Submerged Land On River Sold

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — The Cabinet Trustees of the Internal Improvement Fund sold 17 acres of submerged land in the St. Johns River today for $250 an acre.

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Comptroller Ray E. Green questioned $20,000 a year salaries proposed today for two professors at the University of Florida.

Mortgage Stealing Counts Against 4

By Larry Vershel
The First Research Corp. of Miami has been hired to do that feasibility study on the proposed university here... They have already started work.

Dringlines operating by Adams Shopping center property... Purpose is to please the SRD on drainage requirements.

Which reminds me there's a new shopping center proposed out that same way... It will have quite an impact.

AN APOLOGY TO THE JUNIOR CLASS AT SEMINOLE HIGH... I'm sorry kids I just didn't know that "hop" was supposed to be a secret.

Delinquent property tax sales for the city and county will be held May 28... Next week is the deadline on taxes.

We know of one high Democratic Committee official that was playing golf election day.

A CONVERSATION WITH BOB BILLHIMER, CHAIRMAN OF THE DEMOCRATIC EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE: REPORTER: Any comment to make on the election? BILLHIMER: No comment yet... Haven't gone over the tally of the precincts.

Two-count informations against four Sanford home repairmen for "stealing a mortgage" on the property of an elderly woman were filed this morning in Circuit Court at Gainesville.

All four were associated with the now defunct Nova Builders, of Sanford. State's Attorney T. E. Duncan said he hoped to bring the men to trial in the Gainesville court some time next month.

Charged in the informations are William Cletus Braden, Glenn Jones Jr., Horace Richard Barnard and a fourth man being sought by the sheriff's department, who said they expect to have him in custody soon.

A federal fugitive warrant has been issued against Jones, said to have been president or vice president of Nova Builders.

Braden, secretary-treasurer, and Barnard, a salesman, have been in the county jail at Gainesville since their arrest several weeks ago. Bonds have been set for Braden at $5,500 and for Barnard at $3,000. They are in jail in lieu of bond.

Defeated Democratic legislative candidate Gordon Frederick today accused officials of his party of actively working "in the opposition campaign."

Frederick, who was defeated in Tuesday's legislative race by Jan Fortune by a scant 250 odd votes declared "the results of the election clearly point out the need of an organized working Democratic party."

"So far as I can determine no organized effort was made by the local party officials to either inform their members of the pending election or to get the Democrats to the polls."

"It is a known fact that some of the elected officials of the Democratic party were active in the opposition campaign, Frederick continued, adding, "On the other hand the Republican elements were organized and worked vigorously. They were adequately financed."

Longwood Ready With Sketches For New Hall

By Donna Estes
Preliminary sketches of the new Longwood City Hall have been completed by members of the City Council and discussion is now underway with local architects on the plans, council officials announced today.

Construction is expected to begin within the next two to three months as final plans are completed.

The new building will be financed with present income and no increase in taxes will be levied against the city residents, the council said.

The building, to be located at the corner of Warren and Wilma Sts., will have a council room and will be centrally heated and air conditioned.

Present plans call for a new Fire Station to be added next year.

Monkey Bite Brings Arrest Of Negro For Rape Attempt

A monkey bite solved an attempted rape case here this morning.

A 23-year-old Negro, six feet and one inch tall and weighing 200 pounds, abducted a 20-year-old white hospital employee and attempted to rape her, Police Chief Roy Williams reported. The young woman is five feet tall and weighs 100 pounds.

The Negro, Charles E. Sparks, was arrested at his home shortly after the attempted rape by Sgt. W. R. Ingram and Officer Edward Wagon. Chief Williams said Sparks confessed.

The police chief recounted the action thus: Sparks entered the hospital at about 1:30 this morning, jumped a railing and ordered the young woman to open the safe. When she replied she did not have the combination, the Negro grabbed her and forced her out of the hospital.

Unsuccessful in an attempt to steal a car, Sparks forced the girl to walk to 7th and Bay Streets, in the Negro section. There he ordered her into a parked automobile and attempted to rape her. When she pleaded with the Negro he desisted and walked her back to the hospital, released her and fled.

In the meantime, Robert Bosseler, hospital administrator, had been alerted when other employees noticed the young woman was missing. No one had heard her screams when Sparks forced her from the hospital. Bosseler telephoned police.

Sparks was released from jail only a week ago after serving a sentence on a drunk and disorderly charge. While in jail he had been made a trustee and was assigned for work at the Sanford zoo. It was there he was bitten on the right hand by a monkey. He has been under a physician's care since.

While forcing the young woman to accompany him he told her of having been bitten by an animal. Her description of Sparks, with the information of the monkey bite, led Cosgrove and Hayden to the Negro.

When brought to the city jail Sparks was placed in a lineup with six other Negro inmates. The young woman pointed out Sparks as her assailant. He then confessed to Chief Williams.

Suspicion of charges of attempt to rape and of suspicion of attempted robbery were filed by the young woman before County Judge Vernon Mize. Chief Williams said Sparks would be arraigned later today.

May Use Red Bombers-Castro

HAVANA (UPI) — Fidel Castro accused the United States today of responsibility for armed attacks on two Soviet freighters and the recent crash of a Bolivian airliner. He warned Cuba might have to acquire bombers and warships for protection.

In an official statement, Castro charged the United States was behind yesterday's attack on the Soviet freighter Iaku in Caribbean Port, which left it heavily damaged, and also was responsible for the March 18 sea strafing of the Soviet steamer Lgov in adjoining Isabela de Sagua.

CO Gets Perfect Going Away Gift

Heavy Attack Squadron One presented a going-away gift to its commanding officer Wednesday as it flew to a victory in the monthly Heavy Attack Wing One "Thunder Stream."

The results, released today, show VAI-1 on top by a slim seven-point margin over Detachment Eight of VAI-11, as it won its third "Thunder Stream" in as many outings during the past year.

Heavy Attack Squadron Five took third and VAI-3 fourth in the four-squadron meet.

No man was happier over the outcome than Cdr. Edgar J. Bondinot Jr., skipper of VAI-1, who will be relieved of his command Friday by Cdr. Leonard J. Reinhart, current squadron executive officer.

The day before Bondinot assumed command of the squadron his flight crew won the April 1962 Stream.

Since September, VAI-1 has been occupied with phasing in the A5A Vigilante and therefore did not compete in the monthly bombing competitions. Wednesday was the squadron's first effort since the September victory and it won again, this time with the A5A.

Saturn 'Go' Signal Given

CAPE CANAVERAL (UPI)—The weatherman gave a "go" signal today to a planned U. S. attempt to fire a mighty Saturn-I rocket into space this afternoon. Bad weather called off a satellite shot that had been set for tonight as part of a doubleheader.

The 165-foot Saturn-I, packing the horsepower of 300,000 automobiles, was scheduled to blast off on a thunderous, seven-minute flight at 1:30 p. m.

The countdown passed a major barrier at 7:30 a. m. EST when scientists decided the weather looked good enough to go ahead. Liquid oxygen immediately began flowing into the rocket's giant fuel tanks.

"Right now," a space agency spokesman said one hour later, "we are right on time."

FBI Probes Derailment

1-Party Government Out

TAMPA (UPI)—Republican State Chairman Tom F. Brown said from his hospital bed today that the GOP showing in Tuesday's legislative elections showed the voters of Florida "are fed up with one party government."

Brown, recovering from surgery performed Tuesday, said the tripling of the GOP strength in the legislature is another indication of the strength of the rapidly growing Republican party in Florida.

He said the GOP in Florida in recent years has grown faster, percentage-wise, than in any other state.

Brown predicted the state will vote for the Republican presidential ticket next year.

the fourth straight time and said voters will elect more Republicans to local and legislative posts and that the GOP will capture some state offices.

"The Republican party will have a strong candidate in next year's general election for the office of U. S. Senator and for the governorship," Brown said.

"Sincere Thanks"

For your votes in the election on Tuesday.

While the election was lost, let us hope that there has been an awakening of the Democratic Party in Seminole County.

My special thanks to those who spent hours in TRYING to get out the vote.

To the 11,000 voters who "stayed home", I urge that they take a greater interest in your government and its problems.

Last — but not least — I would urge all of you to continue your work — working together — for the benefit of our County.

Again my sincere thanks.

County Agent Gives Club Program

By Mona Grinstead
The fact that Florida homes can be beautifully landscaped the year 'round through use of trees was the basis of County Agent Cecil Tucker's talk for members of the North Orlando Garden Club at their March meeting.

Opening the program by showing the film, "Care of Door Yard Citrus," Tucker outlined the "P's and Q's" for proper planting and culture of trees which can be utilized in a landscaping program for any type or size home.

Proper plant selection and proper plant placement were stressed as being very important by the county agent who said that his personal choice for the area are the laurel, oak and magnolia. He said that pruning also is an important step in successful planting and advised that tops should be pruned to match the root system when moving a bare-rooted tree.

If trees are taken from the open woods permission should always be obtained first from the property owner.

After a bare-rooted tree is planted it should be pruned through the months until it has been completely circled in order to keep the shape, Tucker pointed out, adding that a few leaves also should be left to prevent the trunk from being sun scalded.

If all the leaves should fall, he said that newspaper or cloth should be wrapped around the trunk as a protective measure and that plenty of moisture should be given such plants at all times in order to aid growth of hair roots.

Another important step is preparation, Tucker advised that peat should be mixed well in the soil to aid in retention of moisture and to serve as food, especially when citrus trees are to be planted. He stressed, however, that too much peat could be used and if it is improperly mixed it will prevent the tree roots from adequate growth dept. Use of fertilizer at the time of planting is not recommended with bare-rooted trees, but should be done three or four weeks later using approximately one cup of fertilizer. Such applications should be made two or three times for the remainder of the year.

Tucker emphasized the fact that cans always should be removed before planting although burlap bags can either be left on or removed as desired. He also stressed that planting should not be too deep since it will stunt growth.

Fertilizing after a couple of years, he said, should be done by punching and filling in holes around the roots. Amounts depend upon the branch system with three pounds recommended for six inch branches and five pounds for any over this size.

The two "Q's" Tucker said, are to quickly cover the roots with something moist and plant as soon as possible and to buy quality specimens. In closing he pointed out that it is far better to put a 50 cent plant in a $5 hole than to put a $5 plant in a 50 cent hole, adding that such a mistake is easily avoided if the gardener watches his "P's and Q's." During the following question and answer period it was brought out that pruning should be done back to the live wood after a freeze but never so extensively as to leave only a bare stump.

BIKE SAFETY TESTS are being conducted at all elementary schools in the city by members of the Hospital Auxiliary, under the direction of Mrs. John Morgan and Mrs. John Johnson, co-chairmen. Here Lt. Ben Butler and Mrs. Morgan watch as John McLanahan goes through the testing procedure at Southside School, Monday. A schedule of Safety tests for other schools will be announced soon. (Herald Photo)

Postmaster Cites Delivery Increases

By Donna Estes
The number of residents taking advantage of the new house to house mail delivery in Longwood is increasing daily, Postmaster W. K. Bryant reported today.

As the end of the quarter nears and post office box rents are up it is expected that many more will make use of the service, Bryant said.

The postmaster issued a special request that all correspondence be notified of the correct new mailing addresses giving street and house numbers. Those receiving the house to house delivery should not list their addresses as being on a rural route or as having a post office box number and those still on rural route one should use only the rural route number assigned them by their carrier, he said.

He particularly asked that the residents make every effort to get address changes made on all newspapers and magazines as well as on business and personal mail.

Bryant expressed appreciation to all residents, the Longwood area of Chamber of Commerce and the City Council for their wonderful cooperation with the post office in seeing that proper house numbers were issued and in getting the mail receptacles installed correctly with the names and numbers on all boxes.

GIANT-SIZED TURNIP was grown by A. B. Sites in the little garden behind his home at 1505 Mellenville Ave. The unusually large purple-top weighed over four pounds and is more than 24 inches in circumference. Sites said he did not give the turnips any special fertilizer, but this one apparently got more than its share of the natural elements. (Herald Photo)

Generals' Boss

There really is nothing unusual in the fact that Defense Secretary McNamara, long a favorite on Capitol Hill, is increasingly the target of many lawmakers.

Pentagon bosses have suffered these slings and arrows since the days of the first defense secretary, the late James Forrestal, who was crushed by the criticism.

Part of the explanation lies in the mounting frustration among lawmakers over the fact there is so little they can do, relatively, to affect the course taken by our massive military establishment.

An offshoot of this is the fact that a good many legislators obviously feel themselves just as qualified as any civilian defense secretary to make judgements in military matters. Some have been appraising military affairs and expenditures far longer than the most experienced defense secretary.

Indeed, occasionally some senator or congressman has talked as if he really felt himself quite able to make the kind of judgements we expect from our generals and admirals themselves.

Lately a newer element has crept into the picture. Arizona's Sen. Barry Goldwater and some others have suggested that it is wrong for a defense secretary to veto the recommendations of our Joint Chiefs of Staff, or any group of top military officials.

The argument is that the military people are the experts, and no civilian official ought sensibly to consider overruling their most thoughtful judgements.

If this argument is to be taken seriously, then plainly we do not need or want a civilian defense secretary. For he presides over an establishment that presumably is made up of military experts. If their views are automatically to prevail, then the best thing is to have one of them as secretary.

But did we not argue this whole matter out in the fullest kind of debate when the defense department was created after World War II?

A prime issue was civilian control of the military. The decision, made in Congress itself, was that such control was vital.

The contention in support of this decision was that the military cannot be allowed to operate as an entity wholly apart from civilian authority.

Military judgments are special. They are made in consonance with what are deemed the crucial needs and purposes of the services. This is all to the good.

But those judgments cannot be made in a vacuum. The military, however special, functions in service to the civilian state. It is a part of it. What it spends, what weapons systems it employs, how it is organized, these and many matters must be decided in relation to the whole society in which it exists.

It having already been decided, therefore, that we should have civilian management of defense, it is alien to that purpose to suggest the defense secretary should have no power of veto over what the generals and admirals want.

Authority is the power to say no as well as yes, to give guidance and direction, to exercise restraints, to reorganize and so on.

Those who propose that McNamara or anyone in his shoes should be stripped of any portion of this authority can hardly do less, honestly, than reopen the entire question of civilian control of the military. If this is what they desire, let's get into it without delay.

Phil Newsom Says . . .

A Man Well Respected

Harold Wilson, a crumpled, pipe-smoking man with a cherubic face, is setting out with obvious determination to fulfill his new role as leader of Britain's Labor party.

If he is not the man who will take office as British prime minister as result of general elections sometime between now and October 1964, it will not be for failure to give the electorate something to think about.

He may also give Britain's German, French and United States allies something to think about and some things they may not like.

In the short time since Wilson assumed the leadership post succeeding the late Hugh Gaitskell, his ideas on the new Britain he would create have been appearing in news dispatches on an almost daily basis.

Such a recent dispatch quoting "sources" otherwise unidentified, outlined Wilson's view on a variety of subjects ranging from the common market to the U. S. Polaris missile. The "source" was so close as to look into Wilson's innermost mind.

These were some of the controversial issues taken up by the "source" and said to represent Wilson's feelings:

The Kennedy - Macmillan Nassau agreements should be renegotiated. Presumably this would include the deal whereby Britain accepted the Polaris missile in place of the discarded Skybolt.

Labor believes the United States should be the sole carrier of Western nuclear deterrent strength and would let Britain's current hydrogen bomb force of jet bombers "fade away."

Rights of a free Britain and of free access to Berlin must be maintained, but might be accompanied by some measure of recognition of East Germany and her borders with Poland and Czechoslovakia.

These are all measures to arouse controversy both at home and among the allies.

Although an East Germany does exist and the controversial border with Poland is unlikely to be changed in the foreseeable future, the mere mention of the recognition of either is enough to send West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer into a bellow of rage.

The United States, having settled the Polaris issue with Macmillan, and embroiled in an argument with French President Charles de Gaulle on the future of NATO, could not be expected to welcome a reopening of the British negotiations.

De Gaulle scarcely will welcome the suggestion that the United States remain the sole Western nuclear power.

"These Days We Call It Free Collective Bargaining"

Dr. Crane's Worry Clinic

Harry's striking case shows that "value" is not simply the sum of the manufacturing and sales costs that go into a product but is a personal, psychological "image." Salesmen, be sure to read for the booklet below. For modern salesmanship is largely a matter of Applied Psychology.

CASE O-494: Harry G., aged 27, was a salesman enrolled in my Northwestern University class in the "Psychology of Advertising & Selling."

We had discussed the vital problem of "value" and I had shown the students that to the customer the worth of an item depends on emotional memories more than manufacturing costs.

For "value" in the minds of purchasers is always a matter of their personal attitude and emotional state.

Antiques, for example, may have little structural worth, yet to those who reverence them, an old chair may bring $1,000.

And some postage stamps that have been cancelled and thus are scrap paper to most people, will command a price of $10,000 to a philatelist.

So the job of every star salesman is to build up the psychological value of his product in the prospect's mind.

During one of my evening psychology courses, Harry put up his hand and asked to tell about a case he had encountered that week in the music store where he worked.

"Dr. Crane," he began, "a man of Italian background walked into the store and asked for a certain brand of record player.

"He was obsessed with the idea that this brand name was the only good one on the market.

"Unfortunately, we didn't carry that brand, so it looked as if I was sure to lose a big sale.

"But I diverted his attention by saying we could order the machine he wanted, meanwhile I inquired what color of cabinet he would like and suggested he thus look over some of the models we had on display.

"He seemed reluctant even to do that but I held him long enough to place an Italian operatic record on the player.

"As soon as he heard the opening notes, he became almost hypnotized with delight.

"So he sat down in a chair and closed his eyes. After that first record was finished, I loaded the machine with other operatic numbers, chiefly of Italian background.

"And this prospect just sat there for half an hour, with an angelic look on his face, apparently transported back to Italy in his mind.

"When the machine had played the last record, he stood up and said, 'I want to buy that machine. It's wonderful.'

"So I agreed and made the deal at once. Actually this machine had no better tone than the rival model which he had originally requested.

"But he had projected his emotional delight in those operatic numbers right back upon our record player. That's why he now felt it was probably the best record player in the world.

"So the change in its value had occurred within 30 minutes and all inside his own head, eh?"

Yes, that unattractive record player now had become psychologically painted with all the musical memories and nostalgic emotions which the operatic recordings had generated.

So send for my booklet "The New Psychology of Advertising & Selling," enclosing a stamped, return envelope, plus 20c.

Political Notebook

WASHINGTON—(NEA) — Extension of the Selective Service law for another four years is breezing through Congress, but with blinders. It is a straight renewal of the act expiring June 30.

Apparently no one sat back and took a look at this as part of the whole "youth" problem. The toughest part of the nation's biggest problem—unemployment—is the unemployment of young people and the disturbing high school and college dropout rates.

The draft act doesn't touch these problems.

Nobody wants a Hitler Youth Corps or a Young Communist League, with every youngster registered and assigned to some service. But short of that, it may take an awful lot of good management to handle the U. S. youth problem of the late '60s.

In 1962 there were 700,000 young people out of school and out of work. The number is expected to grow to a million by 1970 unless something is done.

American Farm Bureau Federation, carrying out a 1959 policy resolution, testified this year in favor of drafting men aged 18 to 22 instead of 23 to 26, as is now done. Matt Triggs, AFB legislative counsel, testified this change would cause less disruption.

But an amendment to do this was defeated in the House.

Selective Service now registers about 1.4 million young men a year. Only 120,000 are drafted.

The older men are taken first because the armed services don't want draftees competing with the 600,000 volunteers they recruit every year, aged 17 to 22. The draft law act as an incentive to younger men to enlist and get their military service over.

Also, Selective Service System wants to give men up to 22 every opportunity to complete college. Deferments are given to teachers and skilled technical workers as well.

U. S. armed forces are therefore the biggest employers of young men.

The five youth programs proposed by the Kennedy administration would soak up only 40,000 to 60,000 unemployed youths a year.

This won't begin to solve the problem.

The Peace Corps now has about 3,000 volunteer men and women under 25 on its rolls. The number may be 5,000 by the end of the year.

The men will have to report to their draft boards after their two years of service. Peace Corps director Sargent Shriver Jr., wanted it that way so that the organization wouldn't be a draft-dodger haven.

The manpower training and development program now has about 3,000 young people enrolled. This will grow.

Now under consideration by Congress is the Youth Conservation Corps. It would recruit 18,000 the first year.

The proposed National Service Corps—the so-called domestic Peace Corps—would recruit only 500 workers the first year, 5,000 by the end of the third year. Less than half would be young people.

This ratio also would apply to the 40,000 volunteers in the proposed Home Town Service Corps.

All these programs are meeting Republican opposition. Rep. Jerry Ford of Michigan, GOP Policy Committee chairman, and Rep. Peter Freylinghuysen Jr. of New Jersey, speaking for GOP Education Committee members, oppose the Youth Corps because it would cost $100 million the first year, $200 million when in full operation.

As alternatives they propose first "a study of laws and regulations restricting youth employment." It sounds a little like seeing if child labor and minimum wage laws will stretch.

Second, they would expand the vocational education program which already costs $54 million a year.

Third, they would expand the Manpower Retraining act to permit use of more than 5 percent of its funds for youth.

Finally, they would expand opportunities for youth employment by the National Park Service and the U. S. Forest Service.

Details haven't been worked out very carefully. But at first glance it looks like just another formula which would cost about as much as the Youth Corps and probably not do much more good.

Lake Monroe Jottings . . .

Mrs. H. L. Johnson
Good afternoon to you. How is the weather treating you? It's nice to get out in the yards again. Last weekend was sure a cold one wasn't it? Had to take my daughter and granddaughters home (North Florida) and it was cold. Sure hated to see my little girls leave to go home. But I am making plans to spend Easter with them. Mrs. Robert (Betty) Mann was called to Arkansas because of the illness of her mother. She has improved greatly and Betty has returned home. Very glad to hear that she is much better. Mrs. G. B. Sapp is ill at her home on the Upsala Road. Very sorry to hear it. Sharon Kinard, little daughter of Melvin and Kathryn Kinard fell and broke her arm. Did not get the full details of how she did it. Be careful Sharon while it is knitting back in place. Bobby Hittell is here on leave from the Lackland Air Force Base visiting parents Alvin and Marie Hittell. How's the weather in Texas Bobby? I understand that Bobby will be stationed in Cocoa when his leave is up. That's nice as he will be closer home. Bet Alvin and Marie are tickled. Don't forget the fashion show to-night at the HD Center. Its going to be real nice. The dresses which the ladies have made will be shown first. Then the dresses made from the Bates prints will be modeled. So come out and see what a little bit of sewing will make for you. The time is 8 o'clock. See you there. Naomi Sapp and daughter Clara Wyatt were in Tampa last week where they went to attend the funeral of a friend, Mrs. Lillie Mae Jones. She had been a friend of the family for a good many years. Mrs. Linda Ray and wee daughter Sherri of Orlando were dinner guests of ours last Thursday. The occasion was in celebration of our granddaughter Barbara's very first birthday and also the birthday of her granddaddy, H. L. Johnson. Coming in later were Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Mann and O. M. Mann Jr. all of Orlando and Claude and Rena Hawkins and son Sid. We had a very nice evening. Bob Dorn spent last weekend home from a hospital in South Florida. I bet the kid-was glad to see him. The many friends of Mrs. Emma Villen will be glad to hear that she is now home after undergoing surgery at Semholo Memorial Hospital. She resides with her daughter Mrs. Eli Hunter on Narcissus Ave. Drop by and see her. Very sorry to hear that Norine Norwood is also ill. We wish her a speedy recovery. It is just a short time until Easter. Maybe we will have a beautiful day for it. I said maybe. Have been talking to some of the high school girls. They are making their outfits. And from the way they have described them to me they will be the best dressed girls around here. I have had several requests for a beautiful saying that was printed in this column last year. Since this is a short week I will give it again. It is entitled "I Must Go Shopping."—One of these days I must go shopping. I am completely out of self-respect. I want to exchange some self-righteousness. I picked up the other day for some humility, which they say is less expensive and wears better. I want to look at some tolerance which is being used for wraps this year. Some one showed me some pretty samples of peace. We're short on that and one can never have too much on hand. And by the way I must try to match some patience that my neighbor wears. It is very becoming to her and I think it might look well on me. I might try on that serviceable garment of long suffering, some places are displaying now. I never thought I wanted to wear it, but I find myself coming to it. Also I must remember to have my sense of appreciation mended and I must look around for some inexpensive, everyday goodness. It is surprisingly now quickly my supply of that gives out.

Beautification Month Set In North Orlando

By Mona Grinstead
The North Orlando Garden Club has announced that the month of May has been designated as Beautification Month during which all residents of the village will be eligible to participate on a competitive basis for prizes to be awarded for the best appearing lawn and garden. Judging, which will take place June 8, will be done on overall appearance of lawns, both front and back; overall neatness in regard to trimming, edging of flower beds, drives, etc.; and, last but not least, proper placement of flowers, shrubs and trees. Mrs. Charles Howell, chairman of the club's beautification committee, advises that prizes will range from $50 all the way down to a can of hair spray. Other members of the club committee in charge of the project are Mrs. Betty Nall, Mrs. May Duquette, Mrs. Edna Stewart and Mrs. Vera Anderson. Judges will be announced at a later date.

Casselberry Lions Hear FBI Official

By Jane Casselberry
FBI agent Jim Hafley of Orlando recalled exciting incidents taking place during World War II Thursday night when he spoke before the Lions Club of Casselberry at Bill's Diner. He told of the daring landings made by German submarines in Florida and New York and how they were captured. They carried such lethal items as dynamite in the shape of coal and incendiary bombs in the form of fountain pens. Hafley reminded his audience that the duties of the F.B.I. do not consist entirely of the more publicized criminal work but are mostly ordinary routine work. He was introduced by the program chairman, Jimmy Prevatt. Butts Advised: No Lie Test

ATLANTA (UPI) — The attorney for former University of Georgia Athletic Director Wallace Butts said Wednesday he has advised his client against taking a second lie detector test in connection with an alleged Southeastern Conference football scandal.

"My advice to my client must be to let us try his case in the court house where it belongs and that he should not go on submitting to lie detector tests at random in spite of his willingness to do so," attorney William Schroder wrote State Attorney General Eugene Cook.

Cook is investigating an accusation in a recent Saturday Evening Post article that Butts gave Georgia team secrets to Alabama coach Paul (Bear) Bryant in a long distance telephone conversation prior to the 1962 Georgia-Alabama game which Alabama won 35-0.

Butts and Bryant both have denied any attempt to rig the game and both took lie detector tests which attorneys said indicated their innocence. Cook said, however, the tests were not "polygraphs" and he wanted the State Bureau of Investigation to conduct tests on Butts and Bryant. Bryant's attorneys refused the request Tuesday.

Cook said that Butts telephoned known gamblers shortly before the Georgia-Alabama game last fall but he emphasized there was no evidence that Butts profited from any gambling on the game. "Insofar as is known," Cook said Bryant "definitely" was not involved in any of the calls to gamblers.

Schroder said he could not understand Cook's statements, which he called contradictory. He said Donald F. O'Donnell, chief counsel for the U.S. Senate investigations subcommittee, "has repeatedly stated that he has uncovered no evidence that either Coach Butts or Coach Bryant had been or were engaged in any gambling activities."

A joint committee of the Alabama legislature begins its investigation into the allegations today at Montgomery, Ala.

Two Greyhounds Shoot For 6th SOKC Victory

Two Greyhounds will be trying for a sixth win when they meet in the featured sixth race at the Sanford-Orlando Kennel Club tonight. They are C. H. Scott's Abigail Sue and Carl Tracy's Pocket Cash.

If Pocket Cash should win it will be his third victory in a row for in his last two outings he scored in grade C and then in grade B. Tonight marks his first try at a main event. Abigail Sue has already won two grade A races and one of them was a matinee feature.

Orville Moses' Fathom, winner of the Hacing King Stake a year ago, is sure to be popular with the fans, though he has just two wins to his credit. But he has been nine times in the money in 19 tries and has been a Quinella factor seven times.

Others in this main event lineup are Ed's Luxury, New Hit, Rucker's Circus, Queen's Slipper and Soft Whirl.

A great deal of interest is already manifest in the second running of the marathon speed classic scheduled for one week from Saturday. It is a contest in which 16 of the track's top distance stars will compete in two races over the long 4 1/2-mile course.

Davey Moore Home Again

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio (UPI)—Little Davey Moore, whose death in the ring touched off a storm of protests against boxing, was back home today.

The colorful featherweight champion of nearly four years never regained consciousness after lapsing into a coma shortly after his losing bout in Los Angeles last Thursday against Sugar Ramos. Moore lost his life along with his cherished championship.

His body arrived by jetliner late Wednesday at Columbus. Also on the airplane were his wife, Geraldine, 26, his daughter, Denise, 9, and sister, Ernestine, along with the fighter's manager, Willie Ketchum.

The bronze coffin containing Moore's body was taken from the plane and placed in a hearse and then brought to Springfield, Davey's hometown before he moved to Columbus three years ago.

So powerful are ocean waves that they have been known to hurl rocks weighing many tons onto the tops of cliffs more than 100 feet high.

Azalea Golf Tourney Opens

WILMINGTON, N. C. (UPI)—Clear skies and temperatures in the balmy 70's were expected to greet 140 pros and 10 amateurs today in the opening round of the 15th annual, $22,500 Azalea Open golf tournament.

The first pairings in the 72-hole event were scheduled to tee off at the 6,774 yard Cape Fear Country Club here at shortly before 8 a. m. The course, a series of long rolling greens, is a par 36-36-72 layout.

Dan Sikes of Jacksonville, Fla., a University of Florida law graduate and currently ranked sixth among this year's top PGA money winners, stands as one of the tournament favorites. If he picks up the first place prize money of $2,800, he can move up two notches past Tony Lena and Billy Casper in the money standings.

Other top linkmen pitted in the tourney include two-time Azalea winner and 1961 PGA champ Jerry Barber, Mike Souchak, Doug Ford, Art Wall, Billy Maxwell, Gene Littler, Tommy Bolt and Dow Finsterwald.

Besides Barber, Souchak, Wall, Maxwell, Jimmy Clark and Dave Marr are former Azalea winners competing in this year's event. Marr is the defending champion and one of the co-favorites.

Sikes joins 20-year-old Raymond Floyd of Fayetteville, N. C., as the only tournament winners on the current tour slated to play in the Azalea. Sikes capped the Doral

Reviews Coaches

COEUR D'ALENE, Idaho (UPI) — J. Neil Skie Stahley, athletic director of the University of Idaho, today announced the university was studying 35 "qualified" applicants for the job of head basketball coach. Stahley said a decision could be expected in about three weeks.

Jim Hanning, a 19-game winner last season, was hit hard in the early innings but became the first Detroit Tiger pitcher to go a six-inning distance in a 6-1 loss to the Milwaukee Braves. Lew Burdette and Bob Hendley teamed for a six-hitter for the Braves, who had three-run uprisings in the first and third innings.

Early Wynn took another firm step along the comeback trail as he combined with Eddie Fisher to pitch the Chicago White Sox to a 3-0 triumph over the Washington Senators. Wynn, who yielded one hit for the first three innings, has allowed only one run and two hits in his last nine innings. He needs one more major league win to reach the 200-level.

Marcelino Lopez yielded only two hits in six innings and also honored as the Philadelphia Phillies defeated the Kansas City Athletics, 9-2, and snapped the A's four-game winning streak. Richie Allen also hit a homer for the Phillies while Norm Siebern homered for Kansas City.

First-baseman Joe Pepitone, Bill Skowron's heir apparent, hit two homers and Elston Howard hit one to lead the New York Yankees to a 7-0 decision over the Minnesota Twins. Harmon Killebrew belted his first homer of the spring and Bernie Allen also connected for the Twins.

O'Toole Perks Up Redlegs

O'Toole, who yielded four hits, was backed by a 13-hit attack that included a homer by Gordon Coleman and doubles by Don Blasingale, Chico Ruiz, Wally Pate, Johnny Edwards and pitcher John Flavin.

The New York Mets scored their fifth victory in seven games when they beat the St. Louis Cardinals, Craig Anderson, who had lost 16 decisions in regular N.L. play since last May, tasted victory for the first time in 10 months. Frank Thomas homered for the Mets.

Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: My neighbor went ahead and named her dog WILBUR when she knew perfectly well WILBUR was my husband's name. I think she did it just for meanness. At night, when she calls her dog, my husband goes to the window and barks just to get her goat. I have called my husband when he was down the road and that dog would come running. It is very annoying to have your husband mistaken for a dog. Can I take this woman to court for disturbing the peace or defaming my husband's character or something?

WILBUR'S WIFE

DEAR WIFE: If your husband goes to the window and barks when your neighbor is calling her dog, SHE might have more to complain about than you. I think the bone you have to pick with your neighbor should be picked out of court.

DEAR ABBY: When someone asks you how to kiss, why do you brush it off like it was not a serious problem? I remember MY first kiss. I was 16 and thought a girl was supposed to hold her breath throughout the whole kiss. At the end of a very long kiss I was panting and absolutely blue in the face. The boy mistook this for wild passion and, of course, it ended up in a wrestling match.

LEARNED THE HARD WAY

DEAR LEARNED: When it comes to kissing, experience is the best teacher. Instructions are useless because one can't practice alone.

DEAR ABBY: I am a widow and am going around with a man who doesn't want me to wear my rings. He says that people will say he is going with a married woman. What should I do?

WORRIED WIDOW

DEAR WORRIED: Remove your rings. He's right.

DEAR ABBY: In reply to OUTRAGED's letter: I am fast approaching the age where I might have to make some plans for my old age. If anything should happen to my husband, and my health should be such that I could not live alone, I would insist on going to a Rest Home. I have wonderful children, but I wouldn't think of disrupting their lives by living with any one of them. I would rather have them come to see me because they want to than have them stuck with someone who could be hard to live with.

Jacoby On Bridge

By Oswald Jacoby

When your partner opens one no-trump, you should have little or no interest in playing a minor suit game contract. It takes 11 tricks to make game in a minor and only nine to make game in no-trump.

Thus, in expert practice, you only go from no-trump to a minor when you have a bad hand and don't want to try for even one no-trump, or such a good hand that you want to investigate slam possibilities. North has a hand with which he wants to be in game after his partner's no-trump opening. He only has seven high card points, but his six-card suit headed by ace-king-ten looks like six probable three no-trump. West opens the deuce of spades and East plays the queen. South should win with the ace and count his tricks. He sees eight sure tricks and each of three suits offers a possible ninth. His best technique is to cash his king of clubs, enter dummy with a second club, and try the diamond finesse. It happens to work, so South's worries are over. He can afford to try for an extra trick and the way is to run the clubs and see what happens. If East and West discard properly South should settle for his game. If they get careless he may find a way to get an overtrick.

We The Women:

By Ruth Millett

Memo to teen-age girls: Until you are 24 the odds are 9 to 1 that you will marry. These figures come straight from the U.S. Census Bureau. What does that mean to you? It means you can relax instead of beginning to worry at 15 or 16 that you may wind up an old maid.

Or fear that if you go through college before you start husband-hunting in earnest you'll end up earning your own living for the rest of your life. In high school you can date around instead of trying to find someone who is willing to go steady. After high school you can go to college. And while you are on campus, you can concentrate on getting an education instead of thinking that if you aren't engaged by the end of your freshman year you're a failure.

Because, you see, you really have plenty of time before your marriage chances start to drop. You've time to have all the fun of dating a lot of boys; time to concentrate on getting a good education; time even to work for a year or two after college graduation if you want to. And by not being in such a rush to marry, you will have a carefree girlhood instead of being tied to marriage responsibilities before you are ready for them. You will have time to get an education which will make you a better wife and mother. And your chances of marrying the right man are bound to be better if you marry in your early 20s, than if you marry in your early or mid-teens.

Tonight's show is mainly devoted to the sons, when Eddie's boy decides show business must take a backseat to his legal aspirations. Eddie Foy Jr. and Victor Maddern star.

Community Enjoys Fish Fry

More residents than could be counted at one time by hosts Frank Fasula and W. G. Harris converged upon the cooks, Mrs. Harris, Melvin Campbell, Anton Krecek and Bill Skisak, as they served fish and hushpuppies straight from the pans at a fish fry held at the home of Mayor and Mrs. Fasula on the evening of March 15. Accompanying dishes were set up buffet style and beverages were served by Mrs. Robert Dean and Martha Dean. Guests reported a "most enjoyable evening" and many commented that "something like this should be staged more often."

Crazy Hat Show Featured By Gamma Omega Chapter

The Gamma Omega Chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha held a "Mad Hatter" luncheon at Jim Spencer's Restaurant.

Each girl made their own hats. Mrs. E. S. McCall, Jr. won the trophy for the best creation. It was a huge paper mache bunny sitting on a mound of Easter grass with fuzzy cowboy bunnies all around it.

Another attractive model was the spring hat of Mrs. J. E. Higgins, Jr. It was made of straw fashioned with a variety of spring items on it.

The sorority members and their guests were served a lovely luncheon of lobster salad with potato chips and crackers. Guests joining the members for the luncheon were, Mrs. E. R. Bruce, Mrs. Milner Osborne, Mrs. R. L. Johnson and Mrs. R. L. Barneau.

A pleasant surprise was the arrival of Miss Patty Walker, a former member who is now living in Atlanta, Ga., who

Homemakers Corner

Good afternoon again. Since it is still the Lenten season let's start off this week with our Lent dish. This week's recipe was sent to me by Mrs. Phillip Allen and it sounds very good. Here it is.

Seafood Pie
1/2 cup shredded American cheese firmly packed
2/3 cup margarine
2 tbsps. prepared mustard
1 cup sifted flour
1/4 tsp. salt

Have cheese and butter at room temperature. Mix with fork, stir in mustard. Add flour, salt and cut in with pastry blender. Shape into balls and wrap in wax paper. Chill 1 hour.

Set oven at 425 degrees. Now roll out chilled dough between 2 pieces of wax paper. Fit into 9 inch pie plate and bake 12 to 15 minutes. Let cool. Now for the filling: 5 tbsps. margarine
5 tbsps. flour
2 1/2 cups milk
1/2 tsp. salt
1 tsp. prepared mustard
1 cup of canned or cooked lobster meat
1 cup shrimp or 2 cups of either one of the meats

Take 1 cup of canned or cooked peas. Melt butter. Add flour slowly stirring in milk and cook stirring constantly until mixture has thickened. Add salt and mustard. Stir in lobster, shrimp and peas. Spoon into cooled crust. Serves 4 to 6.

Here's another Mrs. Seminole County recipe.

Easy Cheese Bread
Scald 1 cup milk.
Stir in 3 tbsps. sugar, 1 tsp. salt, 1 tsp. margarine. Cool to lukewarm.

Measure 1 cup warm water into large mixing bowl. Stir in and dissolve 2 packets dry yeast.

Add lukewarm mixture, 1 cup grated cheddar cheese, 1/2 cups sifted flour. Stir until well blended, about 2 minutes. Cover, let rise till double in bulk, about 45 minutes.

Stir down and beat vigorously about 1/2 minute. Turn into greased casserole dish (1 1/2 qt.) and make uncovered in a moderate oven, 375 degrees about an hour.

Here are some quick tricks with Peanut Candy.
Peanut Brittle Apple Pudding: Slice 4 cups apples into well greased 5-cup casserole and sprinkle with 1 cup sugar. Mix 1/2 cup flour with 1/4 cup butter, then stir in 1 cup crushed peanut brittle. Spread mixture over apples and bake in hot oven 425 degrees 30 to 40 minutes.

Peanut Brittle Kisses: Beat 2 egg whites with 1/4 tsp. salt until foamy. Gradually add 1/2 cup sugar and continue beating until egg whites are stiff. Fold in 1 cup crushed peanut brittle, then drop by spoonfuls onto greased cookie sheet. Bake in slow oven 275 degrees about 40 minutes, or until lightly browned with a dry surface.

Peanut Butter Sundae Sauce: Melt 18 individual chocolate-coated peanut butter cups (or 4 five-cent bars) in a double boiler, stirring to thoroughly blend peanut butter and chocolate. Stir in 2 or 3 tbsps. heavy cream. Serve hot over vanilla ice cream.

How does this sound? Soft Honey Cookies
Cream: 1 cup honey
1 cup sugar
1/2 cup butter
Add: 1 beaten egg
Sift: 4 cups flour
1/2 tsp. salt
Add: 2 level tbsps. soda to 1 cup boiling water and add to creamed mixture. Add dry ingredients. Chill. Drop and bake at 350 degrees until done. (1/4 cup raisins may be added; also may be iced).

From a Michigan lady comes this Potato Salad Dressing.
1 1/2 cups sugar
2 tbsps. cornstarch
2 eggs
1 heaping tsp. prepared mustard
1/4 cup (sacant) vinegar

LEFTOVER BEEF
Here are a few suggestions for leftover beef. Use cubed cooked beef in cream sauce over toast or biscuits, in curry sauce over rice, in casseroles with noodles or macaroni. Serve leftover meat loaf cold or reheated with canned mushroom soup or tomato soup poured over the top. Cooked beef could also be used for cold plates, cold sandwiches, in gravy for hot sandwiches or heated in a barbecue sauce or brown gravy.

For delicious cold main dish salads, combine diced leftover meat with sliced fresh or canned peas. Add other fruits and mayonnaise and serve on lettuce.

1 tsp. salt
1 1/2 cups boiling water
Put in top of double boiler over boiling water until of desired consistency.

Almond Caudled Sweet Potatoes: Cook 8 medium sweet potatoes until tender (or used canned). Split and put in greased shallow baking pan. Combine 1/2 cup packed brown sugar, 1/4 cup water, 2 tbsps. butter, dash each salt and cinnamon, and 1/4 cup slivered almonds; simmer a few minutes. Pour over potatoes. Bake uncovered in hot oven (425 degrees) about 20 minutes turning once or twice and basting with syrup.

From a New Jersey lady comes this Cream Cheese Butter Cookies.
Allow to stand at room temperature, then cream 1/2 lb. butter
1/2 lb. cream cheese
Add, then cream again until very fluffy:
1/4 cup sugar
Sift, then add:
2 cups flour
1/2 tsp. baking powder
Shape into a ball and place in refrigerator overnight. Roll out on floured board 1/4 inch thick. Cut into 1 1/2 inch squares, sprinkle with sugar, cinnamon and nuts. Bake in 374 degree oven until delicately browned.

How do you like peas best—frozen, canned or fresh? What you select will make a difference at the grocery store. But if you are interested in savings—in price and in time—you will be interested in these figures compiled by the USDA.

Four servings of peas in a can cost 20 cents. Frozen peas run about 24 cents for the same amount, and fresh peas 52 cents. Also it takes longer to prepare fresh peas. So if you consider time as money, frozen peas and canned peas offer a saving. It takes 23 minutes to prepare fresh peas, compared with 6 minutes for frozen peas and only 1 minute for peas in a can.

LOOKING FORWARD
The very best thing about being a gardener is that you are always looking forward—to this year's garden, every plant in which is going to look precisely like the magnificent color pictures in the seed catalogs.

No matter if last year's weather left something to be desired—this year's is going to be perfect. You may have fallen behind on weeding last year—but this year you will have more time and will do a perfect job.

Perhaps you planted some things in the wrong places last year, or let the insects get ahead of you. You know all about these things this year and won't make the same mistakes.

Those left over vegetables that weren't used still haunt you a little, but you'll plan so well this year that every last beet and carrot will be eaten by the time the first heavy frost comes.

So reasons every gardener—new or experienced—at the beginning of each year. That's why it's the nicest thing in the world to be a gardener—who has a reason, always, to look forward.

By Mrs. H. L. Johnson

Now for a "mouth watering" Pound Cake that Rena Hawkins can make so well. We had a sample of one last week and it just melted in your mouth.

1 box confectionary sugar enough flour to fill the sugar box
6 eggs
1 tsp. vanilla
3 sticks of margarine or butter
Cream butter, add sugar then add the eggs one at a time. Add flour a little at a time also. Add flavor. Line a greased tube pan with wax paper. Fill with mixture. Bake for 1 hour in 300 degree oven.

Although Thomas Edison is most famous for his scientific inventions, this remarkable man also gave us waxed paper and gummed wrapping tape.

Fruit Juice Snow. This is an airy gelatin dessert, well flavored with fruit juice and can be served with fruit or custard sauce.
1 envelope (1 tsp.) gelatin
1/2 cup sugar
1/4 tsp. salt
1 1/4 cups hot water
1 can concentrated orange juice, thawed and undiluted
2 egg whites, unbeaten

Combine gelatin, sugar and salt. Add hot water and stir until gelatin is dissolved. Add concentrate orange juice (right from can) and blend well. Chill until slightly thickened. Then place bowl in ice water, add unbeaten egg whites, and beat with sturdy egg beater until soft peaks form. Pour into individual molds or an 8 by 8 by 2 inch pan. Chill until firm. Unmold or cut in squares. Serve with any favorite custard or fruit. Serves 8.

Don't forget to send in your recipe to me. Remember the address, Rt. 1, Box 31-B, Sanford.

By Jane Casselberry
A planting day was held last Saturday at the South Seminole Junior High School at Casselberry to beautify the school grounds. Among the many beautiful shrubs and trees planted were azaleas, viburnum, podocarpus, elms, dogwood and Juniper. Many parents donated money for shrubbery to take advantage of the discount given by the Wagon Wheel Nursery and Mrs. Chuck Flanders of the nursery donated several trees outright, delivered to the school, assisted with the planting, and offered many valuable landscaping hints, according to Mrs. Pat Dome, P.T.A. president. Mrs. C. H. Clark is Beautification Chairman.

Straughan Home Wins North Orlando Award

By Mona Grinstead
The attractive lawn and flower gardens surrounding the home of Mrs. Richard Straughan, 40 S. Cortez Ave., were chosen by the North Orlando Garden Club to receive the March Garden of the Month Award. Mrs. Straughan has used a mixture of gardenias, azaleas and camellias next to the house for side and back yard plantings. Around the patio located between the house and corports are beds containing a variety of annuals just now beginning to burst forth in full bloom. Just in front of the entrance walkway azaleas in mixed colors blend together to form a small hedge and along the front of the house azaleas again are used with jasmnine, silver leaf oleaster and ligustrum. The south front corner is filled with ligustrum, roses and Gerbera daisies with an edging of border grass. Surrounding the complete lot is a neatly clipped privet hedge. Larger plants used include a loquat attractively bordered with petunias and daisies, crepe myrtle, camellias and a peach and maple tree. Mrs. Straughan's 14 year old son, David, and her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Rhodes and their three year old son, Bruce, make their home with her. On the same street lives another son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Runnie and their sons, Keith, Michael and Jeffrey. While both mothers work, Mrs. Straughan cares for the four grandsons in addition to the house and garden work. Her married son and his family live in West New York, N. J. Mrs. Straughan moved to North Orlando three years ago from Washington, D. C.

Let's All Eat Fish

At the beginning of the current school year the Longwood Elementary PTO set a goal of 3,000 books or $1,800 for the school library in order that it may be improved to meet state accreditation standards. When school opened the library contained 600 volumes... it now has 2,100 and, although individual donations and school funds have helped, the Parent-Teacher group is to be commended for its fine work. This Friday members of the organization will conduct their last fund raising event towards the library project when they sponsor a fish fry at the school between the hours of 5 and 7:30 p. m. In addition to the fish, the menu will include baked beans, coleslaw, hush puppies, dessert and beverage. All proceeds will go to buy library books. With the proper support the PTO could go "over the top" with this last project... let's all eat fish at the Longwood Elementary School this Friday and give them a helping hand.

New Representative Arrives In Village

By Mona Grinstead
Jacob Hauptman, in charge of operations and development of the North Orlando Co. for the past four months, arrived in the Village Monday to handle current duties. A member of the Board of Directors for the Silver Creek Precision Co. since 1951 and member of the North Orlando Co. board of directors, Hauptman serves as liaison officer for the two concerns. He is president of the Mercury Trading Corp., manufacturers of electronics relays and controls and presently is enthusiastic about locating an assembly plant of the company in North Orlando. He makes his home in Cincinnati, Ohio, and is a graduate of Harvard College and Harvard Law School. Asked for a statement on company policies and activities, Hauptman advised that attention at this time is being centered around planning and landscaping grounds of the village. "I have refused to make any statement until we were accomplishing something. I have been told of promises made in the past which were not kept. These promises actually were made without the company's knowledge. I want to work as closely as I can with present residents of North Orlando and all organizations," he concluded.

Seminole College Negotiations On

Seminole College appeared nearer reality today as officials met to complete transactions for a site and for other matters in a closed meeting at Orlando.
President Morris Hale Jr., president of Orlando Junior College, said at noon that "nothing can be released for publication until we adjourn our meeting this afternoon."
OJC trustees are promoting Seminole College, which is to be located on the Longwood - Oviedo Road.

Hale and other OJC officials were meeting with North Orlando Company officers at the office of Attorney Fletcher G. Rush Jr. in Orlando.
The North Orlando Company previously had been quoted it will donate 200 acres for the school site, with another 100 acres to be offered at sale.

The Herald could learn nothing more today except that "the meeting is to close the deal with North Orlando." It was learned all concerned had been pledged to secrecy "until after the meeting."
Previous announcements have said that Seminole College will open as a junior college but that long-range plans are to enlarge it into a regular four-year school in time for the first students enrolled to participate in third and fourth-year semesters.

Douglas Stenstrom, chairman of the Chamber of Commerce long-range committee on education, has said that Seminole College and the proposed new university for the Daytona - Canaveral - Orlando area would "not conflict in any way but rather would complement each other."

Captain Confirms Incident

The State Department today was drafting a formal protest note to the Cuban government over yesterday's attack on an American cargo ship by two jet planes.

MIAMI (UPI) — Two Soviet-built jet fighters swooped down on an American motor vessel in international waters off Cuba last night, firing at least 30 machine cannon bursts across its bow, the ship captain said today.

The incident was the second in six weeks in which American vessels reported Soviet-built MIGs descended on them with guns blazing in the water between Florida and Cuba.
Capt. Curtis Olsen of Minneapolis, skipper of the 4,650-ton Floridian which plys between Miami and Puerto Rico on weekly trips, told reporters after docking in Miami this morning that the two jets circled his ship for 20 minutes, alternately buzzing and firing machine cannon bursts.

"They were MIGs; no doubt about it," Olsen said.
Two Cuban-based MIGs fired rockets in the vicinity of the American shrimp boat Ala last Feb. 20 while two crewmen frantically waved a distress flag.

After the Feb. 20 incident, President Kennedy told a news conference he had ordered the defense department "to make sure that action will be taken" if any new attacks occurred.
Olsen said his vessel, bound from Miami with a crew of 24 Americans and a cargo of pineapples, sugar and rum from Puerto Rico, was about 30 miles off the north coast of Cuba and 10 miles from Cayman Grande Island when the jets appeared.

The shrimp boat was about 60 nautical miles north of Cuba and 150 to 170 miles west-northwest of Olsen's position when the rockets were fired in its vicinity.

As Olsen told of the incident there were these developments:

—President Kennedy had a 12:30 p.m. EST meeting with the executive committee of the National Security Council. It was certain the attack on the Floridian and raids by Cuban refugees would be discussed. The White House said the meeting was not arranged as a result of any recent incident.

—The Soviet Union threatened to take "appropriate measures" to protect its ships making trips to Cuba. The Soviets charged the United States encouraged attacks on Soviet vessels and that Cuban exiles who attacked the Soviet freighter Haku in a Cuban port Wednesday were "under the protection of American authorities."

—Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev said in an interview, obviously before today's new Soviet note, that the immediate danger of war over Cuba had been eliminated.
—Cuban Premier Fidel Castro charged yesterday the United States was responsible for hit-and-run attacks on the Cuban coast. Castro said he might seek to buy long range bombers and ships to protect the Cuban coast if the raids continued.

College Drive To Continue Despite Poll

Drive will continue to have a proposed university for undergraduates placed in Seminole County in spite of a UPI Tallahassee report this morning that some returning legislators oppose a new school in the Orlando-Daytona-Cape Canaveral area.
Douglas Stenstrom, chairman of the Chamber of Commerce long-range planning committee on education, explained that before each session of the Legislature returning legislators are polled on major issues.

"University of Florida, at Gainesville, of which I am an alumnus," Stenstrom said, "naturally will oppose any new university until it receives all the appropriations they want."
The State Board of Control, basing its recommendations on a space era education study, will ask the session for $300,000 to get started on a science-oriented university in East Central Florida. "This is what is called a planning fund, to retain a president, locate a site, etc," Stenstrom explained.

He also pointed out many persons, including some legislators, still are confused between a proposed space institute for scientists in the Orlando-Cape area and the proposed university for undergraduates in the Orlando-Cape-Daytona area. It is the latter school for which Seminole County is striving.

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Pensacola apparently stands a good chance of getting a new university out of the 1963 Legislature but East Central Florida is likely to have trouble winning approval for another brand new institution.

Legislators, asked their feelings about new universities in advance of next Tuesday's session, replied heavily in favor of a new school at Pensacola, a project which has been in the works for some time.
But they were either against plunging ahead immediately with a proposed new institution for the Orlando-Cape Canaveral - Daytona Beach area, or undecided on this project.

HUNTSVILLE, Tex. (UPI) — The state of Texas, barring an eleventh hour reprieve, will execute its first woman in 99 years a few minutes after midnight tonight. She will be the first woman to die in the Texas electric chair.

She is Carolyn Ann Lima, 20, a prostitute who helped her boy friend in the summer of 1960 shoot Houston real estate man Fred Tones

Education Boost Program Proposed

A strong program of action designed to boost Florida's lagging educational status, overhaul outdated systems and catch up to swift-paced space age demands was presented to Seminole County legislators, at a dinner meeting at the Capri Thursday.
Seminole County teachers who make up the legislative action committees of the Florida Educational Assn., the Seminole County Education Assn. and the Classroom Teachers Assn. hosted the meet and presented the detailed explanation of the program.
Serving as spokesman in the presentation was Ernest Cowley, co-chairman with George Dalba of the SCEA Action Committee and a member of the state steering committee. Dalba is on the board of directors of the FEA.

The program for action was outlined and explained to Senator Mack Cleveland Jr., Rep. S. J. Davis and newly-elected Republican Representative Jan Fortune for their edification before the coming session of the Florida Legislature, Tuesday.
Priority points of the program include the full financing of the present Minimum Foundation Program; unfreezing of additional units for Vocational, ASIS, Adult and Summer programs; provision of one librarian for every 500 students.

The program requests that operating unit funds be increased from $375 to $425; that the present $50 per teacher unit from the state school sales tax be kept; the continuance of the retirement system; funds to set up state network of ETV stations and authority to combine funds of several counties for ETV.

The Legislature will be asked to make statutory provision for making teaching a profession, set up a Professional Practices Commission and code of ethics with legal authority to enforce the code.
It will be recommended that millage elections be discontinued and school boards authorized to set millage as needed within the present 20 mill limit.

Repeat of the present teacher competence pay law will be asked and a flat 25.75 county-state fund ratio be set.

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The heated inquiry into the TFX warplane contract was put aside to cool today.

'Round-Table' Legislative Talks Postponed

A "pile" of local proposed bills has caused the Seminole County legislative delegation to postpone any round-table discussion among themselves until the first of the week in Tallahassee.
Sen. Mack N. Cleveland Jr. said this morning that local governments and groups "have kept us so busy in meetings we haven't had a chance to confer among ourselves."
He added the teachers group kept him and Reps. S. J. Davis Jr. and Jan Fortune in a meeting until 10:30 p.m. Thursday.

He said it was after this meeting the three legislators agreed to wait until they reach Tallahassee Sunday before discussing among themselves which bills they will introduce in the Legislature.

Beverage Sale A Burning Issue

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — If popular support means anything, proposals to ban the sale of alcoholic beverages in family service stores and close all places of business on Sunday will be burning issues in the 1963 Legislature.
Gov. Farris Bryant can fill a loose paper carton with mail from the literally thousands of persons who have written asking his support of such laws.
Religion and juvenile delinquency are potent issues in any Legislature.

The pleas have come from people in all walks of life, penned on postal cards, typewritten on form letters, and scrawled in long-hand.
They ask the governor to include the proposed "Florida Sunday observance law" in his official program to the Legislature along with a measure prohibiting sale of beer, wine and liquor in grocery stores, drug stores and service stations.

TXF Probe To Cool Off

chair better than any man.
At last report, however, Ashley appeared to be holding up better. When a woman prison official told Miss Lima Thursday night that three U. S. Supreme Court Justices had turned down a plea for a stay of execution, she crushed a handkerchief over her mouth.
She managed, however, not to break down. When Ashley got the same news, he laughed.

"Well, right now we're down to the deadline," he said. "But I don't look for a 50-50 chance."

Supreme Court Justices Hugo Black and William J. Brennan rejected a plea for stays of execution Thursday. Justice Arthur Goldberg turned down the plea without prejudice.
Goldberg said lawyers for Ashley and Miss Lima should refile their plea in U. S. District Court in Houston. If they fail there, they will go to the U. S. Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals.

If the appellate court rejects the plea—and it has in the past—the lawyers can then go back to Goldberg.
"I have sinned," Miss Lima said in an earlier interview. "And if the Lord wants me, I will be ready (to die). I want to go with a Bible in my hand."
