

Celery Feds Are Ready To "Shoot the Works" Against Orlando In Tonight's Game

By BOB SMITH
Rumors of a bag of tricks up the sleeves of the Celery Feds have been running high for the game against Orlando at the local high school stadium at 8:00 o'clock tonight.

No matter how many games are won and lost during the season in the Orlando-Sanford game is always the one game that brings out the best in both teams. Despite the poor showing of the Feds so far this year the Orlando coach is plenty worried about his charges, according to reports. Coach "Whites" McLucas is considered one of the greatest football strategists in the conference and every trick he has promised in the game tonight. All the past will be forgotten by the boys as they play that one game.

On the line, Sanford just about breaks even in weight against the Orlando team but the visitors do have an advantage in the backfield. If any advantage is to be given to Orlando it will be through the number of reserves they can throw on the field. McLucas has played the season so far using few of the men who warm the bench, depending on the starting lineup to carry through.

It will be nip and tuck from the opening gun to the finish, with heads-up football all the way if any indication is given by the spirit of the Celery Fed boys during the week. To them it is not a football season to worry about but a football game to win.

With everything to gain and nothing to lose the locals are out for a killing. Orlando, the bigger school, should consider a victory no great feather in their cap, while a victory for the Feds will be an upset triumph and a blow to Orlando.

McLucas is ready to shoot the works in the game. His charges are full of the fight and spirit of determination a coach likes to see. Orlando had 11 games on their schedule this season and Florida State High School Athletic Association rules state that no athlete can participate in more than 10 games per year. Which is where Howster's troubles start tonight.

Five regular Tiger players have been benched in order to keep the eligibility records clean which will weaken the Tigers considerably. As if that were not enough there has been somewhat of a let down in the Bengal practice sessions this week and it is feared Orlando is not ready for a bruising battle.

The coach could not be reached today to give a lineup for the start of the game but is likely that he will use the same one he

Coca Cola Sweeps Series To Lead Bowling Tourney

The Coca Cola team struck out on another rampage this week to sweep the Pepsi Cola team three straight games and strengthen its hold on first place in the bowling tourney at the Sanford Bowling Center.

Another triple win was scored by Royal Crown in smashing all records with a single game high of 362 and a three game high of 2,576 over the Grapevine team. Lucky Boy came out of a slump and won three from Spencer Hardin Dairy while the Life Savers could take only one of the three games with the Lewis Candy Company.

Paul Perold, using the old scissors hold, strangled the pins for a neat 596, giving him the lead in the individual scores.

Texas Tech To Invade Bowl And Test Miami Eleven

CORAL GABLES, Oct. 31.—(Special)—Texas Tech's Red Raiders from Lubbock, Tex., invade the Orange Bowl in Miami Friday night to play the feature game on this week's Florida football program with the University of Miami as the opposition. A season's record crowd of 25,000 is expected for the tilt.

Both teams are unbeaten, Tech having won five games to outscore its foes 125 to 6 while Miami, winning four straight, has outscored its rivals 98 to 6. Tech however will have a tremendous edge in experience and something more in weight.

Only one sophomore has been able to make a dent in the veteran lineup of Tech's first two teams but he is quite a lad—J. R. Callahan, 190 pound sophomore halfback who has tossed touchdown passes in every Tech game to date as well as leading the team in yardage.

Meeks bids fair to overshadow Tech's all-American senior fullback candidate—Charles Dvoracek. The teams have clashed twice—Miami winning in a surprising upset by a 19-0 count in Miami in 1939 while last year the Red Raiders turned on the heat before the home fans to roll up a record 61-14 count.

If Miami can score another stunning upset, it will mark the first time this year that a team from the Sunshine State has been able to turn back a formidable rival. Florida has lost to Mississippi State, Villa Nova, Maryland and L. S. U. while Rollins' scoreless tie with Davidson marks the best showing of any state team to date.

Miami has shown to real advantage on defense. Thus far this fall and the Raiders will be given a strong test in this respect. Miami's attack has rolled to at least three touchdowns in every game but has yet to show it can come through against top opposition. The Texas Tech game will answer lots of questions about the 1941 Hurricanes who have already done better than their 1940 predecessors.

Field Describes Storm Damage In Bahama Islands

black with Spanish, Italian, French, English and other nationalities mixed in resulting in a puzzling mixture of colors and tongues. Most of the blacks speak English but in such a unique manner of their own that a visitor cannot understand them at first, Mr. Field explained.

About 50 percent of the natives of the islands have been to the United States for short periods of time and almost all of them would like to come in and become American citizens but the U. S. government has excluded them, Mr. Field related.

The natives that have been to the mainland worked for a short while and came back to the islands to live for some time on the savings they accumulated. The waters around the islands are a fisherman's paradise as a line thrown over in trolling will furnish enough for a meal for all the crew and passengers in a few minutes. Fish, with rice, yellow grits, coconuts and pigeon peas are the main food of the natives. If they can't have fish they are apt to complain, despite the fact that they have it for three meals a day, Mr. Field said.

In Nassau the people are in about the same position about the war as we are in the United States, Mr. Field declared. They know no more about it and they save their own bundles for British campaigns and posters to buy bonds.

Nazis Say Roosevelt Suffers Upset From Sinking Of Destroyer

German Sources Declare President Has Become More Cautious Lately

Reports Ridicule 'Attitude Of U. S.'

'Man Walking Track Must Expect To Be Hit,' Is Comment

BERLIN, Nov. 1.—(AP)—The German government made a statement today which charged the United States with aggression. It said the United States and its allies, Germany and Italy, had attacked German naval vessels.

Authorized German sources today, commenting on President Roosevelt's attitude toward the sinking of the destroyer Reuben James, said the President is "suffering from an upset political stomach."

"It is noteworthy how cautious he has become," they said. "Apparently he has the feeling that he bit off more than he can chew in recent days than he could digest."

No confirmation of the Reuben James sinking has been received here, but one source commented: "When a man walks on a tightrope during the night he must not be surprised if an explosive train hits him."

The sinking of the destroyer Reuben James produced a bitter row yesterday in the senate where Majority Leader Barkley (R., Ky.) charged that the sinking was "presumably responsible" for any loss.

The charge of presidential responsibility was made by Senator Aiken (R., Va.) during debate on the question of lifting the neutrality act's restrictions on shipping, and Barkley immediately cried that the accusation was "confidential."

Reading in a loud voice from a prepared statement, Aiken charged that President Roosevelt "without the knowledge or consent of Congress, had given orders to the Navy to 'hunt down and sink ships of another nation with which we are not legally at war.'"

This was done, Aiken said, despite the fact that Congress had been given assurance that the Navy would not engage in convoying.

Then Aiken cited the torpedoing of the destroyer Kearny, with the loss of 11 lives, and the sinking of the Reuben James.

"Had the President of the United States and members of his cabinet kept their mouths shut, these deaths would not have occurred," Aiken said.

In reply, Barkley asserted that President Roosevelt had "more than the right to outline a defense against the 'western humbug' that Hitler did to take a pencil and draw a line 10,000 miles out in the Atlantic."

"Whether it is the Senator from Vermont or any other Senator," Barkley said, "I would like to charge the President with personal responsibility for the death of these men, if any of them have died."

Talmadge Okeys Investigation Of State University

ATLANTA, Nov. 1.—(AP)—Striving to prevent the discrediting of Georgia's colleges, Governor Eugene Talmadge authorized the board of regents today to review the acts which he inspired and which have brought charges of undue political interference in higher education in Georgia.

The regents then named a five-man group to meet on Monday with a special investigating committee of the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools.

Specifically, none could say definitely if the group could authorize the re-hiring of Dr. Walter Cocking who was ousted as Dean of the College of Education at the University of Georgia on charges of advocating racial cooperation, 1938 if it were asked.

Blandling Winter Duds Will Cost 4 Million

CAMP BLANDLING, Nov. 1.—(AP)—The cost of producing the new uniforms for the army clothing for some 50,000 troops here, many of whom are on maneuvers now in Carolina—was placed today at approximately $4,000,000.

Some items in the issue included 300,000 wool socks (each man has seven pair of wool and cotton ones); 85,000 trousers; 45,000 field jackets; 55,000 shirts; 60,000 pairs of socks; 60,000 pairs of shoes; and 30,000 black ties.

Pepper To Speak At Dinner On November 10

Advertising Plans Of County To Be Told By Griffith

Senator Claude Pepper will address a dinner meeting of the Chamber of Commerce to be held Monday evening, Nov. 10, at 7:30 o'clock at the Hotel Mayfair, Edward Higgins, secretary of the body, announced today.

An address by Tom Griffith of the Griffith Advertising Agency of St. Petersburg, who is handling the advertising of the Chamber of Commerce, is also planned the same evening to acquaint the chamber members and citizens of the county with the advertising plans in an effort to secure full cooperation in bringing the program to a successful conclusion, Mr. Higgins stated.

All members of the chamber, their wives and clients of the county are invited to attend the dinner and hear the speaker.

Those who wish to attend the dinner are asked to make their reservations in advance so the committee in charge will be able to tell how many to prepare for, Mr. Higgins requested.

Said Lt. Walter E. Honkley: "Of course, I had to disprove them. The work they are doing here is of the utmost importance. However, it shows the spirit of John Paul Jones still flourishes in the hearts of the men of the navy."

Destroyer Had Met Submarines Before

MIAMI, Nov. 1.—(AP)—A letter from a crew member of the Reuben James told of other encounters with submarines before the American destroyer was torpedoed Wednesday night.

The Miami Herald said Gene Guy Evans, son of Mrs. Clyde Evans of Vero Beach, wrote to a friend there, saying in part: "We encountered several subs on the trip up here but dropped depth charges and I guess we destroyed some of them because wreckage and oil came to the surface."

Apparently written last month, the letter did not say from where it was mailed.

WPA Workers To Get Pay Increase Today

JACKSONVILLE, Nov. 1.—(AP)—Nearly 12,000 WPA workers in Florida will receive salary increases today when new wage rates take effect.

For four classifications of WPA employees the increase will be $2.20 a month and for a fifth group it will be $3.90.

State WPA headquarters estimated the wage boosts would increase the agency's payroll in Florida about $61,057 monthly to $1,480,000.

Hallowe'en This Year Is Quietest

County Has Ever Had, Says Williams

With the exception of one collision in which neither driver nor passengers were injured, last night was the quietest Hallowe'en in Seminole County and with each year the celebration becomes less dangerous according to Chief Roy Williams, who attributes this "exceptional calmness" to the fact that private parties for children keep them out of "mischief."

One theft of consequence was reported to police on duty last night. The man from B. L. Parlin's man's store was stolen, while another complaint was filed from the Stokes Canning Company. Twenty-three small whisks had been broken, evidently not out with a broken glass.

They were streaked with soap-suds and streaks were littered with confetti, but the true spirit of Hallowe'en was displayed on Seminole High School football field last night "between halves" when about 35 members of the student band dressed in orange and black with tall witches' hats and masks marched on to the field accompanying the "Celebration," dressed in their usual white costumes with tall silver hats and masks resembling those of their "partners."

The drum corps with drum major, Joe Harper, beat martial tempo during the performance and following a grand formation, Cheer Leaders, carrying a white improvised banner, were preceded by two high-stepping young ladies in mid-cool tones. Upon opening the "band" a tiger mascot of Orlando's team, jumped out, followed by a mumlocking which chased the poor animal from the stadium with a brownstick.

Publication Of Daytona Beach Paper Suspended

Yesterday marked the last issue of the Daytona Beach Second, ten-year old newspaper. The paper was suspended for publication in the final edition here today.

S. H. C. publisher of a number of Florida papers was in the editorial to have purchased 10 percent interest in the other Daytona Beach newspaper which will continue to be published in an attempt to stop the long competitive clash between the two editions.

It was added that suspension of the Sun-Record had been ordered also because of increased cost in newspaper production.

Recruiting Staff Wants Sea Duty

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 1.—(AP)—The U. S. destroyer Reuben James reached the Navy's Connecticut recruiting headquarters today and the staff for sea duty was reported Friday by the officers in command.

Said Lt. Walter E. Honkley: "Of course, I had to disprove them. The work they are doing here is of the utmost importance. However, it shows the spirit of John Paul Jones still flourishes in the hearts of the men of the navy."

Roosevelt To Confer With Premier King

HYDE PARK, N. Y., Nov. 1.—(AP)—President Roosevelt arrived Friday night at his country estate, where Canadian Prime Minister Mackenzie King will join him today for a short visit.

The President came from Washington by special train. A telephone was connected with his private car as the train passed at dusk at Claremont, N. J., to enable him to talk with Washington officials and determine whether any new reports had been received on the sinking of the destroyer Reuben James.

Teachers Warned Of Post-War Wage Cuts

JACKSONVILLE, Nov. 1.—(AP)—An educator warned a group of fellow teachers Friday to prepare for a post-war "horrible employment condition that will dwarf the aspirin decade of 1930-40."

The speaker was Dr. Donk S. Campbell, new president of Florida State College for Women, who addressed about 700 northeast Florida school teachers here.

After the war, Dr. Campbell said, the layperson "will get tired of high taxes and will seek to cut expenses. 'We all know,' he added, 'that the teaching profession will be one of the first to be attacked in the way of salary reductions.'"

Egg Prices Jump To 12-Year Peak

CHICAGO, Nov. 1.—(AP)—Egg prices rose 1-2 to 1 cent a dozen Friday in the wholesale market to new October peaks for 12 years and longer.

Traders at the Chicago mercantile exchange said seasonal, declining output, improved demand and government buying for export purposes were responsible for the upturn.

Purchase of 1,899,550 pounds of dried whole eggs, the equivalent of more than 4,750,000 dozen shell eggs, was reported by the federal surplus commodities corporation, the exchange said.

Medicoes Plan For Flights 8 Miles Up

BOSTON, Nov. 1.—(AP)—Many of the nation's military planes will be able to fly heights of almost eight miles in the coming year, Dr. Walter M. Boothby of the Mayo Foundation's aviation medicine research laboratory said Friday.

For that reason, he declared in an interview at the opening of the U. S. Aero-Medico Association's convention, increased precautions for the safety of pilots would be needed.

Such protection would include preliminary decompression of all high altitude fliers before they take off, to prevent dangerous attacks of the "bends."

Up to now, said Boothby, only test pilots required such protection because "so few planes were actually able to go above 30,000 feet."

But in the coming year, he asserted, "many of our military planes are going to be able to go above 30,000 feet and probably up to 40,000."

R. A. F. Raids On Germany Continue

Japs Are Determined To Get Oil 'Even If It Is Dangerous'

Russia was reported to be evacuating Rostov-on-the-Don today as the Axis smashed within 10 miles. The Germans claimed they were crossing the Donets River above the city and that the Axis drive on Sevastopol was continuing with a fierce resistance.

Berlin claims bombers destroyed 11,000 more tons of British shipping and Rome claims British raiders were intercepted and two were shot down. Britain raided western Germany, Dunkerque and Boulogne and admitted the loss of six bombers.

The London Evening Standard says Hitler declared war on the U. S. by sinking the Reuben James.

In the Far East the newspaper, Nichi Nichi, declares Japan will get oil by extraordinary means, even if dangerous.

Hitler's major offensive upon Moscow came to the end of its first month last night with an apparent sharp decline in power, but there was much to indicate that in the far south the German drives still were generally unhalted.

At the center, where the weary Nazi armies still stood well short of the capital, Soviet dispatches declared German action had failed to mere local attacks in all sectors save for the Volokolamsk area some 65 miles to the northwest, where fighting was reported heavy. Of that whole theater the German high command significantly continued its utter silence.

But in the south, where this time the Soviet command was off the Germans, claimed the Russians were in retreat on two major fronts southward into the Crimean Peninsula and eastward in the Donets basin in the area about and above Rostov on the River Don.

Just where the invaders stood was not stated in either instance, as to Rostov, it seemed more likely that they were near its very suburbs and they close to the Russian Caucasus.

All this suggested the likelihood and the last decision for Moscow might be long delayed—perhaps even through the winter months.

Hitler was putting all his pressure on the south in an effort to reach Caucasian oil, block the British-American supply route running up from the sea, and—by force—to knock out the great southern Soviet naval base at Novorossiysk.

It seemed possible, in fact, that the current diminution of the front against Moscow might be explained in part by the shifting of forces southward.

41 Killed In Factory Fire

HUDDERSFIELD, Yorkshire, Eng., Nov. 1.—(AP)—At least 41 persons, most of them girls workers, were killed Friday in a fire which burned swiftly through a five-story clothing factory.

Most of the victims were girls who were trapped on upper floors and "died" attempting to jump to safety. Many of them were buried when the roof and floors caved in.

By Friday night 41 bodies had been recovered and authorities feared others might be buried.

Engineers Look Over Runway Construction

Two engineers from the War Department visited Sanford yesterday and this morning to look over the progress of the work on the runway at the new Sanford airport, Fred H. Williams, of the City engineer's office, said today.

E. H. Carroll, of the division engineers office of Jacksonville, and E. Beck, of the district engineers office at Richmond, Va., both of the War Department, are overseers for the runway construction, Mr. Williams explained.

The runway is being built on a 100-acre tract owned by the Sanford Airport Authority, which is being developed by the Sanford Airport Authority.

The Senate Changes

Since the November elections of 1940, there have been many changes in the United States Senate. Death alone has taken many of Congress' most prominent members, while elevation to the Supreme Court took James F. Byrnes of South Carolina and resignations took others.

In South Carolina, Senator James F. Byrnes (Democrat) resigned to become an associate justice of the Supreme Court, and Governor Burnet R. Maybank appointed Alva M. Lumpkin as his successor. A few weeks later death took Lumpkin and Roger C. Peace, Greenville publisher, was chosen to fill out the unexpired term. Senator Peace served until after a special September election when Governor Maybank beat ex-Governor Olin D. Johnston and Rep. Joseph R. Bryson to become senator.

One of the greatest Senate tragedies was the sudden death of Nevada's Key Pittman, president pro tempore of the Senate, only a few weeks after his re-election. Pittman was chairman of the all-important foreign relations committee. Succeeding him was Berkeley L. Bunker, a Governor E. P. Carville appointee.

Death struck again when it took Mississippi's Pat Harrison (Democrat), Pittman's successor as president pro tempore. Senator Harrison was a veteran of 30 years service in Congress and was chairman of the strong Senate Finance Committee. Governor Paul B. Johnson appointed James O. Eastland to fill out the unexpired term. Later Rep. Wall Doxey won a nip-and-tuck battle from his colleague, Rep. Ross A. Collins, to succeed Senator Eastland.

Another stunning blow came as Senator Morris Sheppard (Democrat) of Texas, Dean of Congress, died unexpectedly. Sheppard, chairman of the Military Affairs Committee, was succeeded by Andrew J. Houston, son of Sam Houston. Senator Houston died a few days after serving in office. A special election found Governor W. Lee O'Daniel winner over such opponents as Rep. Lyndon B. Johnson, Roosevelt-backed candidate, Gerald C. Mann, aggressive state attorney-general, and Rep. Martin Dies, chairman of the House Un-American Activities Committee.

Senator John E. Miller, Democrat of Arkansas, became federal judge and resigned his position in the Senate. Governor Homer M. Adkins decided upon Lloyd Spencer as his immediate successor.

In West Virginia, Senator Matthew M. Neely stepped down to run for governor. He was elected to this position, and retiring Governor Homer A. Holt appointed Clarence Martin as his successor. Neely claimed Holt had no authority to do this and thus chose Joseph Rosier for the Senate office. The controversy was relayed to the Elections Committee of the Senate, which voted to seat Rosier.

These have been the changes in the United States Senate since November of last year. The Senate has been robbed of some of its most capable members who died or resigned. Their records have been most noteworthy and will not be easily forgotten. The deeds of the late Senators Pittman, Harrison, and Sheppard are indeed models for other senators to follow and remember. Years of future success and fame are expected of Justice Byrnes, Judge Miller and Governor Neely in their new roles, and of the successors to those who have passed on or stepped down.

Patty Hodges and Herman Middleton, the Seminole High delegates to the Annual Youth Parley at Southern College in Lakeland on Oct. 23 and 24, spoke at the regular assembly of the student body of Seminole High School last Thursday.

This year the theme of the Youth Parley was "American Youth And The Future." Rev. Jesse Lyons, pastor of the DeLand Methodist and Dr. Ludd M. Spivy, president of Southern College, spoke to the delegates at a formal luncheon Oct. 23. Mr. Lyons spoke on "Our Cultural And Religious Heritage" emphasizing that every American youth had an obligation to his country, and that he should fulfill it to the best of his ability. Dr. Spivy, who spoke on "The Crisis Confronting Us" pointed out that men have always had crises and that they must prepare to meet them with a level head and determination—the DeMorgan way.

Perhaps the most interesting discussion that the delegates took part in was a Forum Discussion "Our Part In Defending American Liberty." The delegates all agreed that there should be a club or some organization in every school where the students can discuss the current events of the day.

The parley was closed Friday, Oct. 24, with a motion picture presentation of the United States flag. One of the members who played was a True Blue and played a very good game.

Junior Hi School NOTES

GEORGE SPENCER

The first P. T. A. meeting of the Junior High will be next Tuesday, Nov. 4 at 3:30 P. M. in the Junior High School auditorium.

In the Science class for the past six weeks, which included the latter part of September and the first weeks in October, the sixth grade students have been studying about air and water, the gases that compose the air, how to purify water, and what chemicals help in the purification. The next six weeks the science class will study astronomy, the stars and planets.

A very interesting assembly was held in the chapel program Tuesday Morning. The announcer, Ed Ward, read the 23rd Psalm for the scripture, after which the Lord's Prayer was repeated by the assembly. John Robinson then gave a piano solo, "Believe Me If All Those Endearing Young Charms." John has never taken a piano lesson in his life. Barbara Whitmore sang a solo, "My Alice Blue Gown" after which Gwynn Reel gave a reading, "Ship of State," by Longfellow.

Another piano solo was played by Audrey Toll, after which John Robinson, Barbara Whitmore, Rhett Haven, and Margaret Tuten sang two songs, "Columbia the Gem of the Ocean," and "Anchor Aweigh." Reverend Martin J. Bram gave a very interesting and a very lively talk on the Navy and Navy Day. He gave a short outline on the strategy of the American Navy, and the diversities of the different navies all over the globe. He drew sketches of convoys, how they are attacked, and how they fight the attackers.

Junior High has a large selection of new and interesting books this year. Some of these are: Nicholas Arnold Toolmaker; Lost Worlds, a story of adventure in Archeology; Into the Wind, Clara Barton; Plang, Gypsy Goes to College; Shoemaker's Son, a story of a young Christian; Anderson; Mystery of Penmark; and Aviation from Shop to Sky.

The Garden Club of the Junior High School has done a great deal in improving the look of the grounds. They have planted annuals on part of the south side of the school. They have also made a circular walk around the fountain on the south side of the school. Embroidery and Sewing classes are also being taught. The old shrubs and small limbs of the trees have been cut. The Garden Club is sponsored by Mr. Morris. The members are: Billy Gray, Patricia Gwynn Reel, Paul Matthews, Billy Kennedy, Robby Johnson, Clark Moore, Floyd Johnson, Richard Loed, Charles Williams, Johnny Peters, Luther Wright and Frank Muse.

Student Urges Football Boys To Get Back In Winner Column

by Clifford Proctor

Four games have been lost this far in the season, but that isn't all that has been lost. Four football games—that's nothing—worse than ours have lost three straight games, but that isn't us. There is no excuse for our losses. In half, we have lost our fighting spirit, our teamwork, and worst of all, the confidence of our coach. Although Coach McClellan has shown plenty of spirit this year.

Anyone can tell that he is disappointed in his boys. To himself he says, "Why don't they dig in, get a little life, and fight like they used to—THE CELEBY FED WAY." "Why don't they show me they want to win and make me proud of them. Why don't they show the school they are there to win." This is what you boys are there for and this is what you boys are going to make yourselves do. This is what you fellows are going to fight for to regain the terrible losses inflicted on you and Seminole High School.

The fate of the Celery Feds is at stake and so is everything you have ever believed in. Let's make a winning team now. Let's not wait until the fight is over to start fighting but begin now to get the Celery Feds back in the running and show OUR COACH that we are still with him and the school all the way.

Seminole High Will Hear Lawton Speak On "Forward With Books"

Book Week, which will be celebrated next week, Nov. 2-8, was organized twenty-three years ago to dramatize and intensify national interest in children's reading. During this period children's books have received ever increasing attention in national circulation magazines, on club programs, and on the radio, not alone during Book Week, but throughout the year.

The 1941 Book Week theme is "FORWARD WITH BOOKS!" Interest in the place of books in the lives of boys and girls is intensified by the national drive for democracy at home and abroad, and Book Week observations in many communities will be centered on a patriotic theme. Special Book Week programs for both adults and children will be featured during the week, on all national networks, and spot announcements will be sent from Book Week headquarters to over 800 local stations.

Thursday, Nov. 6, is the day chosen for national emphasis, and it is on this date that Seminole High School will give special observance to Book Week. A chapter program has been planned by Miss Edna Chittenden, librarian, Harry Lee, Jr. and Dick Meriwether of the Student Council Library committee. Supt. T. W. Lawton will be the main speaker, and his subject will be the national theme, FORWARD WITH BOOKS. Students will participate in the program through musical numbers (and brief talks).

Nazis Say Roosevelt Suffers Upset From Sinking Of Destroyer

German Sources Declare President Has Become More Cautious Lately

Reports Ridicule Attitude Of U. S.

"Man Walking Track Must Expect To Be Hit," Is Comment

BERLIN, Nov. 1.—(AP)—The German government made a statement today which charged the United States with aggression. It said the United States destroyers Greer and Kearny had attacked German naval vessels.

Authorized German sources today, commenting on President Roosevelt's attitude toward the sinking of the destroyer Reuben James, said the President is "suffering from an upset political stomach."

"It is noteworthy how cautious he has become," they said. "Apparently he has the feeling that he bit off more than he could chew."

No confirmation of the Reuben James sinking has been received here, but one source commented: "When a man walks on a railroad track during the night he must not be surprised if an express train hits him."

In Washington the torpedoing of the destroyer Reuben James provoked a bitter row between the senate where the charge of aggression was made by Senator Aiken (R., Vt.) during debate on the President's neutrality act's restrictions on shipping, and Barkley immediately cried that the accusation was "unfair."

Reading in a loud voice from a prepared statement, Aiken charged that President Roosevelt "without the knowledge or consent of Congress," had given orders to the Navy to "hunt down and sink ships of another nation with which we are not legally at war."

This was done, Aiken said, despite the fact that Congress had been given assurances that the Navy would not engage in combat.

Then Aiken cited the torpedoing of the destroyer Kearny, with the loss of 11 lives, and the sinking of the Reuben James, "the President of the United States and members of his cabinet kept their permission," Aiken went on deliberately, "the men of the U. S. Navy aboard these ships would not be rotting on the ocean floor today."

In reply, Barkley asserted that President Roosevelt had "more right to outline a defense area around the western hemisphere than Hitler did to take a pencil and draw a line 1500 miles out in the Atlantic."

Held For Sabotage

Seized by the FBI, William Michael Egan, 22, is charged with acts of sabotage to bombing planes being manufactured at the Glenn L. Martin Aircraft Co. in Baltimore, where he was employed. He was one of 28,000 employees, Egan, said to have relatives in Germany, pleaded not guilty.

Duck Hunting Season To Open At Dawn Sunday

Little Game Present But More Expected With Cool Weather

Duck hunting season opens at dawn tomorrow morning for 60 days and although there are few ducks in the state right now a spell of cool weather will probably drive them south soon, according to the state commission of game and fresh water fish.

Regulations this season will be about the same as last year with a limit of 10 ducks for a day's bag and a two-day limit allowed on the possession of a hunter, the commission states. Redheads and buffleheads are exceptions to the general duck bag limit, with a limit of three a day, or three of these two species together.

Canvasback and ruddy ducks have been restored to the list as species with the 10 and 20 bag and possession limit.

The season on jackknives has been closed this year, due to a serious decrease in the number of these birds, the commission explains. While in a few states the federal regulations this year permit the taking of wood ducks, both federal and state laws continue to protect the wood or summer duck in Florida.

The use of snipe, horses or mules as blinds is prohibited by the 1941 regulations and the prohibition against using repeating or automatic shotguns of more than a three-shell capacity continues.

A duck-hunter's day begins at sunrise and ends at 4:00 P. M. In addition to a State hunting license, the hunter must have a Federal Migratory Bird Hunting Stamp, validated by his signature, the commission states. These stamps, commonly called "duck stamps," may be obtained at the post office for $1.

The dove season, also controlled by federal regulations, will not open until Dec. 1 this year, the commission declares.

Changes Involving Beaverbrook And Halifax Expected In London Soon

Talmadge Okeys Investigation Of State University

ATLANTA, Nov. 1.—(AP)—Striving to prevent the discrediting of Georgia's colleges, Gov. Eugene Talmadge authorized the board of regents today to review the acts which he inspired and which have brought charges of undue political interference in higher education in Georgia.

The regents then named a five-man group to meet here Monday with a special investigating committee of the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools.

Specifically, none could say definitely if the group could authorize the re-hiring of Dr. Walter Cocking who was ousted as Dean of the College of Education at the University of Georgia on charges of advocating racial cooperation, even if it were asked.

Blanding Winter Duds Will Cost 4 Million

CAMP BLANDING, Nov. 1.—(Special)—The cost of supplying and new issues of winter clothing for some 28,000 troops and the majority of whom are on maneuvers now in Carolina was placed today at approximately $4,000,000.

Lt. Col. Harry Collins, camp quartermaster, said the average soldier for winter wear is equipped with approximately $82, and that the clothing issue, in progress since Oct. 1, had just been completed.

HYDE PARK, N. Y., Nov. 1.—(Special)—Prime Minister W. L. Mackenzie King of Canada, arriving here today for two days of conferences with President Roosevelt, said "it would not surprise me if all the phases of the situation concerning the two nations should come up in the course of the conversations."

Advertising Plans Of County To Be Told By Griffith

Senator Claude Pepper will address a dinner meeting of the Chamber of Commerce to be held Monday evening, Nov. 10, at 7:30 o'clock at the Hotel Mayfair. Edward Higgins, secretary of the body, announced today.

An address by Tom Griffith of the Griffith Advertising Agency of St. Petersburg, who is handling the advertising of the Chamber of Commerce, is also planned the same evening. To acquaint the chamber members and citizens of the county with the advertising plans in an effort to secure full co-operation in bringing the program to a successful conclusion, Mr. Higgins stated.

All members of the chamber, their wives and citizens of the county are invited to attend the dinner. The speaker will talk on a subject of vital interest to them, Mr. Higgins said.

Those who plan to attend the dinner are asked to make their reservations in advance so the committee in charge will be able to tell how many to prepare for, Mr. Higgins requested.

Destroyer Had Met Submarines Before

MIAMI, Nov. 1.—(AP)—A letter from a crew member of the Reuben James told of other encounters with submarines before the American destroyer was torpedoed Wednesday night.

The Miami Herald said Gene Guy Evans, son of Mrs. Clyde Evans of Vero Beach, wrote to a friend there, saying in part: "We encountered several subs on the trip up here but dropped depth charges and I guess destroyed some of them as wreckage and oil came to the surface."

Apparently written last month, the letter did not say from where it was mailed.

S. H. Core, publisher of a number of Florida papers, was said in the editorial to have purchased 40 percent interest in the other Daytona Beach newspaper which will continue to be published, in an attempt to stop the long competitive clash between the two editions.

It was added that suspension of the Sun-Record had been ordered also because of increased cost in newspaper production.

Recruiting Staff Wants Sea Duty

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 1.—(AP)—Within an hour after news of the U. S. destroyer Reuben James reached the Navy's Connecticut recruiting headquarters the office was swamped with applications from the staff for sea duty it was reported Friday by the officer in charge.

"Of course, I had to disappear here in the utmost importance. However, it shows the spirit of John Paul Jones still flourishes in the hearts of the men of the navy."

Roosevelt To Confer With Premier King

HYDE PARK, N. Y., Nov. 1.—(AP)—President Roosevelt arrived Friday night at his country estate, where Canadian Prime Minister Mackenzie King will join him today for a short visit.

Charges For Marketing To Be Discussed

Dealers And Growers Will Attempt To Reach Agreement

The Seminole County Agricultural Association is scheduled to meet Monday night in the Future Farmers' building at the high school farm at 8:00 o'clock at which time growers will discuss the proposed scale of charges offered by dealers of the State Farmers Market, Gus Schmah, president of the association, stated today.

The object of the meeting is to obtain an agreeable price range between shippers and growers connected with this particular market, which, according to the following is the scale of charges which will be discussed Monday night for handling cabbage in bulk on platform, 10 percent commission plus labor charges of $5 a ton for handling cabbage in sacks on platform, 10 percent commission plus labor charges of $30.00 per ton. The dealer absorbs loading charges for cabbage in the field, 10 percent commission.

Bunched goods other than radishes and parsley $10 a dozen commission charges on sales of $30 and over, $05 a dozen commission charges on sales of $25 or under.

Radishes and parsley commission charges amount to $95 per dozen plus $02 for cartage; on hampers $25 a ton for handling radishes 10 percent commission. All other package goods, including beans, eggplant, peppers, squash, peas, okra, etc., have commission charges of $10 per $100; when sales are over $100, the commission charges will be 10 percent; celery charges will be $15 per crate plus storage and cartage charges. County Agent C. H. Dawson urged all farmers to attend this meeting as growers will also discuss the farm labor situation and he explained that farm labor can be obtained from the employment office at 204 West First Street on Tuesday or by calling the county agent's office. Any farmer laborer who is offered a job at the prevailing wage for which he is qualified must accept the work, or he will be no longer kept on the WPA or be allowed to draw payments under the Workmen's Compensation Act, Mr. Dawson warned.

Teachers Warned Of Post-War Wage Cuts

JACKSONVILLE, Nov. 1.—(AP)—An educator warned a group of fellow teachers today to prepare for a post-war "horrible employment condition that will dwarf the aspirin decade of 1930-40."

The speaker was Dr. Doak S. Campbell, new president of Florida State College for Women, who addressed about 700 northeast Florida school teachers here. After the war, Dr. Campbell said, the taxpayers soon will get tired of high taxes and will seek to cut expenses. "We all know," he added, "that the teaching profession will be one of the first to be attacked in the way of salary reductions."

Egg Prices Jump To 12-Year Peak

CHICAGO, Nov. 1.—(AP)—Egg prices rose $2 to 1 cent a dozen Friday in the wholesale market to new October peaks for 12 years and longer.

Traders at the Chicago mercantile exchange said seasonally declining output, improved demand and government buying for export purposes were responsible for the upturn.

Evacuation Of Rostov On Don Is Reported

Germans Claim Crossing Of Donets River Against Fierce Russian Resistance

Russia was reported to be evacuating Rostov-on-the-Don today as the Axis smashed within 10 miles. The Germans claimed they were crossing the Donets River above the city and that the Axis drive on Sevastopol was continuing with the Russians putting up a fierce resistance.

Berlin claims bombers destroyed 31,000 more tons of British shipping and Rome claims British raiders were intercepted and two were shot down. British raided western Germany, Dunkerque and Boulogne and added to the loss of six bombers.

The London Evening Standard says Hitler declared war on the U. S. by sinking the Reuben James.

In the Far East the newspaper, Nichi Nichi, declares Japan will get oil by extraordinary means, even if dangerous.

Hitler's major offensive upon Moscow came to the end of its first month last night with an apparent sharp decline in power, but there was much to indicate that in the far south the German drives still were generally unopposed.

At the center, where the weary Nazi armies still stood well short of the capital, Soviet dispatches declared German attack had fallen to mere local attacks in all sectors save for the Volokhonski area some 65 miles from the north-west, where fighting still was reported heavy. Of that which threatened the German high command significantly continued to utter silence.

Put in the south, where the time the Soviet command was silent, the German, claimed, Russians were in retreat on two major fronts—southward into the Crimean Peninsula and eastward into the Donets basin in the area about and above Rostov-on-Don River Don.

Just where the invaders stood was not stated in either instance, as to Rostov, it seemed most likely that they were near a very serious and thus close to the Russian Caucasus.

All this suggested the likelihood and the last decision of Moscow might be long delayed, perhaps even through the winter. It was putting all his pressure on the south in an effort to reach Caucasian oil, block British-American supply routes running up from Iran and the Crimea, to knock out the greatest southern Soviet railway base at Sevastopol.

It seemed possible, in fact, the current disposition of the offensive against Moscow might be forced in part by the shifting of forces southward.

Another Destroyer Attacked

Whether the United States should sever diplomatic relations with Germany over the sinking of the Reuben James with possibly a considerable loss of life is a technical problem left to the State Department. Whether the United States should declare war on Germany as a result of this incident is for Congress to decide, with, we hope, the advice of Army and Navy chiefs.

But the people of the United States can not be denied the privilege of condemning the German government for this action and of hoping for sure and swift retaliation. The people of the United States do not recognize the right of the German government to tell them where they may, or may not, send their warships, or to sink them if Nazi orders are disregarded.

It is true, apparently, that the Reuben James was operating in a zone which Hitler had restricted from foreign shipping. But our government, while prohibiting its ships from most belligerent waters in an effort to avoid incidents of this kind, had not recognized the German zone. There is no reason why it should have, any more than Hitler would if the situation had been reversed.

The United States has a perfect right to send its warships, or its merchant ships anywhere in the world, in the interest of peace we may ourselves restrict the waters into which they may go, but to give to some other nation this right would be a sacrifice of sovereignty which no self-respecting power could endure. If Germany could limit the movement of our warships by so much as a single mile, it could force us to tie them up in drydocks.

We are inclined to agree with President Roosevelt that there is no particular reason for getting excited over the sinking of this destroyer, or over the torpedo attack on the Kearny. This is just the sort of thing we might have expected from the Nazi government. We may well expect more of the same sort of thing. And infringements on the rights of this nation right well have been expected, no matter what foreign policy our government might have pursued.

This clash between the Reuben James and a Nazi submarine, if it was a submarine, is but indicative of the larger clash between the whole Nazi political and economic systems and those of our own. It was inevitable that they should meet head on. Hitlerism and democracy are so incompatible that they cannot both endure in the same world. From the very beginning it has been evident that one or the other must go under.

The Nazis have drawn the first blood. The fight is on, whether we call it war or not. But the battle is not decided by the first blood that is split, nor will the loss of a single destroyer determine the outcome of this conflict. The Germans will pay, and pay dearly, for the loss of every American life.

Winter Lawns

Not all of us have our lawns up to that standard where, with a little water and fertilizer, they can be kept green through the winter. There is nothing that adds as much beauty to a city's residential district as well kept lawns. If your lawn as it is now cannot be kept green this winter, you can sow Italian ryegrass seed any time during the next eight weeks and be certain of a green velvety sward through the months of the cold period.

Agronomist Stokes of the Florida state experiment station, says that two or three weeks before sowing Italian ryegrass seed it is a good idea to broadcast from 15 to 20 pounds of a complete fertilizer on each one thousand square feet of lawn and water it in well. After sowing the Italian ryegrass, cover the lawn with a light layer of good soil and water well until the seed germinates. The new grass should not be mowed until it has grown several inches and has begun stooling out.—Bradenton Herald.

Mid-Year Finds Nation Geared To Production Never Known Before

By CLAUDE A. JACQUE, NEW YORK, Mid-1941 finds America's vast industrial machine shifted into high gear with 20 percent to nearly 50 percent for defense, and absorption in both Washington and Detroit expect the cut may be much deeper. The War Department has suggested 50 percent.

But the production men say there is an enormous amount of "give" in the vast economy of the United States, that by "stimulation" simply "over" capacity, a tremendous use of business resources, a result may be achieved. Donald M. Nelson, OPM purchase director, said June 19 that production capacity for defense could be increased by 25 percent, "or perhaps even by a third" by "stimulating the variety of civilian goods."

Therefore, for the remainder of 1941, business men expect: 1) Rapidly increasing pressure to boost production of war supplies, including everything needed from ships to shoes. 2) Shortage of some materials, leading to rationing of some of them. 3) Shortage of some materials, leading to rationing of some of them.

Mid-1941 sees America coming to grips with a wartime economy and coming to grips with it with a constantly changing conception of what it means.

A year ago, France had fallen, and a couple of billions of Americans were wondering what the future held for them.

The Army has taken over the... plant. This... will...

"ENGLAND EXPECTS EVERY MAN, ETC."

and demands better prices for his produce. The manufacturer insists that as his costs rise he must get better prices.

Cost of living for wage earners, as shown by the Industrial Conference Board index, had risen through May only 2.6 percent over a year previously by sensitive raw material prices, particularly foods and imported staples, have shown a sharp boost. The Associated Press daily index of 35 wholesale raw staple prices, shows a jump of more than 20 percent.

Although business profits mounted with the big volume of the early months of this year, Wall Street as reflected in the margins are in for a squeeze as stock market, feels that profit keep the lid on prices.

In the first quarter of 1941, a tabulation by the Federal Reserve Bank shows 441 corporations had aggregate net profits 16 percent higher than in the first three months of last year. Even in this showing, however, profits did not come even close to keeping pace with the increase in business volume, and Wall Street's feeling that profits are in for a further check is clearly indicated in the fact that share prices, on the average, are about where they were a year ago. And this is despite the fact that industrial activity, as shown by the Associated Press weekly index, is up more than 20 percent.

Financing of the defense effort has continued at low credit rates, with U. S. Government bonds selling at levels to yield a percentage of less. The billions of spending, present and prospective, brought momentary twinges of inflation fears in financial circles from time to time, but some banking authorities pointed out that much has been learned about monetary control since World War I, and that even in England, despite the far-reaching development of her economy, wholesale prices have risen only about 40 percent, and the government's bonds are held at such good prices as to yield only around 3 percent.

What proportion of the defense cost cost will be met with taxes and how much by increasing dependence upon what Congress does with the new tax bill, but some will Treasury officials of bonds continue to be heavily subscribed. The likelihood of an effort to finance by selling government bonds is not likely to be a dividend, rather than by in reliance of activity of 1941.

It is expected that the new tax bill will be passed by the end of the year, and that it will be a significant step in financing the war effort.

The new tax bill will be a significant step in financing the war effort.

S. Shindolger, Br. teaching the Mission study book, "A Christian Imperative, Our Contribution to World Order."
As an introduction to the book which is the Fall study book, written by Roosevelt P. Barnes, Mrs. Shindolger stated that "Mr. Barnes is a statesmanlike, gray-marshaled Christian resource and Christian organization, with the church having the responsibility of spreading the attitude and spirit of concern for all mankind."
"The missionary movement is the embodiment of this concern and the best means of extending it," Mrs. Shindolger continued. "No one should be apologetic about missions any more, but put heart and soul into this cause, for it is the hope of the world."
The last four chapters of the book will be taught at the annex next Thursday, Nov. 6, at an all-day meeting beginning at 10:00 o'clock and lasting until 3:00 o'clock. A covered dish luncheon will be served at noon.
The table at which the guests were seated for the luncheon which was served at the noon hour carried a patriotic theme, with the globe of the world for a centerpiece surrounded by miniature flags, from which red, white and blue streamers trailed to the ends of the table. At intervals along the long table were small flags of other nations. Fall flowers including asters and marigolds formed the floral decorations.
The menu consisted of Italian spaghetti, American salad, Wisconsin chowder, China tea, American pumpkin pie and Brazilian coffee. The different foods of the nations were placed upon separate tables which were decorated to represent the country from which they came.

An exchange declares we are going to have a "bumper season" this winter. That might be a good time to increase the bumper signs hung on automobiles.

If anyone thinks that President Roosevelt's persistent opposition to Hitler and everything he stands for is getting us into war, how would they like it if we were working hand in glove with the Nazis?

The trouble with most children is their parents, and the trouble with most parents is their children, and so on until the blame is on Adam and Eve.—Key West Citizen. They should be severely spanked.

The Germans are said to have lost 20,000 men in the Crimean battle alone. If one-tenth of that number of losses were suffered by the Nazi army, it is going to need a number of blood transfusions before launching their next campaign.

Declaring that "Bolla is a cure," the Rustic Lake Region veterans "who some civic conscious organization doesn't look into ways and means of stopping the 'cur'—a greatest current 'killing' disease." Maybe they play it too.

WEAR AND TEAR... Life Insurance Examiner: "I don't think I can give you. You've all worn out. What's the matter?"

Manuel's complaint that the United States is waging an undeclared war against the Axis, that was the reason, however, that he went into Germany and never good words standing by the Axis when they were defeated.

The Army has taken over any business plant. This is the first time since the war began that the government has taken over a business plant.

Another Destroyer Attacked

Whether the United States should sever diplomatic relations with Germany over the sinking of the Reuben James with possibly a considerable loss of life is a technical problem best left to the State Department.

But the people of the United States can not be denied the privilege of condemning the German government for this action and of hoping for swift retaliation.

It is true, apparently, that the Reuben James was operating in a zone which Hitler had restricted from foreign shipping. But our government, while prohibiting its ships from most belligerent waters in an effort to avoid incidents of this kind, had not recognized the German zone.

The United States has a perfect right to send its warships, or its merchant ships anywhere in the world. In the interest of peace we may ourselves restrict the waters into which they may go, but to give to some other nation this right would be a sacrifice of sovereignty which no self-respecting power could endure.

We are inclined to agree with President Roosevelt that there is no particular reason for getting excited over the sinking of this destroyer, or over the torpedo attack on the Kearny. This is just the sort of thing we might have expected from the Nazi government.

This clash between the Reuben James and a Nazi submarine, if it was a submarine, is but indicative of the larger clash between the whole Nazi political and economic system and those of our own.

The Nazis have drawn the first blood. The fight is on, whether we call it war or not. But the battle is not decided by the first blood that is split, nor will the loss of a single destroyer determine the outcome of this conflict.

Winter Lawns

Not all of us have our lawns up to that standard where, with a little water and fertilizer, they can be kept green through the winter.

Agromist Stokes of the Florida state experiment station, says that two or three weeks before sowing Italian ryegrass seed it is a good idea to broadcast from 15 to 30 pounds of a complete fertilizer on each one thousand square feet of lawn and water it in well.

Mid-Year Finds Nation Geared To Production Never Known Before

By CLAUDE A. JAGGER... NEW YORK, Mid-1941 finds America's most industrial machines shifted into high gear with production experts frantically devising newer changes and other devices designed to speed production to a pace never before known of in this machine age.

Already, the nation's great mills and factories are pouring forth a grisly larger than in the wanted peacetime "new era" of 1939, far larger than during the frantic war effort of 1917, yet the cry is more, more, and faster.

The first half of 1941 has seen the arms program move out of the blueprints into the production stage. Emphasis has swung from new arms plants to the gigantic problems of supply.

The government is swinging its controls over an ever-widening orbit to assure the arms makers of adequate steel, copper, rubber, to make sure that there will be no needless diversion of any of the resources of the nation to the production of civilian goods.

Mid-1941 sees America coming to grips with a wartime economy and coping to grips with it with a constantly changing complexion of what is made.

A year ago, France had fallen. President Roosevelt had called for a couple of billions additional arms appropriations. A Mobil Act had called for a 50,000,000-man navy. But the country was still in a peacetime mood.

The Army has taken over any business plant. This is the first time since the war began that the government has taken over a business plant.

and demands better prices for his products. The manufacturer insists that as his costs rise he must get better prices.

Cost of living for wage earners, as shown by the Industrial Conference Board index, has risen through May only 2.6 percent over a year previously, by sensitive raw material prices, particularly foods and imported staples, have shown a steep boat.

Although business profits mounted with the big volumes of the early months of this year, Wall Street as reflected in the margins is in for a soberer stock market, feels that profit keep the lid on prices.

In the first quarter of 1941, a tabulation by the Federal Reserve Bank shows 441 corporations had aggregate net profits 16 percent higher than in the first three months of last year.

Financing of the defense effort has continued at low credit rates, with U. S. Government bonds selling at levels to yield 2 percent or less.

What proportion of the defense cost will be met with taxes and how much by borrowing depends upon what Congress does with the new tax bill, but undoubtedly Treasury offering of bonds will be heavily oversubscribed.

The government is swinging its controls over an ever-widening orbit to assure the arms makers of adequate steel, copper, rubber, to make sure that there will be no needless diversion of any of the resources of the nation to the production of civilian goods.

Celery Fed Gridders Lose To Strong Orlando Team By One-Sided Score, 35-0

An outclassed Sanford team fought valiantly against the powerful Orlando Tigers here last night but were driven continually backward as the visitors won 35-0. It was a heartbreaking game for the Feds who have been pined all season for this one contest and had worked hard for weeks to perfect their play for the all-important game. On the offense it appeared that Orlando had twice as many men on the field as Sanford when massive interference ran ahead of the Tiger ball carriers, shedding would be tacklers, and on the defense the Celeryes held a wall against the charges of the Fed ball leaders. Billy Brann played the game hard all the way. His spirit inspired his teammates but it took more than spirit in the game last night, for spirit can't win a game. Orlando was in on the defense playing strongly while Sanford and Trunk tried hard to plug up a leaking line. Only one scoring chance was seen by the locals, resulting from a bad kickoff in the second quarter. Two passes to lanky "Butcher" Herring from Brann gained about 17 yards to carry the ball to the Tiger 18 yard stripe but here the drive bogged down and the locals failed to score. Herring, Odham, Fleming and several other linemen played a creditable game on the defense but their play was not good enough to halt the steam roller. Leroy Hoquist carried the game for the Tigers to show fans his assets as a candidate for a place in the all-state football field. His sweeping ground and off tackle behind interference baffled and baffled the Fed defense. Ground, W. Hook and Lee were rough against the Tiger. Scoring a 115-yard man running along with the ball picking up yards, amazed the 4,000 fans and little Hook was hot. The first score of the game came when Hoquist took a Sanford kick twisted from the 30 yard line and threw two more plays carried the ball to the Sanford nine where the Tiger made their own break on a fumble that was picked up by Lee who raced around and scored. Butta kicked the extra point to put the score at 7-0. Two scores came in the second

Sinkwich Versus Harrison Features Jacksonville Game

GAINESVILLE, Nov. 1.—(Special)—University of Florida football fans will have their own yardstick to judge Frankie Sinkwich, when the Georgia All-American candidate meets the Fighting Gators for the first time in Jacksonville's Municipal Stadium next Saturday at 2:30 P. M. In Tommy the Red Harrison, the slender senior left halfback from St. Louis, Mo., the Orange and Blue has his best tailback since All-Southern Walter Mayberry, and observers throughout the Peninsula State are awaiting his meeting with "Fireball" Nankie. Next week's classic has drawn the greatest advance sale in the history of the series. Probably less than 100 reserved seat tickets for the game remain on sale today, leaving only the approximately 3,000 general admission seats still available. A record crowd may therefore be on hand for the proceedings in connection with the distribution of literature under Congressional frank.

George Hill

George Hill, secretary to Rep. Hamilton Fish of New York, was released on bond in Washington after he was indicted on two counts of "corrupt perjury" in connection with the Grand Jury's investigation of foreign propaganda agents. Hill was questioned in connection with the distribution of literature under Congressional frank.

Daley, who starts at Smith's halfback post, is expected to be the kicking chore with Barnasa, brilliant sophomore signal caller. Coach Bernie Bierman was expected to start Warren Plum at quarter, Daley at left half and Garnasa at right half and J. Sweiger at fullback. With Smith and Daley to right half, Daley to fullback and Garnasa to quarter, Minnesota's line will miss. Kema, a brilliant forward on offense or defense whose place is taken by John Hillman in addition, the Gophers won't get the fulltime services of O. who will be wearing a knee brace if he gets into the engagement. His starting place was expected to be taken by Ed Lechner, a round senior. The weather forecast said it would be clear but hinted at possibility of a rain or snow settled ground. Heavy snow would aid the Gophers, who'll have a weight advantage, with Gophers were ready to aid Northwestern's on an attack by round Otto Graham and De Corvont, both able runners and passers.

Titles At Risk As Battered Gophers Meet Northwestern

By FARE HILGEMAN. Associated Press Sports Writer. MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Nov. 1.—Minnesota's football machine today battered but still on the Big Ten and a third championship high, will play its home on "paper pants" to try to win the title. Northwestern's title-hopeful Wildcat. The report on the physical condition of the Golden Gophers is that the team's condition is not so good as it appears. The team is expected to throw invaders off guard. Missing from the start of the day's play is the star of the latest crowd in Gopher history. It will be Capt. Bruce Smith, brilliant halfback and team parking, Hebe Pukema, honor back, and Tackle Urban Olson. Of the four, only Smith and Olson were expected to enter the battle. The Big hope of an unexpectedly good Minnesota fandom is that replacements will carry on in the style which has seen the Gophers sweep four games this fall to run their undefeated string of 13 straight. Smith is expected to be run in when a scoring chance comes up, but a twisted right knee will rob Minnesota of a great kicker, Bill practicing sessions today. Commenting on the forthcoming grid, the campus news writer said: "The question is can youth and freshness triumph over age and deception?" Among other highlights of the Freshman Day program will be the annual tug-of-war between freshmen and upperclass men students. Outcome of the tug-of-war will decide whether the first-year boys must continue to wear their rat cap headgear for several additional weeks, according to sponsoring committee members' reports.
