

TURKISH HEAD QUITS JOB CONFERENCE HELD TODAY —NEAR EAST NO NEARER

TO GETTING PEACE BUT IT IS FASHIONABLE TO CUT DOWN KINGS NEXT 24 HOURS

Will Decide Fate of Battle or Peace in the Dardanelles District

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 29.—Brigadier General Sir Charles Harrington, commander-in-chief of the British forces in the Dardanelles area, plans to leave this afternoon for a conference with Mustapha Kemal Pasha, probably at Mudania, on Sea Mar-mara. The British are confident that if the next 24 hours pass without firing of shots at Chanak, or other points along the Dardanelles, all immediate danger of hostilities will have been averted. This is a period of time estimated to be required for General Harrington's journey and interview with Mustapha Kemal.

LONDON, Sept. 29.—Grave fears for resumption of general warfare in Europe as result of the Near East crisis are occupying the minds of the British official circle, it is stated from authoritative quarters. Protracted and important cabinet meetings in the last few days have all been for the purpose of taking every possible step to prevent such conflagration.

ATHENS, Sept. 29.—Crown Prince George has taken oath of office as king of Greece. Pending the formation of a new ministry the government is being directed by twelve officers representing the army and navy.

LONDON, Sept. 29.—The sultan of Turkey has abdicated, according to a Reuters dispatch from Constantinople coming by way of Paris.

Paris, Sept. 29.—Mohammed VI, Sultan of Turkey, has abdicated in favor of the heir-apparent, Prince Abdul Mehmed Effendi, according to a Reuters dispatch from Constantinople. The news, however, has not yet been announced officially.

Prince Abdul Medjid, who is a cousin of the Sultan, was born in 1868.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 29.—The Turkish Nationalists have occupied the whole of the neutral zone on the Asiatic side of the Dardanelles, with the exception of the Chanak area where the British are entrenched.

LONDON, Sept. 29.—An exchange of dispatches from Paris gives the impression that the Angora assembly in its next session decided to notify Kemal Pasha that it was unable to agree to any cessation of hostilities or participation in the peace conference until the restoration of Turkey to its territories in accordance with the national pact.

PARIS, Sept. 29.—The Greek crown prince yesterday took the oath as king in the presence of the ministers of the Triantafyllakos cabinet, according to a Havas dispatch from Athens. He assumed the name of Georges I.

SMYRNA, Sept. 29.—Ten Greek armed vessels steamed into the harbor tonight under the protection of the American flag and took off 20,000 refugees and victims of the fire. The American navy under Rear Admiral Bristol is striving valiantly to save the remainder, who number not less than 40,000.

MITYLENE, Sept. 29.—All Greece, including her islands, is aflame with the revolution which began Monday night on this Hicloric island in the Aegean Sea.

Seventy-five thousand disaffected soldiers who were driven out of Smyrna by the forces of Mustapha Kemal Pasha, stormed the governor general's palace and imprisoned all the officials, including the governor and Generals Braca and Frasso. They took possession of the telegraph lines and of the radio, so that Athens would not know a revolt was under way. Their next move was to seize the port offices and to take over command of the battleships Lemnos and Kilkos.

OPENING DATE FOR THE TRIAL OF COAL MINERS

WILL BE SET FOR THE MEN WHO KILLED AT HERRIN, ILLINOIS

(By The Associated Press) MARION, Ill., Sept. 29.—Opening date of the trial of 74 men indicted in connection with the killing of 22 persons at the Lester coal mine near here in June is scheduled to be set today by Judge Hartwell, probably about November first.

Baumel's Specialty Shop has an advertisement in this issue calling attention to the Smart Millinery, accessories, gloves, hose, corsets, brassiers and underthings. Read the advertisements and see the new stock. Note the big window displays of all the new creations in dresses and millinery.

Read the Sanford Avenue page today. All the live wire merchants of that busy thoroughfare are advertising and making a bid for your business. Go over there tomorrow and look them over. It is only a few steps farther but it will pay you to step. The goods and the prices will surprise you.

Then they commandeered all the vessels in the harbor, including the Greek trans-Atlantic liners Megali, Hellas and Patris. Before embarking for Piraeus on these vessels, the soldiers paraded the streets with Venizelist banners and effigies of King Constantine.

Shouting "Down with Constantine!" and "We want Crown Prince George," the troops fired revolvers and sang the "Venizelist Hymn." While these demonstrations were in progress, 60,000 fugitives from Smyrna, suffering from fright, hunger and exposure were so stunned or dejected to participate in the insurrection.

LONDON, Sept. 29.—The British cabinet held three successive meetings yesterday and another meeting will be held today. This fact alone is sufficient comment on the gravity veiled by Thursday's bad news, which has been amply confirmed and accentuated by today's dispatches.

The Greek revolution which was a military and naval coup, seems to have been carried out with surprising swiftness and completeness. Information regarding Constantine is meagre, but one report had it that he was a prisoner of the revolutionists.

The Crown Prince succeeded to the throne, while the victorious troops with their leaders at their head marched triumphantly into Athens, which, pending the formation of a new government, is in the hands of a military dictatorship in the shape of a triumvirate council of generals. One of the generals is said to be the famous General Nider who, for a long time, was chief of staff and war minister under the Venizelos administration and commanded the Greek expeditionary corps operating in south Russia in 1918.

ATHENS, Sept. 29.—The Greek army in Thrace has definitely joined the revolution army corps in Epicus has also thrown its lot with the revolution.

SOFIA, Sept. 29.—Turkish refugees numbering two hundred and forty from the village Sezara, in Thrace, arrived at Bulgarian frontier yesterday, declaring they had been forced to flee to escape Greek terrorism. The Greeks, they asserted, surrounded the village, burned their homes and killed part of the population.

PARIS, Sept. 29.—Former Premier Venizelos, of Greece, returned to Paris from Deauville today, immediately entered into conference with friends and political associates. The conference it is understood, will consider whether Venizelos will reply to the Athens revolutionary committee's invitation to reorganize Greece at the peace conference in St. Germain in the case of a coalition of allied capitals.

FLORIDA LEADS THE WORLD IN CELERY PRODUCTION

Sanford is distinctly the celery center of the world. Sanford ships more vegetables under refrigeration than any other section of the world but we were not sure that Florida led the United States in the shipping of celery until we received the official information from Supt. T. L. Dumas, of the Atlantic Coast Line. We have often made this statement before and had the figures in the years gone by and we appreciate the figures below given by Capt. Dumas in the following letter:

Sanford, Fla., Sept. 27, 1922
Mr. R. J. Holly, Sanford, Fla. File 329-3
It may be interesting to you to know the celery production of the United States for the season 1922. I know that you will be gratified to learn that Florida leads the United States in celery production.

The record is as follows:
Florida	5,493 cars
California	5,000 cars
Michigan	4,648 cars
New York	4,327 cars
New Jersey	1,150 cars
Ohio	857 cars
Colorado	590 cars
Pennsylvania	256 cars

We confidently expect a ten per cent increase in the Sanford section the coming season.

Yours truly,
T. L. DUMAS.

Basket Supper Well Attended By Odd Fellows

And Rebekahs at the Lossing Home Last Evening

The basket supper of the Odd Fellows and Rebekah at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lossing last evening was well attended and a very pleasant evening was spent by all. Forest Lake, acting as toastmaster called on H. J. Lehman and H. A. McCalley, who responded in a clever manner. Miss Margaret Cowan gave two excellent readings, after which the Grand Master, George Schofield, was introduced and gave a fine address on "Good Citizenship." A happy coincidence of this meeting was the fact that it was the 29th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Lossing. Although this was a surprise to the guests they were not slow in offering their congratulations and best wishes.

Stillman and the baby, Guy Stillman, was declared legitimate in the findings of Daniel J. Gleason, referee in the case which were filed here today. In regard to Mrs. Stillman's charges that her bankey husband also miscondacted himself with two other women, identified only as "Helen" and "Clara," the referee decided that evidence was not sufficient to prove allegations of adultery.

CHOIR LEADER CALLED RECTOR'S WIFE DEVIL, MISS OPIE TESTIFIES

(By The Associated Press) NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., Sept. 29.—Mrs. Frances Stevens Hall, widow of Rev. Edward Wheeler Hall, slain clergyman, was "a devil" in the eyes of Mrs. Eleanor Reihardt Mills, his choir leader, whose body was found beside his nearly two weeks ago. This information, with its bearing on a possible jealousy for the double slaying, was given detectives today by Miss Millie Opie, a neighbor of the Mills family. Miss Opie earlier had told of frequent telephone conversations between Mr. Hall and Mrs. Mills, and of many visits made by the slain rector to the Mills' home.

The devil incident, she recalled today, grew out of a pleasure trip to Point Pleasant, a Jersey coast resort. The party consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Hall and Mrs. Mills, was to start at 9 o'clock in the morning, July 12, Miss Opie said.

When Mr. Hall failed to call for her at the appointed hour, Mrs. Mills telephoned the Hall home turning away with the petulant remark that Mrs. Hall wanted "to make the day as short as possible," Miss Opie said. After the outing, she said, Mrs. Mills told her that Mrs. Hall was a "devil." William Stevens, brother of Mrs. Hall, was questioned again at length today, bringing to the courthouse with him the clothing he wore on the night of the double slaying. He was questioned about spots said by a cleaner to have been on one of his vests, sent out for dry cleaning since Mr. Hall and Mrs. Mills were killed.

Mr. Hall's will was filed for probate in the Middlesex surrogate's court today. Dated July 17, 1921, it bequeathed all his property to Mrs. Hall, and named her executrix. Middlesex county today offered a reward of $1,000 for the conviction of the murderer. Somerset county has asked to offer a similar reward.

HAVE BEEN UNDER COMMISSION 6 MONTHS WITH GOOD RESULTS

GREAT SUCCESS And Report Says That Bartow Actually Has Money to Loan

BARTOW, Sept. 29.—Bartow has just completed its first six months of existence under the commission manager for mof government, and, according to a report of operations, made by Auditor E. S. Jackson to City Manager Anton Schneider, the experiment has been to the great financial advantage of the tax payers of the community and the city is lending money rather than mortgaging its future to meet current expenses.

"Not only have revenues from licenses, fines, interest on funds loaned on approved securities, and other sources, as differentiated from revenues derived from taxation, as that term is generally interpreted, greatly increased, as a result of greater watchfulness but the cost of administration has been greatly lessened," said Mr. Jackson, in his report.

"The gross cost of government for the year ending March 7, 1922, not including the cost of the light and water plants, was $7.15 per capita, according to the audit made by a firm of certified public accountants. The gross cost of city administration since the commission manager form was established, March 7, last has been $3.07 per capita or at the rate of $6.14 for the year or a saving of $1.01 per capita. At the same time the collections of fines, licenses, etc., have increased from $1.50 per capita to $1.81 per capita.

"Brought down to per capita costs against taxation it may be stated that for the year ending March 7, last, the per capita costs of city government borne by taxation were $5.65 as against $4.33 under the present form of administration, a reduction in favor of the tax payers of $1.32 per capita. Translated into dollars and cents that statement means a saving of $5,953.20 to the city as a whole.

"It should be stated in this connection that four per capita costs of $4.33 we have included a number of extraordinary items covering maintenance of streets, the drafting of the first complete city map ever made, the renumbering of the houses in every section of the city and the publication of a city directory giving the new numbers and the names of the occupants of all residences and business houses, and the conduct of traffic regulations including the laying out and marking of parking spaces.

"All funds have been carefully conserved and at the same time nothing has been neglected. By reason of diligence the collections on paving fund account have been so good that there is a balance of $9,741.23 now available for the purpose of extending our paving program which means that a reasonably great area of the city may be brought within the paved area and land values appreciably enhanced. Our sinking fund has been loaned at 8 per cent on approved securities.

"It is probably true we might have loaned surplus funds of the city to the city itself were it not for the fact that for the first time in its history, so far as can be learned from the records, the city has plenty of money on hand with which to finance itself till 1922 taxes begin to be paid, and we are in the position of joining money rather than borrowing, a unique experience for any Florida city.

"The water and light plants, both of which are owned by the municipality, are upon paying bases, earning the money which will be needed for the purpose of retiring the original bond issues with which they were financed. Neither plant owes a dollar on current account nor has either a cent of past due indebtedness not covered by the bond issues alluded to above and it is not expected that it will be necessary for either to borrow any money for any purpose in the immediate future, and then only to meet some emergency not now foreseen.

"In conclusion I might call attention to the fact that with the sinking funds (Continued on page 6)

Rail Embargo is Announced, Effective Last Night

Lehigh Valley Road Will Accept Only Food, Live Stock and Perishables

(By The Associated Press) NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—The Lehigh Valley railroad today announced a drastic embargo, effective at midnight against all freight, both east and west bound except food for human beings and animals, live stocks, perishable and necessary products.

Officials of the road said the embargo was necessary as a means of breaking up congestion of freight cars, directly resulting from the shop crafts strike, the resumption of coal mining, large crop consignments, and heavy shipping of freight since the recent activities in industrial lines.

Acceptance of freight on normal terms is expected to be resumed by Sunday night, tentatively set as the date when the embargo will be lifted.

None of the Eastern railroads contemplated embargoes for the present, it was announced at the various offices on west bound freight out of New York, established last Friday, would be continued for some time, it was said, but without additional restrictions.

In railroad labor circles it was stated that 78 roads, estimated to operate one-third of the nation's mileage, had signed agreements with their striking shop men on the basis of the Baltimore agreement.

N. Y. DEMOCRAT TO NOMINATE GOVERNOR

(By The Associated Press) SYRACUSE, N. Y., Sept. 28.—Democratic leaders after a day of political maneuvering today were tonight on the eve of the convention, far apart regarding a choice for the governorship nomination.

Advocates of the nomination of former Governor Alfred E. Smith declared the day's developments brightened the Smith outlook and they predicted his nomination. Adherents of William Randolph Hearst countered with the claim that the publisher would be named to head the state ticket. Efforts of a third faction, with compromise its aim, were kept well in the forefront. In this quarter, the prediction was made that the situation would be clarified before the convention reached the balloting stage.

THE WEATHER

For Florida: Partly cloudy in north and local showers tonight or Friday in the South portion.

WEATHER AND CROP CONDITIONS IN FLORIDA FOR THE WEEK ENDING SEPTEMBER 26, '22

Temperature: The week gave moderate to sub normal temperatures, the daily deficiencies ranging from 3 to 6 degrees, except in the extreme west where the week was 1 degree warmer than the seasonal. Sunshine: The percentage of sunshine as compared with the possible, was high—especially in the west where the per cent was 94. Fair, sunshiny weather prevailed, also, over most of the northern, and upper portion of the central, divisions. There was much cloudiness on the extreme southeast (Miami) coast. Rainfall: Rains were frequent, heavy much of the time in the lower portion of the State, especially the south and much of the lower portion of the central division. Twenty-four totals ranged from 1 to more than 3 inches on several days at some stations in the extreme south. The following weekly totals, inches and tenths, are noted: Fort Myers, 3.8; Hypoluxo, 2.5; Punta Gorda, 3.1; and Miami 6.9. The rainfall was deficient over much of the north and west; in fact, no rain fell at some stations during week. Crops: The frequent and heavy rains in the south were unfavorable for truck, seed beds and other crops, especially on low lands, which were flooded locally. Some plants were destroyed and much replanting will be necessary. Strawberry plants, also, suffered from the heavy rains in the south and locally in the central and north portions. Cane, sweet potatoes, and citrus fruits made fair to good progress over the section where rainfall was frequent, except the low lands were too wet and to that extent the conditions were unfavorable. There was a high percentage of sunshine in the north and west, which favored the harvesting of corn, hay and peanuts, and such work was well advanced. Rain is needed, especially on uplands west of the Suwanee River for gardens, cane, and sweet potatoes. There is very little cotton to be picked most of it is picked and ginned. The pecan crop is not so good as usual. Ranges are fair to good condition over the peninsula.

Although the oil drillers at Olds-mar have gone 3,000 feet they have not struck oil as yet. They will probably strike a Chinaman's head before they strike oil in Florida.

If the people will clean up and keep everything clean, get rid of the mosquitoes and keep them out, there will never be any dengue fever or any other kind of fever here. We are all more or less responsible for all epidemics.

There are rumors that at least two more newspapers will be started in Sanford this fall. The natural consequence of a growing city. Come in and try the water, folks. We have been filling the bath tub here for the past fifteen years.

The new tariff put on by the Republican party hits the poor man and helps the rich. Well, what did you expect when you voted for the Republican party? They have always sheltered the rich and kicked the poor out in the cold, cold world.

Detours are enough to try the patience of a saint but if the travelling public will just have a little patience the roads in Seminole will soon be finished and they will be the best roads in the state. It takes work and detours to make new roads and we will have to put up with some inconveniences until the roads are finished.

VOTING FOR THE AMENDMENTS.

The Herald has from time to time expressed the opinion that the amendments to be voted upon in November were all right and it was better to vote for something half way better in regard to re-apportionment than to wait for another year of uncertainty.
Some of the amendments are good and if any readers are not familiar with these amendments we give you what Goode Guerry of the Palatka News says about them which is the clearest elucidation in the whole category:

The News reprinted Tampa Tribune and Tampa Times editorials this week related to the amendments to be offered to the voters of the state at the coming November general election.
We are heartily in accord with the view of both Tampa editors. We are of the opinion that all well informed and fair-minded citizens of the state will subscribe to the following:

Of the four amendments none should be slighted. Amendment to Section 10, Article 12 of the constitution relates to proper adjustment of millage for school operation. A vote in favor of this amendment authorizes school districts to levy and collect not to exceed ten mills on the dollar for school purposes in any one year. We urge all citizens to vote "yes." Good schools are the bulwark of the nation and the system of schools in Florida invites comparisons with any in the union. Funds for the operation of the system should be provided by equitable taxation and not by the uncertainties of subscription or "passing the hat." Vote yes in recognition and support of the state's greatest asset—our public schools.

Another of the amendments, that to Section 3, Article 14, authorizes the payment of state officials' salaries monthly instead of every three months. The Golden Rule made applicable here simply urges the people to give the other fellow what you would want yourself. Get the state on a fair business basis. Vote to pay the state officers monthly. Vote

"yes."

It is proposed to amend Article 5 of the constitution by adding Section 43, which would authorize the legislature to load up judicial circuits with additional judges in every circuit having 35,000 or more population. We believe authority without restraint is a bad form of government and cite that the constitution of the United States so provides in that it guarantees to the government and the governed certain unalienable rights and in voting to authorize the legislature to run wild, if they saw fit, the people relinquish the power of restraint that actually should always be held in reserve. Let's meet specific local situations with specific remedies, so that burdens may be increased as the people in the districts affected may decide to vote no on this amendment.

The remaining amendment relates to "reapportionment." Evils of our present apportionment are not to be cured by a continuance of existing evils, and facts and figures have been frequently quoted in these columns to show that the amendment in question actually reapportions, but absolutely disregards the occasion that called up the issue. Under the present, the existing, constitution of the state, it is mandatory that the legislature reap-portion according to population every ten years. This constitution was adopted in 1885 and the legislature sitting in 1887, 1897, 1907 and 1917 failed of its duty and every member of the legislature in the years mentioned was false to his oath in not "reapportioning" as the supreme law of the state required. The governor in the same years under his oath was responsible to the people for this disregard. We believe every act of the legislature since 1887 has been illegal because of this disregard. It is now proposed to "reapportion" and continue an inequality of representation that was ordered remedied thirty-five years ago, and no legislature since has complied with the mandate of the people. A majority in the legislature seeks to continue a menace that the constitution in its wise provisions guaranteed should not be perpetrated on a sovereign people. Let the people in no unmistakable terms show under this amendment with an avalanche of "noes" that in its rumbles will cause the "old clay hills of Florida" to run red in shame that a power given to the people is held from the people.
Disregard of the laws of the land is a menace to democratic government and our faith in these United States is not to be shaken we must have a government by the people, of the people and for the people. Vote "no" on the proposed amendment.

As a voter steps into the booth, let him place greater importance this year on the amendments than on an office. Let him single out the four amendments and mark "yes" on the school millage, and also on the officials' salaries, and "no" on the additional judges and proposed reapportionment. Complete the ballot. Slight no issue.

NO QUARTER FOR MENDICANTS.

Florida will be overrun with legless pencil pushers, flappers, throwers, acid-and-vaseline sore-men, one-legged men, short-haired women and every sort of vendor and fakir, and the panhandler in particular.

The eastern cities are making a raid on this profession and giving them hours to cease their operations or leave the city. They have no place to go, except Florida, for California cities are making the same sort of raids.
The officers in Brooklyn who attends to such cases says that in 18 years he has personally examined over 20,000 cases and never in all these years and the thousands of cases found a mendicant that was worthy of charity.

He states that some make as high as $400 in a day and none less than $10. That one legless man put on his roller skates Saturday night and earned in two to three hours $50 to $200, sufficient for him to live in luxury.

Recently in New York a mendicant was found occupying two rooms and bath at the Marlborough hotel and employed a chauffeur to drive his high-priced car, while his wife employed a maid. He admitted "working Florida" in the winter time and made enough to live in luxury the rest of the year, occasionally doing his stunt to get some ready money when he was on the wrong side of a poker hand.

In the night court in New York city bail for $200 or more was readily forthcoming from wives of ill-clad mendicants or husbands of slouchy woman panhandlers. Some of these better-halves called at the court in limousines.

And this is the cult and gentry we are to have in Florida this winter.
Already nostrum peddlers, pencil-shovers and panhandlers have appeared in Lake county.

Every town in the county should instruct the police to give them minutes to leave the town and see that they leave, and if they are kept on the move they will have to get out of the state. Drastic legislation is needed, both state and local, and if the laws are not on the statute books to govern these cases, then put a vagrancy charge against them and let them either work the streets or linger in a stuffy calaboose for a day or two and then shove them on to the next town to have the dose repeated.—Eustis

"PLAIN TALK FOR TROUBLE-MAKERS"

Under this caption the Brooklyn Eagle publishes an editorial in a recent issue in which is quoted a statement from former Bishop Curley of the Roman Catholic diocese of St.
Augustine, now archbishop of Baltimore, covering his views following a visit to his native land, Ireland. What Archbishop Curley has to say may will be accepted as representing the sentiment of the best element of the Irish people and his emphatic presentation and denunciation of the present deplorable state of affairs should result in putting the soft pedal on dangerous propaganda that is still being carried on in this country, backed by real American dollars that ought to be put to nobler use.

This is what the Brooklyn had to say:
"Archbishop Michael J. Curley of Baltimore, returning to this country after a visit to Ireland, expresses the opinion which most intelligent people of Irish birth or descent entertain regarding the activities of Eamond V. O'Riada and his sympathizers. 'In Ireland,' says the Archbishop, 'there is an Irish government functioning, with back of this government 85 per cent or more of the Irish people. There is nothing more evident in Ireland today than that the Irish people want the peace treaty and the Free State status.' Archbishop Curley looks upon De Valera as crazy, and his followers are deluded, bairbrained youths who are doing all they can to reduce Ireland to a state of anarchy and chaos.

"But the most significant part of the statement given out by Archbishop Curley relates to those who in this country are keeping the Irish rebellion alive by feeding with money and sympathy. 'No American,' says the Archbishop, 'true to American principles, should for one moment countenance the present armed attack upon the Irish people now being made by a disgruntled, disappointed set of men.' Yet that is precisely what a considerable number of men and women calling themselves Americans are doing at the present time. They are no longer fighting the British government in the name of Irish freedom.
They are fighting the Irish people in behalf of an insignificant minority of malcontents, who are doing best or worse to defeat the aspirations and purposes to which the Irish people are committed. Ireland is suffering more today from Irish lawlessness against an Irish government than she suffered under the recent years of British rule."—Lakeland Star-Telegram.

FLORIDA LEADS IN CELERY

Florida leads in many things—so many that it keeps the newspaper busy chronicling them all. For many years we talked nothing but celery here and for many years we showed that Florida and especially Sanford was the celery center of the world's production. The Herald also claimed that Sanford shipped more refrigerator cars during the winter season than any other point in the world. This was disputed by actual figures gave us the plum. When you stop to think about this statement it means something and shows to what proportions the growing of winter vegetables has attained. And now the Southern Utilities Co., are building more buildings for icing and cold storage and will have the largest icing plant in the state which is another statement that means something. In another part of this issue is an official statement from Capt. Dumas of the Coast Line —or rather it is an official statement compiled by the Coast Line experts and sent to the Herald by Capt. Dumas who is a real Sanford booster all the time. We were right glad to have our attention called to this fact and to have the official figures on the same. In the past few years the celery farms have taken care of themselves without any boosting and they are doing this today but there are numbers of new farms going in every year and the growing of winter vegetables is getting on a larger scale all the time. It is growing every year and seems to be upon a more stable basis than ever before with an f. o. b. market established and plenty of buyers and plenty of big firms who will give the farmers backing and help them to sell their crops when they are ready to ship.

DAVE BANCROFT IS FIELD CAPTAIN FOR THE GIANTS (By The Associated Press) NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—Out on the field directing the defensive play that neither John McGraw, the manager, nor his first assistant, Hugh Jennings, could do from their places on the bench, all season has been Dave Bancroft, field captain of the Giants to another pennant.

"Banny" is listed by many of the competent critics of the game to be the greatest shortstop in baseball today. The teams that have won pennants with a poor, or even mediocre man at shortstop—the pivot of the defense—are few and those that have come through winners of the World Series virtually all had topnotchers. Before the 1922 season ended baseball writers began casting about for the most valuable man to his team of all the major leaguers and a number mentioned Bancroft, placing him in the class with Joe Ticker, of the old Cubs, Hans Wagner, of the Pirates, Rabbit Maranville, of Pittsburgh and Boston, Jack Barry of the Athletics and Red Sox, and a greater player than Arthur Fletcher, now with the Quakers, who was Bancroft's predecessor. The Giant Captain is of first class calibre both on the defense and offense and as a field general. As a lead-off man he ranks with the best of all time. He covers an amazingly large area in the field and is a pestering, dangerous runner on the bases. He is considered quite a bit better than the cold figures show him to be. Last season Bancroft hit over 300 for the first time in his career. He began his career as a poor batter and his rise has been due to his superior fielding and inspirational defense. Ten years ago he hit 213 with the Portland Oreg. Club, but came up to .254 his first year in the majors with the Philadelphia and was a member of the Quakers in the only time that a club representing that city participated in the World Series. In 153 games in which he played last year Bancroft batted .319 and fielded .960, accepting 369 chances—more than any other National League shortstop and making 382 assists, 996 putouts, 139 errors. He batted in 67 runs, went to first base on balls 66 times and struck out only 23 times. He scored 121 runs, made 193 sacrifice hits and, in addition, he stole 17 bases.

JOHN MCGRAW WINS ADDITIONAL HONORS IN ADDING PENNANTS (By The Associated Press) NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—By adding another pennant to the string that has fluttered from the flag pole at the Polo Grounds John Joseph McGraw becomes more securely encoined in his title of "Napoleon of Baseball." Short, stocky, dapper, ruddy faced and gray headed, McGraw looks more like a successful broker than a professional athlete. He appears as what the clothing ads classify as "smart," and if over some twists shears him of success and reason he can get a job posing for an oil painting of a cigarette smoker or the latest in collars. His career is remarkable but not surprising. It was a sane, steady march to the heights of his profession, intercepted now and then by some flight of temperament or of temper, but it has all been in one direction. He is in the logical place for such a logical man to occupy. McGraw was born in 1873 and so is just about turning the 50 mark. He began playing baseball as most American boys do as soon as he could toddle after one. His professional debut was made when he discarded short trousers, but whether he did one of those two things to effect the other is a question which his biographers must debate. The present manager of the Champion Giants has been in the game professionally for 32 years, starting with the Oleon team of the New York State League in 1890 when his reputation as a consistent hitter and reliable fielder spread from his native heath of Truxton, N. Y. Throughout his playing days he was one of the marvels of the diamond but his gray matter has made him a fixture. Only one year did McGraw remain in Oleon signing a sheet for $60 a month. Next he went to Cedar Rapids where his stipend was more remunerative and his work more brilliant. His shortstopping was so remarkable that a big league scout came to look him over, saw him and was captivated. The youthful "Mugsy" went to Baltimore, then the tail-ender in a 12-club circuit. It was in August, 1891, that McGraw broke into fast company, little more than a year after his entry in the professional ranks. His first season he warmed the bench, but in 1892 Ned Hanlon, the Orioles new manager, tried out John Joseph at second base and then shifted him to third where he gained a reputation. McGraw has always been recognized as the peer of any who preceded or followed him at the "hot corner," his particular forte being the fielding of bunts. He was a year-in-and-year-out .350 hitter and fast on the paths. His individual playing was one of the factors in the success of the old Orioles. With Wilbert Robinson, formerly of the Giants and now manager of the Brooklyn team, McGraw was sold to the St. Louis Club in 1900 for $18,000. Both players were ill-pleased and when the American League reared its head in 1900 the Giants' present mentor aligned himself with Ban B. Johnson. He went back to Baltimore and organized a team that was one of the most popular in the history of the game. But in 1902 McGraw and Johnson came to the parting of the ways and in mid-season the Baltimore team was so disorganized that "Mugsy" took off his piked shoes and announced that they were on the shelf forever. At that time the late Andrew Freedman was sorrowed by the spectacle of the slow-going Giants, the team he owned. McGraw was recommended to him and was hired, taking the helm in July and remaining in charge since. The game has grown big—has had virtually all of its growth and growing pains—in McGraw's professional time. When he came to New York the old Polo Grounds seated 12,000, now it is 38,000 and a third tier to the grandstand is to be added next year. McGraw's life is insured by the club for $100,000 and he owns a fair share of operating company's stock. The standing of his club under his management is shown by this table: Year Position Year Position 1903.....2 1912.....1 1904.....1 1913.....1 1905.....1 1914.....2 1906.....2 1915.....8 1907.....4 1916.....4 1908.....2 1917.....1 1909.....3 1918.....2 1910.....2 1919.....2 1911.....1 1920.....2 1921.....1

Where Extra Service is Demanded Firestone Cords Predominate

WHEREVER the exacting and tests of tires are most severe—there you will find Firestone Cords in universal use. The hard jobs seek Firestone. And so well has Firestone responded under difficult conditions—so consistently has mileage mounted to totals impossible to obtain from ordinary tires that today Most Miles per Dollar is the buying slogan of thinking motorists everywhere. The blending and tempering of rubber, gum-dipped cord construction, air-bag cure—all these mileage methods have been developed by men whose life work is the production of constantly increasing tire values for the public. Users in this vicinity verify Firestone reputation, and report almost daily some new Firestone record of extra distance travelled. Don't be satisfied to buy tires—buy values—the longest mileage at the lowest price consistent with such reliable performance. Make Most Miles per Dollar your principle of tire economy—choose your next tire on that basis.
