RUHR QUESTION STRESSED BY KING GEORGE TODAY IN ADDRESS FROM THRONE

AT OPENING OF SECOND SESSION OF FOURTH PARLIAMENT OF HIS REIGN

IMPORTANT MESSAGE

Said That England Was Not Participating in Occupation But Concurred in French Attitude

(By The Associated Press) LONDON, Feb. 13.—The Ruhr question was stressed by King George today in an address from the throne opening the second session of the fourth parliament of his reign. He declared that although the British government is unable to concur or to participate in the Ruhr occupation it is acting in such a way as not to add to the difficulties of Great Britain's allies.

PARIS, Feb. 13.—A German policeman was killed and two French gendarmes wounded in yesterday's affair at Gelsenkirchen, says a French official version today. The foreign office in giving the details says the French gendarmes were on their way to the mayor's office with a letter when the car was stopped by a policeman who threatened them with a revolver. The gendarmes fired on the policeman who fell. Thereupon six horsemen from a nearby post hurried up and fired on the gendarmes, wounding two.

DUSSELDORF, Feb. 13.—The town of Gelsenkirchen has been fined one hundred million marks to be paid tomorrow in consequence of the incident there yesterday between the German police and the French gendarmes. The burgomaster, chief of police and policemen believed to be guilty of involvement in the affair have been arrested.

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Feb. 13.—Another conference of state governors will be called by President Harding to meet in Washington for discussion of prohibition enforcement. No date for the meeting has been set.

CHAUTAQUA WILL BE HERE LAST WEEK IN MARCH WITH FINE PROGRAM

The Chautauqua will be in Sanford again the last week in March according to Miss Mel Whitner who is acting as secretary of the movement to put on the Chautauqua again. The program will be better than last year if such a thing is possible and all those who so thoroughly enjoyed the program last year can be counted on to get busy this season and put the Chautauqua over in good shape. It is something that Sanford should have every year and the program was so good last year that a band of public spirited men and women of Sanford decided to make it possible to have it again this year and give it one more trial in Sanford. The program will be given in a later edition of the Daily Herald and meantime remember that the big Chautauqua will positively be here one week commencing March 31st.

British Debt Funding Bill is Taken up Under Senate Agreement

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Feb. 13.—British debt funding bill was taken up by the senate under agreement reached after a conference between President Harding and Republican leaders for laying aside administration shipping bill temporarily but without displacing it from privileged status. Later Senator King objected to plans for keeping ship bill in privileged status and on motion of Senator Jones in charge, the measure was formally laid aside and debt funding bill given the right of way.

REPUBLICAN LEADERS LAY ASIDE BILL

FOR SHIP SUBSIDY FOR THE DEBT FUNDING BILL

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Feb. 13.—An agreement was reached by senate Republican leaders to lay aside the administration shipping bill tomorrow for consideration of the British Debt Settlement legislation. Definite assurance that the debt funding bill will be passed with a minimum of delay was given President Harding by Senators Lodge and Watson today. Senator Lodge was of the opinion, he said, after conference, that opposition to the debt funding measure would be unimportant and would soon be out of the way, whereupon every effort would be made to enact the shipping legislation.

ROTARY CLUB BIG MEETING AT THE VALDEZ

MANY VISITORS AND TWO NEW MEMBERS AND GOOD TALKS

The Sanford Rotary Club had a wonderful meeting today, having many out of town visitors and also having two brand new members to bring into the club.

Among the visiting members were Jim Kincaid, Joe McCormick, Ned Walker and Fitz Dale of Orlando, Marsh Ray, of Oxford, N. C., Joe McCauley of Cumberland, Md., Fred Newbower of Cleveland, Ohio, Claude Roper of Jacksonville. All of them rose to their feet as they were called upon and were given a rousing salute from the club. Upon the program was a talk on some special article in last month's Rotarian, the official organ of the Rotary Club, and R. J. Holly spoke a few minutes on the article on advertising that gave the members a new slant on advertising—that of appearances in the stores and the appearance of the men who operated them. President Thrasher announced the meeting at Tampa of the International officers and said they would be in Lakeland tomorrow and wanted as many Sanford members as possible to see them at Lakeland tomorrow. President Thrasher announced the receiving into membership of the club the two new members, H. R. Rosbro, local manager of the Southern Utilities Co., and Dr. W. J. Carpenter, pastor of the Methodist church, and called upon B. F. Whitner and H. C. DuBose to give the new members a short talk on Rotary.

It is seldom that any club has the pleasure of hearing such talks as those given by both of these gentlemen and the personal side as given to each new member by H. S. DuBose was great as he stressed what Dr. Carpenter as a minister and Mr. Rosbro as manager of the Southern Utilities Co. could do in the matter of real service. President Thrasher supplemented the talks of Whitner and DuBose by a short talk on the ideals of Rotary and then called on the new members for a few remarks and both of them said they would follow the teachings of Rotary and do all in their power to carry out the example as set by those who had just talked to them and of the big principles of Rotary in "Service Above Self."

SHALL WE BE LIKE THE NINE BIBLICAL LEPERS? ASKS BRYAN

By WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN

I am looking for the man who established the school system which gave him his education. I am looking for a man who built the school buildings in which he was educated. I am looking for a man who trained the teachers who gave him his instruction. Are you that man? No, because you, like myself, found an educational system here, received your education in buildings that someone else built and from teachers that someone else trained. To those who have done these things for you and me, we owe a debt of gratitude. Shall we be like the "nine lepers"? The Bible tells us that Christ cleansed ten lepers. Nine received and enjoyed but gave no thanks. The tenth returned to express gratitude. An opportunity comes now to express our gratitude. The University of Florida—the keystone of our public school system in this great state—faces a crisis. It needs a Y. M. C. A. and Student Activities building for its 1252 young men and boys, so that their hearts, which have even more to do than their education with their happiness and usefulness, may be trained at the same time that they are receiving their mental development. The state cannot give the needed amount, because of constitutional limitations. The money must be raised by voluntary contribution. Starting this week a group of earnest men will visit the men and women of this city. Some one will call on you. He will ask you to give, according to your means, towards the erection of this worthy building. When that time comes, your heart, beating true, and your brain, seeing the great need, will make you willing and happy for the opportunity to express your gratitude for the good things that have come to you. Let it be said that this city—a great city in a great state—to the last man and woman has become a benefactor of our great University of Florida. Give much if you can, give less if you must, but give something—have a part. You will help for the good of the boys and for the good of this great state, won't you? Editor's note: Mr. Bryan is giving his time and money to the campaign to erect a Y. M. C. A. and Student Activities Building on the University of Florida campus. So far he has made more than twenty speeches in fourteen cities in the interest of the campaign. At the beginning of the campaign, he voluntarily subscribed $500. After his first address, he increased this to $1,000. After his second address he subscribed $100 for his grandson. After his third address, he offered to furnish one of the rooms in the proposed building. Having given so much himself, Mr. Bryan's plea rings with sincerity that will reach the ears of every forward-thinking citizen in this community.

SEMINOLE COUNTY EXHIBIT AT SUB-TROPICAL FAIR IS SAID TO BE VERY FINE

Growers Should Keep Fresh Vegetables Coming Every Day During the Week

The Seminole County exhibit at the Sub-Tropical Fair at Orlando will be much better than was expected yesterday and Benjamin Whitner, the county agent, telephoned this morning that the exhibit was coming along in fine shape and would make a most creditable showing. All it takes is the support of the people of the county and the determination to get the fresh fruits and vegetables to the exhibit today and for the rest of the week in order that the exhibit can be kept fresh and looking good all week. The vegetables especially are apt to wilt and look badly after the first days showing and they must be replaced every day or so all during the fair. If all those who have promised vegetables will leave them at the store of T. J. Miller & Son every day they will be gathered up and sent to the fair every morning. Seminole county has always had a fine exhibit at the Sub-Tropical Fair and this year especially should we bend our efforts to have the very best exhibit at the fair for there will be more people there this year than ever before. It is said that the Sub-Tropical Fair this year is bigger and better than ever before in every way and Seminole should have a varied showing of the many products of this great growing country. And then it will give the local people a great pride when they visit the fair to know that their home county has a creditable exhibit and one that will in some measure depict the possibilities of the greatest vegetable center of the world.

Banquet Last Night at the Valdez Hotel to Discuss University

Recreation Building and Forest Lake Was the Host

A group of twenty men, alumni of the University of Florida and other representative citizens of Seminole county, met in the Palm Room of the Valdez Hotel as the guests of Forest Lake last night.

Mr. Lake explained that he had been appointed chairman of the committee to secure Sanford's part of the $250,000, for a Students' Activities Building at the University of Florida and stated that he expected the help of those present.

D. L. Thrasher, Sanford's representative on the state committee, explained that owing to constitutional limitations the state could not appropriate money for this building, hence it is necessary to raise the money by voluntary subscription.

Judge Ernest Housholder and Clifford Walker, graduates of the University of Florida, each stated that there is great need of such a building. After a student has worked eight, ten or twelve hours in a day he must do something, so why not provide for making this time count for good?

Among those present were Forest Lake, S. O. Chase, Alfred Foster, D. L. Thrasher, D. W. Babbitt, Clifford Walker, John Meisch, Fred Ball, Jno. D. Davison, L. R. Phillips, B. F. Wheeler, Maxwell Kilvert and Ernest Housholder.

Others who are serving on the committee are B. F. Whitner, sr., H. C. DuBose, R. J. Holly, B. F. Whitner, jr., Randall Chase, W. T. Lawton and Walter Connelly.

NEW PHILLIPS BUILDING WILL SOON BE READY

Among the fine business blocks building now in this city is the I. W. Phillips building at the corner of Second street and Oak avenue. This building is well constructed of tapestry brick and is a two story building that will contain the garage for the Sanford Motor Co., the Dodge agents, and will also have three store rooms on Second street that will be occupied as soon as finished, the Atlantic and Pacific company already occupying one of them. The second floor will contain twelve apartments all finished strictly up to date and with every convenience. The apartments are something badly needed in this city and it is hoped they will be ready in time for this spring season and will be able to take part of the overflow population that there is always here during the months of March, April and May. The Phillips building was built by I. W. Phillips of Orlando, who is one of the greatest Orange county and Seminole county boosters and who is known by his works. The new Phillips building will add much to Sanford's new business blocks.

Mine Has Been Completely Explored and All Chance of Men Living Has Vanished

(By The Associated Press) DAWSON, New Mex., Feb. 13.—But two of the one hundred and twenty two miners who were in Dawson Mine No. 1 when the explosion occurred there Thursday afternoon, survived. This was definitely established last night when the Phelps-Dodge Corporation, owners of the mine, announced that it had been completely explored and all possibility of any entombed men still being alive had vanished. Fair week at Orlando.

And Seminole County will be there in full flower.

This is the time for Seminole county to show the world what we have.

Our California visitors will be here tomorrow and Sanford is expected to show them a good time and Sanford will do it.

The many fine buildings going up everywhere in the business district of Sanford is what takes the visitor's eye. Now if we can start 500 new homes this city will have TEN THOUSAND PEOPLE IN 1924.

This is the week to put over the Recreation Building at Florida university and Seminole county people can be depended upon to do their part.

The recreation building is one of the most important items in the future life of our great University.

President Harding says that the Ship Subsidy Bill is more important than the Debt Refunding Bill. We agree with him. The Ship Subsidy bill is the most important bill that has ever been presented to Congress. It may not pass but it is important, none the less.

Sanford is some busy place and every man in the city is busy and it is busy people who are expected to go ahead with the big things here and the big things that we must put over during the year 1923. The Herald has some of them outlined in the 1923 platform that you see at the head of the columns on this page from time to time.

Jacksonville is having the big Home Building convention this week and many models of beautiful homes are being exhibited in that city and the many visitors to the city are being entertained who are interested in better buildings for Florida. This is the time to build and this summer should see more homes built in Sanford and in other parts of the state than ever before. We should all get busy on the home building program.

ABRAHAM LINCOLN

Again we observe the anniversary of Abraham Lincoln's birth in 1809. And it occurs to many of us, that Lincoln is steadily becoming greater with the passing of the years. He died in 1865—only 56 years ago, which is a short period in humanity's history—but already he is being glorified into an almost legendary character. That is because history is classifying him as a force rather than as a man. His philosophy of personal liberty and the proper inter-relationship of human beings is today, a world influence.

From log cabin and obscure poverty to the presidency and international fame! Lincoln towers as an indelible reminder of what America offers to real ability, regardless of humble origin. Surely the career of "Honest Abe" is a constant inspiration to all Americans struggling to make this a better world for themselves and others.

Year by year the name of Abraham Lincoln become more honored in our beloved south. He was a man—born in the South—who, had he been spared the assassin's bullet, would have been a mighty factor for good in the trying days of the reconstruction. His death, it is now generally recognized, was a big loss to the South as well as to the nation as a whole.—Jacksonville Journal.

MOSQUITO EXTERMINATION

Now that the East Coast of Florida has taken up the work of mosquito extermination it is hoped that it will be carried to a successful termination. One of the most important steps to get rid of mosquitoes is a perfect drainage system. As long as there is a lot of stagnant water there will be mosquitoes, and the reason that we have so many of these pests along the coast is because of the undrained land from Jacksonville to the southern extremity of the state. Some sections have already established drainage districts, and while they are not perfect, there is a very noticeable change in the quantity of mosquitoes. When there is a complete drainage system of the overflowed lands adjacent to the coast section, not only will we be rid of mosquitoes, but will have brought into cultivation a large area of land that is especially adapted to the cultivation of fruits and vegetables and the entire coast for miles to the westward, will be one grand "Garden of Eden." Here is where the advocates of mosquito extermination and the land owners should cooperate. Get rid of the mosquitoes and the entire population will be able to enjoy life to a greater degree, and the drainage of the land will bring prosperity to the owners and the state generally. Both propositions go hand in hand and will bring the desired results.—New Smyrna Breeze.

SANFORD SETS THE PACE

Many papers in Florida cities have been talking about the city zoning system, but so far, outside the modification of the idea being worked on in St. Petersburg, Sanford is the first place to move for legal authority to adapt and put into function the real zoning idea.

The Sanford correspondent of the Jacksonville Times-Union, in a recent news story to that paper said:

"The legislative committee (of the Chamber of Commerce), under the chairmanship of Judge Lewis, submitted a zoning bill, local in nature, which will be presented by Forrest Lake, Representative for Seminole county, at the next session of the legislature. The bill briefly empowers the city commissioners of Sanford to appoint a city planning commission with full powers to study the resources, possibilities and needs of the city and then devise plans for systematic future development. The scope of the work of the proposed city planning commission will include zoning of the city into residential, business, wholesale manufacturing and colored sections. It will also pass on propositions for new subdivisions, extensions of the streets and make arrangements for improving the city's thoroughfares. In addition it will be authorized to further develop existing parks and locate new parks, and recommend the acquiring of same by the city commissioners. The bill will permit the city planning commission to have under its jurisdiction a playground development program. The passage of this bill at the next session of the legislature will give Sanford the distinction of being the first city in Florida to secure the legal authority to permit the city zoning and thereby develop along modern and well designed lines."

The Tribune some weeks ago pointed out the difference between the true zoning plan and the idea some have that it means letting a board or a city official tear down buildings already built, and otherwise interfere with what has already been done in a settled manner in any section or street of a city.

City zoning does not mean that. It means only the development of a city along lines that bring out its greatest value, worth, beauty and comfort. Sanford has taken a fine step; the rest of the Florida towns and cities will watch the results. It may be the city on the upper St. Johns waters has set the pace for city zoning government among the larger cities of the state.—Tampa Tribune.

ONE WAY TO LIVE LONG

The papers are filled now-a-days with health articles, telling us in great detail what to eat and drink and wear that our days may be long in the land, and filled with comfort and happiness. Celebrated physicians air their knowledge in the newspaper columns, and prescribe for all sorts of diseases to which human flesh is heir. They give freely of their knowledge and experience to millions of readers, and one might almost suppose that the necessity for local doctors would be done away with. We should hate to see the passing of the old family doctor, especially him of the small town, who has been an intimate friend of the family for many years, who brought its young people into to the world, and eased the last moments of those who have gone before. He was always a genial and kindly soul, a real friend in time of trouble.

His place can never be filled by those city doctors who prescribe for us through the columns of a metropolitan journal a thousand miles away. We should feel more alarmed for the welfare of the good old gentleman, if we did not find the advice so often given by those newspaper doctors to "consult a doctor." That gives us a ray of hope.

Sometimes we wonder how much merit there may be in this form of "absent treatment" through the papers, and how much of pure bunk. How many of these applications for advice come from real persons, and how many are written by the physicians themselves to keep the public interested, and gain a little cheap notoriety. We do not remember to have ever met a person who applied to one of these noted physicians for advice, but then this is a large country, and our experience has been limited.

But recently we have learned of an experience in longevity, which shakes our faith in the dictums of the medicine men. There died recently in the Kanawha county house, W. Va., an inmate named James Sutton, in the 117th year of his age. Because of his great age he was known as "Uncle Jim." His philosophy of life was very simple. We quote from the Clarkburg Exponent, a West Virginia paper: "But notwithstanding he lived so long 'Uncle Jim' did not live in a manner that harmonized with the so-called scientific longevity rules. In fact, he paid little attention to them. His theory was that one should smoke tobacco and chew it in large quantities, leave liquor alone, but drink black coffee three times a day. He further advised the wearing of two pairs of trousers. 'Don't take them off at night, if you don't have to,' he said. 'Take a bath once a week, and that on Saturday night. Medicines? Never take them unless you have to. Eat as much as you wish. The more you eat the longer you live.'"

"That is certainly a simple and it may be a comforting philosophy but one may be permitted to question if it was worth while after all to live so long by merely gratifying one's animal wants. But if Uncle Jim liked it who shall complain?"—Tampa Times.

THE CATTLE TICK AND THE NO-FENCE LAW

Tabulated returns from all portions of the state to queries sent out force the Florida Development board to conclude that there is no possibility of enacting either a no-fence law or a cattle tick eradication law which will be state-wide. Favoring such measures in the majority of counties are the members of the coming legislature, both upper and lower houses; but there will be too much pressure brought upon those men to allow them to vote as they believe will be the best for the state as a whole. Consequently the hope that was created when a delegation of cattlemen petitioned the governor to call an extra session for the purpose of putting through some enacting measures of enforcement in this direction has faded away.

There is too much vacillation regarding the cattle tick eradication to forecast any legislative act—although all stock growers realize the great losses entailed by every delay. Existing conditions indicate that no great length of time must elapse before cattle raising will be a thing of the past in Florida, so far as heavy investments are concerned. Where there is to be found no outside market the production will gradually cease.

As a step, however, taken in the direction of tick eradication is the no-fence project. Once this measure becomes a state law and the matter of stock dipping would readily be undertaken. With this end in view, therefore, the Florida Development league has prepared and has sent to all senators and legislators a complete copy of a measure which it is believed will go a long way in this direction, for it will first make the state safe for the home-maker and then the stock raiser will make it safe for himself.

In nearly every county the measure has found a sponsor who will work for its advancement, and who will see that the proper legal notice is published regarding its introduction. In Lake county the bill will be introduced by W. A. McKenzie—provided he sees no possibility of a general state law going through. The bill is very broad and is prepared by legal talent. It is too extensive to be reproduced in these columns, but the caption which follows is explanatory of the scope:

An act to make it unlawful for live stock to run or roam at large in Lake county, Florida; to provide for the impounding and sale of such livestock so running at large; to provide penalties for the violation of this act; and providing that persons damaged by such stock running at large may recover damages therefor, together with a reasonable attorney fee, from the owner of such live stock.

The press of the state is favoring this measure which has received the endorsement of many cattlemen who already have their stock under fence and find it to be a profitable proposition.—Palatka News.

FORGETS OWN NAME

(By The Associated Press) ST. LOUIS, Feb. 13.—A well-dressed man, who has forgotten even his own name, and who has been a patient at the city hospital since last Friday yesterday was identified as H. E. Cook, of either Miami, Fla., or Memphis, Tenn. The aphasia victim is said to be about 63 years old. Identification was made by a hotel clerk and guest of the hotel, who said the man resided at the hotel for several weeks.

A man in California writes to the Ford company and tells them that they should feel very much exalted for the reason that the Ford is the only car mentioned in the Bible and to prove it cites them to a passage in Isaiah which says: "He went up into Heaven on high," and asks, by heck, what other car but a Ford could do it?"

I thought it was a Lincoln—it climbs steps.

FABLE OF THE NEW BROOM

And it came to pass that the Populace of Pinestraw, after burning much oil in their lanterns found an honest man. Silas Harddash happened to be his name, although strange to relate he had very little of this stuff about his person. However the select committee of representative citizens offered to furnish enough dust, if Silas would be represent them in congress and redress their wrongs, which same were many.

Silas thought and think, and then thinned again, and at last being as aforementioned—honest, he frankly told his constituents—whatever that means, but it sounds good so we'll let it lie—that he didn't believe that he was just suited for the job. However and moreover, the said Constituents (abbreviation) were finally convinced that seeing as how Silas was honest, he couldn't help, but make good, or maybe better. So Silas was prevailed upon to brush up the old carpet bag, put on his woolen underwear—his wife's doings—and sally forth upon the high seas of (I almost said, piracy) political intrigue.

As was to be expected, immediately upon his arrival in the Capitol Silas was picked out as an easy mark, by the lobbyists, and other lords of that ilk. But when they approached him with sums of currency, and tried to grease his palm, he would have none of their boodle, but talked right out loud, denouncing them in no uncertain language, for Silas was a new broom you see, and had not absorbed enough dirt to bend to the golden calf.

And when Silas returned to the city of his birth, he was acclaimed on every hand, as one among many. He was lauded to the skies, and sent back to the halls of justice for another bout in the political ring.

One day a big moneyed man whispered a scheme into Silas' ears that caused his ticker to miss a couple ticks. It really wasn't actual theft the smooth one argued, just business.

Constant association with others who were doing it every time they got the chance had had its effect on Silas, and he used his voice in Council to further the scheme. And when the people of Pinestraw realized that they had been duped even once again they were wroth. But of course that didn't help out even a little bit. Silas is now mentioned in Bradstreet's.

Moral: 'New broom sweeps clean at first. But they all wear out.

"ROBIN HOOD"

The DeKoven master comic opera, "Robin Hood" is a continuous outpour of wonderfully beautiful music, the kind that is remembered and sung. The beauties of "O Promise Me" have added the artistic touch of myriads of wedding scenes and "Brown October Ale," with its musing chorus, is one of the finest ensembles ever written. "The Armourer's Song," is perhaps the best loved of bravura songs, and sung as it is in "Robin Hood" by a flaming forge, the sparks flying from the singing anvil, its stirring theme is never forgotten. And in its comedy element, where are there such equally famous figures as Friar Tuck and the Sheriff of Nottingham? We must go back to Shakespeare's plays to find their equal in Falstaff and Malvolio. Even Gilbert and Sullivan gave to the world no such lasting and lovable personages. You older people—if your children do not know "Robin Hood" if they haven't seen the genial Tuck and the strutting Sheriff, and thrilled as Maid Marian fled to Robin's arms in green boughed Sherwood—you are depriving the mass much of their happiness as if you deprived them of Tom Sawyer. And you are losing as much yourself, if you fail to renew your own youth again at Robin Hood's everlasting fountain of springtime and loyalty and good fellowship! The company now booked at the Princess Theatre, Tuesday, February 20th is Miss May Valentine's presentation and numbers 40 people and has a special Symphony Orchestra, which is under the direction of Miss Valentine.

Three Accused in Wiretapping Case Face New Charge

CLEVELAND, Feb. 13.—Three men now on trial in Denver on charges involving the wholesale swindling of Western business men will be brought here to face charges of conspiracy to use the mails to defraud, Gerald L. Pilliod, assistant United States District Attorney, has announced. They are J. Homer (Jack) French, A. W. Duff and Thomas Beach.

Denver authorities informed United States District Attorney Ed. S. Wertz that they would surrender the trio to the federal authorities. H. R. Graham, postoffice inspector of New York left for the western city yesterday with warrants for the three men.

French is said to be the leader of a gang under indictment at Miami, Fla., which swindled a number of persons out of approximately a million dollars through fraudulent stock and race horse betting deals. The action on which the federal authorities here expect to try the three will be on charges of Albert Zurin, Cleveland, that he had mailed to Miami, Fla., a draft for $13,000, which amount he "lost" betting on horses. He became suspicious, however, when the men insisted that he cash the draft and turn over the money and notified the postoffice officials.

Among those who are expected to be called to identify the men is Peter R. Nicholson, Dillonvale, Ohio, banker and coal operator, who lost $120,000 in a stock deal.

J. G. Scott, of Hialeah, Fla., who told federal authorities he lost $25,000 in a race horse swindle; R. W. Clendon of Miami, and managers of telegraph and telephone companies, at Miami also are expected to testify for the government.

EXTENSION OF TIME FOR DOMESTIC CORPORATIONS

The Commissioner of Internal Revenue, under the authority of Section 227 of the Revenue act of 1921, has granted a general extension of time to domestic corporations up to and including June 15, 1923, and the fiscal year ending February 28, 1923, conditional upon the filing of tentative returns with the proper Collector of Internal Revenue on or before March 15, April 15 and May 15, 1923, respectively, accompanied with at least one-fourth of the estimated amount of tax due together with a statement setting forth the reason why the return cannot be completed within the prescribed time, and a formal request for the extension.

Tentative returns submitted in accordance with the foregoing should be on Form 1120, on which should be written plainly across the face "Tentative Return." Only the name and address of the taxpayer and the estimated amount, if any, of the tax due need be stated. Any deficiency in the first installment as determined upon submission of the final return will bear interest at the rate of six per cent per annum from March 15, April 15, or May 15, 1923, respectively.

Yours truly, D. T. GEROW, Collector of Internal Revenue

COX IN FLORIDA

(By The Associated Press) JACKSONVILLE, Feb. 13.—James M. Cox, Democratic candidate for the presidency in 1920, in this city yesterday enroute to Miami for a winter trip will return to Jacksonville in March and will deliver his address "The World Today," based on his observations on his recent tour. Mr. Cox surprised local members of the chamber of commerce with his close touch with Florida affairs and asked how the people of this state feel concerning what he termed "the present state of isolation."

Uncultivated Lands in Sanford Section Will Soon Be Sold

There Will Be One Vast Truck Garden For Many Miles Around Section

The time is coming when the uncultivated lands around Sanford will be sold and all cleared up and tilled and put into cultivation. There is not much land in this part of the county that is in the flowing well district and the greater part of the lands left belong to M. M. Smith of Winter Park who was among the first to buy up these lands and put them on the market. Mr. Smith purchased all of the lands of the old Florida Colonization Co., here about fifteen years ago and has sold off many acres of this land to farmers who have cleared them and made them into some of the finest farms in this section. Mr. Smith has hundreds of acres left on the west side, much of the land being in or adjacent to the city limits of Sanford and this would be a fine opportunity for a big development company to take these lands and cut them up into five acre and ten acre tracts ready for cultivation and sell them off to people who are looking for vegetable farms all ready to farm. These lands are all good vegetable lands and should be developed and farmed, thus giving the county and the business interests of Sanford an added impetus. In the uncultivated state they are non-productive but if they were put in shape to cultivate they would bring in handsome returns to the owners and to the county.

DR. E. N. LEWIS DIES AT HOME IN DEFIANCE

Dr. E. N. Lewis died at his home in Defiance, Ohio, yesterday at the advanced age of 86 years. Dr. Lewis was born in 1836 and was one of the pioneer residents of Defiance county, having operated a wholesale and retail drug store there since 1871 and was a leading figure in that part of Ohio for many years.

He was well known in this county, having been coming to Geneva for the winter for the past nineteen years and he had orange groves and other property in that vicinity. Dr. Lewis had been in failing health for several years and had never recovered from the death of his wife since which time he had been very feeble and his death was not unexpected, but the blow was none the less severe upon his two children, Mrs. Thomas Bentley of Toledo, and Harry B. Lewis of this city. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis left today for Defiance upon receiving the wire announcing his death. The sympathy of the many friends of the family here is extended to the bereaved ones in their hour of sorrow.

A CLEAN GARBAGE CAN SAFEGUARDS HEALTH

Every neglected garbage can is a microbe nursery. In just such places microbes and disease germs thrive and multiply. Merely rinsing the can is a waste of time; a mere disinfectant may neutralize odors but does not cleanse. If you want to kill the lurking germs that menace the family's health you've got to use lye. Use it as directed below. Lye dissolves every fragment of garbage left behind, cuts the grease right down to the iron and kills the odors. It sterilizes everything it touches and leaves the can clean and sanitary. Use lye twice a week at least. It costs so little and goes so far you can afford to use it unsparingly. Directions: With an old broom scour the inside of the can with two tablespoonsful of lye dissolved in 4 quarts of hot water. Rinse with clear water and dry in the sun.

Because It Helps Feed the Necessary Iron and Vitamines to Your Nerves, Muscles and Tissue

If you feel uncomfortable after eating, have headaches, or wake up in the morning feeling just as tired as when you went to bed, you are not digesting the food you eat properly and thoroughly. If you are nervous, irritable, despondent, with apparently no definite aim in life, you are a victim of what is commonly termed "a run-down and worn-out system."

These are the surest signs you are not feeding your nerves, muscles, tissue and brains with the nourishment they require to give you health, strength and endurance.

RE-CU-MA, the phenomenal new treatment which has taken Florida by storm, quickly vitalizes the gastric juices so they digest your food and pass it on to the intestines, so they can assimilate the iron and vitamines from it into your blood. With rich, red blood, full of health, coursing through your veins carrying nourishment to your tissue, nerves, muscles, brain and every part of your body you will quickly regain your former strength, health and endurance.

RE-CU-MA is sold in Sanford by the Union Pharmacy and the leading dealers in every city.—Adv.

CELERY SEED

Kinder slippy at the alleys last night.

Some of the wax or oil that goes on the alleys got on the runway and Chapman stood on his head twice.

And Archie Betts sat down several times after they put rosin on it to stop the sliding.

But 'twas a good game in so far as the closeness of the score goes. The Farmers are now in first place all by themselves—until after tonight.

Jacksonville says nix on the Saturday League stuff. Just can't do it—so they say. They got a good city league anyway, even if it did fall down to a four club league.

Deane Turner challenges any member of the Sanford Country Club or visitors to a one ball, one club match. Some one take him on.

The Southern cities sporting big league clubs this season will be all blossomed out with the major leagues players in a few days. They are headed south and even if Sanford can't accommodate any of them we can at least see some of the big games close by us.

Two pairs of brothers will poke their feet beneath the New York Giants training table at San Antonio this spring, all of them pitchers, Jess and Virgil Barnes were regulars with the club last season. Fred and Chester Lucas, recruits, will be the other pair.
