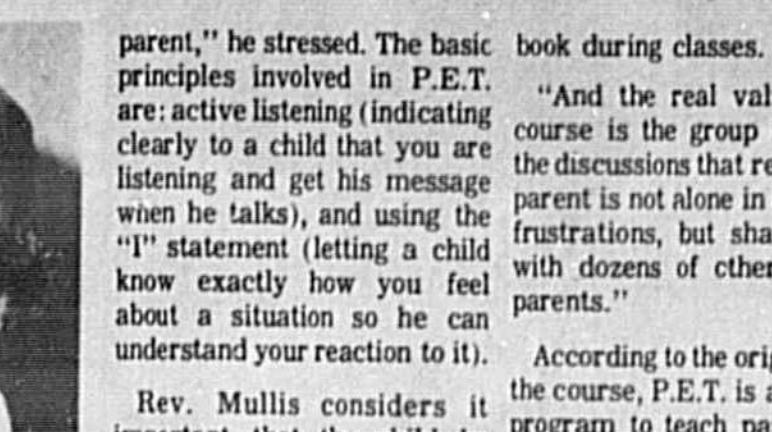

PET Harmonizes Parents, Kids

And now, P.E.T. has come to Sanford. Founded in 1962, in California, the program has recently spread across the country with over 1,000 licensed instructors now teaching classes of approximately 25 parents how to listen to children will talk, how to talk so children will listen, and solve problems so that no one is in the family loses.

REV. KENNETH MULLIS

"We've thought for so long that the parent is the supreme authority, and feared the possibility of the child rebelling if we lost our grip. But I believe in children more than that," said Rev. Mullis.

DR. GORDON

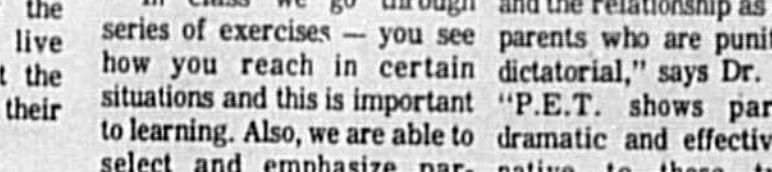

Dr. Gordon stresses that P.E.T. is not group therapy or sensitivity training, but an educational experience. Also, it does not teach and advocate permissiveness. "Permissive parents harm their children and the relationship as much as authoritarian parents," he said.

Communications Improve As Course Progresses

"I thought to be required for anyone who has children," is Sanford banker Wayne Albert's reaction to the P.E.T. course. "I don't remember what it cost, but it wasn't much, and it was worth every penny and more," he added.

Groundwork Laid For Good Relations

The good part about taking the P.E.T. course when your child is still young, says Mrs. Pat Smith, 403 Lake Blvd., Sanford, is that you can lay the groundwork early for a lasting good relationship with him.

PAT SMITH with son, Kevin — listen when children talk.

Wayne, and his wife Tracy, are the parents of two young sons — Matthew, 7, and Mitchell, 3. The couple took the P.E.T. course together last year, and believe together is the ideal way to take it. Both parents say they have learned techniques which improve not only their relationships with their own children, but with other family members and with people in general.

"I've always been open with my children and tried to be liberal minded. But it's so easy to get into the role of directing them too much," she explained. "Not that we had a bad relationship before — but one can always improve."

There will be a morning class from 9-12 noon and an evening class from 7-10 p.m. on Wednesdays, bi-weekly for eight weeks. Both classes will be held in the new education wing of First Presbyterian Church, 301 Oak Ave. These classes are for "members of all Sanford churches. An instructional fee covers tuition and the cost of materials."

Dr. Gordon stresses that P.E.T. is not group therapy or sensitivity training, but an educational experience. Also, it does not teach and advocate permissiveness. "Permissive parents harm their children and the relationship as much as authoritarian parents," he said.

Rev. Kenneth Mullis' teaching of P.E.T. and said some great discussions had arisen in their group during the course of training.

Mrs. Smith's one regret is that her husband was unable to participate in the course with her. "I should think it would be ideal if the husband and wife could take it together," she said. "That way, each would understand what the other is trying to achieve."

Health Foods 'Prescribed' Baker Is 'Doctor' Too

When he was just a kid, Lenny Pawlson had such a desire to be a doctor he could taste it. But young Leonard was growing up during the depression and instead of going to college after high school he took a job as a baker's helper. And in those times, he was probably lucky to get that.

He attended baker's school and there met a man who offered to pay his college tuition. It looked like luck was on Len's side and he enrolled at Penn State University to study agricultural biochemistry. But after two and a half years, fate, or rather the Army, stepped in. Len was drafted.

Preservatives, according to Pawlson, are simply an array of chemicals added to extend "shelf life." "The American housewife has been educated to expect softness with freshness," he says, when actually the two are not necessarily related.

Opening lead - A

By Oswald & James Jacoby

North and South were playing sound preemptive bids. At least North thought they were. He assumed that South would have a side ace for his three-diamond opening, whereas he could count on 10 tricks at notrump. Of course, if South did hold an ace, a double of four spades was clearly indicated, but North didn't think of that. He wanted the game.
South wanted no part of four notrump and ran to five diamonds. He anticipated a double of four notrump, but that didn't keep West from doubling the diamond contract.

West's hand clearly called for a trump lead, but he opened the ace of spades which gave South all he needed to bring the hand home.
South used a rather standard play. He ruffed the spade, led a trump to dummy's ace and a second back to his 10. Then he led the king of hearts. If West ducked, South would win in dummy, discard his other heart on the king of spades and lose two club tricks.
Actually, West took his ace of hearts and led a low club. South paused to consider possibilities, decided that to play low would be to go down one irrespective of where the ace of clubs was, played dummy's king and when it held, claimed his contract. He announced that he would discard one club on each of dummy's major-suit kings.

Polly's Points

DEAR POLLY — Do as I do. Instead of using an envelope for informal or short letters, I fold the note with the writing inside and tape the piece shut. This makes a note similar to the ones that can be bought, but is very inexpensive and most practical. — JEAN

DEAR POLLY — When I buckle up my car seat belt, I put it through the handle of my purse. Then if I must apply the brakes quickly when driving my purse remains on the seat and I'm saved from picking up the contents from the car floor. — MRS. M.W.

DEAR POLLY — After using paint thinner to clean brushes, I let the dirty thinner stand for 24 hours, then pour off the clean thinner on top and save it to use again. — DEBBIE

DEAR POLLY — I solved the problem of good fitting bottom sheets for bunk beds by folding one flat sheet lengthwise and sewing it together across the bottom and up the side, pillowcase fashion. I slip one of these over the mattress. It saves tucking-in and the mattress can be turned to use the other side of the sheet. I used an 81" by 108" sheet. — MRS. V.T.B.

DEAR POLLY — I needed a "soaker" in my garden, so took a large plastic detergent bottle, drilled a lot of small holes in it with an electric drill and put a hose connection on top. This works beautifully. If I get a Polly Dollar I will use it to buy a connection for another soaker. — MRS. A.I.

DEAR POLLY — To make your ironing go twice as fast, put a strip of heavy foil under the entire length of your ironing board cover. Heat from the iron will reflect, and a damp garment will require only one going-over. Time and energy are saved — and what about that electric bill? — DARLENE

DEAR POLLY — I accidentally spilled bleach on a black cotton shirt. After I touched up the resulting spots with a black marking pen I was able to continue wearing the shirt. — DORIS

Bernice Bede Orol's this week in astrology

Dear Bernice:
I'm having trouble with my older sister who is in the same grade, although no one was held back. I'm in higher-ability classes and she resents this. Does our horoscope show why we clash so? My birth date is Dec. 10, 1962 and hers is Nov. 6, 1961.

DEAR AGGRAVATED:
IT'S NOT UNUSUAL FOR SISTER RIVALRY TO EXIST AT YOUNG AGES, THOUGH IT CAN BE QUITE EMBARRASSING FOR A SENSITIVE SCORPIO, SUCH AS YOUR OLDER SISTER, NOT TO EXCEL AT THINGS WHERE SHE'S HAD MORE TIME TO DEVELOP YOUR HOROSCOPE SHOWS THE BREAKS COME EASIER FOR YOU. HER CHART SHOWS SHE HAS MANY FINE TALENTS, BUT IS VULNERABLE WHERE HER PRIDE IS CONCERNED. HELP SHORE-UP HER WOUNDED EGO, PRAISE HER LAVISHLY IN FRONT OF OTHERS FOR THINGS SHE DOES WELL.

NOTE: Send letters to Bernice Bede Orol, c/o this newspaper, P.O. Box 162, North Olmsted, Ohio 44070. Bernice cannot answer all the letters, only the ones of general interest.

PERSONS BORN UNDER THE SIGNS OF ARIES, LIBRA AND CANCER ARE LIKELY TO BE THE GREATEST OFFENDERS. THEY'LL HAVE TO BE EXTRA-CAREFUL. MIDWEEK, THE NEWS WILL BE DOMINATED BY GLAMOR PERSONALITIES AND COLORFUL POLITICAL FIGURES. TOWARD WEEK'S END, THERE'LL BE SOME UNUSUAL UPS AND DOWNS IN THE MARKET, ALSO SOMETHING OF A VIOLENT NATURE MAY OCCUR IN A LARGE PUBLIC INSTITUTION.

Student's Corner
IN A HOROSCOPE WHEN SATURN AND URANUS ARE UNFAVORABLY ASPECTED IT INDICATES ONE WHO FAILS TO APPRECIATE THE VIEWPOINT OF OTHERS. THE PERSON WITH THIS ASPECT CAN ALSO BE STUBBORN AND IMPRACTICAL.

Kwiatkowski Asks For Meeting Aid For Zoo Considered

Recreation, Kwiatkowski and Froenke outlined the following cuts:

- Reduce the number of picnic tables from 100 to 30.
- Cut costs of landscaping and signs.
- Delete a $4,200 visitor information service building.
- Reduce cost of entrance sign from $2,100 to about $300.

"While we may be approaching the problem from different perspectives, I believe that both our board and your trustees have the same objectives in mind."

"For this reason, I am requesting that you arrange an immediate meeting of the full board of trustees so that our board members and staff may meet with you, face to face, in an effort to clear up unfortunate misunderstandings," Kwiatkowski said in a letter to Jim Ryan, the zoo society's president.

The commissioner said he will be ready to present in detail "the possibility of grant amendments that should receive 'favorable treatment'" from state and federal officials.

The issue centers on the fact that funds slated to construct the zoological park are overextended by more than $50,000. Kwiatkowski met with state officials and outlined cuts which reduced that amount to $12,000.

At a meeting with Richard Froenke, the director of the state's Division of Parks and

Attorney To Give Opinion

By JANE CASSELL
Herald Staff Writer

WINTER SPRINGS — City Attorney Newman Brock is scheduled to give a legal opinion at today's 7:30 p.m. City Council meeting on the controversial granting of a building permit on a split lot.

Councilman Irene Van Eppel last week failed in an effort to revoke a building permit issued by Building Inspector Ray Bradshaw to John Laux on Sept. 15 for the west 175 feet of Lot 7 on Tradewinds Road adjacent to the Van Eppel residence.

Mrs. Van Eppel charged the permit was issued illegally, although Brock had advised Bradshaw he could issue a permit on the split lot.

The other half of the 3.9 acre lot in the Ranchlands area was previously built upon by Walter Parkhurst. Mrs. Van Eppel said there is no record in the courthouse on the west 175 feet and the permit application does not include the required legal description. She also pointed out that permission was previously denied.

Brock was asked to further research the problem and report back this week.

Woman, Two Children Injured In Collision

A DeBarry woman and two small children were injured today in a truck-car collision at U.S. 17-92 and the I-4 Sanford exit.

Mrs. Agnes Bertrand, head nurse at Seminole Memorial Hospital, said this morning that Michael Andrew Bogeajis, 4, DeBarry, was undergoing skull x-rays in the emergency room and may be admitted for head cuts and lacerations. She said the child was in good condition.

Treated and released at the hospital were Angela Bogeajis, 3, who complained of a sore back, and Mrs. Josephine Stevens, 30, DeBarry, who suffered multiple face abrasions, Mrs. Bertrand said.

Michael Bogeajis, 25, driver of the pickup truck containing his two small children, was charged with improper change of lane or course, according to Florida Highway Patrol Trooper S.R. Allen.

Mrs. Stevens' son, Scott, 4, who was in the car with her, was not injured.

Mrs. Stevens' small car crashed into the rear of the truck, owned by Russell

County Planners Eye Rail Service

As Seminole County's population continues to grow, county planners are looking at one form of transportation they feel has the greatest potential to meet the immediate needs of county residents — rail service.

According to an analysis of the county's transportation, "a fixed rail system utilizing the existing railroad tracks definitely warrants further study."

The study, which has been presented to the Seminole County Commission, shows current transportation needs are not being met and studies do "offer a true alternative means of movement to the general population."

"Most air, water and rail service is geared towards industrial development, but potentially, existing rail lines could offer a longterm solution of the mass transit needs of residents," the study says.

Planners say an "appreciable rise" in the cost of gasoline may also stir a "reawakening" of the general public to the feasibility of riding trains — something Europeans take for granted and Americans seem to have stopped doing.

According to planners, the railroad could provide transportation with smaller major investments than required by other modes of transport.

"With the right of way and physical facility already present, the only major effort involved would be engine and coach purchase and some terminal development."

"Such a system would collect commuters all along the north-south spine that feeds into

School Bus Driver Returns To Work

A Seminole County school bus driver who was temporarily suspended with pay after being relieved in the middle of her route last Thursday was back on the job today.

Mrs. Doris Hodges, 2514 Laurel Ave., a bus driver for the past four years, was "very ill" Thursday but "seemed fine this morning," according to Ellen Thompson, secretary in the school transportation office.

Mrs. Hodges' bus was followed by Woodrow Burned, transportation director, driving behind her, said Mrs. Thompson.

Crooms Junior High School Principal E.L. Blacksheare had said pupils told him Mrs. Hodges had momentarily slipped off the road several times last Thursday and no warning lights were used when she stopped to pick up pupils.

She was taken home by a teacher and a substitute driver was called to finish the bus run.

"This thing kept snowballing with the kids. We think the woman is a good driver," said Burned.

Optimist Club Slate Installed At Meeting

Frank Ray, Optimist International lieutenant governor, Winter Park, installed officers of the Sanford Optimist Club at the Mayfair Country Club on Friday night and also announced three awards won by the local club.

Incoming officers installed were: President Dale Coppel; vice presidents Delbert Abney and Bill Wilkins; Secretary Treasurer Charles Ward and Sergeant-at-Arms Mac Mac-tavish.

Retiring president Howe gave out special awards to Mrs. Marge Claypool and Ms. Lealie Stephens for dedicated help to the club and Abney received a special award for outstanding service as secretary-treasurer. Abney also received the district distinguished secretary-treasurer's award.

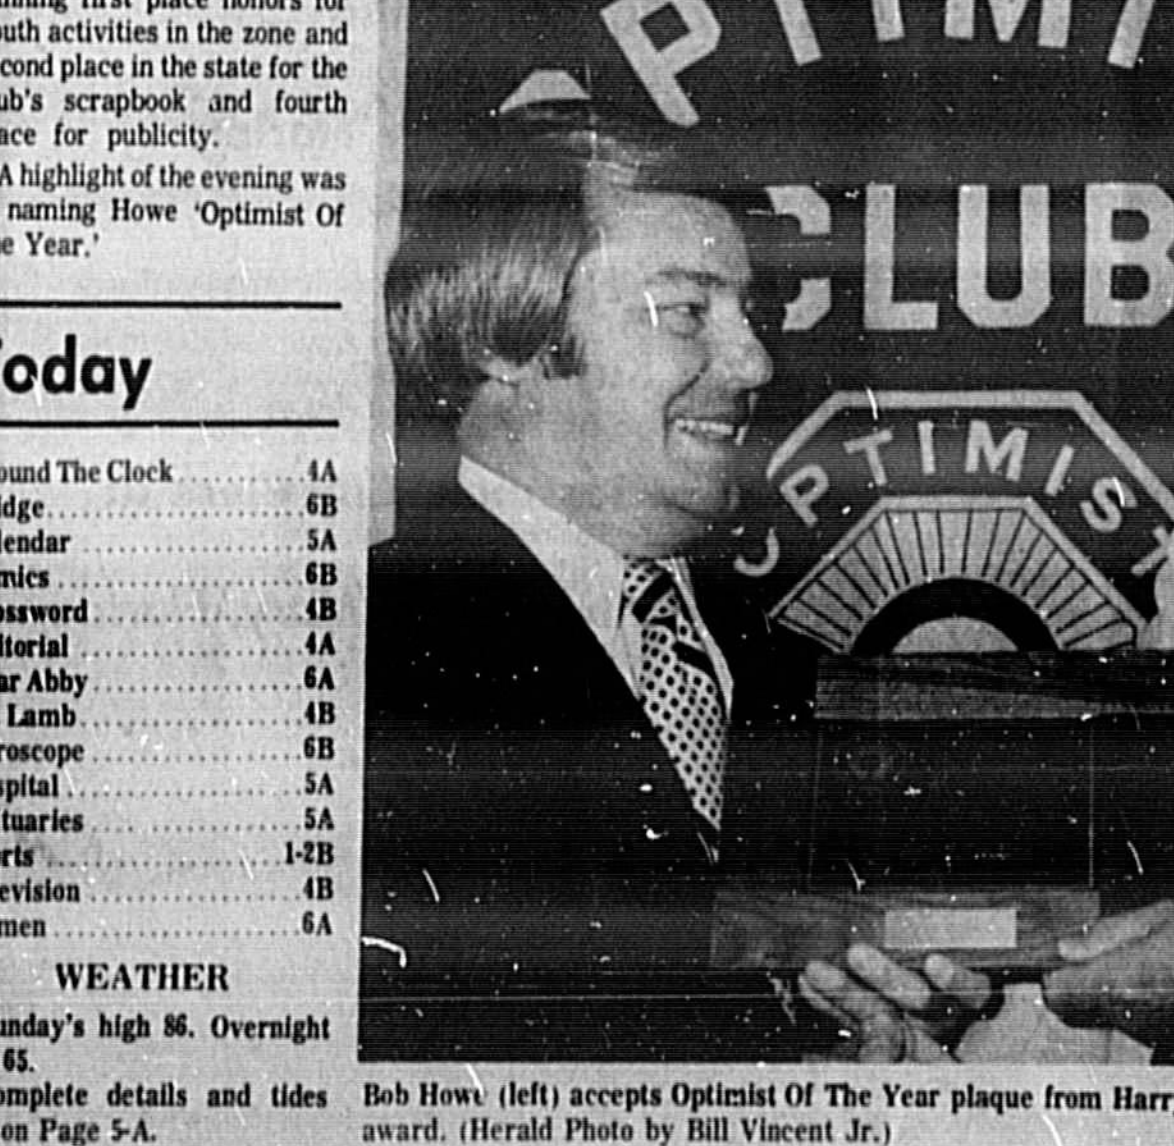

Six new members were inducted into the club by Mac McGraw, former statewide Optimist Of The Year, who was also instrumental in the formation of the local club.

Initiated into the organization were Marty Bacon Sr., Harold Benson, Ernie Butler, C.B. Franklin, Francis Junior and Lee Swartz.

Board members recognized included Clyde Cline, Fred Davis, Gary Hollingsworth, Chip Jackson, Harry Terry, Don Rathel and retiring president Bob Howe.

Ray praised the members for winning first place honors for youth activities in the zone and second place in the state for the club's scrapbook and fourth place for publicity.

A highlight of the evening was in naming Howe 'Optimist Of The Year.'

Death Threat Told

By BOB LLOYD
Herald Staff Writer

The Bay County sheriff in "steal-to-order" theft cases is in hiding because of threats against his life.

The death threats were revealed in a one-hour hearing today in which Circuit Court Judge Joe A. Cowart Jr. granted a continuance until Oct. 27 in the trial of an Altamonte Springs bar operator accused of being a fence who bought and sold a stolen $15,000 motor home that was seized in mid-August raids by sheriff's agents.

Cowart continued the trial of Donald Crowder, 44, 551 Karan St., Altamonte Springs, until Oct. 27 and said he will hear motions by defense attorneys Tom Freeman and Edmund Woolfolk later this week that seek transcripts of telephone conversations recorded by agents using a wiretap on Crowder's telephone from July 25 through midnight Aug. 23.

Also to be heard is a defense motion that seeks to compel Calvin Yates, a probationer who wore a "body bug" while agents tape recorded his conversations with Crowder, to answer questions he earlier refused to answer.

Freeman told the court that Yates "is being held in secret" by Sheriff's detective Ralph Salerno, who headed the three-month investigation of what police called a million-dollar-a-year "steal-to-order" theft ring that operated in Orange and Seminole counties.

Assistant State Atty. Ralph Eriksson admitted that Yates "is in hiding" because of threats on his life.

Eriksson said the state doesn't intend to use information from the wiretap on Crowder's telephone in the trial of the buying, receiving and concealing stolen property charge involving the motor home.

"I haven't listened to any wiretaps. I don't know if they're relevant to this case," Eriksson said.

Cowart said he never gives permission for wiretaps because "it carries all kinds of problems." The wiretap in the theft ring probe was apparently ordered by another circuit judge, but Eriksson said he doesn't know where the affidavit supporting the wiretap request and the court order for it are.

"We'll have to get all the
