Woman's Club

Notes From All Departments Of The Sanford Woman's Club

Woman's Club Reception

Tuesday afternoon the first large so-far function of the winter season was given at the Woman's Club, when the Social Department of the club entertained the members of the whole club at a beautiful reception.

The reception room was artistically decorated and the club colors, red and green, used exclusively. Ferns and pot plants, among which were intermingled a variety of red cut flowers filled every space. From the center chandelier and surrounding the light was a large red basket, filled with asparagus ferns and red flowers, making a beautiful soft red light. The room was darkened and the numerous red candles lighted, making the scene a lovely one.

Receiving the guests were Mrs. John W. Dickins, president of the club, beautifully gowned in yellow crepe, with trimmings of old lace and gold fringe, and wearing the club flowers, red roses; Mrs. C. O. McLaughlin, chairman of the Social Department, wearing a very handsome costume of black and white embroidered net with trimmings of cerise velvet; Mrs. R. J. Holly daintily attired in a becoming gown of white chiffon over pink charmeuse; Mrs. Robert A. Newman in an elaborate toilette of lavender marquisette over yellow messaline, with trimmings of black and gold.

The club hostess was Mrs. Junie H. Rounhill, who wore a pretty costume of white lace over lavender silk. Mrs. E. B. Brown presided at the tea table and was prettily dressed in lavender crepe de chine. Assisting the hostess were Mrs. Alfred Lilja, in white marquisette, Mrs. A. W. Fitts in white lingerie, and Mrs. Deane Turner in a white embroidered dress. The young ladies serving the delicious sandwiches and coffee were Miss Florence Frank, wearing a pretty blue charmeuse and Miss Elizabeth McLaughlin with a handsome gown of amethyst velvet with drapery of amethyst chiffon, and Miss Mable Hand in white lingerie.

During the receiving hours scores of handsomely gowned women called at the club rooms, and an air of cordiality prevailed that made this first social affair of the Woman's Club a most charming one.

During the reception the following beautiful musical program was given and greatly enjoyed by all present. Mrs. R. E. Tolar was in charge of the program.

Vocal Solo, Tomorrow, Miss Mary Gaines; accompanist, Miss Florence Frank.

Encore, Were My Songs with Wings Provided.

Piano Solo, Vox Populi, Miss Margaret Davis.

Violin Solo, The Barcarolle, from Tales of Hoffman, Mrs. Powell; Mrs. McComb accompanist.

Encore, Lion du Bal.

Vocal Solo, Necklace of Love, Mrs. Powell.

ELECTIONS HELD IN MEXICO WERE FARCES OF RANK SORT

SOLDIERS VOTES WERE ALL FOR HUERTA

GEN. DIAZ FEARS FOR LIFE

IS ASKED TO RESIGN COMMISSION AND COME TO CAPITAL BUT REFUSES TO MOVE

Mexico City Oct. 26.—The elections promised by the Provisional President General Huerta were held Sunday and there was no semblance of order in any quarter of the city.

The polling places opened at 9 o'clock in the morning and remained open until noon, when the inspectors closed the booths until 3 o'clock in the afternoon for the midday meal.

The Federal officials seemed to be a representative class clerks, business men, small employes and shop keepers. So far as could be ascertained, no government employes served.

Ballot boxes consisted of all sorts of receptacles from a pasteboard shoe box to a plush-covered jewel casket, or a glass jar borrowed from a neighbor.

Manuel Galero, liberal candidate, who was once ambassador at Washington did not vote. Instead he took the staff and went to the country.

Senor Gamboa, candidate of the Catholic party, cast a ballot for Senor Galero. Neither of these delegates cared to make an expression as to whether a sufficient number of ballots had been deposited to make an election.

The last shred binding General Felix Diaz and General Victoriano Huerta was severed today when General Diaz telegraphed to the Department of War his commission of brigadier general.

The new directory will be ready about December 1st. E. U. Bourke has charge of this publication. This is a splendid advertising medium and is used daily throughout the whole year.

Ladies' Fancy Work Circle met at the home of Mrs. D. A. Caldwell last Thursday afternoon. After spending the time pleasantly with their fancy work, the hostess served to her guests banana salad, wafers and coffee.

The Ladies Union of the Congregational Church will hold a rummage sale in the new Leffler Block on Sanford Ave. every Saturday in November.

MORE ABOUT JAPANESE

DISTANT FLORIDIANS INTERESTED

Florida Society of California Afraid of Asiatic Invasion of the South

Resolution passed and approved by the undersigned committee appointed by the Florida Society of Southern California relating to the invasion of Florida by Japanese under the guise of colonization:

Be it resolved by the Florida Society of Southern California that we deplore the action accredited by the press to ex-Governor William S. Jennings of Florida in his activities to dispose of his land holdings in said State by lease or otherwise, to Japanese refugees from California thereby as we believe establishing a national and a State menace within the borders of the commonwealth that has put him its highest tribute.

Be it further resolved that we commend the patriotic and manly expression of Hon. Frank Clark who in so promptly addressing Governor Park Trammell to the effect that Florida soil may not be made the nucleus of intrigue against white citizenship.

We feel that our knowledge of the Japanese question on the Pacific Coast and our regard for the fair name of Florida makes it both a privilege and a duty to place the citizens of the State in a position to know the facts.

We represent to the citizens of Florida that wherever the Japanese have infringed upon the Domain of the Caucasian it had only been a question of time until protest has formulated into a demand for exclusion.

We recognize the importance to Florida of large immigration but we desire to show to her citizens that the Japanese are not of the same social, spiritual or moral fiber of our white race; that the whites and the Japs can never fraternize or blend; that while the Jap will temporarily perform manual services at the same time demands recognition as a social equal, as evidenced by the public opinion poll of the State.

We believe that Japanese colonization in Florida, while muring to the immediate profit of some through the sale of land, will inject into the State an element of race discord beside which her present race problem is elementary.

If you will maintain and build up your present high standard of citizenship; if you would permanently increase your land values by securing a population that will blend and amalgamate; if you stand for the Florida of tomorrow and the future integrity of the American government, you will make the demand for anti-Japanese legislation so insistent that your Governor will hearken to the suggestion of Frank Clark for a special session of the legislature to pass an alien land law, similar to the recent California enactment.

This society invites inquiries from Floridians interested in this question. We know the facts and will gladly impart them to you.

Done by order of the Florida Society of Southern California and ordered sent to the Governor of Florida and her representatives in Congress this 11th day of October, 1913. Committee: R. L. Summerlin, R. R. Snowden, H. A. Marks, A. M. Hadley, Mrs. L. I. Bonine, Attest R. L. Summerlin, president; H. A. Marks, secretary pro tem. Address: 812 California Bldg., Los Angeles, Cal.

LAKE MONROE TO BE BULKHEADED CITY COUNCIL SHAPES PROJECT

GREATEST WORK IN MODERN HISTORY OF CITY

ORDINANCE IN THE HERALD

CALLS FOR BIDS ON THE BULK-HEADING OF LAKE MONROE WORK WILL START SOON

The following ordinance appears in The Herald: "An Ordinance Requiring the Bulkheading of Lake Monroe and the Reclamation of Land in Front of all Property Bordering Upon Lake Monroe Between the East Side of an Unknown Alley Between Sanford and Cypress Avenues and the West Side of Myrtle Avenue in the City of Sanford, Seminole County, Florida, and Providing the Manner in Which Said Bulkheading and Reclamation Shall be Done."

The wording of this ordinance means little to the average reader of The Herald who does not live in Sanford but to the people here who have dreamed of this great work for many years and especially to the newspaper that has fought for this improvement for the past five years this final turning of the page that will spell success means much.

The bulkheading will extend from Myrtle avenue to a point below Sanford avenue which will practically take in the entire section of the city. The work will be undertaken in a sensible and business like manner and will be put down just as the streets and sidewalks have been by the city if the property owners cannot do so and the expense levied against the property.

The specifications are now in the office of the City Engineer Fred Williams and are most comprehensive in every respect. Mr. Williams is expected in this line of work and has given much of his time and attention toward completing the specifications in time for the ordinance to be printed at the same period and the contractors who are interested can see the plans in the city hall.

This bulkheading will be one of the greatest improvements that Sanford has ever attempted and will be far reaching in effect.

Tampa Boosters To Mobile

Passing through Saturday afternoon in a special Pullman attached to the A. C. 1 train arriving here at 2:50 p. m. were a delegation of Tampa boosters connected with the board of trade of that city. They were on their way to Mobile, Ala., where they will arrive at 4 p. m. tomorrow to take part in the Southern Congress there which convenes on Monday morning.

These boosters propose to show to the delegates to that convention that Tampa is very much on the map when it comes to future shipping trade by way of the Panama canal. They will also favor to secure the congress for Tampa next year.

There are twenty in the party and they are led by Frank C. Bowyer, president of Tampa's board of trade who was elected chairman of the delegation sent after the train pulled out of Tampa. L. P. Dickey was elected secretary of the delegation and Jack Lawes of the Tampa Times, was constituted publicity man.

En route to Sanford the entire party had some fun over the choosing of berths in the car. It was done by drawing numbers and as is usual in such cases, some of the fatter men in the party drew upper berths, while their thinner brethren drew lowers. There was some good natured swapping done afterwards.

In the party are the following: President T. C. Bowyer of the board of trade, Messrs. E. W. Monrose, D. S. Wells, W. G. Boring, Craig Phillips, P. G. Wall, H. E. Snow, C. E. Tufts, Philip Shore, A. J. Angle, N. W. Hensley, W. J. Chambers, John L. Branch, Jack Lawes, L. P. Dickie, A. J. Knight, J. H. Detwiler, C. H. Evans, T. L. Kern, Y. K. Boxley, W. N. Bartlett.

THE SEVEN HOUR TRAIN

ORLANDO NOW FLAG STATION

Coast Line Flyer Only Makes Three Stops on Trip

With only three stops scheduled in the 243 miles between Tampa and Jacksonville, the Coast Line's new "Tampa Special" will begin operating a week from tomorrow, making the run in seven hours. Palatka, Sanford and Lakeland are the only regular stops. Palatka for East Coast, Georgia Southern and Florida and the Coast Line's Florida Southern connection, Sanford for change of engines and Lakeland for the many connections centering at that point. Orlando and Kissimmee are shown on the time card as flag stops while Plant City will cause a hesitation in the schedule just in time to allow the train to pass a station and blow for the steam whistles crossing. The three regular stops will be from three to five minutes each in duration.

Southbound, the special will be No. 91 leaving Jacksonville at 7 a. m. and arriving in Tampa at 4 p. m. Northbound No. 92 will leave Tampa at 12:00 p. m. arriving in Jacksonville at 9:00 p. m.

Comparison between the Tampa Special and the Seaboard Limited, which is now operating on a six and a half hour schedule, but which will make the trip in six hours after January 1, is interesting.

The special, allowing a maximum of five minutes for the three regular stops will run 243 miles in six and three-quarter hours, at an average speed of nearly thirty-five miles an hour if no other stops were made. Taking into consideration full stops for crossing, taking a minimum of three minutes each in stopping and regaining full speed, and the usual stops for water and orders, the Special will have a running time of nearly fifty miles an hour.

The Limited will have seven scheduled stops on its six hour run from Tampa to Jacksonville. It total time lost in making the seven stops does not amount to more than thirty minutes, a minimum amount of time the Limited will have an average speed of thirty-eight and a half miles in hour. This train also stops for railroad crossing, water and orders and when total lost time is deducted running time will equal if not surpass that of the Special.

Which train will make the fastest running time is a matter of speculation among local railroad men with the majority contending that the Seaboard will carry off the honors. In any event, some fast time will be made this season and every Jacksonville, Tallahassee and Gulf Breeze train will be watched with interest by railroaders and the public alike.

Tampa gains an additional train a day making a total of seven between this city and Jacksonville with the inauguration of the Special, the Coast Line running four trains each way while the Seaboard operates three.

In conjunction with the Special, the Coast Line operates another fast train, leaving Tampa at the present time at 11:15 a. m. in addition to two locals. The Seaboard operates two locals and the Limited, making it possible for a Tampa or Jacksonville business man to catch a train for either city at nearly any hour through the day. Tampa Tribune.

Big Cattle Man Here From Kentucky

Fred E. Hoerter, of Louisville, Ky., one of the Supreme Trustees of the Fraternal Order of Eagles, of the United States, and extensive cattle dealer was here Friday and Saturday looking after a small tract of land he owns near Fort Reed. Mr. Hoerter has been in most every State in the Union in connection with the cattle business, and speaking of Florida says: "There is no doubt in my mind that Florida will soon become one of the leading States in cattle raising, and is now ahead of some of the cattle raising states."

Mr. Hoerter was pleased with the Local Aerie of the Fraternal Order of Eagles, and says Sanford has one of the best Aeries in the South.

FROM ATLANTIC OCEAN TO GULF FT. MYERS TO FT. LAUDERDALE

CANAL IS NOW READY FOR STEAMER TRIPS

WILL ENHANCE TOURIST TRAVEL

OTHER NEWS OF INTEREST ABOUT THE STATE OF FLORIDA PUT UP IN TABLET FORM

Inland voyages through the tropical wonderland of extreme South Florida, traversing the peninsula from the Gulf to the Atlantic, will be afforded travelers after the middle of November. The Mims Line is going to put the stern-wheeler steamer "Swan" on a run between Fort Meyers and Fort Lauderdale. It will take the "Swan" two days each way to make the trip. Leaving Fort Meyers the steamer will nose her way up the Caloosahatchee river at Fort Thompson it will steam through the drainage canals to Lake Hickpochee, from Lake Hickpochee to Lake Okesechopee and having crossed that vast inland sea, will move through the canals to docks at Fort Lauderdale.

Hats off to the men who will give Orlando its first foot garden, where eighty-seven feet above ground the people can look down upon the forest-spread city, long nestled among its many sparkling lakes, take a stroll through palm and flower garden or enjoy the refreshments being served at the tables of the Orlando Reporter-Star. The fourth story of the big Yowell Dinkworth building is now going up and the Reporter-Star says that it has been determined to add a fifth story, the outer walls of which will be a brick and concrete parapet about three and a half feet from the roof. A large portion will be covered with a pergola and this will be made into a palm garden.

The Bradford County fair held at Lake Butler Friday and Saturday was a great success. The Times gave a full list of the prizes offered and the exhibits were interesting and numerous. A special feature was made of the work of the boys and girls' corn clubs and canning clubs and it was shown that the young folks of Bradford county had become properly enthused with the work planned and the showing made was most creditable. Some of the boys and girls were interested in the state prizes offered which will of course be awarded later and will be made in competition with all the counties.

The Tampa, Atlantic and Gulf railroad's contemplated "cross-state" line promises to carry all the products of the Everglades country to New York by the way of Tampa. It will "run into" Miami and from there will procure a right of way from Miami to the properties of the big land companies, will donate permits to run over the city streets, give dockage right, donate forty acres in the city for yards and pay a cash bonus. Miami should grasp the opportunity.

A party of winter residents is coming through from Massachusetts to St. Petersburg in thirty-eight automobiles and are expected to arrive here any time. They are from Boston or near there principally. Everyone in the party who has written to friends here has of their lives. This is believed to be the largest automobile party ever assembled to make such a drive through the country. St. Petersburg Note in Tampa Times.

The retirement of Bishop W. C. Gray form his work in the Episcopal church of Florida is a matter which many, even not worshippers in that church, deeply regret. For almost a score of years he has covered nearly all the state almost constantly—and his has been a familiar figure as hamlets grow into villages, villages to towns and towns to cities of importance.

Rice is being successfully grown at Seffner according to advice, W. W. Powell of that place having a fine crop which is heading most satisfactorily. This well known planter has also a fine crop of sugar cane and is demonstrating the value of lands in Seffner and that vicinity.

Architects from all parts of the South are visiting Tampa with a view to submitting plans for a new city hall which plans are to be submitted on the 2nd of December. The amount available for the erection of this building is $235,000.

TURKEY COMES NEXT

PRESIDENT'S PROCLAMATION

Designates November 27th as the Day For Thanksgiving

Washington, Oct. 27.—President Wilson has designated Thursday November 27, as Thanksgiving Day, and issued the following—his first Thanksgiving proclamation:

"The season is at hand in which it has been long our respected custom as a people to turn in praise and thanksgiving to Almighty God for His manifold mercies and blessings to us as a nation. The year that has just passed has been in a peculiar degree by manifestation of His gracious and beneficent providence. We have not only had peace throughout our own borders and with the nations of the world, but that peace has been brightened by constantly multiplying friendship of mutual sympathy and understanding, and of the happy operation of many elevating influences both of ideal and of practice.

"The nation has been prosperous not only, but has proved its capacity to take counsel amidst the rapid movement of affairs and deal with its own life in a spirit of candor, righteousness and comity. We have seen the practical completion of a great work at the isthmus of Panama which not only exemplifies the nation's abundant resources to accomplish what it will, and the distinguished skill and capacity of its public servants but also promises the beginning of a new age of new contracts, new neighborhoods, new sympathies, new bonds and new achievements of cooperation and peace.

"Righteousness exalteth a nation and Peace on earth and good will toward men are the true foundations upon which can be built the lasting achievements of the human spirit. The year has brought us the satisfactions of work well done and fresh visions of our duty which will make the work of the future better still.

"Now, therefore, I, Woodrow Wilson, President of the United States of America, do hereby designate Thursday, the 27th of November next, as a day of Thanksgiving and prayer and invite the people throughout the land to cease from their wonted occupations and in their several homes and places of worship render thanks to Almighty God.

In witness whereof I put hereunto, set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed. Done at the city of Washington this 27th day of October in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and thirteen, and independence of the United States, the one hundred and thirty-eighth.

Signed: WOODROW WILSON, By the President. W. J. BRYAN, Secretary of State. SANFORD GROWERS BUSY

Will Increase Cabbage Acreage to Largest of Years. Sanford, Fla., Oct. 24.—A conservative estimate of the crops now in fields shows cabbage 300 acres, celery 200, lettuce 125, cauliflower 50. There is considerable activity among truckers. Many are preparing ground for the largest crop of cabbage in the history of Sanford. While early indications pointed to a lesser acreage, it now look as if every available tillable acre will be cultivated. The celery crop will be increased heavily. Lettuce will be about normal.

The drought continues at Sanford and is retarding the setting of lettuce in fields. A portion of the plants set during the past two weeks have been badly damaged by the heat and drought. Many growers have plowed up early settings and reset; others have merely replanted. Indications point now to a light crop of early lettuce.

THE SANFORD HERALD

Published Every Tuesday and Friday Morning by THE HERALD PRINTING COMPANY R. J. HOLLY, Editor W. M. HAYNES, Business Manager

WE DON'T WANT WEAKLINGS

A town on the St. Johns river has a newly awakened board of trade, who has made resolutions to the effect that post cards and pictures of dead rattlesnakes and tame alligators keep many families from coming to Florida and ask that dealers in such cards sell no more at least not after their present stock is exhausted.

In the same column of the paper which published the resolution is an item telling how a fox strolled into town right up to the chief of police and a constable, and although it was Sunday night the officers procured some fox hounds and chased the varmint to the death.

Indians, drouths, grasshoppers, blizzards, cyclones, grizzly bears and bandits never kept the great West from being settled at a rapid rate and the settlement is still going on, although the West is being slandered every night of the year by lying moving pictures.

Boards of trade, instead of resolving a lot of tommyrot and assuming censorship over picture dealers and newspapers should turn their attention to real estate dealers.

Florida is settling up as fast as anyone can wish. We can afford to be content, to pick and choose our new citizenship. No one should be encouraged to come here unless he has enough means to make a good start.

MORE ABOUT SCHOOL BOOKS

The article about school books from the pen of Bro. Holly is a genuine good one and bears nothing but the truth from start to finish.

State uniformity was thought to be a good thing and it would probably be if we had good honest men to take hold of it and make it good.

were under the impression that it would cure all the defects in the school system but it has not.

The present state superintendent was a great advocate or claimed to be of this system especially at the time when he was wanting votes for the office he now fills.

The state of Florida has no FREE SCHOOLS. And will not have until some time to come or until the present school authorities have been buried under the sod of the political field.

State Uniformity is a good thing we believe. If it is properly conducted but nothing under Heaven will cure the evils of the high cost of books until they are purchased by the county or state and furnished to the children free.

Bro. Holly is on the right track at last and we hope he will stir up things a little and find the grafters and the men higher up who are responsible for the high cost of school books in this state.

ELOQUENT FIGURES

The Tribune recently printed a statement of the products of the Sanford section for the season of 1912-1913, which must have proved an eye-opener to every reader.

That one little section of this state produced and marketed crops to the value of $1,570,275 in one season is a fact that cannot be emphasized too strongly.

The "headlines" in this wonderful array of celery, of which the Sanford section produced 450,000 crates—nearly a half million—worth $675,000.

But the figures speak eloquently for themselves and the man who is from Missouri can easily be shown. We don't ask him to believe these facts on paper, but invite him to come down and see the stuff growing now.

TBE INCOME TAX

How does the income tax affect me? That is the question asked by millions of salary earners and persons of modest resources confused by the intricate provisions of the new laws.

John N. C. Stockton, candidate for the United States Senate, has announced positively that he intends to obey the Bryan primary law to the letter.

ALL ROUND NEWSPAPER MEN

Clarence E. Woods, the accomplished editor of the Eustis Lake Region, has made an inventory of the qualifications of an all round newspaper man and the following is the result:

An all round newspaper man should be able to write a poem, wring corn, discuss the tariff, umpire a baseball game, preach the gospel, beat a lawyer, report a wedding, saw wood, describe a fire, make one dollar, do the work of ten, shine at a soiree, address a horticultural society, measure calico, abuse the liquor habit, test whiskey, subscribe to charity, go without meals, sneer at snobbery, wear diamonds, invent advertisement overlook scandal, praise prize babies, delight pumpkin raisers, administer to the afflicted, heal the disgruntled, fight to the finish, set type, mould opinions, sweep the office, move the world, scorn the flesh and the devil, be everything, feel everything, see everything on his footstool at a small salary and support a family.

We have no idea, who the Lake Eustis editor had in mind when he assembled this formidable array of necessary accomplishments, but it must either have been Tom Appleyard, Rube Allyn or Bob Holly.

CARTER HAS QUIT

The Enterprise will not publish any more articles designed to convince any one of the value of good roads.

The other day we were arguing with a man upon this subject and explained how good roads would increase the value of his land.

However, we closed the debate at once by advising him to allow the good roads to come along, then sell his land at an increased value, and buy more cheap land back of the road, so far in the back part of the backwoods that his chickens would cross with the owls, and there live in seclusion and become a gink.

SOME ELECTIONS

Orlando is to have five elections in quick succession, the first city primary will be held November 3; the second November 10; the good roads bond election takes place November 11; the school bond election November 12, and the city election December 1.

SPEAKING OF GOATS

There is a man in our town, Our goat for sure he's got; He dumps all sorts of rubbish on His vacant corner lot.

There is a man in our town, Our goat he surely needs, He has some dandy building lots And lets them run to weeds.

The Presbyterian Brotherhood of this city knows how to get new members. They invite them to an oyster supper and the invitation says that a free and easy time and smoker will add to the cheerfulness of the occasion.

Sanford business men are discussing the building of a hotel in that city. The idea that at present finds favor among them is the erection of a building of about fifty rooms to be kept open through out the year.

The Reporter-Star and the Sanford Herald are carrying on a friendly comparison of Health Notes of the respective towns. The Herald sides up the Orlando doctors and undertakers.

The recent rains and the cooler weather have aided the smiling countenance of the celery delta. Already the growers can count on better prices, better products and better conditions than they could last week when the hot weather prevailed.

Salaries drawn from federal, State or municipal governments are exempted. The taxpayer may deduct from his reported income any losses incurred or interest on debts paid and any other taxes he may have paid during the year.

The citizen living with his wife who receives not more than $4,000 pays nothing. If he receives $5,000 net, he must pay one per cent. upon $1,000; that is to say $10, and a similar sum of $10 upon every additional $1,000 income up to $20,000.

The Eustis Board of Trade has wisely decided to invest in 5,000 copies of a special illustrated booster edition of the Eustis Lake Region to be distributed free on the booster train to Chicago. The paper will be issued next month—Times-Union. We agree with the Times-Union in toto.

Sanford's Commercial Club has decided to make a strong and decided advertising campaign this coming season. At a recent meeting a good sum was appropriated for the expenses of the campaign, which will include the issuing of printed matter, and other means of exploiting to the country the beauties and advantages of Sanford.

The Herald hereby appoints the Woman's Club as a committee of the whole to take up the matter of a new hotel in Sanford. The ladies of Clearwater assisted in raising the money for their new hotel and our ladies are alive to their duty here also and can always be counted upon to help improve Sanford.

I will be a candidate for the position of Mayor of the city of Sanford, subject to the decision of the White Man's Primary to be held on Tuesday, November 25, 1913.

It would be better for the cause of woman suffrage in America if the Pan-hurst tribe were to stay at home. To deport any of the name, however, is to make ill use of the immigration laws.

We were asked to write something about bad roads and had partially decided to do so until the man at the next desk suggested that the roads were just about as good as our automobile.

The next meeting of the Commercial Club will be held on November 4th. Every citizen who is not a member should enroll his name and be at the meeting that night.

The Commercial Club expects to raise $2,000 for a publicity campaign and the committee appointed to raise it is working full time. They will get the money.

Baptist Notes

Large audiences have attended the Baptist Church the last two Sundays. Our Pastor, George Hyman and family are now in the Pastorium, 610 Park Ave.

The Helping Hand Society will hold a party on Thursday night of this week. Seventeen of our members will attend the District Association at Tavares held Wednesday and Thursday of this week.

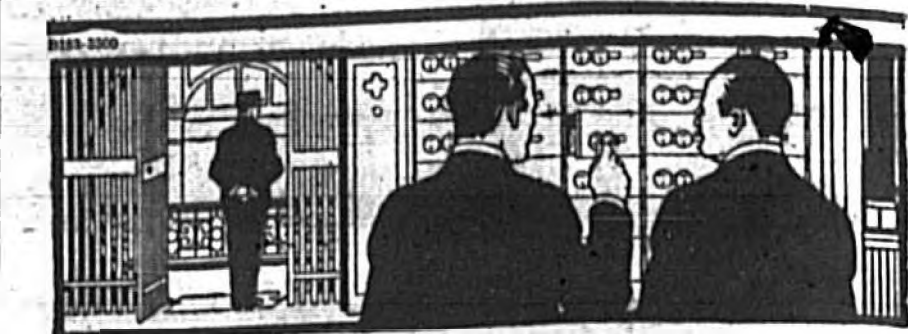

Mrs. J. D. Hood of Ga., Mrs. Gildere of Lakeland and Mr. and Mrs. George Hyman have united with the church. A piano is now used in the church and the music committee propose organizing an orchestra for Sunday evenings.

Newspaper Advertising

The commercial associations of De Land, Daytona and New Smyrna are making a request that the board of commissioners of Volusia county appropriate $2,500 for advertising what the county has to offer home seekers.

A mighty good idea. And the money need not be expended in a more profitable manner than in circulating their county newspapers. The newspaper is the backbone of advertising. What the person contemplating a change reads in a newspaper not owned or controlled by a land corporation or real estate firm sinks in deeper than any of the flowery language appearing in booklets that are for the express purpose of boosting and sometimes go a little too far in their efforts.

FLORIDA'S HEALTH RECORD

STATEMENT OF THE STATE BOARD OF HEALTH THAT IS OF VITAL INTEREST TO WORLD AT LARGE

How many people die in Florida every year?

What are the causes of death?

How many babies are born?

No one knows or has ever known, and the State Board of Health is trying to find out.

Is the information worth the trouble and expense it costs to get it?

Into Florida is pouring a stream of desirable home-seekers, who are staying here to help build up the State and make it even more prosperous. Hundreds of thousands of dollars have been spent to advertise every section of Florida, and hundreds of advertisers have claimed for their particular localities that they are the "most healthful" in the State, but not one of them has had the authority to back the statement. This is a fact, because only three cities and no rural community whatever, have or have had any officially accurate records of their vital statistics. These three cities are Pensacola, Jacksonville and Key West. These are the only communities whose records of births and deaths are accepted by the Federal Census Bureau as sufficiently accurate to be worthy of attention or to be incorporated in the published reports of that bureau.

The importance of accurate knowledge about health matters, as a part of the census reports has been recognized since 1880 by the Federal authorities. Through congressional enactment the matter has been brought to the attention of State authorities and the National Board has fixed certain standards of requirements in order to secure uniformity of reports from the various States. It has established what is known as the Registration Area, to which are admitted those States which are able to furnish the figures regarding births and deaths within their boundaries and guarantee them to be within ten per cent. of accuracy. It has provided also that those cities in the non-registration States, which keep their health records within the same degree of accuracy, may be admitted to the Registration Area.

So far, twenty-two States and the District of Columbia have been placed on this honor roll, besides thirty-eight cities in non-registration States, which include approximately sixty-three per cent. of the population of Continental United States. It does not include North Carolina, which although not within this registration area, furnishes under a State law, accepted records from all cities in the State having a population of one thousand or more.

It is to spread this movement in Florida that the State Board of Health is now making earnest efforts by the Acts of the Florida Legislature of 1899 (Chapter 4696) the Board was given the power to collect vital statistics through the municipalities of the State, and it has adopted the following plan:

Each city is to appoint a registrar who is to be paid twenty-five cents by the State Board for each birth and death reported to the Board; provided, that the standard forms of certificates adopted by the Federal Government, shall be used to make the reports, and these forms are furnished free of cost, that the original certificates of births and deaths shall be sent by the registrar to the State Board and that a copy shall be kept in the local municipal office; that this office shall be responsible for the accuracy of their records; that the number of births and deaths shall be reported within ten per cent. of accuracy and finally that all municipalities in Florida having a population of Two thousand or more, shall be qualified immediately to supply vital statistics to the State Board and that after being qualified, shall be admitted to the Registration Area of the United States. It is proposed next that all cities having a population of more than one thousand and less than two thousand shall be qualified, and eventually the entire State.

Of course, this plan requires the necessary legislation by the city councils of the municipalities to put into force its provisions, and it is this that the present efforts of the State Board are being made to secure. By the census figures of 1910, the latest available authority, there are twenty-eight cities in Florida of two thousand or greater population, including the three already named. They contain more than thirty per cent. of the population of Florida. Most of the cities which have not already done so, are qualifying to be admitted to the list. The law that has not taken the necessary action, are being urged to do so.

The employment of a registrar for each locality has been proved to be necessary. The lack of such an officer heretofore has been an important reason why the enactment of fourteen years ago has not been effective. A reward of twenty-five cents for a detailed report of each birth and death has not been sufficient inducement to secure from all the doctors in the State reports of their cases. Many deaths and births occur without an attending physician. The regis-takers have not been good reporters. Every birth and every death should find its place on the public records. Concentrating in one person, with suitable reimbursement, the duty of collecting reports from a given locality under authority of ordinance backed by public sentiment, will, it is believed, bring complete reports, certainly within the required ten per cent. of accuracy.

No law is enforceable, unless it is backed by public sentiment. No movement for the general good can be made a success unless its provisions are understood and demanded by the people whom it is to benefit. If any city or locality can claim, and advertise the claim, that it is an exceptionally healthy section, and back up the statement by figures accepted and endorsed by the United States Government, it has a tremendous advantage over those cities that can not quote such facts and figures and authority.

This is exactly what the State Board of Health is asking the people of Florida to do in securing. It needs only their co-operation, and the Board offers to pay all the cost. It needs the backing of public sentiment, of local boards of trade and chambers of commerce, to indicate to city councils that they are carrying out the wishes of intelligent citizens in adopting the necessary ordinances. For years patriotic Floridians have been claiming that their State is one of the most healthful in the Union, perhaps the highest in the list. Here is a chance to prove it.

BEAUTIFUL WEDDING PRESENT,

Trainmaster Marlow and Wife Presented With Chest of Silver

The popularity of Trainmaster Marlow was attested to by the employees last Saturday when a committee representing the conductors and trainmen of the Jacksonville division called at the Robbins Nest Hotel where Mr. and Mrs. Marlow are residing and presented them with a chest of beautiful silver.

The gift was presented by a committee consisting of Conductor Hamrick, and Trainmen Grow, Roller and Minor representing the conductors and trainmen. W. D. Grow made the presentation, and the gifts were almost overcome with the surprise it occasioned but Mr. Marlow replied in a speech of thanks to the donors.

The chest was a beautiful mahogany case filled with everything needed in the silver line for the table and Mr. and Mrs. Marlow will be reminded of "the boys" every time they take a meal. The gift was an ample expression of the esteem in which the Marlows are held by the men who make the wheels go round on the Atlantic Coast Line and will ever be a remembrance of the pleasant relations that exist between the trainmaster and the employees of the Jacksonville division.

Boquet for Thrasher

The race for Mayor of Sanford is of interest to us, for Sanford is the junction point for thousands of Northern tourists who come to Lake County, and stop from five minutes to a day or so in the Colony City. Therefore, if it were possible for the hundreds of Lake County friends of Hon. David Thrasher to cross over the line and support him, they would certainly be numbered with the majority he is sure to receive when Sanford's Mayoralty race is over. Sanford citizens who have the best interests of the capital of Seminole at heart should seize every opportunity to place their county seat on the highest pinnacle, and one way to attain that enviable position is to look well to the choice of the chief executive officer of their beautiful city. A close survey of Mr. Thrasher and knowledge of his past, warrants the statement that candidates of his worth and calibre all too seldom offer to give their splendid talents and unswerving characters to the service of their country.—Eustis Lake Region.

Big Poultry Show

Poultry, which in many states is becoming one of the greatest single money-producing industries, is taking a stronger hold upon the people of this section, so much so, that a large per cent. of the families have their small pens of layers, and are raising chickens for home use, while others are establishing poultry yards for commercial and breeding purposes. Recognizing this increasing interest and in an endeavor to further stimulate the industry, the Orange County Fair Association, which at its mid-winter exposition will be associated with the counties of Osceola, Volusia, Seminole and Lake, are making preparations for the greatest poultry exhibit ever made in this part of the state.—Reporter-Star.

THEIR LITTLE SCHEME

Lovers Take Time by The Forelock and Earn Honeymoon Money.

BY FRANK FILSON.

"But a whole year is an eternity, Muriel," pleaded Frank Crawford, as he bade good-by to his fiancée, Muriel Lee, upon the stoop of her boarding house. "Why have you so strong an objection to getting furniture on the installment plan? There are several perfectly reputable firms and it won't be such a great drain on our income."

Muriel was adamant. "My dear," she said for the twentieth time, "I won't start married life in debt. We've got to have two hundred dollars to begin to furnish our apartment. Now, you be patient, and I will be, and we'll each save up a hundred during the coming twelvemonth."

Frank went away disconsolate and Muriel went to bed and cried herself to sleep.

But on the next evening Frank was back, jubilant. In his hand he held a copy of the evening paper.

"Look, dear," he cried, thrusting it before her eyes. "Do you see this? Mumford & Curtis have promised a hundred dollars to the first one of their employes to get married. And Caber & Roche, not to be outdone, have made a similar offer. Now, then!"

"But, my dear boy, you aren't an employe of either firm," protested Muriel.

"No, but don't you know I can arrange to begin my vacation tomorrow morning? And those department firms always want help of some kind. Why, tomorrow morning I can get a position at eight dollars a week as a packer, and we'll get married at noon."

"Suppose they don't pay?"

"Of course they'll pay. Why, the newspapers will be full of the story. They won't dare go back on their agreement."

"But the newspapers!" said Muriel, pointing.

"But a hundred dollars!" said Frank. "Muriel darling, won't a single hundred do?"

"Well," said Muriel, after an interval of thought, "if you can really get that position I'll—I'll meet you at the marriage license bureau at half-past twelve. Which firm are you going to try?"

"You Want a Job?" Queried the Woman Superintendent.

"Mumford & Curtis," answered Frank. "I know a man in the packing department. He'll take me on."

"You're sure it won't be Caber & Roche?"

"Sure. Why?"

"Oh, nothing. I just wanted to know," said Muriel. And they spent the evening figuring out what a hundred dollars would buy. Frank Lee left her in high glee at eleven o'clock. On his way home he read and re-read the newspaper paragraph a dozen times, to make sure that he had not deceived himself.

His first act on awakening was to read it again. His second was to telephone to the office, asking that his vacation might be counted as commencing from that morning. To effect this was easy, for he was one of a large force of clerks in the big life insurance office where he was employed, and his work could easily be undertaken by others. Then he put on an old suit and went down to the big department store of Mumford & Curtis, which stands, as everybody knows, at Seventh avenue and Hollis street.

He had intended to apply to his friend, the assistant head of the packing department, but on second thoughts he decided that this might lay him open to suspicion. So he went, instead to the mailing department.

"You want a job?" queried the woman superintendent. "What can you do?"

"I've had some clerical experience," answered Frank. "I need a job in the worst kind of way," he added. "I'm willing to start in at anything so that I can get employment here." He had never spoken more truly.

"Well," said the superintendent, "I believe they want some addressors just now. Write your name on this piece of paper. That's all right. Now I'll take you to Mr. Briggs."

Yes, Mr. Briggs could use an addressor. But the pay was only eight dollars a week. However, there would be chances of advancement.

"Would you mind giving me a written engagement?" asked Frank glibly. "Just a line to say that I am engaged here, so that I can show it to my landlady, or to anyone who wants proof that I have a position?"

"He fell for it," Frank announced to Muriel later. "He tumbled right in. Well, I worked at full blast till noon. I had to work, Muriel, to keep from jumping up and shouting. And at the stroke of the hour I was up and out of the office and across the square and down town on a surface car—and here I am."

And Muriel, blushing divinely, entered the office of the marriage license registrar with him, and five minutes later they emerged, carrying the coveted paper that gave them the right to be made one, and stood up before the minister and were actually one. And then:

"Come along to Mr. Mumford," cried Frank, seizing his wife round the waist and waiting round the steps with her, to the amazement of passersby.

Twenty-five minutes later they were in the presence of the head of the great firm himself. Something about Frank's face, something in his attitude, had so impressed his secretaries, door keepers and office boys that he had passed them unscathed.

"Well, sir?" inquired Mr. Mumford, turning round in his chair. "Be seated, madam. What can I do for you?"

"You can hand me a check for a hundred dollars," answered Frank, blithely. "We were married this morning—and here's the certificate." He slapped it down before him.

"Bless me!" exclaimed Mr. Mumford. "This is very sudden. Are you Mr. Percy Higgins in the accounting department?"

"No, sir, I'm Frank Crawford of the mailing department."

"I never heard of you in my life," replied Mr. Mumford severely.

"I'm surprised at that," answered Frank, solemnly. "Why, Mr. Briggs engaged me to address envelopes this very morning."

"What? What? You were only engaged this morning?"

"I believe, Mr. Mumford, that your offer made no reference to length of service. Of course, if it was not meant I can obtain a position with Messrs. Caber & Roche." And Frank turned on his heel.

"Stop!" shouted Mr. Mumford. "Have you actually had the nerve to—Why, I'll have to offer a hundred dollars again if I pay you—if I pay you. Confound you, why didn't you play this trick on Caber & Roche?"

"I intended to them," spoke up Muriel quietly. "I worked there as a wrapper this morning in the brass goods department. We thought we'd get the money from you first and then hurry over there. You see, Mr. Mumford," she said, pleadingly, "we want to start our honeymoon this afternoon."

Mr. Mumford was choking with laughter.

"Jeffreys!" he called to his secretary. "Make out a voucher for a hundred dollars and take this lady and gentleman to the cashier's office. And say Jeffreys call up our advertising manager. I want to add something to our notice. And that," he added, turning to Frank, "will make Caber & Roche come through. A happy honeymoon to both of you!"

Story of the Nervest Doctor.

"Shortly after I started in practice," relates a physician on the Kansas side, "our next door neighbor came over to our house one evening and asked to use the telephone. He called a downtown doctor and asked him to come out at once. In a few minutes he was back to ask my wife to come over until help could reach them from the city."

"The M. D. having arrived, neighbor was back to request the loan of my case of instruments. The other doctor, coming without his emergency bag, was unprepared."

"I thought this the limit, but presently he made a fourth trip, bringing his small son along this time. He kindly pointed out the fact that having my own child to look after it would be less bother to have them both, as they could amuse each other."

"Is there a nervier case on record?" he challenged.

"One," replied the householder. "Agents make life miserable in our ward, but the most persistent one I have had to deal with recently was selling a door plate which read:

"'Positively No Agents!'"

Mean Thing.

They (of course were girls) were talking (of course in the nicest manner possible) about a third girl—a sexual friend.

"Yes," remarked one of them, "she quarreled with Jack, and returned all his presents."

"Oh, really? And I suppose he very naturally returned hers?"

"Every one of them," replied the other. "Why, he even went so far as to send her half a dozen boxes of face powder, with a note explaining that since he first met her he must have taken that much home on his coat"—London Opinion.

That Boy Again.

"Why, your hair is black, Mrs. Wagon."

"Of course it is, Johnny. Did you think it was some other color?"

"Yesum, 'cause I heard my father tell my mother that when Mr. Wagon stayed out late you got red-headed."

In your hand you hold a five-cent piece.

Right at the grocer's hand is a moisture-proof package of Uneda Biscuit. He hands you the package—you hand him the coin. A trifling transaction?

No! A remarkable one—for you have spent the smallest sum that will buy a package of good food; and the grocer has sold you the most nutritious food made from flour—as clean and crisp and delicious as it was when it came from the oven.

BROTHERHOOD HAS BANQUET

Presbyterian Young Men Enjoy Evening of Unalloyed Pleasure

The Brotherhood of the Presbyterian Church recently organized has grown to such proportions that the members decided upon having a monthly meeting where the members could gather for recreation aided by something to eat and that the best way to secure new members would be to feature that would appeal to them as nothing else. The Brotherhood of the Presbyterian Church is rightly named because a brotherhood in reality as well as in name. The members are both old and young and middle aged gentlemen who organized into a class where each Sabbath morning they congregate to listen to the bible lectures given by able teachers and the principal idea of the organization is to work for the upbuilding of the church in every way. Since the class has been organized it has grown by leaps and bounds and the interest is most pronounced.
A few days ago the annual election of officers took place, with the result that D. D. Caldwell, jr., was elected president for the ensuing year, G. P. Wyatt, vice president, Thomas K. Bates secretary and A. Kent Rossiter treasurer. Committees on the various lines of work were appointed with the result that the committee in entertainment gave a banquet to present and prospective members Friday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Dingee on Sanford Heights. Covers were set for forty and a sumptuous repast was served.
The guests began to assemble about 8 o'clock and by 8:15 they were invited to the feast. Covers had been prepared in such a way that the entire assemblage was seated at one time and they were served by the hostess, Mrs. Dingee, assisted by Mrs. Bull, Mrs. Peck, Mrs. Holly and Mrs. C. C. Woodruff. Invocation was performed by J. N. Whitner.
After the inner man had been satisfied with the abundance of good things cigars were passed and several impromptu addresses were made touching benefits which naturally accrue to the entire community by bringing together men who are imbued with a desire to help in the moral uplift of their community. Addresses were made by President Caldwell, J. N. Whitner, H. C. DuBoise, J. F. Karnats, R. J. Holly, G. P. Wyatt, Thomas K. Bates, A. K. Rossiter and others.
Those who attended the banquet were Robert Dean, Joel Field, Tenny Dean, Allen Scott, R. H. Muirhead, T. K. Bates, H. McLaughlin, H. R. Stevens, D. D. Caldwell, J. N. Whitner, C. H. Laffer, John Thomas, J. E. Terwilliger, E. H. Chittenden, R. H. Marke, Kent Rossiter, J. F. Karnats, A. K. Rossiter, W. H. Underwood, A. B. Wallace, Roy Chittenden, Wideman Caldwell, R. C. Maxwell, D. A. Caldwell, J. M. Gillen, Seth Woodruff, Joseph Chittenden, G. E. Hoff, J. D. Davidson, Ed. Hunter, A. E. Anderson, R. J. Holly, R. L. Peck, C. H. Dingee and H. C. DuBoise.

Don't Have Roaches In Your Home

They crawl through sewers and drains and come over dishes and tables and water jars, germs and a filthy poisonous odor.
Don't use a paste for killing roaches for roaches travel through it trail it about your home on their wings and legs, and the least speck of phosphorus past will kill a person. Many persons die in this way and his never known what killed them.
You do know that if a chicken eats an insect that has been killed with a paste, it is a dead chicken, and if a dog eats the chicken it is a dead dog, and if a hazzard eats the dog it is a dead hazzard.
Ashe's Roach Pepper
Contains no poison and has no odor, and our application will rid any home of all roaches, ants, bedbugs and other insects.

Coupon Law Unconstitutional

A temporary injunction has been granted against the collection of pay for licenses provided for in the coupon law, the three United States judges who recently heard the case in Huntsville, Ala., having unanimously declared that the Florida coupon law is unconstitutional.

Judge Rhydon M. Call, of the Southern district of Florida, one of the judges sitting at the hearing, wrote the opinion and pronounced the decision of the court.

The judges held that coupon giving is solely an advertising scheme, and has no vestige of a gambling nature.

The opinion is comprehensively brief and concludes as follows:

"We do not care however, to consider the question, whether the act violates the interstate commerce clause of the constitution. Having reached the conclusion that the section violates the fourteenth amendment, it is unnecessary that we consider the other grounds of constitutionality, alleged in the bill of complaint. It is, therefore, ordered that the interlocutory injunction issued as prayed in and by said bill of complaint.

A Chief is Among Ye Taking Notes and Faith, He'll Prent 'Em"—So Says Saunterer.

I happened to see some handsome views the other day of the Panama Canal that had been sent to Sanford by some one who was engaged in the work of digging the great ditch and the views excited my curiosity so much that I delved into the facts of the making of this great work with the result that the following "catechism" was evolved and the school children can use it for what it is worth:

What is the greatest engineering feat in the history of the world? The building of the Panama canal.

Who first planned and began the building of the Panama canal? Ferdinand de Lesseps.

What did the United States pay the French-New Panama canal company? Forty million dollars.

What great discovery made the building of the canal possible to the United States? The discovery that yellow fever was transmitted by the stegomyia mosquito.

Who heroically sacrificed his life to prove the truth of the theory? Dr. Jesso W. Luxner.

What seems almost as marvelous as the construction of the hotel itself? The sanitation of the isthmus by Col. W. C. Gorgos, ridding it of yellow fever and largely of malaria, due to the bite of another mosquito, the anopheles.

When did the United States take possession? In 1904.

To what man is the success of the canal chiefly due? To Col. George Washington Goethals, "The Benevolent Despot of the Canal."

How long is the canal? The entire length from deep water in the Pacific is about fifty miles. The canal itself is about thirty-four miles.

How deep will the water be, how wide the canal? From forty-five to eighty-seven feet from 500 to 1,000 feet across the bottom.

How will ships pass from one sea level to the other? Through great locks 1,000 feet long, 110 feet wide.

What are two of the great engineering achievements of the canal? The Cul-de-sac Cut through the mountains and the Gatun Dam a mile and a half on its crest.

When will the canal be formally opened? In 1915.

What will it cost? Four hundred million dollars.

How will the ships pass through the locks? They will be towed by electric locomotives.

What is the weight of the giant lock gates? From 300 to 730 tons each.

How many miles will be saved between New York and San Francisco? 7,873 miles. Between New York and Guayaquil—7,405 miles. Between New York and Callao 6,250 miles. New York and Honolulu—6,612 miles. Between New York and Yokohama—3,281 miles.

What effect will the canal have upon the American navy? Double its efficiency.

What effect will it have upon the cost of inter-oceanic transportation? Reduce it one-third.

If the Commercial Club does nothing more than it has already accomplished it will have served a splendid purpose for Sanford. It has prouced our business men to a responsibility of their citizenship and it has impressed upon them the necessity for united action. If the spirit which has prevailed here during the last two weeks could be kept alive year in and year out Sanford would more than double its population before 1920. You have seen business men out working for the interests of Sanford who never thought of giving time for the general good of the city. You have heard of property owners asking to sign membership slips, people who have heretofore waited until the last minute to be solicited and who have then shirked responsibilities if such a course were possible. You have seen factional differences forgotten and politics forced to the background during a consideration of the way and means to bring about a greater Sanford.

Perhaps it is too much to expect this general interest to continue at the high speed shown during the past fortnight, but I believe the Commercial Club is going to be pushed forward with real energy, guided by excellent judgment and that it will accomplish worlds for good for this community. Let us all feel that we bear a portion of the responsibility and that we have a duty to perform. There is enough work to do to require the services of every man in Sanford and if there is a single shirker in our midst the city will suffer to a certain extent.

Keep up the good work, and every E. C. McIlwain.

man in this neighborhood taking a hand. We will be surprised at the result even within a year's time.

John F. Sundell

John F. Sundell was born in Sweden Nov. 16th 1843. Died at Lake Mary Florida, Sept. 26th 1913. Thus almost rounding out the allotted span of three score years and ten. His boyhood education was received in the local schools of his boyhood home.

After his conversion in early life, he attended a Baptist Seminary in Sweden and then did evangelistic work there for some time.

In 1871 he came to America, setting in New Sweden Arrostock Me., where he continued his evangelistic work until he was ordained to the ministry and made pastor of a Baptist church in that place.

In 1872 he was united in marriage to Miss Mary, daughter of New Sweden. He removed from New Sweden, Me., to Lake Mary, Orange county, Florida in 1883.

He assisted in the organization of the Presbyterian church in New Upsala, Orange county, Florida and was installed as pastor Nov. 1st, 1891 and continued in relation with it until Oct. 20th 1906 when he asked and was granted release from the pastorate at Upsala. He then was stated supply of the Presbyterian church at Lake Mary from 1907 until his honorable retirement and placing on the board of relief in November, 1912. From thence it was less than a year until his spirit took its flight.

Rev. Sundell is survived by his widow, who is an invalid and advanced in years; by two daughters, Mrs. Aubrey Moran of Geneva Fla., Mrs. Samuel McBride of Lake Mary, and one son, Oscar D. Sundell.

Such in brief is the outline of the life of a servant of God who at the time of his departure and for almost a quarter of a century before was a member of our Presbytery, and a co-laborer with some of the present members. But how much is left unsaid of that which is known in the brief sketch, and how much more of the work that he has done that will not be known until the recording angel on the last day shall open his book and reveal the unknown.

Rev. Sundell was a true and faithful servant of God. He was a man of modest, retiring disposition and was disinclined to push himself forward, where he mistakingly thought that there were others more able to do the front rank work than himself, consequently his work will be found in the least promising and more humble places in the Master's vineyard yet he said that when special work was given him to do he always did it willingly and performed it faithfully and well.

He was a most pleasing personality. There was over the friendly smile the kindly, gentle word of greeting with the warm, cordial, expressive clasp and shake of the hand.

More or less serious and grave in manner yet gifted with a sense of gentle humor that seasoned his social intercourse and made him a genial and pleasing and entertaining companion. He was a man patient and uncomplaining under afflictions and trials. He remained faithful to the duties of his post under conditions that would have utterly discouraged the majority of his brethren.

And now that the All-Wise Father has willed to call our brother and co-laborer from us, let it be the desire and purpose of the Presbytery of Florida to place itself on record with the following statement:

Whereas The All-Wise, Loving Father has called from us to Himself our brother and fellow laborer, Rev. John F. Sundell, therefore,

Be it resolved, that we bow in meekness and submission to His divine will, though our hearts may be tinged with sadness because his seat will be missed;

2nd That in his taking away we are losing a brother and fellow worker who was tried and true in the place of work his and our Master called him.

3rd, That those of us who had the privilege of his companionship feel that we have lost and will miss a most kindly, genial, pleasant and loving friend, and that we mourn for the tie that is temporarily broken.

4th, That we as a Presbytery and as individual fellow workers and friends express to the bereaved widow and children, through a copy of this paper sent thereto our feelings of mutual love and our feelings of sympathy, and to commend them in this their time of bereavement and sorrow to the All-Wise, Loving Father, who doeth all things well.

5th That the stated clerk make record of this paper or so much of it as may be necessary in the place provided for such.

Done by the Presbytery of Florida, U. S. A. in session at Ft. Pierce, Fla., October 13, 1913.

Albert W. Pierce, Moderator.

Woman's Club

Notes From All Departments Of The Sanford Woman's Club

The regular business meeting of the Welfare Department of the Woman's Club was held on Thursday afternoon October 4th with twenty five members present. Announcement was made of the convention of the State Federation of Woman's Clubs to be held in Orlando November 4th to 7th.

The Committee on medical inspection for schools reported the interest of the School Board and Teachers, but nothing definite accomplished. The committee was retained to act with the Health Committee in an effort toward this end.

Mrs. A. E. Phillips reported on Colored Work that prominent persons in Georgetown had been approached in regard to forming a Welfare Department; that they had already organized a club in which they are taking up studies on sanitation. Their president promises to present to them the proposition of our Club and hopes they will give their co-operation in seconding the effort of the Welfare Department for bettering conditions in Sanford.

The Committee on Rest Room reported success in promises for monthly collections and had investigated several rooms but so far had failed to secure suitable quarters.

Special rules for governing discussion of programs were adopted. The interest of the meeting however, centered when the suggestion was made to set apart the third week in November as "Cleaning up Week," for the city and its environs, to be established as a yearly festival.

Like a spark thrown into a field of dry stubble, enthusiasm caught fire and the ladies saw a vision of a beautified Sanford. The response with which it has been met on the street and among the citizens, generally, bespeak what will happen.

The following committees were appointed to arrange for a systematic campaign.

Primary School, Mrs. Dunn
Grammar School, Mrs. Carrie Emerson

High School, Mrs. C. R. Walker

Communications to Council Hardware Dealers and Seed Houses Mrs. Staring

It is expected that every man, woman and child will take part in the good work. Ministers, teachers, doctors, City Council, Editors, lawyers, bankers, housekeepers and all other business people, librarians, railroad men, fire-fighters and others and indeed any others who live in or near Sanford. Full detail of plans as soon as completed, will be published in the Herald.

Let the Slogan be, "Sanford Clean, Sanford Beautiful"

This meeting was unavoidably so filled with matters connected with the Club's work that there was no time left for the prepared program which was postponed to a future day.

That these practical demands are engaging so much of the Departments time and attention is encouraging and proves the need for its existence while it also demonstrates the propriety of holding program and business meetings on a separate day. These details of the work are of the first importance and should receive all the consideration which they require; but doing the one we should not leave undone nor minimize the importance and advantage to the workers to be gained in closely following the program subjects outlined in our year book, which are really studies made from the most advanced and reliable sources of information along all the lines of thought and work which we are undertaking.

The Music Department of the Woman's Club held its meeting Saturday afternoon in the club rooms. Miss McKim had charge of the program which was as follows:

Paper, History of Operas in America—Mrs. T. A. Newlan.
Piano Solo, Bohemian Ladies (Eternal Waltz)—Miss Margaret Davis.
Three minute sketches:
American Writers of Serious Operas—Mrs. Gerror.

Hammer and Tong

Sanford and Orlando constituted a mutual aid society. Then Orange county was set off and Sanford became the capital of the county. Later Sanford was separated from Orlando from discharging the same into the ground, claiming that the same contaminate Sanford and Orlando supply. Orlando is now well supplied and the two towns now have a rivalry such as made Minneapolis and St. Paul famous. Not long ago the Orlando Reporter-Star gave Sanford the hammer and tongue.

"An automobile carried a banner which were painted 'St. Petersburg' large letters and containing a list of dozen men and women named through Sunday. Tied on the side of the machine were several shotguns and pistols and a tent. Those who were scattered out wondered if they were searching for gold or a lot of professional grave diggers. If they are the latter we suggest that they go to Sanford, where they could get better business than they would in healthy Orlando."

The editor of the Sanford Herald got as mad as a hatter over reading the Sanford, besides claiming everything in sight claims to be the healthiest city in the state. He immediately consulted his Orlando director and handed off the following:

"And yet there are thousands of people in Sanford and one understands that Orlando there are thousands of people, sixteen physicians, four hospitals and five drug stores. Healthy Orlando! Take a walk through the graveyard!"

Brothers, quit your maying. It would do for those who live in glass houses to throw stones. Starke Telegraph.

F. and A. M. Resolutions

It is with heartfelt grief that we are called upon to record the death of our beloved brother B. J. Mason, who died at his home in Wadesboro, N. C. Sept. 25th, 1913.

To many of the members of our lodge especially the older ones, his death was to affiliate with a brother when he lived among us, and he came to know him, the loss is a personal loss, and Masonry as well as mankind is now deprived of a noble and noble brother.

Our beloved and noble brother will no longer greet us in his place he vacant in our hearts. He died at his home in Wadesboro, N. C. Sept. 25th, 1913.

Resolved, that as an expression of our sorrow, that our flag be draped for thirty days in our minute book in honor of his memory, and that we extend to his bereaved ones our sympathy and love in this hour of their bereavement and be it so recorded.

That a copy of the minutes be presented to the bereaved brother, and that they be printed in the Sanford Herald and a copy be spread on the minutes of our lodge.
