Sarah Says
Details Of Hearings
Were Deleted

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—The Senate Foreign Affairs Committee today decided to make public recent testimony of Secretary of State Kellogg in which he said that communistic interests were at work in Mexico to undermine the United States.

Committee members felt that if he wanted the testimony public, should appear in open session. After his appearance closed yesterday, Kellogg issued statement, insisting alleged statements made on the record of the committee had been withdrawn by the Wheeler committee chairman.

Dr. J. R. Saccas, the chairman of the committee which was instrumental in withdrawing of Kellogg's statement, told the press that the government would not be allowed to influence committees to carry on investigations in which they were interested.

The statement of the committee, which we believe was incomplete in its entirety, has been read before the committee. We have had a right to do it, but it leaves out what happened in the hearing and that therefore it must not be shown.

Indeed, the committee was of the opinion that we ought not to touch the practice of having open sessions, and then after the results of the hearing, to be open they from the beginning to make it public.

Tourist Dance And Card Party Will Be Given On Feb. 3

A tourist dance and card party, to which all winter residents and visitors are to be invited, is to be given at the City Hall auditorium on the night of Feb. 3, according to tentative plans made at a meeting of the entertainment committee of the Chamber of Commerce held yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Various features for the evening's entertainment are to be worked out during the next few days by sub-committees and arrangements made for having the affair one of the largest ever held in the city.

Tourist activities, under the leadership of a committee formed from the tourists themselves, and under the direction of the Chamber of Commerce are to assume a larger magnitude on the social calendar of Sanford for the ensuing season than they did last winter, Chamber officials say.

Announcement was made today by Secretary E. J. Trotter that the names and addresses of all tourists now in the city were desired by the Chamber. He stated that all tourists are being invited to call at his office and register in order that they may be included in future activities.

ROBBED

N. C., Jan. 26.—Early today envoys stoned here, the men's clothes were taken from the man.

They urged to organize for fight attacks on 18th Amendment.

Jan. 26—(INS)—A series of meetings drys to take place throughout the country for the fight to keep the 18th Amendment. The movement was soundly defeated at the annual conference held in Atlanta today by representatives of the 18th Amendment.

Hudson (R) of Florida, who is in charge of the wet's effort, said the dangerous attack upon the government is an attack on the 18th Amendment.

"The wet's effort is a dangerous attack upon the 18th Amendment," Hudson said. "Hudson warned because the wet's are more active and have more money than ever before."

Rum Runners Use
Smoke Screen When Pursuit Is Too Hot

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Jan. 26.—(INS)—Laying down a screen of poison gas behind their car, rum runners encroached north from Florida left federal prohibition patrols in their wake today, dazed and gassing for breath.

A carburetor of dry agents commanded by S. O. McPherson, Deputy District administrator, gave chase to a long grey screen, apparently of foreign make. Before the pursuit had covered a mile, the dry patrol saw a mist, evidently chlorine gas, spouting from the rear of the rum runner's car.

"The smoke screen was so effective that we had to give up the chase to prevent from choking to death," McPherson said, adding that the bootleggers evidently had connected the smoke screen device with the exhaust of their machine.

CLASH IMMINENT BETWEEN SACASA AND U.S. MARINES

Leaders Of Liberals Asserts
Nicaraguans Have Become Aroused Over American Intervention In Revolution

PUERTO CAMEZAS, Nicaragua, Jan. 26.—The danger of a clash between United States Marines and Liberal troops was pointed out today by Dr. Juan B. Sacasa, head of the Liberal government, in an exclusive statement to International News Service.

Dr. Sacasa deplored the situation, but charged that the action of the marines in constantly extending neutral zones had aroused hostility.

He declared that the Diaz government at Managua could not stand without American support and disclaimed any American feeling on his own part.

"Hospitality has been aroused by the action of the United States marines in following the constitutionalists and declaring neutral-allied areas of land from the Diazista army," said Dr. Sacasa.

Chavez Nicaraguans Desperate

"Such acts are making Nicaraguans desperate. The situation is bad and is increasing in gravity. Creation of these neutral zones is robbing us of the places captured by us through force of arms."

Dr. Sacasa expressed the determination that the government would quickly fall should the American government withdraw its support and resume an attitude of neutrality."

Dr. Sacasa, after denying any anti-Americanism referred to the United States as his "second mother country."

Vincenti Villamin To Speak At Forum On The Philippines

Vincenti Villamin, Philipino Nationalist, an author and lecturer known both in the far east and in the United States as one of the staunchest opponents of Philippine independence at the present time, is to be the speaker at the meeting of the Sanford Open Forum Friday night in the Woman's Club building according to an announcement made today by Warren Smith, president of the Forum.

Mr. Villamin, born and educated in the Philippines, has travelled over most of the world and has on numerous occasions appeared before Congressional tariff and shipping commissions in the interest of the government and the Philippines.

His article on finance, commerce and industry are being syndicated in more than 50 American newspapers and his writings have appeared in some of the largest magazines of the nation. A few months ago a story on the Philippines written by Mr. Villamin caused widespread comment throughout the country.

The subject of the address a Sanford audience is to hear is to be the facts about Philippine Independence. As the speaker is well known in Florida, it is believed by Forum officials that a large audience will hear his lecture in this city.

YOUNG WIFE IS AGAIN QUIZZED IN COURT SUIT

"Peaches" Browning Resumes Story Of Martial Tangle After Being On Stand 4 Hours On 2nd Day Of Trial

Defendant Is Nervous On Cross Examination

Nurse And Mother Of Girl Are Also Called To Testify At Session This Morning

BY JAMES L. KILGALLEN
International News Service Staff Correspondent

COURT HOUSE, WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., Jan. 26.—"Peaches" Browning, 16-year-old wife of Edward W. "Daddy" Browning, elderly millionaire of New York City, resumed the witness stand for further cross-examination at the Browning separation trial today.

Clad in a blue silk dress and a blue cloche hat, which set off her blonde hair and complexion becomingly, "Peaches" took the stand at 10:04 a. m. She wore a little ball watch suspended from her neck on a thin, gold chain.

"Peaches" seemed nervous as she took her place in the witness box. She had been on the stand for four hours yesterday and left exhausted. She had painted Browning as a man of depraved tastes. She said he forced her to parade about their bed chamber with nothing on and to eat breakfast fast with him undressed; that he denied her the right of motherhood; that he awakened her at night by springing on her bed, shouting "Boo!" and that his various idiosyncrasies finally caused her nerves to break and she had to leave him.

Identifies Syndicate Story

Judge John E. Black of Bronx County began his cross-examination.

O. You spoke of a contract with a syndicate for stories printed about you. Is this the story? Handing her a picture of a tabloid paper? Is that your signature under the story? Why I left Daddy Browning?"

As 14.

While "Peaches" was identifying the newspaper stories, her mother, Mrs. Carolyn Heenan, came over to the witness stand and took a seat at her daughter's elbow. Mrs. Heenan said: "I want to be habe in case she breaks down again."

Mr. Spencer identified the letters and two post-card letters were introduced and identified in all. When he finished introducing the letters, Mack unexpectedly conjured his own ex-mechanic at 10:40 a. m.

Browning looked squarely at his young, estranged wife as if to see what the effect was upon her. She seemed distraught and on the verge of another breakdown. She coughed nervously time and again.

Attorney Epstein took over the witness for short redress examination, regarding the letters and a published diary.

She was then excused from the stand at 10:53 a. m.

Mrs. Catherine Mayer, a nurse, was called to the stand. She testified she had known "Peaches" and her mother for five years. She said she went to Cold Spring at Mrs. Heenan's request to pay the Browns a visit after "Peaches" and "Daddy" were married.

She also attended "Peaches" when she suffered acid burns, the witness said.

I heard Mr. and Mrs. Browning quarreling on their honeymoon at Cold Spring," Mrs. Mayer testified.

Richard S. Untermyer Takes Own Life By Strangling In Room Of Dormitory At Yale Father Prostrate By Ews

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Jan. 26.—(INS)—Richard S. Untermyer, son of the wealthy brewer Amherst, Colo., was found dead in his room at Yale University today, suddenly by hanging.

A continual barrage of abusive language is said to have aroused the ire of the deity as he went about his task of measuring the room. He was born in New York.

Untermyer prepared for Yale in Switzerland at the Swiss Glarey School and in Horace Mann School, New York.

Depravity over money matters and abounding sarcasm is believed to have driven the youth to end his life, among his effects was found a letter from his mother warning him that he had overdrawn his account.

The letter, however, was written in the friendliest of terms and classmates today were unable to blame fear of the approaching examinations for the suicide. They said young Untermyer had been studying hard and the work had proven a marked headache.

The other denied drawing his gun. Attorney Spencer and Fred Krueger, a witness to the affair, say he did. Judge Sharpe will probably acquit him of the charge of murder.

Mr. Jones was arrested on a warrant charging assault and battery on the county court house. A few moments later he in turn was arrested on warrants charging Attorney Spencer and Mrs. Oglesby.

Detective S. G. Cooksey was called to the scene. The drys charged that the charges were dropped in the meantime.

The other denied drawing his gun.

Judge John E. Black of Bronx County began his cross-examination.

O. You spoke of a contract with a syndicate for stories printed about you. Is this the story?

Woman Charged With Driving Car While In Intoxicated Condition

The combined efforts of four police officers were required to place a young white woman, who refused to disclose her identity, in a cell at police headquarters at noon today, following her arrest on a charge of operating a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor.

Police were summoned to a point near Geneva and Sanford Avenue and Chief Roy G. Williams, Lt. A. H. Beckwith and Patrolman H. O. Hall responded. The woman was driving a small sedan when the officers caught up with her and serious difficulties were encountered in getting her out of the car into the station.

When she was started out, the assistance of Sergeant N. A. Collett was required before she could be locked up. With the exception of a few hairs kicked over, a bracelet or two and a few scratches, the woman, too, expected to be complete within 60 days.

The arrangement for the non-harassment bid out by A. P. Haggard and the pathways between cells are to be decorated with shrubs and flowers. The work, too, is expected to be complete within 60 days.

DELANEY NOT IN FRONT RANKS OF RICKARDS RATING

Cobb And Speaker Predict Vindication

By DAVID J. WALSH
International News Service
Sports Editor

New York, Jan. 25.—Jack Delaney, the bantam man, is not a front rank heavyweight contender. Neither is Jim Maloney. Nor do Jim Anderson, of Cincinnati, and Leo Lomski, of Portland, Oregon, rate higher than the third group of middleweights, while Bushy Graham, Utica, N. Y., merely is a bantamweight of the second group.

These observations are not mine. They are the very exclusive property of Tex Rickard, who compiled some 100,000 individual surprises in the annual ranking of boxers, made public today through the courtesy of the ring.

It might even be suspected that they were drafted before Rickard got around to arranging his February schedule of matches, for one of these couples, Delaney and Maloney, is an attraction for which he has contrived to obtain a dispensation allowing him to change 850 to 85 ringside seats. Another match, earlier in the month, calls for a return to meet Charlie Phil Rosenberg and here, supposedly, the world's bantamweight championship will be at stake. It doesn't look as though Mr. Rickard has been thinking with his customary clarity.

The blankings, he said, were based on no 1926 performances but on 1927 "potentialities." Taking him at his word, however, we are to judge if, if the heavyweights were to be decided on this basis, three men would be eligible—Gone Tunney, present champion; Jack Dempsey, ex-champion, and Jack Sharkey, conqueror of Harry Wills. Delaney heads the second group. Maloney, the other principal on Rickard's twenty dollar show, brings up the rear behind Paul Bedenbaugh and Peño.

Young Strifling, Monte Munn and Jack Renault are placed in the third group, with Harry Vernon and K. O. Phillips.

Delaney and Berlebaum run "one-two" respectively among the light heavyweights, as expected, with Tommy Loughran in their place and, in the middleweight division, the former champion, Tiger Flowers, is placed at the top over Mickey Walker, the man who gained a disputed decision over the Tiger in Chicago. Pete Laro, the welterweight champion, remains in the first place on middleweight over K. O. Phillips, Marcy Rosenbaum and Dave shade, who from the second group.

Late, of course, heads the welters, with Joe Dundee and Eddie Roberts rated in the first group. The first three in the lightweight division are Sammy Mandell, champion, and Sid Terrell and Billy Wallace, leading contenders. However, Phil Stearns, director of engineering of the White Motor Company of Cleveland,

Texas Drinks 100 Cups Of Coffee To Claim Record Of Comstock

TAMPA, Fla., Jan. 25.—(INS)—Having gained a formal victory in the State Supreme Court against a temporary injunction prohibiting the sale of betting certificates, the Tampa Jockey Club prepared today to resume its 37-day horse race meeting at Tampa Downs, tomorrow.

The Hillsborough Kennel Club will resume its nightly program of dog races tonight.

The Tampa Jockey Club suspended its racing program Friday and Saturday under the legal proceedings. Late yesterday the State Supreme Court granted a writ of supersedeas to the club and also to the kennel Club and to the Pompano Horse Club settling aside the temporary injunctions until the high tribunal has decided definitely whether the sale of betting certificates constitutes violation of the state's anti-gambling laws.

Boots Antley And Battling Barrett Meet In Main Bout Wednesday Night

Sanford and Orlando fans who remember the appearance of Boots Antley in a local ring last year are expected to flock to the Albert Wellman's victory meet Battling Barrett, an Alabama boxer, in the main ring of a good looking new boxing hall which has been arranged by "Pete" Newell.

Antley appeared here last season but the last time he was seen was in the memory of the spectators hereabouts. Joe Wellman, one of the toughest lightweights who ever tried the beaten, was number two in the ring and before the evening was over Antley had considerably bilked his reputation by nailing Joe in every bout.

The semi-final of the card is set to begin two hours of 10 round bouts, each of whom are expected to furnish good entertain-

DECISION ON TRIS AND TY EXPECTED AT ANY TIME NOW

Assurance Of No Kick-Back Given Landis In Ousting Of Ban Johnson; Complete Exoneration Is Forecast

By DAVIS J. WALSH

New York, Jan. 25.—(INS)—Ty Cobb and Tris Speaker packed up their kits today to prepare for departure to their home town, both somewhat easily optimistic over the possibilities of complete vindication in the eyes of baseball.

Both felt that the passing of Johnson meant that Kenesaw Landis could act alone and unhampered as regards their future status. Both were confident that Landis very shortly would hand down a decision which would be a complete exonerations of each and that they would be eligible to play in any league in organized baseball.

Fans Asking What Will Cobb, Speaker Do If Exonerated

CHICAGO, Jan. 25.—(INS)—With speculative interest in baseball undimmed by the semi-tragic happenings of the past several weeks, fans today were asking:

What will Ty Cobb and Tris Speaker do if Commissioner Landis restores them to good standing in the ranks of organized baseball?

The belief is general that Landis will exonerate the two famous stars.

Cobb, who left here last night for his home at Augusta, Ga., let it be known that he does not desire to return to the Detroit Club in any capacity. Speaker was quoted as saying he would like to return in Cleveland.

It is believed the American League will make every effort to have Cobb and Speaker reinstated as soon as possible. Another match, earlier in the month, calls for a return to meet Charlie Phil Rosenberg and here, supposedly, the world's bantamweight championship will be at stake. ## CAWTHON URGES PUPILS TO READ FINE LITERATURE

State Educational Head Desires Reading In Leisure Time To Broader Views Of Men And Women Of Future

By JOSEPH L. LAURE
News Service Staff Correspondent

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., Jan. 26.—The worthy use of leisure time has been set forth as one of the fundamental objective of secondary education and an analysis of the effective methods used by the adults, students, and skills incident to its attainment. State Superintendent of Schools, W. H. Cawthon declared to the International News Service today in commenting upon the reading of good literature by school children.

The first step toward good literature is greatly to be desired as a means of enabling the young to use their leisure time well, and this result should be inculcated while children are in the elementary schools if it is to bear fruit during the secondary stage of their education. Every teacher and every child going to school at present has more leisure time than school children some years back, the state school head pointed out, and if this leisure time is not filled with something worth while, children are apt to get into mischief.

In introducing the list of books to schools throughout the state, Dr. Cawthon said that teachers can cooperate with the students as much as possible in developing their appreciation of good literature, which he maintains, can be developed only through enjoyment in reading good books.

The result of the recent state educational tests given to the primary grades of Florida schools reveal a serious retardation in the reading ability of the pupils enrolled in the first six grades, a recent survey of the state department showed. It is with a view of remedying this condition and at the same time giving Florida's school children to make good of their leisure time that the movement to educate them in reading for enjoyment is being made.

Day By Day In Florida

PENSACOLA—Members of the Jewish faith from Florida, Georgia and South Carolina will gather here Dec. 23 for a three-day session of the Southern Division of Jewish Sabbath School Teachers. An Alabama State Jewish Association will meet at the same time. Numbers of prominence among Jewish religious workers will take part in the program.

PENSACOLA—West Florida is to hear a number of addresses by Dr. G. L. Morelock, of Nashville, Tenn., foremost Southern Methodist layman. Dr. Morelock will speak at a group of conferences in Alabama and West Florida. "Greens" and "Whig" are among the Florida points to be visited during the first of January.

FORT MYERS—The Tamiami Trail, now under construction between Miami and Fort Myers, will be completed by the corner of Monroe, Dade and Collier counties by April 1, according to D. Graham Copland, chief engineer for the contractor, company engaged in building the road. The dredge site now within 5 miles of the intersection of the three counties.

WEST PALM BEACH—The annual "golfers' tour" will come to Florida again this winter. The Sunshine state won over California by a 100 to 1 vote, and may be made the permanent resort for the annual "trek" of some of the country's best link performers, according to G. C. Brainer, vice president of the "Golfers'" Magazine, which is sponsoring the tour. The party will come in late February or early March.

BY COURT RULING

the bureau of immigration. State Senator W. C. Hodges, Gov. Martin's representative with the committee, telephoned the bureau for sixty copies of "All Florida," to be distributed among the visitors.

CLEARWATER — About 169,000 boxes of citrus fruit, including grapefruit, oranges and tangerines, were shipped from this section up to the first of the new year. The two canning plants packed about 25,000 cases of grapefruit. Those are employed in the industry.

PLANT CITY — This city will be well on towards its proposed $160,000 water improvement program when a drill is sunk for a 12-inch well. The machinery for the well has been unloaded, and immediate work was planned. The well will be 300 feet deep and provide a flow of 1,000 gallons a minute. Abond issue was recently voted for development of the water facilities.

EUSTIS — Lake County, with the exception of a small portion in the vicinity of Astor, and a free range adjoining Polk county, went under the no-fence law Jan. 1. The no-fence provisions were voted for this section some time ago, and no cattle will be allowed to run at free range.

CLEARWATER — The Newton Bridge company, of York, Pa., was awarded contracts for three bridges in Pinellas county, to cost upwards of $100,000. The contract price was $94,059.91. The spans will be placed over Stevenson Creek, on the Safety Harbor highway, and on the Largo road.

OCALA — This city is being equipped with up-to-date fire-fighting apparatus. A new truck has been bought by the city commissioners, and will arrive here shortly. The purchase price was $13,500. The city was allowed a $1,000 discount on a trade-in of the old hose and chemical truck.

HOLLYWOOD — Florida may expect "dollar for dollar" from the United States government towards the establishment of a world port, if the federal officials can be convinced that this section has the commerce to justify it. Representative W. W. Chalmers, of Ohio, declared in an address before the Rotary Club here.

PENSACOLA — Escambia may soon have a satsuma packing house, if plans of the Gulf Coast Citrus Exchange bear fruit. Dr. O. P. Wimberg, president of the exchange, told a delegation of satsuma growers, meeting at Silver Hill, Ala., that the exchange stands ready to erect such a plant.

GAINESVILLE — The local chamber of commerce, on Jan. 11, will publish its first issue of a monthly magazine to be circulated here. Two thousand copies will be printed, some of which will be mailed to different sections of the country. The publication will be devoted to the furtherance of Alachua county's advance.

WINTER HAVEN — A motorcyclist went "calling" here and a thief in the s.e. of a house was the result. The machine got beyond control of C. E. Dean, as he turned a corner, climbed the porch of the house of J. B. Garrett, and smashed into the structure. No one was hurt, but the machine was wrecked.

WINTER HAVEN — The community is to be told of Polk county's Orange Festival, to be held here Jan. 21-22. WMSG, broadcasting station for Madison Square Garden Broadcast Corporation, has tendered its services to the festival's publicity committee. Data on Winter Haven generally will also be broadcast.

JUDGES LINDSEY — A motorcycle went "calling" here and a thief in the s.e. of a house was the result. The machine got beyond control of C. E. Dean, as he turned a corner, climbed the porch of the house of J. B. Garrett, and smashed into the structure. No one was hurt, but the machine was wrecked.

Two thousand copies will be printed, some of which will be mailed to different sections of the country. The publication will be devoted to the furtherance of Alachua county's advance.

LAKELAND — Cupid shot home a wicked arrow here, and a triple wedding was the result. The marriages took place at the same time, in a home of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Perez, according to Marcelino Perez, Jr., owner of the plant.

TAMPA — "Have a cigar, madame? They are fresh from Tampa" is the saying at the Hotel Astor, New York. The cigars, manufactured at a local cigar factory, are known as the "Chiquita," meaning "little girl" in Spanish. They are about the size of a cigarette, and are in demand among the fair sex of the high social set, according to Marcelino Perez, Jr., owner of the plant.

SANFORD — Some of the first literature read by members of the rivers and harbors Congressional committee, while on their inspection trip in Florida, was a copy of "All Florida," issued by Dr. C. G. Brainer, vice president of the "Golfers'" Magazine, which is sponsoring the tour. The party will come in late February or early March.

CITRUS BEACH — The annual "golfers' tour" will come to Florida again this winter. The Sunshine state won over California by a 100 to 1 vote, and may be made the permanent resort for the annual "trek" of some of the country's best link performers, according to G. C. ### BEWARE THE COUGH OR COLD THAT HANGS ON Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can say them with confidence—when you swallow croton oil it is pleasant to take. Croton oil is a medicine discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, croton oil is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agents for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Croton oil contains, in addition to croton oil, healing elements which soothe and heal the infected membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the croton oil goes to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Croton oil is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchitis, whooping cough, and other forms of respiratory diseases and is especially recommended for its use after colds or influenza have passed. It also cures colds not relieved after taking according to directions. And you dragon.

"I told her I thought that was best."

She was then excused.

"Peaches," mother, Mrs. Carolyn Heenan, was then called.

Mother Divorced From Mate

Epstein asked:

"Where was your daughter born?"

"In Columbus, Ohio. She is 15 years old."

"Are you divorced from your husband?"

"Yes. I divorced him in 1918."

"Your occupation has been what?"

"A nurse."

"Do you recall when you first met Mr. Browning?"

"March 15, 1926."

"Who introduced you to him?"

"My daughter."

Mrs. Heenan said "Peaches" had been a dangle and she was walking up for her when she came home with Browning. Browning impressed her as a "very fine gentleman" on that occasion, said Mrs. Heenan.

"When your daughter went out on other occasions did your daughter always tell you where she was going?"

"She did."

Browning usually brought "Peaches" home about midnight.

Browning Wanted To Wed.

One night Browning told her he had "serious intentions" regarding "Peaches," said Mrs. Heenan. On that occasion he showed her numerous letters written by girls who wanted to marry him, she said.

"Mr. Browning said we (mean he and "Peaches") are going to run up to Cold Springs and get married. Can you go along?"

She testified she went to Cold

Springs and leased a house, she in my hand and said I would need it for expenses."

"You know Browning had proposed to her?"

"Yes."

Shortly after the marriage her daughter and Browning quarreled and she knew her daughter wasn't happy.

Mrs. Browning said her daughter was married at Cold Springs on April 10, the next day.

"I heard Browning say to her one night 'you're no good—you won't around with other men.'
