Fine Election Weather As Electors Turn Out

Record Seen In Florida

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) — Floridians stood in long lines to vote today as the election weather across the state contributed to what apparently would be a record turnout.

At Tampa, where the turnout was reported much heavier than during the recent city primaries, the hurried poll workers said, "People are coming in so fast, I really haven't had time to count them."

State officials predicted more than 2.1 million would cast ballots before the polls close at 7 p.m.

In St. Petersburg, lines at some precincts extended well into the street. Jacksonville and Miami also reported long waits for voters. In the greater Miami area, it was estimated 75,000 to 80,000 had voted by 9 a.m. — 2,000 to 3,000 more than had cast ballots by the same hour in 1964.

Long lines were reported in Pensacola where Escambia County voters turned out in heavy numbers. A check of selected precincts showed balloting reached 12 per cent of the registered vote in the first hour compared with seven per cent in the 1964 presidential election.

Voting was heavy also in Broward County. Some 100,000 absentee ballots — also a record in Florida — could delay the outcome of close races for as long as two days in the biggest outpouring of votes ever in the state.

"If the races for President of the U.S. Senate are as close as they seem to be," said Secretary of State Tom Adams, "it may be late Wednesday or early Thursday when we know the winners in Florida."

Instead of the usual choice between Democrat and Republican presidential candidates, voters had a choice of three this time — Richard M. Nixon, Republican; Hubert H. Humphrey, Democrat; and George C. Wallace, the Independent Party nominee.

The race for the U.S. Senate between former Gov. LeRoy Collins, Democrat nominee, and Rep. Edward Gurney, Congressman from the Fifth District, generated more heat than any political race in Florida since retiring Sen. George A. Smathers defeated Claude Pepper in 1950. Collins and Gurney battled right down to the final day, with both claiming victory.

Incumbent Congressmen facing opposition include Democrats Robert L. F. Biles, Charles E. Bennett, Sam M. Gibbons, James A. Haley, Paul G. Rogers, Claude Pepper and Dante Passell and Republican J. Herbert Burke.

Democrat James C. Robinson and Republican Louis Frey Jr. are contesting for the seat being vacated by Gurney.

Three Supreme Court seats are to be filled. Republican C. Richard Leavengood of St. Petersburg and Democrat Joe Boyd of Hialeah are competing for the seat being vacated by Justice Elwyn Thomas.

Justice Millard Caldwell, a former governor and a Democrat, is retiring and his spot is being sought by Democrat James C. Adkins Jr. of Gainesville and David L. McCain, Republican from Fort Pierce.

Republican Wade Hopping, special appointee of Gov. Claude Kirk, seeks to retain his seat and is being opposed by Democrat Vassar Carlton of Titusville.

Seminole Electors Running Up Record

By JUDY WELLS
Opening of voting polls in Seminole County at 7 a.m. today saw lines already formed in most precincts, indicating that the record voter turnout predicted in the state and nation will be followed here.

In Semnole, there are 28,469 registered voters with 2,021 absentee ballots, which could be counted in the evening.

Four-Inch Snow Hits Montana

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
A wintry storm flung snow and cold rain across the Northern Rockies and into the plains today but most other sections of the nation enjoyed fairly pleasant election day weather.

Four inches of snow blanketed Helena, Mont., and Butte measured three inches before dawn. Eastward into the plains, Lennox, in northwestern South Dakota, was given a two-inch coating.

Temperatures fell into the lower 20s by daybreak in the Northern Rockies and adjacent plains. Readings in the 20s radiated through Colorado and into Nebraska, Iowa and Illinois.

As a remedy to combat the growing problem, the jury recommended, "that a new grand jury be selected and that they pursue the investigation of organized crime in Seminole County and surrounding counties and recommend to nearby counties that they have their grand juries join in an intensified investigation of all organized crime."

In another report involving the unauthorized detention of John Burgess, an 18-year-old

Sanford youth jailed for five months after he was ordered released, the jury found, "that either the Justice of the Peace failed to transmit this discharge order to the sheriff's office or the sheriff's office lost said order of discharge."

Continuing, "We find that assistant public defender was appointed to represent Burgess in the Circuit Court in normal fashion and that a commitment was signed."

Long Lines Wait To Ballot

WASHINGTON (AP) — Early reports today indicated America's voters, the most unpredictable in two decades, were turning out in unusually large numbers to decide a presidential election clouded by war abroad and disorder at home.

A forecast of fair weather for most of the nation held the promise of a voter turnout exceeding the record 71 million of four years ago.

And up and down the Eastern seaboard, where the polls opened first, long lines were reported waiting to cast their ballots for Democrat Hubert H. Humphrey, Republican Richard M. Nixon, American Independent George C. Wallace or candidates of several minor parties.

In New York City, war correspondent for the Board of Elections said all indications showed heavy vote under cloudy sky and mild temperatures.

Estimates were that about 5,000 to 6,000 would have voted in Miami by 9 a.m., a little more than had voted at that time in 1964.

In Baltimore, Md., city precincts also reported a heavy early turnout. One newsman standing in line before the polls opened at 7 a.m., the most he had ever seen at that time.

Voting in the Columbus, Ohio, area also was very heavy during opening hours with most polling places reporting voters standing in line before the polls opened at 6:30 a.m.

Long lines also were seen in the Maryland and Virginia suburbs of the nation's capital. In Philadelphia, the city's mayor said he had seen a line of voters waiting in the city's downtown area.

Referrals will be served following the meeting and membership cards for the 1968-69 year will be available.

Because this topic is of such great importance and concern to all residents of the community, the meeting will be open for general discussion, with questions and answers in order. Jackson streets.

Growth in Seminole County affects the future of Lake Mary and each resident. Thus, the purpose of this meeting is to keep our citizens aware of current and future trends and to help them become more knowledgeable concerning the community and surrounding local areas," he notes.

Democratic Sen. Edmund S. Kennedy and his wife Jean were among the early voters in Boston after waiting in a three-quarter-block line on historic Beacon Hill. Early voting elsewhere in Massachusetts was reported steady.

The three-way presidential contest began with Republican Richard M. Nixon a runaway favorite to complete one of the greatest political comebacks in history and some doubt whether Democrat Hubert H. Humphrey could even finish ahead of incumbent.

Peace Talks Delayed; Saigon Absent

PARIS (AP) — The first scheduled peace talks since the bombing halt in Vietnam, due Wednesday, were postponed today because of the absence of a delegation from the Saigon government.

The postponement followed the refusal of South Vietnamese President Nguyen Van Thieu to join the proposed four-party session which would also include the Viet Cong's National Liberation Front.

"We will not talk with the NLF in Paris and no one can force us to do such a thing," Thieu said in Saigon.

The Saigon boycott embarrased the U.S. delegation, headed by Ambassador W. Averell Harriman, in view of President Johnson's Oct. 1 announcement of a bombing halt aimed at propelling the Paris talks into a new, more productive phase. They got under way in May.

Johnson said a regular session of the Paris talks was to take place on Wednesday at which Saigon government representatives "are free to participate."

North Vietnam had served notice that NLF representatives also would be present, the President said, under the new arrangements.

The South Vietnamese government is opposed to any move which it thinks might imply recognition of the NLF. The NLF in turn claims to be the authentic representative of the South Vietnamese people. An NLF delegation arrived in Paris Monday.

Until now the Paris meetings have been conducted only by the U.S. and North Vietnamese governments and there was no immediate indication just when an expanded conference might get under way.

The U.S. announcement of the postponement by delegation spokesman Dwight D. Eisenhower said: "The first meeting of the Paris talks to work out a peaceful settlement in Vietnam will not be held tomorrow, Nov. 8.

"We continue to consult with the Republic of Vietnam on this matter, and are hopeful that its delegation to these forthcoming talks will arrive in the next few days."

In addition, procedures for the first meeting have not been agreed on. Representatives of the U.S. and North Vietnamese delegations have been meeting to discuss these procedural questions.

"As soon as a date for the first meeting is decided it will be announced promptly."

The delegation announcement put on the record for the first time what diplomatic sources had been reporting privately—that U.S. and North Vietnamese envoys had been holding unannounced meetings.

Secret talks were under way between U.S. diplomats and North Vietnamese in Paris, and between the U.S. government and Saigon as the Americans sought to avoid launching the new phase of the Paris meetings with a prestige boost for the Viet Cong.

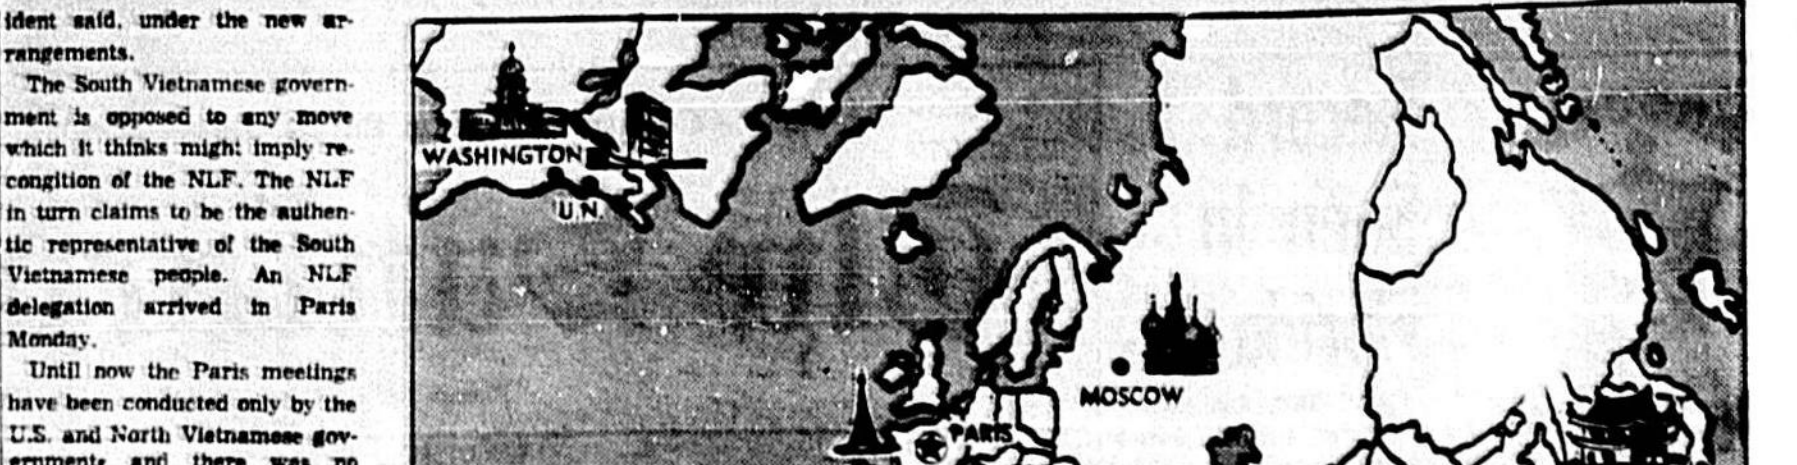

The chief North Vietnamese negotiator, Xuan Thieu, was said to be not adamant so far about just what procedure should be followed for the expanded meeting. But there was considerable expectation that hastening over procedure could go on for quite some time before the participants get down to hard bargaining on the basic war and peace issues.

President Johnson is announcing his Oct. 1 bomb-halt package aimed at a major push forward for the Paris sessions said the presence of the Viet Cong's National Liberation Front on North Vietnam's side of the table in no way involves recognition of the NLF, Saigon leaders contend.

The U.S. government organized a demonstration in Saigon today in support of its stand, while a militant Catholic faction held another. But the two rallies amounted to a total of only 5,000 people, many of them were generally apathetic, and there was no anti-American violence.

The U.S. ambassador to Saigon, Ellsworth Bunker, said in a television speech today that America's goal in Vietnam "remains unchanged—an honorable and just peace in which free Vietnamese people can live and prosper according to their own wishes."

Bunker also said there has been no change in the U.S. position on the "two major concerns" of the Saigon government: "The implied recognition" of the NLF, and the possibility that a coalition government including the Communists might emerge from the Paris talks.

WITH DIPLOMATS and world leaders talking peace from one end of the globe to the other, speculation is rife that an end to the Vietnam war may be in sight. President Johnson, who has halted bombing in North Vietnam, reportedly has been in steady contact with Moscow while conferences proceed in Paris between W. Averell Harriman, Cyrus Vance, Xuan Thieu and Le Duc Tho, and in Saigon between Ambassador Ellsworth Bunker, Nguyen Van Thieu and Nguyen Cao Ky.

Knowns added it would require the operation of some 30 sewage plants for only seven employees and even at 30 cents a foot, city would still run into red until there were enough firms located at the base to allow for cost of operation.

A possibility exists, Bunker said, that a pitch soon will be made to City Commission by an industry representative seeking vocational school.

City Manager Warren E. Knowles informed the group of a scheduled Wednesday meeting of GSA with Federal Aviation Agency (FAA) in Washington concerning an effort by the governmental agency to sell a 120- to 200-acre strip of land along SR 46.

Price of the tract was not mentioned, but it is reported to be present market price.

FAA wants the city to receive the entire base and is willing to give up as much as some without cost.

Some sort of compromise between the two agencies is expected to be approved after Wednesday and shortly thereafter the city should receive title to the property.

Don Hubert, executive director of SIC, said he has been approached by at least two industrial concerns in past month expressing an interest in establishing a vocational school at the base.

Long Lines Cast Ballots

President George C. Wallace.

It ended with Humphrey making such major inroads into Nixon's margin that public opinion pollsters refused to call a winner.

Chambers also increased that none of the candidates would get the 270 Electoral College votes needed to win, which would force the final decision into the House of Representatives for the first time since 1825.

The divisive issue of the Vietnam war, which led to President Johnson's stepping down and made a bloody battlefield of the city where Democrats nominated a successor, remained paramount to the last.

Nixon, after leading President Johnson to the hill on the Vietnam bombing halt that lifted Humphrey's last minute hopes, questioned the move in an election eve telecast.

He said he had a "very disturbing report" gleaned from an unnamed Air Force general that the enemy was moving thousands of tons of supplies into South Vietnam.

"I think President Johnson went into the bombing halt with good intentions," Nixon said. But, he added, in what appeared to be a snarl in the stance, Johnson had misled on a mass of "untrue" facts for advice.

Humphrey branded the Nixon charge "totally irresponsible" and accused the Republicans of trying to "triggle the American people."

Johnson announced last Thursday night he was ordering an end to all bombardment of North Vietnam, and said there had been a glimmer of progress in the Paris peace negotiations.

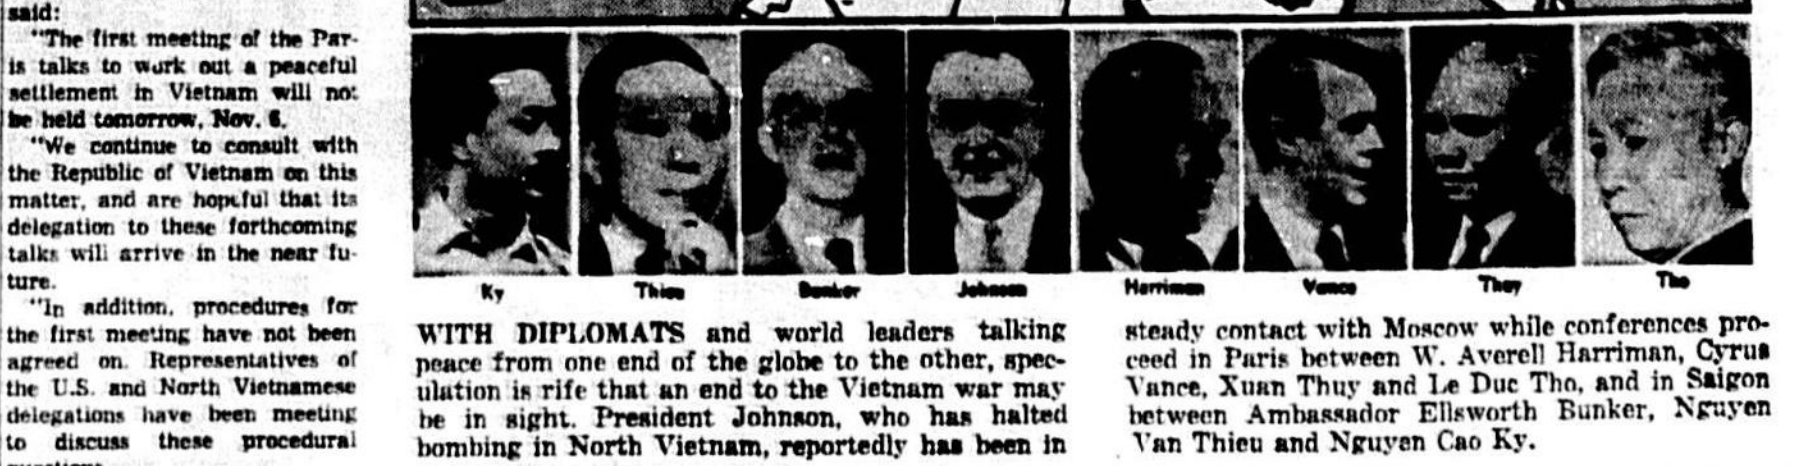

The dramatic announcement, although expected for several weeks, was hailed by Humphrey who subsequently showed a three percentage point edge in the final Louis Harris poll released Monday.

The poll gave Humphrey a 45 to 40 edge over Nixon. This was the first time he has led during the campaign in which he was trailed by eight points in the Harris poll and in the Gallup poll. Gallup's final poll over the weekend had it 42 to 40 for Nixon.

Wallace, the phenomenon that three pollsters and political experts far off their stride, was given between 12 and 13 percent of the vote in the final polls.

Nixon, however, remained confident that he would rack up a popular vote margin of three to five million votes.

John N. Mitchell, Nixon's campaign manager, said this meant that the Republican candidate would get more than enough electoral votes.

Lawrence F. O'Brien, Humphrey's campaign manager, expressed firm belief that "we're going to achieve an electoral majority" in the balloting. This was a little further than Humphrey himself had been willing to go in predictions.

Wallace ended his campaign on a Southern note without repeating his earlier contention that he would take several states outside the Deep South. A Wallace aide, however, said the former Alabama governor will carry "all of the southern states up into Virginia and Maryland and has a chance to carry Pennsylvania."

Besides the three presidential candidates, voters across the country will elect 21 governors, 34 senators and all 435 representatives, as well as hundreds of lesser statewide and local candidates.

North Orlando Buys Radio For Police

By MARY STATT

The North Orlando Village Council last night entered into a $10-a-month lease purchase agreement with Glenn Hicks Radio Sales, Inc., to buy a VEE mobile radio unit for the police car. The unit will be used in with the Seminole County sheriff's department.

At the same time, Council also agreed to sell its old Buick to a new police vehicle. It was noted that the present car is in need of repair and new tires.

It was agreed to give L. D. Plante, Inc., a quit claim deed for an access road to the Plante property. Plante has agreed to black top the thoroughfare and keep it open to the public. Council also heard reports that work on Bird Road has been completed and it is now open to Casselberry.

A $25 monthly raise in pay was given Mrs. Helen Green, Assistant Village Attorney. Thomas Freeman, effective immediately.

Mayor Clifford Jordan and Freeman reported on the recent League of Municipalities convention in Jacksonville, which they attended, noting that others on the council should make an effort to attend next year's meeting. The officials pointed out that attendance at the convention is an excellent method of learning how other cities handle similar problems.

At the suggestion of some members of the council, it was agreed that efforts would be made to shorten the length of time spent in council meetings. The objecting councilmen advised that they are required to be at their jobs early in the morning and that late hours in council meetings are an inconvenience.

GSA Would Sell Base Land

Information coming from Monday afternoon's meeting of the newly enlarged Sanford Industrial Commission revealed an effort is being made by the General Services Administration (GSA) to sell the City of Sanford a portion of the phased-out Sanford Naval Air Station.

County To Collect Past Due Debts

Seminole County Commissioners at meeting today moved to collect past due debts owed by users of the county sanitary land fill.

Commissioner John Fitzpatrick moved to have the county attorney take legal steps to collect past bills after first writing each of the customers who owe delinquent accounts.

Fitzpatrick is looking over a list of past-due accounts reported by the county engineer.

The commissioners okayed the 25-cent per foot price asked by city for the 4,000 square foot structure being sought and Bunker informed the group that the interested party offered only 25 cents per foot.

Lee Moore said it appeared to him that firm should pay the price asked, since it was not a large amount.

Newsman Addresses Deltonans

By MELBORD HANRY

Newsman Charles Waldworth was guest speaker recently for the Deltona Lions Club at a dinner meeting attended by 42 members and their guests.

Waldworth, who spent a year or more as a member of the armed forces in Vietnam, later was sent back by his editor to write first-hand accounts from servicemen and civilians on the progress of the war.

"For a long time, when the United States has a active fighting in Vietnam, a soldier sent back by free-lance reporters were slanted because they knew our newspapers would not pay for their stories unless they were well embellished. As a result, we did not get the true picture," he noted.

The speaker went on to say that "although U.S. Senators back home remarked that we were fighting a war we could not win, they were here to see the highest type morale among our soldiers. Here were our boys in the thick of the fighting with their rifles slung over their shoulders and their eyes bright. Our soldiers recognized that this was an undeclared war and that they would have to stay over here a year if necessary. They were able to see what was being done for them while in combat. If one of their comrades were wounded, within five minutes he was on his way to the best treatment possible. Doctors returning from Vietnam will tell you how many lives were saved before they had their breakfast. Nine out of 10 soldiers who were wounded here were brought back to life. They lost less than one per cent of those brought to their hospitals after the boys had been struck by booby traps and land mines.

"How can our soldiers maintain this high morale? Because there is no other line over there. Blacks and whites go together on leave and fight side by side. In a situation like this, you might imagine a great deal of brain-washing was going on in training camps, but this is not so. When our boys go into action, they are not brainwashed. The Viet Cong and Communist operate and the awful devastation the enemy inflict upon villages, towns and the natives. It has to tell our boys what they are fighting for. Our soldiers see Communism at work, so they are not brainwashed. Another six-month period of service and they know that our equipment is the best any army ever had."

In business of the meeting, it was announced that the club's Christmas Party and Ladies Night will be Dec. 16, with a musical program to be presented by the Moderates of DeLand.

Many Issues Face Winning Candidates

By JOHN CUNNING

AP Business Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — The successful candidates in today's elections face such an array of challenges that to complete just one of the tasks would, in less than a year, be enough to establish a theme for an administration.

So many issues have become critical in the past few years that a good number remain unresolved, not only because of human failings but because of an inefficiency of time and money.

Because of the great number of issues, the first job of any administration—local, state or national—would seem to be the establishment of priorities, a chronological list for solving the problems, based on urgency.

As the nation has been reminded time after time in the past few years, not even the richest people in the world can do all they wish to do, even if they try to their limit.

In trying during these past few years, even the magnificent economic machine that Americans have built through labor, ingenuity and risk-taking has begun to burn its bearings and give off the acrid smoke of inflation.

One of the more fundamental issues—because it is really a bundle of issues—is the crisis of the cities, which ironically continue to seem with a vast immigration from rural areas despite the obvious decay in living conditions.

America's large industrial cities have less than peaceful relations, inadequate revenue, often poor transportation, unemployment, inadequate housing, sometimes poor educational facilities, labor difficulties, and it seems, even a malaise of the spirit.

So overwhelming has been the demand on local revenues that cities have been forced to post bonds to improve the social and physical environment. Inevitably, these delays since seen greater burdens on the future.

In communities throughout the nation today, voters must decide on some $9 billion of bond issues, or about three times the amount of debt that voters were asked to assume in the past.

But the city, although the focus of many of the nation's ills, is not the only geographical sector with problems. Farmers have been complaining of poor income at the very time that consumers have been paying high prices for food.

And there are many domestic problems that traverse the city-farm lines. Poverty, for example, and rising medical bills, and inadequate housing, and government disinvestment in an age growing complex and confusing with technology.

One of the more prevailing factors is inflation, because along with damage to fixed incomes and the stability of the dollar, it now disorients between labor and management, consumer and producer, old pensioners and young workers, voter and government.

Even more fundamental an issue is inflation, because along with damage to fixed incomes and the stability of the dollar, it now disorients between labor and management, consumer and producer, old pensioners and young workers, voter and government.

Body Of Man Found On Raft

NEW YORK (AP) — The body of a man, completely clad in black, was found Monday on a raft floating in the Atlantic Ocean. Police said the raft was equipped with a gun device that might have caused his death.

A Coast Guard helicopter sighted the raft by Rockaway Inlet east of Coney Island and towed it to the Naval Air station in Floyd Bennett Field. Police reported the death an apparent suicide, but were investigating.

The man's face and hands were blackened, probably by ash or soot, and he had a rope tied around his neck and one thigh. One of his eyes was glass.

Police investigated but there was no notation as to what, if any, action was taken.

Elusive 'Luk' Hunted

BRADFORD, Pa. (AP) — People are invading Willow Dale Cemetery at night by the dozens in search of a ghost called Luk. But the police chief says he'll have to have a pay raise before he'll join any such chase.

"I've done a lot of reading on it," says Sue Aylward, "and it seems that it's possible, and I believe in anything that's possible until proven otherwise."

So far the last few nights, Sue and many others of all ages have invaded the cemetery looking for Luk, variously described as a white, slightly blurred figure floating about two feet above the ground or a man in a distinguished crop of iron gray hair wearing a blue suit with a topknot.

"Was he really as surprised as you were out there," says William Neatman, police chief of Bradford?

"I sat out there and just watched. There were easily 50 people who came to look for the ghost. Two of them even had tape recorders," says Neatman. "I tell them it's a hoax, and they just look at me and say they believe in ghosts."

Sue, a 16-year-old senior at Bradford High School, says she is one of the believers. Two nights ago, she and three of her girlfriends went out to the cemetery on a cold, dark and noisy night.

She says her friends have taken tape recorders to the cemetery and the tapes, when played back, contain ghostly screams and Neatman, who has heard the same tapes, says they are nonsense.

"And says Neatman, "I've never seen 'Luk' but it didn't better scare my pay."

FOR POLITICAL ADV. BY ROBERT G. PRIBBE, DEMOCRAT

Editorial Comment

Now To Keep Citizen Action In High Gear!

Even now, before the ballots are counted, before the result of the elections are known, before the drums of the final drives has been lost in the hard, cool light of statistics, there is something which must be preserved.

What is revealed is a geographical area where new and important assets are being brought to light, where the traditional use for agricultural purposes are being amplified, where the introduction of light industry and broadened educational facilities give birth to promising advances.

But what is needed, what is essential, what cannot be dispensed with, is a community spirit of common effort, common goals and a resolve that the future and growth of the city and the county will be controlled by those who live here, not by those who would exploit our assets without due regard.

Now with the lively spirit which has been generated by the political contests, with a channeling of this into non-partisan enterprises, there exists a challenge which all may cope with and use as a strong base on which to establish true progress in 1969.

Profitable PO?

Delivering the mail has become an American dilemma. Despite repeated hikes in postal rates and cutbacks in postal services, the post deficit now tops $1.1 billion a year.

A presidential study commission has recommended that a federal corporation be set up to operate the postal system — "free enterprise" style — with the hope that the arrangement will change such a system, it is argued, would free the post office department from a top-heavy bureaucracy, eliminate political patronage in post office hiring and allow the post service management to plan and finance postal operation and capital improvement in accord with postal needs.

The federal corporation might work. It certainly seems that with the volume of mail moved in the United States and with this nation's vast technological resources, the post office could be made a financially sound enterprise. While Congress is studying the federal corporation approach, it might take a look also at the government-run British postal service which manages to deliver 92 per cent of the mail or a next-day basis anywhere in the country and to make a profit doing it.

Last year, the British postal service chalked up a four-million-pound ($9,600,000) profit and this year aims to increase profit to six-million pounds ($14,000,000). Britain apparently is the only country in western Europe that knows how to make money delivering the mail. The British must be doing something right and we need to find out what it is.—Florence (S. C.) Morning News.

Helen Fuller Says: "Thorn-In-The-Side" McCarthy

NEW YORK CITY — Senator Eugene McCarthy has served notice that he intends to be a thorn in the side of the new President after January 20. His lukewarm statement of support for Robert Humphrey over Richard Nixon evidenced more concern for keeping up the hopes and spirits of those who rallied at his side for the nomination through all the primaries and the nominating convention in Chicago than for Humphrey's immediate fate.

Packers Still Running . . .

Green Bay Issues Championship Challenge

By BOB GREENE
Associated Press Sports Writer
GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP)—A fourth consecutive National Football League championship still is the goal for the Green Bay Packers. Yet they seem to be going about it in an unusual manner.

"It looks as if we might lose our way into the Central Division title," a Packers staff member said.

The Packers' 13-10 loss to the Chicago Bears.

This defeat knocked the Packers out of a share of the division lead with a 3-4 record. But former co-leader Detroit also lost.

Now Chicago and Minnesota are tied for first. But both have four victories to go along with four defeats.

Although it's still anybody's race, Packers' Coach Phil Bengtson sees a hard road ahead for his team with only six games left in the regular season.

"We have to win them all," Bengtson said. "And the other people have to lose some."

This might not be so easy. The Packers have to play, in order, Minnesota, New Orleans, Washington, San Francisco, Baltimore and Chicago.

The Minnesota Vikings have the toughest schedule, facing the Packers, Detroit, Baltimore, Los Angeles, San Francisco and Philadelphia.

The Packers could tie either Chicago or Minnesota and still have a shot at the crown.

But a final deadlock with Detroit would send the Lions to the playoffs. In case of a tie, under league rules, the team that scored the most points in their two-game series would get the nod.

Detroit downed the Packers in their first meeting and fought to a tie in the rematch.

Hurt by numerous injuries to their defensive linemen this season, the Packers also have suffered from poor field goal kicking. It's a problem that Bengtson and his staff are trying desperately to solve.

"We had a big discussion on that," Bengtson said, referring to three missed field goals in the Chicago game. "We're definitely going to have to do something."

"We haven't given up on Errol Mann," Bengtson said of the latest placekicker, who was added to the squad only last week. "But we haven't decided about next week."

A Good Offense--The Best Defense

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The theory that a good offense is the best defense may be one explanation why Florida Gators football Coach Ray Graves has suddenly flipped his offensive and defensive sides.

Graves himself wasn't talking about the switch Monday. He would say only that it was a "reorganization of the staff."

The move switched Gene Edlerson from defense to offense and Ed Vensler moved from offense to defense after the Gators lost two games and tied one in their last three outings.

This week, Florida coach Graves said the Gators are in their best physical condition since the season began.

Meanwhile, Georgia ran through a brief practice and then viewed films of Gator games. Coach Vince Dooley warned that the Bulldogs' defensive line will have a rough time against a Florida offense line that averages 240 pounds per man.

Alabama and Louisiana State both stressed the kicking game as they prepared for their clash at Birmingham. Five Crimson Tide players sat out Monday night's drills but are not believed to be seriously hurt.

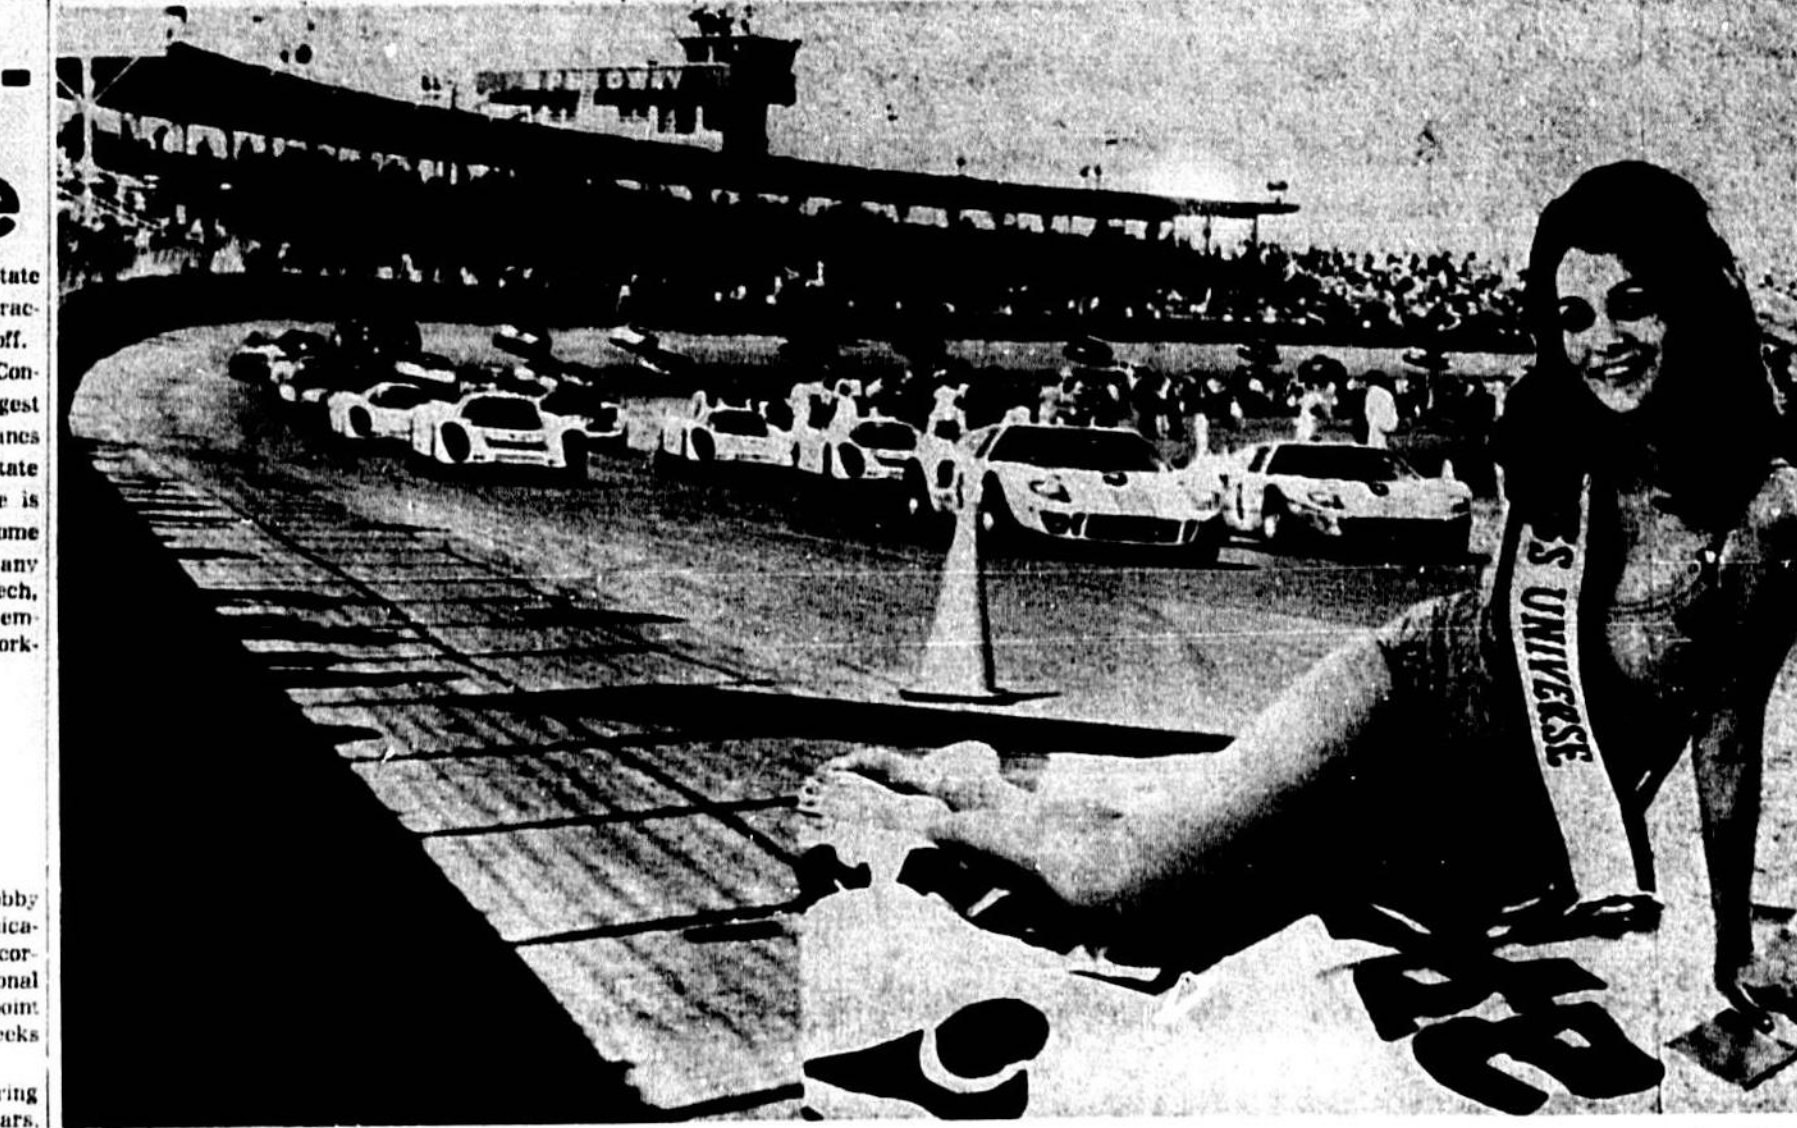

The Bayou Bengals moved Mike Hillman and Jimmy Gilbert up to share the quarterback duties of the injured Fred Hayes. Unleashed Tennessee, whose opponents have fired 216 passes this season, prepared for more of the same against league leader Auburn this Saturday. Coach Doug Dickey called Auburn's Lorin Carter "one of the finest passers in the south."

Auburn had one of its lightest workouts of the season. Coach Ralph Jordan said the Tigers have "met four top teams in a row and we've just got to take a little break."

Earl Is Leading

NEW YORK (AP)—Baltimore's Earl Monroe remains the National Basketball Association's top point producer, but Los Angeles' Elgin Baylor has replaced Dave Bing of Detroit as the top-percentage shooter.

Monroe, last season's rookie of the year, had scored 300 points in 11 games through Sunday for a 27.3 average, according to league statistics released today.

Baylor had 248 points in eight games for a 31.1 mark, while Bing, last year's scoring leader, had 247 in eight games for a 30.9 average.

Earl Russell, Boston's playing coach, held a big lead in rebounding with 19 in eight games for a 24.9 average.

With Chamberlain of Los Angeles remained the top floor shooter with 81 of 119 tries for a 68.1 percentage. New York's Walt Frazier has converted 31 of 34 free throw attempts.

Leading Scorers

NEW YORK (AP)—Bobby Hull and Stan Mikita, the Chicago Black Hawks' dynamic scoring duo, share the National Hockey League individual point lead today after three full weeks of season play.

Hull, the NHL goal-scoring king for the past three years, has collected nine goals and as many assists in nine games for a total of 18 points, according to official league figures released today.

Mikita, bidding for his third consecutive point championship, has scored five goals and set up 13 in one more game than his teammate.

Bob Nevin of the New York Rangers trails the co-leaders by one point and leads the goal scorers with 10 in 10 games.

Jim Pappin of the Black Hawks is fourth with 15 points, followed by veteran Jean Beliveau of Montreal and Gordie Howe of Detroit with 14 apiece.

Montreal's Eugene Yackon and Gump Worsley, who captured the Vezina Trophy last season, have moved into the goal-tending lead.

FIGHT RESULTS

TOKYO—Erito Salavarría, Philippines, and Yoshiaki Matsuo, Japan, drew, 10, flyweights in the main event of the LIVERPOOL, England—Les McAteer, Britain, stopped George Johnson, Trenton, N.J., 16, middleweights in a main event.

LOS ANGELES—Dwight H. Hawkins, 156, Los Angeles, knocked out Irish Frankie Crawford, 125, Los Angeles, 8.

The Big Game . . . Florida Gators Getting Set For Bulldogs

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP)—There was a year 1942 to be exact that Georgia beat Florida 7-0 in their traditional football game in Jacksonville's Gator Bowl.

Another year-it was 1952-Florida beat Georgia 30-6.

These extremes predicted the coaching regimes at Vince Dooley at Georgia and Ray Graves at Florida. Their rivalry of the past four years is even at 2-2 and there hasn't been a one-sided game between these two teams in more than a decade.

In this September preseason forecasts, when Florida was being voted most likely to succeed in the Southeastern conference, this was to be the big game for the Gators. A win would clinch their very first SEC football crown. It was widely predicted.

Things haven't worked out quite that way. Florida has a 2-11 conference record, hasn't won a game in three weeks and finds such star players as full-back Larry Smith and quarterback Jack Eckhardt slowed by multiple injuries.

Georgia is the team riding high. The Bulldogs have tied a game-almost twice tied-and can win at least a share of the conference championship by beating Florida and Auburn.

Every team except Auburn, Georgia and Tennessee has lost Tennessee and Georgia opened the season with a tie.

With their title hopes riding high, Georgia players have an incentive to be a big game.

Graves is working extra hard to prepare his team mentally for the kind of effort it will take to break their three-game winless streak.

The 63,000-plus fans are certain to be well prepared. The Georgia Florida weekend, some times referred to as the world's largest cocktail party, has been one of Jacksonville's social highlights of every year since it was first played here in 1934.

Bait water fishin' has been at its peak this past week, with local fishermen catching all they needed. Bob Mahan was surf fishin' this past week and had real good luck on cut bait and water catchin' was bass and blues, in the surf.

Chicago meets San Francisco, Atlanta, Dallas, New Orleans, Los Angeles, and Green Bay, while Detroit goes against Baltimore, Minnesota, New Orleans, Philadelphia, Atlanta and Washington.

But a final deadlock with Detroit would send the Lions to the playoffs. In case of a tie, under league rules, the team that scored the most points in their two-game series would get the nod.

Detroit downed the Packers in their first meeting and fought to a tie in the rematch.

Hurt by numerous injuries to their defensive linemen this season, the Packers also have suffered from poor field goal kicking. It's a problem that Bengtson and his staff are trying desperately to solve.

"We had a big discussion on that," Bengtson said, referring to three missed field goals in the Chicago game. "We're definitely going to have to do something."

"We haven't given up on Errol Mann," Bengtson said of the latest placekicker, who was added to the squad only last week. "But we haven't decided about next week."

By MERCEDES NIBBENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

Southern California and Ohio State had close calls Saturday but the Trojans suffered most in the Associated Press weekly college football poll.

They didn't lose their No. 1 national ranking but their number of first-place votes dropped from 24 to 19 and their lead over the second-ranked Buckeyes shrank from 64 points to a mere 13.

Southern California needs a touchdown pass with 1:11 remaining to equal the Trojans' 13th-ranked Houston 10-10 and California fell from eighth to 11th following a 7-7 deadlock with Washington.

The top 20, with first-place votes, records and total points:

Pipers Squeezed Past The Pacers For 4th Victory

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Indiana just missed a desperation shot from the three-point area as the gun sounded Monday night, and the underdog Pipers squeezed past the Indiana Pacers 121-120 for their fourth American Basketball Association victory.

All other teams in the league were idle, while San Francisco wrapped Phoenix 119-108 in the night's only National Basketball Association match.

The victory kept Minnesota as pro basketball's only unbeaten unit, and boosted its games to its lead over Kentucky to the ABA's Eastern Division.

Ray missed the shot that would have won for the Pacers after scoring 11 of his 13 points in a rally that helped Indiana cut a 15-point deficit in the final six minutes. He had scored two three-point baskets from beyond the 35-foot range in the closing surge.

George Hawkins fired 43 points for the Pipers.

San Francisco utilized the scoring of Rudy LaRusso. Nate

Last Saturday night Coach Johnny Vaught took his new look Mississippi Rebels to the South House, La., where Archie Manning, hottest hand among his rookie quarterback trio, left his personal brand on the 40-0 rout of the Rebels.

Manning fired 40 passes, completed 24 for 34 yards, scored one touchdown himself and threw for two more, including a nine-yard strike to Steve Hindman with 35 seconds remaining.

Crimmins Scores Three TDs

COWBOYS 21 - WILDCATS 10

The Cowboys hunted the Wildcats 21-10 to show why they will be favored to win the Championship Play-Off.

Pat Crimmins ran for three touchdowns in 45 yards and passed three times for 10 yards for the other score. Crimmins touchdowns came on runs of five yards and 23 yards and a 35 yard punt return. Mark Whiteham and Mark Husis were outstanding on defense for the Cowboys. The team play by the Wildcats was led by Proctor Richards, Pat Smith, Tom Hollingsworth and John Whigham.

Sanford Braves Prep For Peanut Bowl

The Sanford Junior High School Braves have shown the fans of Sanford that it has a football team to be proud of. With one game remaining this season the Braves have compiled a record of two wins, two ties and one loss. Tomorrow, November 6th, the Braves play Fort King at the Sanford Municipal Stadium in the Annual Peanut Bowl Game.

The Braves can boast of having the fastest Junior High football team in Central Florida. Leroy Johnson can break a game wide open with his long punts. Another man to watch on offense is Keith Harris, the 120 pound back that just can't be stopped.

On defense, keep your eyes on number 72, Bill Brown. Brown, a 210 pound 18 year old that plays like "Big Daddy Lipscomb" gives the fans a real thrill.

Another defensive standout is number 60, John Griggs, who can bounce off a brick and come up running. This defense has held the opposition to an average of less than 150 yards per game.

The quarterback of the Braves is a 14 year old 8th grader. He is a future, screaming quarterback like Fran Tarkenton. He will be back next year.

A Streak Hitter

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Detroit Tiger first baseman Norm Cash went without a hit in his first nine trips to the plate in World Series games going back to 1953 when he was with the Chicago White Sox. Then, in the second game here this fall, he made three straight hits as the Tigers beat the St. Louis Cardinals, 4-1.

Coast Guard Auxiliary Has New Quarters

Sanford and the U. S. Coast Guard Auxiliary held a meeting at the new headquarters building at 26th Street, October 26. The official dedication took place Saturday evening when Mrs. W. Vincent Roberts, acting on behalf of his honor the mayor, christened the fireplace mantel with champagne.

The gala occasion was also the first anniversary of the chartering of Flotilla 41. A year ago a handful of devoted enthusiasts interested in promoting boating safety founded the organization, thus bringing to the Sanford area a much needed facility. Within a year Flotilla 41 has expanded to become one of the most active and progressive units in the 7th Coast Guard District. Vincent P. Holmwood, Commander of the group and A. Norman McKeely, Vice Commander, and the entire membership are to be commended for their untiring efforts in establishing such a record.

Campaign Spending Tops $300 Million

WASHINGTON (AP) — Candidates for political office, from president to congressman, will have spent between $200 million and $300 million for the time this year's campaign bills are paid. A third of that total is being spent in pursuit of the presidency.

The estimates, compiled by experts in campaign financing, are supported by an Associated Press survey of political spending.

Aside from the presidential race, the costliest contests are those for major state office in the big states.

A hotly contested Senate race, such as in California, may involve expenditures of $4 million. Even a campaign for a House seat may cost $2.5 million, with showing House races in which more than $500,000 was spent.

All this spending is financed by contributions and loans—some large, many small. And some candidates dig deep into their own pockets for needed funds.

Herbert E. Alexander of the Citizens Research Foundation in Princeton, N.J., a recognized expert, estimates the total cost of 1964 political campaigning at $226 million to $275 million.

Stephen Horn, a senior research fellow with the Brookings Institution in Washington, D.C., estimates $250 million to $300 million.

It is impossible to obtain complete and accurate totals because of loose and varied laws regulating the reporting of campaign contributions and expenditures.

Federal law doesn't require any reports by candidates on their expenses until after the election. National committees working in their behalf must report expenditures to Congress.

The camps of the three leading contenders have provided the AP with these estimates of their costs for the general election campaign.

Democratic incumbent Richard M. Nixon and Spiro T. Agnew, more than $20 million.

Democratic challenger Humphrey and Edmund S. Muskie, about $12 million.

American Independent George C. Wallace and Curtis LeMay, $10 million to $20 million.

To these totals must be added another $30 million to $35 million which these candidates and their unsuccessful opponents spent prior to the party nominating conventions.

Swelling the total by an unknown but large amount are expenditures made by state and local groups on behalf of their chosen tickets. These groups, except in a few states, make no reports.

State party committees also usually assign a portion of their budgets to plugging the national ticket.

These amounts, Alexander said, probably add up to another $10 million or more.

Thus the total spent in the effort to elect one man—a president—exceeds $300 million and may reach $350 million.

A century ago, Abraham Lincoln spent an estimated $100,000 to win his first presidential campaign, during which he never left Springfield, Ill., and made no major talks.

Alexander's estimate that political spending this year would exceed $250 million compares with his estimates of $20 million in 1944, $175 million in 1948, $155 million in 1952 and $140 million in 1956.

Available figures indicate Republicans have consistently outspent Democrats in recent presidential races and will do so again this year.

In 1948, reports indicate 11 Republican national political committees supporting Barry Goldwater spent $18 million. Thirty-two Democratic committees supporting President Johnson spent $8.5 million.

In 1960, expenditures of $10.1 million were reported by GOP committees, $9.5 million by Democratic committees.

Where does all this money go? Most candidates report their biggest cost item is advertising on television and radio and in newspapers. Travel, hotel, meals, campaign literature, but

Consumer Close-Up Scheduled

Homemakers are always interested in new ideas to make their daily duties a little easier. In an effort to inform homemakers of new developments, the Seminole County Homemakers' Council is presenting "Consumer Close-Up" on Wednesday.

From 10 a. m. to 1:30 p. m. at the Agricultural Center, Mrs. Sara Kate Myers and Mrs. Roberta Andrews compose the committee responsible for this program.

Everyone seems to enjoy a surprise, and this program is certainly no exception. At 10 a. m. a representative of a chain store will give a discussion of "Your Food Dollar." From 11:00 a. m. to 1:30 p. m. a representative of a department store will give a discussion of "Your Food Dollar." From 1:30 p. m. to 3:00 p. m. a representative of a hardware store will give a discussion of "Your Food Dollar."

Other new members welcomed at the same time were Fred Heiberger, Leonard Paul Henry Blair, Earl French and Arthur Coriase.

The meeting was conducted by Loree Stever, commander of the barracks.

Next session for members of the auxiliary unit will be announced for a Thursday at the Community House. Any one wishing to donate time to help hospitalized veterans will be welcomed.

The barracks will have a Thanksgiving dinner at its Nov. 21 meeting. Meet on the 21st at 7:30 p. m. at the Community House. Beverages will be provided by the barracks with those attending to bring a covered dish and their own table service.

Church members claim the Church is spending freely to defeat them.

Said one of their leaders: "We can't match the $400,000 that's been raised to keep the law."

Utah: Wet Or Dry?

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — As far as some voters hereabouts are concerned, Vietnam is a secondary issue in next Tuesday's election. The hot one is whether Utah should legalize the sale of hard liquor by the drink.

A proposal to this effect, which will be on the ballot, has brought boasters of the tourist trade into a direct confrontation with the Mormon Church. At the moment, the Church seems likely to prevail over commerce.

Under present law, only 12 beer may be sold by the drink. Strong spirits can be bought legally only by the bottle, at state liquor stores. It may then be consumed at home, in restaurants which provide refreshment, or in private clubs where members are supposed to drink only what they bring with them.

A businessmen's group, contending that the law keeps their way in droves, circulated petitions for a referendum on change.

Devout Mormons do not use alcohol, or even coffee and tea. About two-thirds of Utah's 800,000 people are Mormons, and the Church came down hard on the proposal to ease the rules on booze.

Salt Lake City's two dailies took opposite sides in the Church-owned Evening Desert News opposing any change and the Morning Salt Lake Tribune favoring it.

The pro-liquor forces claim the Church is spending freely to defeat them.

Said one of their leaders: "We can't match the $400,000 that's been raised to keep the law."

Female Vet Is Member Of Barracks

Mrs. Rachal Heiberger was welcomed as the first female veteran to join World War II Barracks 205 of Altamonte Springs at the regular meeting of the organization held recently in the Altamonte Springs Community House. Mrs. Heiberger served as a Navy yeomanette.

Other new members welcomed at the same time were Fred Heiberger, Leonard Paul Henry Blair, Earl French and Arthur Coriase.

The meeting was conducted by Loree Stever, commander of the barracks.

Next session for members of the auxiliary unit will be announced for a Thursday at the Community House. Any one wishing to donate time to help hospitalized veterans will be welcomed.

2nd Suspect Is Arrested

A second Sanford man has been arrested and charged in connection with the reported beating and robbery of a Fern Hill man.

City police arrested Kenneth River, 31, Sanford, Tuesday, Saturday night at a Sanford night club and turned the warrant charging River with aggravated assault and larceny.

River was named by Gabriel, along with Jerry Dillard, 25, 1821 Santa Street, as the two men who beat and robbed him of $240 last week.

County authorities charged Dillard Friday, and were looking for River.

Gabard told officers, he was beaten and robbed on lonely Markham Road near the Boy Scout Camp Tuesday night and named Dillard and River as his assailants.

River was discovered in the area by Seminole Deputy William W. Chandler and removed to Winter Park Hospital for treatment for several injuries, which Gabard said was administered by a pool cue.

Missionaries To Be Guests In Geneva

In conjunction with the School of Missions being sponsored by the Seminole Baptist Association, Thursday through Sunday, First Baptist Church of Geneva will have a different missionary as guest speaker for 7:30 p. m. services and for the 11 a. m. worship hour Sunday.

In preparation for the special evening services, the regular business meeting and prayer hour for Wednesday has been cancelled this week.

It is announced that the Training Union is now meeting at 6:30 p. m. each Sunday.

Portuguese Ship Line

LISBON (AP) — A new Portuguese navigation line for cargo and passengers between Europe and Africa and northern Europe will be created in the near future, the president of the Companhia Nacional de Navegacao, Jose Rodrigues dos Santos, has announced.

One ship is to be used for it is the "Nacala," a cargo built in Osaka, Japan, in 1962 and formerly named the "Human" of the China Navigation Co. Ltd. of London.

The 16,750-ton "Nacala" is the first of three ships the Portuguese company intends to buy for the new service.

The announcement indicated that Rhodesia and South Africa, allies of Portugal in Africa, would benefit from the new line.

Old Ruins Probed

COIMBRA, Portugal (AP) — Archaeologists are making rapid progress in uncovering the ruins of ancient Conimbriga, one of the largest Roman cities on the Iberian Peninsula.

The excavation of Conimbriga, 10 miles southeast of the central Portuguese university town, was begun at the end of the last century under the patronage of Queen Amelia of Portugal.

The place now has been discovered to have been built on top of an Iron Age settlement. It was razed by the invading Goths in 489 A.D.

The most recent find was the main public bath. Previously a huge forum, villas and a temple foundation were uncovered.

Thrifty Whisky

CAPE TOWN, South Africa (AP) — The whisky makers of Scotland probably have nothing to worry about, but South African whisky, a blend of malt whisky and cane wine spirits, costs much less than Scotch.

This thrifty note was struck by the distiller who said Scotch whisky is made from grain. The most recent find was the main public bath. Previously a huge forum, villas and a temple foundation were uncovered.

Wine Jelly Puts Zing In Menus

CHICAGO (NPS)—If you're looking for something different to put sparkle into every day menus, why not try your hand at jelly-making?

The no-cook kind that you keep in the freezer is full of fresh flavor and is a snap to prepare.

Home economists at the National Home Economics Manufacturers of Plastic Containers have developed a recipe for a freeze-jelly that takes less than five minutes to make, yet is a gourmet addition to meals.

The recipe combines the mellow flavor of cherry wine with the tartness of cranberry for a jelly that's an excellent accompaniment to meats such as lamb, pork and chicken, as well as an unusual spread.

CRANBERRY-SHERRY JELLY

2 cups cranberry juice cocktail
 1/2 cup dry sherry
 1/2 cup sugar
 1/2 cup water
 1/2 cup powdered pectin

Measure juice into large bowl. Add wine. Stir in sugar and mix well to dissolve. Mix water and pectin in small saucepan. Bring to boil. Boil one minute stirring constantly. Stir pectin mixture into juice mixture. Continue stirring for three minutes. Quickly pour into Freezette and cover. Let stand at room temperature until set. May take about 6 hours. Store in freezer. Jelly may be refrigerated if it is to be used within two or three weeks. Makes about 8 cups. You may choose round jars with screw on lids or square containers with snap on lids. Use an 8-ounce "Freezette" as a jelly container, especially if you plan to share the goodness of your homemade treat with friends.

(NOTE: If you desire a less pronounced wine flavor, use sherry to 1/4 cup, less creaming juice to 2-1/4 cups.)

OUR BOARDING HOUSE

Highlights

DEAR ABBY: You'll never reach the younger generation with the type of answer you gave "GOOD AND LOVELY" in urging her to keep turning down the boys who want to make out, and a prince will come along on his white horse and marry her because she stayed "good." I suspect that this girl has not mastered the technique of dealing with boys who want all they can get from a girl.

In turning down a boy, you can embarrass him and make him feel small, and paint a picture of yourself as a prude, or you can let him know that you understand his problem — but that you are geared to a low voltage than he; and there are so many things you enjoy about him that you're not getting sidetracked into a wrestling match. It's not the turn down that drives the boys away. It's how it's done.

DEAR CHARLIE: You had better up-date your information. The female of the species is NOT geared to a lower voltage than males, and when both parties are charged up, it's HER problem as well as his. The best insurance a girl has against a major power failure is to short circuit the whole affair with a fast NO!

DEAR ABBY: I am a 20-year-old male and a sophomore at college. I live at home and my problem is my mother. She worries! She is probably the dearest and kindest mother a guy could have, but she worries about me all the time. I don't drink or smoke. I don't have a police record because she stayed "good." I suspect that this girl has not mastered the technique of dealing with boys who want all they can get from a girl.

DEAR ABBY: I have a friend who feels about food like an alcoholic feels about drink. He talks about food. Every meal at her house is like Thanksgiving. She and her children are so enormous that she looks as if they belong in a circus. We know it's none of our business if she has a problem. It is a crime to see what she is doing to her children.

DEAR POLLY: I would like to know how to care for fragrances. The colored fragrance we had included in our store was beautiful when just waxed. After even walking on it for a day it looks stretched and ugly. Can some one please help me with this problem to keep it neat and presentable with a waxed look?

DEAR POLLY — When our little doggy lost the use of his back legs and we were unable to obtain a walker from a vet, my husband came to the front part with strong feeling. Using aluminum tubing, he made a walker, with wheels attached to his measurements. I attached a seat with openings of each leg.

DEAR POLLY — I think Jack Paar said he took his dog to the Cornell University Veterinary School. I would think any graduate of that school could help the little dog — MAE.

Jacoby On Bridge

Jacoby and Son

When you have a part score of either 60 or 90, all suits become equal. With 90 one of anything makes game, with 60 two of either a major or minor suit makes game. With this in mind the winning player will avoid opening three card clubs and diamonds and even if he is a devout follower of the five card major suit prophets, he will prefer four card majors to preference to preparing for a rebid with a weaker minor suit opening.
