

Celery Feds Hold Rough Scrimmage; Practice Passes

Forguson, Backfield Ace, Will Probably Be Unable To Play In Game With Bucs

By JULIAN STENSTROM
Herald Sports Editor

A tough scrimmage session was the feature of the practice program held yesterday afternoon on the drill field at the high school on Head Coach Leonard L. McLucas and his two assistants, Coaches Russ McCracken and Woody Riser prepared the Celery Feds for their hardest tilt of the season Friday night against the strong Daytona Beach Buccaneers.

The drill began with McLucas handling the backfield men while McCracken and Riser were in charge of the line. McLucas sent the backs through a signal drill and also drilled them on several new play formations which will probably be used against the Bucs Friday night.

The line underwent a hard blocking session and also worked on the fundamental of tackling. Near the end of the drill, the backs and the line worked together and then a short but rough scrimmage drill was started. Passing plays were used chiefly in the session but the passing, Fred Jones, could not have the ball in the right direction. With Dan all Forguson out, it will be tough for the Feds in that department Friday night.

According to latest reports,

Forguson will not be able to play Friday night since his mother does not wish him to go into action yet. Forguson is still suffering from the minor brain concussion but the attending physician says that he is recovering nicely. Forguson wants to play and Coach McLucas said yesterday that he hopes the youngster will be in condition for the tilt.

Since Forguson does not play his duties will probably rest on the shoulders of Pete Tuley or Pete Echel.

McLucas said that if the Celery Feds had the best of the scrimmage as much as they did last week it will be an even ball game.

News Of The World In Pictures

Although the drama of war had not yet broken over them, the youngsters pictured above were already experiencing its ability to sweep whole populations out of their homes and accustomed ways of life. The boys are members of a London orphanage. Carrying their possessions in kitbags, they are marching out to entrain for the safer open spaces of the country. Nearly one-third of London's 8,000,000 people were evacuated. (NEA Radiophoto)

Don't Lose That Ball, Georges!

Looking hardly a day older than when he fought Jack Dempsey in 1921, Georges Carpentier walks with his 13-year-old daughter, Jacqueline, at Stoke Poges, England. The pair are one of the outstanding golfers in the Paris district.

While Hitler, Mussolini, Chamberlain and Daladier talked of war or peace at Munich, Germany's military machine was ready to invade Poland, ready for the long-threatened invasion of Czechoslovakia that would most certainly throw Europe into another great war. Highly important in the German war scheme are the armored cars, "land dreadnaughts," pictured above.

Threat of European war and the mobilization of Great Britain's full naval force brought Britain's dowager Queen Mary to Parliament to hear Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain's speech on the crisis. The radiophoto above shows the queen and the Duchess of Kent, in silhouette, arriving at Parliament building. (NEA Radiophoto)

London's women were quick to answer their country's plea for help as the threat of European war grew. The radiophoto above shows Mary Allen, commandant of a woman's volunteer corps, taking applications of women to drive trucks. (NEA Radiophoto)

The happy pair above prove even the wariest of men can forget his fear of feminine wiles and get married quietly. Here are Benita Hume and her new husband, Ronald Colman. Hollywood is still gasping, for Colman had been regarded as one eligible male who would never marry, because of an unrequited love affair.

Robert Hemingway, nearest the camera, and Linscott Tyler, guards, pose on a novel go-back lurching dummy. Make believe it's a football game for its opening game with the Yale team.

Most feared of all are the air raiders. Germany's one chance for victory seems to lie in attacks from the sky by death dealers such as those pictured above. Only by laying waste great cities, say military experts, could Hitler bring surrender of France and Britain.

JUST A BIT TARDY was Ripper Collins in the second inning of the Cubs-yankees second world series game at Wrigley Field, Chicago, when the Ripper was forced at second by Bill Jurgens. Umpire Cal Hubbard hands down his decision as Joe Gordon, after taking the throw from Red Kalfous, wheels in a vain attempt to double Jurgens at first. Yanke won, 6-3.

When we win with industry, say military men, and Germany's infantrymen of famous warriors, they may move toward the public area.

STEPHEN F. CHADWICK Stephen F. Chadwick of Bettle, Washington, for three years
 Chairman of the National American Commission of the National American Legion, was elected National Commander of the Angeles convention. As a first lieutenant with the 27th U. S. Infantry, he served in the American Expeditionary Force to Siberia.
 Helping to guard the famous Trans-Siberian Railroad between Vladivostok and Nikolai, he obtained first hand information of the baneful nature of Russian Bolshevism and Communism. This information has furnished him with a valuable background in leadership of the Legion against these same subversive elements in the United States.

Born at Colfax, Washington, August 11, 1891, Mr. Chadwick attended the high school at Olympia, Washington. After being graduated from high school, he decided to follow in the footsteps of his late father, the former Chief Justice Stephen F. Chadwick of the Supreme Court of the State of Washington. So he embarked on a legal education at Washington and Lee University, at Lexington, Virginia. He was graduated from there with a degree of Bachelor of Laws and then attended the University of Washington at Seattle, where he received his L. L. B. in 1915.
 Since then he has practiced law in Seattle, except for the period of his war service.

Mr. Chadwick was an early volunteer for military service, in 1917. He entered a training camp at Fort Lawton, Washington, and in August was sent to the second officers' training camp at the Presidio, San Francisco, where he was commissioned as first lieutenant in November, 1917. He was attached to Company D, 364 Infantry, 91st Division, at Camp
 Lewis, Washington, from December, 1917, until April, 1918. Then he was assigned to Company D, 8th Infantry, 8th Division, Camp
 Fremont, California. In August, 1918, when orders came through to send an American Expeditionary force to Siberia, Mr. Chadwick was transferred to the 27th Infantry, one of the units designated for the expedition. He served first as a line officer, then a battalion adjutant and finally as the personnel officer of this regiment. After spending a severe winter in Siberia the regiment returned home, and Mr.
 Chadwick received an honorable discharge in May, 1919. He resumed the practice of law at Seattle. He married Miss Margaret Gardner Tyler, daughter of Judge David Gardner Tyler, of Charles City, Virginia. They have two children, Mary Tyler, 14, and Stephen Fowler, 11.

Mr. Chadwick became active in The American Legion immediately upon returning to civilian life.
 He joined Seattle Post No. 18 and was, in turn, post chaplain, vice-commander and commander.
 He served as a member of the department executive committee

Hospital Status Is Explained In Letter To Clerk

Herndon from the Assistant PWA Administrator is as follows:

"I have your telegram addressed to Hon. Harold L. Ickes on Sept. 29, advising that the hospital project in Sanford, Florida, out Docket No. Fla. 1423, failed to carry because the necessary majority of fresholders failed to participate. You request an extension of time to Nov. 8 in order that a second election may be held.

"There was included in the Public Works Administration Appropriation Act of 1934 a requirement that all projects must be capable of being placed under construction by Jan. 1, 1935. It is the desire of the Congress, as expressed in the Act, that the funds made available to the Public Works Administration should be used as rapidly as possible for the creation of employment. Allotments must be made, therefore, so far as possible, to projects which, without a doubt, can be placed under construction. If funds were allotted to projects which might be rejected by the voters at a time too late to permit a re-allocation of such funds to other communities able and anxious to proceed with worthy projects, the purpose of the Act would be defeated to the extent that the funds would remain unallotted.

"For these reasons, it was necessary to establish a time limit of Oct. 1 for elections, and this application, as a matter of fairness to other applicants, will therefore be precluded from receiving favorable consideration at this time. Of course, if an applicant proceeds to hold an election later than Oct. 1 and there should be, through re-election or abandonment of project for which funds have previously been allotted, available money the applicant along with other similarly situated, could be considered for re-allocation of such funds. However, any expense incurred by the applicant in holding the election will be at its own risk, since no assurance can be given as to an allocation for any project."

Troops Lined Up On Each Side Of Border Awaiting Reply To Ultimatum

KOMAROM, on the Czechoslovak-Hungarian border, Oct. 13.— Adolf Hitler's mediation has been invoked to untangle deadlocked Czechoslovak-Hungarian border negotiations while troops were massed tensely on either side of the frontier.

The Slovak delegation, representing the Prague Government and Hungarian negotiators still were unable after a three-hour session to agree on Hungary's demands for a slice of Czechoslovak territory.

Adolf Hitler's mediation has been invoked to untangle deadlocked Czechoslovak-Hungarian border negotiations while troops were massed tensely on either side of the frontier.

Both Czechoslovak and Hungarian troops on opposite sides of the Danube, seemed prepared for open hostilities if the territorial negotiations failed.

The Slovak minister, Dr. Ferdinand Durichovsky, who is aiding the Czechoslovak government, said that the Slovak prime minister at the conference was expected to have flown to Berlin to accept Hitler's mediation.

Czechoslovak circles were optimistic that after Durichovsky's return, expected today, some agreement would be reached with Hungary should the German mediator be willing to act.

Czechs Pledge Loyal Attitude To Nazi State

Foreign Minister Is Said To Have Expressed Views In Talk With Hitler

Hungarian-Czech Dispute Unsettled

Chinese Begin Mass Exodus To Interior Before Jap Advance

Germany announced today that Frantisek Chvalkovsky, Czechoslovak foreign minister, had pledged his country to a "loyal attitude" toward Germany, in talk with Adolf Hitler.

The announcement came as Hungary was reported to have sent a delegation to explain to Hitler Hungary's expansionist demands upon Czechoslovakia.

A Hungarian foreign office official arrived in Rome to consult with Italian officials and Hitler received former Premier Koloman Daranyi of Hungary at Berlin.

Czechoslovak political circles expressed a belief that the wish of Hungary and Poland for a common frontier at expense of Czechoslovakia would be met with German opposition.

Hitler told the Czechoslovak envoy he hoped "it may soon be possible to find a satisfactory solution" to the Hungarian-Czechoslovak question, which was said to have turned over to the four power Munich accord group after a breakdown of direct negotiations.

Meanwhile, in the Orient Japanese armies advanced on Canton and the civilian population of south China started a mass exodus into the interior.

Racial, religious and political troubles disturbed other parts of the continent.

High School Band Elects Officers For Coming Year

The Seminole High School Band elected its officers Thursday afternoon at their weekly practice session. R. E. Kipp, advisor, said today. Ernest Southward, bass horn player, was elected president of the band; Doris Jackson, bass drummer, vice-president, and Robert Hendon, solo cornetist, secretary and treasurer.

The band voted to sponsor the sale of programs at the remainder of the local football games. The programs will contain the names and numbers of Sanford football players as well as those of the opposing team, making it possible for patrons to pick out players by noting the numbers on the programs and on the back of the jerseys. Proceeds from the sale will be used to purchase uniforms and additional music.

The players also voted to enter the parade during the Junior Chamber of Commerce Jamboree and to furnish music during the events at the Municipal ball park. During this event the band will have charge of the program sales.

The Seminole High School music organization has grown steadily during the last few years and plans are under way to streamline the organization at 60 players.

Mr. Dullman, director of the band, stated that in this summer all the parts of the band can be filled. At the present time no more trumpet or cornet players will be admitted unless they are "active good." There is room, however, for several baritone players, a flute player, several French horn players, and several wood players, preferably clarinet.

Army Sergeant Pleads Guilty To Spy Charges

Defendant Alleged To Have Stolen Military Aviation Code

NEW YORK, Oct. 11.—(AP)—Guenter Gustave Humrich, former United States Army sergeant, unexpectedly pleaded guilty to espionage charges in the Federal Court today as he was about to go to trial with three other persons, accused of being spies.

Humrich, who was alleged by the government to have stolen the military aviation code, is a native of Chicago and the son of German parents.

He deserted the Army in 1935. He entered his plea as Judge John C. Knox was about to order a jury empaneled for the first important espionage trial in the United States since the World War. Judge Knox deferred sentence until the end of the trial.

The Italian ministry of popular culture is spending $1,500 monthly, a report to the state department in Washington disclosed for the maintenance of an Italian information library in New York.

The report was made in compliance with the new law requiring agents of foreign principals to register at the department. The names of 44 registrants were made public bringing the total published to date to 130.

The Italian ministry opened its library recently. It was reported to serve students, professors, writers and others whose inquiries at Italian tourist agencies were not equipped with the proper references and literature. A contract was drawn up July 1 last with Ugo V. Annunzio, son of Gabriel d'Annunzio, Italian poet and hero, to establish and equip the library, and answer queries.

Another report showed that Carl Boyer and Associates, Inc., of New York, entered into another contract whereby they received $30,000 over a 10-month period for service as public relations counsel in a drive to raise funds for civilian relief in China. The firm's contract was with the China-specific News Service, a Chinese organization.

It was reported also that the Katsunaka Bunka Shimbun (society for international culture relations), of Tokyo, maintains a library and information and data service in New York. The organization described itself as a "non-profit foundation."

The French government tourist "news" registered as an agent of the French government in promoting tourist travel, its expenditures dependent on whatever the chamber of deputies appropriated.

Rain, Gales Sweep Across South Florida

Tropical Storm Of Moderate Intensity Moving Inland From Gulf

JACKSONVILLE, Oct. 11.—(AP)—Rain and gales swept across the south Florida peninsula today as a tropical storm of moderate intensity moved slowly toward the lower part of the state from the Gulf of Mexico.

The Weather Bureau, emphasizing the storm was not a hurricane, said the center of the disturbance was about 150 miles west-northwest of Key West, at 9:00 A. M. EST.

"It has spread over a considerable area with local squalls of from 40 to 45 miles an hour reported," the Weather Bureau advised.

"The slow movement will cause squally weather to continue over south Florida and adjacent waters today and tonight. Storm warnings for small boats and exposed islands and beaches remain displayed from Tampa Springs to Key West, but it is emphasized that this is only a moderate disturbance attended by gales and not a hurricane."

Poultry Producers Discuss Proposed Egg Law Changes

Some of the largest poultry producers in two counties met in the vocational agriculture building in the rear of the high school last night to discuss proposed amendments to the state's egg marketing laws. Alex H. Johnson, secretary-treasurer of the local association, said today.

Although the Seminole and Volusia county Poultry Producers Associations made no definite decisions as to whether the proposed changes would be to the detriment of the Central Florida producers, B. T. Tiller was appointed chairman of a committee to investigate further the possible effects of the proposal and to further study the report of another committee. A commitment will be made at the next regular meeting.

The proposed law would do away with the present distinction between Florida eggs and shipped eggs, using instead the terms "fresh" and "strictly fresh" eggs.

Among those present for the meeting last night was Joe Williams, president of the State Poultry Producers Association and E. H. Cooper, R. H. Stafford and H. L. Fagin, officials of the Volusia county association.

New Study Of AAA To Terminate U. S. Defenses Celery Marketing Pact On Saturday

Budget Estimate Cannot Be Made Until Restudy Completed, President States

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11.—(AP)—President Roosevelt today said he was making an entirely new study of the nation's defense needs and that until it was completed he could not estimate next year's budget.

The President said a preliminary estimate could not be made on the new budget because of new technical developments and the "uncertain" defense situation, he required to complete a study of the defense requirements.

He said reason for the postponement of these estimates began to take shape about a year ago because of information coming in connection with world events. He said the question was forced to a head in the past month.

In response to a question, he said the new information was of a technical rather than a political nature.

One of the things being studied he said, was that of mass production of war equipment, including airplanes, power and other questions.

He said the production question was something new and without one of the phases to be studied was the standardization of plane production, which some countries already have adopted.

If the United States had to go to war the nation would be in the same humiliating state of unpreparedness that forced France and England to accept Adolf Hitler's Munich dictates, Bernard M. Baruch, international banker and chairman of the war industries board, said yesterday after conferring with President Roosevelt.

Baruch was Roosevelt's overnight guest. He emphasized that his opinions were his own although he and the President reviewed the European situation. He was deliberating his views to impress the country with the status of national defense which he described as tragic.

"We ought to be ready to defend our homes and not find ourselves in the humiliating position that France and England did," he said. "And I know what I am talking about."

Wrestling Match Is Added For Jamboree

Another event has been added to the program for the Jamboree of the Junior Chamber of Commerce to be held at the Municipal Park Saturday afternoon, Oct. 29. Those in charge of the affair announced today.

Colored boys who wish to enter this event may secure entry blanks at the headquarters in the Princess Theatre building.

Entry quotas in the other contests are filling rapidly, it was reported. Boys now entered in the five-mile bicycle race for boys from 18 to 21 years of age are as follows: Varinall Wright, Theodore Klieker, Lawrence Harman, Hubert Whitworth, and Wesley Johnson.

Continuation Deemed Inadvisable After Opposition Polls Slight Majority

John Strachey, above, author of the Celery Marketing Agreement under which the Florida celery growers operated during last season will be terminated Saturday by the Agricultural Adjustment Administration, according to a dispatch received today from Washington.

The decision of the AAA followed the growers' referendum last July 25 and 26 in which approximately 60 percent of the celery growers voted for the termination of the pact. This year's referendum was conducted only 40 percent of the growers participating in the election.

Shortly after the referendum was held and until about 10 o'clock, a Federal investigator was on the celery producing section of the state and office a complete survey and report to the Secretary of Agriculture, Secretary Wallace, on the continuation of the agreement in advance.

A statement of the termination of the celery marketing agreement in this and other celery producing sections was published in a return of nearly 100,000 signatures of the growers.

Cannery Property Purchase Reported By C. H. Eckerson

Other Improvements To Plant Are Planned Before Opening

Negotiations for the purchase of the property and the building occupied by the local plant of the Eckerson Fruit Cannery, Inc., have been completed, C. H. Eckerson, president of the company, told a Herald reporter in an interview today.

The program, Mr. Eckerson reported, includes the purchase of the manufacturing plant together with the adjoining property on which fruit storage bins, the boiler house and the dehydrating plant are located. The purchase of this property covers the company's two block tract at West Thirtieth Street between Elm and French Avenues.

The company, Mr. Eckerson said, has operated the cannery in Sanford for the past seven years, occupying the buildings on a lease rental basis.

The consideration in the transaction was not disclosed but it was learned from an authoritative source that the investment in the citrus canning plant is in excess of $200,000.

Mr. Eckerson stated that some alterations will be made to the plant this season in order to care for the unusually heavy crop which is likely to result from the exceptionally heavy fruit crop. Actual operations are not expected to begin at the plant before the middle or the first of November, however, he added.

During the season, the plant will employ approximately 200 persons on a shift, and there is little doubt but that the plant will maintain three shifts, in view of the heavy crop, it was pointed out.

Mr. Eckerson also explained that a driveway for trucks waiting to unload will be constructed in the transaction. Formerly the trucks parked along Thirtieth Street, causing a congestion in traffic.

The dehydrating plant which converts the citrus peel into stock feed will again be in operation this year. This plant was installed last year at a cost estimated in excess of $50,000.

In addition to the property at the cannery, the company operates under lease, two large warehouses, one at French Avenue and Sixth Street and the other on East First Street in the old armory.

Refund Will Be Given Farmers

Pro Rata Share Of $8,000 Surplus Will Be Returned

The Celery Marketing Agreement under which the Florida celery growers operated during last season will be terminated Saturday by the Agricultural Adjustment Administration, according to a dispatch received today from Washington.

The decision of the AAA followed the growers' referendum last July 25 and 26 in which approximately 60 percent of the celery growers voted for the termination of the pact. This year's referendum was conducted only 40 percent of the growers participating in the election.

Shortly after the referendum was held and until about 10 o'clock, a Federal investigator was on the celery producing section of the state and office a complete survey and report to the Secretary of Agriculture, Secretary Wallace, on the continuation of the agreement in advance.

A statement of the termination of the celery marketing agreement in this and other celery producing sections was published in a return of nearly 100,000 signatures of the growers.

Federal Subsidy To Aid Low Income Groups Is Planned

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11.—(AP)—Plans for a Federal subsidy to make food and clothing available to low income groups at reduced prices developed rapidly, it is thought after President Roosevelt ordered Works Progress Administration officials to keep the expenditures within budget limits.

A "two price" system under which surplus farm products and cotton would be purchased by the Government for sale at low prices, was endorsed by Secretary of the Treasury Henry Morgenthau, Jr., who said he knew of no way to spend Federal funds to "better advantage."

First proposed by Secretary of Agriculture Henry A. Wallace, the plan is designed to help solve the problem of huge farm surpluses threatening the agricultural price structure as well as being a benefit to the needy and low-salaried groups.

Morgenthau disclosed at a press conference that the plan had been thoroughly explored a series of meetings which he attended with Wallace and U. S. Surgeon General Thomas Parran during May and June.

Coupled with the development Mr. Roosevelt conferred Acting WPA Administrator Roy Williams and instructed to restrict relief spending between now and March 1 the $700,000,000 remaining the original $1,125,000,000 appropriated for the first months of this fiscal year.

Unofficially it was said that the presidential order meant an average reduction in WPA rolls of 130,000 during the Winter months from the record 3,120,000 figure reached October 1.
