ASTORIA SURVEYS LOSSES AFTER DISASTROUS FIRE COSTING TWELVE MILLIONS

AND RAZED TWENTY-FOUR BLOCKS OF CITY BUSINESS SECTION 2500 ARE HOMELESS

Relief Committee Starts Work of Alleviating Suffering of Hundreds of Homeless

ASTORIA, Ore., Dec. 9.—Astoria is today surveying its losses in the twelve-million dollar fire which yesterday razed twenty-four blocks in the business section of the city. Measures to relieve the suffering of 2,500 persons made homeless by the conflagration, have been started. The relief committee announces that staple foods, and clothing are needed, in response to hundreds of telegrams from Portland. Word came from Portland that a special train carrying supplies would be sent at once.

ASTORIA, Ore., Dec. 9.—The business district of Astoria, the oldest city in Oregon, is in ruins, two are dead, hundreds of persons are homeless, and property losses estimated at $15,000,000 was caused by a fire here yesterday.

For ten hours the fire held sway, eating an ever widening path through the city until shortly after noon when dynamite stayed the flames. Banks, newspaper plants, hotels, stores, theatres and numerous buildings housing a variety of business places were destroyed. According to Fire Chief E. B. Foster, the fire got out of control because it burned the which the business section of the city was built. He attributed the disaster to the failure to fill in the space beneath the piling.

Morris Staples, president of the Bank of Commerce, dropped dead of heart failure while the fire was at its height.

The body of C. J. Smith, a transient, was found hanging under the sidewalk on the water front, but whether he ended his life because of the fire, or for other reasons, the police were unable to determine. He had spent the night in a cheap lodging house on the water front.

Thirty blocks were wiped out by the flames. Many homes in the older residence district were destroyed and about fifty families living in an apartment house were made homeless by the destruction of that building. In addition to these, many persons occupying rooms in the destroyed area lost everything they had except the clothing on their backs.

A committee of citizens met at the call of Mayor James Brenner and planned immediate relief measures. They were assured of help from Portland and Seaside. Every restaurant and hotel in the city has been destroyed as well as stocks of goods in the stores and there is prospect of immediate want. Portland bakeries sent loads of bread and Seaside sent word that the hotel there was open to receive those without shelter. A large number of summer cottages at the beach resorts were offered to the homeless, and homes in the residential district were thrown open to give aid and food to the needy.

HOLD DOWN PRICES AND RAISE UP BUSINESS SAYS HENRY FORD

WIZARD OF MOTOR INDUSTRY AT WELLESLEY HILLS GIVES RECIPE FOR PROSPERITY

Wellesley Hills, Mass., Dec. 9.—Last week while Henry Ford was visiting the Babson Institute, he discussed the business situation and prescribed a common sense dose for American business. This man whose daily income runs into six figures stated plainly that all this money was incidental—a by-product. His remarks created so much interest that today he issued the following statement:—

"The trouble with most business men," said Mr. Ford, "is the fact that they go into business to make money—to make as much as they can as quickly as they can. They have a hard time of it because they are trying to get something that someone else has. The principle is wrong and even if it weren't, it would be pretty hard because there are so many of them trying to 'get' that the competition is terrific.

"The man who will use his skill and constructive imagination to see how much he can give for a dollar instead of how little he can give for a dollar is bound to succeed. I cannot understand why people don't see it.

"What applies to an individual applies also to the entire country. A nation grows as it serves, as its people give the most they can to others—whether in the form of labor, material or distribution. We are now in a period when this is very important. Business is doing its best to come back, but we must encourage it in coming back by holding down prices, especially prices of the raw materials which go into our manufactured products. I have in mind coal, iron, lumber, cement, bricks, etc. It is a great mistake for manufacturers to say that they do not care what they pay as long as other manufacturers pay the same price. We do wrong in paying higher prices simply because we can pass it along to someone else.

"Most manufacturers," continued Mr. Ford, "begin at the wrong end. They ask the production department how much it costs to make the article, then they add a selling cost and a profit. Next they call in the sales department and say, 'Here's the article and this is the price, go out and get it.' At Detroit we have always figured from the other end. We began with a human need, then we wanted to give just as much as we could for a dollar. The product must be right, it must give service, so I experimented and tested for eleven years before we were sure the product was as good as we could build it. Then we began to figure out ways to make it more efficiently—to give more for the dollar.

"When sales blow up we don't drive the sales force and try to force folks to buy, we cut the price, then more of them can and do buy. When the price is cut it is usually cut below the cost to manufacture at the time. Then the production department has to figure out new economies, new short cuts that will deliver the same car for less money—and they've always done it!

"The more you give people for a dollar the more there are of them who can buy. The larger your production, the more you can give."

Here we have the rule that has built up one of the greatest commercial successes of our day—the organization that has supplied cheap, efficient transportation to every country in the world.

"Things are coming along very well," added Mr. Ford, commenting on current business recovery, "and if

Dr. Cespedes reflected an optimism which grew into enthusiasm as he discussed ways and means that have been formulating in solving his country's problems.

"The loan of one half billion dollars to Cuba is ready," he said. "There are a few banking details to be arranged but these in no way will interfere with the closing of the proposition at once."

"Cuba will work out its own problems and it will find itself one of the best countries on the face of the globe."

"I am not alone in this optimism, but I find this view is shared by the officials of your government as well as others."

BUILDING WILL BE LARGE IN 1923 SAYS BABSON

WARNS AGAINST ATTEMPTS TO RAISE PRICES

WELLSLEY HILLS, Mass., Dec. 8.—There has been much discussion of late as to whether the building industry has spent itself. Roger W. Babson evidently doesn't think it has.

In commenting today on the building outlook he called attention to several bullish factors. "New building," says Mr. Babson, "is the outstanding feature of our business recovery. It is what started us on the road to better business or before in the history of the country."

"This building revival is not confined to houses either. House building has been the most spectacular but we have also built many more factories, factories, hospitals, churches, amusement halls, public docks, bridges, reservoirs, memorials, in fact, all kinds of construction. Whereas our normal building total is about $3,000,000,000, the end of this year, we shall have built to the extent of $5,000,000,000."

"I do not think so yet. I look for continued building activity, both in residential and business building for the greater part of 1923. Beyond that time, I expect a decline. A survey just made by the National Association of Real Estate Boards, shows that out of a total of 184 cities surveyed over the country, 121 cities still report a housing shortage."

"What about rents?" Mr. Babson was asked. "Rents have probably passed their peak. The long swing will be downward. Here again it is a question of supply and demand. The existing decline in rents will not be abrupt, at least, not until this building boom has subsided and the shortage of rental housing is no longer acute."

"Such a course," he adds, "conforms with the law and saves the humiliation of the government and the humiliation of our people before the world and challenges the destruction of the nation. It is a question of the interdependence of the nation and the world."

"The Statisticians are asked what of the building material, prices and labor would be likely to have on the building program."

"Unless prices of building materials are kept down at least near present levels, the people will stop building, just as they did in 1920. In fact, I do not think we will see quite so much building next year as we are seeing this year."

"However, what interests me as much as anything is the necessity of eliminating the waste in time, labor, and materials in the building business. I firmly believe that a saving of 10 per cent could be made by cutting out waste in the building business."

FLORIDA'S SHIPMENTS FOR 1931-32

The Secretary of the Florida Development Board is responsible for the following figures, which we have not checked, believing that he would not issue them if they were not correct. He says that the shipments of fruit and vegetables in car lots for the season of 1932 have been as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Item and Amount. Includes Citrus, Watermelons, Cucumbers, Tomatoes, Irish Potatoes, Lettuce, Celery, Peppers, Cabbage, Strawberries, Beans, Cantaloupes, Miscellaneous fruits and vegetables.

The Merchant who is prospered by the people of his home town owes to them the return of this prosperity. To show his appreciation he generally invests the profits of his labors and thereby adds to his neighbor's property some additional value.

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

For several days the people of the United States have been watching and waiting for the president's message. This important document usually means something for in the message is reflected the policy of the party in power if they are not too widely divergent from the attitude of the president.

"This never again will be precisely as in the old days, but it will be as old as the hills. It is a question of the interdependence of the nation and the world."

"The railroad strike accentuated the difficulty of the American farmer. The first distress of readjustment came to the farmer, and it will not be a readjustment fit to abide until the agricultural situation is national in scope."

"The farm loan bureau, which already has proven its usefulness (the Federal Land Bank), may have its power enlarged to provide ample farm production credits as well as enlarge land credits. It is proposed to create a division in the federal land banks to deal with production credit, with the limitation of one so adjusted to the farm turnover as the federal reserve system provides for the turnover in the manufacturing and mercantile world."

Earning Power and Saving Power

Of course, a man's earning power counts, but what is of prime importance is his saving power. It is not the amount with which you open an interest-bearing account that means most in the end, but the regularity with which you add to it.

BEAUTIFUL TEAM WORK AND SPECTACULAR PLAYING RESULTS IN VICTORY FOR SANFORD GIRLS

Large Crowd Witnesses Fray and Many Comments on Nice, Clean Game—Only Two Fouls

It was very gratifying to the large crowd of fans that gathered at the Grammar School court last night, to see the way the Sanford girls romped from one end to the other of that court, displaying excellent team work, making spectacular shots and swamping Winter Park under a 50 to 4 score.

It was even more gratifying to Coach Tills, to see the way her girls responded to her efforts to make a fine basketball team, especially in the way of team work. The team work of the Sanford girls was all that could have been expected and it was this team work that built up the score so high, together with the fact that Sanford has two forwards that are there with the goods when it comes to shooting at the baskets.

The Sanford girls will meet the Ocala girls tonight, and although Winter Park had a fairly fast team, the game tonight promises to be a hummer as Ocala is rated as good as any of the teams for this season. The large crowd that witnessed the game last night is expected back for tonight's game with many more. The admission price will be the same, 35 cents, and the girls are preparing for an overflow crowd.

Next Friday in an open date for Sanford but arrangements may be made to play Umatilla at Umatilla. The lineup for last night's play was as follows:

Sanford	Pos.	Winter Park
Holly	C	Hibber
Spencer	F	Gilstrap
Echols	G	Gunn
Hand	tc	Ford
Carraway	cap	Neil
Maxwell	if	Peoples
Bishop	2	Field goals—Holly 21, Spencer 7, Bishop 2.
Substitutes, Hunter for Gilstrap.

Of the total of 50 points, Mildred Holly scored 42 of them and Emma Spencer scored the only four made by Winter Park. All of Emma Spencer's scores were made on spectacular shots from the center of the court.

The two centers, "Big" Hand and Lucille Echols played a fine game as they had two of Winter Park's fastest players opposing them. Miss Echols' brilliant play was another of the outstanding features of the game. Only two fouls were called during the game, one on Maxwell, the other on Peoples.

Substitutes, Hunter for Gilstrap.

Of the total of 50 points, Mildred Holly scored 42 of them and Emma Spencer scored the only four made by Winter Park. All of Emma Spencer's scores were made on spectacular shots from the center of the court.

The two centers, "Big" Hand and Lucille Echols played a fine game as they had two of Winter Park's fastest players opposing them. Miss Echols' brilliant play was another of the outstanding features of the game. Only two fouls were called during the game, one on Maxwell, the other on Peoples.

ORLANDO GETTING READY FOR BIG 1923 BASE BALL SEASON

Jess Woolf and "Grant" Lucas, two of the Florida State League's best pitchers last season, have been purchased by the Orlando Baseball club, according to word received yesterday morning by President Hubert Hanzel and Roy McCracken from J. Tinker, vice president of the club, who attended the meeting of minor leagues at Louisville.

Lucas is also well known here as a direct class twirler. He is the boy who came to the Bullheads in the Lakeland club near the end of the season. Like Woolf, he was in the Cracker circuit on an option from another club. Woolf was formerly Little Rock's ton. Woolf was formerly Little Rock's ton.

With a couple of outfielders signed and the other positions taken care of local fans are beginning to wonder if Gene Elliott is really going to give up the game. Elliott is not as quick, but when he does get the proper amount of training he has an equal at his position in the Florida State League, says Nelson Leach of Tampa.

Gene was one of the heaviest hitters on the club, seldom failing to get a hit in the pinches and hundreds of local fans will be disappointed if he does not show up in an Orlando uniform in the spring—Orlando Sentinel.

"I Am the Law" that drew such a big crowd last night can be seen again tonight.

"The Bat," not a picture show, will play at the Princess Monday night.

The advance sale is going over big. Better make your reservations today if you don't want to get left.

Florida football fandom, not having any college rivals to which it could look for the high school youngsters in the second, will turn their eyes towards Miami and Gainesville today, for games that will either determine the state scholastic pigskin master or weed out the field to two contenders.

Miami, by winning from Plant City, will be on equal terms with the winner of the Gainesville-Duval match and Lakeland. Plant City, on the other hand, disposed of Hillsborough and St. Petersburg. Miami has a record of four victories and no defeats. The only uncertainty about its championship caliber is the fact that it did not meet some of the stronger eleven.

Orlando, West Palm Beach, St. Augustine that the Magic City squad vanquished.

Football, with everything that the game embraces, is promised when the traditional rivals of Duval and Gainesville meet. Coach Farrior's charges have gone to the point this season of defeating two squads in as many days. Duval has had an uphill fight in its schedule, most of which took an out of state team. Whereas the Alachua county had come here to meet Duval last year with no con-

Some class to Sanford's basket ball team.

We're speaking of the girls now, and not thinking of those loud yellow uniforms either.

After all Sanford is coming into her own as an athlete. And good coaching is doing it.

The results of Coach Wilkinson's football team have been seen, now just Coach Lee Tills and her basket ball girls.

Miss Tills just can't help having a good team, with players like Holly, Spencer, Echols, Hand, Maxwell and Carraway on the line-up.

And now that Sanford's football team proved themselves the best in the state, Duval, Gainesville, Plant City and Miami will fight to see who comes second.

And maybe Lakeland don't hate being left out in the cold. They say they are South Florida champs. And maybe they are, but it is not every one that says so.

Been golfing of late? Deane Turner has and for some reason or other we are not able to make him tell us his score for yesterday. How come, Deane?

Don't forget the big basket ball game tonight. Sanford girls vs. Ocala girls. Some things this game. Get there early.

THE BAT WILL BE ATTRACTION AT THE PRINCESS MONDAY, DEC. 11

The name of Avery Hopwood is well known to the theatrical world. In collaboration with Robert Rinehart, Mr. Hopwood is author of "The Bat," the greatest dramatic success of the year, which was presented at the Princess on Monday, Dec. 11.

The "Bat" ran for more than two years in New York. Moreover, another company of "The Bat" established a record of over one million tickets a week in a half-dozen cities in Chicago, something no other play, whether it was dramatic, or musical, was ever able to do. Also "The Bat" is now the sensation of London.

All of which might lead one to suppose that "The Bat" is a play, might not be a successful play, might not be a play at all. The facts of the matter are, however, that such is far from being the case.

The greatest success scored by "The Bat" is the fact that it has been produced in many a city, and that it has been produced in many a city, and that it has been produced in many a city.

The "Bat" was written by Mary Roberts Rinehart and Avery Hopwood. It played for more than two years in New York. Some recent word's say, and besides that they had a run of over a year in Chicago. Some reason for it you can bet.

Felt cloth was first successfully made at Norwalk, Conn., in 1836.

Plan New Memorial Road. Another experiment with overhead motorways is to be made, according to the President of the Road and Motorway Commission.

Origin of "Anzac." The name "Anzac" was first given publicity by the late Major Oliver Linton, who was war correspondent for the Morning Herald of Sydney, in May, 1915.

Long Trip to School. Travel record for fifteen-year-old girls seems to be held by Helen Kruis, Russian refugee. Since she hurriedly left Vladivostok, Siberia, she has traveled 12,000 miles and has not been away from school for a day.

NEGRO MURDERER BURNED AT STAKE AT PERRY, FLA.

Wright, negro, accused of the murder of Miss Ruby Hendry, young school teacher, was taken from the sheriff and burned at the stake at Perry, Fla., early in the day, and Young was taken at Killebrew, Ga. (capture of the two negroes came after a day's search in which hundreds of men from Florida, and Georgia counties had participated at one time or another.)

Both negroes were taken to a small stream or low hundred yards from the town, where last Saturday, the young woman's body was found by a passing train crew. Both negroes were given an audience and Wright is said to have exonerated Young as the second negro, who would have the young woman. He committed the murder, he is said to have confessed, while another negro robbed her. He did not name the other negro, but said it was not Young.

Following Wright's talk, the mob proceeded to strap him to a stake. His feet and hands were placed at his feet, and the whole was burned to a cinder. His body was burned to a cinder.

Young was tarred black in the county jail, and tonight is in the county jail. No other disorder was attempted. The mob which began to stream into Perry throughout the day, began to disperse about 10 o'clock.

Fordson Often Does More In a Day Than Six Horses

The Fordson substitutes motors for muscles. The Fordson substitutes tractor wheels for the legs of man and horse.

The Fordson takes the burden off flesh and blood and puts it on steel. It allows the farmer's energy to be devoted to management, and not merely to operation. It gives him time. It cuts his producing costs.
