If the vehicle is tampered with, the monitoring company will contact either the Seminole County Sheriff's Office or local police. The suspect is also videotaped inside the vehicle by a small, hidden camera. The video evidence helps place the suspect at the scene during the vehicle burglaries.

If the suspect chooses to steal the vehicle, the firm in California can shut off the car and locks the doors, trapping the suspect inside. Auto theft investigators can also shut off the car and lock the doors with a handheld device.

This past weekend, a bait car video was used to identify a suspect in a vehicle break-in. Although he has not yet been charged in last weekend's burglary, he has been charged with breakins from August and September. He was arrested Tuesday for those earlier crimes.

Sanford investigators search for clues in 2002 murder of Michael Edward Walker

By Christopher Patton Managing Editor

SANFORD — Fresh off of solving their first "cold" homicide, investigators from Sanford police and Florida Department of Law Enforcement (FDLE) are turning their attention to another slaying last year.

Law enforcement officers canvassed the area near the 1700 block of West 13th Street Friday afternoon passing out 400 leaflets about the Dec. 17, 2002, murder of Michael Edward Walker. A homeless man that found shelter by repairing cars of local residents, he was found stabbed to death in a wooded area directly to south of 1709 W. 13th St. In addition to the fliers, police also erected a sign near the crime scene that bears Walker's photograph and encourages anyone with information about the murder to call CrimeLine at

One of Seminole County's best-kept secrets is just a couple miles away from Sanford.

Travel west from downtown Sanford on State Road 46, hang a right on Orange Avenue and then left on Deer Path Lane, and low behold there is some of juiciest citrus fruits in Central Florida.

Florida.

Eighty-year-old
Emmett Taylor planted about 400 tangelo, navel, Honeybell and grapefruit trees 11 years ago. In 1997, Emmett and his wife Phyllis opened the grove to the public.

By word of mouth and a few roadside signs, people started coming to the grove. Most of the visitors were snowbirds from the nearby 12 Oaks and Town & Country campgrounds. After being open a half dozen years, the grove has a few regular customers, including a Georgia man that almost picked the grove's only two tangerine trees clean the first week it was open in the beginning of December.

"We have some people that come in from amp- Georgia that will trade pecans with us,"

Phyllis said.

The grove has turned into quite an attraction for visitors from more northern states like New York and Ohlo, as many of them have never seen an orange tree before. They are also taken back by the taste as many of

In the midst of Lake Mary hustle and bustle lives-17 year-old Caitlin valentine, a ballerina in her second season with the Orlando Ballet.

She is this year's winner of the bronze medal at the New York International Ballet, the ballet's equivalent to the Olympics. Competing against 46 international artists, she was the only American female dancer to be awarded a medal in the competition.

Caitlin, who as one of the youngest dancers with the Orlando Ballet has already earned the opportunity to perform several leads and now fresh from her bronze medal win, she has another achievement to her credit.

The Moscow Ballet has chosen Caltlin as the only Orlando Ballet dancer to join them in their one-night-only Orlando performance of "Swan Lake," the ballet that many consider the greatest of all time.

Iraqi Diary: Protecting the President

Editor's note: Staff Sgt.

Baghdad as part of the 549th Military Police Company. He is providing the Herald with a journal of his experiences.

28 Nov. 2003 We sent a couple of squads from our company out to BIAP (Baghdad airport). They thought they were going out to have dinner with Paul Bremer but were surprised that they went there to pull security for Bush. They had to stand outside, next to their humvees, in the dark and mud from recent rain. Of course this pulled security away from our own areas and interrupted our Thanksgiving because we had to protect the rear area while they enjoyed their turkey.

My question is why were

SEMINOLE SUMMARY

A GLANCE AROUND OUR COUNTY

Something fishy?: Still chasing the story down, but word Around The Clock is that the selection of a new driver's license office in Seminole County may have not followed the state's normal process. It appears the state may have accepted bids for a new location after the deadline for submittals. Stay tuned.

Many thanks: Once again I would like to say thanks to all of those who contributed something to the care package The Herald sent to Staff Sgt. Charlie C. Carlson III, author of the Iraqi Diary that appears in our newspaper. The response was overwhelming. I expected 100 or 200 pounds of stuff, but the final

Mr. Holly: Regular readers of this column know I can get a little feisty, to put it mildly. I'll admit there are some Saturday mornings I wake up, look at the paper and wonder just what in the heck I was thinking when I wrote a particular column. Maybe it's a lack of sleep.

Of course, I'm not the first - or the last — Herald editor to burn a few butts (or bridges, as some might say). Larry Verschel was the originator of Around The Clock back in the 1960s, and he laid it on the line pretty well. But he was merely following a well established tradition. Roland Dean was hung in effigy outside The Herald offices on Magnolia Square where Da Vinci Restaurant is located. Seems the readers were a bit upset about Dean's constant hammer on the financial shenanigans of Forest Lake, Sanford's mayor in the 1920s and the president of the local bank. To show their displeasure of Dean's investigations - which turned out to be true. But even at that time, Dean was following a real fire and brimstone editor — R.J. Holly, the first editor of The Sanford Herald. In doing some research on the Imperial Theater, I ran across a front page article where Holly took issue with a Pennsylvania reporter who was degrading Central Florida farmers' growing techniques. The headline on the story - the lead story, no less — was "Ignoramus attempts to write opinion of certain sections."

Then there was the time when a Jacksonville newspaper, the Metropolis, kept referring to the city of Sanford as a village. Holly didn't take kindly to what he perceived as a slight. In fact the Starke Telegraph filed this report:

"On two separate occasions lately the Jacksonville Metropolis has referred to Sanford as a village. When Bob Holly of The Sanford Herald goes to Jacksonville again the police had better meet him at the train and take his gun off of him. He will never stand for this 'village of Sanford' business: It's too much.

Too much? I don't know. Sounds like Holly was the originator of the "Sanford Proud" slogan.

Pearl Harbor Day

Dec. 7, 1941, is a day that will live in infamy and it is also a day Sanford resident Clinton Westbrook will never forget. Westbrook is a survivor of the U.S.S. Arizona that was sunk by Japanese war planes at Pearl Harbor. Westbrook recently spread the message of Pearl Harbor to school children attending the Sanford Recreation Department summer camp.

Traffic Violation

 Jamey Johnson, 28, Orange City, was arrested by Sanford police Tuesday at a traffic stop in the area of Upsala Road and Sophia Marie Cove Drive. Drive. He was stopped by an officer for a broken left tail light covered with red tape. He was charged with a non-moving traffic violation and driving with a suspended license.

 Joshua Culmone, 21, of West 25th o Joshua Culmone, 21, of West 25th Street, Sanford, was arrested by Sanford police Friday in the area of West 25th Street and Georgia Avenue. · Vincent White, 40, of Cedar Creek Circle, Sanford, was arrested by Sanford police Tuesday at South Maple Avenue. Police responded to a South French Avenue business for the report of a retail theft that just occurred. He was charged with shoplifting and stolen property deal-· Vallerie Horne, 19, Altamonte Springs, was arrested by Sanford police Tuesday at Carmel Bay Circle. She reportedly entered a residence through the bedroom window and attempted to strike the resident with a broken piece of class. She was broken piece of glass. She was charged with aggravated assault with intent to commit a felony and burgla-ry with assault and burglary.

 Harvey Williams, 59, of Lincon Avenue, Sanford, was arrested by Sanford police Tuesday at home. He was reportedly under the influence of cocaine, he pulled a handgun on a woman and tried to hit her with his car. He was charged with aggravated assault, with intent to commit a felony.

Trespassing

Trespassing

Tyrone Thornton, 20, of Hickory Avenue, was arrested by Sanford police on Wednesday at a West 13th Street business. He reportedly refused to leave the premises of a convenience close due to his continued lottering when asked by an officer. He was charged for trespassing, failure to charged for trespassing, failure to leave property upon order.

 Donnie Gilchrist, 40, of West Fifth Street, Sanford, was arrested by Sanford police on Thursday at a West eminole Boulevard business. Police esponded to a report that a man refused to leave the premises when the business would not render him service. He was charged with trespassing, failure to leave property upon order by owner.

Wendy Soyer, 32, of Rockhill Drive, Sanford, was arrested by Sanford police Friday at home. She reportedly threw a remote control at her hus-band that struck him on the left eye causing swelling, bruising and a small laceration above his left eye. She was charged with battery, causing bodily harm (domestic violence).

· Daniel Baptiste, 31, of South Edgemon Avenue, Winter Springs, was arrested by Sanford police Thursday during a traffic stop at Lake Minnie Drive and Orlando Drive for having a left tail light out. Well, at least the president can now say he has spent two hours in a "combat zone." He should try eight months and 500 missions like me and my

I have had two soldiers go to the medics complaining about pain in their legs, one

I get them up at 0600 for PT

He is my star PT individual. This guy scored 324 on the APFT [Army physical fitness test] which only goes to 300 max but he went on the extended scale. He does 82 pushups in two minutes, 95 sit-ups in two minutes, then 11:50 on the two mile course. The only one who beat him on pushups was me with 85

Everyday, I see the Iraqi Civil Defense Corps on Camp Marlboro working security along side US soldiers. They are a good disciplined bunch and have a darker brown uniform with a more splotchy camouflage pattern.

Guess who is running the food services here now? "Brown and Root," a subsidiary of Haliburten and they are using Iraqi employees. Of course we already had our own food service section, I don't know what they are

Anyway, last night we took the colonel across the Tigris River to a meeting at the 3rd Squadron, 2 ACR camp. We heard mortar fire, the launch of the round, a whistle noise, off in the distance and then the impact, baloom! Then another launch but this time the impact was closer. I was waiting for the whistle in the air for the next round. It never came. We then got out of the area with the colonel guard for the president. If we get stuck in traffic we have to get out and get by the colonel's door and be a bullet catcher for him.

Anyway, I like working for the man because it is an honor and tradition to be a bodyguard for the 72nd Colonel of the 2nd Dragoons. Over a hundred years ago it would have been Colonel Harney at Fort Mellon, Now here I am keeping Colonel May alive and running a squad that is tasked to be his bodyguards. He has his own driver and gunner but we are his security. Our humvees can run any suspected vehicle off the road easier than his humvee because ours are armored and weighs almost 10,000 pounds. In a crisis we can place his humvee between ours, using ours as a shield. If we get into a fight and his humvee is disabled we will throw him into one of our humvees and get out of the area. His guys will then call in direct fire support from the Kiowas [helicopters] that belong to the 2nd Cavalry and constantly fly overhead and can unleash hellfire missiles onto the

Remembering

Dec. 7 attack on Pearl Harbor is a day many will never forget

Another Dec. 7 is upon us, and the cry is still out there, "Remember Pearl Harbor." Most of our younger generation know about the attack on Pearl Harbor — mostly through the many movies that have been made about it through the years. Of course with the romance added to some of the movies, this may be only another love story for some. Believe me, it was pure disaster.

Just so the facts are known; the Japanese planes attacked Pearl Harbor, an American base leased to us on Hawaiian property, at 7:55 a.m. (Hawaiian time) in 1941. It caught our nation unaware, and as a result, we had 19 naval ships sunk or badly damaged. We lost approximately 2,388 lives, with another 2,000 wounded.

From 33 Japanese ships anchored about 230 miles off the coast, the Japanese launched 350 aircraft for the attack. More than 300 American planes were destroyed, almost all of them on the ground.

Pfeifauf

The Japanese lost only 29 aircraft.

Many of our service personnel were at breakfast at that time, or still in their bunks. Contrary to what one movie shows, they weren't out in a field playing baseball or tossing a football at 7:55 in the morning or attending a party at the Officers' Club. I had one friend at Pearl Harbor during that attack. He was still in the barracks at the time. He told me when he realized what was going on, he dove under his bed and stayed there until most of the bombing and strafing was over. I wouldn't call him a coward — he was doing what possibly many of us would have done in the same circumstance.

The following day, the United States declared war on Japan and subsequently on Germany and

We didn't have another surprise attack until Sept. 11, 2001. Again, we were not expecting the attacks on the World Trade Center or Pentagon. Combined with the plane that went down in Pennsylvania, we lost more American lives than we did at Pearl Harbor.

Following 1836, the nation's cry was "Remember the Alamo," following the defeat of the entire American garrison at that Texas location. Then, after the Pearl Harbor attack, the cry, and an accompanying song said, "Remember Pearl Harbor." Recently, there have been several songs out regarding the Twin Towers and Pentagon attacks.

In both the Pearl Harbor and Twin Towers attacks, rumors have circulated that Americans knew of these attacks before they happened, but we apparently felt so sure of ourselves that we didn't believe these things would actually occur.

but let's look at the future. Will something like this happen again? I believe it is very possible. We have the color code now, identifying the state of alert our nation is to take; green, yellow, orange, red. Will they become so common that again, we will be complacent and believe no one will do anything to hurt us?

We can only hope that the powers that be in Washington will pay more attention to warnings in the future. With the extreme distances aircraft and guided missiles can travel these days, there is nothing to say that some foreign power couldn't bomb one or more of our cities right here on the mainland, and we'd have another Pearl Harbor. I'm concerned about this, and I hope others feel the same way.

Yes, it's time to Remember the Alamo, Remember Pearl Harbor, and Remember the Twin Towers and Pentagon attacks, but let's be certain, in the future history of the United States written for our grandchildren, that these are the only tragedies they have to study.

Mayor upset at criticism on city's adult arcade stance

To the editors
After reading The Herald's article regarding adult arcades on Wednesday, I felt it was important to respond to an expanding "factual void" related to the issue. Longwood Commissioner Butch Bundy's comments, along with a recent Orlando Sentinel editorial, illustrate that neither of the parties bothered to learn about Sanford's efforts against the adult arcade industry.

While Volumes County had for many months strug-gled with how to regulate this growing business, municipalities in Seminole County had not yet been forced to deal with operators attempting to exploit what they considered, and still believe is, a loophole in state law. However, when these operators brought their "circus" to Seminole County, Sanford was more than prepared to deal with City staff and I had personally visited and observed one of the fully operational arcades in Volusia County. It was apparent this was not the type of business the city of Sanford was interested in, and the legality of the endeavor was certainly questionable.

We immediately instructed the city manager to prepare an ordinance to prevent the establishments from proliferating into Sanford. Commissioner Bundy made the comment that if adult arcades don't like it, "they can go to Sanford." The Orlando Sentinel chimed in that the Sanford City Manager and Commission were too 'chicken" to confront the industry directly.

In responding to both, I would mention that one of these operators was in the process of opening here in Sanford a few weeks ago. Fully stocked with alot machines and bar stools, the owners vowed to open regardless of any action the city of Sanford took against them. Their confidence soon faded when they were presented with a well-crafted ordinance. The next thing I knew, a U-Haul full of slot machines and bar stools was heading towards Interstate 4. We haven't heard from

While Sanford has long been a favorite punching bag for the Orlando Sentinel and others in the area, I would humbly request that the facts are better under-stood before future blows are thrown. When it comes to real facts, Sanford has many we're proud to dis-

Orlando-Sanford International Airport is one of the fastest growing airports in the world and continues to create hundreds of job opportunities in the region. Sanford has been a state leader in lowering taxes for seven years straight, and is proud to have her fiscal house in order. Seminole Herald's photographer is a true gentlemen 11 10

To the editor:

I just had to write in reference to Tommy Vincent, The Herald's photographer. My daughter and I met Friday, Nov. 29, at Flea World. It was my grandson's (age 13 months) first introduction to "Santa." It was very retreshing in today's society to find someone so friendly, personable and polite - a true gentleman, who captured in pictures the excitement and delight that overtook my grandson.

You can imagine our surprise and excitement when we purchased The Seminole Herald on Saturday, Nov. 30, and saw our grandson's photo on the front page. Needless to say we purchased 32 newspapers and mailed them to family up north.

Mr. Vincent made this a very positive experience for us, and we thank him very

LYNX bus service works for Central Florida workforce

Whether you ride a LYNX bus or not, you depend on someone who does. Not many people realize it, but public transportation affects the quality of life of all Central Florida residents riders and non-riders alike.

How? Well, this year alone, LYNX will deliver more than 22 million passenger rides throughout the tri-county area. And 93 percent of these trips are made by people going to work, school, job training or shopping. So while you may never board a bus, you rely on LYNX to deliver the cashier at the local grocery store, the sales assistant at the mail, the students in your classroom, the chef at your favorite restaurant, the nurse at your doctor's office, the concierge at the hotel, a character at a theme park and the mason building your new home. Simply put, LYNX delivers a significant segment of Central Florida's workforce and impacts the bottom line of thousands of businesses. In November, we launched LYNX WORKS, a bold new educational initiative that demonstrates how critical transit is to our local economy. Testimonials from riders, business leaders and elected officials - backed by data from a recent ridership survey and a separate University of Central Florida economic impact study - prove how transit helps drive our local econo-

Dr. Sandy Shugart, President of Valencia Community College, recognizes the major role we play in helping keep enrollment up. "LYNX is a vital part of our business strategy," Shigart says. "It allows students to make the cost of their education.

Approximately 57 percent of LYNX riders who take the bus to work could not get there if bus service was not available. If LYNX buses did not run for a single day, almost 7,000 employees would be stranded costing them a half million dollars In lost wages. Hospitals, restaurants, hotels, and homebullders would feel the immediate impact of a day without LYNX.

As the Administrative Director of Human Resources at Florida Hospital, Mike Wood and his colleagues have made LYNX transportation services a part of the benefits they offer employees. Wood says, There would be an obvious impact to our ability to provide our mission if we didn't have LYNX."

And Jeanette Brown, a physical therapy aide at Florida Hospital and long-time LYNX rider, said, "Without LYNX, I wouldn't be able to get to work."

According to the Economic Importance of LYNX to Central Florida, a study recently published by the Center for Business and Economic Research at the University of Central Florida, for every $1 invested in LYNX by our local governments, $2.17 is put back into the economy. The same study concluded that if LYNX ceased operations, Central Florida's economy would take a $177 million hit incurring losses of $114 million in regional economic activity and $63 million in household income within the first year.

During the past decade, $367,189,948 in federal and state dollars have flowed through LYNX and been reinvested in the local economy. This massive infusion of federal and state dollars sparks an economic chain reaction as goods/services are purchased, jobs are created, and businesses are built. Without LYNX, Central Florida would have lost that $367 million to Miami, Charlotte, or Phoenix.

By linking employees to employer, customers to stores and students to schools, transit contributes to nearly every facet of our region's economic growth.

Lake Mary Officer Anthony Seda says just pulling the taser out of the holster often makes resisting suspects to change their attitude.

A taser is a gun-like apparatus that can shoot two wire-attached electrodes from as far away as 21 feet. With barbs on the end of the projectiles, the electrodes stick into a subject, and than the shooter can administer 50,000 volts into the subject for five seconds.

The electrodes and wires are contained within a cartridge, which is only good for one firing. Lake Mary is expected to carry three cartridges and Longwood will have two.

The weapon is primarily used for law enforcement officers to control a resisting suspect. Similar to pepper spray, the taser is another tool for officers to help make an unruly suspect comply. It also reduces the number of officer and suspect injuries. The shock con-tracts the muscles rendering a suspect limp so an officer can move in with handcuffs.

The new generation of tasers is about half the size of its predecessor, the M26. The previous version as the Seminole County Sheriff's Office and Casselberry police. The size reduction is important, says Longwood Police Chief Tommy Jackson, because an officer's tool belt is getting crowded with other stuff like a radio and pepper

Other than the size difference, the newer version has a digital readout for its battery power. Both taser versions carry a line-of-sight red laser, which is often scary enough to make a suspect comply.

Although not a single Lake Mary officer has fired their new taser at a suspect, just bringing it out of the holster has made several change their attitude, said Anthony Seda, Lake Mary police community relations officer.

"Most people when you pull this out and they see the laser they're going to stop (resisting)," he said.

While the X26 Taser is more expensive than its predecessor, it has more features that make it more accountable, Jackson said. A is in use by area departments such computer chip inside the new taser allows commanding officers to find out how many times each gun was fired. The Longwood commission approved the police department to purchase 35 X26 Tasers for officers at a cost of about $28,000.

"If a person says 'hey he did this to me' the M26 wouldn't have the capability to tell you how (many times its been used)," Jackson said.

The need for tasers in both cities is not great, according to authorities. The tasers, however, do prevent the deadly use of force by police. Jackson said in the last year Longwood has had only two legitimate occasions where a taser could have been used.

"A lot of people watch movies and think they want to be a cop to do certain things maybe drive fast or shoot people, but that's the furthest thing from a real cop's mind," Jackson said.

"Sure there's a lot of money in this, but if I can prevent a liability situation from a shooting (it's well

"Just this morning we finished up last year's juice," she said.

The Taylors charge between $6 and $8 for a bushel of fruit, and they let customers eat as many as they want in the grove.

"I tell people to just try the fruit, but maybe we should wait until they leave because they eat a lot," Emmett said.

The grove is open from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. and closes sometime in the end February or at least "until all of it is gone," says
Emmett. Even if not all the fruit goes, the Taylors often donate some to area churches or Bram Towers in Sanford.

Blood drive scheduled for Tuesday

On Tuesday, Dec. 9, the Seminole County Sheriff's Office and the Central Florida Blood Center will be holding a blood drive. It will take place outside the Seminole County Sheriff's Office/Public Safety Building, at 100 Bush Blvd., in Sanford, from 1 to 4 p.m.

According to statistics, this is the time of year where blood levels reach critical levels due to holiday travel and traffic crashes.

The blood drive is open to employees of the sheriff's office, county department of Public Safety, as well as the general public.

To show appreciation to donors, there will be a drawing for two, $25 in gift certificates redeemable at Darden Restaurants.

Those interested in donating should call Margaret Levins at 407-665-6748, or e-mail mlevins@seminolesheriff.org with their requested blood donation time (between 1 and 4 p.m.). Three donors, every 15 minutes, can be scheduled.

How:

Realty Executive Orlando is teaming up with local area businesses to help the families of our troops serving in Iraq during this holiday season. Gifts will be collected at various sites in the Orlando area and distributed to those families in need.

Here's How It Works:

We invite you to give to families in need this holiday season We have brave men and women in Iraq protecting our country. Some of the National Guard Troops overseas have incurred large salary decreases to fulfill their commitment to our country. Meanwhile, their families are left short on cash and some having to take on second jobs just to provide the basics. They are having a tough time making ends meet. We want to help! We consider it our privilege and our responsibility to make their holiday a little brighter!

In talking with the wives and family members who have soldiers overseas, we have found they are in need of toys for the kids and some are in need of food gift certificates for meals. The children are all ages with interests from reading books to playing sports. We encourage you to purchase and deliver unwrapped toys, clothes, and food gift certificates to one of the official drop off sites.

You may stop by any of the locations between now and December 19th at noon.

All of the toys and gift certificates will be hand delivered to The Family ReadinessCenter in Downtown Orlando where any of the National Guard families are welcome to stop by and hand select gifts for their family.

DEADLINE FOR DROPPING OFF GIFTS IS DECEMBER 19th AT NOON AT ANY OF THESE LOCATIONS

reparations for a neighborhood Christmas party are underway at Oak Avenue, Sanford. The street is lit and the workers are ready for a spectacular festive event on Saturday, Dec. 13. The man behind the thousands of holiday light bulbs - 7,800 in the 'Ho Ho Ho' sign alone — and one of the biggest parties of the year is Steve Richards. This will be the third year that he and his family have hosted a Christmas party that spills out into the street, and this year they expect more people than ever to come along.

"It just keeps growing" he said, " but I couldn't do it without the family — every one lends a hand, grandma, the grandchildren, everyone."

This is a party on a grand scale. More than a thousand hot dogs have been ordered and 22 tables built to seat people both in the yard and in the street. Oak Avenue will be closed to traffic and Richards expects 600 to 800 to attend this year including Mayor Brady Lessard. He has spent the last six weeks stringing lights in trees, constructing glant candy canes and building a stage in the yard.

Santa Claus appearing on a fire truck will delight the younger guests. He will arrive at 7 p.m. and children will have the chance to meet Santa and Mrs. Claus. Later, local singers can sparkle at karaoke as they take their place beneath a giant snowman that sits on the stage roof.

"It's going to be a great time," Richards said, full of Many of his neighbors and friends help with the party, but he covers most of the expense himself. Why "I just want to be Santa, I guess," he said.

loneliness. The Good Samaritan Home is in need of support from the community, churches, organizations, clubs, and individuals who feel the need of helping the residents of the home located at 1704 W. Ninth St., Sanford. Because of the home's financial needs the community has agreed to support this community's own Assisted Living Facility residents, most of whom according to statistics have no relatives who visit them more than two times per year.

And you don't have a home or alternative placement to go if It becomes necessary.

A group of ministers, pastors, and the church community under the leadership of pastors Ronald Merthle, Ricky Scott, Valarie Henry, Leonard Wilson, Hezekian Ross, and Harry Rucker, Sr., organized an evening of ecumenical praise and worship benefiting the Good Samaritan Home of Sanford. Sunday's worship and unity celebration brought together churches, pastors, and citizens to respond to the needs of the home.

Services of praise and worship and financial unity were hosted by New Life Word Center Rev. Merthle. Rev. Wilson, pastor of the St. Matthew Missionar Baptist Church, presided throughout the occasion.

Rev. Scott, pastor of New Mt. Calvary Missionary Baptist Church, reminded the audience to continue to love each other with true brotherly love. Don't forget to be kind to strangers, for some who have done this have entertained angels without realizing it! Hebrews 13: 1-2 Living Bible.

Pastor Henry, of Allen AME Church, read the evening scripture from Psalms 146. Minister Shirley Williams brought greetings from the host pastor and church. Life Word Center Choir rendered selections of praise with Ronald on the axophone and Ingrid Nathan at the organ, blessing our hearts with their Godgiven talents. An

Attention shoppers, more Thanksgiving food for thought

I digress this week from my usual format to extend the Thanksgiving spirit a bit longer.

Ask my children how I feel about Thanksgiving (and Memorial Day for that matter) and they will give you my spiel. "it's overlooked. It's lost in the shopping frenzy. We need to slow down a bit and reflect a lit-

I say it's true. Before too many years pass, Thanksgiving will be known simply as that day before Black Friday when we eat a lot to have energy for shopping. So this column is filled with the not-so-predictable things that I am the left. dictable things that I am thankful for this year - In the hopes that maybe those who read it will put down the credit card for a moment (or two) and say a few more thankyous themselves.

First on the list - which is not necessarily in any particular order—ia Agnes Scott College in Decatur, Ga. My oldest daughter attends ASC as a freshman this year and was home to share the Thanksgiving weekend with us.

Darla Kinney Scoles

(Yeahl) What a great gift is her opportunity to attend this amazing school. An independent, national liberal arts college for women founded in 1889, the college is ranked among the top 50 "Best Liberal Arts Colleges" in the nation and a "Great School at a Great Price" by U.S. News and World Report (2004), The Best 351 Colleges (2004), pub-lished by The Princeton Review, ranks Agnes Scott No. 13 for "quali-ty of life" and No. 5 for "dorms like palaces." The 2004 Kaplan Unofficial, Unbiased Guide to the 328 Most Interesting Colleges says, "Agnes Scott provides a strong liberal arts education for women, with emphasis on 'research, independent experiences and international educa-

Colleges that Change Lives says:

The proof is that hardly more than a baker's dozen of the nation's colleges and universities produce such a high percentage of future doctor-ates, and other kinds of achievers, as Agnes Scott."

Harvard Schmarvard: Getting Beyond the lvy League to the College that is Best for You, lists Agnes Scott among the most under-appreciated colleges in the nation. Which is exactly why I am including it here. I appreciate Agnes Scottl If you would like to read about ASC from the viewpoint of a first-year student, simply visit www.agness-cott.edu and click on 'Admissions' and then 'College 101.'

There you will find journals from several young women containing the exploits and explorations (along with photos) of a 'Scottie' frosh. And guess what? One of those journal writers is my daughter!

Changing gears - and years quickly to item number two, I remember the very moment my daughters and I became addicted to Slurpees.

. It was the summer of 1991 and I was very pregnant with daughter number three and driving a car with no air conditioning, as we could not afford to fix the car and pay the hospital too. It was hot, and near our home in Tangerine, Fla., was a 7-Eleven that beckoned to us each time we drove by.

"Come in and cool off with a Slurpee" it called. In we went. All 7. Elevens do this apparently, as we cannot even now drive by one with-out a backseat trio of "can we please ...

Nothing is as cold as a Slurpee, we discovered, and they stay cold a long time — even in a hot car.
Unfortunately, several years later we discovered that two of those daughters were insulininsulinresistant/pre-diabetic.

Cutting back on Slurpees was the hardest part of the diet modifications necessary to ensure optimum health now. Until, that is, the wonderful invention that is the Diet

Pepsi Slurpee! Now we can indulge and not feel guilty and that is not an easy thing in this world! I am thankful for Diet Pepsi Slurpees (and the Sugar Free Crystal Light ones

Adorning the walls of our home are many, many little yellow sticky notes. I love little yellow sticky notes. I am, in fact, thankful for little yellow sticky

They help me disguise the fact that I am in the late stages of some sort of Alzheimer's-like affliction. They can go anywhere and stay there until you move them. (Also not an easy thing in this world!) Lately, they give me hope, love and inspiration on a daily basis. 'How', you ask? The last few months I have found a use for my little yellow sticky notes that has all the other uses beat. I write on them inspirational/motivational quotes that I come across in books or hear spoken, and then I plaster the house with them. I place them in optimum locations, so as to maximize their potential to sink into the 12-, 15-, and forty-something-year-old forty-something-year-old minds.

you leave the house -Who am I to judge another?" Above the kitchen sink — "Love, serve, and care for one another." On a mirror in my dressing area -"Aim high."

I am grateful that something as simple as a little yellow sticky note can make a difference in the world. Perhaps there is hope for the rest of us. Item number four has made all the difference in my life, although I certainly did not appreciate its sculpting influence when younger. Item number four is the condition known as "being shy."

I grew up, as they say, "painfully" shy. Actually, it was only painful when I had to try to move beyond its bounds. Safe within my shy self I was really okay. I did not know that, however, until many, many years later when I realized that growing up shy had made me the unique person that I was. Being shy had been an unrecognized blessing in my life all along.

People look at shyness as some sort of handicap, but I say that it is not. While all the other girls were busy talking about totally unim-portant stuff, I was busy thinking about deeper things. I see the world from broader, more insightful view. As a writer, my introspective childhood adds depth to my words at times, that would not be there had I not been alone with my thoughts during tender, formative years. I am eternally grateful for having been (and still being to a certain extent) a shy little girl. There are of course many other things for which I am appreciative, like a job that keeps me ever-learning, the ability to overlook age as a boundary for friendship, Josh Groban, and modern drugs that help me endure things like the current kidney stone that has me homebound and consuming much water, but they will have to be written of in another forum or another time. It is, after all, December and there is much to do.

Now, lest readers think that I have some sort of issue with the holiday seathat follows Thanksgiving, I offer this - the words of writer Charles Dickens: "I have always thought of Christmas time, when it has come 'round - ... as a good time: a kind, forgiv-ing, charitable, pleasant time; the only time I know Next to the light switch in my girls' bathroom — things. I see the world from Thank you for who you a different perspective than are." On the front door as do they, and I think it is women seem by one consent to open their shut-up hearts freely, and to think of people below them as if they really were fellow-passengers to the grave, and not another race of creatures bound on other journeys.

In his classic A Christmas Carol, Dickens' now converted character, Ebenezer Scrooge, declares at last: "I will honor Christmas in my heart, and try to keep it all the year."

I hope to do the same with Thanksgiving. We need you to tell us what you know that is good about Geneva! Please share your information, ideas and comments by calling 407-349-2140, writing to Stetson's Corner c/o The Seminole Herald, via e-mail at darlas@mpinet.net, (please put "Stetson's Corner" in the subject line), or with a fax to 407-323-9408. Sanford Woman's Club readies for the holidays

A standing ovation expressed the appreciation of the Sanford Woman's Club on Dec. 3 after the Sanford First Baptist ensemble chorus sang sacred and secular Christmas music.

"Wonderful," was the general reaction to the sounds of Pat Fosselius, Desta Gunter, Shirley Bruce, Lisa Sillaway, Bettye Smith, Scott Leonard, Jim Elliott, Jim Sillaway, Jim Clayton, Robert Fidler and director/soloist tor/soloist Richard

Special donations at the luncheon meeting were taken for a woman's club project, Christmas gifts for the girls of the Hacienda House. Final arrangements were made for club members to ring Salvation Army Bells at Wal-Mart and to decorate the women's club float for Sanford's annual Christmas Parade on Dec. 6.

The bridge group will meet next on Dec. 10 at 10 a.m. at the home of Carol Dennison. Chairman Rose Jacobsen announced that she has located a bridge tutor for those who want to learn the game or to brush up on neglected skills. Contact her for a reservation.

The literary group will meet at the clubhouse at 10 a.m. on Dec. 17. Linda Miller will review a recent

The next business luncheon is scheduled for 11 a.m. Jan. 7 at the clubhouse. Dr. Garrett Dotseon will be the speaker.

Attorney Kenneth W. McIntosh, a member of Westview Baptist Church, gave at the occasion the history of the Good Samaritan Home and of its founders. Home and of its founders, Timothy and Ruby "Mother" Wilson, who established the home in 1948.

He spoke on Matthew 25, about a servant, reminding us that the word "servant" is mentioned 416 times in the Bible; that Jesus was a servant; and that we, as good Christians, should be good servants and give our service to the Good Samaritan Home and its residents. He challenged us and the community of Sanford to give our blessings.

Volleyball tourney to benefit grieving family

By Michelie Donahue Herald Correspondent

CASSELBERRY - South Seminole Middle School will be hosting a special volleyball tournament to benefit the family of John T. Hoover, Jr. who passed away just before Thanksgiving. Hoover, a junior at Lyman

High School, was battling a brain tumor and died last week, due to complications from an undetermined infection.

"The tournament was planned before John's death" said Karen Almond, one of the event's organizers and an active member of the local community. Those of us who knew John wanted to help him and his family with the mounting medical bills associ-ated with his condition. We figured that a volleyball tour-nament would be a positive way to get the community involved.

Hoover, who suffered from significant medical difficulties throughout his life, was unable to obtain insurance coverage. It is hoped that this event will raise at least part of the money needed to cover these bills and lessen the burden on his family.

We also want to honor his memory" Almond said. "John was such a great guy, had a positive outlook on the future and handled things with a terrific sense of humor."

Hoover was also a National bered as a excelled in both academics and personality" Almond said. John and his family have been quietly visible in our community for the past 20 plus years. They represent anyone's child and everyone's family. They have always been behind the scenes, willing to lend their helping Honor hands, never looking for anything in return. Fundraising to help them is the least we can do.

The fundraising tourna-ment will feature players from all three of the schools that john Hoover attended during his remarkable life, and includes faculty from Lyman High, South Seminole Middle, and Casselberry Elementary, as well as volunteers from the Casselberry Rotary Club.

It will be held at 4:30 p.m. on Dec. 9 at South Seminole Middle School, 101 S. Winter Park Drive, Casselberry (407-320-1300).

Tickets are $5 for adults, or $4 for students. They can be purchased in advance or at the door. The carpentry class of Lyman High School has donated a set of Adirondack chairs to be given away as a part of a drawing held for ticket holders at the event.

"On the day of the volley-ball tournament, as you enter the gym, you will be asked to write your name on your tick-et stub" Almond said. "The drawing will be held during the tournament."

In addition to proceeds earned through tournament ticket sales, students from the Casselberry Parks and Recreation Department S.E.R.V.E. program will be selling pizza and drinks, and Casselberry Elementary will be holding a bake sale, of which 100 percent of the profits go towards the Hoover family's medical and funeral

The Altamonte Mall Chickfil-A Restaurant also heard about John Hoover's benefit, and owners Jose and Mabel Segarra are giving 50 percent of proceeds from the new Chick-fil-A 2004 Coupon Calendars sold at the event.

The Segarras will also extend their generous offer to anyone who comes to their store and purchases a calendar by Dec. 31, as long as they mention that they want the profits donated to the Hoover family. Donations of all sizes are appreciated and can be made to the John T. Hoover, Jr. Fund at any Fairwinds Credit Union. For more information. call 407-699-1651

Seminole High class bands together for child's wish

By Christopher Patton Managing Editor

SANFORD — A 2-year-old's wish recently became a reality with the help of one Seminole High class. Nancy Hack's family liv-ing class collected $3,200 for the Make-A-Wish Foundation, which helped Joshua Alderson's dream fort play area come true. Joshua, of Winter Springs, had surgery June 3 at St. Joseph's Hospital in Phoenix to remove a brain tumor Before the surgery, he would have as many as 40 seizures a day and his parents, Tim and Lisa, were seriously considering fitting Joshus with a helmet for dally activities.

When Janice Ingrando, of Make-A-Wish Foundation of Central and Northern Florida, visited the Seminole High class, she explained how the foundation worked and used Joshua's wish as an example of one they were about to fulfill.

Taken aback by the story, students sold paper links for a quarter aplece to raise funds for the Seminole County boy's wish. When the collection ended, students linked the rings together to make a paper chain-offew sentences of encouragement for Joshua on the paper links.

When completed, the chain was so long that it strung around Joshua's back yard three times.

"They didn't give up and they just kept collecting," Hack said.

Originally the students issued a goal of raising $500 life. Some students wrote a in the first week, but they pressed on asking area churches and businesses to pitch in as well.

Thursday at Seminole High, Joshua and his mother Lisa visited the class to thank them for their hard work. With the Alderson family in attendance, the students presented the $3,200 check to the Make-A-Wish Foundation.

"It's just great knowing our little boy will be able to do things others are able to do and he will go on doing (these) things," Lisa said. "We just can't thank you enough.

From the beginning to the end, the high school students were there to help with the fort, she said. At a grand opening party for the play area, several students, including Ashley Belair, Dampier, Emily Huddleston and Herzog helped serve refresh-

"These kids just rock," Lisa said. "You hear about kids on the news doing bad things, but they're such in the minority. You guys are great."

East All-Stars to train in Sanford

By Dean Smith Sports Editor

The annual Central Florida All-Star Football Game is set for next Saturday (Dec. 13) and once again Sanford will be a focal point for the game. The East squad, made up of seniors from Volunia, Seminole, Brevard and Flagler counties begins practice tomorrow (Monday, December 8) at 7 p.m. at Historic Sanford Memorial Stadium. This is the third consecutive year that the East has trained in Sanford.

The West team, made up of players from Orange, Ósceola, Lake and Sumter counties will practice at Bulldog Field In Ococe.

Team practices will be held on Monday thru Friday from 6 p.m. to 8

The Central Florida All-Star Football Game Committee has announced that the head coaches for this year's game will be veterans Chuck Wood of Rockledge Head School for the East and Jim Buckridge of Timber Creek and Marc Jackson of Oak Ridge for the West.

The Seminole Athletic Conference will be well represented on the East squad as among those invited to attend are Lake Brantley's Kyrie Deger (linebacker) and Miguel Santos (kicker); Lake Howell's Greg Lewin (linebacker); Lake Mary's Randy Jackson (lineman) and Cameron Bateman (defensive back/tailback): Lyman's John Ford (offensive line) and Mark Robinson (defensive end/tight end); Oviedo's Ray Brown (linebacker) and Will Harrison (running back); Seminole's Mike McKenzie (quarterback); and Winter Springs' Pat Cucci (fullback/linebacker) and Tim Oliver (offensive line).

Actually, there will be some Seminole County players on the West squad as well as Trinity Prep's Rob Waked (kicking specialist) and Zack Zimmer (running back/defensive back) have been invited to participate. The Central Florida High School All-Star Football Game is in Its 5th year and has grown to be the premier high school sporting event in state. Central Florida's most outstanding high school senior football players and cheerleaders participate in this game that benefits Special Olympics Florida.

Since its inception in 1999, over 700 nigh school football players and cheerleaders have participated in the game. Over $323,000 has been raised for the game, with $40,000 going to the many programs Special Olympics Florida offers its 19,000 athletes statewide. The Central Florida All-Star Football Game will be played at Winter Park's Showalter Field with Kick-Off set for 6

SCC men avenge 29 point loss to MCC

By Deen Smith Sports Editor

SANFORD - Prior to Tuesday night's rematch with Manatee Community College Stan Cromartie was not happy.
"If someone had embarrassed me by 29 points, I'd be mad," said the Seminole Community College head coach, referring to a 86-57 thumping at the hands of the Lancers in Bradenton last month. "I would be champing at the bit to get another shot at them and prove that the first loss was a fluke. But they ith team) just don't seem to be fired up.

But the perception was wrong as the Raiders came out and put on an outstanding offensive and defensive display and rolled over MCC, 86-69, at the SCC Health and

Special to the Herald

Keith Rivers has been named a 2004 U.S.

Army All-American. He will join the rest of the national high school football all-stars playing in the U.S. Army All-American Bowl on January 3, 2004 at the Alamodome in San Antonio, Texas.

The classic east vs. west match-up will be televised live on NBC (WESH Channel 2 locally) at 1 p.m. The 2004 edition of the U.S. Army All-American Bowl game also will feature a national high school cheerleading competition called the U.S. Army All-American Cheer Bowl and a band competition.

"It's a great pleasure to have this fine young man selected to represent his school and community as a U.S. Army All-American," said Colonel Thomas Nickerson, Director of Strategic Outreach for the U.S. Army Accessions Command. "He has proven himself to be a superior athlete and I know he will add an exciting dimension to January's

Keith is a big, strong, physical and instinctive linebacker who anticipates well and is very fluid in his movements," said Lemming. "He is a tremendous combination of size and speed and always finds his way to the ball. Keith is the kind of guy big-time schools need to lead their defense.

As a junior, the 6-foot-3, 220-pounder, who also filled in at fullback on short yardage situations, totaled 160 tackles, three sacks, 11 tackles for losses, one interception and caused three fumbles. An amazing athlete, Rivers bench presses 350 pounds and has a 34-lnch vertical jump.

"Our slogan, 'An army of One,' recognizes the value of individual talents toward achieving team goals, and his talents make him a strong addition to this All-American team. added Nickerson, "This game will highlight his skills for a national audience, and the Army is pleased to provide this opportunity to him and the rest of the U.S. Army All-Americans."

UCF women's basketball takes first A-Sun victory

Special to the Herald

Sophomore Celeste Hudson (Altamonte Springs/Lyman HS) scored a game-high16 points and grabbed seven rebounds as the UCF women's basketball team opened up the Atlantic Sun campaign with a 72-61 win over Florida Atlantic at FAU Gymnasium on Thursday night.

Neither team could find the hoop in the opening minutes of the first half going nearly four minutes until Golden Knight Shelby Weber (Sarasota HS) hit the first field goal of the game. At that point, the two squads were a combined one of 16 in chances from the floor. Crystal Randolph sank FAU's first bucket – a three-pointer – at 15:06 to tie the score at three all.

After the teams were tied again at eight points apiece, UCF(2-3, 1-0 A-Sun) jumped out to a ten-point lead on senior Adrienne Billings' (Titusville HS) jumper at 3:06. The Owls (1-3, 0-1 A-Sun) stayed alive thanks to their accuracy from the foul line hitting 11 of 14 in the first period, including five of six down the stretch by Shontavia Williams. Still the Golden Knights held onto a 29-22 lead at the half

The conference rivals traded baskets at the start of the second stanza then FAU earned two quick buckets after a UCF turnover to cut the deficit to 34-28. The Golden Knights gained an 11-point advantage at 10:53 when Hudson dropped a trey and went up by at then game-high 14 (53-39) on sophomore Shayla Smith's (Kingsland, Ga./Camden County HS) three-pointer 51 seconds later. The Owls continued to capitalize on their opportunities from the line. Trineca Hansom sank four free throws in the sixth minute to bring the hosts within six points (58-52), but FAU chose to foul in the final two minutes. UCF finished on a 15-9 run for the victory.

In addition Hudson, three other Golden Knights finished in double figures. Junior Takira Allen (Tallahassee/Quincy Shanks HS) had 12, while sophomore LaShay King (Port St. Lucie HS) had 11. Weber contributed a career-high 10. McCleod had 13 points and a game-high 11 boards for FAU.

UCF held a 50-44 favor on the glass. FAU went 23-for-32 (71.9%), while the Golden Knights were 17-for-29 (58.6%).

On Tuesday, senior forward Tasheika Allen scored 24 points as Florida State earned a 72-59 victory over UCF in women's basketball action at UCF Arena.

The Golden Knights opened the game on an 11-4 run hitting four of five shots from the field (80%). Including a perfect two-for-two from behind the arc. Conversely, FSU (3-1) 2-for-8 (25%) during that time. UCF allowed the Seminoles to take possession of the score-board (18-17) at 10:04 on a layup by LaQuinta Neely, and FSU held the advantage until a three-pointer by freshman Lashaunda Slade tied the game, at 27 with 5:55 left in the first half. The two squads tied again at 30 with 2:50 on the clock, but the score favored Florida State, 35-33, at the intermission.

As the period continued, FSU built their shooting percentage from the field to 46.9% (15-for-32), while UCF's dropped to a still respectable 38.7% (12-for-31). The teams were even at 20 rebounds apiece.

UCF jumped out to 37-35 lead with two quick baskets early in the second, but couldn't hold on as the Seminoles' lead climbed to eight (53-45) by the 10:00 mark. The Golden Knights lost some of their offensive power when A with Sun Preseason Player of the Year Take Allen fouled out two minutes like. She was limited to four points and three recounds on the evening.

Meanwhile, Florida State continued to capitalize on their offensive opportunities and extended their advantage to 64-51 on a putback by Allen at 4:41. With 51 seconds left to play, sophomore Genesis Choice completed a three-point play to give FSU a 17-point lead, its largest of the game. UCF scored the final four points of the contest to cut the Seminoles advantage to 13.

Florida State outscored the hosts 37 to 26 in the team of the final four points of the contest to cut the Seminoles advantage to 13.

Florida State outscored the hosts 37 to 26 in the second half and finished with a 50% shooting accuracy from the floor, while the Golden Knights hit 41.8% on the night. FSU also held whilght 33-31 favor in rebounding and sank 16 of 21 chances from the foul line.

In addition to Tasheika Allen, Choice had 15 points and tied a game-high with seven rebounds for the Seminoles.

UCF was led by Hudson, who had a seasonhigh 19 points and hit seven of nine free See College, Page 10B

FLORIDA MEN DEFEAT UCF 59-39

UCF, playing in the first-ever collegiate basketball game at Jacksonville Veterans Memorial Arena, fell to No. 2 Florida 59-39 in front of 12,940 fans. The sellout crowd was the largest that UCF has ever played in front of.
The 39 points scored by the Golden Knights were the lowest since February 24, 1984 when UCF played at the Division II level. Despite the low output, UCF actually defeated Villanova-Miami 33-23.

Both teams started the game cold as they went nearly three minutes without a field goal. Senior forward Josh Bodden opened the scoring for UCF (2-2), gathering an offensive rebound and laying the ball in for an early 2-0 lead. Bodden also lays claim to the distinction of scoring the first points ever at the new venue. The Gators (3-0) quickly gained control going on a 14-2 run highlighted by two dunks from David Lee to put Florida up by 10 at 14-

UCF fought back with the help of good offensive rebounding. Consecutive baskets by senior center Roberto Morentin and Bodden cut Florida's lead to six at 22-16 with just under seven minutes to go in the half, but the Gators again answered with a 7-0 run to push the lead back to 13.

Florida held the advantage at halftime 35-20. Bodden ended the first stanza with 12 points and five boards to lead UCF in both categories.

In the second half, Florida took advantage of cold UCF shooting. The Gators scored the first 10 points of the second half to push the lead to 25 at 45-20. Senior Dexter Lyons hit UCF's first three of the night ending an 0-14 drought to cut the Florida lead to 22, but UCF could not trim the lead any closer than 17 the rest of

The teams combined for just 31 points in the final 15:41, with UCF outscoring Florida 17-14 over that span. Rob Ross paced UCF canning two shots from long range.

The Golden Knights were led by Bodden who finished with 14 points on 7 of 12 shooting. He also finished second on the team with eight boards. Morentin added six points and a team-high nine rebounds. UCF connected on just 25.8 percent of its shots in the game and was 5 of 27 from three-point range. UCF did not attempt any free throws in the game.

Matt Walsh finished with 19 points to lead Florida. The only other Gator to reach double figures was Anthony Roberson who netted 12. The two teams finished tied with 40 boards

UCF BASEBALL SIGNS FIVE RECRUITS

UCF head baseball coach Jay Bergman announced the signing of five student-athletes to national letters of intent to play baseball for the Golden Knights beginning in the fall of 2004. Giving Bergman their signatures included LHP Patrick Wandtke (Winter Garden, Fla./West Orange), LHP Ryan Horton (Orlando, Fla./Bishop Moore), INF Daniel Kash (Sugarland, Texas/Fort Bend Baptist Academy), INF/OF Tyson Auer (Longwood, Fla./Lake Mary) and OF Courtney Propst (Orlando, Fla./Seminole CC/Timber Creek).

"This recruiting class filled our needs," stated Bergman. "These players will have the opportunity to contribute early in their careers at UCF."

"This recruiting class continued our goal as a recruiting philosophy to sign the top players in the Central Florida area," added recruiting coordinator Craig Cozart.

Horton hails from Bishop Moore High School in Orlando and his signing along with Wandtke give the Knights two talented south-

"Patrick and Ryan are two of the top lefthanded pitchers in all of Florida," stated Cozart.

"Both Patrick and Ryan will get the chance to pitch right away as freshmen," added Bergman.

Kash is a 5-11 infielder from Sugarland, Texas. The only out-of-state recruit for the Knights, Kash adds another option to the mid-die infield for UCF. "Daniel can play both middle infield positions and is another intriguing recruit," commented Bergman. Auer is a 6-1 infielder/outfielder from Lake Mary High School. An outstanding athlete, Auer continues a solid stretch of Lake Mary players at UCF. Current Golden Knights Ryan and Kyle Bono both played on the prep level at Lake Mary.

"Tyson is a versatile player who can play shortstop and in the outfield. He has great speed with a strong arm and should be an Impact player," said Bergman.

Propst is the final member of the early-signing recruiting class and is the only junior college import from Seminole Community College.

"Courtney comes from one of the most successful junior college programs in the nation," according to Bergman. "He is a hard-nosed player who plays center field."

MIAMI FIGHTS OFF STETSON 91-70 Robert Hite scored 20 points and Guillermo Diaz added 19 points as Miami rolled to a 91-70 victory over visiting Stetson Tuesday night at the Convocation Center. The Hurricanes (3-2) extended their non-conference home winning streak to 22 in a row while handing the Hatters (2-1) their first loss of the season.

Stetson scored on each of its first four possessions, including a pair of three pointers from Borislav Djordjic, to take an early 11-3 lead. Hot shooting from behind the arc sparked Miami into the issel, Armondo Surratt hit three of his team's six trifectas as the Hurricanes built a 38-23 advantage. Stetson closed the gap with an 11-0 run and trailed by just seven at the half.

Diaz scored 16 of his points in the second half as Miami slowly pulled away. The Hurricanes led by 13 with other minutes remaining, then outscored Stetson 26-18 the rest of the way to come away with the 21-

Seminole Community College's Courtney Propst was a star at last year's State Tournament when the Raiders won their first state championship, but was forced to miss the National Tournament in Colorado when he was injured in the State Championship Game. point victory.

"When we were down 15, we didn't put our heads down and we were able to come back," Hatter head coach Derek Waugh said: "That's something I am proud of: it shows we have good team chemistry. Give Miami credit, they stuck [the ball] in the hole when they had to."

E.J. Gordon recorded his first career double-double with 15 points and 10 rebounds. He added five assists and five steals in 37 minutes of action. Anthony Register scored 13 points, and Djordjic and Mark Stiles added 12 points apiece.

The game marked the 74th all-time meeting between the Hats and 'Canes, but just the first since the 1970-71 season. Miami now leads the all-time series 41-33.

Stetson will visit the second-ranked Florida Gators today (Saturday) at noon. The game will be televised live on Sunshine!

SCC -

After the opening score of the game SCC never trailed, although the Lancers were able to stay within striking distance because of foul trouble. The Raiders' leading scorer, Travis "T] " Jones, left the game early with two fouls and only two points, while 6foot-11 back-up center Will Greene, who leads the state in blocked shots, and starting power forward Nick Rollins were also on the bench with two fouls.

But Rushawn Johnson, the only sophomore on the SCC squad, came into the game to hit a pair of three-pointers and score 10 first half points and red-hot Vince Mosley and William Graham came on to combine for nine points as the hosts led 40-24 at intermission.

The hometown fans received a treat at halftime as the Lake Mary High School cheerleaders put on an outanding performance for the crowd as they tuned up for today's (Saturday) cheerleading competition at Lake Brantley High School.

As has been a continuing problem, the Raiders started the second half slowly and MCC slowly creeped back into the game, outscoring the home squad 18-8 to close to within six points, 48-42, with 15:57 to play.

That's when Jones, who stands ninth in the state in scuring at 18.4 points per game, stepped up and took over the game, scoring 18 second half points to finish with a game-high 20 points. The shooter from Orlando got plenty of help from fellow freshmen Thomas Williams from Lakeland and Lake Howell's own Joey Forestier, as Williams dropped in eight of his 11 points in the second half and Forestier did a great job of running the offense, handing out five assists, and pulling down big rebounds, seven for the game, to go along with nine points.

SCC was also clutch from the free throw line down the stretch, hitting eight consecutive free throws and 14-for-16 from the charity stripe in the second half.

In addition to Jones, Williams and Forestier, also turning in outstanding performances were Johnson (15 points, four assists, two steals), 6-foot-11 Kemaine Samuels (11 points, eight rebounds, five blocked shots), Mosley (10 points, 5-for-6 from the free throw line, five rebounds, two steals), Graham (four points, five rebounds, three steals) and Greene (six blocks, four rebounds).

Jack Miller led four Lancers into double figures with 15

t took until the final hours of the season, but at last we know which two teams will be playing for the SEC championship in Atlanta. Fifthranked Georgia edged out Tennessee and Florida — all with 6-2 conference records for the SEC East title by virtue of a tie-breaking formula, which included the teams' BCS rankings, and earned the Bulldogs the right to defend their SEC crown.

The Bulldogs (10-2, 6-2 SEC) closed out the season strongly with a 34-17 victory over intrastate rival Georgia Tech, while the SEC West champion LSU Tigers (11-1, 7-1 SEC) steamrolled Arkansas 55-24 to wrap up the season with consecutive victories over the two top-rated offenses (Mississippi and Arkansas) in the conference. And now the two best teams in the SEC will fight for the right to represent the conference in a BCS game, with an outside shot at the national championship still possible for LSU if it wins the SEC and the University of Southern California loses to Oregon State this weekend.

Even though this game is played at a neutral site, there will be a lot of red in the stands, making it feel more like a home game for the Bulldogs. The third-ranked Tigers will have to overcome a vociferous crowd to complete the sweep against Georgia, which they beat 17-10 in Baton Rouge, La., earlier this season. But nothing quiets a crowd more quickly than an aggressive defense forcing the opposition into a string of three-and-out drives.

The Tigers' defense held a potent 'Dawgs offense to 285 yards earlier this year, getting in the face of quarterback David Greene and winning the battle in the trenches. Of course, it is easier to win that battle when you have monster tackle Chad Lavalais, who was busy pushing Georgia's offensive line around and blowing up plays. Last time around, it was Lavalais' eight-yard sack of backup quarterback D.J.
Shockley, who was filling in after David Greene was sacked and forced to leave the game, that forced a punt out of the end zone.

LSU vs. Georgia (at Atlanta)

m Records: LSU 11-1 (7-1 SEC); Georgia 10-2 (6-2 SEC). m Series: LSU leads 13-9-1, m Cooches: LSU's Nick Saban (80-39-1); Georgia's Mark Richt (31-7).

M Kickeff: 8 p.m. EST. M TV: CBS.

Key for LSU: Force turnovers. If LSU allows the Buildogs to hold onto the ball, put together long drives and get into a groove, there is no way they can keep up. The Tigers need to score off mistakes like they did aga Arkansas, when they converted three turnovers into 21

Key for Georgia: Get a running back to break the 100-yard mark for the first time this season. Michael Cooper has come the closest, with 93 yards against Vanderbilt, and Kregg Lumpkin led the way against Georgia Tech with 64 yards. Georgia uses a three-man rotation, which keeps them fresh, but the Bulldogs need to choose one and let him get into a rhythm against the Tigers' stingy defense.

LSU's Strength

The Tigers' defensive line is nearly impossible to run against, it seems to fill every lane, and always have several players around the ball. That helps explain why the Tigers lead the conference, holding opponents under 70 yards a game on the ground this season.

Georgia's Strength

The Bulldogs' secondary doesn't give up the big play.

They keep everything in front and rarely blow coverages, and as a result they lead the SEC in passing defense, allowing opponents just over 170 yards a game through the > margin. But the fact that both of these teams can turn it up on either side of the ball in any game is what makes this rematch so intriguing. Last time they met, the missed field goals, turnovers in the red zone and sloppy play led to a low-scoring game. But this time around, with the Bulldogs hitting their stride on offense and getting injured players back, and Matt Mauck continuing to improve like a fine wine, this could end up being a shootout on the of the Year and the Defensive Player of the Year for each team in the league.

Last Meeting

LSU won 17-10 (Sept. 20, 2003, at Baton Rouge). LSU wide receiver Skyler Green caught a 34-yard touchdown pass from Matt Mauck with 1:22 left in the game to lift the pass from Matt Mauck with 1:22 left in the gaine to all the Tigers to a 17-10 win over the Bulldogs in Baton Rouge. The Bulldogs outgained LSU in total yards, 411-285, and even scored first for a 3-0 lead on a 33-yard field goal by Billy Bennett in the first quarter. But LSU answered with a 21-yard touchdown run by Shyrone Carey in the second quarter, then added a 47-yard Ryan Gaudet field goal in the third quarter to take a 10-3 lead. David Greene connected with Tyson Browning on a 93-yard touchdown pass to tie the score with 4:25 left in the game.

DEABAMA Offense: Shaud Williams (senior RB) scored his SEC-leading 16th TD, and his 14th rushing touchdown of the year, last week. Defense: Derrick Pope (senior LB) finished with 105 tackles and five sacks and recorded his first interception of the season in last week's loss to Hawaii.

Offense: Matt Jones (junior QB) finished second on the team in rushing yards behind Cedric Cobbs, and finished with over 2,500 yards of total offense. He also accounted for 25 touchdowns. Defense: Tony Bua (senior OLB) and Caleb Miller (senior ILB) combined for 238 tackles, including 17 for loss.

Offense: Carnell Williams
(senior RB) was named SEC offensive player of the week for the fourth time this season after running for a career-high 204 yards and two touchdowns in Auburn's 28-23 Iron Bowl victory over Alabama. Defense: Karlos Dansby (senior LB) led the team with 74 tackles, including 11 for a loss, and finished with four sacks.

GRIDA Offense: Matt Leach (junior PK) set a career high with four field goals against FSU, and finished with 20 on the season. He also made all 39 point-after attempts. Defense: Keiwan Ratliff (senior CB) led the SEC and set a school record with nine interceptions, four returned for touchdowns.

BORGIA Offense: Billy Bennett (senior PK) set an NCAA record for field goals with 83 for his career. He also kicked 27 field goals this season, tying the SEC record. Defense: Sean Jones (junior FS) had 102 tackles in only 10 games with five passes defended. He also had two fumble recoveries, including one returned for a 92-yard Offense: Derek Abney (senior WR) became the first player in NCAA Division I-A history to record at least 2,000 yards receiving, 2,000 yards in kickoff returns and 1,000 yards in punt returns for a career. Defense: Chad Anderson (sophomore LB) led the SEC with an average of 11 tackles per game.

Offense: Michael Clayton (junior WR) led the SEC with 960 yards and tied for second with nine touchdowns, finishing with 20 for his career. Defense: Chad Lavalais (senior DT) was the centerpiece of LSU's smothering defense. Fifteen of his 54 tackles were behind the line of scrimmage, and he recorded six sacks.

DH6SISSIPPI Offense: Eli Manning (senior QB) finished first in the SEC and 16th in the country in total offense with 3,312 yards, and he threw 27 touchdowns with only nine interceptions. Defense: Von Hutchins four interceptions and added 57 tackles.

Offense: Kevin Fant (senior QB) concluded 2003 with a single-season school record of 186 completions. Fant is ranked second all-time at State in career passing yardage (5,631), third in TD passes (33) and first in 300-yard passing games (4). Defense: T.J. Mawhinney (senior LB) had a teamhigh 110 tackles, 34 more than the next leading tackler.

GAROLINA Offense: Daccus
Turman (sophomore RB) led the team in both rushing yards (646) and touchdowns (seven). Defense: Moe Thompson (sophomore DL) was third on the team with 60 stops, and also had five tackles for a loss and five sacks.

Claussen (senior QB) threw nine touchdown passes in the last three games to finish with a career-best 25 in 2003. He finished his career 744-of-1,215 (.612) for 9,323 yards, 73 touchdowns and 31 interceptions. Defense: Gibril Wilson (senior SS) led team with 90 tackles and tied for the team lead with two interceptions.

Offense: Jay Cutler (sophomore QB) finished with 2,347 yards through the air along with 18 touchdowns. Defense: Jovan Haye (sophomore DE) had 13 of his 76 total tackles go for a loss, and led the team with nine sacks.

Rivers

Continued from Page 8B California on Thursday, but postponed the announcement on word that USC linebackers coach Ken Holt is the leading candidate for the head coaching position at the University of Idaho.

Rivers, who has narrowed his list to three schools, USC, Florida and Florida State, in that order, is scheduled to take his first official campus visit to USC this weekend.

The winning team of the U.S. Army All-American Bowl will receive the Herman Boone Trophy named after the legendary Virginia high school football coach who was immortalized in the Disney feature film, Remember the Titans. In addition, the game MVP will receive the Pete Dawkins MVP Trophy named after the legendary 1958 Heisman Trophy winner. Each U.S. Army All-American has the potential to be named a nominee for the Spalding National Player of the Year Award, which will be announced at the U.S. Army All-American Awards Dinner on January 2. The winner will receive the Ken "The Sugarland Express" Hall Trophy, the equivalent of college football's Heisman Trophy, named after record setting high school run-ning back Ken Hall of Sugarland,

The U.S. Army All-American

Bowl National Selection Tour is traveling to all 78 U.S. Army All-American's hometowns to announce their selection. At each tour stop a representative from the U.S. Army will present the "U.S. Army All American" with his official game jersey. At selected stops legendary high school football coach and U.S. Army All-American Bowl spokesman Herman Boone will address those in attendance. In addition, several presentations will feature NFL player and coach appearances.

"The U.S. Army Ali-American Bowl National Selection Tour is our chance to showcase our 'U.S. Army All-Americans' to high school football fans across the country," said Rich McGuinness. President of SportsLink, Inc. The U.S. Army All-American Bowl is the premier high school all-star football game in the country and the players we are intro-ducing will be the next stars of college football and the NFL."

The U.S. Army Accessions Command (USÁAC), headquartered at Fort Monroe, Va., is charged with overseeing recruiting and training of both enlisted soldiers and officers for the Army. USAAC is composed of the U.S. Army Recruiting Command at Fort Knox, Ky., the U.S. Army Cadet Command at Fort Monroe, Va., and the U.S. Army Training Center at Fort Jackson, S.C.

Williams was also a standout on defense, grabbing a pair of inter-ceptions and recording 27 tackles. Doing a good job on defense as well was cornerback Austin

Gager who came away with 16 tackles and a pair of intercep-

Tavanyar led the team in interceptions with three. Jason Jenkins, playing at defensive end, put a lot of pressure on all the quarterbacks he faced, making four sacks and nine tackles. Lincoln Gager, only an eighth-grader, had 15 tackles and one sack.

Despite their elimination, the Lady Patriots considered the trip to the state playoffs a success because of winning a match at the state playoffs for the first time.

It took three games, but the Lady Patriots defeated Brunswick Christian School, 26-24, 17-25 and 15-13, for their first state tournament win.

In Liberty's second and third games, however, the girls lost their momentum and were edged out by eventual State Champion Emmanuel Christian School, 25-16 and 25-21, before being defeated by West Meadows Christian School, 25-12 and 25-14.

Leading the offense were Brittany Unsworth and Kim Slate. Unsworth served 22 points and had nine service aces and eight kills, while State served 13 points, three on service aces.

Seniors Susan Clark and Shellie Knowles also had strong tournaments with Clark serving six points and recording one kill, and Knowles serving 11 points, three on aces, and adding one kill.

Shawna Kealoha served four points, one an ace, and added two kills, while Amanda Waters served four points and Nicole Miller served one point.

The girls' coaches are proud of the team, which improved considerably this year, pointed out assistant coach Leslie Andes.

Coach Jane Unsworth called the first match of the playoffs the greatest the girls have ever played together. Unsworth also pointed out that the girls played Emmanuel Christian School, which ended up winning the state championship.

Unsworth said she was pleased with the way her team played and that they never gave up. The only sad thing is that I am losing my two leaders-my seniors," said Unsworth. "We've been logether forever. Mrs. Andes and myself cried great tears of joy when it was over, but also tears of sadness as we realized our two seniors, Shellle and Susan, played their last game with us. We know we did our jobs helping these young ladies grow stronger in their faith in the Lord as they both will be going off to Bible college next year. They will be great leaders wherever they go and have left big shoes to fill."
