School 'Option' Urged

PENSACOLA (UPI)—The next Legislature should pass new laws, including the "parent-option" school plan, in order to solve racial problems which vary greatly in nearly every county, Asst. State Atty. Gen. Ralph E. Odum said today.

Odum, Florida's chief expert on segregation law, said there is no magic, foolproof cure-all to the racial dilemma "but some measure of relief may be found in a combination of various alternatives."

"County school boards should be given as wide latitude as possible under state law to choose from among a number of possible procedures which may best suit their own local conditions," he said. "It would be a mistake to attempt by state law to compel all school boards to follow the same procedure."

Dear Head Stamp
On Smokes Okayed
PIERRE, S.D. (UPI)—A bill to stamp a skull and crossbones on every package of cigarettes sold in South Dakota advanced to the House of Representatives today following passage in the Senate by a narrow 18-16 margin.

The bill, whose proponents lauded it as a move to "unglamorize" tobacco advertising, stems from a number of medical reports which have linked cigarette smoking with cancer.

The measure, adopted by the Senate Monday, was opposed by Democrats who said its passage would place South Dakota in direct competition with agricultural states that raise tobacco.

Republican Sen. F. E. Manning, the only physician in the Legislature, is chairman of the Senate committee that recommended the measure be adopted.

Manning criticized television advertising which showed "beautiful women who could dance on aupton, men who could make money playing poker, men who could make an advance toward a woman on the seashore, and others who could shoot straight—all because they smoke a particular brand of cigarettes."

Four Persons Die In Crash Of Plane

LEXINGTON, Ky. (UPI)—A Lexington, Ky., psychiatrist, his wife and two New York staff members of a medical magazine were killed Monday night in the crash of a private plane 15 miles south of here.

Kentucky state police identified the victims as Dr. H. Halbert Lee, 50, chief of a psychiatric clinic in Lexington; Leonard Gross, graduate student in psychology at the University of Kentucky and an employee of the clinic; Frank Bancroft, a writer for Scope, a medical publication in New York City; and Dan Weber, a Scope photographer.

The plane crashed about 9:05 p.m. in the Mundy's Landing section near the Kentucky River. State police said the single-engine Beechcraft Bonanza came down in a clearing, just over the crest of a hill, scattering wreckage for 25 to 30 feet.

Bancroft and Weber were believed to have been in Lexington working on a story about Lee's clinic there. They had flown to Middleboro, Ky., earlier Monday with Lee and Gross and were returning to Lexington.

It isn't known why, but the town of Etah, Me., gets its name from the German word "Halt" meaning stop or halt—spelled backwards.

Alfalfa Switzer Rites Set Today; Death 'Justified'

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—Carl (Alfalfa) Switzer, former child actor in the "Our Gang" movie series, will be buried today following a coroner's jury ruling that the man who shot him to death last week acted in justifiable self-defense.

The jury's ruling Monday brought dismissal of a murder complaint against Moses Samuels (Bud) Skitz, 28, who fatally wounded Switzer, 22, in an argument over a $50 debt last Wednesday.

Skitz, a welder and former business partner of Switzer, testified at an inquest that he shot the younger child star only after "Alf" had threatened him with a knife.

Elderly Man Dies In Hospital Leap

MIAMI (UPI)—An elderly man, apparently dependent on numerous illnesses, leaped to his death Monday from the fourth story of a veterans hospital, police reported.

Authorities said Lawrence W. Leake, 60, opened the window of his room, took off the screen then plunged to the concrete below. He was killed instantly.

Two other patients and a visitor saw the leap. Leake was suffering of heart disease, cancer, tuberculosis and kidney trouble, doctors said.

Gronchi Seeking New Government

ROME (UPI)—President Giovanni Gronchi launched efforts to find a new government today, hoping to avert a crisis which could plunge Italy into chaos.

Gronchi called in Senate President Cesare Merzagora for the first of a series of talks with prospective premiers that is expected to last at least five days.

Political observers saw no prospect of Gronchi's finding a new premier until sometime next week. They believe the choice probably will fall on ex-Premier Antonio Segni or outgoing Interior Minister Fernando Tambroni.

Former Premier Amintore Fanfani, who had governed for nearly seven months without ever having a sure majority in Parliament, gave in Monday to a combination of pressures from the left, the center and the right.

Gypsies Keep Vigil For Ailing Prince

MIAMI (UPI)—A band of gypsies continued their vigil on a hospital lawn today chanting and praying for recovery of their six-year-old prince.

Larry Mitchell, said to be heir to the gypsy throne, remained in critical condition after an operation for a fractured skull. He was apparently the victim of a hit-and-run accident Sunday.

About 100 gypsies from as far as North Carolina and Texas began gathering around the hospital Monday. The present gypsy king, 67-year-old Steve Mitchell, the boy's grandfather, remained outside the boy's room. Larry is said to be the only surviving male child of the king's 19 children.

Most of the gypsies, many of whom spoke in a foreign language, remained on the hospital grounds until a physician told them that the prince was better. But some of the boy's closest relatives remained through the night.

Red Writer Flees Into South Korea

PANMUNJOM (UPI)—A North Korean reporter for the Soviet newspaper Pravda fled to the West today, leaving his wife and infant daughter to what he said was a certain execution by the Communists.

"I am fleeing," said Lee Dong Joon, 30, as he craved two Communist guards and broke into the backdoor of a United Nations Command hut.

A meeting of the Joint United Nations-Communist Korean military armistice commission was going on in the hut but as Lee fled.

Lee told United Press International that he feared he was going to be executed by the Reds because of his family background. Communists executed his father and one brother during the Korean War and arrested his mother as a "traitress" just one month ago. He himself had been interrogated by the North Korean Communist Party over the past two months, he said.

Designers Admit Dame's The Thing

And it's better than even guess that designers Pierre Balmain, Michel Goma and Nina Ricci, who parade their models on the runway today will not back the trend of sumptuous, heavy, draped, baggy waisted dresses. Of this the dressmakers, press, buyers and customers obviously have had enough.

The world fashion merry-go-round never is going full swing until the powerful House of Dior shows its wares. And that does not happen until Thursday.

Hip-Wiggler Seeks Release By Army

NETLEY, England (UPI)—Rock 'n' roll ruffian Terry Dene may end his Army career before he really gets started. Nervous, Dene, 26, a guitar-playing hip-wiggler singer of television and stage renown, was drafted into the Army last Thursday with a fanfare of publicity.

On Saturday, during a conversation with a sergeant, he broke down and sobbed, "I shall never make a soldier."

He was rushed to the hospital with what the Army called a nervous breakdown. Word today was that he might be transferred out shortly.

A hospital spokesman, who declined to be quoted by name, said today a preliminary report by Army psychiatrists described Dene as an "immature personality."

"A soldier with this kind of diagnosis," the spokesman said, "is usually discharged within two weeks."

But the hospital commandant, Col. John McGhee, said, "It is too early to say whether Dene is suited for Army life or not."

McGhee, a psychiatric expert, added, "There's a very little wrong with the boy. I don't keep him in bed more than three or four days. It's only a minor case of nerves."

At the time he was drafted he was making $1,000 a week and apparently was working up to a new peak in his career. As a result, he is paid only $420 a week.

Udall predicted that construction of new homes will exceed the estimated figure of 1,200,000.

Washington Calling

WASHINGTON — The hard line no longer maintained toward the Soviet Union over Germany is being immensely softened before the very eyes of all who care to look at the plain, if not overly advertised, facts.

Before this, of course, we have seen tentative advances of U. S. concessions toward Moscow abruptly arrested by the protests of old Chancellor Konrad Adenauer of West Germany. And this concessionally could happen again.

If, however, Adenauer is not able again to turn our course back to the old tough position—and he is not likely to be able to—this may be said: we are entering a great turning in a twelfth year of the cold war. This is one of those one-man's-voiced moments that pose the big questions. What is our perfectly honorable view is a valid approach to a solution to a dangerous area of tension is in another perfectly honorable view simply appeasement.

This correspondence does not pretend to be wise enough to know which view is correct here. This whole business is one of the most wretched and enigmatic dilemmas in recorded history. But it is upon one or another of these things—at least a faithful relaxation of a firm policy, at least the first step toward soft surrender—that we are embarking.

This is the meaning of Secretary of State Dulles' declaration that free elections are not the "only method" for a reunification of Germany. East Germany and free West Germany repeatedly heretofore we had proclaimed that free elections lay at the heart of the plan of reunification. So settled was this theme that only three days before Mr. Dulles' change of front our British allies had described free elections as an "indispensable prerequisite."

The embarrassed British have now dropped this language.

Why has the United States shifted ground so much? And that this shift has occurred is quite certain, even though from time to time there are official indications to the contrary and some tactical stalling and tagging.

The Eisenhower Administration will not concede that the obvious propaganda success of Soviet Deputy Prime Minister Anastas Mikoyan's tour of this country has been a factor. The Administration certainly would never agree that budget-balancing policies limiting our military preparations have been a factor. Nevertheless, both probably have been.

At any rate, here are some other considerations that are authoritatively conceded to be involved in our official reasoning:

1. From the viewpoint of our highest aim for Germany—a truly reunited country bound up in the modern complex of Western Europe—a reunification by Mikoyan's means would be good enough. This might be accomplished, it is suggested, simply by agreements (with no popular voting at all) between the East and West German regimes. These would be backed up by some exchange of Russian and American or Allied guarantees.

2. We will, at all events, demand "real" reunification, with the restoration of Berlin as a genuine national capital. It is said that we would not, for illustration, accept any part of a Russian notion for a "reunification" that actually would leave East Germany as East Germany and West Germany with some thin alleged link of "federation" running between them.

3. We are prepared to acknowledge that the Russians—and others, too—have a real basis for their military fear of a revived Germany. Thus, we would be willing to go pretty far toward guaranteeing—and pressing Germany to guarantee as one of the prices of reunification—that the new Germany would not develop aggressive military forces. This might be a tall order to enforce, remembering the part—but there it is.

If Germany did become reunited she would have to be left free to join either our Western alliance, the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, or the Soviet bloc alliance, the Warsaw Pact. It is our deep assumption, of course, that the Germans would go our way. If they did not, the result would be unimagined disaster to all the West—but we are certain on the point.

The official argument for a new emerging policy, in short, is that it would: (a.) Relieve legitimate Russian fears of a militarily restored Germany. (b.) Put the country back together again in circumstances assuring that the Germans would not then turn against us. (c.) Fly away the sharpest area of friction between Russia and the West. (d.) Thus moderate the crisis over Berlin, from which the Russians are attempting to drive our troops.

What happens, in all this, to the old democratic concept of free elections? It would be an obvious casualty—but about which we would not care to talk too much.

Day Nursery Opens In New Quarters

The Sanford Day Nursery, 2304 South Park Ave., held open house in its new quarters this morning.

Officials attending were City Commissioner Bob Brown, Charlie Morrison, public relations director for the Chamber, and Richard C. Myers.

Officially, the day nursery was dedicated to the community. The new quarters are a two-story building with a playground and a large dining room.

The day nursery was founded in 1912 and has since that time been a part of the community. It provides a safe and healthy environment for young children.

The day nursery is open from 7:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. and is free of charge. It is a valuable resource for the community.

For more information, contact the Sanford Chamber of Commerce.

Heim calls the silhouette a "true" line and Cardin a "hoop." Patou abuses labels. But any way you wear the new line it is slim, giving shape to the most precious attributes a lady owns: Bust, waist and hips.

Happy, slinky, dignified, the knee cap. And you won't have to worry about creating slouching seams straight at night because many of the smartest dinner gowns are able length.

Cardin topped his models with large rounded "hoop" collars. Patou used collared necklines and décolletés and Heim emphasizes rounded shoulders. But the silhouette was essentially a princess line with slightly different emphasis on the area above the bust.

Witnesses Report Program Success

Delegates to the Orlando Convention of Jehovah's Witnesses reported the three-day program as successful.

A total of 221 attended the opening session Friday and witnessed the model ministry school and service meeting.

James A. Thompson Jr., district supervisor, conducted the hospital service Saturday. Eight persons were hospitalized in Lake Mann, Saturday night, the district's activity for the past six months was reviewed.

Climax of the convention came Sunday when Thompson gave a keynote address on "The Watchtower Society in God's Purpose."

After an intermission and talks by W. Bethel of Melbourne and C. A. Jones, district supervisor, Thompson delivered the farewell address.

Day Nursery Opens In New Quarters

The Sanford Day Nursery, 2304 South Park Ave., held open house in its new quarters this morning.

Officials attending were City Commissioner Bob Brown, Charlie Morrison, public relations director for the Chamber, and Richard C. Myers.

Officially, the day nursery was dedicated to the community. The new quarters are a two-story building with a playground and a large dining room.

The day nursery was founded in 1912 and has since that time been a part of the community. It provides a safe and healthy environment for young children.

The day nursery is open from 7:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. and is free of charge. It is a valuable resource for the community.

For more information, contact the Sanford Chamber of Commerce.

Troop Of The Week

By Jane F. Fletcher
 Hit! Come on and meet Brownie Girl Scout Troop No. 384. Here are Pam Adams, Elizabeth Bass, Julia Bennett, Becky Cameron, Marcia Carl, Diane Gay, Harriet Goodspeed, Irene Harris, Marilyn Hoarn, Carol Littleton, Linda Maltes, Paulette Pedrick, Brenda Phillips, Pam Tripp, Sharon Weir, Vicki Wilson and Sharon Wright.

The girls wear brown uniforms now but are eagerly participating in troop activities in order that next year they will be girls in green. Yes, next year this group will be "Fly-ups," the term applied to fifth grade girls who passed their Tenderfoot requirements during the previous year in Brownies.

Bridge Party Held

VAH-11 officers wives enjoyed their monthly bridge meeting at the home of Mrs. G. H. Robertson in Loch Arbor last week. Coffee and assorted pastries were served at the morning bridge. Winners were: first, Mrs. J. F. Trout; second, Mrs. W. C. Shaffer; consolation, Mrs. W. Schall.

This year has been a busy one for Troop No. 384. The troops entered a float in the Christmas parade, took a blue ribbon for their arrangement in the Flower Show, celebrated the troop birthday and enjoyed several cookouts. A special delight was the hobo cookout when the girls used hobo stoves. This one will be repeated by popular demand.

Jelly And Jam Recipes Told

Myrtle Wilson, Home Demonstration Agent, if you are going to make jelly, jam or preserves — you have a choice of several methods. To get a good quality jelly, acid and pectin must be used in the proper proportions. There is the traditional "equal measures of fruit and sugar method," boiled down until the mixture thickens. Or you can use fruit pectin, liquid or powdered, and a very short boil — 1 minute — which gives more of the fresh fruit color and flavor. Jellied mixture made with pectin calls for more sugar in proportion to fruit. The "short boil" time-saving method made with added pectin yields a larger amount also.

"MEDICINE TO PRODUCE HEALTH. HAS TO EXAMINE DISEASE"

Modern practice of medicine differs greatly from ancient methods. A research team of scientists, pharmacologists and physicians are continuously studying the causes of the different diseases.

Once they are known, it is only a matter of time before cures are discovered. Physicians now have better methods of diagnosis and treatment. Medicines are formulated to attack the cause. Sometimes, if we have no known chemical that will help, our chemists invent one by synthesis. That is why the medicines your physician now prescribes can help you more than ever before.

Sporting style— dinner jacket dash

None other like it in the world. Delightful dual personality. Lite, lean, yet luxurious. Charmingly continental with an American accent. Loves to be driven just for the fun of it. Obligingly practical on shopping trips. Seats five in the lap of comfort and safety. Ready response to the twist of a wrist. Torrents of torque at the tap of a toe. Stops with alacrity, too; large brakes turn the trick. This is the Silver Hawk. It's Studebaker's wonderful way to make motoring a sport. It's Studebaker's daring design for persons who would rather not run with the crowd.

Party For Squadron Fine Civic Gesture

Seminole County may be found lacking on some points, but old-fashioned hospitality certainly isn't one of them.

Those who attended the "Welcome Aboard" party for VAW-1 at Sunland Estates park Saturday night would be quick to agree that this was a very fine gesture on the part of Odham & Tudor.

The local construction firm entertained personnel and families of the squadron which recently moved to the Sanford Naval Air Station. Also in attendance were city, county and business leaders.

More than 1,000 attended the party. This was quite a successful event for Odham & Tudor, and the many housewives who prepared the food consumed by those who attended.

The importance of the party for Heavy Attack Squadron One and families of personnel best was described by Cdr. Sid Baney, commanding officer of the group.

Asked how the new squadron liked Sanford, Cdr. Baney said: "We like it fine; most of the men think it's wonderful. When the move was announced, many were somewhat apprehensive about interrupting their training and home life in Jacksonville; a move of this nature always upsets, to some extent, the daily pattern of life."

Many of the men in the new squadron were enthusiastic about Sanford at the party. Never, they said, had they been so honored. In all of their travels, never had anyone made them feel so wanted.

This expression of welcome to our new residents was very important. It came at a time when families are trying to adjust to a new home, new community, new friends.

The party by Odham & Tudor will be beneficial to the construction firm. Many of these new residents are living in homes built by the company.

But, the party was important to Sanford and Seminole County. It was a demonstration of warmth and congeniality, visible evidence that these newcomers are at "home" here.

All who had a part in the planning and the work can be proud. It was a unique event, the warmest kind of "welcome" to new residents.

It's Courtesy Week

Florida Courtesy Week now is under way. In Sanford and Seminole County, this week has special significance.

Sanford is the defending champion as Florida's "Most Courteous City." The Junior and Senior Chambers of Commerce are sponsoring activities which members hope will return the title to Sanford.

Competition for the award will be stiff. Winning in 1958 will make it more difficult for Sanford to repeat. Other cities seeking the award will be able to use many of the events that Jaycees used here last year; local Jaycees must change, at least to some extent, the activities of last year.

Coming up with original ideas for 1959 will be more difficult because Jaycees went "all out" in '58.

Despite Sanford's chances of repeating, everyone will be a winner during the week. Courtesy costs nothing, but it's worth a great deal. Friendliness is a fine characteristic. According to the medical profession, it requires fewer muscles to smile than it does to frown.

Often, a friendly smile and warm greeting make the day more pleasant for a neighbor, or a stranger on the street.

This is "Courtesy Week" and everyone will be conscious of the fact. However, we suggest that the special observance be extended for the remainder of the year.

Local Man To Get Masters Degree

Walter Morrow Turner, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Turner of Sanford, is among the candidates for degrees from the University of Mississippi, Jan. 21.

Turner is a student in the graduate school, and will receive the Master of Arts degree with a major in political science. No formal mid-winter commencement exercises are planned. Members of this graduating class will be invited to participate in the spring program, May 21.

SERMON ON THE 'MOUNT'

Letters To The Editor

Editor,
 The Herald:

I have read with interest and introspection the letters written regarding merchants, stores, sales people and our Sanford stores.

I wondered if we shouldn't look at ourselves as purchasers and customers to see where we may help, too. This is our town, and we have been hearing much lately about it being friendly and courteous.

Also, though I'm sure the merchants realize that much needs improving, and I've seen many in recent months. Do we have to be like city stores? In a city near us, I like to shop at times, and do. I have made, often, a selection when I would have liked to have taken a little more time. The sales person didn't hurry me. By her look and smile, there were many others waiting!

In Sanford stores, I'm well known (I'm no VIP—just been here 33 years). I'm guilty of many things.

But any of us, after saying "I'm just looking," suddenly find what we wanted and find all the sales people busy? Then we feel in a big hurry. Never was anyone as slow as the person ahead of us! It's hard to wait our turn.

Do we sometimes in the middle of finishing a purchase see our friend of long standing enter and suddenly turn to visit, and even show the grand babies' pictures (God bless 'em). If I'm in a store I find I get waited on by simply letting somebody know I'm expecting to be waited on. They can't spot always the "just lookers." You may say, "Oh, yes, they know you."

No, I think it works anywhere in a strange store you have been waiting sometime. The manager says, "Could I Help You?" You could say "Yes, what on earth do you have to do in this place to get waited on?" but you say, "Yes, but everyone seems busy. Now the manager is waiting on you!"

Some customers do not want help or assistance in making a purchase. You have to let the sales person know. It works wonders. Before you think the tor he was not a very friendly person, did you invite friendliness?

Our town is getting so large in population, maybe we can all help in some small way. Tell a friend, stranger or acquaintance if you know where a purchase can be made. Talk our stores up. Mention that the window display is attractive. Take complaints to the heads of stores or departments first, or merchandise that proves unsatisfactory.

Think sometimes of all those beautiful gift packages that were wrapped for you; the shirt not in stock, but ordered for your husband; the cold rainy days you were snug at home, and many went to work to serve you and me.

Maybe all of us should be behind the counter as a sales person for a short period. I would not last, but I'd learn!

Signed
 Mrs. B. F. Cooper

Squadron 11 Wins John Bear Plaque

The John H. Bear Memorial Plaque was won by Heavy Attack Squadron Eleven for the month of December.

The plaque is given monthly to the unit at NAS Sanford maintaining the lowest rate of traffic violations.

Cdr. Bear was commanding officer of VAW-11 when he was killed in an automobile accident a year and a half ago.

Four different lengths were legally recognized as constituting the 12 inches of a foot until the U. S. Bureau of Standards came along in the early 1930's.

Installation plan buying in the U. S. is expected to reach an all-time high of $42.3 billion during 1959.

Inez Robb Says

BY INEZ ROBB

Before any more of our foreign and domestic critics lose the harpoon into American finance, industry and big business for receiving and extolling Anastas I. Mikoyan, I would like to have the floor for a few moments.

Perhaps the trouble with these critics is that they are not born reporters and have not tried to learn what went on when Mikoyan and American leaders met in private.

What went on was not surrender of American big business to Mikoyan charm (what's that again?). No, indeed. What went on was a "cliffhanger" with American financial and industrial leaders boring in on the Soviet's Deputy Premier in a manner he is not apt to forget if he lives as long as Methuselah.

At the luncheon given by the First National City Bank for Mikoyan, and attended by 24 of America's leading financial figures, I am told on the best possible authority that there developed a Donnybrook in which the Americans worked over Mikoyan like Joe Louis over a preliminary boy in Joe's palmy days.

They gave a damn sight better than Mikoyan sent," my informant said. "They had him steadily on the defensive. Every question asked him was searching and acute.

"And it was a joy when they started giving it to him. The American viewpoint was presented forcefully, to say the least. He was given an accurate picture of American strength and American unity. He was told to go home and tell his boss that all Americans are united behind the government in its opposition to communism and its world maneuvers.

"There was the kind of honest, dedicated flag-waving at that luncheon to warm the heart of anyone who believes in democracy. Critics who have been crying aloud that big business was about to surrender to Mikoyan and communism should have had a glimpse of the wigging given the deputy premier by the representatives of the American financial community."

The second report, again from a firsthand source, about the reception accorded Mikoyan by American industrial and banking leaders is a rundown of the small gathering for the Soviet leader at the home of Averell Harriman, former governor of New York.

"At no time or place in the United States did Mikoyan hear tougher talk or rougher truths," I was told. "Once more, he was given an accurate picture of American strength, unity and firmness of purpose to resist Communist blandishments or pressures any place in the world.

"I am a Republican," my informant continued, "and not an admirer of Averell Harriman, but I doubt if Mikoyan has ever heard tougher talk than Harriman poured on him. I would say that Harriman worked the deputy premier over with brass knuckles."

Harriman especially insisted that Mikoyan go home and tell Khrushchev how all the American people, including American business and industry, feel about the situation.

For customers who wish to spread payments over a longer period, the plan will give the option each month of changing an account from a regular charge to a conventional planned payment account.

Blackwelder emphasized that the credit plan will in no way change the company's long-standing, low-risk-up policy for customers who wish to continue to make their purchases on a cash-and-carry basis.

The plan will be set up as soon as personnel can be trained and procedures established.

Penney Store Here Will Offer Credit

R. N. Blackwelder, manager of the Sanford Penney's Store, announced today that his store has been selected as one of a small group of Penney stores in the U. S. which are offering credit facilities to their customers some time this spring or fall.

The store manager said the credit plan will be the newest type of charge account, which will enable the customer to pay her account in full within 30 days of billing date without a service charge.

Tigers Still Seek General Manager; Ferrell Fills Gap

DETROIT (UPI)—Rick Ferrell is acting general manager of the Detroit Tigers today but the search still is on for a permanent successor to John J. McAlle with Paul Richards, and Bill DeWitt still the most frequently mentioned choices.

"I've had a few calls from people wanting the job," Tiger President Harvey R. Hansen said.

Ferrell replaced McAlle, who resigned Sunday to accept the general manager and a vice presidency of the Milwaukee Braves.

Board Chairman John E. Fetzer said the appointment of Ferrell, 53-year-old North Carolinian who caught more American League games—1,866—than any other receiver in history was necessary to keep the club running smoothly with spring training less than a month away.

Ferrell said his first concern is signing players to 1959 contracts. Eight already have signed and several others have agreed verbally but only Frank Bolling and Ray Narleski of the first stringers are under contract.

"Rick is doing an excellent job as farm director," Fetzer said "and we don't think it would be wise to take him away from that post. He could remain acting general manager for the whole season or we might have a permanent general manager by opening day."

'Tucky Tops Tech, Take Second Place

United Press International
The nation's No. 1 college basketball team finally has climbed into second place in the South-eastern Conference.

The Kentucky Wildcats moved out of a tie for the SEC runner-up slot Monday night with an impressively easy 94-70 victory over Georgia Tech in Atlanta. Only a loss to Vanderbilt mars the Cats' record—and only that loss keeps them out of a first-place tie with undefeated Auburn.

It was Johnny Cox, the Tanky returnee from last year's championship team, who set the pace for Kentucky's rambles over the Yellow Jackets. He bucketed 23 points, most of them in the first half, and was one of the evening's top rebounders.

It was the only SEC game of record for the night, although Alabama strengthened its over-all record with a 75-54 victory over Southwestern Louisiana. The only action tonight is a nonconference game between Louisiana State and Loyola at New Orleans.

Tech was hoping for a repeat of last year's upset victory over Kentucky, but Cox and company set a winning pattern early. Cox, who had his wind knocked out in a first-half collision, acted as a decoy in the second half while mauling Bill Lickett and Bonnie Cuffman, who wound up with 21 and 19 points respectively, did most of the shooting.

Tech's speedy little Buddy Blemer contributed 22 points to the losing cause.

It was Alabama all the way in the game at Tuscaloosa. The Crimson Tide had a shooting percentage of 40.3 and grabbed 46 rebounds.

Kentucky Retains Lead In Cage Poll

NEW YORK (UPI)—The mid-season examination ball in college basketball left Kentucky, North Carolina and Kansas State atop the United Press International ratings in that order today and kept the top 10 teams the same as the week before.

There was the prospect of some changes, however, after this week, when several of the nation's leading powers resume their schedules after a week of illness.

This week's top 10 showed only one minor change from last week, Michigan State, tied with St. John's of New York for the No. 7 spot last week, gained undisputed possession of seventh place, while St. John's dropped to No. 8.

Aside from that, it was North Carolina State in fourth place behind Kansas State, with Cincinnati, undefeated Auburn, Michigan State, St. John's, Bradley and West Virginia completing the top 10 in that order.

Team	Points
1. Kentucky (13) (14-1)	203
2. North Carolina (8) (10-1)	204
3. Kansas State (9) (13-1)	211
4. N. C. State (3) (12-2)	223
5. Cincinnati (11-2)	201
6. Auburn (1) (13-0)	174
7. Michigan State (10-2)	145
8. St. John's (N.Y.) (1, w. 2-1)	91
9. Bradley (11-2)	52
10. West Virginia (14-3)	33

Second 10 teams—11. St. Louis, 30; 12. Marquette, 19; 13. (tie); Utah, California and Mississippi State, 13 each; 16. Northwestern, 12; 17. (tie); UCLA and Texas Christian 6 each; 19. Utah State, 5; 20. Oklahoma City, 3.

Bob Turley Gets $10,000 Belt As Athlete Of Year

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (UPI)—Bob Turley, the "nowindup" World Series hero of the New York Yankees, wound up with the $10,000 Hank Aaron and diamond-studded belt today as the "professional athlete of the year" for 1958.

The 28-year-old right-handed pitcher, who had a hand in three of the Yankees' four series victories over the Milwaukee Braves, was presented with the belt Monday night at the annual Rochester Press and Radio Club Dinner for the polo fund.

Turley accumulated more than twice as many points in the voting than fullback Jim Brown of the Cleveland Browns, who finished second in the balloting by sports writers and sports broadcasters.

The Yankee fast baller posted a 21-7 record last season and previously won the Cy Young Award as baseball's top pitcher for 1958.

There were 1,738 women studying for the engineering degrees in the U. S. in 1957, compared with only 63 in 1950.

Blind Golf Champ Gets Award Tonight

NEW YORK (UPI)—Charley Boswell was startled when the person he suggested they go play a round of golf.

"Actually, I thought the guy was nuts," he says.

Because Charley Boswell, captain, U. S. Army, was totally blind.

But Charley went and today he is the national blind golfers champion for the 10th year. Which is why, tonight, he'll receive the Ben Hogan Award presented annually to the person who has made the greatest inspirational comeback.

Previous winners include President Eisenhower and the late Babe Didrikson Zaharias. But Charley, a bald husky from Birmingham, Ala., graces even that company.

Triple Threat Hallback
Charley was a triple threat halfback at the University of Alabama from 1936 through 1940. He played in the 1938 Rose Bowl game against Sam Chapman's California team and called the plays in a 7-6 win over Fordham and Len Eshmont in 1939. But

Simla Is Favorite At Track Tonight; Ladies Night Set

Ladies Night is slated Thursday night at Sanford-Orlando Kennel Club, but a smart-looking miss named Simla will be out tonight to show greyhound fans that every night is Ladies Night.

Simla is favored to win the featured ninth race of a 10-race card beginning at 8:10.

Early odds say the white and brindle good looper will lead the pack from the sixth post position, the same spot from which she ran second to the famous-out-fading Indurial. In that event, Simla covered the five-sixteenth-mile distance in 31.06 seconds.

Elaine Nug, in the first spot, is figured to have an excellent chance at victory. Earlier in the season, she won a Grade A event from the same spot in an impressive 31.08 seconds.

Heavy Frisco Buck, running from the fifth position, is another early favorite in the feature.

Also in the Grade A event are Mister Fred, Pin Chick, Golden Honey, Edge of Nite and Limber Timber.

Three of tonight's fast 10 races are three-eighths-mile affairs, the first, seventh and 10th.

Ladies Night racing Thursday features free admission for all women, including tax charges, which will be paid by track operator Jerry Collins as an expression of appreciation for enthusiasm shown this year by Central Florida women.

Sports Parade

NEW YORK (UPI)—Frank Lane, for one, would welcome Bill Veck back to the majors.

"I'll certainly be glad to see him back," said the Cleveland Indians' general manager today.

"He'll pep up the American League, which was off about 10 per cent in attendance last season."

Lane chuckled and added, "Bill and I always get a lot of action." That's an understatement. When Frankie Frankie and Barter Bill get together, 10-man trades are as common as fluttering pennants at Yankee Stadium.

Lane asked, "is it certain Bill's buying into the White Sox?" He explained, "I was down in Havana, you know, and all I've heard since I came back were those unconfirmed reports."

The writer gave his inside info to Lane, but felt like a guy sending pineapples to Hawaii as he did it; for he doubted that Senor Lane was an uninformed as he professed.

Anyway, the writer told Frank it's practically certain that Veck and Hank Greenberg will buy 48 per cent of the White Sox stock for about $2,500,000 from Mrs. Dorothy Comiskey Rigney before their optional deadline, Feb. 18.

Chuck Comiskey insists upon holding the 34 per cent controlled by him and his wife. He will continue with the club, but probably as president instead of vice-president.

The club will be run by four directors—Chuck and his wife, and Veck and Greenberg. According to Bill and Hank are expected to have voting power at directors' meetings equal to that of Chuck and his wife.

Whether Chuck will insist upon continuing as general manager is uncertain.

Anyway, with Veck on the board, it's not likely that the White Sox will be called the "Pale Hole" any more—even if "Pale Hole" goes as far as ordering midgets into the lineup.

Over the phone to Cleveland, the writer asked Lane if he had any Indian Sox deals in mind for Veck.

"No I haven't," said Frank. "But Bill and I will certainly cook up something in a hurry."

Veck will be returning to the majors for the first time since his sale of the St. Louis Browns' franchise to a Baltimore group five years ago. His flamboyant promoting was unable to boost the Browns out of the doldrums although it previously had succeeded remarkably with the Cleveland Indians.

Golfers Competing For Powell Trophy

The annual Dot Powell Handicap tournament is under way at the Mayfair Country Club. Eligible for the tourney are members of the Sanford Women's Golf Association.

The tournament is sponsored by Miss Dot Powell, one of Sanford's leading women golfers. Due to seasonal duties in her store, Miss Powell is unable to play much golf in the winter, but her trophy stimulates increased interest among other members of the Association.

First and second rounds already have been played. The third round must be played by Jan. 28. Leading the field are Miss Ellen Bette, Mrs. Hank DeMont, Mrs. W. K. McRobert, Mrs. Andy Marsh, Mrs. Bill Foulk, Mrs. Andrea Caraway, Mrs. Detianah and Miss Cecile Heard.

Ryff Meets Andrade

NEW YORK (UPI)—Lightweights Frankie Ryff of New York and Cisco Andrade of Compton, Calif., will meet in a 10-round bout at Madison Square Garden Feb. 12, while Gene Fullmer, the former middleweight champion from West Jordan, Utah, has signed to meet Will Greaves of Detroit in a 10-round bout at the Garden Feb. 20. Both bouts will be telecast nationally.

Golf Offer Refused

BALTIMORE (UPI)—Manager Paul Richards of the Baltimore Orioles has turned down an offer to serve as club pro for Scottsdale, Ariz., golf course. Richards is a consistent 70-shooter on the links.

Phils Can Go Only One Way

EDITORS NOTE: This is the 11th in a series of 16 dispatches by major league managers giving mid-winter appraisals of their teams.

By EDDIE SAWYER
Manager, Philadelphia Phillies
Written For UPI

WAYNE, Pa. (UPI)—The Philadelphia Phillies have improved themselves in the off-season—and we expect to move up in 1959.

Sure, from a last place finish, there's only one place to go, and that's up. But I want to point out that with every deal we made during the off-season we added speed, something we were lacking badly.

Speed and youth that came with every deal. It's very true, some of the newcomers are from the minor leagues and still must prove themselves. But when we went into the minors, we went after the best.

As I see it, the Phillies have strong pitching, are strong defensively and generally have improved themselves. We added a catcher. We could do with hitting—but who couldn't?

Deep In Infielders
For the first time in my recollection, we are two and three deep in the infield. I doubt if the team ever has been in so secure a situation since Bob Carpenter took it over. We did a lot to add extra infielders.

There aren't many infielders available in the majors. That's why we had to go after fellows untried in the big leagues, but we got the best we could. We're pretty well satisfied on that.

We're still open for trades, but we're on a more solid footing. Take a look at the infield. Ed Douchee on first base. Second base was always our problem, but now we have Sparkie Anderson from the Dodgers trade, Johnny O'Brien and Ted Kazanski. Reuben Amaro can push Chico Fernandez all the way at shortstop. There's Willie Jones, Gene Freese and Pancho Herrera for third base, and Herrera also can take a turn at first. Granny Hamner's bad knee makes him an unknown quantity—at least at this writing.

Sound Catching Staff
Valmy Thomas who came to us in the trade with the Giants, sits very well in a catching staff of Stan Lopata, Jim Hegon and Carl Sawahl. There's an outfield probably well set with Richie Ashburn, Harry Anderson, Wally Post, Bob Bowman and Dave Philley.

We have lots of pitchers, good ones, too. That's one reason why we traded away Jack Sanford. We thought we could afford to trade. You can start with Robin Roberts who made a great comeback last year. There's Don Cardwell, Curt Simmons, Ray Semproch, Dick Farrell and Jack Meyer. We added Ruben Gomez in the Sanford trade. Jim Owens has had a touch of the majors. All in all, we look fairly good in pitching.

Quinn Will Help
That gives an idea of what we should look like this year, an infield with speed, young ball players who will get every chance to prove themselves, sound catching and fairly strong in pitching. We have more depth in the infield than we ever had, and if those youngsters can prove themselves to be major leaguers, we'll be all right. We should move up.

John Quinn of the Milwaukee Braves coming to us as general manager is a good break. He's a personal friend. I've known him for 23 years, the same as I knew Roy Hamey, and he'll hustle to help Quinn know our league as well as anyone in it—probably better than most.

3 West Virginia Gridders Booted For Exam Thefts

MORGANTOWN, W. Va. (UPI)—The West Virginia University football team was dealt a blow for the 1959 season Monday when three squad members were expelled for attempting to steal questions to semester examinations.

The dismissed players were probable starting fullback Glenn Shramlin, Sissonville, W. Va.; sophomore halfback Dick Manion, 20, Wheeling, W. Va.; and sophomore tackle Don (Duck) Smith, 20, Nitro, W. Va.

Coach Art (Pappy) Lewis said his squad would be hurting without the services of the gridders, but added, "I don't condone what they did."

The players were dropped after hearings before the school disciplinary committee for "unauthorized entry" into the university field house "for the purpose of obtaining semester final examination questions." Acting President Clyde L. Colson said.

Colson said the players entered the field house, where most of the men's physical education classes are held, on the night of Jan. 14 to take a look at the physical education department's master exam.

Lewis was particularly high on the ability of Shramlin, a 23-year-old junior, who has been drafted by the Chicago Cardinals professional football team.

"Shramlin probably would have been our starting fullback," Lewis said, "and both Manion and Smith would have played a lot of football."

Lewis said he would have to "count heavily on sophomores again next season for reserve strength."

Lewis said he had been counting on Manion, a 155-pound speedster, to back up veteran halfback Ray Peterson. Falls Church, Va., and Dave Rider, War, W. Va.

"I just hope this thing (examination) doesn't hit these boys too hard," Lewis said.

Yardley Injured; Pistons Bow Again

United Press International
When George Yardley can't play, the Detroit Pistons are in trouble.

The Philadelphia Warriors took advantage of Yardley's absence from the Detroit lineup Monday night to score a 102-90 victory over the Pistons in the only game played in the National Basketball Association.

Yardley, who became the first player in NBA history to score more than 2,000 points in a season during the 1957-58 campaign, will be lost to the Pistons for about three weeks with a broken bone in the left hand.

Paul Arizin, the circuit's second highest scorer this season, teamed with Joe Graboski to score 59 points, the latter canning 11 in the final period when the Pistons made a strong comeback.

Phil Jordan, who had 23 in a losing cause for Detroit, earned the Pistons an 88-80 tie with only seven minutes to go, but then Graboski got hot and the Warriors pulled away. The loss was Detroit's seventh in a row.

Graboski wound up the game's top point maker with 30, while Arizin had 29. Gene Shue chipped in with 21 for Detroit.

Dick Hickox Leads 'Canes To Victory

MIAMI BEACH (UPI)—Flashy guard Dick Hickox scored 21 points Monday night to lead the University of Miami to a 69-64 victory over Kentucky Wesleyan in a see-saw battle.

Miami led 23-20 at halftime but had to come from five points behind in the second half to win the game before a crowd of 2,100.

During a one-minute period in the second half, Hickox sank three field goals. Ron Gooden, also of Miami, was second high point man with 19. Kentucky Wesleyan's star guard, Dolly Coleman, was held to 14 points.

A law against slavery was enacted in Rhode Island on May 18, 1852.

Mexican Teeners Seek Sebring Okay

SEBRING (UPI)—Officials in the Sebring International 12-hour Endurance auto race today were again asked to allow two Mexican teenagers to drive in the race, from which they were barred last year.

Pedro Rodriguez Jr., 19, and his brother, Ricardo, 17, were turned down last year because of insurance problems covering drivers under 21. But no such problems exist under the 1958 rules.

The pair, both old hands at sports cars, submitted their applications for the March 21 event Monday.

Bowlers In Action Tonight, Tomorrow

Tonight's lineup in the Sandspur Bowling League pits first-place Perfection Dairies and third-place Wilson-Maier at the Sanford Bowling Alley.

Roumillat's will play Robson's and Wades will meet ABC, in tonight's other games.

Shirley Simas rolled a big 200 last week, making her the second member of the Sandspur to be welcomed in the W.B.C.'s "Club", and to be awarded a gold pin.

In the men's league last week, first place Burnett Palmara 1955 all three games to New York Life Insurance. Mather of Sanford won two games from Ruker's Pitman Shop and the Celery City Pitman went for a 2-1 victory over Gona's Seminole Dry Cleaners.

Tomorrow night, Burnett will meet Mather in the "Match-of-the-Week" on lanes 1 and 2. New York Life and Celery City Pitman will roll on lanes 3 and 4, and Celery Music Shop will take on Gene's Seminole Dry Cleaners on lanes 5 and 6.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Rugenstein have as their guests, his parents of New York.

Juveniles Erred; They Kept Diary

PITTSBURGH (UPI)—Authorities have ended the robbing activities of three polite juveniles who kept a diary of their misdeeds. Juvenile authorities said Monday the youngsters, two 13-year-old boys and a 15-year-old, kept a diary in which they accounted for 22 robberies already committed, and 60 more piffler jobs they had lined up for the future—all business establishments.

They are not without manners, police said. After robbing the Universal Car Loading Co., they didn't forget to leave a note which read, "Thank you."

Cuban Major Gets Death Despite Poor Evidence

By FRANCIS I. MCCARTHY
HAVANA (UPI)—Maj. Pedro Morejon Valdes, second "war criminal" to be tried here, was sentenced to death early today after an all-night trial.

A three-man revolutionary tribunal found Morejon guilty of assassination, theft and other crimes despite the fact that only about a third of the 55 witnesses called against him were able to offer first-hand testimony about his alleged crimes or to identify him as their perpetrator.

The defendant, wearing prison blues, was seated between two similarly-clad men of approximately his height and build. Witnesses after witness failed in attempts to pick out the prisoner.

The defense argued also that there may have been confusion between the accused and two other Pedro Morejons in the army—one a major, the other a lieutenant. The defendant did not always use the "Valdes"—his mother's family name—which distinguishes him from the other Morejons.

The crime most often mentioned in the testimony against Morejon was the killing of 13 farmhands, one of them a 6-year-old boy.

An unexpected sensation was provided for the spectators when Reina Cespedes, a girl from Oriente Province brought here to testify against Morejon, identified a spectator as having been one of his men.

Miss Cespedes said Sgt. Adolfo

Perez, now assigned to the judge advocate general's office of the revolutionary army, bashed her brother's brains out with a rock after knocking him down.

Perez was promptly jailed pending investigation of her charges.

Longwood Students Featured In Fashion Show

By Jo Hammond
Phone VA 8-5552
"Animated Magazine of Fashion" presented at Lyman high school PTA meeting last Tuesday night featured members of the Home Economics class showing fashions for all seasons. Mrs. Esther P. Williams directed.

A six-piece dance band, under the direction of Michael Fisher, provided background music as each model appeared through a flower and fern bedecked picture frame. All members shown were handmade products by members of the class.

Mary Bowles and Dick Vckovsk provided vast amusement with their clowning and mimicry of models.

Celebrates Birthday
Miss Cheryl Strong was honored at a party last Tuesday celebrating her tenth birthday anniversary.

Guests were presented with hair barrettes and note books as favors and were served refreshments of cake, ice cream and cold drinks. Dancing and games were enjoyed during the party hours.

Attending were Susan Eldridge, Gail Hammond, Becky Young, Donna and Becky Barber, Pamela Farmer, Irene Aguilas, Sandy and Sherry Johnson, Margaret Blanton, Lucille Barbieri, Lorraine, Jalinda and Falecka Noble, of Orlando, Beth Viner and Debra Strong.

Bake Sale
The Lyman Junior Class sponsored a Bake Sale at postoffice in Longwood, Casselberry, Fern Park and Altamonte Springs, Saturday, Jan. 24. Proceeds will go to defray expenses of the Junior-Senior prom.

Personals
Mrs. Cassie Malers, formerly of Longwood, is visiting her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Merle Harris, and many of her friends in Longwood. Mrs. Malers' new home is in Delray Beach, Fla.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Butz, Kent, Ohio, have been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Hansen for the past two weeks.

Arnold Foss, Dale Finch, and Roger Turney, Rockford, Ill., are guests of Bill and Marge LaBree.

Miss Cheryl Strong, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Strong, celebrated her 10th birthday Tuesday. Many of Cheryl's friends were at her party to enjoy cake, ice cream and cold drinks.

David Peters, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carlotta Peters, graduate of Lyman with the class of 1958, is presently stationed at Lackland AFB.

MASSENA, N.Y.—Chief Corbett Sunday, representing the Seneca Indians in a Six Nation Indian confederacy fight against paying New York state income taxes:
"If my people were smart, they would have sunk him (Christopher Columbus) and we wouldn't be in this trouble today."

CHICAGO — Barbara Siegel, press agent for a Beatnik Poets Magazine telling of a poetry reading to be held to raise $2,600 for a printing bill:
"We're going to charge $1.50 for adults and $1 for students, but anyone with a beard can come in free."

NEW YORK — General Sessions Judge John A. Mulien in sentencing Thomas Fitzpatrick to six months in jail for landing an airplane for a second time on a Manhattan street:
"There is no doubt that making airplanes of New York City streets is fraught with danger."

WASHINGTON — Sen. Francis Green commenting on a report by Allen W. Dulles about Intelligence Agency work, especially Soviet economic and propaganda offensives:
"There is no doubt that the Russians have made up their minds to be the No. 1 nation."

Audit Is Critical Of Woman Deputy

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — A woman deputy sheriff of Baker County withheld more than $10,000 in cash from official funds in late 1957 and early 1958 but replaced them after the shortage was discovered.

State Auditor Bryan Willis reported the incident Monday in his audit of Baker County.

He said Mrs. Margaret J. Sharnan, office deputy for Sheriff Ed Yarbrough, repaid the money in August 1958, after the shortage was turned up by the state audit. The auditor said Mrs. Sharnan, who resigned later, made fictitious bank deposits and kept the money herself.

He added that a shortage of $338 was found in the Sanderson Negro School lunch room account but that the principal made it up.

In other reports, Willis said two Pinellas County justices of the peace had been suspending sentences and fines without authority. He said they agreed to stop the practice.

Celler Sees 'Mix' About Year 3000

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (UPI) — Rep. Emanuel Celler (D-N.Y.) has predicted integration of public schools won't be accomplished until "about the year 3000" unless the attorney general is given authority to enforce it.

Speaking before members of the Wisconsin Bankers Assn. Monday, Celler said he would push for a bill in Congress to give the attorney general power to enforce desegregation.

Celler also blamed President Eisenhower for the lag in integration because "he has never indicated whether he approves or disapproves of the Supreme Court's desegregation decision."

Most Bakers Use Wholesome Eggs

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A member of President Eisenhower's cabinet says most bakers use fresh, wholesome eggs in their batter.

Arthur S. Flemming, secretary of health, education and welfare, told a news conference he didn't mean to blacken the good name of the baking industry recently in his announcement of a crackdown on the "incubator-reject racket."

Flemming said the Food & Drug Administration would move in on bakers who use rotten eggs in their products.

That brought the baking industry bouncing to its feet in protest. Flemming Monday had this to say:

"We are glad to say that those bakers who do buy these eggs constitute a small minority of the industry. We know that most baking firms are quite particular about the quality of their eggs and other materials."

"And while this incubator-reject racket is conservatively estimated to be a million dollar business, it is quite small, of course compared to the total volume of eggs used by the legitimate industry."

The Associated Retail Bakers of America claimed the secretary had cast a "reflection on all bakers" by his original announcement.

Deaths

SHORT HILLS, N.J. (UPI)—John A. Fieseler, director of the International Flower Show for 24 years, died Sunday.

BUFFALO, N.Y. (UPI)—Thomas A. Rose, 55, a former newspaperman in Buffalo and Syracuse, died Monday of cancer.

NEW YORK (UPI)—Israel Ury, 70, retired merchant and leader in Jewish affairs, died Sunday of a heart attack.

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (UPI)—Maj. Henry Frank Schroeder, 84-year-old veteran credited with sounding the bugle charge which sent Teddy Roosevelt's Rough Riders up San Juan Hill, was buried Monday with full military honors. Schroeder, holder of the Congressional Medal of Honor, was a young non-commissioned officer in the Spanish American War when he sounded the call for the famous charge. He died Tuesday at his home in Long Beach, Calif.

DETROIT (UPI) — George D. Grant, bicycle racer and a pioneer in the auto industry, died Monday.

County Accepts Appraisal Rule

High Level Urged; Millage Will Drop

The Seminole County Commission yesterday rescinded its order on property appraisals, but voted to urge the county tax assessor to set a high level on assessments when the current survey is completed.

Commissioners and members of the County School Board went on record as favoring an assessment level of 75 per cent.

Both voted to adopt resolutions to this effect and present them to Mrs. Mary Earle Walker, county assessor.

The Commission, which had instructed Dowling Appraisal Co. to list 75 per cent of value on appraisal cards, rescinded this action after reading statements by Comptroller Ray Green in the Sanford Herald.

At the time the Commission and School Board, meeting jointly, voted to ask Mrs. Walker for assessments at 75 per cent of "full cash value," members pledged themselves to a reduction of the millage rate.

John Krider, Commission chairman, and R. T. Milwee, county superintendent, emphasized that the millage rate, the actual rate of taxation, would be reduced "according to the increase in the level of assessment." Both pointed out that the governing agencies "will set the millage rate so that it will produce minimum proceeds."

Copies of the resolution also will be sent to Gov. LeRoy Collins and fifteen, who said yesterday that a new manual for tax assessors makes it mandatory that assessments be based on 100 per cent of value.

A statement by Krider prior to a motion to rescind the "75 per cent of value" order indicated that the Commission had been informed previously of Green's feelings on this matter.

When the issue was raised, Krider said, "I've already told Dowling."

Although the Commission and School Board will ask a 75 per cent assessment, this is not binding on Mrs. Walker. The tax assessor told The Herald that she was "thinking in terms of 65 per cent," although she said a definite figure has not been chosen.

The Florida Budget Commission, meeting today, was scheduled to take action on the new tax assessment manual.

In other action yesterday, the Commission voted to interview applicants Saturday for the county engineer's job, okayed the hiring of another secretary for the zoning commission ($1,800 per year), and employed a Dowling employee at $2 per hour on a part-time basis for the zoning commission.

At the time his job with Dowling is completed, the employee will join the county at $4,000 per year.

Longwood Offers Center To County

Longwood offered a vacant medical center building to the county yesterday. The town has requested aid from the county health department in providing medical service for indigent families.

Dr. Jack Thurmond, county health officer, told a Longwood representative that he would look over the building to see if a service could be provided. Thurmond described the facilities of other counties which have auxiliary health units to serve those who have no transportation.

When the request was made before County Commissioners, Thurmond said, "We have excellent relations with our medical personnel, and don't want to infringe on their area." Longwood has no doctor.

Judge Says Youths In County 'Good'

The juvenile situation in Seminole County is very good said Judge Wilson Alexander in an address to the Sanford Pilot Club last night at the monthly dinner meeting.

Alexander said that, taking into consideration the population of the county and its present rapid growth, juvenile delinquency is very little. There were only 118 cases involving juveniles in the county during 1958.

Duties of a county judge varies in counties according to size and population, he said. The Seminole County judge has three spheres of jurisdiction: limited criminal, civil and probate. The need of the county for separate facilities for juveniles and the mentally ill was cited by the judge.

Mrs. Sidney Live had charge of the program and introduced Judge Alexander.

Two guests, Mrs. Wilson Alexander and Mrs. Jeanie Blair, were present. Three new members, Miss Dorothy Cooper, Mrs. Winifred Hunter, and Mrs. Janet Smith, were presented.

Mrs. Walter Carter, president of the club, urged members to be at the Vocational School Friday evening to finish addressing and stuffing envelopes for the Easter Seal sale. The club voted to hold business meetings at the Civic Center in the future.

Norfolk Prepares To 'Mix' Monday

NORFOLK, Va. (UPI) — Virginia's largest city stood on the threshold of integration today.

Harring a last-minute legal maneuver of some still-to-be-devised action from the state level, 17 Negro students will walk into six previously-white schools Monday, ending a legal battle started May 10, 1956.

Federal District Judge Walter E. Hoffman late Tuesday struck down the Norfolk City Council's last-ditch plan to withhold funds and close every high and junior high school in the sprawling shipping and naval center of more than 450,000 population.

Hoffman, in granting an order forbidding the council to close schools, said it clearly was designed as an "evasive scheme for the purpose of avoiding integration."

School Board Chairman Paul Schweizer, named lately as the city's schools, including six closed last fall under Virginia's now-extinct "massive resistance" laws, will open Monday for the second semester.

Bulletin

ALEXANDRIA, Va. (UPI) — Federal Judge Albert V. Bryant today denied an Arlington school board request to stay his order admitting four Negroes to all-white Stratford Junior High School in Arlington next Monday.

Squadron Trains, Night Flights Set

Nights will be busy over Sanford again as V-119 enters the second phase of training for deployment next August.

Flights will leave and return to the Sanford Naval Air Station during early evening and late night hours.

The squadron will fly simulated aircraft carrier hops and long-range bombing missions. Constant field carrier landings must be made to insure pilot proficiency.

Because the 31st Skywarriors are noisy, residents were urged to remember that this is a necessary evil. All squadrons at the Naval Air Station must train, officials said. "If America is to remain in a state of constant readiness, the men must fly. War is no respecter of day or night. The pilots must be able to operate with their crews at any time, in any weather."

Sanford's slogan during this period might be, "If night flying bothers you, think how much sleep is lost behind the iron curtain for the same reason."

13,000 Volts Burn Two Workers Here

Two men suffered burns Monday afternoon as they worked on a job for Florida Power and Light Co. at the Interstate Highway Interchange in Lake Monroe.

Woodson LeMasters and Edward Snipes, both of the Orlando area, were burned when the guide line they were holding hit a power line, sending 13,000 volts of electricity through both. One was knocked into a ditch, the other brought to his knees in the truck in which both were working.

They were taken to Seminole Memorial Hospital, where LeMasters was held overnight for observation after suffering burns on his fingers and toes. Snipes was released with less serious burns.

The men were unloading large concrete anchors, using a crane and line attached to an A-frame on the truck. They are employed by the Paul Jet Construction Co., Orlando, which is subcontracting for the Florida Power and Light Co.

W. Scott Burns, Sanford manager for the Power Company, said that the men "were most fortunate. They could have been fatally injured."

Dior Will Feature 'Back To Nature'

PARIS (UPI)—Yves Saint-Laurent, boy wonder designer for the house of Dior, revealed today a back-to-nature spring line with bonnet, waist and hips where they belong.

Saint-Laurent, 22, who succeeded the late Christian Dior as the world's most influential dress designer, broke tradition today in an exclusive interview with United Press International to tell how he plans to make women feminine again in their fashions.

"The best will be in its place again," he said, "and for the first time in years women will be simple, supple and natural."

"But at the same time she will have all the refinements that fashion can provide to make her elegant."

"She will be long in time, with none of the previous architectural construction surrounding her."

Space Trips Fantastic? Not So, Experts Declare

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Top space experts said today that within 10 years man could be landing on Mars, reaching out for Jupiter, living in space stations and telecasting to all the world.

Moreover, one expert said men within 40 years may be flashing to the stars and galaxies at the speed of light—168,000 miles a second—and destroying enemies with death rays.

The dazzling futuristic forecasts—compiled in a report by the House Space Committee—were written by 36 space experts in the U. S., Great Britain, Germany, Italy and the Far East.

The House committee's report predicted these space developments by 1969:

—Designs for rockets capable of burning through the earth, construction of underwater cargo ships and operation of manned orbital bombers.

—Space probes to the planet Mercury.

—Accurate weather forecasting.

—Various stages of progress on such forms of rocket propulsion as ionic and photonic power, plasma jets, solar boilers, magnetic braking and even solar sails—a sail propelled by light from the sun.

One expert—George L. Haller, a General Electric Co. vice president—summed up the tone of the report in his statement: "Man's venture into space is the great enterprise of this century. Tremendous progress has already been made. Yet in the light of what remains to be done all that has been accomplished so far is no more than a tennis ball as viewed in relation to the earth."

Ohio Couple 'Pinched' For Courtesy

A young couple from Cleveland, Ohio was "arrested" at the city limits this morning to become Sanford's 1959 "Courtesy Couple."

For two and one-half hours, Charlie Morrison, Dave Thrasher, Jaycee chairman of Courtesy Week, told the couple "this isn't a punch," 23-year-old Al collapsed against his little Simca car and

Carol and Al Bastardo, who recently returned from Germany, were halted. When Morrison, public relations director for the Chamber, and Dave Thrasher, Jaycee chairman of Courtesy Week, told the couple "this isn't a punch," 23-year-old Al collapsed against his little Simca car and

Housing Project Slates Opening Here On Feb. 1

Cowan-Moughlin Terrace will open Feb. 1 on West Third St. The new project is the fourth built by the Sanford Housing Authority and the first since 1952. Thirty units will be rented to families with low incomes.

The project is located directly behind Edward Higgins Terrace, which contains 40 units. With the 210 apartments for Negroes, the Chamber and William Clark Courts, this brings to 250 the number of low rent facilities available through the Authority.

Total construction cost was $279,000. Built of concrete block, each unit contains a store, refrigerator, space heater and solar heating system. The heat is new to the project. Appliances are available with from one to four bedrooms. A. B. Newton and Co., Vidalia, Ga., was the construction firm.

Included in the cost of construction ($9,300 per unit), is shrubbery, lawns and paving of roads. To qualify, tenants must have limited incomes. According to Gordon Bradley, executive director of the Authority, many of the former tenants have bought their own homes upon leaving the project.

When the Bastardos checked in at the hotel they met Mrs. John McCraw, Sanford's favorite baseball fixture, and Mrs. Christy Walsh, Mayfair Inn hostess.

Gov. Almond Asks Schools' Revision

RICHMOND, Va. (UPI)—Gov. J. Lindsay Almond urged a special session of the General Assembly today to enact an immediate program of tuition grants and then consider a wholesale revision of Virginia's public school system to head off integration.

Almond cast aside as impractical demands that he use his police powers to close down at least nine schools threatened with integration before they open Monday.

The governor, in a dramatic appearance before a hastily convened special session, called for cash grants to permit students to attend private facilities.

Almond also asked for repeal of the compulsory school attendance law which was seen as giving the integration-threatened localities of Norfolk, Arlington County, Charlottesville and Warren County room for new legal maneuvers.

He strongly hinted that the state might have to abandon public schools in some areas and turn to other means to educate its children. There "is no longer any hope for many thousands of them to be educated in public schools," he conceded.

HAVANA (UPI)—The revolutionary government halted its "war crimes" trials and executions today for a nationwide observance of the 10th birthday of Jose Marti, the "George Washington" of Cuba. They resume Thursday.

In Santiago, the stronghold of revolutionary sentiment which has been the scene of the bloodiest "war crimes" executions, trials and shootings were postponed Tuesday as well as today. They are expected to resume Thursday.

In Havana, the Superior War Board deferred judgment on the appeal of Maj. Jesus Sosa Blanco, Cuba's "war criminal No. 2," against the death penalty imposed on him last week. His attorneys have asked permission to introduce new evidence.

Maj. Pedro Morejon Vialles, who was sentenced to death Tuesday in the second of three scheduled "show trials," was allowed extra time to decide whether he wants to appeal.

CLANTON, Ala. (UPI)—A thief apparently did not like the 1951 Oldsmobile he stole from a local dealer.

Police said he abandoned it two blocks from the used car lot, returned and took a 1946 Oldsmobile, which is still missing.

Another was heard near Charlotte, N. C. All apparently were caused by bursting weather balloons.

Several residents of West Palm Beach, Fla., reported seeing a fiery object streak across the sky Tuesday night. This happened shortly after the launching of an Atlas missile at Cape Canaveral, 100 miles away, but witnesses said what they saw was about the color of the moon and had a long, vaporous tail.

Earlier Tuesday, a ball of fire was reported by several persons to have plunged into the bay at Mobile, Ala. Authorities said no planes were known to have been in the area, and no explanation was offered.

Two blasts, strong enough to rattle windows and glassware, were reported at Montgomery, Ala. This turned out to be the ordinary noise of jet planes breaking the sound barrier.

Legislators Ask For Suggestions — Suggestions for local legislation will be accepted by the Seminole County legislative delegation from 9 a. m. to noon Feb. 14.

Sen. Douglas Stromstrom and Reps. Mack Cleveland Jr. and Gordon Frederick will be available during those hours at the County Commission room in the court-house.

The delegation urges citizens to think of suggestions now. Adequate preparation will save time during the meeting for both parties.

He Got His Raise — KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (UPI)—When the city administration refused to grant a raise for claims investigator Frank Workman, city law director John Duncan cut his own salary by $800 and added it to Workman's.
